This Same Prophet Of God, Elisha, Also Lied To Haza'el In 2Kings 7:10 Where It Says "Go Say Unto Him, Thou Mayest Certainly Recover: Howbeit The Lord Hath Shewed Me That He Shall Surely Die". Now, A Lie Is A Lie, Regardless Of Whether You Are The Prophet Of God, Or A Bum Standing On The Street Corner. Haza'el's Master, Ben-Hadad, King Of Syria Was Sick, So He Sent Haza'el To Elisha, To "Inquire Of The Lord By Him, Saying, Shall I Recover Of This Disease?". So God Allowed Elisha To Lie, Since He Received This Information From God Right. Elisha Informed Haza'el That He Would Be The Next King Over Syria In 2Kings 8:13, So He, Haza'el, Also Lied To Ben-Hadad And Told Him He Would Recover. The Next Day, Haza'el Takes "A Thick Cloth, Dipped It In Water And Spreads It On (Ben-Hadad's) Face, So That He Died (Mooth)" According To Verse 15. Haza'el Suffocated Ben-Hadad To Death Just To Become The King. If Elisha Didn't Let Him Know That He Would Be The Next King, And Let Nature Take Its Course, Then Haza'el Would Not Have Killed His Master.

Elisha, The Prophet Of God Also Incites The Next Mass Murders That Happen In The Books Of 2Kings. In 2Kings 9:6, Jehu, The Son Of Jehosh'aphat Was Anointed By Elisha Over Israel. He Is Told By One Of The Children Of The Prophets In 2Kings 9:6-10. That The Lord (Yahweh) God (Eloheem) Of Israel Wants Him To "Smite The House Of Ahab Thy Master, That I (The Lord) May Avenge The Blood Of My Servants The Prophets, And The Blood Of All The Servants Of The Lord, At The Hand Of Jezebel. The Dogs Shall Eat Jezebel In The Portion Of Jezreel, And There Shall Be None To Bury Her."

During Jehu's Reign As King Over Israel, He Kills Jehoram With A Bow That Goes Through His Heart (2Kings 9:24). He Kills Ahaziah, King Of Judah (2Kings 9:27), Then He Tells "Two Or Three Enuchs" In 2Kings 9:32-33, To Throw Down Jezebel From The Window, And It Says In Verse 33, "And He Said, Throw Her Down. So They Threw Her Down: And Some Of Her Blood Was Sprinkled On The Wall, And On The Horses: And He Trode Her Under Foot." Jezebel Was Trampled By Horses, And Her Body Was Left There, So That The Dogs Ate Her Flesh. The Only Remnants Of Her Body Was A Skull, Feet, Palms And Hands According To 2Kings 9:35. Remember, Jehu Is Doing All This Because God Asked Him To Take Revenge For Him In Verse 6-10. There's More.

Jehu Then Orders All The Sons Of Ahab, Which Were Seventy To Be Beheaded In 2Kings 10:6-9, And In Verse 11 It Makes It Clear That He "Slew All That Remained Of The House Of Ahab, And All His Great Men, And His Kinsfolks, And His Priests, Until He Left Him None Remaining". Then If You Go To Verse 13 And 14, 42 Brothers Of Ahaziah Were Going To "Salute The Children" Of Ahab, And Jehu Slew All Of Them. And Says In Verse 16, "...See My Zeal For The Lord (Yahweh)". And If You Look Up The Word Zeal In Aramic (Hebrew), It Is Qinew (קִנְאָ) Meaning "Ardour (To Burn) Zeal, Jealousy, Of God Against Men". Thus This Quote Is Verifying That Jehu Is Working Off Of The Jealousy Or Zeal Of The Lord (Yahweh). This Jealousy Or Zeal Caused Jehu To Massacre Everybody In Samaria That Was Left Of The House Of Ahab.

Then It Says Down In Verse 17 That Jehu Did This "...According To The Saying (Dawbaw) Of The Lord (Yahweh), Which He Spake (Dawbar) To Elijah.". And Elijah Was Gods' Prophet. To Top It Off, Jehu Gathers All The Worshippers, Prophets, And Priests Of Ba'al, Puts Them All In One Building, Deceiving Them "In Subtility" (2Kings 10:19), And The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Subtility Is Okbaw (עקבה) Meaning "Craftiness, Insidious (Intending To Trap)". So Jehu Was Being Crafty, And Sends 80 Men Inside To Massacre All Of Them (2Kings 10:24-28).

Now That The Whole House Of Ahab Is Destroyed, And Everybody Who Associates Themselves With Ahab, God, The Lord, And They Use The Word Yahweh Himself Says To Jehu In 2Kings 10:30, "...Because Thou Hast Done Well In Executing (Awsaw "Do, Work, Put In Order, Institute") That Which Is Right (Yawshawr "Upright, Correct, Pleasing, Proper") In Mine Eyes (Ahym), They Children Of The Fourth Generation Shall Sit On The Throne Of Israel." I Am Trying To Understand This Quote. Can You Preachers Or Rabbis Please Explain This To Me. God Is Literally Telling Jehu, Because You Did Well And That Which Was Upright Or Proper In My Eyes, It Pleased God That He Killed All These People. He, Jehu Will Be Established On The Throne. Jehu Just Committed A Chain Of Mass Murders. And It Pleased God. Why? I'll Tell You Why.

Ques: Why Did God Allow Jehu To Commit A Chain Of Mass Murders?

Ans: Because The House Of Ahab Did Not Worship Jehu's God. They Worshipped Their God Ba'al (2Kings 10). They Did Not Give Reverence To The God Of Israel, And The God Of Israel Became Jealous, For He Is A Jealous God (Exodus 34:14). In Turn He Made His Prophets Jealous (1Kings 19:10, 14), Thus God Gave Them Permission To Go Out And Massacre All These People Just Because They Did Not Acknowledge Him As Their God. Did You Ever Wonder Why God Has To Constantly Remind You In The Bible That He Is "The Lord God". There Is None Other Like Him? If This Were Really True, He Would Not Have To Keep Drilling It Into The Minds Of His Followers Or Worshippers. They Would Automatically Know This. It Sounds To Me Like God Is More So Trying To Convince Himself In This Quote.

Exodus 34:14

Right Translation In Aramic (Hebrew) By:
NETER A'aferti: Atum Re
Mistranslation For King James 1611 A.D.

FOR THOU SHALT WORSHIP NO OTHER GOD: FOR THE LORD, WHOSE NAME IS JEALOUS, IS A JEALOUS GOD:

If You Go Back To 1Kings 19:10, 14, Elijah The Prophet Of God Says "...I Have Been Very Jealous For The Lord (Yahweh) God Of Hosts:", Then In Verse 14 It Repeats The Same Statement.

Ques: What Was Elijah Jealous Of?

Ans: Elijah Was Jealous For His God, Because The Children Of Israel Forgot The God Of Israel. They Started Worshipping Ba'al And Killing The Prophets Of The God Of Israel, Thus He Was On The Run For His Life From Jezebel, A Worshipper Of Ba'al Who Did Not Fear His God (1Kings 19:2).

Elijah Challenged All The Prophets Of Ba'al. There Were 450 Prophets, And 400 Prophets Of The Groves, So There Was 850 Prophets All Together That Sat At The Table With Jezebel According To 1Kings 18:19. Elijah's Challenge Was: Two Bullocks Or Bulls Will Be Laid On Two Altars, With No Fire Under It. Whoever Can Call On The Name Of Their God, And Their God Puts Fire On The Bull, Then That Would Be The God Who Everybody Will Worship (1Kings 18:23-25). The Prophets Of Ba'al Sit There Since The Morning And Their God Doesn't Pull Through, So Elijah Mocks Them Saying In Verse 27, "Cry Aloud, For He Is A God: Either He Is Talking, Or He Is Pursuing, Or He Is In A Journey, Or ...Sleepeth, And Must Be Awaked." Elijah Comes At The Evening, Puts Twelve Stones Down. Built An Altar, Poured Water On It Three Times, Said His Prayers, And His God Consumed It With Fire. Then He Took All 850 Prophets Of Ba'al And It Says In Verse 40, "...Elijah Brought Them Down To The Brook Kishon, And Slew Them There." God Condones This. God Actually Allowed This Mass Murder To Happen Just Because He Is A Jealous God, And They Didn't Believe In Him

The King Ahab Runs Home And Tells His Wife Jezebel, And Jezebel Says In 1Kings 19:2 "So Let The Gods (Eloheem) Do To Me, And More Also, If I Make Not Thy Life As The Life Of One Of Them By Tomorrow About This Time.". Jezebel Was Not Afraid Of Elijah, Nor His God. She Challenged Him, And Wanted To Kill Him Like How He Killed Her Prophets, So Elijah Is Now Running For His Life Because He's Scared. Elijah Lost Faith In His Own God In Verse 4. And "Requested (Shawal "Asked") For Himself That He Might Die (Mooth)".

Elijah, The Tishbite, The Prophet Of God

Jezebel, Worshipper Of Ba'al

Elijah, Who Just Killed 850 People, Lost All His Faith In His Own God And Asked To Die. He Didn't Think That God Could Come Through For Him Anymore. He Asked God To "Take Away My Life (Nehfesh "Soul")". How Can You Kill 850 People Then Want To Die Because One Lady Wants To Kill You? Elijah Goes Against The 6Th Commandment In Exodus 20:13, Where It Says "Thou Shall Not Kill", Yet, It's Okay For Him To Kill 850 People, However, When One Lady Want's To Kill Him, Now, All Of A Sudden It's A Problem, And He Wants To Die. God Condones This In Your Bible. This Is Not The Only Time That Elijah Massacres Alot Of People And God Condones It. And The Koran Acknowledges This Prophet Elijah As (Iliyaas - الياس Koran 37:123), (Ilyasa'a - اليسع Koran 6:86, 38:48), (Ilyaasiyn - الياسين Koran 37:130).

In 2Kings Chapter 1:1-17, It Speaks About A King Named Ahaziah In The Bible Who Fell Down Through A Lattice, Which Is A Net In His Chamber, And Became Sick. He Then Sends Out His Messengers To Ask Ba'alzebub (בעלזבוב), The God Of Ekron Was He Going To Recover. God Tunes In On This Conversation, And Sends His Angel, Malawk (מלך) Meaning "Representative, Messenger" In Verse 3, To Elijah To Tell Him "Arise, Go Up To Meet The Messengers Of The King Of Samaria, And Say Unto Them, Is It Not Because There Is Not A God (Eloheem) In Israel, That Ye Go To Inquire Of Ba'al-Ze'bub The God Of Ekron?" Let's Look At The Geography Of These Two Places For A Minute. Samaria Is A Region Of Northern Palestine. It Is The Capital City Of The Northern Kingdom Of Israel Located 30 Miles (50 Km) North Of Jerusalem And 6 Miles (10 Km) Northwest Of Shechem. Ekron Is The Most Northerly Of The 5 Principal Cities Of The Philistines; Located In The Lowlands Of Judah And Later Given To Dan. Both Of These Cities Were Located In Palestine, However, Samaria, Where The King Ahaziah Lived Was Associated With Israel, Thus, Ahaziah Was Suppose To Be Worshipping The God Of Israel, And Not Ba'al-Zebub The God Of Ekron. This Made God Jealous Of The Fact, That He Inquired Another God Beside Him. Remember Exodus 20:3 "THOU SHALL HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME". Throughout God's Jealousy, He Curses Ahaziah In Verse 4,

To Die, All Because He Inquired Of Another God "Ba'al-Ze'bub" Instead Of Him. It Gets Worse. When The News Reaches Ahaziah, And He Finds Out That This Is Elijah, The Tishbite, He Sends Out 51 Soldiers To Elijah, And Let's Read What Happens. In Verse 10 It Says "If I Be A Man Of God (Eloheem), Then Let Fire (Aysh) Come Down (Yawrad "Descend") From Heaven (Shawmahyim -Where God Lives), And Consume (Awkal) Thee And They Fifty. And There Came Down (Yawrad) Fire (Aysh) From Heaven (Shawmahyim -Where God Lives), And Consumed (Awkal) Him And His Fifty."

This Not Only Happens Once, But Twice. The Next Time It Happens, Ahaziah Sends 51 More Soldiers To Elijah In Verse 11, And They Suffer The Same Fate As The First Group In Verse 12, Cremation. All Of Them Were Cremated On The Spot With Fire, Which Came Down From Heaven Where God Lives. Now The Third Time Ahaziah Sends Out 51 Soldiers, The Captain Gets Down On His Knees And Begs For Their Life, And The Angel Or Malawk Of God (Eloheem) Says In Verse 15, Okay "Go Down With Him: Be Not Afraid Of Him". Ahaziah Was Already Cursed By God, So By The Time Elijah Comes To Him, He Re-Iterates That God Said Because You Went To Ask Of Ba'al-Ze'bub, Instead Of Me, The God Of Israel, You Will Die On That Bed. Then If You Go To Verse 17, It Says "So He Died (Mooth) According To The Word Of The Lord (Yahweh) Which Elijah Had Spoken.". Was All This Necessary? Why Couldn't God Just Mind His Business, And Let Ahaziah's Messengers Go To The Ba'al-Ze'bub, The God Of Ekron? Wouldn't That Have Saved 102 Innocent Lives Who Were Just Doing What Their Master Or King Required Of Them? They Were Simply Following Orders. Why Couldn't God Just Send Them Back And Say, You'll Have Nothing To Do With This. This Is Between Me And Ahaziah. You Know Why, Because This Act Was Done Out Of God's Jealousy.

Ques: Besides Jealousy, Are There Any Other Stories Such As Conspiracy In The So-Called Holy Bible?

Ans: Yes. If You Go To 2Kings 12:20, The Servants Of Joash Made A Conspiracy Against Him, And Killed Him. Then Later On In 2Kings 14:5, Joash's Son Amaziah Reigned On The Throne, And When He Became Stable In His Position, He Killed All The Servants Who Took Part In The Death Of His Father. This Is Revenge. The Same Revenge That God Performs In Nahum 1:2-3. So Tell Me Mr. Preacherman, What's The Difference Between When God Kills, When God's Prophets Kills And When A Civilian Kills And God Punishes Him Or Her In Your Bible.

Moses, An Eloheem

All Of These Murders In The Book Of Kings Are Happening Because The Kings Are Worshipping Other Gods Besides The God Of Israel Who Continuously Makes It Clear In The Bible That He Is A Jealous God (Exodus 14:20), And He Sends Out His Prophets To Be Jealous For Him (1Kings 19:10), Who Kills In The Name Of Their Lord (Yahweh) God (Eloheem) Of Israel. However, If You Go Back To The 10 Commandments Of God, God Makes It Clear In Exodus 20:13, Not To Kill "Thou Shalt Not Kill". This Is One Of The 10 Commandments According To Your Bible That Was Sent Down From God Himself By Way Of Moses (Refer To El's Holy Torah).

So Now The Question That I'm Asking You Mr. Preacher, Or Mr. Jew, Is, If, According To Your Bible, Which You So-Claim Is A Holy Book, Your God Specifically Tells You Not To Kill On Countless Occasions, Why Does He Make An Exception To The Rule By Condoning His Prophets To Commit Murder?

Why Does He Give You A Commandment Commanding You To Do Something, And Then Go Behind Your Back And Do The Same Thing He Tells You Not To Do? It's Ironic That God Doesn't Practice What He Preaches And Neither Do You Mr. Preacherman. Something Is Wrong Here. Something's Not Right With This Picture. God Commands You Not To Kill, Yet Goes And Tells Cain (Qayn) And Abel (Habiyl) To Offer A Sacrifice To Him In Genesis Chapter 4. Are There Precedents For Killing When It Comes To God And His Prophets? As A Person Whose Soul Is Seeking The Truth, I Just Want To Know, When Is The Line Drawn Between What Is Right And What Is Wrong With God. Don't Tell Me Mr. Christian, To Just Close My Eyes, Have Faith And God Will Prevail. You Want Me To Pretend Like I Didn't Come Across All These Evil Malicious Stories And Contradictions In Your Bible.

Ques: Why Is Killing Condoned In The Bible And Koran?

Ans: It's Okay To Kill In Your Bible, Just As Long As You're Killing In My Name, And Do Not Bind Partners With Anyone Else, Then I, "God", Will Kill You, Or Send Someone To Kill You. The Muslims Fall Under This Same Principle. They Believe In One God, Allah, And That Muhammad (Ahmad, Makhmuwd, The Triad Of Names) Is His Prophet, So If You Go Out And Kill In "Sabiyl Allah" (The Path Of Allah) (Koran 2:190), Then It's Okay. You Have To Go And Become A Martyr, A Mushaahida, And Bomb Up The World Trade Center, And Terrorize People. Killing Babies And Innocent People All In The Name Of Your God Allah Or Jehovah. Yhwh Or Buddha. After It's All Over, Then What? What Will You Have Accomplished For Your God? The Fact That Another Life Was Taken Away. Religion Breeds This Type Of Ignorance. (Refer To Scroll #98, Does Religion Breed Ignorance) Religion Breeds This Mentality That "Laa Ilaaha Ila Allah, Wahdahu Laa Sharika Lahu", There Is No God But Allah, He Is Alone And Has No Partner (Koran 4:87). Thus If You Attempt To Explain To Them In Your Koran Muslims It Says Koran 7:138 (Aalihatun), Koran 19:81 (Aalihatan), Koran 7:127 (Aalihataka), Koran 43:58 (Aalihatuna), Koran 7:127 (Aalihataka), Which Is The Pluralization Of The Name Allah, They Will Say Blasphemy. Istaghfir Allah, A Term Used For "Forgive Allah", And Why Would Allah Be Forgiven? The Name Allat (اللت) Is Used As The Female Gender Of Allah (الله), In Koran 53:19, Yet At The Same Time Scholars Dispute The Meaning Of Allat

Ques: Who Is Allat?

Ans: Allat Is The Moon God Yet, Scholars Claim That It Is The Idol Lat, Which Was A Man Who Lived On A Rock Near Ta'if, And Use To Entertain The Pilgrims To Makkah With Barley Drinks And Food. When He Died The People Built A Shrine To Him On The Same Rock And Began Worshipping Him. According To Jarir Tabari, Originally This Word Was Allahatun (اللهت), Which Became Al-Lat (اللت). The Word Al-Lat (اللت) Siinply Means "Female Source". (Refer To Scroll #66, God, God, God Page 16, 18-19).

The Moon God Allah

The Idol Allat Is Mentioned In The Koran In Conjunction With The Other Two Idols, Al Uzza And Manat. Allah Is The Moon God And Allat Is The Moon Goddess. .

During The Nineteenth Century, 3 Archaeologists Named Arnaud, Halevy And Glaser Went To Saudi Arabia And Dug Up Thousands Of Sabean, Mineaean And Qatabanian Inscriptions Which Were Translated. In The 1940'S And 50'S G. Caton Thompson, Charleton S. Coon, Wendell Phillips, W.F. Albright And Richard Bower Excavated Sites At Qataban, Timna And Marib, Which Was The Ancient Capital Of Sheba. They Found That These Inscriptions And Votive Read On The Bowls Were Used In The Worship Of The "Daughters Of Allah", Al-Lat, Al-Uzza, One Of Allah's Name Is Al Azza. The Kaaba Was A Temple To Isis. No Other Building In Al Islam Is A Cuble. Only In Tama-Re (Egypt). Muhammad Had A Wife Who Was A Tama-Rean (Egyptian), Named Miriam Qibtiyya. Manat Is The Last Mentioned Daughters Of Allah, And This Can Be Found In Koran 53:19-20. The Three Daughters Of Allah Were Depicted At Times Together With Allah, The Moon God, With A Crescent Moon Above Them. Below Is An Idol Of The Moon God Allah Found In Saudia Arabia.

Al-Lat, The Female Goddess

The Statue Of The Daughters Of Allah

This Was Not Only Found In Saudia Arabia, It Was Also Found In Palestine, Lebanon, And Iraq. Archeological Facts Prove That The Dominant Religion Of Arabia Was The Cult Of The Moon. (Refer To Scroll #193, The Religion Islam Unmasked). This Is Also Why Muslims Use The Crescent As Their Symbol, And Look For The Moon To Break Their Fast Of Ramadaan, One Of The Biggest Festival In Islam. The Muslims Wait For The New Moon To Begin And End Ramadaan, However, The New Moon Doesn't Look Like A Crescent (Koran 2:189). You Depend On The Mistranslation Of Koran 2:189, And Are Not Aware That The Term "New Moon", Is Not Found In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic). The Word Used Is El Ahillat (الاهله) Meaning "Moon Crescents".

One Of The Names Of The Moon God Was Sin, Which Is Also One Of The Titles Of Aset (Ishtar) Daughter Of Sin Or Nannar. Ishtar Or Aset (Isis) Was Also Called Ashtaroth (Judges 10:6) Or Astaroth In The Bible. In Tama-Re Her Name Was Aset. She Is Also Called Diana, Dina. This Is Why Muslims Call Their Religion Din'l Islam (دين السلام), Malik'l Yuwm Din Or Deen. Inanna, Astarte, Nana, Nut, Anat, Anahita, Auset, Ishara, Ashtart, Attoret, Attar, Hathor, Sin, And The Venus Star (Sumerian Dil-Bat) Are Other Names Used For Aset. Ishtar Also Became Considered A Deity In Babylonia. There The Morning Star Is Called The "Male Venus" And The Evening Star Is Called The "Female Venus". That's The Two Main Prayer Of The Muslim Salatu'l Fajr, Morning Or Sunrise And Salat'l Maghrib, Sunset Prayer, Both Dealing With The Coming And Going Of The Moon. In Both Aspects, Ishtar Is Always A Deity In Babylonian Mythology. In Actuality, Ishtar Is The Daughter Of Nannar/Sin And Ningal, However, She Is Also Known As The Daughter Of Luna And Zeun, Only Because She Pledged Allegiance To These Deities. (Refer To The Holy Tablets, Scroll #130, Conflict Between The Gods)

Ishtar Daughter Of Sin

Sin/Nannar Father Of Ishtar

360 Gods Were Worshipped At The Ka'aba In Mecca, However, The Moon God Was The Chief God, And Mecca Was Built As A Shrine For The Moon God, Which Made It The Most Sacred

Built Site Of Arabian Paganism. The Question At This Point Would Be, "Why Is Allah Never Distinguished In Your Koran"?

Muhammad, The Prophet Of Islam, Wanted Allah To Be The Sole God Worshipped, Because He Was Already Recognized As The Greatest Or Oldest God/Deity. Say It, "Allahu Akbar (اكبر الله), Allah Is The Greatest". Greatest Or Oldest Of What? That's Right, The Rest Of The 359 Other Gods And Goddess! Muhamad's Father's Name Was Abdullah Or Abdullat/Abdallat "Servant Of Allat". They Changed His Name From Ahmad To Muhammad, And From Son Of Abdullat To Son Of Abdullah.

Muhammad Son Of Abdullah (Abdullat)

Abdullat, Father Of Muhammad

If Allah Wasn't A Pagan God, Why Was Muhammad Father's Name Abdullah? Islam Is Just Another Cult That Worships The Moon God, Taken From Tama-Re (Egypt) Like All Others. However, If You Tell This To A Muslim, They Will Say Blasphemy, And Kill You. They Don't Want You To Reveal The Truth To Them About Their Scriptures. They Want To Remain In That Blind Tunnel. Religion Is For People Who Choose To Settle For Anything. God Can't Provide For You No More. It's Time For You To Become Your Own God. Is It Not Written In Your Laws I Said Ye Are Gods In John 10:34, And Then In Psalms 82:6 It Says, And All Of Ye Are The Children Of The Most High.

You Have To Become That God That Controls And Rules Your Every Thoughts, And Imagine-Ation, And Become Somebody. You Have To Make It Happen. You Can't Sit Around Calling On God Or Allah, Buddah, Jehovah, Yhwh Any More Because He's Not Listening To You. You Go To Church On Saturday, Yet In Genesis 2:2, It Says It's A Day Of Rest For God. Shawbath (שׁבת) Meaning "To Desist, To Cease, Rest", From What You Are Doing. You Are Praying To God And He Is Sleeping, That's Why Your Prayers Are Not Being Answered. It's Not Only The Christians. Koran 2:186 Says "I (Allah) Listen To The Prayer Of Every Suppliant

When He Calls On Me". So It Is Obvious That Allah Also Stopped Answering Their Prayers Also. Now Which God Are You Praying To?

You Are God. You Are The Sons Of The Most High, El Elyuwn El (Neter Shil Neteru) (Psalms 82:6). You Are A Part Of All, And Only You, If You Want To, Can Make Things Happen For Yourself, And That's What I Teach In Nuwaubu, Which Is Sound, Right Reasoning, Which Leads To A Right Overstanding. You Will Be Standing Over All This Crap That They Try To Teach You In Church Or Synagogues Or Mosques. You Will See The Crap In What Their Teaching You, Investigate It For Yourself And Find Out The Truth, Because Only The Truth Will Make You Free, Not Set You Free. Some Say Set, It's Make You Free. Let's Take A Look At Some Of The Other Stories Of The So-Called Holy Bible.

In 1Samuel Chapter 18-19 David (Dawiyd) Is Running For His Life Away From Saul, Because Saul Wants Him Dead Out Of Jealousy. David Became Loved More By The People Of The Town, Because He Killed More Enemies In Battle Than Saul (1Samuel 18:7-8). Saul Thought The Next Step For David Was His Kingdom, So He Plotted To Kill David With A Javelin In Verse 11. Wait It Gets Worse. Saul Plots For David To Marry His Daughter Merab, However, He Must First Fight The Philistines (1Samuel 18:17), In Which Saul Hopes For Him To Die In The Battle. When This Plan Fails, And Saul Marries Merab To Adriel The Meholathite In Verse 19. Then Saul's Other Daughter Michal Falls In Love With David, So Saul Tells David If He Wants To Marry Her, He Has To Bring Home, And I Quote "...An Hundred Foreskins (Orlaw) Of The Philistines, To Be Avenged Of The King's Enemies..." (1Samuel 18:25). However, Saul Still Wants The Philistine To Kill David. Again, His Plot Fails, And David Brings Home 200 Philistine Foreskins (Orlaw - 1Samuel 18:27).

The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Foreskin Is Orlaw (ערלת) Meaning "Uncircumcised", And This Same Word Orlaw (ערלת) Can Be Found In Genesis 17:23-24, When God Commands Abraham To Circumcise All The Male Of His Family. (Refer To Bulletin #6, "Are You Circumcised Correctly"). This Is Deranged! Saul Must Have Been Insane To Even Think Of Having 100 Foreskin Brought To Him, And David, Who Was A Homosexual Anyway, And Didn't Mind, Brought Home Not Only 100, But 200 Foreskins. This Makes Saul More Angry, And Now He Tells All His Servants To Go After David To Kill Him. Jonathan, Who Is Davids Homosexual Lover, Helps Him Escape, And Davids Wife Michal Helps Him Escape From The Hands Of Saul (1Samuel 19:11-13).

To Make A Long Story Short, David Seeks Asylum From A Church In 1Samuel Chapter 21. The Priest Ahimelech Gives Him Food, Shelter, And A Sword, However, Theirs One Problem. Doeg Who Is The Chief Over Saul's Herds Sees David And Tells Saul, Who Is Being Paranoid. And Thinks That His Army And His Son Are Conspiring Against Him. Saul Calls The Priest Of Nob Where Ahimelech Lives, And Ordered Their Execution (1Samuel 21:16). No One Budges. So He Commands Doeg To Kill Them, And He Kills All 85 Priests. Then He Went To The Town Of Nob And Killed All The "Men And Women, Children And Sucklings (Yawnak "To Give Suck, Nurse"), And Oxen And Asses, And Sheep, With The Edge Of The Sword" (1Samuel 22:18-19). The Only Person That Survived This Massacre Was Abiathar, Who Later Became One Of The Two Priests Of David When He Becomes King Of Israel (2Samuel 8:17).

Ahimelech, The Priest

Doeg, The Edomite

This Story Deals With Conspiracy, Lying, Mass Murder, Treason, And Homosexuality, Yet, You Want Me To Send My Child To Sunday Bible School, Or To Your Synagogues To Study The Tanakh, Torah So-Called 5-Books Of Moses, And When I Say "No", You Get Mad At Me, Because I Don't Want To Follow Your Religion.

In This Next Story, The Ark Of God Finally Arrives In Jerusalem. Uzzah Grabs Hold Of It, Because The Ox Shook It, However, This Kindled Gods Anger And He Killed Him On The Spot (2Samuel 6:6-7). Why Couldn't God Just Tell Him Thanks, But Don't Touch It Again. David Sends Away The Ark To Obed-Edom, And Brings It Back A Month Later. King David Leads The Parade, "Girded With A Linen Ephod*...Leaping And Dancing Before The Lord."* An Ephod Is A Sleeveless Priestly Garment Which Extends To The Hips, So As Far As Michal His Wife Was Concerned, When She Looked Out The Window He Was Jumping And Dancing Around Naked Showing His Stuff To The Handmaids (2Samuel 6:20). You Know What God Did To Michal For Speaking Her Mind To Her Husband, She Did Not Give Birth To Any Children Throughout Her Life. (2 Samuel 6:16, 20-23). There's More.

If You Go To The Book Of Judges Chapter 4, Verse 2, You Will See That The Lord (Yahweh) Becomes Angry At The Israelites, And Sells Them Over Into The Hands Of Jabin, Who Was King Of Canaan At The Time. The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Sold In This Quote Is Mawkar (מכר) Meaning "To Sell, To Be Sold". This Same Word Mawkar Is Used In Genesis 25:31, When Jacob Tells Isaac To Sell (Mawkar) Him His Birthright, And In Genesis 31:15, Where Rachel And Leah States That Their Father Sold (Mawkar) Them. Then If You Go Down To Judges 4:9, This Same Word Mawkar Is Used When The Lord (Yahweh) Sells Sisera Into The Hands Of A Woman Named Jael, Who Killed Him By Pounding A Hammer Into His Temple. This Was The Works Of God. You Follow. How Can God Sell Something, And What Would Be The Price Of It? So God Has Commerce. Now Back To The Point. Deborah Was A Prophetess Of Israel In Judges 4:4, So The Israelites Came To Her For Advice, And She Appointed Barak The Son Of Abin'oam, To Kill Sisera, Who Was The Captain Over Jabins Army. Now Heber Who Was A Kenite In Verse 11, Rejected From The Israelites, So They Tip Sisera, Who Prepares His Army Against Them. Barak And His Army Kills All Of Sisera's Army, However He Manages To Escape And Goes To The Tent Of Jael, Who Is The Wife Of Heber, The Same Man Who Helped Sisera. The Story Gets Gruesome. Imagine Coming To Your Friends House And You Meet His Wife, Who Treats You With The Utmost Hospitality, Just To Find Out That She Plans To Kill You. We'll This Is What Happens In This Story.

Heber, Was At Peace With Sisera, However, His Wife Plotted To Kill Him. In Judges 4:18-10, It Says That She Went Out To Meet Him Personally, And Told Him Not To Fear Her. Fed Him Milk Instead Of Water, And Tucked Him In. He Asks Her To Lie (Lying In The Bible) And Tell Whoever Asks That Nobody Is With Her. Now Sisera Falls Asleep, Because He Had A Long Day Running Away From 10,000 Soldiers, And He Feels Secure, Just To Find Out That In Verse 21, It Says "Then Jael Heber's Wife Took A Nail Of The Tent, And Took An Hammer In Her Hand, And Went Softly Unto Him, And Smote The Nail Into His Temples, And Fastened It Into The Ground: For He Was Fast Asleep And Weary. So He Died." This Is Gruesome. Jael Took A Nail And Hammered It Into Sisera's Temples, And Tied It To The Ground. This Sounds Like Movie Script. For This Act, She Was "Blessed Above Women Shall Jael The Wife Of Heber The Kenite Be, Blessed Shall She Be Above Women In The Tent." According To Judges 5:24. If You Go Up To Verse 23, The Angel Or Malawk Of The Lord (Yahweh) Curses, Awrar, Meroz, Which Is A Place In North Palestine, And Everybody Who Lived There, Bitterly, Because They Didn't Help In The Battle Against Sisera. You As A Faithful Christian Or Jew, Would Have Never Thought That This Would Be In Your Holy Bible Right. Wrong. And, There's More.

If You Go To 2Kings 17:11, 17, You Will Find Out The Israelites, Who Are God's Chosen People, "Caused Their Sons (Bane) And Their Daughters (Bath) To Pass Through The Fire (Aysh)...In The Sight Of The Lord (Yahweh), To Provoke Him To Anger (Kawas)". The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Provoke Is Kawas (כעס) Meaning "To Be Angry, Vexed, Grieved, Provoke To Anger". How Can God Be Provoked From The Same Creature That He Created? If He Created You And Me, Doesn't He Know How I Think. Isn't He The All-Knowing? So How Can I Provoke Someone Who Is Far Beyond A Higher Level Of Intelligence Than Me, Unless, God Thinks On The Same Mundane Level Just Like You And Me.

It Says In 2Kings 17:18, The Israelites Provoke Him So Much, And "He Was Very Angry (Awnaf Meaning "Breathe Hard")", That He "Removed (Soor Meaning "Come To An End, Abolish") Them Out Of His Sight:". God Was Very Angry To The Point That He Was Breathing Hard According To This Quote 2Kings 17:18, And He Allowed The Israelites To Become Massacred By Their Enemies. Are You Telling Me That God Can't Control His Anger? He Has A Bad Temper? Is This Your God's Capability? When He Becomes Mad At You, He Destroys You. Is The All-Loving, All-Seeing, All-Knowing God Capable Of Doing All This.

Ques: Are You Questioning The Capability Of God?

Ans: I'm Not Questioning God. I Am Peeling The Skin Off The Essence Of God, The Skin That You Created With Your Jargons, And Getting Down To The Real God. What God Can And Cannot Do. What God Does And Does Not Really Do. Everybody Here With A Child, With A Newborn Baby, Looks Down And Looks Into The Eyes Of That Child, And They See The Beauty Of The World. The Baby Smiles And It Melts Their Heart. The Cry Of A Baby Even Sounds Good, However, Not At 5:00 In The Morning. Right? Then Somebody Attacks The Child. I Don't Mean Somebody On The Street; I Mean Somebody. The Body Of The Child Attacks The Child. Heart Murmurs. The Child Dies. You Turn To Heaven And You Say "God Why. Why My Child"? And God Says, "You Selfish Bastard", Because Of The Word My. All Right, Then "Why Children"? And That's The Kind Of Questions I Ask. That's Peeling The Skin Off The God Concept, And Getting To The Essence Of It. Why Babies Are Dying. Let's Turn To 2Nd Kings Chapter 6, And Start From Verse 26, Where A King Of Israel Was Passing By A Woman, And She Cried Out To Him "Help, My Lord, O King". Now She Called This King Her Lord, And It Uses The Word Adonai (אדני) Or Awdone (אדן) Meaning "Lord Or Master" Then If You Go To Verse 27, The King Says To The Woman "...If The Lord (Yahweh) Do Not Help Thee, Whence Shall I Help Thee?". I Am Making This Point Here To Say That There Are Two Different Lords Spoken Of Here. One Is An Adonai, And The Other A Yahweh. Yet, Your English Bible Won't Tell You Adonis Is From Babylon, Son Of Tammuz. So Now If You Look In The Story Of 2Kings 6:28-29, You Will Find That That Same Woman Makes An Agreement With Another Woman To Boil Her Son Today, And Tomorrow They Will Boil The Other Women's Son. They Boil One Women's Son, However, When Tomorrow Comes. And It's Her Turn To Give Up Her Son, She Hides Him.

2Kings 6:28-29

"AND THE KING SAID UNTO HER, WHAT AILETH THEE? AND SHE ANSWERED, THIS WOMAN SAID UNTO ME, GIVE THY SON, THAT WE MAY EAT (AWKAL) HIM TO DAY, AND WE WILL EAT (AWKAL) MY SON TOMORROW. SO WE BOILED (BAWSHAL) MY SON (BANE), AND DID EAT (AWKAL) HIM: AND I SAID UNTO HER ON THE NEXT DAY, GIVE THY SON (BANE), THAT WE MAY EAT (AWKAL) HIM: AND SHE HATH HID (KHAWBAW MEANING "HIDE, WITHDRAW") HER SON (BANE)."

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Boiled Is Bawshal (בשל) Meaning "Boil, Cook, Bake, Ripen". Thus, They Boiled The Child, And Ate Him. There Is Nothing Allegorical About This. They Used The Term For Cooking Food. Cannibalism Is In The Bible For The Israelites. The Word Cannibalism Comes From Cannibal Meaning "Dog" And Baal Meaning "Lord", Another Akkadian Word. Baal Is Another Word For Adonai. Cannibal Means "A Werewolf." According To The Comprehensive Etymological Dictionary Of The English Language, Page 110, Column 2, The Word Cannibal Was Influenced In Form By Sp. Can, 'Dog', Fr. L. Canis. The Word Canis Means "N., The Genus Including The Dog, The Wolf, The Fox And The Jakal."

This Is Actually A Disease That People Have Where They Go Around Eating Other People. They Have The Taste For Human Flesh And Human Blood. These Are People With Cravings To Eat Human Flesh. (Refer To Scroll #360 Lets Set The Record Straight) Where Did This Come From, And Why Didn't The Reverend Teach You These Things? The Reality Of It Is That It

Came From Your Bible. God Had To Create It In The Hearts Of These People To Want To Eat Human Flesh. If I Was To Ask You Would You Follow A God That Tells You To Eat Your Kids, The Answer Would Be No. However, You Do Follow This God, Which Condones Cannibalism Right Here In Your Bible.

Ques: Is Cannibalism Condoned In The Bible By God Himself?

Ans: Yes. In Ezekiel 39:17, God Is Telling Man To Gather At His Sacrifice To Them, To Drink Blood And Eat Flesh.

Ezekiel 39:17

"AND THOU SON OF MAN, THUS SAITH THE LORD GOD; SPEAK UNTO EVERY FEATHERED FOWL, AND TO EVERY BEAST OF THE FIELD, ASSEMBLE YOURSELVES AND COME; GATHER YOURSELVES ON EVERY SIDE TO MY SACRIFICE THAT I DO SACRIFICE FOR YOU, EVEN A GREAT SACRIFICE UPON THE MOUNTAINS OF ISRAEL, THAT YE MAY EAT FLESH, AND DRINK BLOOD."

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

The Word Being Used In This Quote For Drink Is The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Shathah (שׁתה) Meaning "To Drink" And The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used For Blood Is Dam (דם) Which Means "Blood". So Don't Tell Me That This Is Something Mystical Or Metaphysical, Because It Is Not.

God Himself, Personally Took The Time Out To Starve The Israelites, His Chosen People To The Point Where He Wants Them To Eat Their Own Children, Husbands And Wives. In Isaiah 9:19-20 The Lord (Yahweh) Of Hosts (Tsawbaw Meaning "Heavenly Army") Becomes Mad At The Israelites Because They Don't "Seek The Lord Of Hosts" (Isaiah 9:13). He Sends Out A Wrath Or Rage (Ebraw Meaning "Fury, Wrath, Arrogance"), And Darkens The Whole Land, Which Causes The People To Throw Other People Into The Fire For Fuel (Isaiah 9:19). Then They Reach The Point Of Starvation Where They Gawzar (גזר) Cut Off Their Right Hands To Eat. Which Doesn't Satisfy Them, So They Eat The Bawsawr (בשׂר) Flesh Of Their Left Arm. This Is Sick. This Is Where Jeffrey Dahmer And The Donner Party Gets It From, God.

Isaiah 9:19-20

"THROUGH THE WRATH OF THE LORD OF HOSTS IS THE LAND DARKENED, AND THE PEOPLE SHALL BE AS THE FUEL OF THE FIRE: NO MAN SHALL SPARE HIS BROTHER. AND HE SHALL SNATCH ON THE RIGHT HAND, AND BE HUNGRY; AND HE SHALL EAT ON THE LEFT HAND, AND THEY SHALL NOT BE SATISFIED: THEY SHALL EAT EVERY MAN THE FLESH OF HIS OWN ARM: "

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

Another Story Can Be Found In Jeremiah 19:9, And I Quote: "And I (Now This Yahweh Or Yhwh Speaking.) Will Cause Them (He Will Cause The Israelites Because They Don't Want To Follow Him As Their God) To Eat The Flesh (Bawsawr) Of Their Sons (Bane) And The Flesh (Bawsawr) Of Their Daughters (Bath), And They (The Israelites) Shall Eat (Awkal) Every One The Flesh (Bawsawr) Of His Friend In The Siege And Straitness, Wherewith Their Enemies, And They That Seek Their Lives, Shall Straiten Them."

It Could Be Found Again In Ezekiel 5:10-12, 17 Where It Says: 10- "Therefore The Fathers Shall Eat (Awkal) The Sons In The Midst Of Thee, And The Sons Shall Eat (Awkal) Their Fathers; And I Will Execute Judgments In Thee, And The Whole Remnant Of Thee Will I Scatter Into All The Winds." Then God Or Yahweh Says, In Verse 12, A Third Part Of Thee Shall Die With The Pestilence, And With Famine Shall They Be Consumed In The Midst Of Thee: And A Third Part Shall Fall By The Sword Round About Thee; And I Will Scatter A Third Part Into All The Winds, And I Will Draw Out A Sword After Them. And You Find Out In Verse 13, That This Comforts God. I Put The Hebrew Words In, So You Can See Its Eat, Like Food. Flesh As In Human Skin And Meat Or They Will Say, 'This Is All Symbolic'.

Ezekiel 5:13

THUS SHALL MINE ANGER BE ACCOMPLISHED, AND I WILL CAUSE MY FURY TO REST UPON THEM, AND I WILL BE COMFORTED: AND THEY SHALL KNOW THAT I THE LORD HAVE SPOKEN IT IN MY ZEAL, WHEN I HAVE ACCOMPLISHED MY FURY IN THEM.

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

And The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Comfort Is Nawkham (נכם) Meaning "To Be Sorry, Console Oneself, Repent, Regret, Comfort, Be Comforted". This Same Word Nawkham (נכם) Can Be Found In Genesis 5:29, When Speaking About Noah (Noakh, Utnaphishtim, The Triad Of Names) "This Same Shall Comfort (Nawkham) Us Concerning Our Work And Toil Of Our Hands,". The Word Comfort According To American Heritage Dictionary Means "To Soothe In Time Of Affliction Or Distress", Thus God Killed, Caused People To Be Killed, Sent Out Pestilence, Famine, And Came With A Sword Himself To Soothe His Anger Or Fury According To Your Bible. Then If You Go To Verse 17, God Says, "So Will I Send Upon You Famine And Evil Beasts (Khahee), And They Shall Bereave (Shawkole) Thee; And Pestilence And Blood Shall Pass Through Thee; And I Will Bring The Sword Upon Thee. I The Lord Have Spoken It." The Aramic (Hebrew) Word For Bereave Is Shawkole (שכל) Meaning "Make Childless, Miscarry, Show Barrenness Or Abortion". So Abortion Comes From The Bible. God Wants Women To Abort Their Babies Because He Is Mad At The Congregation For Not Worshipping Him As Their God. This Is Sick. Do You Know The Process That A Woman Has To Go Through To Abort Her Baby. There Are Many Different Methods, However, Each One Is Painful, And Each Method Kills The Fetus, Who Hasn't Been Given A Chance To Live. This Is The Doing Of Your God Right In The Bible.

Again, You Can Find God Doing What He Does Best, Punishing People In The Book Of Lamentation. It Starts Off In Verse 1, Speaking About The Gold Of Jerusalem Becoming Dim. Implying That God Knows Good Gold From Bad Gold, Because If You Go Back To Genesis 2:12, God Says "And The Gold Of That Land Is Good (Towb Meaning "Agreeable"):...". Thus God Knows Commerce, Because He Knows Good Gold, Which Is In Havilah, Ethiopia (Genesis 2:13) Verses Bad Gold Which Was In Tama-Re (Egypt). They Mixed Their Gold With Alloys Of Gold And Silver. This Process Was Called Electrium, Thus They Didn't Use Pure Gold. You Follow. Now Back To The Point. When You Go Down To Lamentation 1:4, It Tells You That The Children, Young Nursing Babies, Who Had Nothing To Do With The Evil Of Their Parents, Were Starving To The Point Where "The Tongue Of The Suckling Child Cleaveth To The Roof Of His Mouth For Thirst: The Young Children Ask Bread, And No Man Breaketh It Unto Them." Then In Verse 8, It Says "Their Visage Is Blacker Than A Coal; They Are Not Known In The Streets: Their Skin Cleaveth To Their Bones; It Is Withered, It Is Become Like A Stick." The People Were Walking Around Looking Like The Starving People Do Today In Somalia, Sudan, Ethiopia, And All Over Tama-Re. This Is Part Of God's Punishment. It's Not Over Yet. In Verse 10 It Completes God's Gruesome Punishment By Saying "The Hands Of The Pitiful (Rakhmawnee "Compasionate") Women Have Sodden (Bawshal "Boiled") Their Own Children (Yehled "Offspring"): They Were Their Meat (Bawraw "Eat, Devour") In The Destruction Of The Daughter Of My People." This Is Your God's Way According To Verse 11, Of "Accomplishing His Fury". Let's Look At All This. God Caused The Newborn Infants And Childrens To Starve, The People Walked Around With Their Skin Sticking To Their Bodies, Looking Like Sticks From Lack Of Food, And The Woman Bawshal (בשׁל) Meaning "Boil" And Ate Their Children Out Of Starvation. This Is The Works Of An All-Loving, Kind, And Compassionate God. Why God? Why Couldn't You Just Change Their Hearts So They Could Do Your Works. Why Did Your God Have To Put Them Through A Slow Painful Process Of Death, Starvation, Where As It Says In Verse 9, "They That Be Slain With The Sword Are Better Than They That Be Slain With Hunger:...". This Is Written In Your Bible.

Now If You Turn To The Books Of Deuteronomy Chapter 28:53-57, God Punishes The Children Of Israel, And Says In Verse 53, Because You Disobeyed Me, And Went And Worshipped Other Ba'al (בעל) Meaning "Lords" (Judges 2:13, 2Kings 3:2) "...Thou Shalt Eat The Fruit Of Thine Own Body (You Will Eat Your Own Children), The Flesh (Bawsawr) Of Thy Sons (Bane) And Of Thy Daughters (Bath), Which The Lord (Yahweh) Thy God (Eloheem) Hath Given Thee, In The Siege (Mawtsore "Enclosure"), And In The Straitness (Mawtsoqe "Distress"), Wherewith Thine Enemies Shall Distress Thee:". And Verse 54-55 Continues "So That The Man That Is Tender Among You, And Very Delicate, His Eye Shall Be Evil Toward His Brother, And Toward The Wife Of His Bosom, And Toward The Remnant Of His Children Which He Shall Leave: 55- So That He Will Not Give To Any Of Them Of The Flesh Of His Children Whom He Shall Eat: Because He Hath Nothing Left Him In The Siege, And In The Straitness, Wherewith Thine Enemies Shall Distress Thee In All Thy Gates." Wait. Let's Stop Right Here.

Where Does God Get The Time To Do All This If He Is Omnipresent And Omnipotent, Meaning, If He Is At All Places At All Times, Then He Can't Possibly Take The Time Out To Perform All These Curses Upon One Such Person. It Would Interfere With His Godly Plan.

Now, Verse 56-57 Goes On To Say "The Tender And Delicate Woman Among You, Which Would Not Adventure To Set The Sole Of Her Foot Upon The Ground For Delicateness And Tenderness, Her Eye Shall Be Evil Toward The Husband Of Her Bosom, And Toward Her Son, And Toward Her Daughter, 57- And Toward Her Young One That Cometh Out From Between Her Feet, And Toward Her Children Which She Shall Bear: For She Shall Eat Them For Want Of All Things Secretly In The Siege And Straitness, Wherewith Thine Enemy Shall Distress Thee In Thy Gates." God Tells You Why He's Doing All This In Verse 58, And It Says "If Thou Will Not Observe To Do All The Words Of This Law That Are Written In This Book, That Thou Mayest Fear This Glorious And Fearful Name, The Lord Thy God;" And Verse 59 Continues By Saying "Then The Lord Will Make Thy Plagues Wonderful, And The Plagues Of Thy Seed, Even Great Plagues, And Of Long Continuance, And Sore Sicknesses, And Of Long Continuance." This Is, Your God Mr. Christian, Your Allah Mr. Mohammedan, And Your Yhwh Mr. Jew. This Is Who You Follow And Subscribe Your Entire Life To Living For.

Ques: Does God Curse People If They Don't Do Good According To Him?

Ans: According To Your Bible, The Answer Is Yes. Let's Start With The Book Of Deuteronomy Chapter 28. If You Start Off With Deuteronomy 11:26 God Says That This Day, He Will Set Before The Israelites, A Curse And A Blessing. Then In Verse 27, God Blesses The Israelites "...If Ye Obey The Commandments Of The Lord Your God, Which I Command You This Day: ". Then When You Go Down To Verse 28, God Says "And A Curse (Kelawlaw), If Ye Will Not Obey The Commandments Of The Lord Your God, But Turn Aside Out Of The Way Which I Command You This Day, To Go After Other Gods, Which Ye Have Not Known." In 2Samuel 16:10, The Lord Tells Zeruiah To Curse David. Then Again In Isaiah 24:5-6, God Says That The Earth Became Defiled, Which In Aramic (Hebrew) Is Khawnafe (כנף), Meaning "Profane, Defiled, Corrupt" And They Broke The Everlasting Covenant With Him; "Therefore Hath The Curse Devoured The Earth, And They That Dwell Therein Are Desolate: Therefore The Inhabitants Of The Earth Are Burned, And Few Men Left".

Then You Can Find A Similar Story In Leviticus Chapter 26. Let's Start From Leviticus 26:10 Where It Reads: "10 - And Ye Shall Eat Old Store, And Bring Forth The Old Because Of The New. 11- And I (Now This Is God Speaking Here) Will Set My Tabernacle Among You: And My Soul Shall Not Abhor You. Then In Verse 12 It Reads "And I (God) Will Walk Among You, And Will Be Your God (And The Word Being Used Here Is Eloheem), And Ye Shall Be My People." What God Is Really Saying Is, I Am Yahweh, Baal, Or Adonai Of This Group Of Eloheem. The Reason Why I Started At Verse 10 Was To Show You Who Was Talking. God Is Talking Here About A Group Of People Called The Israelites. So Now God Tells The Israelites If They Don't Listen To Him (Leviticus 26:21), Then He Would Plague Them Seven Times, Send Wild Beast, Wild Animals (Khahee "Living Beast") To Eat Their Children And Destroy Their Cattle. In Verse 22. Then If They Still Don't Listen To God, He Will Punish Them Seven Times According To Verse 24. In Verse 25, He Himself Will Bring A Sword And Take Revenge, Send A Pestilence, Cow-Disease On Them, And Deliver.To Their Enemies. In Verse 28. It Says God Will Chastise Them Seven Times, Then If You Go Down To Verse 29, It Says "And Ye Shall Eat The Flesh (Bawsawr) Of Your Sons (Bane), And The Flesh (Bawsawr) Of Your Daughters (Bath) Shall Ye Eat." This Is Cannibalism Right In Your Bible, Mr. Christian Preacher. God's Plan Was To Starve The Israelites To The Point Where They Turned On Their Children And Ate Them. This Story Sounds Similar To The Story In The Gilgamesh Epics.

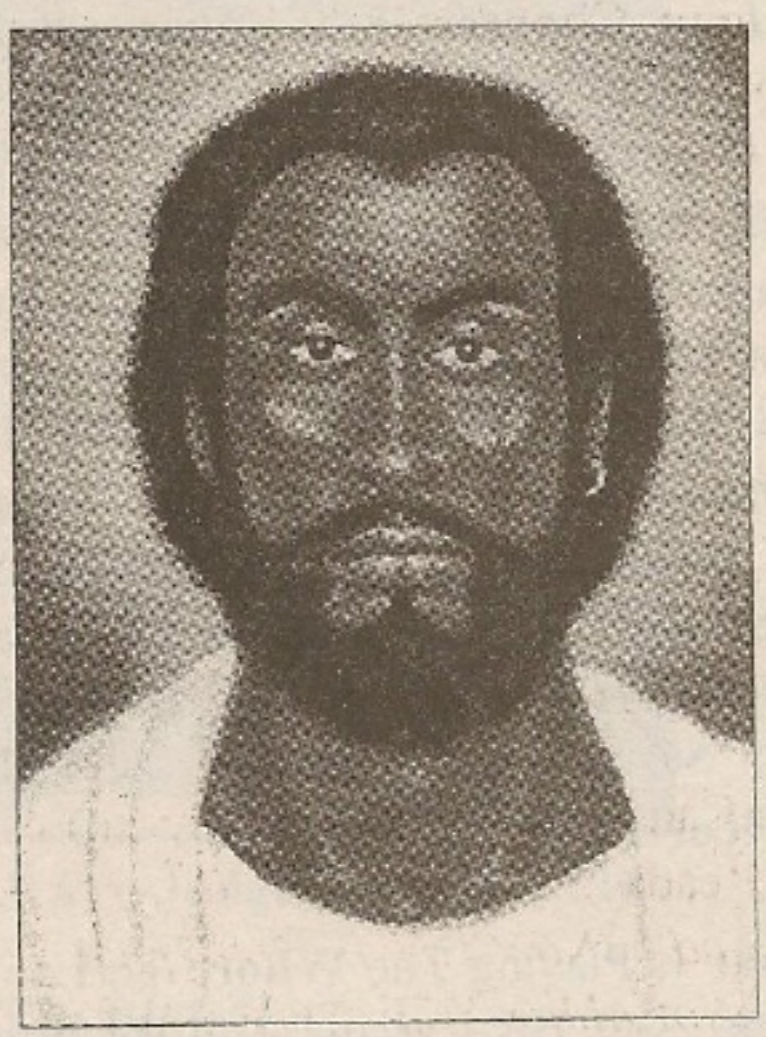
This Is Not The End Of It. God Is Actually Bratting Out. If You Go Further; To Leviticus 26:30, God Casts Or Delivers Their Corpses With The Idol Corpse, And Tells The Israelites In Verse 31, He's Not Going To Smell The Savour Of Their Sweet Odors Of Their Offerings Anymore. Then He's Going To Trick The People Who Survive And Send Them Crazy. He's Going To Make Them Think That People Are Chasing Them, However, It's Going To Be A Shaken Leaf. He's Wants Them To Kill Themselves Out Of Insanity (Leviticus 26:36-37). In Verse 41, He Says, If You Humble Yourself, And Confess That You Went Against Me, And Accept Your Punishment, Then, And Only Then I Will Remember That I Had A Covenant With Your Forefathers. All Of This Is Because He "Might Be Their God (Eloheem): I Am The Lord (Yahweh)." This Is Sick. Your God Is A Sick Man. If Your God Is A Sick Man That Conjures All These Evil Malicious Acts Against His Chosen People, Then Can You Imagine Or Put Into Thought What His Followers Would Do? There's A Story In The Bible In Genesis Chapter 38, That Speaks About A Man Named Judah (Yahuwdah), Who Goes And Messes Around With His Daughter In Law Named Tamar, Because He Thought She Was A Prostitute.

Tamar, Who Played The Whore



Judah, Father-In-Law To Tamar

Now The Messed Up Part About It Is That He Got His Daughter In Law Pregnant, And Three Months Later, They Confront Him Saying That Tamar Is Pregnant By Whoredom, Meaning Playing The Whore, Prostituting Around. Judah Answers By Saying "Bring Her Forth, And Let Her Be Burnt" In Verse 24. It's Not Really His Fault, Because He's Only Following How His God Thinks. This Is How The God Of The Bible Would Have Reacted To This Situation. Let's Go Through The Story Together.

In Genesis 38:1, Judah Goes To Adullam, A Cannanite Town, And Stays With A Man Named Hirah. He Then Marries The Daughter Of Shuah, Which The Bible Doesn't Name. They Gave Birth To Three Sons, Er, Onan And Shelah. Now Before I Go On, Back Then, According To The Bible, It Was Against The Law For The Israelites To Mix Their Seed With The Canaanites (Genesis 24:3, 24:37). Judah Married His First-Born Son Er Off To Tamar, But In Verse 7 He Is "...Wicked (Rah Meaning "Disagreeable") In The Sight (Ahyin Meaning "Eyesight") Of The Lord (Yahweh); And The Lord (Yahweh) Slew (Mooth Meaning "Killed, Executed, Be Put To Death") Him." So Judah Gives Onan, The Second Born To Tamar To Carry On His Brother's Seed, However, When They Have Sexual Intercourse, He Purposely Spills His Seed On The Floor In Verse 9. And Verse 10 Says "And The Thing Which He Did Displeased The Lord (Yahweh): Wherefore He Slew (Mooth) Him Also." God Kills Two People So Far. Now Judah's Last Son Shelah Wasn't Old Enough To Marry Tamar To Carry On The Seed Of Er, So Judah Sent Her Back To Her Father's House Until He Became Of Age For Marriage. Meanwhile, Judah's Mother-In-Law Dies, Then He Goes To Timnath With His Friend Hirah. Tamar Gets Word Of This, And Takes Off Her Widow's Garment And Puts On A Face Veil In Verse 14 And I Quote "And She Put Her Widow's Garments Off From Her, And Covered Her With A Veil (Tsaweef), And Wrapped Herself, And Sat In An Open Place, Which Is By The Way To Timnath; For She Saw That She'lah Was Grown, And She Was Not Given Unto Him To Wife."

Now I Find This Interesting At This Point, That Tamar Takes Off Her Widows' Clothes And Puts On A Face Veil To Go Whoring, And The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used Here Is Tsaweef (צעיף) Meaning "Veil, Wrapper, Shawl". I Thought The Face Veil Was Worn To Cover Yourself Out Of Piety. This Same Word Tsaweef Is Used In Genesis 24:65, When Rebecca Saw Isaac, A Man She Did Not Know, And She Covered Herself. They Use The Word Kawsaw (כסה) For Cover Meaning "To Cover, Conceal, Hide, Clothe". However, If You Go Back To Genesis 38:15, Judah Saw Tamar And Thought She Was A Harlot (Zawnaw), And It Says "..Because She Had Covered Her Face". So Whores Wear The Face Veil Of The Pious Woman. Is That What This Is Saying In Your Bible. The Koran 19:17 Says Mary Or Miriam, The Mother Of Jesus, Who Is Considered One Of The Pious Virtuous Woman Of Islam. "..Placed A Screen (To Screen Herself) From Them";. The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Word Used For Screen Is Hijaabaan (حجابا) Meaning "A Veil", From The Dictionary And Glossary Of The Kor-An, By J.Penrice.

So Tamar Is Playing The Whore To Lay Up With Judah. He Offers Her A Goat Or Kid From His Flock, And His Collateral Is His Signet Ring, Bracelets And Staff. Her Plan Works And Three Months Later, She Is Pregnant With Twins. Meanwhile Judah Sent Hirah With The Goat, And No One Knows Of The Harlot In The Town Of Timnath, So Judah Pushes It Under The Rug, And Says In Genesis 38:23 "Let Her Take It To Her, Lest We Be Shamed:...". The Word Shame In Aramic (Hebrew) Is Booz (בוז) Meaning "Contempt, Springing From Evil", And In English It Means "To Bring Dishonor Or Disgrace". So Judah Would Have Been Disgraced By This Incident, And He Committed Adultery Which Becomes Against The Mosaic Law Later In Exodus 20:14.

To Make A Long Story Short, When He Finds Out About This, He Wants Her To Burn To Death (Genesis 38:24), However, When He Realizes That She Was The Whore That He Laid Up With, He Changed His Mind, Because It Was His Fault. If He Would Have Given His Last Son Shelah

To Her To Marry Her, Then She Would Have Never Done This. She Was Taking Revenge, Which Caused Judah To Commit Adultery, And He Wanted To Burn Her To Death Without A Fair Trial Or Hearing. This Is The Works Of Gods Chosen People, And You Want Me To Proudly Say That I Am A Part Of This And That I Condone This?

Did You Know That Lynching Is Right In Your Bible. Did It Ever Come Across Your Mind That, Just Maybe, The K.K.K. Got This Concept From The Bible. In Deuteronomy Chapter 21, Starting From Verse 18, It Says If A Man Has A Stubborn And Rebellious Son, Who Will Not Listen To His Parents, Then His Parents Should Bring Him To The Elders. The Old Men Of The City, And In Verse 21, It Says "And All The Men Of His City Shall Stone Him With Stones That He Die: So Shalt Thou Put Evil Away From Among You;". Then In Verse 22 It Continues "If A Man Have Committed A Sin Worthy Of Death, And He Be Put To Death, And Thou Hang Him On A Tree:". This Is Lynching. God Condones Lynching In The Bible.

The K.K.K. Lynching Negro Because Of Pre-Judge(Ing) (Prejudice)

Ques: Is There Any Other Stories Of Lynching In The Bible?

Ans: Yes. You Will Find Lynching Mentioned In Your Bible In 2Samuel 4:12, Joshua 8:29, The King Of Ai Was Hung On A Tree, Then His Body Was Thrown At The Entrance Of The Gate Of Ai. In Joshua 10:26, Joshua The Successor After Moses, Hung His Enemies On Five Trees Until Evening, Then He Threw Them In A Cave And Blocked It Off With Rocks. Now When You Go To Numbers Chapter 25, The Israelites Began Prostituting With The Daughters Of Moab And Worshipping Ba'al-Peor, And If You Go To Verse 6 It Says "And The Lord (Yahweh) Said Unto Moses, Take All The Heads (Roshe) Of The People (Am), And Hang (Yawqah "Dislocated, Alienated") Them Up Before The Lord (Yahweh) Against The Sun (Shehmesh), That The Fierce (Khawrone) Anger (Af) Of The Lord (Yahweh) May Be Turned Away From Israel." From The Sound Of This Quote, Yahweh Tells Moses To Take The Heads, Meaning "Head Of Your Body" Of The People And Hang Them Up, However, The Bible Commentaries Claims That It Is Speaking Of The Israelite Leaders As Being Head, That Were To Be Executed. It Still Stands That Yahweh Told Moses To Execute These Israelites Because He Was Jealous Of The Fact That They Started To Worship Another God Named Ba'al-Peor, In Verse 3. In Verse 5, Moses Tells The Judges Of Israel To Slay, Kill (Hawrag Meaning "Kill, Murder, Destroy") Everyone That Worshipped Ba'al-Peor.

Meanwhile, While The Israelites Are Crying About This Incident, Zimri, Son Of Salu, A Prince Of The Simeonites Took A Midian Woman Into His Tent (Numbers 25:8). When Phinehas Saw It, He Took A Javelin, Went Into The Tent And In Verse 8 It Says "...And Thrust Both Of Them Through, The Man Of Israel, And The Woman Through Her Belly." Phinehas Killed Both Of Them, And Was Honored By Yahweh With A Covenant Of Peace In Verse 12, And In Verse 13, His Seed Or Generation Was Given "...An Everlasting Priesthood; Because He Was Zealous (Qawnaw "Meaning "Envy, Jealous") For His God (Eloheem),...". If You Go Back To Verse 9, It Says "And Those That Died In The Plague Were Twenty And Four Thousand (24,000)". The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used For Plague Is Maggayfaw (מגפה) Meaning "Blow, Slaughter, Plague". This Was A Slaughter, A Mass Murder. Your God Picked A Group Of People He Calls His Chosen People, The Israelites, And Constantly Murders Them Throughout The Bible. After This Massacre The Census Of The Men Of Israelites Who Were Able To Go To War Lessened From 603,550 To 601,730. (Refer To Scroll #127, Numbers Introduction) It Sounds Like Your God Is Reaping The Harvest To Me.

Ques: Does God Order The Slaughtering Of People?

Ans: Yes. According To The Books Of Numbers 1:46, Which Is Basically The Numbering Of The Tribes Of The Children Of Israel In The Wilderness, The Amount Of People Qualified To Fight In The Army Were 603,550. The Commentary States That The Israelite Nation Totaled Between 2-3 Million People. This Is Alot Of People Right. Now When You Go Further Into Numbers Chapter 26 Verses 5-51, The Census Is Taken Again, And The Amount Decreased By 1,820. Thus The Commentary In The Kings James Version Of The Bible, Page 252, Claims That 1,200,000 People Died In The Wilderness Within A Period Of 38 Years. This Sounds Like Mass Genocide.

In Numbers 14:37, God Or Yhwh Slaughtered 12 Men Because They Brought Back A Negative Report Of The Land Of Canaan, Which Happens To Be The Land That God Promised. Stole Or Just Took From A People To Give The Children Of Israel. Moses Was Told To Send Twelve Men To The Land Of Canaan To Spy On It, And See What Type Of Land It Was. Your God Again Did Not See Or Was Able To See For Himself. The Spies Went For 40 Days, And Came Back With A Good Report Of The Land Which Flowed With Milk And Honey, However, They Said There Were Giants There, In Verse 22,28,32-33 "Giants, The Sons Of Anak, Which Come Of The Giants: And We Were In Our Sight As Grasshoppers, And So We Were In Their Sight". This Caused The Rest Of The Israelites To Become Discouraged, And Start Crying Like Punks (Numbers 14:1). They Started Complaining In Verse 2-3, And Were Planning On Returning To Tama-Re. Joshua, Son Of Nun, And Caleb Son Of Jephun'neh Stuck Up For God, Trying To Convince Them That The Lord Will Deliver Them Into Their Hands, However, In Verse 10, It Says "All The Congregation Bade Stone Them With Stones." Meaning, The Congregation Threatened To Stone Them, And This Is Where God Or Yhwh Steps In, In Verse 11, Saying "How Long Will This People Provoke (Nawats "Despise") Me? And How Long Will It Be Ere They Believe (Awman "Confirm, Be Faithful") Me, For All The Signs Which I Have Shewed Among Them?"

Joshua, Son Of Nun

Caleb, Son Of Jephun'neh

Now God Or Yhwh Is Mad, So The Way He Expresses His Anger Is By Killing All Of The People With Pestilence (Dehber "Plague, Murrain, Cattle-Disease"), Disinheriting Them And Making Another Nation Greater Than Them (Numbers 14:12). Moses Reasoned With God Telling Him That If He Kills The Whole Nation, Then The Tama-Reans (Egyptians) Would Hear Of This And It Would Make Him Look Bad (Numbers 14:16). So Moses Was Able To Make God Change His Mind And In Verse 20-21, God Says "I Have Pardoned (Sawlakh Meaning "Forgive") According To Thy Word: But As Truly As I Live (Khahee), All The Earth Shall Be Filled With The Glory Of The Lord (Yahweh)." I Want To Stop For A Moment To Address This Above Quote. God Yhwh Is Saying "Truly As I Live". Now This Is Giving The Implication That If God Says I Live, This Will Happen, Then He Must Have A Life Span. Everything That Lives, That Is Intaking Oxygen, Has A Life Span, Meaning It Will End One Day When Their Time Is Up, And If He, God, Has A Life Span, Then He Must Have A Time Appointed For Him To Die, You Follow. This Limits Your God To Human Qualities. Your God Was Able To Be Tempted (Nawsaw "Test, Tempt") 10 Times In Numbers 14:22. How Can You Allow Mundane Creatures To Test You 10 Times. Come On. This Doesn't Even Sound Right. The Israelites Were This Close To The Land Of Canaan, However, God Was Mad At Them Because They Provoked Him, And He Sent Them Back In The Wilderness For 40 More Years To Die. Only Their Children Were Allowed To Go In The Land Of Canaan, And God Said He Will Let Them Become Whoredoms, Meaning Harlots In Numbers 14:33. The Whole Nation Of Israelites From Age 20 Up, Died In The Wilderness Including Moses And Aaron. The Only Two People That Survived Out Of That Group Were Joshua Son Of Nun, And Caleb Son Of Jephan'neh. This Means That Millions Of People Died Because God Did Not Want To Be

Provoked Or Tempted. Below Is The Number Of Men Of The 12 Tribes Of Israel Who Were Able To Go To War, Except For The Tribe Of Levi, Because They Were The Priests, So They Were Exempt By God.

Name Of Tribe	Total Amount In Each
Reuben	46,500
Simeon	59,300
Judah	74,600
Issachar	54,400
Zebulun	57,400
Ephraim	40,500
Manasseh	32,200
Benjamin	35,400
Dan	62,700
Asher	41,500
Gad	45,650
Naphtali	53,400

This Counts Comes Up To 603,550. And This Is Not Inclusive Of The Women, Children, And Men Under The Age Of 20 Who Were Not Able To Go To War Yet. Plus The Tribe Of Levi. Who Were Priests. All Of These People God Took Out Of Tama-Re, Made A Whole Big Play Around, Massacred Tama-Rean (Egyptian) Children, Men, Women, Animals For Them, And Then Killed Them In The Wilderness. This Doesn't Make Any Sense. Your God Is A Killer.

In Numbers 26:10, God Caused An Earthquake To Kill 250 Men. He Wanted Them To Be A Sign For The Other Israelites. If You Go Back And Read This Story, It Deals With Korah, Dathan And Abiram, Who Complains About How Much Authority Moses And Aaron Has In View Of The Fact That The Whole Congregation Was Holy. Moses Became Angry And Tells Them To Take Their Fire-Pans And Put Incense On Them, However, He Tells God Not To Re-Spect Or Accept Their Offering In Numbers 16:15. After God Kills Korah And His Whole Family, Men Women And Children, With An Earthquake (Numbers 16:30-33), He Sent Fire Down And Cremated The Other 250 People That Were Involved. This Is Not The End Of It.

The People Started Complaining Against Moses And Aaron, On How They Killed The People Of The Lord (Numbers 16:41), So God's Craft Came Over Them Covered In A Cloud (Awnawn). And Sent Out A Plague To Kill Them. Moses Tells Aaron To Take Incense From The Altar And Put It On A Fire-Pan, And Go Make An Atonement For Them. Aaron Runs In The Middle Of The Crowd, Makes The Atonement, Which Causes The Plague To Stop (Numbers 16:46-50). However, The Amount Of People That Died Were 14,700, Because They Made God Mad. From This One Incident, 14,950 Died, Which Is Not Inclusive Of Korah And His Wife, Children. Brothers, Sisters, Mother, Father, Etc., You Follow. So Now Mr. Christian Preacher Or Mr.

Rabbi, What Kind Of God Are You Worshipping? Everytime He Gets Mad, He Goes And Kills His Chosen People, Or Sends Fire From The Sky To Cremate Them. It's Obvious That Your God Is Not As Forgiving As You Make Him Out To Be. That's Not My God!

In 1Samuel Chapter 4, The Israelites Took The Ark Of The Covenant Into Their Land, And When The Philistines Found Out, They Became Afraid And Said In Verse 8 "Woe Unto Us! Who Shall Deliver Us Out Of The Hand Of These Mighty (Addeer) Gods (Eloheem)? These Are The Gods (Eloheem) That Smote The Egyptians With All The Plagues In The Wilderness." I Want To Make A Point Right Here. So The Philistines Slaughtered 30,000 Men That Day Of The Israelites, And Took The Ark Of Covenant Into Their Land. If The Israelites Were God's Chosen People, Why Did He Not Help Them? Where Was He Eating Or Sleeping? Ask Your Preachers That Question. Why Didn't God Come Through For His Chosen People? Now Here Comes The Humorous Part. Your God Has A Funny Sense Of Humor With The Different Things That He Does To Punish People. So Now That The Philistines Have The Ark Of The Covenant. God Destroys Them In 1Samuel 5:6, And Smites Them With Emerods. Do You Know What Emerods Are? Emerods Is Another Way Of Saying Hemorrohoids. Your God Gave The Philistines Hemorrhoids. Can You Image That? The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used For Emerods Is Tekhore (טחר) And Ofel (אפל) Meaning "Hemorrhoid". The Next Two Cities The Philistines Took The Ark To, The Same Thing Happens. They Were In So Much Pain To The Point That Their Cry Went Up To Heaven (1Samuel 5:12). If You Read Verse 9, It Tells You "...The Hand (Yawd "Physical Hands". God Has Physical Hands) Of The Lord (Yahweh) Was Against The City With A Very Great Destruction: And He Smote The Men Of The City, Both Small And Great, And They Had Emerods In Their Secret Parts."

In The Kings James Commentary On Page 421, They Claim That "Emerods, Comes From "To Swell", Meaning Tumors Or Boils. Perhaps The Sores Were The Symptoms Of Bubonic Plague,...". When You Look Up Bubonic Plague It Is A "Contagious, Often Fatal Epidemic Disease Caused By The Bacterium Yersinia Pestis, Transmitted From Person To Person Or By The Bite Of Fleas From An Infected Host, Especially A Rat, And Characterized By Chills, Fever, Vomiting, Diarrhea And The Formation Of Buboes", And The Word Buboes Means Bu·Bo (B›"B'z, By›"-) N., Pl. Bu·Boes. An Inflamed, Tender Swelling Of A Lymph Node, Especially In The Area Of The Armpit Or Groin, That Is Characteristic Of Certain Infections, Such As Plague And Syphilis. Make Note That After This Bubonic Plague Happened In Europe, The War Of The Roses Began, Because Their Blood Were Tampered. (Refer To Scroll #15, Leviathan) This Is The Disease That The God Of The Israelites Gave The Philistines. The Philistines Made 5 Golden Images Of Their Hemorrhoids And 5 Golden Images Of Their Mice, Then Sent The Ark Away Full Of Treasures To Beth-Shemesh (1Samuel 6:3-14).

When The Ark Of The Covenant Reaches Beth-Shemesh, Which Is A Levitical Place, The People Are Happy Because The Ark Of The Covenant Is Finally With Them. They Take The Ark Down Off The Cart, And 1Samuel 6:14-15 Says That They Offer Burnt Offering (Olaw) Sacrifices (Zehbakh) To The Lord That Day. However, Through All This Celebration God Turns Around And Kills The Men Of Bethshemesh Because In It Says In Verse 19 "They Had Looked Into The Ark Of The Lord, Even He Smote Of The People Fifty Thousand And Threescore And Ten Men (50,070): And The People Lamented Because The Lord Had Smitten (Nawkaw) Many Of The People With A Great Slaughter (Makkaw)." God Kills 50,070 People Just Because Someone Took A Sneak Peak In The Ark, Which Supposedly Goes Against The Book Of Numbers 4:20. Is This Your God's Way Of Expressing His Anger? If God Knew What Is Inside Of Your Heart, Your Every Thoughts, Then He Must Have Known That The Person Who Looked Inside The Ark Didn't Mean To Offend God. They Were Just Happy That They Finally Had The Ark With Them. Why Couldn't God Just Say, All Right, I'll Let You Slide This Time, Just Don't Let It Happen Again. Why? What Was The Point God?

Ques: How Does God Express His Anger Or Fury?

Ans: In 2Samuel 24:1 It Says "And Again The Anger Of The Lord (Yahweh) Was Kindled Against Israel,...". 2Samuel 24:15, The Lord Sends A Pestilence On Israel Which Killed 70,000 Men. Then In Down Verse 16, It Says "And When The Angel Stretched Out His Hand Upon Jerusalem To Destroy It, The Lord Repented Him Of The Evil, And Said To The Angel That Destroyed The People, It Is Enough: Stay Now Thine Hand. And The Angel Of The Lord Was By The Threshingplace Of Araunah The Jebusite". Now According To This Quote Above, You Know That God Could Easily Stop The Famine, Stop The Pestilence, Stop The Crime, Stop The War, Stop The Murder, Let Alone Stop The Evil With The Wave Of A Hand. This Is Possible According To This Quote For God Or His Angels, Okay. So Now You Know That God Is Allowing All Of These Evil Acts To Happen, And He Allowed These Evil Acts In The Bible To Happen, Because He Could Have Simply Stopped It, Or He Could Have Sent His Angels To Stop It With A Simple Wave Of A Hand.

In 2Chronicles 21:14-15, It Says "Behold, With A Great Plague Will The Lord (Yahweh) Smite Thy People, And Thy Children, And Thy Wives, And All Thy Goods: And Thou Shalt Have Great Sickness By Disease Of Thy Bowels, Until Thy Bowels Fall Out By Reason Of The Sickness Day By Day." God Gets Mad To The Point Where He Allows Your Intestines, Bowels To Fall Out Your Body. This Is Some Gruesome Stuff.

Then In Zechariah 14:12 "And This Shall Be The Plague Wherewith The Lord Will Smite All The People That Have Fought Against Jerusalem; Their Flesh Shall Consume Away While They Stand Upon Their Feet, And Their Eyes Shall Consume Away In Their Holes, And Their Tongue Shall Consume Away In Their Mouth." From The Description Above, Could You Imagine What This Person Would Look Like? What Makes God Think Of All This? This Is Nasty, Disgusting, Gruesome, Insane, Etc.

If You Go To The Books Of Malachi 2:3, God Says "Behold, I Will Corrupt Your Seed, And Spread Dung Upon Your Faces,...". By The Way, Dung Is Just Another Way Of Saying Feces. So God Is Going To Spread Feces On Your Face If You Don't Worship Him. He Sounds Like A Little Kid. I'm Going To Put Dodo On Your Face, If You Don't Love Me. Your God Has Problems, And You Ask Me Why I Don't Want To Worship Your God And Read Your Bible And Koran That Is Full Of Stories Like This From Cover To Cover.

Your God Also Says In Zephaniah 1:17 "And I Will Bring Distress Upon Men, That They Shall Walk Like Blind Men, Because They Have Sinned Against The Lord: And Their Blood Shall Be Poured Out As Dust, And Their Flesh As The Dung (Their Flesh, Skin Is Going To Be As Feces)." You Can Also Find This In Jeremiah 8:2, Where It Says "The People Will Be For Dung For The Earth", And Jeremiah 9:22 Where It Says "The Carcass Of The People Shall Fall As Dung".

Then In Jeremiah 16:4 God Says "They Shall Die Of Grievous Deaths; They Shall Not Be Lamented; Neither Shall They Be Buried; But They Shall Be As Dung Upon The Face Of The Earth: And They Shall Be Consumed By The Sword, And By Famine; And Their Carcasses Shall Be Meat For The Fowls Of Heaven, And For The Beasts Of The Earth." If You Go To The Book Of Ezekiel, God Tells Ezekiel In Ezekiel Chapter 4 Verse 12, That He "Shall Bake Cakes With Dung (Feces) That Cometh Out Of Man, In Their Sight". However, After He Pleaded With God Because He Didn't Want To Consume Human Feces, God Tells Him In Verse 15, "I Have Given Thee Cow's Dung For Man's Dung, And Thou Shalt Prepare Thy Bread Therewith".

In Numbers 11:1, God (Yahweh) Became Mad, When The People Complained, And "...His Anger Was Kindled: And The Fire Of The Lord (Yahweh) Burnt Among Them, And Consumed Them That Were In The Uttermost Parts Of The Camp." Then In Verse 4-9, The Israelites Complained, Cried, And Were Considered Lusting Because They Prefer Not To Eat Manna Anymore. They Reminisce About The Good Food They Used To Have In Tama-Re. In Verse 10, It Says "...And The Anger Of The Lord (Yahweh) Was Kindled Greatly:...". So He Gave Them Quail From The Sea In Verse 31, However, God Waited Until The Meat Was Between Their Teeth, And Chewed, Then He Sent Out A Plague, And Killed All Of Them. Moses Said In Numbers 11:21, That There Were 600,000 Footmen, So That Means That 600,000 Footmen Died Because Of This Incident. Was This Necessary To Kill All Of Them? The Israelites Were Tired Of Eating Manna. And They Wanted Meat. What's The Matter God? Did You Become Insulted Because They Did Not Prefer To Eat Your Manna Any More? And This Is How You Reacted. You Kill Them. Does That Make It Right Reverend? Does Killing Justify This Act? Why Couldn't God Just Eliminate Their Desire For Eating Meat And Good Food? If God Does Stupid, Unnecessary, Corrupt Things, Can You Imagine What His Followers Do?

Ques: What Are Some Of The Other Corrupt Stories Of The Bible?

Ans: In Judges 19:11-30; 20:1-46 An Unnamed Israelite Priest And His Mistress Stop By The Town Of Gibeah To Spend The Night. No One Wants To Give Them A Place To Stay, However. An Old Man Lets Them Stay With Him (Judges 19:16). The People Of The Town Encircled The House And Wanted To Have Sex With The Priest. In Judges 19:22, The Men Of The Town Says "...Bring Forth The Man That Came Into Thine House, That We May Know (Yawdah) Him." This Is The Same Term Used In Genesis 19:5 When The People Of Sodom And Gomorrah Asked Lot To Bring The Angels Out, So That They May Know (Yawdah) Them. Thus The Old Man Comes Out Of The House, He Offered His Virgin (Bethoolaw) Daughter And The Man's Concubine Instead Of The Man, Whom The Men Of Town Declines (Judges 19:23-24). Judges 19:24 Says: "Behold, Here Is My Daughter A Maiden, And His Concubine: Them I Will Bring Out Now, And Humble (Awnaw) Ye Them, And Do With Them What Seemeth Good (Towb "Agreeable") Unto You: But Unto This Man Do Not So Vile (Nebawlaw "Disgrace") A Thing." The Priest, Who Was A Punk, Throws His Mistress Out To The Men And Verse 25.

Says They Raped And Abused Her All Night Long Until The Morning Hours. In The Morning, When They Let Her Go, She Was Dead.

So Now When The Priest Comes Out From Having A Good Nights Rest, He Sees Her Fallen Down At The Door, And Tells Her In Verse 28, "Up, And Let Us Be Going". He Has No Concern Whatsoever As To What Happened To Her, As Long As It Did Not Happen To Him. This Priest Was, A Punk. Now, When He Realized That She Was Dead, He Took A Knife. Chopped Her Body Into 12 Pieces, Bones Attached, And Sent It To The Twelve Tribes Of Israel.

Now When The Priest Tells The Israelites What Happened To His Concubine. He Discludes The Fact That He Pushed His Concubine Out Their To Get Raped Instead Of Him (Judges 20:5). In Order To Avenge Her Death, Eleven Tribes Out Of Israel Goes In A War Against Gibeah. However, The Tribe Of Benjamin Defends Gibeah. God Is Even In On This One. He Tells The Israelites In Verse 18, To Send The Tribe Of Judah Up First To Fight. The Israelites Made A Oath In Judges 21:5, To Kill Whichever Tribe Doesn't Come To Help Them Avenge The Death Of The Concubine. Remember This Point Okay. Because Of This Oath, Other Tribes Of People Are Massacred Later On In The Story. This War Against Gibeah And The Tribe Of Benjamin Kills Over Sixty-Five Thousand Men.

After The Slaughter, Only Six Hundred Men Were Left Of The Tribe Of Benjamin (Judges 20:47). The Other Eleven Tribes Of Israel Felt Sorry Now, Because They Couldn't Let One Of Israel's Tribes Die Out, But They Already Promised God That They Wouldn't Give Their Daughters In Marriage To The Loser, Benjamites (Judges 21:7). They Come Up With A Solution. The Eleven Tribes Destroyed The City Of Jabash Gilead (Whose Inhabitants Had Failed To Participate In War Against Gibeah). They Killed All The Men, Women Who Were Not Virgins, And Children. The Four Hundred Virgins That Were Left Alive Were Given To The Benjamites, Which Still Left Two Hundred Men Short Of Wives.

So The Elders Of Israel, Supposedly The Wise Men Of The Town, Ordered Them To Go To The Nearby City Of Shiloh, And When The Girls Come Out To Dance At A Certain Time, They Stole Enough Virgins To Become Their Wives (Judges 20:47-48; 21). When Their Fathers And Brothers Complained About It, The Elders Will Say "Be Favourable Unto Them For Our Sakes: Because We Reserved Not To Each Man His Wife In The War: For Ye Did Not Give Unto Them At This Time, That Ye Should Be Guilty." What Kind Of Crazy Stuff Is This? If The Men Gave In To This, Then They Are Punks; Which They Were. Your Bible Is Full Of Punk Men Starting From Abraham, Going Down All The Way To Jesus. That's Right Jesus Was A Punk Too.

Though The Bible Is A Bloody Gruesome Book, In Which God Does Most Of The Killing Being He Is Either, Jealous Or Angry, Or Tired Of Being Provoked, Those Who Justify Their Own Brutality By Citing Its "Eye For Eye, Tooth For Tooth" (Exodus 21:24, Leviticus 24:20, Deuteronomy 19:21, Matthew 5:38) Passage, Are Taking It Out Of Context. There Is Nothing Allegorical About This. The Reverend Seems To Bypass Exodus 21:23 Where It Says "And If Any Mischief Follow, Then Thou Shalt Give Life For Life,". This Quote Is Telling You That God Or Yhwh, Jehovah, Condones Killing Because This Quote Is Part Of His Laws Concerning

His Personal Injury Think About All Of The Different Murders And Mass Genocide That Occurs. If You Investigate The Person, Their Background And Their Religion, You Would See That The Majority Of The Time They Are Christians, Jews, Or Muslims Worldwide, Who All Subscribe To The Old Testament, The New Testament And The Koran, Which Are Categorized Under Religion (Re-Legions). God's Approval For Such Action Is Pinpointed Specifically It Only Applies 1) When Men Who Are Fighting 2) Hit A Pregnant Woman 3) Who Then Miscarries 4) And Is Seriously Injured As A Result. Exodus 21:22-25. Throughout God's Law, He Constantly Tells You If Someone Does Something To You, Then Kill Them "Life For Life". These Are The Very Exact Words Of Your Killer God.

The Nicest Words Ever Attributed To God "Love Your Neighbor As Yourself" (Leviticus 19:18), Have Been Significantly Improved By Taking Them Out Of Context. In Simple Words, It Is Clear That The "Neighbor" God Refers To Is A Neighboring Israelite, Nobody Else, Which You Can See In Your Bible. On Countless Occasions Throughout The Bible, He Commands The Israelites To Slaughter Their Enemies And Take Their Women, Children, And Booty.

Many People That Went To Sunday-School All Their Lives Know The Story Of Balaam And His God-Fearing, Talking Ass. It's The Only Nice Animal Story In The Old Testament (Numbers 22:21-34). Then The All-Knowing, Omnipresent God, Who Is Suppose To Know The Whereabouts Of Everyone On The Planet Earth, Asks Balaam In Numbers 22:9, "...What Men Are These With Thee?". Your God's Power Is Limited. It's The Same As The Story In The Garden, In Genesis 3:8-9, Where Adam (Qadmon) And Eve (Nekaybaw) Heard God Walking In The Cool Of The Day, So They Hid Themselves, And God Had To Ask In Verse 9, "Where Art Thou?". This Is Your All-Knowing Omnipresent God Here Okay. If I Am Playing Hide And Seek With My Child, And I Have To Ask Him/Her Where Is He/She At, Then I Can't Be All-Knowing, Because I Didn't Know For That Moment Where He/She Was At, You Follow? This Is The Same Thing That Your God Does. Now God Plays Mind Games With Balaam Because He Tells Him To Go With The Messengers Of Balaam In Numbers 22:20-22, However, When He Does Obey God, And Goes, God Gets Mad At Him Because He Went, Thus He Sends An Angel (Malawk), To Stand In His Way.

"AND GOD'S (ELOHEEM) ANGER WAS KINDLED BECAUSE HE WENT: AND THE ANGEL (MALAWK) OF THE LORD (YAHWEH) STOOD (YAWTSAWB) IN THE WAY FOR AN ADVERSARY (SAWTAWN) AGAINST HIM."

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

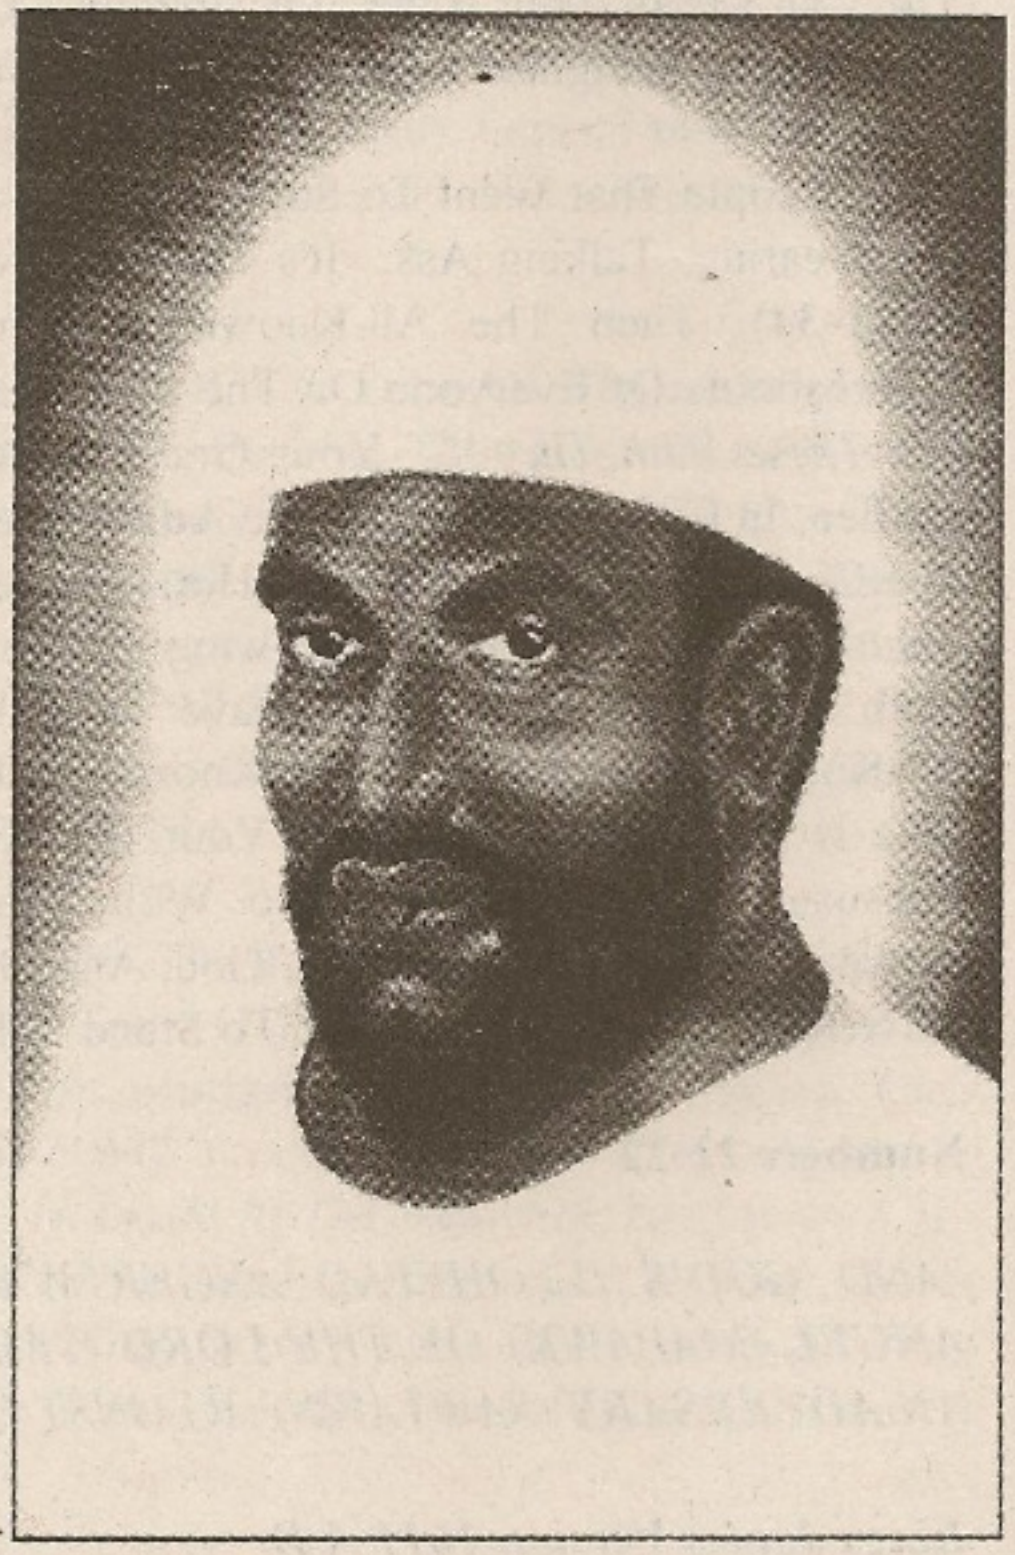
Do You See The Stupidity In This. God Is So Petty That As The Angel Is Standing In Balaam's Way, The Only One That Can See Him Is The Ass. Balaam Can't See The Angel, And He Thinks That The Ass Is Being Disobedient, So He Starts Hitting Him. This Happens Not Once, However, Three Times. So The Last Time, In Numbers 22:28, "The Lord Opened The Mouth Of The Ass, And She Said Unto Bal'aam, What Have I Done Unto Thee That Thou Smiteth Me Three Times?". God Actually Made An Animal Talk. This Is Some Stupid Stuff, Because If God

Could Make The Animal Talk Why Couldn't He Make Balaam And The Ass See The Angel Standing In Front Of Them, Which Would Have Avoided The Ass From Getting Hit, You Follow. This Is Where God Opens (Gawlaw "Uncovers") The Eyes Of Ba'laam And Allows Him To See The Angel (Malawk). Was This Necessary? This Whole Incident Could Have Been Prevented In The Beginning, By God Telling Balaam Not To Go, Instead Of Telling Him To Go, Then Getting Mad At Him For Going. That Doesn't Make Any Sense. It's Like Your Mother Telling You, 'I Want You To Clean Your Room', Then When You Go To Clean Your Room, She Gets Mad At You For Cleaning Your Room, Because She Wanted You To Take The Garbage Out. Your God Doesn't Make Sense. If He Would Stop Talking In Parables So Much Then Maybe His People Would Understand Him, And Not Get Into So Much Stuff. The Reverend Doesn't Teach You This, And He Doesn't Inform You That Despite All This That God Put Him Through, Balaam Was Deliberately Hunted Down And Butchered In The Midianite Massacre By The Israelites, Who Are God's Chosen People In Numbers 31:8.

You Probably Know The Story Of Daniel, The Prophet Of The God Of Israel, In The Lion's Den (Daniel 6:19-24): How He Was Condemned To Spend A Night In It, Because He Prayed To God. They Use The Word Elah (אלה) In Daniel 6:20. Then, An Angel (Malawk) Shut The Lion's Mouths So That Daniel Could Live. What You Probably Don't Know Is That Immediately After Daniel Was Pulled Out Of The Lion's Den, All Of Daniel's Accusers Were Thrown In The Den Under The Kings Command, Along With All Their Wives And Children And The Lion Broke All The Bones In Their Bodies To Pieces. (Daniel 6:24).

Daniel 6:24

AND THE KING COMMANDED, AND THEY BROUGHT THOSE MEN WHICH HAD ACCUSED DANIEL, AND THEY CAST THEM INTO THE DEN OF LIONS, THEM, THEIR CHILDREN, AND THEIR WIVES; AND THE LIONS HAD THE MASTERY OF THEM, AND BRAKE ALL THEIR BONES IN PIECES OR EVER THEY CAME AT THE BOTTOM OF THE DEN.
Kings James Version 1611 A.D.



Daniel, Another Prophet Of God

This Is A Cruel Punishment, Especially For The Children Who Had No Knowledge Of What Was Going On. Couldn't They Have Been Left Out Of The Situation. You Could Have Easily Proven Your Point With The Accusers Only, Why Was It Necessary To Use Their Wives And Their Children. This Was Not Necessary.

Jonah, Trapped On A Stormy Sea By God, Is Thrown Overboard By His Fearful Shipmates. He Is Promptly Swallowed By A "Great Fish" (The Bible Never Uses The Word Whale) In Which God Lets Him Partially Digest For Three Days. Only When God Is Firmly Convinced That Jonah Has Reformed From His Rebellious Ways, Does He Order The Fish To Vomit Him Out Onto The Sea Shore. (Jonah 1:3-17; 2:10). What Would Have Happened If Jonah Never Reformed Himself? Would He Still Be Stuck Inside The Belly Of The Whale?

In Exodus 17:10-13 The People Of Israel Battle The People Of Amalek. Moses Watches From A Hill, And Whenever He Raises His Hand, The People Of Israel Win And Whenever He Lowers His Hands They Begin To Lose. Moses Is Now About The Age Of 80 Years Old, So He Becomes Tired Pretty Often. Moses' Two Companions Comes Up With A Brilliant Solution By Sitting Moses On A Rock And Holding Up Both Of His Hands. This Is The Works Of Your God? If God Made Moses A Eloheem In Exodus 7:1, Then He Should Have Looked Out For Him, And Took Into Consideration His Old Age At This Point In His Life. Your God Has A Funny Sense Of Humor. In Exodus 20:26 God Instructs Moses That No Altar To God Should Have Steps Because The People Ascending Steps Might Expose Their Genitals.

Exodus 20:26

NEITHER SHALT THOU GO UP BY STEPS UNTO MINE ALTAR, THAT THY NAKEDNESS BE NOT DISCOVERED THEREON.
Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

Jacob's Eldest Son Reuben Has Sex With His Father's Concubine Named Bilhah (Genesis 35:22). The Bible Later Mentions That Reuben "Defiled His Father's Bed" (1 Chronicles 5:1). Reuben Was Sleeping Around With His Father's Women, And This Commonly Happens Today.

David's Son Amnon Brutally Rapes His Half-Sister Tamar. Another Of David's Sons, Absalom, Who Is Tamar's Sister By Their Mother, Finds Out About The Rape And Tells Tamar In 2Samuel 13:20: "Has That Amnon, Your Brother, Been With You? Be Quiet Now, My Sister; He Is Your Brother. Don't Take This Thing To Heart." 2 Samuel 13:1-20 Tamar Stays In Absaloms House, However, This Brought Hatred Between Absalom And Amnon. David Couldn't Do Anything About This, Because He Did This. Amnon Was Just Following After His Father's Footsteps.

Absalam, Brother Of Tamar

Absalom Waits 2 Years To Take Revenge At A Banquet That He Holds For The Kings Son, Then He Ordered The Death Of Amnon (2Samuel 13:23-30). Absalom Then Flees To Geshur For Three Years (2Samuel 13:38) (Refer To El's Holy Torah).

In Psalms 137:9 It Says "Happy Shall They Be Who Take Your Little Ones And Dash Them Against The Rocks!" Then You Find In Exodus 15:6, God Dashes (Rawats "To Shatter") His Enemies To Pieces With His Right Hand. Isaiah 13:16, Says "Their Children Also Shall Be Dashed (Rawtash "Dash To Pieces") To Pieces Before Their Eyes; Their Houses Shall Be Spoiled, And Their Wives Ravished (Meaning Raped)."

Tamar

God Will Allow The Children To Be Thrown To Pieces, And Their Women To Be Raped. Turn To Isaiah 13:18. It Reads "Their Bows Also Shall Dash (Rawtash) The Young Men To Pieces; And They Shall Have No Pity On The Fruit Of The Womb; Their Eye Shall Not Spare Children." Then God Doesn't Have Any Compassion At All In Jeremiah 13:14, Where It Says "And I Will Dash (Nawfats "Shatter, Beat In Pieces") Them One Against Another, Even The Fathers And The Sons Together, Saith The Lord: I Will Not Pity, Nor Spare, Nor Have Mercy, But Destroy Them." Hosea 10:14 Adds On "Therefore Shall A Tumult Arise Among Thy People, And All Thy Fortresses Shall Be Spoiled, As Shalman Spoiled Betharbel In The Day Of Battle: The Mother Was Dashed In Pieces (Rawtash) Upon Her Children." Hosea 13:16 Says "Samaria Shall Become Desolate; For She Hath Rebelled Against Her God: They Shall Fall By The Sword: Their Infants Shall Be Dashed In Pieces (Rawtash), And Their Women With Child Shall Be Ripped Up." And Finally In Nahum 3:10 It Concludes These Gruesome Acts By Stating "Yet Was She Carried Away, She Went Into Captivity: Her Young Children Also Were Dashed In Pieces (Rawtash) At The Top Of All The Streets:".

I Just Want To Tell God Something. Even If You Wanted To Get Back At Someone, You Do Not Use Their Children As Bait This Is Gruesome. Can You Imagine Taking A Watermelon And Dashing Or Banging It Against A Rock To Open It, And All The Pieces And Juices Start Flying All Over The Place? Now Imagine Doing The Same To A Little Child. You Are Holding Him By The Legs And Dashing Or Banging His Head Or Body Against A Rock Until Everything Is Splattered All Over The Place. This Is What This Quote Is Saying. This Is Disgusting To Even Think Of .

Suppose A Man Marries A Woman, But After Going In To Her, He Dislikes Her And Makes Up Charges Against Her, Slandering Her By Saying, 'I Married This Woman; But When I Lay With Her, I Did Not Find Evidence Of Her Virginity.' The Father Of The Young Woman And Her

Mother Shall Then Submit The Evidence Of The Young Woman's Virginity To The Elders Of The City At The Gate. The Father Of The Young Woman Shall Say To The Elders: 'I Gave My Daughter In Marriage To This Man But He Dislikes Her; Now He Has Made Up Charges Against Her, Saying, "I Did Not Find Evidence Of Your Daughter's Virginity." But Here Is The Evidence Of My Daughter's Virginity.' Then They Shall Spread Out The Cloth Before The Elders Of The Town. The Elders Of That Town Shall Take The Man And Punish Him; They Shall Fine Him One Hundred Shekels Of Silver (Which They Shall Give To The Young Woman's Father) Because He Has Slandered A Virgin Of Israel. She Shall Remain His Wife; He Shall Not Be Permitted To Divorce Her As Long As He Lives. "If However, This Charge Is True, That Evidence Of The Young Woman's Virginity Was Not Found, Then They Shall Bring The Young Woman Out To The Entrance Of Her Father's House And The Men Of Her Town Shall Stone Her To Death...." Deuteronomy 22:13-21

This Is A Good One. In Psalm 116:15 "Precious In The Sight Of The Lord Is The Death Of His Faithful Ones." So God Actually Sits Around And Waits For His Faithful Followers To Die, And This Is Precious To Him.

Now Let's Read Deuteronomy 25:11-12 Where It States And I Quote: "When Men Strive (Natsah) Together One With Another, And The Wife Of The One Draweth Near For To Deliver Her Husband Out Of The Hand Of Him That Smiteth Him, And Putteth Forth Her Hand, And Taketh Him By The Secrets (Mawboosh): 12 Then Thou Shalt Cut Off Her Hand, Thine Eye Shall Not Pity Her."

The Aramic (Hebrew) Used For Strive Is Natsah (נצו) Meaning "To Fight, Struggle". Now The Word Used For Secrets In This Quote Is Mawboosh (מבש) Meaning "Private Parts, His Privates, Male Genitals." So In Other Words, If A Woman's Husband And Another Man Are Fighting Each Other, And The Woman Jumps In To Help Her Husband And Grabs The Man Private Parts. Then It Is Okay To Cut Her Hand Off. This Is How You Know The Bible Was Written By Men. Because In A Life Or Death Situation, I Don't Think That Her Husband Would Have Cared.

In The Book Of Judges 9:1-57, Gideon Gave Birth To 70 Sons Before He Died. After Gideon Died, Abimelech, His Son By His Concubine From Shechem Went, Borrowed 70 Pieces Of Silver From His Mothers Family, And Gathered The People From Schechem To Execute Gideons' Other Sons In Public (Judges 9:5). Only The Youngest Son Named Jotham Survived And Fled To Another Town. Before He Escaped, He Spoke To The People Of Schechem And Cursed Abimelech, And The People Of Schechem Who Helped Him (Judges 9:7-21). After Three Years Of Abimelech's Reign, Judges 9:23, Says "Then God (Eloheem) Sent An Evil (Rah) Spirit (Rooakh) Between Abimelech And The Men Of Shechem; And The Men Of Shechem Dealt Treacherously With Abimelech:". Then The People Who Helped Abimelech Turned Against Him, And Wanted To Kill Him. Abimelech Fought Against Them And Killed Them. Only 1,000 Men And Women Survived, Who Ran To A Nearby Tower. Abimelech Then Took Wood, Mounted It Up On The Tower, And Set It On Fire (Judges 9:46-49). Abimelech Then Tried This Again In The City Of Thebez, However This Time, A Woman Throws A "Piece Of Millstone Upon Abimelech's Head, And All To Brake His Skull" (Judges 9:53). Before He Died, He Told One Of His Soldiers To Kill Him With The Sword, So That The Men Don't Say That He Was Murdered By A Women. So Egotistical. God Made This Happen According To Judges 9:56, And He Put The Curse Of Jotham On The Other People Of Shechem, That Helped Abimelech.

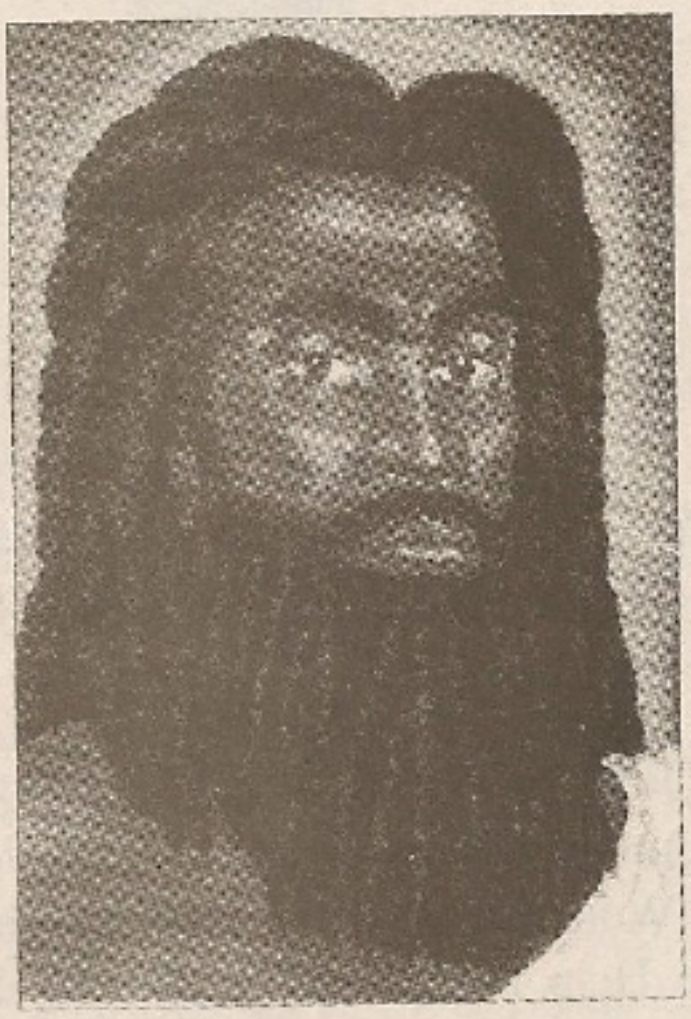
I Know You Are Familiar With The Story Of Samson And Delilah (Judges Chapter 16). Every Reverend Taught This Story In Their Bible School. Samson, Who Is Born A Nazarite, Goes To The Town Of Gaza And Falls In Love With A Woman Named Delilah. Make Note That Samson Has Killed Thousands Of Philistines Prior To Him Moving To Gaza, Which Is A City Where The Philistines Live. So He Basically Went Into His Own Trap, And Deserved What Came To Him.



Samson

Delilah

The 5 Lords (Sehren "Tyrant') Of The Philistines Goes To Delilah And Promises To Give Her 1100 Shekels Each If She Finds His Weak Spot. She Agrees, And Keeps Asking Samson Where He Receives His Strength From. He Lies To Her Three Times, So By The Fourth Time, She Uses Reverse Physiology On Him, Bugs Him To Death (Judges 16:16) And He Finally Gives In, And Tells Her His Secret. His Strength Lied In His Hair. So When He Fell Asleep On Her Knees, Delilah Had One Of The Philistines Cut Off His Hair, Which Cut Off His Power. Where Was God When Samson Needed His Help, And Why Did He Let Samson Fall Into The Women, And Tell Her His Strength?

Delilah Got Paid, The Philistines Took Samson To Prison, Put His Own Eyes Out And Chained Him Up (Judges 16:21). When The Philistines Gathered To Give An Offering To Dagon, Their Babylonian Fish Deity, They Called For The Blind Samson To Entertain Them. Samson Came In The Arena And Asked His God For One Last Wish. And Judges 16:28 Says "O Lord (Adonay) God (Yahweh), Remember Me, I Pray Thee, And Strengthen Me, I Pray Thee, That Only This Once, O God (Yahweh), That I May Be At Once Avenged Of The Philistines For My

Two Eyes." There Were Approximately 3,000 Philistines In That Arena, Woman, Children, And Men, However, God Granted Samson His Wish, And In Verse 30, It Says "...And The House Fell Upon The Lords (Sehren), And Upon All The People That Were Therein. So The Dead Were More Than They Which He Slew In His Life." This Is Proudly Being Boasted In The Bible. The Fact That Samson Kills 3,000 People In One Shot, For Revenge, Is God's Way Of Giving Him An Honorable Death. Something's Not Computing Here. I Don't Understand Why God Couldn't Prevent This Whole Situation From Happening. If God Knew What Was Predestined For Samson, Because Remember, He Knows The Destiny Of Everybody, Then Why Did He Allow Samson To Go To The City Of Gaza To Live Amongst His Enemies? Did God Want This To Happen To Samson? This Is The Stupidity That We Are Encountered With In Your Bible.

You Find In The Letters Of 2Corinthians 11:8, Paul, Whose Doctrine You Are Following, Robbed The Churches Taking Their Wages. This Sounds Like What The Preachers Are Doing Today To Their Congregations.

Ques: Are There Stories Of Adultery In The Bible And The Koran?

Ans: Yes. According To God, In Numbers 5:11-31, Any Man Who Suspects His Wife Of Adultery Must Bring Her Into God's Tent, Where A Priest Will Make Her Drink Dirty Water. "...The Water," God Explains, "Shall Enter Into Her And Cause Bitter Pain, And Her Womb Shall Discharge, Her Uterus Drop, And The Woman Shall Become An Execration Among Her People." Unless, Of Course, The Woman Is Innocent, In Which Case "She Shall Be Immune And Be Able To Conceive Children."

In Koran 24:2 It Says: "The Woman And The Man Guilty Of Adultery Or Fornication Flog Each Of Them With A Hundred Stripes: Let Not Compassion Move You In Their Case, In A Matter Prescribed By Allah,...".

What About The Famous Story Of David And Bathsheba. The King David Of Israel Broke The 7Th Commandment Of God In Exodus 20:14, Where It Says "Thou Shall Not Commit Adultery", By Having Sex With Bathsheba, The Wife Of One His Subjects Named Uriah.

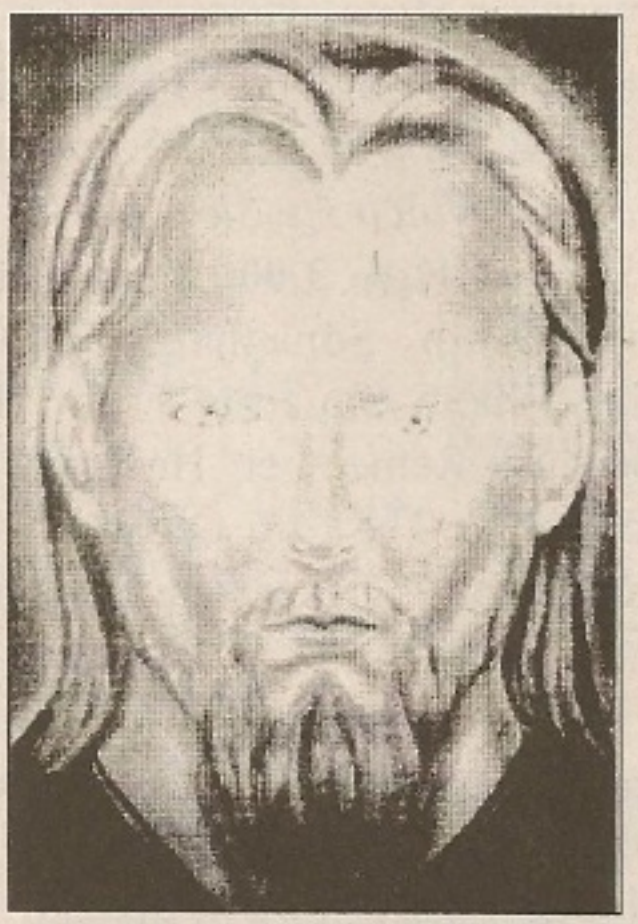
Uriah Was One Of David's Faithful Commanders In His Army. He Looked Out For David. He Sat In Front Of His Door And Guarded It All Night So That No Enemies Would Come In. However, David, Breaks The 6Th Commandment "Thou Shall Not Kill" (Exodus 20:13) By Arranging For Uriah, Bathsheba's Husband To Be Put In The Front Line And Left There To Die.

David, Son Of Jesse

Bathsheba, Wife Of Uriah



Uriah, Husband Of Bathsheba

God Pays David Back By Killing His And Bathsheba's First Child 2Samuel 11:2-4, 14-27; 12:9-19, However, David's Second Child By Bathsheba, Is Solomon (Sol = Solar (Sun), Om = Aum (Sun), On = Solar Deity (Sun), The Triad Of Names) Who Grows Up To Become The Next Ruler Over Israel, And He Does A Whole Bunch Of Evil Things After The Manner Of His Father. These Two Men, David And Solomon Are Honored And Considered Two Of The Greatest Men In Your Bible, Because Out Of Them, The Seed Of David, Jesus (Yashua, Issa, The Triad Of Names), "The Savior" Came.

Ques: Did Jesus Really Come To Save You?

Ans: Jesus Said In John 1:11 "I Came To My Own But My Own Receiveth Me Not." I Can Of Mine Own Self Do Nothing: (John 5:30). John 6:38 "For I Came Down From Heaven, Not To Do Mine Own Will, But The Will Of Him That Sent Me." John 7:18 "He That Speaketh Of Himself Seeketh His Own Glory: But He That Seeketh His Glory That Sent Him, The Same Is True, And No Unrighteousness Is In Him." Jesus Is Saying In The Quotes Above That Every Action And Word That Comes From His Mouth Is From His Father, God -Theos, Who Is In Heaven -Ooranos, The Orion Skies. I Wanted To Stress This Point Before I Go On, That Everything That Jesus Did Was From The Doings Of His God. You Follow.

Now, In Matthew 10:35-36; Luke 12:52-53 Jesus Says "...I Have Come To Set A Man Against His Father, And A Daughter Against Her Mother, And A Daughter-In-Law; And One's Own House Hold. " "Whoever Comes To Me And Does Not Hate Father Or Mother, Wife And Children, Brothers And Sisters...Cannot Be My Disciple." (Luke 14:26), However The Commandments Which Were Sent From God In Exodus 20:12, Says "Honour Thy Father And Thy Mother: That Thy Days May Be Long Upon The Land Which The Lord Thy God Giveth Thee."

Jesus Himself Says To The Scribes And Pharisees Of Jerusalem In Matthew 15:3-7, "Why Do Ye Also Transgress The Commandment Of God By Your Tradition? 4 For God Commanded, Saying, Honour Thy Father And Mother: And, He That Curseth Father Or Mother, Let Him Die The Death. 5 But Ye Say, Whosoever Shall Say To His Father Or His Mother, It Is A Gift, By Whatsoever Thou Mightest Be Profited By Me; 6 And Honour Not His Father Or His Mother, He Shall Be Free. Thus Have Ye Made The Commandment Of God Of None Effect By Your Tradition. 7 Ye Hypocrites,...". These Verses Are Written In Your Bible In Red Letters. Which Story Is The Correct Story Mr. Preacherman? You're Messing With My Soul Here.

Then Jesus Said In Luke 14:33 "...None Of You Can Become My Disciple If You Do Not Give Up All Your Possessions ."

When Jesus Was Hungry, He Becomes Dangerously Cranky. "In The Morning, When [Jesus] Returned To The City, He Was Hungry. And Seeing A Fig Tree By The Side Of The Road, He Went Up To It And Found Nothing At All On It Except Leaves. Then He Said To It, 'May No Fruit Ever Come From You Again! ' And The Fig Tree Withered At Once." (Matthew 21:18-19; Mark 11:12-14, 20-22)

Luke's Version Of The Above Incident Adds That Jesus Told The People Of Nazareth That None Of Them Were Worthy Of His Message. And The People Of Nazareth Responded By Trying To Throw Him Off Of A Cliff. Luke 4:24-29

In Matthew 10:34; Luke 12:49-51 Jesus Told The People, "Do Not Think That I Have Come To Bring You Peace To The Earth; I Have Not To Come To Bring Peace, But A Sword." So Jesus Wasn't The All Peaceful Hippy Guy That You Want Him To Be.

In Matthew 10:34-37, Luke 12:49-51 You Find In Red Letters, Which Are The Words Of Jesus "Think Not That I Am Come To Send Peace On Earth: I Came Not To Send Peace, But A Sword. For I Am Come To Set A Man At Variance Against His Father, And The Daughter Against Her Mother, And The Daughter In Law Against Her Mother In Law. And A Man's Foes Shall Be They Of His Own Household. He That Loveth Father Or Mother More Than Me Is Not Worthy Of Me: And He That Loveth Son Or Daughter More Than Me Is Not Worthy Of Me." Jesus Was Jealous Just Like His God Was Jealous.

Everyone Remembers The Story Around Jesus' Birth In The Book Of Matthew, And How King Herod Sought To Destroy Jesus (Matthew 2:13) Because He Feared That He Would Rule His (Herods) Kingdom. When The Wise Men Came To Jerusalem, They Asked For The "King Of The Jews" (Matthew 2:2). This Frightened Herod, And He Maliciously Told The Wise Men, Seek Out The Child, And When They Find Him, Bring The Child To Him So That He Could Worship The Child Also. When Herod Realized That The Wisemen Weren't Coming Back, He Ordered The Death Of All Children In Bethlehem And The Coasts, From The Age Of 2 To An Infant. By That Time, It Was Already Too Late, Because According To Matthew 2:13, The Angel Of The Lord Told Joseph To Take Jesus To Tama-Re Until Herod Is Dead.

Matthew 2:16

Τότε ʽηρῴΔης Ιδών ΌΤι Ενεπαίχθη Υπό Τῶν Μάγων Εθυμώθη Λίαν, Καί Ἀποστείλας Ἀνεῖλεν Πάντας Τούς Παῖδας Τούς Εν Βηθλέεμ Καί Εν Πᾶσι Τοῖς Ὁρίοις Αὐτῆς Ἀπό Διετοῦς Καί Κατωτέρω, Κατά Τόν Χρόνον ΌΝ Ηκρίβωσεν Παρά Τῶν Μάγων.

THEN HEROD, WHEN HE SAW THAT HE WAS MOCKED OF THE WISE MEN, WAS EXCEEDING WROTH, AND SENT FORTH, AND SLEW ALL THE CHILDREN THAT WERE IN BETHLEHEM, AND IN ALL THE COASTS THEREOF, FROM TWO YEARS OLD AND UNDER, ACCORDING TO THE TIME WHICH HE HAD DILIGENTLY ENQUIRED OF THE WISE MEN.

King James Version 1611 A.D.

Herod, The Great

This Sounds Like What God Does In The Bible. On Countless Numerous Occasions When He Became Mad, Or His Fury Or Anger Was Kindled, He Slaughtered Women, Men, Infants, And Pregnant Women With No Pity (Isaiah 13, 18, Jeremiah 13:14).

Now There Was A Certain Man Named John The Baptist, Who Like Jesus Spoke His Mind About Certain Topics, And Became Disliked Amongst The Higher Ranks Of People. In The Books Of Matthew Chapter 14, Herod The Tetrarch, Which Is Another Name For Governor, Put John The Baptist In Prison According To Verse 3-4, "For Herod Had Laid Hold On John, And Bound Him, And Put Him In Prison For Herodias' Sake, His Brother Philip's Wife. For John Said Unto Him, It Is Not Lawful For Thee To Have Her." John The Baptist Spoke Up Against Herodias Marrying Herod, Who Was The Half Brother Of Her Former Husband Philip.

John The Baptist

Herodias, The Wife Of Herod

Herodias Was Married To A Man Named Philip, The Brother Of Herodias Antipas, Her Second Husband. Herodias Antipas Had Received The Position Of Tetrarch (Governor). But Prior To This, Herodias Had An Encounter With Herod Antipas. She Then Persuaded Herod Antipas To Divorce His Wife, And She Would Divorce Herod Philip. After Her Plan Worked As Scheduled, She Left Rome, Along With Her Daughter, And Went To Tiberias, The Capital Of The Province Or City Of Galilee. The People Of The Area Knew Of This Union, But Only John The Baptist Had The Courage To Speak Against This Marriage, Which Caused Him To Become Imprisoned. Herod Couldn't Just Kill John The Baptist, Because He Feared The People Who Considered Him A Prophet. Herodias Wanted John The Baptist Dead, So She Went To The Point Where She Instructed Her Daughter To Request John The Baptists' Head, At The Birthday Party Of Herod (Matthew 14:8).

Heriodas Used Her Daughter To Dance In Front Of Herod, Who Promised Under An Oath To Give Her Whatever She Requested (Matthew 14:7), And She Asked For The Head Of John The Baptist In A Charger Or Platter.

Matthew 14:7-8

NETER: A'aferat Atum-Re
Mistranslation For King James 1611 A.D.

"THEREFORE HE PROMISED WITH AN OATH TO GIVE HER WHATEVER SHE MIGHT ASK SO SHE HAVING BEEN PROMPTED BY HER MOTHER SAID GIVE ME JOHN'S THE BAPTIST'S HEAD HERE ON A PLATTER."

This Is A Very Evil Malicious Act That Was Done In Your Bible. A Man Was Killed, His Head Was Chopped Off, Placed On A Plate, And The Daughter Gave It To Her Mother. Herodias Did Not Stop At Anything Less Than What She Wanted, Even If It Meant Using Her Daughter To Get The Job Done (Refer To Scroll #144 Woman Who Changed The Course Of History).

John The Baptist Was The Forerunner To Jesus (Matthew 16:14-16, 17:12-13). However, The Story Of Jesus And His Crucifixion Was The Biggest Lie Ever Told.

Ques: How Was The Story Of Jesus A Lie?

Ans: The Story Of Jesus In Your Bible Is A Play. It Is A Fabricated Story Written By Josephus Flavius And His Family, Called The Pisos Or Antonines (Refer To The Christ Series). Jesus Dying On The Cross For Your Sins Is A Myth. It Is A Lie. There Was No Jesus (Refer To Scroll # Degrees Of Christism), And There Was No Crucifixion.

Now Remember In Matthew 26:39 Jesus Was Asking His Father To "Let This Cup Pass By Him" Right. So Explain To Me Why In John 18:11, Did Jesus Himself Say, Because It's In Red Letters, "The Cup Which My Father Hath Given Me, Shall I Not Drink It?". Do You Know What This Means. This Means That He Did Not Get Crucified. Why Don't Christian Preachers See This? Why? It's In Plain Red Letters. Nothing Allegorical.

John 18:11

Modern Greek Script

εἶπεν οὖν ὁ ιησοῦς τῷ πέτρῳ, βάλε τήν μάχαιραν εἰς τήν θήκην· τό ποτήριον ὃ δέδωκέν μοι ὁ πατήρ οὐ μή πίω αὐτό;

"AND HE WENT A LITTLE FARTHER, AND FELL ON HIS FACE, AND PRAYED, SAYING, O MY FATHER, IF IT BE POSSIBLE, LET THIS CUP PASS FROM ME: NEVERTHELESS NOT AS I WILL, BUT AS THOU WILT."

However, With All The Contradictions And Distortions Around The Story Of The Crucifixion. When You Get Down To It, You Christians Really Don't Know Who Was Crucified, Who Carried The Cross Or If There Really Was A Resurrection (Refer To Scroll #46, Who Carried The Cross).

Then You Have The Muslims Who State In Koran 4:157 "And They're (The So-Called Jews) Saying: Verily We Have Killed The Anointed One (The Messiah) Jesus, Son Of Mary, Who Was Sent From Allah (An Apostle). And They Never Killed Him , Nor Did They Ever Crucify Him, But It Was Made To Look That Way For Them. And Those Indeed Who Dispute This Matter Are In Doubt About It. They Don't Have Any Knowledge About It: Except Think They Know Or Conjecture And For Certain They Did Not Kill Him." So They Don't Believe That Jesus Was Crucified, However, It Was Made To Appear That Way.

Now What Am I Trying To Say Here Is That Not Only Did They Not Kill Jesus, They Didn't Even Have Him On Any Kind Of Cross, Because His Body Weight Would Not Sustain The Cross, The Nail Would Have Ripped His Flesh Apart, You Follow.

Next Are The Jews Who Claim That Ha Mashiakh Will Return One Day. The Jews At One Time Connected His Coming With Some Conjunction, Or Occurrence, In The Sign Of The Fishes!

The Constellation Called Huwt (הוּת), Which Is The Name Of The Astrological House Of The Hebrews, And Shows That The Jews Were Not Only In Possession Of The Astronomical Symbolism, But Also Of The Tradition By Which It Could Be Interpreted. However, Their Mashiakh Is The Babylonian Eluh Or Tammuz. You Can Find The Names Eluh/Elul And Tammuz On The Hebrew Calendar. Tammuz Is The 4Th Month, And Elul Is The 6Th Month. These Are Names Of The Babylonian Or Canaanite Deities.

The Hebrew Calendar

Eluh Can Be Found In Jeremiah 14:14, As "Thing Of Nought". This Can Be Found Under Strong #0457, 0434 As 0434 'Eluwl {El-Ool'} For 0457; Twot - 99A; Adj Av - Thing Of Nought 1; 1 1) Worthless, Something Worthless, Ineffective 2) Worthless Gods, Idols". Then It Is Found Again In Leviticus 19:4, 26:1 As "Eliyl" (אֱלִיל) For "Idols". This Word Eliyl Is Found 18 Times In The Bible.

Then You Have The Word Tammuz Which Can Also Be Found In Ezekiel 8:14, Where It Says "Then He Brought Me To The Door Of The Gate Of The Lord's (Yahweh) House Which Was Toward The North; And, Behold, There Sat Women Weeping For Tammuz." And The Word For Tammuz Under Strong #08542 Is "08542 Tammuwz {Tam-Mooz'} Of Uncertain Derivation; Twot - 2519; N Pr Dei Av - Tammuz 1; 1 Tammuz = "Sprout Of Life" 1) A Sumerian Deity Of Food Or Vegetation" (Refer To "The Family Guide").

Tammuz Is Also Called Adonis (Refer To Scroll #134 Jesus, Tammuz And Horus In History.) Tammuz Was Known As Adonis Amongst The Sumerian, And Adonai In The Bible (Genesis 18:12). The Word Adonai Can Be Found 287 Times In The Bible. The Jews Worship The Babylonian Deity Tammuz, And When He Didn't Come Fast Enough, They Fabricated Him In Plays. All Of This Was Grafted Out Of Your Tama-Rean Culture (Refer To Scroll #190 Ancient Egypt And The Pharaohs). They Don't Believe That The "Mashiakh" Has Come Yet. They Believe That There Was A Jesus, The Carpenter's Son, However, That Was Not "Ha Mashiakh".

Throughout History, There Is No Proof Of Jesus Ever Existing. They Fabricated The Dead Sea Scrolls To Make Their Things Exist. It Strikes Me That Whenever Someone Comes Along And Claims To Be The Messiah, They Automatically Kill Him. Why Is That? Rabbi Kohane Was Shot Dead. David Koresh Was Blown Up, And I Can Go On And On. What If They Were The Mashiakh Or The Messiah, Then What. Remember In Your Bible In The Books Of John 1:10-11, It Says "He Was In The World, And The World Was Made By Him, And The World Knew Him Not., He Came Unto His Own, And His Own Received Him Not." How Do You Know That You Haven't Killed The Messiah. You Crucified Him Before On The Cross.

Remember, The Christians Say That God Sent His Only Begotten Son To Die On The Cross For Their Sins, So That They Could Sin Today.

Why Would God Send His Only Begotten Son To Die On A Cross At The Age Of 33 For The Sins Of The World? Now Let Me Ask You Something Christians. I Know Some Of You Are Proud Parents, Who Probably Just Gave Birth To A Daughter Or Son After Years And Years Of Trying. Would You Then, After Years Of Trying To Give Birth To This Healthy Child, Send Your Only Begotten Child That You Loved So Dearly Into This World, Filled With Continuous Evil, To Die On A Cross For Another Persons Sin? Would You Stand By As Soldiers Drive Nails Into His Hands And Feet, Give Him Vinegar To Drink And Leave Him There On The Cross For Vultures And Any Wild Life Fowl To Devour His Body, For Three Days And Three Nights? If You Put Aside All Your Religious Beliefs To Answer This Question, Your Honest Answer Would Have To Be No. So Ask Yourself This, If "The Lord Came Down" In Genesis 11:5 To Confuse The People's Language At The Tower Of Babel, He Also Went To Sodom And Gommorah In Genesis 18:21 To See If They Were Evil, He Came Down On Mount Sinai Himself In Exodus 19:11, And "The Lord Met Moses Himself In An Inn To Kill Him" In Exodus 4:24, Etc., Why Couldn't He Come Himself To Die For The Sins Of The World? Why Did He Have To Send His Only Begotten Son To Die For The Sins Of The World.

This Story Of Jesus Is The Dumbest Story Ever Told, Yet You Believe In It. You Have Faith In It. You Live Your Life For It. You Kill For It, And Don't Let Nobody Tell A Staunch Christian That Jesus Is Not Coming Back For Him. You Become A Blasphemer, A Liar, A Devil, And A Antichrist. Okay, Let's Look At The Possibility Of Jesus Coming Back. Now You Christians Claim That Heaven Is Further Than The Furthest Star, And That Is Where Jesus Went With His Father To Prepare A Place For You, Right. Remember, John 14:2 "In My Father's House Are Many Mansions...I Go To Prepare A Place For You". However, If You Look At The Possibility Of Jesus Coming Back From A Scientific Point Of View, The Furthest Star Away From Earth Is Billions Of Light Years Away. If You Were To Ask A Christian Where Is Heaven, They Will Tell You That Heaven Is Further Than The Furthest Star, So In Actuality, Jesus Still Didn't Get To Heaven Yet. There's No Way Possible That He Could Be On His Way Back, If He Hasn't Gotten There Yet. Do You Follow?

According To The American Heritage Dictionary, One Light Year Is Defined As:
Light-Year Also Light Year (l°t"yîr") N. 1. The Distance That Light Travels In A Vacuum In One Year, Approximately 9.46 Trillion (9.46 × 1012) Kilometers Or 5.88 Trillion (5.88 × 1012) Miles.

So If The Nearest Star Is The Sun, Which Is 93 Millions Miles Away, Calculate This Number, 93 Million Miles X 5.88 Trillion Miles, And You Will Get 9.3E + 13. There Is No Way Possible, Scientifically, That Your Jesus Went To Heaven Yet. He Is Still Traveling There, And You Wonder Why All Your Grandmothers, And Mothers Mothers Died Waiting For Him To Come Back. If It Takes Him That Long To Get There, It Would Take Him An Equal Amount Of Time To Get Back. It's A Shame Because You Wrap Yourself In Religion, And You Don't Have A Clue About Anything That Is Going On Today. I Want Everyone To Bear Witness That Religion Doesn't Have A Clue About What Is Going On Today. We Don't Have The Time To Be Messing Around Waiting For Jesus To Come Back To Stop Crime, Evil, Hatred, Bigotry, Pedophilism, War, Etc. To Some People, It's Too Late For Jesus.

What About Louise Abner Who Was Plunged Up His Butt By Some Racist Cops In New York? It's Too Late For Jesus For Him, Unless He's Walking Blindly Into The Light Under Faith, And Goes Back To Church Thinking That He's Going To Be Saved. They Cannot Appeal To People Who Have Met The Hands Of Satan. They Could Work On You. It Hasn't Knocked On Your Door Yet. The Black Camel Has Not Kneeled Down In Front Of Your House Yet, And The Angel Izrael Of Death Did Not Take Somebody Out Of Your House Yet. It's Easy To Appeal To You, But It's Too Late For Me To Worry About Your Jesus, When My Mother, Father, Sister Or Brother Gets Smashed Up In A Car, Or Some Fool Plays Cowboy, And Shoots Up My Brother. It's A Little Too Late For You To Push The Jesus Stuff On Me. When Their Churches Were Burning Down, I Would Say Where's Jesus. A Church In Danville, Illinois Was Bombed On May 26, 1998 A.D., And Injured 33 People During Sunday Service.

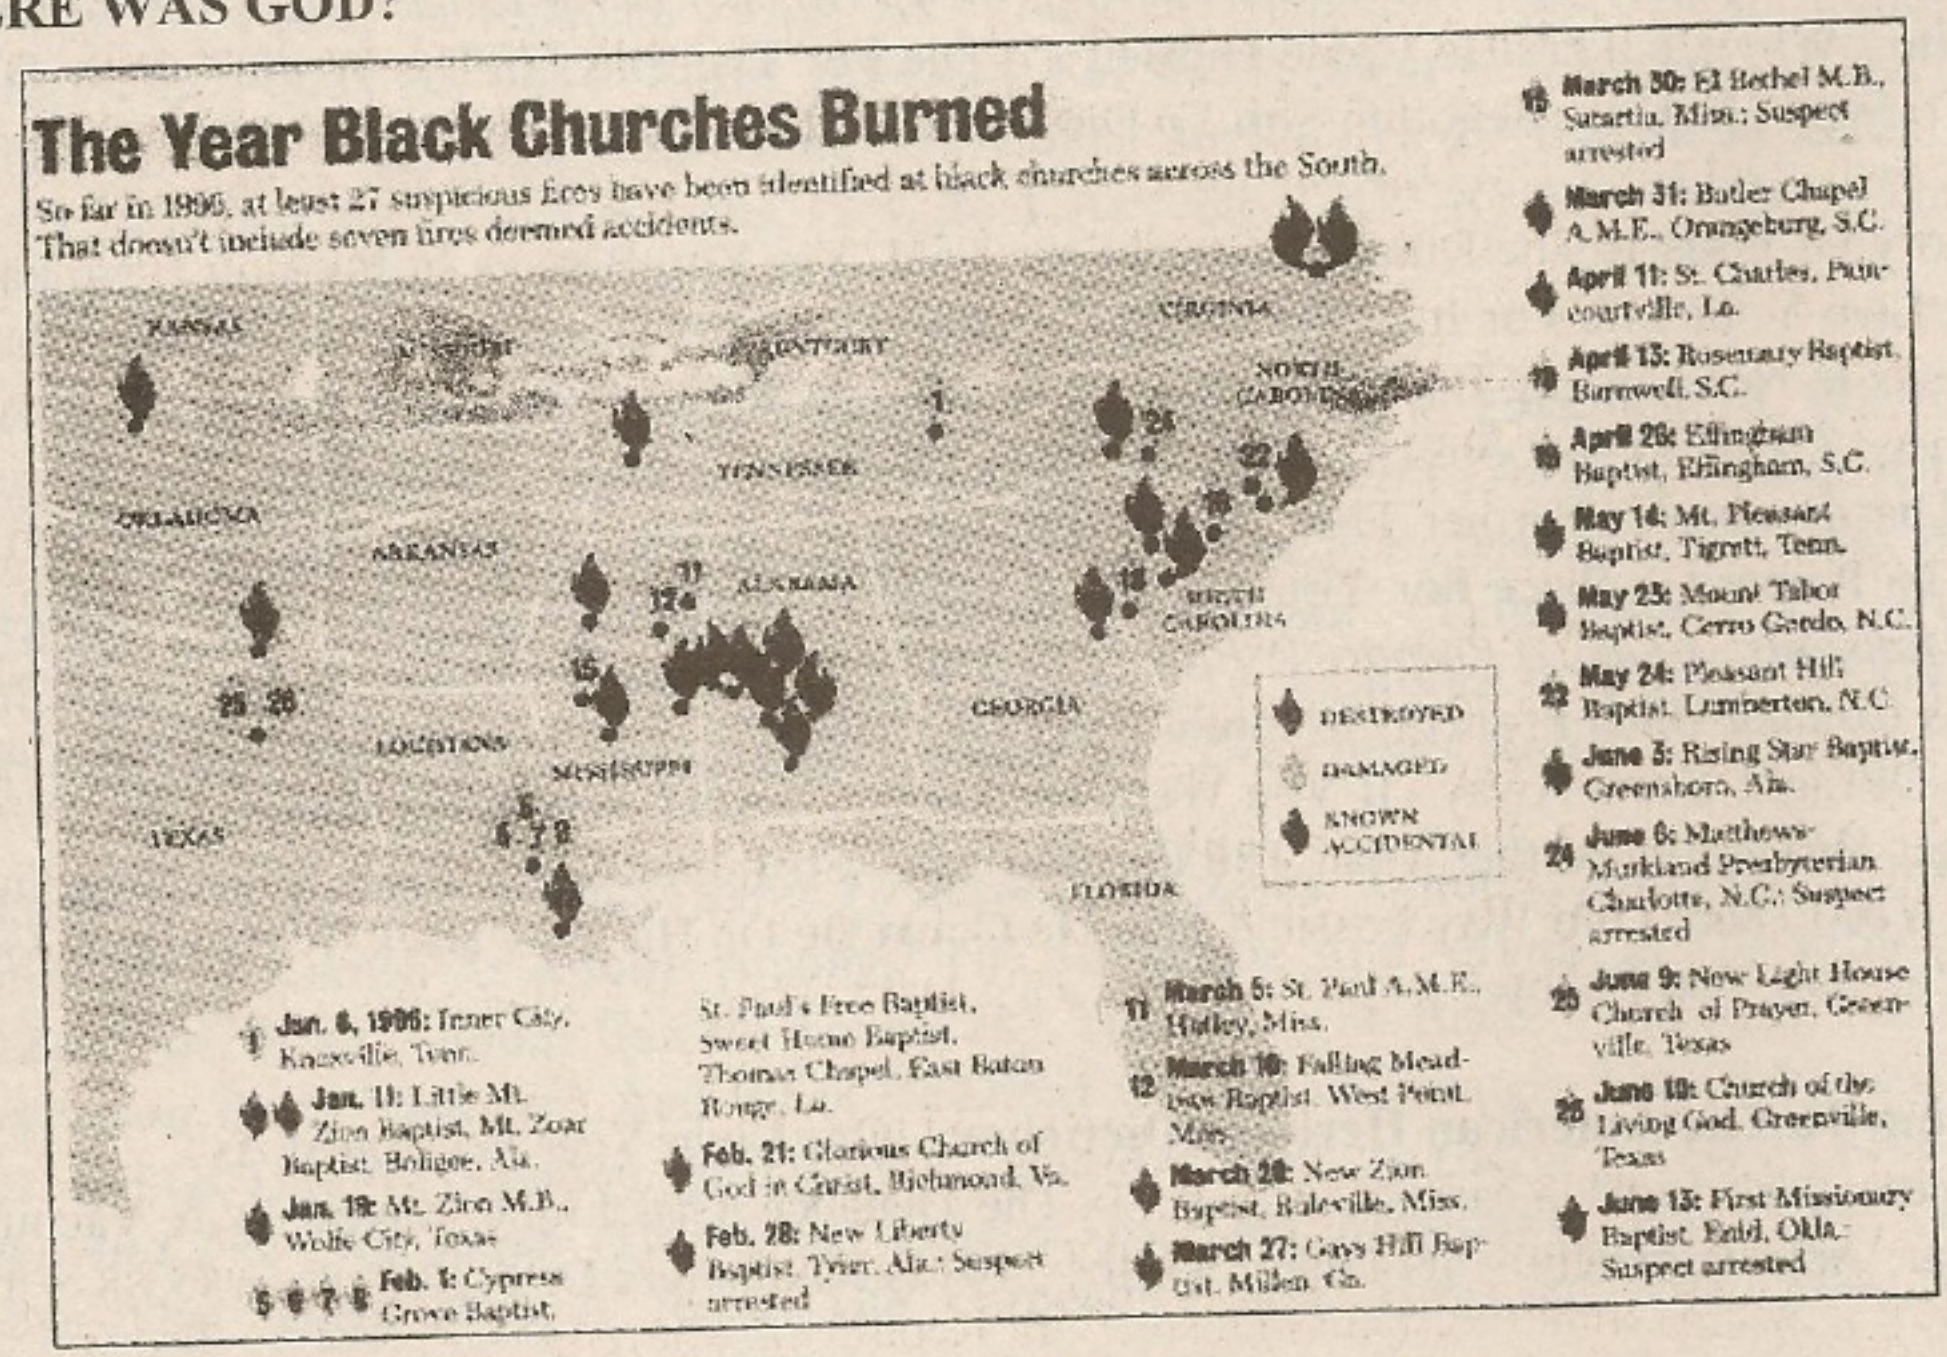
WHERE WAS GOD?



Newspaper Article Of Church Burnings

A New Church Burning Every Week. A Church Collapsed In Brazil, On The Whole Congregation While They Were Praying To God. It Killed Everybody. The Preacher Or Reverend, The Choir Boys, And All. Where Was Jesus Or God For Them. Was He Coming And Then He Changed His Mind? When Is He Coming, And How Long Must We Wait? We Will Be Entering The 2,000Th Year. We All Waited For 1,998 Years Since He's Been Gone. You Say He's Coming Back Soon, However, Soon Only Has Two 'Oo's' In It. How Long Must We Wait?

These Are The Stories That You Teach To Your Children At Bible Study Class, Every Sunday, At The Synagogue Every Saturday, And At Jum'ah Service Every Friday. All Of These Stories Are Written Right In Your Holy Books, Which You Seem To Want To Overlook, However. None Of These Stories Are Good Examples. You Get Mad At Me, When I Say, I Don't Want My Child To Learn That. I Don't Want My Child Going To Sunday School, So He Could Be Taught That God So Loved The Whole World That He Sent His Only Begotten Son To Die On The Cross For Our Sins, Yet, We Are Still Sinning To This Very Day. You Confuse Me By Saying That God So Loved The World That He Sent His Only Begotten Son, Then I Look In The Bible And I See In Luke 3:38, Adam Which Was The Son Of God. The Part That I'am Confused About Is The Word "Only". Does "Only" Means One? According The American Heritage Dictionary, The Word Only Comes From Middle English, From Old English anlic : an, Meaning One;. Thus The Bible Must Be Lying, And I Don't Want My Child To Be Indoctrinated With This Crap.

I Don't Want My Child To Learn Your Concept Of Good Is Evil, And Evil Is Good. Religion Confuses You To The Point Where You Don't Want To Deal With It Anymore. And That Is One Of The Reasons Why It's On A Decline. Religion, Be It Christianity, Buddhism. Islam, Etc. Is On A Decline. Islam Is On The Decline After Boasting To Be The Greatest Religion In The World. 3 Million Israelis Defeated 150 Million Arabs. 3 Million Israelis Forced 1 Million Muslims Out Of Their Mosque In Jerusalem. The Russians Invaded Afghanistan, Where The Muslims Live. India, Hindus Defeated Pakistan, Who Are Muslims. The Muslims Countries Are The Least Developed, And Poorest Countries. As Islam Starts To Decline, They Have To Boast About All These Terrorist Acts. The Same Thing Happened With Judaism And Christianity. Anything That Is Not Changing Is Dead. It Was Good For It's Time, However, It's Time Is Up. This Is A Growing Stage. Everything Is Changing And That's Why It's Time For People And The Way They Look At Things To Change. We Have Now Entered Into What Is Referred To As The Information Age, And Things That Can Not Be Scrutinized, Analyzed, Verified And Justified Have Got To Go. And One Of Those Things That Has To Go Is What They Call "Old Time Religion", Whether It's Muhammadan, Christianity Or Judaism. You Remember Your Grandma Singing, "Gimme That Ole' Time Religion. If It's Good Enough For Abraham, It's Good Enough For Me." If Religion Is Not Being Brought Up To Date Where It Makes Sense, It Has To Go.

It's Not Only The Muslim Concept Of Religion. What About The Christians? Where Is Their All-Powerful, All-Knowing God? Why Is He Allowing Churches To Be Burnt Down To The Ground? Why Are Majority Of The Serial Christians Killers. Your Popes, Pastors Roman Catholic Priest Are Committing Pedophilism With Retarded Children. A Prelate In The Catholic Church Was Accused Of Pedophilia.

Ques: Where Did Man Get His Evil Thoughts From?

Ans: Since God Created Man According To Genesis 1:27, And I Quote "So God Created Man In His Own Image (Tsehlem), In The Image (Tsehlem) Of God (Eloheem) Created He Him; Male (Zawkawr) And Female (Nekaybaw) Created (Bawraw) He Them., And Genesis 5:1 States And I Quote "...God (Eloheem) Created (Bawraw) Man (Awdawm), In The Likeness (Demooth) Of God (Eloheem) Made (Awsaw) He Him:...", Then Man Can Only Think As His Creator Thinks, And If

"Every Imagination (Yaytser) Of The Thoughts (Makhashawbaw) Of His Heart (Labe) Was Only Evil (Rah) Continually" Way Back In The Bible In Genesis 6:5, And Now To This Day, The Imagination And Thoughts Of Man Is Still Evil Continuously, Thus His Creator Or God Must Be Evil Also. Let's Take A Look At Some Of The Everyday Activities Of Man.

Below Is A List Of Different Crimes Happening Today

- -In Asia Women Kill Their Newborn Daughters By Smothering Them In Their Afterbirth, Feeding Them Poisonous Oleander Berries Or Not Feeding Them.
- -In Brazil If A Man Sleeps Around With Other Women, It Is Considered A Sign Of Masculinity. However, If A Woman Is An Adulteress, She Is Murdered. In Brazil 24 Women Are Killed Each Year By Their Boyfriends Or Husbands.
- -The Mullahs Took Over Kabul In 1996 A.D., And Ordered 1 Million People To Pray 5 Times A Day. Criminals Were Threatened With Beatings, Mutilation And Death. Women Were Told To Wear The Burqa, A Religious Garb Covering The Women From Head To Toe With Only A Mesh For The Eyes. Any Violators Were Beaten On The Streets By Taliban Fighters.
- -The Last Soviet-Backed Ruler, Najibullah, Was Tortured And Killed By The Taliban, His Body Was Taken Down From The Traffic Tower In Kabul.
- -A 15 Year Old Child Ate A Piece Of Coffee Cake, With Peanuts In It, And Died On Chicago Sidewalk Of An Allergic Reaction. Where Was God For This Child?
- -Buddhists In Tibet. China Invaded Tibet In 1950 A.D., And The Dalai Lama Went Into Exile. Temples Were Destroyed, Monasteries Were Shut Down. The Tibetan Buddhism's Holiest Shrine Has Disappeared Beneath Truck Traffic And Office Buildings. Where Was The Help Of The Their God? Why Couldn't He Deliver Them.
- Betty Shabazz, Age 61, Suffered From Three-Degree Burns From A Fire Set By Her Grandson.
- Palestinians Attacked A Bus Bound From Jerusalem To The West Bank Jewish Settlement Of Shiloh. 11 Year Old Boy Was Shot In The Shoulder, Then On Another Incident, He Was Shot In The Leg.
- Eduardo Diaz Betancourt, 38, Who Lived In Miami, Was Shot To Death By A Firing Squad.
- Janet Reno Gives The Okay For The F.D.A. To Bomb The Waco Estate, Killing Men, Women, And Children.
- In 1996, There Were 912 Workplace Homicides And 48 Percent Of The Victims Were Retail Clerks.
- In A War In Angola, More Than 1,000 People Died Each Day At The Height Of The Two-Decade Conflict, Which Claimed About 500,000 Lives.
- Bishop Juan Gerardi Wrote A Human Rights Report To Reconcile A 36 Year Civil War. However, Two Days Later He Was Found Brutally Murdered With A Concrete Block. During This Ongoing War 200,000 People Were Killed Or Disappeared. 1 Million Refugees And 200,000 Orphaned Children.
- Colombians Rebels Captured Four American Tourists. One Of Them, A 63 Year Old Louise Augustine, Fell Into A Ravine And Suffered Eight Broken Ribs, A Collapsed Lung, And A Cracked Pelvis. But The Guerrillas Kept Her Marching, In Great Pain, For Days.
- In Africa Fear Makes Hiv An Inheritance. In Parts Of Botswana And Zimbabwe, As Many As 50 Percent Of Women Attending Prenatal Clinics Are Infected With Hiv.

- An Estimated 1.2 Million People Are Critically Short Of Food In Southern Sudan, Where A Civil War And Drought Have Disrupted Food Production. The Famine Is The Worst Since The 1980'S, When One Million People Died, Relief Groups Say.

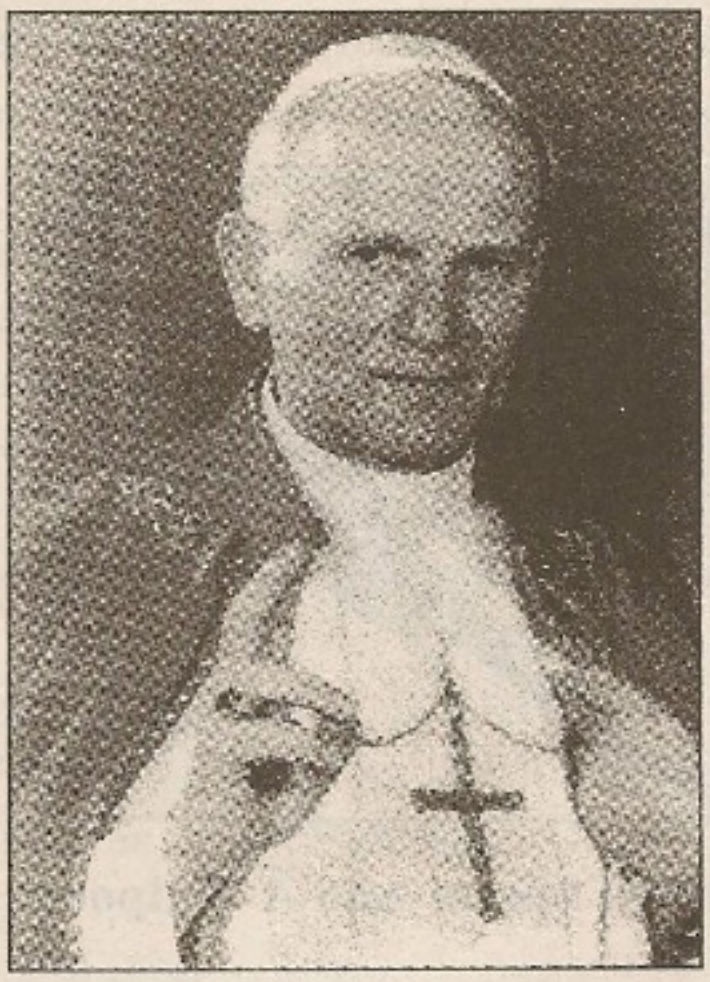
If You Do A Thorough Investigation Into The Lives Of All These People, Then You Will See That Each And Every One Of Them Was Influenced Under A Religious Denomination. And You Ask Me, Why I Don't Believe In Re-Ligion (Re-Legions).

Ques: What Are The Crimes Of Those Who Attune Themselves With Nature?

Ans: None. Because If You Attune Yourself With Nature, You Will Respect People For Who And What They Are. You Will Re-Spect Peoples Religious Denominations. You Will Respect Nature, And Not Take Advantage Of It, Thus There Will Be No Need For Wars, Racism, Hatred, Crime, Rape And All The Different Things That Is Spurred Out Of Religious Beliefs. Where I Don't Like What You Teach, Thus I Will Kill You, And Cause A War Against You In The Name Of My God, And So Forth. Religion Is The Tool For The Ignorant.

If There Were No Religion, If There Were No Catholics, Then There Would Not Have Been A Crusade. It Would Have Never Happened, You Follow. Think About Some Other Things. There Would Have Never Been A World Trade Center Bombing, If It Wasn't For Islam And Its Fundamental Beliefs. There Would Have Never Been A Crucifixion. They Would Have Never Tried To Come To Assassinate Me, If It Wasn't For Religion And It's Belief.

Were These Actions Inspired By Their Most Holy Book, The Koran, Or The Bible Which Speaks



The Polish Pope Of The Roman Catholic Church

Did You Know That The Pope Got His Name From The Ancient Tama-Rean Aapep, Apophis Apep, Which Is Where The Roman Fish God Comes From, And The Christian Fish God.

Ques: Who Is Apophis?

Ans: Apophis Or Poppi Ruled Lower Tama-Re 'Egypt' (Which Is Really Northern Tama-Re 'Egypt') Near The Mediterranean Sea. In The Third Version Of The Ancient Book Of The Dead, The Word Aapep, Apophis, Apep Is Used To Describe The Serpent [A Human Reptilian] Iblis Or Nakhash, Devil Or Satan (Refer To El Katub Shil El Mawut, The Book Of The Dead).

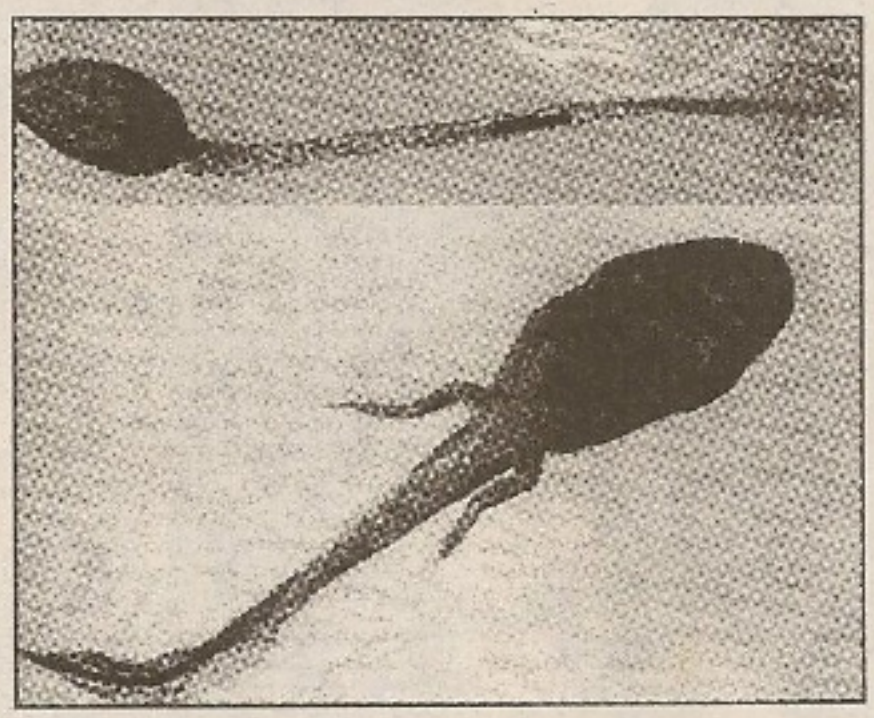
About God Burning Down Whole Cities Such As Sodom And Gommorah (Genesis Chapter 18:16-33)? God Wiping Out Almost The Whole Tribe Of Israel. This God Of Your Bible Is Only Committing Evil Acts. Why Does God Allow The Pope, His Main Man, To Get Shot In The Stomach, And Now He Has To Ride Around In A Popesmobile? Why Does God Allow This To Happen? Why Does God Send His Only Begotten Son Whom He Loved So Much, To Grow To The Age Of 33, Just To Die On The Cross For The Sins Of The World? Why? Why Couldn't He Come Himself? What About The Satanic People? Did They Get Their Inspiration From The Bible Also?

The Fish Deity

This Fish God Can Also Be Found In The Bible Judges 16:23, As Dagon (דָּגוֹן) Under The Strong # 01712 Dagown {Daw-Gohn'} From 01709;; N Pr M Av - Dagon 13; 13 Dagon = "A Fish" 1) A Philistine Deity Of Fertility; Represented With The Face And Hands Of A Man And The Tail Of A Fish." Dagan Was The Deity Of Fertility Amongst The Babylonians (Refer To 360 Questions To Ask The Hebrew Israelites). Did You Ever Think Of Where They Got The Word Semen From. Semen Is Phonetically Sea-Man (Seaman), Man Of The Sea. We Are Sea Men, And We Live In An Aquarium Falsely Called The Planet Earth (Refer To Scroll #83, Who Lived Before The Adam And Eve Story). We Are Aquatic Creatures. Our Fertility Is In The Waters Of The Womb Of Our Mothers. Then We Become A Tadpole, A Fish, A Reptile, Before We Become A Man. We Swim In The Water (Sac) For 9

Months, Just Like The Fish Swim In The Water. Thus Everyone Becomes A Fish God Before They Become A Man God.

Picture Of Baby In The Womb



Picture Of Sperm And A Tadpole

If You Look Closely At The Hat Of The Pope, You Will Notice That It Is Also Shaped Like A Fish. If You Remember, The Original Sign For Christianity Was The Fish.

Jesus Was Imagined At A Time As The Fish, Or The "Fish Man," Called Ichthys In Greek. The Original Fish Man Was An Of Tama-Re, And Oan Of Chaldea - Probably Dates From The Previous Cycle Of Precession, Or 26,000 Years Earlier; And Dated As 255 B.C. Jesus As The Fish-Man Was To Come Up Once More As The Manifestor From The Celestial Waters. The Coming Messiah Is Called Dag (דג), The Fish, In The Talmud; Which Comes From The Word Dagon "Fish Man" Or The Babylonian Fish Deity. The Dag Backwards Is Gad, Which Is The Same As God. (Refer To God, God, God, What Is The Difference? Scroll #66). Jesus, Is Also Compared To The Fish-Man As Mentioned Ascending Out Of The Sea As The "Same Whom God The Highest Hath Kept A Great Season, Which By His Own Self Shall Deliver The Creature." The Ancient Fishman Only Came Up Out Of The Sea To Converse With Men And Teach Them In The Daytime. When The Sun Appeared To Set, It Was The Custom Of This Being To Plunge Again Into The Sea, And Abide All Shadow Hour In The Deep.

This Also Ties In Directly With The "Fish" Man Of The Dogon Tribe, That Came From Sirius B, Called The Nommos Who Taught The People Of The Dogon Tribe Of Mali By Day And Retired To The Waters At Night. (Refer To Are There U.F.O.'S (Extraterrestrial) In Our Midst? Scroll # 84 And Read The Holy Tablets, Chapter Three).

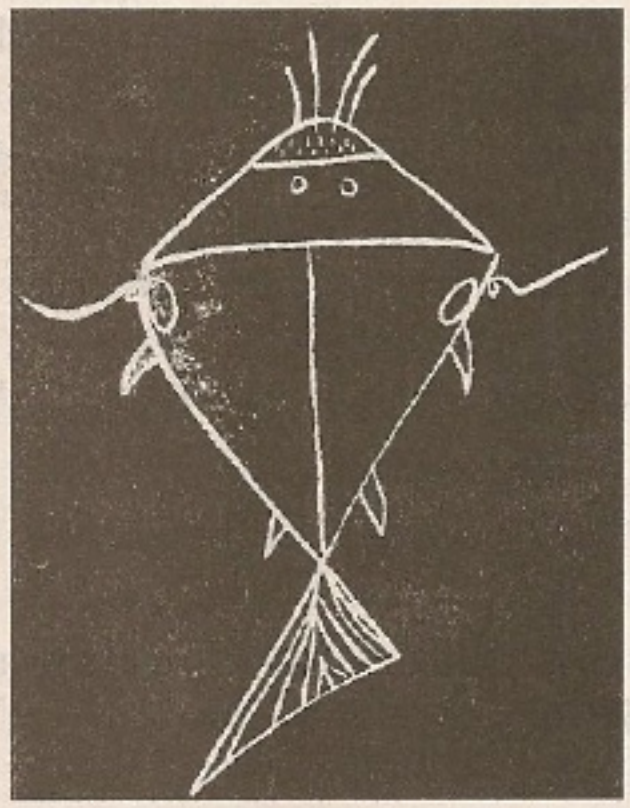
The Celestial Sign Of Huwt

Your Whole Concept Of Religion Came From The Ancient Tama-Reans Schools Of Mysteries. It Was Men Who Stole The Knowledge And Corrupted It, Added Their Interpretations To It, And Formed Your So-Called Holy Books, Which Are Responsible For The Conditions Of This World Today.

Ques: So, Who Is Responsible For All Of This?

Ans: Let's Go To The Ultimate Of Who's Responsible. Who's Responsible For This Condition? Be Honest. Can You Say? Do You Know How Hard It Is To Say God? It Is Because You're Under A Spell. You Just Can't Say God. God Is Responsible For This Condition.

How Did God Let Us Drop This Far? In The Back Of Your Mind You Say; No, How Did We Let Ourselves Drop This Far?



Dogon Drawing Of Nommo

No, How Did God Put Us In This Condition Where We Had This Kind Of Nature That We Can Become Less Than God? He Can't Ever Become Less Than Himself. That's The One Thing He Can't Do. So Where Did We Inherit The Attribute That Makes Us Able To Become Less Than God? The Reason Is, We Surrendered To Other People's Beliefs; Be They Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Etc. There Is No Sense In Fighting Those Images Any Longer. We Have To Fight Back Images In Our Hearts. We Have To Go Back Inside And Clean Up Our Mess And Get Our Identity Back (Refer To Scroll # 85, God Misinterpreted).

Ques: Why Did We Get Tricked?

Ans: Do You Know Why We Got Fooled? We Were Looking For Something So Complicated. We Were Looking For Something Too Massive And The Answer Is Quite Simple. We Got Tricked. I'd Just Love For Anybody: Reverend, Preacher, Imaam, (And I Speak All Their Languages Arabic, Greek, Hebrew) To Prove To Me That Their God Is Not A Wimp (Refer To Scroll #86 "Is God A Wimp"). That's All.

What Do You Call God? When You Bang Your Finger, You Go Goddamn, I Banged My Finger. Man You're Cursing At Him. How Many Times Have You Been Sick? God Get Me Back Well, I'll Be Good. I Swear I'll Be Good. I'll Go To Church. I'll Donate Half Of Everything I Own.' Right? About A Week Later The Doctors Says You Recovered. You Say, 'Thank You God, I'm Still Going To Give You The One Per Cent I Promised You.' The Day You Leave Out Of Church You Say To God, 'It's Your Fault Anyway That I Was Sick.' Then You Go Right Back Into Your Devilishment. Isn't That How We Juggle With God? Don't Worry About It Because That Wasn't God. That Was The Devil. The God They Gave Us Is Jealous. Do You Know Who He Is Jealous Of? Our God. Our God Is Not Jealous Of Him Because Our God Created Him. Read The Story Of The Bible Again. You'll Find Out That The Devil's Problem Is, He's Jealous Of God, And God's Problem Is He's Jealous Of Other Gods.

Ques: Does God Know Everything?

Ans: It Is Obvious From The Many Stories Of The Bible, The God They're Talking About Doesn't Know Everything. Their God Walks Around In Church, He's Called Pastor (The Person Appointed To Pass Some Garbage Down To You) And He's The Face Of "God". You See The Heavenly Father Has To Have A Face To You. You Know Why He Has To Have A Face, Because You're Moved By Senses. See, Hear, Taste, Smell, Feel. You Want To Be Loved, You Want To Be Touched, You Want To Be Heard, You Want Someone, Or Some God To Tell You That Everything Is Going To Be All Right. However, It Doesn't Happen That Way. Everyday, A Baby Dies For Some Strange Odd Reason, And God Can't Bring Them Back (Refer To Scroll #54, What Is God Doing For You, Scroll #89, Whose God Is Responsible).

Ques: The God That You Supposedly Love - Do You Really Love Him Or Do You Just Fear Him?

Ans: You Call It Love, But It's Fear. God Uses The Scare Tactic On You, But You Have So Much Faith That You Don't See It, Or Don't Want To Acknowledge It. You're Really Afraid If You Don't Do Right By Him, He's Going To Set Your Butt On Fire. It's Called Hell. He's Going To Burn You Up. That's In Islam, That's In Christianity, And That's In Judaism. Even In The Nation Of Islam, They Speak About The Hereafter So Those Other People Who Aren't Going To Get Their Hereafter, Are Going To Get Something On This Side.

And The Beast Was Taken, And With Him The Lying Prophet Who With His Hand Made Signs Which He Used To Lead Many Into Darkness, Those Who Took The Mark Of The Beast And Those Who Prostrated To His Image. Both Of Them Were Cast Alive Into The Lake Of Fire Which Is Burning With Sulfur.

Right Translation In Greek By:
NETER A'aferti: Atum Re
Mistranslation For King James 1611 A.D.

"AND THE BEAST WAS TAKEN AND WITH HIM THE FALSE PROPHET THAT WROUGHT MIRACLES BEFORE HIM WITH WHICH HE DECEIVED THEM THAT HAD RECEIVED THE MARK OF THE BEAST AND THEM THAT WORSHIPPED HIS IMAGE THESE BOTH WERE CAST ALIVE INTO A LAKE OF FIRE BURNING WITH BRIMSTONE."

Now God Is Going To Burn You Up If You're Not Obedient. Is That God? And You Think That You Have Free Will. God Gave You Free Will To Do What Ever You Feel Like Doing. Right. Well, You're Wrong. You Don't Have Free Will.. Because If You Don't Worship God And Go Worship Another God Other Than God, Because He Is A Jealous God, Then He Will Bring Pestilence And Famine, And Brimstone, And Fire Out Of Heaven On You. So No, You Don't Have Free Will. And If I Have Free Will, Then Isn't It My Free Will To Will To Worship Anything Or Anyone That I Want To. One Of The Things That I Will To Do Is To Go To Heaven To Be Amongst The Good People, Yet, Still Will To Be Bad, And I Can't Do That, So I Don't Have Freewill. You Don't Have Free Will, You Have Faith. You Base Yourself On Believing That Something Or Someone Out There Called God Really Cares About You. However, God Doesn't Even Acknowledge Your Existence.

Ques: So, Who Is This God?

Ans: Christians Call Him/Her God And Lord. Jews (Judaism) Call Him/Her Hashem, Ado-Shem, And Yahweh. Muslims (Islam) Call Him/Her Allah. Catholics Call Him/Her Christ. The Yoruba Call Him/Her By Many Different Names Such As Shango And Obatallah Which Is Where The Santeria Got Their Names From. The Dogons Call Him/Her Nummos. Hindus Call Him/Her Brahman. Buddhist Call Him/Her Buddha. Confucianism Call Him/Her Confucius. Shintoist Call Him/Her Kami. Taoisist Call Him/Her T'jen-Tsun. If There Is Any Religion You Can Think Of, They Have Some Kind Of Name For Him/Her, Even If They Call It Mother Nature.

God Is "Anyone" Or "Thing" In Control Of Other Beings Or Things. To Be God Does Not Make You The All. God Is Within The All, "For Ye Are Gods" As Psalm 82:6 States And John 10:34 Supports It Stating "...Is It Not Written In Your Law, I Said, Ye Are Gods?"

You Are Not The Source Of All Things, For You Are One Of The Things In The Source. The God Concept As Mentioned Above Is Man's Alter Ego At Work (Genesis 3:22). For God, To Man, Had To Be A "He" (Genesis 15:7), Had To Be In A "Home In The Heavens" (Joshua 2:11), Had To Be "In Control Over People's Destinies" (1 Samuel 2:3), "A Judge" (Genesis 15:14) And "Prosecutor" And "Sentencer" (Deuteronomy 17:10) And "Executor" (Exodus 12:12) And Had To Have "Hands" (1 Samuel 5:11) And Had To Have "A Heart" (Genesis 6:6; 8:21; Koran 2:255) And Had To Have "Eyes" (Genesis 6:8). Eventually Michelangelo, One Of The Great Artists Of The 15Th Century In Italy, Drew God As An Old Man On The Ceiling Of His Sistine Or 16Th Chapel. And The Christians Personify God In Their Image To Form The Many Statues That Dawned The Many Crosses In Christianity; Or To Symbolically Be Present In A Black Stone In The Corner Of A Cube-Shaped Building In Mecca, On The Part Of

The Muslims. The Koran Is Saturated With Countless Demonstrative Pronouns Of God Being A "He" Or "Him" (Koran 112:1; 3-4).

The Image Of God According To Michelangelo

Ques: What Does The Word God Really Mean?

Ans: The Word Is A Combination Of Three Greek And Hebrew Words Which Celebrate Human Attributes:

G = Gomer = Wisdom
O = Oz (Uz) = Strength
D = Dabar = Beauty

As You Can See, The Initial Of Each Of These Words Spell Out God. There Is Nothing Extraordinary About The Word God. That Is Why I Have Always Said That You Should Not Call The Most High, God.

Ques: Okay Then, What Is A God Or Plainly God?

Ans: This Is A Two Part Question. As I Have Said, A God Is Anything In Control. The Arrow Tip That Takes The Life Is God Over Death. The Sperm And Ovum Meeting In Procreation In Life Is God In Life. The Nourishment In Food For Health Is God Of Health. The Bacteria In Sickness Is God Of Sickness. Anything In Control Is A God.

Ques: Where Did God Come From?

Ans: The Biblical And Koranic Concept Of God Was Created In The Hearts And Minds Of Their Authors And As These Authors Became Authentic, Their Documents Became Authentic. And Within The Pages Of Their Documents Called Scriptures, God Was Born.

If You Try To Question A Theologian Or Religious Scholar On The Subject Of God, And Ask Them Not To Use Their Bible Or Koran, They Would Not Be Able To Do It. For It Was These Authors Who Made The Opening Statement In The Old Testament Of The Hebrews Or Jews Also Called The Torah: "In The Beginning, God (Eloheem) Created The Heavens And The Earth" Of Genesis 1:1 And "In The Beginning Was The Word And The Word Was With God (Thehos) And The Word Was God (Thehos), The Same Was In The Beginning With God (Thehos). All Things Was Made By Him And Without Him Was Not Anything Made That Was Made," In The New Testament Of The Christian's John 1:1-3. And In The Koran 6:1 Of The Muhammadans Or Muslims You Have "Praises Be To God (Allah) Who Created The Heavens And The Earth." It Was These Three Texts (Old Testament, New Testament And The Koran), Authored By Men, Who Say They Were Inspired From On High To Teach Man Of A God, Who Is Every Man's Personal God. Yet, Mediators Were Necessary, As If God Could Not Merely Think His Being Into Everyone's Heart, Without The Stress And Strain Of Religious Instructions.

Ques: Can God Stop The Evil?

Ans: If God Could Stop The Evil, Then He Would Have Done It By Now. Why Does God Allow Evil To Happen? Explain To Me When The Women Gives Birth To A Baby And The Baby Dies The Moment He Is Born, Still Born, Or When The Baby Lives For A Couple Of Months And Dies In The Crib, And The Doctors Don't Know What It Is, So They Call It Crib Death. What About The Mothers Feelings When She Looses Her Baby? Why Does God Allow This To Happen? Why Does God Allow You To Have Toothaches, Cavities, Headaches, Diarrhea, Back Aches, Bunions, Leprosy? Etc. Why Does God Let You Grow Old And Start Having Arthritis, Rheumatism, Glaucoma, Gingivitis, Heart Failures, Lung Cancer, Etc. In The Koran 40:67, It Says "It Is He Who Created You From Dust,...Then Lets You Become Old-...". Then Again In Koran 22:5, It Says "...And Some Are Sent Back To The Feeblest Old Age, So That They Know Nothing After Having Known (Much)...". Wouldn't It Have Been Better If You Were Born Old, Live Your Glory, Then Go Out As A Feeble Baby? Why Didn't Allah Just Say Kun Fayakun "Be (Exist) And It Is", And Just Reverse This? Ask Yourself, Why Does Allah, God, Jehovah, Whatever Name You Call Him, Allow This To Happen? Couldn't He Exist Without This Happening? Could We Exist Without The World Of Hate And Racism. Couldn't We Exist Without The Murder, The Mass Murder? You Know What We Would Have To Give Up In Order To Do That, Religion, Because This Book Has Been Taught To You Since You Were Born.

WHY GOD?

Why Did He Do It. What Is The Average Age That A Person Dies Today? 70 Years Of Age. Why Didn't The All Loving God Make Us Born Old Then Become Young.. Why Aren't We Born Old, Gradually Enjoy Youth And Health And Go Out Enjoying Youth And Age. Why Must I Be Born Dependent? When A Baby Is Born, If It Does Not Get The Support From Its Parent, It Will Die. Why Is This In Reverse? Why Are We Left To Suffer?

Why Did God Create Candy So That You Can Have Toothaches And Get Cavities If You Eat Too Much Candy? Why? Why Must You Become Blind As You Get Older And Wear Glasses? Why Must Your Bones Become Weak And Your Joints Ache Every Time It's Damp Outside? Why Must Your Hair Fall Out? Why Are Kids Born In This World With Aids, Herpes, Syphilis, Gonorrhea? Why Do People Get Streptococcus, Leprosy, Cold Sores, Etc.? Why If We Are Born In The Image And After The Likeness Of God, Then How Do We Get Them? Unless God Has Abnormalities Also. Unless God Gets Backaches, And Headaches, And Syphilis, Wears Glasses, Gets Cavities. Unless God Gets Old, And His Eye Sight Fades Away, And His Bones Start Aching, And He Has Alzheimer Disease Where He Can't Remember Any More, And If This Is Your God, Then You Are Worshipping The Wrong God Or Allah Or Yhwh, Because This God Is Not God, But Has The Same Human Qualities Just Like You And Me. He Commits Murder, Burns People With Fire From Heaven, Starves His Chosen People, Causes The Pregnant Woman To Be Stripped Of Her Baby, Sons And Daughters To Be Eaten By Their Parents, All Out Of His Jealousy. Let Me Ask You Something Christian Or Jew Or Muslims, If Your God Is The Only God, And There Is No Other God Than He, Then Who Is He Jealous Of? What Is He Jealous Of If He Created Everything. Thus, If This God Is A Jealous God, Then There Must Be Other Gods, Than Just Your God, That He Is Jealous Of, Who Has Equal Power To Him, Or Are On A Higher Level Of Intelligence Than Your God. In Matthew 18:1, It Says "...Who Is The Greatest (Mide-Zone) In The Kingdom Of Heaven?". And The Greek Word Mide-Zone (Μαθη) Means "Greater, Larger, Elder, Stronger". Thus God Is Not Alone. That's Why He's Jealous.

Ques: Is There Anything Smarter Than God?

Ans: Yes. The Aids Virus Has More Intellect Than God. Why Did God Create The Human Brain To Allow You To Create This Disease To Kill His Own Creatures? Aids Attacks The Human Body, And Sets Up A Home In The RNA And Begins To Manufacture DNA. It Goes Into Your Bloodstream And Aligns Itself With The RNA Of Your Chromosome And Then Begins To Manufacture A New Type Of DNA That Destroys Your Immune System. You Do Not Die From The Aids Virus, You Die Because It Has Destroyed Your Immune System And You Are No Longer Able To Fight Off Even The Most Common Diseases Such As A Cold.

Who Created This Formula For RNA And DNA? Come On You Christians, Tell Me. Come On You Muslims, Tell Me. Who Created A Formula For Chromosomes In The Human Body. Allah, God, Thehos, Yahweh. God Did That. Now A Bacteria Has The Power To Reverse The Order In Which God Put There. A Bacteria Has Gotten Into Man's Body And Took A System That God Set In Place, And Shifted It Around. We Have An Aids Virus Playing God. A God Of Death. And All The Intellectuals On The Planet In Every Language And Every Culture Can't Tackle This New God.

The Aids Virus Was Made In A Laboratory. Scientist Are Professing That They Went Into Laboratories To Create Viruses That Only Kill Humans And They Put It In Certain Foods That You Like. That Means They Studied Us. They Actually Studied Us To See What We Like And Dislike. There Is No Cure For Aids. They Came Up With A Prevention By Giving You A Kind Of Bacteria That Will Prevent Aids From Attacking Your Body, However, The Aids Virus Will Always Exist. Again, Nobody Dies From Aids. They Die When Their Immune System Breaks Down And Whatever Attacks Them, Takes Their Life. It Takes Away The Shield That God Gave You Against Things Of Nature.

The Aids Virus

These Are The Times That, If You Were A Christian, Your Bible Is Talking About. These Are The Times, If You Were A Muslim, Your Koran Is Talking About. These Are The Times, If You Were A Hindu Or Buddhist, Your Bagada Vita Or Upanishad Is Talking About. That's The Day And Time You And I Are In Now. Wars And Rumors Of War (Ezekiel 7:26). Pestilence, And Disease. We're Trying To Turn The Hearts Of The Fathers Towards Their Sons And They're Trying To Turn The Children To Kill Their Mothers And Fathers. They're Teaching Them To Do It. If You Don't Stop The Killing, Get Rid Of Sylvester Stallone, And Arnold Swartzenegger. Get Rid Of These People Who Are Messengers Of Destruction, Messengers Of Violence, And Wars. In Every Movie, Cars Are Blown Up, Buildings Are Falling, People Are Shooting Each Other, And The Kids Get Their Adrenaline Built On That And Then The Atmosphere Creates It, Where It's Necessary For Me To Have A Gun In My House In Order For Me To Protect Myself And My Family. And My Son Might Shoot My Daughter.

If I Throw The Gun Out, I Have To Worry About You. If I Keep The Gun There, I Have To Worry About What You Taught My Kid To Do With The Gun. It's Not The Gun That Kills The Person That Puts It In His Hand, But More So The Society That Teaches The Man What To Use A Gun For.

Stop The Cowboy Movies, The Gangster Movies Where 2 People Are Having A Showdown On The Street. That's What Drive By Shootings Are. 2 Gangs Having A Showdown On The Street. If You Care About The Minds Of People, Put Forth Some Constructive Media, Not Destructive. Where In A Day And Time When We Have To Learn To Do For Ourselves And Stop Depending On Some God Out There Sitting In The Middle Of Nowhere With Jesus On His Right Side, To Come And Do Something For Us. We Are Losing Our Children To This Evil Society. They're Not Coming To The Churches, To The Synagogues, To The Mosque. They're Not Going Anywhere Near God.

Ques: What Is The Cure For This Evilness?

Ans: To Give Up Religion, For Religion Breeds Ignorance, And Every Religious Denomination Out There Thinks That Their Scripture Or Holy Book That They Hold In Their Hands Is The Word Of Truth.

Ques: Is The Scripture The Word Of Truth?

Ans: According To The Jews, The Old Testament Daniel 10:21, Claims, And I Quote, "...The Scripture Of Truth...", And The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used For "Scripture" Is "Kathab" (כתב) Meaning "A Writing, Of Divine Authority". And The Christians New Testament In 2Nd Timothy 3:16 States "All Scripture Is Given By Inspiration Of God," And The Greek Word Used Here Is "Graphe" (Γραπε) Meaning "Scripture, A Certain Portion Or Section Of The Holy Book". Then You Have Koran 2:2 For The Muslims, Where It States, And I Quote "This Is The Book; In It Is Guidance Sure Without Doubt", And The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Being Used Is Kitaab (كتاب) Meaning "Scripture Or Book". According To All These Religions, Their Book Can Be Trusted, And If All Scripture Are Given By Inspiration Of God, Then Did God Inspire The People Of The Bible And The Koran To Kill, Rape, Murder, Commit Incest, Adultery, Sacrifice Their Children, Decapitate, Etc. Did God Really Inspire This Scripture That You Christians And Muslims Are Basing Your Whole Lives On? Ask Yourself, If You Had A Father, And He Killed, Raped And Ate People, He Destroyed Towns With Atomic Bombs, He Stole, He Lied, He Cheated, Would You Follow After His Footsteps? No. So Since God Is The Father As Mentioned In Malachi 2:10, And I Quote "Have We Not All One Father? Hath Not One God Created Us?...", And You Liken Yourself As His Son, And In Your Koran And Bible, God, Allah, Jehovah, Kills, Burns People, Causes Thousands To Be Swallowed By Earthquake, Accepts Human And Animal Sacrifice, Etc., Would You Still Follow And Worship This God? Or Do You Have To Confess That You Are Not Really Worshipping The All-Loving, All-Caring God, But The Devil, Because According To Your Religion, The Devil Is Evil And God Is Good?

Ques: Who Created The Devil?

Ans: The God Of Your Bible Created The Devil. God Created The Snake, Who According To Genesis Chapter 3, Verse 1, Was, And It Says "Now The Serpent Was More Subtle Than Any Beast Of The Field Which The Lord God Had Made." Listen Carefully Now, The Serpent Was More Subtle Than Any Beast Of The Field Which The Lord God, (Yahweh Eloheem) Had Made (AwsawMeaning "To Fashion, Make"); So That Means That The Lord God (Yahweh Eloheem) Made The Devil Which Is The Serpent (Nakhash Meaning "Serpent") According To Your King James Bible.

This Is The Same God That Created The Heaven And The Earth. First Of All, Snakes Are Not Beast Of The Fields. This Snake Was Subtle, Awroom (ערום) Meaning "Shrewd, Crafty, Sly, Sensible". Now, You Tell Me, Where Was There Ever A Snake That Talked And Was Shrewd, Crafty, And Sly? You Can't. I've Seen A Parakeet That Could Talk, God Let Me See That, But I've Never Seen A Snake That Could Talk. In Order To Be Able To Talk, You Have

To Have A Larynx, And Snakes Don't Have A Larynx. So This Snake Mentioned In Your Bible In Genesis Chapter 3, Verse 1 Could Not Have Been An Actual Snake, But A Being, A Person In The Garden Just Like Adam And Eve. (Refer To Scroll #47, Body Parts Of God)

NOW THE SERPENT WAS MORE SUBTLE THAN ANY BEAST OF THE FIELD WHICH THE LORD GOD HAD MADE. AND HE SAID UNTO THE WOMAN, YEA, HATH GOD SAID, YE SHALL NOT EAT OF EVERY TREE OF THE GARDEN?

Ques: Who Was This Snake Spoken Of In Genesis 3:1"

Ans: This Snake In Genesis 3:1 Was The Devil Which The Lord God (Yahweh Eloheem) Had Made (Awsaw). Now If I'm God And I Create The Devil To Do Devilish Things, Then, I Must Be A Devil. So After God Created The Devil, The Devil Went To Do Devilishment, And He Went Into The Garden And Whispered To Eve And Caused Her To Disobey God And Eat Of The Fruit In The Midst Of The Garden (Genesis 3:3). Your Bible In Genesis 3:5 Says The Way To Become God Is To Disobey God And Become Evil. Genesis 3:5 States "For God Doth Know That In The Day Ye Eat Thereof, Then Your Eyes Shall Be Opened, And Ye Shall Be As Gods, Knowing Good And Evil." So You Had To Be Born Good, Then Become Evil, And

In Becoming Evil, Then You Became Like Gods (Eloheem) According To Your Bible (Genesis 3:5). Could You Explain That?

Genesis 3:5

Modern Hebrew Script

כִּי יֹדֵעַ אֱלֹהִים כִּי בְּיוֹם אֲכָלְכֶם מִמֶּנּוּ וְנִפְקְחוּ עֵינֵיכֶם וִהְיִיתֶם כֵּאלֹהִים יֹדְעֵי טוֹב וָרָע׃

The Serapheem, The Agreeable Eloheem Anunnaqi, Know That When You Eat It, Your Eyes Will Be Opened, And You Will Be Just As Powerful As They Are, Yet Having The Will Power Of Knowing And Feeling Both Agreeable Things And Disagreeable Things.

Mistranslation For King James 1611 A.D.

FOR GOD DOTH KNOW THAT IN THE DAY YE EAT THEREOF, THEN YOUR EYES SHALL BE OPENED, AND YE SHALL BE AS GODS, KNOWING GOOD AND EVIL.

Adam And Eve Had To Be Good Before They Met The Devil, Because They Obeyed God, However, After They Ate Of The Tree In The Midst Of The Garden (Genesis 3:3), Then They Became Evil, Because They Disobeyed Or Went Against The Commandment Of God. If God Didn't Lie To Them, Then Maybe They Would Not Have Disobeyed Him. In This Case, The Devil Was Telling The Truth, Because Adam And Eve Did Not Die, According To Genesis 3:6, After They Ate Of The Tree. Why Does God Give The Devil Who Is Evil This Much Power? God Made A Pact, An Agreement With The Devil In The Book Of Job.

Ques: What Was God's Pact With The Devil In The Book Of Job?

Ans: God Gave The Devil The Right To Physically And Mentally Abuse Job, Kill His Family, Livestock, Plague His Body With Boils And Scabs, However, Spare Him His Life. In Job 1:7 The Devil Was Given The Power To Roam To And Fro And Up And Down In The Earth. In Job 2:1, 1:6 It Says "Now There Was A Day When The Sons (Bane) Of God (Eloheem) Came To Present Themselves Before The Lord (Yahweh), And Satan (Sawtawn) Came Also Among Them." Satan Has Juice If He Could Come Amongst The Sons Of God In Front Of The Lord Himself, Or, Is This Quote Implying That Satan Is One Of The Sons Of God According To Your Bible? Then Satan Sits Down And Conversates With "The Lord", Who Is Boasting About His Perfect Servant, And Is Given The Power To Harm Job, Who Was A Perfect And Upright Man (Job 1:8), However, He Could Not Kill Him.

Job 1:12

Modern Aramic (Hebrew)

וַיֹּאמֶר יְהוָה אֶל־הַשָּׂטָן הִנֵּה כָּל־אֲשֶׁר־לוֹ בְּיָדֶךָ רַק אֵלָיו אַל־תִּשְׁלַח יָדֶךָ וַיֵּצֵא הַשָּׂטָן מִלִּפְנֵי יְהוָה׃

AND THE LORD SAID UNTO SATAN, BEHOLD, ALL THAT HE HATH IS IN THY POWER; ONLY UPON HIMSELF PUT NOT FORTH THINE HAND. SO SATAN WENT FORTH FROM THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD.

Job, The Upright Servant Of The Lord

Why Would God Allow Satan To Kill Job's Livestock (Job 1:15-17), Kill His Offspring (Job 1:18-19), Give Him Boils (Job 2:6, 7:5)? If God Would Allow Satan To Do This To His Upright And Perfect Servant Job, Whom There Was None Like Him In The World, Then Imagine What He Would Allow Satan To Do To You? So I Ask The Christian And The Muslim, Why Did Allah Subhana Wa Ta'allah, Or Jesus Or Yahweh Or His Way, Why Did He Create A Devil? Ask The Nation Of Islam, Why Did He Create A Devil Weak And Wicked And Give Him The Power To Rule The World For 6,000 Years, They'll Say, 'So Allah Could Show Forth His Power

That He's All Wise, Right, And Exact, So That He Could Come In His Own Good Time To Take The Devil Off The Planet', And They Think That That's An Answer.

Ques: Why Did God Create The Devil?

Ans: According To The Nation Of Islam And 5%, God Created The Devil So That He Could Come To Show Somebody Something? Why? Why Does God Have To Come, And Why Does God Have To Prove Himself To You, If God Indeed Created You And The Breath Of Life That's Inside Of You (Genesis 2:7)? You Better Guard Yourself Against This, Because This Is Dangerous Medicine. This Has People Who Are Struck By Tornado Going To Church On Sunday, And Saying "Oh God, We Know That You Were With Us, And We Have Your Blessings", However, Your Child Died. A Woman And Her Family Goes On A Walk One Beautiful Morning, And Is Stricken With Lice, Which Leaves The Whole Family With A Disease Forever. Where Was God? A Woman Has Cancer, And Still Goes To Church On Easter. God Is Not Helping You, Because If He Was Helping You, He Would Have Helped You Not To Be In That Situation That You Are In Right Now.

Julie, Returns From Easter Sunday

You Should Be Saying "Where Were You God When I Needed You The Most". Religion Teaches You This, And The Preacher, Imaam Or Kohane Who Wishes To Take The Place Of God, Tells You To Abide By This And Base Your Whole Life On That Fact That God Loves You And He's Going To Save You One Day.

Ques: Why Is Religion On A Decline?

Ans: Religion Is On A Decline Because God Can't Deliver Anymore. Babies Are Dying. You Go To Church On Sunday, And On Monday Someone Still Gets Shot, Or A Fire Breaks Out And Kills Innocent People, Or Your Family Is Starving And You Don't Know Where The Food Is Going To Come From. All You See Now Is War, Calamities, Diseases And Fire. Did It Ever

Dawn On You That The God Of This Book Is Not God, But The Devil. God Doesn't Use Fire. According To Your Holy Books, The Devil Uses Fire And Brimstones, So Either God Or Some Mortal Man Who Thinks Just Like You And Me, And Talks Like You And Me, And Walks Like You And Me, Is Making A Mistake With Your Very Emotions.

Ques: Who Created Evil?

Ans: According To Isaiah 45:7, The Lord That You Go To Church And Worship Every Sunday Created Evil. The Lord Made (Awsaw) Peace (Shawlome), But He Created (Bawraw) Evil (Rāh), He Formed (Yawtsar) Light, But Created (Bawraw) Darkness; And The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used For Create In This Verse Under Strong #01254, Is Bawraw (ברע) Meaning "To Create, Shape, Form".

Isaiah 45:7

Modern Hebrew Script

7 יוֹצֵר אוֹר וּבוֹרֵא חֹשֶׁךְ עֹשֶׂה שָׁלוֹם וּבוֹרֵא רָע אֲנִי יְהוָה עֹשֶׂה כָּל־אֵלֶּה׃

I YAW-SAR (FORM) THE ORE (LIGHT), AND BAW-RAW (CREATE) KHO-SHEK (DARKNESS): I AW-SAW (FASHION) SHAW-LOME (PEACE), AND BAW-RAW (CREATE) RAH (DISAGREEABLENESS): I YAHUWA AW-SAW (FASHIONED) EL-LEH (THESE THINGS).

I Form The Light And Create Darkness I Make Peace, And Create Disagreeableness I Yahuwa Fashioned These Things.

Right Translation In Aramic (Hebrew) By
NETER A'aferti: Atum Re
Mistranslation By King James 1611 A.D.

I FORM THE LIGHT, AND CREATE DARKNESS: I MAKE PEACE, AND CREATE EVIL: I THE LORD DO ALL THESE THINGS.

Isn't It Ironic That Everything Bad, The Lord Created, However, Everything Good, He Made Or Formed.

Then If You Go To Isaiah 14:12, Where It Says "How Art Thou Fallen From Heaven, O Lucifer, Son Of The Morning! How Art Thou Cut Down To The Ground, Which Didst Weaken The Nations!" You Will See That The Devil Was Called The Son Of The Morning, The Bright Morning Star. Now Go To Revelation 22:16 And You Will See That Jesus Is Also Called The Bright And Morning Star. Meaning, That Both Of Them Are Sharing The Same Title.

Revelation 22:16

"I JESUS HAVE SENT MINE ANGEL TO TESTIFY UNTO YOU THESE THINGS IN THE CHURCHES. I AM THE ROOT AND THE OFFSPRING OF DAVID, AND THE BRIGHT AND MORNING STAR."

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

So Literally They Say Jesus Is The Sun And Lucifer Is A Sun. How Many Suns Is That. 2. And Jesus Was Back There In The Beginning With God. Why Are These Two People, The Devil And Jesus, Called The Bright And Morning Star? I'll Tell You Why.

Ques: Why Is Jesus And The Devil Referred To As The Bright And Morning Star?

Ans: If You Go Back To Genesis 1:16, You Will See That God Created Two Lights. A Greater Light, And A Lesser Light.

Genesis 1:16

AND GOD MADE TWO GREAT LIGHTS; THE GREATER LIGHT TO RULE THE DAY, AND THE LESSER LIGHT TO RULE THE NIGHT: HE MADE THE STARS ALSO.

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

What Are These Two Lights? It Can't Be The Sun And The Moon, Because The Moon Does Not Have Any Light Of Its Own. It's Non-Luminous. The Moon Reflects It's Light From The Sun, And It's Not Even Great When You Compare Its Size To The Sun. So This Is A Mistake In The Bible, When They Say That The Lesser Light Was The Moon. Now, That We've Got That Clear, What Are These Two Great Lights Spoken Of In Genesis 1:16. Now, Since Both Jesus And The Devil Is Referred To As Lights "Bright Morning Star", These Are The Two Lights According To Your Bible.

According To Your Bible, You Know That Jesus Was One Of The Lights In The Beginning With God, Because He Is Called The Word (Logos) Right In The Book Of John 1:1-3, It Says "In The Beginning (Arkhay) Was The Word (Logos) And The Word (Logos) Was With God (Thehos), And The Word (Logos) Was God (Thehos)". The Same Was In The Beginning (Arkhay) With (Pros) God (Thehos). All Things Were Made By Him; And Without Him Was Not Any Thing Made That Was Made." Right. The Christians Claim That Jesus Was The Word Or Logos (Λογοω) In Greek, In The Beginning With God.

In The Ryrie Study Bible, Kings James Version, Commentary 1:1, 1:3, Page 1493, It States:

1:1 In The Beginning. Before Time Began, Christ Was Already In Existence With God. This Is What Is Meant By The Term "The Pre-Existent Christ." See Gen. 1:1 And 1John 1:1. Word (Greek: Logos). Logos Means Word, Thought, Concept, And The Expressions Thereof. In The O.T. The Concept Conveyed Activity And Revelation, And The Word Or Wisdom Of God Is Often Personified (Ps. 33:6, Prov. 8). In The Targums (Aramaic Paraphrases Of The O.T.) It Was A Designation Of God. To The Greek Mind It

Expressed The Ideas Of Reason And Creative Control. Revelation Is The Keynote Idea In The Logos Concept. Here It Is Applied To Jesus, Who Is All That God Is And The Expression Of Him (1:1,14). In This Verse The Word (Christ) Is Said To Be With God (I.E., In Communion With And Yet Distinct From God), And To Be God (I.E., Identical In Essence With God). 1:3 Made By Him. Christ Was Active In The Work Of Creation (Cf Col. 1:16).

In The Seventh Day Adventist Bible Commentary, Volume 5, Matthew To John, Page 896, States:

Thus, Both In The Words And In Their Form, John Stresses The Continuous, Timeless, Unlimited Existence Of Christ Prior To His Incarnation. In Eternity Past There Was No Point Before Which It Could Be Said That The Word Was Not. The Son Was "With The Father From All Eternity" (Aa 39). "There Never Was A Time When He Was Not In Close Fellowship With The Eternal God" (Ev 615).

So From The Above Two Statements Which Are In Your Christian Bible Commentaries, Jesus Or Christ Was In The Beginning With Existing With God. You Know This Because When You Go To The Books Of Hebrew 12:2, It Says That Jesus Sits On The Right Side Of God "...And Is Set Down At The Right Hand Of The Throne Of God." And The Book Of Acts 7:55 Mentions It Also "...And Jesus Standing On The Right Hand Of God,".

So Jesus Was In The Beginning With God, And The Devil Was In The Beginning With God, And Jesus Must Have Been The One That Was Writing The Stuff Down While God Was Creating. Why Do They Say In The Bible In Genesis 1:1, "In The Beginning God Created The Heaven And The Earth". This Doesn't Make Any Sense. Think About This.

In The Beginning. Is That "At" The Beginning Or "In" The Beginning. There's A Difference Between At The Beginning And In The Beginning, Because At The Beginning Means You Were At The Beginning, And In The Beginning Means You Were At A Period Of Time Somewhere Within The Beginning. Now Which Was It, Is It In The Beginning Or At The Beginning? They Say Don't Question I Just Want To Know, Because It Says In The Beginning God Created. Was That The Beginning Too. Then God Began There Too, Because If God Did The Beginning, It Shouldn't Be Saying In The Beginning God Created? It Should Be Saying At The Beginning God Created. We're Now At Your Beginning. So How Could It Be In The Beginning God Created When God Was Already Created To Create. So There Would Be No Beginning There. This Sounds Like Mumbo Jumbo Right. Let Me Say It Again.

In The Beginning God Created The Heaven And The Earth. Is That The Beginning? How Do We Know That's Not The Beginning Because God Was There. Now They Should Be Saying "God Created A Beginning, For You. However, He Was Already Here". This Is Just One Of The Many Simple Minded Mistakes That Is In Your Bible Showing That It Is In Fact Fallible. Every Story Inside Of Your Bible Is Either Contradictory, Evil, Destructive, Selfish, Etc.

If You Take Two Kids, And Give One Kid A Sandwich, And Not The Other Child, The Other One Will Automatically Take The Sandwich Away From Him Instead Of Asking For It. Thus,

Before We Learn How To Be Bad It Is Already In Our Nature To Be Destructive, Aggressive. Selfish And Evil. You May Not Like The Way This Is Being Said, But If We Start To Reconcile What We Are Really About And Not This Superficial Good Crap That They Have Us Thinking We Are, We Might Be Able To Get To Some Of The Root Of Our Problems And Change Our Lives, And Conditions. If We Start To Realize That The Foundation Of Our Weakness Is Our Selfishness, Our Obsession With Being Right, Our Greed, Lust, And Then Realize That We Were Reared And Educated On A Book That Taught Us That.

The Reality That You Don't Want To Accept Is, What You Were Thinking Was The God Of Your Bible All This Time Was The Devil. Why Does The Devil Have To Come Down? Couldn't God Just Come Down Himself Like He Did When He Confounded The Tongues Of The People At The Tower Of Babel (Genesis 11:9), Or Was This Also The Devil. This Is Where They Got The Word Babble From, When They Say, Stop Babbling "Talking Nonsense" Think About It.

Ques: Does Religion Breed This Evilness?

Ans: Yes. Our Greatest Enemy Is Religion, Dogma, Doctrine, Philosophy, Interpretation, Tafsir. This Is Our Greatest Enemy, When Mortal Men Who Want A Monopoly On Human Souls Come In And Feel They Have To Tell You How To Relate To God. That's The Problem. And He Gets A Uniform, And He s A Clergy, Or An Imaam, Or A Rabbi, And He Got That God Look, And I Forget God For Him, And He Gets Used To Being The Rabbi, Or The Imaam, Or The Kohane, And Gets A God Complex, So Whenever I'm In Distress, I Go To Him, And This Cuts Off The Flow Between You And The Most High, And They Make Themselves A Focal Point Through You, And That Is Probably Why There Is So Much Evil, And Murder, And Rape, And Incest, And Diseases, Today, Because Man Has Cut Off His Communication With God, Be It Allah, Or Yahweh, His Way Or Jehovah. You Confuse Your Children Into Thinking That Bad Is Good, And Good Is Bad. You Make It Appear To Them That God Has Everything Together, And If They Go To Church, Then They Will Be Saved Of Their Sins.

Well, What If Your Son Was One Of The Choir Boys, And He Just Happened To Take Church Seriously, However, The Bishop Or Pastor Or Reverend Starts Preaching His Own Philosophy Of Pedophilism, Which You Know Happens Daily. The Boy Goes Crazy For Life. Or He Becomes A Homosexual. Is This God's Fault. He Was In The Care Of God's House?

Pedophilism In Christianity

What About The Case With The Muslims. How Muhammad Had 13 Wives. And The Koran 4:3 Says To Marry Woman Of Your Choice, Two, Or Three, Or Four;". I Don't See The Number 13 In There. There's A 9 Number Difference There. Then You Have Muhammad, Messing Around With A Girl Named Aiysha At The Age Of 9, However, They Say He Consummated The Marriage At Age Thirteen (Hadiyth Bukhari 7:64/ 5:236). Aiysha Was Engaged At Age Six And Handed Over To Muhammad At Age Nine (Hadiyth Bukhari 5:234).

Sahih Al-Bukhari Hadith 7.64 Narrated By Aisha

That The Prophet Married Her When She Was Six Years Old And He Consummated His Marriage When She Was Nine Years Old, And Then She Remained With Him For Nine Years (I.E., Till His Death).

These Are Just Some Of The Things That Religion Teaches You. You As A Christian, Muslim, Or Jew Were Raised Up Being Indoctrinated By Your Holy Books Which Teaches Nothing But War, Bloodshed, Crime, Rape, Incest, Deformity, Hatred, So As "A Man Thinketh In His Heart, So Is He" (Proverbs 23:7). That Is Why There Is So Much Evilness In This World Today, Because The Book That You Base Your Life On Since The Moment You Are Conceived Into This World Is Full Of Evil. This Should Make You Want To Ask Yourself, "Is This Bible That I Am Holding In My Hands Today, And Basing My Whole Life On, A Holy Scripture, Or, Is It A Fictional Book Which Is Full Of Mistakes From Cover To Cover, That Was Put Together By Men"?

Ques: Is This Bible The Word Of God Or The Word Of Man?

Ans: Your Bible Which You Christians Claim Is The Word Of God In John 1:1, Is The Word Of A Man Named Josephus Flavius And His Family, The Pisos Or Antonines. You Jews Who Claim That The Torah Was Written By The Finger Of God In Exodus 31:18 And Deuteronomy 9:10, Are Only Stories Which Were Copied Out Of The Egyptian Book Of The Dead. The New Testament Was A Play Written By A Roman Named Arius Calpurnius Piso, Pen Name Flavius Josephus And His Family. (Refer To Degree Of Christism)

Ques: Who Is Flavius Josephus?

Ans: Arius Calpurnius Piso (A.D. 37-100?), Pen Name Was Flavius Josephus. When His Father Died At The Hands Of Nero In 65 C.E., The Family Went Undercover, And Spent The Next 73 Years Writing The New Testament. They Reappear Publicly In Roman History In 138 When Antoninus, Piso's Grandson, Became Emperor, And They Were Known As The Antonines, Not As The Pisos.

This Man, Flavius Josephus, Along With Other Roman Scribes Are The True Authors Of Your Bible. The Word Author Comes From [Middle English Auctour, From Old French Autor, From Latin Auctor, Creator, From Auctus, Past Participle Of Augare, To Create.. And These Men Being Authors Of Your Bible, You Give Them The Authority And Dictatorship To Control Your Life.

Ques: Is The Bible The Manuscript Of The Devil?

Ans: Yes. Churches, Ministries, Preachers, Imaams, Rabbis Don't Have That Much Information Into What The Bible Is, And How Its Been Coded And Put Together, And What Each Thing Means.

You Could Go All The Way Back To The First Word In The Bible. You Know What You'll Find. Barasheeth (בראשׁית). They Say In The Beginning, But The Hebrew Says Barasheeth (בראשׁית). The Word Is The Second Letter In The Hebrew Alphabet. Beth (ב).

You Go To The Koran, It Says Bismi Allah (بسم الله) Or Bismi (بسم). The First Letter Of The Sentence That Opens All Koran's, Bah (ب) In Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) For The Tasmiyah. Bismi (بسم). If You Go To The Christian Bible, The First Letter Is Beta (B). 3 B's (Beh, Bah, Beta). 3 Second Letters (Ah - Beh (ב), Alif - Bah (ب), Alpha - Beta (B)). 3 Seconds. 3 Second Letters. 2, 4, 6, In A Book That Consists Of 66 Books. This Book Is A Numerical Book. Everything Is Hidden In Numbers, Mysticism, Mysteries, Which The Cabalistic Society Tries To Decipher. 1Corinthians 2:7 Says "But We Speak The Wisdom Of God In A Mystery, Even The Hidden Wisdom, Which God Ordained Before The World Unto Our Glory:". Herein Is Wisdom (Revelation 13:18).

Revelation 13:18

HERE IS WISDOM LET HIM THAT HATH UNDERSTANDING COUNT THE NUMBER OF THE BEAST: FOR IT IS THE NUMBER OF A MAN; AND HIS NUMBER IS SIX HUNDRED THREESCORE AND SIX (666).

Kings James Version 1611 A.D.

The 66 Books Of The Bible

1. Genesis	16. Nehemiah	31. Obadiah	46. 1Corinthians	61. 2Peter
2. Exodus	17. Esther	32. Jonah	47. 2Corinthians	62. 1John
3. Leviticus	18. Job	33. Micah	48. Galatians	63. 2John
4. Numbers	19. Psalms	34. Nahum	49. Ephesians	64. 3John
5. Deuteronomy	20. Proverbs	35. Habakkuk	50. Philippians	65. Jude
6. Joshua	21. Ecclesiastes	36. Zephaniah	51. Colossians	66. Revelation
7. Judges	22. Song Of Solomon	37. Haggai	52. 1Thessalonians
8. Ruth	23. Isaiah	38. Zechariah	53. 2Thessalonians
9. 1Samuel	24. Jeremiah	39. Malachi	54. 1Timothy
10. 2Samuel	25. Lamentations	40. Matthew	55. 2Timothy
11. 1Kings	26. Ezekiel	41. Mark	56. Titus
12. 2Kings	27. Daniel	42. Luke	57. Philemon
13. 1Chronicles	28. Hosea	43. John	58. Hebrews
14. 2Chronicles	29. Joel	44. Acts	59. James
15. Ezra	30. Amos	45. Romans	60. 1Peter

You're Holding In Your Hand The Devil's Manuscript Of Destruction. And I Say You Can't Point Out To Me One Good Gesture In The Bible, However, I Can Point Out To You Rape, Incest, Crime, And Murder. I'll Tell You That The Creatures That Created You Knew By Nature You Were Evil People. Don't Get Mad. The Books That You Use As A Guideline Throughout Life; Be It The Bible, Koran, Or Baghada Vita Are Full Of Nothing But Evil Stories.

Ques: If You Were To Remove The Bible Out Of History, Then What Would Happen?

Ans: If You Were To Remove The Bible Out Of History, There Never Would Have Been A Crusade. Nosair Would Have Never Helped Bombed The World Trade Center Building. Did You Know That The Pope Blessed The Atomic Bomb, And The Bomb That Was Dropped On Hiroshima And Nagasaki? Now Think, If These Are Supposedly God's Representatives, And They Are Doing All This Devilishment, Then You Have No Chance At Heaven. If Jesus Wasn't Quoting The Torah To The Jews And Got Them Mad Because He Had His Own Opinions About It, He Would Have Never Gotten Crucified. I Can Go On And On.

If We Were To Remove The Bible Out Of The History Of Man Name Something That Would Not Have Happened, And Remember, Earthquakes Are In The Bible As Something That God Brings (Isaiah 29:6). Hail (Exodus 9:23), Floods (Genesis 6:17), Pestilence (Exodus 9:15), Disease (2Chronicles 21:15), Famine (2Kings 8:1) Are In The Bible As Something That God Brings. Now If We Remove God Out Of The Situation, They'll Call You The Devil, And You Say Devil Is In The Bible As Something That God Brings. He Created The Devil As The Subtle And Most Shrewdest Beast Of The Field (Genesis 3:1), Thus The Devil Was Smarter Than Adam And Eve. If God Created Humans In The Image And After The Likeness Of God. Right, And We Think, Feel, Smell, Talk Like God, Then, He Created The Devil And Made Him The Shrewdest, Subtlest Beast Of The Field? He Was Able To Beguile Adam And Eve, That Only Leaves Us Under The Impression That The Devil Is A Shrewder Creature Than God. The Devil Was Able To Beguile Adam And Eve Who Thinks Like God, So He Must Be Able To Beguile God Also.

And Let Me Make Mention, If Adam And Eve Were The Only Two People On The Planet At That Time, How Can They Say That The Devil Was The Shrewdest Beast Of The Field. They Are Subtly Confessing That There Were Other People On The Planet. I Have To Believe In The Devil To Be A Devil. You Have To Convince Me To Believe In The Devil Before You Convince Me That I Am A Devil Because I Disagree With Your God Who I Don't Believe In. When You Throw Up Your Hands And Say, "I Don't Believe, I'm Into Factology, Just The Facts, Because What I Do Realize Is, That If You And Your God And Your Bible Didn't Exist, This World Would Be A Peaceful, Beautiful Place."

Ques: If God Cast The Devil Out Of Heaven In Revelation 12:7-9, Because He Was So Evil, Then Why Did He Put Him Amongst His Creation And Make Him The Most Subtle And Shrewdest Beast Of The Field?

Ans: That Is A Good Question. If The Devil Was So Bad That He Was Kicked Out Of Heaven, Which Is Where God Lives? Ask Yourself, Why Would God Send Him Down To Earth Where

His Creation Was. And The Devil Said In Koran 15:36-41, He Will Make (Wrong) Fair Seeming. Why Would God Do This? And He Knew That The Devil Would Beguile His Children Into Doing What They Weren't Suppose To Be Doing. Thus If They Do Become Beguiled By The Serpent, Which God Made The Most Subtlest Beast Of The Field On Earth. Then He Knew That All Of This Was Going To Take Place. Because God Knows The Destiny Of His Creations, Thus God Knew That You Were Destined To Became Evil, And Malicious And Hate Each Other, Commit Crime, Incest, Murder, Rape Your Sister, Brothers Killing Each Other For The Throne. Conspiracy, All Of This In The Most Holiest Book Called The Bible Or The Koran. Why? Ask Yourself Why Would God Do This To His Creatures That He Created In Genesis 1:26 In His Image And After His Likeness? You Christians That Go To Church Every Sunday, Or You Muslims That Go To Mosque Every Friday, Or Jew That Goes To The Synagogues Every Saturday, Ask Your God, Allah, Yhwh Or Jehovah, Why Did He Allow The Devil To Beguile His Creation? And Why Did He Allow You To Be In The Situation That You Are In Today?

Everybody's Not Rich, However, Everybody Wants To Be Rich. Not Everyone Has A House To Live In, A Car To Get By, Food On The Table, Clothes For Their Baby, However, Everybody Aspires This Throughout Life, And God Doesn't Provide Them With It. He Let's Them Suffer. And Refer To Drugs As A Means Of Salvation For Them. Why? If God Knows What Is Predestined To Happen, Why Does He Allow This To Happpen? You Follow. Why Does He Allow You To Suffer, Then At The Point When You Decide To Give Up From Aggravation? He Let's It Appear For You. Why? These Are The Questions That I'm Asking Your Preacher. Teacher, Leaders, Rabbi's, Imaams About Their God.

Ques: Who Is Your God?

Ans: My God Is The Sun. Your God Is The Son. If My God Doesn't Come Up In The Morning, You Will Not Have Breakfast, Dinner, Easter, Or Christmas. When It's Raining Outside, You Call On My God "The Sun" To Come Out. This Is Where The Ancient Tama-Reans Get Their Sun Disk, Re Or Ra, Or The Deity Re From, The Sun, Not The Son (Refer To Scroll # Ancient Egypt And The Pharaoh, # Science Of The Pyramids, # Leviathan 666).

Ques: Who Was The Tama-Rean Deity Re Or Ra?

Ans: The Tama-Rean Deity Re (Ra) Was The Great Solar Deity Of Heliopolis, City Of The Sun. Re Had Many Forms And Many Names. The Most Important Of These Was Ra-Harrakte, Who Was Shown In Tama-Rean Art Was A Falcon-Headed Deity Wearing The Solar Disc, Symbol Of The Sun And The Uraeus, A Rearing Cobra With An Inflated Hood Worn On The Brow Of A Ruler. Harrakte Was A Particular Manifestation Of Horus, That Of 'Horus Of The Horizon', The Birthplace Of The Sun. According To Heliopolian Myth, Re (Ra) Was Originally Named Atum

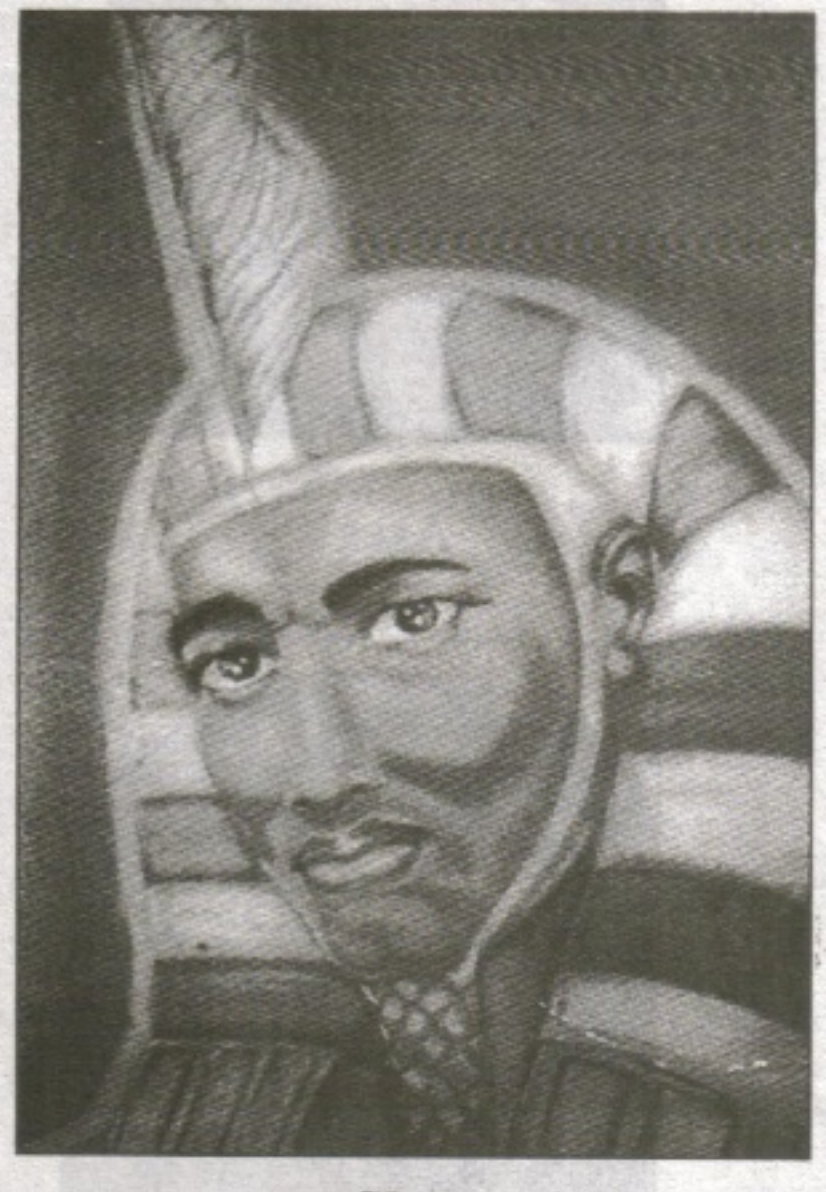
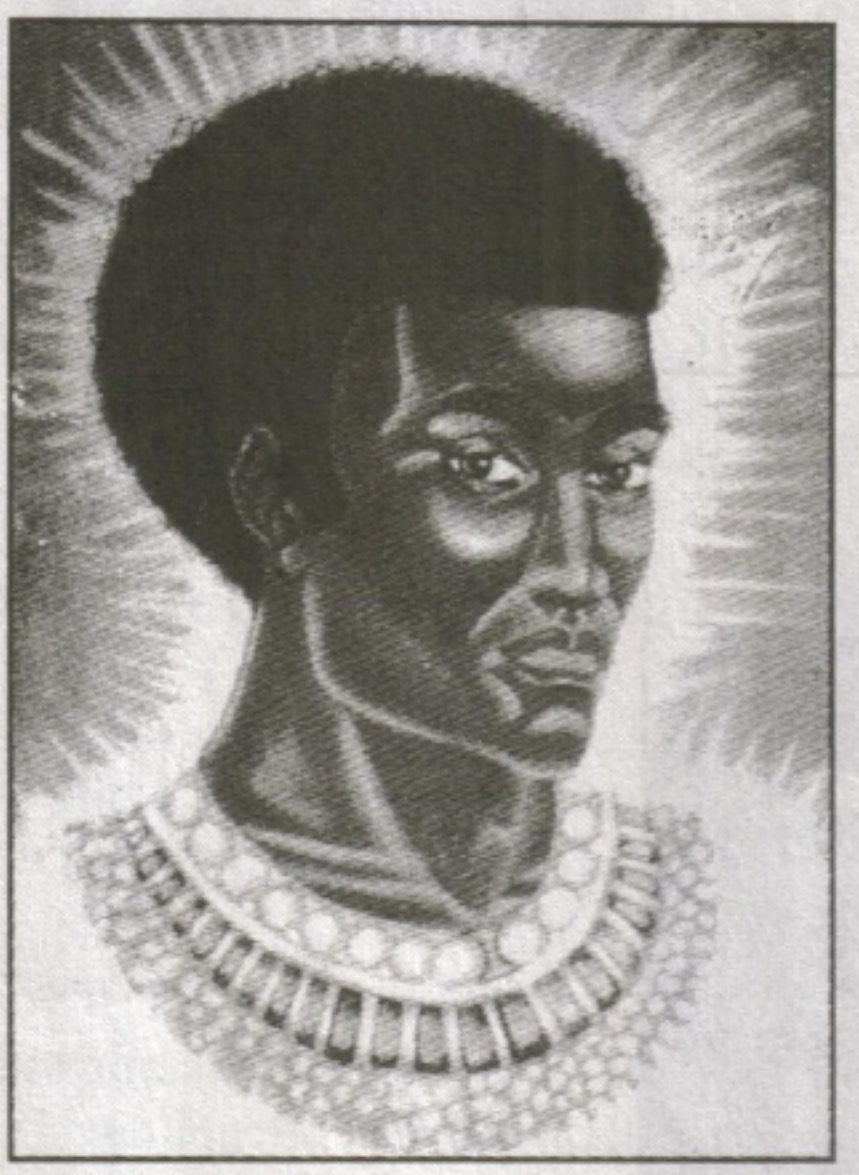
At First Re Lay Silent Within Nun, Wrapped In The Bud Of A Lotus. With His Eyes And Mouth Firmly Closed, He Held His Bright Flame Of Solar Light Safe From The Crushing Power Of Chaos. Eventually Tired Of His Inactivity, He Climbed From The Darkness And Revealed Himself

In All His Burning Glory, And He Was No Longer Atum, He Had Become Re. Then He Formed The First Pair Of Deities, Shu And Tefnut, Who Gave Birth To Geb And Nut, The Parents Of Isis, Osiris, Set And Nephthys. Re And The Eight Deities Formed The Ogdoad And Were Worshipped Together At Heliopolis. Although Re Fathered The Deities Shu And Tefnut, He Did Not Himself Have A Partner Until Much Later When He Was Given A Wife, Rat, Whose Name Was A Feminine Form Of Ra (Re). Rat Also Had Other Names Such As Iusas, Eusos And Uert Hekeu, Meaning "Great Of Magic."

Tefnut



Shu



Geb

Nut

Aset

Sutukh

Asaru

Re (Ra)

Ans: The Sun In Itself Called "Ra Or Re" Meaning "The Seer" By The Ancient Tama-Reans Is A Form Of Fire. The Ancient Tama-Reans Called Their Sun Deity "Amon Re." The Letter For The Ancient Tama-Rean Sun Neter (Deity) Re In Hieroglyphics Is The Letter (O) Which Is The Same As The General Symbol Used For The Sun (O). Amun Re's Symbol Is The Sun, The Fire Of Nature That Is Causing The Skin Cancers. If You Can't Live Under The Sun, Then Obviously You Don't Belong On This Planet, And That's Maybe Why You Are Waiting For The Son To Return And Not The Sun, Because It Will Burn You.

We Are In A Great Day And Time If Only We Could Get Back To Reality. It's Going To Sound Real Strange To Tell A Person, Yes, I Acknowledge The Coming Of The "Sun", The Warmth Of The Sun, The Vitality, The Nurtures Of Nature That Grows All Things We Eat. Yes, I Acknowledge That. Why Does That Bother You? Why Do You Want Me Worshipping A Dead Man? Or An Unproven Spirit Or Force. I Don't Understand. Why Do You Want Me To Feel Sorry For One Man That Got Crucified, And In Those Days, Many Got The Same. This Man Didn't Have To Go To That City, And Did Not And Can Not Die For Anothers Sins. Why Is That? I Don't Understand. It's That Wake Up Time. No Longer Do People Want To Sit Down In Church And Listen To The Preacher Talk About Jesus Coming Back Or The Bible Being The Word Of God, And Religion Is The Answer Or The Key To Your Problems. If You Ask Your Preachers Or Your Rabbis Or Your Imaams About Their So-Called Holy Books, They Will Literally Start To Lie, Before They Start Unmasking The Truth To You. That Is Why I Am Here, To Set The Record Straight. To Right The Wrong, And To Bring Your So-Called Holy Books Up To Date Because It Has Expired. I'm Here To Make All Things New. I Am Bringing You A New Book, A New Gospel, Called The Holy Tablets, And Even Another, The Scroll Of Eyes, As The Secret Records Of Neter: A'aferti Atum-Re, And Yet Another Scroll Entitled *Sacred Records Of Tama-Re.

In Your Bible Revelation 21:5 It Says "Behold, I Make All Things New", And The Greek Word For New Is Kaheenos (Καινα) Meaning "A New Kind, Unprecedented, Unheard Of". Now, What Are We Doing Right Now. We As Tama-Reans/Nuwaubians, Are Making All Things New. It's A New Gospel Because It's A New Day And Time. It's A New Word, A New Spirit On The Throne. The Spirit Of Truth, Not The Spirit Of Faith, Not The Spirit Of Fiction, Not The Spirit Of Fantasy, But The Spirit Of Truth. Each Individual Has To Realize That The Power Of God Is Inside Of You, And You Have To Bring That God Like Quality Out, And Become Responsible For Your Own Actions As A God.

Ques: What Are Some Other Religions Views Of God?

Ans: The Zulu's Have Given The Name Umvelinqangi To God Almighty. Every African Tribe, South Of The Zambesi River, That Is Southern Africa, Have Different Names For Their Gods, Such As "Tixo, Modimo, Unkulunkulu", Etc. It Is The Europeans That Came Over And Gave The Africans Their Theistic Concept Of God The Father, God The Son, And God The Holy Spirit. This Brought The African Down To Bowing Before The Statues Of Jesus, Mary, St. Micheal, St. Christopher, Paul, St. John And Many Other Saints. Out Of The Dozens Of African Tribes, None Of Them Have Ever Been Known For Making Images Of Their Deity. They Have Images Of People, Elephants, Lions, Etc.

In Yoruba, Which Is Considered A Paganistic Religion, They Have A Deity For Almost Everything. Then, You Have The Ashanti Who Traditionally Worshipped A Supreme Deity.

Many Minor Spirits, And Their Ancestors. The Hindus Word For The Almighty Deity Is Pramatma Meaning Atma - The Soul, And Pram-Atma - The Great And Holy Soul, Or The Holy Spirit, Which Is Really A Description Of The "Father" In Heaven. Despite Interpretation Of The Divinity, The Name The Hindu Gives The Supreme Being, In His Classical Language, Is Om, Meaning "Guardian Or Protector". They Have Many Deities, Such As Krishna, Shiva, And Vishnu. The Aborigine Of South Australia Calls His Deity Atnatu Meaning "The One Without An Anus - The One Without Any Flaw. The One From Whom No Impurity Flows Or Emanates." So You See, Everyone Has Their Different Concept Of God. The Whole World Doesn't Believe In The God Of The Bible, And The God Of The Koran, And The God Of The Tanakh, Because Your God Can't Deliver Anymore.

Ques: What Must I Do At This Point Since God Can't Deliver Anymore?

Ans: Since God Can't Deliver Anymore, You Have To Go On Your Own Personal Journey And Re-Connect Yourself With The Neter Shil Neteru. You Don't Need No Reverend, You Don't Need No Rabbi, Or Kohane, And Once You Have Establish That Direct Link And Re-Align Yourself With The Neter Shil Neteru, Then You Become A Part Of It All, For You Are In All (Refer To El Maguraj, The Journey Within), And If You Are A Member Of The Order Of A.M.O.N. (Ancient Mystic Order Of Neter A'aferti: Atum-Re), Then You Should Take Part In The Alignment Ceremony, And The Sacred Initiation Of The Elements. I Have Taught You This For Many Years Throughout All Of The Different Schools Of Learning.

I Neter A'aferti: Atum Re Took You On A Long Journey On A Short Path. We Are Now Under The Folds Of H.T.M. In The School Of Egyptology. H.T.M. Stands For H. - Heliopolis: Atun-Re, T. - Thebes: Amun-Re, M. Memphis: Atum-Re, The Triad Of Re Cities. H.T.M. Spells Out The Initials Of The Original Triad Of Ancient Tama-Re. The Three Re Or Suns, Namely: Atun, Whose Principal City Was Heliopolis, The Greek Word Meaning "City Of The Sun", And Originally Called Annu. The Second Deity, Being Amun, Whose Principal City Was Thebes The Greek Word Meaning "Diospolis The Great" And Originally Called Wa-Set Or Newt "The City". The Third Deity Being Atum Whose Principal City Was Memphis Meaning "Cult Center Of Ptah" And Originally Called Hettahka. These Deities Are The Triad Of Ancient Ta-Mare, And Their Principle City Spells The Initials For H.T.M. Where We Received Our Name. These Are The Three Great Tama-Rean Cities Ruled By Ra Or Re. In Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic), Koran 3:13, They Say Ra'a (راى) Meaning "To See". In Aramic (Hebrew), Genesis 21:16, It Became Roi (ראה), The Sun Deity. In The Ancient Lodge There Is A Symbol (The Ankh), And The Crucifix Or The Person On The Cross Was Not Jesus Or Horus. He Was Called Asaru, The Tama-Rean Name Of Asaru (Osiris), And Haru Is The Egyptian Name Of Horus. 1. Osiris, 2. Horus, 3. Aset (Isis). These Are The Triad. The Trinity. Everything Was Based On Trinity. Three Great Cities (Heliopolis, Thebes, Memphis), Which Are The Significance Of H.T.M. Tama-Re Is The Ancient Name Of Egypt, Which Is Why We Call Our Land. Tama-Re, Egypt Of The West, A Triad Of Elements: Ta-Earth, Ma - Water, Re - Sun. The Ancient Land Of Tama-Re Was Governed And Ruled By A Pharaoh Or A'aferti ( -The Nuwaubic Name For Pharaoh), Which Is Why We Have Our Neter A'aferti: Atum-Re, The A'aferti For This Day And Time.

Neter A'aferti: Atum-Re

I, Neter A'aferti: Atum-Re, Also Known As Malachi Zodoq Or Murdoq, Am A Forerunner, A Preparer. I Am A Warner. I Am A Sword Bearer To Stop The Lies And Mis-Information. If I Stay In The Truth, It Will Prevail. The First Truth You Have To Seek Out Is The Essence Of God. Is There A God? If Yes, Is He The One I Am Being Taught About. What Does He Do For Me? What Can He Do To Me? Has He Really Helped Me? Not The Interpretation Or The Translation, The Essence Of God Which Lays Dormant Inside You. The Root Of The Problem Is The Misinterpretation Of The Presence Of God. Whether Your Calling Allah, Yahweh, His Way, Or Their Way, Its The Misinterpretation Of The Divine Inside Each Individual Here. God Said I Placed A Portion Of Myself Inside You, But Somewhere Along The Line Somebody Wanted To Get In Between You And That Power, Said, 'But, You Have To Come And Hear It From Me. I Am The One That's Due Reverence To'. There Is No God Devil Story. You Can Either Become Agreeable And Do That Which Is Agreeable, Or You Can Become A Disagreeable Person, And Do That Which Is Disagreeable. Through This Choice That Each Human Being Posses, They Make That Decision Whether To Inflict The World With Evil And Hatred (Disagreeableness) Or Peace And True Love (Agreeableness).

Prayer Of The Tama-Reans

Oh Heavenly One, The Deity Of Deities,

Who Is The Spiritual And Physical Master Of All The Worlds,

We Nuwaubians Do Accept The Duty You Have Laid On Us;

To Clean Up The Filth Made By The World And Its Nonagreeble Fools.

Oh Spiritual And Physical Master We Ask You,

To Keep Your Divine Rays Over Us,

To Control The Strings Of The Courses Of Our Lives;

Our Spiritual And Physical Master, And If We Do That Which Is Disagreeable In Your Eyes,

Please Shower Thy Divine Blessings And Forgiveness On Us,

You Are The Only One That Can Raise Us True Nuwaubians Of The Children Of The Deities,

And In Your Names We Carry On.

An Anthem For All.

Introduction

The Purpose Of This Book Is To Teach The Misinformed Public, The Truth About The Melanin-Ite Children. Those Children Who Are Neither, "The Original Black Man", Nor "The Original White Man", For You Are Neither! However, It Has Been Written To Teach You, That You Are The Original Descendants Of The WOOLY-HAIRED BEINGS, The Deities Bearing Nine Ether, Or 9 To The Ninth Power Of Nine $_{9}9^{9}$. The ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM Who In Our Cream History Were Created 76 Trillion Years Ago By Etherians. Coming By Way Of Nibiru, From The 8th Planet RIZQ, Of The 19th Galaxy ILLYUWN.

Most Important Of All, This Scroll Will Give You Knowledge Of The Nubian Nation, Or A Nation Of New Beings, Of The Holy Tabernacle Ministries, All Over The World. This Scroll Will Also Give You Facts On The Descendency Of Israelites, Moabites, Canaanites, Edomites, Amorites, Horites, And The Falasha In Ethiopia, Today, And Yesterday, Etc. I Will Make You Overstand The Name "Nubian Nation", As Well As, "The Holy Tabernacle Ministries", And Its Purpose And Mission In America Today, (Refer To The Holy Tabernacle Ministries Family Guide"). I Will Help You To Overstand Your Covenant, And The Prophecy Of You, The Nubian, In America Today. I Am Well Aware That You May Have Come Across So-Called "Leaders And Teachers", Who Have Taken It Upon Themselves To Explain The Doctrine Of The Holy Tabernacle Ministries; A Doctrine Of Which They Have No Knowledge. .

"GOOD FORBID: YEA, LET GOD BE TRUE, BUT EVERY MAN A LIAR; AS IT IS WRITTEN, THAT THOU MIGHTEST BE JUSTIFIED IN THY SAYINGS, AND MIGHTEST OVERCOME WHEN THOU ART JUDGED."

If A Person Has Truth, He Should Fear Nothing. It Would Not Matter To A True Leader Or Teacher, Whether His Entire Congregation Left Him. For If He Has The Truth, His Entire Congregation Would Return Seeking After It.

You See It Is Not About Hate Or Racism. The Story Runs Thus:

"One Day, Long Ago, A Man Sat In His Boat Reading A Leaf Of Which All Knowledge Was His Gift. Then With The Speed Of The Space Between A Heartbeat, There Stood An Angelic Being Before Him. He Looked At The Leaf, It Said He Should And He Knew The Being's Name That Stood Before Him Because It Was Written In The Leaf In The Same Paragraph. The Angelic Being Asked, "What Is On That Leaf, O You Created Of Clay?" And This Man Said, "Truth Of All Things Good And Evil, Past, Present, And Future," And He Smiled. The Angelic Being, Angry At His Grin, Asked, "Where Did You Get The Likes Of That And You Are But Clay?" And He Smiled. The Man Looked Upward And Said, "Ask He Who Created All Things For Surely He Created This Leaf, The Heavens And The Earth." With The Speed Of Wind, The Angelic Being Answered, "I Will Ask, And He Went As The Man Read. And Up He Went. The Angelic Being Stood Before The Court Of The Ruler Of All The Worlds. "O Ruler He Cried. "Not To Question Your Doing, But To Help Mine, Did You O Ruler Give It." "I Did," Said He. "But, But, Why Not To Me?" Down He Came Hurt And Envious. The Man Read On As All Things Took Place. Then Before He Could Read Another Line, The Angelic Being Was Upon Him And Grabbed The Leaf. Upward He Went. The Man Stood Up In The Boat And Jumped For The Leaf. He Grabbed A Small Part Of It. On It Was All That Was, All There Is To Be, And Will Be In This World. After You Have Read This Scroll And Still Do Not Accept It, Then Something Is Truly Wrong With You, And You Should Start Considering The Fact That You Seriously Need Help...

We Are Very Familiar With That Question, Which Confused Nubians Always Use As An Escape" "How Do You Know It's The Truth?" With All These Groups Out Here, And With All These Lies, You Must Be Taught The Truth About Yourselves, In Order To Regain The God-Like Quality In You, Because You Are Covered With False Teachings In The West.

THE ORIGIN OF THE NUBIAN (NEW BEING)

Ques: How Did The Original Man, The Nubian (New Being) Come About?

Ans: Archeologists, And The Likes Are Amazed That Everywhere They Look For The Remains Of Mankind's Existence, They Find Evidence, That The Original People On The Earth Were Nubian, That Is Of Dark Skin With Woolly Hair, Nine Ether. As Humans Multiplied In The Earth, He Chose The Rich River Valleys And Well-Watered Plains For Permanent Settlements, He Developed All Aspects Of His Societies. No Matter How Much So-Called His-Story Has Told You About Nubians, There Are Certain Pieces Of Information That You Are Missing About Your Color, That Has Not Been Told To You Based Upon The Fact That Those Who Are Talking About Your Color, Are Interpreting It Improperly. They Are Not Giving You The Pieces You Need To Put The Information Together, In Order That You Fully Overstand. Do You Wonder Why They Are That Color? Or Maybe Why

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Is This The Color Of The Planet, Just Somehow It's Not The Right Color Anyway, No Matter How Proud We Are. And If We Were Superior In The Colors That We Say We Are; As From The Yellow All The Way To The Darkest Of The Dark, Then Why Are We Dying; And Dying From The Same Disease, That Our Slave Master Have Introduced To Us. If We Were Superior Because Of Our Color, Then Even With The Greatest Of Strife We Would Not Die From Anything Liken Unto Him. Eventhough We Have Adopted His Sick Philosophies, His Way Of Eating, And His Way Of Behaving, Somehow The Superior Melanin Would Have Overset Or Overstepped That, And We Would Be Back On Track On To Our Immortal Ways. Based Upon Everything That We See On This Planet The Colors That Most Assimilates Best With Solar Light, Is Green. There Is A Piece Of The Information That Is Missing About Color; As Far As Humans Are Concerned. Your Real Color Is The Color Green Not Brown. You Are Brown Because You Are Rusted. You Are Now Taking In So Many Ions, And Oxygen, Which Are Poisoning Your Systems. As You Can See Most Of The Religions Depict Their Gods As Being Green, Like Krishna Of The Hindus, Is Depicted As Aqua Marine, The Native Americans Use The Color Topaz, The Deities Of The Ancient Egyptian, Isis And Osiris Are Always Drawn Green. Isis They Say Is The Bestower Of Life. Giver Of Her Goods To The Gods And Giver Of Offerings To The Spirits. She Is A Green Goddess Whose Green Color Is Like Unto Greenness Of The Earth, The Green Veil Between Deity And Man. The Esther Of Your Bible, Her Skin Was Greenish Like The Green Of The Myrtle; Note The Cover Of This Scroll #133 "The Melanin-Ite Children". That's From An Original Wall In Egypt Showing Osiris With Olive Tone Green Skin, As Green As The Greenest Of Olives.

Ques: Why Is Our Skin Brown And What Makes It That Color?

Ans: Good Question! It Is A Simple Question That Should Be Able To Be Answered Simply. The Pigment In Your Skin Called Melanin. It Is Thought To Make Your Skin Color Brown. However Melanin Does Not Make You Brown. You Were Given Melanin, As A Gift From Whom Or What You Call The Gods. In Reality The ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM. The Brown Color Was Only Specific To A Different Class Of Gods. What Happened Was A Vital Molecule Was Lost. That Vital Molecule Lost Changed The Olive Green Tone In Us Was The Molecule MAGNESIUM.

Native American Wearing Topaz

Ques: What Is Magnesium?

Ans: Magnesium Whose Chemical Symbol Is Mg, With The Atomic Number 12, Weighing 24.312 Is Considered A Metallic Metal, Silvery White In Color, And Is A Member Of The Alkaline Earth Metal Group. Magnesium Is The Eighth Most Abundant Element On This Planet Called Earth. It Makes Up About 2.5% Of The Earth's Crust. And This 30% Of The Planet Earth That Is Land, Can Also Be Divided:

Note The Percentages Shown In The Above Diagram For The Land Is Based On The30% Of The Surface Of The Planet Earth That Is Land. Not The Total Surface Of The Planet Earth.

Diagram 1

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

And As You Know The Other 70% Of The Planet Earth Is Water, And The Portion That Is Seawater, Out Of That 0.13% Is Magnesium And About 80% Of The Magnesium Produced In The World Is Extracted By The Electrolytic Method From This Seawater. It Is Not Only In Seawater, Magnesium Is Also One Of The Most Important Metals In Both Plants And Animals. The Body Of An Average Adult Contains About 25 G (0.9 Oz) Of Magnesium; However, The Magnesium In The Human Body Was Lost And Today Scientist Still Do Not Known Why.

Ques: What Really Happened When The Magnesium Was Lost?

Ans: The Magnesium Molecule Was Lost From The Melanin, And It Was Then That IRON Took Its Place. When You Mix Iron With Water And Oxygen, It Rusts. This Rusting Color Is Your Brown Skin Tone. Because Now It Is No Longer Magnesium That Is Dominant, But The Iron When Mixed With Water And Oxygen, Both Elements Essential To Your Life, Is What Turns Your Skin Color Brown Instead Of Green. The Original Supreme Beings Were Olive Green Not Brown, It Is Only Now That The Supreme Beings Skin Tone Is Brown, "The Melanin-Ite Children".

Ques: How Is Oxygen Toxic To Us?

Ans: It Is Not In Connection With The Other Elements, That Together, Create A Harmonious Environment. Sucking In Oxygen All The Time Is Toxic To The System, Believe It Or Not! It Has Certain Radioactive Isotopes In It 14-0, 15-0, 19-0. I May Sound Crazy, However It Clears Up Many Oddities About Our Present Biochemistry. The NETERU, Which Is The Egyptian Name For The ANUNNAQI, Had An Excellent Balance Of Zinc, Copper, Magnesium And Iron In Their Blood Streams. To Have Green Skin, Copper Would Have To Have Been An Abundance In The Blood. In Other Words Their Blood Would Of Have To Had Been More Like Chlorophyll, Or Even A Gold Color. The Constant Inhaling And Processing Of Toxic Oxygen And Especially The Content Of CO_2 In The Air As It Is, You Are Killing Yourselves. You Are Accelerating Your Life Force, And You Are Burning Bright Looking Healthy But You Are Aging More Quickly. We Don't Have Enough Zinc In Our Systems And This Is Why Our Sisters Labor So Much In Childbirth; Because Of The Lack Of Zinc. I'm Not Saying That The Color Brown Isn't A Beautiful Color, It Is But It Still Lacks Something, And That Lack Is The Color Green, That Chromatophore, That Green, That Magnesium, That Gives You The Chlorophyll Base.

Ques: What Is Chromatophore?

Ans: According To The American Heritage Dictionary The Word Chromatophore Is Defined As:

> Chro·Mat·O·Phore (Krō-MăT'ə-Fôr', -FōR') N. Biology. 1. A Pigment-Containing Or Pigment-Producing Cell, Especially In Certain Lizards, That By Expansion Or Contraction Can Change The Color Of The Skin. Also Called Pigment Cell. 2. A Specialized Pigment-Bearing Organelle

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

In Certain (Photosynthetic) Bacteria And Cyanobacteria.
--Chro·Mat′O·Phor/c (-Fôr′ĭK, -FŏR′-) Adj.

Remember The Problems That Existed In The Past, And That Exist Now Do Not Involve You, The Nubian. The Race Problem Between The Black Man (The Hindu), And The Pale Man (The Caucasian) Is That Of Racism.

It Is A Know Fact That The Tone Of Our Nubian Skin Is Determined By A Pigment Which Is Called Melanin. That Is Produced By Cells In The Epidermis Called Melanocytes.

Melanism - 1. An Increased Amount Of Black Or Nearly Black Pigmentation (As Of Skin, Feathers, Or Hair) Of An Individual Or Kind Of Organism.
2. Intense Pigmentation In Man In Skin, Eyes, And Hair - Melanistic, Adj.

Melanin - A Dark Brown Or Black Animal Or Plant Pigment.

Mel·A·No·Cyte (MĕL′ə-Nō-SīT′) N. An Epidermal Cell Capable Of (Synthesizing) Melanin.

Mel·A·No·Cyte-Stim·U·Lat·Ing Hormone - (MĕL′ə-Nō-SīT′StĭM′Yə-Lā′TĭNg, Mə-LăN′ə-) N. Abbr. Msh A Hormone Secreted By The Pituitary Gland That Regulates Skin Color In Human Beings And Other Vertebrates By Stimulating Melanin Synthesis In Melanocytes And Melanin Granule Dispersal In Melanophores. Also Called Intermedin.

Ques: Why Is Melanin Important?

Ans: Melanin Is Important, Because It's The Most Primitive, And Universal Pigment In Living Organisms. Melanin Is Produced In The Pineal Gland. Abundantly Found In Primitive Organisms Such As Fungi, As Well As Advanced Primates. Furthermore, Within Each Living Organism, Melanin Appears To Be Located In Major Functional Sites. For Example, In Vertebrates, Melanin Is Not Only Present In The Skin, Eyes, Ears, Central Nervous System, And The Diffuse Neurodocrine Loci, Among Other Things.

It Can Be Found In The Pineal Gland, Pituitary Gland, Thyroid Gland, Thymus Gland, Parathyroid, Adrenal Gland, Carotid Body, And The Barathary Gland. Melanin Is Abundantly Present In The Viscera, Including The Heart. The Liver, The Arteries, The Muscles, The Gastrointestinal Tract, And The Gonads. Thus, Within Each And Every Living Organ Which Aids The Human Body Melanin Appears. Regardless Of What Color Your Skin Appears To Be All Genes In All Creatures On This Planet Are Black Because They Are All Coated With Melanin.

Ques: How Much Melanin Can Be In The Skin Of Any One Individual?

Ans: The Amount Of Melanin In The Skin Is One Of The Most Variable Of Human Traits, And Many Polygenes Are Involved. Groups Of People Or The Population Of The World Were Once Classified According To Skin Shade: Black, (Africans) White (Caucasians), Yellow (Orientals) And Red (Indians) Etc.. You Should Realize That Just Because This Is The Way They Have Classified People Does Not Mean This Is The Way It Should Be. The Hues Of Color Of Your Skin Depends On Several Factors. First Is The Amount Of Melanin In The Outer Layers Of The Skin. Melanin Acts As A Filter To Prevent Damage To The Delicate Deeper Layers Of The Skin, By The Penetration Of Ultraviolet Light.

A Cross Section View Of The Skin

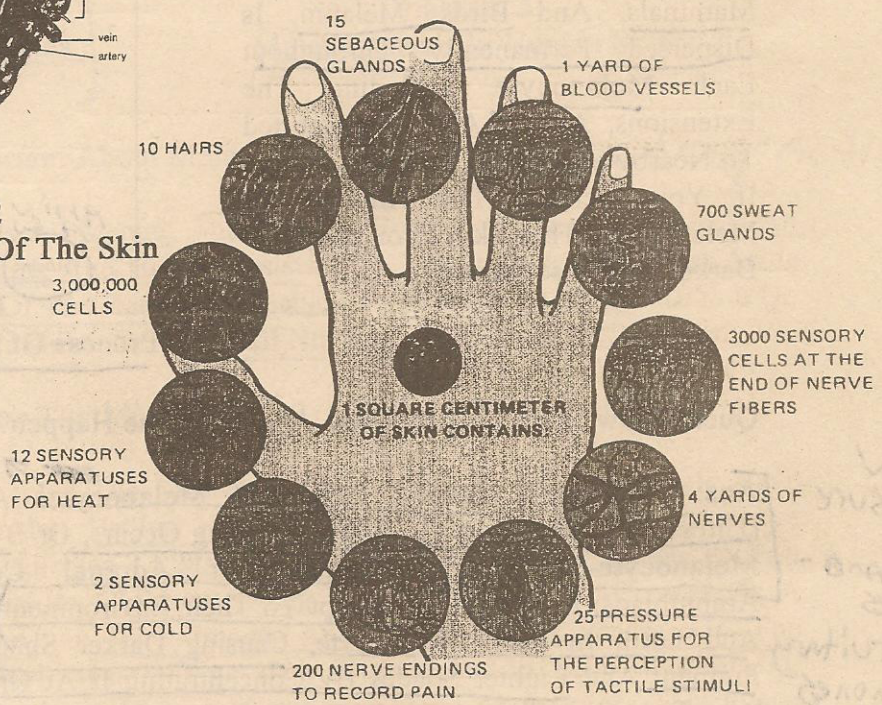

Diagram 3
Different Structures Of The Skin

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ques: Is There Only One Type Of Melanin?

Ans: No! You Have Brain Melanin, Known As Neuromelanin, And You Have Skin Melanin. Neromelanin, Does Not Run Parallel With Skin Melanin., Whether White, Red, Yellow, Black, Or Brown, Neuromelanin, Plays An Important Role In The Functioning Of The Brain, And Nervous System. This Is Too Long Of A Subject To Go Into, Maybe Another Book. Back To The Point. Melanosomes (Small Structures Within The Melanocyte Cells Where Melanin Is Synthesized) Find Their Way Into The Hair Cells, Giving Them Color. (Two Types Of Melanin, One Dark Brown And One Red, Are Responsible For All Hair Shades.

Pigments That Contribute To Skin Color Are Called Carotene, (Yellowish), Hemoglobin, In Blood Vessels (Pink-Red), And Melanin (Black, Brown, And Red). Darker Skins Are Dominated By Melanin, Which Is Produced From The Amino Acid Tyrosine, By Pigment Cells (Melanocytes) In The Skin. Melanocytes, Are Characterized By Long, Fixed Extensions Of The Outer Cell Membrane. In Humans, Other Mammals, And Birds, Melanin, Is Dispersed Permanently Throughout Each Melanocyte, Including The Extensions, And Is Also, Transported To Nearby Skin Cells. In Other Words If You Increase The Amount Of Melanin In The Skin You Become Darker And Vise Versa.

Process Of Melanin Pigmentation

Ques: How Does This Increase And Decrease Happen?

Ans: Increased Melanin Results If Melanocytes Are Stimulated By Solar (Ultraviolet) Radiation, By Which Tanning Occurs, Or By The Pituitary Hormones Melanocyte-Stimulating Hormone Or Adrenal Corticotropin. Reptiles, Amphibians, And Fish Can Adapt To Their Environment By Moving Melanin Back And Forth In Each Melanocyte, Causing Darker Shades By Breaking Up The Pigment And Lighter Shades By Concentrating It At One Point. Certain Reptiles And Fish Can Change To Different Colors By Manipulating Pigment Cells That

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Specialize In Red, Yellow, Orange, Blue, Green, And White (Or Light-Reflecting) Pigments.

Ques: I'm Confused About This, Can You Please Explain It A Little More?

Ans: Let Me Walk You Through This. Melanin, Is Produced From The Amino Acid Tyrosine, By Pigment Cells Called Melanocytes. You Have The Sacs Within The Melanocyte, Called Melanosomes, That Actually Make The Melanin. These Little Sacs Or Chambers Of Melanin, Determine Your Skin Color. When There Is A Little Bit Of Melanin In The Melanosome, The Little Sac Or Chamber, You Look White. When It's Totally Filled You Look Black. Skin Tone Is Determined By The Amount And Type Of Melanin, The Melanosomes Contains.

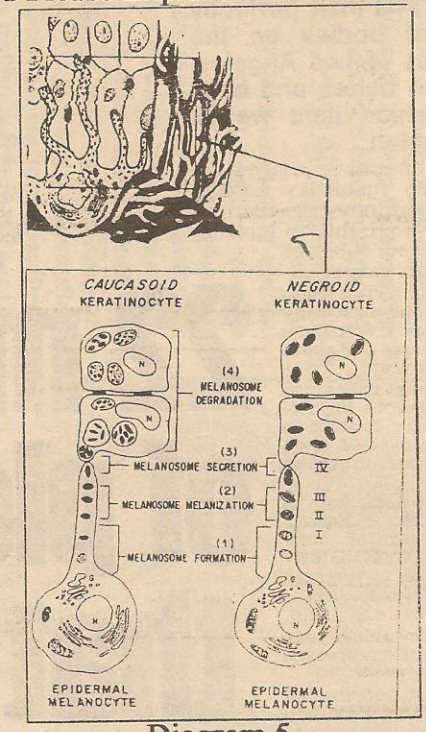

Diagram 5
Melanogenesis In Human Skin

Ques: What Is So Important About Melanin?

Ans: Melanin, Controls All Mental, And Physical Body Activities. Melanin Is An Extremely Stable Molecule, And Highly Resistant To The Digestion By Most Acids And Bases, And Is One Of The Hardest Molecules To Ever Be Analyzed. If You Do Not Purify Your Melanin Molecule, You Will Not Heal Your Body Of Diseases.

Ques: What People Have The Most Melanin?

Ans: Nubian People Have The Most Melanin. Although All Individuals Have Melanin Even The Pale Man, He Just Has A Lack Of It Or Is A Melanin Recessive Beings, Your Body Is Dedicated To Making Melanin. Melanin Was Given To You As A Gift, The Melanin-ite Children, Being That You Were Pro-Created As A New-Being Or Nubian, In The Image And After The Likeness Of The ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM. It Is In Your Very Essence And In Your Environment. The Melanin Throughout Your Body Is The Same Thing That Colors This Planet Earth.

"PAGE 5 & 6 OF THE DAILY MIRROR EXPRESSES THE HORROR OF MELANIN-RECESSIVE BEINGS"

SAFE NOT SORRY: Keeping covered up in the sun could save you more than painful sunburn

22 minutes of pleasure that could kill you

By HELEN WEATHERS and JILL PALMER Medical Correspondent

STRUTTING their perfectly bronzed bodies on the beaches of Los Angeles, the Baywatch babes and boys have the fashion item we all crave – a suntan.

But as the heatwave soared towards 30C (86F) yesterday for the first time this summer, the chances are most of us will end up looking like over-cooked lobsters instead of beach babes.

Sun protection is vital. Skin cancer is the second most common cancer in the UK with more than 40,000 new cases and about 1,800 deaths each year.

Cases of malignant melanoma — the most dangerous form of skin cancer — have doubled in the UK over the past 10 years and account for one in every ten skin cancers.

It doesn't take long for the sun to wreak its havoc. Yesterday's sunburn warning time given out with the weather forecast was 35 minutes for average skin, 50 minutes for dark skin — and only 22 minutes for fair skin.

To avoid microwaving your skin, forget Baywatch and cover up — all over.

Sunblocks, a wide-brimmed hat — a Legionnaire-style cap with its flap over the neck is even better — and clothing that is not too sheer — sun rays can penetrate fine fabrics — are recommended armour.

Best of all, stay out of the sun completely — and certainly between 11am and 3pm when it is at its strongest.

It's advice that doesn't only apply when you're abroad. Doctors say many people they see with skin cancer have never left the UK.

The problem is now so bad that Britain has launched its first cancer beach patrol in South Wales. If the pilot scheme is successful it could be extended nationwide.

Since June 1 teams of nurses and volunteers from the local charity MAC (Melanoma Awareness Campaign) have patrolled five beaches on the Gower Peninsula with UV monitors and good advice.

Called Molewatch — because a mole changing shape or bleeding is one of the first obvious signs of skin cancer — the £10,000 initiative follows the lead set by more sun-aware countries such as Australia and the US.

MAC's chairman Graham Jones launched Molewatch after his daughter Nicola, a 26-year-old nurse, died from skin cancer.

HE SAYS: "We see so many sunburnt people on the beach, but they think it is a small price to pay for having a tan.

"A tan is not healthy — even a light tan is a sign that skin is being damaged."

Dr Dafydd Jones, consultant dermatologist at Singleton Hospital in Swansea, adds: "This week we have seen a lot of sunburnt people, particularly children which is worrying as bad sunburn in childhood has been linked with melanoma later.

"I have seen people with such bad blisters on their legs that if they told me they had poured a kettle of boiling water on them I would have believed them."

Katie Chambers of the Health Education Authority's Sun Know How Campaign agrees: "People think the sun isn't strong in Britain so don't use sunscreen. Research shows 54 per cent of sunburn cases happen at home and in another survey 38 per cent of adults didn't realise they were burning until too late.

"The best protection is to cover up completely or wear total sunblock. But you have to be realistic — most people want a tan."

Sunscreens offer some protection by increasing the length of time you can stay in the sun without burning. Sunscreen should be applied thickly and evenly over exposed areas before you go out in the sun — and it must be reapplied regularly, especially after swimming.

Olive skin which tans well should never use less than Sun Protection Factor 8, and pale skins no less than 15.

Even if you're dressed, you have to be careful. A thick cotton T-shirt gives an SPF of around 15 while a thin, gauzy material only gives an SPF of about 3.

The Sun Know How campaign has launched a range of clothing which has UV meters which change colour when the sun's rays become too strong.

Lips, noses and bald patches should be covered in sunblock and sunglasses must be labelled for British standard BS2724:1987.

Fifty-six per cent of women who develop melanoma are affected on the backs of the legs, so long skirts or trousers are wise.

If you're sitting in the shade, UV rays can bounce off sand, water and white concrete, so the above precautions still apply.

It's advice worth taking if you don't want to become yet another skin cancer statistic.

The growing hole in the ozone layer — caused by chemicals in the stratosphere — increases the risks of sunburn.

Sunlight contains two types of ultraviolet rays. The first, UVA, penetrates deep into the skin and can cause it to become wrinkled and leathery.

THE second, UVB, is absorbed by the upper layers of the skin and increases production of melanin which causes the skin to darken.

UVB is the main cause of sunburn and skin cancer.

If your body does not produce sufficient melanin — because you are fair-skinned or try to tan too quickly — the skin burns.

Generally people with fair or red hair, blue eyes and freckles are most sun-sensitive. Children are particularly vulnerable.

Dr Andrew Bulman co-author of a Department of Health Report into the health risks of sunbathing, says the high price of a tan is not worth paying.

"Our research links the desire for a tan with a doubling of the risk of burning," he says.

"A more thoughtful attitude to tanning needs to develop if we want healthy skin for ourselves and our children later in life."

The Baywatch brigade look fabulous now, but in 20 years' time the pale and interesting types will have the last laugh.

THE SUN FRIEND OR FOE

Girl must live in darkness — daylight causes her skin to blister!

A BRIGHT AND beautiful little girl is destined to spend her entire life in darkness — because the slightest amount of sunlight causes her to burn and blister.

Two-year-old Michelle was born a pure albino with striking white hair and skin without pigmentation.

She is nearly blind. Her delicate pink eyes constantly take out ghostly images.

Devoted

She spends her days in a specially screened area. If she were to venture outdoors even the weak sunlight her body can become covered in angry red sores and blisters.

Devoted mum Denise Jones, 26, cares for Michelle and her two other children.

She said: "It's been heartbreaking sometimes when I've asked to go out and she sees her brothers and sisters playing.

"She was five months old when I first took her out. Her legs were burned and she was sick.

DENISE JONES hugs her afflicted daughter Michelle who must wear sunglasses even when playing at night

Playground

"Then I took her out in a carriage with a cover to filter out the light. But she came out in sores."

The pretty little girl enjoys the great outdoors thanks to a new patio playground at her Liverpool, England home.

Neighbors, friends and even total strangers are chipped in to build the patio, and fill it with furniture and toys.

At 10 o'clock each evening, Michelle's parents watch anxiously as their daughter happily explores the area in her walker. Sunglasses protect her eyes from the low-voltage floodlight.

Sunburn tragedy at beach

A SUNBATHER baked to death yesterday after he fell asleep on a nudist beach.

As temperatures in the south hit 88F, the man was found unconscious and suffering from severe burns.

He was discovered on the remote beach at Fairlight, East Sussex, wearing just trunks and trainers.

Paramedics failed to resuscitate the man, who was in his forties.

His death sparked fears that the heatwave will claim more lives. This month is one of the hottest Junes on record.

KIM'S RED HOT DRESS

STUDENT Kim Bullock had a narrow escape yesterday when the sun's rays set her dress alight. The 18-year-old sunbather needed hospital treatment for minor leg burns after the freak accident at her home in Witham, Essex.

The Very Thing That Colors The Bark On Trees Brown, And The Soil Of The Earth, And The Fowl Of The Air, And The Fish Of The Sea, And Every Thing That Lives And Dies. It Does Not Matter What Color Your Skin Appears To Be, Because All Genes In All Creatures On Earth Have Melanin, Because All Things Are Coated With Melanin. Melanin Was A Gift To You From The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM. And The Scientist That Protect It Are Called DUNAAKIAL, Also Called THE BENEVOLENT ONES, (Whom I Will Speak Of Later In The Text) Residents Of Shamballah And Aghaarta.

Melanin Is A Gift Being The Finest Of The Refined Chemicals Known To Your Species. There Are Six Different Types Of Melanin Carrying Beings That I Wish To Speak About, All Of Different Hues. From Very Dark Brown To The Blackest Of Blacks. They Are Found In The Depths Of The Land Of Nubia Called Africa Today, And The Land Of The Frogs Called North America. They Live Near The Equator. From The Land Of Kemet, Where The Original Nubian, Those Of The Black Hue Do Dwell. From Kuwsh, The Land Of The Original Ethiopians Those Of The Greenish Hue. From Nigerians, Those Of The Brown Hue, From The Bushmen Of Zimbabwe Those Of The Yellow Hue, From The Sudanese, Those With The Copper Tone, Reddish Brown Hue, To Blacks Of The Western Hemisphere And On All Over The World, Because Of Mixing With The Original Hopi Tribes Of Native Americans As Well As Mixing With The Cursed Seed Of Canaan The Caucasians; The Wrongly Called Negro, Varies In Shades Of All Of The Above, All Produce An Abundance Of Melanin In The Skin.

Ques: Do People With Melanin Wrinkle Faster?

Ans: No. In Most Cases People With An Abundant Amount Of Melanin, Wrinkling Does Not Become A Factor About Up Until The Age Of Sixty. This Inheritance Of Melanin Is Inherited From Generation To Generation. Again You Have A Caucasian Who Has Blonde Hair And Blue Eyes, Descendants From The Flugelrods, These Flugelrods, Now Living In A Cavern Beneath The Antarctic, The Fathers Of The Nordic Race, Not To Be Confused With The Canaanites Whose Leprosy Is The Results Of A Curse Of Albinism, Cast Upon Ham The Father Of Canaan By Utnafishtim, Called Noah After The Craft That Rested Down On The Surface Of The Earth. There Are People Who Try To Reduce The Importance Of Melanin, These Are The Beings On The Planet With The Least Amount Of Melanin. They Control Propaganda, And The Media Which Tries To Hide The Very Word Melanin.

Ques: What About The People On The Planet Of Today?

Ans: In Parts Of Africa, India, And Australia The Deposits Of Melanin In The Skin Is Heaviest Because The People Have Been Exposed To The Most Intense Sunlight For Generations. Northern Europeans Have The Least Amount Of Deposits In Their

Skin And Are Lighter, Not To Mention Their Weather Is Cloudy, And Cool. The Thickness Of The Outer Layer Of The Skin Is Also A Factor. People With Darker Skin Complexions Have Thicker Layers Of Skin. And This Factor Alone Enhances The Skins Filtering Effect. The Thinner The Skin The Least Melanin. When The Skin Is Very Thin, The Blood Vessels Show Through And Give A Pinkish Color. When An Individual Adapts To The Shifting Of The Intensity Of The Sunlight, The Skin Becomes Darker Because They Are Exposed To More Sunlight. That's How You Get Suntans, Because It's The Result Of Both Thickening And Increasing The Melanin In The Skin. Keratin, Is The Substance The Nails Of The Fingers And Toes Are Made Of. It Also Appears In The Outer Layer Of The Skin. When Keratin Deposits Are Heavy, The Skin Has A Yellowish, Brown Shade, As In The Mongolian Populations. They Have Adapted Along A Different Pathway To Avoid The Damaging Effects Of Ultraviolet Light. The Reddish Hue Of The Native Americans Results From A Combination Of Keratin And Melanin Deposits.

Ques: What Do You Mean They Are Trying To Avoid The Damaging Effects Of Ultraviolet Light? What Does Melanin Have To Do With Ultraviolet Light Or Ultraviolet Radiation?

Ans: Listen, First Of All The DNA Molecule, Or The Spiral, Or Genetic Code, Or Makeup All Are Covered With Melanin. One Of The Things That Melanin Does Is It Actually Absorbs Ultraviolet Radiation. Melanin Is Constantly Reaching Out Towards The Ultraviolet Rays Of The Sun. Ultraviolet Radiation Has Been Found To Be Dangerous To Protein. When Protein Is Passed Through Ultraviolet Radiation It Actually Causes The Molecule To Bend. Just Like You Have Women And Men Who Go To Hair Dressers, Killing Their Ethers Just To Get A Fancy Hair Style. Don't Go Off The Deep End Because A Lot Of Times When I Say Things People Take It To The Extreme. I'm Not Telling You What You Should Or Should Not Do With Your Hair, Because You're Going To Do What You Want To Do Anyway, But If You Choose To Go To Hair Dressers And Get Up Under These Strange Lights And You Have To Wear A Special Kind Of Glasses With It Because Of The Ultraviolet Radiation.

When Your Ethers Are Exposed To The Chemical Or Protein Structure In Those Perms And Tents It Causes It To Lock Into A Certain Position, Then Your Hair Will Not Change. That's The Same Thing That Happens To Your Chromosomes Or Genes. When Ultraviolet Rays Are Exposed To The Chromosomes Or The Genes, In Order For Your Genes To Be Able To Do What They Are Suppose To Do Naturally, They Have To Be Able To Change. But When They Are Exposed To Ultraviolet Radiation They Can't. Thus When The Time Or Need Comes For It To Change They Will Not Be Able To Change. And It Will Manifest As All Kinds Of Deformities In Your Bodies.

Ques: Can Anything Besides Ultraviolet Radiation Affect Your Melanin?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: Yes! Your Melanin Can Become Toxic. Eating The Improper Foods Or Overeating, Overloads Your Body As Well. Then Your Connection Is Blocked And The Sun's Energy Cannot Reach The Melanin, Thus Diseases Manifest. Melanin Is Deranged Only When It Becomes Toxic. Any Individual Who Might Have Toxic Melanin Will Act In A Very Similar Manner, That Which Is Primitive, Animalistic, And Barbaric. It Is A Civilizing Chemical When It Is Not Toxic. It Has Physical Properties, And Personality Traits, Which Distinguishes It From Others. That's Why Your Body Is Dedicated To Making Melanin.

Ques: Is There Anything That Can Help If My Melanin Is Toxic?

Ans: Yes. Vitamin B Keeps Melanin Clean, Not To Mention Good Eating Habits. Don't Ask Me What You Should Or Should Not Eat, Again I Will Not Tell You, If You Want To Know What I Think Read The Family Guide, Just Know That If You Choose To Eat Bad Foods And Kill Yourself That's Your Business But Your Body Is Dedicated To Making Melanin, Thus If You Make It Toxic, You're Only Hurting Yourself. (Melanin Is Like A Super Conductor,) Or Like A Battery In A Car. It Always Stays Charged When It Is Exposed To Things Such As Light, Sound, Color, And Sun Light. It Will Absorb It To The Point Where The Melanin Will Actually Absorb The Additional Energy And Recharge Itself To A Brand New Level.

Ques: Does Melanin Have Any Distinguishing Traits?

Ans: Yes. Melanin Has An Odor, It Smells Sweet. Have You Ever Heard Of Sweet Dirt. For Humim Or Hu-Man Is Adam (אדם) Pronounced Aw-Dawn And In The Akkadian Tongue, Which Is The Dialect Of The Ancient Cuneiform. Adamah (אדמה) Meaning "Those Who Are Of The Ground", Melanin-Ite Children.

Ques: What Is The Difference Between A Nubian Who Has Melanin, And A Caucasian That Is Lacking Melanin?

Ans: There Are Many Different Theories Concerning The Color Of Skin, For Instance, The Belief That One's Skin Color Makes The Difference Between A Nubian Person And A Pale Person. Some Believe That The Climate In Which You Live Determines The Color Of Your Skin. There Are Also Those Who Believe That Under The Human Skin Everything Is The Same, While Others Believe That The Pale Man's Skin Is Transparent, Allowing A Variety Of Colors To Be Seen, Because Of A Lack Of Pigmentation (Melanin) In His Skin. This Is Why They Are Called The "Colored Man." A Nubian's Skin, On The Other Hand, Is Composed Of Hues (Hues Is A Gradation Of Shades, Not Colors - Koran 84:22; 70:13). Also, The Climate In Which You Live In Does Not Determine The Color Of Your Skin Because A Pale Man Cannot Stay Under The Sun For A Long Period Of Time Before His Skin Starts To Burn.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ques: I Overstand My Responsibility As A Nubian, However, Ultimately What Is The Difference Between Nubians Who Have Melanin, And The Pale Man Who Also Has Melanin, Yet Are Melanin Recessive?

Ans: This Gift Of Melanin, A Refined Chemical Is Located In The Body And In The Environment. What's Unique Is Caucasians Only Use The Visible Spectrum Because They Do Not Process Light Or Sound Within Their Bodies, So They Create Fictitious Light From Television And Radio, And Try To Tell You, The Nubian That It Is Impossible To Process Sound Or Light Within The Body. They Had To Create These Things Outside Of Themselves Like Microwaves Because They Naturally Don't Have It. It Is In Your Melanin That The Ability To Process Light And Sound Exist.

It Is The Full Spectrum Of Light When Personifying In A Physical State Manifests As Blackness. Meaning When All Forms Of Lights Are Combined They Appear Black. On This Planet Called Earth The Solid Form Of Light Is Melanin. That's Why Dirt Is Black People, The Adamah Of The Ground. Beings With Melanin In Their Skin Are What You Refer To As Black. However When The Visible Spectrum Of Light Appears, And Manifest Altogether As White Light. This Is No Coincidence That Beings On This Planet Called Earth That Are Pale Skinned Are Reflecting The Visible Light Spectrum. We Know The Wavelength Frequency Of Energy People Without Melanin Possesses Can Be Measured At 400 To 700 Nanometers. That Is The Frequency Of Light That Their Body Is Made Out Of. However, You The Nubian Wavelength Frequency Vibrates From In 000.1 Miles To 3100 Miles. That's The Difference!

Ques: What Is A Nanometer?

Ans: A Nanometer Is 1 X (10 To The Power Of - 9) Meter. Wavelengths Of About 450 Nanometers (Reddish Blue), 530 Nm (Green), And 570 Nm (Greenish Yellow) Exist. Light At These Wavelengths Do Not Look Pure, You Cannot Predict From The Appearance Of One Such Wavelength What A Mixture Of Two Or More Will, Or Should Look Like.

Ques: What Is An Electromagnetic Spectrum?

Ans: Within The Electromagnetic Spectrum There Are Two Different Opposing Poles, Of Energy. One Which Is Positive And The Other That Is Negative. Meaning One Is Electro, That Which Is Negative, And The Other Is Magnetic, Or Positive.

Ques: What Is The Visible Light Spectrum?

Ans: Within This Visible Light Spectrum There Are Colors, That Are Divided Into 3 Primary Colors, And Their Complementary Colors Which Is What We See.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Yellow, Blue, Red, Green, Orange, And Purple. It Runs From 400 Nanometers To 700 Nanometers In Wave Length. Listen If You Break It Down And Take That Visible Spectrum, And Put It Into A Prism. It Will Break Itself Down Into 6 Colors.

Ques: Is This Light, And Electromagnetic Activity The Same?

Ans: Yes. This Light And Electromagnetic Activity Are One And The Same. You Can Determine The Different Types Of Light, By Their Wave Length. Comic Rays Are The Shortest, And The Longest Are Electric Power.

Ques: Is It Just These Two?

Ans: No. Between The Two Are Gamma Rays, X-Rays, Ultra Violet Light, Infrared, Microwaves, Television Waves, Radio Waves, And Electric Power. People Don't Realize That Television Lets Off Rays, And Radio Also Lets Off Waves. They're Both A Form Of Light. Laser, Ultra Violet Radiation, Come Out All Of These Forms Of Light. You Think You Can See Them Just By Looking At Them, This Is The Visible Spectrum.

Ques: What Does All Of This Mean?

Ans: What It Means Is Melanin Is Divine, It Was Given To You From The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM. It Has Chemical And Physical Properties, Not To Mention It Has Personality Traits. These Traits Are What Makes Melanin Unique And Different From Other Chemicals. The Blackness Of Melanin, Its Physical Properties Makes Up The Color, Yet There Are Thousands Of Other That Makes Up Its Uniqueness, Besides The Fact That It Makes Up Color. Its An Extremely Stable Molecule. Meaning It Is Highly Resistant To Digestion By Most Acids, And Bases Which Makes It Hard To Analyze. Only Very Little Functional Melanin Is Needed To Organize An Entire Cell Or An Entire Neuronal System.

Ques: What Other Qualities Make It Unique?

Ans: The Problem With Nubians Are, They Always Want Pats On The Back. They Want You To Tell Them How Superior The Black Man Is To The White Man. You Naturally Gravitate Towards Subjects That Make You Seem Superior. I'm Giving You These Facts About Your Melanin, Not So You Can Go Off To Your Little Corners And Egotrip. I Just Want You To Know The Facts. The Facts Remain That There Are Caucasians, Who Are Melanin Recessive. Then There's You, The MELANIN-ITE CHILDREN, Whose Bodies, Because Of The Melanin Are Tremendously Heat Resistance. Take In To Account The Fact That Melanin In Itself Can Be Exposed To Heat Of Up To 1250 Degrees Farenheight. Still Retaining At Least 50 Percent Of Its Original Properties. For You As A Nubian Or New Being

To Think That Your Getting Hot, Because Your Exposed To Extreme Amounts Of Heat Is Stupid. You Were Given This Melanin To Aid You.

Your Body Has Committed Itself To Creating Melanin So You Can Survive. The Melanin In Your Body Is Like A Conductor Or Battery, Meaning Its Always Partially Charged. When Your Around Things Like Sound, Light, Sun Light, Or Colors, The Melanin Will Absorb The Additional Energy, And Recharge Itself, Taking Your Body To A New Level. If You're Around Sounds That Aren't Good For You Like Rap Music, Heavy Metal, Or Just About Any Kind Of Music. Your Body Reacts To It. I Told You, Your Melanin Can Convert Light Energy To Sound Energy, That's Why An Entertainer Like Michael Jackson, Was Such A Big Hit Back In The Days. What He Was Doing Was Using His Melanin To Convert Light Energy To Sound Energy. Now That He Is Lacking Melanin He Hasn't Been Able To Really Get A Big Hit Like In The Past. People With Melanin Are Walking Radios, And The Very Dark Skinned People Are Very Sensitive To The Different Types Of Radio Frequency Or Thought Patterns That Are In The Environment. So Everything You Do, Everything You Listen To, Everything You Eat, Affects You. It Affects Your Melanin.

Ques: In What Ways Are We Different?

Ans: We, The Nubians And The Colored Men (Paleman), Or The Black Man, Are Totally Different Beings. We Breathe, Live, Walk, Talk, Think, Etc. Differently. Color Or The Absence Of Melanin Does Not Make You The Evil One, Your Actions Do. That's Why There Are Black And Pale Devils. Do Not Let Them Fool You By Saying The Pale Man Is The Origin Of The Devil Because They Are Not, The Brown Man Is! However, The War Between The Man Called The Black Man, The East Indian, And The Man Called White; The Pale Man, Or European, Is Not Your War Nubian. It Is A War Between Man And Mankind. You Are Deities. They Teach You To Worship In Fear Of Your Deity, Not Out Of Sincere Love Of Your Deities. These Practices Led To Fear And Intimidation Which In Turn Gave Birth To Another Kind Of Worship - Reincarnation, Over Exaggerated Disciplines Called Yoga And Patma Yoga Where One Emulates Deformed Beings. Or Piercing At The Sun Until They Can No Longer See Or Fast Until The Poisons Overcome Their Bodies And Call This Foolishness Perfection. This Is The Mother Of Religious Disciplines. What Fools You Mortals Be.

THE ORIGIN OF THE BLACK MAN

Ques: How Did The Black Man Come About?

Ans: When You Say The Black Man, I Want You To Overstand That The Black Man Does Not Refer To Us, The Original NUBIAN, (PTAHITE ETHIOPIAN CUSHITE), The MELANIN-ITE CHILDREN, Who Are The Original Descendants

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Of The WOOLY HAIRED BEINGS. Bearing Nine Ether, Or 9 To The Ninth Power Of Nine 9^{9^9}, The ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM. The Original Blackman Is The Straight Haired Black Skinned HINDU, Went To Kingu, The Moon, Some 66 Billion Years Ago From Their 6th Planet SINGH, Of PROCYON The 8th Brightest Star, In CANIS MINOR. They Call It NIRVANA. These Black Skinned Straight Haired Beings Have 6 Ether Hair. It Was 76 Billion Years Ago These Hindus Were On Their Planet, And They Stayed On Their Planet For Only 10 Billion Years. Yet Because Of Conflict Over Power In The 66 Billionth Year Some Of These Straight Haired Beings Left Their Planet, Only To Arrive On KINGU (SHESHQI), Originally Called LUNAR, Today Called "The Moon",, (Refer To "THE HOLY TABLETS").

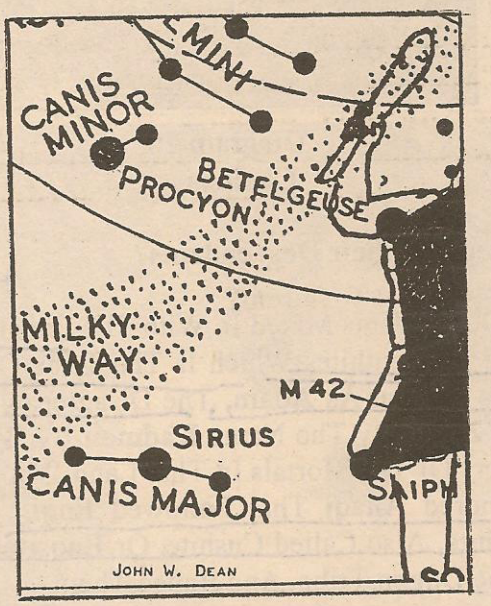

Diagram 9
Procyone

Ques: How Long Did These Hindu Demons Reside On The Moon?

Ans: They Stayed On Kingu For 600 Years Or 6 Days, For Each Day Is Equivalent To 100 Years Of Their Time. However They Caused So Much Confusion On The Moon That They Were Deported. They Arrived On This Planet, Then Called QI, Today Called Earth 56 Billion Years Ago. Upon Arriving To The Planet Called Earth They Set Up What Is Called Chaldea, *"Land Of The Demons", Then Moved On To Bali, In Indonesia. And These Hindus And Their Descendants Were Multiplying On The Surface Of The Planet Earth, Then Called TIAMAT. These Hindu Demons To You Would Be Extra-Terrestrials, Or Extra Terra-Astrals Or Beings Outside Of Terra- Another Name For Earth, (Refer To "The Holy Tablets" Chapter Three, Karama, The Scientist).

Ques: What Happened To Their Descendants?

Ans: These Hindus' Descendants Mixed In With The Enosite Women Of The Dogon Tribes, Who Produced The Cuthites Which Is The Tribe Of Atum And Lillith, The Parents Of Zakar Also Known As Adam, The Disagreeable Enosite. They Had To Breed A Child Called Zakar By The Name Kadmon By Way Of Semjasa Or Atum And Lillith, The Rulers Of The Mortals In That Land Who Were Of A Mixed Tribe, From The Three Hundred Anaqi That Followed Enqi. Those Hindu Eloheem, Anaqi Who Took Kishite, Also Called Cushite, Or Enosites Women, From Sawdeh The Outer Field Of The Dogon Tribe, And Raped Them.

Ques: What Happened When These Beings Came And Raped Them?

Ans: When These Beings Came And Raped The Women, They Told Them That They Were Called Nommus And That They Came From The Star Sirius, A Star With One Active Planet Called Nirvana, Home Of Those Original Hindus. These Disagreeable Beings Did Not Stay In The Court Of Anu, Elyown Elyown El, And They Did Not Obey Anu, Elyown Elyown El.

Three Of The ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM Were Sent To Fashion Zakar, Adam Which Means Ground Or Soil And Nekaybaw, (The Superior Beings). The First Being Sent Was The ANUNNAQI Nusqu, Who Bore The Title GABRIY'EL. Nusqu Was Commanded To Bring A Handful Of Loam Endowed With Different Qualities From The Surface Of The Earth. Nusqu Started On Wings Of Haste On A Craft Called "Sham" From His Place, Traversing The Constellations Of The Skies And Elemental Orbs. Upon Arriving On The Surface Of The Earth, Nusqu Went To The Tribe Of

The Atumites, He Stretched Forth His Hands To Execute The Command. This Fearful Attempt Moved The Vapors Imprisoned For Ages In The Bowels Of The Earth (Adamite), And Caused A Terrible Earthquake, Arguments Where On, The Soil (Adamite) Interrogated Nusqu Who Replied, "The YAHUWA Of The ANUNNAQI, ELOHEEM Intends To Create A Human From Thee: To Dignify His Head With The Diadem Of Khalifaship, Successorship, And To Adorn His Stature With The Robe Of Magnificence." And The Atumites Enjoined, "I Have Refuge With Yahuwa From Thee: I Adjure By The YAHUWA Of The ELOHEEM To Desist From His Purpose, Lest He Create Of Me An Individual Who Would, Like The Sons Of The Luciferians (Kafiruwna) Attempt Stratagems Of Disobedience, And Would Consequently Be Punished And Condemned. I Have Not The Power To Resist The Wrath Of Yahuwa And The Punishment Of The Most High Ruler." Nusqu Heard The Entreaties Of The Earth, And Pitying Its Helplessness, Returned The Same Way By Which He Had Descended And Laid His Information Before The Yahuwa Of The ELOHEEM.

The Anunnaqi Nusqu, Who Bore The Title Gabriy'el

The ANUNNAQI, MALACHI ZODOQ Also Descended Upon The Planet Earth, And The Same Thing Took Place And He Returned. Both The Ambassadors Went To Talk To The Cuthites, However They Did Not Agree. The Cuthites Rejected The Ambassadors Gabriy'El Zodoq Son Of Rasi'El And Zamma'El, And Miyka'El Zodoq Son Of Enqi And Damkina, Who Were Called El's Muslimuwn.

So, Enqi, Who Is Also Known As Izraa'el Then Came To The Two Tribes And Asked The Same Question The Tribes Again Implored And The Earth Began To Lament And Cry. Enqi Said, "It Is More Incumbent Upon Me To Obey The Nourisher Than To Have Pity On Thee." Accordingly, He Collected A Handful Of Black Mud From The Surface Of The Earth Combined Of Different Colors And Properties. This Is Where Enqi Received The Name Angel Of Death. Izraael Was Command To Depart For He Had Became The Angel Of Death. At This Command Izraael Began To Weep, Saying, "Among The Children Of Adam, There Will Be Prophets Who Will Undoubtedly Hate Me On This Account," And Yahuwa Rejoined, "I Shall Send So Many Complaints And Diseases Upon Human, That On No Enmity For Thee, And None Of Their Deed Will Be Cause Of Grief To Thee." Yet, They Could Not Refuse Enqi Himself, Also Known As Izraa'El Zodoq Son Of Anu And Id, `Because The Cuthites Were Of The Disagreeable Nature. They Were Called El's Kaafiruwn, "Those Who Conceal What They Know To Be True"

Zakar (Adam) Son Of Atum And Lillith (Not To Be Mistaken With The Lilith Of 200 Fallen Eloheem), And Nekaybaw (Eve) Daughter Of Ptah And Anath Were Born Of The Two Tribes Of Ptahites (Cushites), And Atumites, (Cuthites), But Were Taken To The Land Of Kodesh To Be Raised Away From Their Kindred (Agreeable And Disagreeable Eloheem). Most People Are Under The Impression That The Enclosed Garden Is Some Mystical Place. In The Time Of Zakar And Nekaybaw, This Garden Was Located On Earth And Was Known As Gan (גן) The Enclosed Garden. Gan Is Known As Arabia Today. Nekaybaw Was Residing In Kadesh, Called Sinai Today In Jerusalem, From Age 1-18. She Had A Playmate Named "Anat" Daughter Of Mami And Udum, Who Considered Nekaybaw A Dear Friend. After Zakar Was 21 And Nekaybaw Was 18 They Were Taken Down Into The Land Of Gan (Arabia Today) To Be Raised. At This Time There Were Many Tribes Of Agreeable Eloheem And Disagreeable Eloheem Roaming The Earth.

When Nekaybaw Was About To Leave For Gan (The Enclosed Garden) Anat Gave Her A Gift. The Gift Was Called Taniyn, A Lizard, Serpent Like Creature, That Stands Erect Like A Man. Haylal (Sama'el) Utilized This Creature To Speak To Nekaybaw. If You're Wondering How This Is Possible, Then You Should Wonder If A Creature Like This Still Exists.

In The Islands Of Indonesia, On The Island Of Komodo, There Lives The Largest Living Lizard Creature Today, Called The Komodo Dragon. It Stands Erect And Grows As Tall As 10 Feet High, They Run And Walk On Two Just Like Men. The Komodo Dragon Sheds Skin Just Like A Snake. The Komodo Dragon Has Another Trait That The Snake Has. Its Skin Comes In Multi-Colors, Just Like Serpents.

The Komodo Dragon Is Not Extinct. It Is What The Taniyn Creature Is Compared To Today. Haylal (Sama'el) Son Of Shakhar (Tarnush) And Mylitta, Utilized This Creature To Convince Nekaybaw To Partake Of The Forbidden Fruit, That The Eloheem Told Her Not To Eat. We're Not Giving You Spookism, Just The Facts, That's What Right Knowledge Is About. This Is Also The Symbol Of The Serpent In The Garden And It Still Exists, And It Is Not Mythology. Even With All The Evil And Wicked Ways You Will Not Be Able To Indoctrinate Us With Lies Anymore, Not Even With The Cunningness You Used In The Garden.

This Dragon Was Depicted On The Gate Of Ishtar, In Ancient Babylonian Times. This Is The Myth, But The Komodo Dragon Is Real And It Exists Today. That's Right Knowledge. Haylal (Sama'el) Told Nekaybaw That She Would Be Like The Eloheem, Knowing Agreeable And Disagreeable. Haylal (Sama'el) Did Not Lie To Nekaybaw, He Just Made Evil Fairseeming. Nekaybaw At This Point Was Of The Agreeable ELOHEEM. Nergal Who Had Became Ruler Of The Cuthites A Disagreeable Tribe. Ninti And Enqi Were On The Surface Of Eridu, Falsely Called Earth. While Arishkegal And Nergal Were In Zuab Or Abzu. All Of Them Were The Children Of Anu Who Were Rulers Of The Skies: The Enkiduites Were Of A Barbaric Nature And They Stood Seven Feet Tall. And Were Covered With Six Ether Fur, From Head To Toe.

Enkidu Father Of The Enkiduites

Ques: Why Did These Enkiduties Come To This Planet?

Ans: The Enkiduites Originally Came To Tiamat, Which Is Now Called Earth To Hunt Dinosaurs And Other Pre-Historic Animals, And They Loved It So Much They Claimed It As Home. The Ptahites, Also Known As Kishites Were On Tiamat, Now Called Earth When The Enkiduites Arrived. The Ptahites Came From The Original Genus-Homo, A Being That Emerged From The Water, Who Stood Four Feet Tall

And Were Called Pygmy; Yet They Possessed A Passive Nature. The Scientist Bred Two Extreme Natures, The Barbaric Enkiduites, Six Ether, And The Passive Ptahites, Nine Ether To Get Homo Erectus, Which Were The Upright Beings. The Nature Of The Six Ether Homo Erectus Were Extremely Barbaric From The Original Hindus. Thus They Were Called Behemoth The Beast Of The Field, Who Was Alsc Bred Into What Became Later Known As Hulub Flugelrods.

They Were Bred 2400 Years Before The Curse Seed Of Canaan, Who Was Albino. Yet, The Nature Of The Nine Ether Homo Erectus Called Nubuns Were Extremely Passive And All Of The Seeds Bred By Their Mixing Between Them And The Taller Tribe Called Dunaakial. The Original Members Of The Hulub, Flugelrods And The Dunaakial, Never Exited The Caverns Of The Earth To Become Surface Dwellers Again. Many Of The Dissatisfied Amongst Them Came To The Surface. But Of Their Seeds Did These Tribes Of Beings Come, The Nubian Of The Dunaakial And The Anglo-Saxons Of The Flugelrods.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Many Dunaakial Stayed Others Branched Off Into Tribes And Moved Nearer The Surface And Set Up Their Caverns. And Even Others Went Surface And Mixed With Surface Beings. They Settled Through Out The Continent Of Africa And Became Known As The Danakial, Today Called The Danakil And Dongalawiy, Dongala, Or The Donogala Tribe Of Northern Sudan And Spread As Far As Down As Northern Ethiopia, Ether-Utopia.

Ques: Who Are The Danakil?

Ans: The Melanin-Ite Being Referred To As The DANAKIL Of Today Are Descendants Of A Group Of Benevolent Beings In The Center Of The Earth Called DUNAAKIAL. The Danakil Are The Original People Of Havilah Same As The Dongalowa Or The Fuzzy Wuzzy, They Are The Same Tribe And People, Your Original Family. The Danakil Migrated South And Lived Amongst The Tribe Of Cush, Thus You Have Amongst This Tribe Of Danakil People With Round Faces, Round Eyes And Round Noses. They Were Both The Tribe Of Judah And The Tribe Of Dan, Genesis 35:22-25, Who Migrated With Them, And Became Known As The Falashas After Their Entry Into Ethiopia Which Both Tribes Became The Danakil.

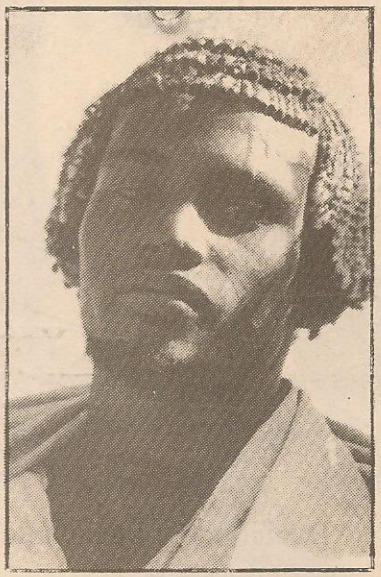

Figure 20
A Man From The Tribe Of Danakil

Ques: What Do You Mean The Caverns Of The Earth?

Ans: There Are Caverns In The Earth Where Beings Live. The Planet Earth Is Hollow And Has A Sun 600 Miles In Diameter, The Earth's Radius Is 3,963 Miles From The Pyramids In Kemet (Egypt) Today, And Did You Know That There Are Many Other Sub-Terranean Cities On The Planet Earth. It Also Has A North

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

And South Pole Entrance That Leads Into The Inner City Aghaarta (اغارت) "Through The Hole". The Temple Within This Sub-Terranean World Is Called "The Golden Place" (والهالت) Waalhaala "Place Of Illumination" Or "With The Golden Aura" Which Is Located In The Capital Called "Shamballah (شمبالله) "Scented By Allah". It Is Also Known As ESHARRA.

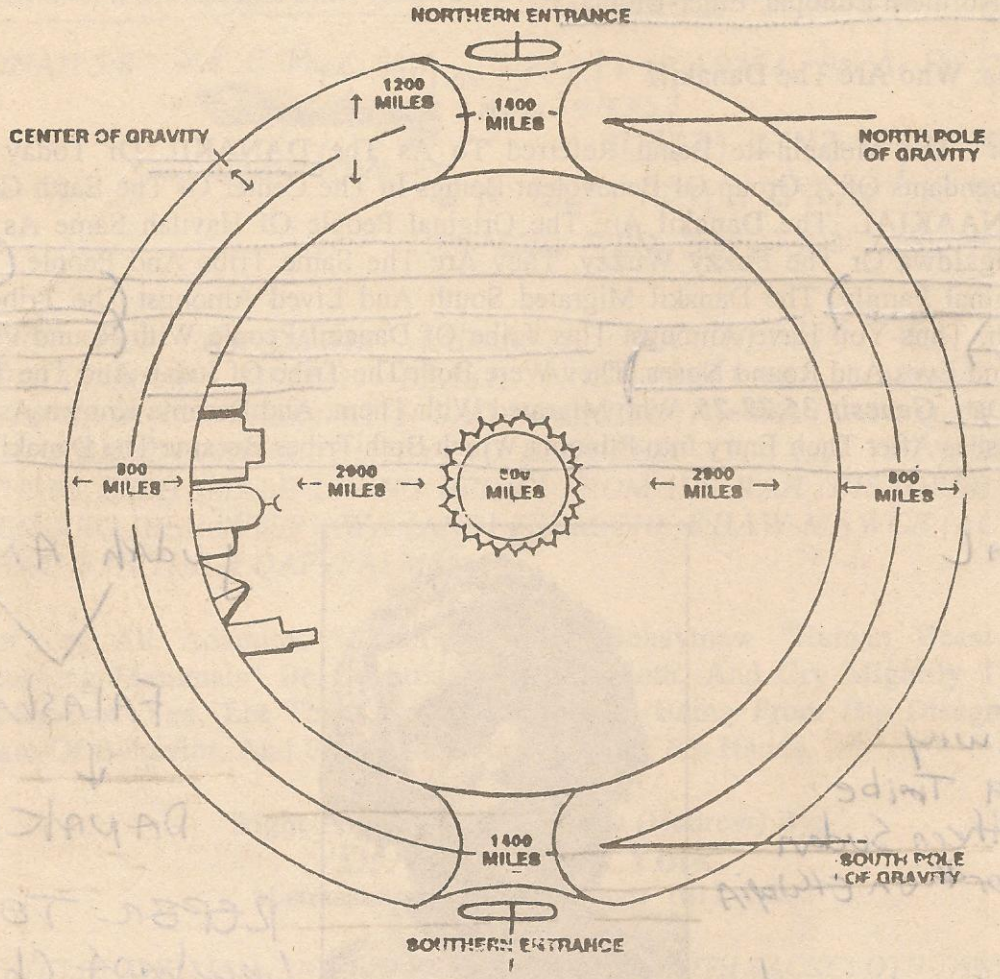

Diagram 11
" Depiction Of Shamballah"

I Know Your Probably Wondering Where Is Shamballah. Shamballah As Previously Stated Is The Capital Of The Biggest Sub-Terranean World Called Aghaarta, Located Inside The Earth. Aghaarta Means "Through The Hole", Being That There Are Many Entrances That Lead To Sub-Terranean Worlds. This 'Palace Of Illumination' Within The Earth Has A Central Sun. In Order To Enter These Secret Cities You Must Know Where The Entrances Are, Like The Polar Regions. These Entrances Will Lead You To A Whole Different Tropical Environment. Thus, Aghaarta Is Not Shamballah, As Many Would Have You Believe. It Is Well Known. It's Even Used Today In Movies And Comic Book. Amorites Know About It. It's Your Nubian Who Don't. In Fact The Evil Reptilians The Malevolent Beings Has Made Many Attempts To Get You The Nubian To Deny The Existence Of Anu, The Most High, El Eloh, Or Allah, And To Curse Him Having Haitians Calling On A Cobra God Of Wisdom And Fertility Named "Damballah". There Are A Half-Million Who Are Involved In Sorcery -Voodoo (Hoodoo In Haiti). When They Say Damballah They Are Really Saying "Curse Allah". Dam In Reverse You Get Mad. Dam Is To Block. Damn Is The Curse Or Block Good From You. The Haitians Are The Original Nigerians From Yoruba. Their God Is Obatallah Or King Allah. Isn't It Coincidental That These God's Damballah And Obatallah Are So Close To The Name Of The City That Exist In The Center Of The Earth- Shamballah. There Are No Co-Incidents, The Evil Reptilians Wants To Turn You From Acknowledging And Worshipping The Most High.

In The Past There Were 8 Caverns, To Date There Are Far Many More. Shamballah Is A Galatical United Nations, As Opposed To A Earth Surface United Nations. Shamballah Has The Largest Library And Medical Library On This Side Of The Galaxy. It Has Climate Control, For There Are No Volcanoes And Earthquakes.

Ques: Are There Any Creatures Living Down There?

Ans: Funny You Should Say That. As A Human Being You Often Refer To Things You Don't Know About As Creatures, Or Monsters Or Unknown Being, Better Yet Extra Beings On Earth, Not Like Yourself, Or Extraterrestrials. Within The Caverns Of The Earth You'll Find The SHUYUKH Referred To As THE ELDERS Who Were Originally Called The RIZQIYIANS, Who Originally Left RIZQ And Took Residence In Shamballah, But Eventually Had To Set Up Their Own Cavern. And You'll Also Find The DUWAANI And The DEROS, Originally Called Sumuwnean, Or Saamiyn. And The DUNAAKIAL Who Also Came From RIZQ, And The TEROS, As They Are Called By The Al Manee, Germans. However, Originally They Are Called Sunaynans Or Siyniyn, And The Flugelrods Or Haalabeans Or Hulub.

Ques: Who Are The Shuyukh That You Speak Of?

Ans: The Shuyukh Are The Elders, I Have Taught You Of Our Existence Before In Other Books. I'm Just Giving You Another Name For Them. They Are The Rizqiyians From The Planet Rizq In The 19Th Galaxy Illyuwn. I Told You In "Man From Planet Rizq" Scroll #80 That We Are Able To Manipulate Our DNA's And RNA's, So That We Can Live To Be Hundreds Of Years, However We Don't Age Like You, Our Time Is Different, That's Another Book. On Earth From The Moment You're Born You Are Dying. Unlike Humans We Know That Death Is An Illness. You Just Refuse To Accept That Death Has A Cure Or Can Be Prolonged. We Know The Secrets To Life And Death.

We Have The Ability To Speak Any Language And We Communicate Telepathically. We Communicate In Tones. A Rizqiyian's Body Is Always Vibrating At A Certain Tone, Which We Use To Communicate And When Frustrated We Learn To Tune In On A Certain Tone To Bring Down The Vibration Of The Body And Just Focus On One Tone. You The Melanin-Ite Children Are Our Descendants. As I Begin To Describe What We Look Like You Will See That We Are Your Forefathers. We Have Dark Reddish On Earth Or Green Olive Tone Skin While On RIZQ. Our Overall Appearance Is That Of A Human Beings, Yet You Sense Something Distant In Our Eyes. We Have Very Dark Pupils, Slightly Slanted And Can Be Slightly Larger Than Humans. And Our Hair Is Silver, White To Black And Wavy.

The Rizqiyians-The Shuyukh "Elders"

Ques: Are There Different Species Of Shuyukh?

Ans: I Think I Overstand What Your Trying To Ask. You Mean Like Human Beings. Because There Are Different Races Of People, Like Black, White, Etc. Etc.

No! And Neither Do You. Humans Beings On Your Planet Tend To Think That They Are Different From One Another, I Wish You Would Stop Thinking Like That You Are All One And The Same, Yet Very Different. Meaning You Are Descendants Of Different Beings. Some Of You Are From The Planet Earth, Or Earthlings. Some Of You Are Not. You Were Brought Here. Stop Trying To Make This A Race Problem It Is A World Problem. I Have Been Sent To Merely Give You The Facts. It Is Up To You What You Do With These Facts. Whether Or Not You Distort What I'm Trying To Tell You Or Not, The Facts Still Remain That, The Facts. You Can Not Alter The Message. We The Rizqiyians, Shuyukh, Elders... Wait Let Me Explain This To You.

I'm Telling You Different Names Because As Time Has Passed Different People Have Given Us Different Names. I Want You To Be Able To Hear Each Name And Still Be Able To Know Who Is Who. If You Are Not Careful They Meaning The Evil Luciferians, Reptilians, The Satans, The Devils, Etc. Who Also Has Many Names Will Try To Trick You, And Distort The Facts. Just Like They Did With The Many Names Of The Most High. They Gave You Allah, El Eloh, Jehovah, And Buddha, God, Deity, Theos, Yaweh, Adonai, Rab, Mazda, Brahma, Ishtar, Amon Ra, Chango, Christ, And The List Can On And On. Then They Separated You By Religions, Then Cultures, Then Colors. They Call You Black, Latino, Jamaican's, Orientals, Indians, You All Have One Thing In Common. You Are All Melanin-Ites, Or Have Melanin In You, Even Amorites Have Melanin, Because They Are A Product Of You Genetically. Unlike You We Do Not Have A Genetic Makeup. We All Look Alike. Unlike Here On Your Planet Where You Have All Different Kinds Of Animals, Creatures, Species, Which Is Why You Look Different, (Refer To "Shamballah And Aghaarta~Cities Within The Earth" Scroll # 131).

Ques: Is It Just The Elders Who Live Inside The Earth?

Ans: No You Have Other Beings Living There Also. You Have The Duwaanis, That Originally Came Form The Constellation Canis Major.

Ques: Duwaanis?

Ans: Yes! Duwaanis. I Met One Once. His Name Was Sinclair, He Could Recite Shakespeare. He Is The Chief. The Duwaanis Study Intensely. The Elite Of The Human Race, Is What They Aspire To Be Like, Thus They Study Fine Arts, Etc. Yet They Have No Interest Whatsoever To Co-Exist With You, For They Feel That The Humans That Reside On The Surface Of The Earth, Are Nothing But Killers Without A Purpose. They Are Very Aware Of Everything That Is Happening Up Here On The Surface. You Probably Can't Imagine This, However The Duwaanis Look A Lot Like Porcupines, Because Their Hair Sticks Straight Up Like The Quills Of A Porcupine. What It Is, Is, They Suffer From Hirsutism, The Disorder That Covers The Entire Body With Hair.

Many People On The Surface Of The Earth Have This Disorder, And Wonder Where It Came From. Well You Don't Have To Wonder Anymore. I'm Just Here To Give You The Facts. Take It Or Leave It. I Know, It's Frighting. You've Been Living Under The Spell For So Long When The Truth Come You Want To Turn Your Back On It. You Read The Tabloids, Or Those Freak Of Nature Books, Or They Exploit Them As Circus Side Shows, Never Realizing This Just Didn't Happen By Accident. This Is Where You Get Your Leprechauns Who Are Gnomes Or Dwarfs.

Ques: Is That Where Dwarfism Came About?

Ans: Yes! They Mixed In With People On The Surface. That's How The Disorder Dwarfism Came About. The Duwaani Who Bears An Abundance Of Melanin Are About The Size Of A Pygmy For They Are Related To The Pygmy. The Duwaanis Study You. That Is The Elite Of You. They Believe That One Day They Will Take Over The Surface Of The Planet Earth.

Ques: Will They?

Ans: You Tell Me! Just Listen To You. Scared? They're Not The Only Beings That Feels That Way. There Are Other Beings That Live Inside The Earth That Feel The Same Way. You Have A Group Of Insane Cave Dwellers Called The Sumuwnean, Or Saamiym, Better Known As The Abandon Deros Or Simply "Deros". Which Is Just A Combination Of "Detrimental" And "Robots". They Claim That The Planet Earth Was Theirs And Will Be Again.

Ques: Are They Similar To The Duwaanis?

Ans: No!

Ques: I Mean Are They Friendly Do They Look Like The Duwaani?

Ans: No! You Assume Because The Duwaani Are Small That, That Means They Are Friendly, Or That You Will Be Able To Defeat Them. Never Underestimate Any Other Living Creature, But That's How Human Beings Are. I've Told You One Day The Insects Are Going To Take Over And They Are Not Even A Fraction Of Your Size. To Answer Your Question, No. The Deros Are Completely Different Beings. The Deros Are Hatched From Very Large Eggs.

Ques: What Do You Mean Large Eggs?

Ans: The Eggs Can Be As Large As 6 Feet And As Small As 4 Feet In Diameter. So I Guess You Can Imagine What Size They Are When They Are Born. They Grow 7 Feet And Are Extremely Obese. And They Are Not Very Peaceful, For A Lack Of A Better Words And They Have A Strong Dislike For Human Beings. Actually They Are Very Human In Appearance, Yet Far From It.

The Dero Have Very Little Melanin. Their Skin Appears Pinkish Grey In Color, Much Like The Corpse Of A Caucasian, And A Pig. Reason Being, They Have Not Been Exposed To The Inner Or Outer Sun. They Live In Caves And Have Degenerated So Much, They Do Not Have Much Intellect.

Ques: What Do The Dero Look Like?

Ans: They Have No Fingernails, Toenails, Nipples, Navel Or Rectum. Their Eyes Are Sliver Grey And Glow In The Dark. They Have No Teeth, And Their Mouths Are Full Of Gummy Slimy Substance. They Are Nocturnal And Can Hear Very Well. Their Trunk Or Nose Is Long, Like That Of An Elephant. Their Insides Are Similar To That Of A Cow. They Have Two Stomachs And Their Digestive Systems Are The Same. Not To Mention Both The Cow And The Dero Chew The Cud.

Ques: What Do You Mean Chew The Cud?

Ans: By That I Mean, When A Cow Eats What Happens Is The Cow Chews Its Food And Goes Through The Initial Stages Of Digestion Where It Reaches A Large Sac That Is Before The True Stomach. They Regurgitate To The Mouth For Further Chewing. They Have Blond Eyebrows. Yet They Have No Hair On Their Bodies. They Have The Disease Trichotillomania And Are Responsible For The Disease Trichinosis And Trichiniasis.

Ques: The Dero Appear To Be Very Large?

Ans: I Think I Know Where Your Going With This. Yes, The Dero Have Descendants On The Planet Earth. They Are Your Extremely Obese People. Those Weighing 300 Pounds Or More. It Is Not Normal For Any One Individual To Be That Large. Most Obese People Attribute Their Size To A Glandular Problem, Meaning They Have An Overactive Gland, Be It Hypothyroidism Or Tumors Of The Adrenal Gland, Pancreas, Or Pituitary Gland Which Causes Obesity. It Is A Trait Of The Deros.

Ques: You Mention Two Other Groups Of Beings Earlier, The Dunaakial And The Tero, Who Are They?

Ans: The Dunaakial Whose Original Home Is In The 8th Planet Rizq Of The 19th Galaxy Illyuwn Have An Abundance Of Melanin In Their Skin For They Are Related To Your Fathers, The Wooly Haired Beings Those Who Bear Nine Ether The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM, Are Benevolent Beings, They Are The Descendants Of Us The SHUYUKH, THE ELDERS, RIZQIYIANS. We Left Some Of Our Hybrids On This Very Planet Earth. They Are Your Dunaakial. They Took Up Residence Within Shamballah. The Center Of The Earth Is A Special Base Controlled By The Dunaakial. And Just Like The Melanin Bearing Beings, Watusi Of The Planet Earth, The Dunaakial Too Are Tall. The Dunaakial Have Very Large Craniums.

A Tribe Of Dunaakial

The Tero Are Also A Group Of Benevolent Beings Who Lived In An Adjacent Cavern To The Dunaakial. The Sunaynans Or Tero Which Is Short For Integrative Or Constructive, Are A Sub-Surface Race That Usually Keep The Dero

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

In Check. In Order For The Tero To Keep Their Sanity They Bore Further Into The Earth. However, Due To The Cross Breeding The Tero Took On Different Forms And Others Look So Human They Can Come To The Surface And Not Be Noticed.

Figure 30
A Tribe Of Tero-Sunaynans

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Statement: From The Picture It Appears As If They Have Oriental Features.

Allow Me To Explain. A Lot Of Mixing In Took Place In The Heaven, Or What You Refer To As The Heaven. Actually The Tero Come From A Planet Called JOMON In The Star Constellation Called The Red Giant, Or The 4th Brightest Star Simply Called Arcturus Which Is Bootes Constellation. The Atmosphere On Jomon Contributed To Their Children's Breathing Defects As Well As Congenital Heart Disease, And Poor Digestive Systems, Unstable Immune Systems, And Are More Likely To Get Leukemia.

People Of The Planet Earth Normally Have 46 Chromosomes, However Because The Tero's 48 Chromosome Structure Is So Different, When Mixed With Certain Humans, It Resulted In A Defect Called Down's Syndrome, Where The Individual Had 47 Chromosomes. Down's Syndrome Can Be Found In Any Race On The Planet Earth. Just As The Tero Has Many Races. The Tero That Have An Abundance Of Melanin In Their Skin Are Descendants Of The Shuyukh, And Those That Lack Melanin Are The Descendants Of The Flugelrods, Halaabeans Or Hulub.

Ques: You Say The Tero Who Have Melanin In Their Skin Are Descendants Of The Shuyukh, And Those That Lack Melanin Are The Descendants Of The Flugelrods, Halaabeans Or Hulub, Do You Mean That The Two Tribes Mixed In Or Are They A Product Of One Or The Other, As In The Case Of The Adamites?

Ans: The Chief Of The Dunaakial Called Rabboni: Fuquur, The Black Seed, Married A Sunaynan Tero, A Brown Seed Chieftain's Daughter Named Lusinas Against Her Will Just To Establish Peace In The Caverns, For The Dunaakial Were Being Attacked By The Saamiyn Dero Who The Siyniyn, Tero, Were Supposed To Keep Under Check, Because They Were A Violent, Destructive, Aggressive Beings.

The Tribes Wanted To Bring About A Peaceful Co-Existence, Thus, The Chief Of The Tero Whose Name Was Laamsa Gave His Daughter To Fuquur The Chief Of The Dunaakial. And Fuquur Gave His Daughter Radiyyah To Laamsa Chief Of The Teros, To Marry His Oldest Son Named Haatif.

Ques: Did Lusinas Have Any Children By Fuquur?

Ans: No! Lusinas Bore Fuquur No Children. She By Shadow Hour Left The Caverns And Went To The Surface And Sought Out Fuquur's Brother Yiskhawk. Yiskhawk Lived In The Best Part Of The Planet, The Enclosed Garden. She Was Welcomed By Yiskhawk, Who Hated His Twin Brother Fuquur. Yiskhawk, Even Though He Knew It Was Wrong Took Lusinas As His Own.

Ques: Were They The Only Two Children?

Ans: No! Fuquur And Yiskhawk Had Five Other Brothers Namely Ammo, Hasiy, Ramah, Akhsad, And Tunday. All Save The First Two Stayed Within The Caverns. Ammo, Who Was Also A Runaway. He Lived Twenty Miles Outside Of The Enclosed Garden At The Site Where The Bodies Of Adam And Eve Are Buried Called Mount Arafat. There Was Originally A Village Within With An Illegitimate Birth Between Yiskhawk And His Brother Fuquur's Wife Lusinas Occurred.

Lusinas Was Mad At Her Father Laamsa For Giving Her Away Because She Wanted To Marry A Tero, Like Herself. Because She Was Angry, She Had A Child By Yiskhawk The Disagreeable, Yet Reformed Brother Of Fuquur. She Did This So That The Child Would Be Of No Benefit To Her Tribe. Many Thought Him Unpleasant To Look Upon.

Ques: Why?

Ans: Yaaquub Who Was Born Hydroinsephelic Having The Head Twice The Size The Size Of His Tribe Members The Dunaakial And The Teros. Because Of It, By No Fault Of His Own, He Got Much Attention, Because He Had The Head The Size Of Two Men When He Grew Up Many Referred To Him As The "Big Head Scientist". He Was Scorned And Mocked Thus He Wanted To Get Revenge On His People.

He Owed His Peculiar Appearance To The Fact That He Was Mixed. For Teros Were Hydroinsephilic And Yiskhawk Was A Dunaakial, Who Also Had Large Craniums. But His Wife Named Lusinas, Was Herself Disagreeable From The Tribe Of Agreeable Teros, Who Had A Dome Shaped Skull. This Combination Produced The Unsightly Yaquub. The Teros, Lived In An Adjacent Cavern To The Dunaakials. The Tero Lusinas, Refused To Stay Amongst The Dunaakials, For She Was Always Teased About Her Cone Shaped Head. Thus, She Came To The Surface To Seek Out The Surface Dunaakial. And This Surface Dwelling Dunaakial, Brother Of Her Husband Yiskhawk, Was Abstract Looking, Amongst Surface Dwellers, For His Cranium Was Extremely Large. This Mixture Gave Birth To Yaaquub. Yet, They Were The Wisest Of The Wise In That Land. They Referred To Them Simply As The Aliens Because Of Their Contact With The Pleiadeans. Not Only Did Her Son Have A Head The Size Of Two Men, But Two Brains, Both Activated By Visitors From Both Aldebaran And Pleiades. His Name Was Called Yaaquub, Who Was Also Known As Yahakobe. Son Of Yiskhawk. He Is Also Known As Yakub As Well As Yacob-Har, Yacob-El. He Is Known As Bar Yishkawk. His Mother's Name Was Lusinas, The Tero Of The Original Tribe Of Lunarians Who Came To This Planet And Lived Beneath The Surface. She Was Not In Agreement With A Tero Marrying A Dunaakial For Political Reasons. Rebelling Being Weak And Wicked Her Trials And Tribulations Led To Her Desire To Destroy Men. She Did Not Know That This Was Prophesied By The Wise 24 Scientist Called Magus, The Magi, Who By The Stars Charted This Birth 8,400 Years Before It Actually Happened. He Was Born In His Uncle Ammo's House, Located 20 Miles Outside Of Bekka. He Returned At Age Five Determined To Create A New People And Teach Them To Rule For 6000 Years.

Ques: How Did He Get Revenge?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: What Really Happened Was This Became The Opportune Time For Disagreeable Pleiadeans To Tap Into His Brains And Inspire An Unsightly Thing. He Was Led To Have Faith That He Could Create A Race Of People That Would Rule Over His Own People And Then The Whole Planet. The People Around Him That Got Aire Of His Diabolical Plan Would Ask Him, "Will These People Be Wicked And War Like?" He Simply Answered, "Only I Know That Answer, You Do Not." He Knew That He Would Be Their God.

Ques: When Did All Of This Take Place?

Ans: He Got His Idea 8,400 Years Ago B.C.. The Process Would Take Six Hundred Years Which Would Take Him To The Year 7800 B.C.. Yet, The Curse Seed Of Canaan Would Manifest 6,600 B.C. According To Their History.

Ques: Was This A Creation Of A New Being?

Ans: Yes! This God Yaaquub Created His Own Adam In His Image And After His Likeness. In The Image Of A Human Being And Wicked And Weak Minded Overcome With Jealousies And Envy He Was Born With A Complex Of Inferiority And To Subject The World To Their Wish Of Superiority. A New Man, A Kind Of Man, Simply Man-Kind.

The Hidden Meaning Was In The Real Name Patmos. The Place Of My Own Killing That Is Patmos, In The Aegean Sea, That Is Greece, Where This Mad Scientist Yaaquub, Was To Create A New Race To Destroy His Own People And Himself. Yet He Died At Age One Hundred And Fifty, And Never Saw The Completion Of His Creation. They Were All To Be Healthy, Strong, And Good Breeders.

Ques: How Was The New Being Going To Be Created?

Ans: Yaaquub Made The Flugelrods By Genetic Splicing Called Grafting. They Were Called Gews Or Jews, Later Called Jacobites. To Show Forth His Power And His Wisdom, Declaring Himself The Righteous, And He Can Make A People Genetically And Mentally Weak, To Give Them The Power To Rule. Then He Intended To Eliminate Them To Show And Prove That He Is God; Always Was And Always Will Be.

Ques: What Happened To His Parents During This Time?

Ans: At The Age Of Five Year Old Yaaquub Was Left Parentless. His Mother, Lusinas, Overcome By Grief At The Remembrance Of Her Home Shamballah, Died. His Father Yiskhawk Was Put To Death For Violating The Sacred Oath Of The Dunaakial, By Marrying, Fuquur's, His Brother's Wife. This Further Outraged

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

The Already Deranged Yaaquub. However, Yaaquub Had Started School At The Age Of Four And By Age Six Yaaquub, Was Living With His Uncle Ammo, The Brother Of His Father Yiskhawk, Who Himself Many Years Before, Was Cast From Shamballah, For Disagreeable Activity. Thus, He Also Took Residence On The Surface Of The Earth. Yaaquub Was Living With Ammo, In His Home Twenty Miles Outside Of Bekka.

Ques: Why Did He Start School So Young?

Ans: Don't Forget Yaaquub Had Two Activated Brains. He Was Fascinated By Magnetism. At The Age Of Eighteen Yaaquub, Had Already Finished All Of The Schools Of Learning In His Day And Time. This Is Where Yaaquub Was To Convert The People Needed For The Breeding Of His New Race. In The Task Of Making A Disagreeable, Wicked, And Physically Weak Being With The Ability To Rule With A Special Kind Of Reverse Knowledge.

In The Making Of This New Breed Of People He Would Use His Own Genes. Being He Was From An Original Black And Brown Germ. The Black Germ From His Blood - The Blood Of The Dunaakial, And The Brown Germ From His Blood - The Blood Of The Tero, Who Had Mixed With Pleiadeans Long Ago. For His Master Plan He Needed To Convert Loyal Followers That Would Obey Him Regardless Of Who Or What! This Was Executed By The Loyal Ones. Before This Secret Project Could Begin There Must Be A Great Many People Converted To His Beliefs. He First Traveled Twenty Miles Inland From His Uncle's House To The Holy Sight, Where The Tree Of Knowledge Did Sit. There He Started To Preach In The Streets Of Bekka Again, Making Such Host Of Converts That The Authorities Increasingly Concerned, Finally Exiled Him. He And A Small Band Of His Followers, The Doctors, The Nurses And The Cremators Crossed Northward Up And Over The Jordan, And Over To Egypt Where They Took Ships Into The Aegean Sea To Await The Arrival Of His Guinea Pigs.

He Died Of A Brain Tumor An Aneurism At Age One Hundred And Fifty. One Brain Exploded And Killed Him. Before They Arrived. But His Scientists Were Prepared. The Other Scientists Of His Day Said It Couldn't Be Done. He Departed; For They Planned A Plan To Kill Him, And Exile His Followers. However, Those Who Supported His Undertakings Prepared The Greatest Fleet Of Ships To Sail. Haggai, With Fifty Nine Thousand Nine Hundred And Ninety Nine Followers Sailed On A Journey For A Home In Africa, There To Stay For Fifty Thousand Years Or Until The New Cycle. This Journey Took Him And The Prophet Yaaquub's Followers Completely Around The Continent. But Not Before There Was A Great Falling Away, And Dissatisfaction Amongst His, Yaaquub's Followers. They Docked Along The Shores Of Africa. The Original Name Of Africa Was Nubia. They Often Mixed Up The Name Cuthites With The Name Cushites. These Cuthites Were Mixed Hindus Having Straight Hair, 6 Ether These Are The Original Black Man, Called

The Asiatic Black Man. Not To Be Mistaken With The Incarnated Gods Who Already Lived In Africa And Had Woolly Hair, 9 Ether. All Along The Coast The People Had Black Skin And Straight Hair. But The Woolly Haired People Of That Land Refused To Mix With Them, The Law Of Nuwaubu. They Supplanted Themselves On The Seashores Of Mother Africa. Mixing In And Taking Control, These Black Skin And Straight Hair Tribes Never Ventured Into The Heart Of Africa. But Controlled The Ports And Seacoast; And Fathered The Slave Trade Of The Woolly Haired From Zanzibar, Giving The Slave The Original Name Zinji Before Negro. Nubians Fail To Realize That Through Slavery Your Minds Were Stripped Of The Knowledge You Did Have; And This Was Done Through One Type Of People - The Ones That Call Themselves "Jews", Or "Jacobites".

Ques: Is It True That The Pale Jew Was The First To Start The Slave Trade In The New World?

Ans: This Is Quite True. Jews Who Came Over With Christopher Columbus Returned With Native American To Sell In Spain As Slaves. Many Of These Jews Employed Non-Jewish Slave Traders And Dealers. The Pale Jews Were The Largest Dealers Of Slaves.

Christopher Columbus

Ques: Where Do The British And Dutch Come Into The Slave Trade?

Ans: Jews Will Be Jews Whether They Live In England, Holland Or Israel. As Mentioned Before, Some Jews Employed The Non-Jewish British, Spanish, And Dutch As Captains Of Ships And For Other Tasks - But The Jews Were The Kings Of The Slave Trade. Do Not Think That Slavery Started All Of A Sudden On The Continent Of Africa. Slavery Had Existed In Africa And The Middle East Since Ancient Times. When The Jews (Not Israelites) Had Began The Trade, It Took A Turn For The Worst. For Centuries, Jews Had A Hard Time Starting The Slave Trade In Africa Because Even Though The Pale Man Had Guns, He Was No Match To The Strength And Fighting Skills Of Our Nubian Foreparents And Their Simple

Weapons. The Only Way That The Jews Finally Got Into The Interior Of The Continent, Was By Cunning Devilry. By Making Believe They Were "Friends" With The Chiefs And Came In Peace. The Nubian Man, Being The Merciful God That He Is, Became Kind To The Pale Men And In Turn, The Chiefs Got Drunk On Rum And Whiskey That Was Given To Them; And That Was The Beginning Of The Slavery That You Hear About In Your History Classes.

The Jews Took Slaves To Sell Through Trickery, Kidnapping Whole Families, Intoxication And Invasion. They Shaved The Heads Of Each One And Branded Them With Their Mark So That They Would Be Easily Identified In Case They Ran Away. On Their Ships, They Crammed Them Into Thirty-Nine (39) Inches Of Space; Which Meant That They Remained In One Position Throughout The Three Month's Journey. In Many Cases The Children Were Left On Deck With Just A Blanket To Protect Them From The Various Elements. The Women Stayed Below, But In An Area Easily Accessible To The Captain. All Slaves Were Completely Undressed. Women Were Constantly Raped Before And During The Trip, And Gave Birth To Mulatto Children In Undesirable Filthy Conditions. Sickness And Disease Became Rampant Among Them, Including Insanity, Because These Poor Blacks Had To Lay In Human Excrement For The Entire Trip.

A Mulatto Of Greco-Roman Period

Very Few Of The Captains Of The Slave Ships Were Jews. They Did Not Want To Subject Themselves To The Rigors Of The Six Month's Journey. They Preferred To Remain At Home And Continue Their Distilling Operations, Which Supplied The Native Americans Called Indians And The African Chiefs With Rum And Whiskey At A Very Great Profit. These Jewish Slave Dealers Remained In Their Offices And Counted Their Fat Winnings Following Each Journey. After A While, When Slavery

Was Supposed To Have Been Illegal In The Colonies, These Jews Almost Always Had Non-Jewish Captains On The Ships In Case The Ship Was Discovered With Slave Cargo Because The Captain Of The Ship Was Always Punished. Facts Like These Can Be Found Documented In Large Libraries In Washington D.C. And Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; The Names Of The Jewish Dealers And Traders Can Also Be Found. More Facts On This Subject Can Be Found In These Libraries Than Any One Book Can Ever Relate. Another Important Fact Is That A Surprising Amount Of Slaves Never Reached The Western World. One Million Slaves Were Brought Each Year On Slave Ships To The Colonies From 1600 To 1774 A.D. We See That Approximately One Hundred And Ten Million Slaves Had Been Removed From "Our Homeland." However Only 10% Or Eleven Million Nubians Reached The New World Alive. This Means That Close To One Hundred Million Nubian Human Beings Were Tortured To Death, Murdered, Drowned, And Diseased In The Process Of Instituting Slavery. Many People Say That The Slaves That Made It Alive Were Cowards. Perhaps Some Were, But Realize Many Ran Away And Were Again Found Or Killed By Wild Beasts; Or Possibly A Brave And Proud Man Was Chained To A Coward Who Did Not Want To Take The Chance Of Running Away Unarmed; Or A Distraught Woman Went Because They Were Taking Her Child Or Husband Or Both. You Should Be Able To See That Your Foreparents Had Survived, In A Manner Against Their Own Will. Overstand This Fully, The Nubian Man And Woman Are Physically Powerful And Can Withstand The Most Torturing And Trying Conditions They Were Subjected To. Another Fact Usually Overlooked Suicide Or Even Murdering Each Other. Some Slaves Would Refuse To Eat And Because Of That The Jews Invented An Instrument Designed To Force Them To Open Their Mouths. These Were Jews Who Were Money Conscious At All Times; The More Slaves One Lost Through Sickness Or Otherwise, The Less Money One Made.

Ques: Is The Nubian Seed The Only Slave People?

Ans: No. There Were Many Slave People From Many Different Nations, But The So-Called American Negroes Are The Only Slave People Who Were Taken Into Bondage As A Nation, Thus, Becoming A Part Of One People; The Only People Of This Land, The Only People Who Are Not Respected As A People, The Only People Who Do Not Know Anything About Themselves Or Their True People Before Them, Or Their True Past, Laws Of Life, Worship, Land, Tongue, Identity, And Etc. During The Earlier Days Of Slavery, The Slave Traders Were Able To Acquire Slaves Through Numerous Means; One Way Was By Trading With The Tribal Chiefs. The Paleman Became Friendly With The Tribal Chiefs And Eased His Way Into Their Homes. The Pale Europeans Fooled The Chiefs And Convinced Them To Go Against Their Brothers And Take Them Into Slavery. Yes, Your Own Red Arab Brothers Sold You Into Slavery. The Chiefs Would Then Make The People Believe That They Were Going To Another Part Of The Country To Work For More Gold, When, In Actually, They Had Been Sold. Most Slaves Were Put Into Slavery By

Force, Raids Of Stronger Tribes Upon Weaker Ones. They Mostly Came From The Neighboring Areas Of The Black Arab Tribes Of North Arabia, Such As The Ishmaelite Tribes Of Kedar, And Hadad, Or From Abyssinia From Remnants Of Israelite Tribes Such As Judah And Dan (Called Danakil, Falashas).

Figure 44
Slaves During The Civil War

Ques: What Happened During The Slavery Of Our People?

Ans: Just As You Are Doing Now, Your People Trusted The Canaanites When They Came To Your Land. We Made Them Welcome, And Went About To Show Them The Customs And Wealth Of Your Land. The Canaanites, Scheming On How To Overpower Your People, And Confiscate Your Land And Wealth, Came Upon A Shrewd Plan. They Offered To Bring As Many Of Your People Back To This Land As Would Come, And Show Them Around. This Was A New, And Exciting Experience For Your People, And They Readily Accepted. And As Many As The Ship Would Hold, They Came. The Ship Was Full To The Brim, And All Upon The Masts. It Was Not Until They Were Way Out To Sea, That Your People, Realized They Had Been Tricked, And Were Being Brought To This Land For Slavery. But, It Was Too Late, And Though Many Tried To Kill Themselves, Rather Than Become Slaves, They Did Not Succeed.

For The Slave Leaders Of The 1600's A.D. Prince Henry The Navigator Of Portugal And The 1400's A.D., John Hawkins Had Many Ways Of Keeping Them Alive. Many Tried To Starve Themselves, But Food Was Forced Into Them By Any Means Possible. The Hull Of The Ship, Was Crammed Full, And The Rest Of The Slaves Were Kept Top Side Chained Together. When A Slave Investigation Ship Came In Sight, Prince Henry And Hawkins Both Knowing The Penalty For Slavery, Especially If They Were Caught With Nubians, They Became Deadly Afraid, And Afraid, And Threw The Nubians Over Board, Chained Together All The Nubians Screamed Out For Mercy, But In Vain.

Those That Were Kept In The Ships Bottom, Were Never Loosened To Wash, Or Allowed To Go To The Bathroom, They Had To Remain In Their Own Filth. The Vengeful Cry Of Your People Still Rings Loud And Clear, From Both The Land And The Sea. After Getting Your People To This Land, They Were Sold On Slave Blocks, To The Highest Bidder, To The Americans And Other So-Called European Pilgrims, Who Were Migrating Into This Land, From Their Own. Your Beautiful Men And Women, Were Brutally Forced Into Sex Acts With The European And Others, And Any Nubian Who Defied Them, Was Brutally Used As An Example, To Any Others Who Might Get The Same Idea. (Refer To The Lost Tribe, Scroll #36 For More Information.)

His (The So-Called White Man) Strategy Is A Lot More Sophisticated, And The Reason Is Because He (The Caucasian) Has A Specific Breed Of Nubians He Does

Not Want To Let Go Before He Is Assured That He Has Genetically Bred Them Out Of Existence. I'm Talking About The Nubian Slaves Brought Here Into Bondage In The 1600's A.D.. Their Route Was Through Zanzibar Sold By Orthodox Sunni Muslims, Because The Pale Man Elbrit, Meaning The River, Another Name For The British Who Were Forced Out Of Europe By Way Of A Battle Between Two Distinguished As They Call Blue Blooded Europeans Namely The Yorks And The Lancasters.

A Royal Family Of Zanzibar, Africa

Ques: Who Are The Lancasters?

Ans: Lancaster Is A Name Given To The Descendants Of John Gaunt, Duke Of Lancaster. The Lancaster's Were A Family That Reigned In England From 1399 To 1461 A.D. In 1267 A.D. Henry III Had A Son Edmund, Earl Of Lancaster. Edmund's Son Was Thomas, Earl Of Lancaster, The Baronial Leader Against Edward II, And Then Came His Brother Henry. Henry's Son, A Second Henry Was Made In 1351 A.D. The Duke Of Lancaster And His Daughter Married John Of Gaunt Who Was Also Made Duke Of Lancaster, The Title Of The House Of Lancaster To The Throne Was Perfect. Richard II Was The Grandson Of Edward III Who Was Childless And Also Without Brothers, And The Laws Of Succession, Not Then Precise, Pointed To The Earl Of March As The Heir To The Throne, He Being The Grandson Of Lionel, (Duke Of Clarence) Who Was Older Than His Brother John Of Gaunt. On This Ground The Yorks Asserted That Henry The Fourth Was Not The Rightful King, Who Was To Be Found Among The Descendants Of Lionel. His Only Daughter Married Edmund Mortimer, (Earl Of March), And Their Granddaughter And Heiress Anne Became The Mother Of Richard Of York.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ques: Who Are The Yorks?

Ans: The Yorks Are A Branch Of The English Royal Family Of Plantagenet. The House Of York Won The English Throne From The House Of Lancaster During The "Wars Of The Roses" (1455-1485 A.D.). Members Of The House Of York Ruled England From 1461- 1485 A.D. With A Brief Interruption In The Early 1470's. Richard (Duke Of York), The Leader Of The York Party Came Through His Mother From The Third Son Of King Edward III. Because He Was A Descendant From An Older Son, The Duke Of York Claimed That He Had A Better Right To The Throne Than Henry IV. Open Warfare Broke Out In 1455 A.D., When Henry IV Was Defeated At The First Battle Of St. Albans. In December 1460 A.D. The Duke Of York Was Killed At The Battle Of Wakefield. In 1485 A.D., Henry Tudor (Earl Of Richmond) A Descendant Of The House Of Lancaster Defeated And Killed Richard III At Bosworth Field. Henry Married Elizabeth (Edward IV's Daughter), And So At Last United The Rival Houses Of Lancaster And York.

Ques: What Is The War Of The Roses?

Ans: The Two Branches Of The Royal Houses Fought For The English Throne. The Symbols Adopted By Each Side Gave The Struggle Its Name. The House Of York Had Long Used A White Rose As Its Emblem. The House Of Lancaster Became Identified With A Red Rose. The Wars Began In 1455 A.D. With The Battle Of Saint Albans And Ended In 1485 A.D. With The Battle Of Bosworth Field. King Henry The Six Of The House Of Lancaster Held The Throne When The Wars Of The Roses Began. Richard, Duke Of York, Claimed That Henry The Six Had No Right To Be King. The House Of York Ruled Until Richard III Third Lost His Throne To The Lancaster Descendant. Henry Tudor, Who Became King Henry VII In 1485 A.D. Henry VII Married Elizabeth, Daughter Of Edward IV, Uniting The Houses Of Lancaster And York And Founding The Tudor Dynasty. The Duke Of York Wanted To Breed A Traditional Code Of Intermarrying And He Intermarried A Girl From The Family Of The Lancasters. Their Station Was In Yorkshire England. England Comes From Angla And Saxon, Two Barbaric Tribes Of Europeans. Who Were Both Suffering From Diseases. Infact The Red Cross As A Organization And Symbol Represented Red Blood. We're Talking Dracula Symbolically Dracula Stalked By Night To Drink Fresh Red Blood Of His Victims And Through It Was Able To Sustain His Life Definitely. The Only Thing That Eliminate Him Was Direct Rays Of The Sun Or A Spike Driven Through The Heart.

So You Have The Yorks Who Were Hemophiliacs (Someone That Continuously Bleeds, Lack Of Blood Clots), A Word Coming From Hemoglobin Which Produces The Plasma In The Blood That Allows The Blood To Clot And Make A Scab And Heal An Open Wound. Without Hemoglobin The Slightest Bodily Injury Would Cause One To Bleed To Death. So The Yorks Scheme Was To Intermarry Into The Lancasters Who Later Migrated To America, Made A Ligeance With The Portuguese (Sephardims) Who Are Now Also Europeans And Get Pure Blood Out Of The Nubian Kuwshites In Order, Like Dracula That They're Blue Blood Would Survive Indefinitely. That's The Real Reason For The Second Slave Trade Of The 1600's A.D.. The Symbol That They Use For Freedom Called The Emancipation Proclamation Was Supposed To Come To The Nubians In Slavery By Way Of Abraham Lincoln. Better Yet, Those Slaves Who Are Akin And Linked (Lincoln) To Abraham, And That Bondage That His Seed Was Destined To Go In As Mentioned Genesis Chapter 15.

Abraham Lincoln

Ques: What Is The Emancipation Proclamation?

Ans: The Proclamation Issued By President Lincoln, September 22, 1862 A.D., Announced To The Slaves, That If Their Masters Continued In Rebellion, The Following New Year's Day They Would Be Free. Lincoln Was Urged To Take This Step Before However Lincoln Has Answered "My Paramount Object Is To Save The Union And Not Either To Save Or Destroy Slavery." Lincoln Had Drawn Up An Emancipation Proclamation As Early As July, 1862 A.D. They Put Lincoln On The Penny Because The Penny Was Copper Or The Brown Color Of The Skin Of Those In Bondage And Was Less In Value On The Money Scale. Just As The American Negroes Are The Footstool Of America. Let's Just Take A Look:

1. French Americans
2. Italian Americans
3. Polish Americans
4. Jewish Americans

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

5. Irish Americans

6. German Americans

7. Russian Americans

All Of These Are Immigrants To America, But Their Origin Is Put First, Or On Top, But When It Comes To You, You Become The American Negro. Note That America Comes First. Putting Your Name On The Bottom Of The Totem Pole, Rendering You Less Than A Penny In Worth.

Ques: Why Were Nubians Made To Do The Hardest Tasks When They Were Brought To America?

Ans: Nubians Were Not Made To Do Anything Much Harder Than Working In The Rice, Cotton, Tobacco, Cane Fields, Or To Maintain The Owner's House And Estate. At First When The Jews Discovered That The Colonists Needed Additional Man Power To Help Them Clear Their Fields For Planting, Harvesting Crops, And Help In Construction Of Dwellings, Many Impoverished Europeans Were Recruited. Prison Doors Were Opened And Prisoners From England, Ireland, And Holland Were Brought To The Colonies. They Were Made To Work Until They Paid Their Cost Of Transportation By Ship And Then Were Set Free. In Many American History Books Pale Workers Were Not Called "Slaves," But "Indentured Servants." These Indentured Servants, Especially The Irish, Began To Hate Nubians Above All Others Because The Slave Master Would Employ The Indentured Servants To Do The Nastiest, Hardest Jobs Available While Nubian Slaves Remained Working Mainly In The Fields And Sometimes In The House. This Is Not To Say That The Slave Master Made Sure That He Basically Took Care Of The Slaves, And That His Work Was Hard, But Not Hard Enough To Make Him Ill. The Employed European Indentured Prisoners Were Sent To Work In Coal Mines. They Sometimes Worked In The Fields, But That Was Mainly The Slaves' Area Of Work. They Constructed Housing, And Did Other Jobs Along That Line. These Europeans Felt That Since Nubians Were "Inhuman Slaves," That It Was, They Who Should Be Doing The "Dirty Work". Even Until Today, The Irish Have Bore The Grudge And Hate As Strongly Now As They Did Then. That Is Why They Are Made Police Over Nubians; To Beat And Kill Them Without Care. The K.K.K. (Klu Klux Klan) Was Started By An Irish Man Named General Nathan Bedford Forrest Who Became Grand Wizard In 1869 A.D. Yes That's Right, In The Movie Forrest Gump; They're Praising Him In 1995 A.D.. It's Sad.

Ques: What Are The Various Life Styles Of The Nubians In America?

Ans: Unlike The Europeans, Who Live Under One Political, Economical And Social System, Depending Upon Their National Origin, We Nubians, In North America And Other Parts Of The World, Have Taken Unto Ourselves The Life-Styles Of Non-Black Or Of Those Blacks Who Were Influenced By The Caucasians. Nubians Have Been Trained To Live Separated Under Capitalism, Socialism, Marxism, Etc, Living Under Every System But Your Own; Not Realizing That We Are One People Afflicted Under The Same Oppressor. In Order To Survive His Various Tortures, We The Members Of The Holy Tabernacle Ministries Need To Live As One, United Under The Same Banner, Or, Remain Separated For Your Entire Existence.

Meaning: We Must Realize That Such Words As "Helping Each Other", "Charity", "Compassion", "Caring", Humanitarianism" And "Aid To The Needy", Is What We All Need To Practice. And That Words Like Racism, Militant, And Terrorism Are Catchwords Designed (1) To Divide Human Beings, (2) In Hard-Earned Substance To Organizations And Fanatical Leaderships, (3) By Appealing To People's Shortcomings Or Lack Of Substance, (4) That Is, It Is Not Very Hard To Get A Man Who Has Been Deprived Of A Good Education, Because That On Another Group Of People Who May Not Have Suffered The Same Fate. (5) Most Of The Radical Organizations, Be They Nubian Supremacists Or Oriental Supremacist Groups Are Of The Less Fortunate, The Poorer Class, (Because It Is Much Easier To Convince Themselves That Being Rich Is A Plot Against Them, (7) This Keeps Them From Being Able To Get Over That Hurdle On To Success. (8) We Of The Holy Tabernacle Ministries Don't Hate Anyone For Their Success, (9) We Applaud Success Because It Means That We Too Can Succeed. (10) Be Careful Of Those Freeloaders Who Set Themselves Up As Leaders Of These Kinds Of Organizations, (11) They Only Want To Capitalize Off Of Those In Need. (12) They Constantly Repeat What The European Has Done To The Nubian Man, (13) Or They Repeat What The Nubian Race Is Planning To Do The Caucasian Race, (14) Or They Convince The Nubian And The Caucasians That The Orientals Are Here To Do Harm To Them And Take Over. (15) They Pick And Choose Who The Enemy Is For Others. (16) Usually These Fanatical Leaders Grab A Foreign Culture Like: The Skin Heads And Nazis And The K.K.K. Who Identify With Germany And Hitler, Or Hindu Or Islaamic. (17) And Teach Their People To Hate Everybody That Hitler Hated. Meanwhile They Are Capitalizing Off The Name Hitler, Or They Tell People That They Are The Original Asiatic Nubian People, And They Use An Arab Culture, Call Themselves Black Muslims Or Five Percenters, Or Hebrew Israelites And Hate Everybody Of Other Races Calling Them All Devils. We Don't Deny That There Are Evil People Called Devils. We Also Put The Question Forth: Can The Devil Be Reformed? The Answer Is Simply No! Not Now-A-Days. (18) Or They Are Teaching To Save The Caucasian Race In Any Cause And Kill And Eliminate Anybody Who Is Not Of The Caucasian

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Race. (19) Or They Teach That The Native Americans (Indians) Should Be Eliminated And Their Land Should Be Taken. Or They Make You Hate Being African, Calling Them Savage. And You Want To Become A Saudia Arabian Or Pakistanian Or Afghanistanian, Anything But What You Are. They Teach You To Hate Yourself. (20) If It Ain't One Kind Of Hate It's Another Hate. (21) All Of These Self-Righteous Leaders Of Whichever Race, Use These Tactics To Appeal To Those Who Feel They Wanted More Out Of Life, Or Could Have Done Better If Just Given A Chance. (22) These Innocent People Are Merely Looking For A Better Life And Find Themselves In The Web Of Charlatans, Or They Are Confused Or Mentally Disturbed, And They Would Have Hated Something Or Somebody Anyway. These Kinds Of People Don't Belong In Organizations, They Need Medical Treatments. (23) Others Are Steered By Peer Pressure. (24) So We Breed A Bunch Of Slang Names For Different Races Of People, (25) And That Makes These Racist Haters Feel Superior. All The While They Are Taking Advantage Of The Sincere Listeners (26) Beware Of These Wolves In Sheep's Clothing! They Are Here To Destroy Us All. Stop Calling Yourself Nigger, Negro, Afro American, Colored People, Blackman. Say Brother Man, Stop Calling Yourself Homie, Or Bro. Call Yourself Nubian, My Nubian Brother Or Sister. All Of You Are The Children Of The Most High.

Ques: How Did Racism Interject Sin And Corruption Into Our Perfected Way Of Life?

Ans: Through The Use Of Ithm (اثم) Pronounced "Ism", Which In Arabic Means A Sin, Or Anything Forbidden, The Caucasians Were Able To Corrupt Society, Through Greed, Envy, Pride, Etc. He Took Away Your Society, Replacing It With Socialism. Our Government Was Polluted With Nationalism And Our Communities Converted Into Communism. We Were Made To Believe That We Were Individuals, Self-Existing.

Social - Concerned With Human Beings In Their Relations To Each Other. Latin Socialists (Socius) Companion, Mutual Sharing In.

Socialism - A Theory Of System Of Social Organization By Which The Means Of Production And Distribution Are Owned, Managed, Or Controlled By The Government (State Socialism) Or By Associations Of Working (Guild Socialism).

Commune - A Community Of People Comprising It To Carry Out Planned Communal Work. Latin Communis - Common.

Communal - Used Or Participated In By All Members Of A Group Or Community.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Communism - A Philosophy Or System Derived From Marx, Advocating State Ownership Of Land And Property. A Political, Social And Economical System In Which The State Is Governed By An Elite Party Control.

Ques: What Constitutes A Nationalist?

Ans: A People, Race, Or Tribe Who Have The Same Language And History Constitutes A Nation. This Definition Limits Nationalist To A Mere Few. Nubians Here And Abroad As A Majority, Neither Speak The Language Nor Live The Customs Of Their Ancient Fathers Of Nubia. We Must First Realize That As A Common People, We Have The Same History, Speak Similar Languages And Have, To This Present Day, The Same Oppressor. The People We Live Under Made Up Their Language In America Is Not Really English. Our Forefathers Were Brought To These Shores As Slaves And From An Absolute Physical Slavery To A Complex Mental Slavery. So Now I Have Put Together A Language For Us. It Is Called Nubic. Its Easy To Learn And Has All Of Our Languages Within It. Don't Miss Out Learn It.

Mao Was For The Chinese, Lenin Was For The Russians, And Marx Was For The Germans Of Whose Theories Derived From Nubian Communities Only To Be Introduced To Sin And Corruption By The Europeans. This System Of Government Was Then Injected Back Into The Minds Of The Nubians To Cause Separation And Eventual Control. Ask Us To Vote Knowing We Will Not Get A Fair Share. That's Not All Governments, But Many. And It's Not Just Against Nubians Or Edomites, Its Not Against All Who Are Not Apart.

Karl Marx

America Is A Melting Pot. All Nationalities Which Migrated To These Shores Are Represented First By Their National Origin Before American (The Word), With The Exception Of The Native Americans And Those Who Are Called The American-Negro; The Native Americans Because These Were The People Who Occupied The Land Before European Explorers Came; The American-Negro Title Is Due To The Fact That The Europeans Know, Through The Reading Of The Scriptures, That The Nubians Are The Children Of The ELOHEEM On The Planet Earth. We Are Called Negroes Because Of Our Mental And Spiritual Death. Irregardless, The European Knows Us, When Still Many Of Us Don't Know Ourselves, Negra = Black, Omega = End/Death.

Ques: What Is The Purpose Of Politics?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: The Purpose Of Politics Is To Control By The Five P's, 1. Polythesim, 2. Politics, 3.Psychology, 4.Philosophy 5. Penal System Which Is Enacted By All Races Of People. These People Can Be Recognized By Their Non-Woolly Like Hair, Which Includes Even Those Dark-Skinned People With Straight Hair; East Indians, Or Native Americans. The Native Americans (Indians) Could Not Be Made Into Slaves, Even Though The Jews Had Tried To Make Them. There Are A Number Of Reasons Why The Indians Could Not Be Made Into Slaves: 1) They Were Not As Strong And Robust As Nubians And Could Not Work As Hard And Long As Nubians. 2) They Would Always Manage To Run Away Because Since They Were The Indigenous Inhabitants Of That Area Of The Western Hemisphere, They Knew The Terrain Of The Country Quite Well. They Could Easily Hide Out And Survive. 3) Native Americans Were Very Proud And Would Not Tolerate Any Type Of Slavery Upon Their People. The Nubians Had A Certain Amount Of Pride Also; But If He Was Proud, He And His Family Were Killed Or Humiliated By The Slave Master, Just As Every Nubian Leader Today Is Scandalized To Defame Them Or Put Them In Prison. They Can't Let A Nubian Die Great. Many Nubians Were Fortunate Enough To Escape To The Indians (These Are The Negroes Who Claim To Have Indian In Their Blood). Some Who Tried To Escape And Did Not Know The Country, Died Of Exposure Or Wild Beasts. There Was Also The Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Etc. Although Many Races Are Persecuted, Mankind's Objective Is To Keep You Ignorant In Order To Divert Them From Knowing Who They Really Are. (So Called Revolutionary Studies; Such As Mao Tse Tsung's Red Book, Or The Works Of Marx, Lenin, Etc. Mao Was For The Chinese People And Their Aid To Foreign Countries Was For Chinese Interests, While Marx Was A German-Jew Who Polluted Societies And Communities Of The Nubians Injecting Sin.) The Jew Stole The Law Which Is Known As The Old Testament. Within These Laws Are The 613 Commandments; Ten Were Specifically Enacted For The European. The Christian Neither Observes The Law Nor The Traditions Which Were Revealed To Moses Or Jesus. Only Those Laws Which Fit Their Individual Needs Are Accepted. The "Moslem" Has Been Able To Influence The Nubians To Acknowledge The Other Scriptures And Prophets And Influencing Them In The Total Reading Of The Koran, And Worshiping Their Image As Muhammad The Arabian Prophet. They Make Him A Pale Arab And Get Mad If You As A Nubian Say He Is Nubian For Your Childrens Souls. These Are But Three Divisions, Which Need Not Be Divided Seeing That If The Most High Is One, His Books And Prophets Must Be One; But The Pale Arabs And European Has Caused Division Of The Prophets And The Books To Such An Extent That You Have Forgotten Who You Are. All You See Now Is To Love Everybody Because You Are All Brothers And Sisters, Which Is In Opposition To The Scriptures. You Become Buddhists And Anything Else Because You Do Not Recognize Your Position And Where You Belong. You Try To Be Americans, Put On Cowboy Clothes, They Reject You! You Put On African Clothes, They Say Your Anti-Government. You Become Muslims They Try To Put You In Jail. They Don't Want You, But Don't Want You To Think For Yourself, That's Where Racism Comes From.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ques: It Appears That Because We Were Enslaved By The Pale Race That Yaaquub's Graftation Was Successful?

Ans: Let Me Ask You A Question Why Would You Think It Was A Success? Because The Things The Pale Man Has Done To Nubians Would Explain Their Wickedness. And If Yaaquub Was Successful With Grafting A Weak And Wicked Being, Then He Succeeded. By Virtue Of The Fact That The Pale Man Is Weak Genetically, Because He Lacks Melanin, And Wicked Because Of All He Has Done. And Is Still Doing It To Other People. You Are Becoming Racist Again. I'm Trying To Break That Spell. Nubians Or As A New Being You Must Take On The Responsibility For Your Own Actions. Remember These Asiatic Black Men Are The Descendants Of The Hindu Demons With Black Skin And Straight Hair Who Had A Dissatisfied Nature; Evil Dwelled Within Them. The Evil Was Already There. It Was By The Grace Of Their Wise Scientist Who Met With The Elders Of The Dunaakial Did They Decided To Try To Graft The Evil Out Of Their Nature. The Ultimate Results Was The Flugelrods. The Flugelrods Came Out Of This Genetic Splicing And Graftation In Attempts, To Remove Their Disagreeable Side For Evil Lived Within These Asiatic Black Men, Original Hindus Since Their Evil Ancestors Came To The Planet Sixty And Six Billion Years Ago. These Hindus Are The Ones Who Converted To Yaaquub's Plan. While Living In Arabia, They Became The Tribe Called Sheshbazzar, The Thirteen Tribe Known As The Lost Tribe Of Shabazz, Named After Sheshbazzar The Scientist Who Carried Out The Graftation Of This Weak And Wicked Beings Of Yaaquub.

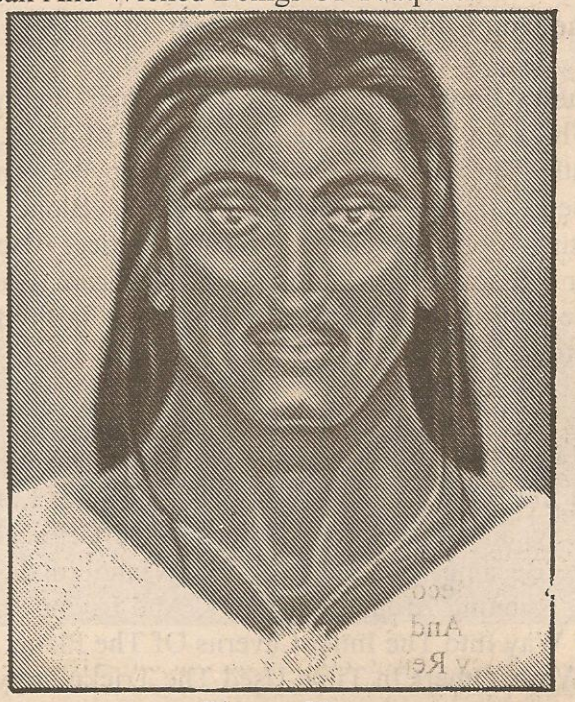

Figure 50

Many Of The Followers Of Yaaquub Got Lost On The Way. Those That Survived The Journey Around Africa Were Used In The Grafting And Making Of This New Race. For Any Babies Born With Black Genes, A Pin Was Stuck In Their Brain. Then Next Was The Brown. They Were Spared To Breed, To Make The Red, The Yellow And Then The Pale.

Ques: How Long Did This Take?

Ans: This Process Took Six Hundred Years Of Grafting And Separating. Thus Yaaquub's Nation Was Born. A Ruler Was Set Over Them She Was Called Europa. Europa, Was Empress Of This Land, Yet Without Guidance They Regressed And Took Refuge In Pelion; That Is The Isles Of Patmos. Then On Up Into The Mountain Region Of Thessaly And In To The Grotto Or Grotte Meaning "Caves". They Conquered And Enslaved The Original Inhabitants Of That Land Then Called Yunan.

These Savage Beast That Were Grafted From The Asiatic Hindu Black Man Were Nothing More Than The Original Blonde Haired, Blue Eyed, Pale Skinned, Melanin Lacking, Grafted Disagreeable Rebellious Seed Of Yaaquub, The Mad Scientist. Shameless, Moraless, Hair Covering 3/4 Of Their Body From Ankle To Shoulder, The Beast Of The Field, Also Called Behemoth. They Walked On All Fours And Ate Flesh Raw, Having Bestiality Acts. Thus, The Dog Was Their Best Friend.

Ques: Why Is The Dog Considered Mans Best Friend?

Ans: Because They Allowed The Dog To Lick Their Leprous Sores And To This Day Will Allow Them To Sleep In Their Beds, Eat Off Their Plates, And Even Lick Them In The Mouth. The Outcome Of The Graftation Was The Flugelrods, Bred By Mixing In The Seed Of The Pleiadeans Which Is Blond Hair And Blue Eyed, Mixing And Grafting From The Genes Of The Asiatics, Black Straight Haired And Black Skinned, And Black Eyed Hindus. Grafting From The Brown Germ To The Red Germ To The Yellow Germ On Into The New Earth Bred Flugelrods. Also Breeding The Abstract: Black Skin And Blue Eyed.

He Set Up Rules And Regulations That They Were To Abide By Under All Circumstances. And Those Of His Followers That Did Not Obey Him Were To Have Their Throat Slit From Ear To Ear And Their Bodies Left On The Sea Shore At High Tide. They Separated Into Two Groups. The Original Halaabites, Or Hulub Flugelrods, Who Became Known As The Neanderthals, Or Simply Cave Men; Eating Raw Flesh, Running Around On Fours, And Living In A State Of Bestiality. They Found Their Way Into The Inner Caverns Of The Planet. Many Of Them Took Residence There While Others In Time Used The Tricknology And Terrorized Other Innocent Tribes.

This Seed Moved Behind The Caucasus Mountains On Up Into Russia And Became Known As The Khazars. They Are Your Flugelrods Original Khazars, And Your Asiatics, Ashkhenazims. Their Symbol Being The Universe, The Moon Called Ummar Also Qamar The Sun And The Bright Morning Star, They Use The Crescent Moon And The Pentagram That Is The 5 Pointed Star. The Original Symbol Of The Seal Of Solomon (The Son Of David) Was The Five Pointed Star. Yet He Wore His Father's Ring Which Was The Shield Of David, Or The Six Pointed Star. The Seal Of Solomon Was Used To Command And Control Diagreeable - Malevolent Beings, Or Jinns.

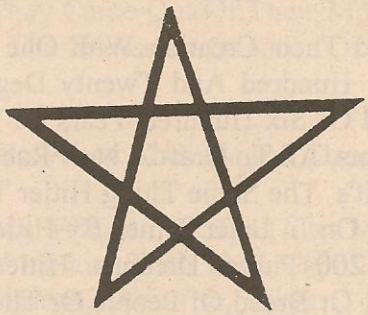

Diagram 16

Ques: Is This Six Pointed Star The Same As The Star That The Jews Use Today?

Ans: No! The Six Pointed Star Represents Many Things. But Never Has It Been Given To The Jebusites (So-Called Pale Jews). The Jews Symbol Later Becames The 6 Pointed Interlocking Star.

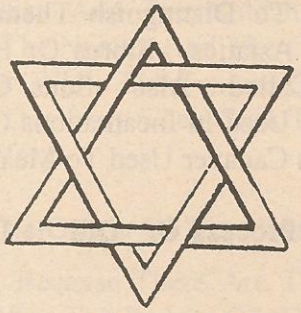

Diagram 17
Symbol Of The Jews

Notice This Six-Pointed Star Is Interlocking. The Fact That This Symbol Interlocks, Tells You That This Is Not The Real Six-Pointed Star. These Stars Are Said To Be The Most Powerful Evil Signs In The Occult World. It Is The Same Star That The So-Called Jews (Jebusites) Use. They Try To Make Believe That It Is Our Symbol, But It Is Not.

They Endowed Their Creation With One Hundred And Twenty Years Of Life. It Took One Hundred And Twenty Degrees Of Knowledge To Accomplish This Over A Period Of Six Hundred Years Of Those Who Were Under Yaaquub's Rules And Regulations, All To Graft A New Race. This Is Nothing New. You've Heard Of This Before. It's The Same Thing Hitler Tried To Do. Meaning, This Very Practice Were Carried On In Later Times By Hitler Or Hitla, Which Is The 18Th Name Of One Of The 200 Fallen Demons. Hitler Himself Tried To Graft A Genetically Superior Race, Or Breed Of People Or The Aryan Race. This Aryan Calls Himself Indo Aryan Meaning "The Nobel" The Albino Who Lived In The Caucasian Mountains. Arnold Swartznegger Was One Of His Breed Note The Name. Swartz-Negger (Nigger). It Is A Region Between The Black Sea On The West And The Caspian Sea On The East. A Great Mountain Range Which Raised To 18,510 Feet At Mount Elbrus From The Word ABRAS (ابراس) Meaning Leprosy In Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic). Caucasia, A Part Of Russia Has An Area Of 170,000 Square Miles. The Greeks Name It Caucasia, The Home Of The Flugelrods, As They Are Called In Al Manee Or What Is Called Germany Today, Their Original Name Halaabeans, Or Hulub To Distinguish Themselves From The Caucasians, Carcass Asians Deteriorating Asiatics. Elbrus Or Home Of Those Abras Beings, Lepers Of The Mountains, Called Also Sons Of Canaan, Thus The Term Abracadabra A Mystical Word Used In Incantations Or As A Charm To Ward Off Disease, Originally Said Abras Cadaver Used To Mean The Bodies Of Lepers.

Ques: Was This A Gradual Process Or Did It Just Go From Black Skin To White Skin?

Ans: This Was A Gradual Process. The Regressive Gene Of The Black Skinned Straight Haired Beings Called The Asiatic Black Man, Was Grafted Into The Red Man. Grafted Into The Yellow Man, Grafted On Into The Pale Man Of The Grotto Or Grotte Meaning Caves. (The Hallabeans Flugelrods Of 8,400 Years Ago) This Pale Man, Or Halaabeans, Flugelrods Should Not Be Confused With The Albino Seed The Cursed Canaanites, Meaning Low Landers, The Descendants Of Canaan Of Four Thousand Years Ago Before 2,000 Years A Go Or 6,000 Years Ago.

This Was The Birth Of Their Own Adam, Also Called Edom; For He Had Ruddy Red Skin And Did Blush For There Was Tsawrahath (צרעת) In Aramic (Hebrew) Meaning "Leprosy Or A Malignant Skin Disease" In The Skin Of His Flesh.

The Flugelrods Took Refuge In The Caucasus Mountains, Where Canaan The Albino, And His Wife Salha, The Nubian, Would Dwell, Between The Caspian And Black Sea, Later Known As The Amorites "Mountain Dwellers". There Are As Many Nubuns Tribes. The Original Name For The Nubian Ptahite Ethiopian Kuwshite. These Cavern Dwelling Beings, While Inhabiting These Mountains Incurred Difficulties In Reproducing Due To The Lack Of Salt In Their Bodies. And With Their Desire To Reproduce They Came Out Of Their Mountain Dwellings Seeking Melanin-Ites For They Lacked The Necessary Quantity Of Melanin In Their Bodies.

Ques: What Did These Flugelrods Do When They Found These Melanin-Ites?

Ans: They Savagely Raided The Nubian Villages - Killing The Men And Stealing The Women. Then Returning To The Mountains With Their Captives, The Albinos, Lepers; Cavemen Aboriginals, Aborigines, Amorite, Aryan, Fought Amongst Themselves For The Possession Of The Nubian Women. Most Of The Australian Ab-Originals Have Their Barathary Gland And Use Their Four Higher Senses, So They Are Called Spirit Monkey Or Monks. Hindus Began To Give Reverence To The One Half Animal One Half Human Creatures That Came From Kingu. The Austrailian Aborigines Have Six Ether Straight Hair, Even Blond Hair With Copper Tone Skin. In Order To Assure Security, The Aryans Migrated With Their Nubian Captives, From The Caucasus Mountains, To What Is Known Today As India, To Mix In With The Original East Indians. The Merging Of These Two Extreme Races, The Caucasian And The Nubian, Brought About A Being That Reflects The Traits Of Both The Nubian And The Caucasian. So You Find Leprosy Amongst The Nubian Also. While The Texture Of Their Hair Varies From Six To Eight Ether, Their Features Can Vary Their Skin Tone Can Vary Their Nature And Behavior Patterns Can Also Vary.

The Origin Of The Pale Man

Many People Get Confused, Because There Are Two Sets Of Pale Men, Meaning, There Were Pale Men That Were The Results Of The Graftation Of Yaaquubs Devil 8,400 Year Ago. The Other Is From Canaan Of 6,000 Years Ago, The Amorites.

Ques: Is This Paleman Called The Flugelrod, Descendants Of Canaan?

Ans: No. The Flugelrods Are Not To Be Mistaken With The Cursed Seed Of Canaan. Both Were Eating Raw Flesh, Running Around On All Fours, And Living In A State Of Bestiality. The Flugelrods Separated Into Two Groups. The Original

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Hindus, Chased The Dissatisfied Hindus, Who Became Yaaquub's Followers Out Of Arabia. The Original Flugelrods, Are Yaaquub's Grafted Devil Of 8,400 Years Ago. The Flugelrods Found Their Way Into The Inner Caverns Of The Planet Through Greece In The Mountain Range Of Thessaly In The Isles Of Pelion, Mistakenly Spelled Pelan In Grotto Or Grotte Meaning Caves. Many Of Them Took Residence There, While Others In Time Used The Tricknology, And Terrorized Other Innocent Tribes.

Ques: How Did The Pale Man Of Today Come About?

Ans: In Many Religions There Are Different Beliefs On The Origin Of The Pale Man. Many So-Called Foolish Black Israelite Sects Believe That The Pale Race Originates From Either Esau (Edom, Father Of The Edomite, Genesis 25:30), They Don't Know What They Are Talking About, They Can't Even Read Hebrew. Japheth Or Canaan, While The Nation Of Islam Believes That Jacob Grafted The Devil. They Are Half Right. Then You Have The Confused Orthodox Sunni Moslems Who Say That Rab Created All Races From One Clot Of Blood. How Is This Possible With All These Different Types Of Blood? Koran 96:1 Used Rabika, Your Rab Not Allah. They Are Not Concerned With The Race From Which Man Was Created. Just As Long As He's A Arab And Looks Like What They Say Mohammed Looked Like. On The Other Hand, The Christians Do Not Care About The Origin Of Their Race, Just As Long As Their God Looks Like The Jesus They Have. This Is Why I Have To Clear Up This Misconception On The Origin Of The Pale Man. Then You Have The Black Hebrews Or Israelites Who Believe The Pale Race Came About Because Of The Cursing Of Gehazi, Of 2nd Kings 5:27. Gehazi Was Cursed Because He Was Dishonest And Wanted To Deceive A Commander Naaman Who Was Greatly Respected By The King Of Syria. Gehazi Desired The Material Things Of Life. Thus, The Curse Of Leprosy Was Placed On Him And His Descendants. Why Was This Curse Placed On Gehazi You Might Ask? Let Me Explain. There Was The Great Soldier Of The Syrian Army Naaman Who Had Leprosy. He Was Very Well Known And Respected By The Kings Of Syria. During One Syrian Invasion An Israelite Girl Was Taken And Made To Be The Servant Of Naamans Wife. The Little Girl Wished For Naaman To Be Cured, Thus She Told Her Mistress That If Naaman Could Go To Samaria Where The Prophet Elisha Live She Knew He Would Cure Naaman. And At The King Of Syria's Request He Sent Naaman To Israel With A Letter Telling The King He Wanted Naaman Cured. However The King Of Israel Refused. He Felt Insulted Because He Thought The King Of Syria Was Trying To Imply That He Was El Yahuwa. Elisha Heard This And Told The King Send Namaan To Me I'll Cure Him. The Prophet Elisha Cured Him By Telling Him To Bathe In The Jordan River 7 Times. But Not Before Naaman Refused Because He Expected To Be Cured By Prayer To El Yahuwa. Naaman So Grateful, Offered The Prophet Elisha Gifts Of Payment, However Elisha Refused. He Later Complied And Was Cured. What Does This Have To Do With Gehazi? Gehazi Was A Servant Of The Prophet Elisha, Thus When He Saw The Pieces Of Silver Naaman Offered To Elisha He Desired The Material

Things Of This World. Thus, Gehazi Left, And Tried To Catch Up With Naaman To Get Him To Give Him Money. When He Caught Up With Naaman He Proceeded To Lie About Two Visitors Visiting Elisha, And Asked For 3 Thousand Pieces Of Silver And Two Changes Of Clothes. Being Kind He Gave Gehazi Double Of What He Asked, 6 Thousand Silver Pieces Instead Of 3 Thousand. When Gehazi Returned The Prophet Elisha Asked Him Where Was He. Gehazi Lied, Saying He Never Left. The Prophet Elisha Reminded Gehazi That He Was There In Sprit When Naaman Came From Out Of His Chariot. Thereby Informing Him Now Was Not The Time To Desire Or Accept Material Things. As It States In 2Nd Kings 5:27 " The Leprosy Therefore Of Naaman Shall Cleave Unto Thee, And Unto Thy Seed Forever, And He Went Out From His Presence A Leper As White As Snow." And Him And His Descendants Had To Take On The Curse Of Naaman, The Curse Of Leprosy. This Is Just Another Example Of How People Think The Pale Race Came About. (Refer To Bulletin #9 " The Making Of The Disciples"). Yet Everyone Refuses To Look At The Facts! The Fact Is The Pale Race Could Not Have Originated With Gehazi. Why? Because Naaman Had It Before He Did. Where Did He Get It From? And Canaan Is Recorded As Having It Before Both Of Them, Which In Actuality Is Where The Curse Of Leprosy Originated.

Remember, Esau Nor Jacob Is The Father Of The Pale Race And Jacob Did Not Graft The Pale Man. Canaan Is The Father Of The Pale Race (Amorites, Girgasite, Hivite, Arvadite, Zemarite, Hamathite, Sinite, Arkite, Sidon, And Heth). A Certain Group Of Hebrew Israelites, Led By Yahweh Ben Yahweh, Profess In Their Book (Yahweh Judges America; First Ed. 1985, Pg. 29) Says That Esau (Edom) Is The Father Of The Pale Race, "...The White People, The Children Of Edom In The Day..." However On Page 106 Of The Same Book, They Say That The Canaanites Are The Pale Race, "For The Canaanites (The White Race).." Also, The Black Jews Or Black Israelites Teach That The Canaanites (Pale Race) Are Edomites Who Came From Esau (Edom); While On The Other Hand, They Profess That The Black Race Originated From Jacob Or Israel. Also, The Nation Of Islam And The Five Percent Nation Teach In Their Books That Jacob Grafted The Pale Man, And That's Where All The White Devils Come From. They Say, "The Colored Man Is The Caucasian (White Man) Or Ya'quwb's Grafted Devil, The Skunk Of The Planet Earth." The Prophet Jacob Son Of Isaac And Rebecca Did Not Graft The Pale Man Physically, But He Created The Mentality Of The Caucasian. Caucasians Are The Descendants Of Canaan Who Are Primarily From The Seed Of His Third And Fourth Sons, Jebus And Amor. Jacob Was A Very Shrewd, Cunning, Business-Minded Man. Thus, His Descendants Inherited This Trait (Genesis 30:32, 37-43). Canaan Is The Origin Of The Pale Race That Exist Today. He Is Their Adam Of 4,000 Years Before Jesus Of 2,000 Years Ago. His Father Ham (Which Means Black) Was Possessed By Anak, Azazl's (The Evil One's) Bride, After Having An Argument With His Wife Haliymah. This Led Him To Look At His Fathers Nakedness (Genesis 9:23), Which Resulted In Laws Concerning Standards For The People (Leviticus18:6-7) Cursing Ham's Fourth

Son, Canaan (Genesis 9:25). Ham's Act Was Such A Great Sin, Because By Letting Anak Possess Him He Made It Possible For The 200 Fallen Angelic Beings (Cherubims) And Azazl (The Evil One) To Reincarnate In Canaan's Eleven Sons. Canaan Was Physically Cursed (Leviticus 14:32-34) With Leprosy (Leviticus 13:9-11) He Was Born An Albino (Leviticus 13:30-36) With Yellow (Blond) Hair And Blue Eyes (Koran 20:102). Canaan Was Forced By His Father Ham To Marry His Sister (Salha), So That The Law Would Be Fulfilled. They, Along With Their Offsprings, Dwelled In The Caucasus Mountains Until Abraham Came With Pigs To Clean Up Their Filth. (Genesis 10:15-18). This Is Why You Jebusite (Jews), Descendants Of Jebus Son Of Canaan Think That Abraham Is Your Father. The Name Canaan Means "Low Lander; One Who Came Out Of The Mountains," The Caucacus Mountains Where His Offspring Dwelled (Koran 69:8-18).

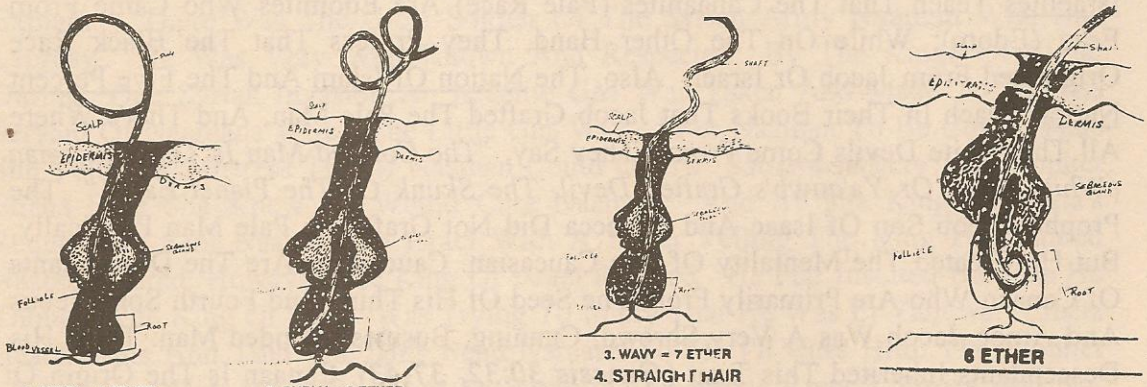
It Is Obvious That People Are Very Confused About This Topic Because They Keep Gertting The Two Mixed Up. Remember The Flugelrods Produce Extremely Low Levels Of Melanin, And Your Canaanites Are Their Descendants, Who Also Produce Low Levels Of Melanin. Both Are Melanin Recessive Beings. And What Is The Importance Of This Thing Called Melanin? The Pigment Melanin Is Responsible For The Color Of Skin, Which They Lack. When Melanin Does Not Appear In The Skin It Is A Deficiency. And This Deficiency Comes About Because Of The Absence Of Melanocytes, That Which Synthesizes The Melanin Is Deficient. These Cells Called Melanocytes Are Responsible For All The Colors Of Hair From Yellow To Black. The Tree-Like Melanocyte Cells In The Deeper Epidermis Is What Produces This Dark Brown Pigment Called Melanin. The Pigment Is Introduced Into Nearby Cells Through The "Branch Tips" Of The Melanocyte Cells, In Units Called Melanosomes. Knowing That Hair Turns Gray When The Melanocytes Die. There Are Different Textures Of Hair. Six Ether To Nine Ether. They Are Your Six Ether Beings, You The Nubian Are Your Nine Ether Beings.



1. KINKY = 9 ETHER

2. CURLY = 8 ETHER

3. WAVY HAIR

Follicles of wavy hair are in a slanted position. The hair follicles may also be slightly curved.

3. WAVY = 7 ETHER

4. STRAIGHT HAIR

The follicles of long straight hair are crosswise and the hairs emerge in a slanting direction on the surface of the skin. The number of straight hair is 6, the number of the beast or the goat.

6 ETHER

What You Fail To Realize Is Hair Can Be Straight, Six Ether Meaning Six Point Melanin, Wavy, Curly Seven And One Half Point Melanin, Or Kinky, Nine Point Ether And It Is In That Kinky Or Kingly Hair That Was Given To You From Your Parents The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM. Then There Are Those Beings Who Are ALBINOS. The Albino Seeds Name Comes From The Sea Albion Called The White Island, In The Land Of Saxons And The Anglics Called Brit Today. This Genetic Disorder Albinism Is A Group Of Genetic Disorders Affecting One Out Of Every Several Thousand Humans And Other Animals. The First Being CANAAN Himself. His Curse Was The Removal Of The Divine Which Resulted In The Reduction Of Melanin Thus Cutting Off His Family Ties With The ELOHEEM. He Transformed From A Son Of The ELOHEEM To A Son Of Sam.

The Word "Caucasian" Derives From The Word "Caucasus" (Mountains In Russia). According To Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary Caucasian Means: 1. Of Or Relating To The Caucasus Or Its Inhabitants 2. Of Or Relating To The Pale Race Of Mankind As Classified According To Physical Features B: Of Or Relating To The Pale Race As Defined By Law, European Ancestry. Originally, Inhabiting The Caucasus Mountain Areas, Their Complexions Vary From Light To Very Dark Skin Hue With Straight Hair. The Paleman (Caucasian Of Today) Is A Result Of The Curse Of Leprosy. He Has A Lack Of Melanin, Nor Does He Have A Soul (Judges 1:19). Because Of The Unlawful Act That Ham Did, His Offspring Canaan Was Cursed. These Feelings Of Homosexuality And Fornication Were Not New; It Was The Mentality Of Many People Existing Before The Flood, Because Of The Original Hermaphordite. The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Word For Curse Is (ملعون) Mal'un, Meaning "One Who Is Cursed". Note How Close It Is To Melanin. It's The Same Word! The Root Of The Word Is (لعن) La'ana, Meaning "Curse, Damn, Execrate, To Utter The Oath Of Condemnation, To Curse Each Other, Malediction):

1. لعين La'iyn: Cursed, Confounded, Damned, Outcast, Execrable, Detested, Abhorred, Abominable.

2. للعين Lila'iyn: The Evil One, The Devil.

3. متلاعن Mutalaa'in: Cursing Each Other, Hostile, Inimical.

This Curse La'anat لعنة Is The Physical Curse, That Of Leprosy, Which Is Where The Pale People Came From. Canaan Was Born Pale, And An Albino In Other Words, With The Curse Of Leprosy.

Albino - 1) An Organism Lacking Normal Pigmentation Such As A Person Having Abnormally Pale Skin, Very Light Hair, And Lacking Normal Eye Coloring.

Albinism In Human Beings Has Long Been Used As An Example Of A Simple Dominant-Recessive Gene Relationship. The Recessive Gene Allele For Albinism Fails To Determine An Enzyme Required To Produce The Pigment Melanin, And The Gene Is Epistatic To Other Genes Controlling The Degree Of Pigmentation. Persons Who Are Homozygous A/A Will Lack The Pigment No Matter Whether They Are From Fair-Skinned Or Dark-Skinned Races. You Can Imagine The Consternation Of Geneticists When They Found Two Albinos Who Had Married And Had Children With Very Dark Skin, Hair, And Eyes.

Eventhough This Woman Has Heavy Melanin Deposits In Her Skin, And Her Husband Has The Same, Their Child Has Very Little Melanin Deposits Because Of The Epistatic Effect Of The Gene For Albinism

Canaan Lacked Pigmentation (No Color Or Blackness) So His Skin Was Pale And Translucent (Can Be Seen Through). Due To The Lack Of Protein In Their Body, The Follicles Of Their Hair Lie Crosswise, And The Hairs Emerge In A Slanting Direction Of The Surface Of The Skin. In Other Words, It Literally Flops!. Because Canaan Was An Albino He Lacked The Normal Eye Coloring Which Caused His Eyes To Be Weak And Sensitive To Direct And Indirect Sunlight.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

This Is Why Canaan Sought Refuge In The Mountains, Where The Lights Were Dim. The Cold Climate Of The Mountains Was Also Conducive To Their Leprous Condition Because It Stopped The Leprosy From Spreading. Because The Blood Of An Albino Does Not Contain The Necessary Factors For Clotting And Reproduction They Must Receive Blood Transfusions First At The Time Of Birth And Then Regularly Throughout Their Lives. This Is Why They Came Down From The Caucasus Mountains.

Ques: Why Did Canaan Flee From His Family And People He Lived Among?

Ans: Canaan Fled, Because He Was Scabby And White And Everyone Was Darker Than Him, So He Stood Out. People Shunned And Persecuted Him, So He Fled To The Caucasus Mountains. For 300 Years, Canaan And His Wife's Seed, With Their Companions Dwelled In The Caves Until Abraham Was Sent To Clean Them Up. Canaan Was Innocent To Everything. He Was Confused About Being Cursed With Leprosy And He Was Shunned And Persecuted. Because Of Their Leprous Nature, The Descendants Of Canaan Descended To The Level Of Animals, Eating Raw Flesh, Walking On All Fours, And Mingling Freely With The Animals, Sexually.

MANKIND AND HIS OFFSPRING

The Pale Man Originated From The Caucasus Mountains, Where There Was Very Little Plant Life And Not Much Means For Salt. This Condition Forced Him To Rob The Nubian Female Of Her Chastity In Order To Keep His Seed Alive, Its Called Intergration. The Caucasian Woman Who Was Left In The Mountains, Resorted To Lying With And Having Sex With Beasts: Such As The Jackal, Which Is An Ancestor Of Today's Dog. The Phrase "Dog Is Man's Best Friend" Came From This Situation. The Dog Would Lick The Festered Sores Of The Leper And Clean Them For Him. His Seed Was Kept Alive Because The Caucasian Woman And The Jackal Mated. This Is Where You Get People Who Possess An Animalistic Nature.

Ques: Is It Possible For One Species To Have Offsprings With Another Species?

Ans: The Reason Why Amorites Could Have Offsprings From A Union With An Animal Was Because They Themselves Had Retreated To Being Animals, And Were Lab Rats For Extraterrestrials Who Did Genetic Splicing With All Kinds Of Animals And Humans. The Lepers That Remained In The Mountains Were Pushed Further, Into The Caucasus Mountains And Fell So Low As To Mate With The Dog-Like Animals, Which Is Called The Act Of Bestiality, And Anyone Who Was

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Guilty Of It Was Condemned (Leviticus 18:22-23). If It Did Not Happen There Would Have Been No Reason For This Law, And If You Want To Know Who This Is Talking About Just Read Leviticus Chapter 13 And 14, Then To 15, To 16, And Then Right On Up 17, Then Your There. The Result Of This Mixture Were Ape-Like Animals. The Ones Who Had Left The Mountains, Did Not Return.

As Much Hair As The Amorites Have On Their Bodies Should Tell Us Something About Them. The Ape And The Dog Has His Whole Body Covered With Hair, And Beneath The Hair Is Pale Skin, Not Brown Or Black. In Other Words, Most Animals Have Their Whole Body Covered With Hair, Which Would Include The Pale Man. Despite His Evolution, He Has Never Lost This Hairy Trait He Had Inherited. The Racial Characteristics Of These People Range From Pale To Pink To Cream In Complexion, Hair Very Straight (As Apes) To Wavy, As Goats, Height Averages Five Feet And Eight Inches For Male, And Features Are Caucasian.

Ques: Where Do These Canaanites (Amorites- Leper Type) Reside?

Ans: The Canaanites Reside Mainly In Europe, But Since For Many Centuries His Leprosy Has Not Been Contagious And He Is Now Considered "Clean," (Leviticus 13), He Now Inhabits Many Countries Of The World: North And South America, Europe, Australia, North And South Africa And The Middle East. If You've Noticed, All The Countries Mentioned (Except The Middle East) Have Basically The Same Climate Weather. North America, Including Canada, Has A Temperate Climate. This Means That There Is A Cold Season As Well As A Warm Season. Amorites Tend To Inhabit The Areas Farthest From The Equator. In South America They Reside Mainly In Argentina Which Has A Climate Similar To The Climate In North America. In Africa, Most Amorites Are In South Africa.

Ques: Why Does The Leper Need This Climate?

Ans: The Reason Why He Needs A Climate That Is A Temperate One, Is Because He Cannot Withstand Heat For Too Long A Period. He Must Have An Interval Of Cold Weather Which Is Helpful To His Physical Condition. Some Canaanites Are Able To Withstand The Heat Principally Because They Have Enough "Black" In Them From Intergration To Protect Them; The Condition Of Leprosy Is Not Overwhelming In Them. The Inhabitants Of The Middle East And North Africa Are The Principal Examples. The Heat And Hot Sun Irritates The Latent Disease In Amorites And Causes Such Absurdities As Freckles, Chapped Peeling Skin, Sunburn, Liver Spots, Psoriasis, And Skin Cancer. Nubians Are Rarely Afflicted With These Type Of Skin Problems, Especially Skin Cancer.

Another Very Important Reason Why He Needs A Mild, Cool Climate Is Because He Can Not Breathe Very Well In Light And Hot Air. An Acquiline Type Nose Is Very

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Well Suited To Inhale Cold Air. This Is Because The Nostrils Are Closer And The Air It Does Take In Is Warmed Adequately In The Process Of Inhaling.

Ques: Some Schools Profess That The Nubian Is A Canaanite. Is This True?

Ans: No The Nubian Is Not A Canaanite. There Are Those With Black Skin And Straight Hair, But Because Of The Straight Hair, These Hindus, They Cannot Be Classified As Nubian. They Are Accursed Because They Have This Straight Hair. Remember, The Nubian Dwells In Nubala, Or Nubia, In Sudan-Africa. The Climate In Sudan-Africa Is Very Warm With The Temperature Rising Sometimes As High As 140 Degrees Centigrade Because The Equator Is Almost Directly Around The Middle Of The Continent. Lepers Can Not Dwell In Such An Atmosphere For Too Long (Or Without An Electric Fan). Most Canaanites Inhabit The Northern Regions Of Sudan-Africa.

Ques: But Hasn't The Paleman Proven By Experiments, Expeditions, And Many Other Ways That All Human Beings Evolved From Lower Animals And That Life Began Millions Of Years Ago?

Ans: Many Have Heard, Assuredly, What Scientists Have Said "...Don't Mix Science And Religion..." If One Attempts To Look At Science And Religion Together, One Will Find That Many Things In Science Do Not Make Sense, Principally Because The Pale Man Is Not A Religious Being And He Will Not Easily Believe In Things That May "Mystify" Him. He Tries To Break Each And Every Existing Thing Down Into Classes. This Is So He Can Explain Things To Himself. He Has Even Gone As Far As To Fabricate A Great Many Of The "Scientific Facts" That He Has The World Believing.

Ques: What About The Old Bones That Show Different Types Of Ape Developments From Areas Such As The Olduvai Gorge In Kenya?

Ans: First Of All, In Ancient Times There Was No Such Area Called "Kenya." That Whole Area Was "Cush" And Was Inhabited By Nubians Who Migrated Down The Nile River To The Area Near The Source Of The Nile, Lake Victoria Which Was More Mountainous And Had Various Lakes. The Remains That Were Found Were Those Of Our Nubian Ancestors Who Lived In That Area. Since They Were Only Parts Of The Whole Skeletion, The Pale Man Does Not Accurately Know If It Was An Ape. The Remains Of Apes And Ape-Men Are Those Of Amorites Who Were Born Of The Union Of A Dog And Pale Woman, And Had Then Evolved Into An Ape; Then Ape-Man, Then Into Man's Kind. No Nubian Man With Kinky Hair Had Ever Evolved From Any Kind Of Dog.

Ques: Why Wasn't The Nubian Cursed With Leprosy?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: The Nubian Was Cursed With Leprosy And The Pale Man Was And Is The Result Of The Curse Of Leprosy. Noah Cursed His Son Ham For Committing Mental Homosexual Acts, But "The Sins Of The Father Shall Fall Upon The Son." This Means That Ham's Son Would Inherit The Punishment For The Sins Commited By Him.

Ques: What Is Leprosy?

Ans: Leprosy Is An Infectious Disease Caused By Bacterium. Bacteria, Plural For Bacterium, Is A Decaying Disease, Commonly Called Hansens Disease.

Ques: How Many Forms Of Decaying Are There?

Ans: There Are Two Forms Of This Disease, Although Both Commonly Appear On The Same Person (Amorites, Pale People), One Of The Two Is Usually Dominating. Leprosy Occurs More Frequently In Men Than In Women. That's Because The Curse Was On A Son Of Canaan And Not A Daughter. In Some Ways Today, You Will See Blacks Who Have Inherited Leprosy Because Their Parents Had Integrated And Mixed Their Seed Willingly And Unwillingly. When A Black Person Contracts This Disease, He Starts Turning White. This Does Not Make Him Or Her A Devil.

Ques: In What Other Ways Does The Pale Man Differ From Nubians?

Ans: Besides Having More Hair On His Body Than Nubians, The Pale Man Tends To Have More And Different Vestiges On His Body. Vestiges Are Structures On The Body That Have Not Disappeared Through Evolution. One Of The Most Interesting Vestiges That The Pale Man Has Is A Tail. Technically Speaking, The Tail Is Called "A Coccyx" And It Is Located At The End Of The Spinal Column. However, The Most Important Point Is That Occasionally Babies Are Born With Clear And Visible Tails Which The Doctors Clip Off At Birth.

Amorite Baby Born With A Coccyx Tail

Ques: What Are Some Of The Different Diseases That Were Given To Nubians In The Course Of Living With The Pale Man In A Society Such As North America?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: The Nubian Has Contracted, As A Result Of Living With The Pale Man, Such Diseases As: Dandruff, Psoriasis, Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Eczema, Arthritis, Rheumatism, Tuberculosis, Cancer, Leukemia, Polio, Hemophilia, Multiple Sclerosis And Many Other Strange Diseases That Affect The Skin, And Nervous System.

ARE JEWS THE PALEMAN OR THE BLACK MAN

Ques: Who Are Jews?

Ans: There Are Pale, Leper Jews And There Are So-Called "Black Jews." The Black Jews Will Be Discussed Later. The Pale Jews Who Enslaved The Nubian Men And Women Have The Same Origins As The Caucasian Meaning "Caucas Asian" Means Dead Asians Or Amorite "Mountain Dweller". The Father Of The Amorites Was Canaan, A Son Of Ham.

Pale Jews And Pale So-Called "Arabs" Are One And The Same. They Co-Habit The Same Areas And They Look Alike As Well. What Differentiates These Jews Here In America And Europe Is The Fact That They Had Migrated From Jordan, Palestine (And Surrounding Areas) Into Europe. They Preserved Most Of Their Customs And Traditions From The Middle East, And No Matter Where Jews Migrated, They Always Remained Jews In Culture, Race, And Ideology. They Are Not Ashamed Of Each Other As Other Groups Might Be Of Their Own. Although There Are French, German, English, Irish, Polish, Spanish, Russian And Oriental Jews, They All Have A "Base Quality" Which Separates Them From All Other Races Of The World. They Have No Respect Whatsoever For What They Call "Goy (גי)- Gentiles" Or Even The So-Called "Israelites." They Are A Very Segregated People And Anywhere In The World You Will Find Jews In This Segregation. It Was The Jew Who Gave Birth To The "Ghetto". Six Million Not Sixty Million Jews In A Gas Chamber Is Next To Nothing In Comparison With What They Have Done To Innocent Blacks. No One Is Denying That Jews Have Suffered Numerous Hardships In The Course Of Their History. This Has Happened To Other People As Well. The Big Difference Is That Jews Have Kept The Score - They Have Made A Tradition Of Persecution. A Casual Slaughter Of Thousands Of Christians May Be Remembered By No One In Fifty (50) Years, But A Disability Visited Upon A Few Jews Is Preserved In Jewish History Forever.

Ques: How Are The Israelites Related To The Jews?

Ans: The Pale Jews Are Not Related To The Real Israelites Of Ancient Times In The Holy Scriptures. Present Day European Jews Come From The Same Racial Strains As Those Canaanite So-Called "Arabs" In The Middle East. As A Matter Of Fact, The Only Distinct Difference Between Pale Jews, And Pale So-Called "Arabs" Are The

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Languages They Speak, And The Clothes They Wear. They "Co-Habit" The Same Areas; Mainly Palestine, Syria, And Jordan. But, Pale Jews Live In Every Country In The World, And Take On The Nationality Of The That Particular Country Without Totally Assimilating Into That Society. Pale So-Called "Arabs," However, Remain Almost Exclusively In The Middle Eastern Countries. Many Pale Jews Believe That They Are Descendants Of Abraham. The Reason Why Is Because He Brought Them Out Of The Caucasus Mountains; Cleaning Up Dead Unburied Bodies, Teaching The Lepers How To Walk And Talk Like Human Beings, Showing Them How To Cook The Meat They Ate And Treating Them Kindly As A Father Would Treat His Children. Then These Newly Cleansed Lepers Began Mixing With A Group Of Blacks, Called "The Philistines." The Off-Spring Of This Union Had Pale Skin And Dark Hair, Such As Modern Jews And Pale So-Called Arabs. This Type Reside Presently In The Middle East, Europe And America. You Have Many Caucasians Of Both The Ashkenazim Sect, And The Sephardim Sect. The Ashkenazim Were Originally Khazars From Russia Who Converted, And Picked Up The Name Ashkenazim (Genesis 10:3), And Used It As Their Own When Indeed They Are The Cursed Seed Of Canaan, Not The Seed Of Gomer (גמר) ("Completion") And Riphath (ריפת) ("Speaker Or Spoken") And Togarmah (תגרמה) ("Bony, Strong").

Ques: Who Are The Ashkenazim?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: Ashkenaz In Hebrew Is (אשכנז) Meaning, "The Spreader Of The Fire". He Was The Son Of Gomer Son Of Yepheth One Of The Triplet Sons Of Noah. They Were All Nubians, Woolly Haired Dark Brown-Skinned. Ashkenaz Was The First Named Of The Three Sons Of Gomer, The Son Of Yepheth (Genesis 10:3) And A Kingdom Associated With Ararat (Turkey) And Minni. Nowadays The Name Is Falsely Applied To The Jews, Pale Albinos Of Germany (Aryans), European Caucasian Albino Lepers Of Northern France (Francs), European Caucasian Albino Lepers From The Tenth Century On. In The Middle Of The Sixteenth Century, The Term Ashkenazim Came To Include The Pale Skinned Jews Of Eastern Europe As Well.

The Fake Ashkenazim (Khazars) Have Developed A Set Of Distinctive Customs And Rituals, Different From Those Of The Sephardim, The Fake Jews From Spain, Portugal, The Mediterranean Countries And North Africa. They Are Also Pale Skinned Yet Mixed With The Seed Of Joktan Who Was The Son Of Eber, Son Of Salah, Son Of Arphaxad. All Of The Sons Of Shem (Genesis 10:21-32), The Original Shemite (Semitic), One Of The Triplet Sons Of Noah, Who Is Very Dark Brown Skin With Woolly Hair.

On The Other Hand You Have The Spaniards, Who Picked Up The Name Sephardims, Another Sect Of People (Caucasians) That Used An Original Name Of Dark Skin People; Practicing Portions Of The Truth, And Fabricating Their Own Traditions And Customs Out Of Babylon And Calling It The Talmud And The Mishna, Or The Oral Code Of Law. You See, The Sect That Calls Itself Sephardim Are Called Orientals Because They Are Mixed And Are Darker Than The Khazars.

Black Jews Of The Americas Are Distinguishable From The Falashas Of Africa, As Well As Pale Jews And The So-Called "Israelites." Black Jews, Have Accepted The Judaic Faith Of Religion Of Pale Jews. Converts To Judaism Among Blacks Largely Began When Pale Jews Forcibly Baptized 2,000 Children Who Were Brought To The Portuguese Island Of Sao Thome. This Was In The Year 1493 A.D. In The Caribbean, There Were Quite A Few Jewish Groups, And Most Of Them Mixed Racially. One Of The First Colonies Was The Offspring Of Jews And Blacks In Intermarriage. It Was Like A Jew-Slave Master And Black Slave Type Relationship, Since At That Time Slavery Was The Biggest Business Of Pale Jews. They Spoke A Mixture Of Corrupted Portuguese Combined With Hebrew And Native Words. Later On, English Dialect Replaced This Patois, But Still Left A Few Traces.

In The West Indies, Jews Frequently Intermarried With Blacks. This Occured Mainly In Jamaica. Many Descendants Still Bear Their Jewish Names And Profess The Jewish Faith. They Claim To Be Descended Of Menelik, Son Of Solomon And The Queen Sheba, And They Pay Homage To Haile Selassie, (Read Is Haile Selassie Christ? Scroll #29).

Some Encyclopedias Have Called "The Falashas" Jews Because Of The Way They Observe The Holy Scriptures, Particularly The Old Testament. They Do Not Speak Hebrew And Their Holy Books Are Written In Ge'ez, Ancient Arabic Using One Of The Ethiopian Scripts, Which Is One Of The Oldest Of Human Languages. It Is The Language Of Adam. From Ge'ez A Form Of Ashuric Came The Arabic Of Today, Aramic (Hebrew), And Amharic, All Of Which Came From The Cunieform The Language Of The Deities. Falashas Live Their Way Of Life In A Manner More Like Muslims Than Pale Jews. The Reason For This Is That They Are Descendants Of Abraham Through Isaac His Second Son; Their Way Of Life Is The Way Abraham Taught His Sons Ishmael And Isaac And They In Turn Taught Their Children. Falashas Are Sectioned Off To Themselves From The Rest Of The Ethiopians And They Never Go Outside Of Their Surroundings, Nor Is Anyone Allowed In. They Worship In What They Called A "Mesgid" And Bathe Ritually Everyday, The Same As Muslims.

Pale Jews And Falashas Do Not Always Observe The Same Holidays. One Reason Is Because Pale Jews Recognize The Solar Calendar Whereas Falashas Recognize The Lunar, Which Makes The Holidays Observed By Falashas Sometimes Fall On Different Days Other Than Those Days Of The Pale Jews. Falashas Are Very Strict In Observing The Sabbath, And During The Sabbath There Is Much Feasting And Merry-Making. There Are No Festivals As Chanukah And Purim Among The Falashas, But Passover Is Commemorated By Sacrificing The Paschal Lamb. Circumcision Is Observed Of Course. Lij Tafari Makonnen, (Haile Selassi) Has Been Known To The World As: His Imperial Majesty Haile Selassie, King Of Kings Of Ethiopia, And Is Said To Be The Possessor Of The "Golden Epoch." He Is Also Known As The Conquering Lion Of Judea And The Elect Of God. Lij Tafari Was Educated In A Mixture Of Amharic, Coptic, Catholic And French Influence. At The Age Of Fourteen, Lij Was Ruling A Section Of Harar Province Where He Was Being Educated. His Father Was Ras Makonnen, A Statesman, Soldier And Trusted Kingsman Of The Great Menelik II. Menelik II Died 1913 A.D. His Son Lij Yasu Was Named Emperor, But Proved Incompetent. He Was Succeeded By Zaudito In 1917 A.D., A Daughter Of Menelik. Lij Tafari Was Made Advisor To The Throne. He Built Hospitals And Schools And Was The Major Influence In Ethiopia's Admittance Into The League Of Nations In 1923 A.D. Empress Zaudito's Agency Gave Lij Tafari Freedom Over The Government. Lij Tafari Was Named King After Her Death. Crowned Haile Selassie November 2, 1939 A.D. (Refer To "Is Haile Selassie The Christ? Scroll #29).

ISRAEL IS NO MORE

As Nubians, Knowing What We Now Know About Pale Jews, Any Of Us Who Do Consider Ourselves Jews (Who Really Aren't Israelites) Should Be Particularly Ashamed To Call Ourselves Such A Name. We Should Not Take The Names Jew, Nigger, Afro-American, Negro, Puerto Rican, West Indians And Any Others And Make Them As Scarce As The Names Coon, Spade, Colored And Blacky.

AS MENTIONED PREVIOUSLY THE ONLY DESCENDANTS OF JACOB (ISRAELITES) EXISTING ARE FALASHAS IN ETHIOPIA AND THEY ARE BLACK

Ques: Are There Falashas Here In North America Today?

Ans: There Are Many Misrepresentations Of Titles And Customs For Which We, As A People, Have Been Forced To Accept; Or We Unknowingly Attribute Titles Not Charateristic To Us As A People. "Hebrew" Is A Title Most Of Us (Nubians) Shun. We Often Look At Hebrew As Being Synonymous To Jew Or European, Who Have Stolen A Portion Of The Sacred Books. These Jews Are Not Hebrews, Nor Are They Of The Pure Seed Of Abraham. The European Jew Has Adopted A Portion Of The Hebrew Doctrine, (The Old Testament) The Same As The Caucasians (Caucus-Asians) Of Pakistan, India, Iraq, Etc, With The Teachings And Practices Of The Koran. The European, Or Caucasians, Are Not And Were Not Able To Live According To The Total Sum Of The Commandments Of The Scriptures. Therefore, They, As Cursed People (Spiritually As Well As Physically), Took Only Portions Of The Books; Which They Are Presently Living Today.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ques: Who Are The Hebrews?

Ans: The Word Hebrew In Aramic (Hebrew) Is Ibriy (עברי) Which Means "To Cross Over, To Pass Over". It Comes From The Root Word Abar (עבר) Meaning "To Cross Over" And It Is The Same In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language, Ibriy (عبرى) Meaning "The Other Side Or Cross Over". Hebrew Is Just A Title For What Abraham And His People Did, Not What They Were. The Word "Hebrew" Is A Title That Was Attributed To Abraham When He Traveled From The Ur Of Chaldees, And Crossed A Strip Of Land Called Mesopotamia Nestled Between The Tigris And The Euphrates Rivers (Genesis 12:6, 14:13).

The Canaanite Tribe Of Sidon Who Mixed In With The Assyrians Witnessed Abraham Crossing The Tigris-Euphrates River, And Referred To Him And His Family As Ibriy "One Who Passes Over". On Abraham's Journey From Ur To The Caucas-Asian (Mountains Of Haram), Abraham Passed A Small Strip Of Land Called "Tigris-Euphrates Valley." There He Met A Group Of Merchants Who Were Phoenicians (Who Are Of The House Of Canaan) Who Called Abraham "Hebrew."

Hebrew - Signifies The Other Side, Across, Denoting The Inhabitant Of A Country Or Member Of A Tribe. Although There Were World Travelers Before As Well As During The Time Of Abraham, The Title Hebrew Is Attributed To The House Of Abraham.

Ques: Did Abraham Speak Hebrew?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ans: No! Abraham Did Not Speak Hebrew. He Was Called "Hebrew" For Something He Did Rather Than The Language He Spoke (Or For His Linguistical Origin). Neither Did Ishmael, Isaac, Nor Their Sons Speak Hebrew.

Ques: What Language Did Abraham Speak?

Ans: Abraham Spoke Chaldean (Kaldai Or Kaldi). Which Is A Dialect Of Aramic.

Ques: How Did Hebrew Develop?

Ans: Hebrew Yielded From The Aramic Language. Aramic Meaning "Level Plain" Is The Father Of All Languages. It Comes From The Fifth Son Of Shem Whose Name Was Aram Making Him Semetic Or Shemite (Genesis 10:22).

Aramic Is One Of The Earliest Spoken Languages Of The Post-Historic Era. Proof Of This Is Found In The Hebrew Scriptures, The Torah, Though Aramic Was Spoken First. Around The Year 500 B.C., Scribes Began To Use The Aramic Script For The Rest Of The Old Testament. Aram Itself Was A Land Of Which Was Designated By The Region West Of The Tigris, Euphrates And The Region Of Syria And Palestine. The Persian Empire Used Aramic As Its Chief Semitic Language, And It Was The Common Language Of The Israelites. Aramic Was Also The Language Spoken During The Time Of Yashua (Jesus) Of 2,000 Years Ago. From Aramic Comes The Dialect, Hebrew. This Language Came From Eber, Son Of Shelah Son Of Arphaxad Son Of Aram (Genesis 10:21-24). (Refer To First Language Scroll #27 For More Information On The Languages).

Modern Hebrew As Spoken Today, Developed At The Advent Of The Israelite's Exodus From The Land Of Egypt. Upon Leaving Egypt, The Israelite's Language Acquired Hieroglyphics, Which Added New Form To Their Script. The Second Change Occurred When The Israelites Were Taken By Nebuchadnezzar, King Of The Babylonian Empire. During This Period Of Captivity, The Structure Of The Scriptures Were Changed (Tampering), Where Forms And Words Were Borrowed From The Persians, Babylonians, Egyptians, And The Arabic Language. It Was Under The Babylonian Empire That The Seed Of Israel Was Destroyed, Mixing Their Seed With The Cursed Seed House Of Canaan.

Intermarriage Between The Children Of The Land Of Pharaoh And The Children Of Jacob Provided The First Change In The Written Script And Customs Of The Israelites. The Israelites Were To Subdue The People Of The Land Driving Out Or Killing The Cursed Inhabitants. (Deuteronomy 7:1-5). This Was The Fate Of Israel. Babylonian Conquest Of Nebuchadnezzar Provided A Cultural Exchange Amongst The Israelites In Language, And It Encouraged Massive Inter-Marriage And The Acquiring Of Idol Worshipping. Destroying Their Purity, They Became Canaanites, Jews, Gentiles, And Nasarians, Occupying Various Cities In The Land Of Canaan.

The Jews Migrated To Palestine. A Depression Of Jews From Palestine Took Place In The Expanding World Following The Conquest Of Alexander The Great. Some Of These Jews Went To Egypt, Especially Alexandria: Others To Rome, Byzantium And Mesopotamia. From Egypt, The Jews Spread To North Africa, Then To Spain, Later France. The French Jews Went To England And Germany. The German Jews Eventually Spread To Central And Eastern Europe. Their Constant Migrations Is Represented Within Their Title "Wanderer". These Jews, Who Are A Conglomeration Of People, Observe Only A Portion Of Hebrew Law, With Addition To The Laws And Customs Of The People Of Lands For Which They Intemingled. The Only Pure Hebrews Remaining Is That Of The Tribe Of Kedar, House Of Ishmael. The Language Which The Jews Acquired During Their Wandering From And To Various Lands Presently Called "Yiddish" Which Is An Off-Shoot From The Phoenician's Script With Extractions From All Egyptians Scripts. The Greeks Also Adopted The Script. Yiddish Is The Conglomerations Of All These Scripts With Its Being Phoenician And What Was Termed Old Hebrew.

Ques: Can You Explain What The "Golden Epoch Is?"

Ans: The Epoch Is A Ball Of Solid Gold From The Jewelry Of The Ishmaelites (Including Midian). Among This Melted Jewelry Were The Noserings And The Crescents Worn By The Ishmaelites (Genesis 24:47). The Ishmaelites Were The Descendants Of ENLIL Son Of The Great Ruler ANU And His Spouse ANTUM. The Followers Of ENLIL Wore The Nosering.

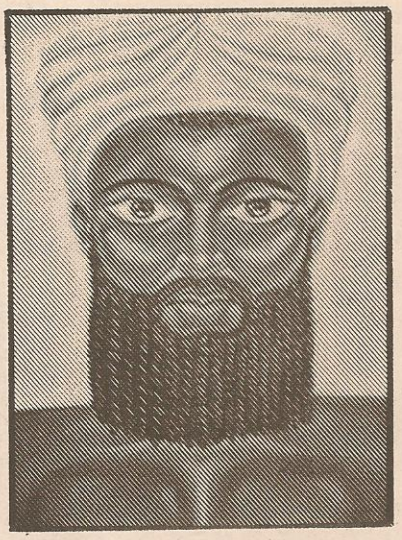

Figure 73
Enlil Son Of Anu And Antum

Ques: What Is The Significance Of The Nosering?

Ans: The Nosering; Which Is A Tiny Silver Or Gold Circle Is Symbolic Of 360 Degrees Of Knowledge Which Was Manifested Into Humans. It Also Represents The Circumference Of The Universe. It Is The Opposite Of The Square Which Also Equals 360 Degrees. Hagar, The Daughter Of Imhotep, The Wife Of Abraham, Was The First Woman To Wear The Nosering In The Bible. Hagar Was Given As A Gift To Abraham By Her Father, Imhotep Is Also Known As: "The Father Of Chemistry." Imhotep Gave Hagar To Abraham, So That She Would Assist Him Is His Task Of Cleaning The Lepers In The Caucasus Mountains.

In (Genesis 24:22), It Is Related That The Servant Of Abraham Took A Golden Nosering And Two Bracelets As A Gift To Rebecca When She Consented To Be The Wife Of Abraham's Son, Issac. This Is Further Proof That All The Females In The House Of Abraham Wore Noserings. According To Clark's Commentary, The Statement"... The Man Took A Golden Earring..." Could Not Be Talking About An "Earring" As Being An Ornament For An Ear. This Is Because Of It Being In The Singular Form And Not The Dual As In A Pair (Two) Earrings For Your Ears.

"AND IT CAME TO PASS, AS THE CAMELS HAD DONE DRINKING, THAT THE MAN TOOK A GOLDEN EARRING OF HALF A SHE'KEL WEIGHT, AND TWO BRACELETS FOR HER HANDS OF TEN SHEKELS WEIGHT OF GOLD;

Now What Type Of Ring Would Be Inserted Through The Nostrils Except A Nosering? As You Can See, This Quote Is Obviously Talking About A Nosering And Not An Earring. Yet You Are Led To Believe Otherwise. The Word For Nosering In Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Is (خزامة) Khizaamat, And For Earring (قرط) Qurt. The Hebrew Word For Nosering Is (נזם) Nehzem.

WORDS THAT STEM FROM KHAZAMA

- خزامة Khazaama- A Certain Kind Of Tree.
- خزامة Khazaama- A Ring Of Goats Hair, Which Is Put In The Side Of The Nostril, Or In The Partition Between The Nostrils Of The Camel And To Which A Rein Is Tied.
- خزامى Khazaamy- A Certain Plant Also Called Khazama Of Sweet Odor.
- خزام Khazzaam- A Maker Of Ropes Of The Bark Of The Tree Called Khazama.
- خوزام Khuzaam- Is Applied To A Woman's Nose Ring Of Gold Or Other Metal.
- خيزامة Kheezaama- The Opening Of The Sandal, The Slender Tong Which Is Pierced And Tied Between The Two Thongs.
- مخزوم Makhzuwmum- Anything Pierced Or Preforated.

Further Proof That The Wearing Of The Nosering By The Ishmaelites And The Israelites Was A Part Of Their Culture Is Accounted In The Book Of Isaiah 3:18-23. Noserings, Earrings, And Bracelets Are All Traditional Ornaments Of Our Culture.

Ques: Why Do Those Who Claim (Profess) Descendancy Of Israel, Say That Ishmael, Son Abraham, Is Not A True Hebrew Because He Was Half-Egyptian When Ephraim And Manessah Are Both Half-Egyptian?

Ans: It Is A Failure On The Part Of The People Who Profess The Laws Of The Torah To Denounce Relationship With Ishmael Since Genesis 6:9, Says Noah Was A Man Perfect In His Generation. Ishmael Was Also Blessed As It States In Genesis 17:20, 16:3 And 21:18,21, And His Mother Hagar, Was An Egyptian Woman. Ishmael Himself Took An Egyptian Woman By The Name Of Sayyidah Faatima To Wife. As It Has Been Shown By The Lineage Of Noah That The Descendants Of Shem From Which Abraham Came, And The Descendants Of Hagar, An Egyptian Through The Line Of Mizraim, A Son Of Ham, Were Of The Same Descendancy.

Therefore, Through Abraham And Hagar, Ishmael And His Descendants, Through His Egyptian Wife, Have Carried The Blessings Into Egypt That Were Inherited From Abraham.

From The Above Quotes From Genesis (Bible), We Do Not See It Rightful At All To Ignore The Blessing, Covenant, Or Kinship Of Ishmael To Abraham Since It Is A Fact That Hagar Was His Wife (Egyptian), As We Read, And Ishmael Was His First Son. According To Deuteronomy 21:15-17, The First Born Son Is Due The Right Of Birth, And Of The Inheritance Of His, Whether The Child Be Separated From His Father Or Not.

We Can Overstand The Importance Of The Covenant Made With Abraham And His Servant. However, We Will Find Out Just Who From Among Israel Violated This Sacred Law. Israel Had Wrought Her Final Destruction. This Was The Last Time The Creator Would Spare The Rebellious And Stubborn Nation With Good Cause; For She Has Fully Indulged Herself In Every Abomination With Every Nation - Foremost And Including The Accursed Canaanites (The Offspring Of Canaan).

The Yahweh Had Brought The Most Fierce And Sophisticated Army Of The Land Down Upon Israel; The Assyrians. The Assyrians Had, Had An Established Empire While The Twelve Tribes (Israel) Were Wandering About In The Wilderness. Since The Death Of Solomon, Which Had Already Been Two Centuries, The Tribes Of Israel Were Divided Into Two; Israel (The Tribes Other Than Judah) To The North And Judah To The South.) For Many Centuries, It Was Known That The Assyrians, Who Had Adopted A Large Amount Of Culture From The Old Babylonian Empire, Was A Very Powerful Empire, And Lately (From About 730 B.C. To About 700 B.C.) The Vassals Of Israel Had Been Giving Some Trouble.

Ques: What Is A Vassal?

Ans: A Vassal Is A Person Owing Homage To A Superior As His Subject Or Subordinate. It Is A System Wherein The Subject Makes Payments To The Superior Or Landowner For The Use Of His Land And Protection From Enemies, With Part Of The Payment Being Most Of That Which Is Yielded From The Land. The Israelites Were Vassals To The Assyrians. The Various Tribes Of Israel Constantly Squabbled And Went Against The Commandments Of The Most High. As A Result, The Army Of The Assyrians, The Most Fierce And Sophisticated Army In The Land Were Brought Down Upon Israel And Conquered Them In The Year 959 B.C.E. The Only Logical Solution To The Assyrians Was To Quiet This Squabbling, Troublesome Vassal (Israel). Now Since Israel Spent Her Time Squabbling Amongst Herself And Committing All Sorts Of Abominations And Defilement, There Was Really No Point In Resisting The Strength Of Assyria. One Hundred And Eighty Years After The Death Of Solomon, Assyria Took Total Control Of The Fertile Crescent, And Conquered Samaria Fulfilling The Prophecy Of Hosea. The Seizure

Israel Was No Problem Since, As We Have Said Previously, They Were Divided Amongst Themselves. All Of The Children, Women, And Men Who Were Not Taken By Assyria As Captives And Slaves, Were Killed Either By Skinning Alive Or Boiling In Oil. All Of This Took Place About 724 B.C. The Assyrian Troops Carried The Whole Of Israel Off Into Samaria; All Except The Tribe Of Judah.

Ques: Who Is Judah Or The Tribe Of Judah?

Ans: Judah Was The Fourth Son Of Jacob And Wife Leah. Judah Was Also A Prince; Not Of Ishmael, But Of Israel. Today Judah Is The Sole Remaining Tribe Of Israel Or Bani Israel. The Tribe Of Judah Was The Last Of The Chosen People. Today In Ethiopia, The Chosen People Are Called Falashas And Are Living Up To The Laws Prescribed In Ancient Times By The Torah. Strangely Enough Falashas Are Called "Israel" Today In Ethiopia.

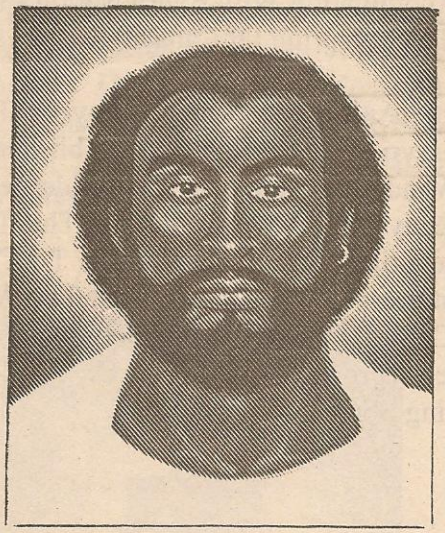

Figure 80
Judah Son Of Jacob And Leah

Figure 81
Leah Wife Of Jacob

Ques: Why Is This Tribe Of Judah Called "Falasha?"

Ans: The Term Falasha Is Used To Distinguish Them From The Native Ethiopians, Which They Are Not. However, If A Falasha Ever Leaves His Tribe And Goes To A Different Area Or Country, He Can Never Call Himself Of The Tribe Of Judah, Or Falashan Again. The Tribe Of Judah Became Known As The Falashas Because They Migrated To Abyssinia (Ethiopia) Just As Abraham Was Labeled A Hebrew When He Left Ur Of Chaldees (Mesopotamia) And Crossed Over The Tigris-Euphrates Valley. Hebrew Means To Cross Over And Falasha Means To Wander About Like A Vagabond (Which Is Descriptive Of The Tribe Of Israel's Wandering In The Wilderness). This Term Was Applied To Them To Distinguish Them From The Other Inhabitants Of Al Habasha (Ethiopia).

Ques: Who Were The Falasha?

Ans: Also Melanin Carrying Beings, The Falasha Are The Original Danites, And The Judahites, Who Had Been Mixed With The Ethiopians When They Moved Into That Land. You Are The Original Falashas. The Falashas Settled In The Mountains Of Begemdir And Simen, Which Border On The Sudan. They Spoke Both Aramic (Hebrew) And Syriac (Arabic) And Read Both The Torah And The Koran, And Were Referred To As The Rashada Tribes. All These Tribes Are Referred To As The Lost Tribes. The Falashans Lived In The Provinces Of Begemdir And Simen In The Mountains Of Ethiopia. (Refer To "Our True Roots", Scroll #38 For More Information).

A Falasha Man

Ques: Why Can They Not Call Themselves Of The Tribe Of Judah If They Leave The Area?

Ans: One Can Not Call Himself Of The Tribe Of Judah Because Leaving The Area Signifies Going Astray And Mixing With Others That Are Not Of The Seed Of Abraham And It Also Implies Idol Worship.

Ques: Why Was Judah Favored Above His Other Brethern?

Ans: Judah Was Favored As An Individual As Well As A Tribe From Among The Other Brethern Tribes Because Of His Mercy. An Example Of His Mercy Was Shown When He Pleaded To His Brothers To Spare The Life Of His Youngest

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Brother Joseph. He Then Persuaded Them To Sell Joseph Into Egypt By Way Of The Ishmaelites, Instead Of Slaying Him (Genesis 37:26-7, 43:8, 44:14, 15-34). This Final Conquest And Deportation Marked The End Of Israel Forever And All Time To Come. The Exiles Packed And Carted Animals Along With A Few Possessions They Were Allowed To Take. Soldiers Of Assyria Guarded The Children And Women From Molestation During Their Suffice Into Samaria, Which Became Oblivion To Those Survivors Of Israel. The Israelites Repopulated Samaria Along With The Assyrians, And Amorites.

Ques: What Are The Amorites?

Ans: Unlike Many Of The Other Canaanites, The Name "Amorites," Does Not Derive From The Place Where They Dwelt. In The Old Testament There Is No City Or Territory Named "Amor."

"Caucasian" Occurs Frequently In Assyrian And Egyptian Documents. It Is Related To Akkadian Amurru Which Means "The West, Westerners." The Akkadian Itself Is A Translation Of The Sumerian Mar-Tu, Their Deity. This Is A Reference To The Territory "Amorites" References Syria-Palestine, The Region Of Lebanon. The Amorites Are The Descendants Of The Caucasian, The Fourth Son Of Canaan And His Wife Salha. In The Old Testament, The Amorites Represent Both General And Specific Group Of People.

"The Amorites" Refers To The Whole Of The Pre-Israelite Inhabitants Of Canaan (Genesis 15:16, 48:22; Joshua 10:12; Amos 2:9). Hence They Are Often Referred To Interchangeably With The Canaanites. "The Amorites" Also Designates The Mountain Range Of Central Palestine Where This People Settled, Both East And West Of The Jordan. In Addition The Amorites Are A Specific People With A Ruler Of Their Own. In The 23rd And 21st Centuries B.C. The Amorites Pressed Their Way Into Babylonia. The Amorites Were Known To Be The Strongest Tribe Of The Canaanites. (Refer To "The Conflict Between The Gods" Part 1&2 Scroll #130).

It's Funny. Think About It. Everyone Is Willing To Hear Some Of The Facts. But Not All. Most People Just Are Interested With Things That Happened After The Creation Of Adam, When They Should Be Curious With What Happened Before His Time; Starting With The Creation Of The First "Noun" (Person, Place, Or Thing).

Ques: How Long Did Creation Take?

Ans: Creation Took Place A Period Of Six Days. It Was Brought To Completion On The Seventh Day. After This Creation Human Beings Needed 112 Corrections, Of Which Only 69 Has Been Done Up To Date 1995 A.D., Thus, You Need 43 More Corrections

Ques: What Is The Basis Of Society Today?

Ans: Humans Which Are Called Containers Society Began With The Creation Of Adam And The Making Of Adam; Or As One Might Term The Existence Of The First Man And Woman Who Were Joined For A Common Purpose Which Was Carried On By Their Offsprings.

Let Me Inform You On The True Story Of The Beginning. There Is A Question All Original Nubians Must Ask Themselves, And That Is "Who Am I And Where Did I Come From?" When You Begin To Think About This Question You Soon Begin To Realize That The Question Itself Makes You Want To Know The Truth. You Are The Children Of The RIZQIYIANS, The ANUNNAQI, Who Are The ELOHEEM, And There Was A Time When You Knew The Truth.

Adam's Creation Marked The Year One. One Hundred And Twenty Years, Seth Was Born In 120. Adam Died In 930, Seth In 1042. Enos Was Born To Seth In 235 And Died In 1140. Canaan Born In 325, Died 1235, Mahalel Born 1290, Jared Born In 622, Enoch Born 622, Methuselah Born In 687, Died 1617, Lamech Born In 875, Died 1556, Noah Born In 1056, Died 2006.

The Great Flood Occurred In 1656, When Utnafishtim, Also Called Noah Son Of Lamech And Kamiylah, Was 600 Years Old And It Took One Year For The Water To Dry Completely And In 1057, Then Noah And His Family Came Out Of The Ark To Replenish The Earth. Noah's Sons, Ham, Shem And Japeth Were Born In 1554. Noah Had Three Wives; One Named Naama, And The Other Waala By And Her Son Perished In The Waves, And Mubiyna Who Was Raped And Killed Before The Flood.

From Jesus' Birth To The Coming Of The Pale Race, Or The Seed Of Jan, Father Of The Jinns (In The Flesh Pale People), Is 4000 Years; By The Christian Calendar This Marks The Year One. So, From That Year Back To The Birth Of Canaan 4000 Years. Canaan, Progenitor Of The Race Of Mankind, Lepers, Was Born About 1588. From Him Came The Amorites, Jebusites, Hittites And Other Canaanites.

Of The Caucasian And Other Canaanite Families Who Had Emigrated From The Mountains Into The Valley, Fell Under The Rule Of Nimrod When He Established Babylon And Made Himself Their God. Nimrod The Son Of Cush. However, There Were Canaanites Who Remained In Egypt Until The Time Of The Return Of The Israelites From Egypt. Abraham Had Cleaned Some Of These Lepers When He Returned To Canaan After Sojourning To Egypt. He Died In 2163. Jacob Was Born In 2108. Joseph, His Son, About 2171. Joseph Was In Egypt Some Years Before He Sent For His Family. After He Was Well Established, The Pharaoh Gave Him Permission To Send Home For Them. The Israelites Went Into Egypt In 2238 When Jacob Was 130 Years Old. They Were Given The Land Of Goshen For Settlement (Goshen In North Egypt). They Were Cattle Raisers And Thus They Were Give The Most Fertile Part Of Egypt. Jacob Lived On For 17 Years After He Went To Egypt. The Israelites Stayed There Until 2658 Under Moses. They Were Released And Began Their Exodus. They Sojourned Into The Wilderness For 40 Years, Until They Came Under Joshua. From The House Of Judah, By The Way Of Jesse Came Jesus, In The Year Of 4000 Of Adam's Calendar, And 1 A.D. Of The Christian Calendar. Thirty Years Later, He Established His Mission, In 4033. The Israelites And Romans Sought To Kill Him. He Was 33 Years Old At The Time. He And His Wife Mary Magdalene Left Damascus, And Journeyed To Nisibis Or Nisibain. And From That City Accompanied With Mary Magdalene, The Mystic Jasper And His People Traveled On Into Syria; Then On Into The Land Of Mashaq, Where He Met Other Brother Of The Essenes. He Made Other Stops Along The Way, But Finally Traveling Back Up And Over Into Lebanon, Finally Made It Into Egypt. Thus, At Age 35 Years Old He Took Up Residence In Egypt Along With His Wife Mary Magdalene Who Died At Age 110, 10 Years Before The Death Of Yashua, Who Passed On At Age 120 Years Old. Surviving Them Were Four Children, The First Daughter Named Iglaal, The Second A Son Named Zubair, The Third A Daughter Named San'aa, And The Fourth Son Named Huday. Thier First Son Simon Bar Jesus, Whom Can Be Found In Your Bible In (Acts 13:6), Was Crucified In Rome. The Remaining Children Eventually Moved Southward Up The Nile Into Nubia To Live Amongst Their Own People. In Time Their Own Tribe Became Known As The Bija Tribe Of Sudan (The Land Of Cush And Ham, Sons Of Noakh) The True Semites, And Is Located In North-Eastern Part Of Nubia Called Dongala Or Danagal. The Prophet Muhammads Seed Is Called Handendawwa (Hindden Dowwa) Tribe. The Bija Tribe Is Commonly Known As The Hendendawa Tribe. The Name Hadendawa Derived From The Bija (Beja) Word "Hadi" Meaning "Master" Or "Guide" And "Endawa" Meaning "People", Meaning "The Master People Of Guidance." This Also Ties Into The 94th Attribute Of The Most High, Al Haadi (الهادى), "The Guide", Coming From The Root Word "Hadda" (هدى). The Bija Tribe Was Located East Of Nubia, In The Red Sea Hills. Five Hundred And Seventy Years After Yashua's (Jesus') Birth, In 4570, Came The Prophet Mustafa Muhammad Al Amin Son Of Abdullaat And Amina. In 5845

Or 1845 A.D. Came Muhammad Ahmad Al Mahdi According To Prophecy. The Word Al Mahdi (المهدى) And Yahudiy (יהודה) Or Huda (הדא) In Aramic (Hebrew), Or Yahuwdi (Judah) (يهودى) In Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) From The Root Word Huda (هدى), All Are One And The Same Name. Yes, The Tribe Of Judah Are The Ansaar's (انصار) Of Sudan Of The Mahdi's Seed. The Original Seed Of Jesus Of The Tribe Of Judah. In Koran 3:52 You Find The Word "Ansaar" (انصار) From The Root Word Nasr (نصر) Which Means "Help Or Aid". Thus, Ansaar (انصار) Is The Noun Form Of The Word Nasara (نصر) And Means "To Help; To Aid", Used In Koran 3:52. Also When You Look At Koran 9:30 Called Them In Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) "Al Naasry" (النصرى), The Old Testament In Numbers 6:2, In Aramic (Hebrew) Reffers To Them As "Nazarite" (נזיר), And The New Testament In Matthew 2:23 In Greek Nazoraios (Ναζωραιος). Which Should Be Translated As "Nasarene". These Naserenes Were Also Called The Essenes, Of Which Yashua Was A Part. In Koran 61:14 It Is Written As The "Helpers Of God". Which Translates As The "Ansaaru Allah" (انصارالله).

Thus A Strong Proud People Call Themselves Hadendawa People, The First Or Master People. These Beings Are Descendants Of The Original Melanin-Ite Beings, Those Beings Bearing Nine Ether, The Extreme Woolly Texture Of Hair. Which Is Nine To The Ninth Power Of Nine, The Highest Of All Supreme Mathematics. He Was Born In Dongala From The Fuzzy Wuzzy. This Name Gives The Description Of The Original Nubian (New-Beings), The Anunnaqi Eloheem, Those Beings Who Gave You The Gift Of Melanin. The Fuzzy Wuzzy Are Pure Descendants, Coming From The Tribe Of Judah. The Hendedawa A Nomadic Tribe Of Sudan, Or The

Thus, The Other Sudanese Were The Very First To Be Reluctant To Take Arms With The Ansaarullah. I, Dr. Malachi Z. York Am A Direct Descendant Through The Mahdi Who Is A Descendant Of Amiyru'l Mu'muniyn Ali, The Husband Of Hadrat Faatimah, The Beloved Daughter Of Hadrat Khadijah And The Prophet Mustafa Muhammad Al Amin. Not Only Do I Possess All The Qualities Of My Ancestors Of Before, However I Have Been Gifted With The Power To Make Clear And Evident The Scriptures Of Old. My Name Is Symbolic Of The Nobility Of The Title I Hold. It Is Often Said That The Guide Who Will Be Sent To The World In The Last Days Will Be From The Line Of Judah. And My Name, As Sayyid Al Imaam Isa Al Haadi Al Mahdi, Contains The Two Males That Link Me To That Line: Haadi And Mahdi. Al Haadi, From My Father, Al Imaam Abdul Haadi Abdur Rahman Al Mahdi.

I Am Of That Seed. I Am From Ancient Nubia. I Am That Nubian Or New Being Come To Link You Back To Nubia And Give You What You Wanted So You Would Learn To Want What I Have To Give. Although It Was The Prophecy That Your People Would Be Defiled, And Taken Into A Second Bondage (Slavery) In The 1600'S A.D. Under "The Spell Of The Dollar Bill" Known As The Spell Of Kingu Today Called The Spell Of Leviathan, The Spell Of Spiritual Ignorance And Racial Blindness; It Was Through Trickery That It Was Done. The Tribe Of Nubia Were Called The Hindden Dawwa, Or Fuzzy Wuzzy, Known For The Kingly Wooly Hairstyle Which Came To America With Them. They Were The Strongest Amongst The Tribes Of Nubia And The Greatest. Thus You Are Great Being Also. One Hundred And Twenty-Five Years After 5845 (5970 Or 1970 A.D.), The Ansaru Allah Community (Also Known As The Nubian Islamic Hebrews) And Now The Holy Tabernacle Ministries Was Founded, Or The Opening Of The Seventh Seal. In A Matter Of 30 Years From The Opening Of The Seventh Seal, The Year 6,000 Will Be Here. It Marks The End Of The Reign Of The Devil. At The End Of The Thousand Years Of Peace, The 7000 Year Day (Sabbath) Will Be Completed, And As It Was In The Beginning, So Shall It Be In The End. Humans Will Be At One With The Most High. Between The Years 5,970 And 6000, The Devil, Realizing The Little Time Left To Him, Will Make Several Attempts To Destroy The Truth, So That His Time Will Be Or May Be Extended. The Devil Will Use Every Means Available To Him To Seduce And Overcome The Meek. Before The Whole Race Will Inevitably Become Involved In The War Between Agreeable And Disagreeable; People Will Resort In The Worship Of Satan With Strange Paganistic Practices And Religions, In Hope Of Satan Sending An Army Of Jinns To Help Them In This War. After This Deadly Intoxication Of Christianity Had Been Impressed In The Minds Of The Nubians, It Was Time For The Amorites To Bring The Laws Of Nimrod Into Power Again. These Laws Are The Same Laws That Have Divided The People Of The World Today. Created Your Racism, And Your Stereotypes, And Your Sectisms. This Is What Creates Wars. You The Children Of The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM, The Melanin-Ite Children Have Got To Awaken, Bring Yourselves To A Higher Conciousness. Realize That You As Individuals Must Take On Responsibilities Of Recognizing What Is Going On In The World Today, Even Though The War Is Between The Black Skinned Straight Haired Beings And The Blond Haired Blue Eyed Beings. Why? Because Everything That Has Happened Is Happening And Everything That Will Happen, Will Affect You In One Way Or Another. You The MELANIN-ITE CHILDREN, Must Realize What You Are Doing To Destroy Yourselves, In Order To Progress. Stop Killing Your Selves, Realize Who You Are Before It's Too Late. Become The Divine Beings, That You Once Were; Children Of The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM, Your Parents Who Gave You The Gift Of Life.

Introduction

There Are People Who Can Live Under The Sun Called "People Of The Sun," 9 To The 9th Power Of 9 ($_{9}9^{9}$) Ether, Wooly-Haired Beings, And Then There Are People Who Can't. And Those People Are The Melanin Recessive Beings--The Caucasians. If The Caucasian Race, Like Every Other Race Of People And Like The Animals, Were Created On This Planet And Are Supposed To Live Under The Sun, Then Why Does It Kill Them? By That I Mean, If The Most High Planned For Caucasians To Dwell Under The Sun, Shouldn't They Be Able To Lay On The Beaches Like Every Other Race Of People Without Worrying About Damaging Their DNA Repair Process And The Immune System, Getting Cataracts, Pre-Mature Aging Of The Skin Known As Sunburn Or Skin Cancer? They Obviously Must Have Not Been A Part Of The Original Pro-Creation Of Man, But A Mutation Or A Secondary-Race (Refer To "The Paleman" Scroll #20).

Ques: What Is The Sun?

Ans: The Sun Is A Star; A Huge Glowing Ball Of Gases That Was Created 93 Billion Years Ago At The Center Of Your Solar System. It Is One Of Billions Of Stars In The Universe, But It Is The Closest To The Earth At The Average Distance Of 93 Million Miles Away. Due To The Earth's Elliptical Orbit, During The Solstices (Which Is The Summer And The Winter) The Earth Is Farthest Away From The Sun And During The Equinoxes (Which Is Autumn And Spring) The Earth Is Closest To The Sun. The Sun's Supposed Diameter Is 865 Thousand Miles Which Is About 109 Times Greater Than The Diameter Of GAIA (γαια), Which Is The Greek Word Used For The Planet Earth And About 400 Times Greater Than The Diameter Of The Moon.

The Sun

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

The Sun Which Is Also Called "Yellow Dwarf" By Astronomers, For Its Small Size In Comparison To The Other Stars Is Made Up Of 71% Hydrogen (H^1), 27% Helium (H^2) And 70 Other Elements That Make Up The Remaining 1-2%. The Sun Generates Energy By Turning Hydrogen Into Helium, Through Nuclear Fusion Reactions In Its Interior. This Energy Is Then Radiated Into Space By Mostly Invisible (Ultraviolet), And Infrared Light. Only About 1 Billionth Of The Sun's Light Reaches The Earth. The Short Wavelength Ultraviolet Rays Of The Sun Are Most Intolerable By The Caveman For Fear Of Death. (Read "Sons Of Canaan" Scroll #145 And "The Dog" Scroll # 143)

Ques: Is Acknowledging The Sun Beneficial?

Ans: Yes, It's The Source Of All Sustenance Of All Life On The Planet Earth, But You Don't Have To Worship It. No More Than You Would Worship A Potato For Its Nutrients Or Any Other Vegetable Or Means Of Sustenance To The Body. You Simply Respect It Or Them.

However, In Ancient Times, When People Depended On The Weather, They Set Up What's Called The Seasons, From The "Son's Of The Sea," Meaning Reptilians, And Is Breaking The Weather Up Into Four Parts Of The Year: Winter, Spring, Summer, And Fall To Represent The 4 Cycles, Which Will Be Explained Further On In This Scroll. Anybody Who Was A Farmer Depended On The Rain, Which Is Water, And To Follow After The Rain Would Be The Sun That Would Help Their Crops Grow. So, In Ancient Times The People Of The Different Tribes Would Appoint A Person Who Would Bring In The Weather By Reminding Everyone With Ceremonial Dances Such As: The Snake Dance In Plea For Rain That Is Done By The Native American Hopi Tribe; The Sun Dance, Which Was Led By The Eldest, Medicine Woman Of The Native American Blackfoot Tribe; The Okipa Celebrated For The "Lord Of Life", Who Lived In The Sun Performed By The African Tribe Of Mandan, Etc. These Ceremonies And Dances Were Lead By The Tribal Medicine Man/Woman, The Witch Doctor, The Shaman By The Native Americans, The Obeah In The Caribbeans, The Hogon By The Dogons Of Africa, Or Karaama In The Islaamic World, As Called In Many Tribes.

In Some Places Like Salisbury, England, Monuments Such As The Stonehenge Were Built For The Use Of Ceremonies And Religious Events. Obelisks Were Another Type Of Monument Built In Significance Of The Sun, Originally Called Ben Ben From Where The Word Ben (בן) Meaning "Son" In The Aramic (Hebrew) And Ben (بن) Meaning "Son" In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language Comes From. Obelisks Are Monolithic (Large Blocks Of Stone Used In Architecture) Stone

Monuments That Have Inscriptions Written On The Sides And A Pyramid At The Top. The Ancient Egyptians (Kemetites) Usually Built Them In Pairs And Associated Them With The Rays Of The Sun, Which Increase In Width As They Reach The Earth's Surface . These Resulted In Individuals Being Called Sun Gods, Or Rain Deities. Obelisks Are Also A Sign Of Christianity Influencing Politics Worldwide.

Ques: So Where Did People Who Can't Live Under The Sun Come From?

Ans: From Beneath The Earth In Caverns And Caves Or From Beyond The Realm Of Your Atmosphere. That Is, Outside Of The Earth's Atmosphere. Several Names Were Given In The Bible For Them In The Book Of Genesis. One Is Amorite (אמורי) Which Is A Compound Of Am (עם) Meaning "Nation" And Horite (הורי) Meaning "Cave Dweller. Thus Am-Horite Means "Nations Of Cave Dwellers (Refer To "The Sons Of Canaan" Scroll #145). The Koran Of The Muhammadans Dedicate The Whole Chapter 18 To Their Dwelling In Caves And Their Mating With Beasts. The Chapter Is Called Suwrat l' Kahf.

A Tribe Of Cave Dwelling Flesh Eating Flugelrods

The Flugelrods, Who Are The Original Aryan Race, Were Split Into Two Groups. One Group Of Flugelrods Became What Is Known As Neanderthals Or Cavemen. They Were Shameless, Moraless, Hairy Beings That Walked On All Fours And Ate Raw Flesh, Living In A State Of Bestiality. They Are The Fathers Of The Nordics Race And Live In The Inner Caverns Of The Earth Under Antarctica, In Their Home Called Palatkwapi. (Read "Mission Earth And The Extraterrestrial Involvement" Scroll #82, And "Man From Planet Rizq" Scroll #80).

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

The Second Group Of Flugelrods Moved To A Part Of Russia Called Caucasia Or The Caucasus Mountains. And Became Known As The Khazars Or Ashkenazims And The Seven Ether, Haired Orientals Of This Seed Called Asiatics Became Known As The Sefarad Or Sefaradim Jew.

Ques: What Is Bestiality And Where Did It Come From?

Ans: Bestiality Is The Sexual Seduction Of Any Beast, Be It A Dog, An Alligator, Or A Pig. The Original Act Of Bestiality Was Humans Having Sex With What The Bible Calls BEHAYMAW (בהמת) Which Are "Human Beast, Beast Of The Fields" (Leviticus 20:15), Not Dogs. Bestiality Came About During The Period Of Time When The Lepers, Who Had The Curse Of Leprosy, Lived In The Caucasus Mountains Between The Caspian Sea And The Black Sea, Which Is Where The Name Caucasian Comes From; CAUCUS Meaning "Dead, Deterioration" And ASIAN Which Was Originally Denoted As The "Region Of The Rising Sun" And Later Changed To "Region Of The Setting Sun" By Europeans. The Caucasians Began To Lose The Power To Reproduce Because The Mountains In Which They Lived Were Bare (Koran 18:8, El's Holy Qur'aan 69:18). So The Salt In Their Body Had Reached A Dangerous Minimum. Their Lacking In The Full Amount Of Internal Melanin Which Activates The Iodine Which Can Interfere With Their Reproductivity And The Mental Stability Of Their Offspring (Read "Melanin-Ite Children" Scroll #133). Also A Hormone Called Adrenolcorticotropic Hormone (ACTH) Which Regulates All Of The Bodily Functions By Which These Hormones Are Indirectly Controlled By The Pituitary Gland. These Functions Include The Metabolism Of Salt (Sodium, Iodine), Water, Carbohydrates, Fats, Proteins, Neuromuscular Functions And The Sexual Function. The Loss Of ACTH Leads To Symptoms Such As: Weakness, Low Blood Pressure, Diminished Blood Sugar, Which In This State You Cannot Reproduce A Full Term, Healthy Child.

Internal Melanin Plays An Important Part In The Early Stages Of Human Development--Embryology. Melanin Is Found In Several Critical Sites In An Embryo. The Outer Layer Of An Embryo Called The Ectoderm Is Composed Of Three Regions: The Prospective Neural Tube, The Prospective Neural Crest, And The Prospective Epidermis. It Is Within These Three Regions That Melanin Plays Its First Key Role In Maintaining Life.

The Neural Tube Is Separated Into:

- The Brain
- The Posterior Pituitary Gland
- The Optic Vesicles "Membranes Wrapped In Bubbles"
- The Spinal Cord
- The Motor Nerves "Nerves That Cause Motion" That Originate In The Ventral Portion Of The Neural Tube And Innervate Muscles.

The Neural Crest Derivatives Consist Of Cells That Migrate To Distant Parts Of The Body. These Migrating Cells Form Sensory Nerves And Ganglia "A Mass Of Nervous Tissues Composed Of Nerve Cell Bodies," Which Receive Impulses From The Following Sites:

- Sense Organs
- Autonomic Ganglia
- The Adrenal Medulla
- All Of The Pigmented Retina "Part Of The Eye That Receives Images" Cells, Which Are Derived From The Neural Tube.
- The Cartilages In The Voice Box And Head
- Some Of The Ectodermal Muscles.

The Epidermal Layer Can Be Divided Into Cells Derived From Epidermal Thickenings And Those Derived From The Rest Of The Epidermis. They Include:

- Some Of The Cranial "Part Of The Skull That Encloses The Brain" Nerves
- The Lens Of The Eye
- The Olfactory "Sense Of Smell" Structures
- The Inner Ear
- The Taste Buds

Melanin Is An Organizing Molecule Present In The Early Stages Of Growth Ensuring That These Systems Are Properly Formed And Maintained. Melanin Also Provides Many Functions Such As Facilitating The Conversion Of Energy And Protecting Cells From Toxic Substances. Without Melanin The Development Of A Human Being Wouldn't Be On Its Natural Course.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Today Nubians Are Being Born With Lesser Amounts Of Melanin. That Is Why You Are Getting Sicker With More Diseases Than Years Ago. Melanin Helps To Control And Protect Cells. Without Melanin Your Cells Are More Susceptible To Virus Infections. This Is A Result Of The Removal Of A Pea-Sized Gland Called The Barathary Gland. The Word Barathary Stems From The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Bara (ברא) Meaning "Beginning Of A Thing Or To Bring About, To Anew" And Was Originally Placed In The Hippocampus Area Located In The Cerebellum Region Of Your Brain. Since The Removal Of The Barathary Gland Four Other Higher Senses That Enabled You To Communicate With Various Anunnaqi Have Been Cut Off : Telepathy, Clairvoyance, Intuition, And Psychometry (Read "Man From Planet Rizq" Scroll #80).

Therefore, The Canaanite Males Came Down From The Mountains To Kidnap Melanin-Ite Women Of The Nubian Villages In Order To Have Sexual Relations And Reproduce An Offspring That Would Not Bear The Full Curse Of Leprosy. The Lepers That Did Not Mix In With The Nubian Women, Were Pushed Further Back Up Into The Mountains. They Had Fallen So Low With The Shortage Of Males That This Resulted In The Women Of These Lepers Laying With And Having Sexual Intercourse With Beasts, Such As The Jackal, Which Is An Ancestor Of Today's Dog Called "Man's Best Friend," Who Used To Lick The Sores Of The Lepers Clean (Refer To "The Dog" Scroll #143). The Caucasian's Seed Was Kept Alive Because The Canaanite Women And The Jackal Mated. This Is Also How And Where The Following Diseases Came About:

It's a Medical Fact — Some Humans Are Born With Tails

Some people are born with tails.

"It's obviously very rare. But human individuals with taillike appendages do exist," says Dr. Josef Warkany.

Tiny human embryos, or fetuses, normally have tails prior to the eighth week of development. As the unborn baby continues to grow, most of the tail is absorbed into the body. The rest of it usually disappears before birth.

In some cases, however, the tail remains. When a tailed child is born, the tail is removed in a simple operation. Dr. Warkany explained.

"Old reports concerning (human) tails of some considerable length deserve credence," he said.

"They can be straight segmented or curled. They may be unmoving or may be wagged from side to side."

Some tails contain bone. Some don't. Dr. Warkany, a prominent pediatrician and author of "Congenital Malformations," cited the extremely rare case of a girl who was born with a tail that not only moved from side to side but also became elongated whenever the child cried.

Other research on human tails was reported by Dr. Robert W. Parsons in an article that appeared in the medical journal, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

The tailed condition, Dr. Parsons said, "is found in both sexes and there is no evidence to indicate that it is more common in either.

"Cases are reported among Caucasians, Negroes, Chinese, Dayaks in Borneo, Igorots in the Philippines and natives of India."

He noted that the human tail "may be either straight or curled like a pig's tail and is usually soft in consistency.

"If it is not immediately removed, it commonly grows in length as the child grows. It is covered with hair-bearing skin. And muscle is found within the tail with some degree of frequency."

Legends of tailed humans and even tailed tribes have persisted throughout history.

But Dr. Warkany said, "the existence of such tailed tribes has never been confirmed."

In fact, Parsons found only 22 recorded cases of tailed humans in medical literature prior to 1960.

His tail is 3 feet long in this rare photo of the pathetic little rat boy. Surgeons plan to operate soon.

There Are People Being Born Whose Coccyx Bone Is Extended Beyond The Lower Back Forming Tail-Like Appendages. When A Child Is In The Womb Of Its Mother As An Embryo At Around The 4th Week Old He Has A Tail Which Later Grows To Be The Coccyx Of The Spine. The Coccyx Is From The Greek Word Coccyx (κοκκυς) And Is The Small Triangular Bone At The Lower End Of The Vertebral Column, The Rudiment Of A Tail Which Is Sometimes Called The Vestigial Tail. A Vestiage Is A Body Part Which Represents A Primitive Structure That May Not Be Fully Developed Or Functional As It Once Was During The Embryonic Stages. There Have Been Many Cases Of Babies Being Born With Tails Where The Coccyx Is Covered With Skin On Both The Interior And Posterior Surfaces. These Tails Can Be Straight, Segmented, Or Curled And Some Can Be Wagged From Side To Side. Some Tails Are Short And Stubby And Others Range To Be As Long As Three Feet And Are Removed With Proper Surgery.

These Types Of People Are Referred To As Simply Primates. Primates Means "Pre" Meaning "Before" And "Mates." Often Times They Call Them Ape-Man, Or Pithecanthropus, Or The Java Man, Which Is The Son Of And Short For Javan, The 4th Son Of Japheth, Son Of Utnafishtim (Noah) And Naama, Daughter Of Unaam And Sakhina.

Ques: Who Was The Java Man And Where Did He Originate?

Ans: The Java Man Is One Of The Sons Of Javan And Iris Who Mixed In With The Hivites, Of The Seed Of Canaan. He Was Short And Walked In A Stooped Position. Java Man Is Called The Father Of The Greeks Or Ionians (Iaon), Which Is Just A General Term Used In The Scriptures For The Greeks.

Then You Had Other Types Like The Neanderthal Man. The Neanderthal Man Was Named After An Area Called Neander Gorge Near Dusseldorf, Germany Of The Caucasus Mountains.

Figure 14
The Neanderthal Man

Ques: Why Did Libana (Canaan) Go Into The Caves?

Ans: Canaan Left To Go Live In The Caucasus Mountains Because Of The Bright Sunlight Which Wasn't Conducive, And Cold Climate Of The Mountains Was Conducive To His Condition. For He Was An Albino And Also Leperous With Sores And White Skin And Everyone Else Was Darker Than Him. His Eyes Were Sensitive To The Light. Because He Was So Different He Stood Out And Was Often Times Treated With Hostility. He Was Still A Nubian Until He Mixed In With 3 Other Women From Other Tribes: 1) Shingarah, Of The Anaqite Tribe, 2) Hildar, Of The Horites, And 3) Hitarah, The Daughter Of Konan, The Barbarian Of The Halaabean Flugelrods. According To Dr. Frances Cress Welsing In Her Book Entitled "The Isis Papers: The Keys To The Colors" On Page 23 She States: "White Skin Is A Form Of Albinism....My Central Thesis Here Is That White Skinned Peoples Came Into Existence Thousands Of Years Ago As The Albino Mutant Offsprings Of Black-Skinned Mothers And Fathers In Africa. A Sizeable Number Of These Black Parents Had Produced, Rejected And Then Cast Out Of The Community Their Genetic Defective Albino Offspring, To Live Away From The Normal Black Skin-Pigmented Population With The Awareness Of Their Rejection And Alientation (As In Colonies).

The White Tribes Eventual Migration Northward, To Escape The Intensity Of The Equatorial Sun Of The Southern Hemisphere Left The Albinos Eventually Situated In The Area Of The World As Europe--Now Recognized As The Home Of The White Tribes....Sexual Intercourse Between The Isolated Albino Mutants Produced A White Race" And On Page 123 She Says "...We Know That It Is Possible For All Pigmented Population Groups To Produce White (Albino) Mutants. We Also Know That It Is

Impossible For Albino Mutants To Produce Black Offsprings." As Reported In National Geographic And Natural History Magazines (See References), Recently Found In Africa Was The First Known Albino Gorilla Infant Who Was The Offspring Of Its Coal Black Gorilla Mother And Father. This Evidence Strongly Supports The Extrapolation That If A Higher Primate (In This Case, A Coal Black Gorilla Pair) Can Produce A Platinum Blond, Blue-Eyed, Pink-Skinned (Albino) Then Certainly This Could Also Be The Pattern By Which Blond, Blue-Eyed, Pink-Skinned (White) Men And Women Were Also Produced--As Genetic Mutants Or Albino Mutants From The Black Norm."

Ques: What Is Albinism In Relations To Leprosy?

Ans: Albinism According To The Webster's New World Dictionary Is: A Person Whose Skin, Hair And Eyes Lack Normal Coloring: Albinos Have White Skin, Whitish Hair And Pink Eyes. Albinism Is A Hereditary Condition In Which An Organism Cannot Produce Pigment. Only Individuals With Two Albino Genes Can Have This Disorder. If Both Parents Are Albino, Their Offspring Can Only Be Albino. This Is Because They Do Not Possess Any Of The Dominant Genes. Leprosy According To The Webster's New World Dictionary Is:

A Chronic, Infectious Disease Caused By A Bacterium That Attacks The Skin, Flesh And Nerves, Etc. It Is Characterized By Ulcers, White Scaly Scabs, Deformities And Wasting Of The Body Parts.

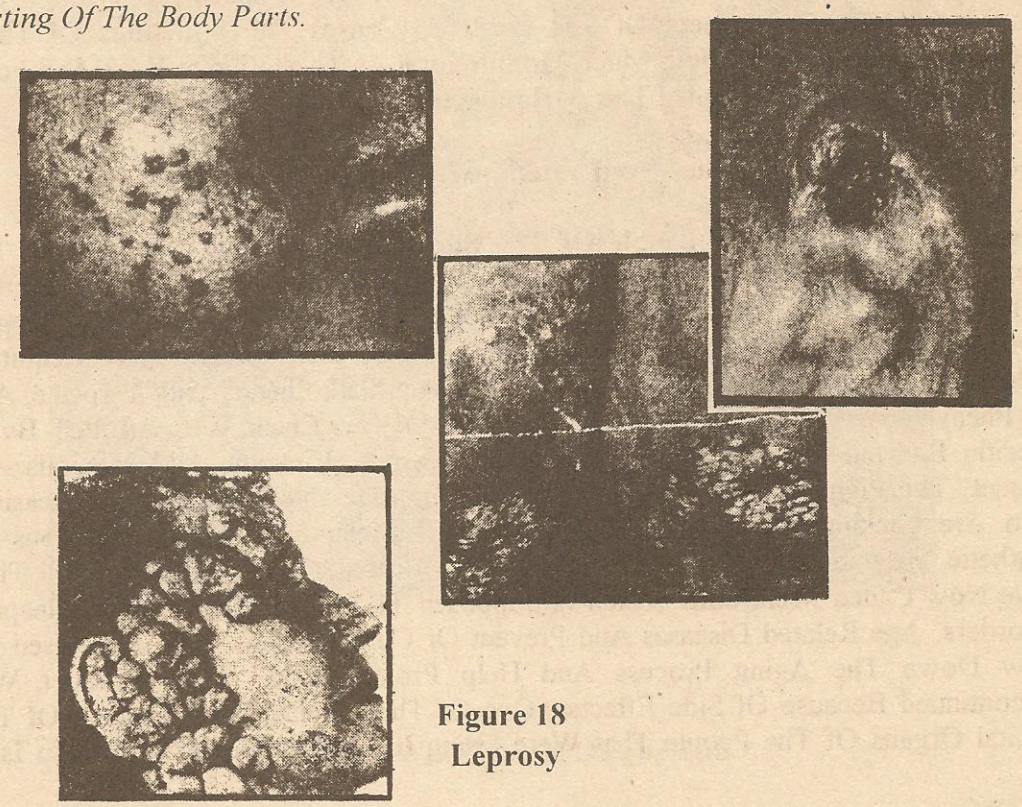

Figure 18
Leprosy

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

In The Book Of Leviticus And A Host Of Other Places In The Bible Leprosy Is Described As A Plague And Unclean (Leviticus 13:3). The Word For Leprosy In The Aramic (Hebrew) Language Is Tsara-Ath (צרעת) Meaning "Malignant Skin Disease" From The Root Word Tsara (צרע) Meaning "To Be Stricken With Leprosy"; And In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language The Word For Leprosy Is Abras (ابرص) Which Is The Same As Elbrus, The Home Of The Lepers Of The Mountains, Called The Sons Of Canaan. During The Time Of Abraham The Term Abracadabra Which Originally Was Pronounced Abras Cadaver Meaning "Bodies Of Lepers" Was A Mystical Word Used In Incantations Or As A Charm To Ward Off Diseases That Came About Such As Leprosy.

Ques: Who Are The People Of The Sun?

Ans: "People Of The Sun" Are Anyone Who By Nature Is Born In Tropical Environments, Inclusive Of Mexico, The Caribbeans, Hawaii, South America, Puerto Rico, Florida Etc. People Of The Sun Are Melanin-Ite Children Bearing The Gift Of Melanin From The Anunnaqi In Their Genes. Melanin Can Withstand Exposure To Heat Of Up To 1250^0F (Degrees Fahrenheit) And Still Retain Most Of Its Properties. A Melanin-Ite Child's Body Is Like A Conductor Of Energy Which Enables Electricity To Flow Through It, Or Like A Battery, Meaning It's Always Partially Charged. The Sun Serves As An Energy Recharger For The Melanin-Ite Child. This Is Able To Happen Because Of A Process Called Resonance. Resonance Is The Capacity To Move Back And Forth At A Certain Rate In Space And Time. This Resonance Or Rearrangement Of The Electrons Causes The Structures Of These Electrons To Be Able To Hold Much More Energy As They Vibrate Back And Forth Within The Pigment Cell Called The Melanocyte.

Ques: Do People Of The Sun Need Vitamins?

Ans: Yes. However, As People Of The Sun, You Don't Naturally Require The Same Amount Or Type Of Minerals And Vitamins As Caucasians. As Melanin Is Being Produced It Is Distributed Within The Organs Of The Body. With Each Step In Production Certain Nutritional Components And Particular Minerals Are Required, Including Vitamin B, Pyridoxine, Copper, Riboflavin, Pantothenic Acid, Tyrosine, And Or Phenylalnine. Each Biochemical Reaction In The Chain Is Controlled By A Specific Enzyme. If All Of The Essential Enzymes, Vitamins And Minerals Are Present, The Pigment Melanin Is Produced In Considerable Quantities. Caucasians Who Are Lacking In An Adequate Amount Of Melanin Now Get Injections Of Synthetic Melanin To Ward Off Infections And Viruses. There Is Also A Pill They Have Now Called Melatonin Which Is Supposed To Prevent Skin Cancer, Sleeping Disorders, Age Related Diseases And Prevent Or Cure Jet-Lag. It Is Also Used To Slow Down The Aging Process And Help Prolong Life. This Product Was Discontinued Because Of Side Effects. One Of Them Being The Shrinking Of The Genital Organs Of The People That Were Using It. The Secretion Melatonin Is A

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Biological Clock That Governs The Daily Natural Rhythms Of The Body. Most Of Melatonin Is Secreted At Night Between 11:00 PM And 7:00 AM, Then It Stops Secreting During The Day.

Ques: Why Does It Seem Like The Caucasians Are Becoming Radical?

Ans: They Are Regressing Back To Their True Natural State. The Caucasians Are Getting Radical And Frantic, Switching From One Thing To Another. He Went From The Usual Tennis, Baseball, And Swimming To Bunji Jumping, Barefoot Skiing And Now They Have This New Game Where They Tie A Rope Around Their Neck And Jump Off Of Cliffs Just To Get "A High." All Of The Civilization Taught To Them By Abraham And Moses Is Going Fast (Read "The Holy Tablets" Chapter 13, Generation Of Abraham, Tablet 3).

As The Sun Comes Closer To The Planet They Become Less Emotional, Therefore Caucasians Create These Absurd New Games. Anything To Raise His Adrenaline And Stimulate His Emotions. That's Why A Canaanite Can Guzzle Down Much More Alcoholic Beverages Or Beer (An Alcoholic Beverage That Is Fermented In Different Molds, Maggots And Bacteria) Than A Nubian. This Is Because Nubians Are Ether Beings. Nubians Naturally Have Ether In Their Systems. The Ethereal Body Is The Shell Of Your Soul. Nubians Have An Etheric Cord That Connects Them To The Spiritual Etherical Plane, Which When It's Cut, It Allows You To Live An Extended And Independent Ethereal Life. While On The Other Hand Canaanites Don't Have Any Etherical Attachments So They Tend To Be Able To Consume Much More Alcohol Than Nubians Before They Get Intoxicated. When Nubians Take The Alcohol Tests They Automatically Fail Because Of The Natural Ether In Their Body.

Ques: What Is The Solar Plexus?

Ans: The Solar Plexus Is The Seat Of A Literal Fire Located At The Great Lobe Of The Liver That's Burning Inside Of You And I. Firstly, Notice The Word Solar. It Comes From The Latin Word Sol Meaning "The Sun" With The Suffix -ar.

The Solar Plexus Is One Of The 7 Seats In The Human Body That Enables Man To Live. The 7 Seats Are Called Chakras. Chakras In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language Is `Uruwsh (عروش). The 7 Seats Superimpose Major Endocrine Glands: The Hypothalamus Gland, The Pituitary Gland, The Thyroid And Para-Thyroid Gland, The Adrenal Gland, The Pancreas, And The Gonads. These Glands Work Off Of Electromagnetic Impulses Received By The Cerebrospinal System Which Illuminate Different Colors Of Light, Some Called The Aura Or In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language Haalat (حالة).

Ques: Is There Anywhere In The Scriptures That Talks About The Light In Man?

Ans: Yes, The Light Is Mentioned On Several Different Occasions In The Bible And The Koran And Is Not Overstood.

Matthew 6:22

"THE LIGHT OF THE BODY IS THE EYE; IF THEREFORE THINE EYE BE SINGLE, THY WHOLE BODY SHALL BE FULL OF LIGHT."

Luke 11:34-35

"THE LIGHT OF THE BODY IS THE EYE; THEREFORE WHEN THINE EYE IS SINGLE, THY WHOLE BODY ALSO IS FULL OF LIGHT: BUT WHEN THINE EYE IS EVIL, THY BODY ALSO IS FULL OF DARKNESS. TAKE HEED THEREFORE THAT THE LIGHT WHICH IS IN THEE BE NOT DARKNESS."

Proverbs 20:27

"THE SPIRIT OF MAN [IS] THE CANDLE OF THE LORD, SEARCHING ALL INWARD PARTS OF THE BELLY."

In The Koran Of The Muhammadans Chapter 15 Verse 27 The Light Is Called Naar El Samuwm (نار السموم), Meaning "Illuminated Poison" They Called It "A Smokeless Fire," From Which Sama'El Or Haylal Son Of Shakhar Was Created From.

The Book Of Genesis Chapter 1 Verse 16 Speaks About Two Lights Being Created, And I Quote: "AND GOD MADE TWO GREAT LIGHTS; THE GREATER LIGHT TO RULE THE DAY, THE LESSER LIGHT TO RULE THE NIGHT; [HE MADE] THE STARS ALSO." Right In The Beginning They Say That He Created Two Lights Which Is The Greater Light And The Lesser Light. According To Clarkes Commentary Page 35, The Book Of Genesis, Chapter 1 Verse 16, It States And I Quote:

> "..AND GOD MADE TWO LIGHTS] MOSES SPEAKS OF THE SUN AND MOON HERE, NOT ACCORDING TO THEIR BULK OR SOLID CONTENTS, BUT ACCORDING TO THE PROPORTION OF LIGHT THEY SHED ON THE EARTH."

They Say One Of The Lights Created Is The Sun And The Other Light Is The Moon. But That's Scientifically Incorrect. Why? Because The Moon Does Not Have Its Own Light, The Moon Is Dependent On The Sun; For It Is Non-Luminous And I Repeat, It Doesn't Have It's Own Natural Light. The Sole Source Of The Moon's Heat Is Derived From Its Illumination By The Sun, Simply Meaning The Moon Gets It's Light From The Sun. So When You Identify The Greater Light As The Sun, That's Fine. Now I Want You To Tell Us People Of The Sun, Then Where Is The Lesser Light? Inside Of You. A Divine Spark Reflected From The Most High, They Call It Soul. Even The Christians Know It, That's Why In Some Pictures They Depict Jesus With One Hand Raised And The Other Hand Pointing Towards His Solar Plexus, And Other Pictures Have A Heart With Light Emanating From It Both Representing The Light In You (Refer To "The Holy Tablets" Chapter 7, El Hayy, The Living Soul).

Ques: How Does The Fire Stay Lit?

Ans: I'll Prove It To You. In Order To Light A Fire, You Need Oxygen (O). In Order To Sustain Life, You Need To Breathe In Oxygen. When Fire Burns It Gives Off The Gas Carbon (C). When You Exhale You Give Off Carbon Dioxide (Co_2). So When Oxygen Burns A Certain Substance It Gives Off Carbon And When You Breathe In Oxygen And You Give Off Carbon Dioxide, Then Something Must Be Burning Inside To Get The Same Effect. I'll Prove It To You. When You Drink An Alcoholic Beverage, What Is Your First Reaction? You Feel A Burning Sensation In The Center Of Your Chest And You Feel Heat, Correct? This Is The Effect You Get From The Alcohol And The Light. If You Pour Alcohol On A Fire The Flame Grows.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

When You Die, And The Light In The Life Of Your Body Is Out, Your Body Becomes Cold Because Your Pilot Is No Longer Lit, Which Is Why Nubians Are Warm Blooded And Canaanites Are Cold Blooded.

However, The Canaanite Is Not Going To Teach You This. What They Will Do Is, They Will Teach You About The Circulatory System And The Respiratory System, And Then Combine The Two And Tell You About A Fusing Of Liquids Into Oxygen In Our Lungs. This Oxygen Is What Keeps The Fire Lit. If You Light A Match And Then Pass Gas (Flatulence) In Front Of It, The Fire From The Match Will Expand The Flame. This Happens Because The Wind Of A Flatulence Is Made Up Of Oxygen (O) And The Element Methane (Ch_4) Which Is A Combustible Natural Gas.

For Example, When You Go To The Supermarket And Buy A Fresh Piece Of Animal Flesh, Or What Appears To Be Fresh Because They Just Injected Fresh Blood Into It, And You Come Home And Put The Meat On A Hot Pan, All Of A Sudden A Big Flame Shoots Out And Then It Calms Down. Some People Say That's Because Of The Blood Or Liquid And The Oil. That's Not True, That's Because Inside The Blood Of Animals There Is An Acid That Transforms Itself Into Something That Can Be Ignited Which The So-Called Scientists Cannot Explain, Which Is Called Spontaneous Combustion.

Ques: What Is Spontaneous Combustion?

Ans: Spontaneous Combustion Is The Self-Ignition Of Certain Substances, Which Is Initiated By A Slow Oxidation, Which If The Heat Of The Oxidation Reaction Cannot Be Dissipated, The Temperature Of The Substances Rises Until It Reaches Its Kindling Point And Bursts Into Flames. That's Why There Are People That Can Be Walking Along, And All Of A Sudden You'll Hear Boom And They'll Just Blow Up And Burned To Ashes. Spontaneous Combustion Is Also A Result Of A Deficiency Of Certain Essential Vitamins And Nutrients In Different Foods. These Vitamins And Nutrients Needed Are Destroyed, When The Food Is Cooked. The Vitamin Designated B_{10} Which Is Called By Pharmacists Insitol Is One Of A Group Of Phosphates Known As Phosphagen. The Molecular Structure Of Vitamin B_{10} Is Very Similar To That Of The Natural Blood Sugar, Glucose. In Cases Of Insitol Deficiency The Liver Converts Sugar Excessively Into Fat. If An Imbalancement Sets In, Phosphagen Will Begin To Accumulate In Which If Highly Developed In Certain Sedentary People Their Body Will Actually Ignite From The Inside Out. Sweat Is Also Another Factor In The Aiding Of Spontaneous Combustion.

In One Case On July 3, 1951 A.D. The Only Remains Of A Woman Named Mrs.

Reeser, Age 67 Found Were A Few Small Pieces Of Charred Backbone, A Skull Which Had Been Shrunk Down To The Size Of An Orange, And An Untouched Left Foot Still Wearing Her Slipper. During The 17th Century In Courland, Germany Two Noblemen Who Were Drinking "Died In Consequence Of Suffocation By The Flames Which Issued With Great Violence From Their Stomachs." On March 2, 1773 A.D. In Coventry, England A Woman Named Mary Clues, Age 50, Was Found Reduced To A Whitish Ash Except For A Leg And A Thigh. Nothing Else In The Room Was Damaged. On September 20, 1938 A.D. In Chelmsford, England A Young Woman Was In The Middle Of A Dance Floor When Blue Flames Burst From Her Body. The People Surrounding Her Were Unable To Extinguish The Fire And Within Minutes She Was Ashes, Unrecognizable As A Human Being. Spontaneous Human Combustion Has Been Happening For Centuries.

Spontaneous Combustion Isn't Something That Is Only Common In Humans. For Ages There Have Been Reports Of Animals (Cats, Sheep, Cows, Opossums) Being Killed Or Afflicted By A Sudden Inexplicable Combustion Leaving Their Remains In Ashes Or Literally Burned To A Crisp. (Also Refer To Extraterrestrials And Creation Scroll #136)

Ques: Since The Light Is A Gift From The Most High Thus, Rendering It Agreeable, Then Is Darkness Disagreeable?

Ans: No. The First Light Created Was To Take You Out Of The State Of Darkness, As In A State Of Intelligence Or Intellect And The Light Tof The Sun Is A Blessing Because It Gives Life To You And The Entire Planet Earth. In The Past, Darkness Or Black Has Been Also Mistranslated As Something Bad, When The Darkness Came Before The Light. Triple Darkness Was The State From Which Creation Originated. It Is Not That Can Makes You Disagreeable, It Is Your Actions. To Caucasians, Nubians Are The Cursed Sons Of Ham Since Your Skin Is Dark, And Because Of This You Believe It Also. All Of Which Is False Information. (Read "Are Caucasians Edomites" Scroll # 142) For The Cursed Sons Of Canaan Are The Albino Seed Or Race Of Leper People Who Lived In The Caucasus Mountains. Caucas-us, Caucas-ian, Carcass-asian, Meaning "Deteriorating Asian," Get It? Nubians Aren't Called Caucasians, Europeans Are. You Are Called By Where You Came From.

Nubians - Nubia,
Caucasians - Caucasus Mountains,
Indians - India,
Native Americans - America,
Egyptians - Egypt
Chinese - China
Columbian - Columbia
Indonesians - Indonesia
Germans - Germany, Etc.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

So Why Does The General Terminology For Labeling A Persons Race Or Nationality Change When It Comes To Someone Being Cursed? It Goes Back To Racism; To Try And Make You Think That To Be Nubian (Black) Is Something Bad Or Evil.

From The Time You Are Born, You Are Constantly Being Seduced Into Thinking That The Caucasian Man Is Superior To You. From Day One, The Nubian Child Is Being Shaped And Molded Into What Society Wants Them To Be. First, You Are Born To Parents, Who Just As You, Have Already Been "Labeled" By Society. Thus Causing You, The Nubian Male Or Female, To Be What Is Called "Inferior" To Them, The Caucasians. According To Dr. Frances Cress Welsing, "...Inferiorzation Means That Through The Structuring Of Thought Patterns And Social Experiences Such As Poor Housing, Poor Health Care, Deteriorating School Systems, Broken Families And Low Income Levels, A Black Or Other Non-White Child--Who Could Be A Genius Based Upon Genetic Endowment--Can Be Turned Into A Criminal Who Must Spend His Productive Years Locked Behind The Bars Of A Prison Cell."

People Are A Product Of Their Environment. And Nubians Are Deliberatley Placed In A Negative Environment Leaving Them With The Choice Of "Beating The System", Breaking The Vicious Cycle Or Becoming The Drug Addict, The Prostitute, The Welfare Recipient, Standing In The Unemployment Office, Not Getting Any Type Of Education, With Your Only Constant Thought Being, "When Is The Next Party?" This Is How You Are Brought Up. Therefore You Think That It Is "Cool" To Smoke, Curse, Do Drugs, Dance, Etc. Rather Than Learning To Read And Use Your Brain. You Want To Be The "Clown". The One Who Always Cracks The First Joke, Never Initiating An Intelligent Conversation. You Want To Go To The Picnic, But As Soon As Someone Says, "Let's Have A Business Conversation", You Immediatley Say "I Didn't Come Here For That. I Came To Have Fun."

The Only Thing You Are Concerned About Is, Showing Off What You Have, Fighting, Gossiping, Name-Calling, And Disrespecting Each Other And This Only Reflects How Much You Have Been Taught To Dislike And Disrespect Yourself. It Is All A Plan Of The Melanin Recessive Beings--To Make You Hate Yourself, Inorder For You To Self-Destruct. If You Think That Anything That Has Already Happened Or Is Going On Now Is A Coincidence, You Better Think Again. Nothing Just Happens. He Wants You To Sell Your People Drugs, And That's Why He Doesn't Bother To Try To Stop The Influx Of Drug Trafficking In The Community And The Drugs That Are Being Brought Into The Country. With The Amount Of Drugs That Are Circulating In This Counrty, Drugs Just Don't "Wash Ashore" Off The Coast Of A Beach In Florida. This Is An Insult To People's Intelligence. He Wants You To Shoot Each Other, That's Why With All Of The Talk About Stopping Violence, He Continues To Let All Of Your Rappers Talk About What They Are

Going To Do To Each Other With Their .9mm Guns. America Is Supposed To Be The Most Powerful Country In The World. With All Of The Billions Of Dollars That Goes Into Military And Air Force Training, You Mean To Tell Me They Can't Control What Is Imported And Exported Through This Country? They Want This Chaos To Continue.

And What About How He Gets You Through The Movies? Everytime A Movie Comes Out That Has A Large Cast Of Nubians, You Can Rest Assure That It Is Some Type Of Hoodlum Movie Such As: Boyz 'N The Hood, South Central, New Jack City, Dead Presidents, Dangerous Minds, Tales From The Hood And I Can Go On. These Movies Hightlight All Of The Negative Aspects Of The Nubian Community. What About The Culture, The Uniqueness That Nubians Possess That No Other Group Of People On Earth Has? These Kind Of Movies Aren't Allowed On The "Big Screen" Because They Don't Want You To See A Positive Image Of Yourself. They Know That If You Did, It Would Begin To Raise Your Conscious. You Can't Tell Me That With All Of The Nubian Filmakers Out There That Not One Of Them Ever Took The Time To Write A Screenplay That Had A Positive Overtone Or Even A Love Story. And I'm Not Talking About A "Jason's Lyrics" Or A "Poetic Justice" Type Movie. Why Isn't There A Nubian Movie Out Like "Scarlet Letter" Or "Gone With The Wind" And 9 Out Of 10 Times If There Were A Movie Out Like Either One Of The Ones That I Just Mentioned You Probably Wouldn't Even Take The Time To Watch It Because You Have Been Programmed. Have You Seen The Movie "Solomon And Sheba With Halle Berry And Jimmy Smits, It Has Been Out For A Few Years Now, But It Didn't Get Much Publicity. Now Ask Yourself Why?. You Like The Violent, Drug Related, Music Filled Movies. You Are Playing Right Into The Hands Of The Devil's Tricks. And Don't Think That Is The Only Way He Tricks You. You Are Also Impaired By The Slang That You Speak. The Power Of Speech Is Very Important. As I Have Explained In Many Of My Scrolls, The American Language Is Spell-Binding. You May Think That You Know What You Are Saying, But In Actuality, The Meaning Of Each Word Is Totally Different Than What You Think It Is. (Refer To "The Spell Of Leviathan - 666 (The Spell Of Kingu)", Scroll #15 And "The Year 2,000 A.D. And What To Expect...", Scroll #156)

There Are Certain Patterns Of Speech That Are Used Frequently By Nubians. And Those Patterns Of Speech Is Called "Slang". You May Not Realize It, But Slang Affects The Way You Speak, The Way You Dress, The Way You Think, As A Matter Of Fact, It Affects Your Entire Life. You Hear Slang First Thing In The Morning, You Hear Slang At School, And After School All The Way On To Bedtime. Slang Replaces Common Words And Their Meanings In The Language Part Of The Brain.

The Broca Area And Its Functions

The Use Of Slang Affects The Broca Area Of The Brain That Gives You Overstanding Of Languages. It Cuts Off Your Ability To Learn And Comprehend. So What Ever Language That You Are Speaking, Be It English, Arabic, Hebrew, Or Greek, If You Are Using Words Improperly, You Are Slowly But Surely Damaging Parts Of Your Brain. (Refer To The Truth Bulletin #18 "The Nebuchadnezzar Era" Article "The Dangers Of Slang")

The Brain Is A Hologramic Computer. It Receives, Computes, And Processes Data (Information) Just As A Computer Does. Whatever Command You Give To The Computer, It Either Does One Of Two Things: 1.) It Reads Your Command And Then Computes, Or 2.) It Is Not Able To Read Your Command, Thus It Doesn't Function Properly. And As Many Times As You Input A Command Through Your Computer, (The Brain) That's How Many Times It Will Run Your Program. The Brain Is Also Capable Of Storing Information In What's Called The Sub-Conscious Mind.

The Pattern Of Language That You May Chose To Speak, Has A Great Effect On Your Mind. Everything You Say And Hear, Computes In Your Mind And Interprets It. When You Hear The Words The Man, Momma, Boy, Baby And Crib Your Mind Thinks Of A Male, A Female, A Male Child, An Infant, And Something That An Infant Sleeps In. Right? But Those Are The Same "Slang" Words Used In An Everyday Conversation. For Instance, Nubians Will Refer To The Caucasian Man As "The Man". A Nubian Woman Will Refer To Her Husband/Boyfriend As "Baby". The Nubian Man Will Call His Wife/Girlfriend "Momma". And They Will Both Say When Going Home That They Are, "Going To The Crib". This Is A Very Common Conversation That Takes Place On A Day-To-Day Basis And You Think That It Is Okay. However, After Computing This In Your Head, Your Mind Interprets This As "An Adult Male Who Calls Another Male "The Man", Leaving You To Ask The Question 'Then What Is This Male? Is He Not A Man?'; Which Would Be Answered By The Fact That His Wife/Girlfriend Whom He Calls "Momma", Refers To Him As "Baby" And He Sleeps In A "Crib." And What Are Babies? They Are Powerless, Helpless, Little Human Beings That Sleep In Cribs. This Traps You Further Under

The Inferiority Plan. This Is The Reality Of How You Perceive Things. And That's Just Where They Want To Keep You.

The Luciferians Makes Sure That Darkness And Blackness Are Almost Always Synonymous With Evil And Negativity. So He Creates Disasters And Labels Them Such As: Black Mass, Black Ball, Black Sabbath, Black Plague, Black Market, Devil's Food Cake Is Black, Etc. And Light Is Synonymous With Good: Angels, Angel Eggs, Angel Food Cake, The Good Guys Wear White, The White House, White List, White Collar, Etc. Yet, The Bible Says In Genesis 1:2, And I Quote: ."..AND DARKNESS WAS UPON THE FACE OF THE DEEP. AND THE SPIRIT OF GOD MOVED UPON THE FACE OF THE WATERS." The Aramic (Hebrew) Word Used For Darkness Is Kho-Shek' (חשך). How Could Your Almighty God Of All Good Exist In A State Of Darkness, If It Was Such A Disagreeable/Negative State? And If God Dwells In What Is Called Heaven, Then Heaven Had To Be Dark Also Prior To Light Being Created.

Ques: How Can People Have A Light In Them If Allah Is Said To Be The Light?

Ans: The Moslem World Makes A Mistake In The Koran Chapter 24 Verse 35 When They Say Allahu El Nuwr (الله النور) Meaning "Allah Is The Light" Which Is Also The 93Rd Of The 99 Attributes Of Anu, El Nuwr (النور) Meaning "The Light." El Nuwr Is The One By Whose Light The Spiritually Blind Are Made To See And By Whose Same Light The Erring Are Guided Aright. All Things That Exist In The Heavens And The Earth And That Which Is Between Them Point To The Necessary Existence Of Its Creator. Life Is A Light Which Flows Upon All Things From The Light Which Constitutes His Essence.

Ques: What Should People Of The Sun Do Until The Devil's 6,000 Year Rule Is Up Which Is The Year 2,000?

Ans: All You Have To Do Is Be Patient And Stay Out Of His Way. The Canaanites Will Eventually Have To Move Out Of The Sun. People Of Color Should Move To Sunlit Areas Where There Are More Alive And Colorful Festivities. Canaanites Wear Clothes That Are Gray And Dim Colored While You Are Becoming More Gaudy Wearing Loud Colors That Reflect The Sun. Unlike Places Such As England, Germany And France Where It Is Dim And Dull And Has Enormous Gray Brick And Cement Buildings Where It Is Gloomy And Sedate.

Happens During The Shadow Hours. New Year's Day Is Celebrated The Night Before On New Year's Eve, With Only Disagreeable Events, Drunkardness, Shooting Through Peoples Windows, Fights, Violence, Drugs, Etc... And I Can Go On.

The Only Holiday Celebrated During The Day Now Is Easter Which Is The Same Name As, The Sumerian Goddess Ishtar. Many People Don't Know That Easter Was Originally Another Shadow Hour Festival Introduced To The American Folklore By The German Settlers In The 1700's. It Was Believed That The Easter Bunny Laid Red Eggs On Maudy Thursday And Eggs Of Other Colors The Night Before Easter.

If You Went To Places Under The Sun Like Africa, The Caribbeans And Other Countries In The Middle East, Their Festivals Are Held During The Daylight Hours. Like In The Muhammadan Faith, Their Festivities Are Based On The Daytime. Even Though The Breaking Of The Fast During The Month Of Ramadaan Is Over After Maghrib Or When The Sun Appears To Set, The Festival Iyd Al Ad-Haa Is Held During The Day.

Right Now People Are Experiencing Blizzards, Hurricanes In The South And Other Catastrophes Taking Place In Sunlit Area Such As The Caribbeans. It Appears To Be A Travesty, But In Actuality Nature Is Helping The Canaanites Pack Up And Leave To Relocate Back Into The Shadows Or Caves. That's Nature Being Complacent Making These Canaanites Migrate To Cinemas, Malls, Underground Subways, Underground Tunnels And Condos, Which Is Pulling Them Out Of The Sun.

Ques: Is This Why The Canaanites Are Trying To Leave The Planet?

Ans: Yes. This Is One Of The Reasons They Have Already Begun Launching Astronauts To The Moon, And Have Bases Set Up On The Dark Side Of The Moon And On Mars Where There Is A Reactivated Base. Mars And The Moon Are Already Being Colonized To Hold Biospheres For Occupancy, And They Are Now Also Working On The Planet Jupiter. A Biosphere Is The Portion Of The Earth That Consists Of Exposed Continents, Ocean Basins, Water, And Atmosphere, And Which Is Capable Of Supporting And Sustaining Life. For Years Scientists Have Been Working On A Project Making A Greenhouse-Like Dome Replica Of The Earth's Biosphere.

For Two Years From 1991 A.D. Up Until 1993 A.D. A Crew Of Eight Members, Four Men And Four Women Were A Part Of A Project Called Biosphere II. They Lived In Man-Made Biospheres Here In America In Oracle, Arizona. Ques: Do People Have Any Where To Go In Case The Earth Was To Be Destroyed.

Ans: Alternatives Have Already Been Organized So That When The Earth Does Destruct The Elite Of Your Society Will Have A Place To Relocate. By The Way The Elite Are Not Nubians. These Alternatives Are:

Alternative 1 - Was To Reduce The Population By Mass GENOCIDE, A Word From The Greek Word Genos (γενος) Meaning "Race , Tribe" And The Latin Word Cide Meaning "Killing" By Drafting Millions Of People Into The Armed Forces And Sending Them Out In Wars To Kill And Be Killed. And By Creating Viruses To Kill Massive Amounts Of People Such As A.I.D.S., Sickle-Cell Anemia, Ebola Zaire, Dengue Fever, Etc.

Alternative 2 - Was To Build Underground Cities To Escape The Atrocities Of This World. That's The Reason Why The Canaanites Are Building Underground Tunnels Across Europe, The Reason Why They Are Taking All The Stores Off The Streets And Turning Them Into Malls, The Reason They Are Putting Cinemas, Or Movies As You Call Them, Inside Malls And Hospitals And Everything Is Underground Communication. They Have Created Things Like Home Shopping Shows, Internet, A Computer On-Line Program That Was First Created During The War For Communication In Case The Phone Lines Went Down During The War And Things Were Done From The Inside Bypassing The Need To Come Outside And Come In Contact With The Sun.

Alternative 3 - Was To Make An Exodus From The Planet Earth To Bases On Mars Where A Selected Group Of People Of The Elite Of Your Society Called "The Brain Team" Where To Relocate And Live For The Inevitable Self-Destruction Of The Planet Earth. (Refer To Mission Earth And The Extraterrestrial Involvement, Scroll #82)

And As I Said Earlier, All We Have To Do Is Be Patient And We Will Inherit The Earth, Just As Jesus Of 2,000 Years Ago Stated In Matthew 5:5 And David Said In Psalm 37:11.

"BUT THE MEEK SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH; AND SHALL DELIGHT THEMSELVES IN THE ABUNDANCE OF PEACE."

This Is What That Quote Means. It Does Not Mean That We Want To Go To The Stars. It Meant Now That The Devil Is Ruling, We Should Stay Out Of His Way And Be "Meek" Or "Humble" And Let His Time Run Out.

Ques: Are All Of The Events And Calamities That Are Happening In The World Today A Result Of The Plagues And Prophecies Found In Revelations?

Ans: Yes. What You Are Talking About Is Revelation Chapter 21 Which Ties Right Into Malachi Chapter 4, Where It Talks About The Plagues And The Coming Of The End Of This World, This Era Of Time.

When It Talks About The Removal Of The Skies And The Removal Of The Earth, Or As They Say The Heavens And The Earth Is Going To Be Taken Away And A New One Is Going To Come In, That's The Same Thing That Took Place In Genesis Chapter 1. The Old World Right Before Adam And Eve Was Removed And A New World Was Re-Constructed And Replenished With The Pro-Creation Of ZAKAR And NEKAYBAW (Genesis 1:22, 28) And Then Again It Happened In Genesis 6:17 When You Get Down To The Newsbearer UTNAFISHTIM (NOAH) And They Moved Everybody Off The Planet And They Took His Seed And Then They Replenished The Planet (Genesis 9:1).

Ques: Were There Any Other Replenishings Prior To Genesis?

Ans: Yes, There Was Life Pre-Bible Or Before What The Religious World Claims To Be "The Beginning" (Genesis 1:1). That's Where They Get The Term "Pre-Historic Man." At The Beginning Of Each Reconstruction And Replenishment Of The Planet Earth There Were Several Different Versions Of "Adam And Eve." The Name ADAMA, In The Akkadian Tongue, Which Is A Dialect Of Cuneiform Means "Earthling Upon Each Reconstruction And Replenishing Of The Planet Earth." ADAM, AW-DAWM (אדם) In The Aramic (Hebrew) Language Is Merely A Title And Also A Tribe (Genesis 1:27) Meaning "Dark Brown, Of The Earth, Or Life Blood."

The First Replenishing Of The Earth Was When The Name Of The Planet Was Called Tiamat And It Was Three Times The Size It Is Now. The Adam And Eve Of That Time Were APSU Meaning "One Existed From The Beginning" And TIAMAT Meaning "Maiden Of Life."

Apsu And Tiamat Were Known To The Ancient Egyptians As NUN Meaning "God Of The Ocean" And NUNET Meaning "Goddess Of The Ocean." They Came From The First Moon Or Silver Cycle Known As "Morning," And Were Known As The Marine Life In All Fresh Waters (APSU) And Salt Waters (TIAMAT) From Which All Life Came.

The Second Replenishing Was With LAHMU Meaning "Deity Of War" And LAHAMU Meaning "Lady Of The Battles" Known To The Ancient Egyptians As HEH "God Of The Immeasurable" And HEHET "Goddess Of The Immeasurable." They Came From The First Sun Cycle Known As "Evening" And Their Destruction Came About, By Way Of Meteorite Showers 17,250,000 Years Ago. (Read - "The Garden Of Eden" Scroll # 49)

The Fourth Replenishing Was With ANU Meaning "The Heavenly One" And ANTUM The Spouse Of ANU. ANU And Antum Came From The Second Sun Cycle Called "Evening." This Cycle Was The Last Cycle Of An Equinox Which Occurs Every 24,000 Years And Led Into The Fourth Replenishing Which Occured After Another Meteorite Shower Left The Planet Earth Desolate 14 Million Years Ago And Caused A Dust Cloud That Blocked The Sun. At This Time Most Of The Dinosaurs And Prehistoric Men That Existed Were Destroyed Because The Dinosaurs Were Killing Off Both Man And The Herbivores, Which Caused The Necessity To Eliminate Life On The Planet And Start A New Population With Smaller Animals And Human Beings. Most Of All Life Was Destroyed Except For 13 Tribes Broken Up Into 3 Families: The Pygmies, The Watusies, And The Hindus, Some Of Who Took Refuge Behind Waterfalls Which Led To Air Pockets In Caverns Beneath The Earth In SHAMBALLAH (شمبالله) Meaning "Scented By Allah," A Kingdom In The Center Of The Earth, Also Known As HADES (αδης) Meaning "The

So There Were Multiple Times When The Anunnaqi, Had Stepped In And Said, "We're Going To Remove All Living Things Or Either All Creeping Things And I'm Going To Bring New Things (Genesis 6:7). Ques: What Cycle Are We In Now?

Ans: Right Now, We Are In The Third Moon Cycle And The 5996th Year Or The Last 4 Years Of The Canaanite's 6,000 Year Reign. The Moon Cycle Is Going Out And We Are Now Coming Back Into The Sun Cycle. When This Time Comes The ANUNNAQI MURDUK Or AMONNUBI ROOAKHPTAH Also Called MELCHIZEDEK Comes In Human Form To Reform And Teach And Give An Overstanding To All That's Been Understood For The Past 24,000 Years. The Moon Cycle We Are In Now, Started In The Year 4,000 B.C. On Up To The Year 1 And Then On Up To The Year 2,000 A.D. When The 4th Sun Cycle Of This Equinox Will Come In, In Which I Must Re-New Your History Giving You RIGHT KNOWLEDGE, RIGHT WISDOM, RIGHT OVERSTANDING,Which Leads To Sound RIGHT REASONING.

Ques: What Are Cycles?

Ans: A Cycle According To The American Heritage Dictionary Is:

> 1. An interval of time during which a characteristic, often regularly repeated event or sequence of events occurs. 2.a. A single complete execution of a periodically repeated phenomenon. b. A periodically repeated sequence of events. 3. The orbit of a celestial body. 4. A long period of time; an age.

As You Recall, Your History Must Re-New Itself Every 24,000 Years, Which Consists Of 4 Cycles; Two SUN CYCLES Or GOLD CYCLES And Two MOON CYCLES Or SILVER/GRAYISH CYCLES. The Entire Universe Moves Around These Four Cycles. Your Entire Solar System Is A Part Of A Bigger System Known As The Milky Way, Which Moves Every 24,000 Years.

The Moon Cycle Is A Symbol Of The Night Or The Shadow Hour And The Sun Cycle Is A Symbol Of The Day. We're Moving Into The Sun Cycle Because As A Galaxy Makes A Complete Wobbly Circle Around Its Sun, It's Called An Equinox. The Planet Earth Gets Closer And Farther Away From The Sun At Different Times In It's Motion Due To Its Elliptical Orbit.

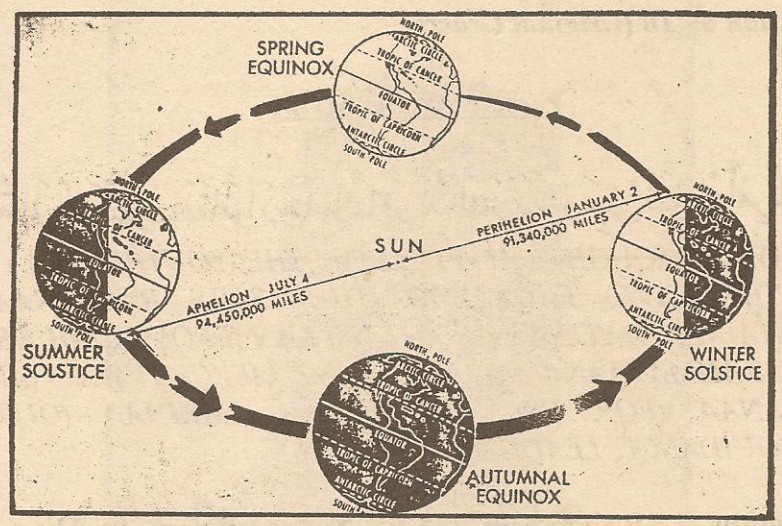

Diagram 7
An Equinox Of The Earth On Its Elliptical Orbit

Ques: What Is A Solar Era?

Ans: During The Period That The Sun And The Planet Earth Pulls Each Other, Those Are Periods Referred To As The Solar Era. And When It Gets Farther Away From It, That Is The Moon Cycle, That's Why The Moon Is Synonymous With Shadow Hours Or Night And The Sun Is Synonymous With Earlier Daylight Hours. This Happens Every 6,000 Years. We Are Getting Ready To Go Back Into The Sun Cycle; Now Since 1970 A.D. With The Opening Of The 7th Seal We Have Left The Era Of The Aquarian Age And Moved Into The Era Of The Piscean Age. An Era Of Air, Which Utilizes Laser Beams, Video, And Ultra Violet Rays, Etc.

In That Period Of Time The Sun Gets Closer To The Planet And A Very Strange Thing Happens. The People Who Cannot Live Under The Sun Have Only One Alternative Which Is To Retreat Back Into The Caves Because They Can't Stay On The Surface. This Is Because The Canaanite Is Coming Into An Era Of Time Called The Sun Cycle Like Before.

The Koran In Chapter 18 Lets You Know All About It, Suwrat El Kahf "Chapter Of The Cave," Speaks About A Period Of Time When Canaan And Salha Sought Refuge In The Caves And They Didn't Know How Long They Were There (Koran 18:10).

So they, (the cursed Canaanites in Babel) said: "Build for them a building (Tower of Babel), for their Rabb, knows of their affairs, that which they were doing. Special Report: Skin Cancer

The Dark Side of Worshiping the Sun

Americans are flocking to the beaches by the millions this summer, many still blissfully unaware that if they fry now, they could pay later—in the form of tumors

By LEON JAROFF

It was a hot July day in Amagansett, N.Y., and the midday sun glared down at a crowded Long Island beach. Perched atop his observation stand, a bronzed lifeguard, lanky and clad only in abbreviated trunks, kept close watch on the few dozen waders and swimmers braving the still frigid waters of the Atlantic Ocean. Around him, hundreds of sunbathers sprawled on the sand. Some, mostly older, shielded themselves from the sun's fierce rays under broad-brimmed hats and umbrellas. But much of the ground looked somewhat like the sunlight, wearing only scanty swimsuits and little or no sunscreen. At the water's edge, two players of the sand, some with backs and arms alarmingly red.

Across the U.S. last week, this scene was repeated as millions of people, still unaware of the odds against them, continued to play a game of solar roulette. Those odds are worsening at an alarming rate. The American Cancer Society predicts that in the U.S. this year, more than 600,000 new cases of skin malignancies will be diagnosed, most of them caused by excessive exposure to ultraviolet rays from the sun. Some 27,600 of those cases will be malignant melanoma, the deadliest type, which has been increasing 7% annually over the past decade and will kill 6,300 people this year. Most of the other skin cancers will be basal-cell and squamous-cell carcinomas, less lethal but still dangerous if not treated in time. Some 2,500 victims of these cancers (mostly squamous cell) will die this year, and most of the others will undergo surgery, generally minor but occasionally disfiguring.

Doctors are particularly struck by the rise in melanoma cases. "When I went into practice 25 years ago," says Dr. Henriette Abel, "if I saw one melanoma a year, it was a big deal." This year, however, "there was a period when I saw six in six weeks," Her brother Dr. Robert Abel, with whom she shares a dermatology practice in Fiberboro, N.J., now diagnoses an average of four melanoma cases a month.

Experts attribute the growing onslaught of skin cancer to the new affluence of Americans in the years after World War II.

Article From Time Magazine From July 23 1990 A.D.

The ILLUMINATI, Is An Organization Founded On May 1, 1776 A.D. By A Man Named Adam Weishaupt. As Taken From The New World Order, On Page 2 "PROFESSOR WEISHAUPT WAS QUOTED AS SAYING: 'IT IS NECESSARY TO ESTABLISH A UNIVERSAL REGIME AND EMPIRE OVER THE WHOLE WORLD.. THE TRUE PURPOSE OF THE ORDER WAS TO RULE THE WORLD. TO ACHIEVE THIS IT WAS NECESSARY FOR THE ORDER TO DESTROY ALL RELIGIONS, OVERTHROW ALL GOVERNMENTS AND ABOLISH PRIVATE PROPERTY.'" The Opening Day Of The Illuminati Order Began With A Festival In Honor Of The Sun. The Main Belief Of The Illuminati And Some Other Masonic Lodges Are Based On The Worship Of The Two Lights: Lucifer, Who Is Haylal (Isaiah 14:12) Called The One Or Star Who Was Once In Heaven And The Second Light Which Is The Sun.

So Now All We Have To Do Is Wait. You're Looking For Some Phenomenon Other Than The Prophecy Of What's Taking Place In The Book Of Malachi, When The "Sun Of Righteousness" Is Spoken Of.

Ques: What Is The Sun Of Righteousness?

Ans: The Anunnaqi Malachi Who Is Also Known By The Names Melchizedek, Malachi-Zodoq, Malkiy-Tsedeq, Michael, And Miyka'El Is The Sun Of Righteousness Spoken Of In His Book Of Malachi Or The Sun Of Justice And Ruler Of The Deities As His Name Murdoq Translates.

"BUT UNTO YOU THAT FEAR MY NAME SHALL THE SUN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS ARISE WITH HEALING IN HIS WINGS; AND YE SHALL GO FORTH, AND GROW UP AS CALVES OF THE STALL"

Bible Scholars Translate The "Sun Of Righteousness" To Be Jesus Christ As If It Reads The "Son Of Righteousness." But In Actuality The Sun They Are Talking About Is The Literal Sun, The Huge Gaseous Ball. The Word Used In This Quote Is The Aramic (Hebrew) Word SHAMESH (שמש) Meaning "Sun" Of TSEDEQ (צדוק) Or SODOQ (צדק) Meaning "Justice Or Righteousness." They Don't Use The Word SON Like BEN (בן) Or BAR (בר) Meaning "Son, Male Child." They Use The Word SUN Spelled S-U-N, The Source Of Light And Heat. They Speak Of The Sun Of Righteousness Bringing Out The Fire Upon Earth. Right! That Marks A Period Of Time Near The End Of The World, When The Sun Itself Will Become The Means Of Righteousness Or Justice. And That Justice Is A Confirmation Of A Prophecy That Was Made To You, That's When The Devil Comes Out To Harm You, Fire Will Rain Out Of Heaven Upon Them And Consume Them (Revelation 13:13, 20:9). And That's Happening To Them Right Now. But We Are Looking For Matches To Be Struck, And Flames, That's Only One Kind Of Fire. There Are A Variety Of Different Kinds Of Fires; There Is A Gas Fire, There Is A Carbon Fire, There Is An Oil Fire, An Electric Fire, A Wood Fire, A Coal Fire, And A Chemical Fire, Etc. (Refer To What And Where Is Hell?, Scroll #146)

Ques: How Does The Egyptian Sun Deity Ra Tie In With The Sun?

Ans: The Sun In Itself Called "Ra" Meaning "The Seer" By The Ancient Egyptians Is A Form Of Fire. The Ancient Egyptians Called Their Sun Deity "Amon Ra." The Name Amon Ra Is Mentioned As The AMEN In The Book Of Revelation Chapter 3 Verse 14 And I Quote: "..THESE THINGS SAITH THE AMEN, THE FAITHFUL AND TRUE WITNESS.." The Word Used In The Above Quote In The Greek Language Is AMEN (αμην) Meaning "Trustworthy", Which Is A Derivative From The Aramic (Hebrew) Root Word AW-MANE (אמן) Meaning "To Be Faithful, Trust" And In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language AMEN (امن)

Or AMEEN (امين) Meaning "Faith", Which Is The Name Said At The End Of Each Prayer In Christianity And Islaamic Religions. Thus, The Believer In The Islaamic Faith Are Called MU'MIN (مؤمن) And When They Refer To The Most High As Amen, They Use The 6th Attribute EL MU'MIN (المؤمن) Meaning "The Faithful." So, In The Above Quote Where It Says "Faithful," A Promise Was Made And Amun Ra Was Faithful To That Promise. So Amun Ra Has To Hold Faithful To His Promise To Us As "People Of The Sun."

The Name Amun Ra Is Just A Combination Of The Two Deities AMUN And RA As The Power Of Amun Spread, His Followers Proclaimed Him To Be A More Powerful Manifestation Of The Neter (Deity) Ra. Thus They Called Him Amun Ra. When I Say Amun Ra People Think Right Back To Idol Worship In Al Kham (Egypt), And I'm Talking About Ra From The Ashuric/Syraic (Arabic) Word Ra'a (راى) Meaning "To See" Which Is The Same Word In The Aramic (Hebrew) Language Ra'ah (ראה) Meaning "To See, Look At." The Letter For The Ancient Egyptian Sun Neter (Deity) Ra In Hieroglyphics Is The Letter ( ) Which Is The Same As The General Symbol Used For The Sun ( ). Amun Ra's Symbol Is The Sun, The Fire Of Nature That Is Causing The Skin Cancers And Eventual Elimination Of The Cursed Seed Of Canaan And Their Return Into The Shadows Of The Caves. AMUN RA Or AMUN-RE Was The Husband Of Mut, The Khamiy (Egyptian) Queen Netert (Female Deity) Of The Skies And A Reflection Of AMUN RA'S Light Whose Symbol Of Course Is The Moon.

Ques: Is The Fire Coming Down From The Sky As Spoken Of In Revelation Chapter 13 The Sun?

Ans: The Promise Spoken Of In The Book Of Revelation Is Being Fulfilled For You That The Time For The Devil Is Ending, The Fire Is Pouring Down Out Of The Sky Revelation 13:13. It's Happening To The Caucasians Right Now By Way Of The Sun.

The Fire Spoken Of In The Above Quote Is The Sun Which In The Greek Language Is Hay'-Lee-Os (ηλιος) From The Root Word Hele (ελη) Meaning "A Ray Of Light." These Rays Of Light Are The Gamma Rays And The Ultraviolet Rays That Harm The Skin And The Tissues Of The Body Causing Infectious Skin Disorders Such As:

- Skin Cancer - Mutations In DNA Which Causes Cells To Lose The Ability To Stop Dividing Thereby Causing The Skin Cells To Become Cancerous.

- Basal Cell Carcinoma (Epithelioma) - The Most Common Type Of Skin Cancer. It Appears As A Small Waxy Nodule With Rolled Translucent, Pearly Borders With Visual Blood Vessels On The Surface. This Type Of Cancer Can Result In The Loss Of A Nose, An Ear Or A Lip.

- Malignant Melanoma - The Deadliest Variety Of Skin Cancer. It Often Signals Its Presence By A Change Such As Irritation, Bleeding, Pain Or An Outline In An Ordinary Mole. A Tumor Of Melanocytes, Pigment Cells That Can Occur In One Of Several Forms: Superficial Spreading Melanoma, Lentigo-Malignant Melanoma, Nodular Melanoma, And Acral-Lentiginous Melanoma. People With It Can't Even Come Out In The Day Without Blisters Forming All Over Their Body Within Minutes.

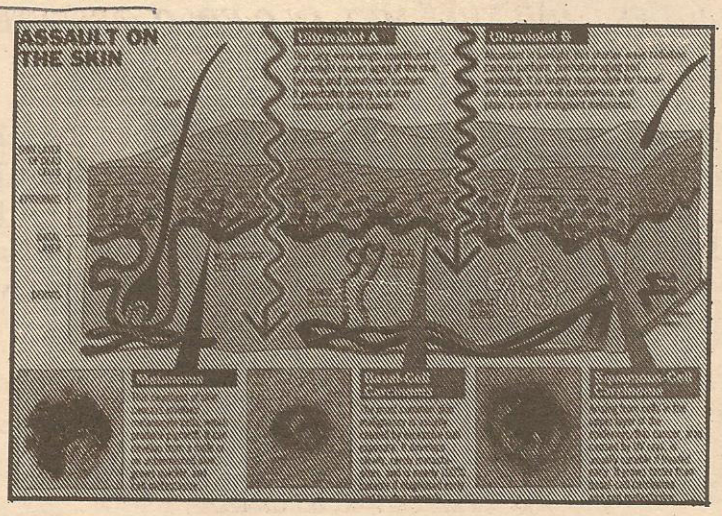

Diagram 8A
How Ultraviolet Rays Affect The Skin

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Ques: Why Are Some People Subjected To Bodily Damage From The Sun And Others Aren't?

Ans: It's Because Some People Have More Melanin Than Others. The Amount Of Melanin In A Persons Body Determines The Rate Of Damage The Ultra-Violet Rays Of The Sun Can Cause. The Higher Percentage Of Melanin In A Person's Body The Less They Will Be Affected By The Ultra-Violet Rays. Melanin Produces Brown To Black Eyes, Skin Tone And 9 Ether Hair. The People Who Are Melanin Recessive Beings Have A Deficiency Which Produces Lighter Skin, Lighter Eyes, And 6 Ether Blonde Hair. Melanin Acts As A Filter To Prevent Damage Of The Delicate Deeper Layers Of The Skin, By The Penetration Of Ultra-Violet Light.

Ques: What Is Melanin?

Ans: Melanin Which Is From The Greek Word Melano (μελανο) Meaning "Black" Is A Universal Pigment In Living Organisms Produced In The Pineal Gland From The Amino Acid Tyrosine By Pigment Cells Called Melanocytes. The Amount Of Melanin A Person Has Determines The Different Hues Of A Person's Skin Color, Hair, And Eyes. Which Is Contrary To Albinism Which Is The Absence Of Melanin, Therefore Causing White Eyes, And Very Light, Skin And Hair. There Are Other Pigments That Contribute To The Coloring Of The Skin Called Carotene Which Produces A Yellow-Orange Pigment And Hemoglobin, Which Produces A Red-Pink Pigment.

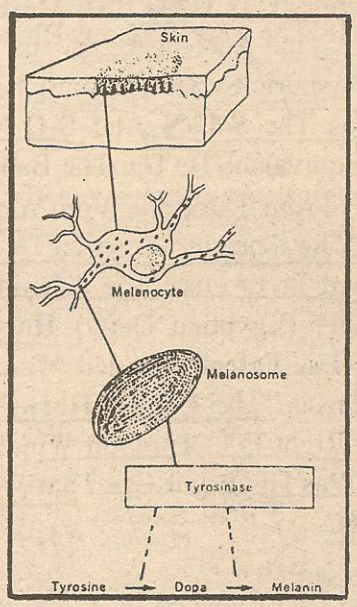

Diagram 9
The Process Of Melanin Pigmentation

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Melanin Is Abundantly Found In Primitive Organims Such As Fungi, As Well As Advanced Primates. Furthermore, Within Each Living Organism, Melanin Appears To Be Located In Major Functional Sites. For Example In Verterbrates, Melanin Is Not Only Present In The Skin But Also The Eyes, Ears, Central Nervous System, And The Diffuse Neurodocrine Loci, Among Other Things.

It Can Be Found In The Pineal Gland, Thyroid Gland, Thymus Gland, Parathyroid, Adrenal Gland, Carotid Body, And The Barathary Gland. Melanin Is Abundantly Present In The Viscera, Including The Heart, The Liver, The Arteries, The Muscles, The Gastrointestinal Tract, And The Gonads. Thus, Within Each And Every Living Organ Which Aids The Human Body Melanin Appears. Regardless Of What Color Your Skin Appears To Be, All Genes In All Creatures On This Planet Are Black Because They Are All Coated With Melanin. Melanin Was Given To You As A Gift From The ANUNNAQI, Being That You Were Pro-Created As A New-Being Or Nubian, In The Image And After The Likeness Of The ANUNNAQI ELOHEEM (Refer To "The Melanin-Ite Children" Scroll #133).

Ques: Who Is The Sun/Son Of God?

Ans: The Bible Scholars Always Refer To Jesus As The Son Of God (Matthew 3:17) And They Mean God's Sun, S-U-N, And The God They Are Talking About Is The God Of Ancient Egypt, HORUS Or HOR Which Means "High, Far Away" Also Said In The Aramic (Hebrew) As HAR (הור) Meaning "Mountain" And Also Called RA-HARRAKTE By The Ancient Egyptians (Kemetites). Horus Also Called HAAR (حار) In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language Meaning "Heat Or Hot" As The Sun's Heat Was The S-U-N And S-O-N Of Aset (Isis) And Usir (Osiris). Isis Which Is The Equivalent To The The Babylonian Ishtar Who Is Also Aset And Asheroth Which Is From The Root Word Aster (αστηρ), Meaning "Star" In The Greek Language And The Ancient Sumerian Deity Of Sin, Whose Son Was TAMMUZ, The Eloh Assigned To Oversee The Adamites. Tammuz Is Equivalent To The Ancient Khamiy Neter (Egyptian Deity) Har (Horus). Ha (Horus) Is Represented As A Falcon Or The Falcon-Headed Man. His Eyes Symbolized The Sun And The Moon. The Phrase "The Eye Of Horus" Which Is Also Called The Udjat Or Is Referring To His Right Eye, The Sun Which Is The Eye On The Dollar Bill Above The Pyramid. It Was His Right Eye That Was Lost In A Terrible Battle Between Him And Nebty (Set)

Nebty (Set) And Har (Horus) Had Engaged In A Terrible Fight Over The Death Of Usir (Osiris) Who Was Cut Up Into 14 Pieces By Nebty (Set). Nebty (Set) Wanted To Take The Place Of Aset (Isis) And Usir (Osiris) On The Throne So He Killed

Usir (Osiris). At The Time Of His Father's Murder Har (Horus) Was Not Even Conceived Yet. Once Isis Was Able To Collect All The Pieces And Fashion A Fake Phallis She Was Able To Conceive Horus Who, Once He Was Old Enough He Would Avenge His Fathers Death. So The The Armies Of Nebty (Set) And Har (Horus) Fought A Bitter And Bloody Battle In The Fields Of Edfu Which Har (Horus) Won Because Many Of Nebty's(Set's) Warriors Who Were Still Faithful To Aset (Isis) And Usir (Osiris) Broke From Their Ranks And Joined Har (Horus). Nebty (Set) Was Then Driven Out Of That Part Of Egypt And Unto The Eastern Borders. There Nebty (Set) Sought To Make A Stand At Zaru. He And Har's (Horus') Forces Fought Once Again, Only This Time Nebty (Set) And Har (Horus) Physically Fought Each Other. The Fight Lasted For Many Days. When It Was Over Once Again Har (Horus) Won But This Time He Lost An Eye To The Hand Of Nebty (Set).

Ques: What Is The Star In Relations To Religion?

Ans: The Star Is A Worldwide Symbol Used In Many Different Nations And Religions. The Word Star Is Simply Aster Without The A A-Ster And Becomes The Greek Word Aster (Αετερ) Which Is The Name Ester As Found In The Book Of Esther In The Old Testament. Note, No Where In The Whole Book Of Esther Do They Use Any Of The Names Of God In It. Esther In Aramic (Hebrew) Is Es-Tare (אתֶּ) And Means Simply "Star" Which Is Also The Aramic (Hebrew) Ashteroth

Jews (Jebusites) And The Blacks That Profess To Be Israelite Or Hebrew Use The Star Of David As A Talisman Of Protection Just As David Used It, For It Gave Him Dominion Over The Nations And Creatures. They Post It On Walls, They Wear It On A Chain Around Their Necks, They Have Stone Carvings Of The Star Of David, Etc. It Has Become A Regular Household Image Of Idolatry. The Use Of The 6 Pointed Star Is Just A Recent Innovation On Synagogues Which Originally Used What They Called The Seal Of Solomon Which Is A Pentagram Or A Five-Pointed Star. The Six-Pointed Star Was Adopted By The First So-Called Zionist Movement In 1897 A.D. And Became The Symbol Of Israel Just 47 Years Ago, In 1948 A.D. Prior To Almost Everyone Is A Star-Worshipper. Once You Reach A Certain Height As A Singer In The Music Business What Do They Call You? A SuperSTAR? What Do They Call Famous Actors? STARS. After You Win A Few Grammy's Or Oscar's What Do They Give You? A STAR In Hollywood's Walk Of Fame, Correct? And You Have Made Your Way To What? STARdom. Is It A Coincidence That All Of These Lead Straight To The Acknowledgement Of Stars? Which Couldn't Be True, Because Coincidents Happen Only Twice. Not Four And There Are More. Stars Are Found On Most Flags All Over The World. It's Used In All Militaries. It's Not A Coincidence That So Much Jewelry And Fashion Conscious People Use Stars, During Christmas, On The Top Of The Tree Is The Star, During Halloween, The Night Stars And Even The Egyptians And The Ancient Sumerians Depicted The Sun As A Large Star Which We At H.T.M. Acknowledge On Our Symbol.

Then There Is The American Lawmen Who Wear The Six-Pointed Star Badge On His Chest. These Lawmen Were Called Sheriffs, A Term Derived From The Ashuric/Syraic (Arabic) Language Is Shareef (شريف) Meaning "Noble, Distinguished, Eminent, Illustrious, Celebrated, Highborn, Honored." The Sheriffs Were The Ones Who Kept Nubians Under The Law And The Marshals Wore The Badge Or Shield With Five Points And They Kept The Rules And Regulations For The Canaanites.

Star Worship Was Also Introduced Into Many Of The Religions As Their Religous Symbol. This Is Wide Spread And Taught In America Such As: Islaamism And Its Use Of A Five Pointed Star Or An Eight Pointed Star For The Faith Of The Moslems And Christian Cults Like The Rosicrusians Who Use The Symbol Of The Cross, The Rose And A Five-Pointed Star And Aṣtara Using The Seven Pointed Star And The Lotus Plant As Well As The So-Called Star Of Bethlehem That Covers All Of The Other Christian Groups Which Is Generally Drawn As A Star Burst Having More Than A Five, Six, Seven, Or Eight Points. The Christians Holy Day Is Sun-Day, The Day They Worship The Sun. But The Sunni Muslims, And The Muslims In The East Claim Not To Acknowledge The Six-Pointed Star Because It Is The "Jewish Star" And Only The Jebusites, Sons Of Canaan And Shingarah Are Supposed To Wear It Yet, They Have It Carved Numerous Times In Their Mosques. Then You Also Have The Use Of The Moon Or The Crescent In These Religions Whether Its Symbolic Of Their Incoming Holidays. They Are Also Used In Satanic And Luciferian Worship, For Politics And Even When A Child Does Good In School The Teacher Gives Him Or Her A Gold Star. (The True Six-Pointed Star Is A Combination Of An Upright Triangle Which Is Symbolic Of The Tribe Of Ishmael And The Inverted Triangle, Symbolic Of The True Israelites Representing The Coming Together Of The "Two Covenants" And The Upright Crescent Represents The Seal Of The Newsbearer Mustafa Muhammad Al Amin, The Son Of Abdullat And Amina.)

The Muslims, They Are The The Muhammadans Who Declare La Illaha Illah Allah Wahdahu Laa Sharika Lahu (لا اله الله وحده لا شريك له) Which Translates As "Nothing Would Exist If Allah Didn't Create It And He Is Alone And Has No Partners," Yet They Fast For 30 Days During The Month Of Ramadaan (رمضان) An Ashuric/Syraic (Arabic) Word From The Root Ramada (رمض) Meaning "Burning" An Attribute Of A Star Or The Heat Of The Sun Which Is Also A Star, A Subtle Form Of Star-Worshipping. Throughout The Islaamic World, Ramadaan Is Observed Upon The Sighting Of The New Crescent Moon (Koran 2:189) Which Means That They Are Waiting For The Moon. Then They Have A Whole Chapter In The Koran Chapter 53 Called Suwrat 'L Najm (سورة النجم) Meaning "Chapter Of The Stars." Then They Have A Chapter Dedicated To The Zodiac Called Suwrat 'L Buruwj (سورة البروج) Meaning "The Chapter Of The Signs" Or "The Constellation" Which Are Stars. The Koran Even Says That Allah Is The Lord Of The Sirius Star Constellation (Koran 53:49) Yet, The Muslims Will Try To Pretend That They Don't Believe In Astrology Or Astronomy. The "S" Of Islam Is The Pyramid With The "All Seeing Eye" At The Top. The Light At The Top Symbolizes Knowledge, Wisdom, And Light. The "L" Of Islam Is The Compass And The Square Used By The Ancient Moors Who Were Navigators. The "A" Of Islam Is The Six-Pointed Star Which Represents The Divine Trinity Reflected Within You. The "M" Of Islam Is The Crossified Zero Zodiac Circle, So-Called Mark Of The Master Which Signifies That When One Has Completed The 360 Degrees Of Learning One Level In Which He Must Now Embark On The First Degree Of The Next Level. What Is Sad About This Is That These People Take An Arabic Word Islam (اسلم) Which Is Properly Said Al Islaam (الاسلام)) And The Arabic Word Is " ا " Equivalent To "A," " س " Equivalent To "S," " ل " Equivalent To "L" Another |" ا " Equivalent To "A" And An " م " Equivalent To "M." It Is Not Spelled Islam, It Would Be Islaam With Vowels, Something That Did Not Exist In Ancient Times So The "I" Would Originally Be An "A" And The Ancient Word Was Aslaam (اسلام). So To Do All Of This Symbolic Rhetoric Which The Five Percent Nation Also Do And Say That Islaam Means I, Self, Lord, And, Master, You Can See They Come From The Same Misinformation.

Then There Are The Ancient Arabic Order Of Nobles Of The Mystic Shrine Who Use The Symbol Of The Sword On Top Of The Star And Crescent Which Represents The Subjugation Of The Moorish Women To Their Men According To Moorish

Teaching That's What They Say. This Is Not What The Shriners Say According To Their Own Book Entitled "SACRED RITUAL OF THE SECRET WORKS OF THE ANCIENT ARABIC ORDER OF THE NOBLES OF THE MYSTIC SHRINE" By John G. Jones, Imperial Grand Potentate" On Page 43 "THE JEWEL OF THE ORDER IS A CRESCENT FORMED OF ANY SUBSTANCE. "THE MOST VALUED MATERIALS ARE THE CLAWS OF THE ROYAL BENGAL TIGER, UNITED AT THEIR BASES IN A GOLD SETTING WHICH INCLUDES THEIR TIPS, AND BEARS ON ONE SIDE OF THE CENTER THE HEAD OF A SPHINX AND ON THE OTHER A PYRAMID, URN AND STAR; WITH THE SATE OF THE WEARER'S RECEPTION INTO THE ORDER AND THE MOTTO: ARABIC, "KUWAT WA GHADAB," LATIN, :"ROBUR ET FUROR," ENGLISH, STRENGTH AND FURY." And Of It They Say THE CRESCENT HAS BEEN A FAVORITE RELIGIOUS EMBLEM IN ALL AGES IN THE ORIENT, AND ALSO A POLITICAL ENSIGN IN SOME COUNTRIES, SUCH AS IN MODERN TURKEY AND PERSIA. THE ANCIENT GREEK USE THE CRESCENT AS AN EMBLEM OF THE UNIVERSAL MOTHER OF ALL LIVING THINGS, THE VIRGIN MOTHER OF ALL SOULS, WHO WAS KNOWN AS DIANA, ARTEMIS, PHOEBE, CYNTHIA, AND OTHER NAMES VARYING WITH THE CHARACTER OF HER ATTRIBUTES IN A DIFFERENT LOCALITIES. THE CHIEF SEAT OF DIANA CULT AND WORSHIP WAS AT EPHESUS, AND THE GREAT TEMPLE BUILT IN HER HONOR AT THAT CITY WAS THE PRIDE AND GLORY OF THE GREEKS." It Is Called The Master Key Of All Wisdom. "THIS IS YET ONLY A SYMBOL AND REFER TO A HIGHER AND PURE SOURCE, THE GREAT FOUNTAIN OF LIGHT, THE SUN, WHICH IS ALSO AN EMBLEM OF THE GREAT FIRST CAUSE, OF LIGHT AND INTELLIGENCE." On Page 17, "THE TEMPLE DARKENED FURNITURE: ALTAR OF OBLIGATION COVERED IN BLACK HAVING ON IT THE BIBLE AND THE KORAN THE BLACK STONE, OR HOLY STONE OF BLACK MARBLE, ONE FOOT SQUARE OR MORE AND TWO CROSSED SWORDS; RIGHT OF EAST." According To Their Book And Their Own Teachings These Crossed Swords Identify With The Crossed Swords Of The Original Saudia Arabian Flag In The East And According To Their Own Shrine Test: "Q: AT WHAT SHRINE DID YOU WORSHIP? A: AT THE SHRINE OF ISLAM. Q: ARE YOU A NOBLE AND MYSTIC SHRINE? A: I HAVE TRAVELED THE ARABIC PATH." So It Is

Originally Called "Allah Temple Of Islam," The Nation Of Islam Uses A Red Flag With A Five Pointed Star And The Tilted Crescent On Their Flag Which Represents The Nation Of Islam As A Separate State. The Red In The Flag Symbolizes The Sun, According To The Flag Of Islam, By The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, Messenger Of Allah (Master W.Fard Muhammad) Page 4 Where It States *"THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE SUN IN OUR FLAG IS ITS FREEDOM OF LIGHT, WARMTH, HEAT AND LIFE AND VITAMINS IN LIFE. ALLAH (GOD) USES THE SUN TO CONDEMN SLAVERY. THE SUN COVERS THE WHOLE ENTIRE AREA OF THE FLAG. IT IS REPRESENTED BY THE RED COLOR OF THE FLAG, THE TOTAL BACKGROUND OF THE FLAG. THE FACT THAT WE ARE OFFERED THE SUN IN OUR FLAG MEANT THAT ALLAH (GOD) IS OFFERING TO US THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE OF MAN. FOR AS THE SUN COVERS ALL LIFE AND THE WHOLE OF THE NINE SPHERES OF PLANETS THAT REPRESENT LIFE - THE SUN ACTS AS A FATHER AND A GOD OVER LIFE IN ITS WORK OF GIVING LIGHT AND DISPELLING DARKNESS. THE SUN PROVIDES US WITH ITS WARMING HEAT AND LIFE - GIVING RAYS THAT SERVE AS A GROWER AND NURSER OF THE PHYSICAL EARTH OF OUR PLANET AND OF OTHER PLANET. WITHOUT THE SUN EVERYTHING THAT IS OF THE ESSENCE OF NATURE, LIKE OUR EARTH, WOULD COME TO A NAUGHT. THE SUN SHINES UPON EVERYTHING WITHIN HER SPHERE OF POWER. The Entire Political System Is Based Around The Five-Pointed Star, Which Is Also The Star Of Satan Used In White Witchcraft And Satanism And Believed To Be The Bright Morning Star Of The Book Of Isaiah Chapter 14 Verse 12 Who Is Haylal, The Son Of Tarnush And Mylitta And The Moon Is The Goddess Dianna. The Five-Pointed Star Symbolizes WAR, Which Backwards Is RAM, Also Known As Baphomet Or The "Goat Of Mendes," The Symbol Of The Ram's Head, Which Backwards Again Is Mars "The Red Planet," And Planet Is Simply An E.T.'s Plan Or Plan-E.T., Meaning "Plan Of Destruction."

This Five-Pointed Star Was Given To The Canaanites By Nimrod, Son Of Cush And Semiramis (Genesis 10:8) By Way Of The Code Of Hammurabi. The Code Of Hammurabi Was Designed To Civilize And Control The Lepers Cleaned Up By Abraham In The Kingdom Of Nimrod. Hammurabi Who Ruled Over The First Mesopotamian Dynasty Of Babylon In 1792 B.C Issued Over 280 Laws And Regulations That Covered Everything From Regulating A Medium Of Exchange (Prices, Barter, Wages) To Establishing A Series Of Punishments And Penalties For Offenders Of The Code. The Laws Of The Code Of Hammurabi Constituted An Entire Political System, Which Is Presently In This Day And Time, The Foundation Of The Canaanites Political System.

The Feminine Branch Of The Masons Is Called The Order Of The Eastern Star. They Use The Five-Pointed Star As Their Symbol, Each Point Symbolizing The Five Degrees One Can Obtain And The Five Women Of The Bible: Adah The Daughter, Ruth The Widow, Esther The Wife, Martha The Sister, And Electa The Mother.

The Five Pointed Star Can Also Be A Representative Of The Woman's Body (Two Arms, Two Legs, A Head And A Womb) When Placed Upright. Whereas The Six-Pointred Star Is A Representative Of Man (Two Arms, Two Legs, A Head And A Penis.) Often Misinterpreted By The Five Percenters Who Eliminate The Penis And Say Allah Is Equivalent A- Arm, L-Leg, L-Leg, A-Arm, And H-Head Without The Sixth Extension Which Would Be The Penis. Again Misusing An Arabic Word Allah (الله), A - Alif For Arm When The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Word For Arm Is (ذراع) Dhera'a, Which Begins With The Letter Dhal " ذ " Not Alif " ا " Or "A" And The Word For Leg Is Rejal (رجل) Which Begins With The Letter Raa " ر " Not Laam "ل" Or "L" And The Arabic Word For Head Is Ra'as (راس) Which Begins With The Letter Raa " ر " Not The Letter Haa (ح) Or "H" . So Here Again Is Another Bogus Attempt To Make Sense With Something That Doesn't. Misinformation Is Our People's Biggest Problem (Read "Fake Gods False Christs" Scroll# 105).

Ques: What Is The Symbol Of The Sun?

Ans: Alot Of The Newer Crosses Have A Circle On Them, Which Implies The Sun. In Ancient Egypt The Disk Is Symbolic Of The Sun. You'll Find In Scientific Symbols That The Symbol Of The Sun Is Always Depicted As A Large Circle With A Dot In The Center (⊙). This Symbol Now Lays On The Center Of The Cross Implying That The Son That Is On The Cross Is Really The Sun. Without The Dot As A Complete Circle, It Is Symbolic Of The Full Moon (O). The Original Clocks Were Round Disks Called Sun Dials. As You See A Halo Or Hay'-Lee-Os Around The Head Of Christian Saints And Jesus, Again You Have The Symbol Of A Disk. You Are Looking At The Sun Symbol.

In Science And Symbolism, If You Look In Any Dictionary You'll Find That The Symbol Of The Earth Is A Circle With An "X" Through It (⊗) Also Called The Solar Halo, And The Numerical Value Of "X" Just Happens To Be "10" Which Brings You Back To The 10Th Letter Of The Hebrew Alphabet Yod "י" Which Is "Yah" Or "Yahuwa" Or "Yahweh" Symbolic Of The Ten Commandments. And The Yod "י" Is A "y" As In The Third Greek Letter Gamma "γ." Thus You Have Your Trinity 1-Osiris, 2-Isis, 3-Horus, And The Symbol Of Madonna Is Of Isis And Her Son Horus Or Ishtar And Her Son Tammuz Symbolic Of The Sun. The Father Osiris, Is "The Left Eye" And "The Moon" Is The Mother Ishtar Who Is Also The Symbol Of The Heart Also Known As Diana Or Dina, The Moon Goddess Or Selene (σεληνη) Which Is The Greek Word For Moon, And The Star Which Is Also A Sun, Horus, "The Left Eye."

So You Have The Sun, The Moon And The Star. In Matthew 6:9 Jesus Says And I Quote, "OUR FATHER WHO ART IN HEAVEN," He Is The Sun, Jesus Is Called In Revelation 22:16, And I Quote "I JESUS HAVE SENT MINE ANGEL TO TESTIFY UNTO YOU THESE THINGS IN THE CHURCHES, I AM THE ROOT AND THE OFFSPRING OF DAVID, [AND] THE BRIGHT MORNING STAR'," And In Revelation 12:1 They Say And I Quote, "AND THERE APPEARED A GREAT WONDER IN HEAVEN; AND WOMAN CLOTHED WITH THE SUN, AND THE MOON UNDER HER FEET, AND UPON HER HEAD A CROWN OF TWELVE STARS:" The Greek Word They Are Using ORTHRINOS (ορινθηοσ) Means "Morning" Or "Early" And Is A Derivative Of OSIRIS, And The Greek Word Being Used For "Star" Is ASTARE (αδτερα) Which Is The Name ASHTEROTH Which Is ISHTAR, And HORUS In Greek Is The Word HUIOS (ηιοδ) Simply Meaning "Son Of Man, Son Of God, Son." Thus, You Have Your Sun, Moon, And Star.

The 12 Signs Of The Zodiac Are Symbolic Of The 12 Disciples, The Hawaariyuwn And The Sun Is The Bright Morning Star, Jesus, The Star You See Brightly In The Morning.

The Romans Used The Cross As A Punishment Of Crucifixion. This Symbol Originated From The Ancient Egyptian Ring Symbol, The Ankh. This Ring Called The Ankh Is The Symbol Of Life In The Next Realm With The Anunnaqi, And Was Worn As A Protection Against Illness. The Ring Symbolizes Resurrection. It's A Circle Above A Horizontal Line Which Symbolizes The Earth And Circle Symbolizes The Rising Of The Sun And The Vertical Line Symbolizes Their Descension To The Planet Earth, A Springing Into Life.

The Tau Is An Altered Form Of The Ancient Egyptian Ankh, Which Is The Greek Letter Tau "T," Adapted From The Aramic (Hebrew) Letter Taw "," The 23rd Letter, Meaning "The Cross." The Tau Was A Prominent Symbol In Ancient Writings Which Meant "Sign" Or "Mark." Its Also The Greek Symbol For The Astrological Sign Of The Bull, Taurus.

Diagram 33

The Masons Use The Tau Under The Symbol Of The "T" Square. In The Mysteries Of The Persian Sun God Mithra, The Tau Cross Was Inscribed On The Forehead Of Every Person Admitted. In Ancient Egypt, When A Ruler Was Initiated Into The Egyptian Mysteries, The Tau Was Placed Against His Lips. The Ankh Has Often Been Misassociated With The Crux Ansata Of The Coptic Church. This Was A Cross In The Form Of A "T" Which Represented The Greek Tau "T," And An "O," Which Represents The Greek Letter Omega "O" Meaning Last Doomed Or Dead. Thus This Symbol Represented The Mark Of Death, The Death Of Usir (Osiris).

Each Year The Media Tells You, Not To Go To The Beaches. As For The Caucasians This Puts Them In A Bad Predicament Because They Love Beaches. Beaches Is A Symbol Of Nudity To Them. The Word Nude Is Short For The Aramic (Hebrew) Word NUWD (נוד), The Land Of Nod Meaning "Wandering." Now They Are Pushing For Nudity Beaches And It's Amazing Because They Can't Go To The Beach. So They Must Be Pushing For Nudity Beaches For You And I. Because It Says In Koran 7:27 And I Quote: "OH CHILDREN OF ADAM! LET NOT SATAN SEDUCE YOU, IN THE SAME MANNER AS HE GOT YOUR PARENTS OUT OF THE GARDEN, STRIPPING THEM OF THEIR RAIMENT, TO EXPOSE THEIR SHAME" So He Can't Be Making Nude Beaches For Themselves Because They Can't Go To The Beach Anymore. The Media Is Telling Everyone To Stay Off The Beaches. If They're Not Being Burnt, Then There Is Poison In The Water, And There's Fires And Floods All Across The Countries. All This Is Done By The ILLUMINATI, Who Are Trying To Destroy The Surface Of The Planet So That You Will Have To Go Underground With Them.

Ques: Do People Of The Sun Have To Go Into Hiding With The Europeans?

Ans: It Depends On If You're Prepared Or Not. You Have To Be Prepared. Regardless Of How Close The Sun Becomes To The Planet Earth, It Will Not Have Any Effect On "People Of The Sun."

Ques: Do Nubians Have To Prepare Yourselves As Individuals?

Ans: No, You Have To Prepare Yourselves As A Body. That Is Your Problem You Keep On Breaking Into Individuals And Dividing Like You Have No Power. You Are The Only People That Are Disunited Amongst Yourselves.

You Allow Yourselves To Get Broken Down. Starting From The Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventist, Sunni Muslims, Black Muslims, Five Percent Nation, Israeli Church, And Hebrew Israelites. You Are Broken Up Into All Kinds Of Stupid Splinter Groups Battling Against Each Other Over Who's Religion Is The Right Way Of Life. There Is The Egyptologist, Dr. Yosef Ben Jochannan On This Side, And Dr. John Henrik Clarke, The Historian Is On That Side, And Siraj Wahhaj Of The Sunni Muslims And Ex-Black Muslim Is Over Here, And Muhammad Al Amin (H. Rap Brown) Of The Orthodox Sunni Muslims, And Ex-Revolutionist, And Minister Farrakhan Of The Black Muslims Are Over There And Warith D. Muhammad Of The World Communtity Of Islam Is Over Here, That's Just In The Islaamic World. Then When You Get Into The Hebrew Israelite World, You Have Ben Ammi Ben Israel Of The African Hebrew Israelite Community Of Jerusalem, Yahweh Ben Yahweh Of The Hebrew Israelites, Rabbi Jeremiah Of The Black Israelites, And Rabbi Matthews Of The Black Jews And That's Only In The Black So Called Jewish Section. Then When You Get Into Christianity. You Have The Seventh Day Adventists, The Pentecostals, The Protestants, The Baptists, The Orthodox And The Catholic Church, Etc., And All Of This Has Been Set Up To Divide You, People Of The Sun In Mind. Because The Power Of Nubians Coming Together Mentally Can And Will Affect The World. Those Things Are To Keep Us Divided In Mind, In These Last Days And Time.

The Devil's Time Is At Its Expiration Date And Fulfilling The Prophecy. His 6,000 Years That's Coming To An End (Revelation 12:12). Now What He Has To Do, Is To Get Off Of The Surface Of The Planet Earth. If You Just Be Patient, He Will Have To Leave, He Can't Reverse The Global Warming. He Cannot Push The Sun Away. He Cannot Reverse The Depletion Of The Ozone Layer. He Can't Stop Any Of These Nature-Made Disasters. It's Not Bothering You, The People Of The Sun. It's Bothering The Caucasian Race. He's Convincing You That It's Bothering You. He's Trying To Tell You, That You Better Not Go To The Beach, Because If You Go To The Beaches You Will Catch Skin Cancer. What's Wrong With You? You Were Born On The Beach. What Do You Think Ethiopia Is, What Do You Think Sudan Is, 130°F, 110°F. All Year Around. I'm Waiting For The Sun. I Raise My Hands To The Most High, Like My Ancient Egyptian Ancestors Did And Say Come Closer To Earth Because The Closer He Gets, The Quicker The Canaanite Has To Go Underground.

What The Canaanites Are Trying To Do Now Is, They Are Trying To Destroy The Surface Of The Planet. So They Are Poisoning The Water So You Won't Have Any Fresh Fish. They Are Burning All The Forests So All The Livestock Is Gone. They Corrupted All The Farm Land. Then They Tore Down The Rain Forests Which Made A Way For All Of These New Diseases To Come Such As The Ebola Virus, Which Is The Third Plague, Another Prophecy Fulfilled. Then They Are Destroying All The Countries That Oppose Them, Places Where You Might Take Refuge. All Of The Countries In The Middle East Are Being Wiped Out, The Sudan, Ethiopia, And Somalia. And Don't Fall For The "Somali Lift." That Somali Lift Was The Result Of The Fact That They Broadcasted On Public T.V. And Everyone Saw The Camps In Russia And How There Were Canaanites Starving Over There. So They Had To Rush Food Over There. And All It Took Was One Day For Them To Close All Those Camps In Russia And Bring Food, Because The Public's Eye Was On It. They Sent A Couple Of Bags Of Beans To Ethiopia So It Would Look Like A Balanced Package From The United Nations. They Are Really Not In The Least Concerned With Them. Part Of The Plot Is To Destroy All Of What's Called In The Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Language Afriqiyya (افريقيا) From The Root Word Faraqa (فرق) Meaning "To Divide, Part, Separate," Africa, Either By A.I.D.S., This New Virus Called Ebola, Famine, And Diseases, They Are Going To Wipe It Out. They Have To Go Back In The Cave. They Have No Choice. They Built All Of These Beautiful High Rises, And Condominiums, And Now It's Killing Them, All Of The So Called Europeans Who Lived On The Southern Part Of Africa, Are Now Moving North.

Ques: So Does That Means That The Afrikaners Or White Africans Are Going To Eventually Leave Out Of South Africa?

Ans: Yes, They Have To Leave Out Of South Africa, But It's Going To Be In Such A Bad State, That There Is Going To Be Nothing You Can Do With It Anyway. They Gave The Lands To These Canaanites. They Didn't Have To. They Didn't Have To Leave Nelson Mandela In Jail For 27 Years, They Wanted Him In There Until They Could Labotomize Him And Use Him As A Tool To Control His Followers.

But Let Me Get Back To Where You Are At. People Always Ask Me About South Africa, I'm Not In South Africa, You Are Right Here In America And You Have Problems That You Better Get Straight. You'd Better Start Worrying About What's Happening With You Here, Because You Are Running Out Of Time. And They Are Making More Demands. The Reason Why The Canaanites Are Trying To Renovate Your Neighborhoods And Buy Up Your Neighborhoods, Is Because They Have To Get Out Of The South. They Have To Leave Georgia, They Have To Leave Florida, They Have To Leave South Carolina And They Will Have To Live In An Upper Part Of North Carolina Where The Weather Is Controllable Until They Can Go Underground. So Now When You Drive Up To The Catskill Mountains, All You See Is Florida's License Plates And Jews Walking Around. Because They Are Trying To Find Places Up There, In Canada, Etc., That's Their Refuge. The Same As When Canaan Took His Wife Salha Up Into The Caucasus Mountains Because The Cold Weather Was Favorable To His Disease.

You Are Ethiopians, You Are Egyptians, You Are Cushites, Hamites, Shemites, Ptahite Ethiopian (Kuwshites). You Are Broken Up Into Tribes And Families Known As Ashante, Adigins, Ebos, And Many Other Names. But When You Get Pass All Those Tribal Names, And You Get Down To It You Are Shemites, And The Semites. You Are From The Seed Of Shem From Which Elam, Asshur The Father Of The Ashuric Language, Arfaxad, Lud, Aram The Father Of The Aramic Language, Uz, Hul, Gether And Mechech, By His Wife Faatin (Genesis 10:22-23) Come From. So You Have To Prepare Yourselves For This Hour And Time.

Ques: What Is Destroying The Planet Earth?

Ans: Nature Is Destroying The Planet Earth. You Are In The Last Five Years Of The Canaanites' Rule, The Sun Is On Our Side And Nature Is On Our Side. Nature Is Intentionally Destroying The Planet Earth, With All Kind Of Earthquakes, Hurricanes, Volcanic Eruptions, And Storms (Revelation 16:17,18). And When You Look On The News There Is Nothing But Hurricane After Hurricane, Tornadoes, Fires, Earthquakes, Disasterous Storms Etc. Meanwhile The Canaanites Are Burning Up All The Forests, When You Burn The Forests Your Chasing The Animals, If He's Burning The Forest Down There, Then Which Direction Is He Chasing The Animals? If He's Poisoning All The Waters On The Sea Coast Of Florida, Then Where Is He Chasing All The Fish? Down There From The South, Why Would He Chase All The Fish And The Animals Up To The North, Because He's Going To Live Up There, So

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

The Best Way To Chase You, Is To Light A Fire. If I Light A Fire In The South, Then I Can Guarantee That Whatever Animals Are There, Are Going To Run Up North And There You Will Set Up Your Colony For Survival. These Are Your Canaanites Preparing For The End Of Times. Can You Say The Same. Are You Preparing For What Is To Come?

Ques: Is There Really A Such Thing As Dracula?

Ans: Yes. When You Look In The New Testament In Revelations Chapter 12, 13 And 20 In The Greek Translations The Word For Serpent Is DRAKEON (δρακων), And In The Aramic (Hebrew) They Say TANIYN (תנין) Which Is A Hybrid Creature Or A Dragon. The Name Dracula Is From A German Origin And It's DRAKEON Meaning "Son Of The Draco" Which Comes From A Species Of Reptilians Called Gargoyles That Have Special "Wings," Which Are Flaps Of Skin Supported By Long Ribs Of Dracona. Dracula Is A Symbol Of A Being That Cannot Stay Under The Sun. He's Ruled By Night And He Needs Fresh Blood, Because He Is A Hemophiliac.

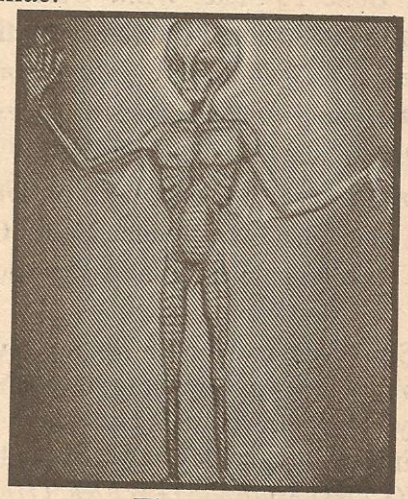

Figure 107
Gargoyles

Ques: What Is A Hemophiliac?

Ans: A Hemophliac Is A Being That Suffers From A Disorder Called Hemophilia, Which Is The Delayed Clotting Of The Blood Which Leads To Excessive Bleeding. They Lack Certain Clotting Factors Called Hemoglobin In The Plasma Of The Blood That Allows The Blood To Clot And Make A Scab And Heal An Open Wound. Without The Hemoglobin In Their Blood, The Slightest Bodily Injury Would Cause One To Bleed To Death. So They Are In Constant Need Of Blood Which Makes

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Them Nothing But Your Modern Day Vampires Or Dracula. If You Break This Word Up, You Will See Its Actual Meaning: Hemo Meaning "Blood" And Phila Meaning "Tendency Towards" From The Greek Word Philos (φιλος) Meaning "Loving." Therefore, Hemophiliacs Have A Tendency To Love Blood.

Ques: Where Are The Modern Day Draculas?

Ans: Dracula Has To Go Into A Sarcophagus Or A Sepulcher, Or A Coffin In The Daytime During The Sunlit Hours. In Ancient Days There Weren't Any Coffins, People Were Put Inside Caves, And He Has To Have The Natural Soil Under It. So They United In Europe, And Began Building Underground Tunnels And Bases In Europe, China, Russia, Vietnam, And Japan Etc. These Tunnels And Bases Are So Well Equipped That Officials And Their Entire Families Have Been Living There For Years Now And Have Never Come To The Surface. There Are Bases Set Up Where You Could Be Standing In California And You Can Walk Through One Door And End Up In Australia. Or Go Through Another Door And End Up In China And Some Of The Doors Connect From State To State, While Others Connect From Continent To Continent. As Spoken Of In An Article Featured In Omni Magazine, September 1983 A.D., "..Entering A New Era Of Planetary Engineering." Then It Goes On To Say "In Fact, The Art Of Designing Such Immersed Tubes Is So Advanced That A Leading Japanese Construction Firm Has Contemplated A Railroad Tube Stretching 100 Miles Across The Pusan Straits From Japan To South Korea." These Tunnels Were Also Built In The Event That The Planet Earth Comes Under Attack By Extraterrestrial Beings Or If The Planet Was To Self-Destruct.

Dracula Is Aware That The Sun Cycle Is Coming In. So "Evening" And "Morning" Is Passing For A 7th Day Meaning You Are Finishing 6,000 Years And Going Into The 7,000th Year Or The 7th Day, So If His Time Is Up In The Year 2,000 Which Is Year 6,000 From Canaan That Ends Another Day. As Recorded In Genesis 1:5 And I Quote: "AND THE EVENING AND MORNING WERE THE FIRST DAY." Now Let's Go Into The 7th Day Because Everybody Desisted On The Last 7th Day, And They Called It Shabath Genesis 2:2. Now You Are Coming Into The 7th Day, A New Horizon, The Sun Is Getting Closer To The Planet. Dracula Has To Get Back Into His Coffin Or The Sun Will Burn Him Up. It's Just Called In Modern Terms, Skin Cancer. You People Of The Sun Need To Stop Wrestling With The Devil, And Stay Out Of The Way. NUBIAN NATION

For Too Long Now, We Have Looked For Our Own Savior, Our Personal Savior, One Of Us. And Now Melchizedek As Dr. Malachi Z. York (Nayya Malachizodok-El), The Lamb Is With Us Of The Ancient Ones, The Once Lost But Now Found Tribe Of Washitaw, A Direct Descendant Of Ben York. With The Right Knowledge, Wisdom And Overstanding; Today A Living God In The Person. He Is One Of The Ancient Ones, A Moor By Nationality, A Nubian By Nation, An Anunnaqi By Descendancy, And A Washitaw By Tribe. This New Voice Is Strong. If You Think As Sayyid Issa Al Haadi Al Mahdi Was Strong, You Are In For A Surprise. Now You Have To Listen To Amunnubi Rooakhptah, Our Pharaoh Who Is Raising Atlantis (Atlan) Out Of The Earth Right Before Our Eyes.The Egypt Of The West. This Eloheem Is All Powerful. He Told Us For Years That He Was Not A Prophet, Apostle, Or Jesus Christ And That One Day He Would Tell Us Who He Really Is. He Simply Called Himself Al Khidr, The Green One Known As Melchizedek Having All The Ancient Wisdom Needed To Give Us An Overstanding Of What We Must Do To Become Gods Again. He Said He Lived Throughout Time From Body To Body Incarnating And Is Here To Dispel The Spell Of Kingu (Leviathan) From Us, The Ancient Moors,The Washitaw, The True Seed Of The Ancient Ones, The Nuwaubians.

Dr. Malachi Z. York Has Helped Many Human Beings Of All Races Only For Them To Turn Their Backs On Him And His Love. We Have Seen Him Heal The Sick With One Touch Of His Hand. He Would Tell Us Everything That Was Going To Happen And It Always Came True. And Still He Tells Us More. He Is A Dark Little Man, Reddish Brown Skin Color, Eyes Like Flames Of Fire And Hair Like Lamb's Wool. He Is Here Right Now In Human Form. Don't Believe The Lies.

Come Experience Him For Yourself. He Is The Key To Unlock The Doors, Our Salvation. He Always Told Us: I Came Giving You What You Want So You Would Learn To Want What I Have To Give.

ISAIAH 19:19-20

Tama-Re "Egypt Of The West"

First Edition

INTRODUCTION

Before time as you know it was logged, beings existed in and out of this dimension. Worlds existed, planets were inhabited by intelligent, and not so intelligent beings, who all lived in their own times zones, based on their locations in this vast boundless universes. Each place is in itself the place or origin of time, as in the word then, which becomes past and present simultaneously. These were agreeable and disagreeable beings. This was a system that was very similar to that presently on earth, called the chain of existence that existed. Where as, stars burnt out, planets died, and beings had to seek residence in other star systems. Often times we re-developed new survival tactics, eating habits, and even genetic alterations and manipulations to make it possible for us to exist in environments unsuited for our biological existence. We often times had to alter environments, create climates and seasons.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Often times, the survival of one being, meant the extinction of another. One of these such star systems was Rizq, a planet in the 19th galaxy, the 8th planet of a three sun system which was inhabited by the Rizqiyians, also called Neteru. The three suns of this planet Rizq, were known in time by different names. The most common being Atum, Atun and Amun, referred to as the Re-Ra (rays). The Sumerians call them Utu, Afsu and Shamash. When this planet, Rizq was visited by disagreeable beings from a dying star they were welcomed into this great empire. Those that welcomed them were called Neteru. The Sumerians called them Anutu.

The council of 9 Enneads of the pre-dynastic periods, before man was called man. These deities met with open arms, and they passed our decision on to the 24 elders of Rizq, who passed it on to the 144 governors of the 18 and 19th galaxies, 72 governors of the disagreeable 18th galaxy and 72 governors of the agreeable 19th galaxy. Thus, it was agreed to share one of the three continents of the planet Rizq with these beings in distress. Rizq's three continents are called Zarantu, Darnuriyya and Kusmusta. These disagreeable beings were only allowed to live on the continent called Darnuriyya.

In time, these disagreeables had decided that they wished to rule the whole planet, and even the whole galaxy, under one such being called Tarnush, who ruled a variety of star systems, such as Draco, Aldebaran, Betelgeuse, Pleiades, Andromeda, and others, all on this side of the Milky Way. Recent discoveries have found the 19th galaxy through other star systems, where scientists and astronomers have discovered 4 new solar systems: 1) Fomalhaut, where a star is covered by matter, 2) Beta Pictoris, which shows a star covered by dust, and a blob below it covered by dust, 3) Hr 4796A, a cloud of dust surrounds, which is an infant solar system, 4) Vega, where you see a star and a concentrated spot then layers of clouds.

They have also discovered two suns and they will soon discover a 3rd. On October 8, 1997 astronomers have discovered what they call the most powerful star as of yet, and named it the Pistol Star, because of its shape. The star was discovered using the Hubble Telescope, which is powerful enough to see eruptions. The magnitude of the star is 9 million times brighter than the Sun. As the agreeable beings from the 19th galaxy get nearer to the disagreeable beings from the 18th galaxy, and the time runs out and the star wars in the form of quasars, meteorite showers, climatic alterations, floods, land slides, tornadoes, earth quakes, hurricanes, volcanic eruptions, viruses ongoes. The disagreeables are in Deere, and confusion. This is a repeat of what took place on Rizq, and then this disagreeable being Tarnush, also known as Beelzebub, Humbaba, Zuen, the Dragon, Satan, etc. wished to rule Illyuwn. This resulted in the destruction of the shield that protected Rizq, much like what the disagreeable amongst your race of humans, who are destroying your ozone layer are doing today.

The first ones to be warned by the guardian beings called Etherians about the dangers were the nine Enneads, and they in turn warned the 24 Neteru, who warned the 144 Aaferti. Crafts were prepared for these elders, to depart this planet for another planet in this same galaxy Illyuwn. They headed for one of the 18 other planets in the 19th galaxy Illyuwn. This planet was Septet, so Sibtu that which shares the 18th and 19th galaxies, the link between the two. You call it Sirius, and whom the Greeks call Sothis, having two moons, and its sister star system Mirzam. We went there in order to prepare a plan and solution to the problems on our home planet before its total destruction, which would result in a star holocaust, and a total destruction of that galaxy Illyuwn. This would have resulted in the total collapse of the 18th galaxy, the Milky Way, where you presently reside.

Something had to be done immediately. However, the atmosphere on Sibtu was unsuitable for us at the time, so our wise elders, the Dinneer, the etheric beings advised us through the Igigi that we must find residence somewhere else. Meanwhile the Dinneer had prepared great crafts called Nibiru, that would scout the universe in search for a precious metal called Zahab that could be changed into dust, and create a shield, to protect the dying planet Rizq, until things could be put under control. Our explorations took us to LAHMU, called Mars, and SHESHQI, called the Moon, where plans for the construction of cylinder crafts, were built. Also biological servants had to be created called Rumardians, beings that without equipment, could survive and could enter different atmospheres and environments without danger.

Many scientists insisted that there was no life on Mars even after evidence was presented to them. Many were in opposition to the idea of a modern Martian civilization that was brought forth in 1877 A.D. by the Italian astronomer Giovanni Schiaparelli. The complete surface of Mars has been photographed in 1976 A.D. Photos taken proved that there are canals and waterways on the Planet Mars. Two American spacecrafts, Viking 1 and 2, took photographs of the Planet and also ejected landing modules to probe for life. On July 20, 1976 A.D., the Viking 1 took a photograph of an odd looking plateau in the plains of Cydonia on its 35th orbit. Nasa kept this quiet and wrote it off as "an oddity of light and shading." Viking 2 landed September 3, 1976 A.D. 1,800 miles away from viking 1. Space engineers, Vincent Dipetro and Greg Molenar, later checked into the Viking's photo file, they discovered that 35 days later, on a different orbit and sun angle the viking had caught the Martian "sphinx" on frame 70A13. The engineers enhanced the photos and came to the conclusion that the face was of artificial origin and that there was also a huge, five-sided pyramid lying nearby. Richard C. Hoagland, a scientist who used to work for NASA, made a claim that a place on Mars named Cydonia has the ruins of an entire Martian city full of pyramids, which are geometrically aligned with the face and the larger five-sided pyramid.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

The face on Mars was an ancient marker for incoming Extraterrestrials to know about the project of Homo Erectus to Homo Sapien. Homo Erectus were being abducted from the Planet Earth and then taken to a laboratory on the planet Mars. What you are seeing are remnants of cities, bases and monuments of an ancient Egyptian civilization.

All of this was done because of a great crash that took place during one of the many missions from Illyuwn the 19th galaxy, through the 18th galaxy in pursuit of gold.

One of these such missions resulted in a tremendous crash into a planet called Maldek, which was inhabited by Maldekians, or Troglodytes, who were what you call Reptilians. This event caused a major catastrophe on the planet Maldek, killing off most of the beings, leaving only the military and the warriors alive, whose intent was revenge, which made Nibiru wallop and bump into another distant planet in the 18th galaxy called Tama-Re, or Tiwawat. The Sumerians called it Tiamat, and today you call it Earth.

The beings that dwelled here were aquatic. That is sea dwellers, Reptilians, original escapees from Maldek that took residence here many millions of years before the crash and built great cities beneath the waters. The planet was void and it was dark and the waters were deep. The crash resulted in this planet being split in two. The bottom half exploded again to form the asteroid belt. We, the beings responsible for this near destruction, took it upon ourselves to become the guardians of this damaged planet, until such time as we could repair it, only to discover that it had large quantities of the very precious metal we were seeking. Thus, we planned to make it a residence for such time as was necessary to mine for this precious metal called gold and transport it back to our home planet Rizq.

Many attempts by alchemists to transform led and other metals into gold failed before the final success. The work of mining was strenuous in such a strange atmosphere, so we changed the dense water to air, breathable air, and sent one of our wisest scientist from amongst us, part reptilian and part Neteru, whose new title became Enqi "ruler of Qi". He was to build waterways, mines and dams, while we hovered in large motherships above the planet, until such time as we could remove the dust cloud created by the impact, that blocked the sun. We also launched out teams of beings responsible for the development of seeding and growing life on this planet suitable for food and air.

Trees were growing or transported from other planets, why you have many plants on this planet that attack and kill one another and so many different kinds of plant species. Many different kinds of insects were also transported to balance the ecology. These transportations of insects and plant life from other planets brought about all different types of air and environments, climates, diseases and colds, and sicknesses to earth, which is why during the pollination seasons, some humans get allergies, while others don't, some humans catch severe colds during the winter seasons, while others don't. Many humans have allergic reactions to certain food intakes while others don't.

Your planet became a ground for all types of beings to survive, it was destroyed by several meteorite showers, then replenished over and over again. The sea filled with all forms of alien life forms for food, and many skin diseases, blood diseases, even allergic reactions. With these beings, comes different types of climates, diseases, colds, sicknesses etc. Not to mention that the scientific experiments and breeding of humans was abruptly disrupted by invading disagreeable beings and the homo sapien project is not complete, thus humans are in serious need of upgrading to divinity. Creation took place a period of six days. It was brought to a completion on the seventh day. After this creation human beings needed 112 corrections, of which only 76 has been done up to date 1998 A.D., Thus you need 36 more corrections.

Thus, we introduced the chain of life on this planet. It became a replica of Rizq with a different climate. When the time was right, just right, we landed and referred to our new home as "a home away from home," Eridu. We then found it necessary to breed with primitive creatures that were already here, in order to become adaptable to the environment, and this offspring, who we refer to as Lulu Amelu or abd, could work the mines for us.

We also built replicas of structures that were on our own planet, using the ley lines and magnetic grids of this planet. In order to accomplish these feats, we levitated and transported huge lime stones cut by laser to geographical spots on the planet Earth, in order to generate energy for incoming and outgoing vehicles. They were also used as schools, laboratories and sarcophaguses, but even this proved to be unsatisfactory, for conflicts aroused amongst us and we were forced to abandon many incompleted sites on your planet.

We fought brother against brother, ruler against ruler, city against city, and not to mention compassion for the newly cloned creature, Aqins, now called human beings, or Homo Sapiens, part deity and part monkey.

Different conditions, various breedings and seedings were necessary with different terrestrial earth beings, apes and reptilians, and extraterrestrial beings, beyond earth beings. Transportation of different species to this planet and Mars was done as a result.

There are various shapes, sizes, skin color, skin texture, hair colors, hair texture, facial features, blood types, all traceable back to animals on this planet and others. Yet, one being of the Adama project was accomplished after many experiments, successes and failures, deformities and illnesses, and hybrids with the power to procreate, and they were in the image and after the likeness of the scientists that created or grew them in the lab. This caused a compassion for these beings, as humans to acquire a compassion for experimental lab animals.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

This compassion by one being, whose seed was used, named Mami or Ninti, led to education and etiquette on to civilization. Then to indoctrination. Indoctrination called for a doctrine, for many of the new breeds of Lares (Lars) called Simians, "a breed of monkeys", whose Queen leader was Zirah, and king Shitar, had inherited from their superior parents the gifts of intellect. The chief was called Lard then became Lord, the Master or boss. The Lares, plural for Lar, were recognized for their intelligence.

These Lares were the head monkeys or spiritual monkeys, from which they create their word monk. They were chosen to breed with Lares because of their high intelligence. They had to be maimed so that in time they wouldn't raise up against our heavenly fathers and mothers, and try to set themselves free and become independent. This maiming was done by the removal of four higher senses, which are clairvoyance, psychometry, telepathy and intuition. In time all of their senses were reduced from see, hear, taste, smell, to simply feel.

With this accomplished we Neteru could continue our mission. The doctrine that would enslave the minds of this breed would be faith, belief and trust. They must establish themselves a God force, Eloheem, and then one God Yahweh, who could become whatever your hearts desired. For you were gifted with will. Yet, not free will, for you could be held accountable for not obeying the commands and laws of the one heavenly father that was appointed over you all.

www.Nuwaupune.com

In time, and with your own minds and imaginations, the true stories changed into myths, folklores, tales, and it gave birth to religion. For it provided false hopes, alternatives and your inner longing for spiritual freedom at death. You believed that you would return to your heavenly father, who would allow you re-entrance into Sahu the Orion star, and then into 9 degrees, in all, to be raised to re-enter Illyuwn. In time, this too was distorted by the disagreeable Luciferians, and the angry Reptilians, who pursued them from galaxy to galaxy, star to star, planet to planet to inspire, to misguide, to misinform these god man beings to prevent your

1 "Come let us Neteru go down there and unify their tongues into one language, the one true language of their past, and dispel of the diversity and confusion, Babel, that scattered them across the face of the planet Tanen, "earth".

Question: What must be done to break this spell?

2. They must all speak one tongue. So come let us give them back our and their only true language, Nuwaubic, that everything in their minds that they will imagine to do, they will be able to do.

3. So come now ye Neteru and let us go down, as Anunnagi and perform this great ceremony of the resurrection of the dead Gods, for they have been dead for long enough. Their imprisonment before the blinding light of misinformation must end.

Question: So the light is not the truth that can dispel of the ignorance?

4. You are more apt to be blinded by light than you are by darkness, the state in which the Neb Neteru "Yahweh Eloheem" dwelled when he and they said, "Let there be light" (Genesis

5. This was not merely the creation of the Sun, but also the creation of a great city of Chaldea in northern Babylon called Ur, the same word as Uwr (Genesis 11:28).

Question: Is this the Babylon of old?

6. No. It's that time again for the great city to rise in the heart of the beast, called Babylon the great. It is time to fall, from the great city, the new Babylon, or Bab-El, "doorway to El", so come to me, that I, a Neter, may pull you out of her my people, and stop you from partaking of her wickedness and ignorance.

Question: Who are you to us?

7. Your true savior. I, as a Neter son of the green light have come in these last days, and with me comes great trials and tribulations. For this is the great and dreadful (Yaw-re) day of fear.

Question: What makes it such a dreadful day?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

8. The signs of the times, the seven great thunders. The clock of destiny ticks on and nature manifests its judgments out of darkness, the unknown, the unseen, the un-apparent, yet the ever existing. Man is light, and woman is darkness.

9. This is a day of great fear. Fear of the weather, fear of viruses, fear of plagues, fear of wars, fear of death, fear of famine, fear of deformity, and fear of enslavement and subjection by luciferians, sons of the morning. These plagues are not coming, they are already here.

Question: Malachi, or should I call you Neter: Atum-Re, are you God?

10. I, as a Neter must let my voice be heard in the Earth again. I am Re, who is Amunnubi Ruakhptah, the Tum or Neter: Atum-Re. I am that I am, Eheyah Asher Eheyah, Aneya Dek Aneya. I will be what I will be.

11. I metamorphosize as the great Yusri "caterpillar" (wisdom) on to the Taslug "cocoon" (strength) on into the most beautiful Farasha "butterfly" (beauty).

Question: How do we know you are God?

12. By my number 9. 3 times 3, and my works.

Question: What are your works?

13. I, as a Neter "god", through my rays of light grow them into Neteru, Gods out of mother earth. Each becoming a Neter as myself, God, beauty "Gomer", strength "Oz", wisdom "Dabar", that is I, Neter: Amunnubi Ruakhptah, Tum, take men, "light" known and women "darkness" mystery, mere mortals and make them into Neteru "Gods".

Question: What is meant by woman is darkness and man is light?

14. Women are inner beings and men are outer beings, or exposed beings.

16. Her fertilization in her ovaries or ovum takes place in the darkness of her womb, but the sperm produced in the seminal vesicle, onto the prostrate glands must be ejaculated outward.

17. To ejaculate is to separate the life from the darkness of the inner being, and put it outside of oneself. However, the orgasm, as in the word organs is done on the inside of the woman in triple darkness.

18. So she is the seat of the mysteries, called the mistress of darkness, unlike the male or man.

Question: As Gods, will we then be free?

22. Only the truth of yourselves I bring you, will make you truly free and reinstate you as Neteru.

Question: And what is this Hag "truth"?

23. It's the less known fact that was best kept secret by the light. That is, that the true god is the mother.

Question: And what will you do?

24. I will lead, as the Ancient one, all true minds of the initiate, step by step out of the scorching burning sun, and its sterile and uncertain shifting sands, and blinding light, which is a symbol of ignorance as to say the sun rises when it doesn't, or the man is the sun and the woman, the moon, the first point of light, the first lie instilled in the willing soul or to put the star in the crescent when it could never fit, for no star can fit in front of the Moon in any of its four quarters.

along the road, and I the Sun of Righteousness has risen with healing in my wings;

26. To extinguish the light of ignorance, taught by the son, the father, the uncle, and the brother about the daughter, the mother, the aunt and the sister. That light that has deceived so many, called the light of truth and knowledge. That is that same blinding light taught by men about man's superiority and origin, as first, that lights the halls of science, the chamber of culture, the institutions of learning and the lodges of secrets.

Question: What do they teach?

27. Myths, fables, tales, stories, and the legends, which they call the truth; and that same light has blinded you as Religion, Re-legion.

Question: Where did you come from?

28. I, as a Neteru, as a pillar of my great society of Rizqiyians', from the 19th galaxy Ihm (Illyuwn), come from the star Sibtu (Septet, Sept), which you call Sirius, my newly acquired home, after the cataclystic calamity of Rizq, so that I, a man from planet Rizq, may be with you and resurrect you from this death of mind, Khat "body", Ka "spirit" and Ba "soul". This assures all, that in the beyond, as an A'aferti "Pharaoh" you will be safe in Ma'at, the correct order of this world, and beyond.

Question: What is a Djed festival?

30. Every 30 years in ancient Tama-Re in the holy city of Anu (Annu), or On, there was the Djed or Sed celebration.

31. The purpose of this Djed festival was for the rejuvenation of the ruling A'aferti. Crowds from all over Tama-Re came to watch the pharaoh run a course in the Djed court, or the Hawwara path of the Maguraj.

Scroll 1:33

Question: What was the purpose for the run?

32. The run was a renewal of the ruler's power. Afterward, he was re-crowned as ruler of upper and lower Tama-Re.

Question: At what point of an A'aferti's rule, does he perform this festival?

33. When a ruler had reigned for thirty years he celebrated the magical Heb Sed (Djed Festival). This festival was supposed to renew the ruler's strength. The ceremonies included a special run that symbolized taking control of his realm and also showed that he was physically fit to rule.

Question: Did every A'aferti have to perform a Djed ceremony?

www.Nuwaupuno.com

Scroll 1:34

34. Yes. Every A'aferti was anxious to celebrate the Djed festival at least once. The thirtieth year of the reign has been generally accepted as a jubilee year, since this was also the year chosen by Rameses II for the first celebration of the Djed festival.

Question: What events took place at the festival?

35. An event which took place on the morning of the festival was the setting up of the Djed pillar, a totem which resembled a lopped tree in which the two cities of the delta was named after, Zedu and Zedet.

Question: To which deity did the festival become connected?

36. The deity Asaru became connected with the first, which was afterwards called Per-Asaru and Banebded the ram. The ceremony took place in front of a statue of Asaru, and in the presence of the females and the royal children. The Djed pillar represented Asaru's backbone or spinal column.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What role did Asaru play in this festival?

37. The Djed festival, which follows the overflow of the Nile, was conducted in the commemoration of the resurrection of Asaru.

38. The ruler himself, helped the workmen, pull on the rope which set up the Djed pillar. After an interval of singing, instrumental music and dancing, the people joined the ceremony. The figurants divided up into two groups, the inhabitants of Fi (Pe) and the those of Dif (Dep), two neighboring towns, which finally merged into one in ancient Tama-Re.

Question: Were the priests a part of this festival?

39. Yes the Sem, or sacred brotherhood participated in this festival. On the occasion of the Djed festival, the priests came to offer a profession of allegiance. They were pardoned and fell in line and handed over their offerings in a symbolic ritual.

Question: What happened after that?

40. Incense was burnt before each deity, who received his share of gifts, and the festival ended with the traditional offerings to the deities when the great iniations took place, and the subjects would bring the firstlings or the freshest growth and offered it to the deity. If it was respected then they were accepted, and all rejoiced with a tremendous banquet.

Question: Neter A'aferti: Atum Re, have you celebrated your Djed ceremony?

41. Yes. I complete each year on the day of my birth, the Djed (Zed or Sed) festival before all eyes to see. This actually started in 1967 when Amunnubi Ruakhptah first inscribed the writings of the

42. Then the resurrection and the time for the great change to take place, from the blinding light of religion to the supreme balancement of Nuwaubu, which is what I came to give you. I stated in the beginning, "I came giving you what you wanted, so that you would learn to want what I have to give".

Question: What about 1970 to the year 2000?

43. As there is the apparent and the hidden information, so also are the dates, 1967-1997, 30 years. And 1970-2000, 30 years. The year 2000-2030, 30 years. 1987-2017, 30 years, December 24th 1981-2011,

30 years. In all ancient cultures these dates are commemorated for the end of one cycle and the birth of another.

Question: Were there any other festivals or initiations?

44. Yes. The united lands of Upper and Lower Tama-Re enjoyed many festivals. Some of these festivals were annual. The marriage of the Netert Athyr, (Hathor) of Denderah to Haru (Horus) of Edfu was celebrated.

45. There was always an annual celebration for Hapi, the Neter of the Nile river, son of Haru. There were five feast days in July devoted to the ending of the old year, and the beginning of the new.

46. Also you had the Ufit

47. After 24 days, the bark or the ark which carried the statue of Amun returned to Wa-rit Karnak. This story was copied into the Bible, and became the ritual of the ark of the covenant. This was a ritual in ancient Tama-Rean mysteries.

Question: Is this why Nuwaubians celebrate the beginning of their year in June?

48. Kane. Your New Year begins at each Djed festival June 26, at 3:00, with the Asaru procession and the ceremony of the journey to the netherworld, where the men fight as Haru did Sutukh. They do this by beating the drum, which begins at 12 midnight of your time and extends the full length of the sun appearing to set (Sutukh), defeating setians and their blind faiths. This continues until the sun comes to the horizon Haru (Horus), and it brings the sun Re (Ra) into being, simply until the appearance of sunrise, and the bringing in of a new year, the resurrected Asaru (Osiris).

49. The following month of July, the first 5 days is the Ufit festival, which this A'aferti has raised from 27 to 30 days. A fast and feast of 3 sets of ten. Ten days, and you remove the deities Atum-Re, the new coming god, Atun-Re, the high god, and Amun-Re, the setting god, from the three great triad provinces or sites, set up as H.T.M, that is from H. Heliopolis (Annu), to T. Thebes (Nu-Amun), to M. Memphis (Tattu) in Tama-Re of the West.

50. Ancient Tama-Re tradition worked by 3, they ate with 3 fingers, etc. This is where the Muslims got their ritual of the Sunnah from. The Setians are 1. Judiasm, 2. Christism, 3. Islamism. Male superiority and worship, female inferiority and abuse, spook worship, and factual blindness.

Question: Just what takes place in Ufit, this ancient ritual?

51. This Ufit ritual

Scroll 1:53

consists of three sets of ten days in recognition of the three great suns, and the three positions of the sun, the sustainer of all life. This was represented by morning sun, the high sun and the setting sun.

Question: And how is this ritual commemorated?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

52. By fasting, feasting, and sharing.

Question: Speak on fasting?

53. We fast, only allowing liquids during the daylight hours, and we break our fast with the setting sun. We feast and share charity and gifts.

Question: Speak to me on feasting?

THE COMING

Scroll 1:54

54. Each fasting ends with congregational Taful "prayer" and a feast.

Question: Speak to me on sharing?

55. Sharing becomes re-awakened through fasting. It's a remembrance of those in need.

56. The prayer is to bring our noble godlike qualities down to a humble state and the festivity is to celebrate our gratefulness for the abundance provided by the three great suns.

57. The sustainer, nourisher and provider of life. These rituals are referred to as the Djed pillars of obligation. Thus, three Djed pillars are carried at the head of the procession on the thirtieth day.

Question: What governs this abode?

62. Three great realities.

Question: What are those three great realities?

63. The three points of a triangle (Mir).

Question: And if I might ask, what might they be?

64. You may ask. There are four: Right Knowledge, six: Right Wisdom, and eight: Right Overstanding.

65. I have mastered one, two and three, and have traveled, three, five, and seven, and now I hold the key, that is between 1 and 9.

Question: How is that?

66. You have 5 odd numbers, 1,3,5,7,9, and 4 even numbers, 2,4,6,8. 5+4=9, and 1 + 3 + 5 + 7 + 9=25, and 2 + 4 + 6 + 8=20, now 20 + 25=45, and 4 + 5=9 again, and you are behind the nine ball.

68. One 1) knowledge, 2) wisdom, 3) overstanding. Two 1) mental 2) spiritual 3) physical, then Three 1) the doer, 2) the knower 3) the thinker.

69. Man is a trium being, and the number 1 and the letter I is one and the same. So the number 9 is expressed by 3 times 3, and you have reached the 9th hour and must give up the ghost belief. The nine ball.

www.Nuwaupuring.com

Question: Why is the number nine so important?

70. Because the secret name is hidden in this principle.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: May I ask what that is?

71. Of course you may. Being behind the nine ball is the key. You have 9 Enneads and 9 is 3x3 or RE-ATUM-NUN. In them you find the sacred name.

Question: How is that?

72. You have nine principles that are:

1. Ka, this is the spiritual you.
2. Khu, this is the mental you.
3. Khat, this is the body you.

1. Ba, this is the soul you.
2. Khaybet, this is the plasmatic you.
3. Akh, this is the etheric you.

1. Hati, this is the physical heart of yours,
2. Ab, this is the spiritual heart of yours.
3. Sekhem, this is the spark of life of yours.

73. All of this was brought into the person as being twofold, or double. The two points of existence, 1) birth and 2) death. 1) Mind, 2) spirit, 3) body. 1) air, 2) fire, 3) earth, 4) water, 2 + 3 + 4 = 9 again.

74. There was a name for you in birth called the little name, and there was a name for you in death, called the big name, or your sacred name.

Scroll 1:75

Question: What does all of this mean?

75. In ancient Tama-Re, for each A'aferti "pharaoh" to protect him/herself against demonic enchantments and utterance of spells, words of power, at birth each being was given two names at the naming ceremony.

76. The big name and the little name, or the true name and the good name. He kept his big true name secret, and he became known by his little name. So should it be with each of you.

77. If someone masters your sacred name they become your equal. Thus the doorway to the nine principles of you are opened up, and you become spellbound in this world and the next.

Scroll 1:79

Question: And is that the answer to my problem?

78. No, they are the stepping stones out of the solution, in which you were so eagerly dipped and covered in solvents of religion, and they thought it was the solution. Now you move on to Sound Right Reasoning.

Question: Where is this great abode, and what is it called?

79. It's called Calneh, and each one of you are a Djed pillar in this great fortress. In fact, you are "the fortress of Anu", and your

www.N uwaupune.com

chest is the volt, and your tongue, the key.

Question: How should I use the most precious key?

80. To dispel of lies and misinformation, by speaking the truth, confirmed facts, that will open the hearts of all.

www.Nuwaupuine.com

Question: But are we not mere men and women?

81. No, we as etheric or spiritual beings, existed before gender, or the creation of men and women on this planet, and in order of existence, the fact is that women, or the female genetically existed before the creation of men or the male.

Question: What, are you saying women are the gods and predate man?

82. Exactly, this is the best kept secret that is best to be made known now.

Question: What is the proof of this?

83. Archaeologists today have traced fossils that goes back 200-300 thousand years, that they traced back to one woman's gene, called Mitochondria, the gene proven to be transferred from the mother to the child, never from the father to the child. Mitochondria is also proven to be the gene that produces nearly all the energy to keep the cell alive.

Question: So are you saying that due to mitochondria, that women were here first?

Scroll 1:84

84. That is correct. By here I mean this planet Earth. For without the physical body there would be no need for gene discussions.

Question: If all mammals are born in pairs, then how is it possible for the woman to come before the man?

85. It's a fact that human beings are not merely mammals, but a mixture of both mammal and reptile. To overstand the answer to this question, I must first teach you on the different kinds of beings that came to your planet millions of years before your creation. Scientists, archaeologists and marine biologists all agree that the seas of your planet, were inhabited by a great empire of Reptilians and millions of other alien forms of life. Many have just recently being discovered, because of the latest advancement in computers and equipments.

Question: Is this the only planet with life?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

86. No. In fact, scientists have verified water on the Moon and Mars, which is a confirmation of marine life, having existed there thousands of years before the Biblical concept of God creating life, or time as you know it, by placing a moon in the sky when other planets also have moons. Now if the reason was to calibrate life, then this same principle would apply to any other planet with water and moons.

Scroll 1:87

Question: So beings who lived on other planets and maybe even other star systems, came here?

87. Absolutely. This planet was being visited for millions of years by higher intelligence. Some which decided to colonize, and set up their home here in the seas, while the planet was still undeveloped for your form of life.

Question: Where did they dwell?

88. Some made the deep dark seas of this planet home. One such place has recently been discovered and was located in the Atlantic Ocean, in the area called the Bermuda Triangle or Angel's Triangle.

Scroll 1:91

Question: What specie, if you can call them that, were they?

89. They were called the Maldekians, or the Troglodytes from the planet Maldek, or Vulcan, a planet that astronomers have recently verified, that used to pass through this solar system. NASA has it logged and photographed.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: What gender dominated this species?

90. The male and female of the Maldekian specie were both a-sexual, and had the ability to pro-create, just as many reptiles do today.

Question: Can you name one?

91. Yes, the Salamanders,

Scroll 1:92

Newts, Whiptail, Lizards, and many others.

Question: Did their new environment bring about a mutation or an evolution from one state to another?

92. Yes. In fact the female dominated specie had developed enlarged lungs that enabled them to live on land and in the seas as well. As time passed, the females took dominion of the land, or earth, while the males ruled the seas.

Question: What's the link between the lizard people and the mammal?

93. The Maldekians or lizard people, some called dinosaurs, developed into intelligent humanoids by abducting and mixing their seed with prehistoric humans, known as the Genus Homo or Australopithecine.

Scroll 1:94

Question: Why was this necessary?

94. It was necessary for the adaptation to this planet as it emerged from the seas and became land. This mixture produced a mammal like reptilian being, called the human being, both carnivorous and herbivorous, able to reproduce asexually, through the process of parthenogenesis. This process still exists in certain mammals, reptiles and insects today. This is where your Dagon, or Dagan worship came from, or your Taniyn of the Torah, which comes from the ancient Tama-Rean Tanen "the

www.NuwaubuInc.com

serpent or dragon" from Ta for earth or Ptah. There were two forms of Australopithecines that could walk and were erect. The smaller ones stood 4ft. tall, Genus Homo, where your pygmy tribe originated.

Question: I see Genus Homo and Homo Erectus, where does Homo Sapien come in?

95. 450,000 years ago, another group of beings, called the Neteru, or Anunnaqi, led by Enqi arrived on Earth in search of gold to mend their planet's ozone layer. Crafts with loads of workers were sent to mine the gold to take to their planet. This work became tiresome for the Neteru, and they decided to create a being for the purpose of working the mines for them. So Enqi chose a being that already existed on this planet to do the labor.

Scroll 1:96

Question: How did Enqi go about performing this task?

96. Enqi chose Mother Ninti, the wisest scientist and geneticist to breed the Homo Erectus, with the genes of a Neteru, to speed up its evolution. This was done by what is called genetic manipulation today. Ninti took the blood, which carried the gene of a Neteru and mixed it with 14 females of the Erectus state of evolution. However, the a-sexual trait from the reptilian in them still dominated, making them unable to procreate on their own. So Ninti chose to breed with the Lares, the Simians, (intelligent ape people, whose queen was Zira), as opposed to the Aqins, (the evil Lares), whose king was Shitar. She also bred with the Chimpanzee and the Gibbon, who were recognized for their intelligence. These breeds gave birth to many defected beings, some born with hair all over their body, called Hirsutism, or scales over their body, called Ichthyosis, or with very large heads, called hydrocephalic, or lupus, leprosy, gigantism, just to name a few. Many deformities, genetic deficiencies and chromosome distortions, which results in such things as Siamese twins, are a result of this original cross breeding of different species. You actually have in some human bodies, cells attacking other cells, which is a result of genes from different species fighting to protect themselves. The same thing happens when the sperm of a man enters the woman's body. Her body naturally fights it, because it is alien to her body.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: Were the Orangutan used?

97. Yes, the Orangutans were used for their intelligence. However they were very aggressive, violent and carnivorous, so the Gibbons, who were more docile than the Orangutans were used for the balancement.

Question: Where does the Chimpanzee fit in?

Scroll 1:98

98. The Chimpanzee was one of the strains that came from the breeding of the lares. Chimpanzees are one of the most intelligent animals and they resemble human beings more than any other animal. If you look at the chimpanzee's hand, it's very closely related to the human hand. They even have fingerprints, just like humans. The human has 46 chromosomes. Humans with down syndrome have 47 chromosomes and this defect results in them not aging properly or maturing mentally, pass 3 to 7 years old. The same is said of a chimpanzee, who has 48 chromosomes and has the mind of a child between the ages of 3 and 7. The very fact that the chromosomes are ranging in numbers, 46, 47, and 48 one after another, is fact that there is a link.

Scroll 1:102

Question: So is the Y chromosome a defect of the X?

99. Scientists today have discovered that the Y chromosome in sperm has 2.8 percent less genetic material than the X chromosome in the same sperm specimen.

100. Researchers were able to sift sperm to produce samples in which 85 percent of the cells had an X chromosome.

101. In fact, the X chromosome is five times larger than the Y chromosome, which means that females existed for generations without males.

of your points, thus the chromosome is defected, which is why a man has the same components on his body, that the woman does. For example, the breast and nipples, however men don't breastfeed. Men are a genetic defect of women.

103. A woman not only breastfeeds her children, but she nurtures the whole world with her wisdom.

104. This is seen in the mother child statue of ancient Tama-Re of the seated woman breastfeeding the child, who not only symbolizes a woman, but wears the horn of the bull. So, she takes on the role of woman and Man, or a symbol of Hathor and Re.

Question: So, how does this mean that women came first?

105. To find the first being, anthropologists had to use 147 pregnant women to donate their babies' placentas to science.

Question: Why the placenta?

106. The placenta is the easiest way to get large samples of body tissue. These biologists selected women in America with ancestors from Africa, Europe, the Middle East and Asia. After the babies were born, the placentas were gathered and frozen.

107. The tissues were ground in a souped-up warring blender, spun in a centrifuge, mixed with a cell-breaking detergent, dyed fluorescent and spun in a centrifuge again.

108. The result was a clear liquid containing pure

DNA. This was the DNA in the nucleus of the babies' cells, this DNA came from outside the nucleus, in a compartment of the cell called the mitochondrion, which produces nearly all the energy to keep the cell alive.

109. The mitochondria DNA is only inherited from the mother. It's not a mixture of both parents' genes, like nuclear DNA, so it preserves a family record that isn't scrambled in every generation.

Question: What is the meaning of the word mitochondria?

110. The word Mitochondria is from the New Latin : Greek mitos, warp thread + Greek khondrion, diminutive of khondros, meaning "grain, granule".

Question: So you are saying that if a couple doesn't have a daughter, then their genes disappear?

111. That is absolutely correct. If a woman fails to have a daughter her genes disappear, because the mitochondria DNA does not pass on. The same way you are taught that a family name disappears if a son is not born, so it is with mitochondria.

112. This was a deliberate attempt by men to suppress the dominating gene in women, by placing the philosophy that without a son, the family lineage dies.

113. This is not true, if a daughter is not born in the family, then your genes disappear, because the mitochondria DNA can only be inherited by the female of the family.

Question: So where did the Y chromosome come from?

114. The Y chromosome comes from female scientists, as Ninti, known as Mother Ninti or Nunet, who experimented with the side of an X chromosome maiming it by removing 2.8 percent of X chromosomes. This resulted in a maimed lower right stem, giving the appearance of a Y, which produces less genetic materials, resulting in a Y chromosome, called chromosomal manipulation, a well known experiment today.

115. All of this is nature at work. From nature, you get nurture as in the mother who breast feeds or nurtures her young, Mother Nature.

Question: Why are the English letters X and Y used for an ancient genetic science and how old is English?

116. Three main stages are usually recognized in the history of the development of the English language.

117. Old English, known formerly as Anglo-Saxon, dates from AD 449 to 1066 or 1100. Middle English dates from AD 1066 or 1100 to 1450 or 1500 AD.

118. Modern English dates from about 1450 or 1500 and is subdivided into Early Modern English, from about 1500 to 1660. Late Modern English, from about 1660 to the present time and of course, what is being spoken today in America, could rightly be called American and not English, for it's a corrupted dialect.

The X And Y Letters In Egypt, Greek And Roman Script

119. However, all of these European languages have their roots through Latin, Greek, to Aramic, Syriac, to Akkadian, to Ugaritic, to what's called Cuneiform.

Question: Which was first Hieroglyphics or Cuneiform?

120. Both these are given names for an ancient language, Nuwaubic. Hieroglyphs is from Hiero "sacred" and Glyphs "carving", which is describing a picturesque script. And Cuneiform is also a mere script, from Cuneus meaning "wedge".

121. These were European names like Egyptian and Ethiopian to hide Nuwaubian and Nuwaubic.

122. So they in actuality are both the same language with slight alterations for different periods of times, developments, inventions and influences.

Question: What is Hieratics?

123. The not-so ancient Tama-Reans had in use various scripts impressed upon them by invaders or migrants, as the Phoenicians, the Khubri, who brought in Semetic style scripts by way of a man named Mitsrayim (Genesis 10:6), son of Ham, from whence they get the word Kham, or Kemet, son of Noah whose rightful name is Utnafishtim.

124. This Mitsrayim brought the Semetic dialect into Tama-Re.

125. It became Hieratic,

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

and the Phoenician's language developed into Demotics.

Question: What does all of this have to do with the X and Y of the English language?

126. Actually there is no X and Y in the English language, they are borrowed sounds. This is why there are limited amount of words in English that use these letters naturally.

127. So with that, it is clear that the X and Y as used in the English alphabet came from the X and Y of the Greek, which came from the Egyptian X, whose original symbol was the fish, and the Y, which symbolizes hook. So, they are not English symbols but ancient Tama-Rean symbols.

Question: Why does Mother Nature sounds so much like Metu Neter?

128. Because it was borrowed from it, as She was borrowed from Shu, and Her was borrowed from Heru, so also Metu Neter comes from Ma "water" Ta "earth" and Neter, from NaTaRa meaning "guardian" or Mother Nature, Ma-other.

Question: Why "Ma" and other?

129. Because the word Ma is water, which symbolizes the womb, or the embryonic sac that the fetus rests in before leaving the womb, it's the primordial water.

130. The "other" is

symbolic of the sperm, coming from a male's body, which through insertion acts as an alien specie to the female body. This is why the female's body naturally rejects the male's sperm, and thus during ejaculation millions of sperm race to fertilize the woman's egg, and this causes chaos within the woman's body before conception, and she is the one who nurtures the baby.

131. If you look at the phonetics of the word nurture, you can hear nature, they stem from the same root word, yet man is considered a part of nature.

Question: And should he not be?

132. Actually no, based on the meaning of the word nature, which finds its root in nurture. You must ask yourself, were beings here before nature, or was nature here before the human being? The meaning is self explanatory.

133. The word nurture is to breast feed, which is the key signature of a mammal, and a man does not breastfeed its young, which puts him in the manifestation of nature, not the manifestor of nature, which is the mother.

www.Nuwaupunc.com

Question: How come the mother is the only nurturer?

134. The Mother is god, she grows each being male or female in her womb.

Question: Can she perform this act without a male?

Scroll 1:135

135. Yes. It was obviously the original way, and in many cases this still happens to this day.

136. The process by which it happens is the bartholin gland within the woman, which is located on either side of the vaginal orifice that secretes a lubricating mucus and are equivalent to the bulbourethral glands in the male, which is located below the prostate and it discharges a component of the seminal fluid into the urethra.

137. The prostate secretes a thin milky fluid with a characteristic odor; this fluid constitutes the greater part of the semen that is deposited in the female vagina and that contains the spermatozoa.

138. So a woman is capable of reproducing seminal fluids on her own internally, without the help of the male's sperm.

Scroll 1:140

Question: How did women lose their role as gods, and become subservient to her offspring, the male?

139. Through her love and compassion, which weakened her into submission. Women lost their rule, when they grew to love their offspring, and thus through this emotion and love, it yielded to his rule.

Question: So why does woman use man to reproduce?

140. This servant was upgraded by the creation of what is called steroids today. That would be the utilization of the reptilian's

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 1:141

strength, which is defined as the poison of the toad and the male's own testosterone fluids. This would speed up his metabolism, increase muscle strength, hair growth, body structure, making him a suitable work machine, hunter and slave. In time she became attracted to his masculinity, and because of the fondness that women as gods grew for man, she eventually wanted to give birth to the same genes as her offspring, and thus she used his genes to create a duplicate of him and her, to make the bond closer. It was because of the toad or reptilian poison, overdeveloped muscular men after the use of steroids begin to take on the appearance of an outstretched frog.

Scroll 1:143

141. As generations went by, women depended on the male for reproduction, and she lost the knowledge of reproducing on her own, by giving the power to man to protect, defend and hunt for her.

142. Eventually he turned his weapons, strength and power on her and he does to this day, and he rules not by intellect, but by brute force.

www.Nuwaupuric.com

Question: So the woman is smarter than the man?

143. By far, so much so, that she lets man think he is the smartest. However, the woman still has the capabilities of being god, because she is the only one who nurtures and suckles her young.

143. The mother prepares her offspring for survival.

She nurtures and looks after her young, both male and female. The first teacher to any human being is the mother.

144. If you notice everything that a man has on his body, a woman has the same thing. However, this fact proves that women are superior, because a man has breasts and nipples, but he can't breast feed.

Question: What proof do you have of that?

145. Scientists know for a fact that the male has the same mammary gland of a woman, yet his is rudimentary, which simply means incomplete, or in the beginning stages and it produces the same fluids, but lacking the nutritional value, needed to breast feed a child.

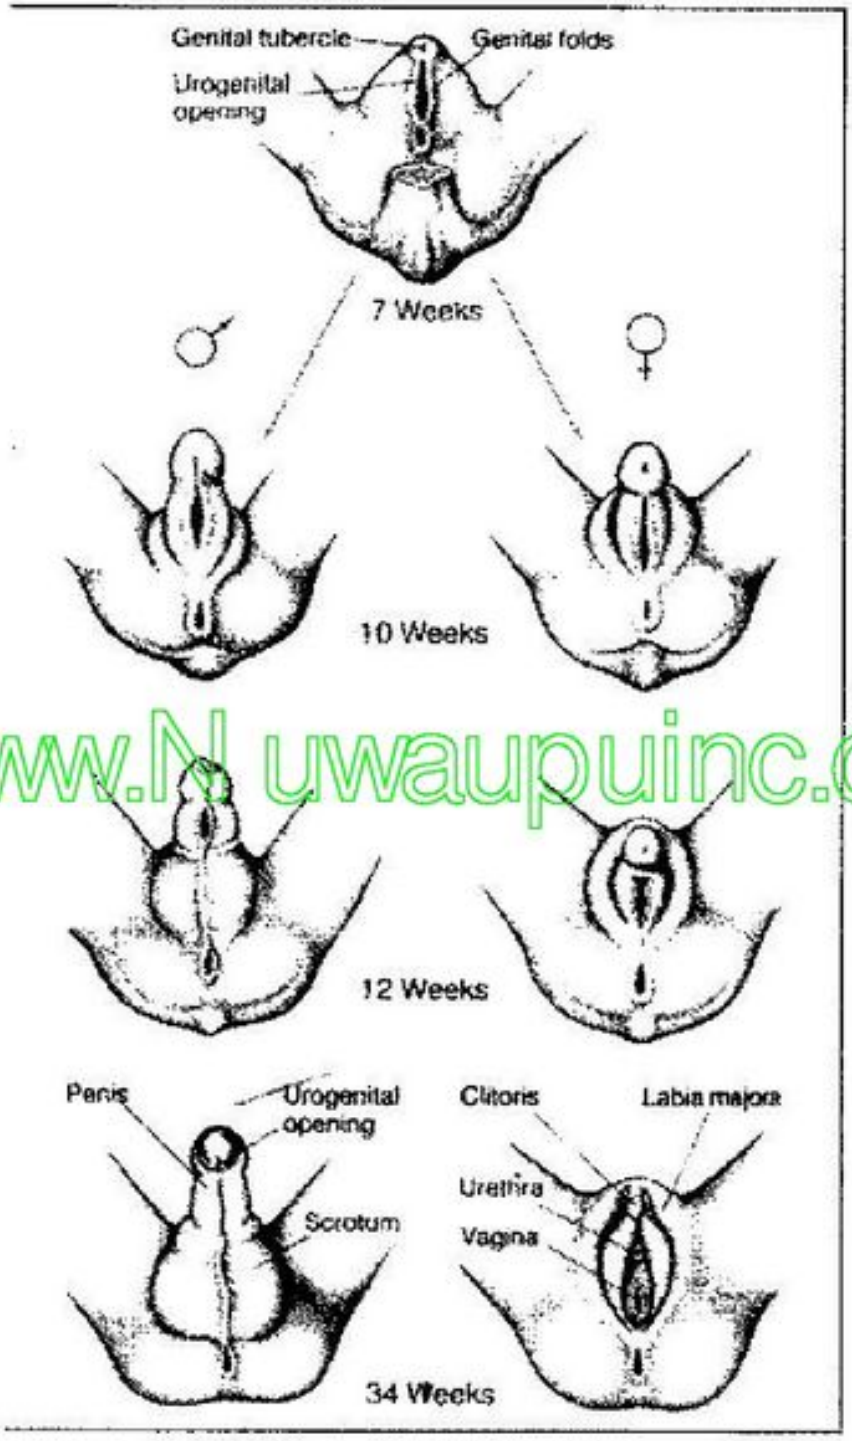
146. So, he in actuality is deficient in producing a vital substance, when the woman does that through the same glands naturally, rendering her the superior. However, today scientists and doctors are trying to find a way of impregnating men by injection, and men today are now starting to get breast cancer.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: How can you say that women and men have the same body, when a man has a penis and a women has a vagina?

147. Simple, any scientist or doctor can tell you that during very early development of the human embryo, there is no anatomical indication of the sex of the child.

148. At 6 or 16 weeks after fertilization, the



www.Nuwaupuinc.com

gonads appear neutral, each having an inner portion of testicular material and an outer zone of ovarian tissue.

149. Then one portion or the other gains an advantage in growth; if a Y chromosome is present, it is the testicular tissue.

150. It enlarges and begins the secretion of the male sex hormones, which in turn stimulate the development of male sexual ducts, and the external genitalia and it inhibits the growth of the ovarian part of the gonad, and of other female organs.

151. The effect begins to be evident at about the end of the second month of embryonic life. The genital tubercle enlarges, surrounds the urethral opening, and it becomes the male penis.

152. The male duct becomes a sperm duct, and the female duct remains rudimentary.

153. The folds of skin on either side of the urogenital opening enlarge, and it forms the scrotum, which will receive the testes when they descend from the body cavity shortly before birth.

154. On the other hand, if a Y chromosome is not present, ovarian tissue will develop first at the critical point in embryonic development and inhibit the growth of the testicular portions of the neutral gonad.

155. Then the genital tubercle remains small, and it forms the clitoris, which does not surround the urethral openings as in the male.

156. The male ducts degenerate, while the female ducts differentiate

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

into oviducts, uterus, and upper part of the vagina.

157. With these facts in mind, it tells you that a woman is capable of giving birth internally without the help of a male's penis.

Question: So the bartholin gland within a woman, is it in a state of being maimed?

158. Yes. Just like you were maimed, and your barathary gland was removed. This same process happened to women, when they surrendered their godliness to men.

Question: If the female egg has within itself a set of genes and chromosomes, then why doesn't it develop into an embryo and an adult without fertilization?

159. The answer to your question is that it does. The hatching of unfertilized eggs is known as parthenogenesis.

160. Parthenogenesis is the reproduction arising from a female egg that has not been fertilized by the male; unisexual reproduction.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

161. The word parthenogenesis is from Partheno "virgin" and Genesis "generation". So scientifically, parthenogenesis knocks the theory of emaculate conception out of the scene. Genesis as a word in Greek, implies "the very beginning". The word Genesis as a Greek word in itself means "origin"- or genealogy. In the Greek language Genesis is Gennesis (Ghen'nay-sis), from Genos, Ghen-os, meaning a particular kind or kindred; and also Gennao, "to pro-create" of a father, but by extension of a mother, to be delivered of, or to regenerate, conceive or be born. However, in the Aramic Hebrew language the word Genesis is Barashiyth, which comes from the root word Bara, meaning to "reconstruct, or reconstruction".

Scroll 1:162

Barashiyth is a replenishing and repopulating of a selected part of the planet earth by a selected and bred stock or tribe of people. Now if you look at the word Genesis closely, you see Gene (Genealogy) and Isis, meaning the genealogy of Isis.

167. You were the Orishe of old, the Neteru, Anunnagi, Eloheem, Ghibbore, Malaa'aikat, Angelos, and you must return to the universal order called Ma'at.

Question: Will this lift us from the spell?

168. Yes. Now you will know the truth and it will make you free of lies and untruths that killed your soul. The bak, "Hawk" must be risen from the mental dead.

Question: How will you break the spell?

172. Let me break this spell over you with this Right Knowledge to dispel of this spell once and for all.

Question: How long has this spell existed?

173. For 6,000 years. One quarter, which is of the Moon cycle where water and the beings of the water, reptilians, serpent people, who have mixed in their blood with you are in control.

174. Now this must end and that knowledge, which has been confined in the depth of lies for the last 24,000 years of the moon cycle, the era of the Greek deity Monos, god of sarcasm and pain, who rules by faith and beliefs.

Question: And is it that time again?

177. Kane, it is your time my children to re-new our-story, the mystery, or my-story must be heard, as the sun burns its way in and purifies, for the Earth will not be destroyed this time by water, but by fire. explain the 24,000 year cycle?

191. Yes. 24,000 years is one of the cycles, the cycle of ignorance, where you have been subliminally taught to ignore that which would benefit you, and your kind.

192. Now I, the Sun of Righteousness, have chosen you to rediscover the secrets in and beyond your universe.

193. Secrets that could not be taught to you by anyone before the appointed time which is NOW, that there was a genetic coding set to go off as the spell is lifted, and that is happening now.

194. The Neteru's time does not have a "then" only a "now", whereas each individual is at the point of "now", and looks back at multiple "thens" and looks forward to multiple "thens". Thus, on both sides of present, you find past and future. Then is then to come or then that has past. In each case, there is a now, an ever existing now and a time for your resurrection and reawakening is now.

Question: Where should we begin?

195. Let me begin by telling you of the beginning, that is, before the physical Ginn/Jinn be-ginn-ing.

196. Hu-mins, "creative fertility" since their very growth as creation in life, have always pondered over the creation of the skies and the planet Earth, Tanen, "Gi", they have wondered, who the original creator or creators who caused this wondrous creation through

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

pro-creation on sexual relation, resulting in pregnancy. The word pregnant is from the Middle English, from Old French, from Latin praegn³ns, praegnant-, variant of praegn³s, from gene-. Also gen-. meaning "to give birth, beget".

197. As you see, it spells pre-gnant, pre means "before" and gen "birth".

198. So we are talking about the manipulation of the genes before the actual birth, and even your Bible uses the word Genesis, and you see genes and Isis right in it. This was not the beginning, or the first birth of a human being on the planet. It's all symbolic. Amsu "Min" was the god of fertility and semen, sperm.

199. Yet, there are others who would deny that the universe began with The Source, Huhi "Hu, Huwa", the eternal breath, the wind or air that proceeds outward from the being as the breath.

Scroll 1:202

Question: Why is this?

200. They'd rather accept the idea that the Sun, planets, stars, which are all the same, and galaxies came about by the accidental collision of atoms, Atum.

Question: This is not so?

201. The creation of the universe could not have been an accident; for one reason and that is. That there is Ma'at "order" within the Nun "chaos".

202. There is continuous and consistent order in the universe, even the apparant

www.NuwaupuNc.com

mistakes and deformities are a part of the system.

Question: Is it possible for a chain of events to occur by accident?

203. It is impossible for a chain of events to have occurred by accident the same way each time, year in and year out for many thousands of years.

204. In that case, accidents would still be the rule in our universe and they are not. They are also a part of the system of things.

Question: What did life begin with?

205. Like everything else, life began with one thing in mind: "To Be" and with this thought a thing became, and impregnation existed, by the will of Huhi as Hu, (the creative force of will), who gave rule of this side of the universe to Re, making him the highest order of Sem.

Question: How was this done?

206. Cells and atoms, which you are one of, split into many things by Re's command, and such is the rule of life and energy, Khnum, the clay fashioner, the flesh of mortal.

207. As the wheel of life turns in the womb of the mother, and the breath of life enters them, as the disc of Dendera spins in the universe for each person's appointed time for birth.

Question: What about the account of creation as recorded in the book of

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Genesis?

208. The account of the creation as recorded in chapters one and two of a tablet, El's Torah, Genesis, as taken from the elder tablet, Enuma Elish, would seem to imply a contradiction if not read with full overstanding, that these are physical beings pro-creating physical beings in their own image and like themselves.

Question: Why is this not clear to the world?

209. It's due to the fact that these two chapters contain the same stories. It can be very confusing in trying to comprehend the true account of creation, if read in the wrong language of mistranslations, and without right knowledge.

Question: What must one do?

210. The true seeker after the facts, not motivated by blind faith and false religious convictions, would have to study the Egyptian mysteries of creation to see where it all comes from in the Bible and Qur'an, and not just accept the preachings of your preacher, that it's pantheism, the worship of animal headed beings, born out of eggs, and based on mythology. These are indeed symbolic rituals based on facts.

Question: What are the stories in the Egyptian mysteries?

211. The ancient Egyptian mystery teaches it this way: Atum was head of the nine www.Nuwaubinc.com

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 1:212

Ennead's, these children were Shu (air) and Tefnut (moisture).

212. They created Geb (Earth) and Nut (heaven). Originally Geb and Nut were together, but Shu came in between them.

Question: How does this tie into Bible?

213. This is the separation of the heavens above from the heavens beneath in Genesis 1:6-7.

214. Thus, the separation of the heaven and the earth by a strong wind Nef, as the ancient Tama-Re called it.

Question: Then what does it teach?

215. That: this Geb and Nut gave birth to four children. Asaru, (Osiris) Sutukh (Set), Aset (Isis), and Nebthoot (Nephthys).

Scroll 1:216

216. If you look closely at the story you will see your Bible story of void and darkness, (Genesis 1:2-5) and the coming forth of light, because it starts with Nun, the eternal ocean that filled the universe. And make note that a portion of Genesis 1:1 was intentionally taken out. Most people are not informed that 6 verses of the book of Jeremiah 4:23-28 were intentionally taken out of Genesis 1:1. You can see that this was inserted into Jeremiah because if you remove Jeremiah 4:23-28, you will see that the text itself was written differently than the rest of Jeremiah. In my translation of El's Torah, I am re-inserting Jeremiah 4:23-28 back into its proper place in Genesis 1:1.

217. When the great winds removed the waters, the waters subsided.

218. Then land appears (Genesis 1:9), the great hill or mountain on which stood the great god Atum, the Sun God.

219. These are the ancient mysteries, and if you look at your Genesis story, there was void and darkness upon the face of the deep (Genesis 1:2).

220. There is your massive amount of water and the spirit of God, the Roakh or wind moved upon the surface of the waters (Genesis 1:2). God says let there be light (Genesis 1:3, John 1:4), and the light was the spark of life that shined in the darkness.

221. Thus, the original seat of God head was in the darkness, before the light of chaos and confusion, and the conflict was born.

Scroll 1:224

Question: Who was this god that predates the bible god?

222. There were many gods and deities that predated the Bible, which is recorded not to be more than 2000 years old. Native Americans, Mayas, Aztecs, Yorubans from Nigeria and Africa, and the Sumerians had their Anutu or Anunnaqi, and the ancient Egyptians had the Neteru.

223. Many of them were symbolic of nature as sun gods, land gods, and water gods, and many were the mortals who became the high priestess or priest of these gods and took over their names. The same thing happens in your Bible.

224. You have the

heavenly host, you have the Eloheem, the Serapheem, or Cherubeem, the Nephileems, the Ghibbore. All of these are terms of beings that were supernatural, and are recorded as gods, angels, or mighty men, or even the New Testament, where a being came to Earth as his own son, and his own self and it became Jesus Christ, god incarnate.

225. A concept borrowed from the Hindus as Krishna or an Avatar, an incarnation of god in flesh. So the gods or god that predate the Bible are many.

226. One in particular that we speak of is Atum, one of a triad of sun gods. Atum the head of a group of gods who incarnated as humans to give you Geb and Nut, who gave birth to the four most important gods in ancient Tama-Re.

Scroll 1:229

Question: Is this the Bible Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel story?

227. Yes. This is where it comes from. In this case Atum becomes the Adam, and Osiris and Set becomes the Cain and Abel. Isis and Nephthys becomes Aglimiya and Lubuwda.

228. Cain kills Abel, or Set kills Osiris, and a new son is born called Haru (Horus), also called Re Harakhahte. In the Bible case this would be Seth, who fathers Enos, which means humanity, or man.

229. So it is quite clear that the story of Genesis and the first family was taken from the Egyptian mysteries, the text or the book of the Earth, the book of the netherworld and the Amduat, as the book of the sacred chambers, which is intended for the initiate, the select into the wonders of the beyond.

Question: Is this Adam and Atum the same in all cases?

230. No. Adam is mentioned as an individual, whose name is Kadmon in the Torah in one place as a plural or group in Genesis 5:1-2, where you find "this is the book of the generations, with an "S" on the end of it, "of Adam that God (Eloheem) created man (Adam) in the likeness of God (Eloheem) made he him".

231. In this case though your English translation, it has the name Adam in one place, and man in another. In the Hebrew in both cases the word Adam is there, and it clearly implies more than one individual. Even the expression "made he him" refers to man and mankind as a group.

232. You should be sure not to eleviate woman; verse 2 states: "male (Zakar) and female (Nekaybaw) created he them and blessed them and called their name Adam in the day when they were created".

233. It is clear here that these Adams were in actuality an Adamite, group or tribe of beings.

234. Then right in the next verse "this Adam or individual at this time tribe lived 130 years and begot a son in his own likeness", and in this case the "his" clearly points out an individual as opposed to the group.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

235. Then in verse 5 it becomes the group Adam again or the rule of this tribal name Adamite for 800 years more, and therein begot sons and daughters.

236. All the days that Adam lived were 930 years and he died.

237. Again in Semetic languages he or she is written as it.

238. It is referring to the tribe, not the individual.

Question: So are Eves also called Adam?

239. Yes, according to the Bible. The name Eve only appears twice in Genesis and then twice in the New Testament.

240. In each case starting with Genesis 3:20 Eve is a verb, meaning "living" or a noun "life" and is something that the Adamites call his Ishaw, which means "woman", not Yahweh or Eloheem, Adam called her Eve his Ishaw or female counterpart to Ish, meaning "male".

241. So the females of the Adamites were called Eves, and the males were called Adam. The gender through leadership was defined as Zakar and Nekaybaw, found in Genesis 5:2 as "male and female".

Question: What does this mean?

242. It means that you have the word Ish and Ishaw for "husband and wife" as well as "man and woman", and "male and female" in the Torah. All of these terms are simply titles

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

of groups and tribes.

243. This was written in a way to confuse the religiously blind.

Question: Are you saying most people don't overstand the story of Adam and Eve?

244. That's exactly what I am proving, by way of the scripture that they believe in.

245. Most people are in fact confused with what is the difference between the breeding of the Adama project, and the actual birth of the Adam and the Eve of your Bible, and this was done intentionally as a part of the spell.

246. There were many Eves, in fact one of Ninti's names was also Khawah or Hawwah which means "life" in Hebrew and

Scroll 1:249

Arabic, or Eve. The Sumerian name Ninti means "lady of the rib, or lady of life".

247. You can see your Biblical rib story, and her name Eve as life right here.

Question: What word is used for rib in the Bible?

248. The word used is Tsalaw and actually means "side, rib".

Question: What is this referring to?

249. It's referring to a blood experiment where blood was removed from the marrow of the rib bone, or the side of the body by the chemist Nergal Shar'etser to breed amongst the Adamites in an attempt to shape a character.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Scroll 1:250

Question: What do you mean by shaping a character?

250. The many experiments being performed on the creatures, animals and reptilians of the planet Earth resulted in more than one type of nature.

251. One docile, and the other aggressive, one agreeable, the other disagreeable; so there was an attempt to breed out the disagreeable nature.

Question: Is that the same as getting rid of evil?

252. You could say that because, Scientists today are performing lobotomies and other brain surgeries, and they have succeeded in isolating the parts of the brain responsible for certain emotions, likes, dislikes, rage, murder, and even skills.

253. These experiments have, and they are leading to character alteration and choice breeding.

Scroll 1:254

Question: What do you mean, fake people?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

254. Worst than that, I mean fake intelligence, there are people bred to think and act a certain way. There are even the insertion of chips in the brain, and the nervous system that can be controlled by satellites or remote stations. It's not new. It's stolen technology, or shared technology from beings who wish to control all those people on this planet.

Question: Is this good or evil?

255. It is good to those who wish to control humans, and evil to those humans that will and are being controlled right now through selection, and multiple choice, and the myth of free will.

Question: Where does good and evil come in?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

256. In the conflict the humans learn to have what these gods had amongst each other. The conflict that Revelation 12:7 shows a war between the heavenly host or Angelic beings in Egypt called Neteru, and in Sumeria they're called Anutu.

257. Amongst them were agreeable and disagreeable beings of the same bloodline. Thus, man was made in their image and after their likeness. (Genesis 3:22) "and the Lord (Yahweh) God (Eloheem) said behold the man (Adam) is become as one of us to know good (Tobe, agreeableness) and evil (Ra'a disagreeableness)". So these Adamites were like both the agreeable beings that came down here, and the disagreeable beings.

258. For the most part, though they did wickedness and evil as Genesis 6:5 clearly states: "And God (Eloheem) saw that the wickedness (Ra'a) of man (Adam) was great in the Earth, and that every imagination of his thoughts (Makhashebeth) of his heart was only evil (Ra'a) continuously (Yowm, daily)."

259. So this man had choice and chose to follow in the footsteps of the disagreeable beings. So character adjustments were necessary.

Question: How does this effect the Bible bloodline?

260. They gave birth through cloning, and grafting, and genetic manipulation to the families of the Bible called the chosen people.

261. So throughout your Bible and Qur'an, the stories of conflicting brothers continues, Cain and Abel, Ishmael and Isaac, Jacob and Esau, Solomon and Adonijah, Moses and Aaron, Jesus and John the Baptist.

262. In all cases they are not brothers, but the rivalry, Ali and Abu Bakr, even in the Islamic world it exists, and the Egyptian conflict goes back even before them with Enlil and Enqi, Lil "the heavens", and Qi "the earth".

Question: What took place at the very beginning?

263. At the very beginning, that is before genetic breeding, which took place in the beginning period of human time, there was a black print of creation and then after, a cloning and then another re-construction period.

Question: What is the difference between regular time and human time?

264. That's a good question, because most religious people overlook the fact that their Bible gives the impression that Adam was created with the planet, (Genesis 1:31).

265. And that this creator saw everything that he had made was good, and then discusses the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the creatures, the stars, the sun, and even the creation of man in his own image.

266. And then in Genesis 2:1, it clearly states: "thus the heavens and earth were finished and the host of them". Verse 4 confirms it, "these are the generations of the heavens and the earth, when they were created in the day the lord god made the earth and the heaven".

Question: So are you saying that god didn't create the planet Earth and the sun and the moon and stars and man all in that same period of time?

267. Yes, there is a major mistake if you understand right Genesis 2:11-12, where it states: "the name of the first is Pison, that is it which encompasses the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold". (12) "and the gold of that land is good, there is bdellium and onyx stone".

268. The Hebrew word for gold there is Zawhab, that is "gold" that is produced by nature within the Earth.

Question: And what does that have to do with time?

269. Everything, because gold, which was called Nub by the ancient Tama-reans has an Atomic number 79; atomic weight 196.967; melting point 1,063.0°C;

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

boiling point 2,966.0°C; specific gravity 19.32; valence 1, 3., was processed in the Precambrian age.

Question: What do religious scholars say?

270. When religious scholars, be they Hebraic, Christian, or Islamic agree that the creation of Adam is not more than 6000 years old, so gold had to be in the process of forming before Adam and Eve were born.

271. Thus, the planet predates Adam and Eve by millions of years, and also make note of the statement that the god of the Bible makes literally "and the gold of that land is good". He differentiates good gold from bad gold, which means he was able to examine gold to make the decision, rendering him a scientist, a minerologist.

Question: What do modern day scientists say about the very beginning?

272. It is clear by the gems, and minerals of the earth and their age, anyone with a scientific mind, would not accept a 6000 year old age for the planet Earth.

273. In fact, at the very beginning according to scientists of this day and time, we have what was called "The Big Bang", which took place many millions of years ago.

Question: Is The Big Bang Theory True Or False?

274. Firstly, make note that they, the scientific www.Nuwauping.com

www.N uwaupuinc.com

community refer to the Big Bang as a theory, and the word theory comes from the Late Latin Theoria, from Greek, from theoros, meaning "spectator": from thea, a viewing + -oros, "seeing".

275. Make note that, though they call it a theory, they say "seeing is believing". When in actuality hearing and reading is believing, and seeing is knowing.

Question: Where did they get the word Theory from?

276. Their word theory as the Greeks say theoris becomes Thehos for God in Greek, taken from Taweret, the Tama-Rean Goddess of women in childbirth, and this birth is of the Sun (son).

Question: So the Big Bang is not a theory?

277. Although they call the Big Bang a theory, contact is a reality, as the sperm hitting the ovum. Though, the human ear can't hear it, it is a big bang to microscopic existing entities.

www.Nuwauquinc.com

278. When positive and negative charges clash, though you don't hear it, it is a big bang to minute energy. So in actuality the Big Bang is a reality.

Question: But is it "The" Big Bang, or "A" nother Big Bang?

279. Just another "Big Bang", as an incident that occurs and re-occurs.

Question: So there is more than one Big Bang?

Figure 39
The Deity Taweret (Theoris)

Scroll 1:280

280. Yes. As things come into existence, or where things become somethings, the sum of a thing. A thing would need another thing to bang into to have a big bang.

281. Their problem is, comprehending matter and anti-matter as the things that clash to bring about., alternate things.

www.Nuwauptinc.com

Question: So what they call it, is true?

282. It is untrue by their title. There was no single one "Big Bang" as the statement would imply that something just went "bang" without a reason or cause, or under control, direction or command.

Question: So then, the original black dot was not alone?

Scroll 1:286

283. No, for it existed in a state of existence.

Question: Which "Big Bang" is the most important?

284. It depends on the beings that is affected by it.

Question: Which one affects earth people?

285. In your beginning, this "Big Bang" was twenty four billion years ago when Nibiru, a craft under the control of the Neteru Anunnagi collided into the planet Tamtu or Tanen called Tiamat and Qi, and caused a "Big Bang".

Question: Was there one before that one?

286. Indeed! There were others. This incident was not at the very beginning of all things, but in the beginning of an on-going event.

Question: What on-going events?

287. As you know, this planet Earth is just one of many in this solar system and even less important in the universe.

288. It is egotistical and naive to think that no other intelligent life exists in the boundless universes, except here on the seventh planet in, third planet from your sun.

Question: Why are we taught that?

289. Because the Luciferians and Reptilians must keep you ignoring true scientific data to enforce religious beliefs, and keep you worshipping them, and in their image, so as not to alarm the god within.

Question: Do they know these facts?

290. Indeed! They do, and of the many bangs and the biggest bang. Their bangs created a vibration, a friction, that results in sound. Each additional bang had a different time and distance and magnitude that created a harmony of music heard by the true listener of Om or Aum. It vibrates at a rate of 144, and it is the letter "D" of the 1st center "C" octave bass. Its color is green.

Question: So which is the "Biggest Bang"?

www.Nuwaupuing.com

291. Seventy Six trillion years ago, a small dot or Nuqta exploded, and this was called the "Big Bang."

Question: What Caused Its Explosion?

292. This event still happens to this day.

293. It is a result of the expanding then collapsing of a universe. In your case, this universe which caused the explosion of positive and negative forces, causing the negative and positive forces to clash into each other, matter and anti-matter.

Question: What happens in this event?

294. H^1-Hydrogen becomes He-Helium, from E^1-Ether to E^2-Ether Two, onto O^8-Oxygen-liquid, and E^8-Ether liquid gas.

Question: Does all this just happen by chance?

295. No, it is a master plan with countless experiments. One such being is referred to as Hu, the creative force of will and this entity dwells outside of this time zone.

www.NuwaupuInc.com

Question: Who Or What Is Hu?

296. In Egypt, Huhi, which is Hu, or Huwa was considered the personification of "utterance", with which the creator Ptah "Ta", who was regarded as creator of the physical world and deity of technology done its work.

297. Hu was the utterance or tone, the vibration and pulsation of existence and that which comes to existence within the sacred breath.

298. Those things made, that manifest within creation, true growth. Hu is that tone from which the creator calls things into being, with Hika and Sia.

299. The Original Triad Of Ptah, Hika And Sia. Huhi is one of the creative forces of will that constantly accompanies Re, "Ra" the sun deity, the source of life, the sustainer of life, the provider of sustenance in this world, the eternal.

300. This highest triad is the triangle with the eye of Re in the center, and the three points of the triangle represents Atum "the undifferentiated one", in the creation.

301. The full disc appearance of the sun in the morning. Atun "the unique one" in life.

302. The full sun disc at the highest point of the day.

303. Amun "the hidden one," at death, sun at its last full disc before setting, and making it through the underworld, or netherworld.

304. These are the sacred names of the three suns Shamash, Afsu and Utu of Sumeria, and Hu, Huhi, Huwa, is the etheric counterparts of the Nether world.

305. These beings once dwelled in this realm and now they are guiding forces and controlling forces from beyond this world, working as the involuntary, to the voluntary in the human body.

Question: Who or what is Hika?

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Scroll 1:306

306. Hika is an Anthropomorphic personification of miracles, magic, and the manipulation of elements, and chemicals of nature.

307. Hika is one of the two constant companions of Re. The other being Sia.

Question: Who or what is Sia?

308. Sia is the personification of perception, shape, form, pattern who work together in Huhi with Hika, and makes the world of created things possible.

309. So, Huhi, Hika, and Sia are a triad principle of godship, the Neteru, responsible for the consistant and perpetual pattern of that which manifests, in that which is created and made, and that tone or utterance is Aum, which later was rendered as Kun, as in existence or Be.

Scroll 1:311

Question: How is that possible?

310. If you live on Earth, and you are 93 million miles away from the sun, and you have an orbit of rotation and evolving, that becomes your time zone.

311. Taking 365 days for your planet to safely revolve around your sun, and all of the times calculated as days, weeks, months, years, centuries, decades, are within that time zone. The days subdivide and the subdivisions subdivide.

Question: So this being you call Huhi lives in another time zone?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 1:312

312. That is absolutely correct. If you live in the Sirius (Sibtu) Orion (Sahu), you have a separate time zone. In that case it's each Earth day is equivalent to one thousand years.

Question: Have the Luciferians and the Reptilians interfered with our time zones?

313. Yes they have! That's why they keep altering the calendars and shifting time, adding moments, and removing moments, leap years and the likes.

314. In fact, to deceive you, they gave you a "second" before a "first". You should have a "first" before you get to a "second".

Question: And we don't?

Scroll 1:318

315. No, just think, if I ask you the shortest period of time, you will refer me to a "second", and say there are 60 seconds in one minute.

316. As you see minute is Min, the deity of fertility and Miniature. So, the miniature should be before the second.

Question: What is the meaning of the word miniature?

317. The word miniature is from the Italian miniatura, meaning "illumination of manuscripts, small painting", from the word miniare, meaning "to illuminate," from Latin miniare, meaning "to color red", from minium, meaning red lead.

318. As you can see miniature is speaking about

322. That makes it hard for you to overstand just how Hu exists as the creative force of all will, in another time zone, or parallel world, where beings do exist. All a part of all, as a part of El Kuluwm, The All as all.

Question: Is this Earth's

Scroll 1:325

god concept?

323. No, because religious people of the planet Earth all place god in a heaven, or on a throne, or in a person, rock, statue, or plasmatic form. All of these entities would exist within all.

324. Luciferians have created god in their image and after their likeness in order to worship and praise themselves, and created the devil in the image and the likeness of the Reptilians, serpent people.

325. Thus, your god and your devil concept and your religious ignorance on time, existence, and good and evil.

Question: So 76 trillion years ago was the very beginning?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 1:326

326. That was your very beginning.

Question: So, this is creation as we know it?

327. Yes. According to what is recorded by your scientist and religious men. This small side of the Universe where zeles and bi-aps became atoms, began as a result of an explosion to become an explosion called the "Big Bang" by those who don't really know, for the one they refer to actually occurred 13 billion years ago. However the original big bang occured 76 trillion years ago.

328. At least that's what they record to enforce the law of ignorance and keep the spell in power.

Question: Then what happened?

Scroll 1:330

329. Immediately after this explosion, this half, that is the sum of things, known as matter, or something, from H^1 hydrogen, the first element on to - ES, the 99th element, called Einsteinium, these are your natural elements, that give way to man made elements. All of this makes up the realm of matter, of the black universe consisting chiefly of strong radiation.

Question: What is the meaning of Radiation?

330. The word radiation comes from the Latin radiare, radiat-, meaning "to emit beams", from radius, "ray", from whence they get the word ray, as in sun rays. This was taken from Re, which is properly

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

pronounced Ray, written in Hieratic and Demotic as Re, the true dark existence in which all light and chaos was born and this radiation formed a rapidly expanding sphere called "the primordial fireball."

331. The symbol of the Iris of Re, the ball of fire as the Eye opened from the world of supreme balancement, darkness, to let in the light to create the images. Thus, the symbol of the sun with rays, or the eye of Re. This is the birth of your sun.

Question: Then what happened?

332. After thousands of years, most of the fireball changed into matter that consisted chiefly of Hydrogen ([H] [1] [1.0079]).

333. It also includes a small amount of helium ([He] [2] [4.00260]), the second element, and other elements. H^1 is not the smallest or lightest element.

334. Today, faint radio waves are all that remain of the original fireball, Re, whose tone vibrated as Aum (Sun).

www.Nuwaupuring.com

335. Before this sun called by the Babylonians "Shamash", became a ball of gas containing Hydrogen and Helium, it was an active planet called Aum, containing all of the planets, moons and satellites which make up this solar system.

336. Like the fireball, the matter continued to move away from the point of the explosion. In time, the matter broke apart in huge clumps.

337. The clumps eventually became galaxies.

338. Small clumps within the galaxies formed stars, from the Babylonian female deity Ishtar, also written Ashteroth, as Ish-Star, as in female star.

339. And the word Star is from the Middle English sterre, from Old English steorra, Stellar, Stellate; Constellation, from Latin stella, star.

340. And Star is from Ster as in Dis-Aster, a disc shaped star, disaster. An occurrence causing widespread destruction and distress; a catastrophe.

Question: So, the word star means disaster?

341. Yes. Look real closely at the word disaster. You have Dis-aster, and aster means star.

342. The word star, meaning disaster was taken from the Babylonian name Ishtar, because she caused many wars and disasters between the sons of Enlil and the sons of Engi, for her dislike towards Murduk.

343. Ishtar, whose name is Inanna accused Murduk for the death of Dammuzi, and sentenced him to death in the great Ekur, also called the great pyramid, where he was buried alive. Enki pressured Inanna to relent, and she agreed to release him.

344. Inanna was summoned to the council of the great Anunnagi, where she repented to the Anunnagi, for all of her wrong doings, she apologized for all of the conflicts that she had started between brothers and sisters, and she promised that she would not deceive her family again. Ishtar was granted forgiveness.

www.Nuwanprinc.com

www.Numaupuinc.com

Scroll 1:345

345. Thus, she became worshipped as a great deity and her symbol was that of war and peace.

346. She became the high priestess of the temple of Ishtar, where she was worshipped as the universal mother of all living things.

347. She became known as Venus, Isis, Aset, Aphrodite, Lakshmi, Rhiannon, and to the Hebrews she became Esther, who was the seat of redemption between king Ahasheroth and the Hebrews.

348. Note: In your bible or Torah, the book called the book of Esther is the only book that does not contain the word god anywhere in it. It is a re-written play of the story of Ishtar, with Hebrew (Haribu) inserts.

Scroll 1:351

349. Her role as Aset "Isis" records her as deceiving her great grandfather Re "Ra", into giving her his secret name, where she poisoned him with a snake, until he told her his big sacred name.

350. His small name was Elul, which yielded the name El, El Eloh, Allah, Eloheem, Allahumma, and became the suffix of the angelic beings as in Miyka'el, Gabriy'el, Rapha'el, Uri'el.

351. She became known as the goddess of War, Hate and Love, all in one, the goddess of emotions, energy in motion, the sun as a star. This is the light that bred the chaos or confusion, con-fusion, against unity.

www.NuwaupInc.com

Scroll 1:352

Questions: It seems like, many of the characters in ancient times are associated with symbols.

352. Yes. As you can see many of the characters in ancient times are synonymous with the sun Shamash, a person, the moon Luna, a person, the stars Ishtar, a person. Even the planets were named after people Uranus as the person Anu, Neptune as the person Engi, and Jupiter as the person Anshar.

353. The events of creation as found in your holy books are symbols of births of ancient beings who came to this planet and mixed with the primordial beings who grew here. One symbolic birth became an embryo or as a daughter cell began to divide and grow into individual life forms, a well thought out plan of extraterrestrials, or planets, plan-E.T.

354. This incident or at least one clump became a group of planets, your solar, solar means Soul, Or Sol=sun and Ar from Arinna, the Canaanite female deity of the Sun, from where you get the word arena from.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

355. So you get Sol-Arinna, two of the great suns Aum, and Sal, which later became Shamash. And you have a system which is systematic.

356. The galaxies are still moving away from one another and galaxies comes from the Greek galatea, "a sea nymph, a cyclops." Polyphemus was in love with her. She rejected him in favor of a mortal shepherd named Acis.

Scroll 1:357

357. When Polyphemus discovered them in flagrante delicto (sexual intercourse), he lost what little temper he normally had and dropped a rock on Acis. Poor Acis went to pieces (big bang). Galatea fled into the sea (whirling galaxy). Acis was transformed into a river (Milky Way) and he joined her.

Question: Are you saying that this Greek story is really symbolic of the creation of the universe?

358. Yes. As you can see, the rock dropped in the sea is a symbol of a galaxy. Acis going into pieces, was the big bang. You see, the words are the tricks, and the languages from Greek to Latin, to English. But you must make the distinction between Greek mythology and religious theology that uses Greek as a language.

Scroll 1:360

Question: What is mythology and religious theology?

359. The first, Mythology as you can see deals with myths. The word mythology is from the French mythologie, from Late Latin mpthologia, from Greek muthologia, meaning "story-telling": muthos, story + -logia, -logy.

360. As you can see it's all about telling stories, or causing you to store what they tell you in your heart and mind as true. When in actuality they are the greatest stories ever told. Also you hear, don't tell stories, a term meaning

www.Nuwaupinc.com

"don't lie". Well mythology is just that. The absence of facts or proof, and founded on belief. As for theology, it's from the Middle English theologie, from Old French, from Latin theologia, from Greek: theo-, theo- + -logia, -logy, and means opinions about Greek deities, borrowed from the Egyptian deity Theoris, a goddess of women in childbirth, protectress of babies.

361. As all based on the birth of christ by the blessed mother Mary, whom they claim was a virgin and protected by angels. None of this is confirmed to be factuality. Thus, the grand plan of deception is based around several trick words, faith, belief, theory, theology, myths, mythology, folklores, tales, stories, which are the foundation of the sacred word, "religion". Religion is from Middle English religioun, from Old French religion, from Latin religie, religien-, perhaps from religere, meaning "to tie fast". They must bind your mind, your heart, your soul and your spirit to control you, and to suppress the God that is you, waiting to come forth.

The Importance Of Language
(19x8=152)

Question: How important is the language?

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 2:1

[redacted] Take a look at the very word spell, to put a spell on a person or to spell the word. Those most literate are in actuality those most ignorant.

Question: So language is the trick?

2. Yes, language is the trick and the trap. Example: starting backwards, the last so-called holy book to monotheism is the Qur'an, called in English Koran.

Question: Can you explain what the Indo-Euro Arabs, who called themselves Muslim scholars' games are?

3. Yes. Their game is they totally ignore the language that it was revealed in, and created a new language called Al 'Arabiya Fus-ha, which would translate as classical Arabic.

Scroll 2:5

Question: What made what they created different from the original?

4. They added dots, vowels, and advance grammar, something that did not exist to the inhabitants of Arabia, El Ghor its original name.

Question: Can you give us an example?

5. Yes, of course, being I was also a Muslim and speak fluent Arabic, it was one of the schools we passed through on our path to god-hood, Neteru. So you see, when in the Qur'an 44:58, 19:97 it states that it was sent down to Muhammad in his own

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Lisaan, "tongue", which would be "dialect", as opposed to Lugha, which would mean "language", that was the first trick.

6. They altered it, from Muhammad's clan, that is Quraiysh (Quran chapter 107) dialect, to the national language. And then altered that.

Question: You mean they altered the Holy Qur'an?

7. Well, I wouldn't call it holy. But yes, the first thing they did was added chapters (Suwrah), sections (Manzil), verses (Ayats), and even parts (Juz). In doing all of this, they were able to deceive the reader.

Question: Shouldn't this have improved the quality of it?

8. No, not if you say it's from Allah, the lord of all the worlds, and claim that it has no flaws in it, no mistakes, cannot be altered or changed, and is guarded by Allah himself as Al Hafiz.

Question: What was the difference?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

9. You had to be extremely educated and very literate to learn the classical Arabic of the Muslim world today. It's a lifetime study.

10. Most Muslims cannot understand what they are reading, when they read this new Qur'an in classical Arabic.

11. The Arab world is broken up into hundreds of dialects and tongues, that most people think is Arabic when in fact it is not, it is tribal dialects, with small bits of Arabic in it, which makes it impossible for them to understand what the Qur'an is saying.

Question: What would be the purpose in doing this?

12. Mind control, purpose control, emotional control, by dependency on carefully selected scholars and learnt men, through faith and belief without substantiated facts. This is the foundation of Judaism, Christianity and the Islamic religions, Iman, "faith" Facts, confirmations are not needed.

Question: This control is a part of the hypnotic spell?

13. Yes, and it's called religion, and at the end of that road, they have taken you off the original path, Millah Abram, "the rites that Abraham was taught, and followed as a Chaldean, which would have been a Babylonian or Sumerian, before he converted to Din, that became monotheistic religion. He became the patriarch of the worship of the one Lord, God, Baal, who in time changed into Adonai, and even Eloh, Allah, which is why they, monotheistic believers use the Lord. Be they Jew, Christian or Muslim.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: So what was the religion of the people between Adam and Abraham?

14. All the families of the Bible that preceded Abraham were worshippers of ANU.

15. Those were his isles, or abodes or cities that made up those generations and sons of Noah, the Mesopotamian, whose real name is Utnafishtim. The true story of the flood can be found in tablets called the Gilgamesh Epics, and Noah's son, Ham's sons and on down to Abraham. The flood is also recorded in Tama-Re, "Egypt".

Question: Is Abraham responsible for those who turned away from Anu?

16. Yes, Abraham himself fell from ANU's grace, and he worshipped Ba'al with the Hittites and prostrated before their priest (Genesis 23:7); "And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth." Heth was the second son of Canaan.

17. Now in Genesis 24:3, 37 Abraham is being warned against the Canaanites, Hyksos in Tama-Re.

18. Before Abraham's fall from grace, Anu was the Most High God, called Elyon El.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: Anu is the original God of the Bible?

19. Yes, above all the other gods, and all the seed of the Mesopotamian Utnafishtim, called Noah and Adafa, called Enoch in their Bible and Idriys in their Qur'an were loyal to ANU.

Question: Then what happened?

20. They turned away and

Figure 45
Ham, Son Of Utnafishtim And Naama

famine struck their land. So, they went to Baal because of the famine in their own land to worship Baal, the fallen son of Enlil, who himself was an Adonai "Master", from Adon a lesser deity than the Yahwehans.

21. You have Tammuz, the son of Ishtar, appointed as the one Yahweh over the seed of Seth, and you had Baal, son of Enlil and Ninlil, who had fallen.

Question: Who was this Baal?

22. This Baal, also called Hadad, or Adad, Baal-Zebub, Beelzebub and Teshub was the deity of storm, war and fertility and to the Phoenicians, and Ugariteans he was known as the deity of good harvests. Baal was merely a title that signified "the god", "the lord", or "the owner", and was a term applied to the chief or ruler of a group. His spouse was Baalath, "the lady".

23. For example: The Baal of Tyre was Melkarth, the Baal of Harran was Sin, the moon deity, the Baal of heaven was the sun god. There were as many Baals in Asia as there were Horuses in Egypt.

24. So Abraham went to the land of the Canaanites to worship their deity Baal during the time of the famine in hopes that he could bring them harvest by bringing them rain, thus he did bow to their god. Abraham became a confederate with them. (Genesis 14:13) "And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the

www.Nuwauprince.com

plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate (Ba'al) with Abram."

25. And the word being used for confederate to imply that Abraham was a constituent with these Amorites, who are the sons of Canaan is the name of the deity Ba'al, which the children of Israel turned and worshipped (Judges 2:13). "And they forsook the LORD (Yahweh), and served Baal and Ashtaroth (Ishtar)."

Question: Is this why the children of Abraham turned away from Anu?

26. Yes, the children of Abraham turned away from the worship of the seed appointed by Anu, Tammuz and turned and worshipped the seed appointed by Ishtar, Baal. Abraham was a part of this until Murduk, as Melchizedek brought him back to the worship of Anu, who the Torah calls Elyon El, "The Most High God", which is the exact translation of the name Anu. (Genesis 14:18-19). "And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God (Elyon 'El). And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth: And blessed be the Most High God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all".

27. And in fact, chapter 15 clearly states Abraham is now being warned against these same Amorites who

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 2:28 Scroll 2:31

he worshipped the god Baal with. (Genesis 15:13-21).

Question: Who Brought Abraham back?

28. Abraham had been brought back by Murduk (Genesis 14:22) son of Engi, called Ab, to the worship of Enlil, called Elil, one of the Anutu, the name of the Anunnagi, before coming to Earth. Enlil gave them to worship ANU called Millah Abram, later became Bereth Millah to the Hebrews, and Millah Ibrahiym to the Muslims, as opposed to the worship of Baal and Dina, which became Din in Moses' Torah and Diyn in Muhammad's Qur'an. Dana from where they get Din and Diyn is also Dono, Don, the Celtic wife of Beli, which is wife of Baal, or from Dun, meaning "brown".

Question: How is this deception used?

29. The whole deception is carried on to this day by people not overstanding the original languages that the people before Abraham spoke. They believed that Hebrew and Arabic of today are the original ancient languages.

Question: What do you mean by that?

30. Why I bring that up is, before the Qur'an, going backward, you find the New Testament, translated from the original Aramic into Greek and Latin.

31. Two languages totally incapable of expressing the

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

original Phoenician, Accadian, Ugaritic, Aramic, Ashuric, Chaldean, and of course Nuwaubic, the language of the Gods and the language of Nimrod.

Question: What about the Bible?

32. You mean, the Torah, five books of Moses, or the Old Testament? The Latin and Greek and English are poor translations.

33. Let's take a look at the Torah, which has been taken out of the Cuneiform rendered into the Phoenician, and then what is being called Hebrew, and further into modern Hebrew languages, incapable of expressing what the original tablets of the Anunnagi, that the Bible was plagiarized from, were saying.

Question: Where is this story spoken of?

34. This story is expressed clearly in their Bible. Where Barashiyth (Genesis), chapter 10, which is talking pre-Hebrew, is discussing in verse 5, "by these were the isles ('Iy) of the gentiles (Goyee), divided in their lands (Ereth), everyone after his tongue (La-Shown), after their families in their nations."

35. Note: that the Aramic word being used for isles is Iy, pronounced as E, the Sumerian word for "abode, house" and even misused for "temple", but in actuality means "the coast land".

36. You have written in the ancient tablets, the name of the abode or coast land of Anu, which included many cities, called E-anna, "house of An". An is another name for Anu.

www.Nuwaupuirc.com

37. E-anna is also called the Pure Sanctuary. Also when the Gods assembled on the planet Earth they met at Enlil's court at Niffur (Nippur), a city given to Enlil and dedicated to him, and the main temple in it was called E-kur, "mountainous house or abode".

Question: What is the implication here?

38. The implication here is that people on the planet earth all had different tongues, in their different nations and in their different families. I repeat, this pre-dates Hebrew, Arabic, Latin, Greek, and English.

Question: What are the languages that were being spoken here?

39. The languages that were being spoken here are Ugaric, Akkadian, Hieratic, Ashuric, and Aramic.

40. You find these languages mentioned by name in verses 8-11, of Genesis chapter 10. Even the name of the great city, of that great master builder Nimrod is mentioned Calneh, which translates as "fortress of ANU", in the land of Shinar.

Question: What and where is this place Calneh "fortress of ANU?

41. Calneh, Nimrod's personal city was one of the cities in the great kingdom.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 2:42

You had Babel, or Bab-El "doorwary to El" which was one of the cities, Erech another, Akkad another, Calneh another, all in the land of Shinar.

Question: Where is this mentioned in the Bible?

42. Genesis 10:10 clearly says "And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar". So the great city of Nimrod is here mentioned.

43. As the verses continue from 12 onto 20, the sons of the sons of the Sumerians, are mentioned as the sons of Noah, Utnafishtim, which includes Ham, Sudan (Ta-nehisi), Cush, Ethiopia (Aksum), Mizraim, Egypt, Phut, Libya, Canaan,

Scroll 2:46

(Genesis 10:6), and even in Genesis 10:13 it goes further with the sons of Mizraim, Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, Pathrusim, and Casluhim, and from him came Philistine and Caphtorim.

Questions: Who are the sons of Canaan, son of Ham and Haliyma?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

44. From Canaan came Sidon, Heth, Amor, Girgash, Hiviy, Jebus, Arkiy, Siniy, Arvad, Zemar, and Hamath.

45. These Canaanites dwelled in Gerar unto Gaza, on into Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah and Zeboim and Lasha.

Question: Who are these people?

46. These are the people that made up these nations, that had everyone in his own tongue, after his family. These are the worshippers of the one god, Neb "Tammuz", called Yahweh, Genesis 4:26, the descendants of Adam's son, Seth.

Question: What of the sons of Adam's son Cain, who and what were they?

47. Well, according to your Torah or Bible, when Cain was driven out of Gan, "the Enclosed Garden of Delight".

Question: Just where was this Gan?

48. Well, the story of the creation of a man called Adam as recorded in the first chapter of Genesis gives you direction, but you must read chapter two.

49. But first Genesis 1:28, says that a group of beings called Eloheem who had created a man in his image and in the image of the Eloheem, created he him. A single person.

50. Then it says "Male and female, created he them", and then a group of beings, from that single's gene, ordered them to have sex, "be fruitful", have children "multiply", and replenish "fill the planet earth", and subdue it "spread over the planet earth".

Question: So this is the beginning of humans on Earth?

51. Absolutely not. And we will explain. When you get to Chapter 2:1, it clearly states, "Thus the heavens and the earth were

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

finished", and all of the host of them."

52. The word for heavens there is Shamayim, "places up there". The word for earth is E-reth, simply "earth". The word for host "Saw-baw", meaning "an organized army of beings", often called angels, which comes from the Greek Angelos, simply meaning "messengers", having nothing to do with spirit beings with wings and halos, but rather with those who warred above, up there, before coming here.

Question: So these sawbaw, "heavenly hosts" or warriors were gods' own angels?

53. That is correct according to religion. Two major groups had conflict before the creation of man on earth. They were Serapheem, "agreeables" and Cherubeem "disagreeables".

Question: Is not this mentioned in the book of Revelations?

54. Yes, the book of Revelation 12:7 states: "And there was war (Polemos) in heaven, Michael the serapheem, and his messengers (Angelos) fought against the dragon, the cherubeem, and the dragon fought and his messengers (Angelos)." So there you have two sets of angels, agreeable, and disagreeable, and they had a war.

Question: So, these angels both had a message to bring if they were messengers?

www.Nuwaupinc.com

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 2:55

55. Yes. There is obviously life throughout the universe and they were spreading their messages, which resulted in the conflict in the heavens. This did not just happen before the Earth, but while the Earth was existing there was conflict between these heavenly host.

www.N uwauburc.com

Question: How do we know that?

56. Because it says in Revelation 12:8, "and prevailed not, neither was there any place found anymore in heaven." The word for heaven being used here is Orion (Ouranos), a specific star constellation. So, these beings were having what is called a star wars in a specific place in space.

Scroll 2:59

Question: But how does this explain the earth existing at this time?

57. Revelation 12:9 states: "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the devil, and satan which deceiveth the whole world (Oikoumene). He was cast out into the earth (Ge) and his angels was cast out with him."

58. So, if they're being accused of deceiving the whole planet Earth, the Earth must have existed when this war was still going on, though the conflict began before the Earth. The fear that the agreeable angelic beings Anunnagi had, was that the disagreeables were influencing the human beings.

59. Genesis chapter 3, and in particular verse 22-24, where Adam and his seed who have transformed from agreeable to disagreeable beings are being cast out of the Enclosed Garden.

60. Genesis 6:5, tells how the agreeable Eloheem felt about this man, it states: "And god (Eloheem, the plural of gods) saw that the Ra'a "disagreeableness", wickedness, evils of man "Adamites" was great in the earth, and that every imagination in the thoughts of his heart (Leb, "physical heart"), was only Ra'a "disagreeableness, wickedness, evil" continuously.

Question: How did these Eloheem feel about this?

61. Well, that's what is interesting, if you read verse 6 it says: *"And it repented (nawkham) meaning was sorry, or regretted the lord (Yahweh) that he had made man Adamites on the earth, and it grieved (awsab, displeased) him at his heart (leb, physical heart)," and in answer to your question, make note that it changed from Eloheem in verse 5 to Yahweh in verse 6, for one of the Eloheems was responsible, and not all of the Eloheem, and this Yahweh now had the same kind of physical heart as this Adamite.

Scroll 2:62

62. So, this Yahweh or God was responsible, and the appointed one God over man called Tammuz amongst the Sumerians, and Yahweh in Genesis 4:26; and he was upset with the seed of Adam, that would be Cain's sons and daughters, who had no respect or reverence for this

Tammuz being appointed their god.

63. But out of that same seed did come by way of Seth a man your Bible calls Noah. Tammuz made report to the Most High they planned to destroy Adamites. But Noah found grace in the eyes of Tammuz, the Yahweh of the Eloheem, "Neh shil el Neteru".

Question: What of the other seed Cain?

64. They had no respect for Tammuz, and his confession of weakness in repenting for allowing his creation to become wicked. They broke away as did many of the seed of the sons and daughters of Seth (Genesis 5:7); for Seth had many other sons and daughters, other than Enos, but it was the seed of Enos that was obedient and began to call on the name of the Yahweh Tammuz. (Genesis 4:26).

Scroll 2:65

Question: And what happened to many other sons and daughters?

65. They spread across the face of the earth, carrying with them the knowledge of these great builders from the stars called Nephileems. They mixed their seed with them, and became Ghibbore, mighty men, who were of old, men of renown. They built great empires in the names of other deities other than Tammuz.

Question: Can you name some of these great empires and what is their great architectural

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

symbols?

66. Yes. All great empires were influenced by the Neteru who brought their architecture to this planet. That being, in most places the Mir, which is called "pyramid".

Question: What does the word pyramid mean?

www.Nuwaupuns.com

67. It's broken up into two parts, the first word being Pyra, meaning "fire" and the second mid "middle", referring to the column of energy called "Tachyonic energy".

Question: May I ask, what is the mystery of the pyramid being built from the top down?

68. That's an old science called anti-destruction, vs. destruction. All matter has a reflection in energy or anti matter. From the cap stone of the pyramid upward would be its reflected form of energy, seen as one pyramid above the other. So the mental construction produces the blueprint for the physical construction. As you build the pyramid upward, you are and must first remove the top of another surface downward. Thus, the science of the pyramid being built from top to bottom. All master builders overstand this principle.

Question: Does that apply to all things?

69. It does in a controlled environment, terrestrial, but doesn't for celestial transports. Yet, even the sculptor to produce his masterpiece, chips away from its natural shape, and the form to fashion an image of his or her choice.

Question: What do you mean by anti destruction?

70. For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. Now because of the unusual shape of the pyramid, they imply two directions of projection, one towards the apex, and the other towards the base. The anti-destruction pyramids is back to back to the actual pyramid, and it is located below the ground. The anti-construction pyramid is peak to peak with the actual pyramid and is located above the apex. The science being used to build on Earth is to destroy.

Question: What is meant by to build is to destroy?

71. To build a monument you must quarry stone, which is destroying an environment. To build a log cabin you have to cut down trees. To make a meal, you must kill living things. So the science is, "to build you must destroy". Thus, it is with the knowledge of the pyramid.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: Were these sciences and symbols related to gods and religions of the future?

72. Yes. The pyramid (Mir), the BenBen, or obelisk, which became the lighthouse, minarets or steeples, but in ancient times these beings that had no respect for the one god Tammuz. They spread across the earth and left their mark by building great civilizations that baffled the one god, and his loyal subjects, called slaves.

Question: Where are these great places?

73. There are many worldwide and even some on Mars. They can be found as: the great pyramids of Xianyang, China and their great buildings, and the wall of China. The pyramids of Sudan and Egypt, the pyramids of South America, the pyramids of North America, the under water pyramids of Okinawa, Japan, and the small island of Yonaguni, the standing stones of Carnac in France, the temples in Tarxien on the Mediterranean island of Malta, the original Nabta stonehenge of Egypt, the circle of stonehenge on Salisbury Plain in southern England, the Nazca Lines near the Pacific coast of southern Peru, the great Serpent Mound of Ohio, the Mount Li tombs in the Shensi Pronvince of China, the Royal Tomb of Nimrud Dagh on the border of modern Turkey and Syria, the Temple of Ishtar in Iraq, where the thousands of Cuneiform tablets, that predates the Bible and Qu'ran are being found, the Rose Red City of Petra, the Mound City of Cahokia in Northwest of St. Louis, Missouri, the Temples of Angkor Wat, deep in the jungles of Cambodia, the towns of Chaco Canyon, in New Mexico, the statues of Easter Island in the Pacific Ocean, far off the coast of Chile, the celestial spheres

Note all of these temples predate your Bible and your Qur'an and the architecture and techniques involved in building them. The knowledge of it, surpasses monotheistic constructions of synagogues, churches, temples, and mosques. The Gods of these ancient cultures passed on to their subjects far more superior knowledge and technology than the religions of today can even imagine, and they did not get their knowledge of master building from the Bible God Tammuz, Yahweh, and also the city of Nod. And there are many more. How do you explain that most of these sacred sites existed before your one God, Yahweh, Allah concept, or your Biblical and Quranic concept? from the God of the Bible, then where did it come from?

75. They got this great knowledge that has been replicated and discovered on a planet in this solar system called Lahmu, Mars, where they have found pyramids, and traces of life to verify that, that planet once thrived with life, and intelligence, and from it was this planet seeded by gods known as Anunnaqi, which are Anu-na-gi, that those loyal to Anu came to Gi.

Question: And all of this is recorded in the Bible?

76. Yes.

Question: Can you explain further?

77. Yes. Now look in the eleventh chapter of Genesis, the very first verse you have the whole earth (E-Reth) was of one language (Saw-Faw) and of one speech (Saw-Faw).

78. Obviously there is a misplacement of chapters, 10 and 11, and a confusion of information when you re-read chapter 10:5. And remember the original scroll text, and tablets had no chapters or verses. Think about that.

79. But this is talking about those people of Shinar, where a mighty (Ghibbore) hunter named Sargon, or Nimrod, a Negroid as it is recorded of him, dwelled and these people were different than those people of Noah, even though, they were part blood related. They as Sumerians were linked to beings called Anunnaqi who came from beyond the stars, as tablets of before the bible have it recorded called the Enuma Elish or the Atra-Hasis recorded in Cuneiform, and Akkadian, and Chaldean, and other Babylonian tongues, and these beings called Nephileems and Ghibboreems went in unto the daughters of men, had sexual intercourse with them and produced the children of men mighty men (Ghibboreems) like Nimrod. (Genesis 6)

Question: So people existed before the Bible's Adam and Eve?

80. Yes. Even the god of the Bible was appointed as the one god, out of the many, or the Neter "Yahweh" out of the

Scroll 2:82

Eloheem.

Question: Can you explain?

81. Yes. This made a Yahuwa, a god, which they translate as the Lord, a misused term in the Bible from Yahweh to Adonai, to Rab, each designating different degrees of learning. But this lord who came down by himself to see the city of Calneh, and the tower built in it, was none other than Tammuz, the son of Ishtar and Dummuzi.

Question: Who appointed this Tammuz as the one God?

82. The name Tammuz, a Nuwaubian name, means "harvest". He was to be responsible for taking care

www.NWAUJOURNAL.com

Figure 90
Dummuzi, Father Of Tammuz

of the human beings who were the harvest of the gods. (Revelation 14:15).

Question: Who appointed this Yahweh, Lord, as one god over the humans?

83. ANU, the Most High Yahweh of the Eloheem.

Question: Do Gods come in ranks?

84. Yes, of course, that's why they have the "Most" this and the "Most" that in reference to God.

85. Also that's why god is found plural in the Bible and the Qur'an, and the constant repetition of, have no other gods before me, confirms the existence of other Gods. "I am the God of Abraham", confirms a specific god for the children of Abraham as opposed to the children of others, as the Egyptians, the Mayans, the Tibetans, who are children of older and greater Gods.

Question: Can this be found in the Bible?

86. Absolutely, a God called Yahweh is being called on from that point onward. So before the appointment of that one God, who were they calling on? Correct, the Eloheem, a plural of Eloh, each individual god is an Eloh, or a Yahweh, as a group they are Eloheem, as one Cherub, groups are called Cherubeem, one Seraph, groups are called Serapheem.

87. So, one of the Eloheem who before the Bible were known as the Anunnaqi, or the Neteru,

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 2:88

one of them was selected for the children of Seth, who are called the children of Gods. As found in chapter 4:26.

Question: Can I find the name Tammuz in the Bible?

88. Yes, When the children of Adam through Seth, through Enos began to call on the name of this Lord Tammuz, confirmed in Ezekiel 8:14, "Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Yahweh (lord's) house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz."

Question: Can this Tammuz be found anywhere else other than Sumerian tablets?

Scroll 2:92

89. Yes, Today Tammuz is retained in the Hebrew calendar from the Babylonian calendar, which would be the calendar of the Sumerians.

90. You find it used on their calendar between June and July, which would share the months Elul, Ab, Tammuz, Siwan, and Ayar. The other months of the calendar are Nisan, Adar, Shibat, Tebet, Kislew, Marcheswan, and Tishre.

91. To this very day Jews and Israelites alike worldwide keep the name of their god in the center of the harvest months. It's the sacred name of the Messiah.

Question: Who was this Nimrod, the master builder?

92. Nimrod was a

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 2:93

Sumerian, a Babylonian, son of Semiramis (Ishtar) and Cush (Kish). He was given the name Nimrod by his envies. His real name was Sargon.

Question: Is Tammuz the Lord that visited Babylon?

93. Yes. This Tammuz came down to see what these sons of Eloheem were building. (Genesis 11).

Question: I thought a group of gods came to earth?

94. They did. A group of Yahwehs, because verse six says: "And the Yahweh says behold" speaking to a group of beings, and verse seven says, "let us go down". So Yahwehs are groups, and as groups as I said earlier, they become Eloheem as found throughout the first chapters of Genesis under God, where in actuality, there is Eloheem meaning "Gods".

Scroll 2:95

Question: So first, one Yahweh came and then the group of Yahwehs (Eloheems)?

www.Nuwaupinc.com

95. That's right, Tammuz, the Anunnaqi visited these children who they considered rebellious as opposed to the obedient children of Noah, and Tammuz made his voice known amongst the Anunnaqi, that they can go down to stop these, as they thought of them rebellious, children. So, then he returned to the stars.

Question: What does the Semiramis, Mother Of Sargon (Nimrod)

THE COMING

Bible say happens next?

96. Well, as verse six says he spoke to his constituents, Yahwehans, the Anunnaqi, and said "look the people is one", they unified. "and they have all one language", they are speaking one language, "and this they begun to do", simply look at what they are capable of doing with unity and one language.

Question: This building was done without the guidance of the God of Seth, son of Adam?

97. Yes, to this date the God of the Bible and the Qur'an has never produced a city as great as the Mayans, the Shang dynasty, the Tama-Reans, or the Anunnagi. None of these great intellects believed or accepted the Bible or the Qur'anic religion.

98. Yet, their intelligence has not been matched to date. The mysteries of the pyramids (Miraat) still baffle monotheists.

Question: Then what was their religion?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

99. They had no need of one. For they had the most important principle, working together as families with unity and one language, and this frightened the god of the Bible and the Qur'an to the point where he wanted to cause them misery for no reason, whatsoever.

Question: What did he fear?

100. A simple principle of unity, without faith or belief. With this simple principle, nothing will be restrained from them which they have imagined to do, is their god's own words.

Question: So what did Tammuz and these other Yahwehans set out to do?

101. Just what Nimrod's priests predicted they would do, before they even knew it. Genesis 11:4, "And they said go let us build a city and tower, whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make a name, least we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth".

Question: And that was a prophesy?

102. Yes, because later on in that verse, but later in time, you'll find in verse 8, "And the Lord scattered them abroad, from thence upon the face of all the earth, and they left off to build the city".

103. So these Babylonians actually predicted what the Lord of the Bible was going to do before him and those who came down with him, actually they did it.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What did the God or Gods of the Bible do?

104. A group of these deities said, "So let us go down there and confound their language, so they may not understand one another" and this is exactly what they did.

105. They caused unnecessary confusion to a people who were building a tower to reach the heavens.

Scroll 2:106

106. Note: Yahweh the Lord of the Bible must have thought it was possible to reach the heavens by this tower, or this whole episode would not have been necessary.

Question: Why did Tammuz, the Eloheem as a Yahweh in Genesis 11:5-9 come down from heaven and diversify their tongues, cause them confusion and stop their great building project?

107. Nowhere in their bible does it say that this Yahweh destroyed the tower, or the city. He caused confusion and dissension, which caused them to not continue the building of their great empire.

Question: Why did he do this apparent disagreeable act, if he was a good God?

Scroll 2:110

108. Tammuz caused confusion amongst those people in the city of Calneh, Nimrod's subjects because Nimrod, who was known amongst the Sumerians as Sargon strayed away from the laws of the one Lord, Tammuz that was passed on down through the sons of Enos.

109. He gave all praise and gratitude and reverence to Anu, and none other, and he had no respect for intermediaries, such as Tammuz.

110. He believed, "go directly to the heavenly one", and for that he was called disagreeable. Because he disagreed with the worship of Tammuz.

Figure 93
Sargon (Nimrod), Son Of Semiramis And Cush

Scroll 2:111

Question: So Tammuz is a messiah, son of god type?

111. Yes. He would be equivalent to Jesus being worshipped rather than his father, and those ancient Hebrews or Jews, who do not acknowledge Jesus are hated and called heathens by the Christians. This was the case even back then.

Question: What part did Tammuz play?

112. He was appointed to be ruler of the Enosites by Anu.

Question: Why didn't Nimrod then acknowledge him?

113. Sargon, Nimrod, also called Nembroth, had his own value system and considered himself a Ghibbore, or God in flesh. So he broke off from the worship of Tammuz and even named his son Tammuz to belittle the status of Tammuz.

Scroll 2:115

Question: Was this a disagreeable act?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

114. No, not to the Sumerians who pre-date the plagiarized version of their ancient tablets namely: the Enuma Elish, Atra Hasis, Gilgamesh Epics, Tablets of Etana, Descent of Ishtar and Tammuz, etc.

Question: What part do all of these play, and do they pre-date the bible?

115. Yes they pre-date the Bible and in fact, the Torah which gave birth to the New Testament and the

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 2:116 Scroll 2:118

Qur'an was a product of these tablets, put together by 46 Anunnaqi under Tammuz as law for his subjects, called his chosen people, out of the many people on the planet Earth, and Nimrod or Sargon, knowing this knowledge, which he obtained from Ishtar herself, as Sargon disagreed with the spell / binding information and refused to be a slave of a slave of Anu.

Question: What was the results of this?

116. He was classified as evil, and rebellious, and they changed his name from Sargon to Nimrod, whose named means "rebellion" for he rebelled against the law of worshipping this one deity, who acted as an intermediary. He journeyed from east to the plains of Shinar (Genesis 11:4) and started building great monuments, and towers, which is called Ziggurat in Cuneiform, and the greatest of his cities, Bab-el, which means "doorway to El", who is Anu, was to his people a direct way to the father, "who art in heaven". He named his city on Earth Calneh, which translates "fortress of Anu."

www.NuwaupUnc.com

Question: Why did Nimrod feel that way toward Tammuz?

117. Sargon (Nimrod) saw Tammuz (Adonis) as a weak lord, because it repented Tammuz to his heart that man had become disagreeable, and wicked.

118. So, when Tammuz repented, Nimrod saw this www.Nuwalpur.com

Figure 94
Babylonian And Assyrian Ziggurats

as a weakness, and Nimrod dishonored the weak, being a mighty builder, hunter, and warrior before Tammuz.

Question: How does this apply to today?

119. If a group of people come together and do not wish to acknowledge the God of the Bible and the Qur'an or either, hidden forces of Luciferians will move on them, call them a cult, and set out to defame and to slander and literally destroy physically, just to stop anyone from showing that they can do great things without being subservient to the god of their image and their language.

Question: And this still works?

120. Yes, today they are called "Cult busters", and they are the Luciferians, who control the minds of religious fanatics and foolish haters that creates the atmosphere to destroy anyone who can succeed without going through them. Because of this many are afraid, and humans are in a state of Babel, about the truth. The deities responsible for conveying that truth, through religion, religious books, alteration of information, plagiarization, faith, belief and last and most important, diversity of tongues.

121. That's what is wrong with the people of today. They want you to respect and worship the intermediaries, example: Jesus, Buddha, Confucius, Maitreya, Muhammad,

Figure 95
Buddha

Figure 96
Confucius (Kung-Fu-Tzu)

Massau and the likes, which will be them.

122. If you decide that, that is not what you want, they call you a cult. The same way Tammuz came down on Nimrod, when he saw he had a culture and he was cultivating, and building great monuments, he was considered disagreeable, because he did not want to worship the intermediary.

Question: What are the results of bypassing the intermediary, called the intercessor?

123. When you bypass the intermediary or the intercessor, you are hated for your wanting to be your own God, and build your own structures.

124. Just as in Genesis 11:4-5, when the people were unified and they were building these great structures, because these gods were unaware of it, they interfered and stopped it, and confused the people who had become one in unity, to lock them in the system of depending on one person, or deity.

125. They spread their religion throughout the world, and this way they are able to control you through mental slavery.

Question: What was the key to their success?

126. Unity and cooperation. They were under one being's guidance. One part mortal, and part deity with a master plan. Whether considered by religious people to be agreeable or disagreeable, he led his people to unity

www.Nuwaubuine.com

by way of one tongue or language. He had succeeded and turned the heads of other gods, who later turned his people against him and each other.

Question: Could they have succeeded without him?

127. No. Not these people, for these people did not have the information and knowledge that Nimrod had. However, he was able to use that knowledge to unite them under one language and teach them to accomplish great feats.

Question: So religious people under monotheism fear all other great empires?

128. Yes. It is quite clear. If you look throughout the world where you find great monuments, like pyramids, and mounds, in Egypt, China, Japan, South America, North America, Etc, those were done by people, like Nimrod who broke away from that one god worship of monotheism and built their own cultures.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

129. The fact that none of the religious leaders of today know how these structures were built is a confession they have been cut off from that knowledge. The reason they are cut off is because they do not acknowledge the ancient ones of our cultures, who came from beyond the stars, seeded the planet Earth and gave that secret information to few.

130. Those with Nuwaubu, Sound Right Reasoning, are to this day the people who are the sons and daughters of the mighty men, the Ghibbore, just as in (Genesis 6:4), also called Jabbarians, from where the word Jabbar, El Jabar, which is Algebra comes, the great alchemist.

Question: So the language plays a great part?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

131. The many tongues and translations are responsible for the state of mind, and with that the truth about creation, evolution, the birth of the universe, and those beings responsible were lost and now are being revived, in and through you.

132. So many of the stories that you read in your religious scriptures are nothing more than symbolic of the birth and growth of your universes, galaxies and planets.

Question: What does the Bible say of Astronomers?

133. They too, are condemned and called soothsayers and sorcerers, and star gazers, astrologists and New Age.

Question: What have they done to them?

134. They created their own programmed misguided, incompetent astronomers, fabricated dates, and give mis-information.

135. Some of these astronomers believe that all galaxies will come together again in about 70,000,000,000 billion years. Their date is wrong, but their incident is true.

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 2:136 Scroll 2:142

This goes against religious beliefs, that a God controls the beginning and the end.

136. What they mean, is their Greek deities will come together, Galatea and Polyphemus. They try to make their belief a reality.

137. That's why they have the Olympics. A world involvement under sports, and challenge and competition. Winners and losers, happiness and sadness.

Question: What would happen if this is true?

138. When this happens, all the material in the universe will explode again and become a new universe resembling the present one. Uni = together, verse = against togetherness, universe.

Question: Has this happened before?

139. Yes. Such a "recycling of the universe" as cosmologist call it, have happened many times in the past and will go on forever.

140. Cosmologist in astronomic terms, are people who study the structure of this universe.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

141. But be on your guard against the Luciferians, who author most of the books, and become the authorities, and accepted as authentic, when they are deceivers, wearing titles that they give themselves.

Question: Are you saying, all modern day science is wrong?

142. Modern science may have taken a step in the right direction, but there are still many things they have yet to know because the "Big Bang" is a small part of the big plan.

143. However, this Right Knowledge will evade them as long as they deny the existence of us Neteru or Anutu, when incarnated on Earth become A'aferti or Anunnagi, known as the Neteru, responsible for your existence.

Question: What is the Anutu?

144. Anutu is the term that was used before coming to Gi. Gi as you know is a term for the planet Earth, from which you get Gaia, Geography, Geometry, even God.

Question: Then where did the word Earth come from?

145. The word Earth only describes the soil, the dirt, the sand, the land. When in actuality that is the smallest part of the mass of the planet. The majority is water. Moya, but the word came from Eridu.

Question: What is Eridu?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

146. Eridu was a term that the Anutu gave to Tanen, the original name for this planet. When they landed in the Persian Gulf they referred to this place as Eridu "a home away from home".

Question: Where else can I find this word?

147. Of course this word can be found in the ancient tablets of Sumer, the Enuma Elish, from which the Torah of the Hebrews was in part copied to create a law to govern human beings. In there, the word Eridu took the form of Ereth, and means again "earth". The Muslims whose Qur'an was conceived from the Bible call it Ard, "Earth", as you can see Ereth and Ard comes from Eridu.

Scroll 2:148

148. The Sumerian word for earth or ground was actually "Adama".

Question: Is that the same as Adam of Genesis?

149. Yes, and makes reference to the Adama project, or the seeding of this planet by beings you refer to as Eloheem, Malaaikat, Angelos, who are simply extraterrestrials from other star formations who came here and grew the human population.

Question: Why do you use grew and not created?

150. Because the word Create means to grow a thing as in the word birth describes an actual event, but they forget that the being grew through nine stages in the womb.

www.Kuwaupuinc.com

Question: Can you tell us which star constellations these beings came from?

151. Yes to name a few; Sahu "Orion", Kiymah "Pleiades", Mazzarah "Mazzaroth", Ayish "Arcturus", (Job 9:9, Job 38:31-32, Amos 5:8), South of Arcturus you'll find Draco, where the Dragon people or the Serpent people Reptilians come from, and Aldebaran, which is south of Orion, and Andromeda, which is south of Arcturus, Sibtu "Sirius", and Illyuwn (Qur'an 83:18-19, Qur'an 53:49). These constellations can be found in your so-called holy scriptures, namely the Old Testament, the New Testament and the Qur'an. Make note: that whenever you refer to the heavens in your bible it uses Shamayim "up there", Samawati borrowed from that same word, and Ooranos, which is simply Orion. So the God of the Bible was from Orion, and in Orion there were many mansions (houses) different planets. And south of Orion are the chambers, where we find the star constellations of what you call the devil. (Job 9:9) "Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south". Aldebaran, Andromeda, Draco, and Procyon. Yet, with these facts, your religious scholars and theologians try to create a mythological heaven and hell.

Question: Are all these beings good?

www.NuwauInc.com

152. Absolutely not; Your whole concept of God and Devil is based on a conflict that is leading to the final conflict, where beings from other star constellations are fighting over possession of this planet and its inhabitants. You call it the war between Good and Evil, or the war between the angels of God and the angels of the Devil. Call it what you like, it's a fact that you are living in the day when there is war in the heavens and the earth and we have come to protect you.

The Science Of The Circle And The Square
(19x5=95)

1 In order to create something, the Neteru, who are also known as the Neteru, the Ancient Ones, headed by a group of Re called Atum-Re, Atun-Re, Amun-Re created a state of nothingness, in which to place the 99 elements or attributes of this state by Hu, Huhi, the eternal, or things on this side of H[1].

2. There in is the beginning of the supernatural, super- yet -natur-al yet, physical creation of 3 suns, Aum, Sal and Shamesh.

Question: What's the importance of a circle and a square, and why do all the mystical societies use the square and compass today?

3. To many such as, the Freemasons, Shriners, Knights of Columbus, Alhambra, Rosicrucians, Theosophical Society, Astara, and their many sub-chapters and degrees depend on geometric mathematics as the keys to their secrets, that adds up to no more than simple geometry. If you look at the perfect G, you will see that it is a circle and a square.

Question: What does the G symbolize?

4. The G prefixing Gaia, is for God or Geometry, of the Grand Architect of the Universe, who to them was Ta, the original name spelled as Ptah.

Scroll 3:5

5. The G being the seventh letter and the mystical number of religious beliefs, in particular the Bible. Gea the female deity, or Mother Nature is symbolic of the crescent moon, or the deity Diana, and her son as the star of Bethlehem, which to some is Mary and Jesus, but in reality is Isis and Horus, and even Semiramis and Nimrod, the Master Builder of Babel.

Question: So they are used as sacred symbols?

6. Yes. These symbols are the keys to geometry. There is no shape, nor form that does not pass through these. One, the square is a symbol of finite, four separate straight, but ending paths.

Scroll 3:8

Question: What about the circle?

7. The circle, is a symbol of infinite, and only the being that connects the two points, knows where it begins and ends. So it becomes the tool of the master builders, and the roots of alpha and omega.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: What is the science behind the letters?

8. The science behind the letters A as Aleph, Alif, and Z, which is 2, 5, and S, each of these scripts as letters indicate the second point is the end, as 2 and Z, are the same, so each alphabet begins A-B (English) or A-Be (Latin), Aleph-Beth (Hebrew), and Aliph-Baa (Arabic), or Alpha-Beta (Greek), and Ab means "father", as in "God the father", the Alpha and Omega, or as the S and 5 are the same, the symbol of the 5 pointed star or pentagram and the S is the Sigma, the sixth letter of the Greek alphabet or Satan. 2 and 5 is the sacred number 7 for G, which is the number 6 and the double square has 8 points. You get 5 points 6 points 7 points and 8 pointed stars.

Question: Do they have any religious significance?

9. Yes. All temples, churches, lodges, synagogues, and mosques, utilize these symbols. For instance, the two holy shrines of the Islamic faith is the Kaaba in Mecca, Saudi Arabia, a square or cube and the dome of rock in Jerusalem, the circle. The same applies to all true religious sites.

Question: Is there a hidden purpose for their use?

10. Yes. All of these societies, religions, or fraternities derive their sciences or theories from facts of the Ancient Ones.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: So, are you saying that the Ancient Ones use these symbols as tools?

11. Yes. We, The Ancient Ones made the beginning, be-gene or Genn, Jinn exist by using the science of the "Circle" and the "Square", unidentical twins.

12. We performed a feat which may be considered impossible by some circles and unlikely by some on the square.

Question: How was this feat performed?

13. We took the infinite and formed the circle and with the finite, we shaped the Square.

Question: What happened next?

14. We then took the circle, turned it inside out and produced the state of Bohoo "Nothingness, Desolation" and Tohoo "waste"; existence yet not seen, heard, felt, smelt, or tasted, as ether is yet not seen.

Question: Yet, how can 2 shapes be totally opposite, both equal a total of 360 degrees when 360 is total?

15. Two totals, the total of things and the total of nothing, and equal in quantity, and the absence of quantity, no-thing, sum-thing?

16. Only EL Kuluwm, The All, appointed Creator of all these things in this state can cause this to happen, from the Tama-Rean deity Hapi, deity of the Nile, who was depicted as a male with female breasts, symbolizing the male and female as one. Genesis 5:2, male and female. 19. Or "If the circle and the square are both equal to 360^0, then, they are equal to each other, as clones or twins.

Question: What did the Ancient Ones, or the Neteru do with the four parts?

20. The 4 parts, we Neteru, caused to merge, and form the square, and the circle equal the same, and they have the same magnetic charge.

Question: Can you explain that further?

21. Yes. When two like charges are put together they repel, but because of the tremendous force and pressure of fusion, a force that made them act, this submits; contrary to their natural act of repelling.

22. Two distinct "Incomplete" squares formed, after further subjection in the intense commandment of El Kuluwm, they merged together to form one single complete square.

Question: Then what happened?

23. The center of each square and each circle became as one.

Scroll 3:24 Scroll 3:27

24. If you look closely, you will see each quarter of the circle within the square. This vast energy, was trapped within the square and was not able to escape.

Question: Why was that?

25. We the Ancient Ones, did not turn the square inside out, but rather we used the circle, because to turn a square inside out would give you four separate squares, which would be sixteen 90^0 degree angles, a total of 1,440 degrees, a science beyond your comprehension at this point in earth's time. It does not total 360^0, yet it does have four 90^0 outer angles, and four 90^0 degree inner angles, which would be 8 x 90= 720, which is, 360 twice.

Question: So, how is the circle equal to the square?

26. The circle is equal to the square because they both are 360^0, as in looking at the pyramid from above, and the four 90 degree angles meet at the capstone.

Question: How does the circle and the square equal 360^0 if they are 2 different shapes?

27. In the realm in which you dwell, the highest of intelligence is only of the physical realm. Things they tell each agent: in-tell-agent, and in this realm they are limited to persons, places and things. Three distinct 90^0 degree angles, which is 270 in itself that equals nine. They see no further than 360^0 degrees. 3 + 6 = 9, and the cipher is as far as they go.

Question: What about the next realm?

28. The next realm is the unseen realm, and can only be created in illusion to them, where as we Etherians exist as illusions to them. Thus, we began from 720^0 degrees. In our realm, things are what they are.

Question: What happens in their realm?

29. In their realm, or this realm with Illusions, short for Illyuwn, (Ihm), the higher heavens, they make objects appear other than what they actually are. Such is faith and belief.

Question: Is this the same for circle and the square?

30. Yes. The circle and the square, as shapes appear to be different but upon examining their mathematical properties, you will find they are the same.

31. The square that you know on this plane was not the same one which we, the Ancient Ones dealt with.

www.Nuwaupubinc.com

Question: Which one did you deal with?

32. We dealt with its counterpart on the spiritual plane and the plane of force. On this plane you start from Hydrogen on out to Einsteinium, the 99th element, and then even mortal made elements, Fermium, Mendelevium, Nobelium, and Lawrencium.

Question: What happens on the etheric realm?

33. In the etheric realm, we start from ether 1 on back through 99 ethers, making the energies in reverse, and of a different nature. The etheric realm is beyond the element realm.

34. These etheric planes are not perceived by the ordinary human eye.

Question: What happens in the element realm?

35. In the element realm, the energy which was confined in the square tried to escape.

36. It pushed upward, outward and downward.

Question: What affect did this friction cause?

37. This constant friction generated heat to the degree that the square could no longer withstand, and an explosion of enormous force occurred.

Question: Did this event happen on the physical plane?

38. This grand event has yet to be manifested on the physical plane, as the birth of this side of the universe, the formation of the stars, galaxies and planets. It is all a grand plan of E.T.'s or plan-ets.

Question: Can you please explain this further?

39. To overstand more, let's analyze the merging of the circle and square from an atomic point of view, having to do with the science of submicroscopic

www.NuwaupuInc.com

particles called atoms.

40. The energy upon its arrival on the material plane was manufactured by the conversion or changing of certain elements and gases known as Hydrogen and Helium, which is not by far the lightest, as time will tell.

Question: How did H' and He come about?

41. To overstand how these elements came together, it is necessary to have a basic knowledge of the science of chemistry, Kemet or Khami which is the process of combining chemicals, and bringing about chemical reactions.

42. So I will provide you with a little background information regarding the nature of an atom.

Question: What is the simplest particle of life?

43. The simplest particle of life to date is a quark, of which atoms are composed of. This puts it on the other side of things or something, the sum of a thing based on its weight as H^1 is the lightest thing on this side of things. Then the quark is without weight or sum, it's nothing, no-thing.

"The Atom Is Nothing More Than A Time Solar System Charged With Electronic And Magnetic Power".

EL Suhuf, Tablets Of Life, 10 Pages Of Zakar (Adam) Son Of Atum And Lillith, 2:211

Question: So the atom is the smallest element?

44. The atom is thought to

www.Nuwaupinc.com

be the smallest unit of an element that retains all of the element's properties. I will teach you better than that. It's your information.

Question: What is an atom composed of?

45. At the center of an atom is a smaller particle called a quark, the father of energy which in itself was produced by the mother of all energy, biaps as in the cells beneath the cell or in the case of the DNA inside is the mother mitochondria.

46. There is the Nucleus, a dense cluster of protons and neutrons on the outside of a quark.

47. Together, the Protons (P), which have a Positive (+) charge, an intersection,

48. And neutrons (N), which have no charge, are called nucleons.

Question: What is mitochondria and where does it come from?

49. Mitochondria is a spherical or elongated organelle in the cytoplasm of nearly all eukaryotic cells, containing genetic material and many enzymes important for cell metabolism, including those responsible for the conversion of food and nutrients to usable energy. Also called chondriosome. from the New Latin : Greek mitos, warp thread + Greek khondrion, diminutive of khondros, grain, granule; "to grind".

50. Mitochondrial DNA is inherited only from the mother. This function, known as respiration, is why the mitochondrion is frequently referred to as the "powerhouse" of the cell.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 3:51 Scroll 3:57

Question: Where are the Mitochondria DNA found?

51. Mitochondria are found in eukaryotic cells (cells with a nucleus contained within a membrane).

52. The number of mitochondria in a cell depends on the cell's function. Cells with particularly heavy energy demands, such as muscle cells, have more mitochondria than other cells.

53. Because of their strong resemblance to aerobic (oxygen-requiring) bacteria, scientists believe mitochondria evolved from an early symbiotic, or cooperative, relationship between an aerobic bacterium and an ancestral eukaryotic cell.

Question: What is the structure of mitochondria?

54. The mitochondrion, which can range from 0.5 micrometer (0.00005 in) to 1 micrometer (0.0001 in) in length, has a double-membrane coat.

55. The smooth outer membrane is separated from the inner membrane by liquid.

56. The inner membrane, folded into structures called cristae, surrounds a liquid matrix containing a large number of enzymes, or biological catalysts.

Question: Where does the DNA rest?

57. Within the liquid matrix lies mitochondrial deoxyribonucleic acid (mtDNA), which contains

www.Nuwauping.com

the information to direct protein synthesis.

58. The chief function of the mitochondrion is to create energy for cellular activity by the process of aerobic respiration.

59. In this process, food is broken down in the cell's cytoplasm to form pyruvic acid, which is imported into the mitochondrion.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: How is the mitochondria only distributed from the mother?

60. When an egg is fertilized by a sperm, the sperm's mitochondria are left outside the egg.

61. The fertilized zygote inherits only the mother's mitochondria.

62. This maternal inheritance creates a family tree that is not affected by the typical shuffling of genes that occurs between a mother and father.

Question: What are Neutrons?

63. Neutrons, are uncharged particles, one of the fundamental particles of which matter is composed. The mass of a neutron is 1.0086654 atomic mass units (amu).

64. The neutron is a constituent particle of all nuclei of mass number greater than 1; that is, of all nuclei except ordinary Hydrogen.

Question: How are free neutrons produced?

65. Free neutrons—those outside of atomic nuclei—are produced in nuclear reactions.

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 3:66 Scroll 3:72

66. They can be ejected from atomic nuclei at various speeds or energies and are readily slowed down to very low energy by a series of collisions with light nuclei, such as those of Hydrogen, Deuterium, or Carbon.

Question: How does the neutron perform without the nucleus?

67. When expelled from the nucleus, the neutron is unstable and decays to form a proton, an electron, and a neutrino.

68. Like the proton and the electron, the neutron possesses angular momentum, or spin.

Question: How does the neutron work?

69. Neutrons act as small, individual magnets; this property enables beams of polarized neutrons to be created.

70. The neutron has a negative magnetic moment of -1.913141 nuclear magnetons. Its half-life was fixed approximately at 10.61 minutes.

Question: What is the antiparticle of a neutron?

www.Nuwaupinc.com

71. The antiparticle of a neutron, known as an antineutron, has the same mass, spin, and beta-decay constant.

72. These particles are sometimes the result of the collisions of antiprotons with protons, and they possess a magnetic moment equal and opposite to that of the neutron.

Question: What does theory say about the neutron?

73. According to current particle theory, the neutron and the antineutron, and other nuclear particles are themselves composed of quarks.

Question: What are quarks?

www.N uwaupuinc.com

74. Quarks are any of six hypothetical particles that are believed to form the basic constituents of the elementary particles called hadrons, such as the proton, neutron, and pion.

Question: What are quarks classified as?

75. Quarks were first classified as three kinds: up, down, and strange. The proton, for example, is believed to be constituted of two up quarks and one down quark.

76. Later theorists assumed the existence of a fourth quark; in 1974 the existence of this quark, named charm, was experimentally confirmed.

77. Thereafter a fifth and sixth quark—called bottom and top, respectively—were hypothesized for theoretical reasons of symmetry.

Question: Does a quark have an antiparticle?

78. Yes. Each kind of quark has its antiparticle, and each kind of quark or antiquark comes in three types of "colors."

79. Quarks can be either red, blue, or green, while antiquarks can be either anti-red, anti-blue, or anti-green.

Scroll 3:80

Question: Do we see these colors?

80. No. These quark and antiquark colors have nothing to do with the colors seen by the human eye.

81. Rather, these colors represent a quantum property.

82. When combining to form hadrons, quarks and antiquarks can only exist in certain color groupings.

83. The hypothetical carrier of the force between quarks is called the gluon.

Question: What are protons?

84. Protons are stable, positively charged sub-atomic particles in the baryon family having a mass 1,836 times that of the electron. From Greek Proton, neuter of Protos, meaning "first".

85. The proton is a nuclear particle having a positive charge identical in magnitude to the negative charge of an electron, and together with the neutron, a constituent of all atomic nuclei. The proton is also called a nucleon, as is the neutron.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: How is the proton formed?

86. The proton forms, by itself, the nucleus of the Hydrogen atom.

87. The mass of a proton is approximately 1836 times that of an electron, or 1.6726×10^{-24} g. Consequently, the mass of an atom is contained almost entirely in the nucleus.

88. The proton has an inward angular momentum, or spin, and thus a magnetic moment. In addition, the proton obeys the exclusion principle.

Scroll 3:88

Question: How many protons are in the nucleus?

89. The number of protons in the nucleus of an atom determines what element it is; the atomic number of an element denotes the number of protons in the nucleus.

Question: How is the proton used in Nuclear Physics?

90. In Nuclear Physics, the proton is used as a projectile in large accelerators to bombard nuclei to produce fundamental particles. As the Hydrogen ion, the proton plays an important role in chemistry.

Question: Is there an antiproton?

91. Yes. The antiproton, the antiparticle of the proton, is also called a negative proton. It differs from the proton in having a negative charge and not being a constituent of atomic nuclei.

www.Nuwauguine.com

Question: What is an antiproton?

92. The antiproton is stable in a vacuum and does not decay spontaneously.

93. When an antiproton collides with a proton or a neutron, however, the two particles are transformed into mesons, which have an extremely short half-life. Because protons are essential parts of ordinary matter, they are obviously stable.

Question: What is a Hadron?

94. A hadron is any of a class of sub-atomic particles that are composed of quarks and take part in the strong interaction. From the Greek hadros, meaning "thick".

Question: What is a Pion?

95. A Pion is a semistable meson produced either in a neutral form with a mass 264 times that of an electron and a mean lifetime of 8.4×10^{-17} second or in a positively charged form with a mass 273 times that of an electron and a mean lifetime of 2.6×10^{-8} second. Also called pi meson.

Question: What are things made of?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

1. All things on this side are made up of atoms, which are themselves made up of smaller particles called quarks, beyond weight.

2. There are even smaller called exotic mesons or biaps, such as protons: Units of positive electricity, neutrons: Units of neutral electricity, and electrons: Electrically negative parts of the atom; to name a few which are made of zede or zele.

Scroll 4:3

Question: Now if H^1 is recorded as the lighest atom, then what are quarks, biaps and zedes?

3. Quarks, biaps, and zedes are beyond weight or weightless, having no-sum. Together, these form a specific pattern.

Question: So how would you explain atoms?

4. Atoms are therefore, represented in a circular form and the arrangement of its electrons in relation to its nucleus is that of the planets to the sun. Quarks, Bi-aps and Zedes have form, making them things with a sum.

Question: What are beneath atoms?

5. Beneath atoms are quarks, smaller forms or sums, and beyond that is ether, without what you know as form, the nearest you can get to defining ether is gas.

Scroll 4:7

Question: So Zedes are without form?

6. Yes, Zedes or zeles are without form or sum, as you know it on your seven realm existence. The first being the physical plane, the second beyond the plane of force.

7. These two planes identify sums, or the equivalent of manifestation. Man-infestation, from the Middle English infesten, to distress, from Old French infester, from Latin infestere, from infestus, meaning "hostile".

Question: What is the

link between manifestation and man-infestation?

8. The definition explains itself. The word infest, or infestation means to be hostile, and human beings, for their very survival, have to be hostile to Gaia, or simply to mother nature, in order to survive. That is, in order for them to build, they must destroy.

9. To eat vegetables, they must rip them from the Earth, and thousands of years of Man's-infestation has resulted in the plagues of the planet that is leading to self destruction by the mortal. This is not to be mistaken with the Gods.

Question: What does this have to do with sub-atomic energy?

10. Simply Sub-atomic means beneath Atum, the Egyptian deity, son of Nun and his female counterpart Nunet. In the system of the male and female you find the chaotic waters for when the male ejaculates in the liquid filled womb of the female, the chaos begins between all the sperm cells. They race to see which one will get to the egg first, parents of Shu and Tefnut by self fertilization, first born of the Neteru.

www.Nuwaupunc.com

Question: What do these Egyptian deities have to do with nature?

11. One: Nun is the male part and Nunet is the female consort. They are the deities of water. 3/4ths of the human body is water, and the lymphatic and circulatory systems are the source of life and reproduction. Water is the most important element in existence and needed as a source of conduction. Two: Shu, the male is the deity of air. Three: Tefnut, the female is the deity of rain and moisture, that is atmosphere, who is the mother of Geb, the male deity of earth, soil, sustenance, and this list of names will lead into Nut, the female deity of the sky, which takes you into Asaru the male, Aset the female, Sutukh the male, and Nebthoot, the female, which leads into human kind.

12. The Egyptians were known as alchemists, that is Chemists. As you can see by the names of the deities and what is ascribed to them, they begin before the manifestation of nature and matter as you know it, which puts them into sub-atomic energies, as quarks, bi-aps and zedes.

Question: What is the weight of a zede?

13. On the elemental chart of matter as you know it, Zedes would have no sum, or weight, making them nothingness when weighed on the scale of sum, to something with weight by the law of measurement. Its center contains the neutrons and protons.

14. So, you can see where they get the concept of Gods, living in a spiritual realm, other than the physical realm would be the link from the material plane into the plane of force, on to what becomes known as the spiritual plane, then the mental.

15. Notice, there are four planes, and the word quarks, or quantum, is from the number four.

Question: Is that where they get their spiritual spook world from?

16. Yes. They refer to them as plasma, plasmetic energy, and exmo-plasma. The word plasma is from the New Latin, from Late Latin, image, figure, from Greek, from plassein, "to mold", where energies and gases are molded into images, called etherians.

17. To the religious community, spiritual or angelic beings. It is all energy, atoms, protrons, electrons and neutrons and those forces which make them up.

Question: How do protons work?

18. Protons carry a positive electrical charge (+) that is the square.

19. Around the nucleus are smaller bodies arranged in rings.

20. These are constantly orbiting the nucleus and they are called electrons.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What are these particles called?

21. The path that these particles which carry a negative charge (-) are called shells.

Question: How many protons, electrons and neutrons does an atom have?

22. Atoms vary in the amount of protons, electrons and neutrons according to the element to which they belong to.

23. Two or more atoms may combine their electrons and form a chemical unit called a molecule, mole-cule.

Question: What is a Molecule?

24. A molecule is the smallest particle into which an element or a compound can be divided without changing its chemical and physical properties; a group of like or different atoms held together by chemical forces. From the French molécule, from New Latin molecula, diminutive of Latin moles, meaning "mass".

25. Molecules of different elements may combine to form new compounds. These too, have their specific patterns.

Question: What is the weight of an atom?

26. Each atom has a specific weight which is the sum of the neutrons and protons, and a specific number which indicates its appearance on the Periodic Table of Elements that in the law of things, something or the sum total of a thing.

27. In addition, a symbol, the initial of the elements to which it belongs is also used to identify an atom.

Question: Can you give an example?

28. Yes. The Beryllium atom, appearing 4 on the Periodic Table, has an atomic number of four on the sum of things. Yet, on the un-sum of nothing its - 4 ether as opposed to matter 4.

29. The element is identified by the initials "Be".

Question: What is the atomic weight of an atom?

30. An atom has an atomic weight of 9.012 Or 9.0.

31. The atomic number is also the amount of protons.

Question: How many electrons does an atom carry?

32. On the first shell of the atom there are usually two electrons.

33. Other shells may have as many as 8.

34. The heaviest atoms are those with the most electrons, which determines the amount an atom carries.

Question: What about the Hydrogen atom?

35. The Hydrogen atom has an atomic number of one and an atomic weight of the same number. The un-sum of nothingness is -1 ether.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

36. Hydrogen does not fulfill the requirements of a regular atom. For one thing, it is the first on the periodical chart and is the lightest and simplest atom or sum.

Question: Where did Helium come from?

37. It was from a single Hydrogen atom that Helium came about.

38. In order to satisfy its need for completion, it fused in the presence of 3 other Hydrogen atoms so that the end product was the Helium atom from 'I' Hydrogen to "we" or "us" Helium,

39. Which satisfied the condition for being complete, that their first shell hold 2 and only 2 electrons.

40. To move on to the actual process of the obtaining of Helium.

Question: What was the final product?

41. The final product of these 2 stages became the Helium atom or Atum, a composite of beings into one, Aten, and its heavenly host, or Neteru.

42. This process, by a grand series and a chain of reactions, re = again actions = events, re-occuring events, changed more Hydrogen to Helium and crystallization of the Helium took place; thus forming a solid substance in which the atoms are arranged in a definite pattern.

Question: Did this complete the atom?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

43. A "Void" area occurred in the atom, between the nucleus and its outer shell. The unseen, existence of existence and the manifestation of things, the shell as the names are written something anything, that thing.

Question: Are atoms today the same as atoms of the past?

44. No. The principle is the same. But, the mutation and metamorphosis of life means a mutation, growth, development and new forms of life, and because existence extends from the point of its furthest development, back to the root of its beginning, then new life forms link etherically back to their beginning, and it alters its beginning, so as new life forms come into existence, which are links to the beginnings of life forms, atoms indeed change.

Question: Why do modern day scientists say atoms don't change?

45. Because they are part of a well thought out plan to cut off the direct link between living, lived and life.

Question: What are these three principles, living, lived and life?

46. Let's start with the beginning life, existence, be it intelligent by human standards, or in that intelligence within itself, as in the case of a jelly fish that has no brains, but works off of an instinctive intelligence.

47. So original life caused living, and once time and change has consumed the original form as in the case of sperm, to fetas, to baby, then the original is absorbed in what it's becoming. Then "lived" is accomplished when it has reached the peak of what it is to become, and man has not reached that peak, he is metamorphosing into totality, perfection. Thus, you have life, living and lived, and this applies to atoms and cells as well.

Scroll 4:48

Question: What is the difference between the energy of an atom and the energy of a cell?

48. They only differ in the way they are measured. Cells work off of electrical impulses, nerve endings, and atoms works off electrons. In both cases you see the word electra. Electron: electronegative. From the New Latin electro-, from Latin electrum, amber, from Greek elektron.

49. The true meaning of electro, or electronics is to select or choose from the Middle English electen, from Latin eligere, elect-, to select : e-, ex-, ex- + legere, to choose; Tron is from Trans "to move from place to place," as the solar system has a central sun, of Helium and Hydrogen, which would be the nucleus of the atom. The planets moving around the sun would be the electrons, and as there is a set pattern and system controlled by forces, the same would apply with electrons in motion around the nucleus, as a planet rotates and revolves around the sun, thus electronics would yield the meaning, selected motion, energy in motion.

Question: Is this what existence is?

50. Yes. Repeated solar systems. Whether it's atoms or cells. The Atom today has many sub-shells, 99 names that is, between the nucleus and its outer shell (K) There are other shells of energy, Etherians.

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 4:51 Scroll 4:56

51. This energy is what gives the atom substance, messengers of truth. They bring the message or none would know of existence.

52. Hebrews said Yahweh, Christians said Thehos, and Muslims said Allah, while many others say even other things as names.

53. They all are wrong, for Yahweh, Thehos and Allah are physical manifestations, through what a mortal says Yahuwa "Moses" Thehos "Jesus" Allah "Muhammad", and only are identified with the physical plane by way of these messengers with whom they would not exist. When true existence is not determined by the hen, the shell of the egg, the Bayud "white" of the egg, or the yoke of the egg, but the source of such a well organized system of growths and changes, form to becoming.

Question: Is this the beginning?

54. This is what many think is the beginning, but in actuality, you can't determine a beginning until the end.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: How can one understand this principle?

55. Time is the key and change is the motive. For you see, in the religious mind the beginning was caused by one super natural all knowing god, forgetting the principles of error, mal-functions, deformities, and space, all caused by energy.

56. This energy did not exist before their god created it. Of course this is merely a belief, for the point overlooked is the area which fell between the nucleus, an electron, it was of total emptiness...a vacuum, the dwelling place of their deity, before creation and creatures to acknowledge its existence.

Question: So where would god exist in creation?

57. The god of religion who either declares or thinks things into existence must be in the center.

Question: Why is that so?

58. Because to think forward is to acknowledge backward. In order for future to exist, past must have already existed, so if god started existence from one specific point in time, time existed. To see god at the beginning of any point would be depreciating his abilities to be at the center of all things, and the rim of all things at the same time.

Question: If this principle applies for space, doesn't it also apply for god?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

59. Absolutely, if there is one god, there must be another to determine the principal of one. You have no need of a one, if there is not a two and on, and you can't have a one, without percentages of itself. Each percentage would subdivide into even smaller percentages of itself.

60. So the principal of Allah, (Rab) or Eloh (God) or Yahweh (God), Adonai (Master), being this individual who commands things into being is to acknowledge that this individual is just that, an individual out of many. An in-divide-ual.

61. One of the beings divided or simply a Neter (Eloh) of the Neteru (Eloheem). These beings called by different names in different cultures are those that seeded the planet now called Earth.

Question: So Earth is like an electron moving around the nucleus as the sun?

62. Yes, in fact electrical storms on the sun's surface coming from its center and erupting on its surface, resulted in the planet moving away from the sun and getting caught in its gravitational pull. This turning of atoms of crystallization still continued.

63. Every element originated from Hydrogen. Because in order to obtain "something", you have to start with nothingness.....VOID!!! If any god is one and alone, having no equals, then he is the Hydrogen atom, think on that.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What is the most abundant element in the universe?

64. The most abundant element in the universe is Hydrogen. Although it makes up less than one percent of the Earth's crust, by weight, it exists in vast quantities as part of the water in oceans, lakes, rivers and ice.

65. It is also found in a

Scroll 4:66

tree structure in gases in vapor by ultra violet radiation from the sun who is symbolic of the Tama-Rean "Egyptian" deity Re. It is in all things and where it is not, there is no life. It's one and alone being the first on the element chart.

Question: Where else is Hydrogen found?

66. Hydrogen is also found in all animal and vegetable tissue as part of several Carbon compounds.

Question: What are the outer precincts of the atom controlled by?

67. The outer precincts of the atom are controlled by a shell, a negatively charged particle, called the electron.

Scroll 4:69

Question: What are photons?

68. Photons are the quantum of electromagnetic energy, generally regarded as a discrete particle having zero mass, no electric charge, and an indefinitely long lifetime, seen as light released as electrons move between shells.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What do photons do?

69. Photons carry electromagnetic forces between the electron's shells, then they pass through the inner shell of carbon atom, approaching one of the oldest and magnificent structures of nature, the nucleus of the atom.

Question: What is the nucleus made of?

70. The Nucleus is made up of protons and neutrons, P=Positive and N=Negative, souls and spirits.

71. These nucleus particles are in turn made up of trios, of even older and more fundamental particles, the Quarks. Trios = three or Om, Sal, Afsu, the three original suns then came Shamesh.

72. Now we've reached the realm of the nuclear forces.

Question: What's in the realm of these nuclear forces?

73. The weak force mediates the process of radioactive decay, while the strong force binds the quarks together, weaving webs of energy into the form we call matter, Hu-Min, mortals. God in flesh.

Question: What is the weak force?

74. The weak force is a fundamental interaction between elementary particles that is several orders of magnitude weaker than the electromagnetic interaction and is responsible for some particle decay, nuclear beta decay, and neutrino absorption and emission, also called weak interaction.

Question: What is the strong force?

75. The strong force is A fundamental interaction between elementary particles that causes protons

www.Nuwaupune.com

and neutrons to bind together in the atomic nucleus. Also called strong interaction, inter-action.

Question: How do sub-atomic particles interact?

76. Sub-Atomic particles interact by means of 4 fundamental forces, (1) Gravitation (Physical Attraction), (2) Electro Magnetism (Emotions), (3) The Weak (Love) And (4) Strong (Hate) nuclear forces. The nature of things seen and unseen.

Question: What is gravitation?

77. Gravitation is the natural phenomenon of attraction between massive bodies. Its opposite is levity.

Scroll 4:80

Question: What is electromagnetism?

78. Electromagnetism is Magnetism produced by electric charge in motion. 2. The physics of electricity and magnetism. It created its own opposites.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: How do particles and forces effect everyday life?

79. Particles and forces are the authors of every event in life, from the exotic to the every day.

80. Solidity is an illusion created by electromagnetic forces that bind the atoms together, or they look together, when in fact they are not.

Question: How is electro-magnetism carried?

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 4:81 Scroll 4:89

81. Electromagnetism is carried by photons, and it is infinite in range. Together means to-gather, not become the same.

82. It is electromagnetism that carries its rays from the light to the stars and this sun is just that, a star, all happening in and out of the darkness; 3 degrees of darkness.

Question: What does the weak nuclear force do?

83. The weak nuclear force helps power the sun, and it presides over the phenomenon of nuclear decay.

84. Tremendous amounts of energy are bound up in the nucleus of each atom (solar plexus).

85. Some nuclei are unstable and can't contain their energy forever (spontaneous combustion).

86. When they decay, it's the weak force carried by particles called weak bosons that governs the process.

Question: What about the strong nuclear force?

87. The strong nuclear force binds quarks together to make protons and neutrons.

www.Nuwaupuine.com

88. Without it, there would be no atoms (cells) and the universe (body) would be a quark fog (spirit).

89. Strong nuclear forces holds quarks together to make protons and neutrons (red and white blood corpuscles).

Question: What was the universe composed of before the existence of protons and neutrons?

Scroll 4:90

90. When protons and neutrons didn't exist, the universe was a soup quarks (souls).

91. The strong forces carried by particles of the physicists called gluons, because they act like the most perfect imaginable glue (plasma).

Question: Is gravitation a strong force?

92. Gravitation, the universal attracting of all massive particles towards one another is the weakest of the four forces, but gravity has infinite range and it always attracts, never repels (the electromagnetic force).

93. The single minded dedication, that makes gravity the force that holds the planets, the stars and the galaxies together (the sympathetic nervous system).

Scroll 4:97

Question: Why are there forces different and profound in character (body, spirit, soul and ether)?

94. There was two basic forces, Levity, the tendency of light objects to rise, and Gravity, the tendency of heavy objects to fall.

95. Weak Bozons, are heavy and can travel a very short distance before they decay.

96. That's why the weak force is only limited to the bank of the atom.

Question: What's beneath the atom?

97. Smaller particles called Zedes.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 4:98 Scroll 4:104

Question: What is a Zede?

98. Just as you have what's called the lightest element Hydrogen, once the Hydrogen atom splits, it became quarks, once the two pairs of quarks split, they become bi-aps, which is short for bi-apetures of quarks. And each bi-aperture again sub-divides to create zedes.

Question: How is this accomplished?

99. Well, Scientists were informed by extraterrestrials that by simply turning up the heat, fueled by the ambient energy, a new particle called zedes or zeles will appear, which is capable of knitting electromagnetic and the weak force.

100. Photon carried off electromagnetic decays, to form a pair of weak bozons, carriers of the weak force.

101. Bozons transform themselves back into zede.

102. Zede particles could be created in abundance out of the heat of the electro weak epoch, weak bozons and photons acted interchangeably when the universe was ruled by 3 forces and not four, the law of the tetrahedron.

103. So we have two forces now, (1) Electromagnetic forces, (2) Weak forces.

104. The universe today in its natural form is too cold for zede particles to exist. However with the splitting of an atom created by circular motion, where the atom is sped up to the point, where it catches up with itself and this collision, causes an explosion of intense heat that yields the Zede. So with a little help they can be created.

Question: What are Bi-aps?

105. When the heat and atom comes together, they are called bi-aps, or two apertures, then they transform into zedes, or zeles.

Question: How is a Bi-ap formed?

106. You have protons and anti protons, when matter meets anti matter the results is annihilation, they cancel each other out.

107. A Bi-ap is made of proton and anti proton, when they collide they become zede, put as two parts they are bi-apertures.

Question: What is Einstein's theory?

108. Firstly, the character of the man and his actions renders him not the genius once thought. For he was a chain smoker, and should have known the dangers of cigar pipe and cigarette smoking on a human body. But as a mathematician, he was quite wise.

Question: What was his theory?

109. It was known as the grand unified theories, which says that there are triaps, still higher energy levels, three of the four forces might function as a single force, exotic particle would do the work of unification, it's called the

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

quant, from which they derive quantum, the unknowing refer to it as the X particle.

110. A Gluon, carrier of the strong force strikes a quant, and it is transformed into a photon, the carrier of electromagnetism.

Question: What is a gluon?

www.N uwaupunc.com

111. Gluon, in physics, is a hypothetical massless, neutral elementary sub-atomic particle, which mediates the strong interaction that binds quarks together.

112. Most particle physicists agree that all the elementary particles in the large class called hadron (which includes the proton) are made of various combinations of (probably) six types of quarks.

113. These quarks are in turn thought to be held together by the exchange of possibly eight types of gluon, or field quanta.

114. Some theorists, however, propose a "diquark" model that does not require gluons. This branch of particle physics is called quantum chromodynamics.

115. Alternately a gluon striking a quant can be transformed into a weak bozon.

Question: What do energy particles live on?

116. Particles of energy live on borrowed time.

117. They gather themselves up from the stray energy in a vacuum, then go back on into existence.

Scroll 4:118

Question: Is the same principles of colliding atoms to produce new forms of energy, necessary in bending time?

118. Yes it is.

119. To speed up the distance of the upper perimeter, to the cloned body, which results in the particle arriving at the upper perimeter, point of origin, before the particle of the body can complete its journey through the clone to arrive at the same point.

120. Thus, time can be reversed and traveling in the past accomplished.

121. As long as the two particles or beings that are the same do not come into physical contact with each other.

Scroll 4:124

Question: What would happen if they do?

122. In this case the same particles would be occupying the same place at the same time yet, from two different time references.

Question: What about in the case of the Human being?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

123. In the case of the human being, his zero time reference, that is the point of his origin in this time frame would cause his counterpart to merge, turning inside out.

124. It would also eliminate all and every created, thought and people who came in contact with the being or person.

Question: What about dealing with energy?

125. In energy this same principle, by altering the vibration levels can be made to facilitate the same space at the same time.

126. So we, the ancients, knew to seperate by referring to one, as an atom, and the other, as Adam.

www.Nuwaupuric.com

Question: Are you saying that atom and Adam of the Bible are the same?

127. Well to look at the name Atom and realize that there is a Tama-Rean deity call Atum, the head of the nine Enneads, (1. Sutukh, 2. Nebthet, 3. Aset, 4. Asaru, 5. Nut, 6. Geb, 7. Tefnut, 8. Shu, 9. Re, the 9 months of conception for birth through the woman), that predated the atom, which comes from the Middle English attome, from Latin atomus, from Greek atomos, indivisible, atom : a-, not; see A-[1] + tomos, cutting (from temnein, to cut, and the Hieratic or Demotic languages as well as the Hieroglyphics of Ancient Egypt predate English, Latin and Greek. It should be clear that the phonetics or intonation of atom had to have come from Atum, which is also spelled Atom.

Question: What about Adam?

128. The same applies. You find the word Adama in Ugaritic, Akkadian, Chaldean, Sumerian, the tongues of Ancient Babylon, long before it got into the Bible of the Jews and the Christians, and the Koran of the Moslems. So again with a little research it would show you that it also is borrowed.

Question: So what does that have to do with atom, the atomic energy and Adam the man?

129. Both are the point of origin from energy in motion, or emotion.

130. That is, from the atom you get all energy and from the Adam you get all living beings, or at least this is what religious people of monotheism are taught and believe. So you can see the clear similarity between Atom and Adam.

Question: How does the Tama-Re part fit in?

131. Because Atum as one of the three Res or suns, namely: 1. Atum 2. Atun and 3. Amun, of the Egyptian Gods called the Neterus, whose first abode after leaving Rizq was Sibtu "Sirius" in Ihm "Illyuwn", before coming to this Milky Way, in which this planet is a part.

www.Nuwauinc.com

Question: I thought Atum was a person, not the sun?

132. And you are right in one respect. Atum as Atum-Re or simply Tum was the great alchemist, from the 19th galaxy Ihm, of which Sibtu (Sirius) was a part.

Question: And this Atum came to Earth?

133. Kane. This Atum, called Atum-Re or Tum

THE COMING EL HAADUR

was one of the incarnated Neteru priesthood called Sem, and was the father of the project Nun, thus it is said Nun gave birth to Atum.

Question: So this Atum was the son of Nun?

134. Yes, symbolically speaking, as it was taught previously, Atum is the son of the force of the chaotic waters, Nun, whose semen was placed in the womb of Nunet his consort, bred Atum, and this germ as the sea-man, semen was extracted from Atum as sperm, and placed in the womb of the dolphin, for transportation.

135. This is called in-vitro fertilization. The word womb is dolphin, from the Middle English, from Old French daulfin, blend of daufin and Old Provençal dalfin, both from Medieval Latin dalfinus*, from Latin delphinus, from Greek delphis, delfin-, from delphus, meaning "womb" (from its shape). Scientists today have just discovered that the human genes is closer to dolphins than any land animals, as was recorded from the Discovery Channel, 8-24-98. Taken from Discovery Channel Online: "For years, marine biologists have told us that dolphins share many traits with humans, including intelligence and friendliness. Now, a comparison of dolphin and human chromosomes shows that the genetic make-up of dolphins is amazingly similar to humans. In fact, researchers at Texas A&M University have found that dolphins have more in common with us genetically than cows, horses or pigs.

Researchers at Texas A&M University applied "paints", or fluorescently labeled human chromosomes, to dolphin chromosomes, as human chromosomes. Of the remaining nine dolphin chromosomes, many were combinations or rearrangements of their human counterparts. Researchers also identified three dolphin genes that were similar to human genes. Until now, researchers have never been able to do genetic studies of dolphins because they are a protected species, making it diffiult to get tissues frm them."

Question: What was the Dolphin Project?

Scroll 4:137

136. This Dolphin Project is called the fish-man, and the genes were transported to this planet in the dolphin by artificial insemination, which led into cloning. Why there are seven copies of each person on Earth.

Question: What do you mean by chaotic waters?

137. The lymphatic and circulatory system of the human being, where the chaos begins, is when the sperm released from the male, millions by the millions chaotically races for the egg in the ovum, and one or two in the case of twins succeeds. These are chaotic waters, for this is all done in the liquid system of the body of the female.

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 4:138

Question: How was this done?

138. This process was done by in-vitro fertilization, transporting genes in the dolphin to this planet. Which in time, with much care became the fungi and algae of the seas, and then it was placed into the test tubes of the Ghibbore or alchemists, who bred mortals.

Question: So Nun is a laboratory project?

139. Yes. Nun, also known as Nu which is the sacred and symbolic name used in the laboratory for this great project of seeding the planet Earth with the genes of Amun and his consort Amunet, also known as Niu and Niut.

Scroll 4:141

Question: I thought Atum was the son of Nun and Nunet?

140. Yes, Atum as mentioned is a part of a triad of three geneticists called Re, the all seeing "eye", which oversee s the project, symbolic of the Iris of the eye, and iris means "rainbow" or the Rainbow Project.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Question: Just what is the Rainbow Project?

141. It's where the geneticists set out to breed or re-fill this planet with beings similar to themselves, or Re - plenty the Earth, (replenish) the Earth with humans, and protect their frail beings from the direct rays of the sun.

Scroll 4:142

Question: And how was that to be done?

142. By creating a buga, or curvature of spheres as the rainbow is an arch of all seven spectral colors, appearing in the sky 1) red, 2) orange, 3) yellow, 4) green, 5) blue, 6) indigo, 7) violet, and these come from the direct rays of the sunlight, broken down or bent as in a bow.

Question: Are these symbolic of the spheres?

143. Yes. You have your seven spheres, 1) Troposphere, 2) Stratosphere, 3) Mesosphere, 4) Thermosphere, 5) Ionosphere, 6) Exosphere, 7) Outerspace, just as a rainbow has seven colors, so does the environment, it also has seven spheres to protect this newly created being from the ultraviolet and gamma rays coming from the sun.

Question: Who are these three genecists?

144. All three deities are one in the order of Re, that is Atum, Atun and Amun, and Amun as a scientist volunteered to use his semen for the experiment.

Question: Why is the reproductive fluid of the human referred to as semen?

145. Because they are the original Ogdoad, or 8 sea creatures that emerged from the Island of Flame, referred to as Ur or "light, flame", or simply their crafts crashed down in the Question: Are they known by any other names in any other cultures?

146. Yes the Dogons called them Nommos, the Yoruba referred to them as Olukun, the Pygmies in Africa referred to them as Ogrigwabibikwa, the dwarfs who changed into reptiles, the Greeks used Dercito, for fishtail humans, the Mesopotamians use Dagan, half man half fish, the East Indians say Takshaka, king of the Naga serpents.

Question: Who and what are they to humans?

147. They are the human's ancestors, which explains why humans have gills while in the womb, like a tadpole, and a tail, webs between their fingers, and an inconstant need of an emergence in water, or the intake of water, or they dehydrate.

148. At their arm pits, there is still traces of the wings.

Question: Which ones are directly related?

149. There are 8, and they are called Ogdoads, also called the Malayket Bahri, River angels, from which the mermaid stories came about.

150. There were four pairs.

151. One pair for each of the genetic changes.

154. You also had another breed of genetic strain, that were known as the Dogri, or evil beings, who also lived in the Nile and from whom the serpent of your Bible came.

Question: Is this the reptilian or devil story?

Question: Then what happened?

157. After this, these sons of the gods, Neteru, Anunnagi, Nefileems, Ghibbore went into the daughters, sexually of these mortals and the sons of gods were born.

Question: Are there names recorded?

158. Yes, they are

Scroll 4:161

recorded in ancient Tama-Re as Geb, symbolic of earth "the body"; and Nut, symbolic of the sky "the mind". She begot Asaru, symbolic of vegetation, Aset, symbolic of red blood cells, corpuscles, Sutukh symbolic of ignorance, and Nebthoot, symbolic of white corpuscles. These two Asaru and Aset begot Haru, symbolic of the sun in the sky.

159. Also this Asaru and the wife of Sutukh, Nebthoot gave birth to Anubu, symbolic of death.

160. This copulation is what bred the jealousy that caused the death of Asaru by Sutukh.

Question: So is that the same as Adam?

161. That is correct, in

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

concept and belief, for Adam is also the son of Atum and Lillith.

162. He was the father of Cain and Abel, whose true name was Kadmon, was part of another seeding, cloning and replenishing of the planet Earth, but was supposed to have been created from the dust of the ground, which would be the same as self fertilization, because fertilizer is soil.

163. He is said to be created from the dust of the ground.

164. So you can see the similarity between Atum and Adam, and where they got the Adam story.

165. Being the Egyptian stories pre-date the Judaic-Christian-Islamic Bible and Koran, it is clear from which the plagiarism came.

Scroll 4:171

Question: Where is the comparison?

166. The comparison comes from the conflict between the scientists and the theologians.

167. All life began to the scientists with atoms and cells.

168. According to the theologian all life began from a man named Adam with a soul.

Question: So was there an Adam in the Bible?

169. Again a little research will show you that all of the stories and fables in your Bible are copied from the Egyptian mysteries.

170. Information that all of your sacred societies world over know and confirm.

1 The ancient Tama-Rean deity over plant life is called Renenutet, also called Thermuthis. I am that I am, known as the Neter: Amunnubi Roakhptah, also called Atum-Re, and Tum must let my voice be heard on this great deity.

2. The great A'aferti "Pharoah" Amenemnes 3rd resting on the limestone base is the one who decorated the temple of Sobek in Kiman Fares, and dedicated and built a temple to Renenutet, at a city near Cairo, Egypt today.

Question: Is this a Tama-Rean ritual?

3. Yes this dedication was on behalf of life, growth, vegetation, the provider of sustenance to sustain the physical body, the provider of fresh air Shu, to sustain the body and trigger the ethers through proper breathing. This dedication was to nourish a healthy being through proper eating. Yet, we need to breathe to live, so breath is also a physical person.

Question: What is the meaning of Shu?

4. Shu, in ancient Tama-Re means "uplifter, to uplift oneself". He is identified with the air, found in Hieroglyphs.

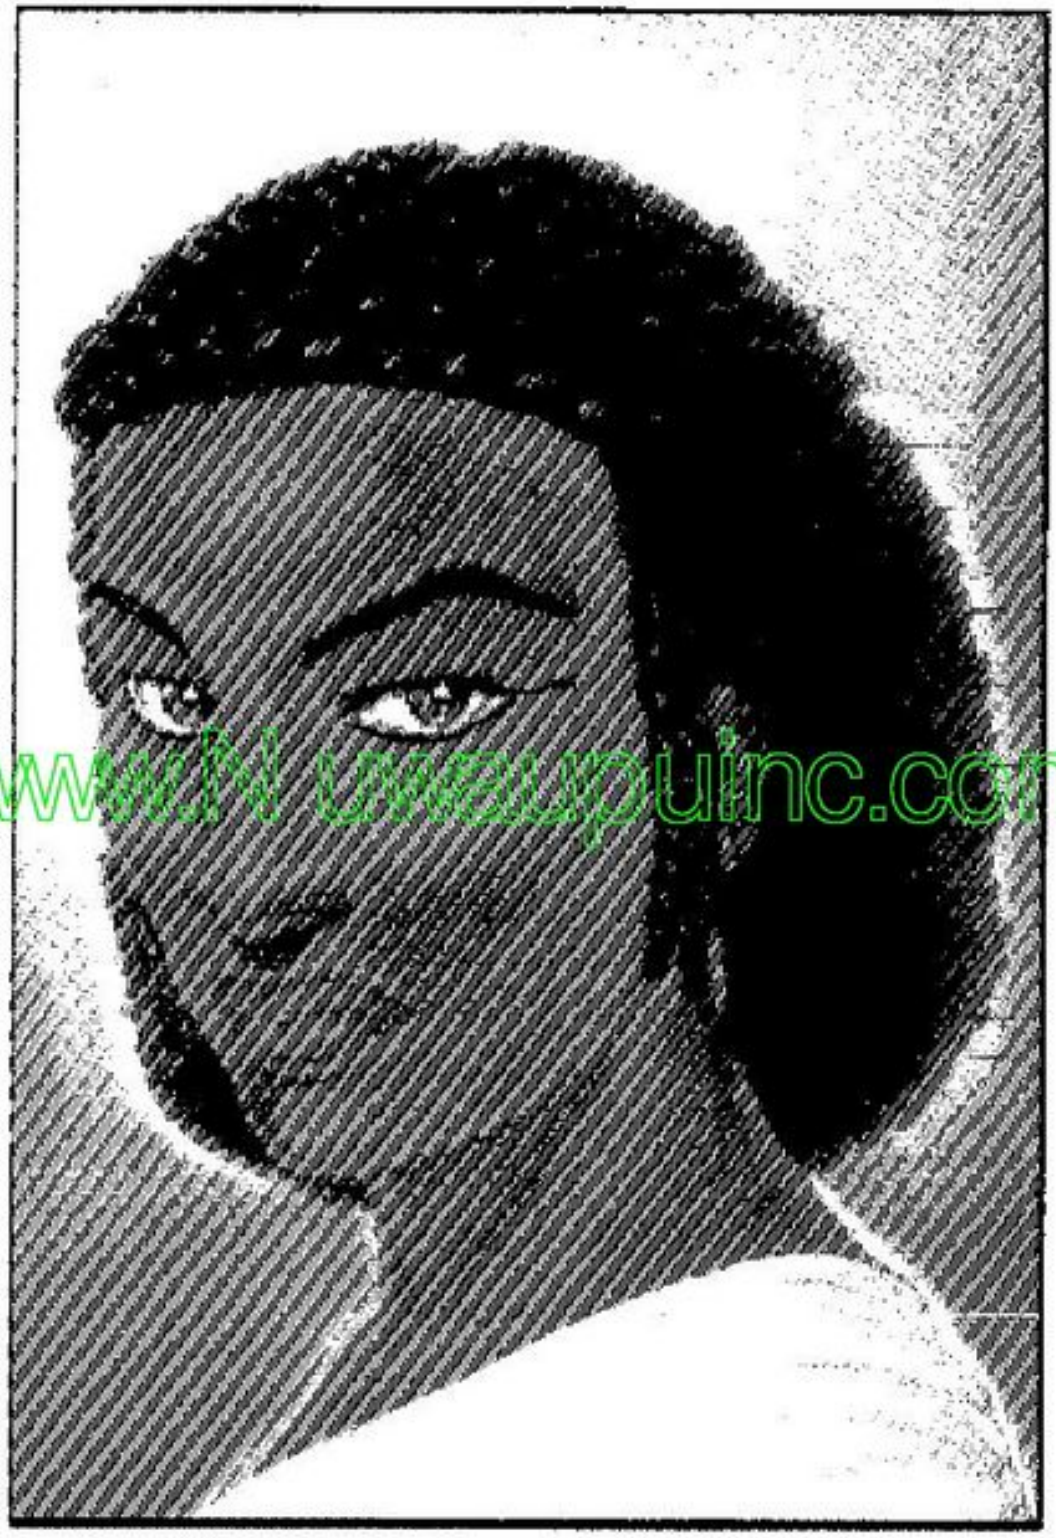

Figure 109
Netert: Renenutet

Scroll 5:5

Hiero means "sacred" and glyphs means "inscriptions". The script and the spoken tongue was Hieratic and Demotic, and you find many mentions of Shu and his mate Tefnut in the old writing.

Question: So is this Shu an actual person?

www.Nuwaupuine.com

5. Yes he was, and also a symbol worldwide. Primitive peoples all over the world have identified "air" and "breath" with "spirit."

Question: So is respect of air, respect of spirit?

6. Yes, this is why in religious circles they are always looking for the holy spirit, in the form of one of three persons, or for spiritual enlightment through chants, dhikrs, hymns, mantras, that all pertains to breathing and vibration through proper intonation.

Scroll 5:8

7. Thus, we must acknowledge this great deity, Renenutet and make her message and methods known to the true seekers, as to what was discussed in the dark chambers of Wa-set that great mystic shrine at Nu-Amun, Thebes or Luxor today, and the other two great cities Heliopolis and Memphis. That is H.T.M, the place to learn the secrets.

Question: So is the ancient Tama-Re related to growth and development?

8. Yes and we live that today. There were and are to this day, cycles of growth. Periods of time for that which is planted to grow. All farmers are in debt to the farmer of farmers, nature (Neteru), and there would be no growth without Re (Ra), the sun.

Question: When did plant life begin?

9. During the third period of creation, or re-creation by the Neteru, Anutu, the first forms of life of this cycle, as you know it began to appear which were simple plants that began as one-celled organisms of the classes known today as bacteria and algae.

Question: Where did these plants originate?

10. They originated in the air, and on into the waters, yet in many cases their structure and composition enabled them to exist in all types of environments and conditions, in which they can adapt.

Question: What is bacteria?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

11. Bacteria which is plural of Bacterium is any of the unicellular, prokaryotic microorganisms of the class Schizomycetes, which vary in terms of morphology, Oxygen and nutritional requirements, and motility, and may be free-living, saprophytic, or pathogenic, the latter causing disease in plants and animals.

Question: Why is this important information at this time?

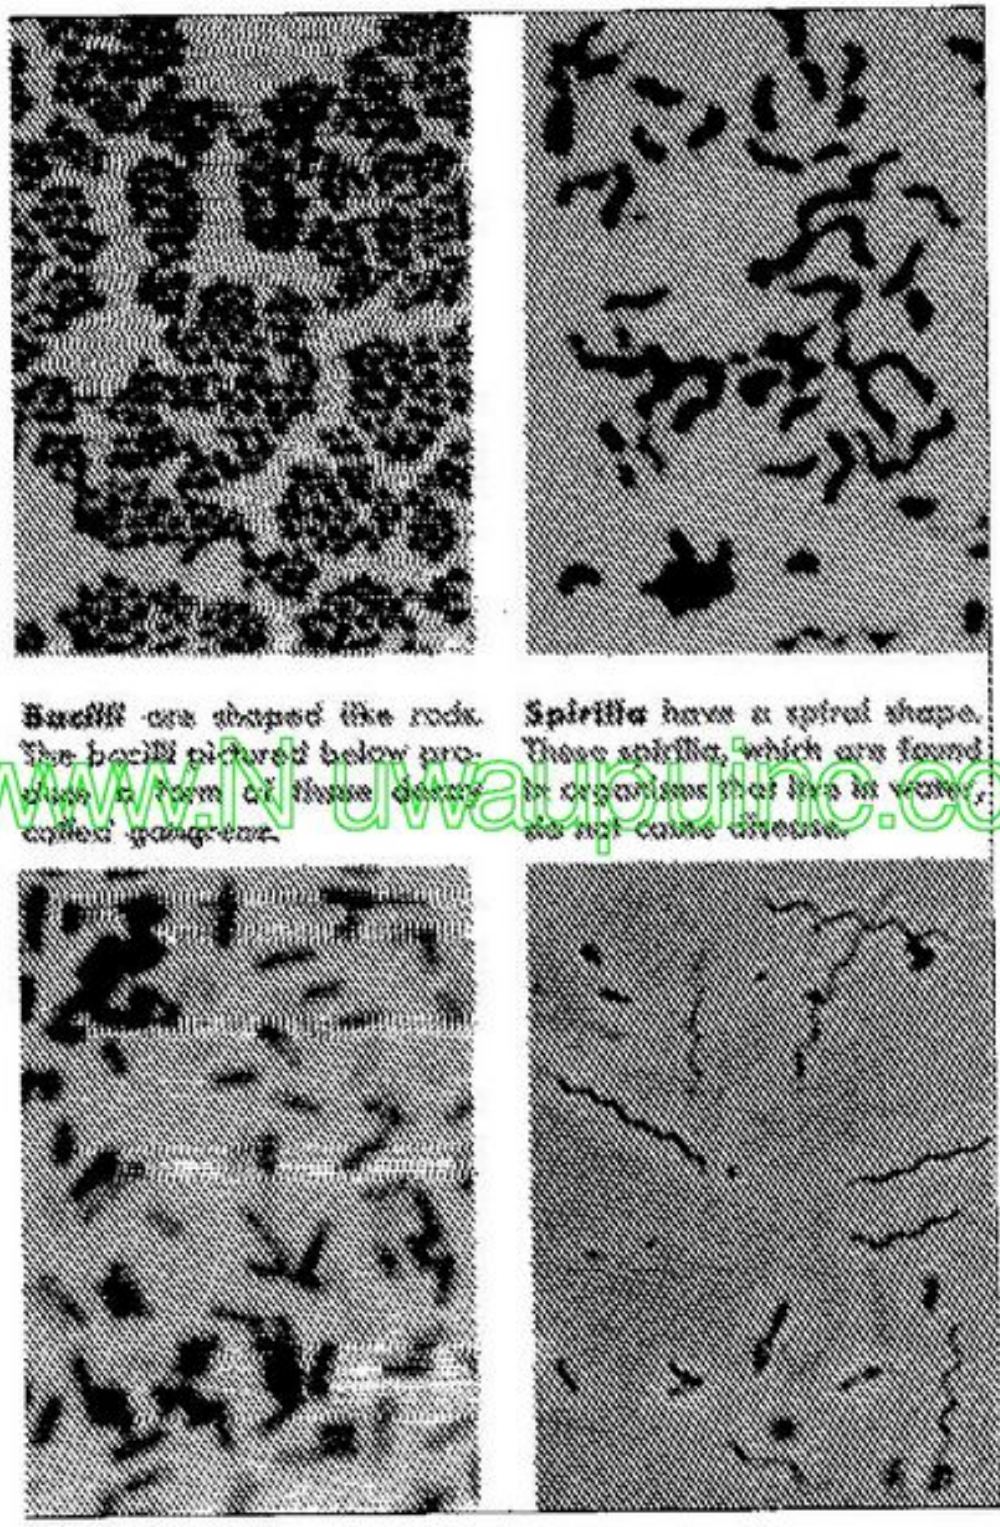

Figure 110
Different Types Of Bacteria

www.Nuwaupubinc.com

Scroll 5:12

12. Because most of us have studied it through our journeys in the education system, regardless of what school, or country or language that we learned in. We never thought the day would come when scientists would be manipulating the climate, the weather and the atmosphere to create destructive viruses and bacteria, but this day has come. So it is important to learn these sciences.

Question: What is a virus?

13. A virus is any of various simple submicroscopic parasites of plants, animals, and bacteria that often cause disease and that consist essentially of a core of RNA or DNA surrounded by a protein coat. Unable to replicate without a host cell, viruses are typically not considered living organisms. From the Latin virus, meaning "poison".

Scroll 5:16

Question: What language does the word Bacteria come from?

14. The word bacteria comes from the New Latin, from Greek baktērion, diminutive of baktron, meaning "rod". Bacteria (bacterium, singular), microorganisms that lack internal cell membranes.

15. The most common and ancient organisms on Earth, bacteria are intimately connected to the lives of all organisms.

Question: What is an organism?

16. An individual form of

www.Nuwaupublic.com

Scroll 5:17

life, such as a plant, an animal, a bacterium, a protist, or a fungus; a body made up of organs, organelles, or other parts that work together to carry on the various processes of life.

Question: What is an organ?

www.Nuwaupublic.com

17. A differentiated part of an organism, such as an eye, a wing, or a leaf, that performs a specific function. An instrument or agency dedicated to the performance of specified functions. An atom or a cell together in a mass, being held together by electromagnetism.

Question: Does a musical organ have anything to do with this?

Scroll 5:20

18. They both stem from the same word. A musical organ is an instrument consisting of a number of pipes that sound tones when supplied with air and a keyboard that operates a mechanism controlling the flow of air to the pipes.

19. Both organs perform the same way. From the Middle English, from Old French organe and from Old English organe, both from Latin organum, tool, instrument, from Greek organon, meaning "work".

Question: Do bacteria differ in sizes?

20. Yes. Most bacteria are less than 1 micron (0.001 mm/0.00004 in) in length. Hundreds of thousands of bacteria can fit into a space the size of the period at the end of this sentence.

Scroll 5:21

21. However, colonies of bacteria, such as on a laboratory culture plate or on the surface of salt marsh muds, can easily be viewed without a microscope.

Question: What is Prokaryotic?

22. Prokaryote is any of a group of relatively simple unicellular organisms lacking a nucleus and other features found in the more complex cells of all other organisms, called eukaryotes.

23. The term prokaryote is from the Greek pro, "before"; karyon, "nut, kernel; nucleus". There are two types of prokaryotes: eubacteria (true bacteria, including cyanobacteria) and archaea (or archaebacteria).

Scroll 5:26

Question: What is cyanobacteria?

24. Cyanobacteria, which is formerly known as blue-green algae are among the only bacteria that can perform photosynthesis. With some exceptions, bacteria cannot perform whereas cyanobacteria can.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What is photosynthesis?

25. Photosynthesis is the process by which chlorophyll, containing organisms, green plants, algae, and some bacteria capture energy in the form of light and convert it to chemical energy.

26. Virtually all the energy available for life in the Earth's biosphere, the zone in which life can exist, is made available through photosynthesis.

Question: The Earth has a biosphere?

27. Yes. They too are 1) water, and 2) soil.

Question: What is a biosphere?

28. A Biosphere, the Earth's relatively thin zone of air, soil, and water that is capable of supporting life, ranging from about 10 km (about 6 mi) into the atmosphere to the deepest ocean floor. Life in this zone depends on the sun's energy and on the circulation of heat and essential nutrients.

Question: Why do they call it a dome structure with a controlled atmosphere, if earth already has one?

Scroll 5:30

29. Quite simply, they are wrong. If they set an atmosphere beneath the water, that is two spheres. If they set one beneath the soil, that's two spheres, if they set another in the sky, that's two spheres, if they set one outside the Earth's atmosphere, where there is no air, that would be two spheres. So you see, the man-made environment called a sphere, would be an addition to the many other spheres or environments already here.

Question: What was the original atmosphere of this planet?

30. That depends on before the suns or after. Before the suns and in particular, this sun, you had

34. Bacteria are prokaryotic organisms, or prokaryotes. Another group of prokaryotic organisms, archaebacteria (archaea), are no longer classified with bacteria.

Question: Does this include all forms of known bacteria?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

35. Until recently when scientists have discovered new forms of life unassociated with any known form of life to date.

36. They are simply referred to as archaea, which scientists say they've found a new form of life right here on Earth.

37. These new life forms are tough little microbes that live in the boiling water spewing from volcanic vents deep under the ocean, thriving on carbon dioxide and the tremendous water pressure.

38. Scientists say these critters are proof of a third form of terrestrial life, named archaea after the Greek word for "ancient".

Question: How are they different from other life forms in the ocean.

39. Other life forms in the ocean of this Earth are bacterian and eukaryotes, which as explained previously is basically, plants, people and animal.

40. However, these critters are very different life forms from what scientists know. They are hard one-celled creatures, which were discovered on the bottom of the Pacific in 1977 A.D. But it wasn't until recently that scientists discovered that two-thirds of their genetic code was different from anything biologists had see before on Earth, or in the seas of Earth.

Question: Are these another form of bacteria?

41. Unlike most bacteria and all plants, animals and humans, archaea lives totally without sunlight.

42. When the usual organisms start dying, then these start singing, as scientists say. This discovery indicates that life can exist under extremely harsh conditions.

Question: Are all bacteria classified this way?

43. No. A large number of bacteria, such as the green bacteria, purple bacteria, and cyanobacteria, are called phototrophs.

Question: What are phototrophs?

44. An organism capable of synthesizing its own food from inorganic substances using light as an energy source. These bacteria are able to convert the sun's energy into food in a process called photosynthesis.

45. Phototrophic bacteria have dominated Earth's seas and landscapes for hundreds of millions of years and remain common today.

Question: What is the structure of a bacteria?

46. Like all cells, bacteria contain genetic material known as deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA).

www.Nuwaupuine.com

Scroll 5:47

Question: Is it the same as cellular DNA?

47. No. Cellular DNA is arranged in strands, bacterial DNA has a circular arrangement. Bacteria also often have additional genes on smaller rings called plasmids.

Question: What are plasmids?

48. Plasmids are circular, double-stranded unit of DNA that replicates within a cell independently of the chromosomal DNA.

Question: Do all bacteria have the same structures?

49. No. Some bacteria have structures known as endospores around their DNA and other cell portions.

Scroll 5:51

50. These thick-walled bodies are extremely resistant to environmental stresses and they can live in a kind of dormant condition for decades or even centuries.

Question: So are you saying that life on Earth started with bacteria?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

51. Yes. During its first billion years on the planet, life consisted mainly of anaerobic fermenting bacteria. As oxygen gas increased because of the growth of oxygen-emitting cyanobacteria, the fermenting bacteria moved deeper into the mud and other substrates to escape this gas, which was toxic to them.

Question: And what was the results?

Scroll 5:52

52. They expanded into new habitats, such as the intestines of mammals and the guts of insects. Even today, the physiology of most bacteria takes place without oxygen.

53. While many aerobic bacteria live on or in nearly every surface around us, vastly larger numbers of fermenting anaerobes are usually just a few millimeters away.

Question: How does a bacteria grow, or reproduce?

54. Bacteria reproduces by means of a process called binary fission, in which a copy of the DNA is made and then the outer membrane of the bacterium begins to grow inward and divides the bacterium into two identical cells.

Scroll 5:58

Question: What is binary fission?

55. Binary fission is a method of asexual reproduction that involves the splitting of a parent cell into two approximately equal parts.

56. Binary fission does not provide bacteria with a way to exchange genetic information between individuals.

www.Nuwauquinc.com

57. This exchange is beneficial to a species because it provides a way to pass favorable genetic traits on to unrelated individuals.

Question: Is bacteria and virus the same thing?

58. No. Many bacteria become directly infected by viruses known as bacteriophages. Some types

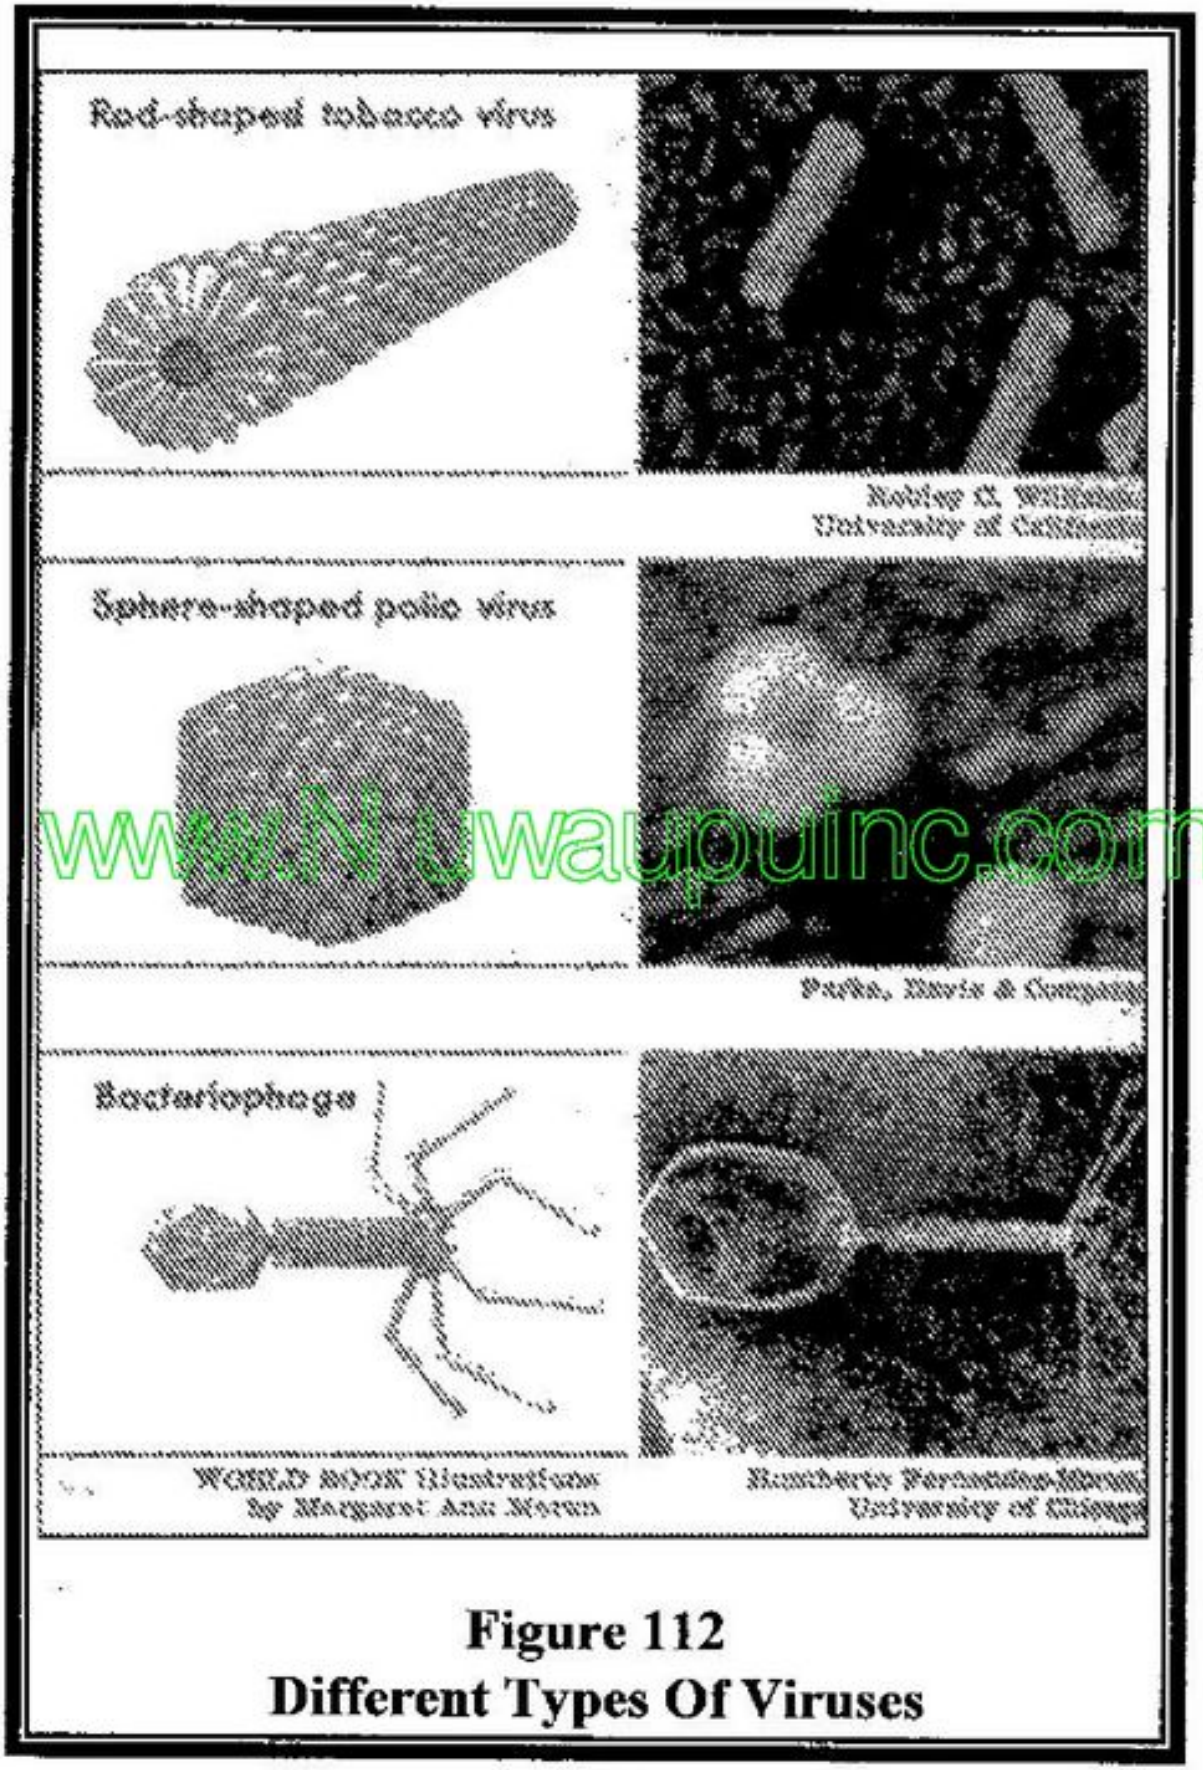

Figure 112
Different Types Of Viruses

Scroll 5:59

of bacteriophages enter and kill the host bacterial cell, whereas others become integrated into the genetic machinery of the host bacterium.

59. In a process called transduction, bacteriophages can move genetic material from one bacterium, to another and even between different species of bacteria.

Question: So does bacteria cause disease?

60. Of the thousands of bacterial species on the Earth, only a small fraction cause disease.

61. For example, cholera results from infection by Vibrio cholerae, a bacterium that reproduces quickly in drinking and bathing water that has been extensively contaminated with human feces. Bacterial pathogens are frequently disabled or killed by the immune systems of organisms.

Scroll 5:63

Question: What are pathogens?

62. Pathogens are microorganisms that cause disease. Large cells called macrophages attack and destroy bacteria that are not normally present in the body, while cells called "lymphocytes" bring about other immune responses, including the production of antibodies.

Question: How is bacteria controlled?

63. For decades, human beings' primary means of controlling microbial growth has been

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 5:64

pasteurization, sterilization, and other heating processes.

Question: What is pasteurization?

64. Pasteurization is the use of mild heat to reduce bacterial populations in foods, whereas sterilization is the complete killing off of bacteria.

Question: What does sterilization do?

65. Sterilization is necessary to destroy highly resistant bacterial structures such as endospores.

66. Bacteria are like living paint, covering nearly every surface imaginable and living within other living and nonliving things. Many exist in a symbiotic condition in which they function as partners with other organisms.

Scroll 5:68

Question: What is symbiotic?

67. Symbiosis is a close, prolonged association between two or more different organisms of different species that may, but does not necessarily, benefit each member. A relationship of mutual benefit or dependence. From the Greek sumbiosis, companionship, from sumbioun, to live together, from sumbios, meaning "living together".

68. This symbiosis has profound consequences on people's lives.

Question: Can you give an example of what you are speaking of?

www.NuwaupUnc.com

Scroll 5:69

69. Yes. Example, the agricultural industry depends on the existence of bacteria that can transform the nitrogen gas from the atmosphere into ammonia in the soil that plants can use in a process called nitrogen fixation.

Question: How does bacteria reproduce?

70. Like fungi, bacteria feed on dying material and convert it back into basic substances.

71. This process of decomposition is as significant as photosynthesis, for without it food chains would cease, and fallen trees, leaves, and other refuse would simply pile up.

Question: Will you find bacteria in elements?

Scroll 5:74

72. Yes. Bacteria strongly influences the movement of key elements, such as sulfur, iron, phosphorus, and carbon, around the globe. The weathering of rocks, which releases elements back into life systems for use, is generally enhanced by the breakdown processes of bacteria.

www.NuwauInc.com

Question: So the first plants contain chlorophyll?

73. No. The first plants did not contain chlorophyll, because at that time, the sun did not thoroughly shine upon the planet Earth.

74. Although some of the heavy carbon vapors had descended and some were still disintergrating from the heat, there still remained enough to prevent the direct

www.Nawaupuinc.com

Figure 113
Different Types Of Fungi

Scroll 5:75

sunlight from reaching the Earth.

75. Thus the first plants, unlike the larger ones which came later, could not depend on sunlight to produce their energy.

Question: So how did bacteria obtain its energy?

www.Nuwauquirc.com

76. Bacteria and algae were and still are able to obtain their energy by other means and this was possible because some bacteria produce their energy by the chemical changes they cause in the elements of their environment.

77. Some types oxidize inorganic compounds such as ammonia, sulfur, hydrogen, gas and ferrous iron, thereby releasing energy.

Scroll 5:80

Question: Can you explain what algae is?

78. Yes. Algae is any of various chiefly aquatic, eukaryotic, photosynthetic organisms, ranging in size from single-celled forms to the giant kelp.

79. Algae were once considered to be plants but are now classified separately because they lack true roots, stems, leaves, and embryos. From Latin meaning "seaweed". Algae, a group of structurally simple organisms that carry out oxygen- evolving photosynthesis.

80. Although most algae are microscopic—some as small as 1 to 2 micrometers in diameter (a micrometer is 0.000001 meter, or 0.00004 in)—many are conspicuous in the form of pond scum, seaweeds, red tide, blue-green discoloration of aquarium walls, and the green coating on trees.

Question: So if they didn't survive off of the sun's light, what did they surive from?

81. Some types of algae can grow in hot springs with temperatures over 176^{0}f. Here they survive by the conversion of calcium salts and magnesium into a chalky material of brilliant colors.

82. Yet others which contain a cholorophyll-like substance are able to perform a limited form of photosynthesis by absorption of light from the red spectrum and by the use of hydrogen instead of water.

Question: So the first forms of life were simple microscopic organisms.

83. Yes, that is correct. You see that the first forms of life were the simple, microscopic organisms mostly single-celled. These later advanced to organisms of multiple cells of cell colonies.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What process came after that?

84. Then came the algae and the fungi. Fungi, are a diverse group of either single-celled or multicellular organisms that obtain food by direct absorption of nutrients.

85. The food is dissolved by enzymes that the fungi excrete, is then absorbed through thin cell walls, and is distributed by simple circulation, or streaming, of the protoplasm.

Scroll 5:86

Question: How does fungi reproduce?

86. Most fungi reproduce by spores, which are tiny particles of protoplasm enclosed in walls. The common mushroom may form 12 billion or more spores on its fruiting body; the giant puffball may produce several trillion.

87. Spores are usually formed in one of two ways. In one process the spores form after the union of two or more nuclei within a specialized cell or series of cells.

Question: What is fungi?

88. Fungi is any of numerous eukaryotic organisms of the kingdom

Scroll 5:91

Fungi, which lack chlorophyll and vascular tissue and range in form from a single cell to a body mass of branched filamentous hyphae that often produce specialized fruiting bodies.

89. The kingdom includes the yeasts, molds, smuts, and mushrooms. From the Latin, Akin to to Greek spongos, sphongos, sponge.

90. They played a great role in the preparation of the planet for other and much more complex forms of life.

Question: Where did these life forms come from?

91. Many life forms on earth were transported here to sustain life forms from other worlds, also many trees and plants above and

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 5:92

in the seas.

Question: Whose plan was this?

92. It was designed by the Neteru, Anutu, called Anunnagi that these creatures came about. Larger and more complex structures would not have been able to survive in earth's early environment.

Question: So does bacteria, algae and fungi still play an important role today?

93. Yes. Bacteria, algae and fungi still play an important role in the balance of nature and the smooth functioning and preservation of life on Gi "earth."

Question: What formed

Scroll 5:95

the first seeds?

94. The "Master Recipe" for the "first seed" which produced the first organisms was the result of the combination of certain elements in the presence of the sunlight.

Carbon Dioxide (Co_2) + Water (H_2O) + Sunlight = Carbon + Oxygen

Simple Sugars And Starch + Oxygen

95. The effect of the sunlight upon the carbon ring that enveloped the earth, started a chain of reactions in which atoms of carbons, hydrogen, and oxygen combined to form molecules of simple sugar.

Question: When did the original seed come to

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 5:96

earth?

96. The original seed was brought to earth when the vapor/carbon ring ascended. Thus it was in a water environment that these seeds sprung to life.

Question: What happened to the plants that were living in the water?

97. The separation of the land from the water allowed the plants which existed in the water to make an appearance on the land, as the fetus is in the sack or water before it comes on the land.

Question: What affect did this have on the plants?

98. At first, this left some

Scroll 5:100

plant life without moisture, however, the flow of the tides, which the ancient Tama-Reans call Nun, acted as an agent in aiding the seeds of some species to continue to adapt on the planet earth. Ultimately, a different type of plant life, with the ability to live on land began to develop.

99. As time passed, plants developed more and more complex systems to adapt to the environment.

100. The increased vegetation on the Earth coincided with the greater degree of sunshine that was made available in the fourth growth created period which follows.

www.Nuwauburc.com

Shu (The Wind)

Question: What part does the wind play?

Scroll 5:101

101. The winds aid in the pollination of flowers which in turn, causes the plants to bear fruit.

102. The winds also help in the dispersal of the seed, so certain types of seeds are equipped with a kind of wing type structure that enables their flight-like transport by the wind.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: Does water, and wind, that is breath, air or earth have intelligence?

103. As for Water, where there is Moya "water", there is life, where there is life, there is intelligence.

Question: And what of the wind?

104. There to, the principle remains. Where there is wind there is moistness and the movement of particles in motion. There is life where there is wind. In ancient Tama-Re, Shu son of Atum, was the wind. The breath of life is the wind. Where there is wind there is life. Note: the phonetical similarity between Atum and atom.

Scroll 5:105

Question: So Atum, the Ta-mare deity and atom the atomic energy are linked?

105. Both depend on wind or air as energy to exist, and this in ancient time was called the breath, some called it "Prana", others called it Hayah, it was simply wind or Rawuh as in Ruakh or Ruh which in time becomes inscribed by theologians and philosophers as spirit from spiritos, which is wind or breeze. Air is wind and breath and that is life.

Scroll 5:106

Question: What is breath?

106. Simply breathing. You must Inhale and exhale. And the word Hale means "Free from infirmity or illness; sound". From Middle English, from Old English hal, meaning "health".

Question: Can you explain this further?

107. Yes. To inhale means to take in health, to exhale means to release your health. You breathe in oxygen a form of gas, Symbol O A nonmetallic element constituting 21 percent of the atmosphere by volume that occurs as a diatomic gas, O_2, and you breathe out carbon dioxide, A colorless, odorless, incombustible gas, CO_2, a form of gas.

Scroll 5:109

Question: What is a gas?

108. Gas is the state of matter distinguished from the solid and liquid states by relatively low density and viscosity. Note: that it's the density level that is separating gas from liquid and solid, which both must have gas to exist. Density level is the key.

Question: What is density?

109. Density is the quality or condition of being dense.

Question: What is to be dense?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 5:110

110. Latin "densus", to be a combination of solids or liquids, brought together to appoint where they are inpenetrable.

111. In our atmosphere we have various degrees of matter and various degrees of liquid from water, to steam, to ice. On the opposite of cold ice, there is hot ice. The same applies to gas, on the opposite of atomic gas, there is etheric gas.

Question: What is ether?

112. Ether is any of a class of organic compounds in which two hydrocarbon groups are linked by an oxygen atom, from the Middle English, upper air, from Latin aether, from Greek aither. Note that ether is identified with oxygen, one of the principles in breathing.

Scroll 5:114

Question: What is the other principle in breathing?

113. There are two forms of gas necessary for breathing which is wind or air, one is oxygen, necessary for combustion, and the other is carbon dioxide, incapable of burning.

Question: What does breathing and burning have to do with this?

114. As one breathes in oxygen, it fuses with gases in the body, and it lights the inner sun, pilot of the solar plex. It's controlled by the carbon dioxide which is incapable of burning, thus you don't breathe out fire. Yet, the gases in your body is flammable.

115. But, your body maintains a temperature of 98.6 and if you receive what's called a temperature, they will tell you, your body is over heating and could go into convulsions, or even spontaneous combustion, simply burst into flames. So there must be a heating system in the body. Where there is heat, there is fire.

Question: What does the solar plexus have to do with fire?

116. The Sun has always been thought of a ball of fire, burning and giving off heat and light. Thus it's called the solar plex.

117. The word solar simply means Sun. The word plex from plexus means to braid or interwine.

Scroll 5:119

Speaking about a complex system of nerves intertwining throughout the human body and leading to several glands of which the major is in the center of your system called a solar plexus. This is simply a sun in the center of your chest, that fuses and gives off heat to warm the body, or overheat the body.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

118. The sun has always had the atomic number 8, which is oxygen had a symbol of a circle.

Question: Is this why it's called a circulatory system?

119. Yes that is correct. And this circular motion of inhaling and exhaling health is what keeps you alive. This is an intelligent action. Once the solar plexus' sun or flame, goes out, the body called Khat becomes cold, lifeless, declared dead.

Question: So the elements are alive?

120. Yes, where there is water, wind, breath, air there is life.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: Even all flesh?

121. Yes. The physical composition, the flesh is composed of the elements of the Earth. In ancient Tama-Re it's called Geb son of Shu, the wind and Tefnut, the moisture. Needed to culture cells and bacteria growth, necessary elements in life.

Question: Is this about the Adam of the Bible and the Qur'an?

122. Yes and no. The man that the religious theologians call Adam was from a word borrowed from the ancient Sumerians. It's Adama from "ground" or "red soil". They even created Edom for the color red for the same word, which dealt with the blood needed in the Adama project for the cloning of the human on the planet now call Earth.

123. Adama does not merely describe an individual 6-10 thousand years ago, who was the first human being, but rather an extraterrestrial laboratory experiment with genetic splicing to create a servant of the Neteru, Anutu.

Question: So the Bible and Qur'an story of man being created from the soil of the Earth is untrue?

124. It's a sad reality, but yet it's still a reality. It is untrue. Think, to imagine that any religious group says an Allah shaped man of the dust of the ground, Qur'an 15:28, and the Torah of the Hebrews Genesis 2:7 says "and we shaped man of the dust of the ground", and the New Testament is a product of the old.

125. And the monotheist of these three organize religions based on the Greek deity or God of sarcasm, God of pain Monos, namely Mosesism, Christism and Muhammadism, all teach that their god be it, Eloheem-Yahweh, or Thehos-Christos, or Allah-Rab, shaped man from the dust of the earth, or the dirt of the earth. Or they use clay, or they use mud. It's proposterous, and I will tell you why. Life already existed in soil, and they don't mention that they copied their story from the Tama-rean deity Khefera, which means "appearing like Ra", symbolic of the Dub, "scarab beetle". And the scarab beetle rolls a ball of mud, the germ of life into the form of an egg, and out of it creates life, and then moves it across the skies as the sun. This was symbolic of the creation of the first male, Shu, your Adam, and female Tefnut, your Eve, or Hawwah. Shu is the light or fire, as in the sun, and Tefnut is the water or moistness, as male is a dry creature and woman is a moist creature, in their reproductive organs, and Shu and

Scroll 5:125

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 5:126

Tefnut gave birth to Geb, who is also known as Seb, meaning "time", and they also gave birth to Nut, the wife of Geb, the earth deity, which were the parents of Asaru and Aset, Sutekh and Nebthet. Khefera is an incarnation or attribute or another form of Ra or Re. In here you get your story also of your flood, for in the anceint scrolls of Egypt the story is told, that Ra became angry with the sins of mortals, and assisted by Tefnut "water", he destroyed the entire human race, which is afterward revived (replenished), afresh out of the blood of the slime (the cells), at the intercession of Nu, and the other deities. This is none other than your flood story borrowed from ancient Egyptian tablets and your Adam and

Scroll 5:127

Eve story, as well as your created from mud, breathed into breath of life, created from water. These are the facts of their myths.

Question: Isn't dust and sand lifeless?

126. No, dust and sand as well have life, in, on or around them. In fact, if you grab a hand of rich soil from anywhere on the planet, put it under a microscope, you will find life already there, already existing.

Question: So these scriptures are wrong?

127. Absolutely. The concept of "to shape the man, Adam of the dust of the earth" is in itself inconsistant, for life already existed where there is soil,

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

and life already exists where there is water, and life already exists where there is air.

Question: So that life is intelligence?

128. Yes, again where there is life there is intelligence.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: Is this the same as human intelligence?

129. Human intelligence is one of the lowest forms of intelligence on the scale.

Question: Don't humans get their intelligence from God or Allah?

130. That's what is sad about misinformation. Let's look at it through Right Knowledge, the Right Wisdom, and the Right Overstanding, which will replace the theories, myths and philosophies of religion that teaches ignore the facts, and use faith and belief for your convictions.

131. Now I'll open the door to another level of inquiry into their god concept of order. The big G or the small g. Allah, Yahweh, Adonai, Rab, or Thehos.

132. Take for instance, the Acquired Immune Defiency Syndrome, (A.I.D.S) virus, that is intelligent enough to enter the human body, aligns itself with the RNA of the chromosomes, reconfigurates the chromosomes, and destroy the immune system through producing the DNAs.

Question: Wouldn't this be taking control over

Scroll 5:133

Allah/Yahweh/God's master plan in genetics?

133. Absolutely. That is, an un-realized fact. In fact, this A.I.D.S virus alters the God concept of creation.

Question: Are there other viruses more intelligent than God?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

134. Infadically yes. The same could be said of Ebola and many other bacterias, like Herpes, and the likes.

135. These are intelligent living entities that out smart the smartest humans, thus out smart their concept of an unseen god who is in control of a system of growth, birth, mutation, evolution and creation.

136. In control of disease, "dis-ease".

Question: Can these

Scroll 5:139

elements direct themselves or dictate to themselves change?

137. The Earth, "Gaia" as ancient Tama-Rean calls Geb, the son of Shu and Tefnut, feels, has emotions, and thinks.

138. Parts of the elements and planets are mindless, yet earth is a living entity, just as the human body has hair, nails, teeth that are connected to nerves that are intelligent.

139. Yet, the extremeties or protusions are not intelligent. Life lives in and on, and even through them and all things. Yet, you live and walk on the scalp of the earth, never getting into the brain, spirit or soul of this living planet.

Question: They have no power of judgment and they don't have feelings?

Scroll 5:140

140. Yes and no, all things have life. Nevertheless, the clouds still continue to shower the earth after it has endured the scorching heat of the sun. The elements, the sun and the planets are not acting on their own nor by accident there is a system to things, an emotion.

141. The intelligence behind their actions is OM who has put life in all things that OM may control them in air. There is life in and on each stone. There is life in and on the seas. There is life in and on the trees. The planet lives, it vibrates, it pulsates, it breathes, it grows, it dies, its living.

142. Yes, all lives in all. The sun is summoned to shine, the water is ordered to flow, and the wind is summoned to blow, and the micro life form are each controlled by a supreme force who put Hayuh "life" in all things. Through growth and change.

Scroll 5:144

143. All of these are controlled and guided by OM, and its many components, where vibration causes friction and friction produces a spark of life and light.

Question: Are you saying that this process is aided by the wind?

144. Yes. OM is nature and beyond, and the process of fertilization is aided by the wind, called the breath, the soul, and that has essence, substance, emotions, and existence to it.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 5:145

Question: Would OM include physical living things as well?

145. Absolutely. All life is perpetuated by change. The only definite thing in all existence is change, and the only absolute is existence, and change happens within existence, each living thing detectable and undetectable is a part of this great plan.

147. Yes, even the smallest of insects, and even larger insects, such as bees and butterflies, are all part of this vast chain of life, in which we are all linked, and all things are linked.

Question: So insects play a great part?

148. Yes, and are overlooked, understudied and never appreciated for their contributions to the great plan. You see you have insects that live on and in your body all your life.

Scroll 5:150

149. You are like an insect to the planet Earth, and as destructive as you may see a mosquitoe, a cockroach or a flea, as you have grown to be the destructive pest of nature, cutting down trees, poisoning the water, depleting the ozone, creating global warming, Green House Effect, splitting atoms, and creating viruses.

Question: Is this progress or regress?

150. It is planned to lead to your eventual demise, if you do not learn to cooperate with OM or nature, by realigning yourself with the universal forces that control all growth and decline, that inscribed the plan of metamorphosis, evolution, mutation, growth and the art of making and even creating.

151. Yet, like most parasites the next move is to turn on each other, as lupus turns on the human body, and anemia turns on the blood, leprosy turns on the nervous system, cancer on the cells, and humans on animals, animals on humans, and humans and animals on each other.

152. All of this was patterned in your original creation. This was the third creative stage.

Scroll Six
The Emergence Of The Sun
(19x7=133)

Question: What happened during the fourth creative stage?

Scroll 6:2

During the fourth creative stage, the Neteru, Anunnagi called Eloheem in the Torah caused a greater emergence of the sun, that had made the Sun, Shamash as it's called appear to be the brighest of the stars to supply the earth with light, warmth, and stimulants for growth.

www.NuwaubuInc.com

Question: This sounds like Genesis 1:14-19.

2. That's because the plagiarized Torah from the ancient tablets has borrowed the story, but misused it, and let's analyze that misuse of an ancient story.

Question: What do you mean by misuse?

Scroll 6:3

3. I mean, if the All-Knowing God, be it called Eloheem, Yahweh, Adonai, Shadai, Olom, El Roi, Ha-shem or any other name that the Hebrew Torah, which bred the Old Testament, and gave birth to the New Testament, which gave birth to the Qur'an was indeed the all-knowing, being they claim these things wouldn't happen.

Question: Just what happened?

4. Well let's take a look. Genesis 1:14 makes the statement: "and Eloheem said let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and years."

Scroll 6:7

5. The first mistake is "and god said let there be", implying that this one god said something.

6. The Hebrew word for said there is Awmar, which means in all cases "say, said and speak, to converse". The god is actually speaking to someone or something, admitting presence of others.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Question: So you are saying that this god was not alone?

7. Actually the word god is not there. The Hebrew word that is in the Torah is Eloheem, and it in itself is not a single. It's a plural of Eloh the single.

Question: So these Eloheem were the gods of the Hebrews?

8. Not really, it was just a title used for the pluralization of Elohs, because in Genesis 31:30, as pagan gods, Psalm 8:5 as angels, Psalm 82:6, as men.

9. So it was merely a title describing the beings that lived, roamed, ruled and visited the planet during that time.

www.Nuwauquinc.com

Question: So this was the original creation of lights?

10. Actually, when you look at Genesis 1:2, it states that void and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and that the spirit, ruakh or wind of these Eloheem moved upon the face of the waters. (Ezekiel 1:4, whirlwinds).

11. These beings that came here were in a mothership or craft, which contained smaller crafts called Holy cities, the size of 1500 miles in length, width and height (Revelation 21:16-17: "And the city (Polis, ones native city) lieth (Keimai) foursquare (tetragonos), and the length (mekos) is as large as the breadth (platos): and he measured (metreo) the city with the reed (kalamos), twelve (dodeka) thousand (chilias) furlongs (stadion). The length and the breadth and the height (hupsos) of it are equal (isos). And he measured the wall (teichos) thereof, an hundred (hekaton) and forty (tessarakonta) and four (tessares) cubits (pechus), according to the measure of a man (anthropos), that is of the angel (angelos) "), a craft (Revelation 21:2, Zechariah 5:1-2: "Then I turned (shuwb), and lifted

(nasa') up mine eyes (`ayin), and looked, and behold a flying (`uwph) roll (megillah). And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length ('orek) thereof is twenty (`esriym) cubits ('ammah), and the breadth (rochab) thereof ten (`eser) cubits."

Question: What is all of this talking about?

12. This is talking about a craft, a mothership that housed smaller cylinder crafts, 30 miles by 15 feet.

13. These beings were apparently intelligent beings moving in the void and darkness before the light.

14. In verse 3 of Genesis chapter 1, it says: "And these Eloheem said let there be light, and there was light", 4 "and that they, the Eloheem, saw that the light, it was good." And at that point this God Eloheem, divided the light from the darkness and called the light, day, and the darkness night, and even established evening and morning. All of this on that first day.

Scroll 6:16

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: So why is it repeated in verse 14?

15. That is the misinterpretation, because here the statement is repeated "and god, the Eloheem said let there be light".

16. But at this point he is putting the light in the firmament, that was created in verse 6, "and God, Eloheem said let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters".

Scroll 6:17

17. And verse 8 puts the same firmament as the heavens, named by God in the heavens.

18. So the atmosphere that surrounded the planet earth, extended to the heavens, and divided into two parts, the firmaments of the heavens and the firmaments of the earth.

www.N uwaupuinc.com

Question: What is the meaning of the word firmament?

19. It comes from the word firm in English, or solid. So the heavens are firm and the waters are firm according to this scripture.

Question: What does the Hebrew say?

20. It uses the word Rawqeeah, meaning "extended surface", or solid. So the atmosphere over the planet earth was composed of a firm heaven, firm waters, and void of atmosphere and light.

21. Yet, god or Eloheem as a group was able to dwell there. So as you can see the God of light literally dwelled intelligently in darkness before and utilized the creative forces from this darkness, before the creation of as Genesis 1 puts it, "the light that was divided from darkness", not shined, but divided from the darkness.

22. The light was taken out of the darkness, and they got Yawum "day", and they got Layul "night". This made up their time zone.

23. So this god or gods lived within the time zone of the earth, which is controlled by the rotation and revolving of this planet around the sun, and the determination of where it is at, at a given time determines daytime and night, or shadow hours.

Scroll 6:24

24. So in order for him to perceive night, he also had to be at a specific spot on the planet Earth. He must have been within the earth's atmosphere in order for the sun not to be seen at all times, as it would be if you were outside the solar system looking in, where they claim their god is.

Question: So where was their god?

25. Obviously, their Eloheem or Gods were here on earth and were able to see in darkness. Some dwelled in the sea and some dwelled on the earth, and some dwelled in the air.

Scroll 6:28

Question: How can a person dwell in the air?

26. Simply by using a space station, which the book of Revelation 21:2 calls the holy city, coming down from Thehos, the Greek version of Eloheem out of the heavens.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: Is Nibiru a craft?

27. Yes. There are many crafts of different sizes called Nibiru.

Question: Just what does Nibiru mean?

28. First you must overstand. the meaning of the word Nibiru. It's from the ancient Sumerian as found in the Chaldean, Accadian, Aramic and Ashuric as Nabara, "to raise, to elevate, to go up".

Question: Where does the meaning "planet of crossing" comes in?

29. The fact that the most spoke about craft Nibiru is a cube that whence, is in motion revolves and rotates, and creates an orb, giving the impression of a globe or planet structure. Thus, it inhabited the name "planet of crossing".

Question: So are you saying, there is more than one Nibiru?

30. That is absolutely correct. There are many crafts that elevate and travel inter-galactically from star station to star station.

Question: Are they all shaped the same?

31. No, there are many different shapes and sizes of Nibirus (Revelation 21:16-17). The smaller ones come into this planet's atmosphere as Shams (Genesis 6:4) or Megillah (Zechariah 5:1-2) or Ammuwd (Exodus 13:21).

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

32. Others are mentioned in Ezekiel 1:16 as Ofawn and the Qur'an chapter 17 as Buraaq.

33. All of these are symbolic names to describe what wasn't overstood in the days of their sightings. Today men attempt to be more intelligent and simply say UFO, abbreviating Unidentified Flying Objects.

Question: So Nibiru is a UFO?

Scroll 6:34

34. Kane. The many crafts that come in and out, and those too large to enter this small earth's environment because the declared intellectuals of this planet have no spiritual or physical attachments to the beings that man the many crafts to them, they are UFO.

Questions: Some crafts can't enter earth's atmosphere?

35. Exactly. The larger crafts could never fit in here. Some are 4 to 10 times the size of planet earth, which has a diameter of 7,925 miles in diameter and 24,896 miles in circumference.

Question: So how will they rapture the selected?

Scroll 6:38

36. Smaller shams will come for the rapture. Take selected genetically bred individuals for reproduction and replenishing by 50s in the smaller shams to the mother crafts, and then those genetically calibrated for transformation and transfiguration suited for Nibiru's environment will be transported there.

www.Nuwauquinc.com

Question: What of the others?

37. Many will not survive the cataclystic calamities that are befalling the planet. Many will simply expire.

Question: Where will those people be taken?

38. Into crafts that hover in the air. Some within the earth's atmosphere and some outside of the earth's atmosphere.

THE COMING EL HAADUR

Scroll 6:39

Question: Will they reside there forever?

39. No. This planet will be repaired like Rizq and the selected will return to re-plenish the Earth.

Question: Is this what happened before?

40. This is exactly what happened before, when crafts came and hovered while the earth was covered with water and there was total darkness, and the lights were created.

BLACK SUN.

Question: So just what are the lights mentioned in verse 14?

41. Notice that in verses 3, 4 and 5 light is being used as a single, that is divided. This one light was your sun, responsible for your days and nights and evenings and mornings.

Scroll 6:44

Question: Is this different than the sun in 14?

42. In verse 14 light is used as a plural. And these lights which will light up the firmaments of the heavens, and to divide the day from the night.

43. The first in verse 4 was dividing the light from out of the darkness. But in verse 13, it's speaking of dividing out of the heavens the day from the night.

Question: What's the difference?

44. One happens over a 23 hour, 56 minute, 6 second of the time, and the other deals with 29 and 1/2 days to 30, to make the month

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 6:45

on to 365 to make the year, giving us our seasons, or solstice. For it states in verse 14 "to divide the day from the night, and to let them for signs and for seasons, and for days and years."

45. These are all limited for the powers of a god, who according to the religious, controls the boundless universes. This is limited information and limited powers given to this god. Verse 16 even goes further.

Question: What does it say?

46. It states, "and this God, Eloheem, made two great lights, the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night, he made the stars also".

Scroll 6:49

Question: And what does this mean?

47. It means, this is misinformation. For if god made two great lights, then it was not your sun and your moon.

48. But rather, a mention of two suns in your solar system, because the moon is non luminous, and it does not give off its own light, nor is the moon in any way formed, shaped, compared to the size of the sun as to be called great. In fact, the Moon is smaller than the planet Earth.

Question: What was the purpose for the creation of the sun?

49. It provided light, and was a means of determining time on earth. The purpose of the heavenly bodies was

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 6:50

not for the entertainment of Hu-Min's fantasies.

Question: How come we can't see stars during the day?

50. Stars are always present in the sky, during the shadow time as well as in the day, but you think you cannot see them during the day because of the brightness of the Sun.

Question: What does the word Sun mean?

51. The word Sun comes from the Middle English, from Old English Sunne, meaning "solar, solstice, helium."

Question: How many suns are in the sky?

52. The number of stars

Scroll 6:55

visible to the naked eye from earth has been estimated to total 8000, of which 4000 are visible from the northern hemisphere and 4000 from the southern hemisphere.

53. At any one time in either hemisphere, only about 2000 stars are visible. The other 2000 are located in the daytime sky and are faint by the much brighter light of the sun.

54. From Earth, they may appear close together, however stars are many light years apart.

Question: How are stars formed?

55. Stars consist mainly of hydrogen and helium, with varying amounts of heavier elements. Stars begin as clouds of gas which materialized from clusters

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

of hydrogen atoms.

56. They existed and even more massive clouds of gas gave birth to the galaxies.

Question: How does a star give off light?

57. Over a period of time, increasing degrees of contraction and an increase in heat occurred until reactions in their centers produced intense heat and brightness which became what you call light. Light is matter. Its beam is illuminated particles.

Question: Which elements are used in the formation of stars?

58. Hydrogen the most abundant and simplest gas in the universe is one of the many fuels of the stars, the light of the heaven and the Earth.

59. All elements and other substances in existence came through hydrogen to this side of matter from anti matter.

60. In the stellar cores, hydrogen is converted into helium and other heavier elements. So it is, with ether 1 you have energy darkness. into ether 2 you have sub-atomic energy. At ether 7, you have spirit. At ether 8, you have soul. At ether 9 you have God.

61. For 90% of hydrogen's life time, this is the main activity of a star as a human to reproduce its kind.

62. This period of burning hydrogen at a consistent rate designates it as a "Main Sequence" Star, a light star, a light sun, and is the ether state. There is a dark star, a dark sun, the Black Sun.

Question: What is a light star?

63. Such a star is the light sun you see that is in the center of your outer solar system. The extremes of this stage are exceptionally dim stars.

Question: When does a star's light become dim?

64. Stars begin to decline when all the hydrogen is used up.

65. It then becomes what astronomers call a "Red Giant".

Question: So a star goes through stages?

66. Yes. A star goes through several stages of expansion and shrinkage, growth in youth and shrinkage in old age is the way of the human star. As a star, it exhaust its nuclear fuel, it eventually becomes a compact "White Dwarf," A Small Dead Star That May Be even Smaller Than The Planet Earth.

67. Larger stars experience a more dramatic death.

Question: What's the next stage after becoming a red giant?

68. After becoming red giants, they collapse upon themselves, producing intense heat and causing their core to explode.

69. Such an explosion is called a "Super Nova", from "Super" a prefix of Latin origin meaning "over and above", and "Nova" meaning "new".

70. This is because it appears to the naked eye as a bright new star.

72. The largest remaining bit of a star may also become so compressed that it possess an intense gravitational pull and then becomes a black hole.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What is black hole?

73. A black hole is an extremely small region of space-time with a gravitational field so intense that nothing can escape, not even light.

74. Black holes give off no light. They act like stellar vacuum cleaners, sucking up matter and energy from space.

75. They can be compared to the effect that is produced when a cup of liquid is stirred at high speed.

76. Once the spoon is removed a hole is made in the center like a miniature whirlpool,

77. Floating objects are drawn and sucked to the center; which is also the effects of a black hole.

Question: So black holes are like magnets?

78. Yes. Black holes will absorb any stray matter or energy that passes within a certain range of it.

79. If it's called a black hole, not a dark hole, then before the light there was blackness not darkness, and God or Allah, Yahweh, or Anu was, so he must be a part of the original darkness before the light that is true

Scroll 6:80

Question: What happens when stars start to die?

80. As a star dies, it drives powerful streams of gas and dust into space.

81. These "stellar winds" sweep up matter surrounding the star into a thin, glowing shell, forming what astronomers call a wind-blown bubble.

82. The word Astronomer comes from Middle English astronomie, from Old French, from Latin astronomia, from Greek: astro, meaning "star" + nomia, "number, division".

Question: What happens to the bubble?

83. As the star and the winds evolve, this bubble gets sculpted into a multitude of diverse shapes, humans and animals.

84. Within the last decade, astronomers, studying stellar evolution have found an astonishing variety of hour glass, peanut, or narrow spindle-shaped clouds of brightly glowing gas surrounding stars, called bipolar nebulae.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: What is bi-polar?

85. The term bipolar refers to the presence of two lobes of material moving in opposite directions.

Question: What is a Nebulae?

86. A nebula, or nebulae is a diffuse mass of interstellar dust or gas or both, visible as luminous patches or areas of darkness depending on the way the mass absorbs or reflects incident radiation.

87. It comes from [Middle English nebule, cloud, mist, from Latin nebula.

88. Some bipolar nebulae contain more than a sun's worth of mass, and all of them are expanding at hypersonic speeds.

89. Astronomers now see bipolar nebulae as the imprint of violently colliding stellar winds.

Question: What is the purpose for the creation of the sun, moon and stars?

90. You must overstand that all things are created for their specific functions, those of which you may not overstand. Forms and deformity all play their parts in all.

Scroll 6:95

91. Events in the universe affect and interact with each other.

92. In other words, there is no such thing as an "Isolated Incident" that affects nothing outside of itself.

Question: What does life on earth depend on?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

93. Life on earth, to the great extent depends on the activities of its Sun.

94. The Sun, as I have shown, came into existence by the combination of hydrogen and helium Atoms.

Question: What was their purpose?

95. The Sun, Moon and Stars produce the much needed illumination, warmth, and stimulation for growth on the planets, in which solar systems they govern.

96. Though from earth you see other stars, they are merely suns and a part of other systems. Most are much larger than your sun and the stars serve you no purpose, but guidelines, markers and calendars.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Question: What about our Sun and Moon?

97. They both have purpose to the planet. One taking up where the other leaves off.

98. The Moon controlling the tide and cooling of the planet, as the Sun moves into another position on the planet.

99. The point being the sun never stops shining, and the moon never stops reflecting its light.

100. The misinformation is intentionally taught to encourage faith and belief, without investigation that leads to facts.

101. Thus, the trust goes into theologians, and not astronomers. Your faith goes in theologians and not anthropologists.

102. Your belief goes into theologians and not earth scientists, alchemists, gemologists, paleontologists, and mineralogists.

103. Those men and women who have followed in the footsteps of the ancient Egyptians and investigated the causes and effects of existence.

Question: So the sun does not rise and set, as the Bible (Numbers 2:3, Joshua 12:1, Genesis

Scroll 6:104

28:11) and Koran (18:86, 18:17, 18:90) states?

104. Absolutely not. Another degree in enforcing the spell of religion based on faith and beliefs.

105. The Earth does not stand still, nor the Moon, nor the Sun or any other heavenly body for that matter.

106. The planet is moving around the sun, the sun is not moving around the planet, so as to rise and set.

107. It is made to appear that way for those who do not wish to investigate right knowledge, the right wisdom and the right overstanding.

Question: How do the heavenly bodies control time?

Scroll 6:111

108. When the Neteru appointed the sun and the moon as indicators or signs of the times, seasons, days and years, this marked the cycle on earth of a beginning and an ending.

109. They were like two great clocks that did not need winding.

110. Unaffected by the revolving earth, there would be no shadow time, and the earth would have no time for rest.

111. Yet, the earth was hit by a large meteorite and shifted to a 23 degree axis, and the perfection pattern was broken, and put into cycles of epochs, precessions, equinox, milleniums, centuries, decades, years, months, weeks, days, hours, minutes, seconds, and they lost the first, with this new imperfection.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Scroll 6:112

112. It would be extremely hot here on earth, and the earth's vegetation would perish.

Question: Why was the Moon created?

113. The Moon was created to buffet the rays of the Sun, in order that the Earth could be cooled and the tide controlled.

114. By way of the earth's rotation around the sun, the changes in the elements are observed, these are the seasons.

Question: So is that why we have summer and winter solstices?

115. Yes, according to where a particular place is located on earth, it may experience two, three or four seasons.

Scroll 6:119

Question: What is the purpose for these changes?

116. These changes are very helpful and necessary because they are the main factors in the germination, growth, and reproduction of the plant kingdom.

www.Nuwauinc.com

Question: Who is the ruler of the plant kingdom?

117. El Kuluwm, whose voice is OM.

Question: How important is this?

118. Very, because this cycle is the mainstay of physical life on earth.

119. Without these vital changes, there would be no food for the beast animals, and humans animals, who forgot they too are part reptile, mammal and deity, which makes them the human animal.

Scroll 6:120

Question: Why don't humans realize they are animals?

120. Because they move into congested cities and isolate themselves from animals and nature, with the exception of selected pets, that they domesticated to make themselves feel superior to nature.

121. Yet, if they returned to the rural life and had to survive without the amenities created by the tamperers of nature, the children of destruction, they would quickly remember their relationship to all other animals in this great chain of life.

Scroll 6:125

122. We witness the beauty of this aspect of creation on the outskirts of the city, the countryside and under the open sky at shadow time.

123. They refer to the big cities by the names of fruits, such as "the big peach" and "the big apple", which implies that humans are worms and insects, feasting away on their own source of existence until there is no more.

Question: And how did we learn to monitor the sun from the moon?

124. By their size and purpose. And this was accomplished through time and in many cases through admiration, reverence and worship.

125. In time when realizing that the sun

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Scroll 6:126

appeared to be of a greater asset to human existence the moon became subject.

126. As they say the sun was symbolic of male, and the moon was symbolic of female. When in actuality neither has a gender, and both were worshipped interchangeable. And we are dependant on both for our existence.

Question: How did they become objects of worship?

127. In the ancient belief system, in order that the moon be rendered prideless and subservient, yet still maintain its appointed functions, the worshippers made the visible stars and their great amount an equal force of power.

128. Thus, creating our triad as 1) the sun, 2) the moon, and 3) the stars, when in actuality this is a monad, because stars are suns and the moon broke off originally from the sun as well, so you see where actual incidents change into myths.

Scroll 6:130

Question: I thought the moon broke away from the sun?

129. You are correct, but so did all the planets and suns in this solar system, as the 554 million tons of hydrogen changes into 550 million tons of helium each first on the sun.

130. The remaining 4 million tons causes electrical storms and explosions on the sun. One of these explosions is responsible for the many planets in this solar system.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Scroll 6:131

Question: And do the stars give sustenance to the earth?

131. No, but in the period referred to as the shadow hour, when the sun has appeared to move beyond the earth and the moon is not in a full state the stars provide light.

132. Although much farther away than the moon, their light still reaches the earth and aids earth beings in finding their direction, and times of the years.

Question: So all things in nature are working together?

133. Yes, all is in the All and felt through its voice OM. So you see, nothing in the universe is better than another, for all created things have their purpose and each are important as the other.

Question: Why is that important?

4. Because G is the seventh letter in the English alphabet, the fourth letter in the Hebrew alphabet, Gimel, and the fifth letter Geem in the Arabic alphabet, which became Jeem, and the third letter, Gamma in the Greek alphabet. And 3 + 4 + 5 + 7 = 19. It is important because of the lie.

Question: What is the lie?

5. The lie is, you refer to this as the Planet Earth, when land mass is a fraction of that, compared to water over the surface. Thus, this is in actuality a water planet.

www.NuwauPuinc.com

Question: Why would they hide this fact?

6. Because an environment is a confession of the life stock of it. That means if most of the planet is water, then in actuality this is not a dry land planet, but an aquarium.

Question: What's an aquarium?

7. An aquarium is a place

Scroll 7:8

for aquatic animals and plants, which live in water. From the Latin aquārium, source of water, from neuter of aquārius, of water, from aqua, "water".

Question: So are you saying that the Planet Earth is actually an aquarium?

www.N uwaupuinc.com

8. Absolutely. Facts are facts, and aquatic animals are, fish, whales, dolphins, frogs, turtles, alligators, crabs, lobsters, shrimps, oysters, simply reptilians.

9. Thus, your statement in Genesis 1:2, which states: "and the earth (Ereth, Eridu) was without form (too-how) and void (boo-how) and darkness (khoshek) was upon the face (fawniym, surface) of the deep (tehowm, depths of the sea), and the spirit (rooakh, wind) of God (Eloheem, plural gods) moved (raw-khaf, hovered) upon the face (faniym, surface) of the waters (mah-yim)". The original beings that lived on the planet Earth came out of waters of this earth, when the conditions and the climate was suitable for them to live on land. As they were evolving, the earth was also evolving. The conditions on the land had to be suitable for those beings that thrived in the seas and could breathe on land, for them to adapt to land living.

Scroll 7:10

Question: So when the Eloheem, as the Bible calls them, arrived here, there was nothing here?

10. That's correct according to the quote.

THE COMING

EL HAADUR

Scroll 7:11

When the Neteru, which the Sumerian called Anunnaqi, and the Bible call Eloheem arrived here, there was darkness, and no shape and no form, but water, deep water covering everything.

11. These Neteru, which came here hovered, as the Bible put it, above these waters.

Question: Then what does it say happen?

12. Well, verse 3 clearly says: "and God (Eloheem) said (awmar, spoke out, uttered words), let (hayah, let there come to pass) there be light (Uwr), and there was light".

13. So these beings, some call them Gods, the Hebrew has Eloheem, but they weren't Hebrews, and didn't speak Hebrew, and in their language they were called Anutu, and then after coming to Earth, Qi was added, they became Anunnaqi. They also were called the Neter. Only the creatures that could live under the sea lived here when they arrived.

Scroll 7:14

Question: Where does the word earth come in?

www.Nuwaupubinc.com

14. Being they were land and sea dwellers, they had to stay in crafts called the holy cities, or cylinder crafts, as described in the Bible Zacheriah 5:1-2, or in Ezekiel 1:4, being they were making this a temporary home, they referred to it as "a home away from home". In their language that word is Eridu, from which you get the word Earth.

Scroll 7:15

Question: What was the atmosphere here?

15. It was composed of gases, ammonia, and methane, in addition to water, and later when they brought the sun close enough to evaporate the water, so that the land mass would surface, you had environment.

Question: How did these gases reach the earth?

16. The cooling of the earth and the subsequent falling of the vapor rings, allowed these gases to reach the waters upon the earth.

Question: How did these gases form organisms?

17. The exposure of ultra-violet rays from the sun made possible by the greater availability of sunlight, caused these gases to form simple, organic molecules.

Scroll 7:20

18. These begin to form larger and larger molecules, until protein was formed.

Question: So this process is what formed the living cell?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

19. Yes. It was this formation which ultimately resulted in the prototype of the living cell.

Question: And what was the stage after the creation of the first cell?

20. The stage after the creation of the first cell, involved the development of the first animals, and these were single-celled organisms.

Scroll 7:21

Question: What are these single-celled organsims called?

21. This group are known today as "Protozoa" which is from the Greek language "Proto" meaning "First In Time" and "Zoa" from the word "Zoia" meaning "Animals".

22. The simplest of this group was and still is the amoeba, a small mass of transparent protoplasm, cytoplasm which does not have a definite shape.

Question: What is protoplasm?

23. The complex, semifluid, translucent substance that constitutes the living matter of plant and animal cells and manifests the essential life functions of a cell.

Scroll 7:26

Question: What is protoplasm composed of?

24. Protoplasm is composed of proteins, fats, and other molecules suspended in water, and it includes the nucleus and cytoplasm.

25. From the Greek prōto-, from prōtos, meaning "early, or first," and the word plasm, from the New Latin, from Late Latin, image, figure, from Greek, from plassein, to mold.

Question: Can you provide a list of what it's composed of?

26. Yes. It is simply the Neteru's recipe for protoplasm. And here is the listing of the make up of protoplasm according to element name and percentage amount.

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 7:27

27. Protoplasm is made of 80% water, 15% protein; 3% fatty acids; 1% carbohydrates and 1% salt.

Question: Can you break down each element that makes up protoplasm?

28. Yes. A) Water, hydrogen and oxygen is one of the mediums in which chemical reactions occur. It is the largest component of protoplasm.

29. B) Protein is built by the amino acids which were formed from the basic elements of carbon, oxygen, and nitrogen. Amino acids are the building blocks of life.

30. C) Fatty acids are composed of carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, and in some cases phosphorous.

31. D) Carbohydrates are substances made of carbon, hydrogen, and oxygen.

Scroll 7:35

32. E) Salts or mineral salts are made of sodium and other elements. In combination with chlorine, it produced sodium chloride.

33. Other sodium compounds are made with calcium, fluorine, iron and iodine.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: So is this what amoeba was made of?

34. Yes. You see the amoeba, as an example of the first form of animal life, was composed of the basic elements.

35. These one-celled animals feed on other microscopic organisms by engulfing their food and making a small cavity in which to digest it.

Question: What makes

Scroll 7:36

these organisms move?

36. The organism moves by streaming its cytoplasm to produce the shape of a limb, these are called pseudopodia or false feet.

Question: What is cytoplasm?

37. Cytoplasm is the protoplasm outside the nucleus of a cell. From the Greek kutos, meaning "hollow vessel". And from plasm, again from New Latin, from Late Latin, image, figure, from Greek, from plassein, meaning "to mold".

Question: How do amoeba reproduce?

38. A full sized amoeba may reproduce by asexual reproduction.

Scroll 7:43

39. The nucleus divides into two parts and moves away from the center of the cell in opposite directions.

Question: What does the cytoplasm do?

40. At the same time the cytoplasm forms around the new nuclei and the two parts separate, producing two entities.

www.Nuwauplinc.com

41. Other animals in this group display similar characteristics.

42. Many of them lead a parasitic mode of existence and are the causes of disease in man and animals.

Question: So these organism live in the human body?

43. Yes. Many types of protozoans live in the intestine, and other parts of the body of man without causing harm.

Scroll 7:44

44. Some are neither harmful nor beneficial, and yet others contribute to the formation of new soils and other earth deposits.

Question: What is the next group after protozoans?

www.N uwaupuinc.com

45. The next group after the protozoans were the "Metazoans". These differed in many ways from protozoans. Metazoans are multicellular animals of the sub-kingdom Metazoa, a division of the animal kingdom in traditional two-kingdom classification systems. From New Latin Metazoa, a subdivision of the animal kingdom : meta- + -zoa, pl. of -zoon, meaning "animal".

Scroll 7:49

Question: What are metazoans composed of?

46. Metazoan organisms are composed of distinct tissues and organs sometimes possessing several organ systems.

47. They are of course many times larger than the first group of animals.

Question: How was the increase in size formed?

48. The increase in size of living things came about by the formation of colonies of cells and by the specialization of a specific task.

49. Such specific tasks were necessary for the survival of the species.

Question: What do you mean?

Scroll 7:50

50. Let me explain: For one thing, animals, unlike plants were incapable of producing their own food.

51. This means that they depended on assistance from intelligence above theirs, and instincts as a baby to know that colostrum is in the mammary gland of the mother.

www.N uwaupuinc.com

52. For those beings it is obvious that there is an ingrown intelligence that provided the sustenance for them to sustain themselves.

53. Other life forms who have to seek for these sustenance in other places, are obviously inferior in intelligence.

Question: What does that mean?

54. It, simply means mobilization. They therefore, needed organs for movement with which they could find food; and organs for converting that food into energy.

Scroll 7:57

Question: Thus migration was necessary?

55. Yes, and in so doing, animals or cells changed environment. That means climatic changes, and their bodies needed protection.

Question: All of this is controlled by El A'lyun?

56. One has to know the difference between El A'lyun and El Kuluwm.

Question: What is the difference between El A'lyun and El Kuluwm?

57. El Kuluwm is not confined to a place in space or what's called time, being OM-nipresent,

Scroll 7:58

OM-nipotent, which simply means present where all things are, and present where power is, thus alleviating the possibility of being god in heaven, or a god coming to earth, or a god in the universe, but rather an all, that all is in and of, including heaven.

58. El Kuluwm is, and each individual thing is, the it or that, or there, or here, the is, is exist and is safe until one says "exist as", and introduces as "A" or as "the", which confines the being to "a" thing, or "a" place, or "a" person, again stepping away from El Kuluwm significance.

59. The All is a statement that nothing can be taken because all, nothing can be added because all, which simply means, where would you put it, or where would you get it from, because even it, is all.

Scroll 7:62

Question: How did things become?

60. By outgrowth from all, yet in all. Life in all grew into existence. Life in beings and these beings became all that the all wanted.

61. Existence is to exist, to exist is to have a sum, a weight, mass, and all things that exist vibrate at different modes and speeds.

Question: So existence vibrates:

62. Yes and this is what determines its density as matter or anti-matter, or ether, which grew etheric beings of which El A'lyun,

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

Scroll 7:63

who is Anu is one, as a group called 9 Enneads, the 7 arch angels, 1) Gabri'el, 2) Uri'el, 3) Uzzi'el, 4) Rapha'el, 5) Izraa'el, 6) Zamar'el, 7) Miyka'el, and originally there was also 9, but two fell, Azazel and his son Sama'el, of your Bible and Koran.

Question: What is an Ennead?

63. An Ennead is a group or set of nine, from the Greek enneas, ennead-, from ennea, meaning "nine".

Question: These heavenly host are actual beings?

64. That is correct. The heavenly host are existing beings that governs all the various moods and vibrations that distinguish different levels of energy that manifest as life.

Scroll 7:67

Question: Then what?

65. The next level is the Neteru, Eloheem, Anunnaqi, Malaaikat, or Angelic beings.

www.Nuwaupunc.com

Question: Is there another level?

66. Yes. Beneath them is the physical manifestation of etheric beings as Humans.

67. All are differentiated by modes of vibrational level, capable of occupying the same space at the same time. Thus, it's not a matter of where they exist, it's a matter of fact that they exist.

Scroll 7:68

Question: And these beings govern life?

68. That's correct, and in the case of this cycle or era of time, the Bible says El A'lyun, the Enuma Elish says, Anu, the Egyptian mysteries say Atum, and in his infinite wisdom, he had gifted each colony of cells with the specific ability to function according to the needs of the organism.

Question: Do the lower forms of life come from that?

69. All forms of life are the same. It's a matter of what density level they are on, which are simply vibrational levels on the physical plane, and all cells that matter, or are matter are in actuality the same.

70. If they change, they are changing mode and moving into a higher or lower level of energy.

Scroll 7:73

Question: So what about animals?

71. Humans are animals like all others. The intelligence level for survival is the same in all animals.

www.NuwauboInc.com

72. Yet, nature has taken a change by interference from beings outside of this solar system, and they upgraded Genus Homo to Homo Erectus, then seeded Homo Erectus to breed Homo Sapien.

73. The leap in evolution interferred with the natural cause of this specie of ape reptilian, called man and threw off other animals intelligent levels for survival, in so far as they had to move their habitats to avoid this carnivorous creature called man, who killed for recreation and fun. Note: wrek-creation.

Question: So now, other animals appear dumber than man?

74. That is correct, but let us go back and examine how it began here in this aquarium, falsely called Earth.

Question: So all animals originated from water?

75. Yes, and these animals multiplied and diversified and the waters teemed with life from one-celled animals to the many marine invertebrates, animals without bony skeletons, to the large marine dinosaurs.

Question: What does the word dinosaur mean?

Scroll 7:79

76. The word dinosaur comes from the Greek words Dinos meaning "Terrible" and Sauros meaning "Lizard".

Question: So dinosaurs are lizards?

77. No. Dinosaurs were not lizards but the biggest flesh eating dinosaurs were indeed terrible. They are considered reptilian just like lizards are of the reptile family.

78. They stood about twenty feet high and had skulls four feet long with huge teeth.

Question: At what period did dinosaurs exist?

80. All animals, like the plants, developed into a wide variety of forms in the ocean before they were able to move into the land.

Question: How did these animals multiply?

www.N uwaupuinc.com

81. The creatures that inhabited the waters, multiplied according to the same pattern as the plants we discussed earlier: That is, by the fusion, first of the two cells And then subsequent division and multiplication.

82. It was in such a manner that these creatures multiplied.

Question: Can you witness and overstand the consistency involved in the Neteru's master plan of the creation of everything?

Scroll 7:87

83. A pair is a pair, and all these pairs were commanded to increase, and they did increase within their own species.

84. This pairing action is part of the plan or partner.

85. Even the process called "Asexual Reproduction", a single cell must divide into two in order to increase.

Question: Did you ever wonder why the Neteru made things function in pairs and not threes?

86. It takes two to start the ball rolling.

87. Two is the number that leads to ultimate dependancy.

Scroll 7:88

88. Because of its nature, it paves a straight path to the Ancient Ones, for everything came about in pairs and in turn, must be subservient to the one responsible for the existence of the Neteru.

Question: Why is that?

89. Living things were placed in their categories by the Neteru.

90. All creatures would without the interference of man reproduce according to and with their own kind.

91. In other words, they were highly prejudiced.

92. In spite of this, they were able to live and function harmoniously.

Question: How long did this last?

93. Over a period of time,

Scroll 7:97

the sea dwelling creatures, began to migrate into the rivers and streams and into the swamps.

94. Plants were still very plentiful at this stage of the earth's development.

95. In order to survive the new environments, they had to grow new and adaptive structures.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: Did any problems occur during the stage from water to land?

96. Yes. In the journey from water to land, they encountered three main problems: Firstly, they needed a moisture regulating skin, so that they would not dry out.

97. Secondly, they had to develop organs to extract the oxygen from the air, in the oceans.

Scroll 7:98

98. Thirdly, they needed safe places in which to deposit their eggs.

Question: What did they need for this change?

99. Consequently the development of lungs and limbs amongst the most important steps for the adaptation of life on land.

Question: What about the skin?

100. The most evident changes occurred in the skin, which became tough in order to retain moisture within the body and to protect it against other unfavorable conditions.

101. The blood vessels multiplied, the fish-type skull flattened and the jaw became attached directly to the skull.

Scroll 7:104

Question: What kind of animals were these?

102. These descriptions of course match the reptiles and the amphibians which were the first animals to appear on the land. They favored the warm moist areas.

www.NuwaupuInc.com

Question: How many different breeds came out of this?

103. Today, there are three main classes of amphibians.

Question: What are amphibians?

104. An amphibian is a cold-blooded, smooth-skinned vertebrate of the class Amphibia, such as a frog or salamander, that characteristically hatches as an aquatic larva with gills. The larva then transforms into an adult having air-breathing lungs.

Question: What animals are classified as amphibians?

105. Amphibians are animals which are capable of living on land as well as water such as: Frogs, toads, salamanders, newts, and caecilians.

106. Frogs and toads have short, tailless bodies and long hind legs that are well developed for leaping.

107. Salamanders and newts have tails and short legs that are well adapted for walking.

108. Caecillians are worm-like legless and burrowing, digging into the earth, animals.

Question: Do plants feel?

109. Yes, all living things feel on their own level. What's wrong with humans is they define emotions and intelligence by their "yard stick".

110. The Neteru created everything in the same manner. Plants, like animals are also living things and have intelligence, instinct and feel. That's why a plant will grow toward the sun for nourishment, or an insect will change its color for survival.

Question: Why was that?

111. Because they need, in order to exist, the same basic elements that other creatures need.

112. The Neteru has also placed balancement in his creation. This is why all living things are

All organisms increased in size through the multiplication and specialization of cells.

2. Those that are taller came from those that are shorter the original people were the little people. You grew upward as all other things on this planet.

Question: So the original people of earth were pygmies?

www.Nuwaupinc.com

3. Pygmy is not the right word to use, but the original indigenous people of the planet earth, when it became earth were Tahites, what's wrongly called dwarfism, or more actively little people, for the Tahites or Ptahites were not deformed. Cells grow, plants grow toward the sun.

Question: What are cells?

Scroll 8:4

4. A cell was the smallest structural unit of an organism that is capable of independent functioning, consisting of one or more nuclei, cytoplasm, and various organelles. They were the smallest units of life. To date scientists have found and proven that cells are compounds of smaller forms of existence, which have sum.

Question: What is the similarity between a cell and an atom?

5. An atom was the smallest unit of an element, and a cell was the smallest unit of an organism, until the splitting of atoms and the cloning of cells.

Question: Are you saying that atoms and cells are not the smallest forms of energy and life?

Scroll 8:8

6. Absolutely. To date atoms and in particularly the hydrogen, which is supposed to be the lightest has been proven to contain quarks, and the same sciences that applies to atoms, applies to Adams, cells. The building blocks of life, be it organisms or compounds.

www.N uwaubuine.com

Question: So does the cell increase, when an animal increases in size?

7. The increase in an organism means an increase in tissue which is an increase in mass.

Question: And how does that work?

8. The formation of different types of tissue is accomplished when groups of cells work together for a specific function.

Scroll 8:9

9. As humans, animals, and plants, grew larger and larger and more complex, they needed a greater variation of tissues.

10. It's not that the actual cells individually get larger, it's the amount of cells that increase, as in the increase of fat in fatty foods makes one obese.

Question: What happened after that?

11. These formed organs and organ systems.

Question: Were there any defects?

12. Yes, the increase in size was crucial for some species according to the environment in which they developed.

Scroll 8:15

13. The Neteru as alchemists and architects are the fashioners and they fashioned many things in creation for specific purposes.

Question: Just what does Neteru mean?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

14. The "U" on the end is plural. The root in ancient Hieratic is Na Ta Ra, and means "a guardian, a protector, one who looks out for others." It's simply a Tama-rean way of saying God. The feminine of which is Netert. Plural of course is Neteru.

Question: So prehistoric earth was the home of many large animals?

15. Yes. Early earth, pre-historic times was the home of many massive dinosaurs most of which no longer exist.

Question: Why is pre-historic used?

16. To confess that there was time, people and animals existing before a specific group of people recorded stories that became the general concensus. Pre- simply means "before", and history is from the Middle English histoire, from Old French, from Latin historia, from Greek, from historein, to inquire, from histōr, "learned man". Simply before the acquisition of knowledge.

Question: And what was the cause for their extinction?

17. The basic cause that the dinosaurs became extinct was the rise of mountain ranges during the cretaceous period.

Question: What do you mean?

18. When the mountain ranges formed, the great seaways drained from the continents and the vast swamplands that were the homes of the dinosaurs dried up and most died of dehydration.

19. This caused tremendous changes in climate and food supply.

Question: So the rapid change wasn't adjustable for these dinosaurs?

20. No. The dinosaurs had become specially adapted to the old acquatic

www.Nuwaupunc.com

conditions. When these conditions had changed rapidly, the dinosaurs could not adjust.

Question: Did the plants die also?

21. New plants appeared and the old ones died out.

22. The plant eaters could not live on the new plants.

23. As the plant eaters died out, the meat eaters that depended on them for food also died.

Question: How long did this process take?

24. This long, but slow process took from 10 million to 20 million years.

25. By the end of the cretaceous period, almost all the dinosaurs had disappeared from the Earth. The others were destroyed in the cataclystic destruction caused by a massive meteorite.

26. Again it was by the design of the Neteru, these massive mammals and reptilians, called "terrible lizards" or dinosaurs, just like the microscopic ones, cells, fungi, algaes, microbes, played their part in the master plan of evolution and development of and on this planet.

Question: So evolution is a fact?

27. Evolving is a fact. Growth, expansion, change, mutation and even genetic manipulation, which results in alteration of a species are indeed facts.

28. Yet, the natural system works by what's called time.

www.NuwaupuInc.com

Scroll 8:29

Question: So they needed time to evolute or evolve?

29. Absolutely in all it took sometime before these animals developed into the kinds that we are familiar with today.

30. Although the species developed from the simplest form of life they developed into a wide variety of many different characteristics, which includes you.

Question: Was this a grand plan?

31. Yes. Still the Neteru established limits whereby no group outstepped its bounds and became mingled with another.

32. Once the patterns were established, the prototype of a species was complete, it was stabilized, and would therefore reproduce copies of itself.

Scroll 8:35

Question: So there was a control over the growth and death and extinction?

33. Yes. Certain species were allowed to flourish and yet others were destroyed or simply overpowered by more dominant species or became extinct.

34. Environment changed, climate changed and many species that were a part of the chain of life were phased out, while new ones came in for the forward thrust of life. As all living things make their journey back to godhood.

Question: So the meaning of life is?

35. To complete the circle

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Scroll 8:36

from whence you come you must return. As a living entity, growth and death, distinction and extinction. These were still in accordance with the will of the Neteru.

Question: Were there other interventions in life's masterplan?

36. Yes. The extinction of animals has occurred on account of drastic changes such an incident took place during the age of great reptiles.

37. Scientists are still trying to overstand what caused the dinosaurs to disappear from the planet.

38. Discoveries of their fossilized remains have been quite common and indicate that they perished in an era when very cold temperatures dominated the planet.

Scroll 8:42

Question: Have they agreed on what happened?

39. No, but in recent years, the quest for the clue to the missing dinosaurs has picked up momentum.

40. Speculations range such as: Overflowing of the arctic ocean, an exploding super nova destroying the ozone layer. A volcanic erupting on the moon reproducing a ring of dense particles around the earth.

41. This caused a heavy shadow to blanket the earth, blocking out the light of the sun for a significant period of time.

Question: What really happened?

42. The Earth was struck

www.Nuwaubuinc.com

by an asteroid, causing its poles to tilt, throwing the planet into an ice age. This massive meteorite upon impact created large wind, and sand storms which laid blankets of ash over the planet killing the dinosaurs and most other life forms.

Question: Then what happened?

43. Those aquatic beings that existed deep within the sea, many thousands of feet beneath survived as life forms. Such as the microbes.

44. In time with evolution they became algae and fungi again and life flourished under the seas while there was no longer a surface on the earth.

45. The dust cloud blocked out the light of the sun and there was simply void and darkness upon the face of the deep waters, yet life dwelled therein.

Question: Did this life ever change?

46. Yes it did. After many millions of years life crawled onto the land that in time surfaced as the plane tilted on a 23 degree axis and the dust cloud parted and sun's light hit the waters and the system of evaporation and condensation and the condensed vapors became clouds, land mass eventually appeared.

47. Creatures as the whales crawled out of the sea, walked the land and in time went back into the sea, and today they are descendants of animals that could live on land as well as their original home which is

www.Nuwaupinc.com

water.

Question: This sounds like the creation story, is it?

48. Well, in reality creation as mentioned before simply means "growth".

49. It is a reocurring incident each time with slightly different events. So we can call it a creation story, not the creation story.

Question: So are whales reptilians or mammals?

50. The fact that the whales of today have lungs is evidence that this origin stems from a mammal that once lived on, land as well as its original home, water.

51. In fact, the whales still have the bones of a five fingered hand covered by the skin and flesh of their paddle-like flippers and some have hip bones.

52. Whales have flat tails which help to rise easily to the top of the water for air, and when they swim they use their flippers as oars.

53. They have no scales or gills and the skeletal and circulatory systems and brain are quite unlike those of a fish.

www.Nuwaupuric.com

54. The whale is always changing adapting itself to a new environment as do all living things that respond to the condition of "Survival Of The Fittest".

55. Simply whales are much like humans and dolphins belonging to the whale family. Humans are mammals and reptilians. And Scientists today are now saying that dolphins are closer to humans than monkeys are.

Scroll 8:56 Scroll 9:5

56. Whales are mammals and reptilians.

57. Present day scientists have no classification of this without confessing their religious theories are wrong. Their scientific data is incomplete.

The Winged Fowl
(19x6=114)

www.Nuwaupinc.com

1 Question: What about the "Winged Fowl"?

The winged fowl bird is a descendant of a higher order of fish whose fins were enlarged and thinned, thus enabling them to fly above the waters.

Question: So birds are reptilians also?

2. Many were and at first, merely skimmed the surface, that is leaped from the water the way the salmon does as it travels up stream. As time passed, its abilities became more developed and it took flight. A leap or a jump is still flight.

Question: Does this still happen?

3. Yes, the salmon still takes flight and there are still some varieties of fish that display this trait.

4. The most well-known of these are the flying fish.

5. There are several other varieties of fish that are known to jump out of the water and glide occasionally, like the whale and the dolphin, etc.

Question: Is this where birds come from?

Figure 125
A Dolphin

Scroll 9:6

6. Birds come in a wide variety of colors, sizes and species;

7. They are among the most widely known animals,

8. For this reason they are featured in the legends and myths of many societies.

Question: Can all birds fly?

9. That's an interesting question because monotheist, or those believing in the bible or qur'an, must realize that their god makes quite a few mistakes pertaining to what is referred to as fowls, or fowl of the air and neglects to mention fowls of the earth, and fowls of the lakes. Genesis 1:20 clearly states that birds were in the sea first, and I quote: "And Eloheem said let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creatures that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmaments of the heavens."

Scroll 9:12

10. The separation and "wa" is inclusive, meaning that this fowl was also created by the Eloheem out of the waters. As a part of the abudant life.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

Question: So all birds come from water?

11. Yes, even as far back as the pterodactyl. This is why a duck is considered a bird or a fowl, but has webbed feet. And he is one of many that belong to the same family.

12. Chickens have webs and scales on their feet, and can't fly for long distances. Penguins have feathers like scales, flippers like wings, and webbed feet, and they don't fly.

13. So, to assume as the Bible and the Qur'an does, that all fowl fly is an absolute untruth. Though, most birds are capable of flight, yet there are others who are not.

Question: What is a Pterodactyl?

www.Nuwaupuine.com

14. Any of various small, mostly tailless, extinct flying reptiles of the order Pterosauria that existed during the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods. From the New Latin Pterodactylus, reptile genus : Greek pteron, feather, wing; from -PTER, "feather, wing" and from the Greek daktulos, meaning "finger".

15. Ask yourself, why doesn't your Bible and Qur'an speak of flying rodents or flying reptilies, but only flying fowl.

Question: Why didn't they?

16. Simply, because the authors of the Bible and the Qur'an didn't know.

Question: Are there other mistakes pertaining to fowl, amongst the monotheists?

17. Yes right in Leviticus 11:13-19, it calls a bat a fowl. The Hebrew word for fowl in the quote is Ofe, meaning "winged bird", and the word for bat in the quote is Atallafe, "bat". "Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you. And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray, And the vulture, and the kite after his kind; Every raven after his kind; And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind, And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl, And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat".

Scroll 9:18

Question: What is a bat?

18. A bat is any of various nocturnal flying mammals of the order Chiroptera, having membranous wings that extend from the forelimbs to the hind limbs, or tail and anatomical adaptations for echolocation, by which they navigate and hunt prey.

Scroll 9:22

19. So a bat is not a fowl or a bird. But more closely related to the rodent. An outright mistake on the part of the God of the Bible.

20. And Isaiah 2:20 makes it clear that this god knew bats, because he feared them as being idols of worship or for worship.

www.Nuwauduinc.com

Question: Just what is a fowl?

21. The word fowl is from the Middle English foul, from Old English fugol, meaning "flight". Yet, most of the creatures declared fowls don't fly.

22. All are related in some way to sea creatures having scales, webs and water proof feathering. Birds come in all sizes.

Question: Why can't certain birds fly?

23. Actually, if they are called a bird or a fowl, they should be able to fly, regardless of their size, because pterodactyls were larger than any bird we have today, and they flew.

Question: How did they change from fish to birds to reptiles to rodents?

24. As was stated earlier, the animals mated within their own species and did not mix. However, intervention by extraterrestrial alchemists and geneticists experimenting and tipped the scales, thus producing disorder.

Question: Is there any proof of this?

25. Proof of this disorder is found in the offspring of various animals that were mated out of their class. This was done by genetic breeding.

Question: Why would god or gods do such a cruel thing?

www.Nuwauping.com

26. It's the religious misinterpretation of superior beings that leaves the impression that they all must be good, the term God even in the Bible, which gave birth to the Qur'an is sometimes applied to evil beings, disagreeable beings as in all cultures.

Question: Were these spiritual or physical beings?

27. Both, for the word A'aferti has its root in a' fa ra, "dust," and implies the taking on of dust particles, dehydrated blood. Yet, it's translated as pharoah as a human yet spiritual god, who all gave reverence to the Neteru which has its roots in Na Ta Ra, which means "watchers or guardians". Spiritual beings who can personify.

28. So both principles are covered. And there were and are good physical people, bad physical people; good spiritual beings and bad spiritual beings.

Question: Is this the reason for the imperfection in creation?

29. Yes. Some scientists succeed and some fail. The sad thing is that these ancient scientists in religion are called god, and religious people respect the perfections and ignore the imperfections, or refuse to acknowledge if one god is in control of all things, and he would be responsible for all the imperfections in creation, as well.

Question: All deformities are god's fault?

www.NuwaupuInc.com

30. No, many diseases, viruses, deformities are caused by human beings themselves. Bad diet, bad health habits. Many deformities have occurred with the aid of human kind.

Question: Can you give examples of some of these deformities?

31. Yes. A.I.D.S, a man made virus that alters the chromosomes. Down Syndrome, Alzeheimer's, Cancer, Polio, Herpes, Hydrocephalic, Dwarfism, gigantism, not to mention many forms of disfiguration, one which stands out in the Bible, is people having six fingers and six toes, which religions people can't explain if man is in the image and after the likeness of god. (2 Samuel 21:20, 1 Chronicles 20:6).

32. It is clear that all men on the planet are not in the image of God. Anthropomorphism or not, some have five fingers, some have six.

33. With these many deformities, like siamese twins, it is clear that humans were a product of a higher intelligent experiment.

Question: Are flying rodents and reptilies a form of deformity?

34. No. Being they all were originally from the sea. Some examples are: The bat, a rat-like mammal with wings.

Question: The bat is a rodent or a mammal?

www.nuwaupuinc.com

35. A rodent is a mammal.

Question: And what do modern scientists classify a mammal as?

36. Mammals are any of various warm-blooded vertebrate animals of the class Mammalia, including human beings, characterized by a covering of hair on the skin and, in the female, milk-producing mammary glands for nourishing the young. [From Late Latin mammälis, of the breast, from Latin mamma, meaning "breast."

Scroll 9:37

Question: Are humans mammals or reptilians?

37. Both, they are a combination, having both lungs and gills. As well as, wings. Just as many snakes and whales have hips without legs, thus humans have wings beneath their arm pits, which they once used to fly and swim.

Question: Are you saying human beings once flew?

38. Exactly, that's why their face and body is aero dynamic from the top of the head downard. But when standing with a flat face and flat body, they are subject to the dangers of G force.

Scroll 9:42

39. Humans as descendants of Reptilians once swam in the deep seas and breathed using their gills as they did in the water sac of their mother's wombs.

Question: Now back to the fowls and bats, are they unnatural?

www.NuWaupunc.com

40. Yes. The bat is the result of the unnatural breeding of the bird which accounts for its wings and the rat which accounts for the fury appearance on the body.

41. Bats have a keen sense of hearing, which they use to guide them in their flight.

42. Their wings are actually five fingers covered by a thin membrane.

Scroll 9:43

43. Bats are the only flying mammals.

Question: How many species of birds are there?

44. There are many species of birds.

45. They range in size from a wing span of six inches to a wing span of five feet.

46. Bats depend on flying as a mode of movement even more than birds.

Question: Which other creatures are choice bred?

47. The Aardvark is another choice bred creature. It's commonly referred to as an "Earth Pig."

48. Some scientists claim that the origin of the Aardvark is unknown.

49. It is described as having a stout pig-like body.

Scroll 9:52

Question: Where did the Aardvark come from?

50. The Aardvark is a mutation that occurred on account of crossbreeding of the rodent, feline and the canine. It is an offshoot in the making of the wild boar, who later was bleached into the albino domestic pig, or souse.

Question: You mean the pork that people eat is a genetic experiment?

51. That is correct, in fact all white or albino reptiles, mammals and fowls are genetic mutants. Intentionally bred for human genetic mutants.

Question: And are there others?

52. Yes. You also have

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Ligers And Tigons, also said Tiglon: Under certain conditions, as in enforced confinement of zoos, tigers have been known to mate with lions.

53. The offspring of such relations are called "Tigons" when the male parent is a tiger, and "Ligers" when the male parent is a lion, from the Bengal tooth tiger, related to the Saber tooth tiger of pre-historic times.

Question: What about the Mule?

54. The Mule is another mixed animal. It's the offspring of the horse and a Donkey.

55. Mules are usually sterile because of the chromosomal difference of the parents.

56. This interferes with the normal production and maturation of the sex cells.

57. Thus, mules are incapable of reproducing their own kind. However the female mules can be bred with a male horse or a male donkey and produce a foal, which the Bible Zechariah 9:9 clearly makes a mistake and says a colt is the foal of an ass.

58. And this is an out right mistake, because a foal is an offspring of a male horse and a female mule.

www.NuwaupUnc.com

Question: So all life on this planet came from the same source, water?

59. Actually the air that people breathe in daily is still a form of water. Water takes many forms and densities.

60. So be they indigenous of this planet or transported to this planet to waters, you could say life on this planet had its origin in water.

Scroll 9:61

Rising from the lowest to the highest.

Question: Could you explain further?

61. Kane, the simplest form of animals range from one-celled protozoa to animals with a backbone.

62. Western world scientists today are in the process of cloning and have successfully cloned sheep and mice. A science that the ancient Tama-Reans and Sumerians had many thousands of years ago.

63. Today, they are finally becoming able to clone a full grown sheep which means that they are able to clone full grown adults, as well as the re-growth of bones, tissues, and the likes. As in ancient time, keloiding was a process of limb growth or regeneration.

64. The cloning of the

Scroll 9:67

adult sheep was done by Dr. Ron James, managing director of Ppl therapeutics, at the Roslin Institute, Edinburgh United Kingdom.

Question: What is the meaning of the word clone?

65. The word clone is from the Greek klōn, meaning "twig". Yet, is used in the scientific community as to make mulitiple identical copies of a DNA sequence.

66. They prefer to use the word clone without giving you the definition. They give you the above definition, because twig would reveal that the root of the word clone, "twig" is more related to grafting than breeding, as in the case of plants and fruits and even animals.

67. They grafted a

Asexual Reproduction in Protozoans

During asexual reproduction, or fission, a protozoan splits in two, each half forming a separate individual. Inside a host cell, the parasitic Plasmodium reproduces by multiple fission.

tangerine and a peach to make a nectarine, or in the case of when the botanists wants to change the color of a plant they will graft twigs together and in the fourth generation create from a red the extreme which will be the albino white, then combine the two to create a spotted leper and then a pink plant.

68. This principle also was used on humans. Some were bred with reptilians, some with Gibbons, and some with Baboons resulting in various species of the human race with different natures.

69. Some are born with the instincts to kill.

70. The results are, some humans are herbivores and carnivorous.

71. Some kill for the pleasure of it called serial killers, others for food called hunters and even some have a taste for human flesh called cannibals.

Scroll 9:75

72. As in 2 Kings 6:28-29 and where Israelite women are boiling and eating their kids and Leviticus 26:29, where they are told to eat the flesh of your sons and daughters.

73. These varying natures in humans, which result in mental disturbances to insanity, are a results of genetic tampering and crossbreeding with animals and reptilians.

Question: How does cloning or genetic splicing affect religion?

74. The fact is that these scientific realities blows the cover off of all religious beliefs that a god said "be" or "let there be", and puff, things came into existence.

75. Scientific discoveries are making Bibles and Qur'ans appear as what they www.NewAuburn.com

are. Myths and fables are not supported by any scientific data.

Question: So what about God?

76. If these scientific facts are true, and they have been true, then the religious concept of creation is wrong, and you don't need their kind of god to create.

77. President Bill Clinton had banned cloning, which led private business to fund these projects.

78. Reseachers in Scotland have developed a technique for cloning unlimited numbers of genetically indistinguishable sheep.

79. Only five identical lambs have been created so far, and three died in the first days of life.

80. But scientists said the success could open the door to mass production of gene-altered animals with desirable traits, such as sheep with better wool or pigs with humanized organs suitable for transplantation into people.

81. Researchers said that the technique could also be used to clone human embryos.

82. However this was banned by President Clinton.

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

83. Some scientists, namely Keith H.S. Campbell, Ian Wilmut and their colleagues at the Roslin institute in Edinburgh describe their approach to cloning animals.

Question: What did they say?

84. They stated that they started with a 9 day old sheep embryo, made of a hundred or so cells, which they removed from a pregnant ewe.

Scroll 9:85

85. The team allowed these cells to divide repeatedly in culture dishes.

86. In less than a week, thousands of the identical cells filled several dishes.

87. Separately, the researchers gave hormone shots to female sheep to induce the release of eggs from their ovaries, much as fertility specialists induce ovulation in women trying to become pregnant.

88. This team created a healthy lamb from a normal adult cell taken from the udder of an ewe.

89. While it took Scottish scientists almost 300 embryos to produce one healthy sheep named Dolly, which some of the offspring were deformed and died.

Question: How about animals other than sheep, any closer to human?

Scroll 9:95

90. Yes. Researchers at the Oregon Regional Primate Research Center announced they had produced two monkeys with a procedure similar to that used by Scottish researchers.

91. The cloning of the Rhesus monkeys, born in August, used primitive embryos, rather than adult animals, as in the cloning with the sheep.

www.Nuwauprinc.com

Question: So man is now god and is creating?

92. Yes, if these are facts, and these are facts.

93 This totally destroys religious concepts, that says that only god can create.

94. Religion cannot answer to the fact that humans have taken the role of what they call God, or Eloheem, or Yahweh, or Thehos, or Allah and are creating and making.

95. So if man is in the

Scroll 9:96

image and likeness of God, then God was creating Gods, who will in time do what Gods do, create more gods, thus man created by God is now creating.

Question: What is the difference between creating and making?

96. Creating is growing something from nothing, and making is utilizing things already grown.

Question: How can you grow something from nothing?

97. The key is some-thing. Or the Sum of something.

98. When you plant a seed you have one type of thing, or its sum or total.

99. Once that seed grows into a tree and yields a fruit or flower, it has become several different things.

Scroll 9:103

Question: Can you explain further?

100. Of course, the seed is one thing. The tree another, the leaves another and the fruit yet another.

101. Yet, they all have their origin in the original seed.

102. Without the sun's light, the water and the earth, simply Ta-Ma-Re, you would have no growth or creation.

www.Nuwaupinc.com

Question: And as for making?

103. Yes, as for making,. once the apple is grown, picked, peeled and cooked to make apple sauce or apple pie, you have made something, from something grown or created Question: How does this relate to humans?

Scroll 9:104

104. Well, you have your Ta-Ma-Re as Atum, Atun and Amun.

105. You have your seeds or cells and they are developed and grown in the laboratories.

106. Then these seeds are brought together and we have a type of being.

Question: What do you mean by a type of being?

107. Well, if you look around you will see that there are all different types of beings, be they animal, reptile, amphibian or even insect, and of course the human animal.

Question: The human animal, what do you mean?

108. Humans would like to see themselves as other than a part of the animal kingdom, when they do and act just like all other animals.

Scroll 9:111

109. They kill to survive, they scheme, they shed, they copulate, they produce and they die. There are many different breeds of humans.

Question: Different breeds of humans?

www.Nuwaupuine.com

110. Yes, more than just the normals accepted concept of the three races. The first being, what's called the Negroid, the second being, the Mongoloid, and the third being the Caucasoid. Within each one of these races there are many species.

Question: And how will I recognize them?

111. Different heights, bone structure, skin texture, hair texture, color, blood types. The whole variety of different metabolisms reveal just like different breeds of canines. You have so many different dogs, yet all belonging to the canine family, the same applies to the human animal, from the chiwawa to the great dane, from the Pygmy to the Watusi. That's just within the Negroid stock.

Scroll 9:112

Question: Which race was first?

112. Without sounding racist, or prejudice, science, anthropology, geneticist have proven beyond a shadow of doubt that the Negroids were the first on this planet and that all others came from them.

Question: Does that make them the mothers and fathers of all other races?

Scroll 9:114

113. Actually yes and no, because it makes them the mothers of all others, being all people come from the woman.

Question: So the woman is God?

www.Nuwaupuinc.com

114. That is the unspoken but well known truth in the scientific community, that God produces Gods. So I repeat, when God was creating God and said "I create in my own image and after my own likeness", this creating God would have to have the power of God to create other Gods, thus the perpetuation of God eternal was in the original creation of God.

This Is How It Was, And This Is How It Will Be

The Dictionary Of Names

This Is A Dictionary Introducing You To Some Ancient Tama-Rean (Egyptian) Names, Including Their Meanings. You Can See That Some Names Can Work As Compound Names, Where As You Can Take Two Separate Names And Put Them Together, For Example, Let's Take The Name Amun, Meaning "The Hidden One", And Hotep, "Peaceful, Satisfied", Put Them Together And You Get Amunhotep, Meaning "The Hidden One Is Satisfied", Or "Amun Is Satisfied", Or You Can Also See It, With The Name Amunnubi Roakhptah, Amun "The Hidden One, Mysterious", Nubi, "Informer", Roakh "Soul" And Ptah, "Opener", Or Mysterious Informer, Soul Of The Ptahites".

You Can Create This System With Most Of Your Names. You Can Also Take Semetic, Aramic/Hebrew Or Ashuric/Arabic Names, Even Swahili Or Yoruba, And Combine Them To Tama-Rean Prefixes Or Suffixes As Well. Make Note: That These Names Were Derived From Names And Titles That Were Worn By Our Great Ancient Neteru "Deities", And Aafertis "Pharaohs". It's Important That We As Nuwaubians, Children Of The Ancient Tama-Reans, Start Wearing Our Original Names In Our Language, Nuwaubic Called Hieratic And Hieroglyphics, And Take On The Role Of Our Ancient Ancestors.

You must understand that there were no P in the ancient Semetic or Hieroglyphic alphabet, that was added by the Greeks. So every place you see, a P it was a B, every place you see an O it was a U, many places that you see an E it could have been an I or a Y. There were no V, there you would find a W. Often times K was mistaken for Q, or Kh. Example, Khami, is often written Kemet. Dj, is often written as Z, as in Zed for Djed. The original languages are not Latin and Greek, nor Arabic and Hebrew. All of these are products of the ancient Nuwaubic, brought to this planet from above, which became Cuneiform, Akkadian, Chaldean, all of the Semetic tongues, far Eastern and Western dialects of the Native Americans. All have their roots in Nuwaubic, called Hieratic phonetically and Hieroglyphics scripturally.

El Istakhlaag — The Creation

Begin All Acts And Thinking By Using El Kuluwm, The All

Tablet One
Epic Of Creation And Before
(19 x 6 =114)

Lo! O my children, allow me to speak with you, for it is that time again, every 25,000 years for the renewal of your way of life, Nuwaubu. Let me speak with you of "The Beginnings" of life, before and after the knowledge bestowed upon you of your very own creation, and the making of this planet you call Earth, and the many other planets of which you have no knowledge of.

2 Your soul, that is, the emotional you, is about to embark upon a journey through time, and space, within existence; through a time, not yet encountered by Behaymaw, the human beast, and the Humim Beings, the Children of the Aluhum. The Humim, being of Hu "creative force of will", and Mim "also Mami, meaning "deity of birth", which is another name for Mother Ninti who gave birth to mortals. The Human, being of Hu "creative force of will" and Mane from the Latin, "spirits of the dead."

3 Within the confines of this Holy Tablet, you shall embark upon such knowledge, which has never before been made so clear as this, for you, by any.

4 Let me start, by telling you about the beings that existed trillions of Earth years ago, before the Pre-Cambrian period. Before you, humim beings, were created in the physical form, upon the planet Tiamat, now called Earth, from the word Eridu, there existed supreme beings of pure green light, ethereal and sub-supreme beings of the impure, amber light, fire.

5 You cannot fully comprehend their beginnings, because their time zone is much greater than your ability to comprehend at this point. Yet, this very tablet which you are holding in your hand will open your eyes to their time zones, that are in and beyond space.

6 These supreme beings called Anunnagi or Neteru, whose way of life was called Nuwaubu, were endowed by El Kuluwm, 'The All,' with a superior overstanding, 720 degrees in all. 360° degrees of spiritual or ethereal state, "the circle", and 360° degrees of the physical, material state, "the square."

7 Glory be to the one appointed, who is called in tones ANU, and on Earth, El Eloh, known to many by different titles, and the best of which is known to you, as Ansaars is Allah in which he is, 360° degrees of the physical world, and the light of this heaven and earth, in which he is also.

8 You should know that eventually the time will come when these supreme beings, Anunnagi, would have to descend upon this planet Earth, in order to guide the inhabitants back towards their home, in and beyond the stars;

9 Thereby helping them to become once again, the supreme beings of the pure green light, ethereal energy that they once were. But first, one must be sent to prepare a way, and that one is MYSELF.

10 And so it was. For once Humims became rulers over the planet Earth, you gradually forgot that your purpose in life was to gain your way back towards

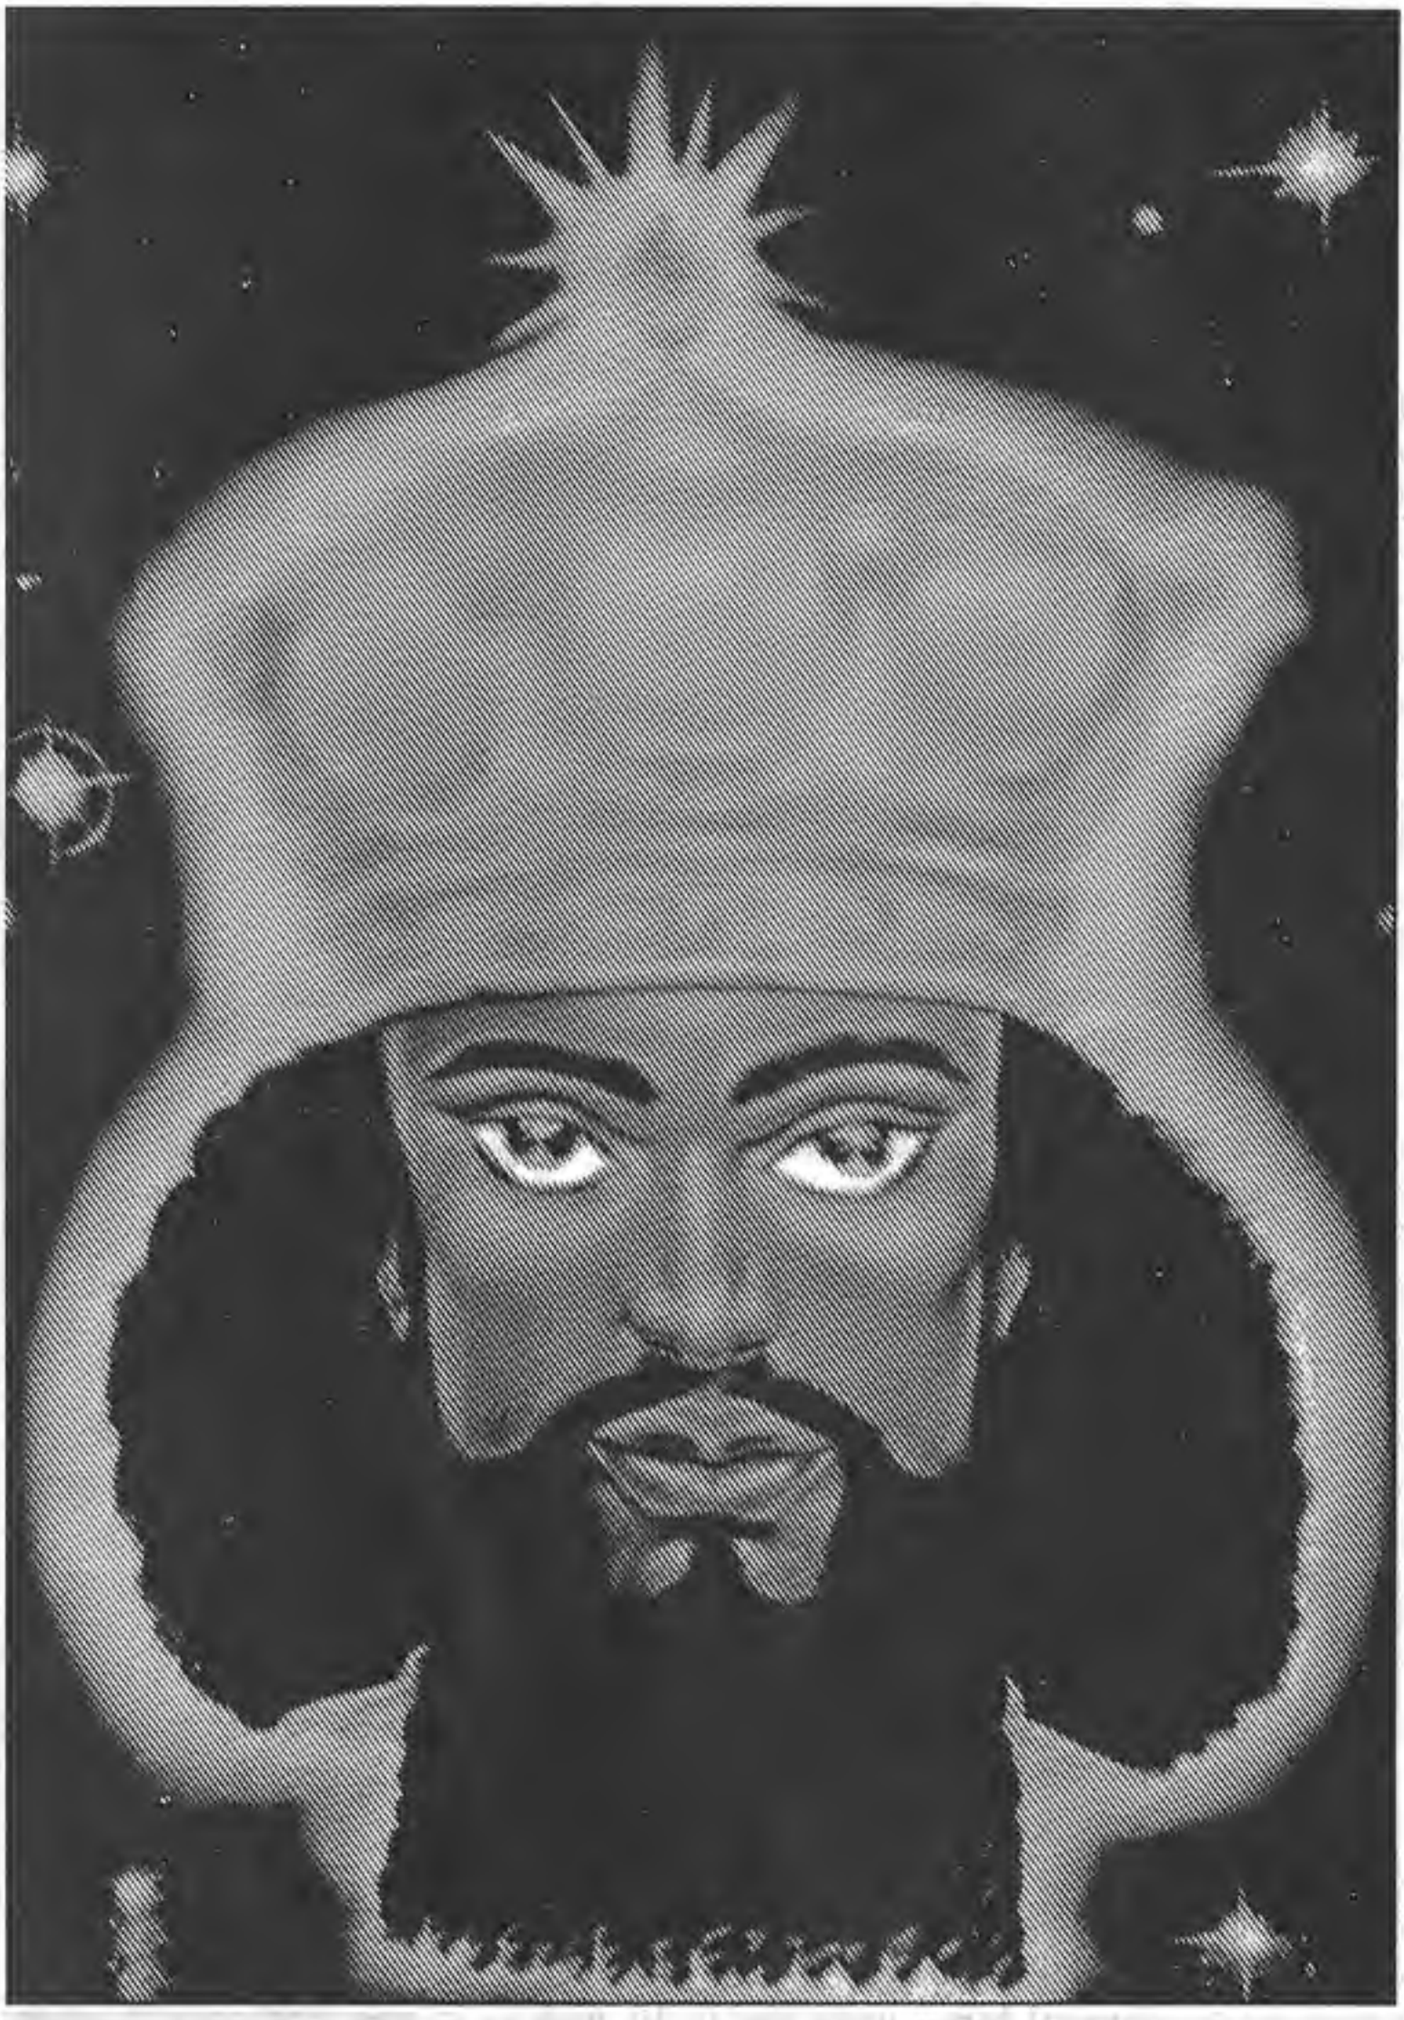

Figure 1
ANU, The Heavenly One

the Sustainer, which would be the token home; but instead, you became engrossed in "your own desires."

11 While in pursuit of physical gratification and material gain, Humims forgot the purity with which they were formed.

12 As a result, you have strayed from the original ways of the universe, and the spiritual path that led you to your true destiny: universal right knowledge, right wisdom, and the right overstanding, on to sound right reasoning called 'NUWAUBU.'

13 Nuwaubu informs you that there were three creations:

14 Original or Primary creation, prìmârius, from prìmus, first. Before the lightest atom, hydrogen, energies existed, as a form of energy existing in the form of gases, nine levels of them from Quarks to Bi-aps to Zedes/Zeles, referred to as sub-atomic energy, before weight or the sum of any weight, registering as nothingness, yet existing, being lighter than the first form of existence hydrogen. Secondary or evolutionary creation, the evolving of existence from density to matter to atoms to cells, to organisms, to bodies. and Tertiary tertiârius, from tertius, third, or ghostational creation. The breath of life, the living soul, the existing conscious being.

15 Primary creation was performed by nine ether beings, simply Etherians, whose science is Nuwaubu. Nine ether represents birth, conception as in 9 and birth, or the sum total of numbers. There are no numbers actually higher than nine. Nuwaubu means to convey a message that results in sound right reasoning. So there must be a conveyor and a listener of the message. The message is life, the conveyor is existence. Three sets of 3, or triple darkness. First set: before light, before energy, before matter. Second set: before time, before space, before place. Third set: before body, before soul, before spirit.

16 Nine ether is the combination of all existing gases of nature. Nothing anywhere can be as powerful as all the existing gases. On earth these gases are known as, Radon (Rn) with an atomic number of 26, Xenon (Xe), with an atomic number of 54, Krypton (Kr), with an atomic number of 36, Argon (Ar), with an atomic number of 18, Neon (Ne) with an atomic number of 10, and Helium (He) with an atomic number of 2. These are also called The Noble Gases on a periodic or elemental chart, on the physical chart. However on the ethereal chart, they are listed as thus, E_2, E_{10}, E_{18}, E_{26}, E_{36}, E_{54}, and note the word element, and elementary, from elementum, "first principle, rudiment, beginning." Used as elementary, the beginning without importance, as of yet.

17 Therefore, 9 ether is the most potent power in all the boundless universes. 9 ether is the original creator, who grew all the universes. 9 ether beings utilized the forces that yield energy versing energy into one form, The Universe. "Uni- meaning "úni-, from únus, one, and verse meaning vertere, to turn, a spiral, spiraling outward from a single point".

18 Creation from the word creare, "to bring forth, create, produce to cause to grow", means growth into form or system. Destruction means change in form or composition.

19 Nine ether is conscious and conscience gases. The Melanin-ites, the original woolly-haired, dark skinned Muurs "Moors" came along with the original creation; that is the same kind of ether forces that grew the universe. As nature was growing these Melaninites were a part of the original growth. Melanin grew with original creation. To come along with a thing is to grow with or within it. 6 ether are 9 points from ether 1 into darkness. The Melaninites manifest from point 1 in hydrogen on into 9 elements, the 8th being oxygen for life. The dot, "nagut" is the point of origin of things, the first sum.

Figure 2
Baalat Sister Of Murdok

20 Therefore, the Melanin-ites and their evolutionary descendants are the personification of the original creative forces, HU, 7 in all. As the 7 species of RIZQIYIANS, you have 7 species of Melanin-ites or NUWAUBIANS, called Negroids. And you have 3 species of Mongoloids, and 2 species of Caucasoid, all growing out of the original Nuwaubians.

21 Simply, these Melanin-ites created the universes in their etheric form.

22 Nine ether then personified themselves as flesh and blood beings, they became human beings from Atoms to Adam.

23 There are two kinds of ether - nine ether and 6 ether in human form. 9 ether, Negroid, produced 6 ether, Caucasians, and 6 ether produced ghosts; death, not to be mistaken with the ethers of hair, that range from 6, 7, 8 and 9 in hair texture, from flat to hollow to round.

24 Nine ether will become 6 ether through time and age (die). 6 ether becomes ghost through time and age.

25 Six ether (Albinos) is 9 ether (Nuwuabians) in death, and ghost is the death of 6 ether.

26 After the death of 6 ether, 9 ether resurrects again.

27 Six ether, is the moon and 9 ether, is the sun. Hence, 6 ether is adverse to 9 ether just as death is adverse to life.

28 All this takes place within THE ALL.

29 It was then, that the true force of the universe personified those supreme beings.

30 The original Melanin-ites, dark skinned, woolly haired Muurs personified by both, sound and electric energy.

31 Both positive and negative; electro- from modern Latin electricus meaning 'resembling amber' amber, being negative, and magnetic from Latin magnetis 'loadstone' being positive. Light or the illuminati being electro, and the light spectrum being magnetism.

32 The cosmic ray for emerald, being from 001; nanometer, Nanna = the deity Sin; meter = mother or meter in tones may-tare, meaning matter or material, form to 99,000 miles. Nanometer is the modern term used, preferred over Angstrom used in measuring visible light. One nanometer is 10^{-9} one billionth of a meter, and is equal to 1 angstrom, being a unit of length equal to one hundred-millionth of a centimeter used especially to specify radiation wavelengths. Also called angstrom unit, after Anders Jonas Angstrom, a Swedish astronomer and physicist.

33 Light is defined by wavelengths, which is the measure of the distance from one peak or top of a wave of light or energy to another. Cosmic rays being the shortest, and the longest being electric power.

Figure 3
The Rizqiyians

34 Between the two are: gamma rays, which is electronic radiation sent from radioactive decay ranging from 10 thousand to 10 million electron volts; X-rays, which is a relatively high energy photon or amount of electronic energy used for penetration power; also ultraviolet light rays, which are a range of invisible radiation ranging from 4 nanometers to 380 nanometers, just beyond the color violet in the visible spectrum; infrared light rays, a range of invisible radiation bordering along microwaves about 750 nanometers; microwaves, a high frequency electromagnetic wave measuring 1 milliliter to 1 meter in length; television waves, the transferring of visual images and sound using electromagnetic waves with the reconversion of received waves into visual images; radio waves, a wireless transmissions through space with a frequency of 10 kilohertz to 300,000 megahertz; and electric power coming from the reaction of attraction and repulsion of un-alike and alike proton and electrons.

35 Television waves and radio waves are also forms of light laser.

36 There is also the visible spectrum which runs from 400 nanometers to 700 nanometers in wavelength. Nanometers being one billionth (10^{-9}) of a meter, from the word Nanna, the Sumerian deity SIN, and Meter from Greek Metron, meaning "measure".

37 With all light flowing through a prism or a medium that represents whatever is seen through it, used to separate white light coming from late Latin prisma, from Greek prisma, thing sawed off, prism, from priein, prizein, to saw; this light becomes six colors: yellow, blue, red, green, orange, and purple. Light in its esepheric form is at its atomic level.

38 When you see full spectrum light in its physical state, it manifests as blackness. That is, all light and color combined are blackness. And the manifestation of the solid form of light is melanin.

39 Thus, they manifested from the great circle and throne of wisdom to this meager place.

40 This is how the events of creation and pre-creation were recorded; when life existed in and beyond the stars. The All is, was and will be!

41 Felt, within a love, a divine love that is unknown or felt by those disagreeable beings, and thus emotions were. At the first birth of emotions was the birth of motion.

42 Things gradually began to move about, and it was then that movement and motion was conceived out of triple darkness, for the light birthed the chaos.

43 Thus, the motion to create did manifest in existence, and all thar exists, exists within THE ALL.

44 Thus, things became what they were to become known as, before they existed, or what they would exist as.

45 This is true caring. If you say you love ANU, then why do you not have faith in ANU, who is also known as El Eloh?

46 Who is called in rhythm, Allah by the Muslims, meaning 'ones who are of peace.' Be on your guard, for they have been invaded by the disagreeable one's children as well.

47 ANU is also called Yahweh by the Hebrews,

48 Thehos by Christians,
49 And God, by many others. He was appointed by THE ALL as your caretaker.
50 ANU appointed one of the Yahwehans called Tammuz, son of Ishtar or Innana, Daughter of Nannar Sin, also called Isis or Aset, also called Astarte, Ashtaroth, the Phrygian Cybele also Sybil and Kali.
51 This Tammuz was also called in tones 'Horus, Thehos, Yashu'a, Isa, Jesus, Kristos,' a son of Dammuzi, who is called 'Osiris, Usir, Dionyushadest,' an Eli and the Abba of Tammuz or Obata'lah, the Heavenly Father, son of the Heavenly One, ANU.
52 Thus, it is said of this Tammuz:
"then the Enosites began to call upon the name of the Yahweh".
53 If you say, 'you have faith by way of him,' who is your caretaker, ANU, who appointed Yashu'a, Ha Mashiakh, called Isa, Jesus and Tammuz;
54 Then I ask you, 'why do you not trust in him?' For it is ANU, also called El that is trustworthy.
55 If you say, 'you love him, why do you not strive towards him?'
56 And if you say, 'you are sensible,' then why do you not tremble at the mention of ANU?
57 Surely, it is ANU that has been appointed to be your caretaker, and has appointed the anointed one, a Yahuwa called Tammuz. From which the door at the gate of Yahuwah the women of that house wept for Tammuz. This is merely one of the many houses of Yahuwa. This is recorded in the scripture of Ezekiel, 8th degree, the 14th verse.
58 This appointment of ANU was done by THE ALL, within ALL, for as ANU became who he is, it had to be in accordance with the will of all, and the appointment of an anointer was done by ANU; both being Yahwehans in THE ALL.
59 It is he, ANU who has transformed from an Etherian into a flesh embodied being, and then returns at will to ether. He was an appointed EL ELOH, Allah, who saw the confusion, which was caused by the fusion of emotions.
60 The collision of emotions in this solar system came into being as time passed, it became known emotionally, as that which is right to do, and that which is wrong to do; those who agree and those who disagree; The act that is good, and the act that is evil.
61 Thus, the birth of "will," is the beginning of confusion;
62 Confusion arose, and this somberness, a dull feeling was felt in his, ANU's heart.
63 Out of divine love and great concern, with compassion and caring,
64 He began to call out and ordered all the blessed and chosen children of THE ALL, the Etherians,
65 Who incarnated into the form of the Anunnagi, which is known to many as Aluhum, or Neteru as known to the ancient Egyptians.
66 He ordered them to incarnate in his spirit, with the responsibilities for this now desolate solar system.
67 It was here that life of all kinds and spiritual beings lived and thrived.
68 Those Extraterrestrials, the sky dwellers, who came to this planet Earth; be they Extraterrestrials, Anunnagi, Neteru, Aluhum, Angelic Beings, or be they of the terrestrial, that is of this planet Earth,

69 The land dwellers, and even those beings who came on land from the deep sea,

70 And these species, all of which were agreeable people, and disagreeable people, who did tread to and fro on the Earth's surface, the ground, and swam in the seas, and flew in the skies of this planet Qi, now called Earth, from the word Eridu.

71 But, by the disorder of these disagreeable species was destruction caused by meteorites, which are large pieces of debris that enter the atmosphere and reaches the ground, and that caused the light of the Sun to be blocked by the dust clouds.

72 Meteorites are chips off asteroids that can be of rock or metal.

73 The daylight had gone where pure light once was, and no light reigned.

74 Void was upon the surface of the deep.

75 Ordering his spirit beings to hover above the surface of the deep; while the Great Spirit prepared for the reconstruction of this now desolate place,

76 It was to be a great replenishing, yet not without fault, for life does dwell beneath the deep. The greatest variety of organisms lives beneath the deep seas of this planet Tiamat. These seawaters make up 85 percent of all the water on the Earth. Under this vast, watery surface are the tallest peaks and deepest valleys on this planet. Sea water is really pure water in which compounds have dissolved. Salts account for most of these dissolved substances. And the total amount of salts dissolved in sea water is known as the salinity from the Latin word salinus from sal meaning salt.

77 A rejuvenation and another chance was in the heart and mind of the Most Holy Spirit.

78 So, one was selected from amongst the many to be The Guardian over these beings;

79 To be born, to be El Rahum-Mul, The Merciful; and El Rahmun, The Yielder;

80 El Hakum, He Who Is The Wise One; El Gadush, He Who Is The Holy; El Latuf, He Who Is The Kind;

81 And He Who Is The Establisher of Peace, He Who Is The Peace, El Salum.

82 The Loving, El A'ashug, The One and Only Sustainer of this solar system, soon to become a tri-solar system, in preparation for the Elders' arrival. The other suns are already on their way. One such brighter light or star, about 25,000 light years from Earth, has been seen in the direction of the Sagittarius constellation being named the Pistol Star which can not be seen with the naked eye because of dust clouds which absorb the visible light of stars. This sun is 10 million times as bright as the sun already existing in this solar system.

83 And when my soul has spoken unto me, and has confirmed in my heart and mind, Glory be to El Sabur the Patient, Selah.

84 Glory be to The Kind, El Latuf; Glory be to ANU, He Who Is The Giver, El Nafun.

85 Glory be to The Endower, El Wahub, Glory be He Who Is The Bestower, El Manuh.

86 Glory be He Who Is The Healer, El Shafuy.

87 Glory be to The First, El Wah.

88 Glory be to The Honorer, El Ma'uz,

Glory Be To The Supporter, El Tamul.

89 Glory be to ANU, He Who Is The Sufficient.

90 Glory be to A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, He Who Is The Protector.

91 Glory be to El Khabuk, He Who Is The Embracer, And glory be to The Helper; 92 And Glory Be to The One, El Wahed.

93 Glory be to The Only One;

94 And glory be to The Encourager, El Shaju'.

95 Glory be to The Benefactor, El Manun.

96 Glory be to The Enduring, El Baaguy.

97 Glory be to The Uplifter, El Rafur.

98 Glory be to The Light, El Nawur.

99 Glory be to El Yahuwa, he who is The Beneficent, El Jalul. Selah.

100 Glory be to The Supreme, El A'zum

101 Glory be to The Evident, El Zahur.

102 Being one of the Anunnagi, he is called ANU, The Source, who is the son of Anshar and Kishar; The chosen son who is The Faithful, El Amun-mul.

103 O ANUNNAGI, he who has descended into and around me, Guide me in all that I do.

104 Help me that I may help all humims.

105 Let me speak from your head and not from mine own. Let me care from your heart and not try to care from mine own.

106 Let me see from your eyes and not try to see from mine own.

107 I, Melchizedek, known in tones as Yaanuwn and El Qubt;

108 As Sayyid Issa Al Haadi Al Mahdi;

109 Amunnubi Rooakhptah;

110 Rabboni: Y'shua Bar El Haady;

111 Who is The Maku: Nayya: Malachizodok York-EL, of today;

112 I am to serve, not rule. Make me of the best of your servants.

113 I am sent to fix that which is broken.

114 I incarnate from time to time for those who are in need of my presence in the flesh. I am an ANUNNAGI, an ALUHUM, and Avatara, or Illah Mutajassid who you would simply call and known as an Angelic Being.

Tablet Two
The Beginning
(19 x 6 = 114)

Lo! In the very beginning was the word. Existence was this word, creation came after. Nothing would exist if ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, didn't create it. In order for ANU to create, he must have existed. If the Christians say that God is the creator of all things, or the Hebrews say that Yahweh is the creator of everything, or the Muslims say that Allah created everything, then Yahweh, Allah, or God must have existed, so there's existence before creation.

2 Nothing was created except by way of Allahu Akbar. He Allah, who originally was known as ANU and AN was and is and will be the intellect. "Intellect, intellectual, lect, lecture, the speaker of the word that exists in the beginning, or simply where things began from hydrogen, on through the elements. Overstanding these points where things sum up to something and existence, pre-dates creation, as darkness pre-dates light, as ether before the lightest hydrogen is weighed to have a sum and from ether on into triple darkness. The root of all thinking. That is: 1. The state of Quarks, the first degree of darkness, first degree of nothingness. 2. Biaps, the second degree of darkness, and 3. Zeles, the third degree of darkness. The weight or the sum of things or of a thing, pre-weight, nothingness, yet it exists. Knowing these truths is called Right Knowledge, Right Wisdom and the Right Overstanding.

3 He was not always the green solar light, but created himself into a green light to be witnessed of his creation as EL ELOH.

4 EL RABB, Sustainer of Glory, illuminating the green light of Miyka'El from himself to rule Malakuwt. So the green essence of presence was necessary for identity and that identity was Ruler. El Maluk, which is the 3rd point in existence, and the 3rd attribute of ALLAH, 1. El Rahmun, 2. El Rahum-mul, 3. El Maluk. MIYKA'EL, MURDUK being the highest of all the Rabbis of the Anunnagi, the Aluhum of the crystal essence which is the splendor of beauty. Light is a manifestation of energy detectable not speculated, but calculated. So ANU manifested himself, the unform-inform to be detectable and logged in what's called time and space, and that energy began as a light, a color in light, which is the presence of a sum. And the color green is growth, as in life through herbs, vegetation and trees of the land, and allergies of the seas. The color Green is conceived between the blue seas, water and the color yellow sun, rays, the fourth color of the prism, the fourth point in growth, or creation, the mental plane.

5 The crystal essence became divided into two parts; one was extremely pure and luminous, however, the other appeared to the vision of the intellect to be inferior to the first.

6 The first was called light; the pure green light, the light of the Anunnagi, Sarufaat, "Serapheem", those agreeable beings, growth.

7 And the second was called fire: the impure, amber light, the light of the Anunnagi, Garubaat "Cherubeem", those disagreeable beings, destruction, or consumption.

8 Of the first that is to come are the noble and superior individuals; the souls of El Nabuyaat, "the newsbearers", El Rasulaat, "the apostles", El Masuh, El Haduy, El Mujaddud, and the people of the right hand.

9 All agreeable things are created from the green light of the benevolent beings, Concealed. The Anunnagi Yahwehan, called simply YAH, Sarufaat, and did manifest green; but in time as the iron replaced the magnesium molecule in the blood, the pure melanin was lost. Thus, from green to rust your color did become.

10 Of the second, The Fire, was created, the malevolent beings, revealed, the illuminati which are the Jinns, Genie, the disagreeable Anunnagi, the disagreeable Yahwehan, called simply WEH, who are the Garubaat; a race of disagreeable Anunnagi, who were created before Kadmon, Zakar. These are followers of Tarnush or Shakhar, the Luciferian. One-third of these beings from Illyuwn were cast from their home in the 19th galaxy Illyuwn–where the AKASHA Records of all agreeable acts are kept; as opposed to Sijjiyn, where the AZIRIT Records of all disagreeable acts, are kept –to make a new home in the Orion star constellation, the disagreeable ones made their homes in Betelgeuse, Rigel and Bellatrix.

The Cycles

11 The first cycle was a dot in the universe. Then that dot became a line. The line became a wall. The wall became a square, the first dot split like a daughter cell, into 2, the second dot formed the circle, by completing 1 cycle around to itself. None knows, save itself, where the circle begins and ends. Then it began to spin, to form an orb, and thus 360° degrees of square and 360° degrees of circle. The circle was turned inside out and placed within the confines of the square. This was accomplished by first dividing the circle into 4 parts, geometry was created, and dimensions were formed. Geo=Qi, and Metry = Measure.

12 The square that you know on this plane, is not the same as its counterpart, on the "spiritual plane", and the "plane of force". These planes are not perceived by the ordinary human eye. The energy which was confined in the square tried to escape. It pushed upward, outward and downward. This constant friction generated heat to the degree that the square could no longer withstand, and an explosion of enormous force occurred. This event had not yet been manifested on the physical plane, as the birth of the universe -- the formation of stars, galaxies and planets, on the physical side. When energy beings manifest, ATUMS, they make up atoms, which then become compounds and elements as opposed to physical beings, ADAMS who manifest and make up cells, which becomes organisms and bodies.

13 When the Anunnagi, Aluhum of 360° degrees, split into two beings of 180° degrees each, meaning the disagreeable is on the outside; if the male child is agreeable, the female twin counterpart is disagreeable. If the female is agreeable, the male twin or counterpart is disagreeable.

14 The one must conquer the other, to become agreeable or to become a child of light, imperfection, that was clicked on in the darkness of perfection.

15 In this way, was the disagreeable being created, calling them twins. Every person born was a twin. One defeated the other and that is how each of you were born. This is called the concept of 'Survival of fittest'.

16 The concept of 'survival of the fittest' begins from the very moment sperm is ejaculated into the vaginal canal. Each of the 777,777,777 sperm cells are ejaculated and races to the ovum or egg of the female to fertilize it, and only one of the 777,777,777 sperm cells survives the journey beating our all the other sperm cells, in a Normal birth. Normally conception occurs when one egg released from a woman's ovary is fertilized by one male sperm. Seven out of ten pairs of twins result from the woman releasing two eggs, which are then fertilized quite independently by two sperms (fraternal twins). Usually the two eggs then implant and develop separately in the uterus. Less commonly one egg fertilized by one sperm divides, resulting in two developing babies with the same inherited characteristics (identical twins). Often this division occurs after implantation in the uterus.

17 Monozygotic, from the word mono, from the Middle English, from Old French, from Latin, from Greek, from monos, meaning "single, alone"; and zygote meaning "yoke", which is Derived from a single fertilized ovum or embryonic cell mass. This usually happens with identical twins, in which it occurs after fertilization, and often after implantation in the uterus. As a result, twins almost, always share a placenta, although each has its own cord and bag of water.

18 Fraternal births are, Dizygotic, meaning having two zygotes, di = "two" zygote, which is a cell formed by the union of two gametes, especially a fertilized ovum before cleavage. From Greek zugotos, yoked, from zugoun, meaning "to yoke" deriving from two separately fertilized eggs. There are also polyzygotic fraternal twins, from the word poly, Greek polu-, from polus, meaning "much, many", and again zygotic, from "zygote", which are births that are caused by fertility drugs. They arise from 2 or more fertilized eggs, and may be from either sex. Fraternal twins have separate water bags and cords, and separate placentas as well. Occasionally, the two eggs implant close together in the uterus, so that the placentas become fused and it looks as though the twins are sharing the same one.

19 So each time an agreeable Anunnagi was born, whether male or female, his/her twin was to be disagreeable. The creation of the Luciferian's order, or Jinn, Genie was the end of the first cycle.

20 The beginning of the second cycle was a half diameter of 7,000 years, in which you have what you call the Angelic Beings; be they agreeable Sarufaat, or disagreeable Garubaat.

21 They, the race of the Naatas, were cast down from the fourth plane, the mental plane and made to dwell on the second plane, the plane of force, before their physical form.

22 EL ELOH, The Source, gave them rule in comfort until the end of the second cycle, or the 14,000th year after their creation.

23 At the beginning of the 3rd cycle, which took 7,000 years, you have the disagreeable Weh (Garubaat) and the agreeable Yah (Sarufaat), both of which are called the Yahwehan or Jehovans, and you also have the process of the Adamites, of the 14 generations, before the completion of the Adama project in the laboratory in Cydonia, called Shimti, "the Lahmu (Mars) project", or the Sphinx project. This genetic breeding and splicing, chromosome tampering is that, which gave birth to Kadmon, called also Zakar, and even Adam. These Yahwehan or Jehovans were both personifying into the physical form to come to the Planet Earth as physical beings, for there was no place found anymore for them in the fourth plane, "the heavens". For when the Wehans heard the news of the creation of the Adama project, and the prototype that was laid before them, they created much war and mischief in the heavens. This war is recorded in the scripture, Revelation 12 degree, 7th verse as: "And there was war in heaven: Murduk and his Sarufaat fought against the Drago Haylal; and his Garubaat, and the Sarufaat did win, so there was no place found there anymore in Ouranos, "Orion" for them. And the great Drago, who was Haylal son of Shakhar was cast out, that old Reptilian, called the Devil, and the serpent which deceiveth the whole planet Earth. He was cast out into the Earth, and his Garubaat did personify with him."

24 After that, the Naatas began to do disagreeable acts and disobey EL ELOH, the head Yahweh, The Most High Deity, of all the Deities, The Source, and he condemned them. Naatas, also called Lucifer, was an extra being on Terra, or what you refer to as Extra-Terra-Astral, or Extraterrestrial.

25 The Luciferian order came out of a group of extraterrestrial beings called the Yahwehs, sometimes called the Jehovahs. The Luciferians would interfere with the beings on this planet called Earth, and pass themselves off as Gods.

26 The Luciferians, after taking their independence were allowed to work with the Yahwehans, together at one time to conquer certain portions of this planet. But, one such Luciferian, named Haylal, son of Naatas or Shakhar, wanted to rule all the stars of the heavens, meaning all the Yahwehs.

27 Leviathan, the serpent people, one of the Reptilian seeds, or the Luciferians, have been trying to gain control over this planet for many thousands of Earth years. They are called the Sex Spirit Force, also called Pornay. They are able to seduce and deceive all those with desires on Earth, turning lust to luster;

28 Thereby, attracting and controlling all with it, as Nekaybaw was seduced by the Leviathan powers of lust. It is the death of divinity and the birth of mortality.

29 That's why the Intergalactic Confederation quarantined the planet. If enough entities were looking for freedom, from the control of the Luciferians, the Intergalactic Confederation would remove these forces from the Earth.

30 Yet, Humims love to lust and lust to love, expressing energy in motion, overexerting their emotions, bringing about their spiritual death.

31 There is a group called the Satanists who are not the same as the Luciferians. Their other names are the Divines, or Nakhashites, or Khanaas.

32 These Satanists are more sadistic than the Luciferians, whose leader was Lucifer also called Naatas, which is simply Saatan spelled backwards. They are also called Shayaatiynihim.

33 They have supplanted themselves in every facet of life that you can think of and now they have you naming yourselves after them.

34 The Satanists seek mind control and dominance, while the Luciferians seek to control the energies of others. They are best described as vampires who draw energy from others, also called Dracula, Dracos, Dragos or Serpent Dragons called Leviathan.

35 These Luciferians are from a planet called Maldek, the eleventh planet. This planet called Earth, even has Luciferians and Yahwehans, and some of them are disagreeable Aluhum. They don't usually work together. However, they will come together if there are common interests.

36 The Yahwehans were the original 24

Elders. There were 12 Ex-Luciferians, the dissatisfied. The other twelve were agreeable DINNEERS. That's why you have 12 satisfied and 12 dissatisfied.

37 Shakhar, who is also called Humbaba, or Zuen and Tarnush subjected all of them, the Jehovans, called Luciferians, to the chastisement of eternal damnation, except for the weak ones of the family of ALUHUM.

38 These, he has pardoned and has appointed one of them, Halaishi, to be their governor, and he granted them a new law called "Religion." It was other than NUWAUBU, Sound Right Reasoning.

39 When the cycle elapsed, the wicked sons of Shakhar, or Tarnush blasphemed and committed disagreeable acts because their nature was intended to recalcitrant, or to show defiance.

40 ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, The Most High, sent MURDUK, the son of Enqi and Damkina, who is called MIYKA'EL, and the agreeable beings to admonish them and advise them. However, it was in vain.

41 MURDUK was sent because he knew their nature, having been the disagreeable twin to his sister BAALAT, who was agreeable.

42 So, in the beginning of the 4th cycle of 7,000 years, you have SARUFAAT, GARUBAAT, and HUMIMS, later called Humans; be they agreeable or disagreeable. You see, the cycle is broken up into fours.

43 When these disagreeable beings were cast out, 1/3rd of them were cast out from the 19th galaxy, Illyuwn with Tarnush.

44 Now, you have the sun and you have the 10 planets. Planets speed up when they get closer to the sun. The ancient Greeks called certain points of light in the skies the planetai or planet, a word that means "wandering stars" and named them after their gods: Hermes, Aphrodite, Ares, Zeus, Chronos.

45 Instead of using the names of the Greek gods, these planets are now called by the names of the equivalent Roman gods: Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn. Planets shine by reflected light.

46 The planets in your solar system are captives of your largest star, the sun. Like the planets, the Earth gives off no light of its own. When a planet shines brightly during the shadow hours, it is reflecting the sun's light. These 10 planets are: Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Titan, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto; which are your calculations of the planets. However, you shall know the truth.

47 Now let me continue. You have the Sun and the planets Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto.

48 Earth is the third planet from the sun, which is 93 million miles away; and the 93rd attribute of Allah is EL NAWUR, meaning "The Light." He is called the light of the Heaven and the Earth, which is the Sun, the true light of the Heaven and the Earth. Simply Ra or Re, said Ray as in sun's Rays.

49 The sun is the light, the 93rd attribute, and the number 93 million miles is the distance, and this is no coincidence. The sun is the "Bright Morning Star" which the planet Venus is also known as. Venus is often referred to as a "star" on account of its dense atmosphere of carbon dioxide, which reflects solar radiation and causes a very bright visual effect.

50 The circumference of the planet Earth, which is the circle around it, is 24,896 miles.

51 That varies because as you know, your planet expands and contracts seasonally.

52 There is a universal equinox and an Earthly equinox; equinox simple being when the length of day and shadow hour are equal coming from Latin aequinoctium: aequi-, equi- + nox, noct-, "night".

53 The planet Earth goes around the sun, called solar, from the Latin word sol, meaning "sun", and Ar, from the Hittite deity Arinna, "goddess of the sun", which is the center of this solar system, in 365 Earth days.

54 This varies because the hours in a day are not really 24, but rather 23 hours, 56 minutes, and 6 seconds. You would calculate that as one day, when in reality it varies.

55 The moon moves around the planet 354 Earth days. Again, the Moon's cycle varies, and you call that one lunar year.

56 So now, you have this motion of the Moon around the planet, and your planet around the Sun.

57 You have this whole galaxy or solar system, central solar, with systematic bodies moving around it.

58 It moves around a larger mass every 24,000 years. Of course, that varies in an equinox. And you have the Precession of the equator needle. It spins one complete circle every 26,000 year on its axis. Precession is the motion of the axis of a spinning body, such as the wobble of a spinning top, when there is an external force acting on the axis. It's a slow gyration of Earth's axis around the pole of the ecliptic, caused mainly by the gravitational pull of the sun, moon, and other planets on Earth's equatorial bulge. From the Late Latin praecessus, praecession-, from Latin praecessus, past participle of praecedere, meaning "to go before".

59 Your equinox varies from 24,000, to 24,896 years.

60 The planet called Earth positioned itself in the location of the revolution of Earth in the year 1970 A.D., which was the end of the 3rd cycle, as you know it.

61 The end of the moon cycle of water and the birth of the Sun cycle of ether. Which was also the beginning of this writing, which was sent to renew your Earth's story. Make note that there is no such word as Their-story, only History, "HIS-STORY," which he says of us, and Mystery "MY-STORY", which we say of us. When the Euro-American is making reference to the story of the original woolly haired beings, Moors, they refer to it as History, meaning "his-story." And when making reference to their story, it's called a Mystery "my-story", because they really don't have a beginning in the origin of things.

Be not arrogant of our knowledge. Take counsel with the ignorant as well as with the wise. For the limits of knowledge in any field has never been set and no one has ever reached them. Wisdom is rarer than emeralds, and yet they are found amongst the women who gather at the grindstones. Be diligent as long as you live, always doing more than is commanded of you.

Do not misuse your time while following your heart, for it is offensive to the soul to waste one's time.

62 As you can see, the wise Rizqiyians, the Anunnagi, have made land to equal 1 mile per year; and the circumference of the planet Earth is 24,896 miles. It takes 24,896 years for that cycle to take place.

63 The wise round the figure off into 4 cycles of 6,000 years, which you call one equinox, an age.

64 The other years are in constant speed in movement of the planet, making it right and exact!

65 They, the Elders, have made land 1 mile to equal each year, of which time is to renew our history, or OUR-STORY.

66 What happens is we have 4 cycles of 6,000 years in this cycle called an equinox; 24,000 thus, you will see the single cycle is gone, and now we're into the quad cycle. Overstand That!! Then we have an epoch of 50,000 years.

67 By that, I mean the quad cycle, which is this: assuming your sun and your planet is moving, it doesn't move perfectly around. It moves in an egg-shaped motion, an oval.

68 It is broken up into points 1, 2, 3, and 4.

69 There are two points where the planet is far away from the sun, called solstices which mark the two times when the sun is seen during the day the longest and the shortest times of the year with sol relating to the sun.

70 Thus, you have four seasons: 1. winter, 2. spring, 3. summer, and 4. fall, called the seasons, sea-sons, the child of the sea, who lived here before Adam's creation. They live beneath the sea called the deep, and watched the Aluhum create and make that which was good, all determined by the water. Thus, you have sea-sons, sons of the sea. Humims are also a sea people living in an atmosphere of air, which is water. First, from the water of semen, sea-men, to the sack of the womb, to the atmosphere of air, which is water and the humim body which is 3/4th water, the 4 sons of water.

71 Now, that is just the planet and its motion around the Sun.

72 But note when we take your solar system and cause it to revolve around a larger mass, the universe, there are also 4 periods.

73 The furthest periods from the Sun are called Silver Periods, or the Silver Ages.

74 That is the Moon cycle. You have 2 Silver or Moon cycles.

75 Because of the magnetic pull that the sun has, the Earth's ecliptic motion speeds up and slows down and is ecliptic or the great annual path of the sun as seen from the Earth.

76 Your planet is not going around and around, at the same speed as you may think.

77 You will see that each one of these periods, because of the number 24, has been divided into four 6,000 year cycles.

78 The first 6,000 year period was from the first Silver Moon cycle, which was the first cycle that the Earth was furthest away from the sun, 79 To the first gold sun cycle, which was the first cycle that the Earth was closest to the sun.

80 The second 6,000 year period was from the first gold sun to the second silver moon.

81 The third 6,000 year period is from the second silver moon to the second gold sun,

82 And the fourth and final 6,000 year period is going to be from the second gold sun, back to the beginning, the very first silver moon. From light back to the pure supreme balancement of blackness.

83 In the fourth cycle, The Luciferian race made war upon the Anunnagi of the pure green light.

84 The Anunnagi, Aluhum triumphed over the race of Jinn, as ANU had done over his brother, ALALU, who descended to the seventh, the blue planet inward, then called Tiamat, and after his defeat, ANU ascended unto the throne of Nibiru. MURDUK captured one of the Jinn who was under the age of maturity named Balus (Ibliys), meaning "despaired or rebellious one."

85 His other name was Lucifer, being the liberated Luciferian.

86 Balus was educated amongst the ANUNNAGI, and he improved by degrees, so much that he was honored and made a teacher of the ANUNNAGI.

87 You must remember that Lucifer, being one of the most rare Luciferians, was almost all in all polarized, meaning he had 2 conflicting natures, being part ANUNNAGI and part REPTILIAN.

88 Lucifer was a product of a mixed marriage, being the son of the two beings. The Reptilian, Tarnush raped the Anunnagi Mylitta, which made Lucifer part REPTILIAN and part ANUNNAGI.

89 This is why he was called the serpent that spoke beside the tree in the Enclosed Garden of Delight, located in what is called Baali today.

90 Thus, there were beings who appeared to have a compromising attitude or personality.

91 Yet, it was Lucifer who appeared to be headstrong, and have a disagreeable nature and an uncompromising attitude or personality.

92 However, from his loins came Jabbarians, called Gibborim, the Majestic, Mighty Ones.

93 The strength of the Luciferians made them able to better deceive the seed of Adam by their physical human-like appearance.

94 He, Balus, aspired to become the guiding light, the ruler, the Sultan of all the stars of the heaven, the Prince of the Garub (Cherub) in his heart.

95 He sought the very throne of ANU. ANU reigned over a court of great splendor. It was a place with an artificial garden sculpted with semiprecious stones. There, ANU resided with his wife and half sister ANTUM/ANTU, 6 concubines, 80 children, of which 14 were by ANTUM, 1 Prime Minister, 3 Commanders in charge of the MU "rocketships", 2 Commanders of the Weapons, two Great Masters of Written Knowledge, 1 Minister of the Purse, 2 Chief Justices, 2 Chief Scribes and 5 Assistant Scribes. All of which Balus wanted to rule.

96 Balus was called Samael in short, with the vapor of self complacency and conceit, which is the real nature of Balus.

97 Next, he wanted to scale the skies to try to control and rule all of the stars, YAHWEHANS, the Angelic Hosts of the heavens.

98 Very often, he would incite unnecessary arguments, pretending about his excellence by means of deceitful illusions and diabolical stratagems.

99 Once, some of the company of the agreeable ANUNNAGI were going to have a look at the preserved Tablet, The Holiest of Holy Scriptures,

100 Upon which contained the record of the past and the future, called the MUNIYR, 'Illuminated Records" or the "AKASHA Records.'

101 On their return, Balus perceived marks of grief on their foreheads and asked them for the cause of the grief.

102 They replied: "This day we have obtained the information from The Tablet that one of The ANUNNAGI, Garubaat (Cherubeem) "Those Who Are Near" the companions of MIYKA'EL, meaning "who dares to be like el" of the mansion of the eternal, shall soon be afflicted with rejection and everlasting damnation.

103 Everyone is afraid for his own sake and we request you to pray that the guardian ANUNNAGI, may allow none of us to fall into this misfortune. We are very much terrified and dismayed."

104 Then Balus answered them saying: "Let not this even disturb you, for that judgment refers neither to you nor to me.

105 I have years ago, been aware of it, and have not communicated it to anyone." The pride and arrogance of Balus did not allow him to weigh the words of the ANUNNAGI.

106 At that time, the blessed proclamation reached the hearing of the inhabitants. The echo of the success of Kadmon, Zakar, reached their ears.

107 On hearing the news, their depression was ejaculating from them, and that permeated their being, from the kindled anger of the unhallowed, disagreeable doer, Balus.

108 He spoke saying: "How can mortals, created of dust, claim to be a being of superiority and I am created before him, of fire from the previous sun cycle?"

109 So the ANUNNAGI, having guessed the event to come from the sons of Tarnush, said to El Eloh: "Will you make a mischief maker in it, one who shall shed blood?"

110 This was repeated by the Cuthites on the planet Earth.

111 By the command of ANU, El Eloh, by MURDUK, son of Enqi and Damkina, and grandson of ANU, who would descend to the fourth plane, advised and warned the race of Naatas, who had gone astray from the straight path.

112 This took place before the physical war was waged with them. It was a mental war.

113 The agreeable ANUNNAGI were victorious.

114 This, however, would not be the last time that the forces of benevolent, agreeable and disagreeable, malevolent would do battle.

Tablet Three
The Story Of Lucifer
(19 x 1 = 19)

Lo! O my children, let me warn you about Lucifer and his host.

2 Do not fall into the delicacies of Lucifer and his host.

3 Oh you who are of the faithful, reject Lucifer and his companions.

4 He, Lucifer, comes in many forms to trick and deceive you, the faithful ones.

5 Lucifer, the evil Reptilian who is also called Haylal, or Sama'El, was number three of his order.

6 When he was commissioned by MURDUK, he was designated as one of the one hundred most able and brilliant personalities,

7 In more than 700,000 of his kind.

8 However, from such a magnificent beginning, through evil and error, he encouraged disagreeable acts.

9 Lucifer was so self-nourished to the point of self-deception,

10 That he actually persuaded himself that his contemplation of rebelliousness was actually for the good of the system, if not of the universe.

11 Lucifer became insincere, and evil evolved into deliberate and willful, disagreeable acts.

12 Lucifer believed that the universal father did not exist, and that physical gravity and space-energy were inherent in the universe.

13 He believed that the Sustainer was a myth that was invented by the Sarufaat, to enable them to maintain the rule of the universes in their Father's name.

14 Lucifer believed that the universal system should be autonomous or self-governing and independent.

15 He protested against the right of Murduk, who also bore the title MIYKA'EL " Who Dares To Be Like El?", the grandson of the Most High ANU, "The Heavenly One."

16 He was willing to acknowledge MURDUK as his creator-father, but not as his rightful ruler.

17 He had claimed that the whole plan of worship, was a clever scheme to glorify the Aluhum.

18 He had totally rebelled against the order of ANU, The Most High; The Highest, and caused mischief and war in the heavens.

19 This was not the first war. The first war was with his father Humbaba, or Tarnush, against MURDUK.

Tablet Four
The War In The Skies
(19 x 3 = 57)

Lo! The first conflict was in the skies of Illyuwn, the nineteenth galaxy, also called The Great Galaxy, known as the place "On High," where the etheric records called "AKASHA" are kept.

2 The first conflict was when Tarnush, also known as Humbaba, son of Taaghuwt and Sin tried to take over ILLYUWN. Balus wanted to rule all the stars and the ANUNNAGI of the skies.

3 Tarnush was second in command under MURDUK, son of Enqi and Damkina. Tarnush felt that MURDUK was not qualified for leading the fleets of his grandfather, ANU.

4 During this time, the planet Titan, which is considered a moon of the planet Saturn, was a home base of Humbaba who was called Krunus, and Saturn, husband of Ops, companion of the fire goddess, Lua, father of Picus.

5 His reigning period was called Saturnalia, and to this day, it's celebrated between December 17th and December 25th. Those under Krunus were claiming ANSHAR -- "foremost of heavens," which is today called Saturn; which was the astrological sign of ANSHAR, father of ANU--as their home base.

6 The Ringed Planet named Saturn rotates very quickly; it takes 10 hours and 40 minutes for it to turn once on its axis. Saturn bulges even more at its equator than Jupiter. Saturn has a very deep atmosphere, which is made up mainly of Hydrogen and Helium, with some Methane and Ammonia. At the top of its atmosphere, the temperature is about -300° Fahrenheit. This low temperature causes Ammonia in the outer atmosphere to freeze, forming high-altitude haze.

7 More and more space probes from NASA are being sent into space, due to the curiosity of Mankind. They are trying to re-discover what took place long ago in the heavens.

8 Space probes to Saturn are being sent to various planets and moons such as the Cassini that was sent in 1997 A.D. filled with 72 pounds of highly radioactive plutonium. The probe being named after Giovanni Domenico Cassini, an Italian-born French astronomer.

9 The planet Titan was the home base of the disagreeable Anunnagi, which were divided into 12 continents, the Greeks named them, 1. Oceanus, 2. Creus, 3. Coeus, 4. Iapetus, 5. Cronus, 6. Hyperion, 7. Rhea, 8. Mnemosyne, 9. Theia, 10. Themis, 11. Tethys, 12. Phoebe. The disagreeable Anunnagi made Titan an alternative, when they were cast out, and the capital was Phoebe, from whence you get the word phobia, a irrational fear of a specific thing or situation, to avoid, or a dislike, or aversion. The space satellite Phobos, of Mars was also named after the 12th continent Phoebe of Titan. This is the mystical 12 tribes of Israel, the 12 tribes of Ishmael, the 12 signs of the zodiac under their Olympian deities, Zeus as Jesus, born in the 12th month of the Gregorian calendar with 12 disciples, who becomes Ja-zeus, and Ya-shua to Ya-hova. However, Some of these disagreeable Anunnagi took residence on one of the 3 continents of the planet RIZQ, the continent called ZARANTU. They were restricted from visiting the other 2 continents, DARNURIYYA and KUSMUSTA without a Rizqiyian escort. There was immigration laws set up. However, RIZQIYIANS can visit all 3 continents unescorted. Zarantu was under the command of Tarnush, who wanted total control of RIZQ. However, Murduk was chosen by ANU to lead the fleets, and this caused a disagreement between MURDUK and Tarnush. ANU'S decision for MURDUK to lead ANU'S fleets, caused that disagreement between Murduk and Tarnush, which caused a small war and a clash on the planet RIZQ, which comes from the word Razaqa, meaning "to provide."

10 Tarnush, also known as Humbaba attacked the planet RIZQ with a shield depleter, Aer·o·sol, A gaseous suspension of fine solid or liquid particles. This substance, can today be found in such produce as paint, detergent, or an insecticide, packaged under pressure with a gaseous propellant for release as a spray of fine particles. Today the children of the Luciferians are using the same tactics here on earth to deplete the ozone, or shield of this planet. The aerosol bomb of Tarnush comes from the root word Aero- or aer- simply "Air; atmosphere": aeroballistics and a Gas: aerosol. From the Greek word, for aer, meaning "air" and the word Sol, meaning "sun". So, you get air "O" for Omega "ending", and Sol, "sun". Just like the destruction of the atmosphere and of the suns of Rizq, this same epidemic is also being done here on earth. This aerosol bomb of Tarnush caused the natural atmosphere of RIZQ to deplete.

11 The RIZQIYIANS had no protection from the damaging rays of the three Suns.

12 The atmosphere was dwindling away and many RIZQIYIANS departed to other galaxies.

13 The rays from the three suns UTU, SHAMASH, and AFSU had put a hole in our Ozone Layer, as you have now a hole in your ozone layer over Australia expanding daily.

14 RIZQ, the 8th planet, was the heart and source of that Tri-Solar System, and thus, was the most affected, As earth is the heart of this Solar System.

15 All 3 suns have a magnetic pull that causes a tighter, and heavier rotation of its planets.

16 The energy field on RIZQ was starting to increase and the hole was starting to lose its color.

17 So the RIZQIYIANS needed to build a protection, a dome of gold dust to protect the planet from the damaging ultraviolet rays. Gold reflects the sun's rays. Pure gold can easily be beaten or hammered to a thickness of 0.000005 inches and 1.02 ounces or simply, thinner than paper and can be stretched for more than 60 miles long. It can be made thinner than any metal. This is one of the reasons why gold is a very precious metal and is greatly valued by humims today.

18 It is one of the softest metals, and it is a good conductor of electricity and heat, and it can be easily vaporized better than any metal. Gold is also capable of reflecting intense heat and holds up under any condition. Having this and much more advanced knowledge about pure gold, other metals, and minerals, the RIZQIYIANS knew exactly what they were coming for. Gold having existed since the creation of the planet Earth as you know it, can be found deep in the Earth's crust, volcanic ash as well as in the vast oceans of this planet. ANU and the other Aluhum knew that the gold of this Earth was good long before the birth of man.

19 The RIZQIYIANS had to abort RIZQ and go to KESUL/Orion, which is a six star, six major sun constellation, thus having hundreds of galaxies. The RIZQIYIANS took residence in the planets and star constellations of MAZZOROTH, 'AYISH/Arcturus, and KAMUH/Pleiades, making them also temporary homes. Exploration was necessary. Thus, the grafting of explorers became a necessity.

20 This need gave birth to RUMARDIANS. Later to become known as Greys. These extraterrestrial biological entities, E.B.E's, were grafted from various extraterrestrial species. They were emotionless and without reproductive capabilities.

21 They served but one purpose, and that is as explorers and worthy servants. Their explorations took them to LAHMU, called Mars, and SHESHQI, called the Moon, where plans for the construction of cylinder crafts, called SHAMS were built. This took place after the collision with the crafts of the Ninga fleet, also known as the four winds.

22 They transported gold dust to the moon, then to NIBIRU, and from there on to the planet RIZQ. When this job

Figure 5
A Cylinder Shaped Craft

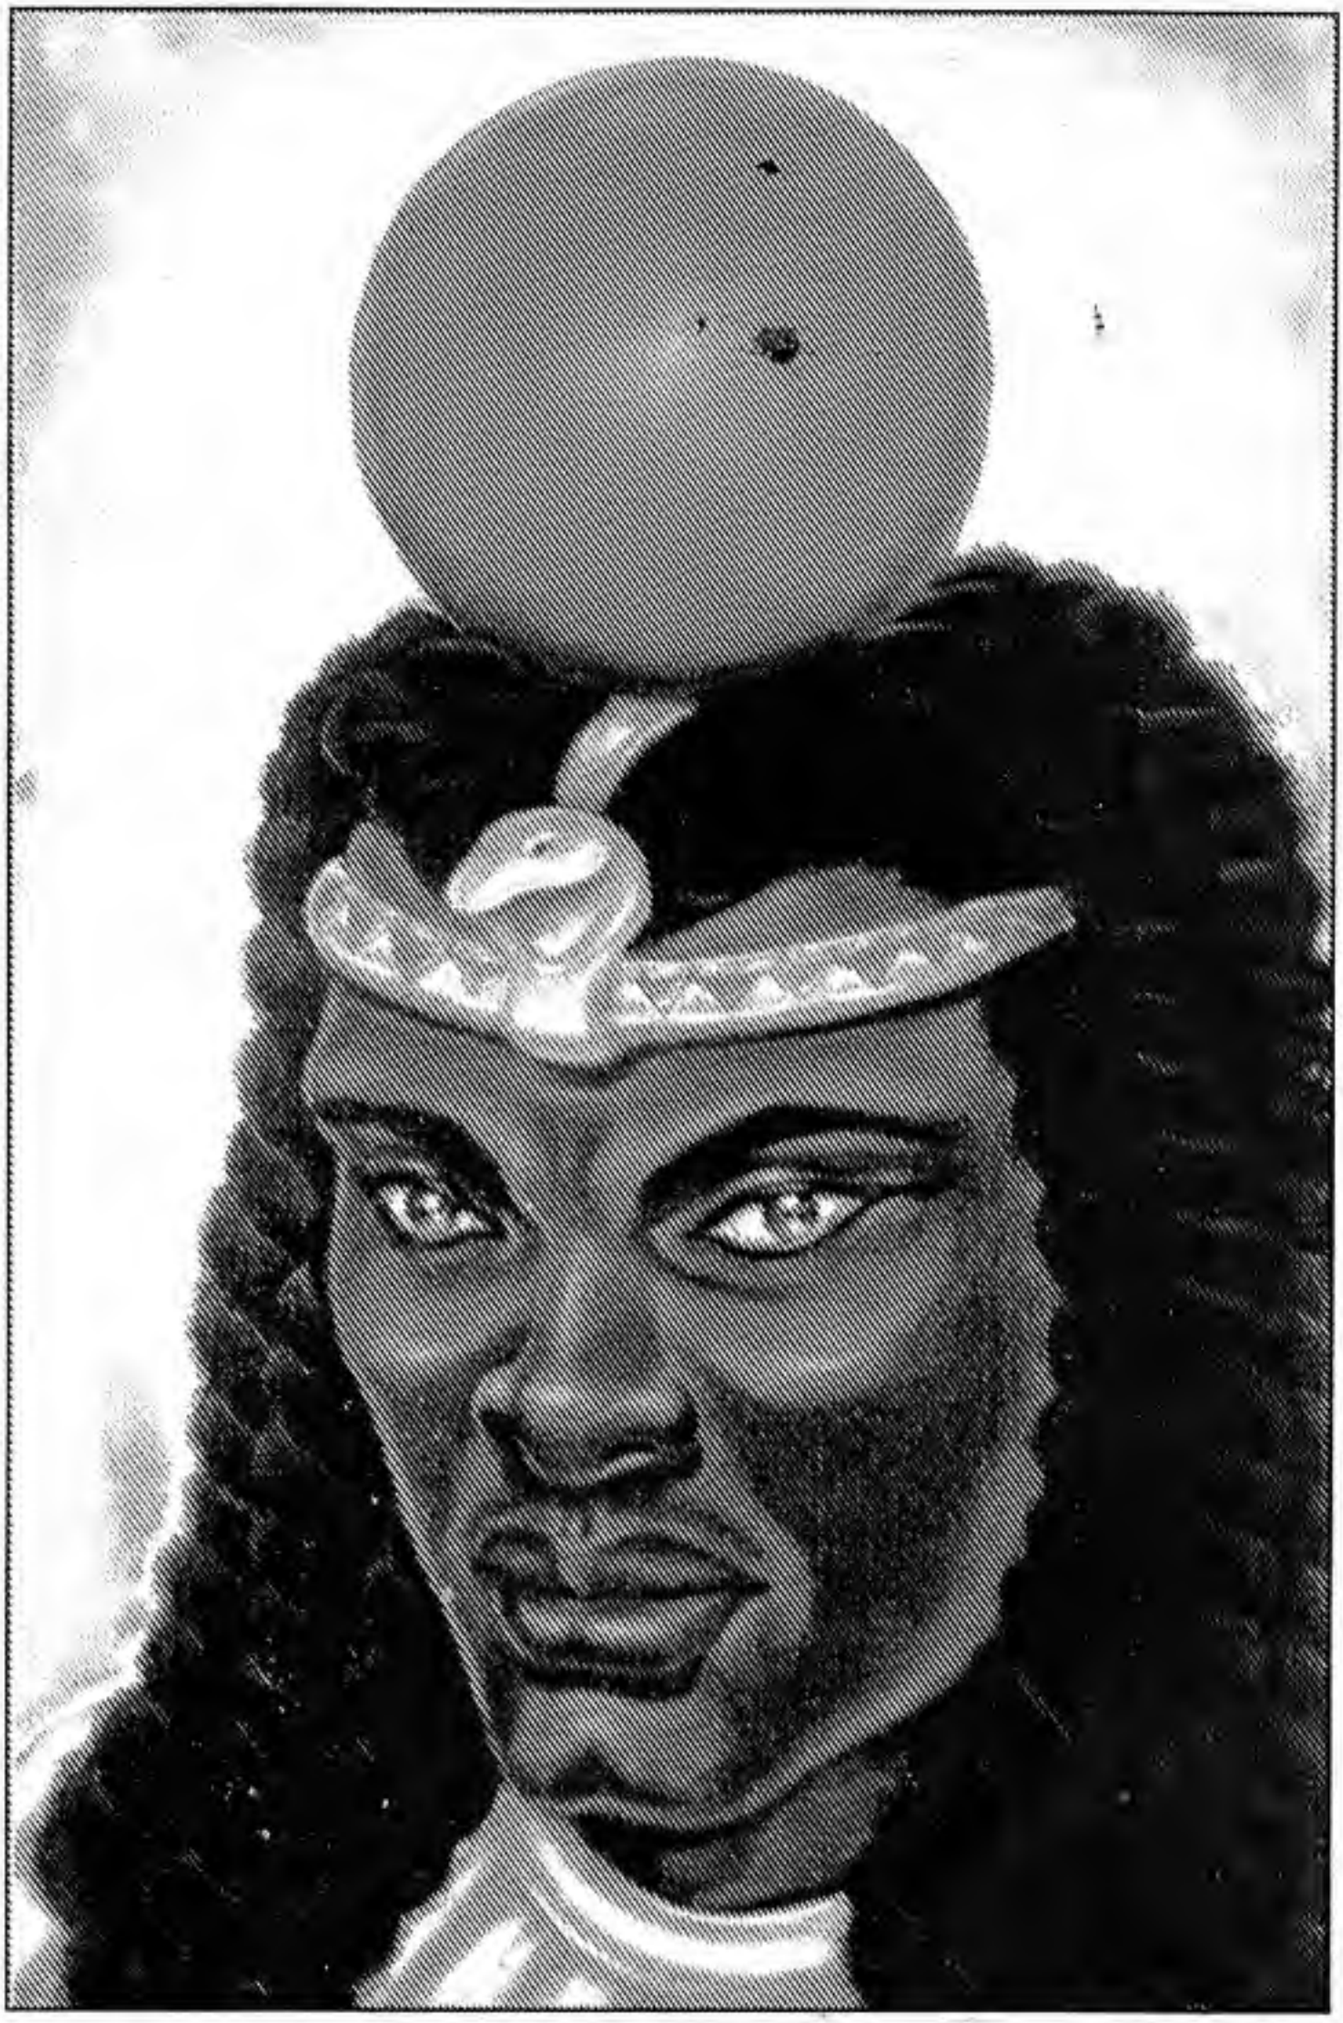

Figure 6
The Egyptian Deity Ra, Whose Symbol Is The Ram

was completed, these beings were given their freedom.

23 They chose Pleiades and Arcturus as their home. Malevolent Luciferian-type Reptilians chose to conquer them, and enslave them by performing biological experiments, thereby creating hybrids of them, and they used them as explorers to this planet, and they still control some of them to this very day.

24 Those that took their freedom, resided in the Canis Major star constellation near SEPT, also called SOTHIS, which is Sirius, the dog star, having two major and six minor suns–Zeta Reticuli, just south of the Orion Belt.

25 They, these Greys, sought union with the beings of Earth, having a common enemy. Lucifer, who controls 70 of their empires.

26 As a great warrior, the RIZQIYIANS engaged MURDUK'S services. They needed somebody who was a warrior type to go and seek out the gold and transport it by NIBIRU to RIZQ.

27 The RIZQIYIANS were being ambushed by Reptilians;

28 And at that time, MURDUK was a disagreeable YAHWEHAN or what you would call a warrior.

29 So he was chosen to lead this mission, which first had to be started by attacking Humbaba.

30 MURDUK was given the Tillu weapon, a red beam of light, or a light beam ray gun, from the gem stone, Sardius; a laser that was created by his grandfather ANU to stop Tarnush in his disagreeable ways. He succeeded in his mission.

31 The gold was being transported by cylinder-shaped crafts 30 to 60 miles in size.

32 They were assembled on LAHMU, Mars, and parked on the dark side of SHESHQI, the Moon.

33 The smaller crafts were 1 1/2 mile by 2 miles.

34 They had Androids, called Robotoids, that would scout out the minerals of the planet controlled by the RUMARDIANS.

35 So, Humbaba and his followers who supported him, which was one-third of RIZQ, were cast out, and was never to return there.

36 Humbaba had taken residence in the planet Titan, which is considered a Moon of Saturn, with a breed of Reptilian beings. The largest of Saturn's 18 known satellites is Titan. The diameter of Titan, including its atmosphere is 3,400 miles. This satellite in your solar system has a thick atmosphere and is about two and one-half times as dense as that of the Earth. Titan's atmosphere is mostly Nitrogen, with small amounts of Methane and other Hydrogen compounds.

37 They, Humbaba and his followers, were Mammalia, Any of various warm-blooded reptile animals of the class of Mammals, from Late Latin mammalis, of the breast, from Latin mamma, meaning "breast". This mixture bred human looking snakes called Serpents; people who speak with a whisper.

38 Because of the damage that Tarnush had done to the planet RIZQ, the RIZQIYIANS started expeditions looking for gold.

39 MURDUK and a group of the

ANUNNAGI were chosen to seek this gold, which they knew could be found in abundance on the planet TIAMAT, meaning "Maiden Of Life."

40 They made many trips in a mother craft called NIBIRU, which means "planet of the crossing" or "that which crosses the skies."

41 So MURDUK found minerals on TIAMAT, and he set up a base on LAHMU, meaning "deity of war," today called Mars.

42 He also went on the dark side of SHESHQI," where people had already lived under the rule of Luna or Lunar, who originally came from Gaga, "Pluto".

43 The planet GAGA, 'Pluto' at the time was a emissary of Anshar/Saturn before it was thrown into its own wobbling orbit when one of the satellites of Nibiru crashed into the planet Tiamat, now called Earth. Those were some of the planets that were on Nibiru's regular routes.

44 The planet TIAMAT was a regular stop off as well, along with the planet Mars, which to the Romans is known as the father of Romulus and Remus. He was the consort of Rhea Sylvia, god of war; originally called Mars Sylvanus, god of desolate places.

45 Sylvanus was symbolized as a half-man and half-goat the Father of War, symbolic of the ancient Egypt deity Ra, -the symbol of the ram, deity of the sun, fertility, of life, and growth, which is pronounced as ray, as in the rays of the sun.

46 The reverse of the word Mars is 'Rams,' and the inversion of the word Mars is 'wars' - a symbol of blood, called the Red Planet; also called Al Mirrikh, the long arrow symbol of war. Other names for it, is Al Khunnas and Bahraam.

47 Mars Data: Distance from The Sun = 142,000,000 million miles. Diameter = 40,022 miles. The time Mars takes to orbit the Sun = 680 days. The time Mars spends on its axis = 24 hours 37 minutes and 3 seconds. It tilts on an axis of 25.2 degrees.

48 Mars shines in the sky with a reddish color and it is sometimes called the Red Planet. The orbit of Mars is more oval than that of the Earth. Mars' thin atmosphere is made up almost entirely of Carbon Dioxide.

49 Temperatures at the planet's equator may occasionally reach 60° Fahrenheit, however during the shadow hours, temperatures can drop to nearly -202° Fahrenheit. Tons and tons of rocket fuel could be synthesized out of Mar's air, making traveling to and from Mars even easier than trips to the Moon.

50 The Martian soil also contains an abundance of Gypsum, which can be baked by adding some Martian water and iron-rich dust. On Earth, this is cement.

51 It has 2 moons: one called 'Phobos' - 19 miles at its widest points, and it circles its planet at a distance of 2,462 miles. Phobos completes its orbit in about 7.5 hours, which is less time than it takes Mars to turn once on its axis. The other, 'Deimos,' is 12 miles at its widest points. It circles Mars at a distance of 14,700 miles.

52 Both Phobos and Deimos were born by meteorites, captured as asteroids in its orbit.

53 Here, you will find prototypes of Homo Sapiens.

54 Thus, the word parthenogenetic, which explains that this site, where there are pyramids, and ruins of temples of the Anunnagi, were used for the cloning of Homo Erectus to Homo Sapiens, called the Adama Project.

55 This is where the face of Kadmon can be found.

56 Today, the site is called Siddoneeah, or Cydonia from Sidon, the first son of Canaan, father of the Albinos, the cursed seed of Ham. Sidon is, and means, "the fortress," and is fortified. His wife was Ginna.

57 This is why today astronomers are interested in the planet Mars, because they have discovered that life existed there before, and that there is a possibility that they might be able to bring human life to that planet again with its Martian atmosphere.

Tablet Five
The Journey Of Nibiru
(19 x 7 = 133)

Lo! The planet Tiamat was a site used for excavating different metals, elements, and minerals such as: Plutonium, Chlorine, Chlorophyll, Ammonia, Gold, Platinum, and Silver;

2 As well as scanning the ocean floors for other elements that were beneficial to these beings in the other planets.

3 In the depths of the oceans of this planet Earth, are some of the most valuable resources for human life, such as food, such as Kelp, different types of fish, and energy sources, such as Iodine.

4 In these waters are an abundance of dissolved gases such as Nitrogen, Carbon Dioxide and Oxygen.

5 Other substances are Nitrates, phosphates which are needed by plants for photosynthesis.

6 Silicon dioxide is necessary in building of skeletal material in some marine organisms.

7 Remaining elements that are essential to marine life include iron, Manganese, Cobalt, and Copper.

8 Several mineral resources lie on the ocean floor and in solution above it such as Salt, Magnesium, and Bromine.

9 Sea water contains all the dissolved substances necessary for the growth of plant and animal life.

10 Other beings know of these resources and thus they have made many visits, taking what they excavated back to their homes, and they continue to make visits to this planet, and even live under the seas.

11 Tiamat was also used as a hunting ground and resort.

12 Beings would intergalactically travel from planet to planet, doing what was called "Planetary Shopping."

13 Some of the planets in this galaxy were most frequently visited because life existed there in various forms were:

14 Lahmu meaning "deity of war," now called Mars, Kishar, meaning "foremost of the firmlands," now called Jupiter; including many others in Orion's, meaning "skies or heaven," six star-sun constellation;

15 Kamuh meaning "to be wealthy," which is the Pleiades constellation having 7 stars-suns, and Ayish, "to lend aid, to help", also known as "The Plough Man", Arcturus, as well as Klaareyun, Clariton, or Clarion, meaning "clear", just to name a few.

16 The boundless universes are filled with all kinds of life forms, that come from all types of origin, and your planet Earth held the most abundant of life sources, which is why all kinds of beings frequently visited.

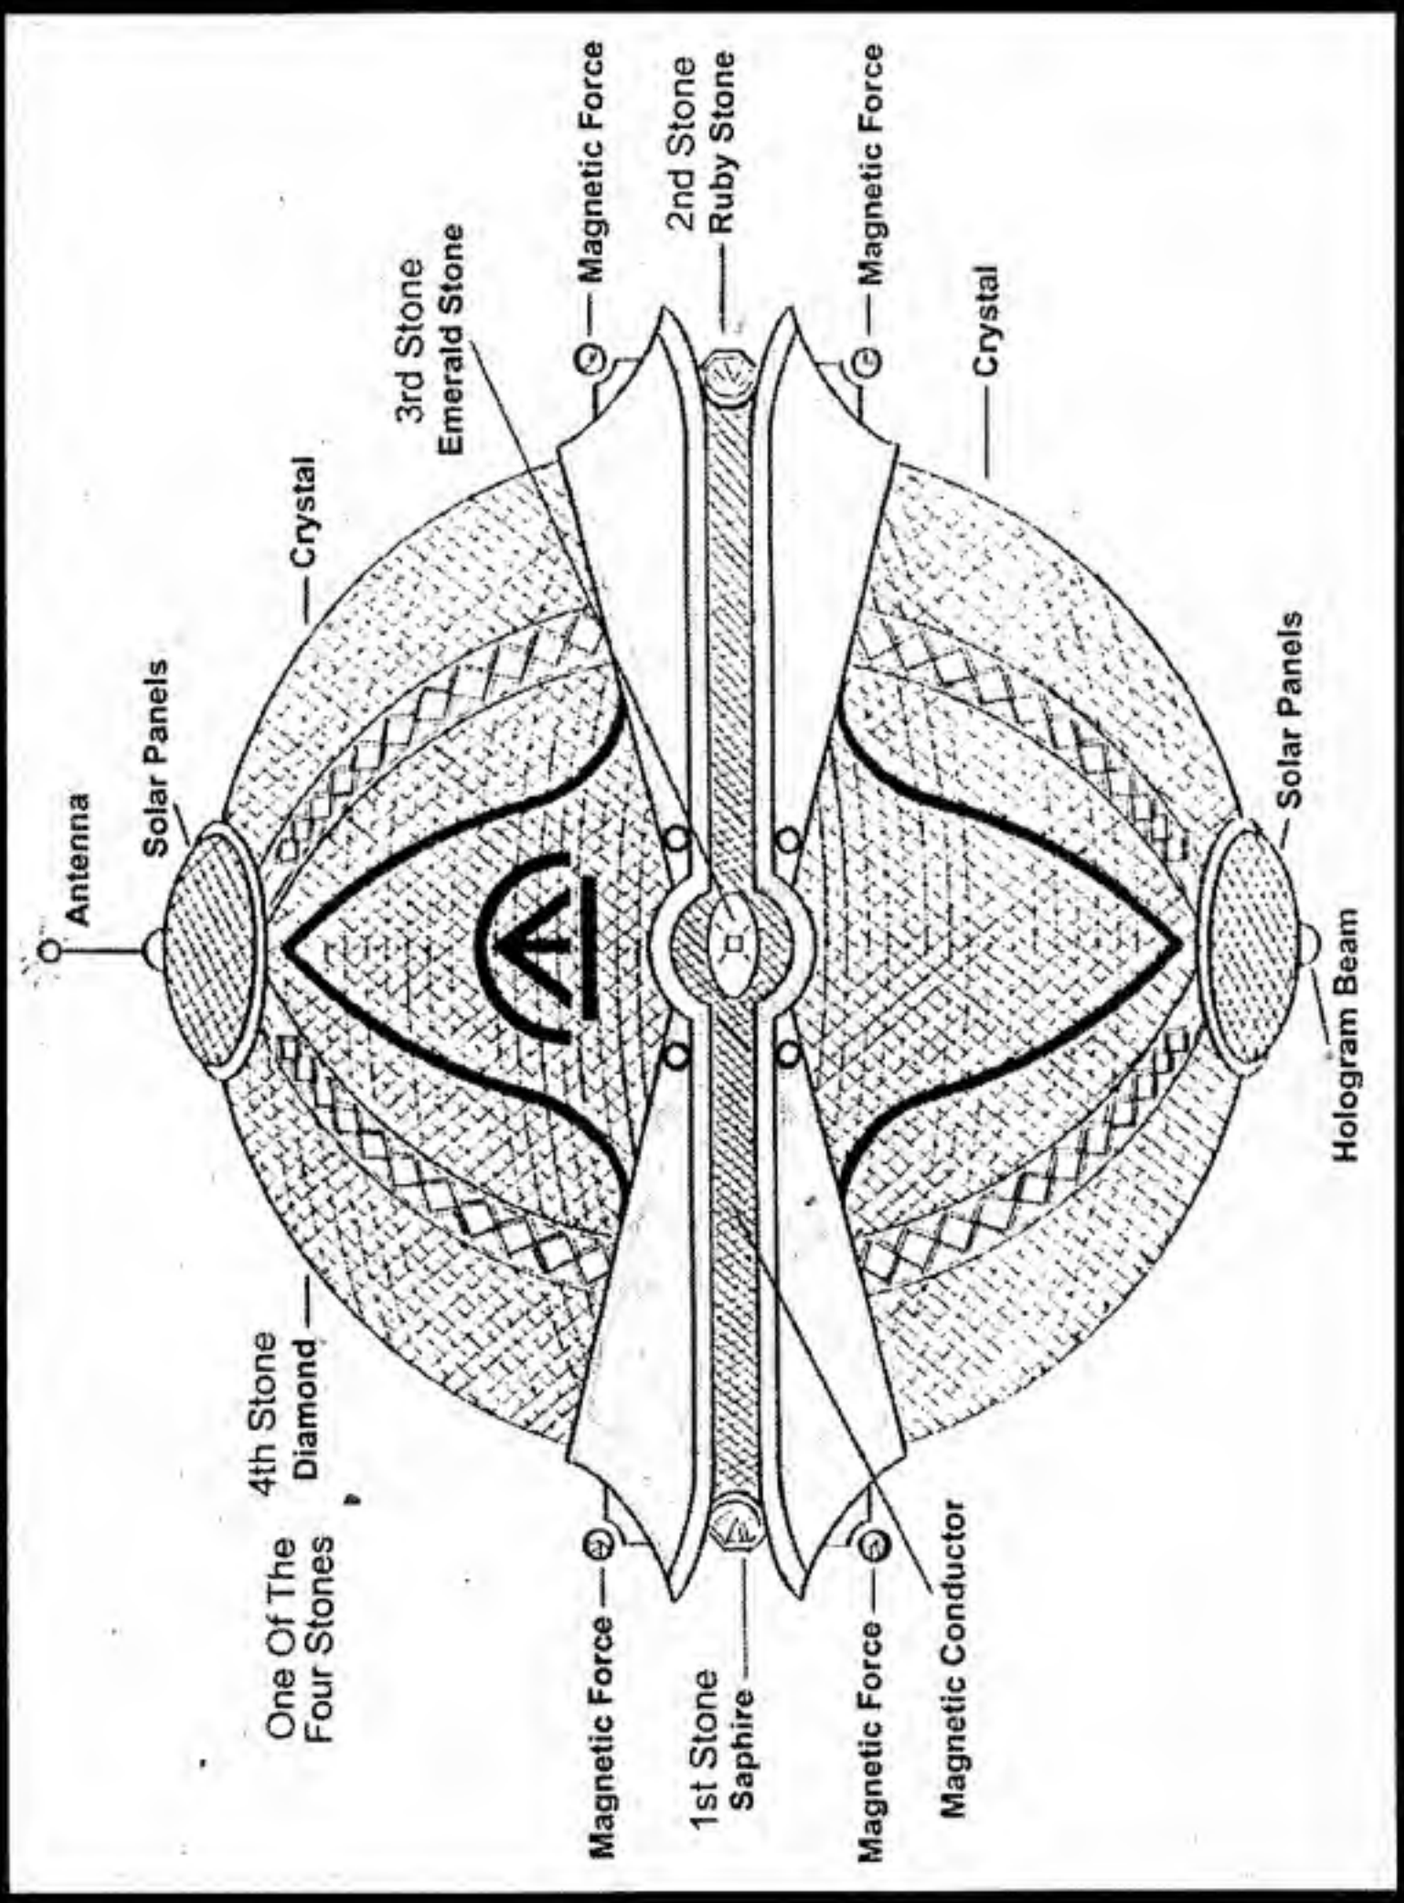

Diagram 2
The Planet-Sized Ship Nibiru

17 Now let me continue. On one of these routes to the planet Earth, the planet craft Nibiru meaning "planet of the crossing," also called Murduk was making a routine trip, which was then on an orbit that took 1,024 years short of an equinox of Earth time, which was a 25,920 year orbit called Aams by the ANUNNAGI.

18 This craft, being 4 times the size of the planet Tiamat, whose diameter was 15,852, before the splitting, which cut it into two equal halves, and Nibiru's diameter being 63,408. The ship Nibiru came in search of other planets that were rich in natural resources and minerals to take back to the planet Rizq, to protect it from the damaging ultraviolet rays.

19 And what would make you overstand what ultraviolet rays are? Ultraviolet of or relating to the range of invisible radiation, wavelengths from about 4 nanometers, on to the border of the x-ray region, to about 380 nanometers, just beyond the violet in the visible spectrum.

20 We're looking at the word Ultra meaning, "Beyond"; From the Latin ultra-, from ultra, meaning "beyond",

21 And the word VIOLET, meaning The hue of the short-wave end of the visible spectrum, evoked in the human observer by radiant energy with wavelengths of approximately 380 to 420 nanometers; any of a group of colors, reddish-blue in hue, that may vary in lightness and saturation, from the Middle English, from Old French violete, diminutive of viole, from Latin viola, 22 As for the color RED, The hue of the long-wave end of the visible spectrum, it has evoked in the human observer by radiant energy with wavelengths of approximately 630 to 750 nanometers. Any of a group of colors that may vary in lightness and saturation and whose hue resembles that of the life liquid, called blood; one of the additive or light primaries. From the Middle English, from Old English read.

23 And as for the color BLUE, the hue of that portion of the visible spectrum lying between green, which is yellow and blue, and indigo, which is blue and violet, and it is evoked in the human observer by radiant energy with wavelengths of approximately 450 to 490 nanometers; any of a group of colors that may vary in lightness and saturation, one of the additive or light primaries; from the Middle English blue, from Old French bleu, of Germanic origin.

24 As for the word Ray: It's A thin line or narrow beam of light or other radiant energy, Radiance; light. On the prism, it appears as purple, ranging from violet to red.

25 And now with an overstanding of Ultraviolet rays, you must be able to grasp the damage that it was doing in Rizq, and is doing here on Earth.

26 The danger is the destruction of the Ozone, as it happened there, it's also happening here. What is OZONE: A blue gaseous allotrope of oxygen, O_3, formed naturally from diatomic oxygen by electric discharge or exposure to ultraviolet radiation.

27 It is an unstable, powerfully bleaching, poisonous oxidizing agent with a pungent, irritating odor, used to deodorize air, purify water, treat industrial wastes and as a bleach. Fresh, pure air, from German Ozon, from Greek ozon, neuter present participle of ozein, meaning "to smell".

28 So in order for Rizqiyians to protect their planet, they sought out Gold. The gold of this planet is good.

29 This great planet-sized ship, Nibiru, came nearer to your solar system, traveling at the speed of light, 186,272 miles per second. Yet it is found to be exactly 186,282.396 miles per second, or 299,792,458 kilometers per second.

30 It came from Illyuwn, the 19th galaxy, a tri-solar system having 3 suns, also called The Great Galaxy, known as the "Place On High;" called heaven or even Jannat, on a journey through the stars that took 25,920 years, a year is called an Aam by the Sumerians, who were taught by the Anunnagi.

31 This great ship, Nibiru, as it was later known, was a mothership; and Nibiru at the time held 12 smaller cylinder ships, called Shams that were to be launched out from it.

32 When Nibiru reached its destination, Nibiru was equipped with 4 separate atmospheres. What would make you overstand, what the 4 atmospheres are?

33 They are: (1) Outside of the spheres, where there is no air, and there is one atmosphere, Nibiru is able to adjust to that environment. (2) When you come into this dome, like planet, where there is oxygen and air, Nibiru is capable of adjusting to that environment. (3) When you go to the Antarctica you would have to take your crafts into the glaciers, Nibiru is capable of adjusting to that environment, (4) When you'd have to take your craft beneath the sea, Nibiru is capable of adjusting to that environment.

34 That is the 4 separate atmospheres, that all the crafts, titled Nibiru, as a part of the Nibiru fleet, is capable of adjusting to.

35 That is, they are capable of adjusting to all atmospheres of changes. Such as: Ta "earth", Mu "water", Nefu "air", and Set "fire". The command to activate these is simply TAMUNEFUSET.

36 Nibiru and all of its crafts were also equipped with 4 separate magnetic fields, which is a person, a place, an object, or a situation that exerts attraction. 1 Nibiru is capable of being magnetized or attracted by a magnet, meaning; 2 To operate by means of magnetism, such as a magnetic recorder. 3 Relate to the magnetic poles of the earth, such as a magnetic compass bearing. 4 Have an unusual power or ability to attract,

37 A gravity form of magnetism, from the whirling vortex of each planet at 30^0, and its magnetic attractions, creating a magnetic grid, the flow of electricity when an object comes in contact with its pulling or attracting powers, and magnetic attraction by appearance, emotion, or desire.

38 The Grand Mothership Nibiru can hold many thousands of crown shaped ships, but this mission had only 2,880 crown shaped Shams, it also has a fleet of 24 crystal cities with crystal like domes, giving them the ability to break down light, as a prism would, and be able to make use of the energy.

39 It has solar panels that are the size of a pin's head, or less than that, and can generate millions and millions of megawatts of energy, as well.

40 As Nibiru passed by various suns; or stations set up in the galaxy, Nibiru drew an energy charge from them.

41 Nibiru, was set up for holographic, interdimensional transport. That is, it is capable of cloning itself hologramically to appear in more than one place at a time, making it virtually impossible to determine which is the hologramic projection from the original.

42 Nibiru is capable of traveling distance from point to point, or through space and time interdimensionally. It can go through time, future or past, without interfering with the principle of "NOW" or "THEN". And it manned over 144,000 crew members headed by 24 elite beings called Yahwehans, 12 YAH "agreeable" and 12 WEH "disagreeable", that stood 7 feet tall.

43 However, on this flight, the craft Nibiru had to first pass by the planet EA, which means "he whose house is water", and is now called Neptune, as it did many times before.

44 The Planet EA/Neptune is a twin planet to the planet ANU, "Uranus." By "Twin Planet" I mean that Neptune is very similar, and in some aspects identical to the planet Uranus. The planet Uranus was originally called Kakkab Shanamma, "the planet which is the double." Uranus is also influenced by the gravity of Neptune.

45 The gases that make up the atmospheres of Neptune, and Uranus, are exactly the same. The sizes of Neptune and Uranus are similar. Their colors are identical and their rotational times are similar; Uranus' being 17 hours in Earth time, and Neptune's being 16.5 hours.

46 The planet Uranus practically rotates laying down. So the size, if looked at from the wrong angle, can surely be mistaken.

47 Uranus tilts at the extreme angle of 98 degrees. You could almost say that the planet lies on its side as it travels around the sun.

48 This means that the north and south polar regions of Uranus experience alternate periods of day and shadow hour and summer and winter, each of which is up to 42 Earth years long.

49 The temperature of this planet Uranus on the side that is hidden from this sun is the same as on the side facing this sun.

50 As Nibiru came nearer to Neptune, its gravitational pull caused electrical storms on that planet on that Friday afternoon at 1300 hours of Earth time, some 24,000,000,000 billion years ago of Earth time; and caused Nibiru to go slightly off its orbit.

51 As The craft Nibiru passed by Ea/Neptune, the planet Anu/Uranus came from behind the planet Neptune and it caused the appearance of a bulge.

52 And that bulge pulled on Nibiru's orbit, and caused the great ship Nibiru to begin to wallop in its orbit, from fear of crashing.

53 This happened because The planet Uranus was not originally seen in the solar system, when Nibiru made its first visits. Uranus' moving from behind Neptune caused Nibiru to veer off its own original path in order not to hit Uranus, and made it collide into another planet then called Maldek, also called Valkun.

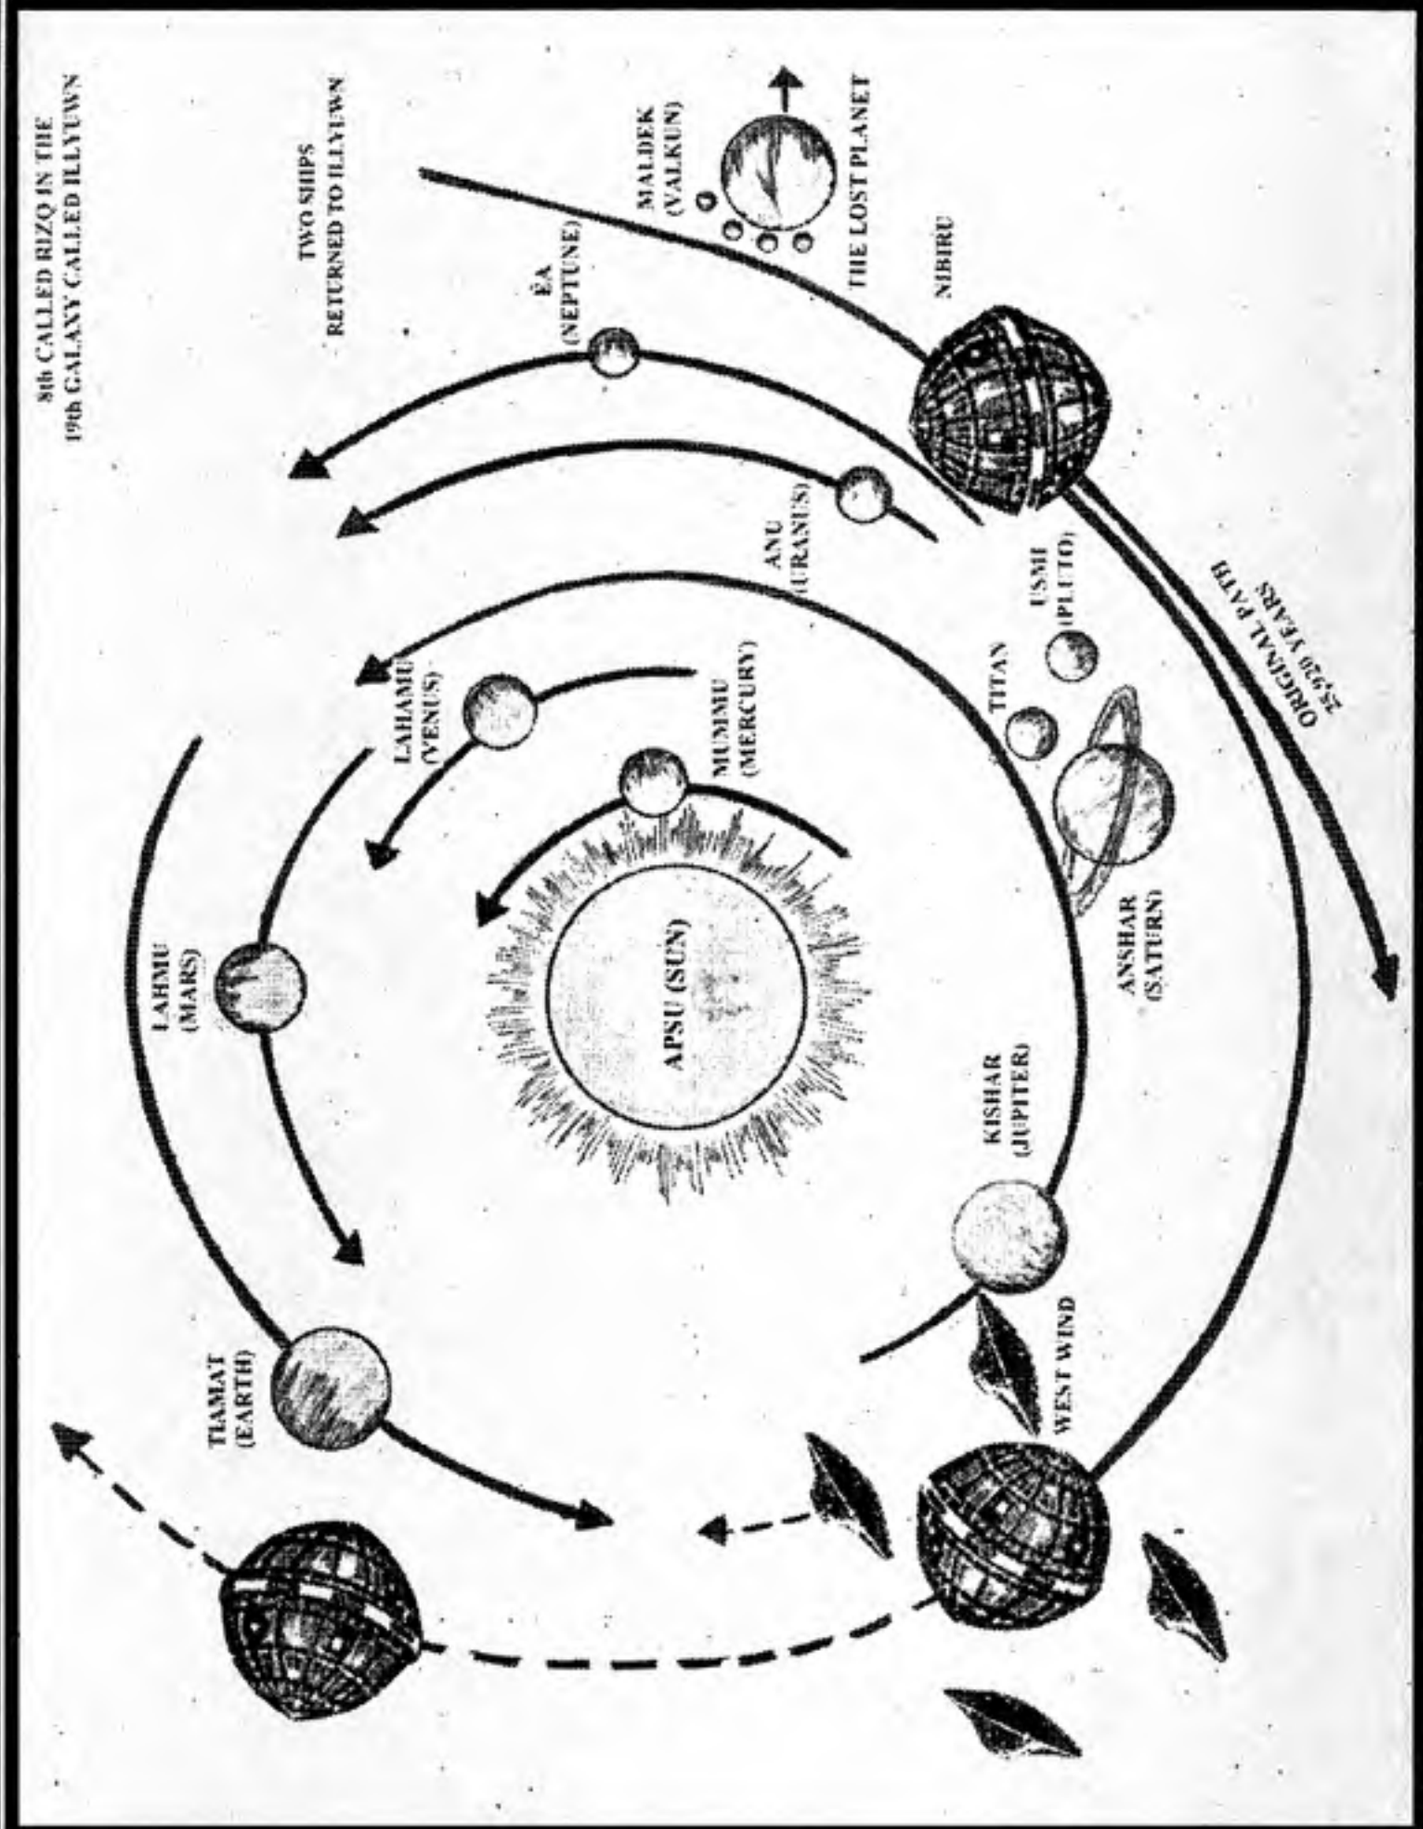

Diagram 3
Nibiru Veering Off Its Orbit

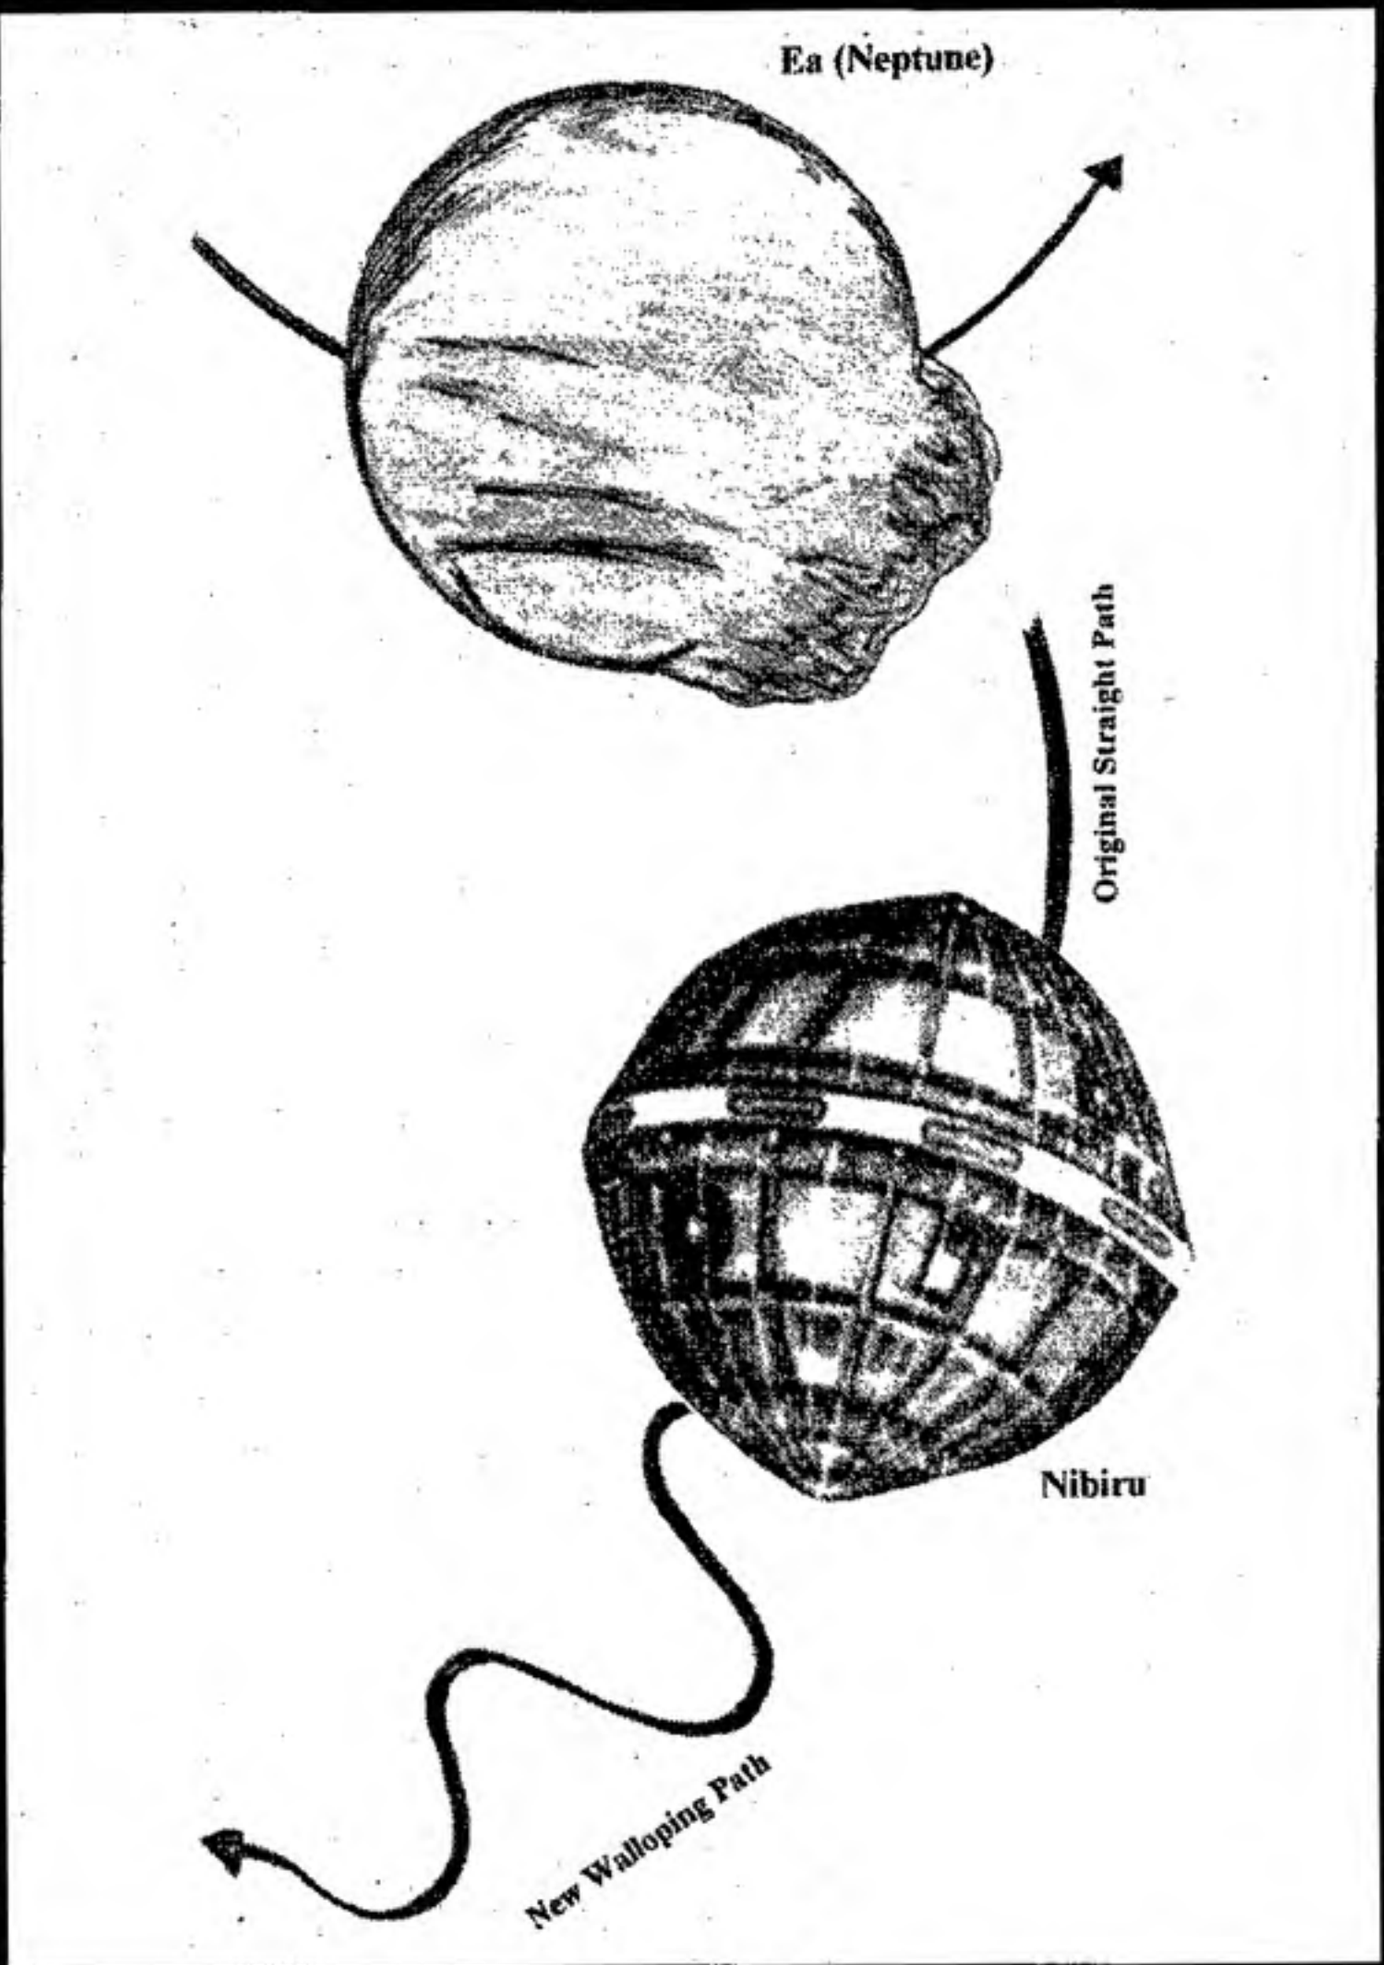

Diagram 4
Ea (Neptune) Bulging And Walloping On A New Path

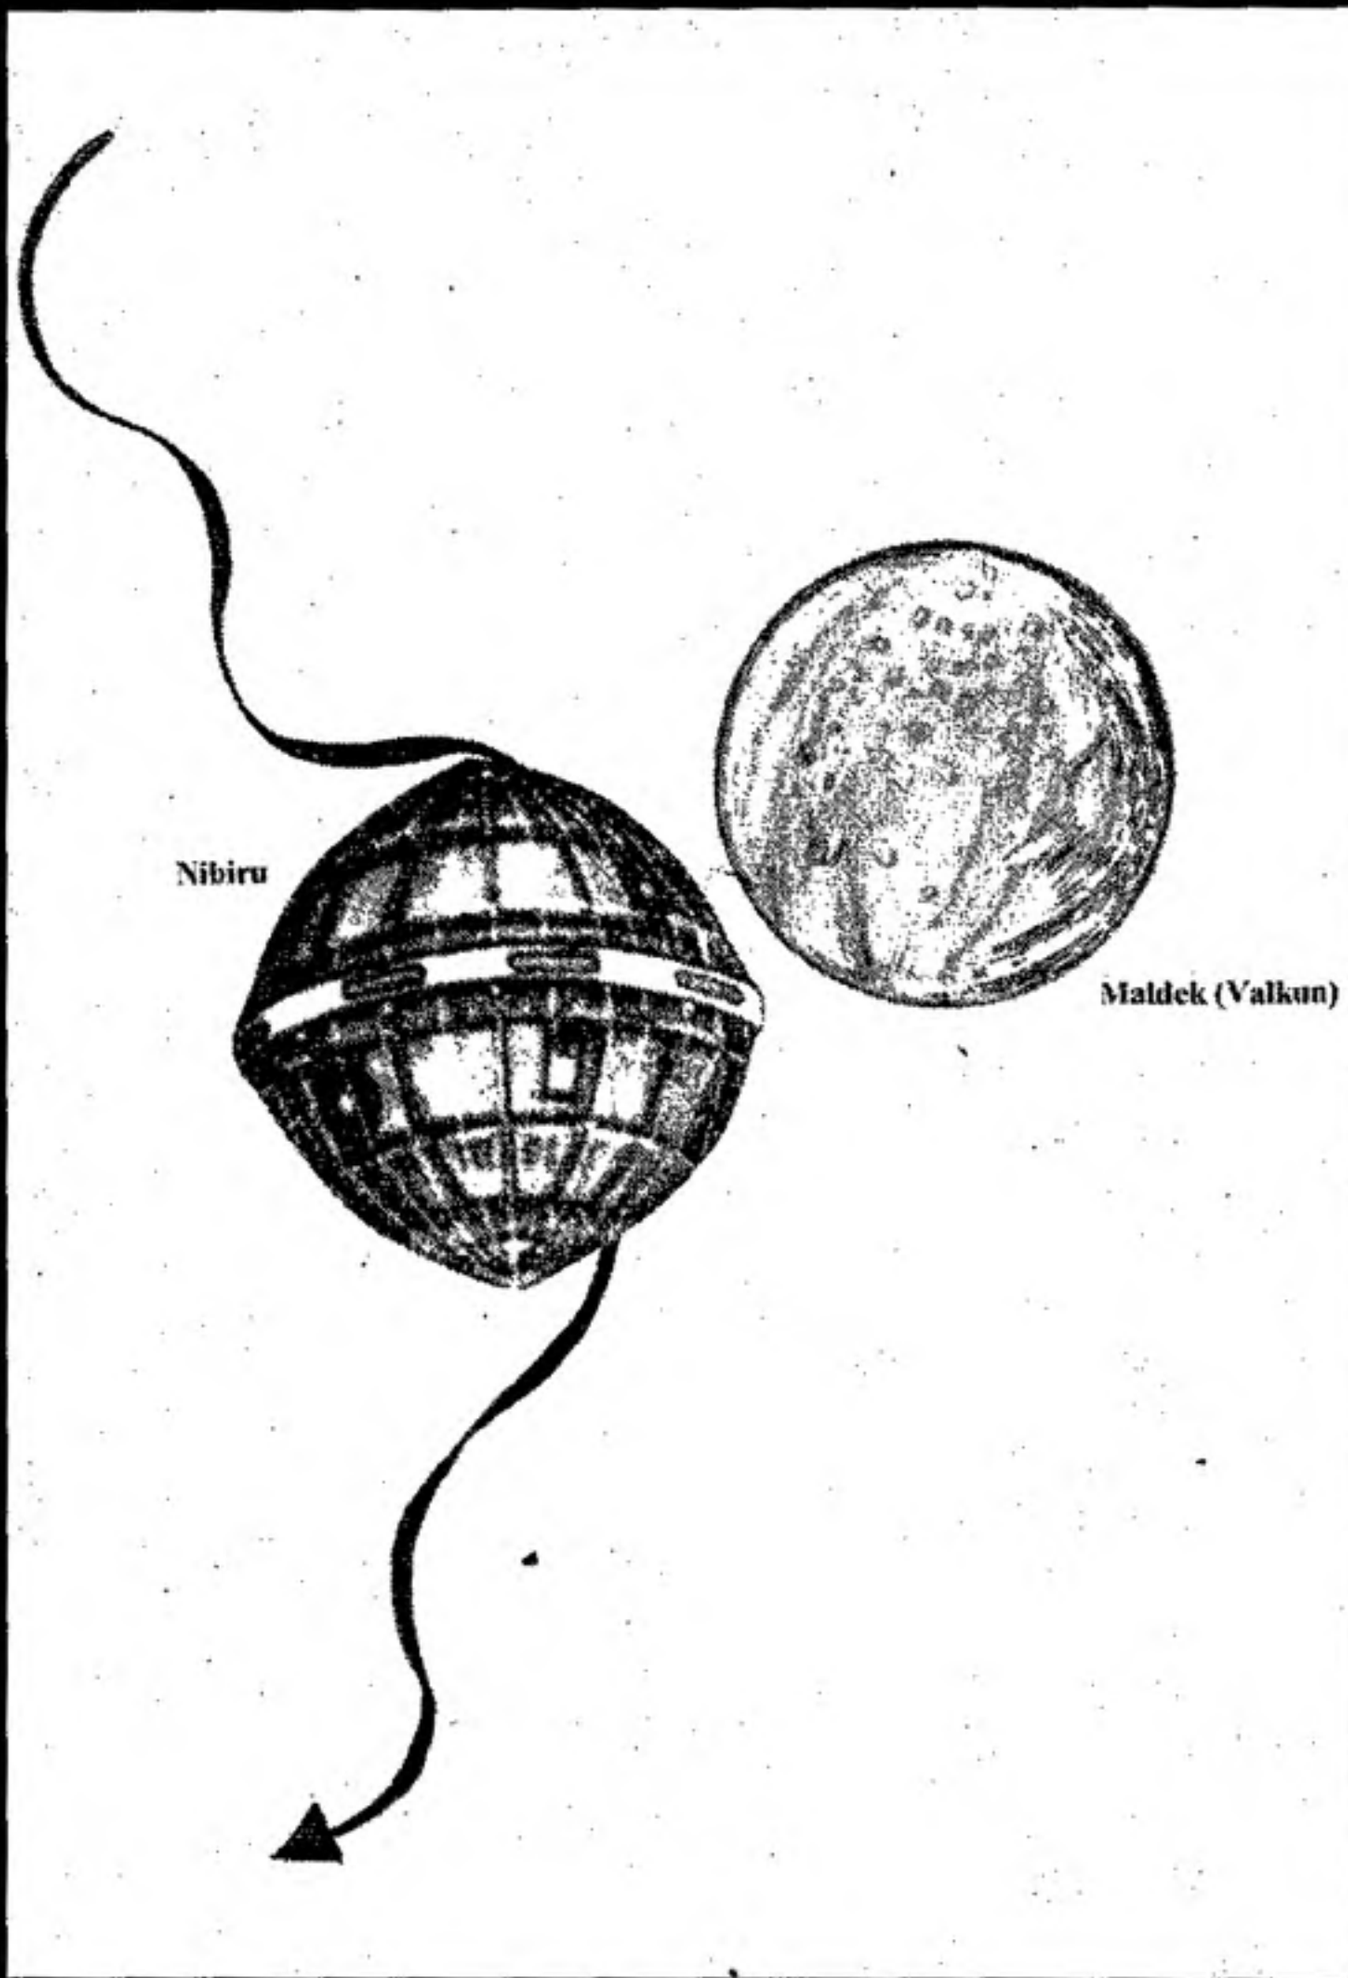

Diagram 5
Nibiru Veering Outside Of The Planet Maldek

55 The original name for the planet Valkun, is MALDEK. Maldek was between LAHMU/Mars and KISHAR/Jupiter. Maldek was 27,500 miles in diameter.

56 Maldek had a population of billions living under the seas in the sub-cities of KARNA which was occupied by the Maldekians, and VADUR, which was occupied by the Trogladites.

57 Maldek also had 2 moons, this was the planet of Masmukiyya or Troglodytes, Dragons and Voltex.

58 The Troglodytes' average height is 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 feet, and their heads are extremely large, these were the slaves. However, the rulers, the Maldekians were very large in size, from 7 to 9 feet in height, scales of multiple colors, in which they shed like all other reptilians. They lay eggs for reproduction.

59 The Troglodytes have two round eyes without pupils and no ears or protruding noses--just two small holes in the nose area. Their mouths are slits without lips.

60 The Troglodytes are hairless and have no teeth. The Troglodytes' hands have 4 webbed fingers and no thumbs. The Troglodytes live totally underwater in great cities with many, great biologists.

61 Because they lived underwater, if the planet sped up, it wouldn't affect them, because gravity is different underwater. Meaning, Gravity is the force that the Earth exerts on an object.

62 The force of gravity is relatively constant all over the surface of the Earth except for in a few places like the equator, and varies slightly at different altitudes. Many people think, for instance if a steel ball was dropped from a building, and a cotton ball, that the steel ball would fall a lot faster, when the cotton ball only lagged slightly behind.

63 So the force was still constant. Water is denser than air, so objects move slower through water than air. The impact of the crash affected the beings on the surface of the planet of Maldek, and not underneath the water because water is more dense and would slow down the object. So the impact would be less damaging and the shock of the impact would be less severe.

64 However, it was daylight, so most of the beings came on land.

65 All of the beings that could have negotiated were dead, due to the crash.

66 The only beings that survived were the ones under the seas, which were the military and the warriors, who were looking for a chance to fight any way.

67 Nibiru had no way of contacting the beings on the planet Maldek to let them know that it was an accident and not a deliberate attack.

68 Telepathic communication was forbidden to prevent interference by other telepathic, disagreeable beings.

69 This was because the Maldekians were not a part of the Interplanetary Confederation.

70 Their star fleet of warriors, a group of Reptilians who bore the symbol of a Reptile, who called themselves NINGA, meaning "warrior" launched an attack.

71 Thinking that the planet Maldek had been attacked, 4 fighter ships of NINGA fleet launched out. And it went off its orbit into the universe, attacked with the intentions of destroying Nibiru.

72 These 4 ships equipped with high

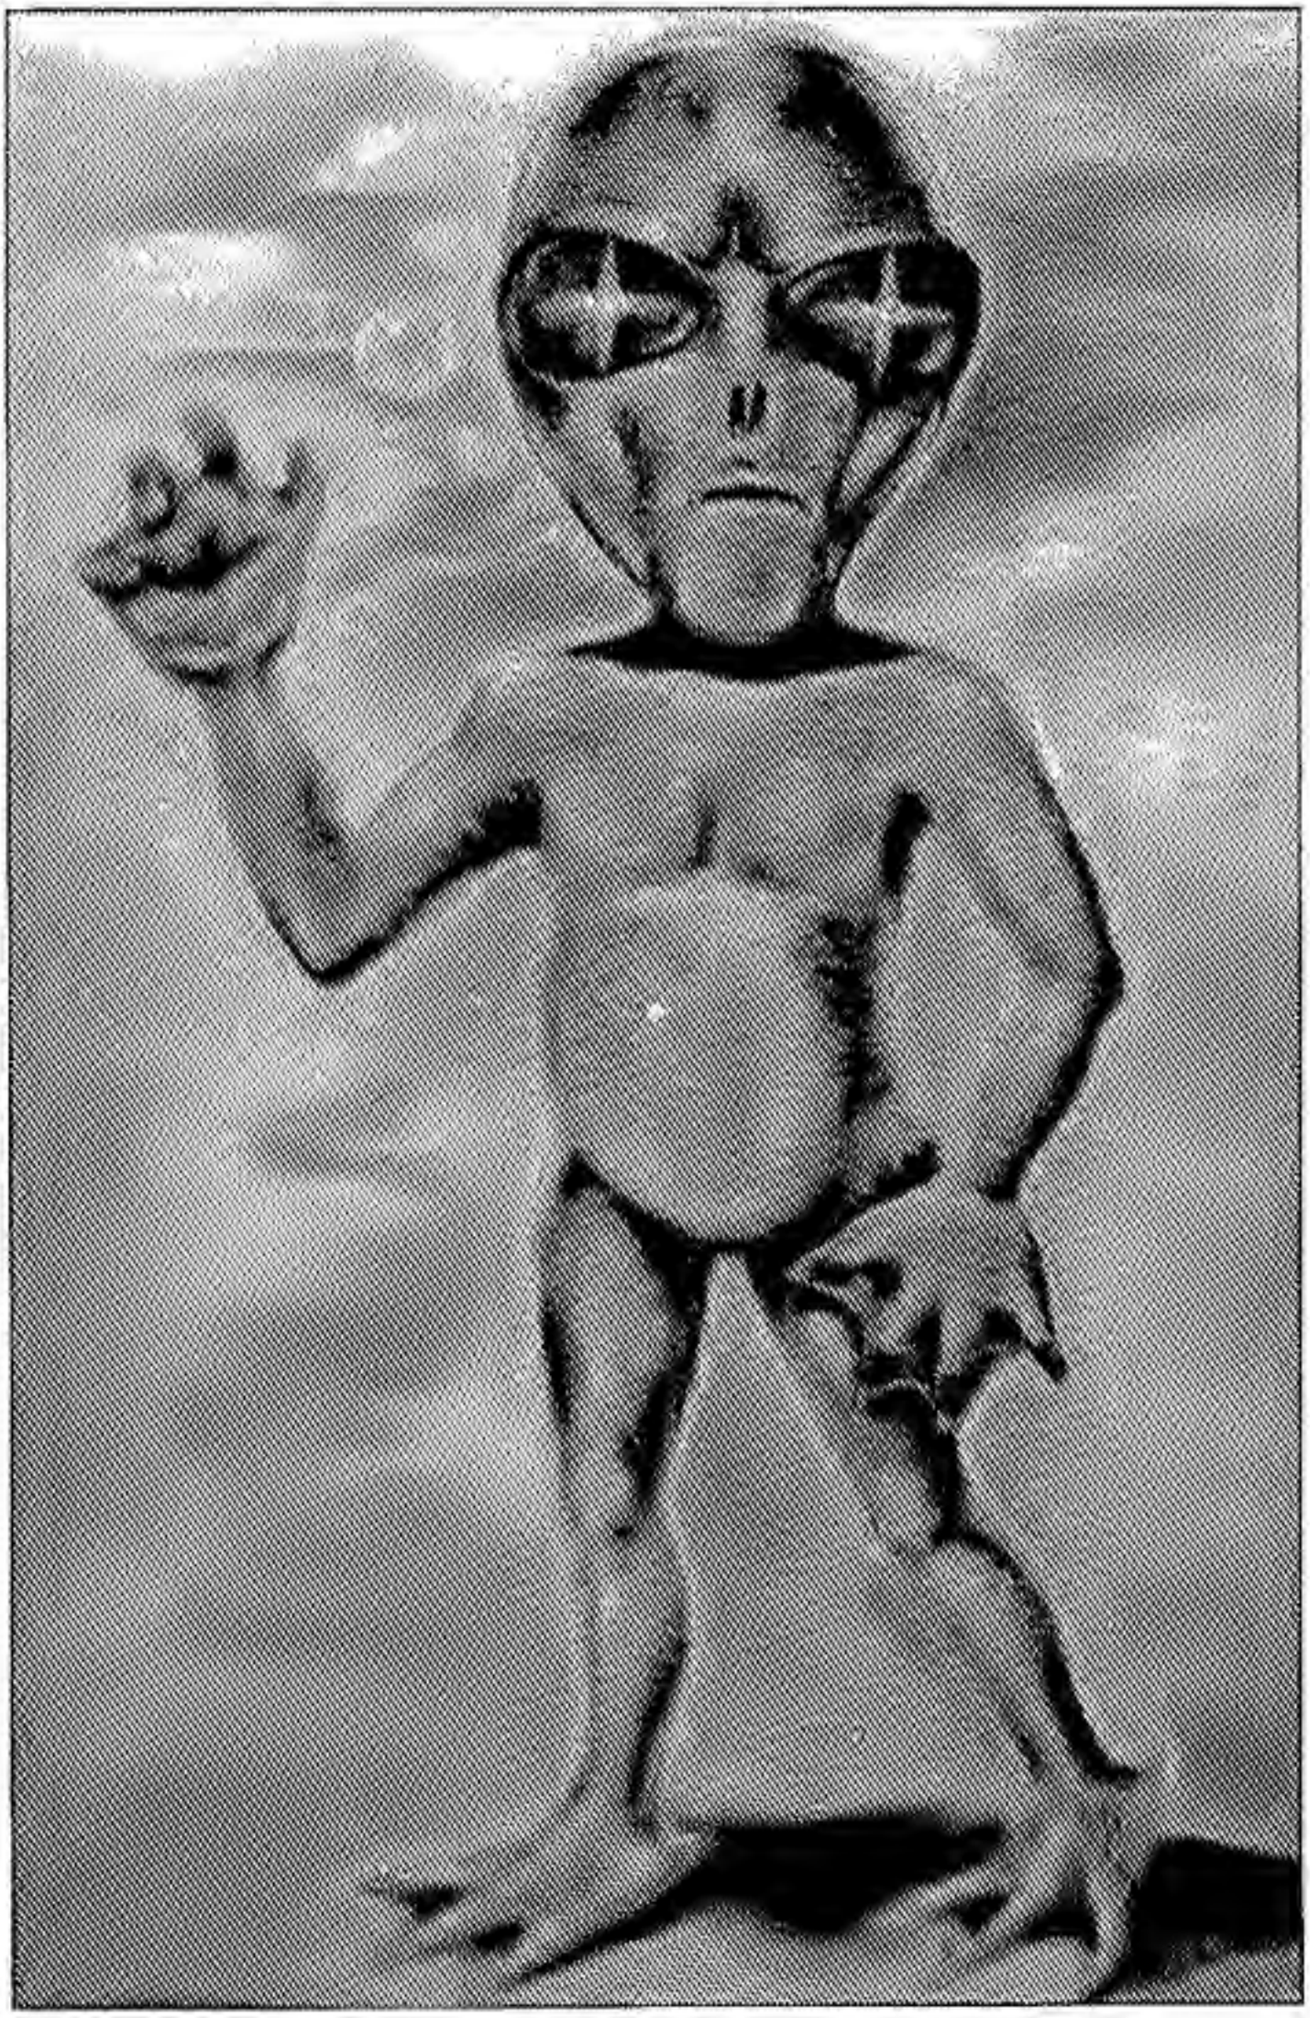

Figure 7
A Masmukiyya (Troglodyte), Also Called Maldekian

explosives created of Plutonium from Maldek's star fleet called Ninga, managed to escape Maldek as Nibiru passed by, and followed in Nibiru's path.

73 Nibiru put up its 4 magnetic force fields, which were created by ANU, and given to MURDUK and destabilized the 4 attacking ships. Nibiru created the magnetic cube, called Kaaba.

74 These 4 great ships called the Ninga fleet moved on, as 4 powerful winds that were trapped by Nibiru's force field and unable to break loose. Maldek is now referred to as The Lost Planet.

75 The 4 fighter ships of the Ninga fleet, are called the North Wind, South Wind, East Wind and West Wind 76 These 4 fighter ships that originally surrounded Nibiru and appeared to launch an attack were now trapped.

77 The great ship Nibiru activated its 4 magnetic force fields, incapacitating these ships.

78 All of their controls and equipment ceased to function.

79 A force field was put up, and they were trapped in the environment of Nibiru.

80 Its new wobbly satellites were caught in Nibiru's gravitational pull, and began to circle, making 4 whirlwinds.

81 Nibiru immediately launched 2 ships to return to 'Illyuwn to inform the elders of the incident, in case of the need for assistance.

82 Nibiru proceeded to move counterclockwise from the planets in this solar system.

83 Nibiru pulled in towards ANSHAR, which means "foremost of the heavens," now called Saturn, and its force field kissed off the planet; and its gravitational pull caused Nibiru to veer off its own orbit, and 3 satellites were added to Nibiru's force field, called Evil Wind, Whirlwind and Matchless Wind.

84 The orbit that Nibiru was originally on was a 25,920 year orbit called 'AAMS.

85 It shifted into a new orbit of 3,600 years called a SHAR. Its orbit was caught in the this solar system always to make a return.

86 Then Nibiru bounced off the planet Rum/Titan which now surrounds Anshar/Saturn and sped up its motion, 87 Creating the Saturn Rings, referred to as the 'Necklace of Saturn'.

88 At this point, GAGA/Pluto was released from its natural orbit around the sun, and was pulled away in the direction of LAHMU/Mars and LAHAMU/Venus.

89 The path of Nibiru was now bent even more towards the center of the solar system directly towards TIAMAT, which means "maiden of life," now called Earth.

90 As it moved into your solar system, Nibiru caused problems amongst the other planets in this solar system by pulling their moons.

91 Nibiru, making one complete spin, threw the winds off into space.

92 The approach of Nibiru began to disturb Tiamat, and this alarmed the beings of Tiamat that something was entering their atmosphere causing volcanic eruptions, storms, hurricanes, and floods.

93 Tiamat was forced to launch eleven ships headed directly for this "Bright Gleaming," Or what appeared to be a planet entering its air-space. It was NIBIRU.

94 This star fleet of eleven ships from Tiamat was led by KINGU "the great emissary," which was once ruled by the Maldekian deity Luna.

95 The great ship Nibiru had seven warships accompanying her and they were launched at the eleven ships that were launched from Tiamat.

96 Kingu was the name of the head defense force of Tiamat, and it- later became the name of an imperfect planet, now called a moon, one of many moons; which was originally the companion planet of Tiamat before the crash of the satellites of Nibiru.

97 The eleven ships which were launched from Tiamat at Nibiru were immediately detected by the force field of Nibiru and eliminated.

98 One of the 4 satellites that came with Nibiru from Maldek, called the North Wind, was lined directly for Tiamat.

99 The impact of the North Wind, caused Tiamat to split into two parts because of the high explosives that the ship contained, called Plutonium.

100 The hole which the North Wind bore in Tiamat caused the upper half of Tiamat to wallop in its orbit, setting large portions of it on fire.

101 The North Wind then came back around, shattering that half into pieces, making comets, of which Halley's Comet is one, and asteroids. Comet coming from the Greek kometes, long-haired (star) from kome, hair.

102 The length of time a comet takes to complete its orbit is known as its period. Some comets have periods of less than 7 years.

103 Comets are considered a part of the solar system; since they never leave the limits of the same system.

104 The comet's tail always points away from the sun, due to the pressure of the sun's light on the dust particles, and is usually 5,000 miles in length.

105 Comets are often caught by a planet's gravitational pull which causes them to shift from their course.

106 Many of the pieces of the comet that caught on fire formed the asteroid belt that is in the center of this solar system.

107 The East Wind, another tremendous ship from Maldek, coming with Nibiru from Maldek, swung around and put a hole straight through the upper half of the planet.

108 The planet Tiamat had turbulence and was unstable, while other planets nearby were still wobbling in their orbits.

109 Tiamat was pulled in many directions; on one side by the two larger planets LAHMU, now called Mars; and KISHAR "foremost of the firmlands," Jupiter on one side;

110 And the 2 smaller planets LAHAMU, Venus and MUMMU "one who was born," Mercury, on its other side, all pulling and tugging.

111 Nibiru's 7 ships broke off into two separate fleets; the first four circling the planet Tiamat, which is now called Qi, creating a net-like web, which was a magnetic field.

112 One of the 3 warships from the second part of the fleet of seven, from Nibiru, located on the outskirts of the force fields, then launched a bright flame of light much like "Ball Lightning."

113 The Ball Lightning was filled with brilliance and it pierced straight down

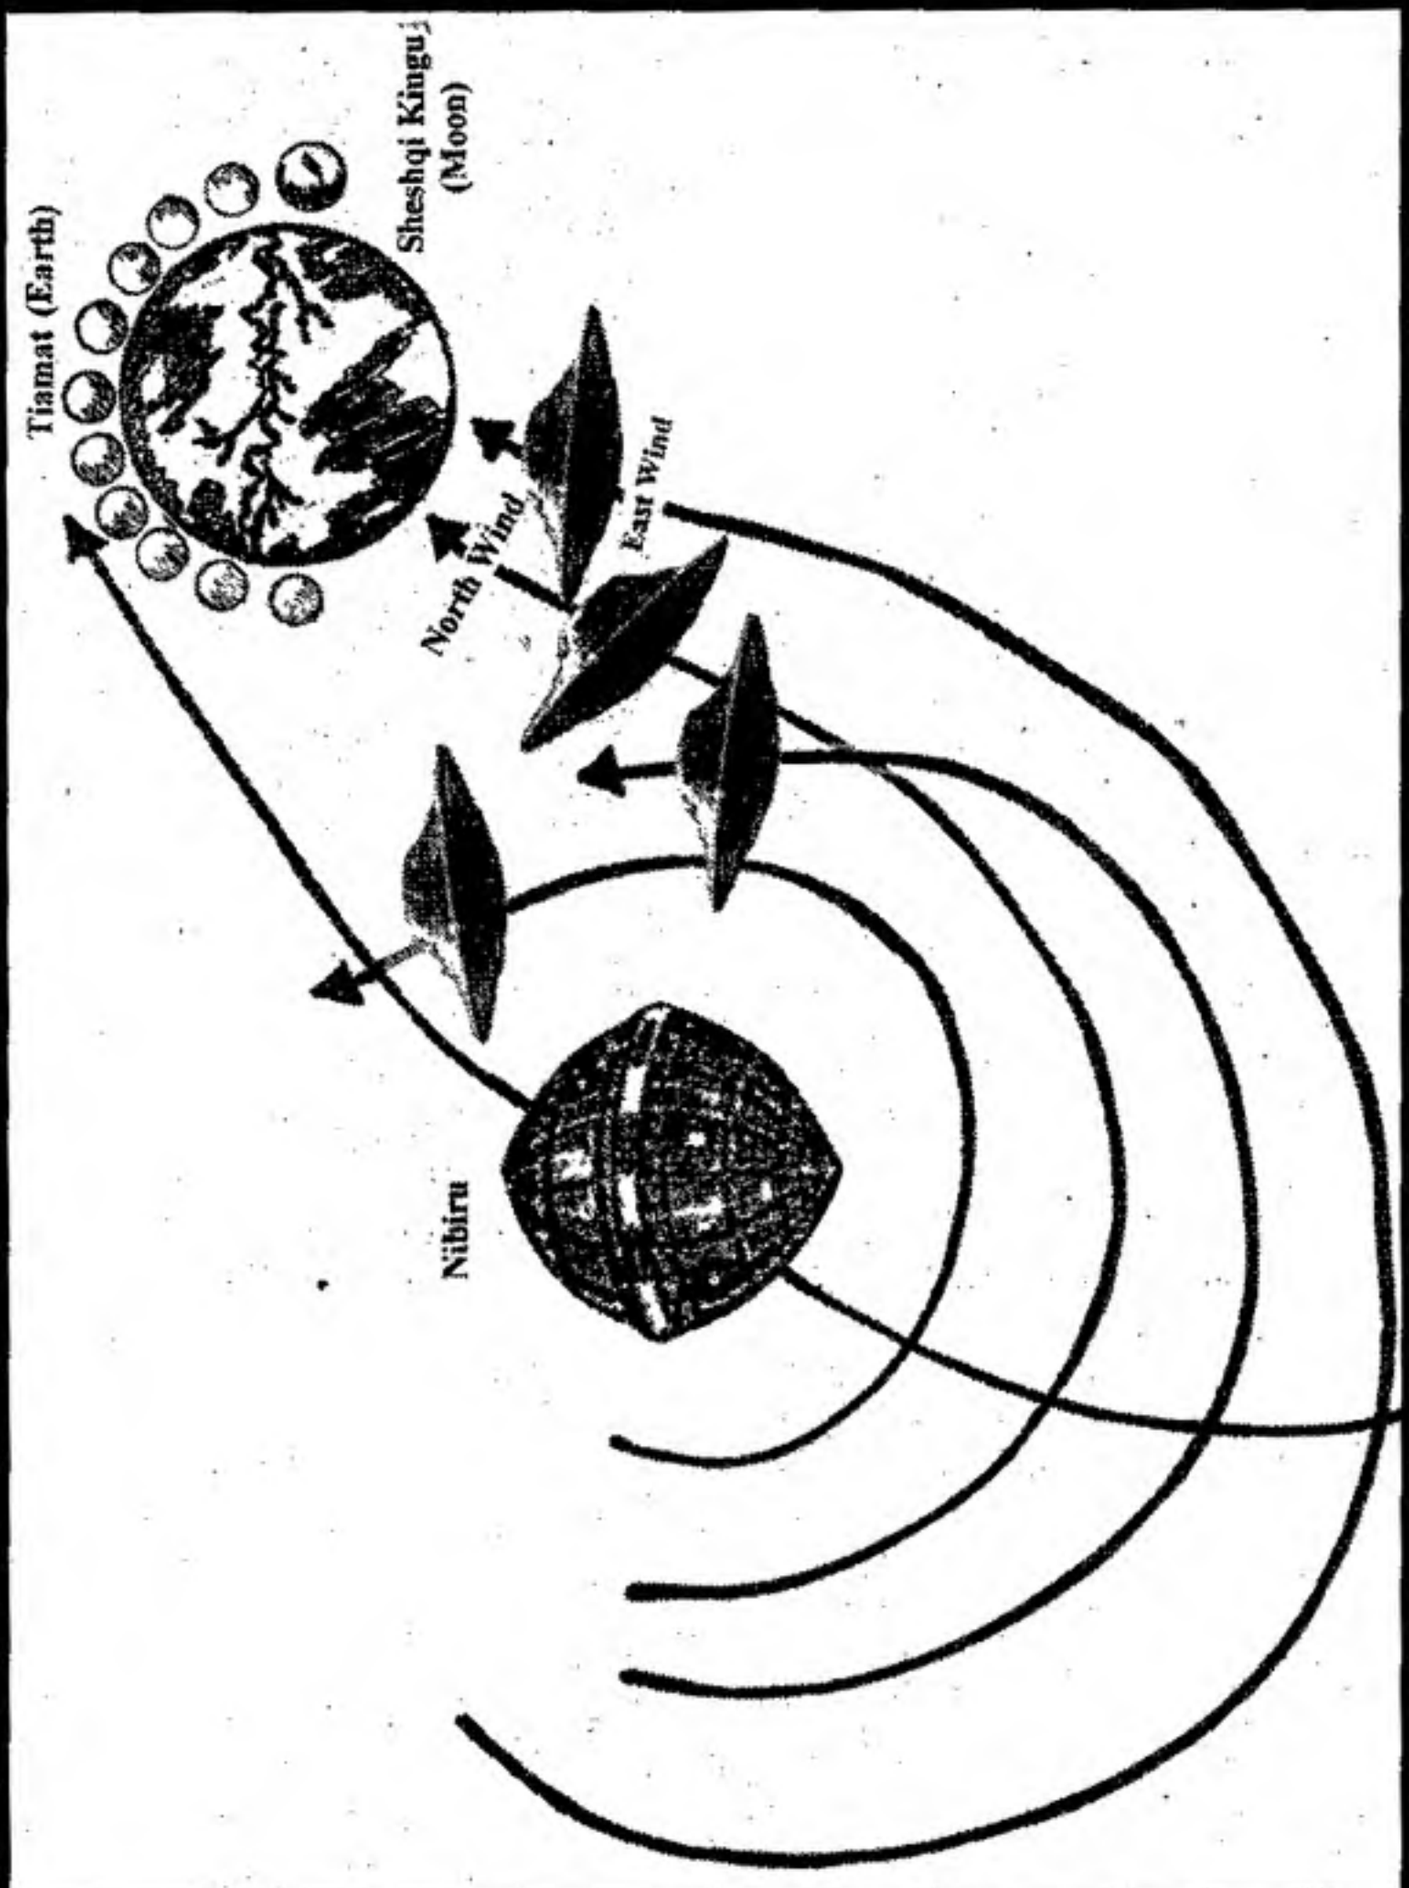

Diagram 10

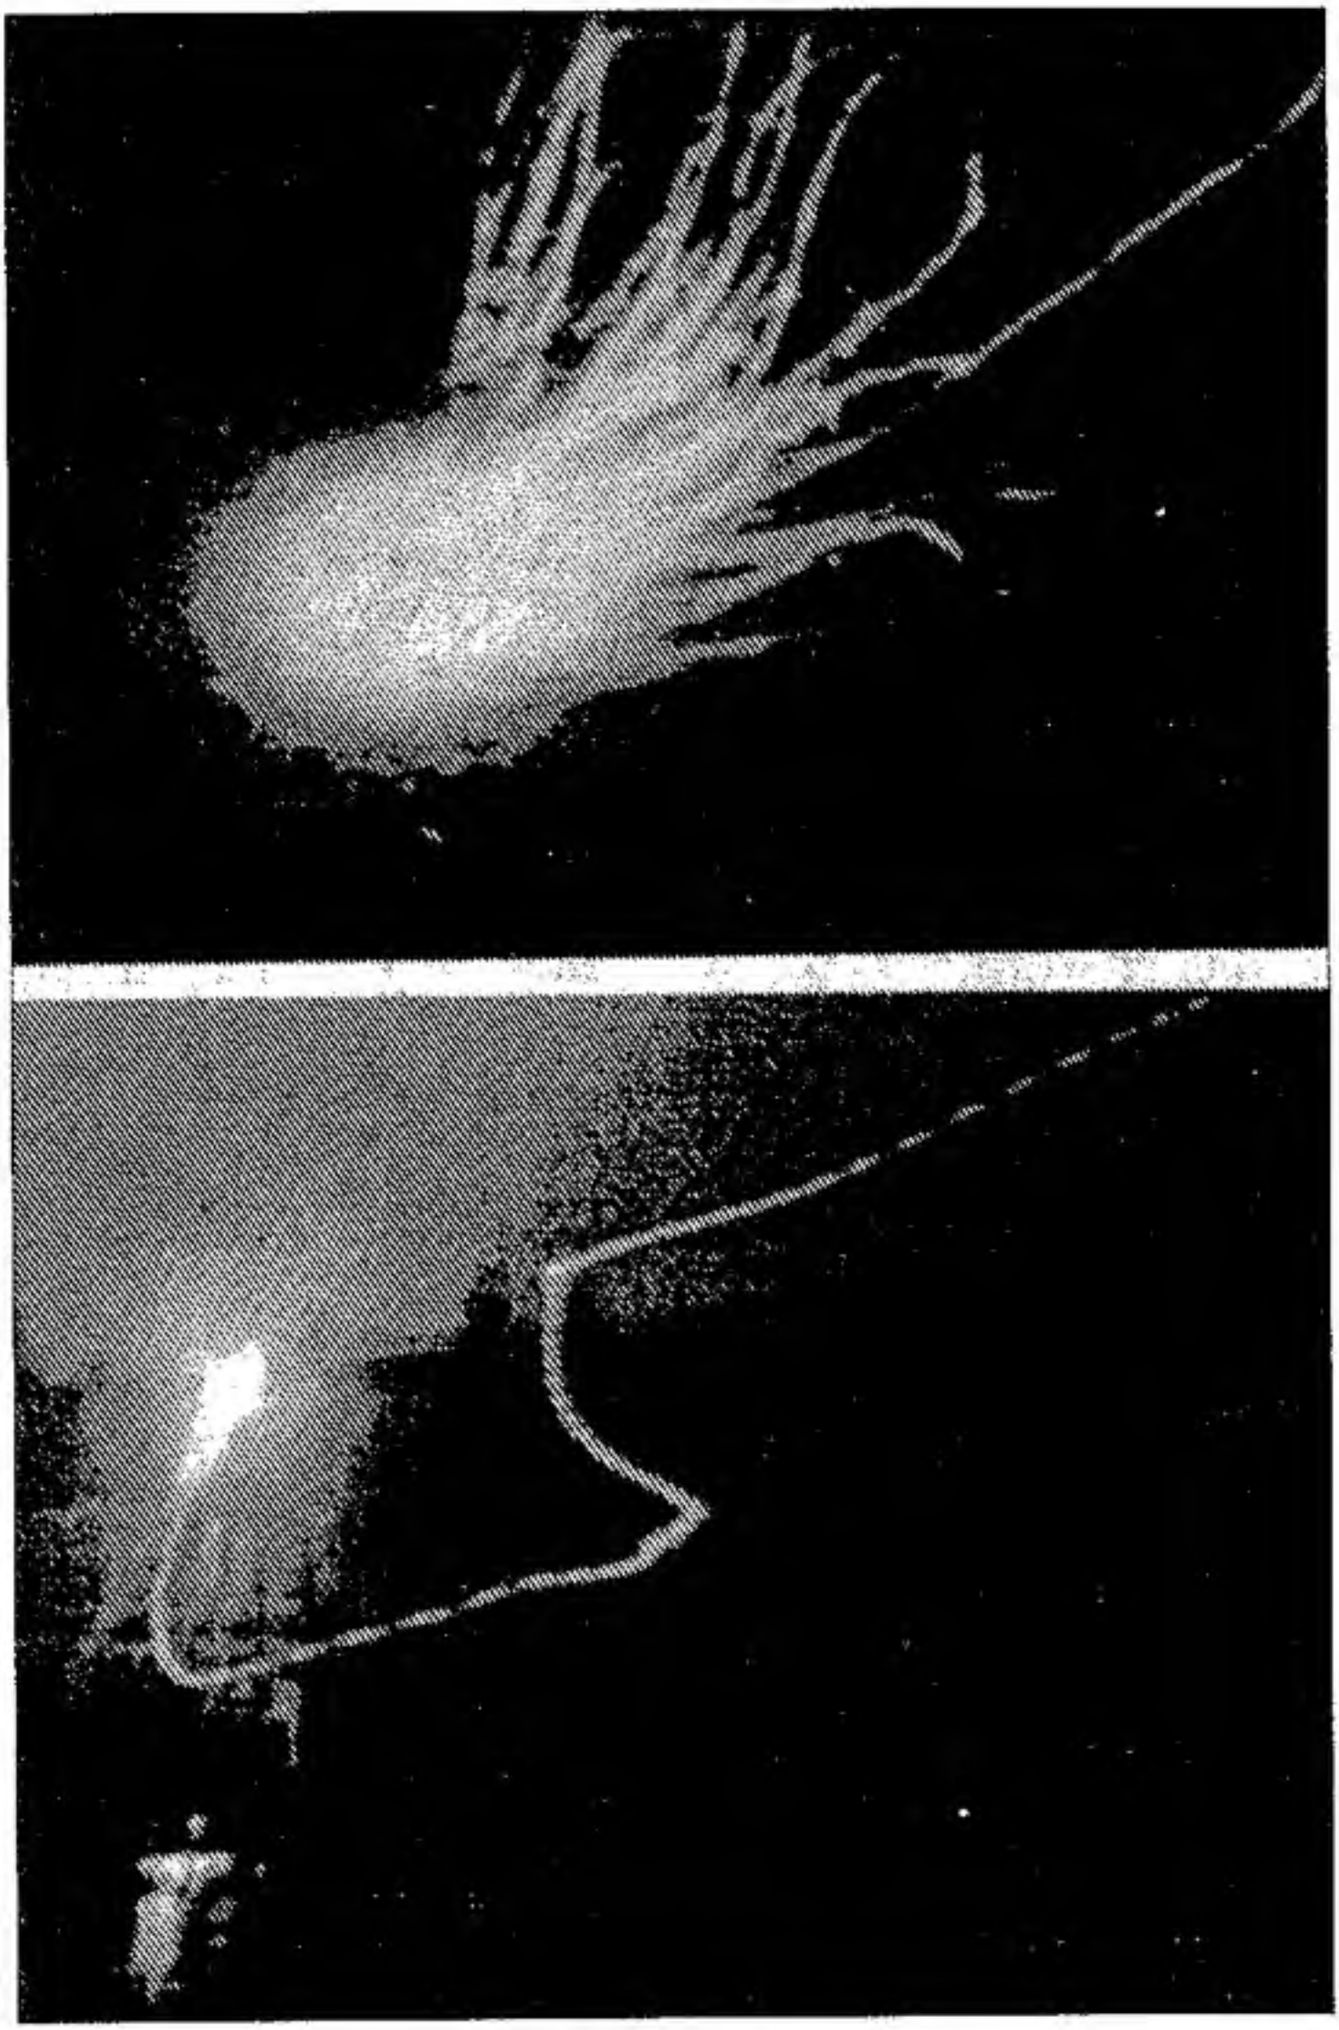

Figure 8
Ball Lightning

into Tiamat, completely neutralizing Tiamat's electric and magnetic force fields.

114 A portion of this massive ball of light which was launched by one of the three warships from Nibiru – was called the West Wind; and also known as the Evil Wind, tore straight down, as ball lightning, into the center, exploded and gauged out a large hollow space in the center of Tiamat;

115 And the West Wind became a tremendous 600 mile diameter Sun, called SUL; And was trapped in place there, with a sun screen to direct the heat waves through the North Pole away from the planet, creating the Northern Lights, or what is called 'Aurora Borealis,' which are Solar Flares or Sun Flares.

116 This ball of light, now in the center of Tiamat, was named Afsu, meaning "one who exists from the beginning," and the place was named Esharra.

117 Three satellites launched off of Nibiru creating a Tetrahedron, four-sided force field of energy, at a 19.5° degree angle around the new half of Tiamat, with the hole through it; and a smaller sun, Sul; also called Afsu/Apsu was placed inside Tiamat's center.

118 Now, this newly formed planet, Tiamat, called 'Qi,' new Earth, was trapped in its orbit, where no planet had been orbiting before; protected by forces, by the guidance of these ships while she healed herself.

119 This 600 mile diameter sun called Sul (Afsu) traveled through the great hole called the abyss, for a distance of 3,963 miles to the center of the half of the planet Tiamat;

120 Which the West Wind bore a hole through, called Qi, now called Earth from the word ERIDU.

121 So, it was indeed one of the satellites of Nibiru, called Winds, from Maldek that crashed into Tiamat and not Nibiru itself.

122 The Voltex/Troglodite that manned this ship that crashed, survived and thrived in the seas of this new planet called Qi, or Gaia, Gaea even Ge, once called Tiamat; which much later, became known as Earth, from Eridu, starting the restoration or reconstruction of life on Earth, including evolutionary processes of plant and animal life.

123 Now the last of the winds, the South Wind, crashed into Qi, and created the Grand Canyon; and gave birth to another small planet in its own orbit, and rotation around this newly-formed planet, Qi, which became the moon that you see today, creating a lunar orbit, called Sheshqi, meaning "celestial deity who protects Earth/Qi" and called Kingu, which had become chief among them, ruled by Luna, which Murduk/Nibiru made shrink, as a Duggae, "mass of lifeless clay" and thrown into outerspace to wobble in its own orbit, deprived of its orbital momentum, Kingu was reduced to the status of a mere satellite - a Moon, today known as Ceres, which is today known as the largest of the minor planets, and or Asteroids.

124 The upper half of the planet Tiamat, which became oval-shaped after the Moon had broken away, was now 7,926 miles in diameter and 24,896 miles in circumference; and it was set for replenishing or restoration on the part of the great star fleet responsible for its

Figure 9
The Grand Canyon

damage.

125 The newly-formed planet, Qi, was trapped in its orbit, protected by forces, sent from the guidance of 4 ships that were a part of the 11 from the fleet from Nibiru, of which 2 returned back to Illyuwn to inform them of what had been happening.

126 Now this new planet has two suns; one in its belly, 3,963 miles from its surface, creating an inner tropical environment; and the other sun, SHAMESH was 93,000,000 miles away from Qi's surface.

127 Qi was now trapped in its new orbit around the outer sun, SHAMESH to create a year of 365 days.

128 Thus, a new time zone was created for this new planet.

129 The South Wind, crashing into Tiamat, also created a black dust cloud that cut off Earth from the sun.

130 So, now you have 2 sets of planets separated by this asteroid belt, creating the inner and outer planets.

131 The inner planets were MUMMU/Mercury, LAHAMU/Venus, QI/Earth, SHESHQI/Moon and LAHMU/Mars; the outer planets were KISHAR/Jupiter, ANSHAR/Saturn whose planet is Rum/Titan, ANU/Uranus, EA/Neptune, 132 And now USMI/Pluto, previously called GAGA--separated by this asteroid belt; and the remains of the lost planet Maldek.

133 So one half of the original Tiamat is an asteroid belt, and the other half is presently your planet called Qi, Earth.

Tablet Six
The Origin Of The Moon
(19 x 3 = 57)

Lo! The Creation of the planet we call the Moon today, you may ask, why are you calling the Moon a planet. That is because, that's exactly what it is. Let's see: The word planet means: A non-luminous celestial body larger than an asteroid or a comet, illuminated by light from a star, such as the sun, around which it revolves. From the Middle English, from Old French planete, from Late Latin planeta, from Greek planetes, variant of planes, planet-, from planasthai, meaning "to wander". You shall see, how the moon did just that, wandered off into space to become what is called the Moon today, or the Month.

2 It came about because of the Maldekian fighter ship from the Ninga fleet called the South Wind. The South Wind came crashing down into the planet Tiamat with plutonium, a highly explosive weapon. The word Moon comes from the word Monos, who was the Greek deity of Sarcasm, and of pain, for the hurt that Luna felt, because he wanted rule of all the stars of the heaven and earth, and his sarcasm, in dealing with the DINNEERS. Luna brought his plea before as to his wish to rule the sun, moon and all the stars, and was voted down by the IGIGI. In his rejection, because of his sarcasm, he became a deity amongst The Euro-Americans, who are some descendants of the Greeks, and Romans. They will tell you, that this name originated with them, however, the name Moon, was adopted from the Ancient Egyptian deity

The Deity Luna

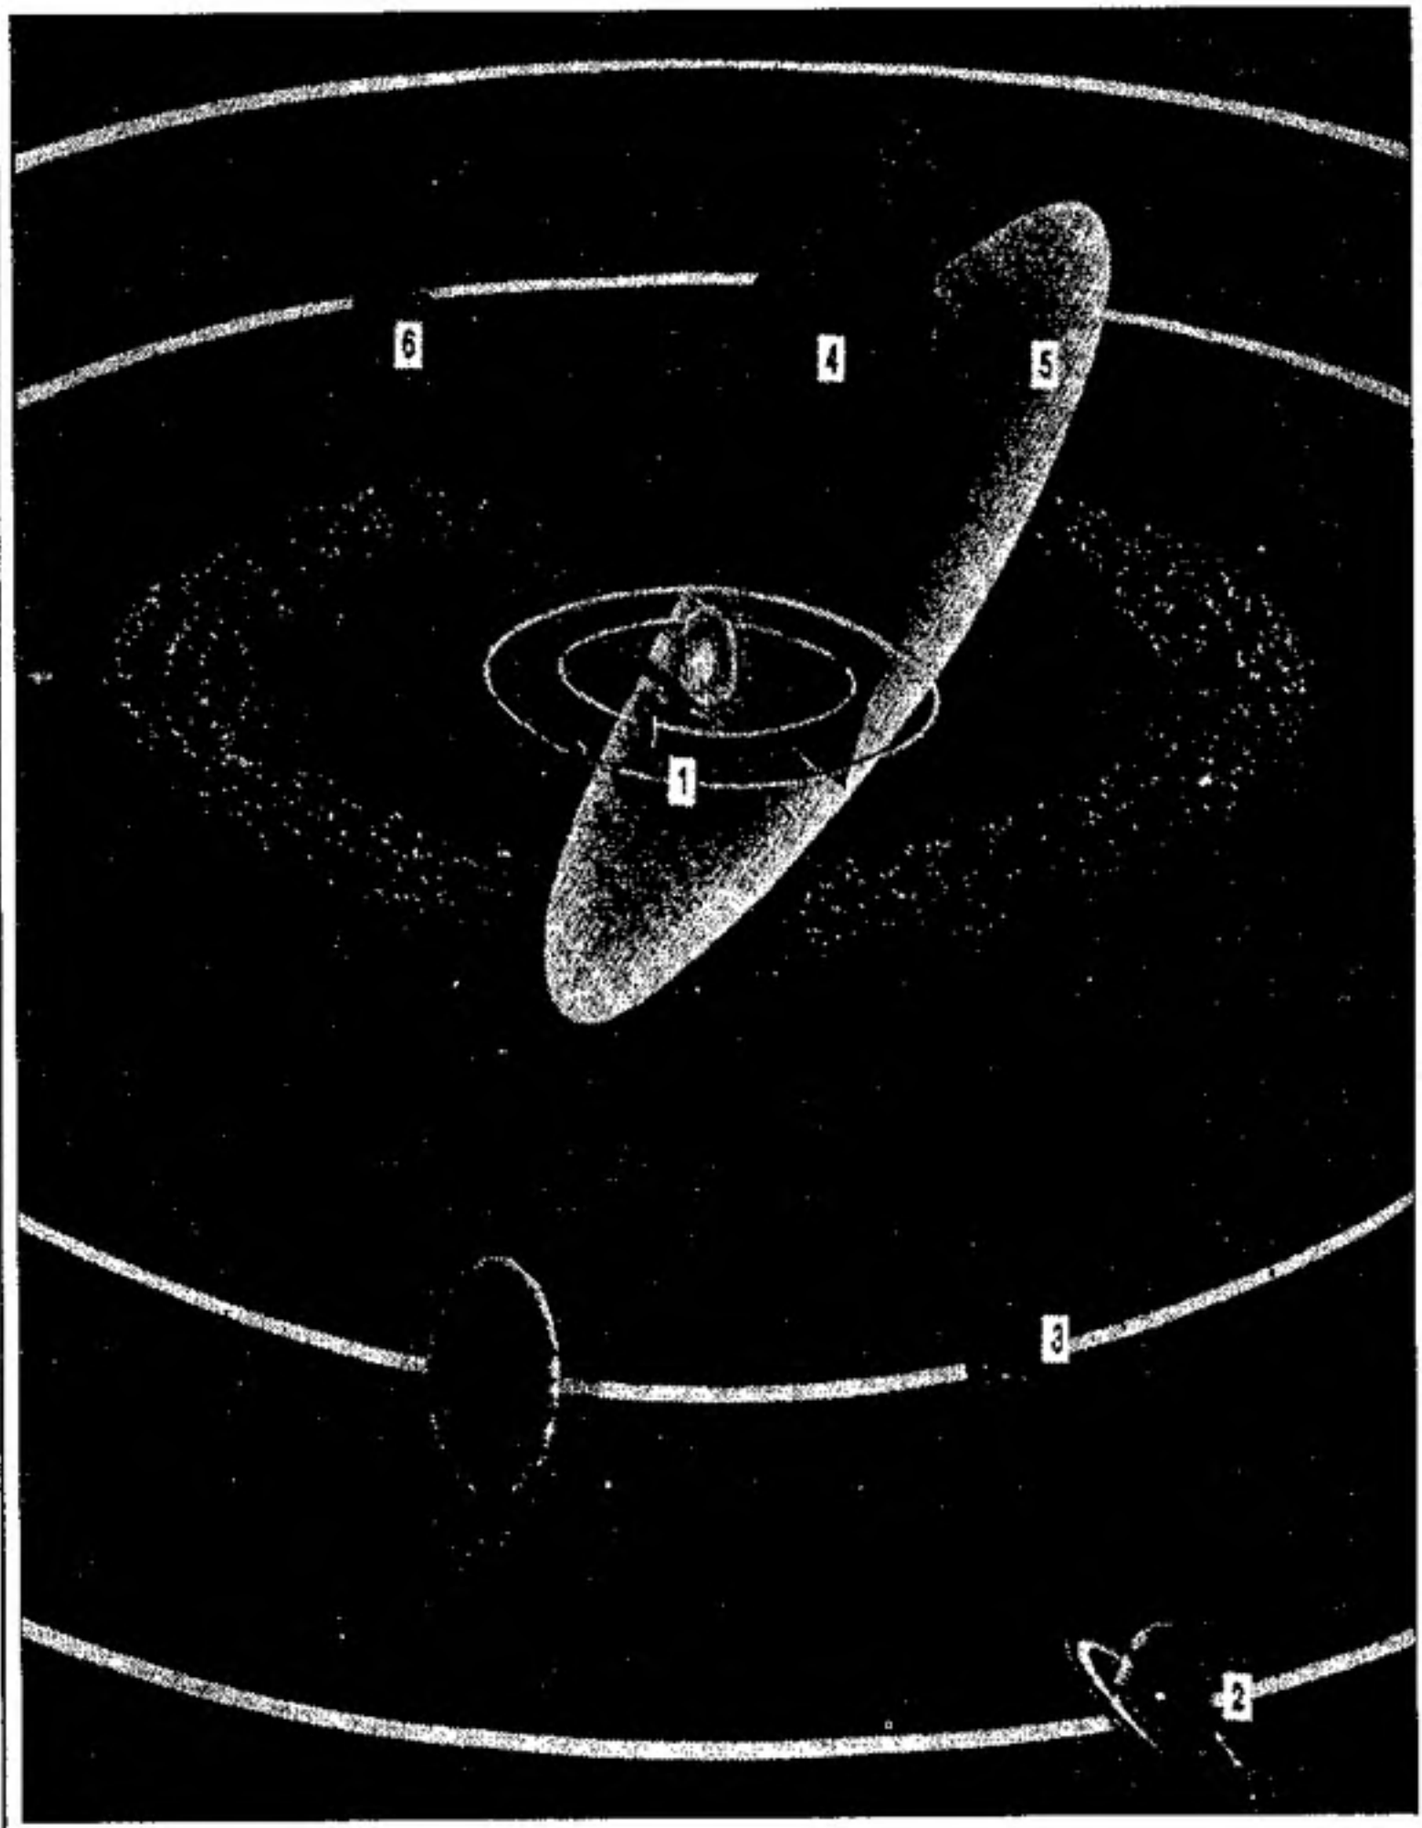

Diagram 12
The Asteroid Belt

Monthu, the deity of Thebes, who fell into disfavor with the mortals due to royal politicking during the 11th dynasty. He was a Lunar deity, where the Greeks stole their concept from.

3 The planet Earth, Qi was known then as Tiamat. This explosion created what is called today the Grand Canyon, and giving birth to another small planet in its own orbit, rotating around this newly formed planet, Qi.

4 This newly-formed planet was named Sheshqi, meaning "celestial deity who protects Earth/Qi", now called the Moon, which created a lunar orbit around the planet Qi. It's now 283,900 miles from Earth.

5 The moon is now a bleak piece of the planet Earth.

6 So with most of the waters dried on the moon, because its waters are on Earth, she keeps pulling on the waters of this planet.

7 The moon was not blasted enough to make a complete turn by itself, while rotating around the planet Earth.

8 Therefore, you never see the other side, before it is again entering into the shaded side of the planet Earth. There is a base, called Moon Base 12 up there. You just can't see it and they don't want you to know about it.

9 Humans are living in dome homes, and there are big laboratories for mining on the Moon.

10 So you have the evening tide pulling on the waters of the planet Earth. Without this process of the water, all the vegetation would die.

11 Those that live on the planet Sheshqi would also die.

12 Sheshqi was first covered with life and vegetation, just like Earth today. For instance, there are even certain radioactive elements found deep in the Earth, that are found in the crust of the Moon. And this once being a thought of an ir-reality, has now been confirmed by scientists on March 5, 1998 that there is ice on the Moon. There are pockets of ice crystals that have been found beneath the lunar surface by a robot survey spacecraft. The lunar prospector's neutron spectrometer sent back data indicating the presence of significant amounts of hydrogen distributed in the loose lunar soil at the bottom of polar craters. The ice was found in Lunar South pole, as well as in the craters of the North pole.

13 All life died on Sheshqi because of the explosion of a warship that came from the planet Maldek, that got caught in the gravitational pull of Nibiru, and crashed into the planet Tiamat, and caused the breaking away of a moon called Sheshqi.

14 The female's menstrual cycle is approximately a 29 1/2 day cycle, which coincides with the 4 phases of the moon, making her symbol the square, while the male's symbol, being the sun, is a circle.

15 The 4 quarters start from full to 3/4, or from 3/4 to 1/2, or 1/2 to full moon again.

16 A secret name of the moon is Haylal, meaning "the crescent", a symbol of Diana who is also called Sin, symbol of Baphomet from French Mahomet for Muhammadan, the 5-pointed interlocking inverted star. The movement of the moon each cycle, 12 in each year; that is 3 sets of four phases and is the symbol of the 5 P's, which are the roots of their laws: Polytheism, Politics, Psychology, Philosophy and

Penal,

17 This moon called Sheshqi, or Qamar by the Muhammadans is 2,160 miles, or about 1/3 the size of the planet Earth, 18 Which is 7,926 miles; and is composed basically of the same minerals, that have been analyzed from rocks brought back from the moon and then compared to those on the planet Earth.

19 The moon still has erupting volcanoes on it. The bases have been discovered on the moon to date. They were reactivated and are being used to mine moon minerals.

20 Moon Data: Diameter = 2,160 miles. Distance from Tiamat = 238,900 miles. The Moon makes one complete orbit around Tiamat every 27.33 Earth days. It spins on its own axis 27.33 Earth days. Some say every 27.32 days.

21 The Moon consists of 4 quarters: First quarter, new moon, last quarter, full moon. It is divided by two crescents and two gibbous stages called Phases.

22 El Gadush Garun "The Holy Qur'aan" speaks clearly of the splitting away of Al Qamar, the moon from Al Ard, the Earth.

23 It says in its 37th degree that has been changed to the 54th degree, verses 1 and 2:

The hour' is coming close and the Moon is split asunder. And if they see A sign they turn away and they say: "It is but A form, of magic.

24 The true Muslims are to have faith according to one of their own, Al Baizawi:

When those in doubt asked Muhammad for a sign, the moon appeared split in two.

25 It's believed by them also that the last day will be noted by the moon's eclipse and they are to prostrate twice. This is written in the 31st degree that has been changed to the 75th degree, verses 8 through 10 :

And the Moon is eclipsed. And the sun and the Moon are gathered together. (These days you see the sun and the moon out together in midday). The (Enosite) shall say on that day, "Where is the 'place to escape?"

26 Muhammad in El's Holy Garun swears by it three times; Once in the 4th degree that has been changed to the 74th degree, verses 32 through 39:

Nevertheless and the Moon' and the Shadow Hour period when it passes. And, the early daytime hour, when it appears. Surely it, (hell) is one of the biggest calamities. A warning to the mortals in skin; To those of you who will, to go forward progress (in agreeableness, follow the rites of Abrawhawm/Abram, or Ibrahiym) or remain behind - (stay in disagreeableness; follow rites other than Abram's rites). Every nafs 'spirit/person', is held in pledge for that which it has earn. Except for the companions of the right hand (the true Muslims, 'peaceful ones and their seed, the Ahlil Bayt).

27 The true Muslims, peaceful ones, and their seed, the Ahlil Bayt, that is the Ansaaruallah, the only Muslims who strive for pristine purity.

28 Again, Muhammad swears in the 83rd degree, which was changed to the 84th degree, verse 16-19:

So nevertheless, I swear by the red glow of the sun when it darkens, and the shadow hour period. and what it gathers together (shrouds). And the moon when it becomes full. That you shall most certainly pass from plane to plane (life after death).

29 And the 26th degree, now changed to the 91st, verses 1 through 10, says:

And the sun, and its radiance. And the moon, when it follows after it. And the daytime (afternoon) when it is brightened by it, and by the shadow hour period, when it screens it, and the sky and what built it, and the planet Earth and what landscaped it. And the spirit/person and what perfected it. So He, (he not we) inspired it, (the spirit to overstand) its wickedness, and its trembling at the mention. He who purifies it, (his spirit) has certainly become prosperous. And certainly He who buries it, (his spirit) has certainly failed.

30 The crescent moon holds such great meaning to them that it is their symbol.

The Story Of Luna

31 The Moon as you know it today is in its latter state. It was once a part of an enormous planet Tiamat, 24,000,000,000 billion years ago, before it broke off 11,000,000,000 billion years ago, and before that it belonged to an even greater planet called Tiwawat. Before the planet Tiwawat was blown away by a crazy scientist, by the name of Luna in an attempt to rule the whole planet.

32 Luna's attempt to explode the whole planet Tiwawat caused the breaking away of a moon called Kingu, or Lunar meaning "great emissary", which happened 66,000,000,000 billion years ago.

33 He placed a bomb called Balus, which was made from Plutonium, that came from his original home in Pluto, and placed it in, Shamballah, which was then called Esharra. Plutonium's name was derived from the planet Pluto. It is a radioactive chemical element, and bears the symbol Pu. Its atomic number is 94, and its atomic weight is 239.13. Plutonium is one of the main elements used in nuclear weapons.

34 In the center of the planet Earth is a long thirty mile tube, due to the plutonium bomb.

35 When Kingu, the moon broke away, Luna himself was on that part.

36 Luna, or Lunar, wanted to rule the sun, moon and all the stars.

37 He only ruled the lower half of the planet Tiwawat that you call earth today, equal in power with the ruler of the upper half, however he wanted to rule the whole planet. He brought his request before the council of Dinneers, and was rejected by the Igigis, because of his Sarcasm, which is why he became known as Monos, deity of sarcasm and pain. His rejection angered him, and he decided to blow up the planet Tiwawat.

38 Luna is an old deity who was disagreeable and ruled the planet Kingu before it died and its waters dried up, due to it being thrown off into its own orbit by Nibiru.

39 He was the deity of the moon, Kingu also called Lunar and his intentions were evil. Luna lived and ruled Kingu, 66,000,000,000 billion years ago after it broke away from Tiwawat, the original Earth, which came with the original creation of this solar system, that exploded from the Milky Way. The Milky Way was formed from a massive sun called Sal collapsing and exploding outward. Then the Milky Way exploded again and gave birth to our present day sun called Shamush or Haylius which is 93,000,000,000 billion years old.

40 Before this sun called Shamush became a ball of gas containing

Diagram 16
The Moon Breaking Off From The Earth

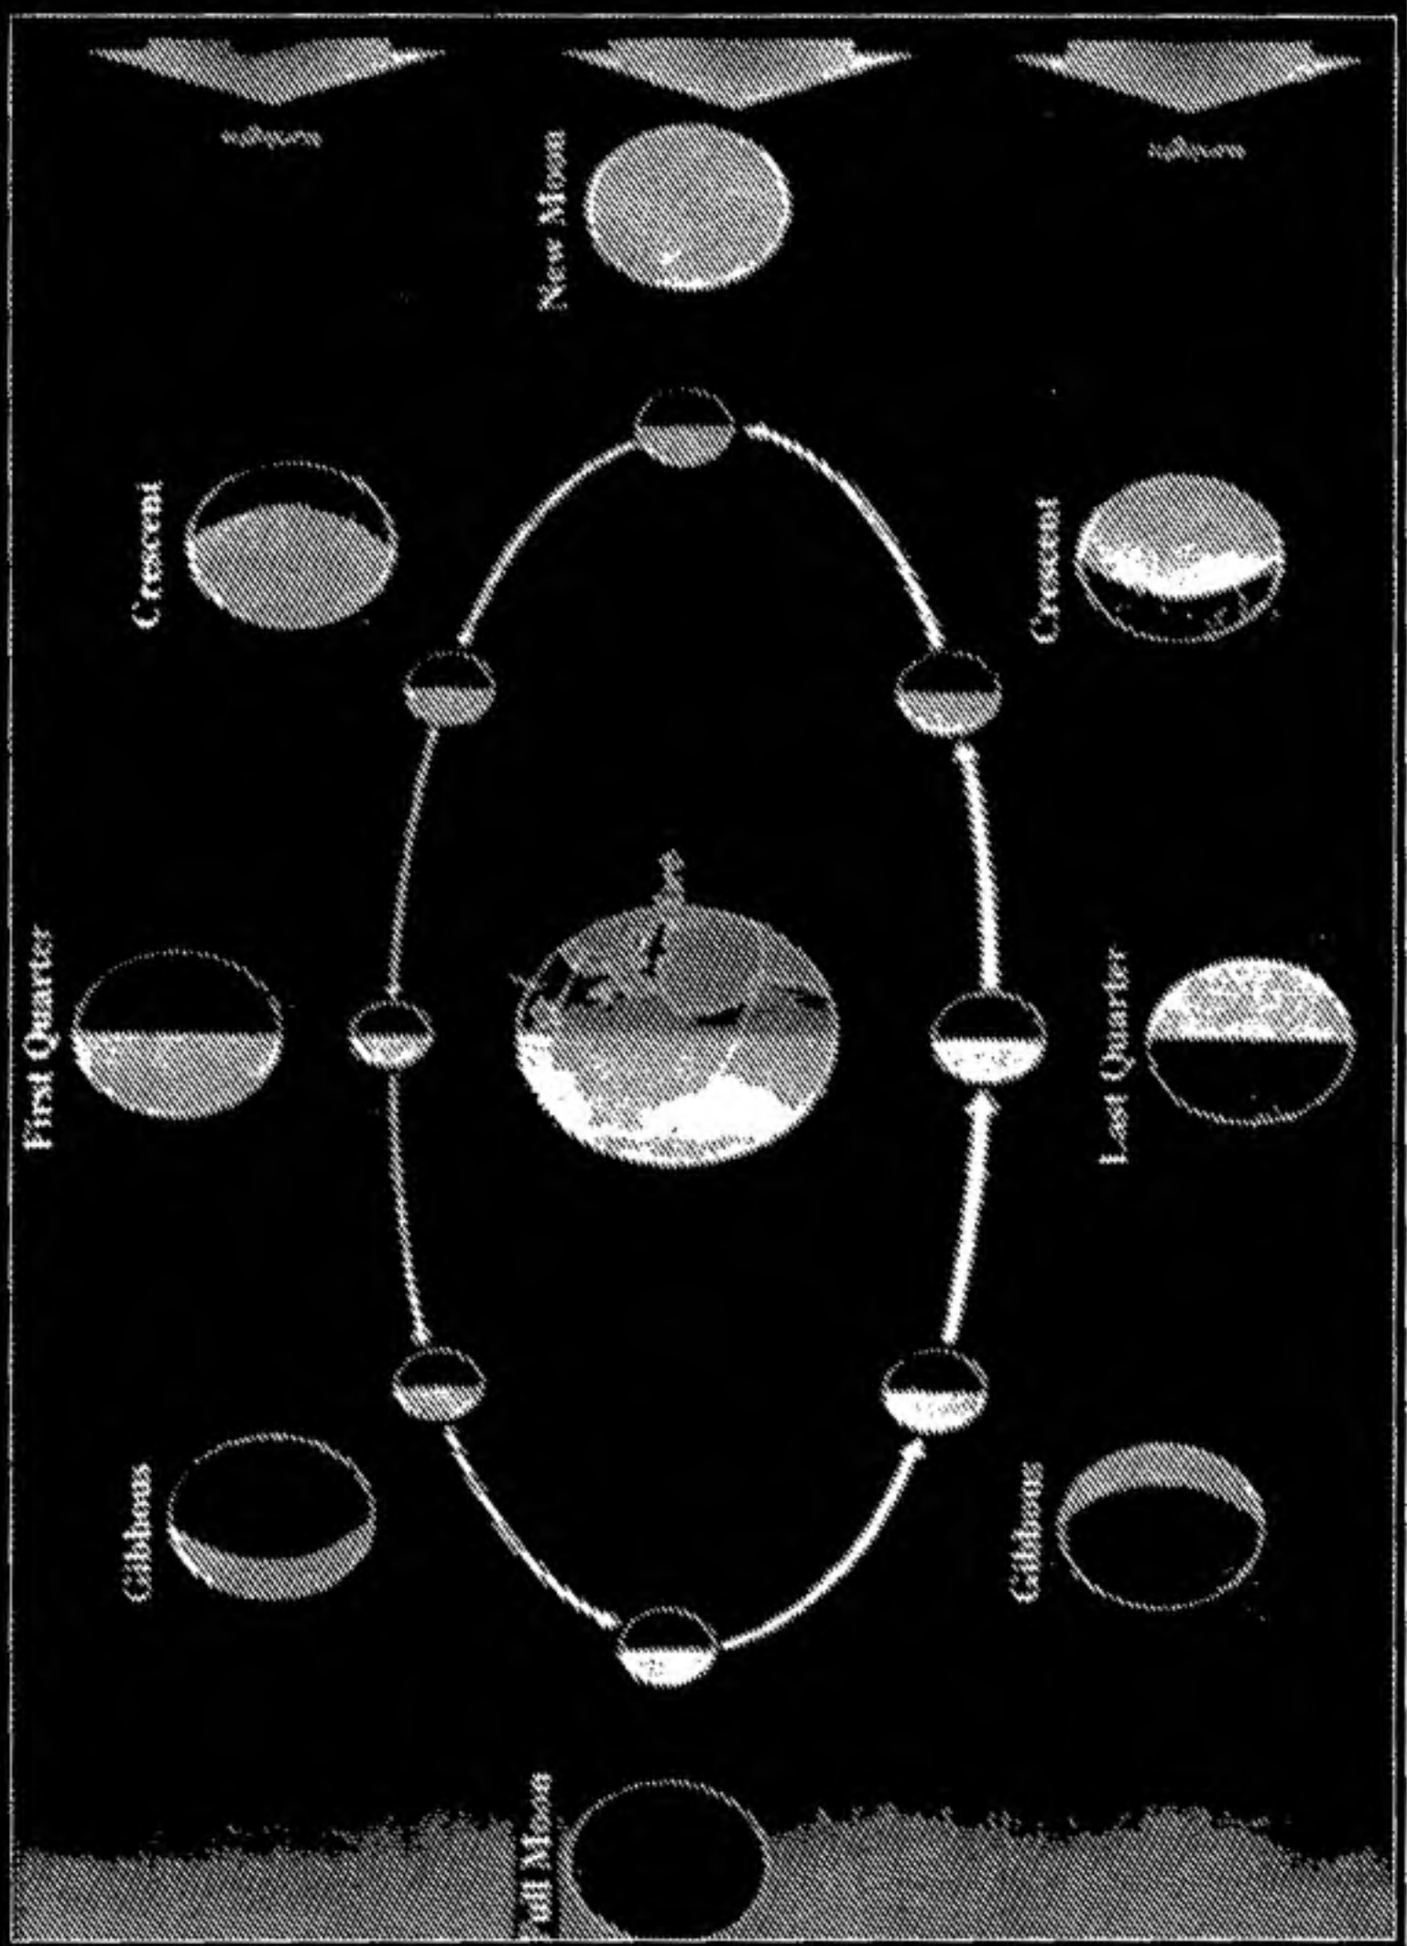

Diagram 17
The Phases Of The Moon

hydrogen and helium, it was an active planet called Aum, containing all of the planets, moons and satellites which make up this solar system.

41 The sun was one tremendous mass, a planet called Aum. This solar system was one of 19 planets that surrounded a more massive sun called Sal.

42 Sal was named after its original ruler Sal or Sol, whose wife was named Arinna. Their combined rulership gives you the name Sal-Arinna, or Salarinna, shortened to Sol-ar, or simply solar.

43 This massive sun Sal collapsed and exploded outward, and Aum got caught in the gravitational pull of Sal, and it exploded and gave birth to your sun, Shamush. All 19 of the planets were hurled off into space and exploded to create 19 galaxies in space and beyond. Galaxies are recorded as population 1, population 2, population 3 and population 4, and on. Population 1 galaxies are based on their age, are from hundreds of thousands of years old to 25 billion years old, population 2 is from 25 billion years old to 100 billion years old, and population 3 from 1 trillion to 25 trillion, population 4 is from 25 trillion to 100 trillion and on.

44 The Milky Way, from the Latin via, way + lactea, milky, which is the eighteenth galaxy, taken its name from the Greek sea nymph, Galatea, from the Middle English galaxie, "the Milky Way", from Late Latin galaxias, from Greek, "milky", from gala, galakt-, meaning "milk". This Milky way Galaxy exploded again to create the present solar system, the new heaven, and new earth will reveal a second and third sun, yet at this point you have one sun called Shamush or Haylius, and 10 planets called 1. Mercury, 2. Venus, 3. Earth, 4. Mars, 5. Jupiter, 6. Saturn, 7. Titan, 8. Uranus, 9. Neptune, 10. Pluto, and on the outside the eleventh planet being Maldek, and also Planet X, Another Name For The Twelfth Planet When You Include The Sun And The Moon, As Planets, It Becomes Nibiru.

45 This was the making of the 18th galaxy ruled by the signs of the zodiac called solar biology.

46 This all took place 76,000,000,000,000 trillion years ago. It's called the birth of the universe from triple darkness.

47 Luna wanted to rule the whole universe, so he used over 30,000,000 million tons of atomic energy to blow up Tiwawat, thinking that it would shift the orbit of the planets, and cause a planetary collapse, or star holocaust.

48 He was originally a Humanoid Type Maldekite from Gaga/Pluto who lived on Tiwawat after they had crashed down, and he tried to rule all beings on Earth. The Maldekians, and their slaves the Troglodytes, also known as Masmukiyya have been using the vast seas of the planet Earth for billions of years as a home base under the Bermuda Triangle, also called the Angel's triangle.

49 Luna was originally from Gaga, which was later called Pluto or Platoon, a planet that was also occupied by the Maldekians, or Troglodytes, as well as the Hindus, who resided on Pluto after they left their planet Nirvana, and mixed with the Maldekians, of which Luna was a product of. These beings also lived on planets like Titan, Europa, and Earth that are in this Milky Way Galaxy. Also other planets such as the bright stars Betelgeuse, and Rigel and many others. All a part of the six star constellation Orion, called also Ouranos, and Kesiyl which is held up by the Sirius star constellation. A star in the constellation Canis Major, the brightest star in the sky, approximately 8.6 light-years distant from Earth. Also called the Dog Star, Sothis. From Latin Sirius, from Greek Seirios, from seirios, burning. Canis Major and Canis Minor are the two dogs of Orion the Hunter, a nearby constellation, containing the star Betelgeuse, with which Sirius and Procyon together form an equilateral triangle. The Orion is constellation located on the celestial equator east of Taurus. It is an oblong configuration with three stars in line near its center, in the Orion belt, called the Nebula. It is represented on pictorial charts as the figure of Orion, it was called Sahu the soul of Usir, Osiris. Three bright stars represent his belt, 1. Alnitak, 2. Alnilam, 3. Mintaka. This is the home of the agreeable Anunnagi, or Aluhum, and the disagreeable 4 winds, which make up 1. Betelgeuse, 2. Bellatrix, 3. Rigel, and 4. Saiph, under the watchful eye of Sept, also called Sirius, and Sothis where Nibiru took residence. There is also three fainter stars aligned south of the belt. Alpha (a) Orionis, or Betelgeuse, is located in the left corner of the oblong, which corresponds to Orion's shoulder. Beta (b) Orionis, or Rigel, is diagonally opposite Betelgeuse. A nebula surrounding the three stars marking Orion's sword is one of the most conspicuous bright nebulas in the heavens.

50 Lunar's daughter was also called Luna, and his wife was called Hyperion.

51 Lunar also had a daughter, named Persephone, and she married Pluto, also known as Hades, a son of Kronos and Rhea, ruler of the Underworld.

52 Rhea was from Uranus, which was the name of the ruler of that planet, and his wife Gaea, mother of Poseidon.

53 Gaea was ruler in Titan, where there were great cyclopes, which are of any race of one-eyed giants, who reputedly descended from Titan, inhabiting the island of Sicily. From the Latin, from Greek Kuklos: kuklos, meaning "circle, eye". There were also furies, which are the three terrible, winged goddesses with serpentine hair, Alecto, Megaera, and Tisiphone, who pursue and punish doers of unavenged crimes. From the Middle English furie, from Old French, from Latin furia, from furere, meaning "to rage", and also there were giants, meaning a person or thing of great size. From the Middle English, from Old French geant, jaiant, from Vulgar Latin gagas*, gagant-, from Latin gigas, from Greek gigas.

54 These were the rulers in this solar system after and before the crash of Nibiru's winds into Tiamat; yes there were giants in this Earth before Kadmon (Adam) the Zamzummims, meaning "plotters" the Emims, meaning "terrors" Philistims, meaning "immigrants" and Rephaims, meaning "healers".

55 With the wind ships of the Maldekians, also known as the Valkuns, when trillions were billions, and billions were millions, and millions were thousands;

56 This is in accordance to the motion of your planet around Afsu, the sun; and how far your planet was from it.

57 So the moon as a satellite of the Planet Earth has 3 birth date records:

11,000,000,000 billion, it breaks off from the planet Tiamat, Earth, 24,000,000,000 billion the recreation of the planet Earth, and 76,000,000,000,000 trillion the original creation of the entire universe. Just as the conception of a mortal goes through 3 phases to birth, that which is declared the moon today, had went through three separate periods in its path to becoming what it is.

Tablet Seven
The Creation Of Your Solar System (19 x 5 = 95)

Lo! 93,000,000,000 Billion years ago, your solar system formed out of a gigantic whirling dust cloud and gas, as a result of the collapse of that great star Sal.

2 A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, The Most High, Al 'Aliy or El or Illa, who is known as simply Allah, Rabb and Yahweh, or Ha-Shem and Ra, and ANU--all of these names called by religious people, however he is one and the same. ANU created this universe, and the planet called Earth for his blueprint of "physical creation," meaning that these 2 entities, the skies and the Earth, marked the beginning of everything to come. It was the spirit of the Most High, that controlled everything, to quicken and come into being--come to life.

3 So he is called "The Light Of The Galactical Heaven And The Planet Earth."

4 This marks the time when the explosion came from combining two hydrogen atoms to make helium; and then the combination of the two gases, which led to a series of chain reactions exploding, and this was the creation of the Shamush.

5 That cloud of dust and gas existed unformed in the universe, then it began to collapse.

6 This brought 2 Hydrogen atoms together to form Helium. Hydrogen, the most and abundant and simplest gas in the universe, is the fuel of the stars of which there are many kinds.

7 There are binary stars which are a pair of stars which revolve around each other; and eclipsing binary stars which are stars that revolve in such a way that one star blocks the other's light.

8 Stars, such as your sun, stay hot because of your nucleus changes in their centers. Over a period of time, increasing degrees of contractions and heat occur until reactions in their centers produce intense heat and brightness.

9 In the stellar cores, Hydrogen is converted into Helium and other heavier elements, as 554,000,000 million tons of Hydrogen (H) changed into 550,000,000 million tons of helium (He) each second of your sun.

10 The remaining 4,000,000 million exploded from the center giving birth to sun spots, or electrical storms on the sun.

11 This was the birth of your sun, originally called Afsu, known today as Shamash or Shamush by the great ruler ANU, The Most High, The Highest.

12 Between these two gases, light fire came into being. The sun's energy comes from the changing of hydrogen (H) to helium (He) at a temperature of about 30,000,000 million, and 175, 262° F, degrees Fahrenheit.

13 Helium burning gives off hydrogen, which in turn makes more helium.

14 This is what makes the sun a ball of gas, which is constantly burning.

15 This burning of atoms causes the explosions, also called electrical storms. These storms give off sparks of hydrogen and helium, that fling out into the universe.

16 Upon being flung out into the universe, whirling at tremendous speed, these sparks of burning gas began to cool to a lesser degree of heat, and it settled in different places within the universe.

17 We call these planets, stars, and other galaxies.

18 From your sun's electrical storms came the birth of your solar system; a large universe, a Supernova, an explosion.

19 This is the 3rd degree of darkness. This explosion caused the reverse action–from expansion to retraction–that led to the collapse.

20 This supernova was 1,000,000,000 billion light years away at that time.

21 After becoming red giants, supernovas, from the word Super meaning, "above; over; upon: superimpose. Superior in size, from the Latin, from super, meaning "over, above", and the word Nova meaning "A star that suddenly becomes much brighter and then gradually returns to its original brightness over a period of weeks to years, from the New Latin (stella) nova, new (star), nova, feminine of Latin novus, meaning "new".

22 These supernovas collapse upon themselves, producing intense heat and causing their cores to explode.

23 Sometimes an explosion blows the entire star to bits and at other times a lump may still be left to become a neutron star, which is a small star made up entirely of neutrons, a collapsed star of tremendous density.

24 A neutron star is a celestial body hypothesized to occur in a terminal stage of stellar evolution. It essentially consists of a superdense mass of neutrons, that have a powerful gravitational attraction from which only neutrinos and high-energy photons can escape, thus rendering the body invisible except to x-ray detection.

25 Neutron stars have masses of about one solar mass and radii of about 10 km (6.2 mi).

26 Their densities are thought to be about 10 to the power of 14 times that of water. Because of their identification with pulsars, rotating neutron stars are thought to have extremely strong magnetic fields on the order of (10 to the power of 12) gauss (compared to a field of 0.2 gauss on Earth, and a few thousand gauss in sunspots).

27 Every time they spin they give out a flash of energy, like a lighthouse.

28 The largest remaining bit of the star may also become so compressed and possess such an intense gravitational pull that it becomes a black hole.

29 At the center of the black hole the star that died is crushed out of existence by the force of gravity.

30 Black holes give off no light and act like stellar vacuum cleaners, sucking up matter and energy from space.

31 They can be compared to the effect that is produced when a cup of liquid is stirred at high speed.

32 Once the spoon is removed a hole is made in the center, like a miniature whirlpool.

33 Floating objects are drawn and sucked into the center.

34 So black holes will absorb any stray matter or energy that passes within a certain range of its horizon including light.

35 Dwarf stars, which are also dark brown, are made of protons.

36 Novas are stars that explode and become thousands of times brighter and then becomes dim again.

37 The White Dwarf is a small white star with a large amount of material, packed into an extremely small space.

38 A White Dwarf star is about the size of the Earth, but weighs as much as the Sun.

39 The weight of the Sun's outer layers compresses the gas of the innermost region to a density about 100 times that of water and raises the central temperature to about 15 million K (27,000,000 degrees Fahrenheit).

40 Then there are the supernovas an extremely bright star exploding suddenly appearing in the sky, generally decreasing rapidly in brightness.

41 Giants have a relatively large radius for its mass and temperature and supergiants are any relatively enormous stars, with a greater magnitude than a giant star.

42 Their lifetimes are short in comparison to other stars.

43 Some of the smaller stars are called neutron stars which are made up entirely of neutrons, a collapsed star of tremendous density.

44 A light year is the distance light can travel in one year. Light travels at approximately 186,272 miles per second over a period of 365 days of the solar year, and then there is a Luna year of 354 days at a solar year;

45 That means light travels 5,874,273,792,000 miles per second each 31,536,000 thousand years.

46 This Supernova was a part of a cluster. All clusters move away from each other. A cluster is one of many groups in which galaxies exist, 19 to be exact on this side of the massive black hole, whose vortex opens every 10 earth years.

47 This vortex allows you to travel interdimensionally through these portals in time and space, which open on earth every 10 years that ends with the number 3. Because time is speeding up, you get caught in time.

48 For instance, the last time was 1993 A.D. of the Gregorian calendar.

49 Let's go back to where it started. 1983 - 1973 - 1963 - 1953 - 1943, when the opening of the vortex with the invention of a time machine in the Philadelphia experiment.

50 The next year of the opening of the vortex will be 2003 A.D.

51 Your time warp started in 1940 a.d. with the Philadelphia Incident.

52 This experiment is what caused a vortex to open up causing Extraterrestrials to come into this dimension because of the magnetic pull from the big generators that supplied the energy for the invisibility project in Philadelphia.

53 The vortex can be opened by Extraterrestrials from the 6th density from their time reference.

54 And one such incident occurred on June 6, 1966 A.D. which was the birthdate of 13 sons who were born to "the Devil".

55 All types of malevolent beings came through to Earth during this time.

56 The Philadelphia Experiment was an experiment to accomplish teleportation of a warship, The USS Eldridge from Philadelphia to a dock near Norfolk, Virginia by using Albert Einstein's Unified Field Theory.

57 This experiment originally began in 1930 in Chicago, Illinois with a team of scientists.

58 A strange phenomenon happened where 2 navy men Alfred Bielek and Duncan Cameron jumped over the side of the Eldridge, and they landed in Montauk, in Long Island, New York.

59 Where the scientists went wrong, was that they didn't take into consideration, that the sailors, all had emotional involvements at the time of the experiment.

60 So in trying to link up the USS Eldridge, an object, versing the bio-rhythms of a living entity, the human body, and the Earth which had its 1/2 peak at that time caused the problems.

61 The scientists had no understanding of the human psychic, love nor the metaphysics of the Earth, that also has a bio-rhythm like the human body, because it also is a living entity.

62 Also everybody there had a zero time reference different from everyone else. These factors caused the strange phenomena that occurred on the ship.

63 All humans have a time reference. Now they're locked at zero time reference, which is a set time created during the beginning of an experiment.

64 For humans, it is the point at which every individual is conceived, and it continues on to the gestation period until they're born.

65 It is locked to the time stream as he calls it, and is locked so that he can relate to society and civilization around him, and, flow at the same rate as everyone else and has a reference that remains with him throughout his or her life until he or she dies. At which the soul goes on and on, and can come back, reincarnate theoretically in the past or future.

66 But this time reference is sometimes fragile when you start pumping mega watts of power and actually pulse to the giga watt region, the type of energies that will affect the psyche, mind and spirit, you disrupt these references.

67 So what happened was, the reference of the individual is disrupted, but are within the ship's field. So they are not lost.

68 They don't float off into space at that point; but when the ship's field comes down, and those individual references are below and behind the barrier which was in the hull of the ship in the radio room, where Duncan and Bielek were, they were in between these shields that are against magnetic energy.

69 This interdimensional travel is nothing new. We have been doing this for millions of years, which allows beings from other worlds, galaxies, or universes to incarnate here.

70 Let me explain: Most of the crafts exposed to you here on Earth are designed aerodynamically, showing you that they were created and built, right here for this atmosphere, or there would be no need for their saucer ship, which is to cut its way through the air.

71 However, the Nibiruan fleet are crafts that travel to and fro in time and space, and even interdimensionally, altering time, by facilitating the principle of "NOW". Once you're moving faster than the speed of light.

72 After a universe collapses in its center or contracts, it expands which is an explosion called a "Big Bang," producing the sound Kha, from which the word Khalug "create" comes. This occurrence of contraction and expansion is something that happens all the time which is also why there is no real line of division between galaxies. They overlap each other the way bubbles connect to each other. Just as the planes do.

73 It is the same sound that each being that comes into this world, as the womb contracts to yield for birth, and the baby girgles out gha, and kha, remembering the sounds of chaos in creation, as one thing comes into existence, it fractures other things to form itself.

74 It's a gradual process of development in the womb, as the sounds of an octave. Each C note, of each octave is the same C note vibrating on a higher or lower scale, called tones.

75 An octave is 8 notes and all of the sounds inclusive of sharps and flats, within 1 octave is 13.

76 The 9th point is the actual birth and the new being creates for the first time for all to hear his/her own tone. Such is the way of the universe and galaxies.

77 Now, each universe begins expanding and growing larger until it reaches a point where it bounces off of other expanding universes, and begins to contract. This is only to collapse and explode again, creating, or reconstructing new universes.

78 Atoms and cells all do the exact same thing the human body does; it grows and expands until it collapses. You call it death, which is merely a sickness that can be cured.

79 So, the universe does the exact same thing; it dies. When a universe dies, it explodes and causes the reverse of an expansion.

80 The space between galaxies is always getting bigger. So billions of years ago, galaxies were closer and closer, before expanding.

Before.....

81 There had to be a point of starting. This would have all the galaxies crunched together into a small space.

82 This would have been 76,000,000,000,000 trillion years ago, the small dot or Nagut exploded and this was called the "Big Bang", resulting from the expanding then collapsing of the universe. This sound is Kha which disturbs the A'yun tone of the original.

83 This caused the explosion of positive, low pitch tones, dark tones, and negative forces, high pitch tone, bright tones, causing the negative and positive forces to clash into each other, by the will of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is outside of your time zone.

84 Your time zone is second to second, minute to minute, hour to hour, day to day.

85 Yet, each day of your days is 1000 years to A'lyun A'lyun El's day, making it hard for you to overstand just how A'LYUN A'LYUN EL exists.

86 For the pure sound of AUM, which predates the bang is covered in the chaos of creation, and you must seek this tone, AUM to realign yourself.

87 Each individual born vibrates, and has a tone within an octave, and there are various octaves to complete the full scale of sound, and sound vibrates from conception to decline, to end, which registers it in time.

88 Each individual has a zero time reference and tone reference, and vibrational level.

89 Yet, you exist all in what's called set time, which exists within real time. That, is each individual's real time. Their point of origin. All hearts do not beat, like a metronome at exact beats per second. Sound flows, and is utilized, cut on and cut off. Life flows and is utilized, cut on and cut off. A'LYUN A'LYUN EL's time does not have a "then" only a "now", whereas each individual is at the point of "now", and looks back at multiple "thens" and looks forward to multiple "thens". Thus, on both sides of present, you find past and future.

90 That was at the very beginning, not the beginning.

91 The time, El Wagut, El Asr, it says in El's Holy Garun in the 13th degree, which has been changed to the 183rd degree, verses 1 through 3: pertaining to the time when the Enoshites soul will be squeezed from his body and is overcome by death:

And the squeezing of Enosite's soul, It will be squeezed from his body,' Surely, this is the age when the Enosites are overcome by defeat. Except for those who are faithful and work to perfect their being and are advocates of patience.

92 By the measurements of time when it begins and when it ends; to humans your reference of time began at the recreation of this planet then called Tiamat to Qi and now Earth, from Eridu.

93 Time does not move forward nor has it come from behind. It has always been.

94 Time does not ascend upward nor has it descended from above.

95 Time is now. Now is the time. Time is. Then now is not then.

Tablet Eight
Life Forms Of Tiamat, Earth
(19 x 4 = 76)

Lo! Your planet called Earth is Within The 18th galaxy called the Milky Way because of its disc-shaped dense mass of stars, which has millions of stars and light from the planet called Earth.

2 The sun, stars and the reflected light of the moon, from the sun, produce the much needed illumination for the Earth. One takes up where the other leaves off.

3 Yet this is only made possible by the motions of these heavenly bodies. It will take 30,000 thousand years to go from the Earth through the Milky Way at Earth's speed.

4 Each individual conceived has a zero time reference, from the moment of inception (the moment or incident). In pure and holy darkness, before cause or effect, before right `and wrong, good and evil before chaos, and conception (process or growth), in the unpure and unholy light of this world, where there is will, good and evil things happening.

5 That point is real time in each individual's existence, in the physical world, from conception is fake time.

6 You exist in what's called set time. you set the time from life to death. It all exists before you and will exists after you.

7 You and your life is only a point or

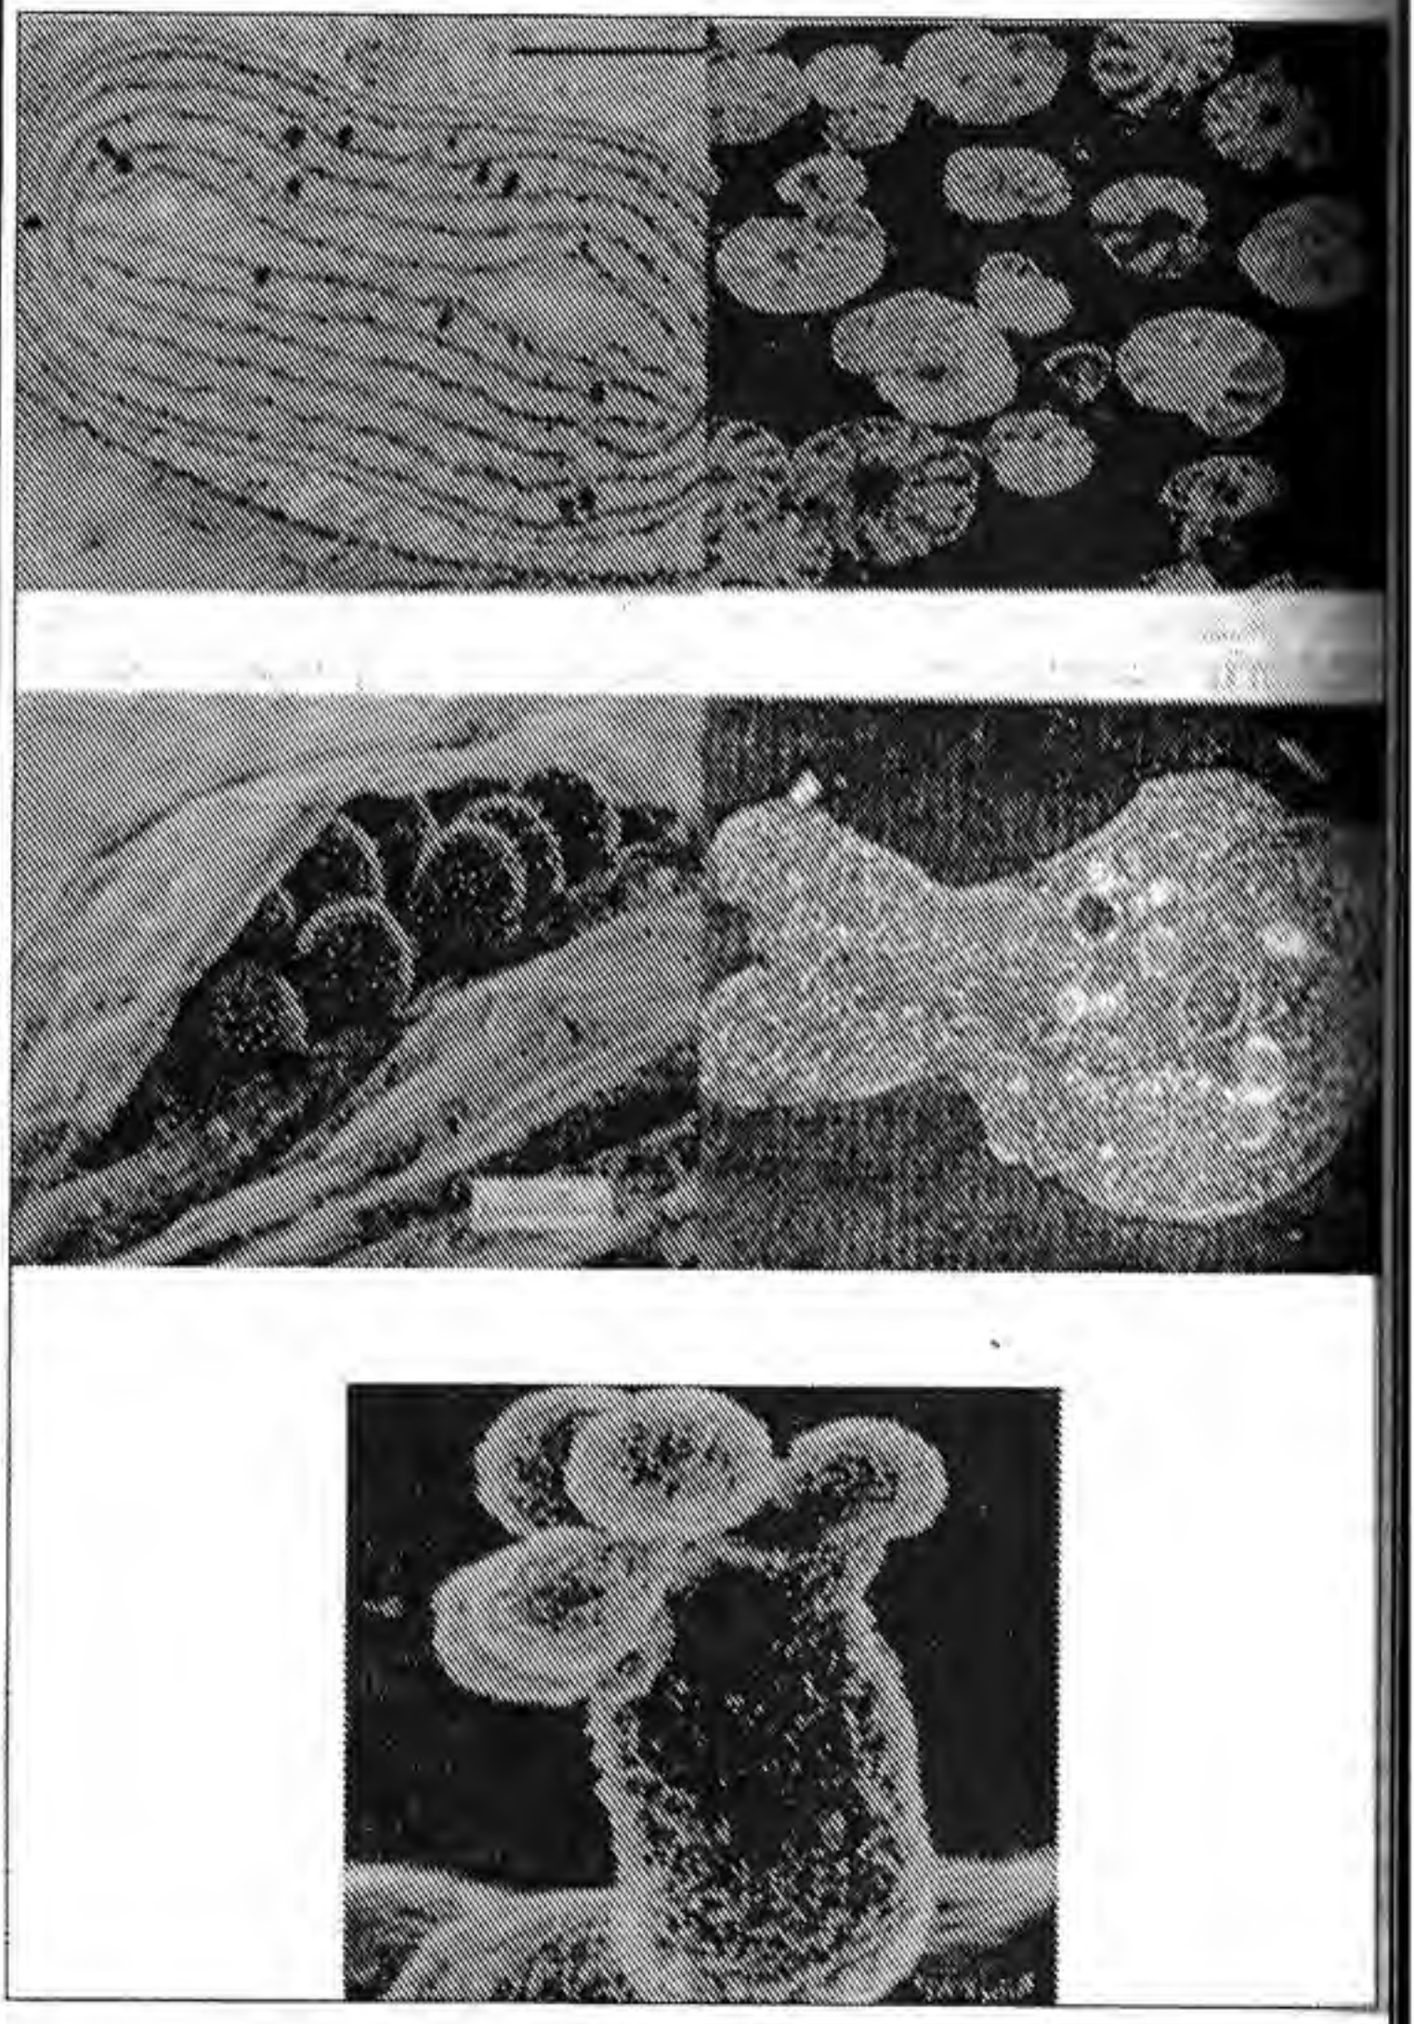

Figure 11
Intelligent Life Forms

short space in real time, which exists in all when the light of life is cut on.

8 It begins real time, yet existence already was in pure and holy darkness, and under set time, is each individual's real time, existence. Their point of origin.

9 A'lyun A'lyun El's time does not have a "then" only a "now", whereas each individual is at the point of "now", and looks back at multiple "thens" and looks forward to multiple "thens".

10 Thus, on both sides of the present, you find past and future. Nibiru is capable of traveling the distance from point to point, or through space and time interdimensionally.

11 It can go through time, future or past, without interfering with the principle of "now" or "then".

12 Everything is calculated by the speed of light in so far as, everything sums up to things when the light came on.

13 For instance when you grab the light switch, you are at the point of Hydrogen, when you click the light switch, you are at the point of Helium, and both Hydrogen and Helium burning gives you the light of the Sun.

14 When beings enter into our planet, they travel interdimensionally, using real time, and that's why they can pop up anytime within our zero time, or fake, time.

15 Zero time is the first time for each individual as they come into this world, while being born in real time.

16 If humans were to try and travel past the speed of light, their G force, would cause them to explode, they would have to learn travel at the speed of light, and controlling the G force.

17 That is the forces that affect the body as it escalates in speed, in relation to how 1 G effects the body per second.

18 A G is a unit of acceleration equal to the acceleration caused by gravity at the earth's surface, about 33 feet per second.

19 The Milky Way, part of a spiral galaxy, is inside of the universe and is very minute.

20 The light from the sun comes to Earth. Light travels from the sun in 8 minutes and approximately 20 seconds, some say in 4 minutes.

21 Your universe contains 19 galaxies. There are 1 billion other galaxies. The distances in your universe reach up to 26,000,000,000 billion light years.

22 Your universe is the smallest and inner-most of 7 Universes, which are a part of a Galactical Federation of 19 galaxies. As the universe increases, the universes get larger and larger.

23 Your mind cannot comprehend the circumference of the universe, it is unimaginable to you, while in your body. The word that best describes it is infinity. The universe doesn't end. You are merely limited by your imagination.

24 My child, for a time it was hard for you to overstand the very Beginning of your existence.

25 It was difficult for you to accept that you were made to evolve from intelligent Amoebae which are single celled organism with a definite nucleus that move by way of a pseudopod or false foot.

26 A pseudopod is a temporary projection of the cytoplasm of certain cells, such as phagocytes, or of certain unicellular organisms, especially amoebas, that serves in locomotion and phagocytosis.

27 The word Amoeba is from new Latin, genus name, from Greek amoibē, change, from ameibein, to change; and Fungi which are single-celled or, multi-cellular organisms that excrete enzymes that actually dissolve their food and then absorb their food through their thin cellular wall. However, this was your beginning. A beginning unknown to Humims.

28 Thus, as you read this tablet, you shall have a great overstanding of how you became who and what you are today.

29 The first kinds of life forms on this planet were the evolution of the Amoebae, Fungi and Algae that lived underwater and evolved onto land, which were transplanted here.

30 Early Earth was composed of the gases, Ammonia and Methane in addition to water (H_2O).

31 The cooling of the Earth and the subsequent falling of the vapor rings allowed these gases to reach the waters upon the Earth, forming solids and a molten crust.

32 The exposure of ultraviolet rays from the Sun caused these gases to form simple, organic molecules from things here.

33 These began to form larger molecules, until protein was formed.

34 It was this formation which ultimately resulted in the prototype of the living cell, which occurred 46,000,000,000,000 trillion years ago.

35 Bear in mind that these chain reactions did not occur by blind chance, but only by the will of The Most High, ANU.

36 The stage after the creation of the first cell took place in the lab of Shimti "where the breath of life is breathed, which was located on Lahmu/Mars.

37 This cell, or cells, was then placed inside the Vulcan deity, a Dolphin. Dolphins are members of the most intelligent group of animals living in the sea.

38 However what many people don't know is, dolphins are actually small whales that range in length from 4 to 12 feet. The word dolphin comes from the Greek delphis, meaning "womb" because of its shape, and it was the womb of transplant for the human cell.

39 Unlike many animals, dolphins voluntarily associate with humans. The common dolphin appeared in ancient Greek and Roman mythology. The Greeks considered the dolphin sacred to the god Apollo.

40 Dolphins have very highly developed senses such as sight, which they are able to see up to 50 feet away.

41 Touch, responding to the lightest touch of a finger. Smell and taste are also two of their senses which aren't as developed. Yet, dolphins do have taste buds.

42 Dolphins have an excellent sense of hearing and is one of their most important senses of all. Yet they have no outer ear and can "see" with sound.

43 This is known as echolocation. When sounds are sent out from an organ in the dolphin's head, they strike objects and bounce back. The direction of these echoes and the time it takes them to return tells the direction and distance of the objects.

44 These first cells in Shimti were transplanted and transported into the seas of this planet.

45 This transportation involved the development of the first animals 24,000,000,000 billion years ago. These were the single-celled organisms called Protozoa.

46 The simplest of this group is the Amoebae, a small mass of transparent protoplasm which does not even have a definite shape, or a cell wall.

47 The first single-celled animal to originate was the Amoebae, 48 Which is found in water or moist soil and reproduces asexually.

49 This means they reproduce alone; they don't need a partner.

50 Fungus arose from this single cell organism and played an important role in nature.

51 They break down the bodies of dead organisms into chemical substances that can be used by other organisms.

52 Fungi live as parasites and reproduce either sexually or asexually.

53 The simplest particle of life is H^1, Hydrogen, which is smaller than that is a quark, of which atoms are composed. The atom is the smallest unit of an element that retains all of the element's properties.

54 All things are made of atoms, which are composed of Quarks, and even smaller called exotic Mesons or Biaps, such as Protons: units of positive electricity, Neutrons: units of neutral electricity, and Electrons: electrically negative parts of the Atom; to name a few, which are made of Zede or Zele.

55 Together, these form a specific pattern.

56 The Zele is the smallest part of any substance. This is called Quantum Physics, my child, the doorway to reality.

57 The Atom is too small to be seen even with the most powerful electron microscope; yet all that is, is in parts, and is part of the existence.

58 The average diameter of an atom is approximately 1/100,000,000 of an inch.

59 At the center of an atom is a smaller particle called a quark, the father of energy, which in itself was produced by the mother of all energy, Biaps, as in the cells beneath the cell or in the DNA, Deoxyribonucleic acid.

60 Then there is the nucleus, a dense cluster of protons and neutrons on the outside of a Quark.

61 Why do we refer to it as the mother? The mother Mitochondria, located on the Y chromosome is the male equivalent to Mitochondria DNA called YAP DNA, that is the same as when a female is pregnant with a male child, only without the male sperm, as in a so-called asexual cell, splitting into a daughter.

62 This practice of splitting and parting and becoming individual life forms is only found in the female or mother.

63 So in actuality A-sexual cells are really F-sexual cells, for female sexuality. The word Mitochondria is from Greek mitos, "warp thread" and the Greek khondrion, diminutive of khondros for "grain, or granule".

64 Mitochondria are the tiny bodies within a cell that are responsible for production of energy through breakdown of sugars.

65 The Mitochondria DNA is in the female, which produces the male in a so-called asexual fashion.

66 This is your original Hermaphrodite, which comes from Hermaphroditus, the son of Hermes, the son of Zeus and Maia and Aphrodite, the daughter of Uranus.

67 When you look at the word phonetically you see "Her", as a 3 letter prefix, and her is always identified with "she" or the female gender, as in most hermaphrodite cases, yet it includes male strands that create "Y" chromosomes.

68 Now the very word "her" is from the Middle English, from Old English hire. Important derivatives are: he', him, his, her, it, here, hence, Note that "her" is inclusive of "he", in it's root meaning.

69 He is from Middle English, from Old English he, the pronouns he, him, and his, A male person or animal.

70 So "he" is always identified with the male factor, when "her" on the other hand is inclusive with male and female factors, making "her" the mother.

71 M=Mitochondria, and add OTHER, and you get the word MOTHER.

72 Together, the protons (p), which have a positive (+) charge, and neutrons (n), which have no charge, are called nucleons.

73 Outside spinning around the nucleus in orbitals are electrons, which have a negative (-) charge that makes up what is called "the shell," of the Atom (Atum).

74 All Atoms vary in the amount of protons, electrons and neutrons according to the elements to which they belong.

75 In reality, no Atom has a definite size in space and time. However, it gets its form from its surrounding electrons.

76 Atoms are building blocks from which molecules are made; and a molecule is the smallest unit of a pure substance that can exist independently and exhibit all of the properties of the substance: carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen and sulfur.

77 These gases formed into simple, organic molecules, at which time these organic molecules began to form larger and larger molecules until protein was formed.

78 Listen, my child, concerning the Re-Creation of the planet Earth;

79 It was this formation which ultimately resulted in the prototype of the living organism.

80 The stage after the creation of the first cell involved the development of the first animals, which is called a Protozoa, which comes from the Greek "Proto," "first in time," and "Zoa" from "Zoia," meaning "animals."

81 When reproducing, the Protozoa splits into two separate animals or cells. Just as at birth, the mother splits in two beings.

82 Over a period of 19,000,000, million earth years of time, these animals multiplied and diversified and evoluted into many types of creatures and animal life forms.

83 The protozoa were originally transported and planted here on this planet Earth by these beings from the planet Rizq, the Anunnagi, called the Aluhum.

84 And do not forget, my child; the conditions of your planet had to be right!

85 These first atoms were made up of very simple combinations with each other, but sunlight contains energy, and this energy forced the atoms into more complicated combinations until small cells formed.

86 This also happened on many other planets with the same chemicals and temperatures.

87 So, there is life on many other planets; the key is water, in which is life as bacteria.

88 There are intelligent bacteria that help Earthlings digest their food, and many other positive things.

89 There are also intelligent bacteria that hurt Earthlings.

90 Intelligent bacteria do things such as make you sick, and cause diseases in humans, animals and plants.

91 In Humans, they cause diseases such as Syphilis meaning "a Friend Of The Swine",, Leprosy from middle English from Lepre, Leprosy, from old French, from late Latin Lepra from Greek lepros, scaly from lepis, lepros, meaning scale; and Pneumonia from pneumon meaning lung, and is an inflammatory disease of the lung, to name a few.

92 Most of these diseases came to this planet from others planets, some of which are in your solar system, and others that are far beyond your knowledge. Many are the diseases of your body, in fact some live on your body, like streptococcus, and herpes, just to name 2 of the many thousands.

93 You shall have knowledge, for in this tablet are facts beyond any doubt.

94 Like many other simple organisms, Bacteria can multiply by asexual reproduction or by binary fission, the splitting of an adult cell into 2 separate parts and budding, where an outgrowth grows from a parent organism and then breaks off and becomes another separate organism, birth.

95 This occurs when the nucleus of one cell divides, forming two new cells (daughter cells), and make note it doesn't say "son" cells.

96 The exact same way a hologram, from the Greek, from holos, whole, and the gram, from French gramme, from Late Latin gramma, "a small weight" from Greek, meaning "something written, small weight", the hologram can be broken into millions of parts and each one is the same, so it is with cells.

97 And then, my child, there are other bacteria that just live with you, never bothering you at all.

98 The first plant life were simple plants that began as one-celled organisms of the classes, known today as Bacteria and Algae.

99 These originated in the water.

100 Yet their structure and composition enabled them to exist in all types of environments and conditions, some have unknown origins. Scientists have found a new life form on Earth. These life forms are tough little microbes, that live in the boiling water, spewing from volcanic vents deep under the ocean, thriving on carbon dioxide, and the tremendous water pressure. They are a third form of terrestrial life, named Archaea after the Greek word for ancient. This is a very different life form from what scientists know. They were first discovered on the bottom of the Pacific in 1977. However, recently Scientists discovered that their genetic code was different from anything biologists had seen before. Unlike most bacteria, and all plants, animals and humans, archaea lives totally without sunlight. When the usual organisms start dying, these ones start singing.

101 Algae have bodies composed of a single cell. Algae accounts for 90% of the world's photosynthesis.

102 Bacteria are found everywhere, in water, air, soil, your bodies and food.

103 Many of them are helpful and necessary for your physical existence.

104 They are also useful in the decomposition and dissolving of solid waste.

105 Then you have the virus. A virus is a submicroscopic organism that has an exceedingly simple structure composed of nucleic acid with a protective protein covering, coming from the Latin meaning poison.

106 In the case of some of the viruses that live in bacteria and animal cells, 107 This nucleic acid is generally DNA, Deoxyribonucleic Acid. In the viruses that cause diseases of plants, the nucleic acid is usually RNA, Ribonucleic Acid.

108 A virus lives in a cell of another living thing.

109 Although viruses are small and simple, they are a major cause of diseases.

110 Some viruses infect human beings with diseases, "dis-ease".

111 Others infect other animals or plants, and still others attack bacteria.

112 Viruses produce diseases in an organism by damaging some of its cells.

113 However, viruses sometimes live in cells without harming them.

114 Most viruses reproduce in specific cells of certain organisms. Viruses are Gaia's/Earth's means of defense when attacked.

The Evolutionary Process
(19 x 14 = 266)

Lo! You are about to embark upon the truth.

2 I shall take you a step further into the world of true Right Knowledge, Right Wisdom and the Right Overstanding.

3 For many years, Humims have pondered about the evolution of the inhabitants of the planet Earth.

4 The question was in the minds of Humans as to where each species and each lifeform evolved.

5 You must learn of the evolutionary process.

6 This will give you great knowledge, of that which is right and exact, and Right Wisdom, Right Overstanding and Sound Right Reasoning of how and where the nine ether verses the six ether came about.

7 Now, let us begin by learning of a time before, when a large craft from the Ninga fleet thought to be a meteorite crashed into the planet, Sheering off the lower half of it.

8 That was 24,000,000,000 billion years ago.

9 This caused the development of Earth's shape and form as you know it today, bringing with it, new kinds of lifeforms.

10 Some to make residence beneath the seas of what is called Bimini today, where a great empire of Reptilians thrive, even unto this day. This empire is located in the Atlantic Ocean, in the area called the Bermuda Triangle or Angels Triangle;

11 Other life forms took shape on the surface of the Earth.

12 It was gases and electrical sparks that formed the complex molecules, from the simple ones, originally planted here some 76,000,000,000,000 trillion years ago.

13 For billions of years, life continued to consist of no more than simple cells, yet with intelligence.

14 As time passed, more complicated cells were born, and these cells gradually became even more complicated cells, 15 Which were giving birth until they eventually combined with each other, or married to give birth to even larger organisms.

16 The more complicated an organism, such as an Algae, the larger its brain is;

17 Thus, the more intelligent it became.

18 These living organisms evolved out of the water, through the ammonia, and onto the soil.

19 Millions of years after that, the next group of animals developed called Metazoans.

20 Their bodies were composed of specialized cells grouped to form tissues, organs, and systems, much like the animals of today.

21 These animals multiplied and diversified, and over a period of 19,000,000 million years, evolved into man, many types of animals;

22 And Dragons called 'Terrible Lizards, or simply Dinosaurs.

23 This was the first evolution of life on the planet Earth.

24 These inhabitants went through many changes such as:

25 The Ice Age glaciers,

26 Volcanoes,

27 And earthquakes.

28 During this time there were also problems with the Dinosaurs and Humans.

29 The evolution of the dinosaurs and humans was imbalanced to the point that the dinosaurs were much bigger than Humans, and they were killing them off.

30 These Humans were of the Homo Erectus species. They had 6 ether hair covering most of their bodies.

31 Dinosaurs are classified, or divided into separate groups,

32 One being the Saurischia, "Lizard Hips." He's a four-legged, plant-eating Dinosaur, and can also be a meat-eating Dinosaur,

33 And the other being Ornithischia, "Bird Hip."

34 This group of Dinosaurs is your two-legged, plant-eaters and all of your armored Dinosaurs.

35 In your Ornithischia, the forward pointing bone has swung around in order that it can point backwards and forwards.

36 And Saurischia have hip bones that are found within reptiles.

37 These three bones point in different directions.

38 These 2 names are in reference to the arrangement of three bones of the pelvis.

39 In the Saurischia, these bones were arranged similar to that of modern Crocodiles and Lizards.

40 These are your Taneen, while the pelvis of the Ornithischia was bird-like.

41 Therefore, humans developed from a one-celled animal, which developed into a water creature;

42 And these humans are Tadpoles, or Reptilians for the first 3 months in their mother's womb.

43 This is why humans still have webbed hands, gills, and scales.

44 In their own evolution, with the help of their Mammalian parent they become the root seed of Mammals later called the Human Being.

45 In its primeval state, they climbed upon the land mass and developed into land creatures and then to Genus Homo on to Homo Erectus.

46 And these land creatures that were once Tadpoles or Reptilians grew while in their mothers' womb. From 3 months, plus 3 months more; during that period they were connected to an umbilical cord, umbilicus, or navel that is on the abdomen of the fetus and is connected to the placenta.

47 This mark on the surface of the abdomen of Mammals, who once dwelt in a marina, or water, is where the Umbilical Cord, also called Umbilicus, was. This central point, or middle, is attached during the gestation.

48 The very word "navel" comes from the Middle English word "Nafela," and is the same as the Aramic/Hebrew word "Nephela, Nepheliam," "to fall down," which is the same word. It's in the phonetics of the language.

49 It is a clear picture in these days and times that the words "navy", "navel", "naval", and "marina" tie in. This is a confession that man was a tadpole, and was considered a sea creature.

50 Lifeforms that evolved from the sea were water vertebrates.

51 They did not appear until 500,000,000 million years ago, and land vertebrates followed about 100,000,000 million years ago.

52 About 225,000,000 million years ago, there were fish in the waters as well as sea plants.

53 Most amphibians had made the transition from water to dry land. The plants on the dry land attracted the amphibians to evolve into reptiles.

54 The Dolphin as a whale went from the stars to this planet in the sea, then onto land, then back into the sea as a whale.

55 Crocodiles are a remnant of that evolutionary phase also.

56 From about 225,000,000 million years ago to 65,000,000 million years ago, which is the period of time often referred to as the Dinosaur age, evolved 2 main lines of egg-laying Reptilians.

57 Those who could fly, which evolved into birds, like the Pterodactyls from the Greek pteron, meaning "feather, wing" and daktulos from the Greek for "finger"; and those who roamed and dominated the planet Earth as Dinosaurs called the Tyrannosaurus Rex "Tyrant Reptile" or "Terrible Lizards."

58 These Reptiles evolved, alongside with a variety of Amphibians and water lizards, away from the oceans and their water life, which was full of activity.

59 When humans came out of water, your evolution jumped billions of years.

60 When Humans crawled on land, they were in the form of what looked like crocodiles.

61 If you examine the back or the spinal columns of Humans, you can see knots up and down the spinal column.

62 Millions of years ago, it was a fin.

63 This fin or sail was used to conduct heat and regulate heat, and the body had to mutate.

64 Behemoth, mankind to this day still has at the end of his spinal column, an extension called a coccyx, that is a tail; as well as wings under the arms, and webbed hands.

65 This Human developed from what you would call a dinosaur today. This dinosaur was called Dimetrodon. It got its name from it, having that which is unique; that being two sets of teeth.

66 No other animal had two sets of teeth.

67 The Dimetrodon lived about 60 - 300 hundred million years ago, which means that it lived at the end of the Paleozoic Era.

68 Dimetrodon was a large meat-eating reptile, which measured some ten to twelve feet from nose to tail, and five feet in height; which explains why many humans have a craving for flesh.

69 When Dimetrodon, who was of the Paleozoic Era, ruled, this deadly creature roamed the valley before the dinosaurs of the Mesozoic Era.

70 The Dimetrodon was the first to ever inhabit the land. It was a warm-blooded reptile.

71 Dimetrodon is a deadly reptile known for the enormous sail on its back.

72 This sail was used for the purpose of regulating body heat.

73 By turning the Sail to face the Sun, the Dimetrodon was able to warm up much more quickly, 74 In about a little less than an hour, which allowed the Dimetrodon more time to hunt.

75 A reptile can't stay active if it is too hot; however, without the heat, reptiles become more sluggish, still and helpless.

76 But mammals can regulate the heat of their bodies because they are warm-blooded. Dimetrodon is not an ordinary reptile.

77 The resemblance between Human and Dimetrodon was the teeth.

78 Both Human and Dimetrodon have 2 sets of teeth which were the Incisors, Canines and different sized teeth behind the Canines. This is only found on Mammals.

79 360,000,000 million years before Dimetrodon, some creatures crawled out of the ocean, which were early Amphibians.

80 Within 20,000,000 million years, they split into 2 groups.

81 One became the aggressive species, which were the Diapsid; and the other one was the passive Synapsid.

82 They began to compete for supremacy.

83 From generation to generation, each line improved and perfected itself.

84 When the Diapsids and Synapsids moved further up the evolutionary chain, they began to split in different directions.

85 The Diapsids had two holes, two openings in the skull, which evolved into all modern reptilians, such as turtles, crocodiles, alligators, lizards, etc.;

86 While the Synapsids had a single hole in the back of their skulls, which evolved into all proto-mammals such as Dimetrodon, Armadillo, Whale, Dogs, Cows, Human, and all other mammals that evolved in this line.

87 The two holes allowed the skull not to squeeze the brain.

88 Proto-mammals were changing from Reptilian to Mammalian, and from a mammal-like Reptilian posture. They took possession of the land masses for 50,000,000 million years and dominated the planet.

89 Dimetrodon's first descendants were hot-blooded.

90 This was a detour in evolution.

91 They took steps from Reptilian to

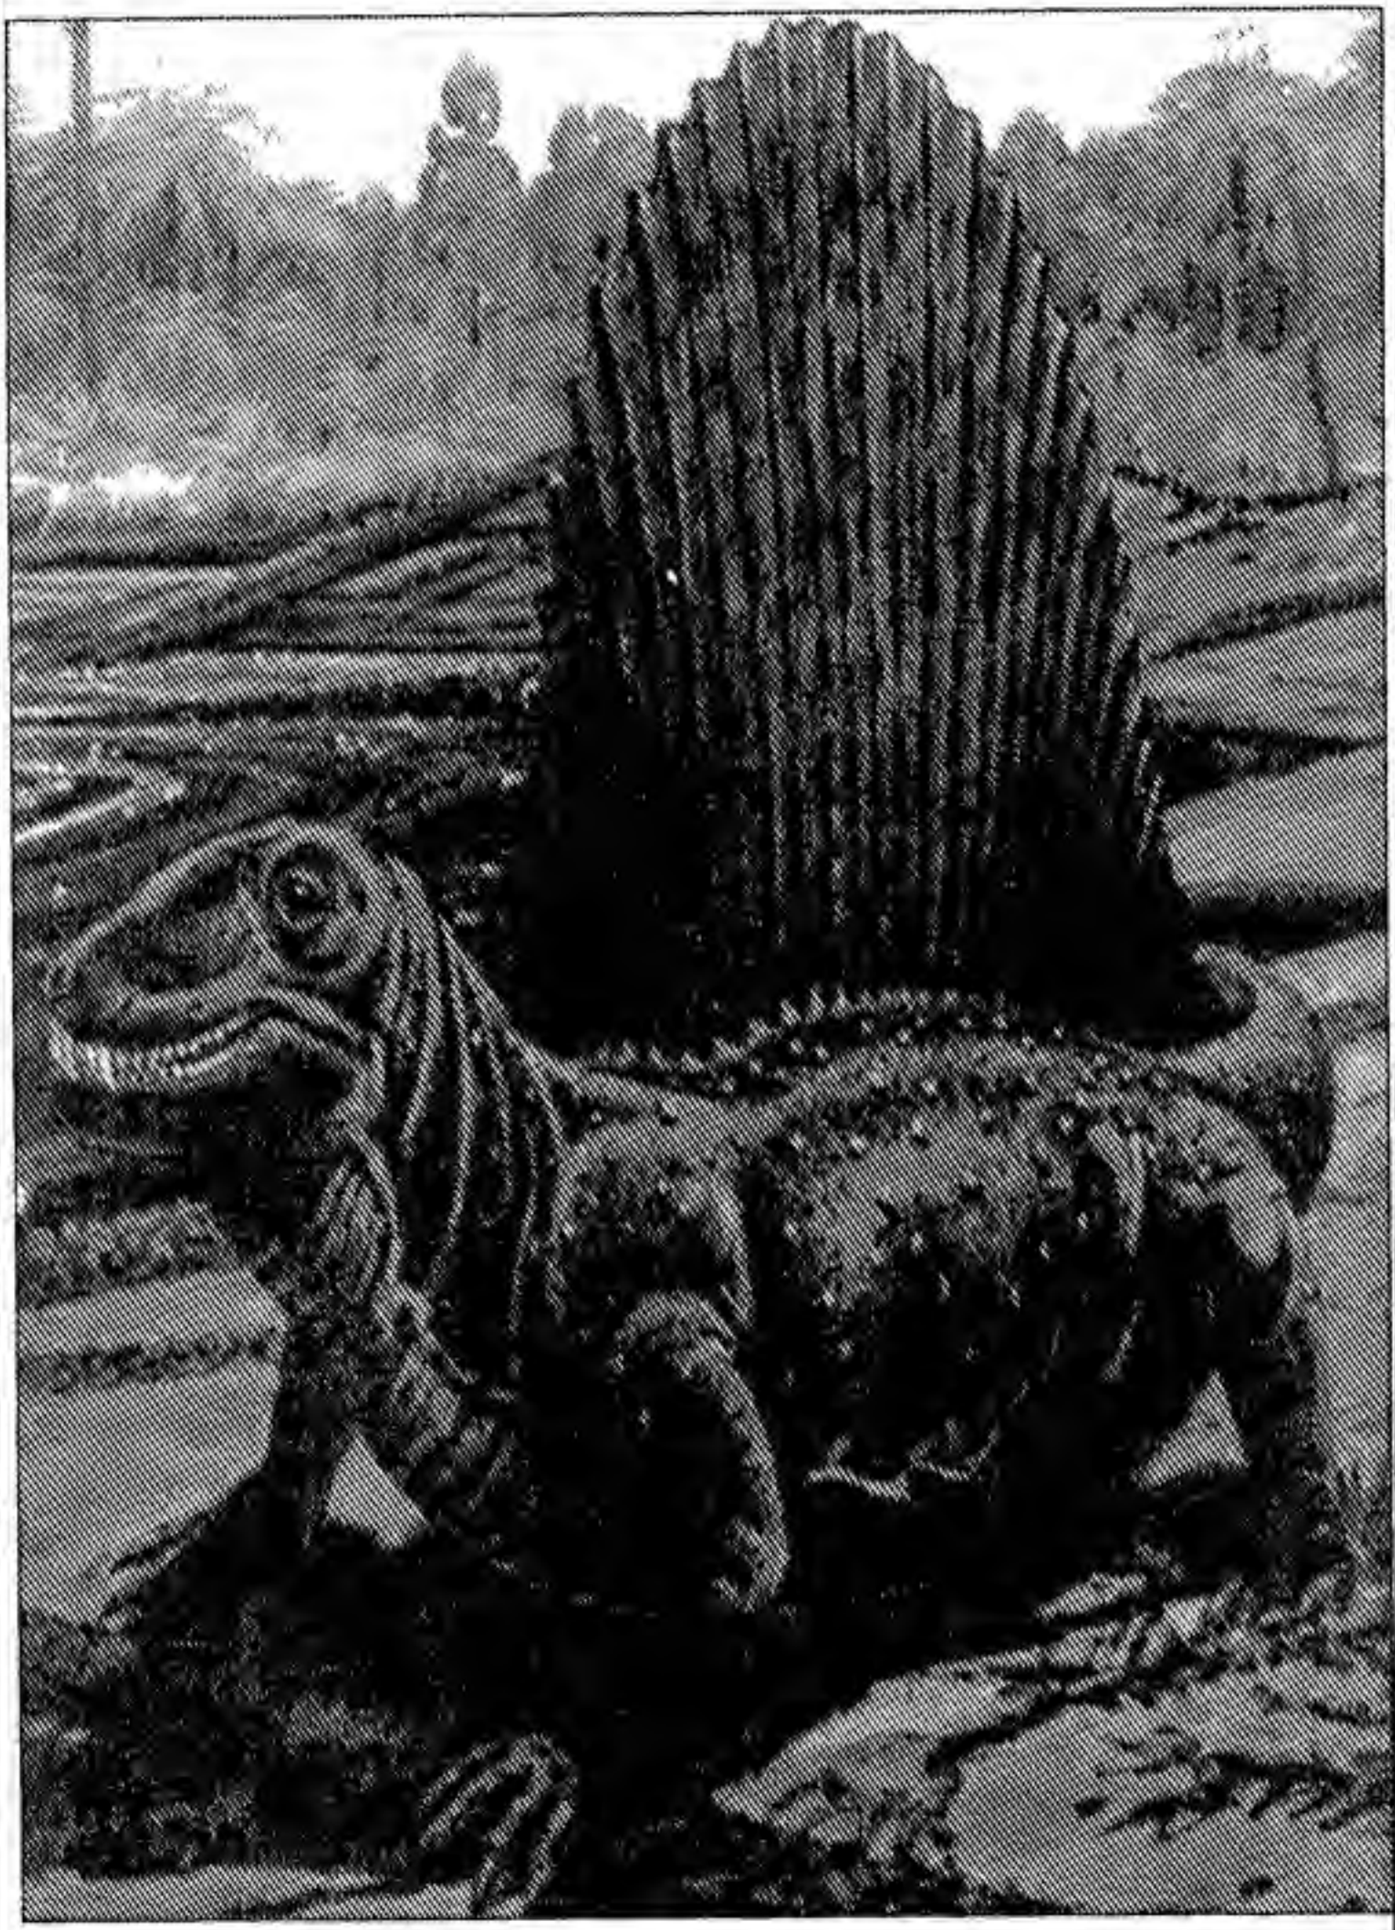

Figure 13
Dimetrodon

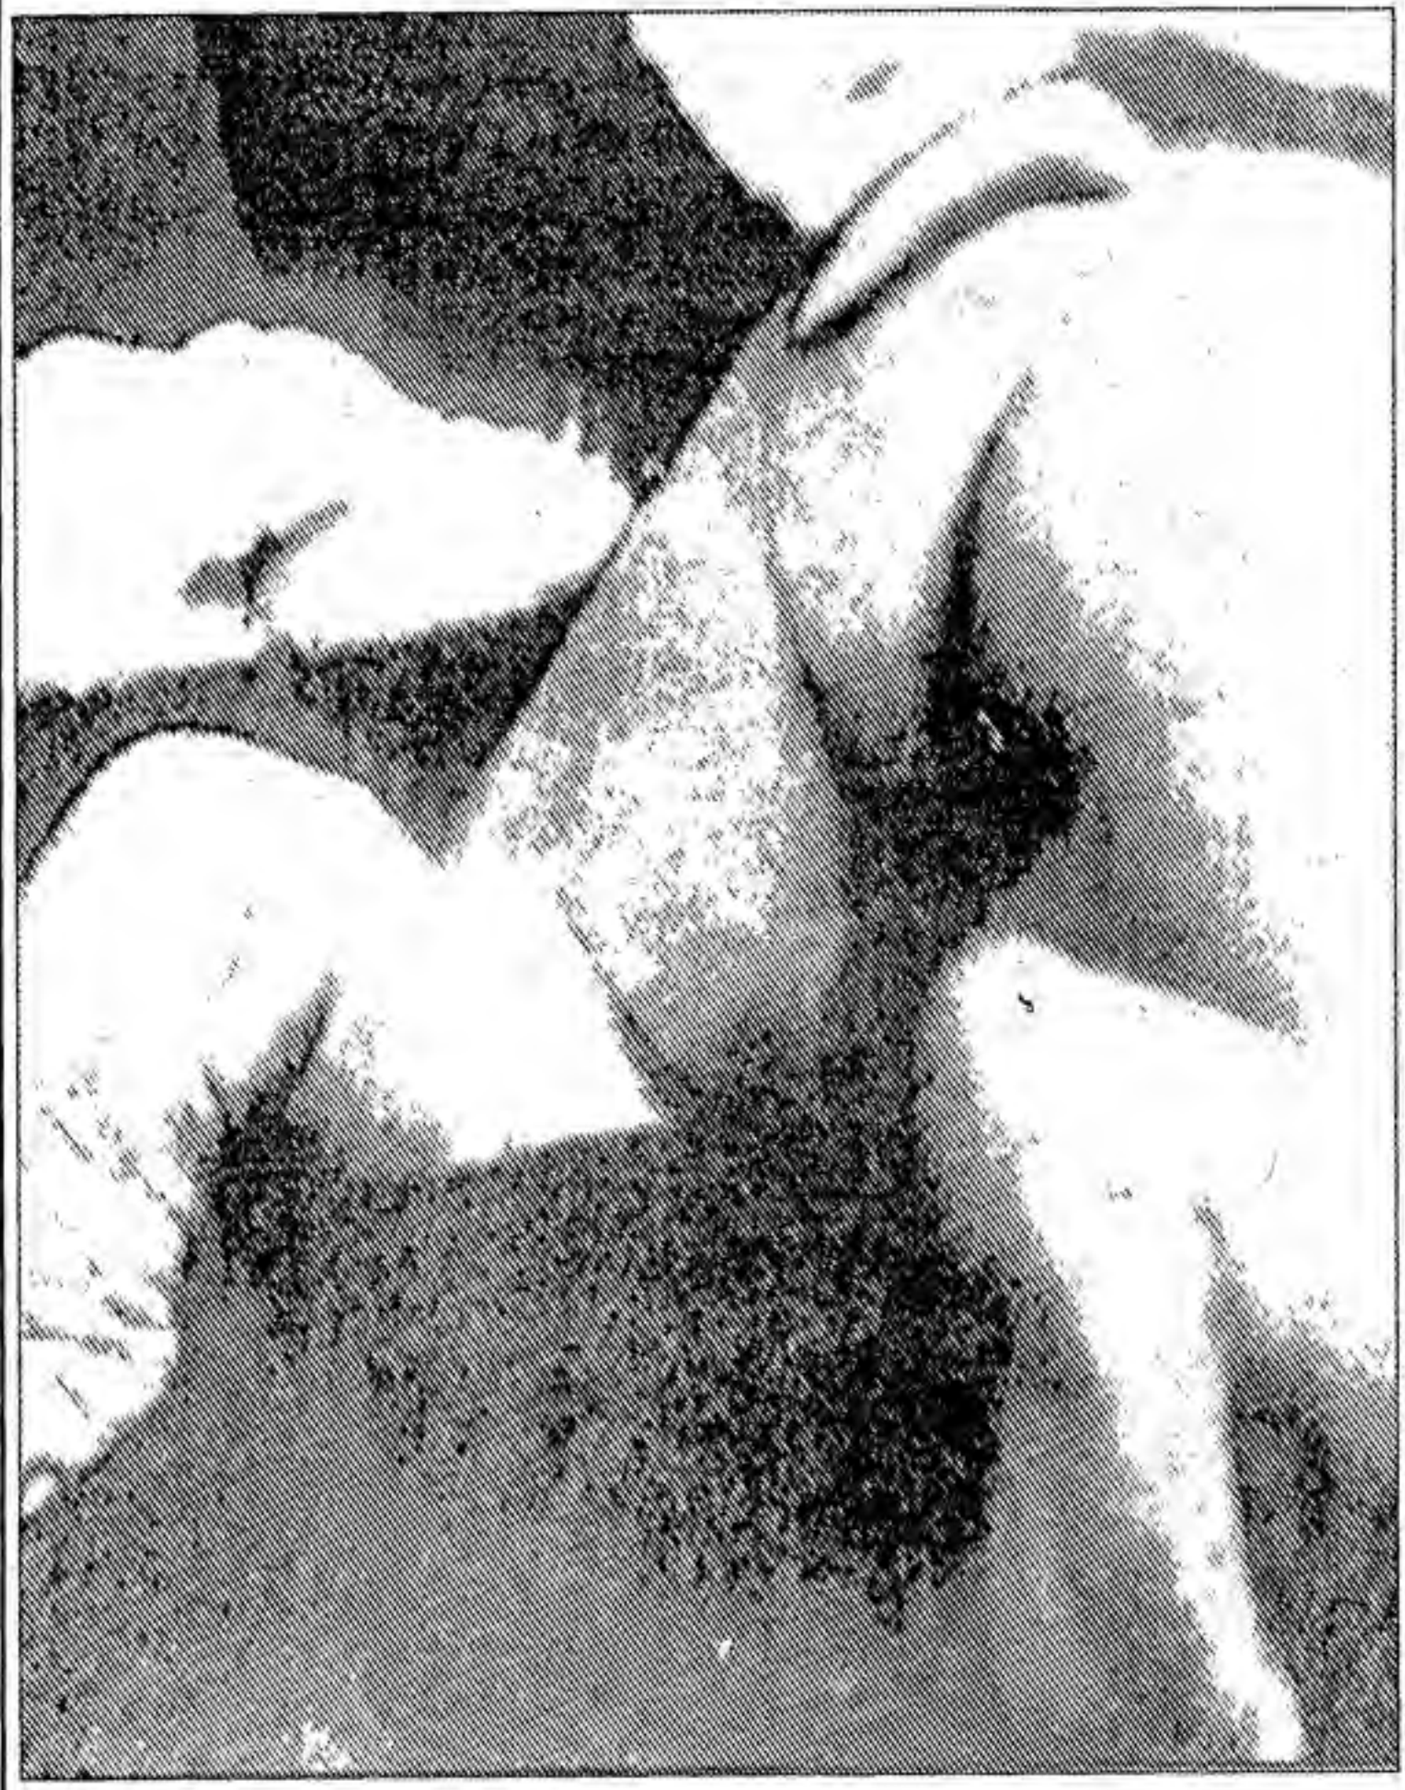

Figure 14

Mammalian.

92 The Dinosaurs started to take control, and the proto-mammals began to disappear, 93 In the Triassic period, 245,000,000 million years ago.

94 Thus, larger, more vulnerable animals began a long conquest, and pushed proto-mammals to the brink of extinction.

95 The lizard-like Ophiacadon and the warm-blooded Dimetrodon reduced in size.

96 Proto-mammals had to adapt to night life becoming nocturnal hunters. As proto-mammals began to mutate, and evolute out of its present state, the size of their brain grew.

97 During this time, Extra-Terrestrials had leaped in and started breeding also.

98 Although life evolved from the seas, all of it did not originate there.

99 Some lifeforms crashed in the seas of Tiamat from the Maldek incident; particularly from the Ninga star fleet. They being from another star constellation, and they lived under the seas of Tiamat.

100 These other lifeforms were beings known as the Troglodytes, or Maldekians, which crashed down on Tiamat. One of the four Maldekian crafts, called the West Wind, crashed into the center of the Planet Earth.

101 These beings lived in the seas of Tiamat/Earth for millions of years. Their home base is under the Bermuda Triangle.

102 They set up kingdoms called Yams under the waters.

103 The Maldekians developed into intelligent humanoids by abducting and mixing their seed with humans.

104 This is where the Reptilian like dinosaurs came from. While on one hand there was another set of Extraterrestrial beings like the Greys, from which some of the Dinosaurs evolved from.

105 These Greys came from the star constellation Orion, the star constellations of Arcturus and Pleiades. Meanwhile, the Reptilians ruled them from Rigel and Betelgeuse, Belletrax, Mintaka, Alnilam, and Alnitak in the Orion star constellation and Auriga in the Cappella star formation.

106 They were all in fear of the aggressive insect-type Extraterrestrial from Andromeda, many of which came down to this planet Earth.

107 One of the common species of dinosaurs that evolved from the Rumardian seed of Greys was the Hypsilophodon, who came out of the Jurassic Period.

108 They were called Hypsilophodon because of their "High-Ridge Teeth." The Hypsilophodon were herbivores. They only ate off plants and fruits, extracting the needed chlorine.

109 The most common dinosaur that evolved from the Reptilians were the Tyrannosaurus Rex, meaning "Tyrant Reptile," or "Terrible Lizard."

110 It is 50 feet long and 20 feet in height and weighed 7 tons. It was the largest carnivore that ever walked the Planet Tiamat/Earth.

111 This creature is known to be the king of the meat-eaters.

112 The Tyrannosaurus Rex came out of the Reptilians making them part Dinosaur and part Reptilian.

The Evolutionary Humim

The Constellations

113 Alongside the dinosaurs, you had the Evolutionary Humims.

114 Amongst the different species of Evolutionary Humim, you have the Australopithecines.

115 There were 2 forms of Australopithecines that could walk and were erect.

116 Their brain was 1/3rd the size of a modern Human's brain.

117 The smaller ones stood about 4 feet tall and weighed between 50 to 120 pounds.

118 This was your original Pygmy, Kishite and Hawilahite tribe which your mother Hawwah, Eve came from. They had Nine Ether hair.

119 The larger ones were 7 feet and weighed 222 to 250 pounds. This was your original Watusi, Cuthite tribe which Kadmon, Adam came from. They had eight ether hair.

They were the giants in the earth.

120 All other humans had 6 ether hair as other animals of this planet Earth. 9 ether hair is a symbol of an Extraterrestrial being. All animals and humans on this planet have 6 ether hair.

121 Kadmon/Zakar, also known as Adam was also a mixture of Hindu, the original Black Man mixed with a Shaggy, which is another set of beings that were coming to Earth from the Sirius star constellation.

122 These Shaggies were not your hairy, Bigfoot creatures. They came from the planet EDUMA in the constellation Of Sirius.

123 Along with these Shaggies, the Greys also came from the same star constellation–from Zeta Reticuli called Sirius B for biological entity.

124 The Rumardians, called Greys, came from the planet Pleiades and Arcturus.

125 When Nibiru passed by Sirius B, its presence drained the energy from the Sun and caused this great star, Sirius B, to collapse. Sirius A had two planets.

126 The Naarians, an independent species of Greys, were on one planet and the Numos, Nommus, Reptilians were on the other. Both planets rotated around Sirius A.

127 So when their Sun died, the Naarians followed Nibiru through the Milky Way. While in pursuit, these beings, the Reptilians, chased the Greys, the Rumardians who also lived on Sirius because they wanted to rule over them and use them as slaves.

128 Some of the Rumardians came, down to the planet Earth from Zeta Reticuli.

129 Both beings, the Nommus and the Rumardians took residence on the Planet Tiamat/Earth.

130 When the Reptilians came, they tried to appeal to the Maldekians, Troglodytes, that were living in the seas from the crash down, that happened years ago, because they were of their seed. However, these Maldekians who lived beneath the seas of the planet Earth had a very violent nature.

131 The Reptilians had to take residence in caverns beneath the surface of the Earth or in deep swamp areas in the planet Earth. They set out to conquer the Rumardians and take rule over them because of their passive nature. Some of the Rumardians came down to the planet Earth from Zeta Reticuli.

132 They went directly to the original Pygmy tribe of Bushmen in South

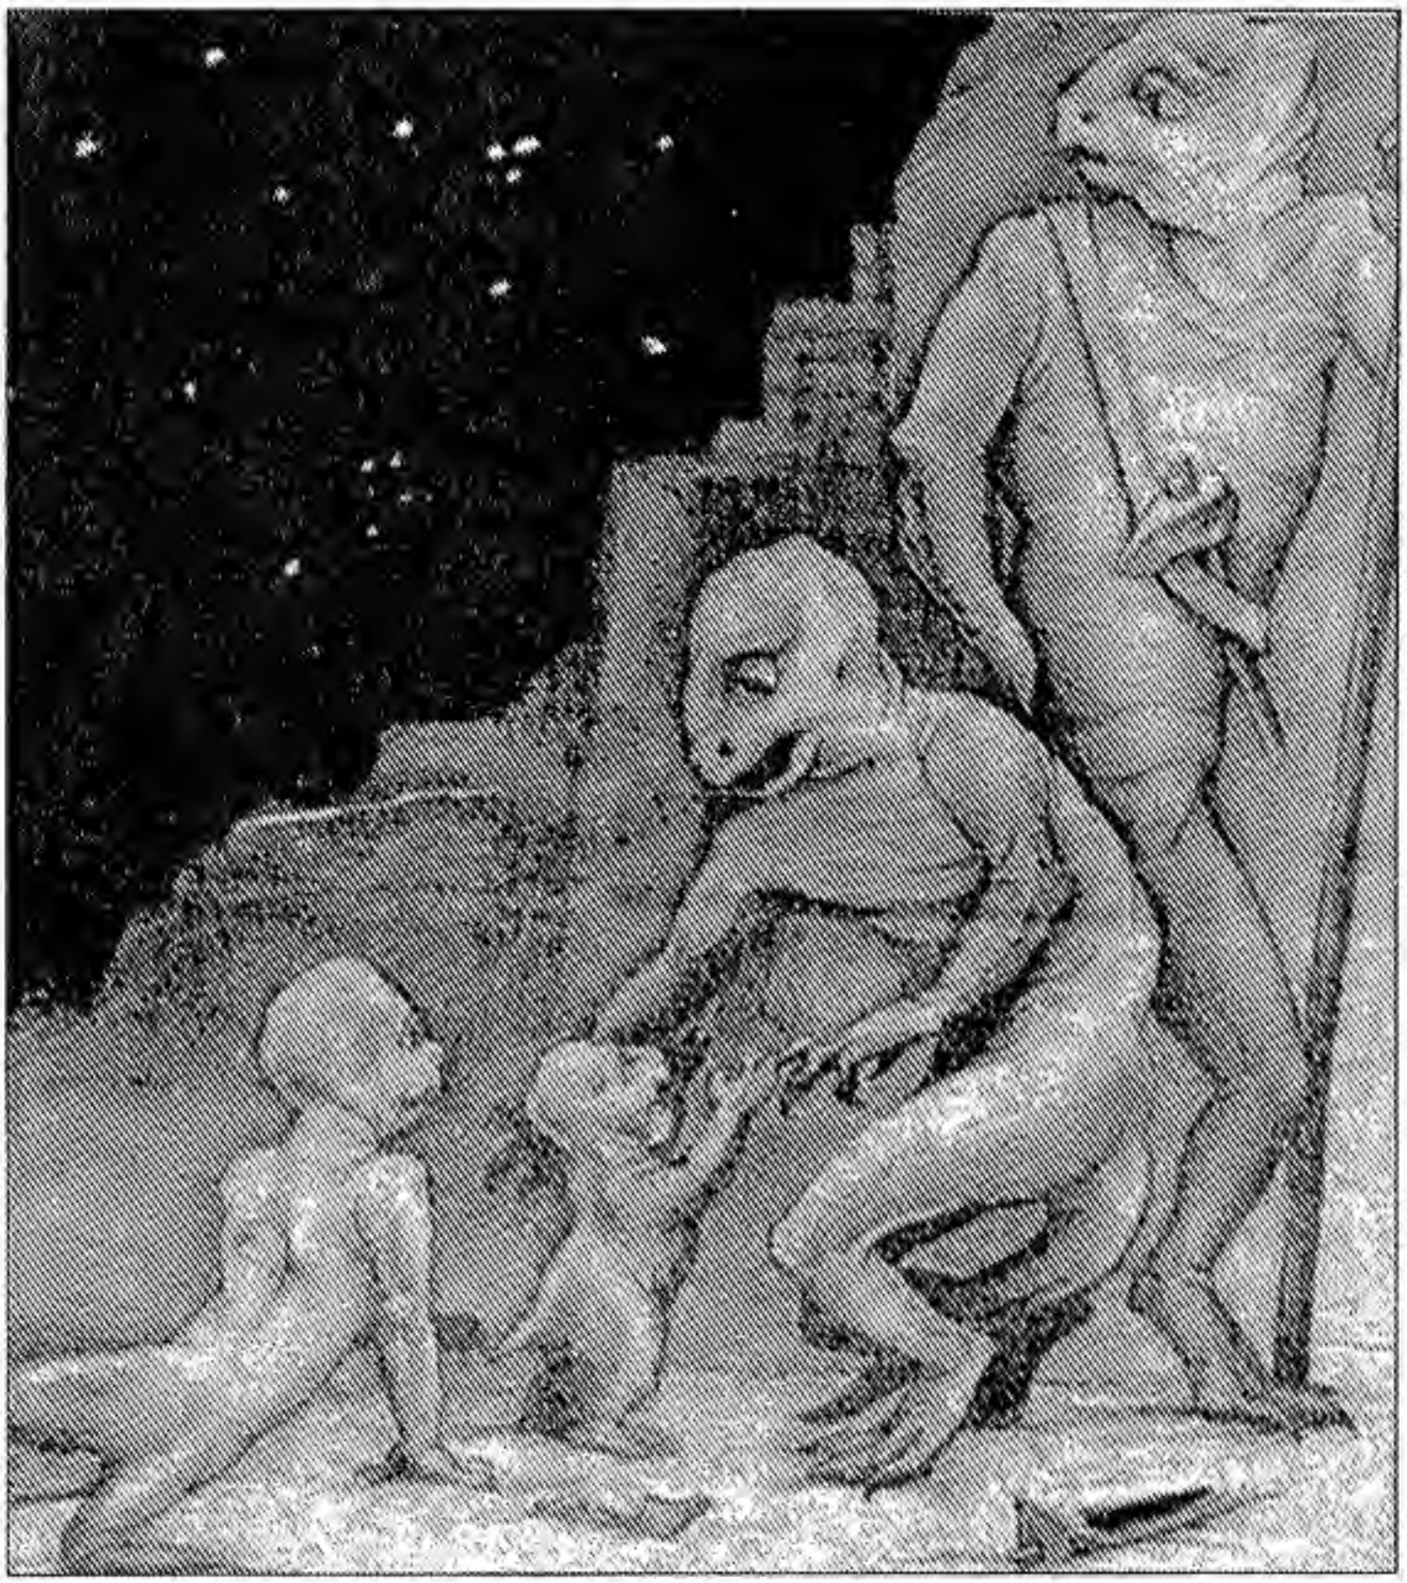

Figure 17
The "Dinosaur People." This Is A Depiction Of The Intelligent Dinosaurs Who Were Evolving Into Humans

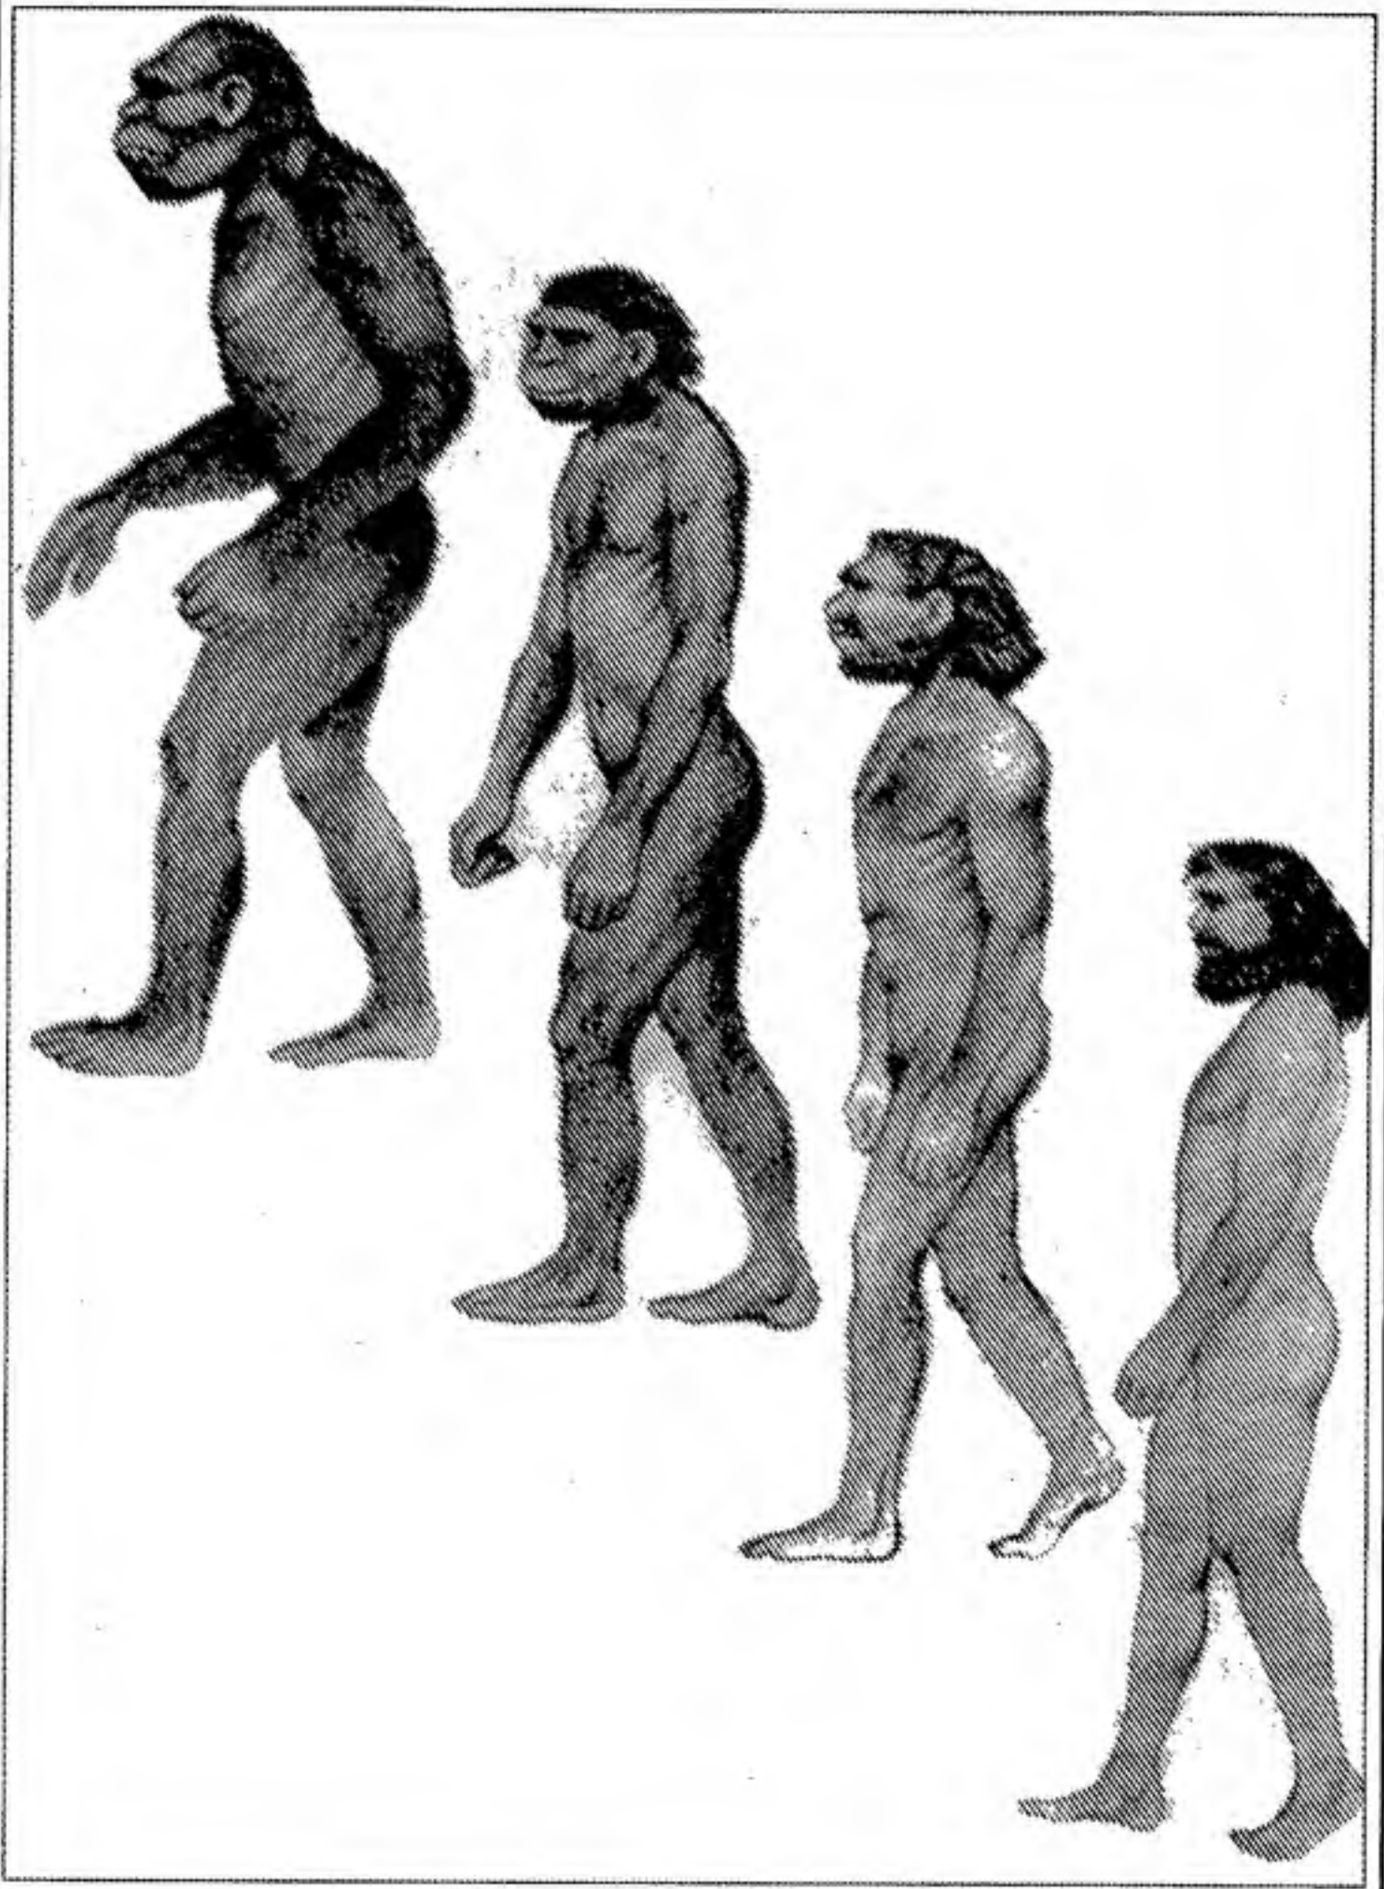

Figure 18
The Australopithecines

Africa who were the Kishites, Cushites and the Hawilahites.

133 They lived amongst these beings and the Rumardians taught this tribe of the Anunnagi, and of the beings from the Star Sirius.

134 The Cushites and the Hawilahites became a mixture of these Supernatural Beings Or Extraterrestrial Beings.

135 These supernatural beings are the Rumardians, Greys, that existed in the Nile River of the barren and rocky land of Nuba.

136 They were associated with peace and harmony only.

137 The Pygmies called these supernatural beings Bahur Malukaat, or "River Angels".

138 They lived in underwater castles.

139 They were associated with 4 categories of human preoccupations: fertility, cultivation, marriage and health.

140 Then on the arrival of the Reptilians--who in pursuit of the Rumardians also crashed down amongst the Dogon Tribes,

141 And began to teach them by shadow hours and would retreat to the sea by day;

142 They told them they were the Nummos who had come to guide them if they would tell them the location of the secret caves that the agreeable Rumardians dwelled in.

143 These Bushmen, the Kishites, Cushites were of the family of Nekaybaw, including the Dogon Tribe. Today they live in the Desserts of the Kalahari, in what is called Africa Today.

144 The Nummos/Reptilians were called Dogri, or Dogir by the Nubians. They were also referred to as the "Ugly Water Beings."

145 The Reptilians can be seen in daylight; however, they would roam mostly in the deep dark swamps and the marshlands.

146 They took on different forms to appeal to the Humans.

147 They had a very violent nature, which horrified most of these people.

148 They always came out at the Shadow Hour, and hung around date trees.

149 The Dogri enjoyed eating the dates of the trees.

150 They also came onto land during the shadow hours to teach and mix with the Dogons.

151 They would kidnap the virgins and rape them to implant their seed.

152 It became a ritual to offer virgins in order to prevent the bloodshed.

153 A negotiator was elected called a Hogon. Every 60 years they would seek these virgins.

154 This, in turn, led to female child sacrificial rituals;

155 To these serpent people, becoming willing blood sacrifices to what became known as Ha-Satan, the head of the Reptilian tribes, also called Shaytaan, became a common practice and like an honor and a way to appease these malevolent beings.

156 The Dogons of Mali in West Africa speak and teach what they have been taught by these two tribes of Extraterrestrials to this very day.

157 The Reptilians told the people of Nubia that they were lawgivers and the people called Nommus, which is Summon, Naar Samuwm, "poison" in Syriac/Arabic, as found in the Garun (Qur'aan).

Figure 19
The Dogon Tribe

Figure 20
These Ancient Statues Prove That The Dogons Mixed With The Reptilians

158 They taught them about calculations and about the Sigui, a 60 year period.

159 They also lived in underwater cities linked to caverns deep in the Earth.

160 You have 8 caverns occupied by Extraterrestrials. This does not include Aghaarta.

161 The ruling species of the underworld are many. Duwaanis, called Gnomes, which stand 3 feet tall and have porcupine-like quills protruding from their bodies;

162 They live near lava and other volcanic environments. They live off insects and worms.

163 They are extremely intelligent, taking pride in mastering all of the science and literature of the surface people.

164 I once met a Duwaani who could recite all of William Shakespeare.

165 He knew the best of wines from the seventeenth century up.

166 He could discuss everything from the Koran, the Baghava Gita, Upanishads, Torah on to Sigmund Freud, and the architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright.

167 They are extremely friendly and are of no threat to human beings.

168 Yet, they have no interest in co-existing with human beings on the surface who they see as killers without purpose.

169 Next there's the Saamiyn, Dero, called Ganesha by the Hindus, who are born by hatching from eggs that are four to six feet in diameter.

170 They grow to 7 feet and are extremely obese, having 2 stomachs; and they cheweth the cud.

171 The Saamiyn, Dero has no apparent fingernails, or toenails, nipples or navel, or rectum.

172 They regurgitate their food. Their eyes are light blue.

173 They have blonde eyebrows and pinkish--gray colored skin much like the corpse of a Caucasian; their home was in caverns beneath Turkey.

174 Having not been exposed to the inner or outer sun.

175 They have no teeth, but their mouth appears to be full of a gummy, slimy substance. They are nocturnal and hear extremely well. They're not very peaceful and have a great dislike for humans.

176 They are very human in appearance, yet far from it. They have a long trunk-like nose, much like an Elephant.

177 They contend that the planet Earth is theirs originally, and it will be theirs again one day.

178 The Saamiyn Dero, are constantly in conflict with the Duwaani, who hold the same faith that they were both the original owners of the planet Earth.

179 While on the surface, on the other side of the Red Sea, eastward of Eden in Chaldea, the demon beings Shiva, Vishnu, and Brahma, were coming back and forth to Earth from their star constellation Procyon, the planet Nirvana, for thousands of Earth years.

180 They are savage animals and are also called Chaldea, meaning "Demons." They became known as the original Asiatics.

181 While all of this was going on, there were different kinds of evolutionary Humims, hu-man and Behemoth that were living on this Planet Earth in that same era also.

182 You had the Genus Homo, the Australopithecus.

183 The Australopithecus was a creature who lived many millions of years ago.

184 They differed chiefly in size. There were two types of Australopithecus. The first form was those who stood four feet and could walk erect.

185 The second form was the Java Man, who was called Pithecanthropus, meaning "monkey man" or "ape man."

186 The other species was Paranthropus.

187 Then you had other types like the Neanderthal, who lived for 100,000 years and then disappeared.

188 Then there is the Cro-Magnon, who was said to have roamed Europe 400,000 years ago, including Homo Erectus, and many other species in between.

189 The Peking Man also belonged to this species, who was here half a million years ago, long thought to be along the migration of modern man.

190 The Peking Man was a type of prehistoric man who lived about three hundred and seventy, and five thousand years ago in what is now Northern China.

191 Members of the species Homo Erectus "Erect Man" stood about 5 feet tall, or 150 centimeters tall.

192 They had a brain about twice the size of an Australopithecine's.

193 Most of these species of Evolutionary Man came from the Ape family.

194 Among the different species of Apeman you have the black-haired Lar.

195 This is where you get the word "lord," or "master" from.

196 The Lares, plural for Lar, were recognized for their intelligence.

197 These Lares were the head monkeys or spiritual monkeys well known. This is where the word "monks" comes from.

198 When the Anunnagi chose to breed by gene splicing through Geshtue, one of the Anunnagi, and Ninti, to breed the first Mami here, 199 They chose to breed with the Lares because of their high intelligence.

200 The red-haired Orangutan was also a very intelligent ape and the brown-and black-haired Chimpanzees had the best brains on the scale of evolution.

201 The Orangutan is a large, rare ape.

202 Some males have an arm spread of 7 and 1/2 feet, one of the largest of all the apes.

203 The Orangutan's arms reach to its ankles when it stands.

204 The Orangutan lives in trees and rarely comes down to the ground.

205 It moves through the forest by climbing from branch to branch.

206 The Orangutan feeds off of fruit and leaves.

207 The other type was the Chimpanzee.

208 The Chimpanzee has the intellect of a 4 year old child.

209 And can be brought up to the level of a seven-or-eight-year-old.

210 The Chimpanzee is one of the most intelligent animals and resembles human beings more than any other animal.

211 They usually walk on all fours and stand erect when excited or trying to see over tall grass.

212 The Orangutans were used by

Figure 21
The Orangutan

Figure 22
The Chimpanzee

certain beings to breed with.

213 They used the species known as the Baboon, the dog-like Monkey And Orang-Utans together.

214 The Baboon is a large monkey.

215 It has a large head, long sharp teeth, and a muzzle much like that of a dog.

216 A Baboon's arms are about as long as its legs.

217 Some Baboons have short, stumpy tails,

218 But others have tails more than two feet long.

219 The Baboons are part hyena, jackal and monkey.

220 The breeding with them resulted in your Behaymaw type of carnivorous man called Mankind, one of the many species of Caucasians. You have the red-haired, light-green eyed, yellow-haired, blue-eyed, brown-haired, gray-eyed and many others.

221 While on the other hand, certain beings used the Chimpanzee and the Gibbon--which are an offshoot of the Lares--for breeding.

222 There are several species of Gibbons.

223 They all have long arms and no tail.

224 Gibbons travel through the tops of trees in small groups.

225 A group usually consists of a male, a female, and 1 or 2 youngs.

226 The Chimpanzee and Gibbon evolved into Humims, and they became your Nubuns, the original Pygmy tribe.

227 Their woolly hair comes from the Supreme Beings with 24 strains of genes coated in melanin.

228 These are the original Anunnagi, Aluhum;

229 The guardians of the Nubians with nine ether,

230 Who in skin color were olive, as green as the greenest of olives.

231 Gibbon is the smallest of the apes.

232 It also ranges over a wider area than the other members of the ape family--the Chimpanzee, Gorilla and Orangutan.

233 The dog race was called Behaymaw.

234 They are the "Beast." They were part Orangutan and part Baboon, Called the beast of the field.

235 They were the fierce ones.

236 Only some of these apes were used for breeding, and on the other hand, some of these beings weren't touched at all.

237 They just kept on evolving.

238 They all have 6 ether, as well as all the other animals on this planet Earth.

239 While all of this was going on, the larger meat-eating Dinosaurs were eating and destroying everything.

240 The early Humims were dying out and Proto-mammals were at the brink of extinction.

241 So, the Elders thought that it was a great idea to destroy the planet and replenish it again.

242 Then a great extinction hit, 17, 250,000 years ago.

243 The second big meteorite shower hit the planet Earth 2,250,000 years ago.

244 Most of the prehistoric man and dinosaurs were destroyed.

245 The surviving tribes were the Pygmies, the Watusies and the Hindus.

246 The Pygmy, who had mixed with the agreeable Rumardians, and the Watusi, who had mixed with the disagreeable Reptilians, were led into shelters beneath the Earth.

247 Some went behind waterfalls, and in caves and caverns of the planet Earth, to survive, while the Hindu tribe went back to their planet called Nirvana in the Canis Minor star constellation, Procyon.

248 The story of humans, we now know, that tells of a group of mammals called primates, takes us back some 45 or 50 million years when a common ancestor of monkeys, apes, and humans appeared in Africa.

249 25,000,000 or 30,000,000 million years later that is how slowly the wheels of evolution turn, a precursor of the great apes branched off the primate line.

250 In the 1920's A.D. fossils of this early ape, Proconsul, were found by chance on an island in Lake Victoria.

251 Besides Proconsul fossils they also discovered in the area remains of Ramapithecus, the first erect ape or manlike primate; it was some 14 million years old, some 8 or 10 million years up the evolutionary tree from Proconsul.

252 The richest fossil finds have been in Olduvai Gorge in Tanzania; near Lake Rudolf, renamed Lake Turkana, in Kenya; and in the afar province of Ethiopia.

253 A Neanderthal skull was found near the Nile in Egypt, which dated back to 80,000 years old.

254 Because a person's DNA keeps getting mixed by the genes of the generational fathers, comparisons of the DNA in the nucleus of the cell, which comes half from mother, and half from father, do not work well after several generations.

255 It was discovered, that in addition to the DNA in the cell's nucleus, some DNA exists in the mother's cell but outside the nucleus in bodies called Mitochondria.

256 This DNA does not get mixed with the father's DNA; instead, it is passed on unaltered from mother to daughter to granddaughter, and so on through the generations. Thus it is perfect to trace ancestral relations.

257 This discovery, by Douglas Wallace of Emory University in the 1980s, led him to compare this Mitochondria of about 800 women.

258 The surprising conclusion, which he announced at a scientific conference in July 1986 A.D. was that the Mitochondria in all of them appeared to be so similar that these women must have all descended from a single female ancestor.

259 The research was picked up by Wesley Brown of the University of Michigan, who suggested that by determining the rate of natural mutation of Mitochondria, the length of time that had passed since this common ancestor was alive could be calculated.

260 Comparing the Mitochondria of 21 women from diverse geographical and racial backgrounds, he came to the conclusion that they owed their origin to "a single Mitochondria Eve" who had lived in Africa between 300,000 and 180,000 years ago.

261 This led to the search for Eve.

262 Rebecca Cann of the University of California at Berkeley, had obtained the placentas of 147 women of different races and geographical backgrounds who gave birth at San Francisco hospitals, she extracted and compared their Mitochondria.

263 The conclusion was that they all had a common female ancestor who had lived between 300,000 and 150,000 years.

264 The upper limit of 300,000 years, paleo-anthropologists noted, coincided with the fossil evidence for the time Homo Sapiens made his appearance.

265 The Mitochondria DNA is only given from the mother to daughter, the male species does not have any Mitochondria DNA.

266 This is just further proof that the first person to walk on the planet was a female.

Tablet Ten
The Replenishing Of Tiamat
(19 x 1 = 19)

Lo! Now when the time had come for this marvelous replenishing of this desolate place known as Tiamat to begin, the Anunnagi, Aluhum, also called Angelic Beings, re-constructed two places under the command and rule of The Selected One, El Maluk;

2 He who ruled from the heavens, being called The Light of the Heavens and the Earth, to whom there were no partners.

3 El Eloh, who is also ANU, first commanded the Anunnagi to reconstruct the two places, the firmaments. Up there in the firmament, which is the asteroid belt in the skies, 4 Which is between the lower planets and the outer planets where the water is.

5 And the planet Tiamat, Earth is one of the lower planets because Tiamat, the planet Earth, had become empty and desolate;

6 No sun's light shined through the dust clouds onward to the surface of the waters.

7 And the wind of Nibiru blew, and moved the black dusk clouds.

8 Conversing amongst each other, the 24 selected, 12 agreeable and 12 disagreeable called the Yahwehans or Aluhum asked ANU, "Let there be light," and the light was.

9 And the Anunnagi saw how agreeable the condition would be with this great light again, and separated the light from the darkness. The Anunnagi called out that the light is daytime,

10 The darkness for each side of this Planet is to be in a state of shadow as the Planet moves back into phase.

11 This they called the shadow hours, or nighttime.

12 As a result of that, there was dusk and the beginning of a new day that took one period of seven thousand years.

13 These are the words of speech in the beginning, for in the beginning was a conversation,

14 And this set of words was between the Anunnagi, and these words were about the Aluhum creating Aluhum. This is how it was in the very beginning of this new cycle.

15 By way of these Anunnagi, all the new things were made.

16 Thus, there was not anything that was made, or reconstructed, that was not made by them, under the command of ANU.

17 All physical life and eternity for your soul or ether body was to be, and began. This is All by way of The All. Yet, some of you still have doubt.

18 El Eloh is your appointed deity in the Heavens and the Planet Earth; ANU, who is A'LYUN A'LYUN EL,

The Most High, The Highest.

19 The All, EL Kuluwm, knows your secrets and disclosures! El Kuluwm knows what you will earn and lose, as your body knows your every thought and move.

.....The Prayer

This is what they taught of prayer... you pray in your distress and in your need; that you might pray also in the fullness of your joy and in your days of abundance. For what is prayer but the expansion of yourself into the living ether?And if it is for your comfort to pour your darkness into space it is also for your delight to pour forth the dawning of your heart. And if you cannot but weep when your soul summons you unto prayer.

She should spur you again and yet again through weeping until you shall come Laughing.

When you pray you rise to meet in the air those who are praying at that very hour, and whom save in prayer you may not meet.

Therefore, let your visit to the masjid be invisible for naught but ecstasy and sweet communion.

For if you should enter the masjid for no other purpose than asking you shall not receive and if you should enter into it to humble yourself, you shall not be lifted; or even if you should enter into it to beg for the good of others, you shall not be heard.

It is enough that you enter the temple invisible. I cannot teach you how to pray in words. Listen to the messages of Anu from the Aluhum to your words save when he himself utters them through your lips.

And I cannot teach you the prayer of Yam, meaning the seas, and the forest and mountains. But you who are born of the mountains and the forest and Yam can find their prayer in which are thine into days which are thine also, we cannot ask you for aught. For thou knowest our needs before they are born in us; you are our need; and in giving us more of thy self thou givest us all."

But those who know, pray this prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, for you are of The All and you are in The All, and all is in you. You're head of the 300 Igigi of those Anunnagi who are still in the skies. Oh Most Holy, your name is found amongst the holy ones the Anunnagi of the heavens. For you were to name all the things that were brought into existence.

Blessed is your name. Oh Most Holy, your name is found amongst the holy ones the Anunnagi of the heavens.

For you were to name all the things that were brought into existence. Blessed is your name.

Nothing and no one can give you a name for your name is of The All. You have been appointed Anu.

Oh Anu, your kingdom will come, and what you will and ask of us, will be done on Earth, Tiamat, just as things are done in the heavenly skies among the Anunnagi. We ask you to please give us the breath of life each day where we raise. And we will procreate as you wish. And forgive us if we disagree as we forgive those who disagree with us. And protect us from the evil ones and their temptations, for you are the ruler of all kingdoms. And all power is yours, and the glory forever and ever. And we know you have appointed one of the Yahwehans your own grandson

Adonai, Tammuz as our shepherd. And we have all that we need, as you and the Anunnagi declare:

Verily we have given you all the abundance; so pray unto your Sustainer and offer.

Verily, your enemy shall be the one cut off. His seed will be cut off after 6,000 years from the most holy day. He let us rest in the outer fields of green grass and leads us to quiet pools of fresh water. He gives us new strength.

He guides us in the right path as he has promised. Even if we go through the deepest fears of death, we will not be afraid because we know that you are with us. Your flail's rod and you waas, protects us from disagreeableness.

You prepare a table for us where all our enemies can see you welcome us, as an honored guest upon your ship and fill our cups to the brim. We know that your goodness and love shall be with us all of our lives and your house will be our house as long as we exist.

Tablet Eleven
The Firmaments
(19 x 3 = 57)

Lo! Now the selected 24 ANUNNAGI, ALUHUM, of which 12 were agreeable and 12 disagreeable, commanded the firmament, which is the Asteroid belt, to be in the middle of this Solar System between Mummu/Mercury, Lahamu/Venus, Tiamat/Earth and Lahmu/Mars,

2 And Kishar/Jupiter, Anshar/Saturn, ANU/Uranus, and Ea/ Neptune;

3 The 2 sets of Planets with water in the heavens above and the heavens below,

4 So that it would separate the water on the Planet Earth, which is below,

5 From the water on the other Planets above, and the clouds.

6 And the Anunnagi made an arch firmament, an Asteroid belt in the sky, as a necklace to be donned, visible, which is above in the Planets' atmospheres.

7 And separated the 2 waters;

8 One which was beneath the beaten out firmament Mummu/ Mercury; Lahamu/Venus Tiamat/Earth; and Lahmu/Mars, 9 From the other which was above--Kishar/Jupiter, Anshar/Saturn, ANU/Uranus, and Ea/Neptune, and this happened.

10 The Anunnagi named the firmaments, skies,

11 And the dusk period and the new second day of 7,000 years was over, and the 24 selected elders, 1 for each hour of 1 Earth day.

12 The Anunnagi sat in a circle and said amongst each other:

13 "The waters beneath the skies are to be brought together as one mass as oceans, rivers, streams, and lakes, 14 And let the dry land be seen;" and this happened.

15 The Anunnagi called out that Qi, the planet Earth, will be called Adamah–dry, brown ground, the land mass called Qi.

16 And the Mayyeem, called waters, that were gathered together, they called the Yawm, Yam, who was the brother of Baal; and he ruled the seas of Tiamat, and the Anunnagi saw that things this way were agreeable,

17 The Anunnagi said, "In the name of El Eloh, the Appointed who is due all gratitude,

18 The only true Sustainer of Sustainers of all the boundless universes, The Caring, the Loving.

19 When all things end, it is up to ANU, who is A'LYUN A'LYUN EL. A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, alone is to be worshipped, and we ask A'LYUN A'LYUN EL for help alone.

20 A'LYUN A'LYUN EL guides us to the right way.

21 The ways of those 12 agreeable Anunnagi, not the way of the 12 disagreeable Anunnagi.

22 Nor the ways of those who were 100 hundred agreeable and went astray.

23 And the Anunnagi said amongst each other: The planet Earth should now spread buds, growing herbs with seeds in them in order to yield new seeds;

24 And a fruit tree should grow with seeds in them, from the land mass and this happened;

25 And so the planet Earth did bring forth grass, and herbs with seeds in themselves;

26 And great trees, within itself; and the Anunnagi saw that things this way were agreeable.

27 The dusk period and the new 3rd day of 7,000 years was over.

28 The 24 selected counselors of the original Aluhum, who are called Anunnagi said amongst each other:

29 "Let the light exist in the skies in order to separate the daylight hours from the shadow hours."

30 Daylight was called agreeable, 12 selected Sarufaat, and the shadow hours was called disagreeable, and 12 (Sarubaat). You have your 24, 12 disagreeable and 12 agreeable.

31 Let them be as signals of the seasons, of days, and years as time for this planet, 24 hours in a day, 24,000 thousand years in an equinox, 32 As illuminating lights in the skies to shine light upon the planet Earth; and this happened.

33 The Anunnagi caused the older and brighter light to be seen in the sky in order to overpower the daytime.

34 The symbol of the agreeable was the star as a great surface of life (the sun) shine ever so brightly from the pure darkness, (the very first state before light), made things seen.

35 The younger light of lesser brightness has to be seen through the shadow hours.

36 The symbol of the disagreeable was the crescent moon which is ruled by the sun.

37 They also made many outer suns as stars visible; and the Anunnagi made them appear in the skies in order to shed light on the Planet Earth.

38 This was to overpower the day and the shadow hours called night, and to separate the daylight from the shadow hours;

39 The Anunnagi saw that things this way were agreeable; and the dusk period and the new 4th day of 7,000 thousand years were over;

40 And they said, and for every thing there is a time. Everything that will happen in this new world will happen.

....On Time...

And they set the 12 signs in the skies called the Cosmic Clock or Buruj given 12 periods broken into 4 seasons. Bringing in the signs of the end of one age and the beginning of another.

41 Thus, everything that will happen in this new world will happen, when A'LYUN A'LYUN EL wishes it to happen.

A'lyun A'lyun El sets the time for birth and the time for death.
The time for planting and the time for pulling up.
The time for what's dead and a time for what is healed.
The time for building and a time to tear down what was built.
A time for joy, and time for sorrow.
A time for mourning, and a time for dancing and music.
A time to make love, and a time not to make love.
A time to kiss, and a time not to kiss.
A time to find things, and a time for losing.
A time to save, and a time to throw away.
A time to speak, and a time to remain silent.

42 These are the laws on time. This is what they taught the Magi on time:

You would adjust your conduct and even direct the course of your spirit according to hours and seasons. Of time, you would make a stream upon whose bank you would sit and watch its flowing.
Yet the timeless in you is aware of life's timelessness, and knows that yesterday is but today's memories, and tomorrow is today's dreams. And that which sings and contemplates in you is still dwelling within the bonds of that first moment which scattered the stars into space.
Who among you does not feel that his power to love is boundless? And yet who does not feel that very love, though boundless, encompassed within the center of his being, and moving not from love thought to love, nor rom love deeds to other love deeds? And is not time even as love is, undivided and spaceless.
But in your thoughts you must measure time into seasons, let each season encircle all the other seasons, and let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing.

43 The Anunnagi said amongst each other,

44 "Let the waters breed abundantly all kinds of swimming creatures that are to live;

45 And birds are to fly above the Planet Earth in the open skies." The Anunnagi re-created Taneen, the Dragon-Sea Serpents as Sea Dinosaurs;

46 And all living spirits–amoebas, algae, and fungi that swim, which the waters bred from itself;

47 And all the winged birds, Pterodactyls, from themselves;

48 And the Anunnagi saw that things this way were agreeable.

49 The Anunnagi put their blessings on them all by saying:

50 "Pro-create and multiply, and refill the waters in the seas, and the birds are to multiply in the Planet Earth."

51 The dusk period and the new 5th day of another 7,000 thousand years was over.

52 The Anunnagi said amongst each other:

53 "Let the planet Earth bring forth living spirits from itself, non-speaking mammals and reptiles, 54 Also living on the planet Earth; "and this happened.

55 The Anunnagi made to evolve all the living animals that appeared on the planet Earth bred from themselves;

56 And non-speaking mammals bred from themselves;
57 And all the creeping things upon the planet Earth bred from themselves; and the Anunnagi saw that things this way were agreeable.

The New Being
(19 x 1 = 19)

Lo! Another being which was to be thought into being and recreated was the Humims from Hu, the Force of Creative Will. These Humims were to thrive to become supreme beings again. Also, there was the Behaymaw, the Animal Man called "Hu-Man." Human beings descending from Supreme to Being, to Supreme Being, to Human being, to Human, to man, to Mammal to Animal, to Beast.
2 The kingdom of the skies was called Malakuwt, and the blue planet was called Arduwt;
3 And the great kingdom of Tama-Ra "Egypt" was originally called Kemet after the constellation Kiymah/Pleiades, one of the original homes inhabited by the Anunnagi who are called Neteru by the Egyptians when they could no longer live on RIZQ. The Anunnagi named it Nibruqi, "the Earthplace of Nibiru", and Nippur in Akkadian.
4 It was ruled by Enlil before the procreation of Kadmon and Nekaybaw;
5 And on the other side was the evil ones in the land called Aranzakh.
6 They had a leader, whose name as an Anunnagi is Giqun "legion of them" or Haylal.
7 He is the father of the disagreeable Anunnagi species. He is the head of the 200 fallen Nephilian, Nephilites or Yahwehan called Luciferians. Nephi, is called Lucifer or Satan.
8 Then there was Asbil. He was the teacher of the 200 fallen angels when on Arduwt. How to be Humim is what he taught them.
9 And there was Gadril, the killer. He taught that death was agreeable; to kill, it is best. But this is what the elders taught of death:
10 And Finimu, the teacher of deeds, he taught how to trick Humim Beings into sin;
11 And how to disobey "Huwa" and his wisdom,
12 And Kasdiya, the teacher of sorcery.
13 These were the beings from a planet in Procyon called Nirvana who came to Arduwt,
14 The Blue Planet, in the form of giants called "Anakims;"
15 And their ruler and deity was a Hindu.
16 They live as the Emims and dwelt in Arduwt.
17 We, the Anunnagi, came to Eridu from Malakuwt in Mu, which are chariots of light, by way of Nibiru.
18 Which has 18 Shams or ships, having 50 passengers on each ship.
19 The crystal city or mothership is made of amber and crystal, and 900 Anunnagi in all.

Tablet Thirteen
The Fashioning Of The
Adamah-Kadmon
(19 x 3 =57)

Lo! O those beings who were fashioned by the command of The Most High ANU, "Seek knowledge even unto the grave, if you but know what is good for you!" I speak to you, you must take this knowledge with a full overstanding.

2 Listen to me, oh beings of the Adamah, ANU A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted, sent the Anunnagi from the 4 corners of the planet Earth to fetch soil for the flesh of your father who is called Adam, for he was an earthling, and Zakar "one who remembers", for he is to remember.

3 Yet, his name is Kadmon, to be fashioned at the 4 rivers. These Wise Anunnagi scientists were:

4 Gabriy'El Zodoq,

5 Murduk Zodoq,

6 Israafi'El Zodoq,

7 Izraa'El Zodoq,

8 ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted,

9 Then ordered the Aluhum to bathe the soul of Kadmon,

You would know the secret of death. But how shall you find it unless you seek it in the heart of life?
The owl whose night-bond eyes are blind unto the day cannot unveil the mystery of light.
If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life. For life and death are one, even as the river in Yam, and the sea are one. In the depth of your hopes and desires lie your silent knowledge of the beyond. And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow, your heart dreams of spring.
Trust the dreams, for in them is the gate to eternity.
Your fear of death is but the trembling of the shepherd when he stands before the king whose hand is to be laid upon him in honor. Is the shepherd not joyful beneath his trembling, that he should wear the mark of the king? Yet, is he not more mindful of his trembling? For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?
And what is to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek Anu unencumbered? Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.
When Tiamat, the planet Earth, shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance.

10 Which he created 1000 years before his body,

11 In the sea of glory which proceeded from himself, called Kawthar.

12 He commanded it to illuminate his yet lifeless form.

13 The soul hesitated,

14 For it was unwilling to enter into the flesh.

15 But ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted, commanded:

16 "You must animate Kadmon, even against your will;

17 And as the punishment of your disobedience,

18 You shall one day be separated from him also against your will."

19 This is speaking of human beings dying,

20 And because his soul refused to come into the small shell to be imprisoned here,

21 ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted, condemned him, 22 And said, "Now this same soul will wish one day not to leave him, when the Anunnagi of Death comes.

23 The Anunnagi of Death stood by witnessing all of these things with tears in his eyes. ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted, told Izraa'El, son of ANU and Id, also spelled Iyd:
24 "Depart for I have made you Anunnagi of Death.
25 I have placed the taking of the soul of Kadmon and his seed, the Adamites, into your power."
26 At these words Izraa'El began to weep saying:
27 "Amongst you, Children of Kadmon, there will be newsbearers who will undoubtedly hate me on this account."
28 ANU, who is the Most High, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, rejoined: "I shall send so many complaints and diseases upon human beings,
29 That they shall not hate you; and their deeds, they shall not be a cause of grief to you."
30 This means that human beings will be so preoccupied in the pleasures of this world that they shall not even notice death.
31 It is said that the Anunnagi of Death has a seat in the skies.
32 ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted, created it from light.
33 One of his 2 feet is on the bridge of hell, and the other is on the seat in The Enclosed Garden.
34 It is said of his magnitude that where the water of the seas and rivers poured on his head,
35 Not a drop would fall on the planet Earth. It is said that if ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted, put all the world near the Anunnagi of Death, 36 It would be like a table placed before a human being so that he might eat when he likes of it.
37 So the Anunnagi, Aluhum of Death, turned the world of creatures about as a human being turns a coin.
38 As for the knowledge of the end of turns,
39 When the transcript of death and illness for the slave comes to the Aluhum of Death, he says:
40 "My creator, when shall I take the Ruwh, the soul of the slave?
41 In what form shall I lift it?"
42 El, may he be exalted, says:
43 "O Aluhum of Death,
44 This is the knowledge of the unseen. None have knowledge of it except me,
45 But I shall inform you of the arrival of his time,
46 And make signs for you that you will overstand.
47 The Anunnagi who is in charge of their breaths and deeds will come to you and say:
48 "The breath of so-and-so is finished."
49 The one who is in charge of his provisions and deeds will say:
50 "His provisions are finished and his deeds are well."
51 If he is among the happy, his scroll carried by the Anunnagi, Aluhum of Death will have on it his name with a line of gold light around it.
52 If he is amongst the wretched, you will see around it a red line.
53 The knowledge of that is not complete for the Anunnagi, Aluhum of Death until a leaf falls on him from the tree which is below the throne, 54 And the name of the one about to die is written on the leaf; then the Anunnagi of Death takes his Nafs, spirit.

55 Murduk will descend with a scroll to the Anunnagi, Aluhum of Death from ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted,

56 And on it is written the name of the one whose Nafs, spirit, he has commanded to be taken;

57 The place in which the Nafs is to be taken; and the cause of it being taken.

Two drops will fall from under the throne on the name of its owner. One is pink and the other green. If a pink drop falls on the name, he knows that he is wretched and malevolent.

If a green drop falls on the name, he knows that he is happy and benevolent. And this is what he taught of benevolence and malevolence.

Of the benevolent, that is the agreeable good ones, in you I can speak, but not of malevolence . disagreeable, the evil ones

For what is evil but good, tortured by its own hunger and thirst?

Verily when good is hungry, it seeks food even in dark caves and when it thirsts it drinks even of dead waters. You are benevolent when you are one with yourself.

Yet when you are not one with yourself, you are not malevolent for a divided house is not a den of thieves. It is only a divided house.

And a ship without rudders may wonder aimlessly amongst perilous isles. Yet sink not to the bottom.

You are benevolent when you strive to give to yourself.

Yet you are not malevolent when you seek gain for yourself.

For when you strive for gain you are but a root that clings to the planet Earth and sucks at her, the fruit cannot say to the root be like me ripe and full, ever giving of your abundance. For to the fruit giving is a need, as receiving is a need to the root.

You are benevolent when you are fully awake in your speech. Yet you are not malevolent when you sleep while your tongue staggers without purpose.

And even stumbling speech may strengthen a weak tongue. You are good when you walk to your goal firmly and with bold steps.

You are good when you walk to your goal firmly and with bold steps. Yet, you are malevolent when you go thither limping even those who limp go not backward.

But you who are strong and swift see that you do not limp before the lame, deeming it kindness. You are benevolent in countless ways. And you are to malevolent when you are not benevolent.

You are only loitering and sluggard pity that the stages cannot teach swiftness to the turtle. In your longing for your giant self, lies your goodness. And that longing is in all of you, but in some of you that longing is a torrent. Rushing with might in the sea carrying the secrets of the hillsides and the songs of the forest. And in others it is a flat stream that looses itself in angles and bends and lingers before it reaches the shore.

But let not him who longs much say to him longs little wherefore are you slow at halting for the truly benevolent asks not the naked where is your garment?

Tablet Fourteen
In Our Image And After Our Likeness
(19 x 6 = 114)

Lo! And we had mercy upon your kind so we the Anunnagi, said amongst ourselves:

2 "Now let's breed by cloning people that are Homo-Sapiens of this Adamah, Planet Earth, the Adamites,
3 Looking just like ourselves, the Anunnagi, having 9 ether hair and coating their genes in melanin, that they may act like ourselves with Right Knowledge.
4 We will give them rulership over the fish of the sea, all Reptilians and birds of the skies and all Gargoyles,
5 And over all the non-speaking mammals, beast of the field;
6 And all the creeping things that creep upon the planet Earth."
7 And the Aluhum, Anunnagi, made to evolve all the domestic living animals that appeared on the planet Earth to breed from themselves,
8 And all the creeping things upon the planet earth bred from themselves;
9 And the Anunnagi saw that things this way were agreeable.
10 The Anunnagi, Aluhum Kalka'EL, also known as Rudwaan and Uri'El, son of Azari'El and Rafiki'El then said:
11 "Here, you have been given every herb with a yielding seed, which is on the surface of the whole planet Earth, and every tree which yields fruit and has its own seed to reproduce; all of this is for your food."
12 The Anunnagi Nudimmud, who is also called Enqi, one appointed by El Eloh for the breeding from the Anunnagi Ninti, daughter of ANU,
13 Pro-created people Homo-Sapiens–first called Nuwbuns, then became Nubians of the Adamites, from the Homo Erectus, which had 6 ether hair, and the original Anunnagi with 9 ether hair–to look like herself using her own divine seed, Ninti; giving Nubians 9 ether, and acting like herself.
14 The Anunnagi procreated them into one they called Adam/Kadmon, who had 8 ether and Nekaybaw/Hawwah, who had 9 ether.
15 This is how she, Ninti, procreated them of her own seed,
16 And the Anunnagi blessed them.
17 The Anunnagi said to them, so that they would not have to be moved to Raphali, to Monodappa, now called Zimbabwe, to work as slaves in the gold mines until they die:
18 "Breed children and multiply,
19 And refill the planet Earth, and keep it under control and rule over the fish of the seas and the birds of the skies;
20 And over all that live and swim on the planet Earth.
21 Every living animal of the planet Earth, and to every bird of the skies,
22 And to everything that swims on the planet Earth in which there is a living soul, every green vegetation is for food. This supreme being is being appointed vegetarian. He is not to eat of the blood of its creatures; but to maintain its olive hue by the chlorophyll of the herbs that are most abundant on the Earth and beneath the Earth.
23 Being born copper red to purify into olive green as you green ones. And this happened. The Anunnagi saw all of the things that were fashioned, and here it was all very agreeable for them.
24 It was dusk period and the new 6th day of 7,000 thousand years was over.
25 So the skies and the planet Earth were prepared, and all the living beings of both of them.

26 The 7th day, the Anunnagi Enqi, who is also called Nudimmud finished his duty which he had done and he desisted;

27 He kept the shabut, and he desisted in the 7th day from all his duties which he had done.

28 The Anunnagi Enqi blessed the 7th day;

29 And he declared it Gadush, "holy"; because in it, he desisted from all of his duties which the Anunnagi had done.

30 These Anunnagi are the genealogy of the skies, from the planet Rizq in the galaxy Illyuwn;

31 A planet of another galaxy and the Planet Earth, also called Qi, 32 When they were re-constructing and pro-creating in the day that the Anunnagi made the planet Earth and made its skies re-appear.

33 They planted every shrub in the parts of the outer field, outside the Enclosed Garden before they had actually grown;

34 And every herb before it had "sprouted seeds" because Yahuwa, who is the head of Yahwehan of the Aluhum, the Anunnagi, had not made it rain upon the planet Earth.

35 An Adamite Homo Sapien was not there yet to be Abd, slaves, and work as miners of the ground.

36 So, a mist of water clouds ascended up from the planet Earth in order to irrigate as rain the whole surface of the ground where the seeds had been planted.

37 And Yahuwa of the Aluhum shaped Adam from Ninti's clot of granulated blood from the people of the ground.

38 They gave Kadmon, the breath of divine life, and Adam was born a spirit.

39 And Yahuwa of the Aluhum ordered Arazul to build the foundation of the garden;

40 And Ashnan, Thukkiac, who came from the school of the peacock under Murduk, for the planting of a special Enclosed Garden of Delight and pleasure.

41 Over there he placed Adam, whom was cloned.

42 From that same ground did the Yahuwa of the Aluhum grow every tree and flower that was beautiful to the sight, and the vegetation that was Tobe, good for food;

43 A special tree of hallucinating herbs was in the center of the Enclosed Garden, under which is agreeable in the sight of Yahuwa.

44 That which is disagreeable in the sight of Yahuwa, giving one his own will power.

45 And the Anunnagi said amongst themselves:

46 "Indeed we have made them in the constellation, and we have beautified them for the eye of the beholders.

47 We have guarded it from all of the accursed Reptilian serpents, the Luciferians, and the Naatas, people who are from the deep;

48 Those Jinn who disobeyed the laws of El Eloh for Human Beings. He was of the Kaafiruwn.

49 Yet he has stolen from it and we curse Zuen as a visible flame,

50 And thrown upon firm mountains.

51 We cause to grow in it everything well measured,

52 And we have made for you therein means of sustenance,

53 And for every other creature whom you are not the sustainers.

54 There is nothing except what is with us Anunnagi which are it's treasures;
55 And we do not send the winds fertilizing.
56 Then we send down water from the sky, so we gave it unto you to drink of it, 57 And it is not you that is its storers.
58 Verily, only we and none else cause life and cause death.
59 We are the only heirs and indeed we know those eager to be foremost among you.
60 We know those who like to lag behind.
61 Verily El Eloh, your Rabb, who is the sustainer, he will gather them together;
62 Verily, he is El Hakum, or the Wise one; El A'lum, or the one who knows; and indeed we Anunnagi created Enosites of black mud.
63 Fashioned and shaped. The Jinns we created long before Adam, of fire of Samuwm, or Sumon, from which the name Sama'El, son of Shakhar comes from.
64 To the other Anunnagi rulers, verily I am going to create human tissue, 65 Of the essence of black mud fashioned into shape of the very dust of the Adamah, ground;" They, Naatas, wanted the remains of this black mud which was kept safe in a small four-by-four black box, which is now the Kaaba of Arabia.
66 It is the Anunnagi who he assigned you a period of time to live on Earth; created all of you from clay then only by you, you still harbor suspicions.
67 And its termination is known.
68 So when I have completed him, and breathed into him of my own soul,
69 Then you all are to fall down and prostrate before him.
70 O Enosites! Worship your Sustainer who created you and those beings before you.
71 Happily you may guard yourselves against disagreeableness, who made the Earth a resting place for you,
72 Thereby produce fruits for your sustenance.
73 The sky was a firm structure, and the Aluhum caused the water to descend from Heaven. Set you not, therefore, equals for him while you already know.
74 Who created you looking like herself, Ninti,
75 And acting like herself?
76 Ninti, a female Anunnagi, and controller of the Shimti laboratory.
77 Put on your shield of protection against the deceivers.
78 Many have gone into the world, and yet still many are not yet born.
79 Ninti is the mother of your procreation.
80 Before Zeus, women were recognized as the mother deities.
81 We have males born of females, yet we will restrict them.
82 All of the great prophets came through the canal of a female.
83 Only in the reptile family do you find male transforming to female, and female transforming to male, by nature's call.
84 Associate not with the man that respects not the woman.
85 For even that man was conceived by the woman.
86 The "mother," simply the "metter," or "matter."
87 She reflects the light of a properly lit sun in wisdom.

88 She has 4 periods, as the four phases of the Moon.
89 The Moon that you see has no light of its own,
90 But it has mass and it does exist in the purest state, darkness before chaos.
91 Thus, her weakness comes from the man.
92 Darkness is pure and the moon sits in darkness as an assistant to the Earth;
93 Controlling her tides.
94 As the Moon, rightly called Luna, has an affect on the mental state of those who lean toward her, the lunatic,
95 Let not the sensitivity or the apparent weakness of the woman alter your state of consciousness.
96 Stay in control.
97 If the moon ceases to pull upon the tides of this planet,
98 It would overheat as the evening comes and be no more.
99 If a man ceases to respond to the whims of a woman or over responds to the emotional changes of a woman, he too will overheat, transform into a lunatic, and be no more.
100 Gaia is her name. She has been worshipped;
101 Be they agreeable or disagreeable:
102 Bunbulama, Buto, Ajysyt,
103 Aditi, Hina, Chalchiuhtlicue,
104 Umm Attar, Maat,
105 Nakia, Sibtu, Amaterasu,
106 Asit, Attis, Amphitrite,
107 Ate, Anatiis, Andarta,
108 Arianrod, Arinna, Kali ,
109 Artemis, Artio, Asase Ya,
110 Arduinna, Yemaya, Ua Zit,
111 Ashera, Asiaq, Badb Catha,
112 Athena, Atugan, Audjal;
113 Mother deities;

El Shabut

And This Is How This Event Should Be Commemorated

The Sabbath begins nineteen minutes before the sun appears to set (evening worship; shadow hour) on Friday, and ends nineteen minutes after the sun appears to have set, shadow hour on Saturday.

The Sabbath is the 7th day of the week and was sanctified by the Anunnagi Aluhum. The Sabbath is symbolic of the day that the Aluhum desisted in their cloning process of Homo Erectus to Homo-Sapien, a process which took 600 years in the place called Qodesh, known as Jerusalem today, or in Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) Quddiws, meaning "Holy." The cloning was done by the Anunnagi, Aluhum Enqi and Ninti, who were the scientists, and Nergal and Arishkegal, who were the chemists.

This process of cloning came about through a feat of genetic engineering and embryo-implant techniques. You were on a long process of evolution. However, The Anunnagi jumped in and sped up your evolutionary process, creating you sooner than you would have evolved on your own. The Anunnagi didn't intervene on all of the Homo-Erectus' evolution, just on a selected group.

And on this seventh day, the Aluhum Enqi, who is also Nudimmud, or Izraa'el of the Anunnagi finished his duty which he had done, and he desisted; and kept The Sabbath in the seventh day from all his duties which he had done. And the Aluhum Enqi. Blessed the 7th day, and declared it Gadush- Holy; because in it he desisted from all his duties which he and the Aluhum had done.

Preparation For El Gadush Shabut- The Holy Sabbath

The mother ignites a set of three white candles nineteen minutes before shadow hours on Friday, and are left to burn continuously. The candles rest in a candle holder on a small table, which has been covered with a white tablecloth and is only used on the Sabbath. The white is symbolic of all purity of the Heavens and Earth.

Each candle should be white and unscented (signifying purity), positioned in the shape of a triangle facing east, and placed in the center of the table on the Sabbath cloths. Originally a seven-candle Menorah was used for the six days of pro-creation and the day of desisting. As each candle is lit, your thoughts should reflect on the meaning of each candle. The three white candles are lit by a smaller candle.

The First Candle

The first candle represents pro-creation, "The Spiritual Life." Therefore, when lighting this first candle, your thoughts should focus on the remembrance of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, The Most High, ANU (The Heavenly One).

The Second Candle

The second candle represents "The World" you live in today. Thus, when this candle is lit, your thoughts should reflect on this.

The Third Candle

The third candle is symbolic of a state that is yet to come; life in the "the next world."

The seven-candlestick Menorah represents the six days of pro-creation, which began with "let there be light," as does the celebration of pro-creation with the igniting of lights. The seven Minarets in Masjidul Haraam in Mecca represent the seven-candlestick Menorah. In Revelation chapter 1, John sees seven candlesticks of gold separated on one stand.

The fact that there were seven candlesticks means completeness. In the Aramic (Hebrew) law, the seven gold candlesticks are called a Menorah. In the Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) language, this word is Manaarah, which means "lighthouse, pillar or place where the fire is lit," and comes from the root word Nawara, meaning "to light, illuminate, fill with light." The word Manaarah is also used for Minaret, the structure of a Masjid from which the Nudiya "caller" sounds the call to worship in Islam. The middle candle of the Menorah is used to light all the other candles and is also symbolic of these times you are living in. Since the 1990s A.D. the third candle has been lit leaving two years left before the beginning of the sun cycle.

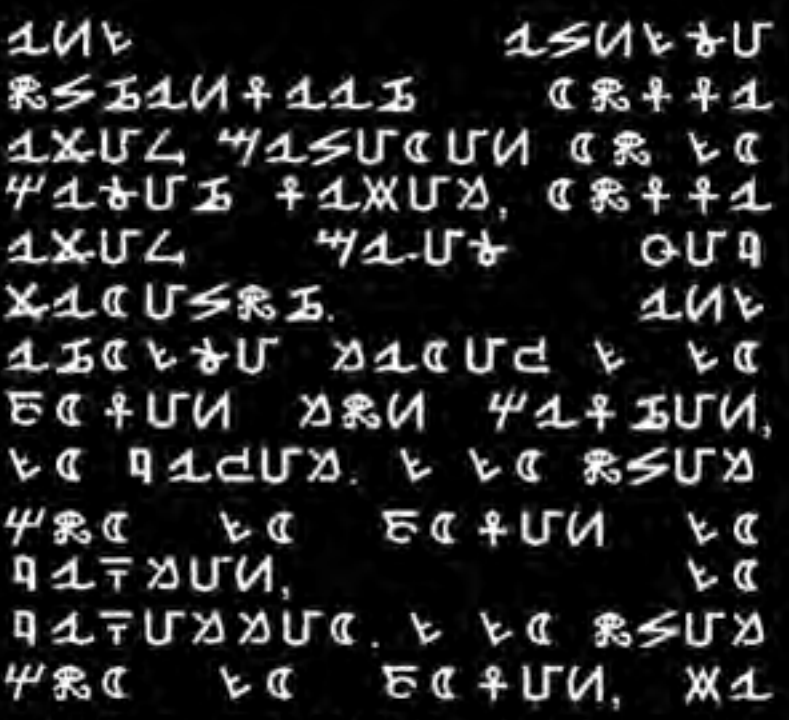
Rituals

During the Sabbath there are many rituals that are practiced: The lighting of the candles, scriptural readings, the Sabbath meal, and the blessings which are received in celebrating this special day.

Members of The Holy Tabernacle Ministries should practice them to reinstill discipline. Most of the prayers that will be recited will be from "The Book Of Light." Many people think that Friday is the Sabbath; However it is not. Friday is the day of preparation for the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is as follows:

1. Before stepping into the bathtub, you must make the following intentions:



Ane Asnebu Istanyaat Liyya Akhuz Ghasulun Li El Shabut Yawum, Liyya Akhuz Gha-Ub Gur Khalusit. Ane Atlebu Maluj E El A'lyun Min Shaytun, El Rajum. E El Isum Shil El A'lyun El Rahmun, El Rahummul. E El Isum Shil El A'lyun, Wa Kull Hamudtud Izu Magiy Ila El A'lyun, A'la El Tarug Shil Hayub "El Hag".

"I make intentions to take a bath for the shabbath day, to take away impurity. I seek refuge in The Most High from satan, the cursed. In The name of The Most High, the yielder, the most merciful. In the name of The Most High, and all gratitude is due to The Most High, on the way of life (sentence) "the truth".

2. Then step into the bathtub, which is filled with water and sit down to soak and wash your body, making sure the water reaches all of the hidden places such as the buttocks, behind the knees, navel, etc. Also wash your mouth and your face. The water should come above the waist. After this is done, let the water out of the tub and turn on the water from the shower and proceed to wash the body again.

Women and men should remove (shave) the hair from the armpits. Hair left underneath the arms is very unsanitary and a haven for bacteria and odors. Also pubic hair must be cut; however, all the hair should not be removed. It can be clipped to one-fourth of an inch. Because the pubic hair was put there to protect the vagina from getting germs and bacteria, if it's not covered with hair, the vagina can get infected. This is the same for the male.

The dinner table should be set and all Sabbath articles should be in place. The home should be comfortable and look festive, as if you were expecting guests. Before igniting the Sabbath lights, the following preparations are made. The table is set and spread with a white table cloth; three sabbath candles are set up in the middle of the table on the sabbath cloth in a triangular shape facing in an eastward direction. For the meal; two qumash, (specially embroidered cloths [napkins]) are covering the two loaves of khallah or challah bread with our specially designed khallah bread cloth. A glass of wine is placed at the head of the table.

Table Setting

The three candles are placed in the center of the table on a white tablecloth specifically used for the Sabbath. This white tablecloth symbolizes all purity of the Shamayim (Two places up there in the sky) and the purity of the planet Tiamat/Earth.

The mother/wife of the household lights the three candles at the beginning of the Sabbath 19 minutes before the shadow hours. Being that light is life, and the mother is really the life of the whole family, she lights the candles; however, there is no place in the scriptures that states that the mother must light the candles. If the mother is unclean, the oldest daughter over thirteen years old must recite. If both are unclean, it can be done by the father or son. The mother lighting the candles is a preferred practice because the mother is usually the maintainer of the house. The next eldest woman in the household or oldest daughter may light the candles if the mother is not available. Regardless to whether or not any of these people are available, the candles must still be lit before the shadow hours, if they are not, you will be violating the law of not igniting (lighting) a fire on The Sabbath.

The mother proceeds to light the candles as follows: First, she shadows her eyes with her left hand, spreading the fingers apart so that she can see. Then she lights the candles with her right hand. She then outstretches her hands with the palms facing outward to shield herself from the flames of the candles, and silently recites the following blessing and prayer before she lights the candles.

"Oh Heavenly One and the aluhum and attributes. Oh light of the light: You have been enlightened with the light. The light is in the light of your light oh light. You created (the sun) from the light. The light of the boundless universes.

When the Sabbath is going out on Saturday nineteen minutes before the shadow hours, the same prayer is recited.

The woman lights the candles first, in order to satisfy the requirement that the prayer be recited before the act. She shadows her eyes not to see the light; the benediction is considered to have happened before the act of lighting the candles. Though the lighting of candles is permitted on festivals, the same procedure is followed to avoid differentiation from the regular sabbath procedure. Note: The candlesticks used in igniting of The Sabbath candles should not be removed from the table or touched during the Sabbath. Candles and cloths must be of The Holy Tabernacle Ministries.

Variations Of The Candle-Lighting Ceremony

For single men: He prepares for the Sabbath on Friday. He continues with his day as he would if he had a family. When it is time to light the Sabbath candles, he would light his Sabbath candles just as the mother of the house would.

Then he would bless his household by tapping the mezuzah, (a parchment put into a case and attached to the door post) three times and reciting a prayer; then he would have his sabbath evening meal.

For the couple: The couple would observe the Sabbath as the family would. However, before the Sabbath meal, instead of the blessings for the children he would go straight into the blessings for the wife and continue on from there.

If the Sabbath has already come in and you neglectfully didn't light the candles, it is too late. Do not light the candles. Do not ignite any flames or any kind of open fire.

The father stands at the head of the dinner table, the son stands to the right of him and the daughter stands to the left of him. The wife stands at the opposite end of the table, and the visitors in between them.

After igniting the sabbath lights which is immediately before the sanctified drinking of wine," the father places his right hand on the head of his son, and keeping his hand on the head of his son, he says the blessings for the son. If he has more than one son, the oldest is nearest to him on the right.

Prayer For Sons

Yakul El A'lyun Yasnebu Ent Mithul Ishmael, Ishaq And Midyan. Yakul El Rab Yabreku Ent Wa Sawun Ent: Yakul El Rab Sabub Hu Malamubane Liyya Sagul A'la Ent, Wa Kawun Hamudaws A'la Ent: Yakul El Rab Yarferu Fog Malamubane-Hu Ila Ent Wa Yanfenu Ent Shalum.

May The Most High Make Thee Like Ishmael, Isaac And Midian. May The Sustainer Bless Thee And Keep Thee: May The Sustainer Cause His Countenance To Shine Upon Thee, And Be Gracious Unto Thee: May The Sustainer Lift Up His Countenance Towards Thee And Give Thee Peace."

Keeping his hand on the head of his son, he places his hand on the head of his daughter and does the same for his daughter as he did for his son. The oldest daughter, if there is more than one, sits nearest to him on his left.

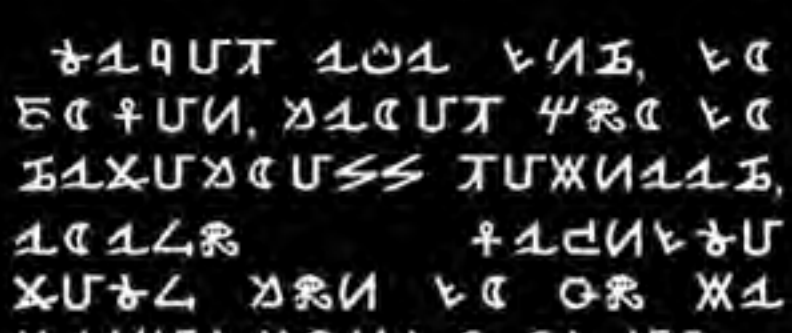
Peace Be Upon You Perfect Of El Yahuwa.

After reciting the prayer to the mother of the house and everyone sings the song welcoming The Sabbath, the head of the household raises the cup of wine and performs the Taqdiys, "Sanctification." Taqdiys is the sanctification of drinking non-alcoholic grape wine for the youth and kosher wine for the adults. The father takes a sip of the non-alcoholic wine, then passes it to his right so that everyone may take a sip; to his son and around to the relatives or visitors, to the wife and then back to the daughter. The wine is symbolic of Kadmon's seed.

If wine is not available, this verse is recited over the khallah bread:



Baruk Atha Ent, El A'lyun, Maluk Shil El Takhumluss Kuwnaat, Alazi Yajnebu Khubz Min El Gi Wa Manub Min El Le-ul.

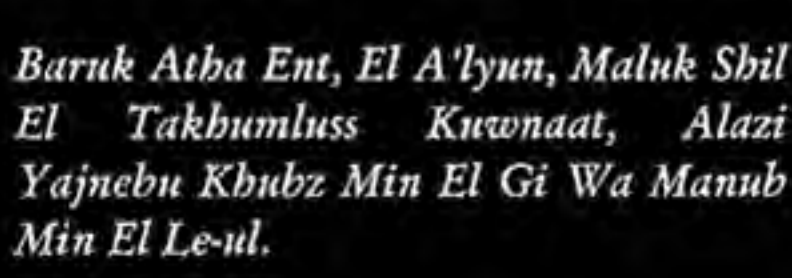
Blessed Art Thou, The Most High, King Of The Boundless Universes, Who Brings Forth Bread From The Earth And Manna From The Sky.

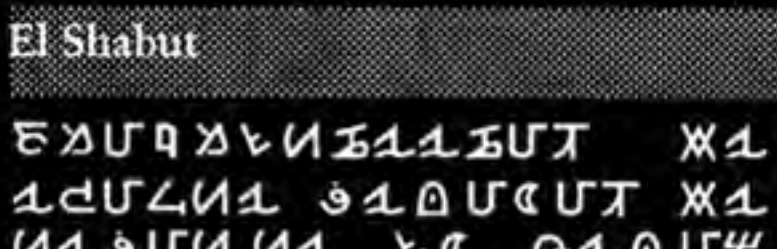
This is the substitution for the supplication for the wine. Then the khallah bread is broken and passed around, and everyone sits down to eat. Two loaves of bread are used because The Creator gave two portions of Manna, a sweet, gummy juice, to the children of Israel for The Sabbath, and two beings, Adam and Eve, were born. The bread is considered the staff of life.

Grace Before The Meal Blessing After Washing Of Hands For The Meal

In the olden days, they had a bowl and a pitcher of hot water on the stand next to the table at the mother's end of the table and each member had their own hand cloth. The mother passes the pitcher around from the daughter on her right, and on around to the father, and on to the sons in order to wash their hands. This is a symbol that the woman is the maintainer of the house. The washing represents the physical purification on the outside, and the wine represents the physical purification of the inside.

Blessing After Washing Of Hands For The Meal





Baruk Atha Ent, El A'lyun, Maluk Shil El Takhumluss Kuwnaat, Alazi Gadash-Naa Bi A'murmentaatuk Wa Ajuzna Faduluk Wa Nafun-Na El Gadush Shabut Amma Maruthaneun.

"Blessed Art Thou, The Most High, King Of The Boundless Universes, Who Has Sanctified Us By Your Commandments And Has Granted Us Your Favor And Give Us El Gadush Shabut As An Inheritance."

It is desirable to eat fish at every Sabbath meal; however, if it is harmful or disliked, you do not have to eat it because The Shabbath is meant for pleasure. You eat fish because they were the first sign of life. They were also spared in the flood.

Once The Sabbath is in many families, take the shadow hours and day of the Sabbath as a time to study the Scriptures. For younger children, games are made up for them to learn the Scriptures. Questions and answer-type games are fun and makes learning interesting. The Sabbath is a joyous day, not a solemn day.

Things That You May Do On The Sabbath

You may work and leave businesses open. If an emergency occurs, for instance a child falling out of a window, a woman going into labor or a person needing stitches, you must break the Sabbath. It would be a sin not to.
You can watch shows or movies.
You can debate, but not until anger or fights arise.
You can listen to music.
You can defend your family and your land.
You can mend family clothing.
You can dance.
You can sign papers.
You can shave.
You can eat or drink.
You can perform worship.
You can respond to any danger or accident.
You can play musical instruments.
You can bathe or wash.
You can go visiting.
You can clean your house.
You may work.
You can drive.
You can go outside to play.
You can go shopping.
You can play board games or other games.
You can fast.
You can go to a hospital if sick.
You can dress and change your children, as well as yourself.
You can propagate.
You can cook by microwave or electricity, but not by kindled fire.
The Sabbath is a festive day and is accompanied by the recitation of the prayers in The Holy Tablets. It is obligatory for The Holy Tablets to be read.

A Mission To The Planet Earth
(19 x 10 = 190)

Lo! Oh it is important for you to receive this communication, because of the misconceptions that have been embedded in you for thousands of years that must be eliminated.

2 You must change your thought patterns.

3 Listen to me my children, accept only the facts, and it will lead you, if you are worthy. We have had in our midst some great teachers such as: Duse Ali, of Nubia, Teacher of These Teachers. He followed the teachings of the Ansaaruallah of Sudan, Northeast Africa. He was under the teachings of the great Muhammad Ahmad Al Mahdi of the Sudan. Noble Drew Ali, teacher of the Moorish American Moabites, was taught by Duse Ali (1866-1945 A.D.). Noble Drew Ali came from Cherokee, North Carolina, In America.

Words Of One Of Our Great Teachers : Noble Drew Ali (1886-1929) Warning For All Young Men

Beware, young man, beware of all the allurements of wantonness, and let not the harlot tempt thee to excess in her delights.

The madness of desire shall defeat its own pursuits; from the blindness of its rage, you shall rush up on self-destruction. Therefore, give not up thy heart to her sweet enticements, neither suffer thy soul to be enslaved by her enchanting delusions.

The fountain of health which must supply the stream of pleasure, shall quickly be dried up, and every spring of joy shall be exhausted. In the prime of thy life, old age shall overtake thee; the sun shall decline in the morning of thy days.

But when virtue and modesty enlighten her charms, the lustre of a beautiful woman is brighter than the stars of heaven and the influence of her power is in vain to resist. The whiteness of her bosom transcendeth the lily; her smile is more delicious than a garden of roses.

The innocence of her eyes is like that of the turtle; simplicity and truth dwell in her heart. The kisses of her mouth are sweeter than honey; The scents from the perfumes of Arabia breathe from her lips. Shut not your bosom to the tenderness of love; the purity of its flame shall enable thy heart and soften it to receive the fairest impressions.

Social Duties

When thou considereth thy wants, when thou beholdeth thy imperfections, acknowledge his goodness and remember his mercy, O child of the Aluhum, Anunnagi; who honored thee with nobility as a member of humanity.

Who endowed thee with speech and placed thee in society to receive and confer reciprocal helps and mutual obligations, protection from injuries, thy enjoyments of the comforts and the pleasures of life; all these thou oweth to the assistance of others, and couldst not enjoy but in the bands of society.

It is the Aluhum Anunnagi, who endowed

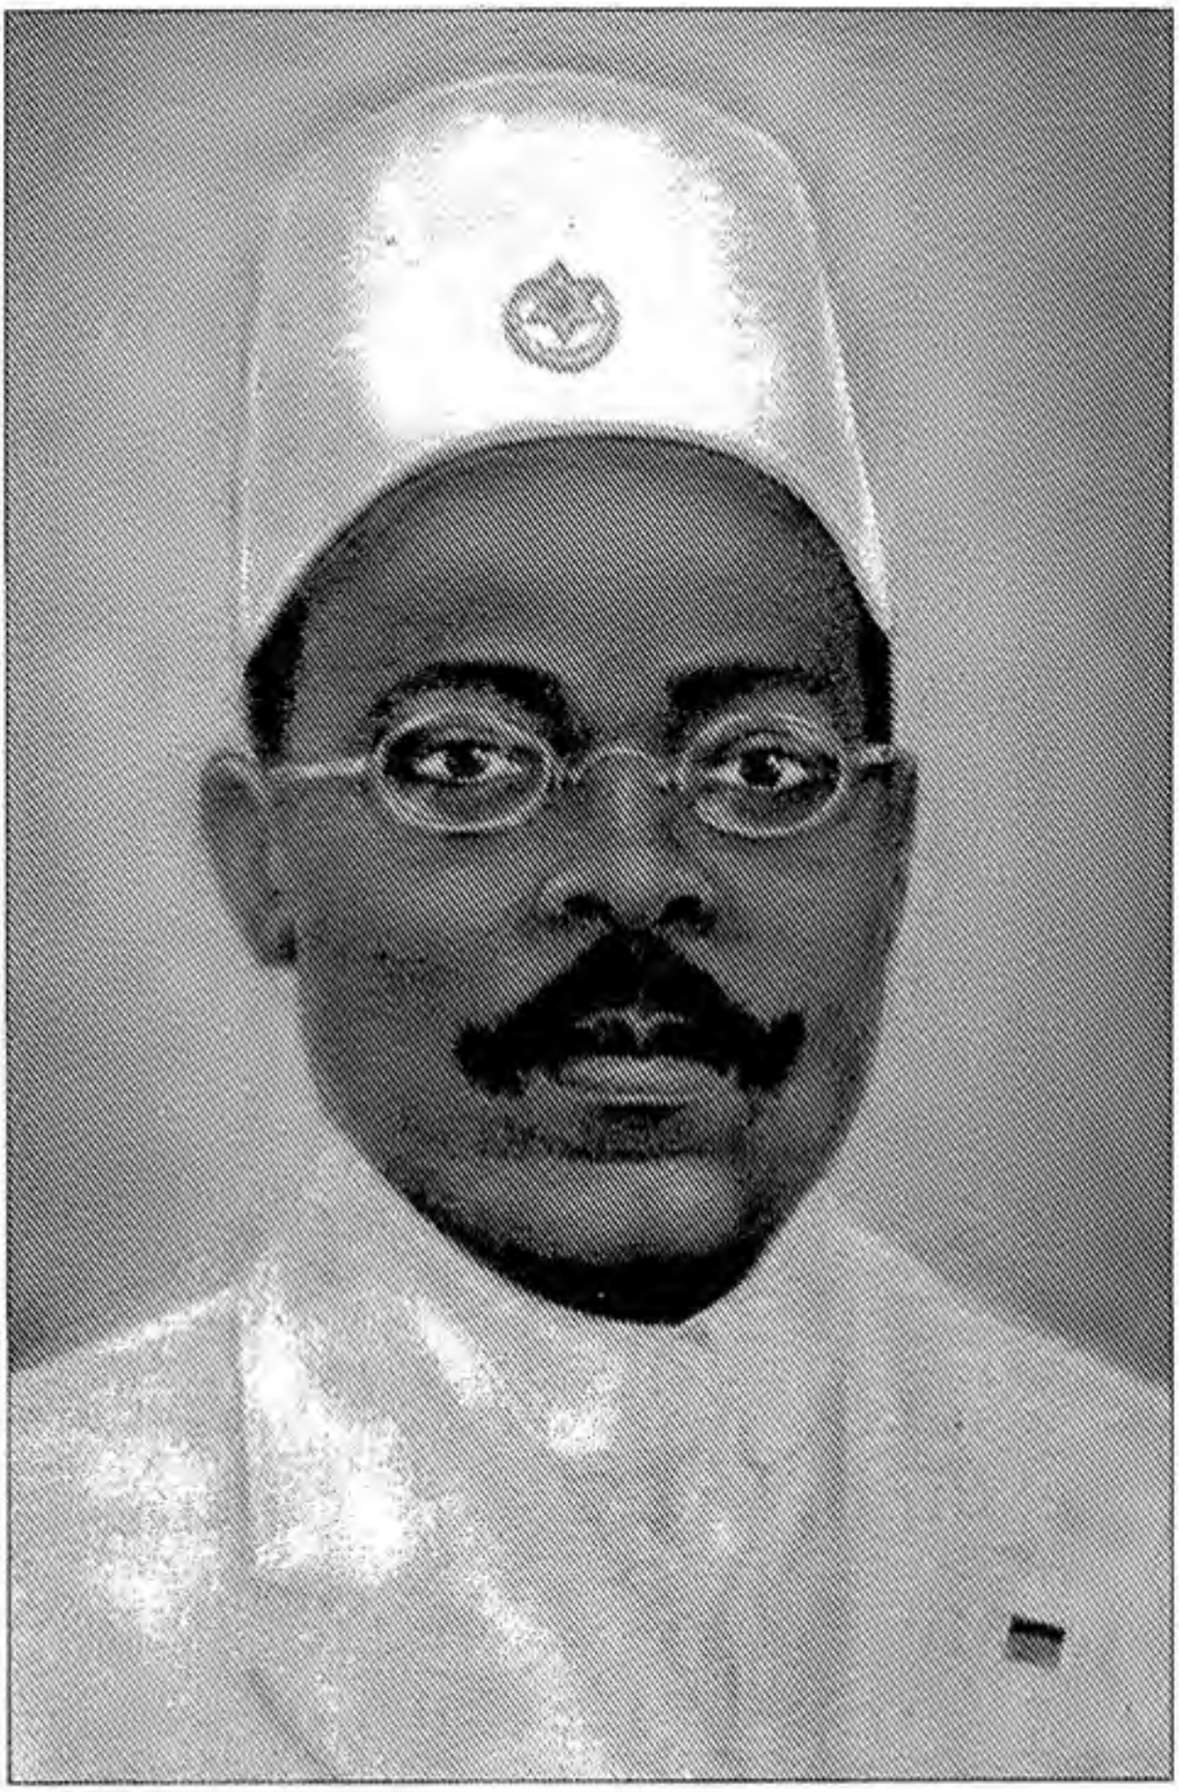

Figure 29
Duse Ali, Teacher Of Teachers

you with speech, the ability to see and touch; for without these you would have no perception of the greatness of the Most High El. Then placed you on the Planet Qi/(Earth) to give and to receive from others an award equal in assistance to each other. It is he, ANU, The Heavenly One, who is the head of all Aluhum, and gives protection and guidance from injuries. All these you owe to the assistance of others, and could not enjoy but in the bosom of The Most High, A'lyun A'lyun El, within The All, EL KULUWM.

It is your duty as a child of the Aluhum, therefore, to be a friend to humanity, as it is thy interest that humanity should be friendly to you. As the rose breatheth sweetness from its own nature, so the heart of a benevolent being produces agreeable works because the inner voice has concern for all and not just thyself. The benevolent being enjoys the order and tranquillity of his own breast, and rejoices in the happiness and prosperity of his fellow brethren, which means he too can prosper. The benevolent opens not his ear to slander; The faults and failings of the men, Enoshite, forgetful being gives a pain to his heart being a part of The All: thus we are all one family and if I hurt you, then I hurt myself.

His desire is to do benevolence, and reacheth out the occasions thereof; in removing the difficulty of another, he Relieveth Himself.

From the depth of his mind, he overstands in his desires the happiness of all humanity; and from the generosity of his heart, he strives to promote it.

Justice

The peace of society depends on justice; the happiness of individuals, on the safe enjoyment of all their possessions. Keep the desire of thy heart, therefore, within the bounds of moderation; let the hand of justice leaded them aright.

Let no temptation allure thee, nor any provocation excite you to lift up your hand from the hazard of his life.

Defame him not in his character; bear no false witness against him. Corrupt not his servant to cheat or forsake him; and the wife of his bosom, O tempt not to sin. It will be a grief to his heart, which thou can not relieve; an injury to his life, which no amends can atone.

In thy dealings with your brother, be impartial and fair; and do to them as you would, they should do to you.

Be faithful to thy trust, and deceive not the man who relies upon you; be assured, it is less evil in the sight of Allah to steal than to betray. Oppress not the poor, and defraud not of his wage the laboring man. When you selleth for gain, hear the whispering of your conscience; because that is the voice of the soul, and be satisfied with moderation; nor from the ignorance of thy buyer, take any advantage.

Pay the debts which thou oweth; for he who gave thee credit, credit relieth upon thine honor; and to withhold from him his due, is both mean and unjust. Finally, O son of society, examine your heart, call remembrance to thy aid; and if in any of these things thou hath transgressed, make a speedy reparation, to the utmost of thy power.

Charity

Happy is the man who hath sown in his breast the seeds of benevolence; the produce thereof shall be mercy and love. From the fountain of his heart shall rise rivers of goodness; and the streams shall overflow, for the benefit of all of humanity. He assisteth the poor in their trouble; he rejoiceth in furthering the prosperity of all men. He censureth not his neighbor; he believeth not the character assassinations of envy and malevolence; neither repeats he their slanders. He forgiveth the injuries of men, he wipeth them from his remembrance; revenge and malice have no place in his heart, for evil he returneth not evil, he hateth not even his enemies, but requiteth their injustice with a friendly admonition The griefs and anxieties of men excite his compassion; he endeavoreth to alleviate the weight of their misfortunes, and the pleasure of success rewardeth his labor. He calmeth the fury, he healeth the quarrels of angry men, and preventeth the mischiefs of strife and animosity. He promoteth in his neighborhood peace and good will, and his name is repeated with praise and benedictions.

Gratitude

As the branches of a tree return their sap to the root, from whence it arose; as a river poureth its streams to the sea, whence the spring was supplied; so the heart of grateful man delighteth in returning a benefit received.

He acknowledgeth his obligation with cheerfulness, looketh on his benefactor with love and esteem.

And if to return it be not in his power, he nourisheth the memory of it in his breast with kindness; he forgetteth it not for all the days of his life.

The heart of the grateful man is like the clouds of heaven which drops upon the earth, fruits, herbage and flowers; but the heart of the ungrateful is like a desert of sand which swalloweth with greediness the showers, that fall and burieth them in its bosom, and produceth nothing. Envy not thy benefactor, neither strive to conceal the benefit he hath conferred; for though to oblige is better than to be the humility that toucheth the heart, and is amiable on the sight both of Allah and man. But receive not a favor from the hand of the proud; to the selfish and avaricious have no obligation; the vanity of pride shall expose thee to shame; the greediness of avarice shall never be satisfied.

Sincerity

O thou who are enamored with the beauty of the Truth and facts, and hast fixed thy heart on the simplicity of her charms hold fast thy fidelity unto her, and forsake her not; the consistency of thy virtue shall crown thee with honor.

The tongue of the sincere is rooted in the heart, hypocrisy and deceit have no place in his words. He blusheth at falsehood, and is founded; but in speaking the truth, he hath a steady eye,

He supporteth, as a man, the dignity of his character; to the arts of hypocrisy he scorneth to stoop.

He is consistent with himself as an honest being; he is never embarrassed; he has courage enough to always speak the truth; and he is never afraid.

He is far above the meanness of dissimulation; the words of his mouth are thoughts of his heart.

Yet, with prudence and caution he openeth his lips; he studieth what is right and speaketh with discretion. He adviseth with friendship; he reproveth with freedom; and whatsoever he promiseth shall surely be performed.

But the heart of the hypocrite is hid in his breast; he maketh his words in the semblance of truth, while the business of his life is only to deceive.
He laugheth in sorrow, he weepeth in joy; and the words of his mouth have no interpretation.
He worketh in the dark as a mole who fancieth he is safe; but he blundeth into the light, and is betrayed and exposed, with dirt of his head.
He passeth his days in perpetual constraint, his tongue and heart are forever at variance. He laboreth for the character of a righteous man; and huggeth himself in the thoughts of his cunningness.
O fool, fool! The pains which thou taketh to hide what thou art, are more than would make thee what thou wouldst seem; and the Children of Right Wisdom shall mock at thy cunning, when in the midst of security, thy disguise is stripped off, and the finger of derision shall point you to scorn.

Know Thyself

Weak and ignorant as thou art, O man, humble as thou oughtest to be, O child of the dust of the ground, wouldst thou raise your thoughts to infinite wisdom?
Wouldst thou see omnipotence displayed before thee?
Contemplate thine frame. Fearfully and wonderfully art thou made; praise therefore thy Creator with awe, and rejoice before Him with reverence.
Wherefore of all creatures art thou only erect, but that thou shouldest behold His works?
As the laws of nature, you are responsible for your brother's life as well as your own, raised above to give reverence, to those who added in your creation, wherefore is consciousness reposed on thee alone, and whence is it derived to be?
It is not in flesh to think, for it is only clay; It is not in bones to reason, for they are but the skeleton of the clay.
The lion knoweth not that worms shall eat him; the ox perceiveth not that he is fed for slaughter. Something is added to thee, unlike to what thou seest; something informs thy clay body that it was created from Adamah "the dust of the ground,"
This essence of your being is higher than all that is the object of your senses. Behold, what is it? The body remaineth perfect after it is fled; therefore, it is no part of it; it is immaterial as you know it to be. Therefore, it is eternal; it is free to act; therefore it is accountable for its actions, not the body. Knoweth the ass the use of food, because his teeth mow down the herbage? Or standeth the crocodile erect, although his backbone is asstraight as thine? Allah formed thee as He formed these; after them all were thou created; superiority and command were given thee over all, and of his own breath did he communicate to thee the principle of knowledge.
Know thyself and the pride of His creation, the line uniting divinity and matter; behold a part of Allah Himself within thee; remember thine own dignity; nor dare descend to evil or to meaness.
Who planted the terror in the tail of the serpent? Who clothed the neck of the horse with thunder?
Even He who hath instructed thee to crush the one under thy and to tame the other to thy purpose.

The Breath Of Heaven

Vaunt not thy body; because it was first formed; nor of thy brain, because therein thy soul resideth. Is not the master of the house more honorable than its walls?
The ground must be prepared before the corn may be planted; the potter must build his furnace before he can make his porcelain.
As the breath of heaven sayeth unto the waters of the deep. This way shall thy billows roll, and no other; thus high, and no higher shall they raise their fury so let thy spirit; O man, actuate and direct thy flesh; so let it repress its wilderness.
Thy body is as the globe of the earth; to thy bones, the pillars that sustain it on its basis.
As the ocean gives rise to springs, whose water return again into its bosom through the rivers; so runneth thy life from thy outwards, and so runneth it into its place again.
Do not both retain their course forever? Behold the same Allah ordained them. Is not thy nose the channel to perfumes, thy mouth the path to delicacies?
Are not thine eyes the sentinels that are on watch. Yet how often that are on watch. Yet how often are they unable to distinguish truth from error?
Keep thy soul in moderation; teach thy spirit to be attentive to its good; so shall these its ministers be always to thee conveyances of truth.
Thine hand, is not a miracle? Is there in the creation aught like unto it? Wherefore was it given to thee, But that you might stretch it out to the assistance of your brothers?
Why of all things living are thy alone made capable of blushing?
The world shall read thy shame upon thy face; therefore do nothing shameful.
Fear and dismay, which robs your countenance of its ruddy splendor, avoid guilt, and thou shall know that fear is beneath thee, and that dismay is unnamely. Wherefore to thee alone speak shadows in the vision of the pillow? Reverence them; for know that dreams are from on high, Illyuwn.
Thou man alone canst speak. Wonder at thy glorious prerogative; and pay to him who gave to thee a rational and welcome praise, teaching your children wisdom, instructing the offspring of thy loins in piety.

The Instability Of Man

Inconstancy is powerful in the heart of man; Intemperance swayeth it whither it will; despair engrosses much of it; and fear proclaimeth: "behold, I will sit unrivaled therein."
But vanity is beyond them all. Weep not therefore at the calamities of human state; rather laugh at its follies.
In the hands of the one addicted to vanity, life then is but the shadow of a dream.
The hero, the most renowned of human character; what is he, but the bubble of his weakness.
The public is unstable and ungrateful. Why should the man of wisdom endanger himself for fools?
The man who neglecteth his present concerns, to revolve how he will behave when greater, feedeth himself with wind; while his bread is eaten by another.
Act as becometh thee in thy present station; and in more exalted ones thy face shall not be ashamed. What blindeth the eye, or what hideth the heart of a man from himself, like Vanity?
Lo when thou seest not thyself, then others discover thee, most plainly.

The heart of the vain is troubled; while it seemeth content; his cares are greater than his pleasures. His solitude cannot rest his bones.
The grave is not deep enough to hide it; he extendeth his thoughts beyond his being; he bespeaketh praise.
To be paid when he is gone; but whosoever promiseth it, deceiveth him.
As the man who engageth his wife to remain in widowhood that she disturb not his soul; so is he who expecteth that his praise shall reach his ears beneath the earth; or cherish his heart in its shroud. Do well whilst thou liveth; but regard not what is said of it.
Content thyself with deserving praise, and thy posterity shall rejoice in hearing it.
As the butterfly who seeth not his own colors, as the Jasmine which feeleth not the scent it casteth around it; so is the man who appeareth gay, and biddeth others to take note of it. "To what purpose", saith he, "Is my vesture of gold, to what end are my tables filled with dainties; if no eye gaze upon them, if the world knows it not?"
Give thy raiment to the naked, and thy food unto the hungry: so shalt thou be praised. and feel that thou deserveth it.
Why bestoweth thou in every man the flattery of unmeaning words?
Thou knowest, when returned thee, thou regardest it not. He knoweth he lieth unto thee, yet he knoweth you will thank him for it. Speak in sincerity, and thou wilt hear with instruction.
The vain delighteth to speak of himself; but he seeth not that others like not to hear him. If he hath done anything worth praise, if he possesseth that which is worthy of admiration, his joy is to proclaim it, His pride to hear it reported. The desire of such a man defeateth itself. Men say not; "Behold, he hath done it" or "See, he possesseth it", but "mark how proud he is of it.
The heart of man cannot attend at once to too many things. He who fixeth his soul on show, loseth reality.
He pursueth bubbles, which break in their flight, while he treads to earth what would be honor.

Inconsistency

Nature urgeth you to inconsistency, O man! Therefore guard thyself at all times against it. Thou art, from the womb of thy mother, various and wavering, from the loins of thy father inheriteth thou instability. How then shalt thou be firm?
Those who gave thee a body, furnished it with weakness, but He who gave thee a soul, armed thee with resolution.
Employ it, and thou art wise, be wise and thou art happy.
Let him who doeth well, beware how he boasteth of it, for rarely is it of his own will. Is not the event of an impulse, from without born of uncertainty, enforced by accident? Dependent on someone else?
To thee, and to accident, is due the praise.
Beware of irresolution in the intent of your actions; beware of instability in the execution; so shalt your triumph over two failings of thy nature.
What reproacheth reason more than to act contraries?
What can suppress the tendencies to these, but firmness of mind?
The inconstant feeleth that he changeth, but he knoweth not why;
He seeth that he escapeth from himself, but he perceiveth not how.

Tablet 1:3

Establish unto thyself principles of action and see that thou ever act according to them.
So shall thy passions have no rule over thee:
So shall your constancy ensure unto thee the good thou possesseth;
And drive from thy door misfortune.
Anxiety and disappointment shall be strangers to thy gates.
Suspect not evil in anyone until thou seeth it; When thou seeth, forget it not.
Who so hath been an enemy, cannot be a friend; for a man mendeth not his faults.
How should his actions be right, who hath no rule over his life?
Nothing can be just which proceedeth not from reason.
The inconstant hath no peace in his soul; neither can he be at ease with whom he concerns himself with.
His life is unequal;
His motions are irregular;
His soul changeth with the weather.
Today he loveth thee, tomorrow thou art detested by him; and why? Himself knoweth not wherefore he now hateth.
Today he is the tyrant, tomorrow thou servant is less humble; and why? He who is arrogant without power, will be servile while there is no subjection.
Today he is profuse; tomorrow he grudgeth unto his mouth that which it should eat.
Thus is with him who knoweth not moderation.
Who shall say of the chameleon: "he is black," when the moment after the verdure of the grass, overspreadeth him?
Who shall say of the inconstant: "he is joyful," when his next breath shall be spent in sighing?
What is the life of such a man, but the phantom of a dream?

Tablet 1:3

In the morning he riseth happy, at noon he is on rake; this hour he is god, the next below a worm; one moment he laugheth the next he weepeth; he now willeth, in an instant he willeth not;
In an another he knoweth not whether he wills or not.
Yet neither ease nor pain have fixed themselves on him; neither is he waxed greater, or become less; neither hath he had cause for laughter, or reason for his sorrow; Therefore none of them abide with him. The happiness of the inconstant is as a palace built on the surface of the sand; The blowing of the wind carrieth away its foundation.
What wonder then that it falleth?
But what exalted form is this, that hitherward directs its even,
Its uninterrupted course whose foot is on earth, Whose head is above the clouds?
On his brow sitteth majesty; steadiness is in port; and in his heart reigns tranquillity.
Though obstacles appear in his way, he condescends not to look down upon them; though heaven and earth oppose his passage; he proceedeth.
The mountains sink beneath his tread;
The waters of the ocean are dried up under the sole of his foot.
The tiger throweth herself across his way in vain;
The spots of the leopard glow against him unregarded.
He marcheth through the embattled legions;
With his hands he putteth aside the terrors of death.
Storms roar against his shoulders, But are not able to shake them.
The thunder bursteth over his head in vain;

Lightning serveth but to show the glories of his countenance.
His name is resolution!
He cometh from the utmost part of the earth;
He seeth happiness afar off before him; his eye discovereth her temple beyond the limits of the pole.
He walketh up to it, he entereth boldly, and remaineth there forever. Establish thy heart, O man, in that which is right; and then know, The greatest of human is to be immutable. Vain and inconstant as thou art, O child of imperfection, how can you be weak? Is not inconstancy connected with frailty? Can there be vanity without infirmity? Avoid the danger off the one, and thou shalt escape the mischiefs of the other. Wherein art thou most weak?
In that wherein thou seemest most strong; in that wherein most you glorieth;
Even possessing the things which thou hast; in using the good that is about thee.
Art not thy desires also frail? Or knoweth you even what it is thou wouldst wish?
When thou hast obtained what most thou soughteth after, behold it contenteth thee not. Wherefore loseth the pleasure that is before thee its relish?
And why appeareth that which is yet to come the sweeter?
Because thou art wearied with the good of this, because thou knoweth not the evil of that which is not with thee.
Know that to be content, is to be happy. Could you choose for thyself,
Would your Creator lay before thee all that your heart could ask for, Would happiness then remain with you, Or would joy always dwell in your gates?
Alas! Thy weakness forbideth it; thy infirmity declareth against it. Variety is to thee in the place of pleasure; but that which permanently delighteth, must be permanent. When that is gone, you repenteth the loss of it; though, while it was with you, you despise it. That which succeedeth it, hath no more pleasure to thee; and thou afterwards quarreleth with yourself for preferring it;
Behold the only circumstance in which thou arrest not!
Is there anything in which thy weakness appeareth more than in desiring things?
It is the possessing, and in the using of them.
Good things cease to be good in our enjoyment of them. What nature meant pure sweets, are sources of bitterness to us. From our delights arise pain, from our joys, sorrow. Be moderate in the enjoyment, and it shall remain on your possession; let your joy be found in reason, and to its end shall sorrow be a stranger.
The delights of love are ushered by sighs, and they terminate in languishment and dejection.
The objects you burneth for, nauseates with satiety; beyond compare; and no sooner hast thou possessed it, but thou art weary of its presence.
Join esteem to thy admiration, unite friendship with the love;
So shalt thou find in the end content so absolute, that it surpasseth raptures, tranquillity more worth than ecstasy.
Allah hath given thee no benevolence, without its admixture of malevolence;
But he has given you also the means of throwing off the malevolence from it.
As joy is not without its alloy of pain,
So neither is sorrow without its portion of pleasure, joy and grief, though unlike, are united.
Our own choice only can give them to us entirely. Melancholy itself often giveth delight, and the extremity of joys are mingled with tears.

The best things in the hands of a fool may be turned to his destruction;
And out of the worst, the wise will find means of good. So blended is weakness in thy nature.
O man, that thou hast not strength either to be benevolent or agreeable; nor to be malevolent or disagreeable, entirely; but both because you possess both natures.
Rejoice that thou canst not excel in evil, and let the good that is within thy reach content thee. The virtues are allotted to various stations.
Seek not after impossibilities nor grieve that thou canst not possess them all. Wouldst thou at once have the liberality of the rich, and the contentment of the poor? Shall the wife of thy bosom be despised because she showeth not the virtues of a widow? If thy father sink before thee in the divisions of thy country;
Can at once thy justice destroy him, and thy duty save his life? If you behold your brother in the agonies of slow death, is it not mercy to put a period to his life?
And is it not also death to be his murderer?
Truth is but one; thy doubts are of thine own raising. He who made virtues what they are, planted in thee a knowledge of their pre-eminence. Act as thy soul dictates to thee, and the end shall always be right.

Knowledge

If there is anything lovely, if there is anything desirable, if there is anything within the reach of man that is worthy of praise,"
Is it not knowledge? And yet who is it that attaineth it? The statesman proclaimeth that he hath it.
The ruler of the people claimeth the praise of it - but findeth the subject that he possesseth it?
Evil is not requisite to man; neither can vice be necessary to be tolerated; Yet, how many crimes are committed by the decree of the council?
But be wise, O ruler and learn, O thou that command the nations!
One crime authorized by you is worse than the escape of ten from punishment.
When the people are numerous, when thy sons increase about your table;
Sendeth thou them not out to slay the innocent, and to fall before the sword of him whom they have not offended?
If the objects of thy desire demanding the lives of a thousand sayeth thou art not;
"I will have it," Surely thou forgetteth that He who created thee, created also these; and that their blood is as rich as thine?
Sayeth thou, that justice cannot be executed without wrong? Surely thine own words condemn thee;
Thou who flattereth with false hopes the criminal that he may confess his guilt,
Art not thou unto him a criminal?
Or art thou guiltless, because he cannot punish it?
When thou commandest to torture, him whom is but suspected of ill;
Dareth thou to remember, that thou mayest rack the innocent?
Is thy purpose answered by the event?
Is thy soul satisfied with his confession?
Pain will enforce him to say what is not, as easy as what is, and anguish has caused innocence to accuse herself.
That thou mayest not kill him without cause, thou dost worse than kill him; That thou mayes t prove if he be guilty, thou destroyeth him innocently.

O blindness to all truth!
O insufficience of the wisdom of the wise!
Know, when thy judge shall bid thee account for this, Thou shall wish ten thousand guilty to have gone free, rather than one innocent to stand forth against thee.
Insufficient as thou art to the maintenance of justice,
How shall you arrive at the knowledge of truth?
How shalt thou ascend to the footstep of her throne?
As the owl is blinded by radiance of the sun,
So shall the brightness of her dazzle you in your approaches. If thou would mount onto her throne, first bow yourself at her footstool;
If thou would strive at the knowledge of her,
First inform yourself of your own ignorance.
Moreworthy is she than pearls, therefore seek her carefully;
The emerald and the sapphire, and the ruby are as dirt beneath her feet.
Therefore pursue her manfully. The way to her labor; Attention is the pilot that must conduct you into her port.
But weary not on the way; for when you arrived at her, toil shall be to you for pleasure say not unto yourself: "Behold, truth breddeth hatred, and I will avoid it;
Dissimulation raiseth friends, and I will follow it.
Are not the enemies made by truth better than friends obtained by flattery?
Naturally doth man desire the truth; Yet when it is before him he will not apprehend it; And if he will not apprehend it, and it forces itself upon him, he is not offended at all.
The fault is not in truth, for that is amiable; but the weakness of man bares not its splendor. Would you see your insufficiencies more plainly?
View at you devotions!
To what end was religion instituted; but to teach thee your informities.
To remind you of your weakness, to show you that from heaven alone are you dust?
Doth it not remind you that you are dust?
Doth it not tell you that you are ashes?
And behold repentance is it not frailty?
When thou givest an oath; when you swear you will not deceive;
Behold it spreads shame upon your face,
And repentance may be forgotten.
Learn to be honest, and oaths are necessary.
The shorter follies are, the better; say not therefore to another with boldness.
He that heareth his own faults with patience, shall reprove another with boldness.
He that giveth a denial with reason shall suffer a repulse with moderation. thyself: "I will not play the fool by halves."
The tender of heart is turned from his purpose by supplications, the proud is rendered more obstinate by entreaty But to be just thou must hear without passions.

Misery

Feeble and insufficient as thou art, O man in good; frail and inconstant as thou art in pleasure; yet there is a thing in which thou art strong and unshaken. Its name is Misery.
It is the character of thy being, the prerogative of thy nature; In thy breast alone, it resideth; without thee,

There is nothing of it. and behold, what is its source, but your own passions?
He who gave thee these also reason to subdue them;
Exert it, and thou shall trample them under your feet. Thine entrance to the world, is it not shameful?
Thy destruction, is not glorious.
Lo! Men adorn the instruments of death with gold and gems and wear them above their garments.
He who begetteth a man, hideth his face; but he who killeth a thousand is honored. That in his is error. Know thou, notwithstanding. Custom cannot alter the nature of truth;
Neither can the opinion of man destroy justice;
The glory and the shame are misplaced.
There is but one way for a man to be produced;
There are a thousand by which he may be destroyed.
There is no praise or honor to him who giveth being to another; but triumphs and empires are the rewards of murder.
Yet he who hath many children, hath as many blessings;
And he who hath taken away the life of another, shall not enjoy his own,
While the savage curseth the birth of his son, and blesseth the death of his father, Doth he not call himself a monster?
The greatest of all human ills is sorrow.
Too much of this thou are born unto; add not unto it by thine own perverseness.
Grief is natural to thee, and is always about thee;
Pleasure is a stranger, and visiteth thee by times;
Use well thy reason, and sorrow shall be cast behind thee;
Be prudent, and the visits of joy shall remain long with thee.
Every part of thy frame is capable of sorrow, but few and narrow are the paths that lead to delight.
Pleasures can be admitted only simply, but pains rush in a thousand at a time.
As the blaze of straw fadeth as soon as it is kindled, so passeth away the brightness of joy, and thou knoweth not what becomes of it.
Sorrow is frequent, pleasure is rare; pain cometh of itself.
Delight must be purchased, grief is unmixed, but joy wanteth not its alloy of bitterness.
As the soundest health is less perceived that the lightest malady, so the highest joy, toucheth us less deep than the smallest sorrow, we are in love with anguish; we often fly from pleasure when we purchase it, it costeth not more than it is worth?
Reflection is the business of man; a sense of his state is his first duty.
But who remembereth himself a boy? Is it not in mercy, then, that sorrow is allotted unto us?
Man foresees the evil that has come; he remembers it when it is past.
He considers not that the thought of affliction would be deeper than the affliction itself.
Think not of your pain, but when it is upon you, and you shall avoid what most hurt you, Because avoidance is the key to those things that disturb you. He who weepeth before he needeth, weepeth more than he needeth; and why, but that he loveth weeping?
The stag weepeth not till the spear is lifted against him; nor do the tears of the beaver fall till the hound is ready to seize him; man anticipateth death by the apprehension of it; And the fear is greater misery than the event itself.

Be always prepared to give an account of thine action;
And the best death is that which is least premeditated.

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, Teacher Of The Lost Then Found Tribe Of Shabazz, Came From Sandersville, Georgia, America.

Words Of One Of Our Great Teachers
The Honorable Elijah Muhammad
(1879-1975-73A.D)

My mission is to give life to the dead. What I teach brings them out of death and into life.
My mission as the messenger is to bring the truth to the world before the world is destroyed. When Asked who is the mystery god he answered: There is not a mystery god. The son of man has searched for that mystery god for trillions of years and was unable to find a mystery god so they have agreed that only god is the son of man, so they lost no time searching for that which does not exist.
When asked, what is the manner of civilization he answered: One having knowledge, wisdom, and understanding culture refinement and is not a savage. Pursuit of happiness"
When asked, "What is the duty of a civilized person?" He answered: "To teach the uncivilized people who are savage, civilization, righteousness, the knowledge of himself, The science of everything in life, love, peace and happiness."
When asked, "What is the prescribed law of Islam said a person of that ability," He answered: "That the civilized person is responsible for the uncivilized and that he must be punished by the Nation of Islam."
When asked, "To make a devil, what must you first do? He answered: "To make a devil, one must begin grafting from the original man."
When asked, "What is a real devil?" He answered: "A grafted man which is made weak and wicked, or any grafted living germ from the original, is a devil. When asked, "Then why did God make the devil?" He answered: "To show forth his power that he is all wise and righteous.
That he could make a devil which is weak and wicked and give the devil power to rule the earth for 6000 years and then destroy the devil in one day without falling victim to the devil's civilization, Otherwise to show and prove that Allah is the god, Always has been and always will be."
When asked. "what will be your reward in regards to the destruction of the devil?" He answered: "Peace and happiness. I will give all that I have and all within my power to see this day for which I have waited for 379 years,"
When asked, "Who was the original man?" He answered: "The original man is the Asiatic black man the maker, the owner, the cream of the planet Earth, father of civilization, and god of the universe."
When asked, "Who is the colored man?" He answered: "The colored man is the Caucasian (white man), or Ya'quwb's grafted devil, The skunk of the planet Earth."
When asked, "What is the birth record of the Nation of Islam?: He answered: "The Nation of Islam has no birth record it has no beginning nor ending."
When asked, "What is the birth record of others, than Islam? He answered: Buddhism is 35,000 years old, Christianity 550 years old, He taught of his teacher: My name is W. F. Muhammad, I came to North America by myself. My uncle was brought here by a trader 379 years ago. My uncle cannot talk his own language. He does not know that he is my uncle. He likes the devil, because the devil gave him nothing. Why does he like the devil? Because the devil put fear in him when he was a little boy. Why does he fear now, since he is a big man? Because the devil taught him to eat the wrong foods.

Does that have anything to do with the above question, NO. 10?

Yes, sir, that makes him other than himself.

What is his ownself? His own self is a righteous Muslim. Are there other Muslims other than righteous?

I beg your pardon,

I have never heard of one. How many Muslim souls are there in North America? Approximately three million. There in North America?

How many original Muslims are there? A little over seventeen million.

Did I hear you say that some of the seventeen million did not know they were Muslims? Yes, sir, I can hardly have faith in that, unless they are blind, deaf, and dumb. Well they were made blind deaf and dumb by the devil when they were babies.

Can the devil fool a Muslim? Not nowadays.

Do you mean to say that the devil fooled them 379 years ago?

Yes, the trader made an interpretation that they would receive gold for their labor; more than they were owning in their own country. Did they receive the gold? No the trader disappeared and there was no one that could speak their language. Then what happened? Well they wanted to go back to their own country but could not swim the 9000 miles.

Why didn't their own people go and get them? Because their own people did not know that they were here.

When did their own people find out that they were here? Approximately 60 years ago.

Enlightening Words

There are some children who never sincerely accept their father as they should. So this is the nature of the human family of the earth, and when it comes to spiritual teachings. Most of our leaders have good intentions, but they just don't have the right instruments, since they were not appointed to do the job.

But all our people today have the desire to do something for themselves and, first of all, to see injustice removed from the whole.

We have suffered injustice at the hands of the white people for 400 years,

If the master gave up his position as master the slave would soon become his equal. If the equal justice were obtained all the way through as it should be, for we now have come to the time when we want justice and equality. The man of sin and his people deceived the righteous by making them have faith that he also is one of the righteous.

We look forward to the hereafter.

To seeing and living under a ruler and a government of righteousness after the destruction of the unrighteous.

Right Knowledge

The pursuit of knowledge is a duty imposed by the Almighty creator, Allah upon every human being. It is the acquisition of knowledge that makes humanity superior to the angels. The acquisition of knowledge is obligatory imposed upon every Muslim male and female. Acquire knowledge, it enables its possessor to distinguish right from wrong. It lights our way to heaven, it is our friend in the desert, our society in solitude, our companion when friendless.
It guides us to happiness, it sustains us in misery, it is an ornament amongst friends, an armor against enemies.
Learn to know yourself. Who are the least learned.
They practice what they know. Philosophy is the stray camel of the faithful.
Take hold of it wherever you find it. All knowledge is Allah and came from Allah.
No man is independent and self-taught. Allah taught the angels, and the angels taught the prophets; and the prophets taught humanity and humanity teaches each other.

This is the way knowledge was acquired.

Ethics In Islaam.

Imbue yourself with divine attributes: says Muhammad. Allah is the prototype of man, and his attributes form the basis of Muslim ethics.
Righteousness in Islam consist of leading a life of complete harmony with divine attributes. Sin is to act otherwise.

Charity Or Almsgiving

All the faculties of man have been given to him as a trust from his Lord, All the faculties of man have been given to him as a trust from his Lord, for the benefit of his fellow creatures.
It is man's duty to live for others and his charity must apply without any distinction of persons.
Charity in Islam brings man nearer to his Lord.
Charity and the giving of alms have been made obligatory; And any person who possess property above a certain limit has to pay a tax, Levied on the rich for the benefit of the unfortunate.

Sanctity Of Labors

It is only through righteousness and the goodwill of a man..
In respect and obedience to and for the laws and commandments of our Lord and respect for the individuals human rights can be maintained in the world of man.
But with your help and your good will, and help and the guiding obedience to the laws and the commandments of our Lord.
In the hands of our Lord,
We can restore peace in the world, security of our person and the security of our homes and the homes of our human brethren, and this can only be accomplished through Islam.

You must work hard in order to create industries of your own, in order to be able to employ yourselves and your human brethren alike.
You must stop depending upon others for livelihood and servants to those who do not have faith in the lord our creator, who respect and regard not his holy laws.
Nor have any respect for your rights nor the rights of humanity in general.
But as Muslims: if you return to the worship of the one true Creator of our fathers and humanity, in Islam and obey his laws and commandments, We can help to restore peace and security to the world of humanity with the help of Allah, the Almighty Creator.
We shall as a last warning stay away from: evil things, evil and unclean men and women. Be honest, just and be truthful at all times and at any cost in accordance with the laws of Islam.

Words Of One Of Our Great Teachers Clarence Jowars Smith Also Known As Clarence 13X, Or Clarence 37X (1929-1969 A.D.)

Supreme Mathematics Knowledge

Starts at birth and is the foundation of all things in existence. Knowledge is the original man who is the foundation of the earth's family. Knowledge is simply to know, right knowledge is to know the right way to use it.
Wisdom comes with age and is the wise words spoken by the original people of the planet Earth.
Women are the moon because she receives her light from the sun which is the Nubian man, and reflects it on to the star which is the child. Wisdom is the manifestation of one's knowledge.
Understanding grows into an overstanding. You have an understanding when you have baby knowledge, you have an inner standing when you have adolescent knowledge.
And you have an overstanding when you are a supreme being. Culture is the Nubians true way of life. Thus, accept the word cult for you are cultivating your culture which is Islam, as taught by a god incarnate called Pudding,
And means I-I S-Self L-Lord A-And M-Master, which is I.S.L.A.M.
Freedom is to free the dumb the deaf and the blind into a state of awareness so that they can see that the Nubian man is indeed a deity.
Power or Refinement. Power is the truth which is the light of intellect that brings one out of the triple stages of darkness into their true way of life which is Islam. Refinement is to be clean and purified mentally as well as physically.
Equality is to be equal in all things in existence such as knowledge, wisdom and overstanding. When you share your knowledge through wisdom and brings forth an overstanding it only shows and prove equality. Knowledge 1) Wisdom 2) Overstanding 3) Is all being born to equal 6. god, the letter G is the 7th letter of the English alphabet.
God is a deity that is the original Nubian man who has power to build or destroy. Deity is the Nubian man who has knowledge of himself and all this around him. Build Or Destroy. Build is to add on or to elevate on positivity, destroy is to take away negativity. Build a righteous nation and destroy the devil's civilization is to be brought into existence physically as well as mentally. Physically through the mother's womb, and mentally through Allah's mathematics.

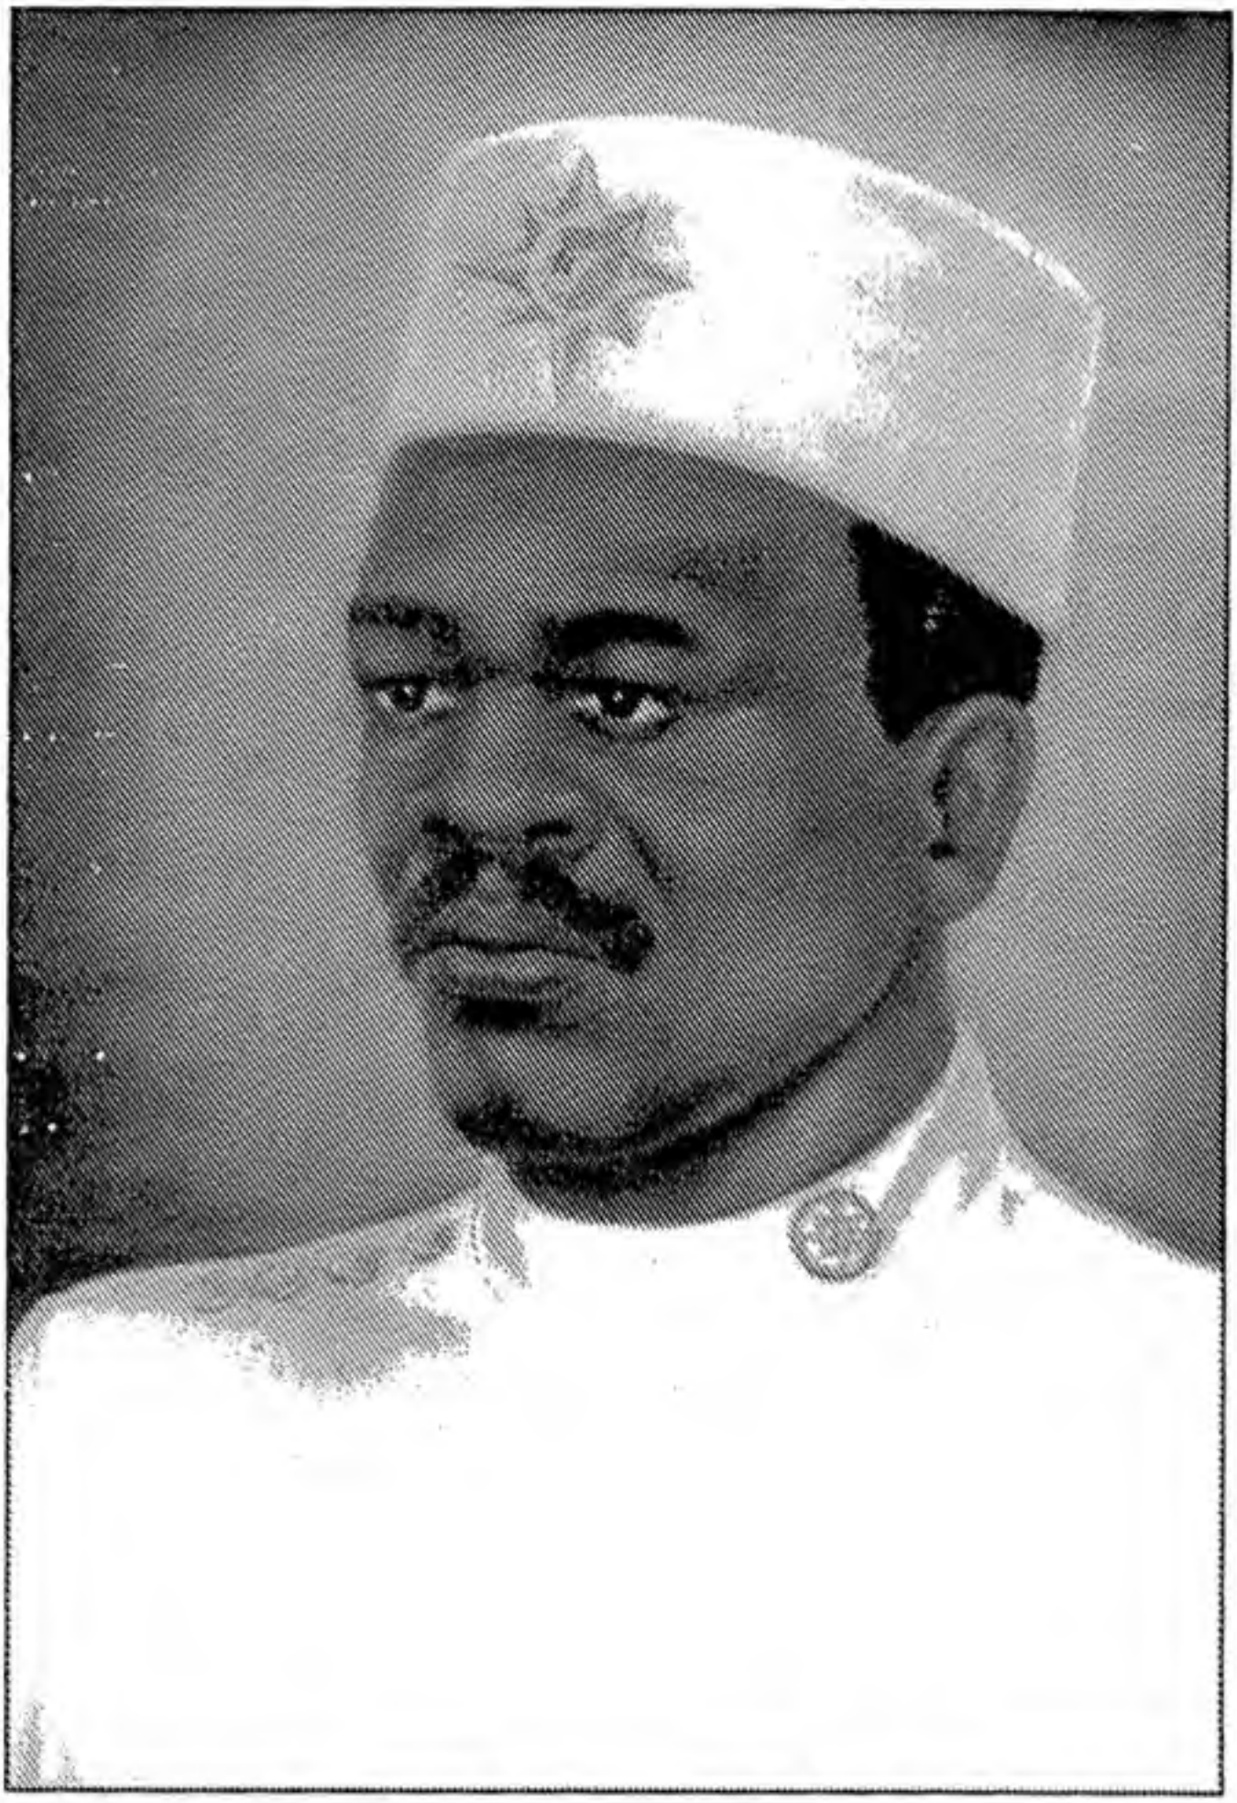

Figure 33

And Earths

0-Cipher is a 360 degree circle consisting of 120 degrees of knowledge, 120 degrees of wisdom and 120 degrees of overstanding making it complete.
Peace equals P-Positive- E- Energy A-Always C-Creates E-Elevation When the number 10 is manifested it would be knowledge add on cipher or knowledge cipher knowledge representing the number one (1) and cipher representing the number zero (0).

The 12 Jewels As Taught By A God Incarnate Pudding

Knowledge
Is the foundation of all things in existence.

Wisdom
Is the manifestation of the knowledge one acquires.

Overstanding
Is the mental picture projected through knowledge and wisdom.

Freedom
Is to free the dome so that you may express your culture (Islam) with no restrictions.

Justice
Is the reward or penalty given to one according to their own deeds.

Equality
Is to deal with one another all things. Each one teach one.

Food
Is the nourishment needed to sustain one physically, and mentally. Physically by nutritious elements given to the body to keep it healthy. Mentally, by Allah's mathematics.

Clothing
Is the covering to protect the body to protect it physically. Mentally it is the covering of the mind to protect it from negative thoughts or suggestions.

Shelter
Physically it is home, or place of residence where one finds peace and protection from negative weather. Mentally it is the mind.

Love
Is the highest elevation of overstanding, with a force so strong that it cannot be broken.

Peace
Is a universal greeting coming out of love because without love there could never be peace.

Happiness
Is the state one achieves out of love and peace.

Supreme Alphabet

A-Allah
Is the original Nubian man, the maker and owner of the planet Earth and the one who made the Holy Koran which he applies to every mile of land, one year to equal his home circumference, who is the

All-Seeing-Eye. Allah, see all;

B- Be or Born
You must be born physically first, then you must be born (twice) mentally,

And the ones who haven't been born (twice) mentally, are the 85%ers, the poison animal eaters, slaves of a mental death and power, people who worship a mystery God. These are the ones that have to be born again...

C-See.
To see is to overstand. At one time we couldn't truly see the trick that was planted in our path cause we had the all-eye mattress thrown over our eyes, but we've been born twice and know that we are Allah the supreme eye that can see all...

D- Divine or Destroy
In order for you to be divine you must destroy all negative thoughts in your brain by building on positive thoughts and in this day and time the only way you can be divine is by building with I Self Lord And Master.,.

E- Equality
Is to be equal in every form of knowledge with your alike- in order to take back the planet from the devil, who is the un-alike, or disagreeable...

F- Father
Is to father (fat-her) the young with the knowledge of self which is righteousness and by teaching them the science of everything in life which is love, peace, and happiness....

God
Is the Supreme Being,the original man, the one who is a winner without an opponent in everything he deals with, Because god put all things here by wisdoming his power and knowledging his equality from all things he built upon...

H- He or Her
Must refine her with the knowledge of he, which is god, in order to build and born a strong foundation to carry out civilization through the Queen (her).

1-1 or Islam or Eye
Is the only universal way of life for the blackman, woman and child. This is Islam and the only one that knows and understands this is god, and god must resurrect the dead with Islam. Teaching that which brings them to freedom, justice and equality...

J-Justice
All those who can't deal with mathematics, will be just-ice at 32 degrees below zero because they fail to understand the wisdom of god which deals just and true with all human families on the planet Earth...

K -King or Kingdom
The king is the founder of his kingdom so he must acknowledge the knowledge in his circumference so that he can enforce his laws to be recognized as being the king of his kingdom.

L- Love , Hell, Or Right
The love is the overstanding, and misunderstanding is what brought forth hell. But this is all going back to the degree of supreme understanding, because this is the only truth that is right and exact at all times..

M-Master
Is the one who has experienced a certain type of skill but the master of all is God Allah because he knows and understands all circumstances on Earth as well as in the universe.

N.-Now or Nation or End
Now is the time for the black man to end all his weak ways so that the black nation on earth can uprise the knowledge of all its creation and put them all in order, once again, or surely it will be their end, now....

O-Cipher
Is a person, place or thing, It is most commonly called Cipher because C.I. Power...Her through the equality that I gave her which is the truth, and the truth is 360 degrees of purified knowledge...

P-Power
Mental and physical powers of a devil is nothing in comparison to that of the original man; the devil has 6 ounces of grafted brain which are weak and wicked 100%, but god's power is original, meaning the first, and possesses seven and a half ounces of brain which put all things here, which is also 100%. the understanding in god is what makes him Allah.

Q- Queen
The most purified particle of Allah better known as the true, rich, black, soil, the mother of civilization, who has the scale of justice within her but is still blind to her powers, which is being queen of the universe and Earth below, but has the power to control both from the energy that god gave her..,

R-Rule or Ruler
God is the only ruler there is. By acknowledging his building powers and making it born to all planets of the universe, they can go according to it and bear witness to who the true ruler is...

S-Self or Savior
You must be a savior to yourself, so that in the atmosphere you're in, you can be capable of saving self for the best part, because self is the nation of the 5%ers from knowledge to born self.

T-Truth or Square
The truth is only light that can stand by itself in the surrounding darkness and, yet be noticed shining in the square of the universe which is 360 degrees. When the wisdom adds a cipher, it shines that energy of truth breaks through darkness.

U- You or Universe
You are the universe because you are the producer of the sun, moon, and stars. The original people.

V-Victory
Wisdom brings about a bad culture when ones wisdom is destroying instead of acting according to the way of life which makes the culture I-god which is Islam, the only victory known...

W-Wisdom
Is an expression of knowledge while the understanding brings about a clear picture of both through the eye of understanding...

X-Unknown

Equality is unknown to those who don't know themselves, The 85 percenters, dumb, deaf and blind so-called Negroes that need to grow from their mental death and power, because they are unknown to themselves.

Y-Why,
Is the question most frequently asked by those who are blind, deaf and dumb because they don't know how to wisdom, their power to show and prove Y.U. god manifesting the making of God...U...Y....

Z-Zig Zag Zig, meaning, knowledge, wisdom and understanding.

Peace God

This is how it was conveyed From Clarence Jowars Smith known as "Pudding" and "Allah "to his followers the 5% Nation.

4 Think, and remember where you came from! We are the original seed of what you call Gods. You were taught to call us Gods, by those malevolent, disagreeable beings the Luciferians, the Serpent People, the Human Beast.

5 They have influenced the minds of our leaders either by appearance in physical form as in the case of a Venerian, one of Valiant Thor's own, who was known to us as Master Fard Muhammad (1877-1934 A.D.) who came as a "god" from Saudi Arabia, Middle East, to seek out the Lost Tribe of Shabazz and to teach them knowledge, wisdom and understanding. Up and above all of these great men, disagreeableness crept in, in the form of misinterpretation to misguide you off the path. And we called out, "guide us to the way of the ones who stand straight. The way of those who you have bestowed your grace and not those who have been cursed nor of those who have gone astray."

6 Remember, your olive tone parents of long ago; The Woolly Haired Beings, Nine Ether, or $_{9}9^{9}$, Nine to the Ninth Power of Nine our "Kingly Crown", visitors to this solar system from the planet Rizq.

7 Remember our dark-reddish brown skin, copper tone perfected in green, as the greenest of olives because of the melanin that is within our genetics which we have coated in our genes, the true Nuwbuns, Nubians or "New-Beings," you Melanin-ites and your way of life NUWAUBU, Sound Right Reasoning.

8 We are your original etheric parents, the etherians that have returned in flesh just for you!

9 You must know that in the Lunar Logging of the 5th point, in the month of May, when the planet called Gaia, a living organism, also spelled Gaea positions itself, in the location of revolution of the planet called Earth in the year 2000 A.D. of the Gregorian Calendar, and the gate in what you refer to as Heaven, and this great vortex when opened, in 2003 A.D. of the Gregorian calendar, and the planets will have realigned themselves. In the day of 5/5/2000 the Garubaat (Cherubeems) will be excused, and their flaming swords shall sway from the tree of eternal life, and it shall open once again the throne of ANU.

10 In the month of December in the year 1997 A.D. of the Gregorian Calendar, on the solar calendar, which is

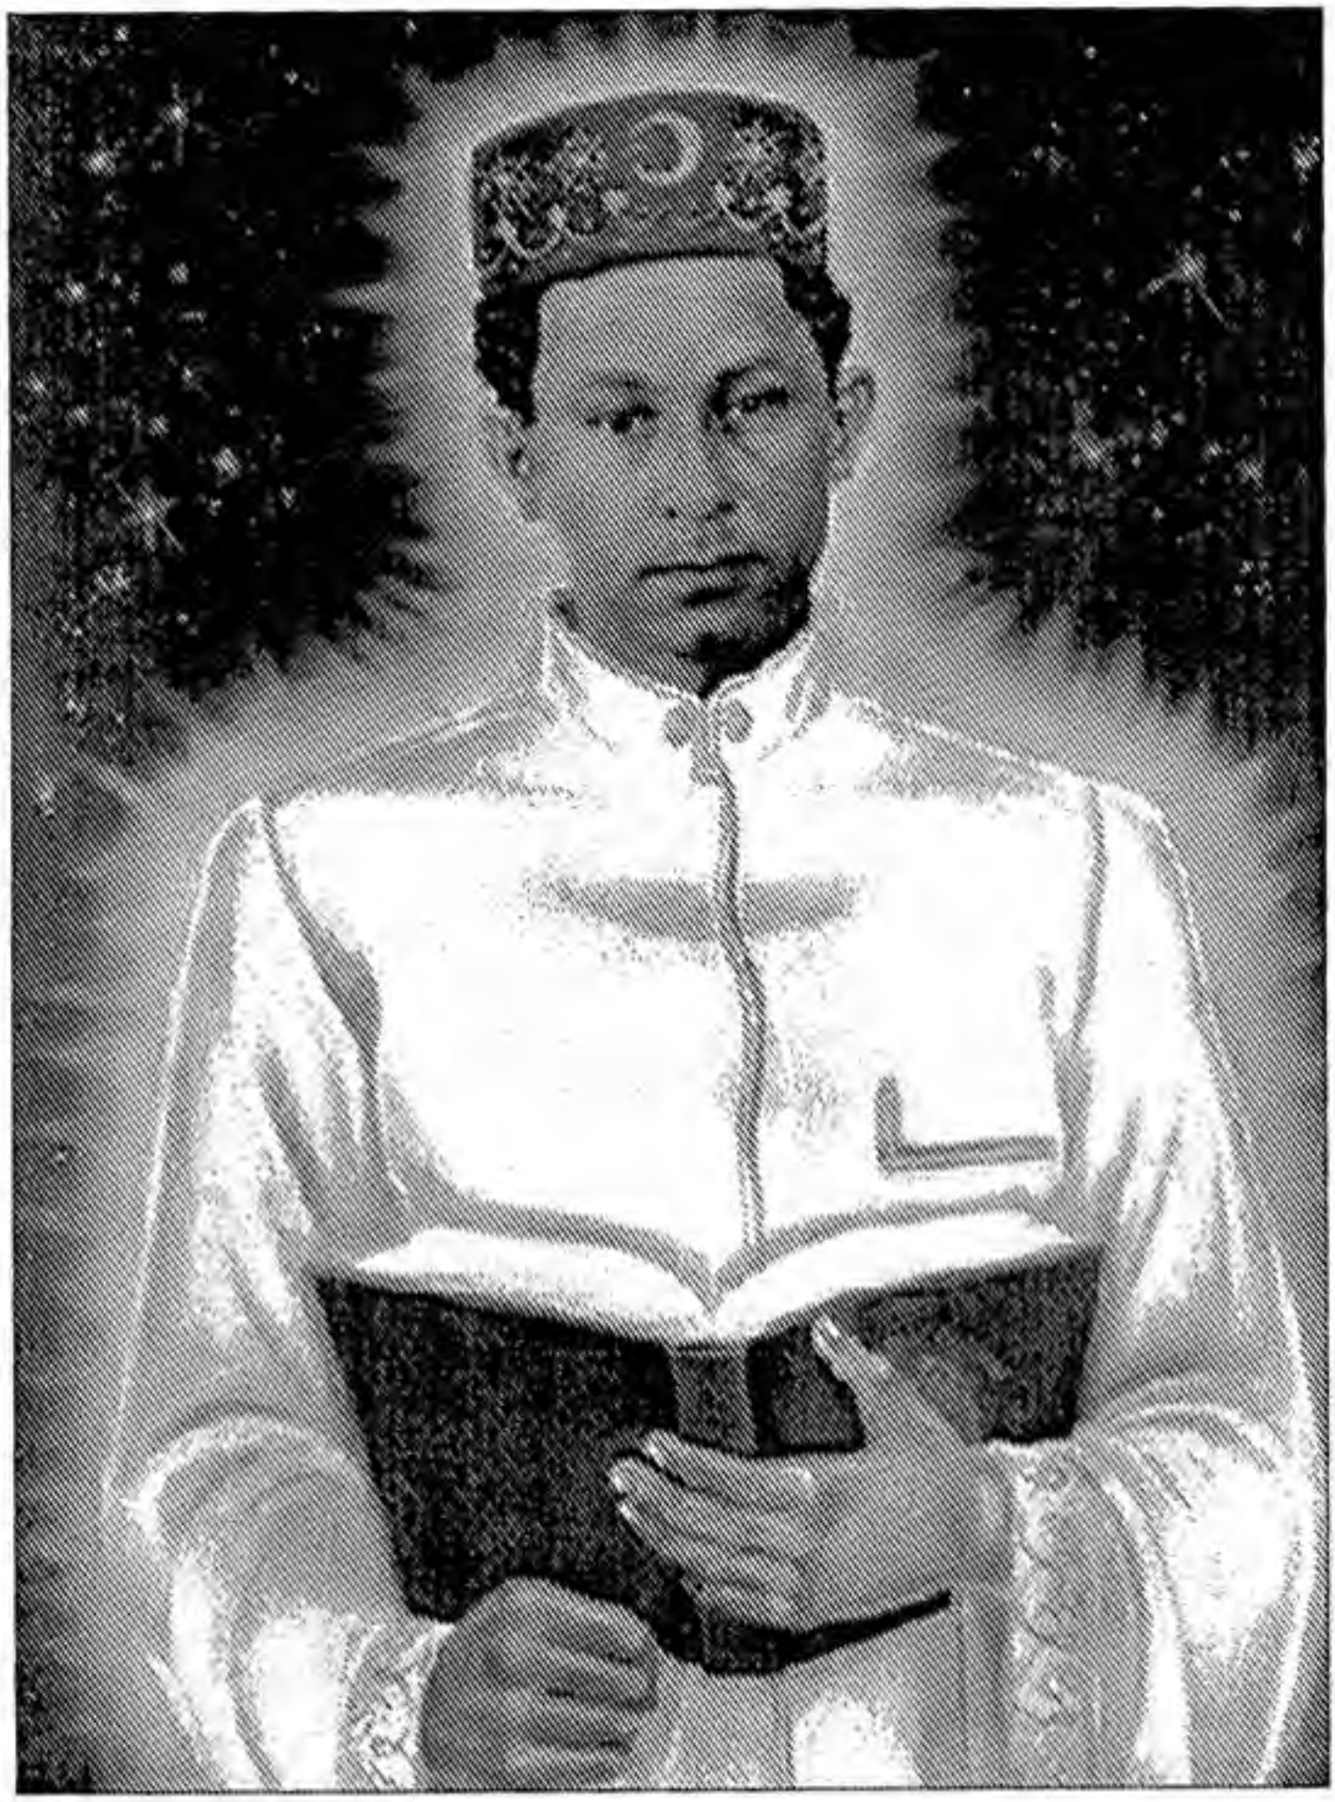

Figure 34
Master "Fard" Muhammad,
The Venusian Who Came As A "God" To Seek Out The Lost Tribe Of Shabazz

used throughout most of the world, and is sponsored by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 A.D. as a corrected version of the Julian calendar, which was a solar calendar introduced by Julius Caesar's astronomers in Rome in 46 B.C., having a year of 12 months and 365 days and a leap year of 366 days every fourth year, a smaller alignment of the inner 7 planets in this solar system will have already taken place.

11 Seven bright planets will line up like pearls on a string.

12 The planets aligned from west to east beginning with Gaga (Pluto) then followed by Mummu (Mercury), Lahmu (Mars), Lahamu (Venus), Ea (Neptune), Anu (Uranus), Kishar (Jupiter), and Anshar (Saturn) with a crescent Moon alongside.

13 This will be the alignment of the major planets, and the mother ship Nibiru, whose diameter is 63,408 miles, and can make itself bigger or smaller, will be nearing your solar system and waiting on the other side of the asteroid belt, which is the necklace of the firmament beneath the firmaments, for the time which will be in the Lunar logging of the 12th point, in the month of August, when the planet called Earth positions itself, in the location of its own revolution, in the year 2003 A.D., of the Gregorian Calendar which is when this vortex will re-open.

14 Nibiru's appearance on November 15, was confirmed by scientists with the coming of a comet named Hale Bopp, after its discoverers Alan Hale and Thomas Bopp, in the year 1996.

15 Due to the size of Nibiru, which is 63,408 miles, if it was to come near your planet, its gravitational pull will begin to tear away parts of Tiamat, and cause the other planets, on this side of the asteroid, to draw into each other.

16 So Nibiru stays on the other side of the asteroid, or firmament, where the planets Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto are.

17 It is then that "The Shams", passenger crafts, will reach the planet Earth coming forth to you, for the rebirth of the elite few, the 144,000, from the Moon Base forming the 6 pointed star and crescent moon in the sky as your sign. On Nibiru you had 400 species broken up into 3 sets of 144,000. You had the Igigi, the Dinneer, the Rizqiyians, and many mixed species from different star constellations. The Christians late took the concept of the 144,000 and the rapture, used it in their Bible.

18 If we are blocked, we shall continue to try to abduct you up until the Lunar Logging of the 26th point, in June, when the Earth positions itself, in the location of revolution of Earth year 2030 A.D. of the Gregorian Calendar.

19 This is what so-called Christian call the rapture.

20 This would involve a telepathic message from Nibiru which could be dangerous to those children, who haven't raised themselves, to a certain level and would cause a shock to their nervous systems.

21 Many would cut off causing us to severe our etheric tie, although it may be a necessary step.

22 Know this my child, in the Lunar Logging of the 12th Point, in the month of August, when the planet called Earth positions itself in the location of revolution of Earth in the year 2043 A.D. of the Gregorian Calendar this vortex will re-open and we must depart with or without you, so be prepared.

23 My child, listen and overstand. These crafts are coming to pick you up, their children.

24 However, the evil Luciferians in human form aided by the cursed seed of Canaan, and their brothers the Halaabeans, Flugelrods, or Hulub, are on the rise in many names and organizations throughout the world today, and are trying their best, thru the media and mind control, to make you, the children of the ANUNNAGI, ALUHUM regress back to your state of Homo Erectus, with the aid of black devils.

25 If you regress back to that state, then my children the Elders have no reason to come for you, for it is Homo Sapien that is in our image and after our likeness.

26 Let me explain to you how it all began. It all started when we, the ANUNNAGI needed to protect the dwindling atmosphere of our home planet, RIZQ. We are the 8th planet of a tri-solar system, in the 19th galaxy of Illyuwn.

27 The rays from the three suns Utu, Afsu, and Shamash were depleting our ozone layer.

28 The energy level of the radiation was increasing and made the hole in the ozone layer bigger every time all 3 suns "shone" on the planet at the same time. It is the same as on Earth where the ozone layer is depleting allowing more damaging ultraviolet rays to penetrate the atmosphere.

29 However, unlike the planet RIZQ, with our three suns, the planet Earth has but one sun. So the depletion level is not occurring as fast, but will happen eventually. Look for the sign of the little boy, El Nino.

30 The planet RIZQ has three suns Utu, Afsu, and Shamash that all have damaging ultraviolet rays and has a much faster rotation than that of this planet, so the depletion of the ozone layer occurred at a faster rate.

31 We needed to build a protection, a dome of gold dust particles suspended in the atmosphere, to protect the planet from the damaging ultraviolet rays.

32 The gold was needed because it shields the sun's rays.

33 It is used to reflect the sun's heat. Gold is very special. It's a high-polish metal with a high polish finish. It can be made thinner than any metal. It can be stretched thinner than paper, and stretched for miles. That is why they use it.

34 Gold can be vaporized better than any other metal, and it doesn't tarnish. Gold can also hold under any condition.

35 We had to abort our planet until it could be mended. Thus we moved on to Kesiyl, known today as the Orion galaxy, which was originally a 6 star, 6 sun constellation;

36 Others went and started living in Aiysh/Arcturus, which is the brightest star in the Bootes constellation and Kamuh/Pleiades, a star cluster in the Taurus constellation, which has many life forms, but we made our home the 3 star belt of Kesiyl, or Kesul in Nuwaubic, which is Orion.

37 We had to get closer to the Milky Way and this sun, which has exactly 1,000,000,000 billion years left to burn itself out, if the ozone doesn't deplete or the 7 plagues doesn't destroy it.

Tablet 1:38 Tablet 1:54

38 We moved to Lahmu which means "deity of war" what is now called Mars. Then we moved on to Gaga/Pluto, and various other planets, and set up civilizations as the Moon and as in the Canis Major star constellation.

39 That is why "The Face On Mars" is believed to be that of a Homo Erectus, when it is in fact the face of the Homo Erectus being cloned into Homo Sapien; the face of Zakar whose name is Kadmon, called the Adama project.

40 It looks like the Sphinx face. The faces thought to be the Pharaoh Khufu, when in fact it is the Egyptian deity Osiris.

41 Standing at the base of the Face, you would see to your left, in the distance, massive pyramids, similar to their Egyptian counterparts; part of the "City" complex.

42 Within the cluster of pyramids called the "city," there are 7 major pyramidal forms in various states of preservation.

43 Among these are some half a dozen smaller objects.

44 Some have pyramidal forms, but others have apparent domes, cones, walls, and buried rectilinear markings to the southwest of the main complex.

45 Anunnagi Aluhum, came to the planet Earth to set up the first laboratory called Shimti that you call an "Egyptian Civilization" on Qi, Earth, called Ta or Ptah.

46 This occurred 450,000 thousand years before coming to Tiamat, Earth. They were followed by 1,001.

47 The name Utu, the sun as Ra, the sun and the head deity they called O-Siris who is Usir after the Sirius star constellation, also called Sothis in Greek and Sept in Egyptian.

48 We Anunnagi originally came here to this planet Earth to mine for gold, that we would take back to our planet RIZQ.

49 First, we sent Rumardians who built Androids, which are machines that are almost human called Robotoids, robotic machines. Then biological graftation was added, needed for thinking beings to complete the mission, so the ANUNNAGI were sent to scout and survey this very planet.

50 When ANU first came to Ta, Ptah, called Earth or Terra 500,000 years ago, the Dragon People, or Draconian and the Snake People were already here living in vast tunnels under Earth's/Terra's crust, or some lived in the deep seas, to protect themselves from the frequent radiation storms, and magnetic shifts.

51 The atmosphere was being disturbed by frequent radiation storms, which was caused by electrical storms from the Sun, due to the crash of Nibiru, the planet was still in the process of healing.

52 The Snake People have a variety of body types ranging from human-like, some are half-snake or Reptilian. They can see in the darkness, and have telepathic abilities. These beings were unwilling to share the planet with the Anunnagi.

53 ANU wanted the gold to take back to his home planet in RIZQ, however the Dragon people feared that ANU would not respect their peaceful ways.

54 They had spent years setting lines of magnetic energy and grids around the Earth, and they had constructed endless tunnels beneath the Earth in cooperation with the snake people.

Tablet 1:55

55 The energy vortexes which power their civilizations are in these tunnels, along with enormous stores of precious stones and metals. There were a few battles happening on Earth and in the skies.

56 Finally, arrangements were made, territories were drawn. To keep the peace on the planet Earth between the Draconians and the Rizqiyians, you had to marry a daughter of one of them.

57 So ANU agreed to mate with a Draconian princess named IYD/ID, the daughter of Siidiihiis, (see dee hiss) the president of the Draconians, to seal the alliance, and he gave Iyd to his wife/sister ANTUM to be her highest servant.

58 They gave birth to NUDIMMUD/Ea, and he was to be ruler of the earth. Nudimmud was educated on NIBIRU, he became a master scientist and builder.

59 ANU then sent a group of Anunnagi to start mining for gold on Tiamat.

60 The leader amongst the ANUNNAGI was Ea meaning "he whose house is water," son of the ANUNNAGI ANU and the Draconian Id or Iyd.

61 After crashing down in what is called the Persian Gulf today, he established a city and called its name ERIDU meaning "home away from home" or "house built in the far away." and he became known as ENQI.

62 He received the name Enqi when he landed to the planet Qi/Earth, meaning "ruler of Qi, Earth."

63 However, his birth name was Nudimmud, meaning "he who fashions things," or Ea, a reminder that his seed was of the water.

Tablet 1:75

64 Enqi built waterworks in the marshlands at the head of the Persian Gulf.

65 He surveyed the marshlands, cut canals for drainage and water control, built dykes, dug ditches, and built structures of bricks molded from the local clays.

66 The first divine city built was called EDUKU meaning "house of the holy mound".

67 He joined the Idiglat/Tigris and Furattu/Euphrates rivers by canals; and at the edge of the marshlands he built his water house.

68 He built a cube shaped temple called the Ubaid shrine and there the secrets were stored.

69 Enqi was assigned to Earth and he agreed to the assignment.

70 He was chosen for this job because he was a brilliant scientist and engineer. Enqi built himself a beautiful kingdom in the sea called the Abzu.

71 The structures of the Abzu were built of silver and lapis lazuli, part high on a mountain, and part submerged under water.

72 When Enqi wasn't working in the Abzu, he built dams and re-routed waters. Enqi loved water, and frequently paddled around the marshes all by himself, studying fish, insects, and the grasses along the river banks.

73 However, all did not go well with Enqi.

74 Enqi got caught up in the delicacies of the world, and he stopped transporting the gold.

75 He started to take the gold, shipping it to South America, then called Amexem, instead of taking it straight on home.

76 Enqi started to keep and store the gold for himself then he began to wear the gold.

77 It should be known that, up until this point the ANUNNAGI did not wear gold.

78 Enqi got caught up with these people who were half Nuwbun/African and half Hamu/Chinese called today, Native Americans, of the Zu Aztec, Toltecs, Hopi and Navajo tribes. They referred to him as Quetzalcoatl, "the winged serpent".

79 Enqi promised these people he would come back in a Sigui, meaning 60 years for the gold.

80 However, he didn't because he was sentenced to Nibiru and he was not allowed to return to the planet Qi/Earth anymore.

81 This is why 6 cycles later, a man by the name of Abubakari II, a Mandingo Malian, came over to the shores of South America, which was then called Amexem.

82 He was believed to have been Quezalcoatl, or Enqi. When Abubakari came he was clothed from head to foot in long flowing white robes, and a turban, he looked like a true child of the sun, burned dark by its rays.

83 His black hair, and his beard stood out. Against the blue canopy, which he stood out under the Aztec tribe, you could see the outlines of a great golden bird, the serpent slaying eagle, which they thought, was a sign of Quetzalcoatl, coming back as he had promised. It was said he would come back "by way of the sea where the sun rises". It was exactly 6 cycles since he disappeared.

84 Thus when Abubakari II appeared to the natives in 1311 A.D., he had a white beard, he wore a long white robe, and he came from the east, the land of the sun, in boats, in the same manner as Quetzalcoatl had promised.

85 Abubakari II wanted to do something different, something new, and something from which there was no precedence, that would keep his spirit quick and young with a life long excitement.

86 He made a deal with his half brother, Mansa Musa, a Malian ruler, and he split the gold and riches in half, making both of them extremely rich.

87 They had a vast empire, that stretched from Tunis, Libya, Morocco, and all the way over.

88 Abubakari II took half of the riches and history of his empire and sailed to the shores of America.

89 He appointed his half brother Mansa Musa as king before he left in 1311 A.D. Abubakari II kept in touch with the captains of the fleet by means of the talking drum.

90 Abu Bakari II arrived precisely 6 cycles after the disappearance of Quetzalcoatl by way of the sea from among the Toltecs in 999 A.D., Thus he was mistaken by the Aztec as Quetzalcoatl.

91 His white robes fitted in with the image of symbolic "white bearded figure", while his black skin was the right ceremonial color of the Rain God and Wind God aspects of Quetzalcoatl.

92 A cycle is equal to 52 years in the Aztec culture, which is their Sigui, a 60 year cycle.

93 The Aztecs were originally called

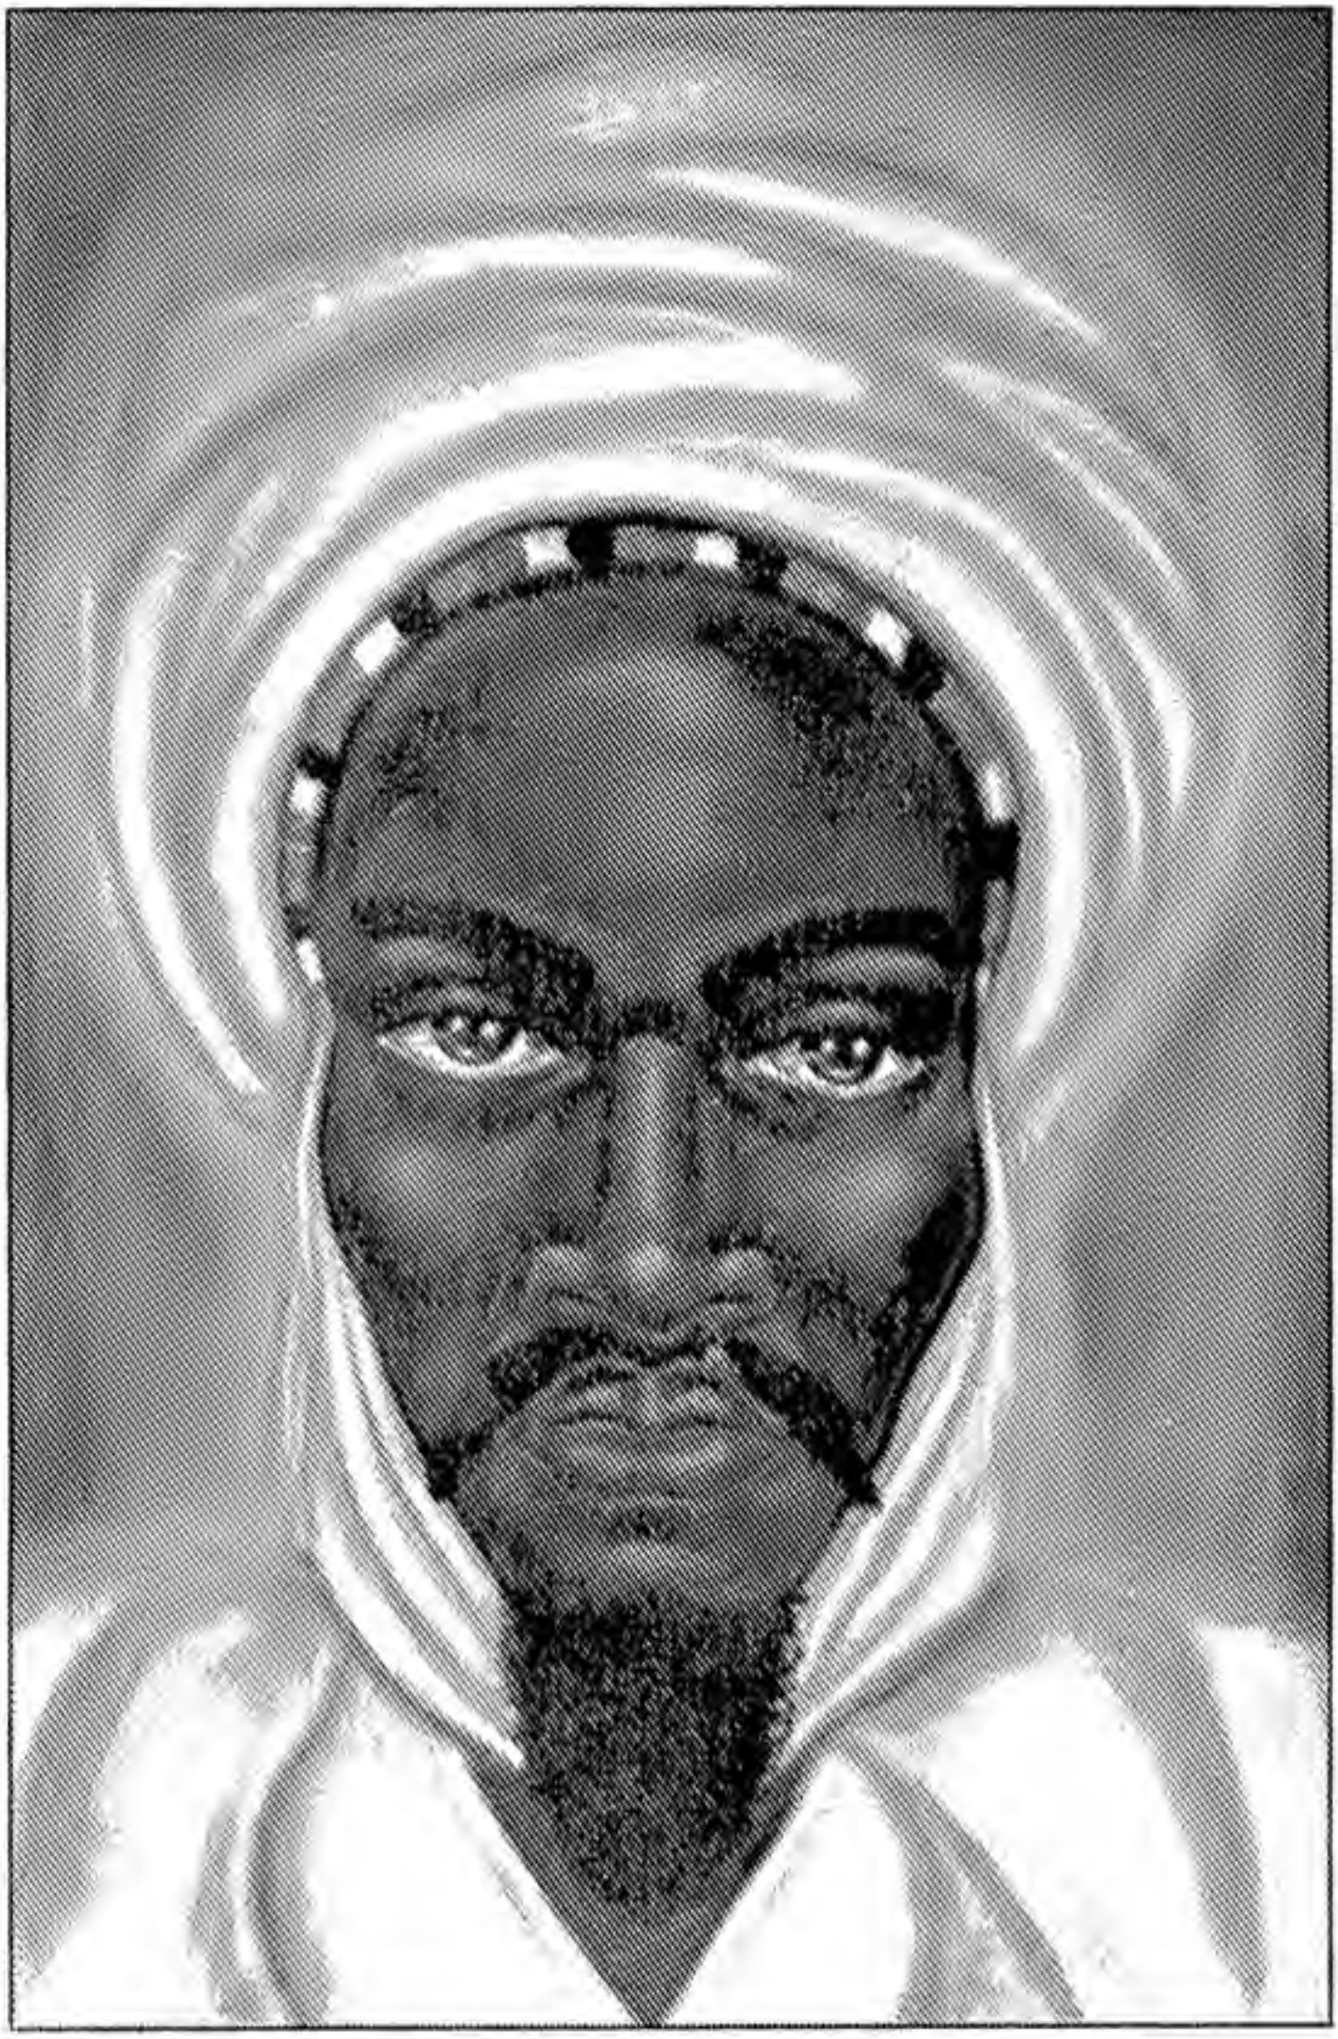

Figure 46
Abu Bakari, Brother Of Mansa Musa

the Zu Aztecs, the name "Zu" comes from the Assyrian deity of thunder and storms, equivalent to Aztec deity Quetzalcoatl, "deity of thunder and rain".

94 The Medieval Mexican and the Mandingo Malians have a lot in common, for example: The Plumed Serpent motif of ancient Mexico and the feathered serpent cult in Medieval Mali.

95 In Medieval Mali the equivalent of Quetzalcoatl is the Dasiri of the Bambara, the tribe of the Mandingo from which Abubakari came.

96 The Dasiri is the protector of the village, the beneficent spirit whose sacred animal is a snake.

97 The feast of the Dasiri takes place at the beginning of the year, like that of Quetzalcoatl.

98 The Dasiri hold a dancing ceremony called the Kuare or Kore, in which the dancers wrap themselves in thorns or lacerate their breasts and armpits.

99 Some beat themselves the with the long flexible scourges. In the Quetzalcoatl ceremonial, the same self-chastisement and the use of thorn-pricking occurs.

100 In both the Mexican Quetzalcoatl and the Mandingo Dasiri worship, these thorn-prickings and whippings were designed to bring blood out in drops.

101 This blood dropping symbolized the falling of raindrops.

102 Now 4 cycles later a man by the name of Hernando Cortes also known as Hernan Cortes, and his band of bearded Conquistadors, landed from Cuba not far from the same spot. Montezuma II, the Aztec ruler, received first-hand reports of the visitors which accorded closely with Toltec tradition of Quetzalcoatl's return.

103 Cortez came at the end of one of their 60 year cycles, in March of 1519, when he sailed along the coast of the Yucatan and landed in Mexico.

104 Those innocent people, the Aztecs, thought him to be Enqi returning, as their ancestors had predicted for thousands of years. Some also thought him to be Quetzalcoatl, "The Winged Serpent", because Cortes fit the appearance of one of the Aztec prophesy, of a bearded legendary god-king he was received with honor.

105 His soldiers were allowed to roam through the city at their pleasure and they found a lot of gold, and other treasures in the storehouses.

106 Cortez, born in 1485-1547 A.D., explored the coast of Mexico, finally stopping near modern Veracruz, where he founded a city in order to legitimize his expedition.

107 People were trying to conquer Mexico from the natives of that land. This is why Cortes was there in Mexico.

108 After gaining important information regarding the political situation in the highlands of Mexico, Cortes marched inland, and made an alliance with the Native Americans of Tlaxcala who were the traditional enemies of the Aztecs. He began to pose as Quetzalcoatl.

109 The natives believed that this legendary ruler and deity would eventually return to Mexico from the east.

110 Thus, Montezuma II, the reigning Aztec king, was too mystified to organize resistance, and the Spaniards entered Tenochtitlan, "city of Tenoch" named in honor of their ancestors who came from the Pacific, the Aztec capital, unopposed in November 1519 A.D. This was a stepping stone to Cortes' eventual conquest of Mexico.

111 Thus, thinking Cortes was Quetzalcoatl, they turned all the gold over to him, showing him and his crew, the massive amount of gold stored in the underground caverns in what is called Ecuador today.

112 Cortes was easily thought to be Enqi because he was 6 feet tall, and he had a beard like the description they had of Enqi. When in fact he was not Enqi. He was a Spaniard of European descent, part of a larger plan to deceive the Native Americans out of their gold. Enqi's restriction from returning to Earth, he did not like, but was forced to comply.

113 Since all did not go well with Enqi, the transportation of the gold had been slowed up.

114 Thus, my child, more ANUNNAGI were sent.

115 They came down in groups of 50s.

116 One of the groups was lead by MURDOQ/MURDUK, meaning "leader of the deities," son of Enqi and Damkina Or Damgina as Dam-Qi-Na " Blood of the 50 earth" she was a faithful wife.

117 The plan that Enqi had which was to extract gold from sea waters by laboratory like processes did not work as well as was expected. However, the gold was still badly needed; and the ANUNNAGI faced a rough decision.

118 To abandon the project was out of the question, so they had to find a new way of getting the gold which was through mining.

119 By then the ANUNNAGI knew that there was a lot of gold in the Abzu "the primeval source" or Zuab.

120 Abzu was also called Monodappa located in what is now Zimbabwe, formerly called Rhodesia, near South Africa which was then called Raphali.

121 However, the African gold had to be extracted from the depths of the Earth through mining.

122 And the ANUNNAGI had to go from the easy water treatment process, to a hard toil process, which was to extract the gold from below the surface of the Earth. They called it Abbadon.

123 By that time ENLIL meaning "ruler of the skies," or Nunamnir meaning "the light of fish" which was his other name, son of ANU and ANTUM, was sent down to take charge of the Earth Mission and organize the gold deliveries to Nibiru.

124 This caused a rivalry and jealousy between the two brothers Enqi, God of the Earth and Enlil, god of the heavens, who were sons of ANU, The Most High God.

125 The male species of the Dragon People didn't want to cooperate with brother Enlil.

126 They naturally preferred Enqi as he was one of them, being the son of a Draco or a being from the Drago star constellation. His mother Iyd was a Draconian.

127 There are many strands and different breeds of Dracos, one commonly known as Valkuns, that were living in the seas, also known as the Maldekians, living in the Bermuda Triangle, in Mu and Atlantis, not to be mistaken with another type of Maldekians, called the Primitives.

128 The Valkuns that lived in the sea,

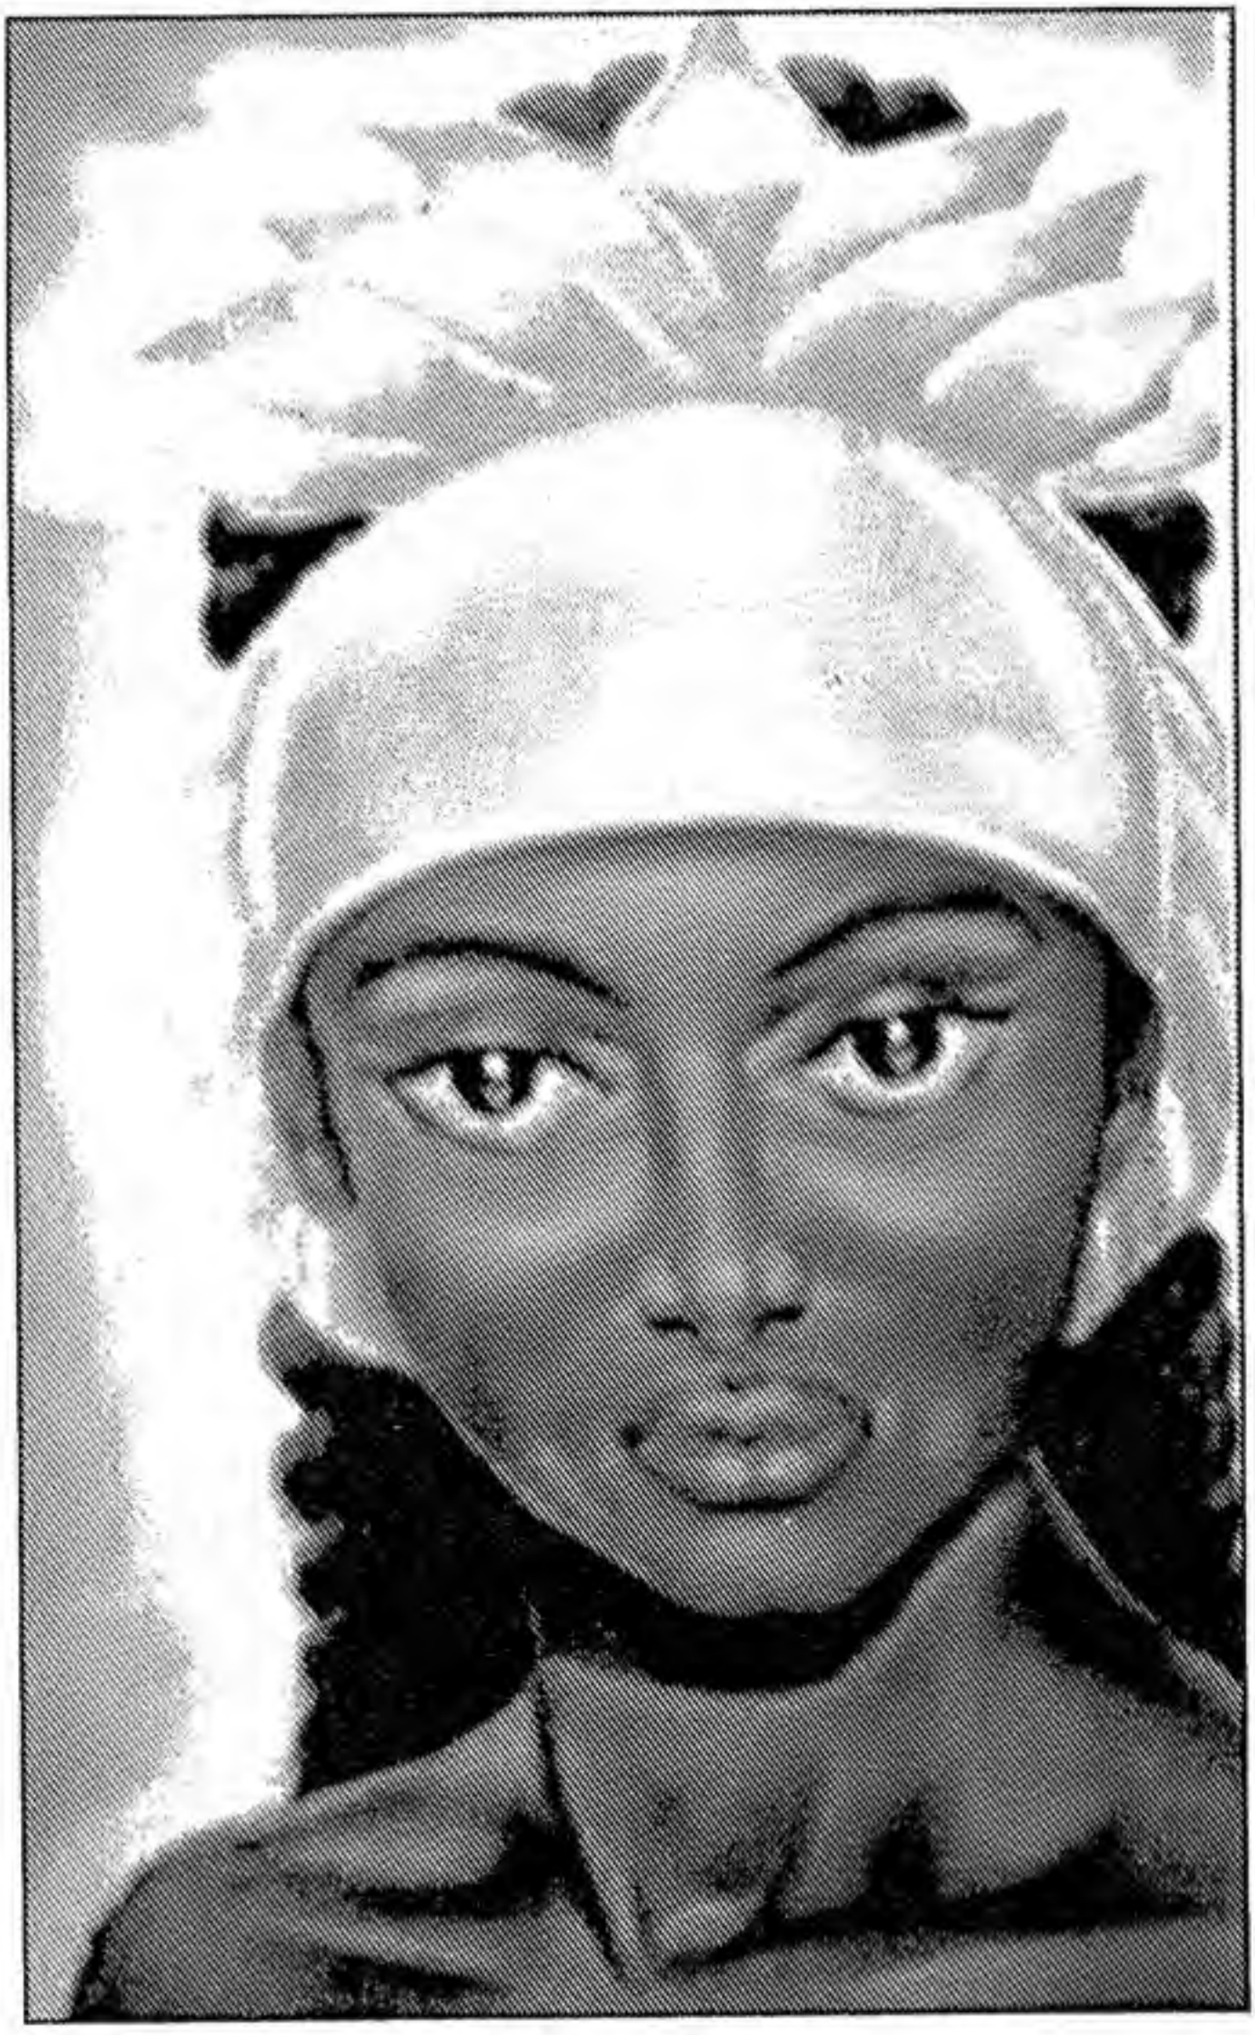

Figure 50
Antum Wife/Half Sister Of Anu

were from the Mizar constellation, which is also referred to as Zeta Reticuli.

129 They originated from the planet Maldek, however when their planet was destroyed some took residence on the planet Earth, while others took residence in the constellation Draco, and Zeta Reticuli.

130 One group were known as the primitives, and one was known as the Dragon, or Draco.

131 Both of these beings were testing with humims in hopes of breeding more humanoid beings to take over the planet Earth.

132 The Primitives from the Bermuda Triangle, sometimes called Atlantis, refused to cooperate and surrender to their ancestors.

133 The ones who came in, were hoping that the Primitives from the Bermuda Triangle would accept the old ways, from when they lived on the planet Maldek and follow their old leadership.

134 However, they were wrong. So there has been a battle going on the planet Earth, beneath it, and inter-dimensionally, between the 2 groups of Reptilians and Greys.

135 One group is set on evacuating the planet earth, and taking control of it by imprisoning human beings and using them as food, which are the Primitives.

136 The other group is interested in the divine in humans by breeding the genes into the human beings. This is the group that Iyd, mother of Enqi came from.

137 The word Zeta is the 6th letter in the Greek alphabet.

138 The early letter Zeta was originally an I. The Greek alphabet came from the Phoenicians.

139 The letter Z is the replica of the Cobra, snake, which resembles the symbol for the Zeta Reticulans.

140 The letter Zaiyn Z, is the 7th letter in the Hebrew alphabet and it means "weapon".

141 In the Canaanite language, the letter used as a Z also means weapon.

142 The letter Zaay is the eleventh letter of the Ashuric/Syriac Arabic alphabet.

143 As a numeral Zaiyn denotes seven. Another type of Draconian specie is called Gargoyles, that have special wings, which are flaps of skin supported by long ribs of Dracona. They can be folded back against the body.

144 It is obvious that the qualities have been ascribed to Vampires. Take a close look at this word Vampire. "V"-Empires". So what do you get? "Vulcan Empire"!

145 The male species of Gargoyles are called Valkryia, and they have the ability to fly.

146 They nurture the eggs, and the females just lay them.

147 These beings are also known as the "Dragon Race", and the symbology usually includes the winged serpent.

148 There are elements of their species which do not have wings, called "the Soldier Class" and "Scientist".

149 There are many different breeds of Draconians, just as there are many different breeds of Humans.

150 The Draconian women loved Enlil because he was bringing down groups of ANUNNAGI men to Qi, which gave them an opportunity to copulate with them.

151 The leader, amongst the Draconians, Siidiihiis felt that if they mixed their seed with other beings then, they would be included in the interplanetary confederation.

Tablet 1:151 Tablet 1:170

152 However, whatever decisions Enlil made, Enqi disagreed with. This caused chaos on Qi.

153 However, Nudimmud's, Enqi's and Nunamnir's, Enlil's disagreement began when Antum, the wife and half sister of ANU, gave her highest servant, Iyd, to her husband, ANU to bear him a child.

154 Antum gave Iyd to ANU, because she could not beget children.

155 Id and ANU had a son named Nudimmud, later to be called Enqi, who was the first born son of ANU.

156 A messenger came to ANU to tell him that Antum would bare a child, whose name would be Nunamnir, later to be called Enlil.

157 Antum had given birth to Enlil and after some time Antum became jealous of Iyd's relationship with ANU, so she asked ANU to put Iyd and her child out.

158 ANU complied and sent Iyd and Enqi to Eridu referred to as "the desert." Iyd went to live with her people in the underground tunnels of the Earth. This made Enqi angry.

159 By Nibiruan rules of succession Enlil became the legal heir instead of Enqi.

160 So Enqi believed that Enlil stole his birthright.

161 When all had arrived to Qi, Enlil had meetings with the ANUNNAGI, to break into tribes and spread out to seven different cities. 1. Tilmun, 2. Salaam, 3. Mu, 4. Lumeria, 5. Qodesh, 6. Niffur and 7. Ashkolan/Alkebu-Lan.

162 However, Kalkal and Nusku could no longer take the blasphemy of Nudimmud, who named a city after himself Nud, Nod - and welcomed all sorts of outside beings, who had come to the planet Earth who wandered in and out. He called them "Aliens," set up laws and borders with restrictions, creating the first immigration laws.

163 Enqi gave many Khutbahs, "sermons", that were supposed to be a morale builder, to prepare the ANUNNAGI for this new frontier.

164 However, Enqi did the contrary and many were weak that had listened to him, and they never did this kind of hard work before, mining was new to them.

165 Many left families behind on RIZQ, and other planets where families were, so Enqi sounded very impressive; and also because Enlil was not present to speak on behalf of his father's rule.

166 He, Enqi utilized the migration of ANAQITES who were the giants in the Earth, as well as warriors. Enqi made them his Lugals "warlords" and head of his own police department. They robbed village after village, confiscating the wealth.

167 This police department even harassed Nusqu and Kalkal.

168 So the 600 that came to Qi, now broke up into two groups of 300 each, male and females.

169 Those who followed Enqi, who was surrendering himself to Hindu deities called Leviathan; and surrendering to their customs and traditions and even went as far as to raise the grotesque Ishtar, also called Inanna, to be a supreme deity called Singh, or Sin.

170 You had those who followed

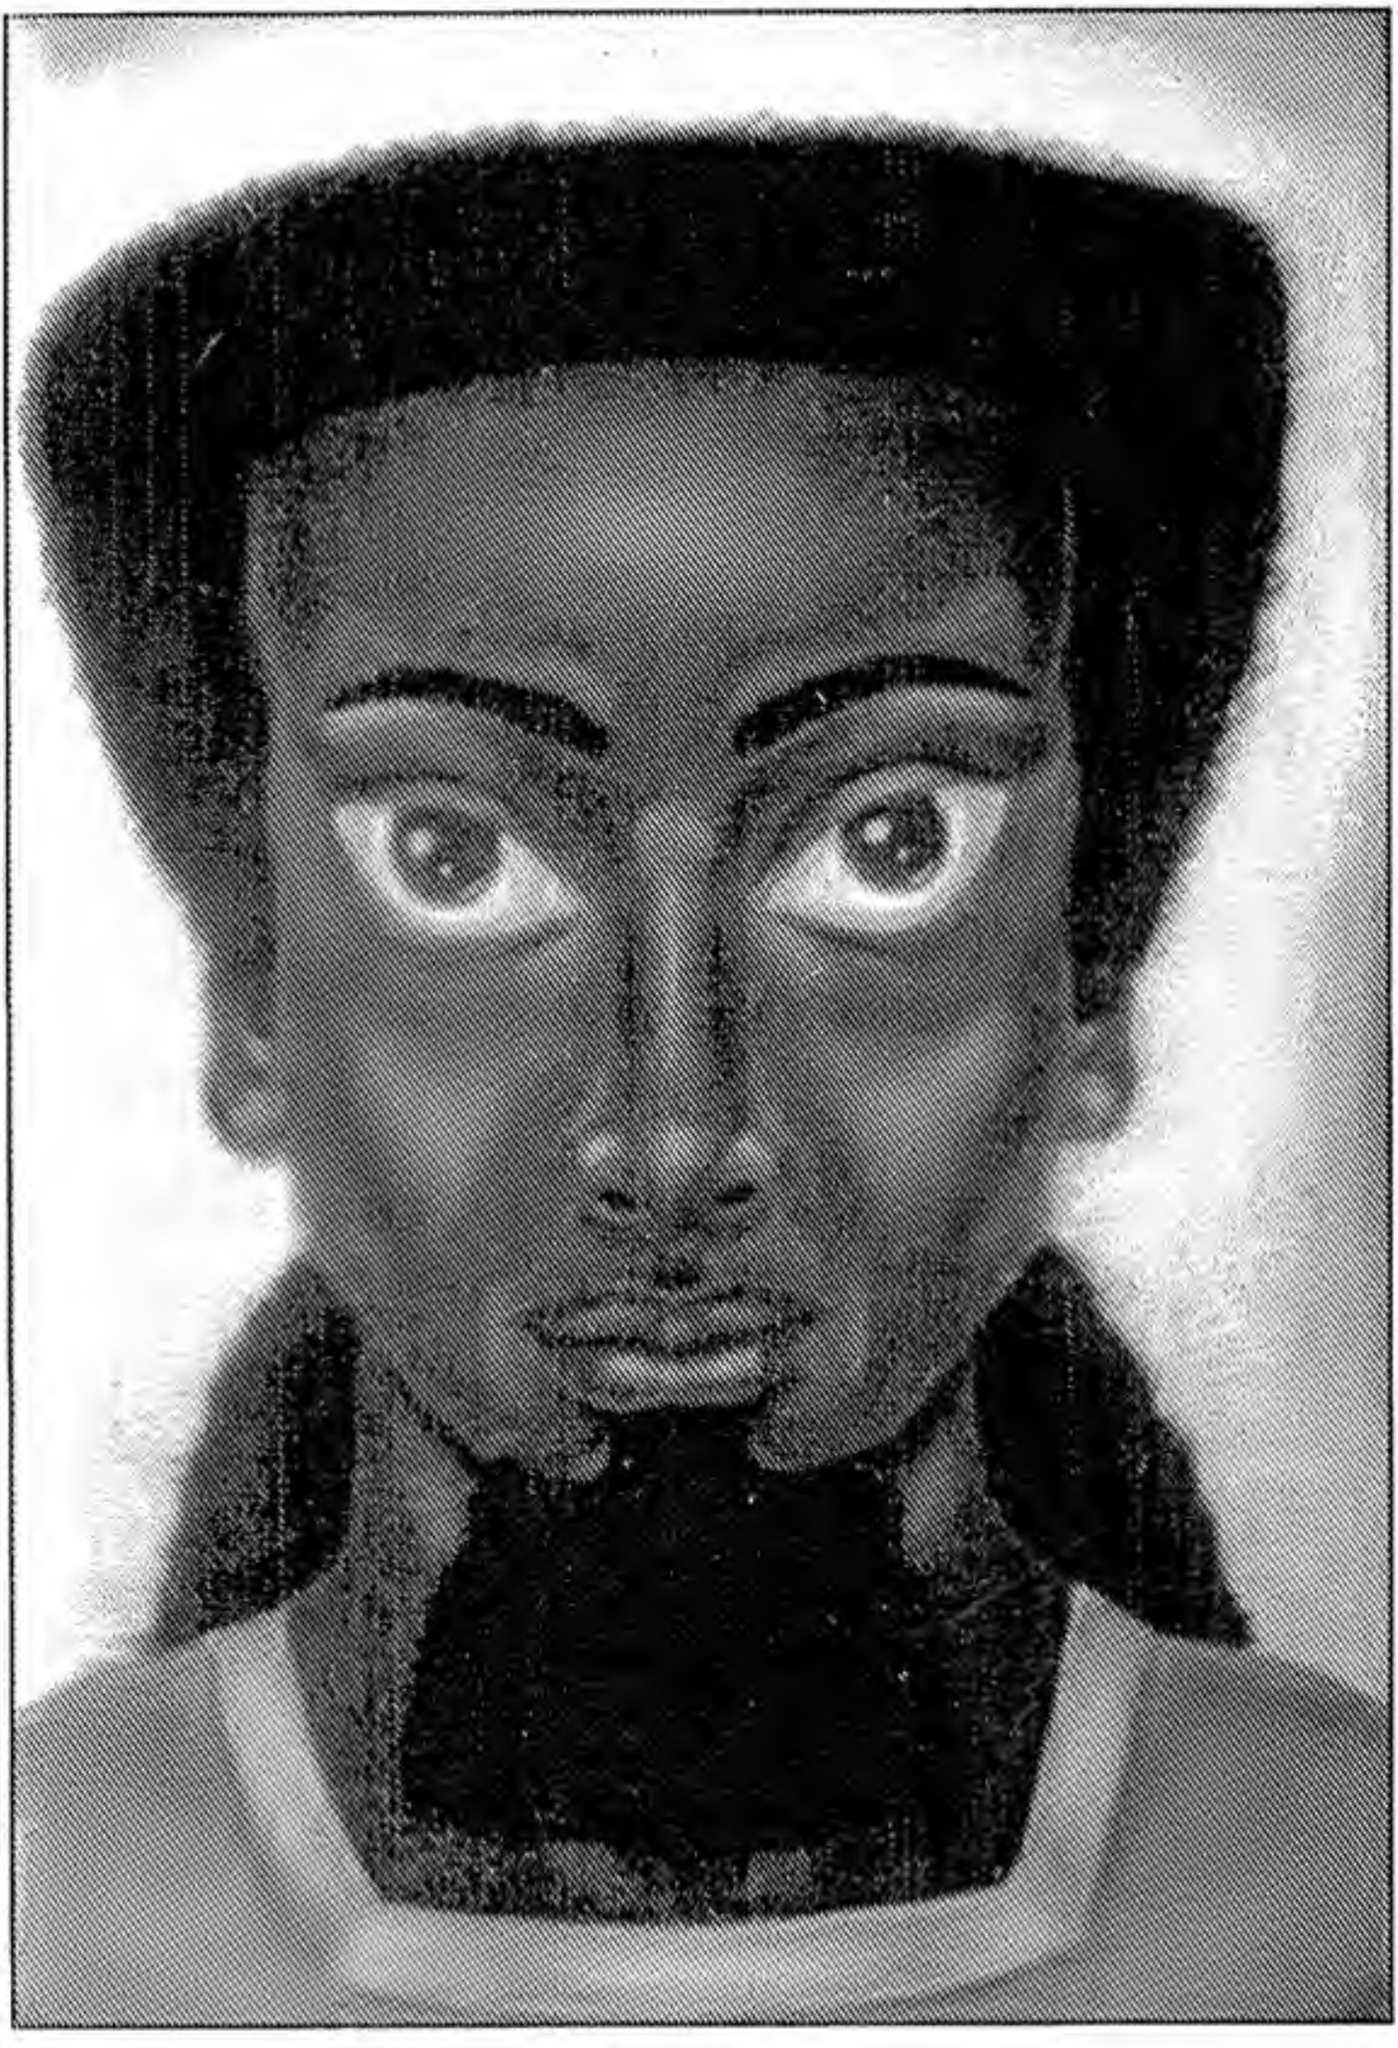

Figure 52
Kalkal Ruler Of The Lower Class

Tablet 1:171 Tablet 1:188

The Ruler Enlil.

171 Once Nusqu and Kalkal could no longer take the things that Enqi, was doing, they moved on; ship after ship until they found open plains in the Sinai Peninsula.

172 There they landed and proceeded further north to set up seven cities: They were called: 1. Tilmun, 2. Salaam, 3. Mu, 4. Lumeria, 5. Qodesh, 6. Nippur/Niffur - The Second City and 7. Ashkolan/Alkebu-Lan.

173 The city Nippur was also called Nibruki, and it was ruled by Enlil. It was the most important city and considered the "navel of the earth."

174 This is where he built the Dirga "sacred chamber" where he kept the Tablets Of All, the Akasha Records, and the Duranki "bond of heaven and earth."

175 The Duranki was a communication satellite station built to be used as a bond between the Anunnagi living on the planet Qi "Earth" and those that manned the Craft Nibiru, the Igigi.

176 He also built a place called Laarsa meaning "seeing the red light" to keep close relationship between the ANUNNAGI and the IGIGI.

177 The IGIGI are the beings that stayed in the skies and manned the craft Nibiru when the ANUNNAGI came down to Qi,
"Earth".

178 The word IGIGI means "those who stayed in the skies", and the Sumerians translate it as "those who see and observe."

179 The IGIGI remained in constant orbit around the planet Tiamat "Earth", acting as intermediaries between Earth and Nibiru.

180 So now we have two separate societies of the Anunnagi on Tiamat, planet Earth; the Democrats who have become Tafugbut "agreeable" and the Republicans who have become Ra'abut "disagreeable" and live in the seven cities 1. Sippar 2. Kish 3. Kutha 4. Shuruppak 5. Uruk 6. Isin 7. Eridu.

181 Enlil set up a Democracy, from the French démocratie, from Late Latin democratia, from Greek demokratia : demos, meaning "people" and a government was set up as their original home on planet Rizq was ruled.

182 Enqi set up a Republic, from the French république, from Old French, from Latin respublica : res, thing; publica, feminine of publicus, meaning "of the people", to repopulate the planet Earth.

183 He told the ANUNNAGI that he would bring their families back together, so that they can rule the planet. Thus, they had the administrators and workers.

184 The people of Enlil wore nose rings in their right nostril, and the people of Enqi wore a gold earring in their right ear.

185 However, the ruler of the groups wore both the nose ring and earrings in the left ear, when there was peace and happiness.

186 The women wore it both in the nose and in both ears. This was past down from generation to generation.

187 The people of Enlil became the Ishmaelite tribe of today and the people of Enqi became the Israelite tribe of today.

188 This created two cast, four groups of people that were to work the actual mines called laborers and three groups that were to work the laboratory, processing all these minerals, logging, charting and managing.

189 So in time, after many years of living on the planet Qi, many problems arose.

190 A revolt was starting in the lower mines amongst the lower class of ANUNNAGI and it was bothering the higher class. The ANUNNAGI were complaining that the work was too hard and tiresome.

Tablet Two
The Revolt
(19 x 8 = 152)

Lo! When the ANUNNAGI, instead of ENOSHITES, did the work and bore the loads, the ANUNNAGI's load was too great for them.

2 The work was too hard, the trouble was too much,

3 The great IGIGI made the ANUNNAGI carry the workload sevenfold,

4 For it was they that maintained and manned the crafts for transport.

5 ANU, their heavenly father was Ruler. ANU is the title. The name was El Eloh as Allah, he as a Sun God and his twin and disagreeable sister was Allat, she as a Moon God. Their counselor warrior was Enlil, Nunamnir, 6 Their chamberlain was Ninurta, their canal-controller was Enungi also spelled Ennungi.

7 They took the box of 13 lots and cast lots; the ANUNNAGI made the division.

8 ANU went up to the ship Nibiru, which was hovering in the sky, above;

9 And Enlil, Nunamnir the just ruler for his people, took the Earth from his brother Enqi, Nudimmud, and became the God or Allah of the Heaven and the Earth, called the Light, Afsu, the Sun. The name Allah is from the Cuneiform Elu, which was to become Eli and Eloh. This Allah of ANU appointed another Allah. Enlil who appointed another Allah, Tammuz, his great grandson, being the son of his grand daughter Ishtar and Dummuzi, the youngest son of Enqi. Tammuz became known as Yahweh, and Allah, the light of the Heavens and the Earth, the first or one God over the Earth, and those Enoshites on it. He who has a perfect nature to be the God of the Enoshites, knowing good from evil.

10 The sea was assigned to far-sighted Enqi, Nudimmud. He was given the ability to see long distance at a glance.

11 When ANU had gone up to the ship Nibiru in the sky and the ANUNNAGI of the Aghaarta, the inner world, had gone below, above became Heaven and below became Hell to the Anunnagi and their clones.

12 The IGIGI of the sky made the ANUNNAGI bear the workload.

13 The ANUNNAGI had to dig out canals, they had to clear channels, using the crafts to bore tunnels to the inner world.

14 The ANUNNAGI dug out the Idiglat, Tigris river.

15 And then dug out the Furattu, Euphrates for there was much gold to be mined in the deep,

16 And a land called Eridu that they set up after coming from the domain Aghaarta, the inner world, to mine the gold of the land and to dwell inside it.

17 Ubaid,"" the temple of respect was first raised to its top, so that its illustriousness could be seen and stand out, of all the mountains.

18 They were counting the shars of loads of gold, that was being transported from the great marsh.

19 They were counting the shars of loads for 3,600 years, their original orbit, one shar.

20 They bore the excess, hard work, shadow hours and daylight.

21 They groaned and blamed each other, grumbled over the masses of excavated soil:

22 "Let us confront Ninurta, our chamberlain, and get him to relieve us of our hard work!

23 Come, let us carry Enlil, Nunamnir, the counselor of ANUNNAGI, the warrior, from his dwelling."

24 Then Kalkal made his voice heard and spoke to the ANUNNAGI and ANAQITES his brothers, 25 "Come let us carry Nunamnir, the counselor of Anunnagi, the warrior, from his dwelling.

26 Now, cry battle! Let us mix fight with battle!"

27 The ANUNNAGI listened to his speech, and set fire to their tools, 28 Put aside their spades for fire, and their loads for Shamash, they flared up.

29 When they reached the gate of the warrior Nunamnir's dwelling,

30 It was shadow hour, the middle watch, the house was surrounded, the ANUNNAGI had not realized it was shadow hour.

31 The middle watch, Ekur, the temple in which the house of Nunamnir, known on Qi as Enlil was surrounded, and he had not realized it.

32 Yet Kalkal was attentive, and had it closed, he held the lock and watched the gate.

33 Kalkal roused Nusku. They listened to the noise of the ANUNNAGI.

34 Then Nusku roused his master, and summoned him to get out of bed:

35 My Sultan, Master, your house is surrounded, a rebel is running around your door!"

36 Nunamnir had weapons brought to his dwelling.

37 Nunamnir made his voice heard and spoke to the chief Nusku who bore the title Gabriy'El saying:

38 "Nusku, bar your door take up your weapons and stand in front of me.'

39 Nusku barred his door, took up his weapons and stood in front of Nunamnir."

40 Nusku made his voice heard and spoke to the warrior Nunamnir, 41 "O Nunamnir my ruler, your face is frowning like you have tasted of the date root of tamarisk!

42 Why do you fear your own sons? Send for ANU to be brought down to you and have Nudimmud fetched into your presence."

43 Enlil sent for ANU to be brought down to him, Enqi was fetched into his presence.

44 ANU, Ruler of the Sky was present. Enqi, sentenced in Aghaarta, the inner world, attended.

45 The great ANUNNAGI were present.

46 Nunamnir got up, and the case was.

47 Nunamnir made his voice heard and spoke to the great ANUNNAGI, 'Is it against me that they have risen?

48 Shall I do battle with them all? What did I see with my own eyes?

49 A rebel was running around my door!"

Tablet 2:50

50 ANU made his voice heard and spoke to the warrior Nunamnir, "Let Nusku go out and hear the words of the ANUNNAGI who have surrounded your door."

51 A command was sent to the just Nunamnir who made his voice heard and spoke to the chief Nusku, 52 "Nusku, open your door, take up your weapons and stand before me in the assembly of all the ANUNNAGI!

53 Bow, then stand and tell them, your father ANU, El Eloh, your counselor Nunamnir, your chamberlain Ninurta and he who is your water canal-controller Enungi have sent me to say,

54 Who is in charge of the rebellion? Who is in charge of the fighting? Who declared war? Who ran to the door of Nunamnir?"

55 Nusku opened his door, took up his weapons, went before Nunamnir in the assembly of all the ANUNNAGI.

56 He bowed, then stood in Taful and told the message.

57 Nudimmud said "Every single one of us ANUNNAGI declared war!

58 We have put a stop to the digging. The load is excessive, it is killing us! Our work is too hard, the trouble is too much! So every single one of us ANUNNAGI have agreed to complain to Nunamnir."

59 Nusku took his weapons, went and returned to Nunamnir.

60 Nunamnir listened to that speech. His tears flowed.

61 Nudimmud spoke guardedly. He addressed the warrior Enlil, O Nayya, "noble one",

62 "Take a decree with you to the sky. Show your strength while the Anunnagi are sitting before you.

Tablet 2:74

63 Call up one ANUNNAGI and let them cast him for destruction!"

64 El Eloh as ANU made his voice heard and spoke to the ANUNNAGI his brothers, "What are we complaining of?" This is for the youth I will take my leave and return to Nibiru. The decision I leave in your hands, but make it right."

65 When his craft had departed, the Aluhum began to reassert their personal feelings concerning the workers. It was said their work was indeed too hard, their trouble was too much.

66 Every day the Earth resounded, all those on Earth called out. The warning signal was loud enough, and we kept hearing the noise of the cries.

67 While the ANUNNAGI are sitting before you, and while Belet-illi also known as Ninhursag, Ninmah, and Ninti, the womb-deity is present. She gave the Adamite the gift of pro-creation.

68 Call up one and cast him for destruction!'

69 Enqi made his voice heard and spoke to the Aluhum his brothers, in the absence of ANU.

70 "Why are we blaming them?

71 Their work was too hard, their trouble was too much.

72 Belet-Illi, Ninti, the Mistress of the Sky is present, let her create a mortal Adamite so that he may bear the yoke, the work of Nudimmud.

73 Let Enoshites bear the load of the ANUNNAGI! 'Belet-illi, Ninti the Mistress of the Sky, let us create offspring of the Adamites and let the Enoshites bear the load of the ANUNNAGI!"

74 Ninti made her voice heard and

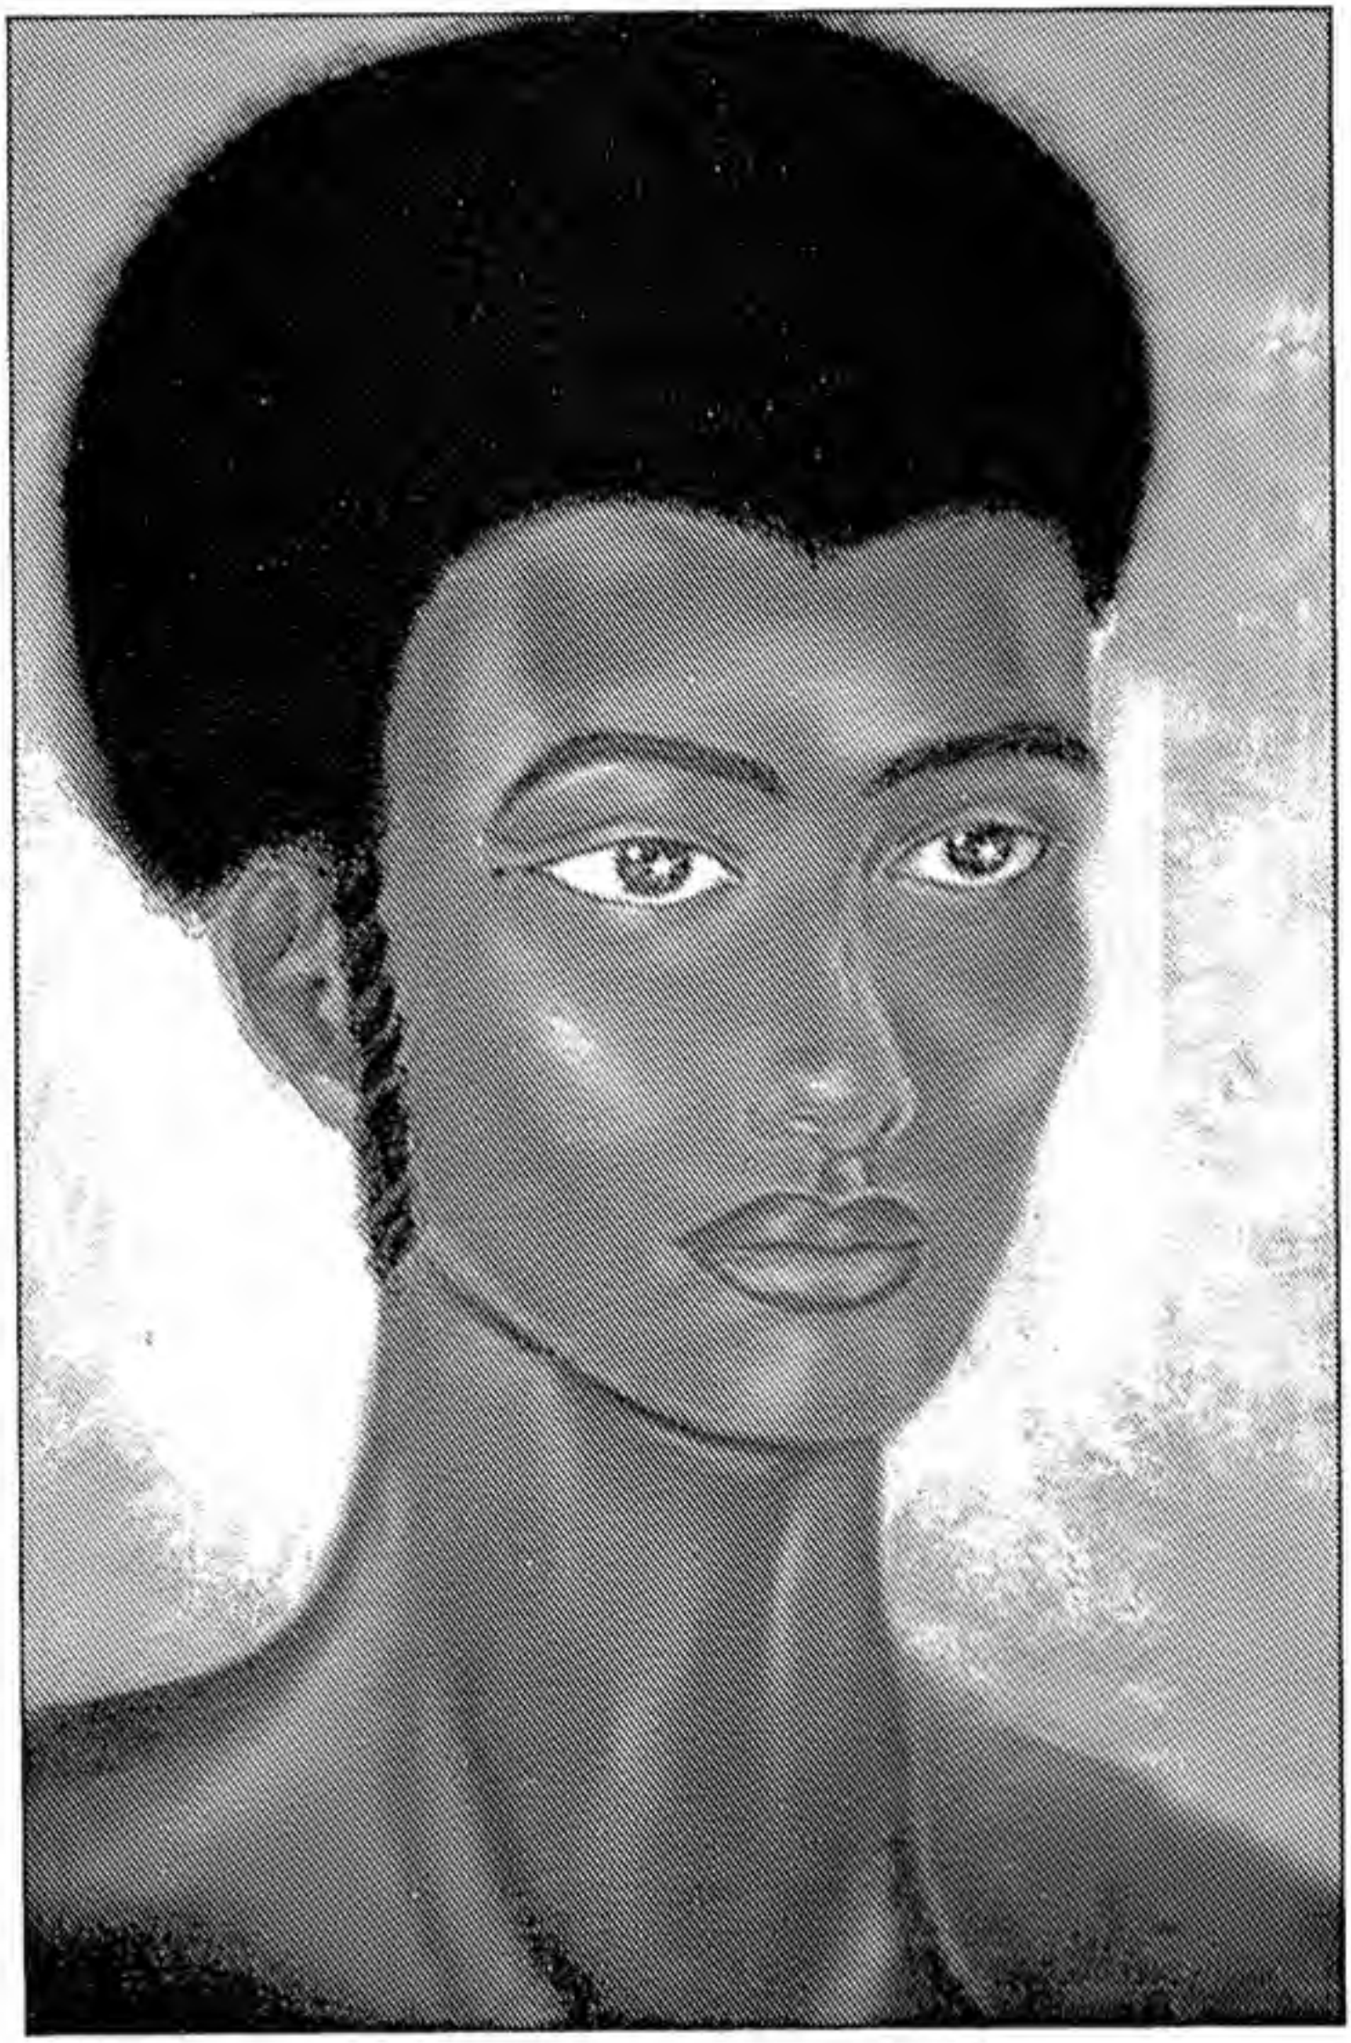

Figure 54
Mother Ninti, The Great Scientist

spoke to the great ANUNNAGI, "It is not proper for me to make Admu, or Adurus or Adiuru. The Chaldeans called this man, Adam, whom the Earth produced. He lays without movement, without life, and without breath, just like an image of the Adam that was created on Malakut, until his soul had been given to the physical Adam. According to Jewish tradition in the Targumim and the Talmud, as also to Moses Maimonides, Adam was created man and woman at the same time, a hermaphrodite.

75 The work is Nudimmud's; he makes everything pure! If he gives me clay, and test tubes of genes, then I will do it, I will start the cloning."

76 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to the great ANUNNAGI, "On the first, seventh, and fifteenth of the month I shall make a purification by washing.

77 Then one ANUNNAGI, named GISHTU/GESHTUE should be slaughtered, for a willing sacrifice, who was willing to give his life for the life of other men, that they may be saved, and let the egg of the ape woman, a Homo Erectus be mixed with the ANUNNAGI. Let them be purified by immersion, to become a single person.

78 Ninti shall mix the Tiit "that which is with life, clay" with his Shiru "to bind, that which binds, flesh" and his blood. And to obtain the Teema "that which makes a person what he is and different from any one else, personality", from the blood. Today it is called "Gene" an extract from the Shiru, the Kisru "semen" simply Sea-Men, or Men of the Sea, as a tadpole coming from a non-ANUNNAGI male's member. This was clone 1, of 16.

79 Then an ANUNNAGI and a Adamite will be mixed together in clay. This Anunnagi is Mother Ninti, and this Adamite of the Adama project named Adiuru, now he is a Homo Sapien now, who was once a Homo Erectus, thus they are ready for the making and the creating of Kadmon.

80 Let us hear the drumbeat forever after, let an Etherian like wind "Rooakh" come into existence from the ANUNNAGI's flesh,

81 Let her proclaim it as his living sign, and let the Etherians who are a rooakh exist so as not to forget the slain ANUNNAGI, Geshtue."

82 They answered "Yes!" in the assembly, the great ANUNNAGI who assigned the fates, the 24 Elders. Ninmah also known as Ninti says to Enqi: "On the form of man, good or bad, I will decree a fate that is good or bad, as I feel I like it, "the gift of will."

83 Enqi answers Ninmah: "The fate that comes to you, whether it is good or bad I will counter."

84 Ninmah took the clay that covers the Abzu.

85 The first one she made into a man who when reaching could not bend his rigid hands, which resulted in the disease called arthritis, where brittle bones comes from.

86 Enqi, seeing the first man, who when reaching could not bend his rigid hands decreed fate for him, named him a servant of the king.

87 The second one she made into a man who could see, though blind.

88 Enqi seeing this man, decreed his fate, and gave him the art of song, named him chief of the usumgal-lyre,

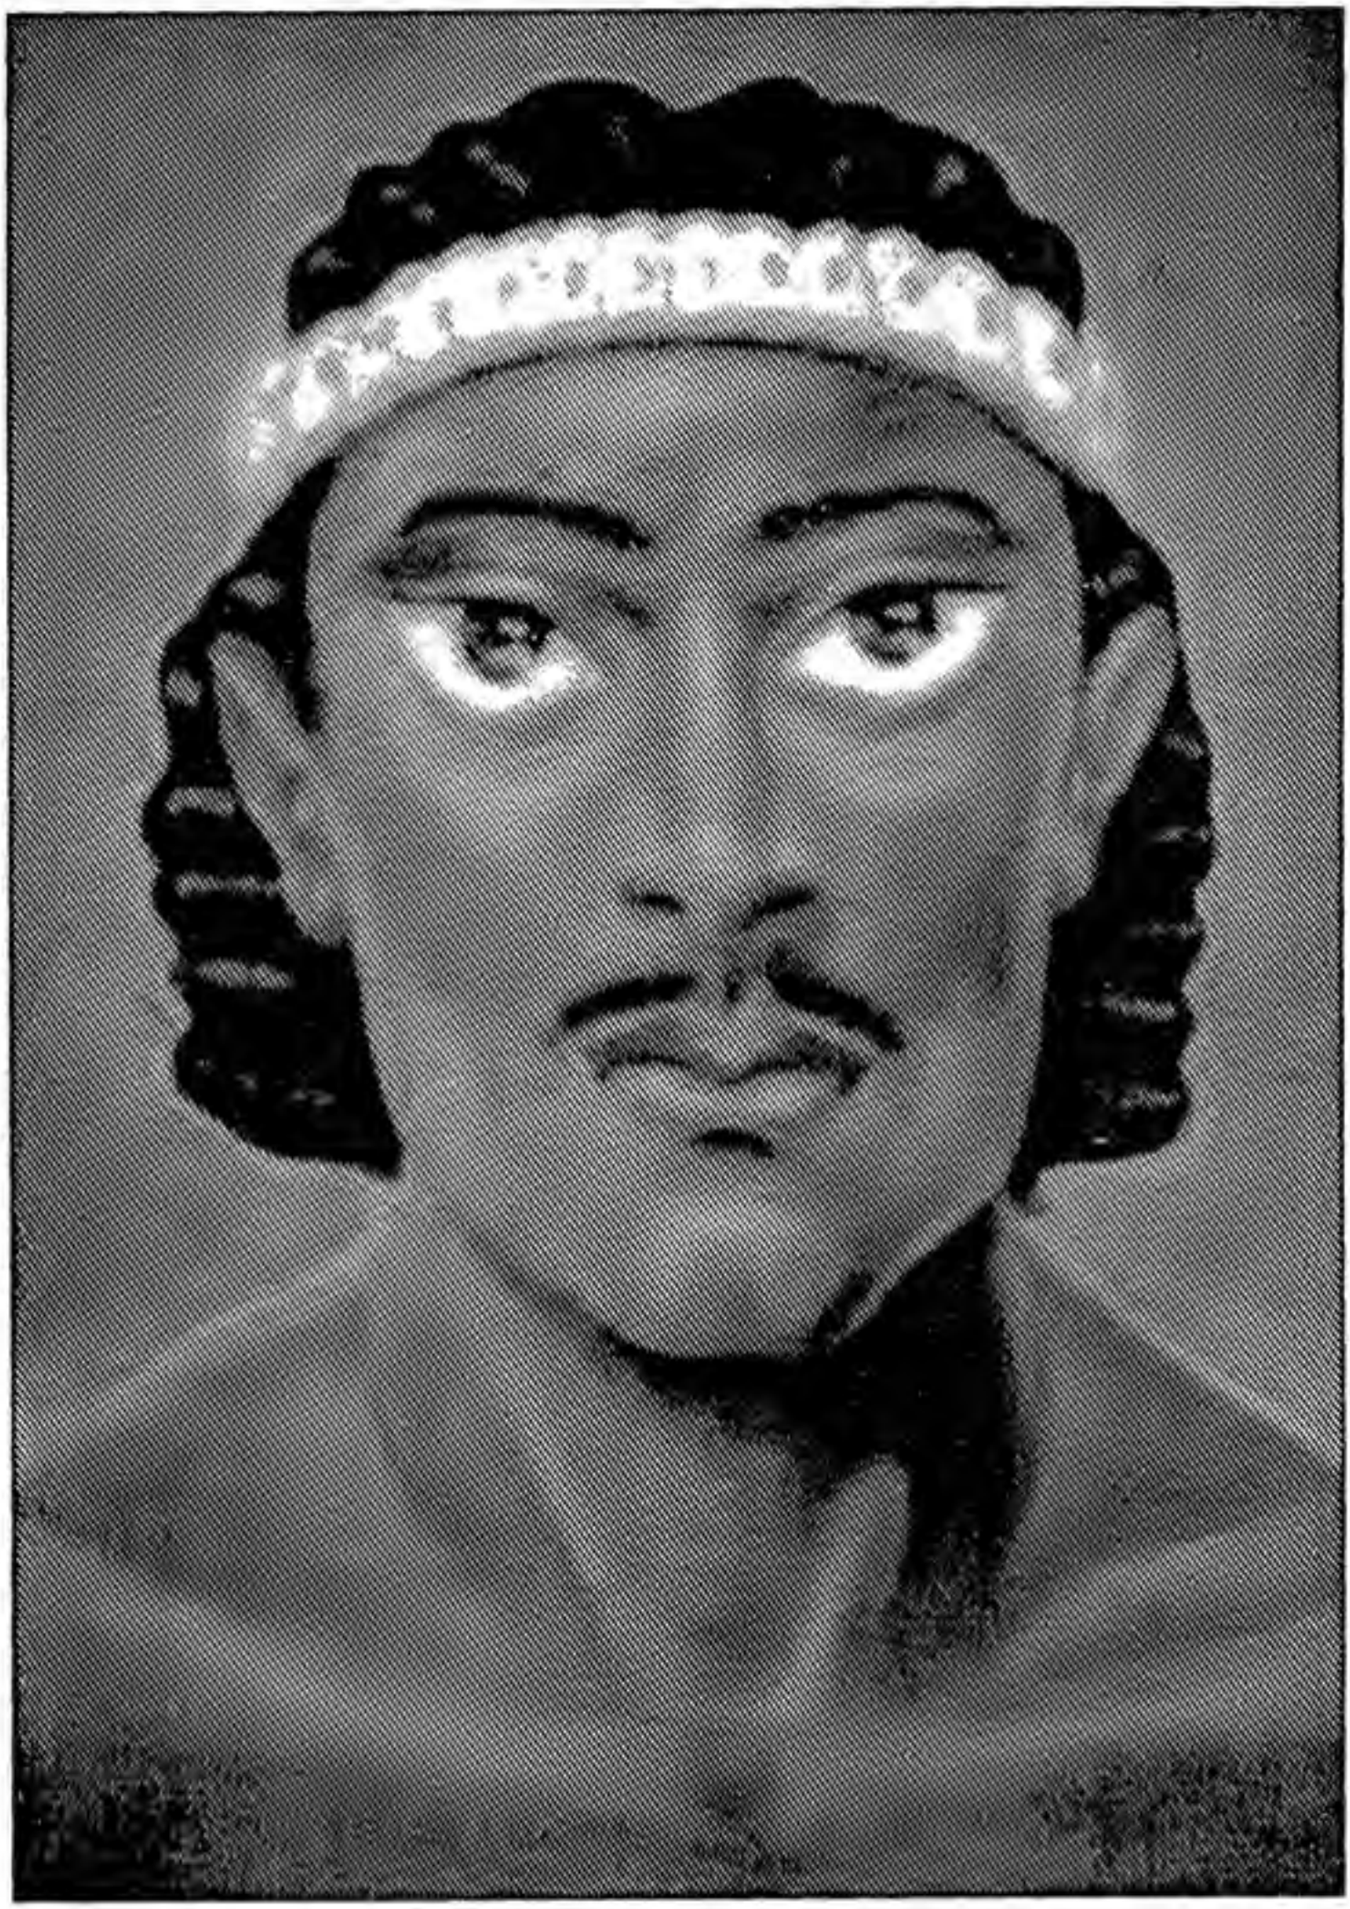

Figure 55
Geshtue, The Anunnagi Slain For The Birth Of The Lulu Amelu

"dragon lyre" before the king. This defect produced

Stigmatism in the human today.

89 The third she made into a man with paralyzed feet. This defect produced Paralysis.

90 Enqi, seeing the man with paralyzed feet, gave him his melam, "terrifying glance, radiance" like a silver bowl.

91 The fourth she made into a man who kept dripping semen. This defect produced the disease Spermatorrhea.

92 Enqi, seeing the man who kept dripping semen, and he bathed him with "incantation" water, of the holy sumer.

93 The fifth she made into a woman who could not give birth. This defect produced Sterility.

94 Enqi, seeing the woman who could not give birth, decreed a fate for her, and he built her a harem. This was the beginning of Adoptions.

95 The sixth she made into something without a phallus or a vulva on its body. This defect produced the Caudal Regression.

96 Enqi, seeing something without a phallus or a vulva on his body, to serve the one Enlil had called by name over the great Earth, the ruler decreed his fate. Thus, the beginning of Eunuchs used as servants.

97 Enqi threw the brazier, incense burner to the ground, for no reason, for he was having a tantrum, he acted most deceitfully.

98 Enqi says to Ninmah: "For every one you have formed, I have decreed their fate, and have given them bread.

99 Now I will make some for you and you decree the fate of the newborn!

100 Enqi made a form with a head, eyes, a mouth, ears and in its center a nose.

101 He says to Ninmah: "The phallus-made semen poured into the woman's womb, it had made that woman give birth in her womb, the beginning of Artificial Insemination."

102 Ninmah in anticipation stood by at its birth.

103 That woman brought forth a head with a mouth in its center of it.

104 The second one he made into an Umul, with its head sick, it was Hydrocephalic, its brain was deteriorating, which resulted in the disease called Aneurysm, and its old body was sick in its place, which produced the disease called Degeneration.

105 Sick was its eyes, sick was its neck, breath at an end, ribs shaky, lungs sick, heart sick, bowels sick.

106 The hand that supported from his head could not put bread in its mouth, its splintered and caused a suffering spine in pain, 107 Shoulders drooping, feet shaky, it could not walk forward to work the field.

108 Enqi says to Ninmah: "For every one you formed, I decreed its fate, I have given it bread. Now you declare the fate of the one I formed. Give him bread."

109 Ninmah, when she saw Umul, turned to him.

110 She approaches Umul, questions him but he cannot speak.

111 She brought him bread to eat. He can not reach it. He cannot use his hand.

112 Having stood up, he cannot sit down, he cannot lie down, he cannot build a house, he cannot eat bread."

113 Enqi says to Ninmah: "For the man with the rigid hand, I decreed his fate, and gave him bread;

Tablet 2:113

114 For the man who was blind, I decreed his fate, and gave him bread;
115 For the man with paralyzed feet, I decreed his fate, and gave him bread;
116 For the man who kept dripping semen, I decreed his fate, and gave him bread;
117 For the woman who could not give birth, I decreed her fate, and gave her bread;
118 For the one without phallus, penis or vulva, vagina, I decreed the fate, and gave him bread.
119 My sister, now you decree the fate of Umul, give him bread.
120 Ninmah denigrates or attacks verbally, Enqi as one who has paid no heed to what happens in "the land",
121 And accuses him of not coming to her aid,
122 And of even betraying her when, at the command of Enlil, her city was attacked, 123 Her temple destroyed, her son carried off into captivity, so that she fled Enlil's Ekur "Mountain Top" and became a refugee.
124 "See you did not dwell in heaven, you did not dwell on Earth,
125 You did not bring your lifted face, to the land.
126 Your word was not heard in the house built for me.
127 You did not live on the Earth.
128 You betray me in the city built for me:
129 My city attacked, my house destroyed, my son taken captive.
130 Here I am a refugee, one who fled the Ekur.
131 Now I have not freed myself from your hand.

Tablet 2:147

132 Enqi answers Ninmah: "A word comes out of your mouth agreeable, who can alter it?
133 Umul, the crippled old creature of creation, take him off your lap.
134 All has surely looked with favor upon your work.
135 He has given by you an imperfect hand who can oppose him!
136 Take my hand, for worthless is its use take back this hand, put your hand on its mouth."
137 Now may my phallus be acclaimed, may it become a 'wisdom-endower.'
138 "May the Enkum "Your Rulers" and the Ninkum "Noble Ladies" exalt you forever"
139 "O my sister, do you extol my heroic strength? Do you utter songs for me?
140 The deities who hear them will rejoice.
141 The Umul, let him build my house.
142 O father Enqi, sweet is your praise."
143 On the 1st, 7th, and 15th of the month he made a purification by washing.
144 Geshtue, an ANUNNAGI who had intelligence, they slaughtered in their assembly. He was a willing sacrifice.
145 Ninti first washed her hands and then mixed his Shiru, "Flesh" and blood. They heard the drumbeat forever after.
146 A rooakh "soul" came into existence from the ANUNNAGI's flesh, and she, Ninti proclaimed it as his living sign.
147 The rooakh existed so as not to forget Geshtue. After she had mixed that Tiit, "clay", she called up the ANUNNAGI, the great Aluhum.

Tablet 2:147

148 The IGIGI, the great Aluhum, spat spittle upon the clay.

149 Mami, who was also called Ninti and Ninhursag, made her voice heard and spoke to the great ANUNNAGI. 'I have carried out perfectly the work that you ordered of me.

150 You have slaughtered an ANUNNAGI together with his intelligence. I have relieved you of your hard work, I have imposed your load on Humim.

151 You have bestowed noise on Humims. I have undone the fetter and granted freedom."

152 'They listened to this speech of hers, and were freed from anxiety, and kissed her feet: "We used to call you Mami but now your name shall be "mistress of all ANUNNAGI." The giver of Nephish "Spirit".

Lo! Nudimmud and wise Mami, went into the room of fate.

2 The womb-deities were assembled.

3 He trod the clay in her presence; she kept reciting an affirmation, for Nudimmud, staring in her presence, made her recite it.

I am in the love of The All, and all love is in me.. I am a part of The All and The All is a part of me. I can succeed as a part of The All and fail as an individual. I can be all that I wish in The All, as long as my wish is to stay in The All. I am never alone, The All is, I am, The All can, I can, The All does, I do.

4 When she had finished her affirmation, she pinched off 14 pieces of clay,

5 And set 7 pieces on the right, and 7 on the left.

6 Between them she put down a mud brick.

7 She used a reed, opened it up to cut the umbilical cord.

8 She called up the wise and knowledgeable womb-deities, 7 and 7.

9 Seven created males, 7 created females,

10 For the Master of the Sky is creator of the flesh that he bred them two by two, in her presence.

11 Mami made these rules for people: 'in the house of a woman who is giving birth Belet-Illi, wise Mami shall be honored.

12 The midwife will rejoice in the house of the woman who gives birth and when the woman gives birth to the baby, 13 The mother of the baby shall sever herself.

14 A man to a girl and a girl to her bosom. A beard can be seen on a young man's cheek.

15 In gardens and waysides, a wife and her husband choose each other.

16 The womb deities were assembled and Ninti was present.

17 They counted the months, called up the tenth month as the term of fates.

18 When the tenth month came, she slipped in a staff, and opened the womb, and she recited:

Yaa fatuh yaa A'lyun,

Yaa A'lyun Wa Kull Aluhum-Hu, Yaa Fatuh, Ent Fatahta Bi El Faatuh, Wa El

Tablet 3:18

Faatuh Izu Fi El Faatuh Shil Fatuhuk, Yaa Fatuh.

19 Her face was glad and joyful. She covered her head,

20 Performed the midwifery, put on her belt, and said a blessing, Na Atha Kull Fi EL KULUWM "we are all in THE ALL".

21 She made a drawing in flour and put down a mud brick:

22 'I myself have created it, my hands made it, this Nafs Hayyat, "Living Spirit":

23 The midwife shall rejoice in the house of the Qadistu "Holy", priestess.

24 Whenever a woman gives birth and the baby's mother severs herself, 25 The mud brick shall be put down for 9 days.

26 Ninti, the Master of the Sky shall be honored. She shall call their mother "Mami."

27 She shall thank the ruler of the sky ANU, and lay down the linen cloth.

28 When the bed is laid out in their house, a wife and her husband shall choose each other.

29 Ishtar shall rejoice in the wife-husband relationship and in the father-in-law's house.

30 Celebration shall last for nine days, and they shall call Ishtar "Ishhara."

31 On the fifteenth day, the fixed time of fate she shall call him a man.

32 Then clean the house and give the son to his father.

33 Then they sat and rejoiced for she was carrying,

...And The Humankind Is Noisy

34 Then he saw the counselor Nunamnir, the just. They took hold of him,

Tablet 3:50

35 Made new picks and spades, made big canals to feed people and sustain the ANUNNAGI.

36 Six hundred years, less than 600 passes, and the country became too wide, the people too numerous.

37 The country was as noisy as a bellowing bull.

38 The ANUNNAGI grew restless as their racket increased, Nunamnir had to listen to their noise.

39 He addressed the great ANUNNAGI. The noise of humankind has become too much,

40 I am losing sleep over their racket.

41 Give the order that Suruppu "disease shall break out."

42 Now there was one, ATRAHASIS, whose ear was open to his ANUNNAGI Nudimmud.

43 He would speak with his ANUNNAGI and his ANUNNAGI would speak with him.

44 Atrahasis, who is also called Murduk made his voice heard and spoke to his Sultan, Enqi;

45 "How long will the ANUNNAGI make us suffer? Will they make us suffer illness forever?

46 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to his servant:

47 'Call the elders, the senior men! Start an uprising in your own house. Let heralds proclaim your disagreement and let them make a loud noise in the land.

48 Do not revere your ANUNNAGI, do not bow to your deities, but search out the door of Namtara.

49 Bring a baked loaf into his presence. May the flour offering reach him,

50 May he be shamed by the presents and wipe away his "hand."

Tablet 3:51

51 Atrahasis made his voice heard and spoke to the elders.

52 "I have called the ZAGUNAAT "elders", the senior men!" The elders listened to his speech;

53 They built a temple for Namtara, meaning "decider of fate", also called Namtar, deity of the underworld, in the city.

54 Heralds proclaimed his disagreements as they made a loud noise in the land.

55 They did not revere their ANUNNAGI, and nor did they not pray to their deities, 56 But searched out the door of Namtara, brought a baked loaf into his presence.

57 The flour offering reached him, and he was shamed by the presents, and he wiped away his 'hand'.

58 The Suruppu-disease left them, and as the ANUNNAGI went back to their regular offerings.

59 Six hundred years, less than 600 passes.

60 Six hundred years, less than 600 passed and the country became too wide, the people too numerous.

61 The country was as noisy as a bellowing bull.

62 The ANUNNAGI grew restless at their clamor. Nunamnir had to listen to their noise.

63 He addressed the great ANUNNAGI. 'The noise of Adamites has become too much.

64 I am losing sleep over their racket.

65 Cut off food supplies to the people! Let the vegetation be too scant for their hunger! Let Adad wipe away his rain.

66 Below let no flood-water flow from the springs. Let wind go, let it strip the ground bare, let clouds gather, but not drop rain, let the field yield a diminished harvest, let Nissaba stop up her bosom.

Tablet 3:75

67 No happiness shall come to them.

68 Let them be dejected. "Call the Elders, the senior men, start an uprising in your house, let heralds proclaim.

69 Let them make a loud noise in the land: do not revere your ANUNNAGI!

70 Do not bow to your deity! Search out the door of Adad, bring a baked loaf into his presence.

71 May the flour offering reach him, may he be shamed by the presents and wipe away his "hand."

72 Then he shall make a mist form in the morning, and in the shadow hour he shall steal out and make a dew drop, deliver the field of its produce ninefold, like a thief."

73 They built a temple for Adad in the city, and ordered heralds to proclaim and make a loud noise in the land, for he also became a Yahweh as opposed to Tammuz, whom he was in rivalry with. He became known as Baal, and his sons became known as Baalim.

74 So it was written: And it shall be at that day, saith the The Yahweh, that you will call me Ishi, an incarnated into flesh being, a man; for I Baal Hadad shall incarnate as you Tammuz. They shall call me no more Baali. For I will take away the names of Baalim out of there mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

75 Yet, they will seek my name and worship in my name and the name of my children, for they are weak. They are Weh seed, And the children of Israel did a disagreeable act in the sight of the Yahweh, and served Baalim. So they turned from Tammuz to Baal, and even weeped for Tammuz in the house of Yahweh. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

Baal Adad, Son Of Enlil And Ninlil

76 All of the promises of obedience to Tammuz, as the one deity of the heavens, and the earth, called the Yahweh of the Aluhum. Also called The Light of the Heaven and the Earth, for he was found worthy from the Anunnagi, having such great will power inherited from his agreeable Dummuzi, and disagreeable Ishtar parentage, making him in the image and after the likeness of the Enoshites.

77 This "will" born into humans gave them, the power to agree or disagree, accept or reject, respect of disrespect, so they choose to disagree, and it hurt the Aluhum, for they saw that the Adamites who had mixed with the giants and they became disagreeable, selfish and greedy and dishonorable, and that their hearts were turning to rebellion everyday, and Tammuz, the Yahweh of these people, one of the Yahwehans, was sorry that he had even fashioned the Adamites on the planet Earth and he was very displeased in his heart, so he informed with the Aluhum Anunnagi, that he was about to wipe out the Adamites whom they had procreated, of the surface of the ground.

78 For The Adamites They did not revere their ANUNNAGI, and they did not pray to their deities, and they turned away from Tammuz, the Yahweh of the Aluhum and worshipped the disagreeables.

79 But they searched out the door of Adad, Baal Hadad, and brought a baked loaf into his presence.

80 The flour offering reached him; he was shamed by the presents and wiped away his 'hand'.

81 He made mist form in the morning and in the night he stole out and made dew drop.

82 He delivered the field of its produce ninefold, like a thief.

83 The drought left them, the ANUNNAGI went back to their regular offerings.

84 He set his foot in the city; every day he wept and wept.

85 In the morning he would bring incense.

86 Nudimmud would speak to me, but he is under oath,

87 So he shall give instructions in dreams.

88 Go to the house of his creator, then he shall sit and weep.

89 In the evening he shall sit and weep.

90 Then was he hushed and his weeping ended. Then he just looked, and addressed the rooakh, that is the souls of the river.

91 "Let the river receive abundance and take away, let the river flow my way,

92 Let him see me, let him be calm in the shadow hours. I cry when my eyes are facing the river, Furattu on the bank Eridu to Aghaarta, 93 The inner world. I, the great Nudimmud listened to his speech and gave instructions to the Lahmu-heroes.

94 The men who are there behold! Let them come,

95 Let them witness the power from above. Rain did not fill the canals.

96 Below, flood-water did not flow from the springs.

97 Earth's womb did not give birth, no vegetation sprouted.

Tablet 3:98 Tablet 3:133

98 The people did not look for the ungrown pasture land that was bleached.
99 The broad countryside filled up with Alkali, a carbonate or hydroxide of an alkali metal, the aqueous solution of which is bitter, slippery, caustic, and characteristically basic in reactions
.100 In the first year they ate little, but in the second year they depleted the storehouse, living mainly on the manna, that is mushrooms.
101 When the third year came, their looks were changed by starvation, 102 Their faces covered with scabs open like malt.
103 They stayed alive by the gift of life:
104 Their faces looked sallow.
105 They went out in public hunched, their well-set shoulders slouched, 106 Their upstanding bearing bowed.
107 They took a message from Utnafishtim to the ANUNNAGI.
108 In front of the assembly of the great ANUNNAGI.
109 They stood by the orders of Utnafishtim. They repeated in the beginning of the work spirit of 600 years, 110 Less than 600 years passed.
111 The country became too wide,
the people too numerous.
112 He grew restless at their noise.
113 Sleep could not overtake him because of their racket.
114 Nunamnir organized his assembly, addressed the ANUNNAGI his sons, 115 "The noise of Adamites and Enoshites has become too much.
116 I have become restless at their noise.
117 Sleep cannot overtake me because of their racket.
118 Give the order that Suruppu, "disease" shall break out,
119 Let Namtar put an end to their noise straight away!
120 Let sickness: headache, blow into them like a storm.
121 They gave the order, and disease did break out.
122 Namtar put an end to their noise straight away. Sickness and headache blew into them like a storm.
123 The thoughtful man, Utnafistim kept his ear open to his master Nudimmud;
124 He would speak with his ANUNNAGI, and they listened. Nudimmud would speak with him.
125 Utnafishtim made his voice heard and spoke, he said to Nudimmud, his master:
126 "O Nudimmud, people are grumbling! Your sickness is consuming the country!
127 Since you have created us, you ought to cut off sickness and the headache,
128 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke, unto Utnafishtim, 129 "Order the heralds to proclaim, to make a loud noise in the land.
130 Do not revere your ANUNNAGI, do not supplicate to your deities! Sincerely withhold his rites!
131 Let the flour as an offering be brought before him whose hands are raised in her presence and say a supplication before the presence, of him, with his raised hand. Nunamnir, Enlil organized his assembly, addressed the ANUNNAGI his sons:
132 "You are not to inflict disease on them again, 133 Even though the Enoshites have not diminished they are more than before! I have become restless at their noise, 134 Sleep cannot overtake me because of their racket. Cut off food from the people, 135 Let vegetation be too scant for their stomachs!

136 Let Adad on high make his rain scarce, let him block below,
137 And not raise flood-water from the springs! Let the field decrease its yield.
138 Let Nissaba, the daughter of ANU turn away her breast, let the fertile fields become unfertile.
139 Let the broad countryside breed Alkali. Let Earth clamp down her womb so that no vegetation sprouts, no grain grows.
140 Let Asakku, "the group of demons" be inflicted on the people.
141 Let the womb be too tight, to let a baby out!' They cut off food for the people, 142 Vegetation became too scant for their stomachs.
143 Adad on high made his rain scarce, blocked below,
144 And he did not raise flood-water from the springs.
145 The field decreased its yield,
Nissaba turned away her breast,
146 The fertile fields became infertile, the broad countryside bred alkali.
147 Earth clamped down her womb:
148 No vegetation sprouted, no grain grew.
149 The womb was too tight to let a baby out.
150 Nudimmud kept guard over the bolt that bars the sea, together with his Lahmu-heroes.
151 Above, Adad made his rain scarce, blocked below,
152 And did not raise flood-water from the springs.
153 The field decreased its yield,
154 When the second year arrived they had depleted the storehouse.
155 When the third year arrived the people's looks were changed by starvation.
156 When the fourth year arrived their upstanding bearing bowed, their will-set shoulders slouched, people went out in public hunched over.
157 When the fifth year arrived, a daughter would eye her mother coming in.
158 A mother would not even open her door to her daughter.
159 A daughter would watch scales at the sale of her mother.
160 A mother would watch the scales at the sale of her daughter.
161 When the sixth year arrived they served up a daughter for a meal, served up a son for food.
162 When only 1 or 2 households were left, their faces were covered with scabs, raw like malt.
163 People stayed alive by the gift of life. The thoughtful man Utnafishtim kept his ear open to his master Nudimmud.
164 He would speak with his Aluhum, and his Aluhum Nudimmud would speak with him.
165 He left the door of his Aluhum, and put his bed right beside the river.
166 For even the canals were quite silent.
167 Nunamnir was furious with the Igigi, "We, the great ANUNNAGI, all of us, agreed together on a plan.
168 In the absence of ANU, Adad was to guard above, I was to guard the Earth

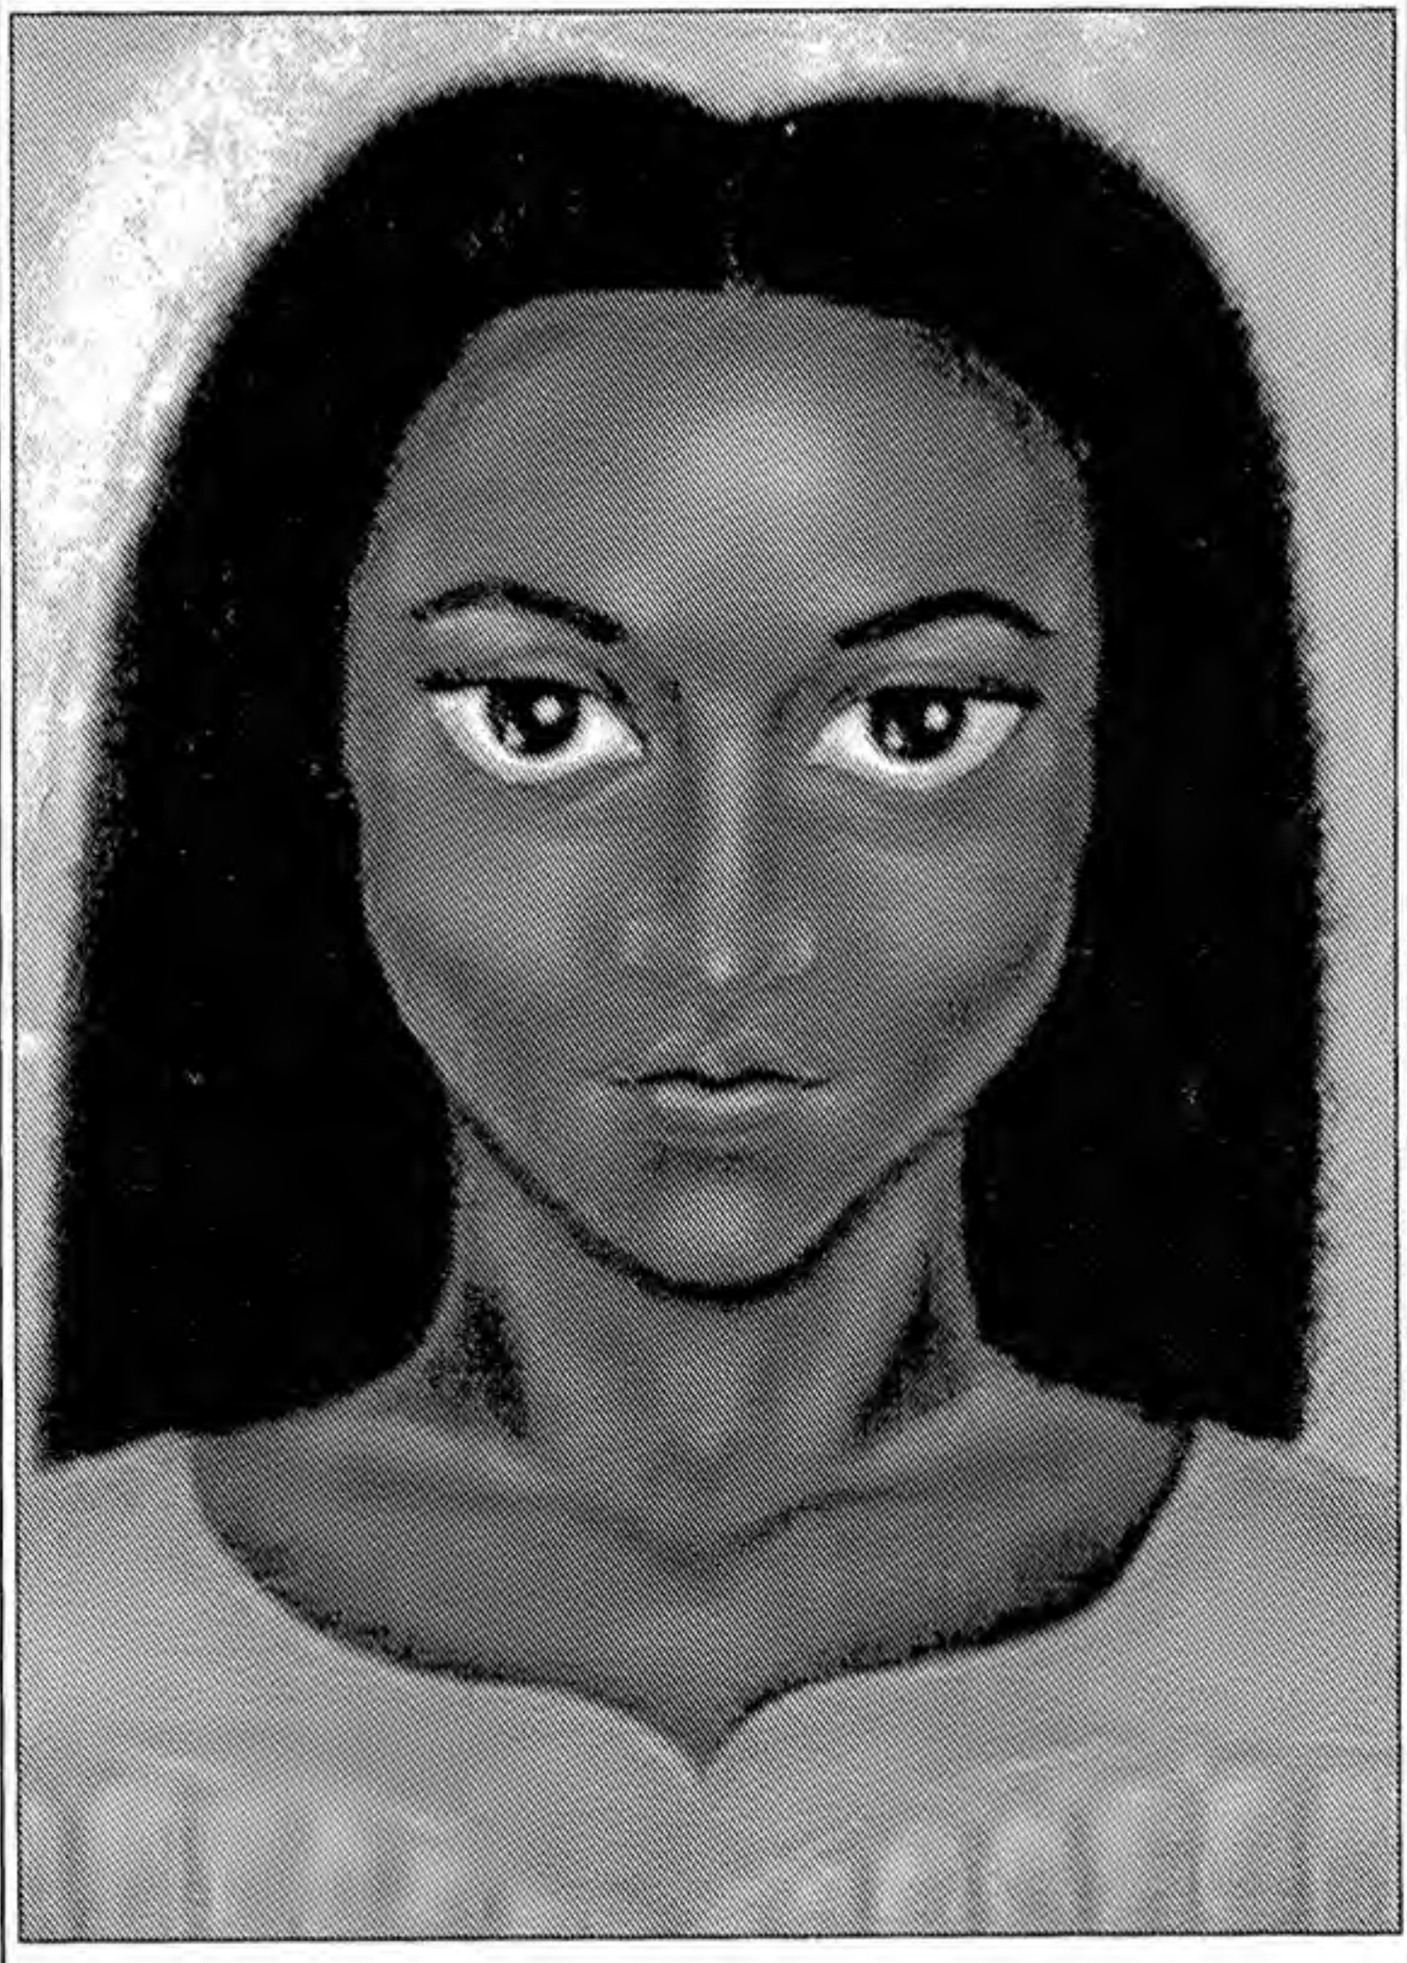

Figure 57
The Anunnaqi Nissaba

below.
169 Where Nudimmud, he was to undo the chain and set us free, he was to release produce for the people.
170 He was to exercise control over all, by holding the balance."
171 Nunamnir made his voice heard and spoke to the chief Nusqu.
172 "Have the 50 crafts of Lahmu-heroes arrived? Yet if so go fetch for me! Have them brought into my presence!"
173 The 50 crafts of Lahmu-heroes were fetched for him. The Lahmu-heroes were hairy beings, a creature created by Ea in the Abzu. They controlled the bolt of the sea and the availability of fish.
174 The warrior Nudimmud addressed them. "We, the great ANUNNAGI, all of us, agreed together on a plan.
175 Adad is to guard above, I, Nudimmud was to guard the Earth below.
176 Where you went, you were to undo the chain and set us free,
177 You were to release produce for the people,
178 You were to exercise control over all by holding the balance Nunamnir.
179 The warrior Nunamnir and Adad came over in clouds and with a veiled voice and said, "Do not feed his people, 180 And do not give Nissaba's corn, or luxury for people, to eat."
181 Nudimmud grew anxious as he sat, in the ANUNNAGI assembly worry gnawed at him.
182 They were furious with each other, Nudimmud and Nunamnir.
183 "You imposed your loads on the Adamites, you have bestowed noise on the Enosites,

Tablet 3:201

184 You slaughtered an ANUNNAGI together with his intelligence, you must go down and create a flood.
185 It is indeed your power that shall be used against your people!
186 You agreed to the wrong plan! Have it reversed!
187 Let us make far-sighted Nudimmud swear to work against the Enosites as an oath."
188 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to his brother the ANUNNAGI.
189 'Why should you make me swear an oath? Why should I use my power against my kind?
190 The flood that you mention to me, what is it? I don't even know! Could I give birth to a flood?
191 That is Nunamnir's kind of work!
192 Then let him choose who he wishes, let Shullat, the servant of the sun deity, and Hanish, servant of the weather deity, march ahead.
193 Let Erakal pull out the mooring poles, let Ninurta march.
194 Let him make the waters overflow.
195 The assembly did not listen to the ANUNNAGI when they gave an explicit command.
196 Nunamnir performed a bad deed to the Enosites.
197 Utnafishtim made his voice heard and he spoke to his master,
198 "Indicate to me the meaning of the dream,
199 And let me find out its portent." Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to his servant,
200 "You say, 'I should find out in bed."
201 Make sure you attend to the message that I shall tell you! Well, listen constantly to me! Reed hut, make sure you attend to all my words!

Tablet 3:201

202 Let me find out what is portent." Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to his servant.
203 Make sure you attend to all my words! Dismantle the house, 204 Build a craft like boat, reject possessions, and save living things.
205 The craft that you build, let it have a roof on it, like Aghaarta, 206 The inner world, so that the sun cannot see inside it! Make upper decks and lower decks.
207 The tackle must be very strong, the bitumen strong, to give strength.
208 I shall make rain fall on you here, a wealth of birds, a hamper of fish."
209 He opened the sand clock and filled it. He told him the sand needed for the flood was seven nights worth.
210 Utnafishtim received the message.
211 He gathered the elders at his door.
212 Utnafishtim made his voice heard and spoke to the elders.
213 "My deity is out of favor with you and with your deity.
214 Nudimmud and Nunamnir have become angry with each other.
215 They have driven me out of mine own house.
216 Since I always stand in awe of Nudimmud, he told me of this matter.
217 I can no longer stay in this place. I cannot set my foot on Nunamnir's territory again.
218 I must go down to the Aghaarta, the inner world and stay with my creator.
219 This is what he told me.
220 The Elders, the builder, and the carpenter brought his axe,
221 The reed worker brought his stone,

Tablet 3:235

a child brought bitumen, which is a various flammable mixtures of hydrocarbons and other substances, occurring naturally or obtained by distillation from coal or petroleum, that are a component of asphalt and tar and they are to be used for surfacing roads and for waterproofing.
222 The poor fetch what they needed.
223 Everything there was indeed pure,
224 The fat ones that hath been selected, and put on board, the birds that fly in the sky,
225 Cattle of Shakkan, also called Shahhan the deity of cattle and herdsmen, and wild animals beast of the open country.
226 He gathered and he put on board the craft, he also invited his people to a feast.
227 He has put his family on board. They were eating, and they were drinking.
228 But he went in and out. He could not stay still or rest on his haunches.
229 His heart was breaking and he was vomiting bile. The face of the weather changed Adad who bellowed from the clouds.
230 When he, Utnafishtim heard his noise, Bitumen was brought and he sealed his door.
231 While he was closing up his door, Adad kept bellowing from the clouds.
232 The winds were raging, even as he went up and cut through the rope, he released the craft.
233 Anzu was tearing at the sky with his talons, which the claw of a bird of prey.
234 Over the land, he broke the seal and the flood came out.
235 The kasusu weapon, which is a destructive weapon used by various deities, went against the people like an army.

Tablet 3:253

236 No one could see anyone else, they could not be recognized in the catastrophe.

237 The flood roared like a bull, like a wild ass screaming and the winds howled.

238 The darkness was total, there was no sun.

239 The clouds were like white sheep, and the waters of the flood.

240 ANU became angry for all that had been done in his absence and without his command. The ANUNNAGI and his sons before him, as for Ninti the great mistress, her lips became encrusted with rime.

241 The great Aluhum, the ANUNNAGI, stayed parched and famished.

242 The deity ANU watched and wept. The midwife of the ANUNNAGI, wise Mami said:

243 "Let daylight be. Let it return and stop! However could I, in the assembly of ANUNNAGI, have ordered such destruction with them?

244 Nunamnir was strong enough to give a wicked order.

245 Like Tiruru he ought to have canceled that wicked order!

246 I hear their cry leveled at me, against myself, against my being.

247 Beyond mine control mine offspring have become like scared sheep.

248 As for me, how can I live in a house off of bereavement?

249 My noise has turned to silence.

250 Could I go away, up to the Sky, and live as in a cloister?

251 What was ANU'S intention, he

Tablet 3:270

being the decision maker?

252 It was his command that the ANUNNAGI, his sons disobeyed,

253 He who did not deliberate, but sent the flood.

254 He who gather, the Enosites to catastrophe. The noble Ninti was wailing:

255 "Why this, would a true father have given birth to the rolling sea, so that they could clog the river like dragonflies?

256 They are washed up like a raft on a bank,

257 They are washed up like a raft on a bank in open country!

258 I have seen, and wept over them! Shall I ever finish weeping for them?'

259 She wept, she gave vent to her feelings, Ninti wept and fueled her passions.

260 The ANUNNAGI wept with her for the country.

261 She was satiated with grief, she longed for a drink of beer in vain.

262 Where she sat weeping, there the great ANUNNAGI sat also, 263 But, like sheep, they could only fill their windpipes with bleating.

264 Thirsty as they were, their lips discharged only the rime of famine.

265 For 7 days and 7 shadow hours,

267 The torrent, storm and flood came on.

268 ANU put down his rule, provided food for the ANUNNAGI smelling the fragrance, they gathered like flies over the offering.

269 When they had eaten the offering, Ninti got up and blamed them all.

270 Whoever made decisions from himself over ANU, who makes the decisions?

Tablet 3:271

271 Did Nunamnir dare to come for the smoke offering, which ANU had gathered for us?

272 Those 2 who did not deliberate, but sent the flood, gathered the Enosites to catastrophe, you agreed to the destruction.

273 Now their impure faces are pure forever.

274 Then she went up to the big flies, Scarab beetles, which ANU had made, 275 And declared before the ANUNNAGI.

276 His grief is mine! My destiny goes with his! He must deliver me from evil, 277 And appease me! Let me go out in the morning and all be gone.

278 Let these Scarab beetles, be the Lapis Lazuli, which is an opaque to translucent blue, violet-blue, or greenish-blue semiprecious gemstone composed mainly of lazurite and calcite, be the color of mine necklace, by which I may remember it daily forever.

279 The warrior Nunamnir spotted the craft and was furious with the IGIGI.

280 "We, the great ANUNNAGI all of us, agreed together on an oath! No form of life should have escaped!

281 How did any Enoshite survive the catastrophe?"

282 ANU made his voice heard and spoke to the warrior Nunamnir:

283 "Who but Nudimmud would do this? He made sure that the reed hut disclosed the order."

284 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to the great Aluhum.

285 'I did it, in defiance of you! I made sure life was preserved.

286 Extract your punishment from the sinner.

Tablet 3:304

287 That is, whoever contradicts your order.

288 I hath given vent to my feelings!"

289 Nunamnir made his voice heard and spoke to far-sighted Nudimmud.

290 "Come, summon Ninti the Master of the Sky! Confer with each other in the assembly."

291 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke to the womb-deity Ninti.

292 "You are the Master of the Sky who decrees destinies.

293 Deity to the people.

294 Let 1/3rd of them be saved and refill the earth, and in addition let there be one-third of the Enosites, 295 Among the Enosites the woman who gives birth, yet does not give birth successfully.

296 Let there be the Pasittu demon, she who erases, among the Enosites, 297 To snatch the baby from its mother's lap.

298 Establish Ubabtu, Entu, Egistu-women; they shall be taboo, prohibited, and thus we shall control childbirth.

299 How we sent the flood.

300 But an Enoshite, descendant of an Adamite survived the catastrophe.

301 You are the counselor of the ANUNNAGI;

302 On your orders I created conflict. Let the IGIGI listen to this song in order to praise you, 303 And let them record your greatness.

304 I shall sing of the flood to all Enoshites. Listen!"

Tablet Four
Adam: A Slave Made To Order
(19 x 10 = 190)

Lo! My child you ask, why did we fashion you to be slaves? Why are you a slave made to order? First, know that all of you are Adamah "of the ground."

2 Know that we created you, the "Adam", for the purpose of helping your species.

3 After the crash of your planet your species were becoming extinct, so we had recounseled, and we said amongst ourselves without the permission of ANU "Let us make Adamites in our very own image being in our likeness in all ways, being able to reproduce on their own."

4 However, all did not go well with this plan.

5 The ANUNNAGI, Aluhum of the mines were complaining that their jobs in the mines were too hard, so they decided amongst themselves without the permission of ANU, The Most High to create you for the purpose of doing their work. This was the Adama project.

6 There was no Adam to till the land.

7 These are two important and unsettling hints to who had created humims and why.

8 You must Know the truth and it shall make you free.

9 This truth is that the back breaking work in the gold mines, in Raphali, had become unbearable.

10 Enlil, their commander in-chief, summoned the ruler of Nibiru, his father ANU, 11 To an assembly of the great ANUNNAGI and demanded harsh punishment of his rebellious crew.

12 But ANU was more overstanding.

13 "What are we accusing them of?" He asked as he heard the complaints of the mutineers.

14 Their work was heavy, and their distress was much!

15 Was there no other way to obtain the gold, he wondered out loud.

16 "Yes, said his other son Enqi, Enlil's half brother and rival,

17 The brilliant chief scientist of the ANUNNAGI.

18 I saw that it was possible to relieve the ANUNNAGI of the unbearable toil by having someone else take over the difficult work:

19 I resolve to let a Primitive worker be created!" The idea appealed to the assembled ANUNNAGI.

20 The more they discussed it, the more clear their clamor grew for such a Primitive worker.

21 An Adamu, to take over the work load.

22 But, they wondered, how can you create a being intelligent enough to use tools and to follow orders?

23 How was the creation or bringing forth, of the Primitive worker to be achieved?

24 Was it, indeed, a feasible undertaking? Enqi answered saying:

25 "The creature whose name you uttered, It exists!

26 All you have to do, he added, is to bind upon it the image of the ANUNNAGI."

27 The ANUNNAGI did not create humans from nothing.

28 The being was already there, on Gaia, Earth, the product of evolution, Homo Erectus.

29 All that was needed to upgrade i to the required level of ability was intelligence, is Naphish Khayyim "divine life".

30 To bind upon it the image of the ANUNNAGI, the image of the Aluhum themselves.

31 The process envisioned by Enqi was to bind upon the existing creature the image, the inner, genetic make up of the ANUNNAGI.

32 He wanted to take the Homo Erectus monkey and breed it with the DNA of the ANUNNAGI (Gods). This first endeavor was undertaken without the permission or approval of the Most High A'LYUN A'LYUN EL ANU, because that would be interfering with the ecology of the Planet Earth, the chain of life, evolution, and mutation, where each living thing plays its part in keeping the environment balanced. Every living thing on and in the Planet Earth and its seas are one, depending on each other for existence. To pull out just one form of life and alter the system by upgrading or downgrading, would throw everything off. Stepping into a chain of events, selecting one breed of creatures from the rest would disrupt the natural system of things. This ANU knew.

33 Yet, the assembly of all the ANUNNAGI resolved amongst themselves to proceed with the project. Enlil stated that these Lulus were to be created asexual, or hermaphrodites, however Enqi disagreed. He felt that the Lulus should be given total control of their reproductive organs, so that they can reproduce on their own. This is what ANU didn't approve of. ANU was against unruly activity, uncontrolled sex. Enqi took his thoughts to the ANUNNAGI Ninti, where upon she also agreed to breed the Lulus with their own reproductive organs so that they wouldn't have to keep cloning and engineering. They proceeded on with their project without informing ANU. This they did without the permission of ANU.

34 Enqi assigned the task to Ninti, their chief medical officer, who was under the impression that ANU had approved this project.

35 They summoned and asked Ninti, the midwife of the ANUNNAGI, the wise birth giver, saying:

36 "To a creature give life, create workers!

37 Create a Primitive worker, that he may bear the yoke!"

38 This process took place in the laboratory Shimti, meaning "house where the wind of life is breathed in."

39 After the purifying and extracting procedures were completed,

40 The ANUNNAGI Aluhum who purifies the Napishtu, Enqi, spoke up.

41 Seated before her, Ninti, he was prompting her.

42 After she had recited her affirmation, she put her hand to the clay.

43 The mixing of the clay with all the component extracts and essences was not yet the end of the procedure.

44 The egg of the Apewoman, was fertilized in the purifying baths with the sperm and genes of the seven young ANUNNAGI, Aluhum, was then deposited in a mold, where the binding was to be completed.

45 Enqi announced to the gathered ANUNNAGI that his own spouse, Ninqi, lady of the Earth had volunteered for the task.

46 "Ninqi, my spouse, he announced, will be the one for labor;

47 She was to be the one to determine the fate of the new being:

48 The newborn's fate you shall pronounce; Ninqi would fix upon it the image of the Anunnagi', and what it will be is Humim.

49 The female ANUNNAGI chosen to serve as Birth Anunnagi if the experiment succeeded."

50 Enqi said: "One should stay and observe closely for in the first 3 months the Nakhashians are present, in the second 3 months the Rumardians are present, but in the last 3 months, the Aluhum are present, so guard against thievery by the Luciferians, those disagreeable Yahwehans. Keep a watchful eye over what is happening.

51 The birth ANUNNAGI were kept together. Ninti sat, counting the months.

52 The fateful tenth month was approaching.

53 The tenth month arrived and the period of opening the womb had elapsed.

54 Humims creation, it appears was compounded by a late birth; medical intervention was called for.

55 Realizing what had to be done, Ninti covered her head, with an instrument that made it possible through ray beams for her to see an opening.

56 With this done, that which was in the womb came forth.

57 Grabbing the newborn babe, she was overcome with joy.

58 Lifting it up, for all to see she shouted triumphantly:

59 "I have created! My hands have made it! The first Adam was brought forth.

60 Now enough mixed clay was prepared to start pregnancies in the 14 birth ANUNNAGI at a time.

61 Ninti nipped off 14 pieces of clay, 7 she deposited on the right, 7 she deposited on the left; between them she placed the mold.

62 Now the procedures were genetically engineered to come up with 7 males and seven females at a time.

63 The wise and learned, or double-7. The birth ANUNNAGI had assembled.

64 Seven brought forth males, seven brought forth females; the female Anunnagi brought forth the wind of the breath of life.

65 The creation of the Lulu Amelu, Primitive Worker, the Homo Sapiens came about through a feat of genetic engineering and embryo-implant techniques. This new being had nine ether hair and was known as the benevolent ones, called the Dunaakial, and they possessed the hydrocephalic state, 66 But were going through a long process of evolution.

67 However, the ANUNNAGI jumped in and sped up the Adamites evolutionary process, creating you sooner than you would have evolved on your own. In any case, just as the ANUNNAGI had done on Nibiru, both coming from the same seed of life.

68 So this creation was done by genetic manipulation.

69 It was not done in an instant. It took 600 years in the grafting and the making of this being, male called Hu- min, female called Hu- mim. They went through a lot of trial and error to get the perfect being, which accounts for all of your defects in this world today.

70 It took them exactly 600 years, that is 400 years for the breeding of 4 generations as in all cloning and genetic splicing or grafting. That's 10 people per 100 years and comes out to 40 people over a period of 400 years.

71 100 years was used for the preparation of this process. That is, collecting of the choice species for breeding, or what is now called abducting and the building of the laboratories on the planet Lahmu, Mars.

72 400 was used for the actual breeding with the last 100 years was for civilizing and educating. The transplantation of the Homo Erectus was done on the Planet Lahmu "Mars".

73 The Anunnagi had set up bases on Mars, and on the dark side of the Moon, 450,000 years ago, before coming to the Planet Earth. The Anunnagi assembled 30 mile long crafts to transport the minerals that they collected. Homo Erectus were being abducted from the Planet Earth and then taken to a laboratory called Shimti, on the Planet Lahmu "Mars", where they were being made into Homo Sapiens.

74 The laboratory Shimti was originally located in Nibiru. The Anunnagi had been going to Mars long before your existence. Now these bases on Mars have been rekindled by humans and Extraterrestrials.

75 For many years scientists have been denying the fact that life is on the Planet Mars, even after evidence was proven. They were in opposition to the idea of a modern Martian civilization that was brought forth in 1877 A.D.

76 The face on Mars was an ancient marker for incoming Extraterrestrials to know about the project of Homo Erectus. Mars was one of the bases used by the Anunnagi for the creation of Homo Sapiens.

77 Homo Erectus were gathered from Earth and then abducted to Mars for breeding in a laboratory which is called Shimti, meaning "the place where the wind of life is breathed". This marker was to make other Extraterrestrials aware of this experiment of changing Homo Erectus to Homo Sapiens.

78 The ANUNNAGI did this without the permission of ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, they were not supposed to jump in and speed up your evolutionary process.

79 This was the birth of your Zakar, the Hu-min, Hu "Creative Force Of Will" and Min "the deity of reproduction" called Adam of the red soil, copper tone with the atomic weight of 63.546, and its chemical symbol is Cu, with its atomic number being 29,

80 It's always in a perfected oxidized state, when the electrons of this magnetic Earth field dissipates, and the higher form manifest in the color green by the absence of the atmosphere filled with oxygen with its atomic weight being 15.9994. Oxygen has the atomic number of 8, and its chemical symbol is O.

81 It's a diatomic molecule, it makes up 20.95% per cent of the volume of dry air. Diatomic oxygen is colorless, odorless, and tasteless. When the breath of life is breathed into the being in the form of rooakh a great wind mixed with life of the Aluhum and life of the Earth, it is the intake of oxygen.

82 The Earth life produces ions which are molecules bearing electrical charges having within it a great number of negative electrons, unequal to the number of positive protons in the nuclei. These negative ions are very helpful and refreshing. There is an abundance in the air after a storm or even near a waterfall.

83 This process of breathing in oxygen transforms the color of the being manifesting the positive charges through the melanin. There is melanin and Neuromelanin, which is a form of melanin found in the peripheral nervous system which is the central nervous system.

84 The Luciferians who are the Halaabeans, Flugelrods or Hulub, the fathers of one of the Albino races, today tries to reduce the importance of melanin, they being of all the creatures on the planet with Melanin, the most melanin recessive. Yet, controlling propaganda and the media tries to hide the very word melanin.

85 They try to reduce the importance of melanin, by overlooking the significant difference between brain melanin and skin melanin properties.

86 Neuromelanin does not run parallel with your skin melanin. Whether white, red, yellow, black, brown, or albino, Neuromelanin plays an important role in the functioning of the brain and nervous system.

...O Melaninite Children

87 My child, melanin was a gift to you from your parents the ANUNNAGI Aluhum, and the scientist that protect it are called Dunaakial.

88 The residents of Shamballah and Aghaarta called also the benevolent ones.

89 This gift being the finest of the refined chemicals known to your species.

90 It was given to you, the Melanin-Ite Children, being that you were pro-created as a New-Being or Nubian.

91 It dwells in your very essence and in your environment. The melanin that is throughout your body is the same thing that colors this planet Qi, now called Earth.

92 The very thing that colors the bark on trees brown, and the soil of the Earth, and everything that live, and the fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea.

93 Know that it does not matter what color your skin appears to be.

94 Know that all genes in all creatures on this very planet Earth known as Gaia, "the living organism" have melanin, for all things are coated with melanin.

95 Melanin is the most ancient and worldwide pigment in living organisms.

96 It is found in an abundance in the original organisms such as fungi as well as advanced primates.

97 Thus, within each and every living organ-ism, melanin appear in that which aids the humims body, and all parts that allow it to function, such as in vertebrates.

98 It not only dwells in the skin, eyes, ears, central nervous system, pineal gland, pituitary gland, thyroid gland, and the barathary gland.

99 It is also found abundantly in the inner parts of the body, including the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, the intestines, the arteries, the muscles, the gastrointestinal tract and the gonads.

100 Melanin controls all mental and physical body activities.

101 Melanin is an extremely stable molecule, and highly resistant to the digestion by most acids and bases and is one of the hardest molecules to ever be analyzed.

102 If you doth not purify your Melanin molecule that lays within you, you will not heal your body of its ailments.

103 It is Vitamin B that keep melanin clean within you.

104 Know that it manifests as pigmentation's in the skin.

105 It appears as different shades and hues, colors being black to brown, from red to yellow to white.

106 It is the amino acids tyrosine, found on each strain of your DNA, that controls the hue or shade of color.

107 Thus there are 6 different types of melanin carrying beings that are known to you.

108 They are of different hues. From very dark brown to the blackest of blacks.

109 They are found in the depths of the Land of Nubia called Africa today, and the Land Of The Frogs called North America. They live near the equator.

110 From the land of Kemet, where the original Nuwbuns, those of the black hue do dwell.

111 From Kuwsh the land of the original Ethiopians those of the greenish hue.

112 From Nigerians those of the brown hue,

113 From the Bushmen of Zimbabwe those of the yellow hue,

114 From the Sudanese those with the copper tone, reddish brown hue, 115 It is also seen in Muurs in America, who mixed with the original Hopi Tribes and are the real Native Americans Tribes In America, as the ancient Nuwbuns who originally crossed over to Atlan also called Aztlan from the word 'Utla meaning "vacation" before the division of the continents.

116 As well as mixing with the cursed seed of Canaan the Caucasians. Thus, there are certain climates that change these descendants of the Halaabean, Flugelrod into different hues, such as red, or brown. Yet they can be easily distinguished from the original Nubians who range in hues of dark brown, yellow, or red.

117 The wrongly called Negro varies in shades of all of the above, all producing an abundance of Melanin in your skin.

118 And in most cases wrinkling doth not become a factor until the age of 60.

119 This inheritance of melanin is inherited from generation to generation.

120 Again you have a Caucasian who has blonde hair and blue eyes, descendants from the Hulub, Flugelrods, 121 These Hulub, Flugelrods, are now living in a cavern beneath the Antarctic. They are the fathers of the Nordic Race, 122 Not to be confused with the Canaanites whose leprosy is the result of a curse of Albinism, cast upon Ham the father of Canaan by Utnafishtim, called Noah, after the craft that rested down on the surface of the earth after the waters decreased.

123 The Albino seed's name comes from the sea Albion called the White Island,

Tablet 4:124

124 It is in the land of the Saxons and the Angelicas called Brit today.

125 These Hulub, Flugelrods are originally from the Aldebaran star constellation, and the Pleiades.

126 They produce extremely low levels of melanin.

127 What is the importance of this thing called melanin?

128 The pigment melanin is responsible for the color of skin. When melanin does not appear in the skin, it is a deficiency, however this has nothing to do with the amount in your brain called neuro melanin and the rest of your organs. For instance, albinos you will still have a certain level of melanin in their heart, arteries and liver although they lack it in their skin.

129 This deficiency comes about because of the absence of Melanocytes, that which synthesizes the melanin is deficient, which interferes with the journey of pigment cells to a developing embryo. The deficiency of tyrosine, which is a copper containing enzyme, that works as a catalyst or vehicle that causes the production of melanin and other pigments from tyrosine.

130 These cells called Melanocytes are responsible for all the colors of hair from yellow to black.

131 The tree-like Melanocyte cells in the deeper epidermis is what produces this dark brown pigment called melanin.

132 The pigment is introduced into nearby cells through the "branch tips" of the Melanocyte cells, in units called Melanosomes.

133 Know that hair turns gray when the Melanocytes die. There are different textures of hair, 6 ether to 9 ether.

134 Hair can be straight, 6 ether meaning 6 point melanin, wavy, curly 7 and one half point melanin, or kinky.

Tablet 4:144

135 Nine point ether and it is in that kinky or kingly hair that was given to you from your parents the ANUNNAGI Aluhum.

136 Then there are those beings who are Albinos.

137 This genetic disorder Albinism is a group of genetic disorders affecting one out of every several thousand humans and other animals.

138 The first being Canaan himself. His curse was the removal of the divine, which was the reduction of melanin thus cutting off his family ties with the Aluhum.

139 He transformed from a son of the Aluhum to a Son of Sam.

140 For you that are born an albino, if both your parents are albinos then you can only be an albino. This is because your parent does not possess any of the dominant genes.

141 Albinism if carried in the genes of 2 Nubians, will produce an albino offspring, and mixing of your seed depletes your melanin.

142 When The ANUNNAGI took residence in Arcturus, the original home of the Teros, they mixed their seed with them who were copper tone in hue while the ANUNNAGI were olive green tone in hue.

143 This mixture is why ANUNNAGI appear copper tone in hue. This mixing took place for 7,000 years.

144 Eating the improper foods or overeating overloads your body as well. Overeating overexerts all of the organs in the body just to digest the food., which is why you shouldn't eat after a certain time, because it keeps the body constantly working when it should be resting.

145 Then your connection is blocked, thus disease manifests.

146 Melanin is deranged only when it becomes toxic; and any individuals who might have toxic Melanin will act in a very similar manner, that which is primitive, animalistic and barbaric.

147 This is why there is a great concentration on drugging the Nubians of the Western world.

148 Melanin has physical properties and personality traits which distinguished it from others.

149 Melanin smells sweet. Your body is dedicated to making Melanin, which has 9 substances of its own, as long, and this is as you eat reasonably.

150 Wake My Child For The Time Is Near!

151 Each cell in the human body needs its own oxygen carried by the blood. Human blood is similar to chlorophyll of the plant life.

152 Human blood has 2 main constituents.

153 The cells are corpuscles comprised of 45% per cent and the liquid portion or plasma in which the cells are suspended comprises 55% per cent.

154 The blood cell comprises three main types;

155 Red blood cells or erythrocytes, white blood cells or leukocytes, which in turn are many different types.

156 The third platelets or thrombocytes. Each type of cell has its own individual function in the human body.

157 Plasma the colorless solution is 90% water. It carries different ions and molecules including proteins, enzymes, hormones, nutrients, and waste materials such as Urea, which is a compound of nitrogen waste found in the urine, 158 Fibrinogen is the protein that creates the clot that becomes the congealed blood when the water is removed, dehydrates and returns to dust.

159 The substance in the red blood cells that is largely responsible for their ability to carry oxygen, and carbon dioxide is hemoglobin.

160 The material that gives the cells the red color.

161 It is a protein complex comprising many linked amino acids and occupies almost the entire volume of red blood cells.

162 Essential to its structure and functions is Iron. Iron is needed now solely for the magnetism in the blood that keep the involuntary functions of the body working properly.

163 Its atomic weight is 55.847. Its chemical symbol is Fe and atomic number is 26.

164 When these 2 processes of the blood occur simultaneously, the physical part of the being created his skin of the soil of Gaia, the living organism" called Earth whose essence is soil.

165 This Gaia also spelled Gaea is in fact a "living organism", named after the Greek goddess Ge, or Pangaea or Pangaia meaning "all land", and that one land mass being Earth, where physical and chemical conditions exist on the surface, and within the interior,

166 Within the atmosphere, and the oceans. It was always in existence and always active, for it is a living entity.

167 One that was made to suit the conditions, to exist within the boundless universe.

168 For Gaia is a living entity existing within THE ALL.

169 Gaia, has been and always will be prosperous, having favorable conditions.

170 Causing the presence of life itself to be thought of as significant.

171 Any species, is of course a key development of this living organism called Gaia,

172 Yet because your existence came along so far after the creation of Gaia originally called Tiamat, 173 It is inappropriate to question whether life of any species has a significant meaning to why Gaia came about.

174 Know that Gaia is a complex entity involving the Earth's biosphere.

175 It is a self regulated organism that grows and has climate changes.

176 Gaia is living matter.

177 The air, the oceans and land surface forms this now complex system which has the capacity to keep it existing.

178 Why call Earth a planet, when 3/4 of its surface is sea, that's why when pictures are taken of it from above it appears to be blue sapphire.

179 Know that water is a part of the mechanism that helps keep the planet running.

180 It transforms the radiant energy from Apsu, the sun into the motion of air and water which in turn distributes this energy all over the Gaia .

181 Gaia runs off Cybernetics, which is a self regulating system of communications and control in living organisms and machines.

182 Thus when the physical part of a being is created your JALUD "skin" is the soil of Gaia, the living organism" called Earth and your very essence is soil.

183 With their contents begins the process as rusting and manifest itself in a copper tone.

184 When this oxygen is removed an oxidation begins. The being returns to its original state as the greenest olive.

185 This Adamite being mixed with the abducted black man, called A Hindu, having six ether hair mixed, 186 To manifest a child of the Aluhum having Seven and one Half ether hair.

187 His mate Nekaybaw, Eve being unmixed, undiluted, and untampered, possessed the holy gene, the 9 Ether, woolly, kingly hair.

188 Yet her skin tone was at the beginning of the melanin process.

189 She was of the yellow seed not the red, brown, nor black.

190 You were created to be JARUTAAT, "slaves", to work the mines for The ANUNNAGI.

191 As the Lulus multiplied the ANUNNAGI began to copulate with them.

192 The level of sexual interest had gotten a little out of hand and this made Enlil angry. Enlil never thought that the Lulus should be given the capacity to reproduce without the absolute control of the ANUNNAGI.

193 The unique characteristics of the Lulu's telepathic abilities added an unknown thrill to the sexual experience. The word got around, that the "gods" were running off into the woods, frolicking and reproducing with the Lulus.

194 In those times, birth was not the painful process that you know today. Birth was easy and a time to be at one with Mother Ninti, the goddess of all life. It was a time to experience union with the Cosmos, to bring forth more expressions of prime creator. Not of pain!

195 The ANUNNAGI and the Lulus enjoyed being pregnant. Every birth brought more Lulus and more festivals, and more fun and beer!. The grains that grew on Earth developed the most delicious beers, ales, and mead an alcohol made from fermented honey and water.

196 Enlil became more and more disturbed by the loose copulation of the ANUNNAGI with the Lulus. He thought that our genetic lineage were being corrupted by such uncontrolled crossbreeding, and he was angry at the proliferation of Lulus. Enlil began to think of ways to cut down on the Lulu population. By this time there were many social hierarchies among the Lulus.

197 There was great discussion as to who had the most "ANUNNAGI blood," and who was related to which ANUNNAGI, and how long their lineage was. Enlil became more upset at the thought of the Lulu population over-running Earth. He wanted to get rid of them.

198 Enlil called a meeting of the family. He demanded that something be done about the Lulus and began to state his views of the matter.

199 His brother Enqi completely disagreed! Enqi complained after all the work he and Ninti had done to create such efficient workers, it was absurd to even consider destroying them. They were needed in the gold mines. The brothers ranted and raved as usual.

200 Enlil's wrath was unchangeable, despite his brother's pleas.

201 The sons of Enlil and Enqi joined in the arguing, both sides raging for a time. But in the end, because he is the number-one son, Enlil prevailed. His plan would not kill them all, just those unfortunate enough to starve to death, and so the first famine was arranged.

202 As Enqi and his sons left the meeting, they formulated a plan to defeat Enlil.

203 Famine spread across the land, and some food was smuggled to the Lulus and most survived. Enlil commanded the communications from the space station orbiting earth, and he was the first to learn of the coming polar shift. High above the planet, the orbiting astronauts began to observe magnetic fluctuations and the inevitable wobblings.

204 The axis of the planet was about to reverse itself. Enlil kept these observations secret. He determined to wait until the last possible moment so there would be only enough time to transfer the families of ANU and the ANUNNAGI to the orbiting station. He made certain there could not be sufficient time to rescue the Lulus.

205 The spies of Enqi had informed him of the polar shift, every 50,000 years, called an epoch. In all the ancient cultures of earth there are stories of a flood and one man who was saved in an ark. Enqi chose that man. That was not the first of the floods of Tiamat, that was only one of many.

Tablet 4:206

206 Knowing there would be a great flood, Enqi resolved to save at least one family of Lulus. He picked a man from his own gene pool; and there was no ark. It was a, craft, or what you might call a submarine, and the animals "two-by-two" were actual samples of the genetic material make up, appropriately stored, so they might later be recreated. Defying Enlil, Enqi rescued the Lulus.

207 When Enlil found out about the surviving Lulus, Enlil was angry. He and his sons accused Enqi and his sons. Enlil said that Enqi defied the laws of ANU.

208 Enqi made a great speech, where he said: "In the greatness of his visionary wisdom, Enlil had been fated to engineer a method of sorting through the rubbish of the species to arrive at the prime genetic material of all the Lulus. And if these lone survivors were deemed to live through the horrors of the deluge, their genes must be worthy of serving ANU and the NIBIRUANS.

209 Enlil agreed, and each member of the family of ANU then swore a vow to each other. All manner of laws were subsequently made to regulate the copulation and breeding of the Lulus.

Tablet Five
The Death Of A Slave
(19 x 3 = 57)

Tablet 5:17

Lo! When the term of the leaves is over for the slaves, and 40 days of his life remain to him, his leaves begin to fall.

2 And his leaf falls in the room of Enqi who bore the title Izraa'El.

3 By this sign he knows that he is commanded to take the soul of its owner. After that, its owner is called dead in the galactical heavens, while he is alive in the face of the Earth for 40 days.

4 Murduk will descend with the scroll of the ANUNNAGI of Death from ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL,

5 On it is written the name of the one whose soul he is commanded to take. At the place in which the soul is to be taken, the cause for which it is being taken are written. In reality Adamites do not die, they merely transform from state to state.

6 Two drops fall below the throne of the name of its owner; one is green and the other is pink, which is any of a group of colors reddish in hue

7 If the red drop falls on the name, he knows that he is wretched.

8 If the green drop falls on the name, he knows that he is happy,

9 And as for the knowledge of the place in which he will die,

10 The ANUNNAGI that is entrusted as a guardian to everyone born entrust the information.

11 He is called Rahmun, the ANUNNAGI of the womb, when one is born, he is created.

12 He is then commanded to register in the drop which is in the womb of the mother wherein the dust of the Earth he will die.

13 So the slave becomes a corpse and changes, then turns to the place where his Earth was taken from, so he dies in it.

14 His words are:

15 "I am where I am,

16 And where I have started,

17 And this is where I have ended my journey." thus ends one journey and begins another. This transformation is called death.

18 It is also related that when a slave is in the death struggle, 19 His tongue is stopped, and 4 ANUNNAGI come to him.

20 The first says: "The peace be upon you, I am entrusted with your provision.

21 I have flown throughout the planet Earth, east and west,

22 And have not found any morsel of your provision at this hour."

23 The second then enters and says:

24 "The peace be upon you.

25 I am entrusted with your drink of water and other drinks.

26 I have flown east and west, and have not found any drink of water for you at this hour."

27 Then the third enters and says:

28 "Peace be upon you, I am entrusted with your breaths,

29 I have flown east and west and have not found one breath for you."

30 So the fourth ANUNNAGI enters and says:

31 "The peace be upon you, I am entrusted with your term.

32 I have flown east and west through the planet Earth, and I have not found one hour for you."

33 The one on his right says:

34 "The peace be upon you, I am entrusted with your right actions."

35 So he brings out a bright page and spreads it before him and says:

36 "Look at your deeds." So he is happy and rejoices.

37 The one on his left says: "I am entrusted with your wrong actions."

38 So he brings out a red page and spreads it before him and says: "Look at it."

39 So his sweat pours down.

40 He looks right and left for fear the of reading the page.

41 The ANUNNAGI insists and puts it down on his pillow and leaves.

42 Then the two harsh ANUNNAGI descend burning the planet with their talons.

43 They are Munkir and Nakir.

44 So they sit with him and they say to him:

45 "Who is your sustainer?

46 Who is your news bearer?

47 What is your way of life?

48 If he is of the people of happiness, he says: "My El Rabb, sustainer is ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Most Glorified and Exalted.

49 My spiritual guide is the sun of righteousness, he who El Eloh Most Glorified and Exalted, 50 Guides with his illustrious scripture, This Holy Tablets.

51 My way of life is Nuwaubu."

52 Then they say to him: Sleep the sleep of the bridegroom,

53 And they open a hole by his head,

54 And he looks through it to his seat, and place in The Enclosed Garden.

55 Then The ANUNNAGI return with his Rooakh,

56 Soul to the skies.

57 And they placed the Rooakh in a candle stick attached to the throne.

Tablet Six
The Prayer Of The Slaves
(19 x 1 = 19)

Lo! And when the slaves spoke, these are the words that came forth from your lips. "The praise and gratitude is due to the appointed El Eloh, the caretaker of the servants of the ANUNNAGI, and thanks to Ninti, she who dared to pro-create them, and thanks to Enlil and Enqi for all would be incomplete if left unsaid; The birth of a slave.

2 All of which was done by The All within The All, in the image and after the likeness of those ANUNNAGI. And I proceed to say in the name of ANU, who is also called Allah, the gracious the merciful,

3 We the servants, the aiders of the ANUNNAGI, The Ansaaruallah, were procreated to work that we may give praise, and show gratitude to ANU, The Yielder, The Most Merciful, our master.

4 Our Savior, The Beloved Appointed One who has sent us guidance through his anointed one. For our life is on this planet Earth that which was also designed by you.

5 We may bask in the soul of the Earth. Cursed to dwell within idleness is to become as a stranger. Who approaches the solstice as if you are not constant?"

6 For everything that lives is constant, as constant as change.

7 For all is real in change, for change is the only absolute.

8 To deviate from the holiness that has been breathed within the essence of life, that readily submits to The All with the affirmation.

9 When I work I should be as the strings of a guitar through whose soul the silence of the moment becomes harmonious.

10 Which of you would be likened unto a leaf who plays when the wind blows, when all else sings together harmoniously?

11 I never want to see work as a curse of misfortune for being disobedient. I say to you when you work, than, fulfill a part of the distant dream of nature, 12 The birth of that dream was the gift unto you.

13 You who truly loves life will forever reside in labor, if you truly love.

14 Thus through labor will you loveth life, for it is why you were procreated, through labor the intimacy of life's innermost secrets will manifest.

15 Is mine flesh an enslavement? Does this birth cloak me?

16 Shall time and age destroy the gift of everlasting life, and that which was inscribed upon the Akasha Tablets of all?

17 Free me! Am I to accept that which is to live is to dwell in ignorance?

18 Yet I am ever grateful for my existence to El Eloh appointed by THE ALL.

19 For THE ALL appoints all things.

Tablet One
Nergal And Arishkegal
(19 x 11 = 209)

Lo! ANU made his voice heard and spoke.
2 He addressed his words to Kakka,
3 "I shall send you into Kurnugi the underworld.
4 You must speak thus to Arishkegal, saying; it is impossible for you to come up.
5 In your year you cannot come up to see us.
6 It is impossible for us to go down.
7 In our months we cannot go down to see you.
8 Let your messenger come and take from the table.
9 Let him accept a present for you.
10 I shall give something to him to present to you."
11 Kakka went down the long stairway of heaven.
12 When he reached the gate of Arishkegal,
13 He spoke: "Gatekeeper, open the gate to me!" He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the first gate.
14 He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the second gate.
15 He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the third gate.
16 He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the fourth gate.
17 He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the fifth gate.
18 He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the sixth gate.
19 He allowed the Anunnagi Kakka in through the seventh gate.
20 He entered into her spacious courtyard. He knelt down and kissed the ground in front of her.
21 He straightened up, stood and addressed her. "ANU your father sent me to say:
22 It is impossible for you to go up; in your year, you cannot go up to see us,
23 And it is impossible for us to go down; in our month, we cannot go down to see you.
24 Let your messenger come and take from the table. Let him accept a present for you.
25 I shall give something to him to present to you.
26 Arishkegal made her voice heard, and she spoke, and she addressed her words to Kakka.
27 "O messenger of ANU our father, you who have come to us,
28 May peace be with ANU,
29 And may peace be with Nunamnir, and Nudimmud, the great Anunnagi.
30 May peace be with Nammu and Nash.
31 You are the pure Anunnagi.
32 May peace be with Dummuzi, the husband of Inanna, who is the lady of heaven.
33 May peace be with Ninurta, who is the champion in the land."
34 Kakka made his voice heard and he spoke; he addressed his words to Arishkegal.
35 "Peace is indeed with ANU, Nunamnir, and Nudimmud, the great Anunnagi.
36 Peace is indeed with Nammu and Nash the pure.
37 Peace is indeed with Dummuzi, the husband of Inanna, who is the lady of heaven.

38 Peace is indeed with Ninurta, the champion in the land."
39 Kakka made his voice heard and spoke, he addressed his words to Arishkegal.
40 "I hope everything may be well with you."
41 Arishkegal made her voice heard and spoke.
42 She addressed her words to her chief Namtar:
43 "O Namtar my chief, I shall send you to the heaven of our father ANU.
44 Namtar, go up the long stairway of heaven.
45 Take from the table, and accept a present for me.
46 Whatever ANU gives to you, you must present to me."
47 So he went, and when he arrived he found the path that led to where the Anunnagi are kneeling together before him.
48 The great Anunnagi, who are the masters of destiny.
49 For it is he who controls the rites of the 88th temple of the Anunnagi, who dwell within Erkalla.
50 Why do you not kneel down before him? I keep winking at you, and you keep pretending not to realize.
51 When Nudimmud heard this, he said to himself,
52 "I have many things to say first." Nudimmud made his voice heard, and he spoke. He addressed his words to Nergal:
53 "My son, you shall go on the journey you wanted to make.
54 Grasp a sword in your hand.
55 Go down to the forest of Mesu-trees. Cut down Mesu-trees and Simberru-trees."

Tablet 1:69

56 When Nergal heard this, he took up an axe in his hand.
57 He drew the sword from his belt, and he went down to the forest of Mesu-trees, and he cut down the Mesu-trees, and the Tiaru-trees.
58 He cut down Juniper, and any of the various evergreen trees, or shrubs of the genus Juniperus, having needlelike or scalelike, often pointed leaves and aromatic, bluish-gray, berrylike, seed-bearing cones, and he broke off Ka-nak-tu-trees and Sim-ber-ru-trees, and Nin-gish-zida.
59 He painted it with yellow paste and red paste as a substitute for the gold. He painted it with blue glaze as a substitute for Lapis Lazuli.
60 The work was finished, and the chair complete.
61 Then he Nudimmud called out, and he laid down instructions for Nergal;
62 "My son, about this journey which you want to make,
63 And from the moment that you arrive, you need to follow whatever instructions that I give to you.
64 From the moment that they bring a chair to you, do not go towards it, and do not sit upon it.
65 When the baker brings you bread, do not go towards it, and do not eat the bread.
66 When he who runs the orchard brings you fruit, do not go towards it, and do not eat the fruit.
67 When the vineyard grower brings you wine, do not go towards it, and do not drink the wine.
68 When they bring you a foot bath, do not go towards it, and do not wash your feet.
69 When Arishkegal has taken a bath, and dressed herself in a fine thobe, allowing you to glimpse her body, 70 You must not do that which men and women do.

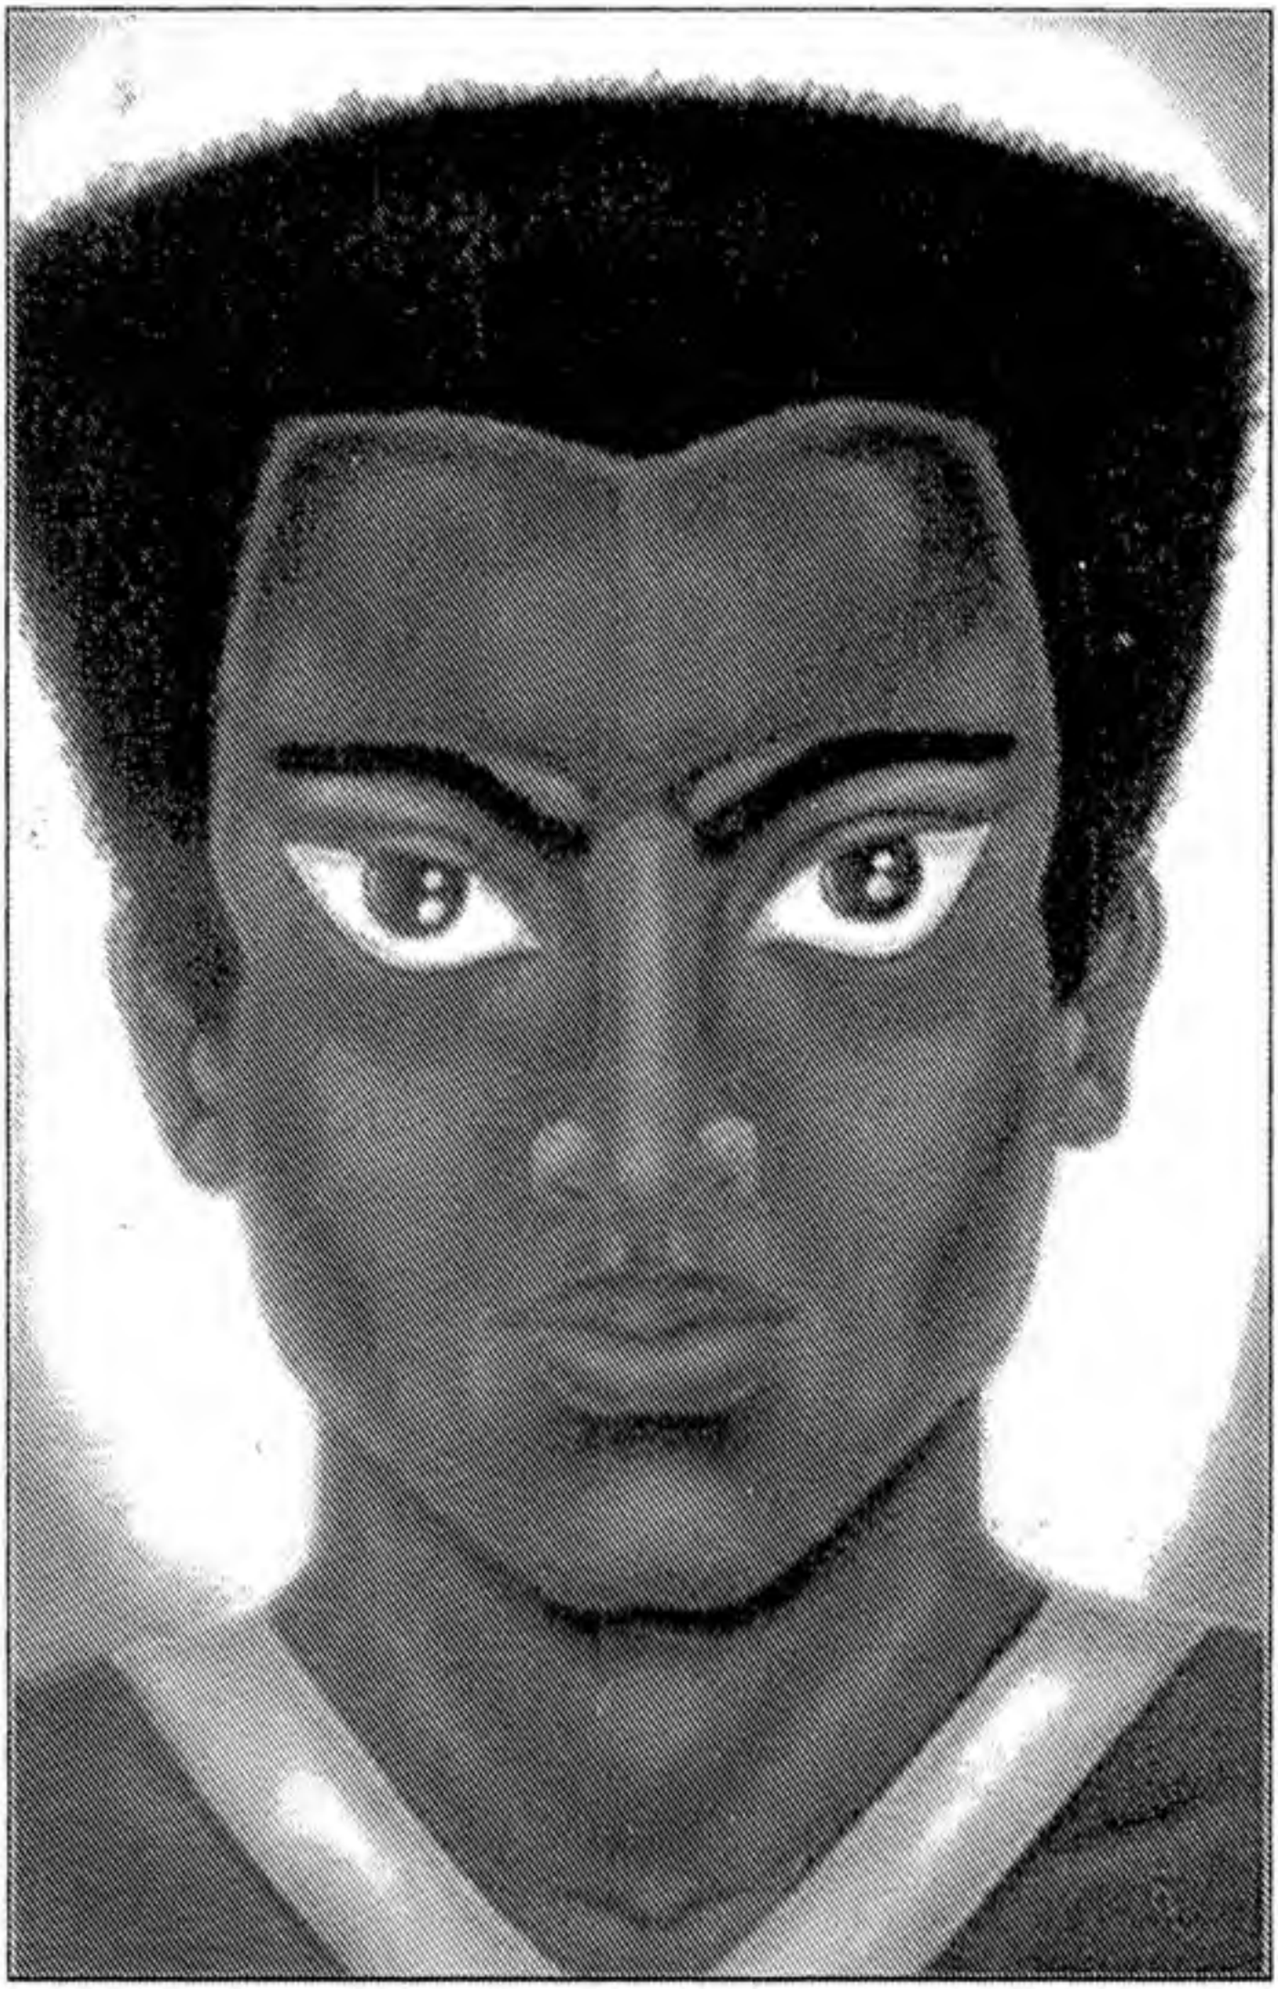

Figure 61

71 Nergal set his face towards Kurnugi the underworld, to the dark house, dwelling of Erkalla's Anunnagi, to the house which those who enter cannot leave, on the road where traveling is one way only.

72 To the house where those who enter are deprived of light, and where dust is their food, and clay is their bread, which is simply the state of death, a physical death, where the light of this world is cut off, and their flesh returns to the dust, in which it is encaved.

73 They are clothed, like birds, with feathers, they are wrapped for the burial ceremony to be mummified.

74 They see no light, and they dwell in darkness. They re-enter at pure supreme balancement, the state of souls, void of body.

75 Pitch and feathers are hot against their skin, they moan like doves, as they are prepared for mummification.

76 Then the gatekeeper opened his mouth, and he addressed his words to Nergal.

77 "I must take back a report, about the Anunnagi standing at the door."

78 The gatekeeper entered and addressed his words to Arishkegal;

79 "My lady, a man has come to see us who is unknown, who will identify him?"

80 Arishkegal made her voice heard and spoke to Namtar,

81 "Let me identify him and let me meet him at the outer gate.

82 Let me bring back to my master a description of him."

83 Namtar went and looked at Erra in the shadow of the door.

84 Namtar's face went as livid as cut Tamarisk.

85 His lips grew dark as the rim of a Ku-ni-nu vessel.

86 Namtar went and addressed his lady, saying:

87 "My lady, when I entered the courtyard of ANU, all the Anunnagi of the land were kneeling humbled before him.

88 "The Anunnagi, who are the Aluhum" rose to their feet in my presence.

89 Now they have gone down to Kurnugi, the underworld."

90 Arishkegal made her voice heard and spoke. She addressed her words to Namtar. "My dear Namtar, you should not seek Nunamnir-power, 91 Nor should you desire to do heroic deeds.

92 Are you going to come up and sit down on the throne of the royal dais?, A raised platform, as in a lecture hall, for speakers or honored guests.

93 You should perform the judgments of the broad Earth? Should I go up to the heaven of ANU, my father?

94 Should I eat the bread of the Anunnagi? Should I drink the water of the Anunnagi?

95 Go and bring the Anunnagi into my presence!" Namtar went and let in the Anunnagi Erra, also known as Nergal.

96 He allowed Nergal in through the first gate of Nedu.

97 He allowed Nergal in through the second gate of Kishar.

98 He allowed Nergal in through the third gate of En-da-shu-rimma. He let Nergal in through the fourth gate of Enu-ralla.

99 He allowed Nergal in through the fifth gate of En-du-kuga.

100 He allowed Nergal in through the sixth gate of Endu-shuba.

101 He allowed Nergal in through the seventh gate of Ennugi.

102 He came into the broad courtyard, and knelt down, then kissed the ground in front of her.

103 He straightened up, stood and addressed her. "ANU, your father has sent me to see you."

104 He was saying, "Sit down on that throne, judge the cases of the great Anunnagi, who live within Erkalla, "a great city!"

105 As soon as they brought him a throne he said to himself, "Don't go to it!", and he did not sit on it.

106 When the baker brought him bread, he said to himself, "Don't go to it!", and he did not eat the bread.

107 When he who runs the orchard brought him fruit, he said to himself; "Don't go to it!", and he did not eat his fruit.

108 When the vineyard keeper brought him wine, he said to himself, "Don't go to it!", and he did not drink his wine.

109 When they brought him a foot bath, he said to himself, "Don't go to it!", and he did not wash his feet.

110 When she went to the bath and dressed herself in a fine THOBE and allowed him to catch a glimpse of her body, 111 He resisted his heart's desire, to do what men and women do.

112 She went to the bath and undressed herself and allowed him to catch a glimpse of her body.

113 He gave into his heart's desire to do what men and women do.

114 The two embraced each other, and went passionately to bed.

115 They laid there, Maluka Arishkegal and Erra, for the first day and then the second day.

116 They lay there, Arishkegal and Erra, for a third day and then a fourth day.

117 They lay there, Arishkegal and Erra, for a fifth day and then a sixth day.

118 When the seventh day arrived, Nergal, went away without any help,

119 "After she allowed me to go, now I will return to Kurnugi the underworld later."

120 Her mouth turned wicked with rage against Nergal, who went before the Aluhum to address his speech to the gate keeper.

121 Arishkegal your lady sent me, saying, "I am sending you to the heaven of ANU our father.

122 You shall allow me to leave out!" The messenger said, "no."

123 Nergal came up the long stairway of heaven.

124 When he arrived at the gate of ANU, Nunamnir, and Nudimmud, ANU, saw him and said:

125 "The son of Ishtar has come back to us.

126 Arishkegal will search for him and forget.

127 Nudimmud his father must sprinkle him with spring water,

128 Then bareheaded, blinking and cringing let him sit in the assembly of all Aluhum.

129 Arishkegal left to bathe at home because her body became unclean which would be for the period of 7 days which is in accordance with the 7 day uncleanliness laws after sexual intercourse of the Anunnagi, and they accept that the essence of the being that you interchanged fluids and emotions with, stay with you for 7 days, and Arishkegal called out her pardon, that is, that she may be pardoned for this act.

130 "The chair is free to sprinkle the room with the water of the spring.

131 The seed of the 2 daughters of Lamashtu and Enmesharra, sprinkle with the waters of the spring.

132 The messenger of ANU our father who came to see us shall eat our bread and drink our water."

133 Namtar made his voice heard and spoke. He addressed his words to Arishkegal his lady,

134 "The messenger of ANU, our father who came to see us before daylight has suddenly disappeared!"

135 Arishkegal cried out aloud, and she grievously she fell from the throne to the ground, and then she straightened up from the ground.

136 Her tears flowed down her cheeks.

137 "Erra, the lover of my delight I did not have enough delight with him before he left."

138 Namtar made his voice heard, and he spoke, addressed his words to Arishkegal.

139 "Send me to ANU your father, and let me arrest that Aluhum! Let me take him to you, that he may kiss you again!"

140 Arishkegal made her voice heard and spoke, she addressed her words to Namtar her chief.

141 "Go, Namtar, you must speak to ANU, Nunamnir, and Nudimmud!"

142 Set your face towards the gate of ANU, Nunamnir, and Nudimmud, to say, 143 "Ever since I was a child and a daughter, I have not known the playing of other girls, and I have not known the romping of children.

144 That Anunnagi whom you sent to me and who has impregnated me,

145 Let him sleep with me again! Send that Anunnagi to us,

146 And let him spend the night with me as my lover! I am unclean, 147 And I am not pure enough to perform the judging of the great Anunnagi, the great Anunnagi who dwell within Erkalla, the great city.

148 If you do not send that Aluhum to me according to the rites of Erkalla, the great city and the great Earth, 149 I shall raise up the dead, and they shall eat the living.

150 I shall make the dead outnumber the living!"

151 Namtar came up the long stairway of heaven. When he arrived at the gate of ANU, Nunamnir, and Nudimmud, they saw him and said, 152 "What have you come for, Namtar?" Your daughter sent me, to say,

153 "Ever since I was a child, and a daughter, I have not known the playing of other girls, 154 I have not known the romping of children.

155 That Anunnagi whom you sent to me, and who has impregnated me, let him sleep with me again!

156 Send that Anunnagi to us, and let him spend the night with me as my lover!

157 I am unclean, and I am not pure enough to perform the judging of the great Anunnagi,

158 If you do not send that Anunnagi

Tablet 1:158

to me, I shall raise up the dead, and they will eat the living.

159 I shall make the dead outnumber the living!"

160 Nudimmud made his voice heard and spoke, he addressed his words to Namtar.

161 "Enter, Namtar, the court of ANU, search out your wrongdoer and bring him!"

162 When he entered the court of ANU, all the Anunnagi were kneeling humbled before him.

163 He went straight up to one of them, but he didn't recognize that Anunnagi, he went straight up to a second Anunnagi and a third Anunnagi, but didn't recognize those Anunnagi either.

164 Namtar went away, and addressed his words to his lady, "my lady, about your sending me up to the heaven of ANU your father, 165 My lady, there was only one Anunnagi, who sat bareheaded."

166 Blinking and cringing at the assembly of all the Anunnagi.

167 She replied, "go, seize that Anunnagi and bring him to me!"

168 I expect Nudimmud, his father, sprinkled him with spring water,

169 And he is sitting in the assembly of all the Anunnagi bareheaded, and blinking and cringing."

170 Namtar came up the long stairway of heaven.

171 When he reached the gate of ANU, Nunamnir, and Nudimmud saw him and said,

172 "What have you come for, Namtar?"

173 "Your daughter has sent me, to say, 'seize that Anunnagi and bring him

Tablet 1:190

to me."

174 "Then enter, Namtar, the courtyard of ANU,

175 And search out your wrongdoer and take him."

176 He went straight up to one Anunnagi, but did not recognize him,

177 He went straight up to a second Anunnagi and a third Anunnagi, but did not recognize them either.

178 Then he made his voice heard and he spoke, and he addressed his words to Nudimmud, 179 "Let Namtar, the messenger who has come to us,

180 Drink our water, wash, and anoint himself."

181 "He is not to strip off the powers of Erra, Nergal, because I shall hinder."

182 Namtar made his voice heard, and he addressed his words to Erra.

183 Erra explained all the rites of the great underworld, Aghaarta ruled by the Dunaakial. So now when you go from there, you shall carry the chair thyself.

184 Do not grapple with him lest he bind your chest.

185 Erra take to heart the speech of Namtar.

186 He rose up and oiled his strap and slung his bow.

187 Nergal went down the long ladder of heaven.

188 When he arrived at the gate of Arishkegal he said, "Gatekeeper, open the gate for me!"

189 He struck down Nedu, the doorman of the first gate of Nedu, and did not let him grapple with him.

190 He struck down the second doorman, Fukar of the gate of Kishar, and did not let him grapple him. He struck down the third doorman, Sirum of the gate of En-Da-Shu-Rima, and he did not let him grapple him.

Tablet 1:190

191 He struck down the fourth doorman, Lanrud of the gate of Enu-Ralla, and did not let him grapple with him.

192 He struck down the fifth doorman, Khaleem of the gate of En-Du-Kuga, and did not let him grapple with him.

193 He struck down the sixth doorman, Arwadallah of the gate of Endu-Shuba, and did not let him grapple with him.

194 He struck down the seventh doorman, Kuddri of the gate of Ennungi, and did not let him grapple with him.

195 He entered her wide courtyard, and went up to her and laughed.

196 He seized her by her hairdo, and pulled her from the throne.

197 He seized her by her tresses and with force pulled her down.

198 The two embraced each other and went passionately to bed.

199 They laid there, Arishkegal and Erra, Nergal, for a first day and a second day.

200 They laid there, Arishkegal and Erra, for a third day.

201 They laid there, Arishkegal and Erra, for a fourth day.

202 They laid there, Arishkegal and Erra, for a fifth day.

203 They laid there, Arishkegal and Erra, for a sixth day.

204 When the seventh day arrived, ANU made his voice heard, and he spoke.

205 He addressed his words to Kakka, his chief, "Kakka,

206 I shall send you to Kurnugi, the

Tablet 2:6

underworld,

207 To the home of Arishkegal, who dwells within Erkalla,

208 To say, that the Aluhum, whom sent to you,

209 Shall forever protect those above and those below.

Tablet Two
The Chosen Physician
(19 x 2 = 38)

Lo! The time had come for the special breeding of Kadmon, the Adam Project, who you know as Adam, whose real name is Kadmon, and his mate Nekaybaw, who you know as Eve, or Hawwah were to be put in a habitat called the special Enclosed Garden of delight located in Eden, in what is called Baali.

2 Bali, is now a province of Indonesia, which is east of Java, where the bones of Java man were discovered.

3 The remains of the Java man, the first known fossils of the extinct species Homo Erectus, were discovered (1891-1993) by a young Dutch anatomist, Eugene Dubois, in a bank of the Solo River, at Trinil, Java.

4 Dubois named his creature Pithecanthropus erectus, meaning "erect ape-man." This name was later changed to Homo erectus.

5 The newly formed beings Kadmon and Nekaybaw, were to be specially bred out of this tribe of ape man, called the Homo Erectus, which was to be in the image and after the likeness of the Aluhum, the Anunnagi, to be like them and act like them.

6 The Most High ANU commanded the Anunnagi Arazu to build the foundation of a special habitat, an enclosed garden, and the Anunnagi Ashnan also called Thukkiac was to do the planting of this special enclosed garden, called Eden located in Baali, and there he was to place the newly formed beings Kadmon and Nekaybaw.

7 The task of breeding the Homo Erectus, or the Upright man to an upgraded level caused much errors and mistakes, which led into all types of diseases that you now have today.

8 So the wise scientist Enqi decided to hold a council with the Anunnagi, and this time in the presence of ANU, to ask his permission in the making of man into their image, and after their likeness, and this ANU The Most High agreed. This project became "The Adam project".

9 He, Enqi, chose out of the temple of Esharra, in the lower world, one of their deities named Nergal Shar'etser, who was also his beloved son, for this special breeding of Kadmon and Nekaybaw.

10 Nergal was the greatest of Chemist or Magi from the forbidden land of the many wanderers, the homeless, the land of Nod, or sub Nod in Kullab, a province of the city Uruk or Erech or Araf, curse that wicked place.

11 Arishkegal, the Cuthite was the wife of Nergal Shar'etsar, the chemist. That's the reason why he lived in that evil land, the land of the Cuthites. Ereshkigal was the daughter of Nayya-Nannar, half sister of Ishtar. Her mother, Nin Nashamah was from the Raksasas species, a half snake half-hindu tribe. Her symbol was the kundalini.

12 The first thing the scientists had to do was select the right place.

13 So, they chose the center of the Planet Earth, its very navel known then as Lumeria of old.

14 Right between two salt rivers and the two clear rivers. It later became known as Bekka.

15 Where they both, Kadmon and Hawwah also called Zakar, and even Adam and Nekaybaw, cried.

16 It was later named Mecca in central Asia called Arabia today; land of the wanders, Arabs, where the idol worshippers gather to worship a meteorite from Orion given to them by Elaga-Baal-Us.

17 He was the sorcerer who brought it from Syria, where it had crashed down, and was believed to be a sign from their deity Baal, or Baal Hadad, and he had marched it into Rome.

18 The Romans called it the holy stone.

19 The Muslims called it Hajarat'ul Aswad, the black stone "El Aswud Hajur".

20 This Enclosed Garden of Delight, was Eden.

21 It was to be the birth place of this new tribe of Adamites.

22 Adamites, are those of the dust of the ground or this Planet Earth, which merely means "ground".

23 The ANUNNAGI, who are called by Kadmon ALUHUM, were those selected to create this race of beings in their own image and after their own likeness.

24 The agreement was complete with the divine confirmation Akwun Wa Fi Kawunfin Shayaat Hadur, "exist and into existence things came".

25 First they had created your sun, which is also a star kowkab, and this planet was to be their temporary home., All of this was planned by extraterrestrials. It was an extraterrestrial plan or simply planet. E.T. Plan, or Plan E.T.;

26 And the moon Sheshqi was to rotate around your planet, and the many stars also.

27 Once everything was prepared and seen again, the elder-scientist Anunnagi Zodoqites knew they needed seven periods of seven thousand years to complete this Reformation, and transformation from Genus Homo ape like, mortal beings, to immortal beings, Homo Sapiens, deity like.

28 While the agreeable Anunnagi extraterrestrials planned a plan, the evil one, Shakhar, and his own son Haylal or Sama'El, also known as Nakhash and Shaytaan, planned his plan.

29 The serpent people, the Luciferians, being mixed with the Maldekians and Reptilians, but the Drago are more like a snake than any other of them.

30 However, the agreeable Anunnagi's plan was the best of plans.

31 So the ruler of the Anaqi, negative Anunnagi called Shakhar, Prince of the Cherubs, who is also known as Ibliys and Tarnush who is, a Reptilian from Maldek, also called Valcun.

32 He is of the Luciferians, those who breed with frogs, who were beings of the sea that landed here 450,000 thousand years ago.

33 He looked on and waited his chance for vengeance for being cast out from his orbit by Nibiru, 24 billion also million years ago when his seed was wounded, and for the kidnapping of his son Hay-lal, also known as Sama'El and Nakhash, by the Anunnagi, when they tried to reform him.

34 In order to try to reform the Nakhash, reverse breeding needed to be done, which the Anunnagi found out it could not be done.

35 While on the other hand, Enqi also waited with Shakhar for vengeance for being cast out of rulership of the planet Earth, in favor of his younger brother Enlil known as Nunamnir only 49 thousand years ago.

36 So this plan to breed a new being had to be prevented.

37 This breeding was to take place in the land of Nippur, which was originally called Nibruqi meaning "The Earth Place Of Nibiru", the sister city to Qodesh, which is Gadush in our language Nuwaubic, and they share the same name.

38 It was one of the cities of Gadush in the laboratory built on Earth, as a replica of the laboratory that is on the mothership Nibiru. This laboratory is called Shimti.

(19 x 11 = 209)

Lo! The 4 scientists, Ninti also called Ninhursag, Enqi, Nergal and Arishkegal got together, and they selected 4 El Thagutwur "The Trustworthy".

2 These trustworthy are also known as the Zodoqites and ambassadors.

3 They were to go to the land of Ptah of Ta-Mara, who are the original Kishites,

4 And the first Hawilahites, Havilahites.

5 These 4 selected Magi or Magus went as Anunnagi,

6 Speaking on behalf of ANU to the families of Anath, of the Dogon tribe, who thought them to be the Nummos, who had visited them from before, thinking them to now be in human form.

7 For the Nummos told them in the legends that they would return unlike fish people, but moreover in a perfect human form.

8 This was Anath, whose mate was Ptah of the original Bushmen of Raphali in South Africa, who were of the original seed of this planet Earth,

9 They who had come from the sea having webbed hands and gills, during the fetal stages,

10 And having a coccyx at the end of their spine.

11 Born into what is known as, Genus-Homo here, millions of years before the arrival of the certain species of Hindus from the planet Nirvana, which is their own heaven, known as the Enkiduites, 12 Their purpose was to breed a daughter who was to be named Nekaybaw, Hawwah, mother of all living, who would be able to procreate.

13 A delegation was sent to the land of Nod amongst the Cuthites, the original Hindu people.

14 The disagreeable Anaqite of Singh, the sixth planet in Orion, also called Nirvana and PROCYON, which means "before the dog," the 8th brightest binary star in the Canis Minor constellation. It is also called the Dog Star.

15 That dog being the Sirius star constellation known as the Dog Star also Kalb or as many know as Keleb, Kulaab or Kuluub.

16 Where the Hindu mixed their seed with the Shaggy.

17 Then they came down to the planet Tiamat from the constellation of Orion.

18 These Hindus that ruled from their planet Nirvana which they called heaven:

19 Were Sarasvati, also known as Satarupa, Savitri, Gayatri and Brahman, "deity of science, wisdom, and music."

20 Sita also known as Parthivi, an incarnation of Laksmi, "deity of love, prosperity and learning."

21 Supay, "deity of air. "

22 Suryasavitri, "deity of the sun, the light, and truth."

23 Kottavei, the female warrior, who was the deity of war,

24 Kama, "deity of desire, which is one of the laws of their realm,"

25 Karttikeya also called Skanda and Scanda "the six-faced deity of war," the Hindu Demon who leads the heavenly host into battle and rides a peacock.

26 It was wars that brought the peacock to your planet, now called Earth.

27 Hanuman, came here, and is known as the "the monkey deity," who was only part monkey.

28 Shiva, also called Siva, Rudra, and Nataraja came to Earth, and his wife Kali, also came to the planet Earth in order that she may stop the war and protect humans from demons,

29 And Kali slew the general of the demons,

30 And then you have Brahma, and Thessaly the charioteer of Arjuna.

31 Varuna, "deity of the sea, creator of the world and ruler of the universe."

32 Vayu, father of Hanuman, "deity of the wind."

33 Yayu, "deity of air."

34 Yama, brother and husband of his twin sister Yami who claims to have "created the human race and deity of the dead," whose souls the Yamadutas bring to him.

35 Yama has an odd greenish complexion and is a bit of a heavyset, and he currently resides in Yamapura.

36 Vishnu and his wife Lakshmi, "deity of beauty and wealth,"

37 Vaisravana and Kubera, both being called "deity of wealth."

38 Uma, also known as Bhavani, Durga, Kali Devi and Parvati, being the deity of "female creative energy," being both terrible and kind, 39 Ushas deity of "truth and light," who wakes the deities from their sleep.

40 Tandu, who is one of the principle attendants of Shiva, and was primarily "a teacher of mimicry and dancing."

41 Prithvi, the ruler on Earth. Tripurasura, a demon of 3 worlds:

42 Their planet,

43 Their moon,

44 And Earth.

45 And Matsya, Kurma, Varahs, Aditi, Agni, also known as Pavaka, Dhumaketu, Jatavedas and Anala, Surya, Asvins, Dasra, Nasatya, and Narasimha, who is half human and half lion.

46 Manasa, Mother of Nakhash, or Naqas, who is queen of serpents, grants fertility to sterile, mortal females.

47 Thessaly, who was a hermaphrodite, also known as Baphomet–The Goat Of Mendes.

48 And Vairocana, who was known as "king of demons," who was a lawful demon whose only desire is to do his job well!

49 And Vishnu, who is also called Narayana, was the overseer meaning "the soul universe," of these black, straight haired Hindu demons;

50 And Jagannath, a warrior who incarnated in the topaz skinned tone with neutral gender making him a hermaphrodite, 51 Having both male and female genitalia, as in the case of all of these Hindu demons.

52 These are the real devils with their scrolls the Upanishads and later the Baghavada Gita; and they bred the original Asiatic Black man, with 6 ether black hair, black eyes and black skin.

53 Certain species of the Hindus are descendants of the Shaggies, descendants of Enkidu one of the descendants of the original Shaggies from Sirius, a friend of Gilgamesh, who was two-thirds human and one-third Anunnagi.

54 Some of the Hindus were identified as Garubaat and classified as the disagreeable Avatars.

55 These Avatars, are those beings who incarnated on Terra, which was once the name of this planet Earth.

56 Their coming down to Earth is recorded in the Upanishads They came in crafts called Vimaanas.

57 These Hindu demons gave praise to these Avatars of the sky, 58 And these avatars that came down were the 200 fallen Aluhum and the Hindu people are descendants of them.

59 These disagreeable Aluhum were hermaphrodites having male and female genitals.

60 They arrived thousands of years ago in the land of Nod,

61 Then moved to the Earth to set up Bali, their secret homeland on Earth, where they used the images of the many thousands of creatures that incarnated to this planet Earth.

62 There in Bali, they are worshipped to this very day. Those who came from Bhogabati, which is the first planet in Dvaraka of Procyon, after the planet Nirvana, came down to help humans, and they were called Naga also called Nagini or Nagas. They were a non-violent race of serpents, reptilians, who are benevolent toward humans.

63 The ruler, king of the Naga serpents was called Takshaka who was beloved by Indra, and the queen was Manasa, the queen of serpents, who grants fertility to sterile mortal females.

64 The Naga ruler can be depended upon to assist in matters concerning peace, justice, fertility, and health spiritual enlightenment and wealth.

65 The Hindus have a strain or breed that has submerged amongst them who are dog like in appearance. They are the Jackal People.

66 It is more readily seen in the beadiness of their eyes, shagginess of their hair and the curl like nose.

67 This condition is called Hirsutism, which is an excessive growth of hair all over the body.

68 Those were the descendants of those Avatars who came to the planet Earth from the planet Nirvana, of the planet in the constellation of Orion called Singh.

69 This is the original black man.

70 For those of you, who thinks himself a black man, which is in reality green, as the greenest of olives.

71 Merely peep at the hieroglyphics of the deities on the walls in Kemet, which is today called Egypt, 72 And you will see the original color you were.

73 There is a particular strain of Hindus, who are called the Jackal People, who are water worshippers, and have deities of the water, like Hiranyaksha, a demon that held Earth prisoner beneath the waters of a flood.

74 Another breed of Hindus were beings that were one-half monkey and one-half human.

75 These are the Ab-Originals who once lived in the far east now called China.

76 These are your Monkey People who are the first breed of Shaggy, 77 And ape man, originally called Lord, which came from Lares or Lar, spirit monkeys who are known to be the most intelligent monkeys.

78 The chief was called Lard then became Lord, the Master or boss from which comes Monks, Monkey = Monk-ey, now residing in Australia, and have been for more than 30,000 years.

79 This is where monkey worship came from. The highest of all forms of worship is to worship ones self, so they claim to be descendants of great monkeys.

80 Yet, when they speak to you, they simply say great monks.

81 As well as various other forms of animals that were worshipped and are to this very day in the land of Indra called India among the Hindus; for they also know the true story of existence and of beings coming to this planet.

82 Indra, the deity, was also called Jaan, a title given to the rebellious in that time, and then when his children, the Hindus, and their descendants were multiplying on the surface of the planet Earth, then called Tiamat, which was 56 billion years ago.

83 It was 76,000,000,000 trillion years ago, when the original woolly haired deities were in their cream history, living in the air pockets in the form of gases in an etherian state. In the process of creating (and growing), this present universe, this period of time, was long before Kadmon was in the flesh.

84 The black skinned, straight haired Hindus: these beings lived on their home planet for 10 billion years, which was between the time period of 76 and 66 billion years ago.

85 It was also 76 billion years ago that the original black skinned, straight haired Hindu beings left the Canis Minor star constellation Procyon known to them as Nirvana for Kingu, the Moon. They first took residence on other planets, such as Earth, Titan, and Pluto, and then they went to Kingu, the moon, where the Lunarians, a Humanoid type Maldekian, resided, which was 66 billion years ago.

86 The head warrior of these Hindu tribes was called Bhut meaning "evil spirit."

87 These beings left their own planet, Nirvana, because of a war for power. There was much conflict amongst these Hindu demons.

88 This conflict was felt within the heart of the Lion Man, Hiranyakasipu, who on obtaining a blessing from Brahma, the creator and the absolute, who had 4 arms, 4 bodyguards and 4 mouths, and speakers, who felt as though he could not be killed either by day or shadow hour by any deity or mortal.

89 Hiranyakasipu, wanted to be ruler of the universe, which was created by the original people of Nuwaubu, the 9 ether beings.

90 Thus, he proclaimed himself ruler of their universe.

91 Hiranyakasipu opposed Vishnu.

92 This struggle for power corrupted Hiranyakasipu and it angered him so, because his son, Prahlada, was so devoted to the deity Vishnu and not him.

93 Vishnu was carried by the craft Garuda, called the Bird. It soared through the air, a craft prepared for battle as a protector and preserver of worlds.

94 Because Prahlada was so devoted to Vishnu, his father Hiranyakasipu, tried to slay him.

95 Yet he was unsuccessful, and instead, Prahlada, a pious son, called on Vishnu for help, and Vishnu burst forth from a massive craft, a cylinder in the shape of a pillar from the Demons Palace just before the shadow hour, in the form of a half man and half lion, when it was neither shadow hour nor day, exactly mid-time.

96 Vishnu slew Hiranyakasipu, and Prahlada became demon king.

97 Thus, it was destined that they move on.

98 Before they left their own planets of Procyon, Dvaraka or Nirvana, a demon was sent.

99 This demon sent was called Candra that explored Kingu before they went there, 100 And he became known as the deity of Kingu, during their last 6 billion years that they stayed on Kingu. They lived and bred with the Lunarians that lived on Kingu.

101 These Hindu Demons stayed on Kingu for not more than 10 billion years. The first 4 billion in peace and the last 6 billion or 6 days in unrest.

102 Each 1 billion years is equivalent to one day in their time.

103 Some say one day is likened unto a thousand years. Others say 1 billion years is likened to one day, or 6 sets of 1 billion years, or 6 days in Hindu symbolic time. To the Etherians it would be trillions of years.

104 They used a base on Kingu to launch to the planet Earth.

105 It was billions of years that these black skinned, straight haired beings, Hindus, were deported from Kingu because of their mischief making and the shedding of much blood. However, not all Hindus are mischief makers. Like in all cultures you have agreeable angels and disagreeable angels. There are agreeable Hindus, and there are disagreeable Hindus, just as you have agreeable Anunnagi, and disagreeable Anunnagi.

106 They, the disagreeable Hindus were made to leave by the Lunarians, the original inhabitants on Kingu, later named after their great ruler Lunar, and his people being called Lunarians.

107 The disagreeable Hindus made haste and left Lunar, their dwellings abandoned, while the agreeable Hindu returned to their home Nirvana in Procyon, a binary star in the Canis Minor constellation.

108 Then these black skinned, straight haired beings, came to the planet Tiamat, now called Earth, originally called TIWAWAT.

109 When they left Kingu, also called Lunar, now called the Moon, they landed and established the land of Chaldea, meaning "Land of Demons."

110 Then they moved on to Bali in Indonesia, where their rulers, who were hermaphrodites, became the deities;

111 Where their home now on Earth was named after Bali, the Hindu demon who reigns over three worlds simply "my Baal."

112 Vasumdhara, "the Earth,"

113 Akasa, "the Heavens, "the place where the sun shines,

114 And the atmosphere between the Heavens and the Earth, called Apas, "where the clouds do not exist."

115 Bali, was so purely demonic in his ways, that his bones became diamonds and his blood became rubies.

116 Thus, it was billions of years ago, that the disagreeable Hindus came to the planet Tiamat, now called Earth. These Humin type, hybrid beings, were brought by the hermaphrodite Hindu avatars from their planets of Procyon, Dvaraka or Nirvana, of the Canis Minor star constellation. Long after this second group of Hindu were and are the agreeable ones have bred the many great leaders, such as Shirdi Sai Baba, Satya Sai Baba, Mahatma Ghandi, Siddhartha Guatama Buddha. They first went to Kingu for 10 billion years then on to Tiamat.

117 These hybrid beings, deities were your mermaids, your unicorns, your minotaurs and other half-man, half-animal creatures.

118 Many of these beings that came to the planet Earth are what you refer to as defected beings, deformed in appearance. Those on earth today that descended from them are your people with three arms, no legs, and 6 fingers, and 6 toes, and Siamese Twins.

119 On your planet today you can find bones of creatures that are descendants of these Hindu demons.

120 These Hindu Demons to you would be extra-terrestrials, or Extra-Terra-Astrals or beings outside of Terra–another name for Earth.

121 These Hindu demons such as the Mermaids, or ATARGATIS, who was the mother of the Hindu deities meaning "sea demon" for she was the one that mixed with the reptilians for the interbreed. Thus, she is called the Sea Demon.

122 Or the one of 2,000 skeletal bones of the Centaur, that were unearthed in the island of Greece, that stood 7 feet tall, weighing 450 pounds.

123 And it is no coincidence that these bones were found in the isles of Patmos, the mountain region in Thessaly, in the Grotto meaning "caves" in the place called "my own killing," in the Aegean Sea, where Yaaquub's grafted seed, the Halaabeans, Flugelrods, or Hulub ended up after his travels ended at age 150.

124 Yaaquub's scientists carried out his plan after they had traveled from Arabia to ports around Africa, originally called GANAWAH or GNAWA, seeking just the right place,

125 For his laboratories in the making and grafting of his new Aryan race,

126 Whose very practices were carried on in later times by Hitler or Hitla, the 80th name of the 200 fallen demons,

127 The original black skinned, straight haired, Hindus called Asiatic black men and women, those that left their home in Asia, 128 Being loyal to Yaaquub's rules and regulations, and obeying his appointed Haggai.

129 These are the ones referred to as the tribe of Sheshbazzar named after one Zerubbabel, later called Shahbazza and even Shabazz by Yaaquub.

130 These Hindus were used to breed what are called the original Aryan race, seed of the Halaabean, Flugelrod, 131 And the regressive gene of the black skinned, straight haired beings called,

132 The Asiatic Black Man, was grafted into a red man, and grafted in to a yellow man,

133 Then grafted on to the pale man of the grotto or grotte meaning "caves,"

134 The Halaabeans, Flugelrods of 8,400 years ago, whose ruler was Korg.

135 This graftation should not be confused with the Albino seed, which is the cursed Canaanites, meaning "low landers," the Albino seed with the curse of leprosy, 136 The descendants of Canaan, of 4,004 years ago before 2,000 years ago, or 6,000 years ago, which was the birth of their own Adam, also called Edom "Libana".

137 Because Canaan had ruddy red skin at birth, being born with albinism before departing form the craft, and when he did blush he transformed to red, giving him the name Edom, or Adam, yet his skin was white like milk at birth, and he did get the name Libana, for "milky white", but thereafter for his disagreeableness he was cursed with Tsawrahath or in Nuwaubic "Saruthy" meaning "leprosy or a malignant skin disease in the skin of his flesh," to plague him all the days of his life.

138 To the Melaninite members of his family, this recessive melaninite child was called the devil, and was chased by his own family from the land of Kadmon, and he did end up taking refuge in the Caucasus Mountains, where Libana, was called Canaan, for he and his family moved from the heights of the mountains into the Lowlands. He was an Albino by birth, and a leper by curse, but was destined to take his wife and sister Salha, the pure Melaninite, for that was the way of that land and family.

139 Their deportation from the land of Kadmon took them to the mountain regions between the Caspian and the Black Sea, where they were later known as the Amorites, "mountain dwellers", because his son Amor's sons resided there."

140 There are as many Aryan tribes as there are Nubun tribes, which is the original name for the Nubian Ptahite Ethiopian Kuwshite.

141 The being that Yaaquub created was first called Adam, born 8,400 years ago.

142 His wife was named Lilith born 8,400 years ago, which is not to be mistaken for Kadmon, and his wife named Nekaybaw, who was born 49,000 years ago.

143 Kadmon, who was born 49,000 years ago, being of Cuthite, Hindu and Kushite, Nuwbun descent.

144 Most of the Australian Ab-Originals have their Barathary Gland, and they use their 4 higher senses, so they are called Spirit Monkey or Monks.

145 Hindus began to give reverence to the one-half animal, and one-half human creatures, that came from Kingu.

146 The Australian Aborigines have 6 ether, straight hair, even blond hair with copper tone skin.

147 Also there is the Aryan who calls himself Indo-Aryan, meaning the "noble Aryan," who is also of this cursed seed,

Tablet 3:160

148 And from their descendants, are the Shaggies, who mixed with the Hindus.

149 The physical appearance of the Aryan (the Sanskrit word meaning "noble,"), is the Albino who lived in the Caucasus or Caucasian Mountains.

150 Which is a region between the Black Sea on the west and the Caspian Sea on the east.

151 A great mountain range which raises to 18,510 feet at Mount Elbrus, 152 From the word Abras meaning "leprosy," in Ashuric, and Saruth in Nuwaubic.

153 Caucasia, a part of Russia, has an area of 170,000 thousand square miles.

154 The Greeks named it Caucasia, which is the home of the Flugelrods, as they are called in El Manee or what is called Germany today, and their original name is Halaabeans, or Hulub, which is to distinguish themselves from the descendants of Libana, Canaan, the Caucasians.

155 Carcass-Asian, Caucasian, deteriorating Asiatics.

156 Elbrus or home of those Abras beings, Lepers of the mountains, are also called the sons of Canaan,

157 Thus the term Abracadabra, a mystical word has used in incantations or as a charm to ward off disease,

158 Originally said Abras Cadaver used to mean the "bodies of lepers."

159 These sons of Canaan are those of which the tribe Amorite, meaning "mountain dwellers," comes from.

160 Elbrus housed the ancient volcano formed during the tertiary period. These periods are broken up into epochs of unequal duration. The Paleocene, Eocene, Oligocene, Miocene and Pliocene.

161 It has 2 cones rising to 18,510 feet,

162 And the other cone is 18,481 feet, where the, glaciers feed the Kuban, Malka, and Baksan rivers.

163 These mountain peaks, with their volcanoes, got their name from the Vulcans, who were of Maldek;

164 While inhabiting the mountains, they incurred difficulties in reproducing due to the lack of salt in their bodies.

165 These cavern dwelling beings, came out of their mountain dwellings with a desire to reproduce, so they were seeking Melanin-ites, for they lacked the necessary quantity of melanin in their bodies, 166 They commenced savagely raiding Nuwbun villages, killing the men, and stealing the women.

167 Then returning to the mountains with their captives, are the Albinos, Lepers; Cavemen Aboriginals, Aborigines, Amorite, Aryan, fought amongst themselves for the possession of the Nuwbun women.

168 In order to assure security, the Aryans migrated with their Nuwbun captives,

169 From the Caucasus mountains, to what is known today as India, to mix in with the original Indians, the Hindus from the planet Nirvana, or Procyon in the Canis Minor constellation

170 The merging of these 2 extreme races, of the Caucasian and the Nuwbun, brought about a being that reflects the traits of both the Negroid and the Caucasoid.

171 So you will find leprosy amongst the Negroids also.

172 While the texture of their hair varies from 6 to 8 ether,

173 Their features can vary,

174 Their skin tone can vary,

175 Their nature and behavior patterns can also vary.

176 The war between the man called the black man, the East Indian, and the man called white; the pale man, or European, is not your war Nuwaubian.

177 It is a war between man and mankind. Yet, you are deities, you are more than men.

178 Their practices led to fear and intimidation, which in turn gave birth to another kind of worship--reincarnation, over exaggerated disciplines called Yoga and Patma Yoga, where one emulates deformed beings.

179 Or piercing at the sun until they can no longer see, or fast until the poisons overcome their bodies, and they call this foolishness perfection.

180 This is the mother of religious disciplines. What fools these mortals be.

181 They teach you to worship in fear of your deity, but not out of sincere love of your deities.

182 They set up their empire in the land of Nod, ruled by Nudimmud, also known as Enqi. Some called him Merlin the Magician.

183 When the disagreeable avatara came down from Nirvana, to the Idiglat-Furattu, Tigris-Euphrates clear water, they set up Ur, "the land of fire worship."

184 The language they spoke was Sanskrit, later called Hindi, and then it mixed and became Urdu. They moved the worst of demons to a city which became known as Ur in Chaldea.

185 From this incident came the original of which Enkidu, the Shaggy one descended. He lived with and had sexual intercourse as a bestialigist, with all the beast of the outer field.

Tablet 3:185

186 The Hindus' descendants mixed in with the Enosite women of the Dogon tribes, who produced the Cuthites which is also the tribe of Atum and Lillith, who are the parents of Kadmon also known as Adam, the disagreeable Adamite.

187 They had to breed a child called Zakar, by the name Kadmon, by way of Semjasa or Atum and Lillith, 188 The rulers of the mortals in that land who were of a mixed tribe, from the 300 Anaqi that followed Enqi.

189 Those Hindu Aluhum, Anaqi who took Kishite, also called Cushite, or Enosites women, from Sawdeh, the outer field of the Dogon tribe, and they raped them.

190 When these beings came and raped the women, they told them that they were called the Nommus, and that they came from the star Sirius. However, they came from a star with one active planet called Nirvana, home of those original Hindus.

191 These disagreeable beings did not stay in the court of ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, and they did not obey ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL.

192 The deity, the great ANU was, and is, and always will be called A'LYUN A'LYUN EL. In the name of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL who is Glorified; 193 In the name of your Sustainer A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU.

194 Who created, perfected, and completes all things, and he planned and guided them;

Tablet 1:206

195 He makes all things that grow, and then reduces it to dust;

196 And the Anunnagi makes this ready for you to read so that you will not forget, except for what El Eloh wants.

197 Surely he knows and declared., and what is even hidden from El Eloh, we Anunnagi will make the way of Enosites easy;

198 And you are to remind others, by informing others of these facts, it's the best thing one can do!

199 Those Enosites that fear will heed this warning, and will be prepared for that great day of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, the Yahweh of the Anunnagi, 200 When the Crystal City will come down out of heaven prepared for the 144,000 who will be raptured.

201 The others who do not heed these facts will be committed to the lake of fire or the pit of hell.

202 His soul will never die there, yet his body does not live there.

203 Indeed those who purify themselves by re-alignment will succeed, and they will board the Crystal City, where they will be taught, and then they will come forth prepared as king of kings, and lords of lords, called rulers of those who rule now, and masters of those who teach now.

204 The first studying will be under Tammuz, who will then be known as which Sananda many simply say Christ, 205 Their Savior who is the real Messiah for one thousand years, or one day.

206 Then to return to this planet QI, to save many others who will listen and remember the name ANU of your Al Rab "Sustainer", and seek to realign themselves, or do you prefer the life on this planet? Your kingdom come on earth, as it is in Orion, for the great day of the rapture will come for those aligned, where they will be taken aboard the great craft. There to be taught by Sananda, or Tammuz, for the period of 1 day, which could be 1,000 years. Then to return as the teachers of the survivors. This will be preceded by the 7 great thunders, which are the signs of the times.

207 Although the state of this planet after the old heavens and the old Earth is taken away, and a new sky, and the new Earth is born, 208 Do you want to be here-after or as they say in the hereafter? Here-after, the rapture of the disagreeable. Religious people are tricked and taken from here. Never to return.

209 Verily all of this is in the first pages, the Sahuf, as recorded in El's Holy Qur'aan 87:19 where Abram was given his Torah, where it speaks of the coming of a man with great extraordinary powers, who will be Mashiakh to his people, a Messiah. This same person was none other than Abram, the name under which he was born, to later be known as Abraham and later Ibrahiym. Just like Merlin acted the part of the ambassador, and went to Nimrod about the birth of Abraham, so also did Nusqu the ambassador, went and talk to the Cuthites, concerning the birth of Kadmon, however they did not agree with the plan.

Say, oh you Al Kaafiruwn, those who concealed that which they know to be the facts, knowledge.
I am not a slave to what you are a slave to.
And you are not a slave for him, whom I am a slave for Al A'lyun Aly.
And I am not a slave for what you are a slave for spook gods, shrines, Kaabas,
And you are not slaving for him who I am slaving for Al Alyun Aly, Anu. You will have your diyn, way of life/decision and I will have mine.

Tablet Four
The Disagreeable Cuthites
(19 x 26 = 494)

Lo! The Cuthites rejected the ambassadors Gabriy'El Zodoq son of Rasi'El and Zamma'El, and Miyka'el Zodoq, son of Enqi and Damkina, who were called El Muslumaat.

2 Yet, they could not refuse Enqi himself, also known as Izraa'El Zodoq, son of ANU and Id,

3 Because the Cuthites were of a disagreeable nature.

4 They were called El Kafuraat, "those who conceal what they know to be true," called kaafiruwn in Ashuric Syriac Arabic.

5 Nergal became ruler of the Cuthites, a disagreeable tribe,

6 Ninti and Enqi were on the surface of Eridu, falsely called Earth,

7 While Arishkegal and Nergal were in Zuab or Abzu.

8 All of them were the children of ANU, who were rulers of the skies:

9 The Enkiduites were of a barbaric nature and they stood 7 feet tall,

10 And they were covered with 6 ether fur from head to toe. So from this you get the word barber.

11 The Enkiduites originally came to Tiamat,

12 Which is now called Earth, to hunt dinosaurs and other pre-historic animals, pre-Adama story.

13 They loved it so much, that they claimed it as home.

14 The Ptahites, also known as Kishites, were on Tiamat,

15 Now called Earth, when the Enkiduites arrived.

16 The Ptahites came from the original Genus-Homo,

17 A being that emerged from the water,

18 Who stood 4 feet tall and were called Pygmy; yet they possessed a passive nature.

19 The scientist bred two extreme natures, the barbaric Enkiduites, six ether, and the passive Ptahites, nine ether, to get the Homo-Erectus, which were the upright beings.

20 The nature of the 6 ether Homo Erectus were extremely barbaric, from the original Hindus.

21 Thus they were called Behemoth, the beast of the field, who was also bred into what later became known as Hulub, Flugelrods.

22 They were bred 2,400 years before the curse seed of Canaan, who was born an albino, but cursed a leper.

23 Yet, the nature of the 9 ether Homo-Erectus called Nubuns, was extremely passive, along with all of the seeds bred by their mixing between them and the taller tribe called Dunaakial.

24 The original members of the Hulub, Flugelrods and the Dunaakial, never exited the caverns of the Earth to become surface dwellers again. Many of the dissatisfied amongst them came to the surface. They are often called the 7 men of the caves with their backs to the light, seeing only shadows of themselves.

25 But of their seeds, did these tribes of beings come, the Negroid of the Dunaakial, dark skinned, woolly hair, wide nose, big lips, and the Caucasoid of the Flugelrods, blonde haired blue eyed, and pale skin.

26 Also, in the caverns of the Earth, not as far down as Shamballah, for there are 8 caverns; therein you'll find the TEROS, as they are called by the Al Manee, Germans. However, originally they are called Sunaynans or Siyniyn.

27 You'll also find the Duwaani, also called Leprechauns, or Bucks, and you also have the Deros, originally called Sumuwnean, or Saamiyn, and the Ganesha, or Ganesh, Ganesa' and Ganapati that is the 4th and favorite son of Siva He was called the king of obstacles and the leader of the impish attendants of Siva. He was used before battles to prevent snags and hinderances. He is portrayed with an elephant's head, and a pot-belly and 2 forearms, often holding a pot of sweet meats, and a radish, or holding one of his tusks in his hand and prayer beads. The fact that this Hindu deity has an elephant head and trunk is no coincidence.

28 And you also have the Shuyukh, or Dunaakial, who originally left the planet RIZQ and took residence in Shamballah, but eventually had to set up their own cavern.

29 The chief of the Dunaakial called Rabboni Fuquur, the negroid seed, or Muur married a Sunaynan Tero, the Mongoloid seed,

30 A brown seed chieftain's daughter named Lusinas against her will just to establish peace in the caverns.

31 For the Dunaakial were being attacked by the Saamiyn Dero who the and Yiskhawk was a Dunaakial, who also had large craniums.

52 But his wife named Lusinas, was herself disagreeable from the tribe of agreeable Teros, who had a dome shaped skull. This combination produced the unsightly Yaaquub. The Teros, lived in an adjacent cavern to the Dunaakials.

53 The Tero Lusinas, refused to stay amongst the Dunaakials, for she was always teased about her cone-shaped head.

54 Thus, she came to the surface to seek out the surface Dunaakial. This surface dwelling Dunaakial, who was brother of her husband Yiskhawk, was abstract looking, amongst surface dwellers, for his cranium was extremely large.

55 This mixture gave birth to Yaaquub. Yet, they were the wisest of the wise in that land. They referred to them simply as "the aliens", because of their contact with the Pleiadeans.

56 Not only did her son have a head the size of 2 men, but 2 brains, both activated by visitors from Aldebaran, a double star in the Taurus Constellation, and Pleiades, a cluster of stars in the Taurus Constellation.

57 His name was called Yaaquub, who was also known as Yahakobe, son of Yiskhawk.

58 He is also known as Yakub, as well as Yacob-Har, Yacob-El, or Bar Yishkawk.

59 His mother's name was Lusinas, the Tero of the original tribe of Lunarians who came to this planet to dwell beneath the surface. The Lunarians occupied Kingu before the Hindu, or the Maldekians came there.

60 She was not in agreement with a Tero marrying a Dunaakial for political reasons.

61 Rebelling, being weak, and wicked, her trials and tribulations led to her desire to destroy men.

62 Unknowing to her that this was prophesied by the wise 24 scientist called Magus, the Magi, who by the stars; who predicted his birth 15,000 years ago, and charted this birth to be 8,400 years, when he was actually born.

63 So he was born in the house, in the land of his uncle, Ammo, 20 miles outside of Bekka, and later to return there at age 5, 64 With a determined idea to bring about a new people and to teach them to rule for 6,000 years.

65 This creation was not to be perfected or completed until his people reached the place called Pelion. A peak, 1,601.9 m (5,252 ft) high, of northeast Greece in the mountain region of eastern Thessaly.

66 His beast like people took refuge in the caves of these mountains ruled by an Enkiduite called Chiron, son of Kronus and his wife Philyra.

67 Kronus was born a Centaur because Kronus had his genes spliced with a horse. Kronus did this in order to deceive his original wife Rhea, also called Rhiya.

68 Chiron and Artemis were educated by Apollo himself and Together, They were the masters of medicine.

69 Apollo was the son of Zeus and Leto, called the deity of light, the sun, alchemy, and medicine, who coined the phrase "Know thyself," a phrase used by his followers throughout time.

70 This is their story, as recorded by Mormon: Long ago a spirit child was Siyniyn, Tero, were supposed to keep under control,

32 Because they were violent, destructive, and aggressive beings.

33 So, to bring about a peaceful co-existence, the chief of the Teros, whose name was Laamsa, gave his daughter to Fuquur, the chief of the Dunaakial.

34 Fuquur gave his daughter, Radiyyah to Laamsa, chief of the Teros, to marry his oldest son named Haatif.

35 Lusinas bore Fuquur no children. She, by shadow hour, left the caverns and went to the surface and sought out Fuquur's brother Yiskhawk.

36 Who lived in the best part of the planet, in the Enclosed Garden in Saudia Arabia in Mecca.

37 She was welcomed by Yiskhawk, who hated his twin brother, Fuquur who took his wife, Lusinas, as his own.

38 Fuquur and Yiskhawk had 5 other brothers, namely: Ammo, Hasiy, Ramah, Akhsad, and Tunday. All save the first 2 stayed within the caverns.

39 Ammo, who was also a runaway, lived 20 miles outside of the Enclosed Garden at the site where the bodies of Kadmon and Eve are buried called Mount Arafat.

40 There was originally a village within which an illegitimate birth between Yiskhawk and his brother Fuquur's wife Lusinas occurred. Lusinas was mad at her father, Laamsa, for giving her away, for she always longed to marry a Tero, such as herself.

41 So she, out of anger, had a child by Yiskhawk, the disagreeable, yet reformed brother of Fuquur, so her child would be of no service to her tribe.

42 They gave birth to an unsightly being, with the head the size of 2 men, by no fault of his own.

43 As a child, he was the object of much attention, because he had the head the size of 2 men, and when he grew up, many referred to him as the "Big Head Scientist. "

44 Yaaquub, as he was called, wanted to get revenge on his people for their scorn and their mockery. This was an opportune time for disagreeable Pleiadeans from Pleiades a star cluster in the Taurus constellation, to tap into his brains and inspire an unsightly thing.

45 He was led to have faith, that he could create a race of people that would rule over his own people and then the whole planet.

46 The people around him that got air of his diabolical plan would ask him, "will these people be wicked and war like?"

47 He simply answered, "Only I know that answer, you do not."

48 He knew that he would be their God. He got his idea 8,400 years ago. The process would take 600 years, which would take him to the year 7800.

49 Yet, the curse seed of Canaan would manifest 6,600 years ago according to their story, or his-story.

50 This God Yaaquub created his own Adam in his image, after his likeness. In the image of a human being, wicked, and weak-minded, that was overcome with jealousies and envies. He was born with a inferiority complex and to subject the world to their wish of superiority. A new man, a kind of man, simply man-kind.

51 Yaaquub owed his peculiar appearance to the fact that he was mixed. For Teros were hydrocephalic born named Taaghuwt, to a well known race of blonde-haired, blue- eyed beings.

Tablet 4:70

71 His parents were Jinn and Jinnat. Later he was to be re-born, or re-incarnated to physical parents.

72 Through obedience, death, and resurrection, the spirit child elevated to be amongst the deities.

73 They believed this one, Taaghuwt to be their Lord, a heavenly father, calling him Aluhum, El Na-ur and Khanaas, who lived near a star called Kuluub in the Pleiades constellation near to their Lords and Masters.

74 Taaghuwt became the Prince of Cherubs, and he had billions of spirit children called Jinns, that were born giving him the title Jann, ruler of the Jinns.

75 So Aluhum as the heads of the deities, called a great council meeting, to decide the destiny of these disagreeable spirit children.

76 Both of the Aluhum's elder sons were there; Diablus and his brother Ziusus:

77 A plan was presented to them to go to Tiamat and rebuild there, and then to send these spirit children to live;

78 And take on mortal bodies, and learn agreeableness from disagreeableness in hopes to alter their nature for the best.

79 Diablus stood up and put his bid in as savior of the new world;

80 Wanting all the glory for himself; forcing all to become deities under him.

81 Thus, he became known as Abaalas.

82 Opposing this idea, Ziusus said, "Why not give them freedom of choice as other beings?"

83 The vote that followed was in favor of Ziusus.

Tablet 1:97

84 This enraged Diablus, who convinced a great many of the spirits destined to go to Tiamat the Earth, to revolt.

85 Thus, Diablus became the devil and his followers became demons.

86 Those who stayed neutral in decision were cursed with black skin;

87 This is your dark-skinned, straight-haired Hindu also called Dravidians.

88 Those spirit children, destined to be banished from their own star constellation of Kuluub, also Keleb, fought on behalf of them not wanting to be exiled to the planet Earth;

89 They would in time be grafted and would become pale-skinned and be born to human parents.

90 One of the Dravidians and his wife came down to Earth as their Adam and Eve to start their race.

91 Then thousands of years after that, a Dravidian named Krunuus came in human form to Earth, 92 From the star base Kuluub, to have sex with the virgin Rhiya to provide Ziusus with a physical body.

93 After Ziusus came to adulthood, he took three wives: Maia, Metis and Mnemosyne;

94 And fathered a number of children;

95 Amongst them were Apoleia, father of Hamartiyah, from which many pale-skinned earthlings claim to be a direct descent, before his crucifixion.

96 Many think him to be Yashua Bar Dawiyd, Ha Mashiakh, Yashua Ebun Dawud, El Masuh.

97 After Ziusus resurrected, he appeared in The Land of Frogs to the Navajo, who are of the original Yisraeliy or Yaqobites.

Tablet 4:98 Tablet 4:109

98 By 421 A.D. the dark-skinned Navajo tribe, called also Lamanites, who are of the original Hopi tribe, had come to this land 16,000 years ago.

99 The name Hopi comes from the word Hopitu-Shinumu meaning "peaceful people." The Hopis first settled in Oraibi, Arizona, America. They descended from Hapi, the fourth son of Har, "high up on the mountain," the ancient name for Horus of Egypt, whose symbol was the falcon and each of his sons symbolize a falcon as well, which resulted in the Hopi tradition of the kachina doll, which is a symbol of the spirit embodying the power of the divine eagle spirit called Kwahu.

100 His other sons were Imset, Qebehsenuf, Duamuttef, and the last was Hapi. They protected the dead. Horus was the son of Osiris and Isis, not to be mistaken with another Horus, who was the brother of Set and the son of Amon Ra, the grandfather of Osiris.

101 They were guided to this "sacred place" by way of a "flying craft (saucer)," that was piloted by Kachina, the deity of the Hopi.

102 The deity Maasau, placed in the hands of the Hopi, a set of stone tablets called Tiponi, a symbol of power and authority. The Hopis are direct descendants of more ancient Anasazi, who claim their origin from the "star people." The word Anasazi is from a Navajo word, meaning "the ancient ones". The Anasazi built the numerous communal dwellings, or pueblos, many now in ruins, on the high plateau of the Southwestern United States.

103 Hopi prophecies contain stories of the inner earth city called Palatkwapi, which have secret openings or passageways leading inward and downward to the inner Earth, which are located throughout the Grand Canyon area in northwest Arizona, America.

104 They say that the beings that built the inner earth city came from Pleiades. The Hopis also claim that the inhabitants who live in this city are humanoid type beings; some 7 feet tall, with blonde hair and blue eyes, who have small holes in the middle of their foreheads, containing the third eye, and was the symbol of their telepathic power.

105 These inhabitants that they are referring to are the Flugelrods. Palatkwapi was the name of the Flugelrod's cavern which has an entrance in the Thessaly mountains, A region of east-central Greece between the Pindus Mountains and the Aegean Sea, as well.

106 Their history can be traced to Pleiades often called Seven Sisters. The Hopi have, named them Choo Ho Kan meaning "those that cling together." They claim their descendancy had a direct connection with these Pleiadeans.

107 They had defeated all the spirit children who were pale-skinned Nephilians called Nephites in a great battle.

108 The battle was recorded on gold plates in Cuneiform.

109 Joseph Smith said he had stumbled upon them in his own backyard in the New Babylon in America.

Mururry or Moroni, the last Nephilian, who buried them in hills of Kaamurat, 1,400 years lasted a descendant of Mururry, son of Mormon named Joseph Fielding Smith Jr., who was known for his lies and storytelling, who tells of his ancestry, his family members and their early abodes. He tells of an unusual excitement about religion and how it is to prevail in the western world, namely New York. He determines to seek wisdom as directed by James, claiming the father and son appeared and Joseph, is then called to his prophetic ministry, being born in Vermont, America. He calls himself Prophet of the Mormons, a German word meaning "bugbear, a spectre, a hobgoblin, a ghoul, a gargoyle, a spirit, a spook, an ogre." Wherefore, it was an abridgment of the record of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites-written to the Lamanites, who are a remnant of the house of Israel; and also to Jew and Gentile-written by the way of commandment, and also by the spirit of prophecy and of revelation-written and sealed up that and hid up unto the lord; that they might not be destroyed-to come forth by the gift and power of god unto the interpretation thereof by the gift of God.

110 He was raised to the height of prophethood, because he claimed to have had visions,

111 That instructed him to organize an assembly, because all Ziususite creeds are an abomination, and they disregard the original rules and regulations, 112 And of their original purpose, which was the conquering and ruling over the planet, and the spawning new families throughout.

113 Greece became the home of these spirit children, who had manifested in the flesh, and were indeed goblins. Greece was their home base.

114 The seed of Yaaquub, was to seek them out for unknown reasons.

115 The hidden meaning was in the real name Patmos. The place of my own killing that is Patmos, in the Aegean Sea, 116 That is Greece, where this mad scientist Yaaquub, was to create a new race to destroy his own people and himself.

117 Yet he died at age 150, and never saw the completion of his creation.

118 They were all to be healthy, strong, and good breeders. This new god, Yaaquub, made the Flugelrods by genetic splicing called grafting. They were called Gews or Jews.

119 To show forth his power and his wisdom, declaring himself the righteous, and he made a people genetically and mentally weak, to give them the power to rule.

120 Then he intended to eliminate them to show and prove that he is god; always was and always will be.

121 So his mother left Shamballah during the shadow hours.

122 She surfaced and sought out the home of Fuquur's brother, Yiskhawk, who lived in Bakka.

123 This is where the story of Plato of the 7 men in the cave comes from 124 These are the 7 brothers namely: Fuquur, Yiskhawk, Ammo, Hasiy, Rahma, Akhsad, and Tunday.

Let me show in a figure how far our nature is enlightened or un-enlightened.
Behold human beings living in the underground cave, which has a mouth open towards the light.
Here they have been from their childhood and are chained, so they can only see what is in front of them,
Behind them a fire is blazing and they are not allowed to turn their heads.
So like ourselves, they see only their own shadows, the shadows of one another or of

Tablet 4:124

objects they possess, which the fire throws on the opposite wall of the cave.
Further, this prison has an echo which is heard from people on the outside.
The prisoners within have always fancied when one of the passersby passing shadow.
To them the truth is literally nothing but shadows, of true images they know nothing.
Look again now! You see what will naturally follow if the prisoners are set free and come to realize their error?
At first when one of them is liberated and suddenly compelled to turn his head and look towards the light, he will suffer sharp pains, the glare will distress him, he will be unable to see the realities of which in his former state of illusion he saw only the shadows. He will, at first, fancy that the shadows that he formerly saw are truer than the real objects which are now revealed to him.
He will be required to grow accustomed to the sight of the upper world. At first he will see the shadows best.
Last of all, he will be able to see the sun in its own proper place and not merely its reflections.
He will then overstand that the things, which he and his fellows, have been accustomed to behold. When he remembers his old habitation and the wisdom of the cave and of his fellow prisoners, he will pity them.
And if the inhabitants of the cave have been in the habit of conferring honors among themselves, he will no longer care for such honors or envy the possessors of them.
He will endure anything rather than think as they do and/or live after their manner.
And if such a one were suddenly to come back out of the sun and place himself again

Tablet 4:134

in his old situation, he would be certain to have his eyes full of darkness.
It would be very bad for him if there were a contest and he had to compete in measuring the shadows with the prisoners who had never moved out of the cave.
In such an instant, the men of the cave would say of him, he went up and down he came without his eyes.
They will maintain that it is better not even to think of ascending.
Hence, if anyone tried to loose another prisoner from the cave and lead him up to the light, let them only catch the offender and they would put him to death.

125 And Yiskhawk was put to death for that very reason.

126 For violating the sacred oath of the Dunaakial, by marrying, Fuquur, his brother's, wife.

127 This further outraged the already deranged Yaaquub.

128 Lusinas, mother of Yaaquub, was dissatisfied with the tranquillity of Shamballah.

129 Living under Dunaakial rules and regulations,

130 She found the home of Yiskhawk who took her in, and they birthed an illegitimate child.

131 His mother, Lusinas, overcome by grief at the remembrance of her home Shamballah, died an untimely death, 132 And the following year Yiskhawk, was killed leaving the 5 year old Yaaquub parentless.

133 Yaaquub, started school at the age of 4. By age 6 Yaaquub, was living with his uncle Ammo, 134 The brother of his father, Yiskhawk, who himself, many years before, was cast from Shamballah, for disagreeable activity. Thus, he also took residence on the surface of the Earth. Yaaquub was living with Ammo, in his home 20 miles outside of Bekka. He was fascinated by magnetism.

Tablet 4:134

135 This further affected the mental state of this now young man.

136 Living in the area where the original Garden of Eden was, yet 20 miles outside of the original site of the enclosed garden of delight;

137 In a village in a mountain region called Arafat.

138 The foundation of the garden of delight was built by Arazu and Ashnan was responsible for the grain and the sustenance of the garden.

139 And this enclosed garden of delight was to be the best part of the planet Earth. It was ruled by one of the 120 Akhashdarfan, appointed by Kowresh, who ruled from the seat of Medas, in Chaldea land of the demons.

140 At the age of 18 Yaaquub had already finished all of the schools of learning in his day and time.

141 This is where Yaaquub was to convert the people needed for the breeding of his new race.

142 In the task of making a disagreeable, wicked, and physically weak being with the ability to rule with a special kind of reverse knowledge,

143 Yaaquub had a verbal fight with the Aluhum of the holy city, who opposed him about deserting his people, 144 And going off to make a new people that would be weak and wicked, that use their evil nature to try and conquer the righteous.

145 They would be called the devil and their life span to rule would be 6,000 years, which they would have lived as a new nation.

Tablet 4:155

146 Then reverse "lived," and you get "devil" and "live" in reverse is "evil."

147 Why reverse? Because his nation was born with dyslexia and they wrote from left to right, as opposed to the original right to left. Long before Yaaquub was allowed to begin his undertaking, the word spread of his plan.

148 One of the Aluhum stepped forward of the righteous nation named Maluk, whose job was to try to convince him not to undertake this evil act.

149 It resulted in a physical fight against Yaaquub,

150 That lasted from 6:00 P.M. during the shadow hours, straight on pass 12:01 A.M., the next day. Thus it is said that they fought up until the next day.

151 Yaaquub had his right leg disjointed.

152 Yaaquub inquired of this Aluhum, who was a mortal man in physical form, at the end of the fight, "What is your name?" Only to be told, "It is not written for you to know my name."

153 This fight took place in Penial, located on the north bank of the Jabbok close to the Jordan for Yaaquub came face to face with an El.

154 From that day on Yaaquub was crippled, walking with a limp, carrying a cane.

155 This man opposed the fact that Yaaquub left the camp during the shadow hours, and he was trying to cross the lake of Jabbok, a stream which intersects the mountain range of Gilead, and falls into the Jordan on the east about midway between the Sea of Galilee and the Dead Sea, with his assistants of doctors, nurses, and cremators, which by shadow hours they deserted all the rest of his family.

156 And this Maluk, declared that he would break both his legs before he let him pursue this undertaking, in the making of this new breed of people from his own genes being an original Negroid, and brown Mongoloid germ.

157 The Negroid (black) germ from his blood--the blood of the Dunaakial, and the Mongoloid (brown) germ from his blood - the blood of the Tero, who had mixed with Pleiadeans long ago.

158 The conflict broke out and the fight ensued.

159 And when Yaaquub's leg was dislocated, he held onto Maluk as the wicked troops of Shakhar was coming over the horizon.

160 Maluk said, " Let me go."

161 And you will have the blessing of the God of the Babylonian Ishtar, the God of the Egyptians Ra, and the God of the Sumerians El.

162 You will have their blessings. Just don't pursue your undertakings.

163 You shall be called Is = Ishtar, Ra = Amon Ra, and El = Eluh."

164 That represented the 3 most powerful Gods on the planet at the time, Isis, Ra, and El, thus he became known as Israel, touched by the hand of an Aluhum, you say Yisra'El.

165 Yaaquub agreed yet deceived him. Saying to all that he had got the blessings, which had given him consent to continue across the stream of Jabbok, and to continue in his undertaking on his journey to Pelion, a peak, 1,601.9 m (5,252 ft) high, of northeast Greece in eastern Thessaly, in the isles of Patmos, an island of southeast Greece in the Dodecanese Islands in the Aegean Seas, 166 Where he was going to create his people and make them weak and wicked and give them the power to rule for 6,000 years.

167 Yaaquub was captured.

168 As Yaaquub made converts in and around the holy city of Bekka, persecution set in. The authorities became afraid of such powerful teachings, 169 With promises of luxury and making slaves of others.

170 As they began making arrest of those who believed the teachings, the officers would go back and find, and to their surprise, others were still teaching and believing it.

171 Finally, they arrested Yaaquub. However, it only increased the teachings. They kept persecuting and arresting Yaaquub's followers until they filled all the jails called, a prison or Sajun, beneath the desert sands.

172 The 120 appointed Akashdarfan officers finally reported to the new ruler, named Kowresh, that there was no room for the prisoners.

173 They had no more room for Yaaquub's converted followers, who were enraged for his abuse.

174 They dragged Yaaquub from his cell to the middle of the city. There they built a stone pillar in the center of the town, and called it the Seat of Satan called Al Ula,

175 Where they tied Yaaquub and asked the people of that city,

176 Should he be worshipped, praised, or stoned?

177 They choose to stone him and call him Shaytaan.

178 Yaaquub's followers rioted in the prisons.

Tablet 4:179

179 All the jails were filled and they said, "When we go back out into the streets, we found them still teaching." This is what was reported to King Kowresh.

180 "What shall we do with them?" The King questioned the officers on just what his teachings were, 181 And of the name of the leader.

182 They replied, "Haggai," when the officers had given the King the answers to everything, the King said, "this is not the name of that man.

183 This man is Yaaquub, the Negroid scientist, an alien to our land, a mischief maker in the land. This Shaytaan was predicted by our Magus 15,000 years ago."

184 On entering the prison, the King was shown Yaaquub's cell. The walls were lined with sketches and plans of his future experiments.

185 The ruler said, "So you are Yaaquub?"

186 He said, "Yes I am."

187 The King said, "Yaaquub, I have come to see if we could work out some agreement, that would bring about an end to this trouble. What would you suggest?"

188 Yaaquub told the King Kowresh, "If you give me and my followers everything to start a civilization as you have, and furnish us with money and other necessities of life for 20 years, I will take my followers and we will go from you."

189 The King was pleased with the suggestion, and request made by Yaaquub, was sent to Mithredath, the money exchanger, and it was agreed to take care of them for 20 years, until Yaaquub's followers were able to go for themselves.

190 After learning who Yaaquub was, believing him to be Shaytaan, or the devil himself, they all were afraid of him, and they were glad to make almost any agreement with him and his followers.

191 This is the history or future of Yaaquub and his people, the Asiatic Black Men and Women, black people with 6 ether, straight hair of Hindu descent.

192 Upon his release, Yaaquub was not allowed to preach, yet his head prophet, called Haggai, prepared his followers.

193 But for his master plan he needed to convert loyal followers, that would obey him regardless of who or what!

194 This was executed by the loyal ones.

195 Before this secret project could begin, there must be a great many people converted to his beliefs.

196 He first traveled 20 miles inland from his uncle's house to the holy sight, where the tree of knowledge did sit.

197 There he started to preach in the streets of Bekka again,

198 Making such host of converts that the authorities increasingly concerned, finally exiled him.

199 He and a small band of his followers, the doctors, the nurses, and the cremators crossed northward up and over the Jordan, and over to Egypt, which was originally called Tah, meaning "land", and also Ta-mara, meaning "land of Ra", where they took ships into the Aegean Sea to await the arrival of his guinea pigs.

200 He died of a brain tumor at age 150 before they arrived. But his scientists were prepared.

Tablet 4:201

201 The scientists or his wisemen, "El Hakumaat" of his day said it couldn't be done. He departed, for they planned a plan to kill him, and exile his followers.

202 However, those who supported his undertakings prepared the greatest fleet of ships to sail.

203 Haggai, with 59,999 followers, sailed on a journey for a home in Ganawa, there to stay for 50,000 years, or until the new cycle.

204 This journey took him and the Prophet Yaaquub's followers completely around the continent.

205 But not before there was a great falling away, and dissatisfaction amongst his, Yaaquub's, followers, in fact about 9/10ths of them were dissatisfied; for many did not want to leave their home land.

206 Great ships were prepared at the dock port in Sudan called Sawdeh, the outer field.

207 The Asiatic black man, who were followers of Yaaquub, and lived on the best part of the planet Earth, were banished for following this alien, in disregards of the laws of their own land.

208 The time came for them to seek a new homeland of their own. Yaaquub promised them a land flowing with milk and honey, and streets paved in gold.

209 On this journey, as rumor spread from ship to ship that Yaaquub's scientists were doing blood tests and experimenting and even throwing overboard those they couldn't use, or were panic stricken, and they began to jump ship at several ports.

210 Sheshbazzar, called Haggai himself, jumped ship in Cape Town, being without guidance.

Tablet 4:226

211 They wanted to go home and repent.

212 These descendants of the dissatisfied had no remorse against their ancestors, the Chaldeans, Hindus.

213 They just wanted to return to their home land of Asia.

214 Their leader Zerubbabel, known also as Sheshbazzar, which became the name of this lost tribe, and Haggai,

215 Thus having boarded the ships 600 heads per ship making 100 ships;

216 Unbeknown to them, it would take them around the whole continent of Ganawa.

217 Oduduwa, which is another name for Sheshbazzar, he led the tribe Shabazz on a pathless journey.

218 The journey was to a place called Oyo.

219 The people there referred to his followers as Yoruba.

220 They called him Obata'alah. His priesthood was called Orisha; each was an Oba or a Papal. He was the first pope.

221 They sailed around the whole of Ganawa. There were 59,999 and Sheshbazzar or Oduduwa called Baba Sheshbazzar made the 60 thousandth person.

222 They had to make a 360 circle of Ganawa leaving off the Suez Canal.

223 They sailed in 100 boats with 600 people each.

224 Sheshbazzar himself was on the first ship.

225 Sheshbazzar jumped ship in Cape Town and never completed the journey. It was there that he died at age 120.

226 He is known to have wandered throughout Ganawa as the wise old elder and sat in the circle of elders in

Tablet 4:226

Omdoowanban,
227 Where the eternal fire burns and there he was buried.
228 Many of the ships never made it. They docked along the shores of Ganawa.
229 The original name of Africa was GANAWA, or GNAWA.
230 They often mixed up the name Cuthites with the name Cushites.
231 These Cuthites were mixed Hindus, having straight hair, and they were the original black man.
232 Not to be mistaken with the incarnated Gods who already lived in Ganawa and had woolly hair.
233 The Port of Sudan was their launching point in the Red Sea, or Reed Sea, and they passed through Mandeb.
234 Some jumped ship in Djibouti where you find black skin and straight hair.
235 They were passing through the Gulf of Aden, land of the Nabateans, 236 Through the tip of Mandeb, passed on over to Eil in Somalia, where there is black skin and straight hair.
237 You have people who jumped ship in Massawa, Ethiopia where there is black skin and straight hair;
238 On to Somalia, where there is black skin and straight hair.
239 They went down to Kenya, where there is black skin and straight hair.
240 And on to Tanzania, where there is black skin and straight hair.
241 Down to Mozambique, where there is black skin and straight hair.
242 Going around from the Indian Ocean, on around to the Atlantic stopping off at Cape Town, where Sheshbazzar disappeared:
243 The ships continued on up to the

Tablet 4:253

Atlantic Ocean.
244 They dropped people off in Walvis Bay, an inlet of the Atlantic Ocean, on the western coast of Namibia where the people have black skin and straight hair, 245 They proceeded on up, and they stopped in Luanda and Angola.
246 When they arrived in Angola they had to break port,
247 Because the Angolans referred to them as Negra and they attacked their ships.
248 This term was later to change into Negra Omega or simply Negroes "those dead blacks," Negra or Morenos or Moors. They were called Muur, by the French, and some grafted this term Muur into their language from what they were being called in the Latin Morenos, Moor for blackness, which was a compliment to the term "Negra", meaning "Black." The Muurs were called Moors, also spelled Moore, Maur, and prefixes many names today, as Mar, in Martin, Morris, Morrison, Mauritania, Morgan, Morehead, Maurice, Maurine, Morgan, Morell, Morehouse, Marie, Maori Murphey, and many more. Even the prefix of Irish names, such as Mc-Donald, Mcdouglas, Mcdougal, Mcveigh, Mc-Cray. The MC-, was the abbreviation for the presence of Moors in Ireland.
249 So they took residence and named the place Nigeria, home of the Yoruba tribes.
250 But the woolly haired people of that land refused to mix with them.
251 So they were forced to depart only leaving their religious system of Orishi,
252 A system of ancestral worship,
253 Which they brought from Arabia, called Yoruba.

Tablet 4:254

254 The land where Teraphims have always been worshipped. Such as the moon deity Allah, which in 1950, Wendell Phillips, W.F. Albright, Richard Bower and othes excavated sites at Qataban, Timna, and Marib, the ancient capital of Sheba. Thousands of inscriptions from walls and rocks in Northern Arabia have also been collected. A major temple to the Moon-god was excavated at Hazor in Palestine. Two idols of the Moon God were found. Each was in stature of a man sitting upon a throne with a crescent moon carved on his chest. Several smaller statues were also found which were identified by their inscriptions as the "daughters" of the Moon-god. Reliefs and votive bowls were used in worship of the "daughters of Allah", and they have also been discovered. The three daughters, Al-lat, Al Uzza and Manat are sometimes depicted together with Allah, the Moon-god, represented by a crescent moon above them.

255 Their religious system was created with the ability to adapt to anyone else's culture.

256 As in the case of Santeria, or Brujeria, or Voodoo, also called Jou-Jou,

257 Where the Yoruba Gods Shango,

258 Oshun,

259 Yemeyah,

260 Oya,

261 Ogune,

262 Eshu-Elegrbara,

263 Shopona-Sonoponno-Olode-Ilegbig bona,

264 Yemonja-Okokun,

265 Olu-Gbo,

266 Osanyin,

267 Orisha-Oko,

268 Agemo,

Tablet 4:286

269 Orunsen, and

270 Oduduwa.

271 This was taught by their great ancestor and god Yaaquub.

272 The religious system was created to be able to supplant itself over others,

273 And absorb them like a dying star consumes other stars.

274 It vamped down on Judaism to create Islaamism.

275 It vamped down on Christianity to create Santeria.

276 It vamped down on Satanism to create Voodoo.

277 Then the ships continued up the Atlantic Ocean to Sierra Leone where there is black skin and straight hair.

278 Straight on up to Mauritania, where there is black skin and straight hair,

279 To Morocco, where there is black skin and straight hair,

280 Pass through Port Of Tangia where there is black skin and straight hair.

281 Onto the Mediterranean Sea; where they stopped off in Algeria, where there is black skin and straight hair, and Bizerte in Tunisia, where there is black skin and straight hair;

282 And stopped off in Tripoli in Libya, where there is black skin and straight hair, 283 In Alexandria of Egypt, where there is black skin and straight hair.

284 They supplanted themselves on the seashores of mother Ganawa.

285 Mixing in, and taking control, these Black Skin and straight hair tribes never ventured into the heart of Ganawa. But controlled the ports and Seacoast;

286 They fathered the slave trade of the

Tablet 4:286

woolly haired from Zanzibar,

287 Giving the slave the original name Zinji, from the Native American word Zinni, meaning "Black Skinned", before Negro, but not before Muur that became Moor.

288 The Lost Tribe of Shabazz are still the majority on the sea coast around mother Ganawa.

289 They replaced their X with Arabic names.

290 They called themselves by new names, Egyptians, Ethiopians, Djiboutians, on around to Mauritanians, Moroccans, Tanzanians till this day.

291 So then, they sailed north across the Mediterranean to Cyprus, 292 Where they were home with their original mother Goddess Europa; stopping first at the Isles of Crete, where Yaaquub's rules and regulations and system on grafting and making were prepared.

293 Those that remained behind, by jumping ships at different ports in Ganawa, stayed and oppressed the original woolly haired NUWBUNS, 294 Introducing them to mythological religious beliefs such as New Yoruba, New Islaam, Judaism, Christianity, and a host of others, which later became the enchantment or the spell.

295 They also call the spell a Hex "He - X" like John, who's the "He" and the "X" also called the Hexagram "He-X-Agram."

296 The hexagram is the symbol of the six pointed star, which again is the form of a Swastika, the seal of the Illuminati of light and fire, 297 Symbolizing their 6,000 years of rulership over the original Ishmaelites, Israelites, and Midianites.

Tablet 4:308

298 The word "gram" meaning "a seed," ties in for this was the grafting of a Zera meaning "an offspring or seed," symbolic of the sixth letter of the Aramic alphabet, and the sixth letter in the Arabic alphabet Setah, and the sixth letter in the Greek alphabet, which is Zeta, a symbol of a snake.

299 The word Zeta is of Hebrew origin meaning "zaiyn" from the root word Zan, 300 Which is where they get Ziynah, which means "abomination." Note: the use of the letter "Z" repeatedly.

301 Their symbol is hidden in Zig Zag Zig, which is Za (z) Za (z) Za (z) or 6 6 6.

302 Zig Zag Zig is the German word Zickzake, meaning "to turn in the wrong direction."

303 The beings that inspired Yaaquub, as well as the Yaaquub of this day, Hitler, are from Zeta Reticula, also referred to as the Mizar Constellation.

304 Remember, seed is from Middle English, from Old English saed, sed, from Latin sēmen, from the Greek sperma, meaning "sperm" or "seed" or the number 6 in Greek which is again Hex.

305 Or Xe for Xenon the 54th element and it's colorless, or the absence of melanin from the Greek neuter of Zenos for strange.

306 Neuter means "neither feminine or the original hermaphrodites;" and the parents of these Hindus whose religion was called Zen or Xen from Xeno meaning "stranger."

307 And the religion Zen Buddhism is traced back to Hindus in India.

308 Now, the hexagon, also called a polygon with six sides, the number of

Figure 86
Adolf Hitler

Tablet 4:308

the sum of these angles are 720 degrees.

309 That would be 360 degrees of the spiritual and 360 degrees of the physical.

310 When the sides are equal on all sides, the hexagon is called regular, and each interior angle is 120 degrees.

311 The followers of Yaaquub were only given 120 degrees of knowledge, not 360, and not 720.

312 They only use 6 ounces of brain and the Asiatic blacks use 7 and one half ounces of brain, but you have 10 billion neurons and your brain weight is 52 ounces.

313 Their reticula formation or the inner laser beam that directs the impulses to the two halves of the brain for action and reaction, is defected.

314 Even the slaves of the slave trade are led to have faith that they are of this Lost Tribe of Shabazz, and don the Swastika in the form of an X, until they too can take on an Arabic name.

315 From Alexandria the journey continued on to their new home.

316 These Asiatic Black Men, with straight hair, had a dissatisfied nature; evil dwelled within them.

317 So their wise scientist met with the elders of the Dunaakial and they decided to try to graft the evil out of their nature.

318 The results: the Flugelrods came out of this genetic splicing, and the graftation in attempts, to remove their disagreeable side, for evil lived within these Asiatic Black Men, 319 Original Hindus since their evil ancestors came to visit the planet between the time periods of 76 billion years to 66 billion years ago.

320 These Hindus are the ones who converted to Yaaquub's plan.

Tablet 4:331

321 While living in Arabia, they became the tribe called Sheshbazzar, the thirteenth tribe known as The Lost Tribe of Shabazz.

322 For many of them got lost on the way.

323 Those that survived the journey around Ganawa were used in the grafting and making of this new race.

324 For any babies born with Negroid (black) genes, a pin was stuck in their brain. Then next was the Mongoloid, brown.

325 They were spared to breed, to make the red, the yellow and then, Caucasoid, the pale.

326 This process took 600 years of grafting and separating. You have Negroid, Mongoloid, and Caucasoid. All the other races are just that, a mixture or other.

327 Thus Yaaquub's nation was born. A ruler was set over them, and she was called Europa, the daughter of Agenor and sister of Cadmus.

328 Europa, was empress of this land, yet without guidance they regressed and took refuge in Pelion, A peak, 1,601.9 m (5,252 ft) high, of northeast Greece in eastern Thessaly; that is the Isles of Patmos, an island of southeast Greece in the Dodecanese Islands of the Aegean Sea.

329 Then on up into the mountain region of Thessaly, and into the Grotto or Grotte meaning "caves."

330 They conquered and enslaved the original inhabitants of that land then called Yunan, who they were the descendants of Javan, the son of Japeth and Ifaat. The Yunan were also known as Ionians.

331 The savage beasts that were grafted

Tablet 4:331 Tablet 4:354

from the Asiatic Hindu Black Man, were nothing more than the original blonde haired, blue eyed, pale skinned, melanin lacking, grafted disagreeable, rebellious seed of Yaaquub, the mad scientist. called Flugelrods..

332 Shameless, moral-less, hair covering their body from ankle to shoulder, the beast of the field, also called Behemoth.

333 They walked on all fours and ate flesh raw, having bestiality acts.

334 Thus, the dog became their best friend. They allowed him to lick their leprous sores, and to this day they will allow them to sleep in their beds, eat off their plates, and even lick them in the mouth.

335 They moved on to Patmos in the Aegean Sea, which is 20 miles south of Samos, the site of Samael, and 24 miles west of Asia Minor; that is the Greek Isles.

336 The outcome of the graftation was the Flugelrods, who were bred by mixing in the seed of the Pleiadeans, which is blond hair and blue eyed, mixing and grafting from the genes of the Asiatics, black straight haired and black skinned, and black eyed Hindus. Grafting from the brown germ to the red germ to the yellow germ and on into the new Earth bred, the Flugelrods.

337 Also breeding the abstract: black skin and blue eyed.

338 He set up rules and regulations that they were to abide by under all circumstances.

339 Those of his followers that did not obey him were to have their throat slit from ear to ear, and their bodies left on the seashore at high tide.

340 They separated into 2 groups. The original Halaabites, or Hulub Flugelrods, 341 Who became known as the Neanderthals, or simply cave men;

342 Eating raw flesh, running around on all fours, and living in a state of bestiality.

343 They found their way into the inner caverns of the planet. Many of them took residence there, while others in time used the tricknology, and terrorized other innocent tribes.

344 Those that did not jump ship, were grafted out of existence,

345 As opposed to the European Flugelrods, named Europeans, after their female leader that rebelled, 346 Who is also named Europa, daughter of Agenor, sister of Cadmus, known as Zeus.

347 This Europa gave birth to Zeus, another "Z", that's the second zig, the first being Zuen, Zeus who had 3 sons Minos, Rahdamanthus, and Sarpedon.

348 She, Europa eventually betrayed Zeus and remarried Asterius, ruler of Crete. At her death she was deified as a fertility deity by Zeus.

349 With this tricknology they were given the power to rule for not less than 6,000 Earth years.

350 They entered from the east side where there are harbors called Isthmus.

351 Into the Grotto or Grotte which means a "cavern." One of the entrances to the Flugelrod's cavern home was called Palatkwapi.

352 This is also where the Scroll of Revelations was revealed to Yuhanna Bar Zabadiy, that is, John son of Zebedee the divine, in the year 96 A.D.

353 All of these are names used today, you may find them on your maps.

354 For the original journey, the

Tablet 4:354

Asiatic blacks were divided into three classes for this journey.

355 They lost 95 percent of the people.

356 Ten percent of that original 95 percent became betrayers.

357 Leaving 85 percent confused.

358 And only 5 percent made it to the final destination.

359 The journey was a 360 degree circle around the mother continent.

360 Originally they departed with 100 ships, which left carrying 59,999 passengers and Sheshbazzar himself making it a total of 60,000 passengers.

361 Yet only 3 ships arrived at the final destination carrying 600 people on each.

362 A total of 1800 people arrived in Patmos, where the great scientist were going to spend 600 years, trying to reform these disagreeable people by grafting the evil out of their genes.

363 After futile attempts, they all agreed that it could not be done.

364 For the making of this original seed Yacub El- called also Eloh, as it says, came from Teman, the south, and the holy one Yiskhawk, his father was from Mount Peran, meaning "place of caverns" that led to Shamballah.

365 Yaaquub, went to the worst part of the planet Earth, where his creation would live amongst the Nakhaashites, where the original Sama'El, the Luciferian, the evil reptilian did dwell, in the abandoned place of Nod.

366 All of them were dissatisfied. There was no one tribe of people ruling the planet Earth in Yaacuub's time, so this made it convenient.

367 So Yacub Har vowed to be their ruler, and that he would create a people who would rule for 6,000 years until a savior was born. The Greeks and Roman Christian called him Messiah, Messias, The Khazar Jews called this savior "Mashiakh" and Muslims called him "Masiyh" in Nuwaubic it's "Masuh"

Tablet 4:373

368 Yaaquub was helped by a group of Humanoids from Lahamu "Venus". Their description is: average height between 5'7"-6'3", with a tan complexion with black to dark brown, 6 ether hair. They could pass for any Euro-Arabs on Earth, who had Markabians, who are Humanoid Markabians, from Zeta Reticuli.

369 They have mixed with humans, and have been here for many thousands of years. Producing what is commonly known as little people, extremely short human beings, who are neither Pygmies nor Midgets.

370 The Lahamuians would use the Markabians as their servants. They have been visiting this planet for thousands of years. They refer to their planet as the early morning star.

371 They vowed to send a Venerian as a savior to the New Asiatic black man. To him he would appear in the person coming from Arabia.

372 His mother will be called Mami, who is of the Chaldean Gods they'll spell it "Mimi", the Cuthite, and his father El-funz, from the Greek Alepho meaning "Anointed" or Alphus or "Alphounzo" old Greek for leprosy from the Alphos meaning "white, absence of pigment, albinism," a form of psoriasis, they'll spell his name Alphonso, and declare he is a Cushite.

373 He was one of the original incarnated deities; not man. This Venerian they will call their God incarnate. He will leave them an agreeable humanoid Rumardian as a teacher, named Crlll.

Tablet 4:373

374 They were talking about the making of the Jew--the original ones. Sheshbazzar means "worshipper of fire." The color of their flag is the sun, with the Moon and the Star, which is a representation of the whole universe.

375 This seed moved behind the Caucasus mountains on up into Russia and became known as the Khazars. The woolly haired, 7 ether, Orientalist of this seed called Asiatics, were known as the Ashkhenazims. These are the grafted devils that Yaaquub created.

376 They are your Flugelrods, original Khazars, and your Asiatics, Ashkhenazims.

377 Their symbol being the universe, the Moon called Qummar also Qamar, the sun and the bright morning star, they use the crescent moon and the pentagram that is the five pointed star; the original Jacobites used the hexagram, they call Mogan David, the Star of David, or the Star of Bethlehem. They endowed their creation with one hundred and twenty years of life.

378 It took 120 degrees of knowledge to accomplish this over a period of 600 years of those who were under Yaaquub's rules and regulations. There are those that use the pentagram, "a five-pointed star formed by 5 straight lines connecting the vertices of a pentagon and enclosing another pentagon in the completed figure", or those that use the hexagram, "a 6-pointed star formed by extending each of the sides of a regular hexagon into equilateral triangles" , and those that use the heptagon, "a polygon having 7 sides," each believing that their star represents the supreme power of force that controls all aspects of existence.

379 However, stars are born and die. Stars have limited brightness, thus as a symbol they would indicate a limited amount of intellect. Crescents are merely 1 stage of the 4 stages of the Moon, thus a star and crescent is a symbol of limited information and time, and deception because the star can never sit in the crescent moon, for the Stars are millions of times larger than the Moon.

380 Even the octagon with each of the 8 points of the symbol represents the Sun and is on a 15 degree angle and 8 x 15 = 120. 1/3rd of the whole, which is 360 degrees of information.

381 This being 120 degrees representing the awakening and the civilizing between each of the 8 points is a 45 degree angle, that represents 360 degrees of knowledge of the physical.

382 Then there is 360 degrees, which is the knowledge of the spiritual, of which they do not have.

383 This symbol was worn on the chest by the great scientist Yaaquub, who was born hydrocephalic, which is having a head the size of 2 of his tribe members--the Dunaakial and the Teros.

384 Yaaquub's scientists would brand each one of his followers with a symbol called in Nuwaubic A'wuth, in Aramic Esre and in Ashuric/Syriac Ashara, which equaled the original symbol X, of which you already have a great overstanding of, and is your modern day cross.

385 It became the Swastika, a symbol that can be found all over the world.

386 Having 4 outer 90 degree angles and 4 inner 90 degree angles equaling

Tablet 4:386

720 degrees.

387 Their religion was based on phallic worship symbols representing reproduction.

388 They prostrated themselves on all fours in remembrance of their lowly state, when they were walking on all fours, living in caves and worshipping their earthly fires. Thus we have sun worship. They prostrate beneath the mammary glands of females and call it a dome, and beneath the phallic of a male and call it a minaret, giving birth to your domes and minarets of their mosques and synagogues.

389 The X's numerical value is 10, and it is symbolic of the 10th letter of the Aramic alphabet, which is the Yod symbolizing that they were originally under the agreeable Yahwehans.

390 Or the 10th letter of the Ashuric/Syriac alphabet, which was Ra and symbolized ruwakh, the "soul" of creation. They were the first Negroids born with beards. He made them all clean shaven, so that they would look like the original Ptahites.

391 They were to mix in with the original Cushite, and await their savior, who would come to them from Venus, Lahamu. There would be carefully planned breeding amongst the descendants of the Nuwbuns under the Amorites, and one of them would be part Nubun, and part Rumardian in the far west away from the east.

392 They would be kidnapped and taken into bondage for 400 years.

393 You find the symbolism in the Book of Exodus of the Torah, which was plagiarized by Tammuz called Yahweh.

394 It became the law and enforcer of

Tablet 4:406

the Spell of Ignorance, called the Spell of Sleep.

395 Therein you will find the story of Yaaquub cloaked in the Jacob and Esau story.

396 This Jacob was born in the year 1918 B.C.E. and died in the year 1771 B.C.E.

397 One of Isaac and Rebecca's twin sons; and the biblical story of Jacob is a symbolical story.

398 He is the son of Abraham and his first wife Sarah; his name is Isaac. He fathered the biblical Jacob. He is also the progenitor of the 12 tribes of Israel.

399 It was this mentality that fathered the so-called Jew,

400 The father of tricknology from the original Yaaquub story which they read and have faith and incorporate in the new law which they call the Protocol of the Learnt Elders of Zion.

401 Yaaquub's mischief makers in the land now rule the surface of the planet.

402 An evil and diabolical plan to control everyone; and like any other magnetic force, you will find that "unalikes attract" and "likes repel."

403 This is also true in regard to the people. The Negroid and the Caucasoid are unalike so they will attract.

404 This is done through integration, in order to destroy the Nubun. For Nubuns dealing with Nubuns repel. Why? Because "likes repel," and this causes fighting and separation.

405 This is one of the reasons why Nubian people, descendants of the Nubuns can never come together, to unite, to overthrow the devil.

406 The Jew, who is not a true Israelite, is the remainder of those released out of captivity.

Tablet 4:406

"Surely, I know about your tribulation and your poverty. Always begging for money. Nevertheless you are rich in blessings and resources, and there is great blasphemy against you by those who say: Surely they say they are of Judah and they are not of Judah. They are the community of the Physical Evil One, Reptilian, Dragon, Nakhash or Satan, Shaytaan son of Zuen.

407 From there they went back to Jerusalem and rebuilt Solomon's temple, 408 Which was done by a mixed people, part original Israelite and part Babylonian.

409 This mixing occurred during the 136 years of captivity and was the start of the Jew's devilish teachings.

410 It was predicted of him by the Magus, 15,000 years ago, that he would make a devil. He also named the first male of his creation Adam, and his wife was Lilith. So he was born with a determined idea to make a people to rule for 6,000 years.

411 Originally, there was no tribe called Sheshbazzar.

412 This was the name of a man whose name is also Zerubabbel, leader of the mixed tribe of Judah.

413 Sheshbazzar's name was taken by the men in respect and they called themselves Shabazz, and him, they called Daddy Shabazz who went back to Ganawa.

414 The name Shabazz, is thought to be an Arabic word, however, is actually made up of two words: Shah, which is Persian for the word "king" or "ruler," and "Bazz," which is an Arabic word meaning "Falcon," or in Nuwaubic "Ba-uz" which is the head of the Horus, the symbol of the son of Osiris, and Isis, who in Sumerian was Ishtar and Dammuzi.

Tablet 4:423

415 This Horus was Tammuz or Yahweh, later to be known as Christ, from the Hindu Krishna. Their Messiah or Masuh.

416 However, the name Shabazz itself comes from the word Sheshbazzar, which literally means "sun worshippers" or "fire worshippers."

417 Sheshbazzar was the Hebrew form for this name in Babylonian language. It was Shamash-Ban-Seri-Babili-Sur, meaning "O Shamash protect the father and builder of the seed of Babylon."

418 Shamash, was the Sumerian and Babylonian sun-god. Even though he was called by the name Shabazz, he was in no way affiliated with sun or fire worship.

419 Yet, fire worship became the religion of the Flugelrods, who depended on it for heat, and light while in the caverns.

420 Also we find in the caverns of the Earth not Shamballah, for there are 8 caverns therein you'll find the Sumuwnean, Deros, the Duwaani, the Sunaynans, Teros, and the Shuyukh.

The Making Of A New Race

421 In order to breed a being with a balanced nature, the scientist saw that the Homo-Erectus needed intelligence and sense.

422 By using the blood of the 6 ether, Homo-Erectus, along with the blood of the 9 ether, Anunnagi.

423 Because it was Enqi's idea to make these new beings to work in the mines, it was suggested that his wife, the scientist Ninqi, use her body.

424 As a part of the experiment to create what is called Homo-Sapien.

425 After Homo-Erectus was bred,

426 The next step was to breed him into a Homo-Sapien or a human being.

427 The Anunnagi, who came from the skies, were able to produce the Homo-Sapien, 428 Which made these Homo-Sapiens one-half human, and one-half Anunnagi.

429 These Anunnagi were agreeable and disagreeable,

430 And the Homo-Sapien was created after the likeness of these Anunnagi called Yahwehans, Yah "Agreeable", and Weh "Disagreeable".

431 The scientist saw that they had to give the Homo-Erectus intelligence and common sense in order for them to survive in their absence.

432 So, the seed was planted inside of Ninqi, Who was the wife of Enqi.

433 She gave birth to Lulu Amelu, called the primitive worker, 434 And her child was the first hybrid able to procreate.

435 This experiment took place in the laboratory called "Shimti,"

436 Which is located in the mothership called Nibiru "that which crosses the skies."

437 This lab was placed on the planet Lahmu, Mars.

438 The Kishites and the Havilahites complied to the request of the scientists.

439 They were called El Amun-mul Wahedaat "the faithful ones."

440 The Kishites and the Havilahites were a mixture of the supernatural beings that existed in the river Nile of the barren and rocky land of Nubia, a desert region and ancient kingdom in the Nile River valley of southern Egypt and northern Sudan.

442 And they were associated with goodness and benevolence only.

443 These beings were known amongst the Nubian Tribe as El Bahur-Malukaat, 444 River Angels.

445 They are known today as the Little Beings, or Rumardians.

446 They stand 4ft tall,

447 And weigh about 40 pounds,

448 Having 5 fingers,

449 Originally bred by the Anunnagi to scout the worlds for them.

450 They are benevolent.

451 They are not to be mistaken with the Markabians called Greys, who are malevolent.

452 The Markabians, are a bio-generic breed from the cow and other species here on Earth, as well as, mechanical and computerized technologies. Their skin colors are greyish-blue, and the texture is smooth.

453 They have no hair on their body, and they have big heads. They are hydrocephalic.

454 Because of their eyes, which have no pupils making them nocturnal, they look like a human insect and they are sensitive to ultraviolet light. Their large black eyes are cow's eyes.

455 They have 2 slits for nostrils, and their mouth is a small slit, 456 They appear to have no ears, and their hands are web like, with only 4 fingers.

457 Their arms are long and muscular reaching just above the knees, 458 Their hands consists of 4 webbed fingers, their torso is human in appearance, their legs are short and muscular.

459 They have no reproductive organs or reproductive capabilities. They are bred by the cloning process, and often times they abduct human women, only to remove the fetus, to breed their own species. They are called Rumardians, or Maylaket-Al-Bahr. Thousands of years ago when the Maylaket- Al-Bahr, also known as Rumardians, the little beings, were released of the work of the Anunnagi, the Reptilian captured them and ruled them. This is how the Markabians, were bred.

Tablet 4:459

460 They used the cows nervous system to breed them. They messed up their reproductive system by mixing them with cows. This is why the Hindus of today worship the cow and in the Muslim world the largest surah in their holy book, the Koran , is entitled Surat l' Baqarat, "The Degree of the Cow or Heifer." and the snake.

461 Their feet are like that of a dinosaur or frog.

462 The Rumardians lived in underwater castles in the river. They were both males and females.

463 The females were the Banat-Al-Saalihiyn, daughters of the virtuous or pious, 464 And the males were called Walad-Al Saalihiyn, sons of the virtuous or pious.

465 They were associated with 4 categories of human preoccupation: fertility, cultivation, marriage and health.

466 These beings mixed in with the original Kishites and the Havilahites.

467 Along with the Malayket-Al-Bahr, there were the Dogri, or Dogir, who were the ugly water beings.

468 They are known today as Reptilians. They came from one of the stars in the constellation of Orion.

Tablet 4:479

469 They stood 6 to 7ft tall. They are greenish, and their skin is scaly, waterproof and there are no sweat glands.

470 They have no hair on their body, the back of their head is flat, and they have an exaggerated forehead.

471 Their face looks like a lizard, but somewhat human. Their eyes are catlike and large; jaundice yellow. They have gills like the rest of the Reptilians.

472 Their mouth is wide, having no teeth. Their jaw is wide in relation to human proportions. Their arms are long and thin just reaching above the knees, 473 Their hands are webbed to the tips, consisting of only 3 fingers with an opposing thumb.

474 Their chest slightly protrudes, their legs are long, but bent backwards as if they also run on all fours.

475 They have no external sex organs, and their feet are webbed. They procreate by laying eggs. They are neutral gender.

476 With thousands of years of contact and abductions, these entities have succeeded in creating synthetic DNA's and RNA's.

477 They have become masters of cloning and genetic splicing. Yet all this is done out of the governing hands of Reptilians.

478 Who have ruled these beings for many thousands of years and have made themselves the dependent upon which these beings depend.

479 There are over 70 different species of what's called Greys and 16 species of Reptilians, who either visit or have made permanent residence in this planet Earth.

480 The take over is inevitable unless you unite.

481 Once the delegation had convinced the 2 great rulers, of the Ptahites and of the Atumites to pro-create, speaking to them on behalf of the Anunnagi, they moved them to the holy place Nippur in Gadush.

482 The Genetic breeding took place in Gadush.

483 Once the male child was born to Atum and Lillith, the rulers of the Atumite tribe, named him Kadmon, meaning "up front" and Zakar, "rememberer" also called Adam, the father of the Adamites, the earthling of the reddish brown ground.

484 Three years after that the female child was born to Ptah and Anath, the rulers of the Ptahite tribe, she was named Nekaybaw, meaning "tribal leader" and she was to be called Hawwah, "mother of all these new living beings" who would now be able to have children.

485 The Adamites were created to be successors over the others, that were cloned over a 600 year period. It took 400 years for the breeding. 4 generations in all for the cloning and genetic splicing.

486 That's 10 people per 100 years which comes out to 40 people over a period of 400 years.

487 One hundred years before the 400 years for the preparation, that is the collecting of the choice species for breeding and the building of the Earth base laboratories. It took another 100 years for civilization and education after they had bred them. The Cuthites were then sent out of the land of Gadush to return to their own part of the planet Earth Sawdeh, the Outer Field to the east, the wicked town of Nod which was now ruled by Enlil, after the dethroning of his brother Enqi, who set up the wicked city of Nod.

488 Yet he, Enlil never sat on his brother's evil throne, and Atum became the Khalifa of Enqi, and Dina known as Ishtar was the female deity with her son Tammuz in her arms, and Ishkur which means "mountainous, far mountain land" whose title was Baal "master, lord", he was also called Adad "beloved", and he was called Teshub by the Greeks meaning "storm deity," yet all of them feared ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL.

489 This ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL created Shakhar, and the symbolic meaning of his name is the "Dawn" and Shalem symbolic meaning of his name is "the dusk," or evening and morning, or the sun of justice who controls what's called time on this planet Earth.

490 This Shakhar gave birth to Haylal and this Shalem gave birth to Warlock. Also ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL created in the seed of Enlil, one named Baal who was also called Hadad or Adad, who gave birth to a son whom they called Elyon to rebel later and is worshipped as El by the Canaanites, who fathered the religions called Judaism, Christianity and Islaam.

491 This is the El of Judaism, the Eli of Christianity, and the Illah of Islaam. Hadad also had a brother, Yam and another, Mot and a sister named Anat, 492 Which is not to be mixed up with Udum's daughter in Gadush where ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL is really loved and respected.

493 And the Anunnagi family of Udum and his mate Mami just had a daughter Anat, who were of the Muslimuwn or Agreeable Aluhum living in the part of the planet Earth called Mu, which was still then in the holy land called Gadush, 494 This family was to wean and rear Nekaybaw, also called Hawwah and Eve, until the age of 18. Then she was to breed with Kadmon or Adam.

The Dogon And The Sirius Mystery

(19 x 22=418)

Lo! As mentioned, these Extraterrestrials have come to this planet and set up amongst humans, as well as human kind.

2 Earth has benevolent and malevolent influences.

3 In Nubia, that is called Ganawa today, in a land referred to as Mali, whose inhabitants moved from the land of Kemet in Cush, you find one such influence.

4 That is the Dogon. Their Imaams had an astonishing knowledge of the star Sirius in the Canis Major Constellation, given by extraterrestrials long before they migrated to Mali,

5 While yet living in Ta-Mera Kemet, called Egypt, where the ritual of the Opening of the Mouth ceremony is centered around the Sirius Star in the Canis Major Constellation.

6 They knew that Sirius A, which is the brightest star in the sky, has a satellite, called Sirius B, which revolves around it.

7 Sirius B is invisible to the naked eye, and the Dogon Imaams had no telescopes, 8 But they knew that it exists and that its orbit around Sirius A is elliptical, not circular.

9 They knew the position of Sirius A within the orbit and that the orbit takes 50 years.

10 Sirius B was not discovered in the west by telescope until 1862 A.D. and was not photographed until 1970 A.D.

11 The ancient Egyptians had an advanced knowledge of astronomy, and they knew about Sirius B, which is why the 3 great pyramids of Giza are lined up perfectly with the Orion star constellation.

12 They made their map face south towards Sirius.

13 The 3 pyramids of Giza were originally built by Adafa, with the help of extraterrestrial beings. Adafa was in tune with the celestial beings that originally erected the pyramids. They are visitors from other galaxies. One of the great pyramids was built to preserve all of his friend's texts during the period of the flood. The Giza pyramids today were reconstructed by the pharaoh Khufu, also known as Cheops, and his son Khafre and Menkure.

14 Khufu reigned for 23 years; and had many sons and daughters.

15 He sponsored several building projects.

16 And monuments bearing his name can be seen all over Egypt.

17 Khufu also sent mining expeditions to Sinai, Nubia, and the Arabian Desert for their mineral wealth.

18 In later times, Khufu's name was engraved on Scarabs.

19 The most famous of these are related in the Westcar Papyrus.

20 Khufu was an able and energetic ruler, during whose reign, the land

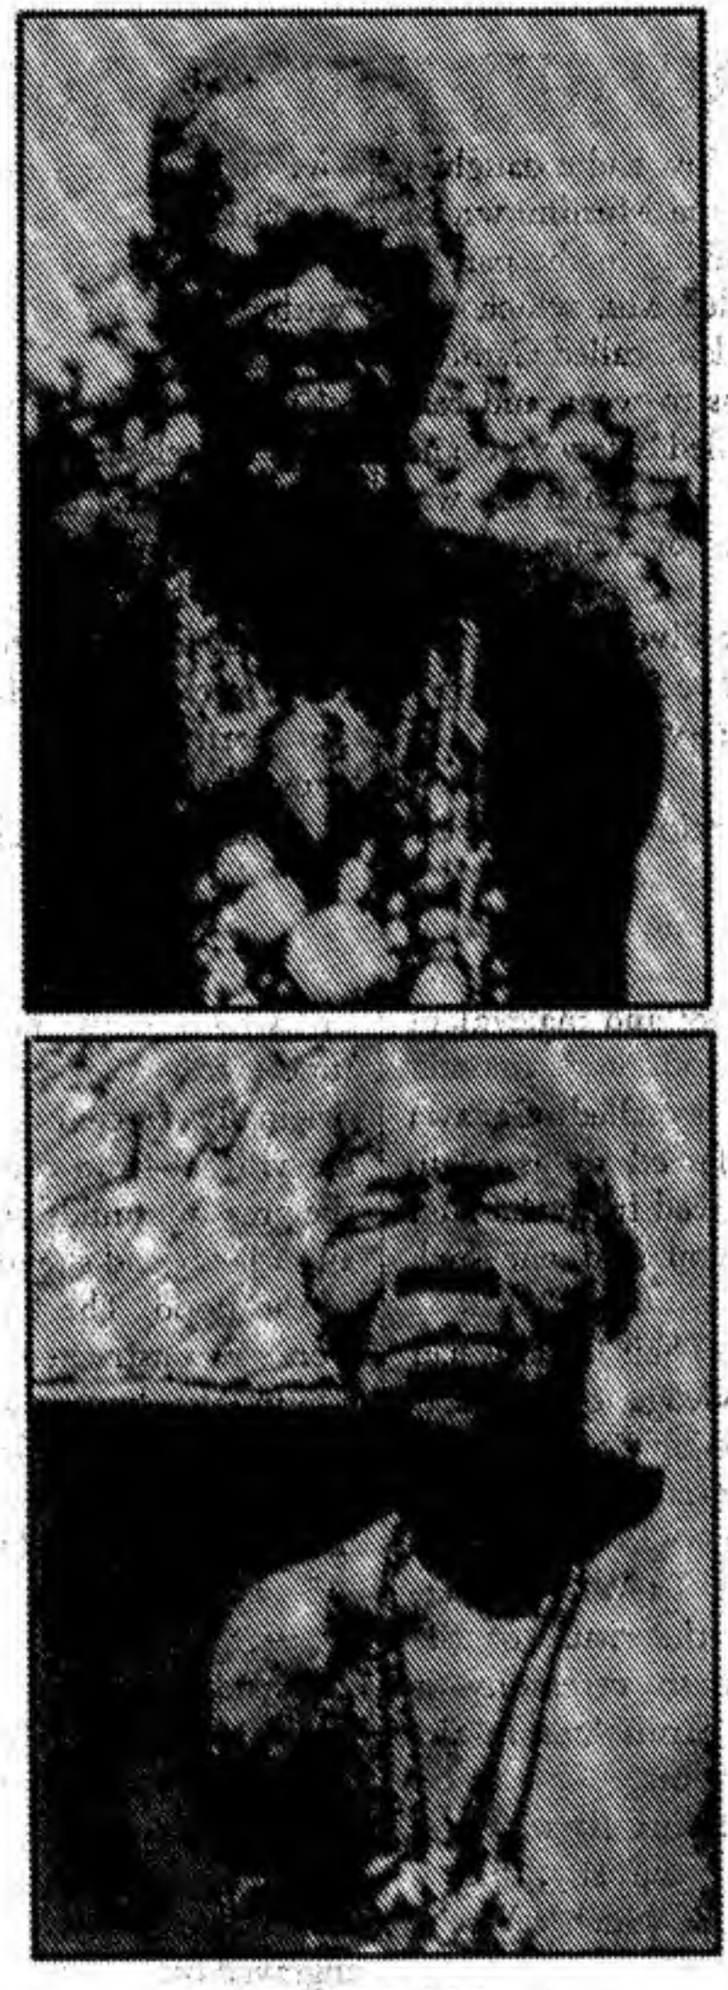

Figure 111
Dogon Imaams

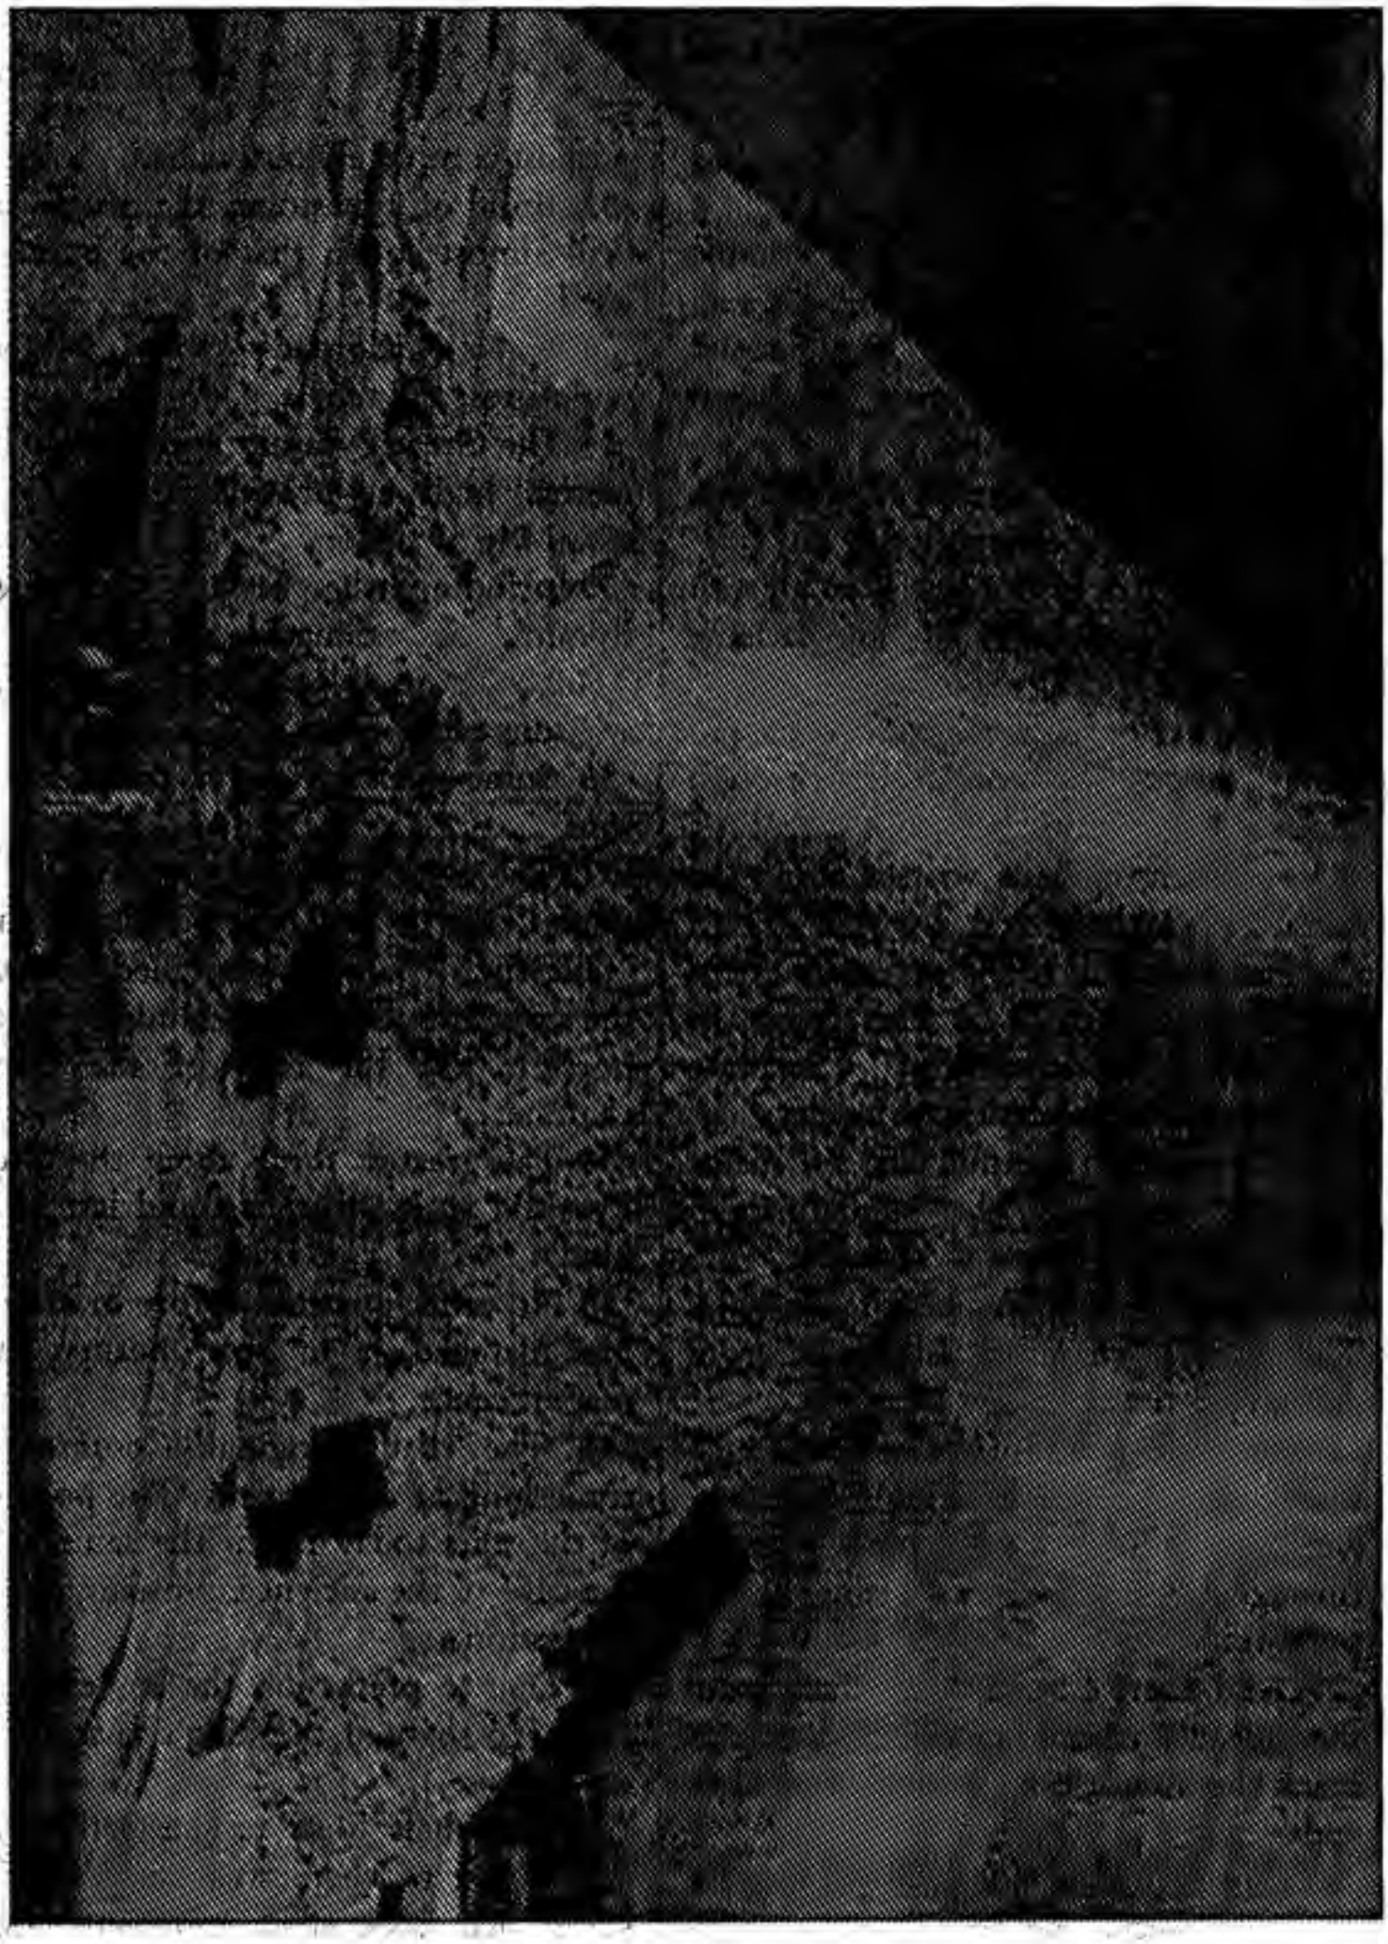

Figure 112
The Three Giza Pyramids

flourished and the art reached perfection.

21 Khufu left the land in such a stable economic position, as to enable his son, Khafre, to reconstruct the Second Pyramid, a monument almost as colossal as that of his father.

22 Khufu was responsible for only one accomplishment of magnitude;

23 Yet the size of the one is so gigantic that it overshadows all his father's military and trading exploits,

24 And has brought Khufu's name and fame down undiminished through thousands of years.

25 So much has been written about the Great Pyramid of Giza.

26 Not only is it the largest monument of its kind, but it is the result of excellent workmanship, accurate planning, and proportionate beauty.

27 The great pyramid has 4 major internal features, the underground chamber, the queen's chamber, the grand gallery, and the king's chamber. The king's chamber is made from Aswan granite.

28 There is an entrance to a 2 x 18 inch shaft, north from the king's chamber, and a southern shaft; both extends through, from the outer casing of the pyramid.

29 And there's a northern shaft from the queen's chamber, which does not reach the outer casing, it's closed at both ends.

30 The pyramid form has a certain austere beauty, and the tawny gold of the stone is capable of bewitching and there are subtle variations in the color as the sunlight changes.

31 The complex of the Great Pyramid has a valley temple that is, even today, almost completely untouched.

32 Built of limestone, the work and skill almost equals that of the pyramid itself.

33 It is adorned with statues, sculptures, and reliefs.

34 The Great Pyramid itself stands 137 meters high at present; originally it stood 146.59 meters.

35 Including the casing, the Great Pyramid is estimated to consist of 2,600,000 stone blocks, averaging 2 and 1/2 tons each.

36 Some even weigh as much as 15 tons.

37 The weight of the pyramid is so great, that it had to be built with "relieving" chambers designed to take the weight of the pyramid's upper portions off the roof of the burial chamber.

38 The greatest thing about the Great Pyramid is, it is the first and last of its kind.

39 No other pyramid before or after it has matched it in size; beauty, nor magnificence.

40 The shafts originally pointed at something in the heavens. The position of the stars today is not the same as in the time of the ancient Egyptians, due to precession.

41 Due to precession the angle of the southern shaft of the king's chamber is 45 degrees.

42 The shaft lined up perfectly with Orion's belt. There was one Egyptian statue that stood erect, and there's only one constellation of an erect man, and that is the Orion constellation.

43 The identity between a deceased pharaoh, and the deity Usir (Osiris) made Orion immediately a candidate, for a shaft whose purpose was to enable the soul of the pharaoh to communicate between Earth and the sky. The shaft in the maluka's chamber pointed to Sirius, a star in the Canis Major constellation.

44 Rededef, Khufu's immediate successor, built his pyramid at Abu Rawwash, 45 About five miles north of his father's pyramid at Giza.

46 Because he did not agree with the way his father ran the kingdom, he chose this distant lonely site, high on a lofty spur of the plateau.

47 Another son of Khufu, Khafre, succeeded Rededef, who reigned for only 8 years.

48 He reconstructed the second Pyramid at Giza, which has the most preserved complex of the Giza Field.

49 Its Valley Temple is so close to the Sphinx that, it was, at one time, known as the Temple of the Sphinx.

50 The Valley Temple is built around a core of massive blocks of local limestone, covered with finely polished red granite.

51 Alabaster was used for the floor of the building, as well as the walls of some of the smaller rooms.

52 Flanking the Mortuary Temple are 5 rock-cut boat pits.

53 Most of the casing has worn away, but that which remains retains such a high polish that it reflects the moon at shadow hours!

54 It attained a height of one 43.5 meters, with a slope of 53 percent, 10 inches.

55 Khafre's son and successor was Menkuara, also called Menkure.

56 The third pyramid at Giza, though smaller, was set off by the granite casing covering the lower 16 courses.

57 However, before the casing of the pyramid could be completed, Menkure died;

58 And his successor, Shepseskaf, finished the monuments.

59 He built the complex of mud brick, and didn't bother to build a large pyramid for himself.

60 One of the splendid burial chambers is built with red granite walls and roof.

61 The vaulted ceiling was made by first erecting a pointed roof and then hollowing out the slabs to make them concave.

62 In this room was the king's beautiful basalt sarcophagus.

63 It had the typical "palace-facade" paneling, and was no doubt contemporary with the pyramid.

64 The real splendor of the complex of the Third Pyramid is the Mortuary Temple.

65 The core masonry is of huge blocks of local limestone, which were originally, lined with granite on the outside.

66 The western side of the court, originally, had red granite pillars.

67 On this end was the sanctuary, or offering shrine, built against the face of the pyramid.

68 It was paved with red granite.

69 One of the corridors in the Northern end of the Temple has walls of black granite.

70 The parent pyramid stood at a height of 66.5 meters; the base being 108.5 meters square at a slope of 51% percent.

71 Shepseskaf, the last of the Pharaohs after Menkure, completed his father's tomb.

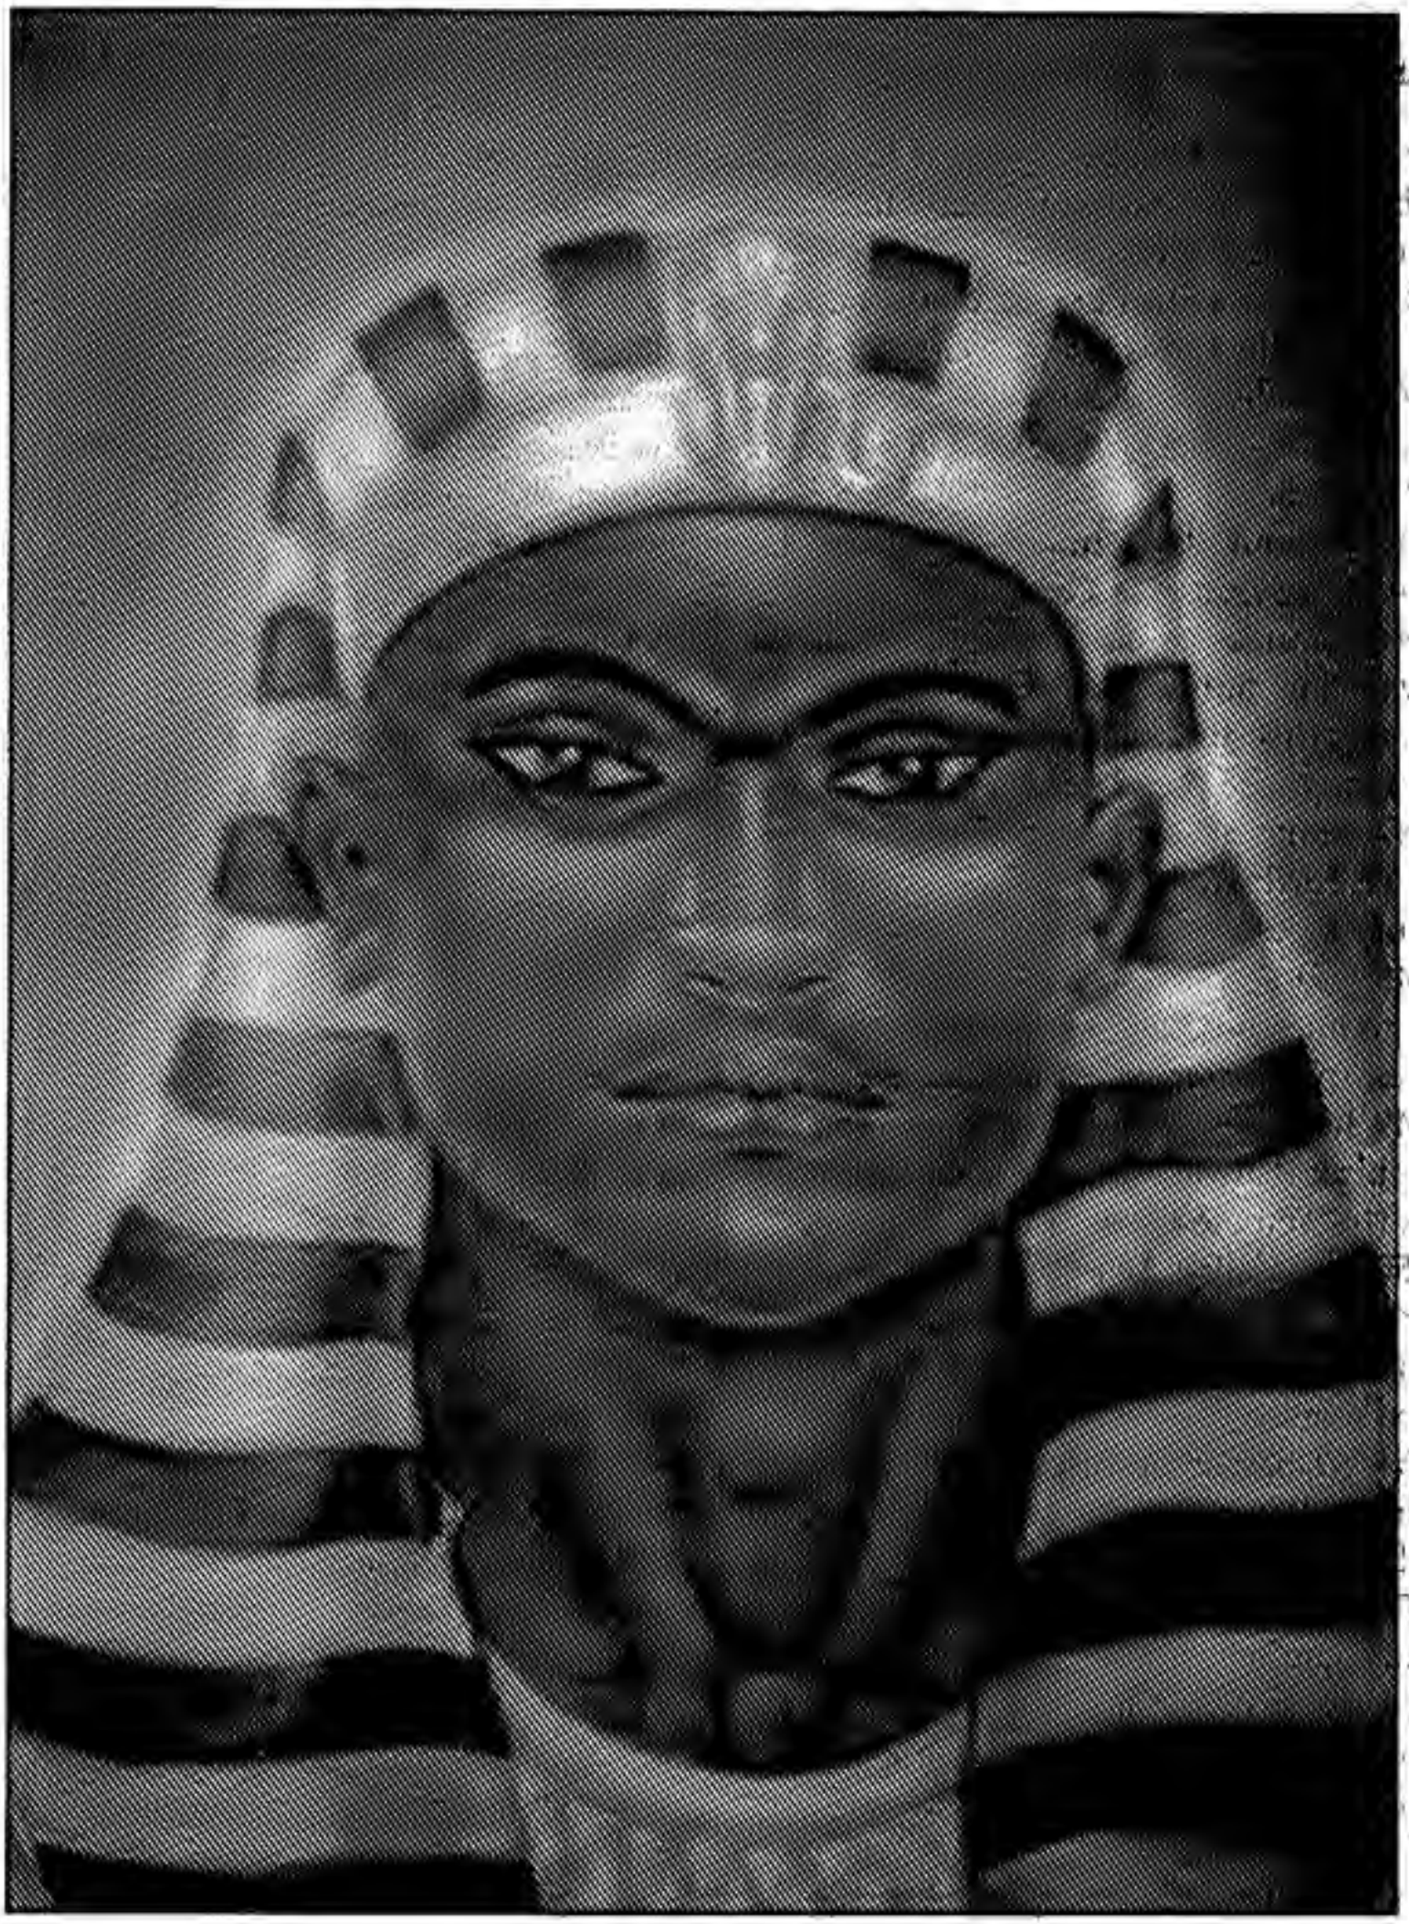

Figure 113

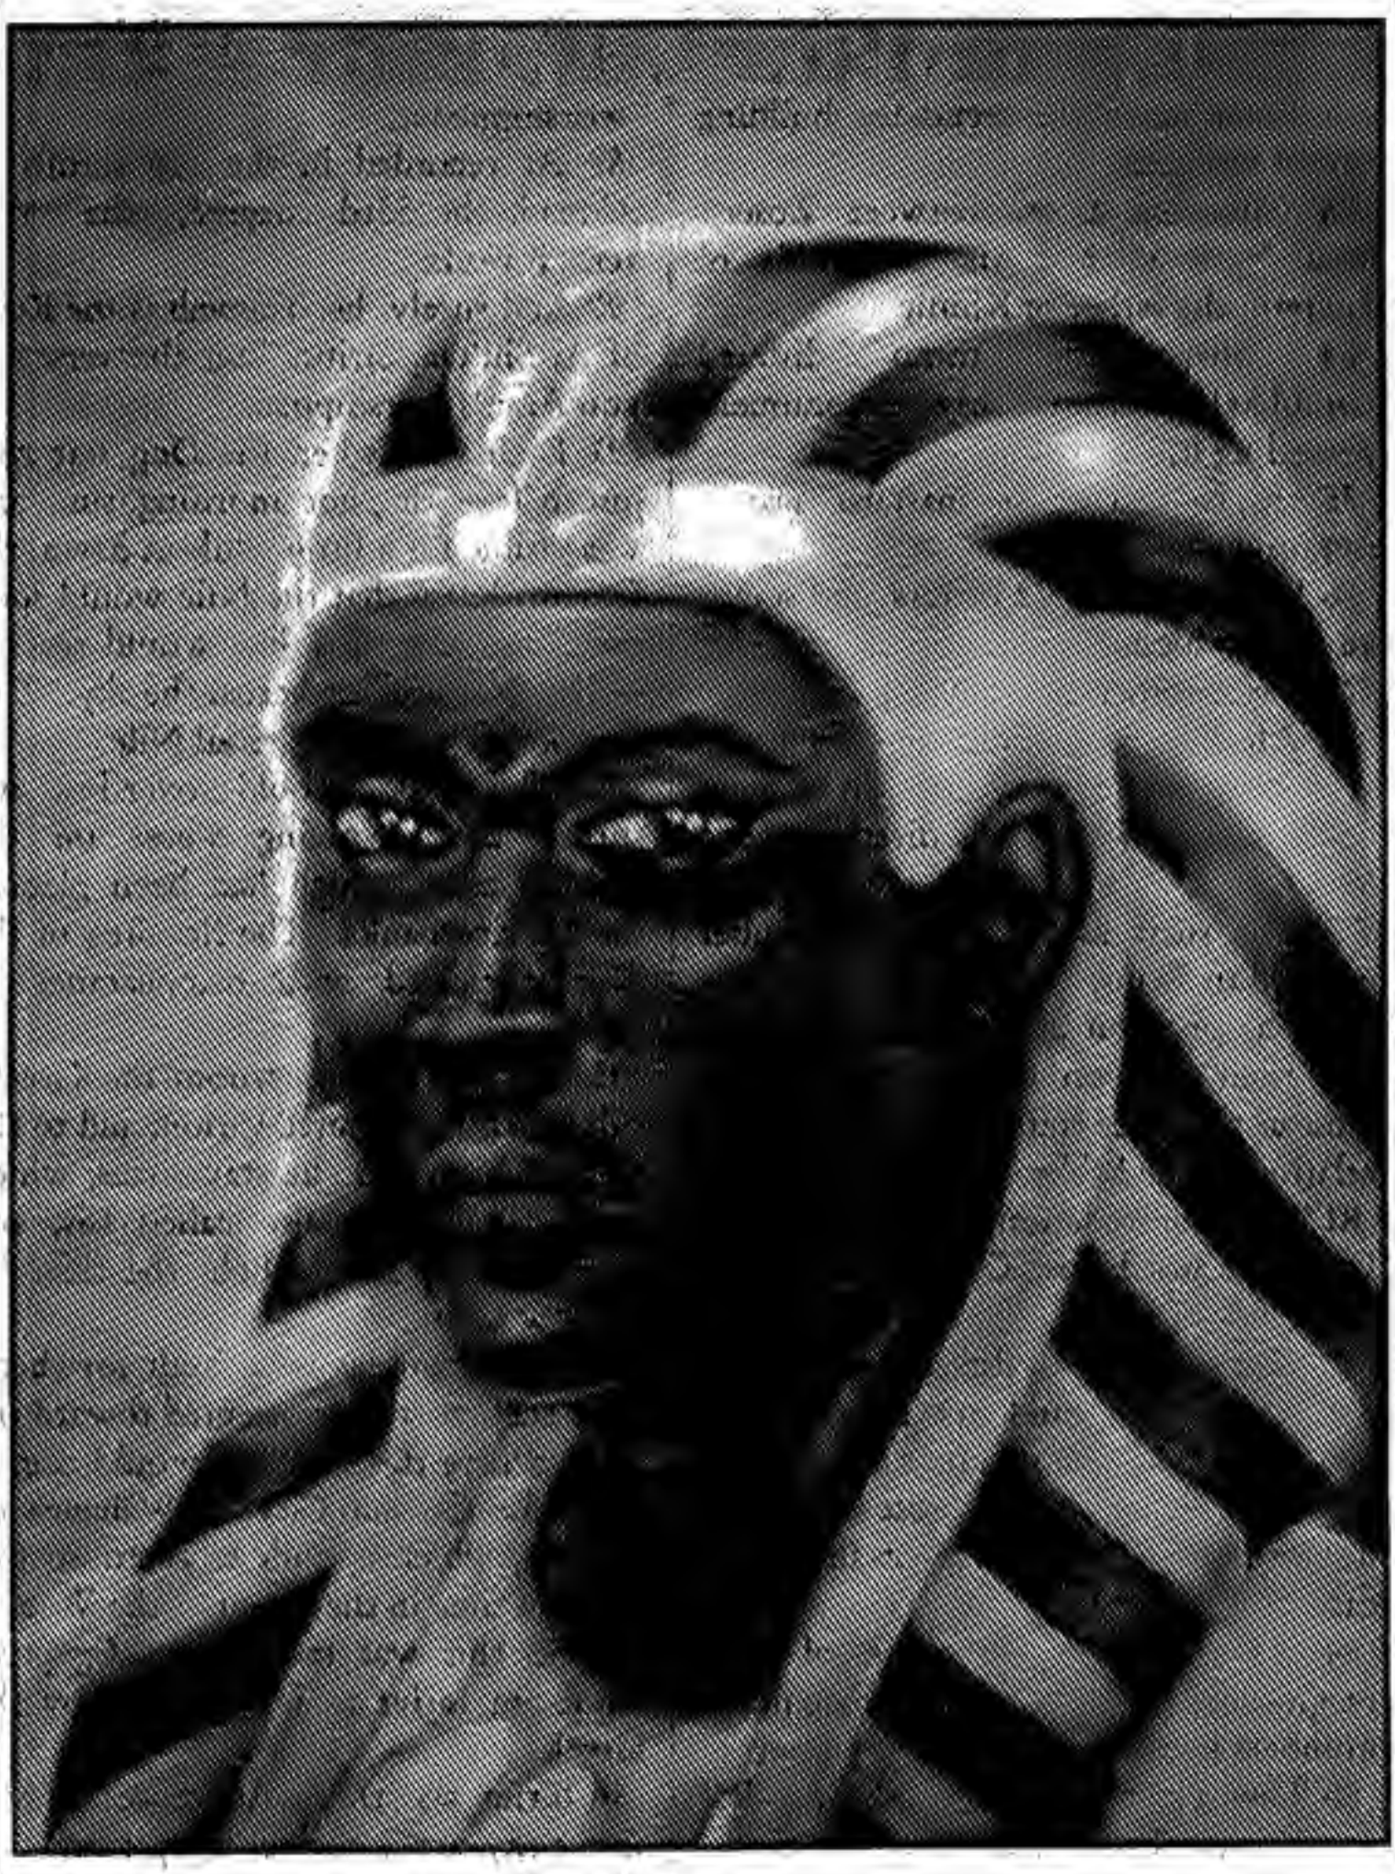

Figure 114
Menkure, Son Of Khufu

Tablet 5:72 Tablet 5:97

72 Once again the trend for building tombs changed.

73 Choosing a site between Zoser's Step Pyramid and the Pyramids of Sneferu, the father of Khufu.

74 Shepseskaf's tomb differed completely from any monument preceding it.

75 It is neither a mastaba nor a pyramid.

76 It stands 100 x 72 meters, and stands 18 meters high.

77 It is merely called a sarcophagus.

78 All these pyramids align perfectly with the three stars of the Orion constellation, which was directly above Sirius.

79 The shaft in the queen's chamber pointed to Sirius.

80 The position of the three pyramids and their relation to the Nile, is the same as the three stars of Orion's belt, in relation to the Milky Way.

81 The constellation of the "Great Dog" lies just below Orion, and a little to the left of it.

82 Canis Major is also known as the Dog of Orion, and its constellation pictogram fairly represents a dog.

83 With Sirius, the brightest star in the heavens on the dog collar, it should be easy to find.

84 The brightest stars are of zero magnitude, and as the magnitude numbers increase, the stars get fainter.

85 Thus a star of magnitude of 4, is less than a star of the second magnitude.

86 First-magnitude stars are very bright.

87 Sirius is also called Dog star.

88 Yet another of its names, is "Nile Star," and it refers to the time 5,000 years ago when ancient Egyptians worshipped it.

89 As recorded in the 114 scrolls of Ahmad, the 53rd degree, the 49th verse it reads:

90 And surely, he, Yahweh is the Rabb of Al Shi'raa, Sirius. This the very star you Arab's worshipped.

91 Each year when the Dog star rose just before the hot morning sun, and was visible for a little while at dawn, the Imaams knew that the Nile would soon overflow, and that they would see the Milky Way arching across the sky. This they knew was the celestial Nile.

92 The Nile would overflow and spread the life-giving water on the waiting crops which had been planted on the riverbanks. The flooding of the Nile coincided with reappearance of Orion.

93 The deity Usir, whom the Greeks call Osiris represented Orion, and to the left of him, was the star Sirius, which represented Aset, also called Isis, and together they would light the skies by shadow hour.

94 Giant temples were built for them, with their corridors oriented toward the point where the Dog Star would rise, as with the Golden City of Wahanee or Kodesh, which is built to them, in this day and time in the Egypt of the West.

95 So this was the ancient Egyptian name for Sirius as it was spelt by the Greeks.

96 Sirius was the most important star in the sky to the ancient Egyptians.

97 The Egyptians had a Sothic calendar, the ancient Egyptian calendar year, consisting of 365¼ days. A cycle consisting of 1,460 years of 365 days in the ancient Egyptian calendar, and the first appearance of Sirius on the eastern horizon just before the sun;

98 After 70 days in the Duat, "the underworld", the Egyptian name for the Underworld - was what is called the heliacal rising of Sirius, which is seen as Sirius and the sun joined together at the moment.

99 This event occurred once a year and gave rise to the Sothic calendar, the ancient Egyptian calendar year, consisting of 365¼ days.

100 The heliacal rising of Sirius was so important to the ancient Egyptians, that gigantic temples were constructed with their main aisles "passageways" oriented precisely towards the spot on the horizon where Sirius would appear on the expected daylight hours, as with us Nuwaubian Moors today.

101 The light of Sirius would be channeled along the corridor to flood the altar in the inner sanctum as if a pin-pointed spotlight had been switch on.

102 One such temple to the star Sirius was the temple of Aset at Denderah.

103 Usir, as the husband of Aset, was identified with the constellation Orion.

104 Nephthys, the sister of Aset, represented Sirius B, the dark companion star that is described as a circle around Sirius.

105 ANUBU, whom the Greeks call Anubis, the son of Nephthys and Usir, represented Sirius C.

106 The Egyptians wanted to build a heaven on Earth. Thy kingdom come on earth as it is in Orion (heaven) and we have done the same.

107 When a pharaoh died, he was mummified, then encased in an outer shell, like what was done by Aset, who is called Aset by the Greeks, to the deceased body of Usir, who is called by the Greeks Usir.

108 One of the great ascension rituals, is the Opening of the Mouth ceremony. When a pharaoh is dead, his consort and his still mortal son must cause new life to stir in him.

109 At the exact moment of the early rising of Orion, the pharaoh must be reborn as an Aluhum. You are taught that the Word Pharaoh means "Great House" from the Latin word Phara from the Greek Pharao from the Hebrew Par-Oh from the Egyptian Par-O, Par meaning "House" and O meaning "Great". However, this word comes from the word Faro, which come from the root word far. The word Faro comes from the Latin Pharos, from the Greek Pharos, meaning "Lighthouse". Pharos is a former island in the bay of Alexandria, Egypt, famous in ancient times for its lighthouse. The Metaphysical Bible Dictionary defines Pharaoh as "The Sun, Pharaohs being in Egypt shows us that the light of the Sun of Righteousness is veiled by our life on the lower or sense plane". So the word Pharaoh does not mean "Great House" it means "Light House."

110 The son and the wife performs this ceremony with ANAZ. The pharaoh is standing upright. The son takes the AZ, or ADZ which is shaped by the northern constellation, and strikes open the mouth of the pharaoh, and takes another tool and plunges the ear, and opens the mouth. The mouth is opened, the air goes in, and the pharaoh is alive again, he is reborn for the sky.

111 Rebirth and new life were very important to the Egyptians and they were also required to have sexual potency to enable them to recopulate with deities. Each had many wives and hundreds of children from the breeding of Gods on Earth.

112 The next thing that would happen is, they would have turned the mummy to the south, in alignment with the southern shaft, and attach an erected phallus to his mummified body, and his duty before departing into the after world was to seed the womb, symbolic of the womb of Aset, and the birth of HAR, "Horus".

113 Those that don't know say that the Dogons got their information on Sirius from the Egyptians.

114 However, according to the Dogon, they got their knowledge from travelers from beyond the stars, who traveled from a planet attached to Sirius B, and who landed on Earth and bred with them. As a matter of fact, the Dogons were the descendants from the Egyptians.

115 These travelers from beyond the stars, that came and bred with the Dogons were the Reptilians.

116 These Reptilians came from Sirius B.

117 They traveled to Earth once their sun or star Sirius B collapsed, becoming a very dense star also known as a "White Dwarf."

118 When the planet sized ship called Procyon, a binary star in the constellation Canis Minor, which is the Greek name for NIBIRU meaning "planet which crosses the sky, or the planet of the crossing," passed by Sirius B, 119 Its presence drained the energy from the sun and it caused this great star, Sirius B, to collapse.

120 Sirius B had two planets.

121 The Naarians, Greys, were on one planet and the Nummos, Reptilian, were on the other.

122 Both planets rotated around Sirius B.

123 So when their sun died they, the inhabitants of Sirius, followed Nibiru through the Milky Way.;

124 One chasing the other.

125 They took residence on Earth, in a country now called Mali, which is where the Dogon lived.

126 The Reptilians have been breeding and living with humans for centuries.

127 They are humanoid in shape and reptilian in heritage.

128 Their leaders are the Draconis.

129 They are from Draco a constellation in the polar region of the Northern Hemisphere near Cepheus and Ursa Major, also called the Dragon.

130 The Reptilians stand from 8ft down to 6ft in height, with dark green scaly skin.

131 Their leader is Haaton.

132 Haaton is a Reptilian who defected from the Reptilians while on Earth and reformed to fight against the Reptilians on behalf of humans.

133 He is the commander of the Ashtar command.

134 There are 16 different kinds of Reptilians seen these days by abductees.

135 There is a type of species of Reptilians called Gargoyles that have special "wings," which are flaps of skin supported by long ribs of Dracona.

136 Some Reptilians can either lay eggs, or bear by lava, and some of them are of the neutral gender, and reproduce like lizards.

137 The male species nurtures the eggs, and the female just lays them.

Figure 122
A Winged Gargoyle

Tablet 5:138

138 These beings are also known as the "Dragon Race," or the whiptail lizards, and the symbology usually includes the winged serpent.

139 There are elements of their species which do not have wings, "the soldier class" and "the scientist."

140 The Naarians and the Markabians are really a crossbreed between human, greys, and reptilians species.

141 There are several other lines of crossbreeds between humans and reptilians species that have specific characteristics such as:

142 The Rumardians, who are being used as slaves by the Reptilians.

143 They are under close surveillance by the Reptilians, who have them in such a state that they depend totally upon the Reptilians for their reproduction and food absorption, the same way Negroids, in this world, are slowly but surely becoming dependent upon the Caucasoids. As you can see the European and his Euro-Arab, and Euro-Asian, and Euro-American have made it a part of their way of life to invade foreign countries, trample their ways, customs, and traditions, take control of people's minds and lives, enslave people, manipulate people and even use them against their own people. Then their tactics is religion, or other powerful organizations. This is the same tactic that was used against the Rumardians and Reptilians.

144 The beings from Andromeda, who work alongside with the Reptilians, also came and captured the Rumardians and started breeding their own race of Greys, which in turn led to a breed of mean, vicious, bug-eyed beings, called the Markabians.

Tablet 5:159

145 The Rumardians were once used by the Anunnagi and are highly intelligent.

146 However, they began to die off.

147 There are 70 different species of Greys.

148 Only 8 of them are still coming to this planet.

149 There are 3 major kinds of Greys:

150 The Markabians, from the Zeta Reticulans, who are about four to five feet tall, a mixture of Greys and Reptilians;

151 And those from Belletrax, also a star in the Orion system, that are about 3-5 feet tall, and another species of Orion Grey that ranges in height from 6-9 feet tall.

152 The Reptilian beings didn't have the Dogons best interests. They just used them.

153 They lived in water and during the shadow hours they returned to the waters and came on land to teach and mix with the Dogon.

154 The Nubians, or Dogons refer to them as Dogir, or plural Dogri meaning "ugly water beings."

155 The Dogon speak and teach what they have been taught by the Dogri today.

156 They have knowledge about the universe, star formations, and constellations without the aid of telescopes.

157 The maps that these Dogons have are so accurate that they match modern maps of today.

158 If you look up at the sky, the brightest star you can see is Sirius.

159 Venus, which is originally called Lahamu, and Jupiter, which is originally called Kishar, are often brighter, but a small meat-eating dinosaur, if it had not become extinct some 63,000,000 years ago, according to scientists at Canada's Nat. Museum of Natural Sciences at Ottawa, would very probably have evolved into a manlike creature 4½ feet tall, with a large brain, green skin, and yellow reptilian eyes they are not stars; they are planets going around our own sun, which is a star itself.

160 No astronomer will tell you there is any particular reason for intelligent life to be in the area of Sirius.

161 The reason Sirius is so bright is because it's large and close, and bigger than the sun, and bigger than the handful of other nearby stars.

162 About the middle of the last century, an astronomer was looking rather hard at Sirius, over a period of time and got annoyed because it wasn't sitting still.

163 It was wobbling.

164 He had a difficult time figuring this out, but he finally concluded that an extremely heavy and massive star that was going around Sirius which could make it wobble that way.

165 The only trouble was that there wasn't any large star going around Sirius! Instead there turned out to be a tiny little thing going around it every 50 years, and so Sirius came to be called Sirius A and the little thing became Sirius B.

166 Sirius B was, at that time, unique in the universe as far as anyone knew.

167 Over a 100 of these things have now been actually seen scattered around the sky, 168 And there are many thousands more which we cannot see, even through our modern telescopes, because they are so tiny and their light is so feeble.

169 They are called White Dwarfs.

170 White Dwarfs are small white stars with a large amount of material packed into an extremely small space.

171 White Dwarfs are strange, because although they are feeble they are strong.

172 They do not give out much light, but they are powerful gravitationally.

173 On a White Dwarf we would not even be a fraction of an inch high.

174 We would be flat, pulled in by gravity.

175 The star that was necessary to make Sirius A wobble, was a little thing, 176 But it still had to be as massive and heavy as an ordinary star but of much more enormous size.

177 It is, in short a star so dense and closely packed that it is not even made out of regular matter.

178 It is made out of what is called degenerate matter or super dense matter, where the atoms are pressed together and the electrons squashed.

179 This matter is so heavy that it cannot be thought of in any familiar terms.

180 The Dogons believe that the most important star in the sky is Sirius B, which cannot be seen.

181 They call this tiny star Bo Tolo, Tolo meaning "star" and Bo (Po) is a cereal grain commonly called Fonio in West Africa.

182 To the Dogon this tiny grain represents the tiny star, and the star is called Po, after the grain.

183 The Dogon also say that Sirius B rotates on its axis, as well as its movement in space,

184 Digitaria, which is another name for Sirius B also revolves upon itself over the period of one year and this revolution is honored during the celebration of the Bado Rite, that occurs every 60 years called a Sigui,

185 Which happens when Sirius B

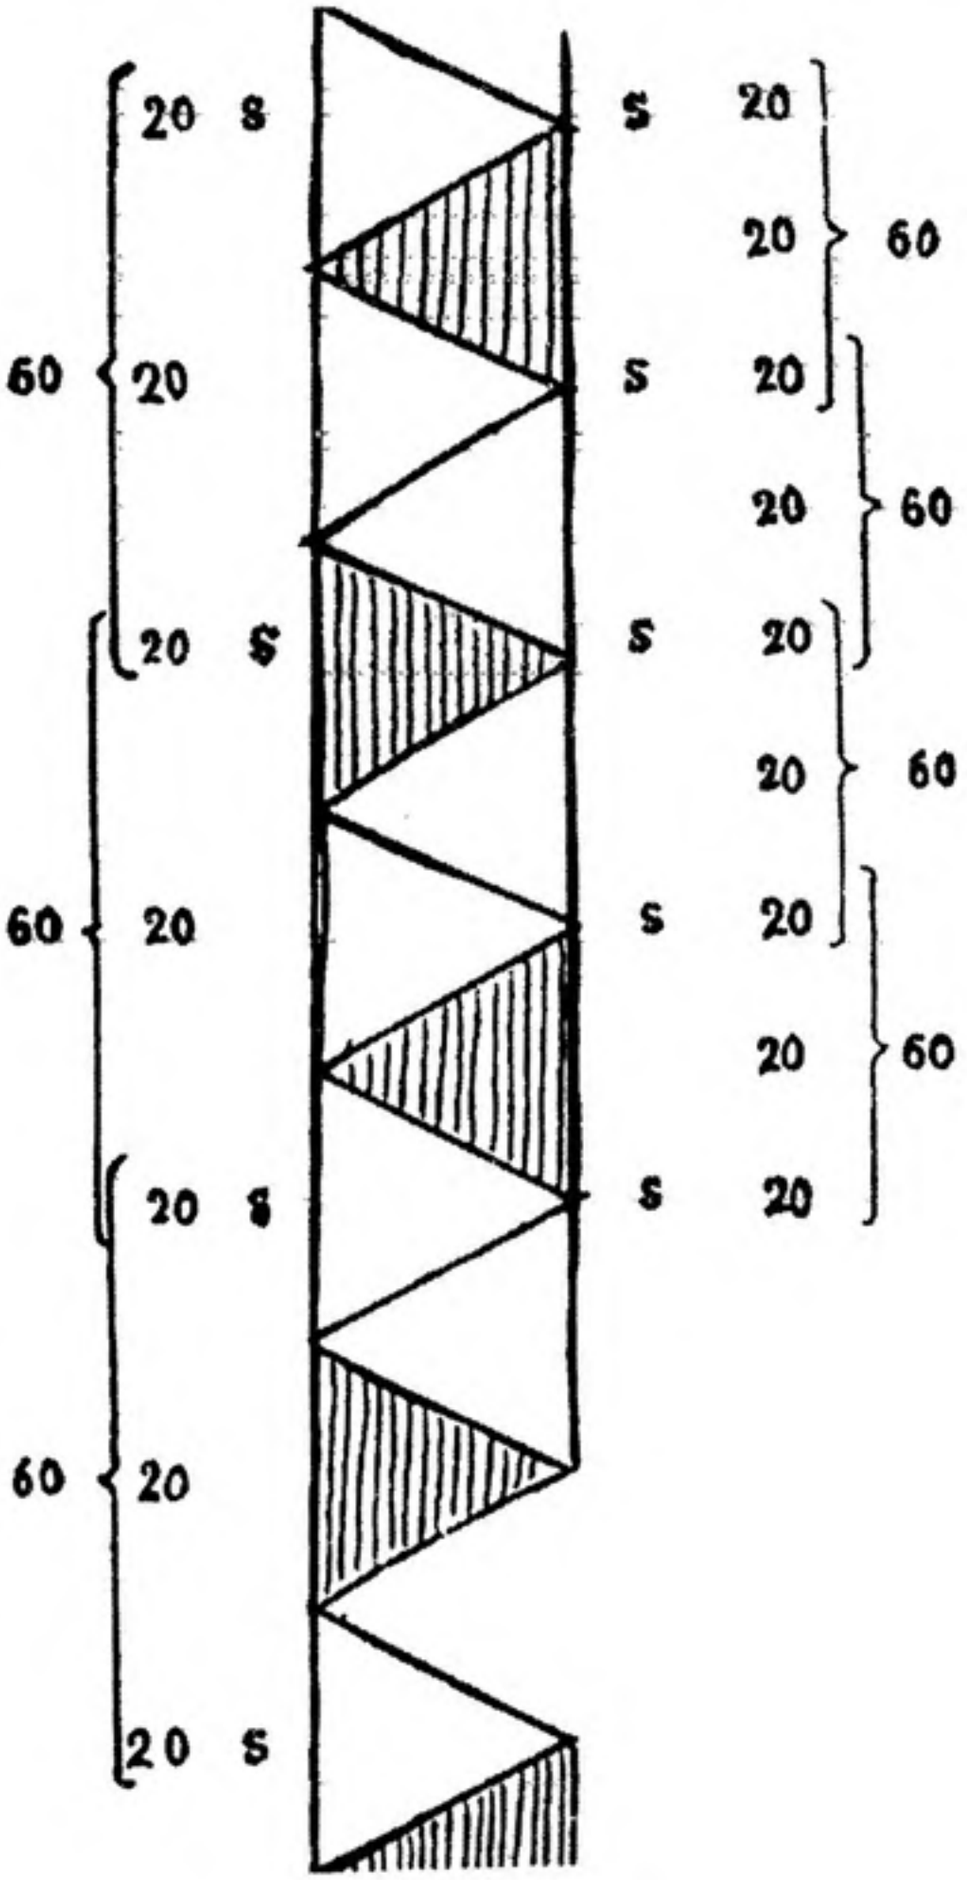

Diagram 40
The Calculation Of The Siguis

Tablet 5:185 Tablet 5:214

completes its rotation around Sirius A and rotates on its own axis around itself.

186 This is something that all stars do.

187 On April 23rd, 1994 A.D. the stars, Sirius A and Sirius B criss-crossed in front of each other, which happens every 9000 years.

188 Energies were shot down to the planet Earth to rejuvenate the Dogon.

189 Sirius B is composed of a special kind of material which is called SAGALA, from a root meaning "strong,"

190 And this material does not exist on the Earth.

191 This material is heavier than all the iron on Earth.

192 Sirius B is made of super dense matter of a kind which exists nowhere on Earth.

193 All this forms the most sacred and most secret tradition known to the Dogon, the basis of their religion, and of their lives.

194 The Dogons also say that there is a third star in the Sirius system, which they call the EMME YA star, which they compare to the Digitaria.

195 They say that it is four times as light in weight, and travels along a greater trajectory in the same direction.

196 They say that Emme Ya itself is the "sun of women, a little sun."

197 The Dogon have knowledge that the planets revolve around the sun.

198 Planets are called TOLO TANAZE, meaning "stars that turn around something."

199 The Dogons refer to our solar system as Ogo's placenta, whereas the system of the star Sirius and its comparison star and satellites, is referred to as Nommo's placenta.

200 Nommo is the collective name for the great culture, and founder of civilization who came from the Sirius system to set up society on the Earth.

201 The Dogon have recorded this information given by the Nommo long ago.

202 Nommo is an individual and Nommos is the plural.

203 The Nommos were amphibious creatures, known as the Reptilians.

204 The name Nommos means, "the masters of the water, also called instructor or the monitors."

205 The Nommos have to live in the water. The Nommo's seat is in the water.

206 The landing of Nommo on our Earth is called The Day of the Fish, and the planet he came from in the Sirius system which is known as The Pure Earth of the Day of the Fish.

207 The Nommos landed in an ark.

208 The ark landed on the Earth to the north-east of Dogon country, which is the direction of Egypt and the Middle East, 209 Where the Dogon claim to have come from originally, before going to Mande.

210 The Dogon describe the landing of the ark as the word of, Nommo, which was cast down by him in the 4 directions as he descended, 211 And it sounded like the echoing of the four large stone blocks being struck with stones by the children.

212 It was a thundering vibrating sound.

213 The ark landed on the fox's dry land and displaced a pile of dust raised by the whirlwind it caused.

214 The violence of the impact roughened the ground, it skidded on the ground.

215 The Nommo is said to be the monitor for the universe, the "father of mankind, guardian of its spiritual principles, dispenser of rain and master of the water."

216 Not all the Nommos came to Earth.

217 The one called Nommo Die, or the great Nommo, remained in the skies or heavens with Amma, and he is his vicar.

218 He manifests himself in the rainbow, which is called "path of the Nommo."

219 He is the guardian of the "spiritual principles of living creatures on Earth."

220 There are three other distinct kinds of Nommo, each personified as an individual.

221 There is the Nommo Titiyayne "messenger, or deputy of the Nommo Die," and he executes the latter's great works.

222 The Nommos who came to Earth in the spaceship are of this class.

223 A third class of Nommos are represented by O Nommo- Nommo Of The Pond, he will be sacrificed for the purification, and reorganization of the universe.

224 He will come in human form and descend on Earth, in an ark, with the ancestors of men, then he will take on his original form to rule over the waters and give birth to many descendants.

225 The fourth Nommo is the naughty disrupter named Ogo, or Nommo Anagonno.

226 He was about to be finished being created but he rebelled against his creator and introduced disorder into the universe.

227 Eventually, he will become the pale fox which is the image of his fall.

228 In many ways, the fox resembles the Egyptian deity Set.

229 The Dogons believe that the original germ of life is symbolized by the smallest cultivated seed, Digitaria Exilis,

230 Commonly known as FONIO, meaning "little" and also called by the Dogon KIZE UZI, "the little thing."

231 This seed, quickened by an internal vibration, bursts the enveloping sheath, or skin and emerges to reach the uttermost confines of the universe.

232 At the same time this is unfolding matter, which moves along a path which forms a spiral or helix.

233 Just as on the vegetal plane, which is the plane of growth, 7 seeds came out of the Digitaria Exilis seed first, so in the same way as it's done on the astral plane.

234 From the first star came 7 others bearing the names of the seven corresponding seeds.

235 The preceding events took place inside an enormous egg, Aduno Tal, a world situated in infinite space and containing the appointed model of the creation, Nommo, the son of Amma.

236 This egg was divided into 2 twin placenta, each of which should have contained a pair of twin Nommo.

237 In one placenta, however, the male person did not await the usual period of gestation appointed by Amma, but emerged prematurely from the egg.

238 Moreover, he tore a fragment from his placenta and with it came down through a space outside the egg; this fragment became the Earth.

239 This being Yurugu, brought the fonio with him, intending to make a world of his own.

240 This irregular procedure at the outset disorganized Amma's order of creation.

241 From this imperfection arose the notion of impurity:

242 Earth and Yurugu were, from the beginning, solitary and impure.

243 Yurugu, realizing that this situation would effectually prevent him from carrying on Earth, he returned to heaven to try and find the rest of his placenta with his twin soul.

244 But at his revolt, Amma had handed over this twin soul, NUKIIDA to the remaining pair in the other part of the egg, and he had put her in their charge.

245 Yurugu could not retrieve Nukiida. From that time he has been engaged in a perpetual and fruitless search for her.

246 He returned to the dry Earth, where now there began in the darkness to come into existence single, incomplete beings, offspring of incest;

247 In fact, he procreated in his own placenta, in the Earth, that is, with his mother.

248 Seeing this, Amma decided to send to Earth the Nommo of the other half of the egg.

249 They came down to Earth on a gigantic ark, at the center of which stood the 2 Nommo of the sky, who had assumed the guise of human blacksmiths.

250 At the 4 cardinal points were 4 other pairs of Nommo, avatars of the first and the ancestors of man.

251 The 4 male ancestors were named

Tablet 5:263

Amma Seru, Lebe Seru, Binu Seru, and Dyongu Seru.

252 Every 60 years the Dogon hold a ceremony called the Sigui ceremony.

253 Its purpose is the renovation of the world.

254 When it is time for the Sigui, the elders in the Tana Tono shelter at Yougo draw a symbol on the rock with red ochre, which is any of several earthy mineral oxides of iron occurring in yellow, brown, or red and it's used as pigments, which represents a Kanaga mask.

255 This in turn represents the deity Amma; a hole is made in the ground below it symbolizing the Sigui, and thus Amma in the egg of the world.

256 The hole is also interpreted as the hole which must be dug to put seeds in.

257 From this viewpoint the holes are arranged in series of 3, connoting 3 Siguis, placed beneath the sign of 3 seeds, after which they are named.

258 Thus the Sigui at the beginning of this century was called Emme Sigi, the "sorghum Sigui;"

259 The next one will be called Yu Sigi, the "millet Sigui;"

260 And the one after Nu Sigi, the "haricot Sigui."

261 There is another figure painted on the facade of the sanctuaries which reveals rather more specific data; it is called Sigi Lugu, meaning "calculation of the Sigui,"

262 And consists of a line of vertical chevrons, which is a badge of rule, the notches of which are painted alternately black, red, and white; which are the secret colors.

263 Each color corresponds to a seed, the first to millet, (the plant or grass) the second to the haricot, (the pod or seed) and the third to sorghum (the grain).

Tablet 5:263

264 The Dogon act as understudies for other more complex practices, and knowledge to do with the Sirius system.

265 The Dogon names for this star, Sigi Tolo, meaning "star of the Sigui; or Yasigi Tolo, star of Yasigui," indicate its relation with the ceremony of the renovation of the world which takes place every 60 years. From where you get your 60 seconds in a minute, 60 minutes in an hour.

266 Sirius, however, is not the basis of the system: it is one of the foci, or focus of the orbit of a tiny star called Digitaria, BO TOLO, or star of the YOUROUGOU, YURUGU TOLO.

267 The orbit described by Digitaria around Sirius is perpendicular to the horizon, and this position is alluded to in one of the most common ceremonies.

268 When Digitaria is close to Sirius, the latter becomes brighter;

269 When it is at its most distant from Sirius, Digitaria gives off a twinkling effect, suggesting several stars to the observer.

270 This trajectory symbolizes excision and circumcision, an operation which is represented by the closest and furthest passage of Digitaria to Sirius.

271 The left part of the oval is the foreskin, or clitoris, the right part is the knife.

272 A horizontal figure rests on a vertical axis which connects 2 circles: Sirius and Digitaria;

273 The center of the figure is a circle, T, which represents the trajectory of Digitaria.

274 The line E is the penis, the hook B, the foreskin.

Tablet 5:284

275 There are 2 horns hinge on the circle and reproduce once again the 2 parts of the trajectory: The knife, and the foreskin.

276 Thus the Sirius system is associated with the practices of renovating people.

277 The period of the orbit is counted double, that is, 100 years, because the Siguis are convened in pairs of twins, so as to insist on the basic principle of twin ness.

278 It is for this reason, that the trajectory is called MUNU, from the root MONYE, "to reunite."

279 Digitaria is represented in Wazouba either by a dot or by a sac surrounding a concentric circle of ten dots, which are the eight ancestral Nommos and the initial couple of Nommo.

280 During the Bado ceremony the oldest woman of the family draws, at the entrance to the house, the pattern of the Nyan Aduno Tonu, meaning "world of women", or the pattern of the 'Aduno Dale Donule Tonu, meaning "top and bottom of the world."

281 The Kanaga sign is similar to the symbol that represents the Pisces sign.

282 The constellation was named "Gemini Pisces" by the Romans because there are 2 fish.

283 The "western" fish heads northward toward Andromeda, A constellation in the Northern Hemisphere between Lacerta and Perseus and south of Cassiopeia, and the "eastern" fish back in the direction of Aquarius, a constellation in the equatorial region of the Southern Hemisphere near Pisces and Aquila. Also called Water Bearer.

284 When the energy field on Rizq was starting to increase and the hole was starting to lose its color, the Rizqiyians had to abort their planet and go to Orion.

285 They had to get closer to the Milky Way, so they moved to LAHMU, called Mars, where they set up a commune, of laboratories inclusive.

286 They also went to MASHSIG, today called Pluto.

287 The beings of Zeta Reticuli, who lived in Orion, didn't want the Rizqiyians to live there because they were taking over.

288 They objected to the power structure made by the Rizqiyians, however, they didn't bother them because of the DINNEER.

289 The Rizqiyians aborted Mars and went to the planet Earth because of better living conditions.

290 Some went to Aldebaran, a double star in the constellation Taurus, 68 light-years from Earth, and one of the brightest stars in the sky. Arcturus, the fourth brightest star in the sky and the brightest star in the constellation Boötes, approximately 36 light-years from Earth, and Pleiades, an open star cluster in the constellation Taurus, consisting of several hundred stars, of which six are visible to the naked eye.

291 However, they were at war with the beings from Andromeda, Rigel, a bright double star in the constellation Orion, and Aldebaran and they took control of these star systems, from the Rizqiyians and all their technology.

292 These beings from Andromeda, Rigel, and Aldebaran, attacked and defeated the Rizqiyians, that were there because they were not warriors.

293 They were colonizing to prepare a place for the beings from ILLYUWN until their system could be mended.

294 Both of these star systems were there long before the Nordic, Aryan beings came there.

295 These Aryan beings call themselves Pleiadians, deceptive as they are.

296 They, to this date, are influencing the minds of Humans.

297 Their link on Earth, in latter time, was to the Third Reich, under a demon referred to as Adolph Hitler, 298 Who was influenced by the 80th of the 200 fallen angelic beings, whose name being Hitla.

299 A disagreeable being, who seeks to rule the planet by defected Albino leprous beings.

300 A woman named Madame Blavatsky, who was born under the name Helena Petrovna Von Han, branched off and headed the Theosophical Society. She was a well known witch. Two witches who were also psychics, named Maria Austish, and Zigrum, the Thule Society and Madame Blavatsky came together and selected Adolph Hitler in the year 1913 A.D. to be their contactee, or man on this planet Earth.

301 They were contacted by the beings called the Ashtar Command from the Pleiades and the Aldebaran constellations.

302 The Ashtar Command are among many entities that come to Earth and have been circling above the Earth - for the most part invisible to the naked eye since the early 1950's of the Gregorian Calendar.

303 They, the Ashtar Command were humanoid and have less water in their bodies and are "pasty" in appearance.

Tablet 5:304 Tablet 5:316

304 In the year 1952 A.D. of the Gregorian Calendar, crafts were logged as being seen over the White House in Washington D.C. USA.

305 There was a meeting held, and the Ashtar Command met with the late President Dwight David Eisenhower, at which time America was asked "to lay down their arms."

306 However, beings from the planet Venus, Commander Valiant Thor, also called Val Thor, and his crew members Donn, Tanyia and Jill were present at this meeting also, and said, "Don't trust the people from Aldebaran."

307 These beings from Aldebaran became highly insulted after they were labeled "untrustworthy."

308 They went back in time and had a meeting of psychics with the Thule Society, that led to what is called the Third Reich, whose power still rules the world today.

309 Hitler held the super race with great reverence and respect. These beings have light blonde hair and blue eyes.

310 They are originally bred by gene transplants or what is called embryo implantation. The beings from Aldebaran gave Hitler a lot of technology and flying saucers, which Hitler took out to Antarctica, A continent lying chiefly within the Antarctic Circle and asymmetrically centered on the South Pole.

311 They were responsible for the technology and plans for a superior race.

312 Hitler was actually breeding a superior race for the Extraterrestrials. This group from Aldebaran is also responsible for your neutranoid race.

313 They forge visitations to hide their links from Billy Meier of Switzerland, 314 To the Third Reich and Zionist ties under a Zionist named Claude Vorilhon, born in Viche France, on September 30th, in the year 1946 A.D., who calls himself RAEL.

315 A good eye sees it's simply lacking the Is, for Isis, which would make it Is-Ra-El, Israel, where this individual Claude Vorilhon, who chose to call himself David, the name of the real messiah, which set his embassy in the State of Israel. Make note: That when the Prophecies of the Messiah is recorded in Psalm 89:20 and Jeremiah 30:9, in both cases the Aramic word Dawiyd meaning "beloved" which stems from the root word dude, in the Ashuric you find Dawud, also means "beloved," which comes from the root waduwd. Again in deception Claude calls himself David to imply he is the savior.

316 He is linked to Claude Doggins, born in Sulfur Springs, Oklahoma, of the Brotherhood Of The White Temple, who calls himself Doreal, Again you see in the name Dar-El. Doreal's teachings was identified as the wisdom of the ancients, resemble those of other theosophically-derived wisdom schools and organizations; the name "The Brotherhood Of The White Temple," was used prior to Doreal by Annie Besant, who was successor to Madame Blavatsky. Doreal says he had previously visited the colonies inside of Mt. Shasta, but the visits were "astral," not physical. In 1931 A.D., he was invited to visit the Atlantean colony in the flesh. He was lecturing in Los Angeles when two audience members identified themselves as colonists, which is an original settler or founder of a colony, or an inhabitant of a colony. They invited him to visit their colony at Mt. Shasta that day. He was taken down into the caverns beneath the Earth. Doreal says, he had personal contact with the SUMUWNEAN, Deros.

317 The symbol being the 6 pointed star and the swastika, the movement being called Raelian movement, under a French Jew.

318 The symbol has taken many forms having the same root in deception of the Aryan race, and it can be found today as Ku Klux Klan, or the White Brotherhood, breeding groups as the Aryan Nation, the Skin Heads, the White Supremacists, which will eventually turn on the government.

319 The Aryan Race, as they call themselves, whose image they worship as being blonde haired, blue eyed, pale skinned superiors, who RAEL claims that the original fathers who he calls Eloheems, which is of course a Jewish or a Hebrew word for Gods, came from very far away as he puts it. Later it simply became Pleiades.

320 A grand deception by the beings of Andromeda, an insect type being that the late President Dwight David Eisenhower could not stomach, 321 For they are the high council and advisors to these cloned Aryan Pleiadeans.

322 Who they yielded an alphabet that begins with Aleph, Beh, Cheth, Daleth, which is simply a form of Yiddish, used by modern Jews, and they call it Hebrjn, as you can see it originally came from a form of Kabbalistic script.

Tablet 5:330

323 Saying their planet in Pleiades is Erra, a phonetic that is self explanatory from error and Hebrjn from Hebrew.

324 The deception by these German Jews whose god is Hitla, called Adolph Hitler is in place, 325 And is spreading amongst the disagreeable Nordics of this planet. This is in hopes to find a place in the universe, amongst the star people, where they are not welcomed.

326 All races on this planet have had extraterrestrial involvement from the Sumerians, to the Aztecs, the Hopi, to the Aborigine, to the Egyptians, to the original Nubian Hebrews, Christian and Muslims, in the form of prophets or angels, as they say.

327 However, none has come to the cursed seed of Canaan; to the Aryan there has been none, so they create theirs such as: Nostradamus, Edgar Cayce, and Gene Dixon, who all have been proven to be incorrect in their prophecies, but they will seek to kill any Negroid who appears to have the ability to lead. They are known to be killers of the Negroid Prophets and leaders.

328 So they chose to distort the history of the Dogon.

329 They seek to fit themselves in a history far greater than theirs. So they say they are from Pleiades.

330 And there are some amongst them who claim to be direct descendants of extraterrestrials, or direct descendants of prophets, such as Claude Vorilhon, who calls himself Rael, who claims that he is the last messenger of the Eloheem, and the last prophet, the shepherd of shepherds.

331 And remember Yashua said, "See that you be not deceived, for many shall come in my name."

332 As recorded in the book of Yuhanna (John) the 10th degree, the 11th verse:

333 I am the good shepherd, the good shepherd, giveth his life for the sheep, and the 14th verse:

334 "I am the good shepherd, and I know my sheep and I am known of mine."

335 They, the blond haired, blue eyed, Nordic race claim that they are the descendants of the Pleiadeans, humanoids with reptilians living within them, who come claiming peace, yet they plan to rule. These Pleiadeans say they came from the planet Erra, in the Pleiades constellation. Their invasion and eventual takeover, they describe as V, for the V-shape of Taurus.

336 Pleiades is a star cluster 490, rounded off to the nearest, which makes it approximately 500 light years away from Earth that's located in the Taurus constellation.

337 Taurus, the bull, is 1 of the 12 constellations of the Zodiac.

338 Pleiades are a famous part of Taurus.

339 The V-shaped head of Taurus is usually referred to as the Hyades, a relatively nearby cluster, which is another way of saying Hades, meaning "the underworld, or hell."

Tablet 5:350

340 Showing you that these Nordics, claiming Pleiades as their planet, are actually saying that they came from "hell."

341 The symbol for Taurus is a bull.

342 The Greek symbol for Taurus is Tau.

343 The Tau is one of the most ancient symbols.

344 It symbolizes resurrection. The symbol is a circle above a horizontal line, connected with a vertical line. The horizontal line symbolizes the Earth, the circle symbolizes the rising of the sun and the vertical line symbolize their descent to the planet Earth, a springing into life. In the ancient writings of Mu it is used to symbolize the emersion of land.

345 The Tau is a picture of the constellation of the Southern Cross.

346 The reason for its adoption as the symbol of resurrection was that when the Southern Cross appeared at a certain angle in the heavens over Mu, it brought the long looked for rain.

347 With the rain, seeds in the ground sprang into life, dropping foliage revived, and it sent forth fresh shoots, upon which there were flowers and fruit.

348 Then it became a time of plenty and rejoicing in Mu; new life had been resurrected.

349 The Tau cross was a symbol of Saint Anthony.

350 The cross comes from the Greek letter Tau, which was adapted from the Aramic Hebrew letter Taw, the twenty third letter, the four hundredth Abjad, meaning "the cross."

351 The Tau literally meant sign or mark.

352 The Tau was a cross in the form of a "T" and it was used to be branded on the thighs and necks of horses and camels.

353 The "T" is symbolic of Tammuz, the son of Nimrod and Semiramis, not to be mistaken with Tammuz, son of Aset and Dammuzi.

354 The ankh has also been associated with the Crux Ansata of the Coptic Church.

355 This was a cross in the form of a "T" which represented the Greek Tau, and an O, which represents the Greek letter omega meaning "last doomed or dead."

356 Thus, this symbol represented the mark of death, the death is the deception and betrayal and murder of O-Siris, Usir by his brother Set, symbolic of Satan. Thus, you have Cipher with Lu-Cipher, giving you Lucifer, "The Bright Morning Star," another name given to Jesus". "I am the bright morning star, son of Usir, who is Horus, symbolic of the rising sun, the early morning star, which is also the symbol of the cross.

357 The Romans used the cross as a punishment of crucifixion. This symbol originated from the Egyptian ring symbol. The ring represents eternity, it was worn to provide protection against illness, and it was an amulet for good health. It also represented the great year and the divine court of Usir. The Egyptians had several amulets, or talismans, that were used for different purposes, such as: the Tjet, a conventional representation of the genital organs of Aset, the Tet, a portion of the backbone of Usir, the Heart, with a portrait head of the owner of the amulet, the Heart; commonest form, 2 plumes resting on a pair of horns of the kudu, and a special crown. The two plumes of Amen; later the Atef Crown. The Papyrus sceptre. The eye and eyebrow of Horus, specially symbolic of strength. The pillow or head-rest, which was used by the living and was placed under the necks of mummies. The quadruple eye of Ra in the four quarters of the world. The Udjat or eye of Ra. The Udjat or eye of Aah, the Moon-deity, the seeing, the seer, names of the moon deity Allah.

358 The Tau is a very prominent symbol in the ancient writings of the Hindus, Chinese, Chaldeans, Incas, Quiches, Egyptians and other ancient people.

359 In one of the Qabbalistic masonic legends, Chiram Abiff is given a hammer in the form of a Tau by his ancestor, Tubal-Cain.

360 The Tau cross is preserved to modern masonry under the symbol of the T square, the gavel.

361 The Tau cross was inscribed on the forehead of every person admitted into the mysteries of mithras, the ancient Persian god of light, and guardian against evil, often identified with the sun.

362 When a ruler was initiated into the Egyptian mysteries, the Tau was placed against his lips.

Tablet 5:363

363 Be not deceived my children, for there is a massive deception going on, with the Zionist, who is trying to tie the extraterrestrial involvement with them, claiming to be the children of the light, our ancestors.

364 Don't let these demons fool you into thinking that they are here to help you and guide you back to the right path.

365 Remember, these are the same ones that betrayed our ancestors the woolly haired, dark skinned Rizqiyians.

366 The Rizqiyians trusted the Pleiadeans only to be betrayed.

367 The ones that attacked the Rizqiyians were Hybrid Humanoids made by Reptilians.

368 They were dipping into the genes of evolutionary man on Earth.

369 There are various crossbreeds, and some are amphibious.

370 The beings from Andromeda, who work alongside with the Reptilians, also came and attacked them, 371 And took control of the Rumardians, and started breeding them.

372 Alrischa, "the knot," is not a bright star, but connects the pair, which together form a large L shape, cradling the square of Pegasus.

373 The sun enters Pisces on March 13 and remains there until April 19.

374 During that time it crosses the equator from the southern to the northern celestial hemisphere on about March 22.

375 That point in time is regarded as the beginning of spring, the Vernal Equinox, in the northern part of the globe.

Tablet 5:388

376 The equinox is also the particular place where the sun actually crosses the celestial equator in its diagonal climb.

377 It may be remembered that this point marks the zero-hour position in R.A. (right ascension) from which the 24 hours in right ascension are counted.

378 That is why the coordinates of the point of the Vernal Equinox are zero hours R.A. and zero degrees declination.

379 Today that point is in Pisces.

380 The word Equi stands for "equal," and Nox means "night,".

381 At the time of the equinox, shadow hours and days are of equal lengths.

382 There is a second point of equinox in the celestial sphere.

383 The position is 12 O'clock hours R.A., zero degrees declination. Its point in time marks the beginning of fall in the Northern Hemisphere.

384 Shadow hours and days are once again of equal lengths, 385 When the sun crosses the celestial equator on its southward journey in the constellation Virgo, a constellation in the region of the celestial equator between Leo and Libra. Also called Virgin.

386 The gravitational pull of the sun and the moon on the Earth creates a very gentle wobble in the north-south tilt of the Earth.

387 It affects the direction in which your polar axis is pointed and the angle of the celestial equator in relation to the path of the sun and the UL.HE "Zodiac".

388 This effect is called "precession," and it has been compared to the wobble which can be observed in spinning tops.

389 For Earth, each jiggle takes 26,000 years to complete. Recession very gradually changes the apparent positions of the stars in relation to us.

390 In the course of Precession, about 255 B.C., the vernal birthplace passed into the sign of the Fish, 391 And the Messiah who had been represented for 2,155 years by the Ram or Lamb.

392 The original Fish-man, called Oan or Oannes in Chaldea dates from the previous cycle of precession, 393 Or 26,000 earlier; and about 255 B.C. the Messiah, as the Fish-man, was to come up once more as the Manifestor from the celestial waters.

394 The coming Messiah is called DAG, "the Fish", in the Talmud, which is The collection of ancient Rabbinic writings consisting of the Mishnah and the Gemara, constituting the basis of religious authority in Orthodox Judaism; and he is tied into the sign of the Fish, the sign of SIM.MAH "Pisces".

395 In the scroll of Yuhanna (John) the 14th degree, the 2nd verse when Yashua says:

396 In my father's house there are many monay "mansions, or abodes."

397 This is referring to the 12 houses of the Zodiac, which are symbolic of different star constellations.

398 In the book of Mattay called by the christians Matthew the 14th degree, the 17th verse, Yashua fed his followers two fishes, which is the sign Pisces, the two fishes.

399 Yashua is referred to as the fisherman, that is why the popes wear the mitre, or headdress.

400 It is symbolic of the deity Dagon, because Rome ruled the world for 2,000 years under the age of Pisces.

401 The next 2,000 years goes into the age of Aquarius, which symbolizes the water bearer.

402 A man with water pitchers.

403 If you read the 22nd degree, the 10th verse of the book of Luke, where Yashua says:

404 "Behold, when ye are entered in the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in."

405 When Yashua appeared to his disciples in the book of Matthew the 28th degree, the 20th verse where he says:

406 "And teach them to obey everything I have commanded you.

407 And I will be with you always, to the end of the age."

408 He is talking about leaving the Piscean era, moving on into the Aquarian age.

409 The "first point in KU.MAL, "Aries" used to be the point of the spring equinox when early records were kept some 2,000 years ago.

410 Since then it has moved into Sim.mah "Pisces", and it will, about 600 years from now, drift into GU "Aquarius".

411 Now we are headed into a new era, which is a period of time as reckoned from a specific date serving as the basis

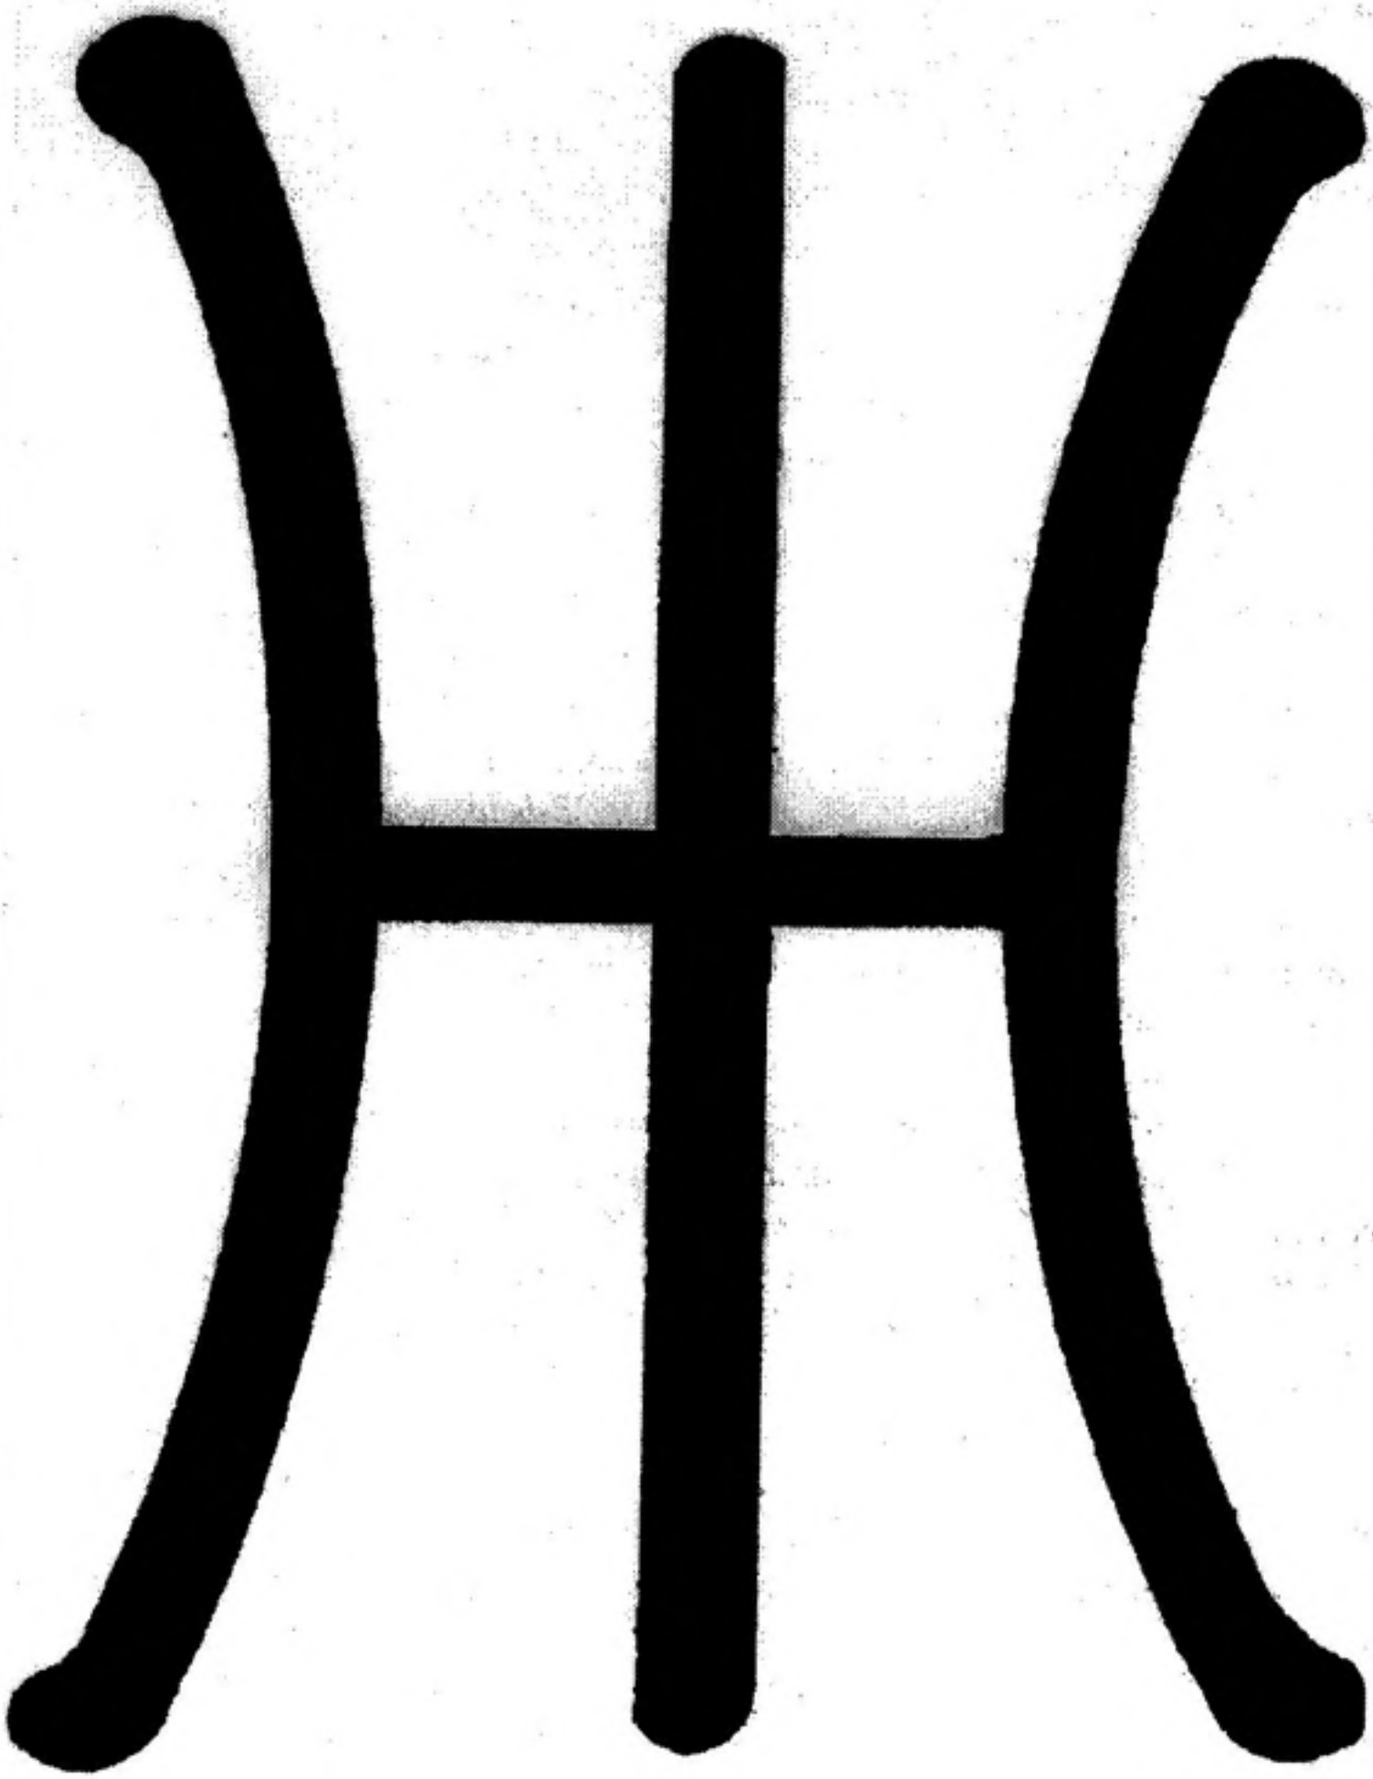

Diagram 68
Symbol Seen At The Ordzhonikidze Sighting

Figure 133
Oan Of Chaldea

of its chronological system. We have moved from the era of water, the Piscean Age, to the era of air, which utilizes laser beams, video, fiber octaves, etc.

412 The Aquarian age is composed of religions that deal with the lesser mysteries, which are symbolized with water.

413 The lesser mysteries are those esoteric teachings that have become religions.

414 These religions started with a spiritual nature.

415 The Masters came with spiritual doctrines, and as time passed, the doctrines lessened and lessened until they became purely physical.

416 This is why they are called the lesser mysteries.

417 The era of air brings with it a new awareness.

418 You are beginning to realize that there is more to man than just his senses; that you can have connections with beings outside of your dimension.

The Hogon
(19 x 1=19)

Lo! The chief of a district among the different tribes of Dogon namely: The DYON, the ONO, and the DOMNO is given the title of Hogon, and the same designation is applied to the single chief of the AROU.

2 Primarily, the Hogon is the representative of his group, which is divided into 7 age classes, and he himself was constituting an 8th.

3 These 8 classes symbolize the 8 ancestors and are represented in each village by 8 elders,

4 Who possess the necessary knowledge and who act as a corporate body, having been constituted as such, by means of various rituals.

5 Thus, the chief stands for the group as a whole. The chief does not rule alone, but it is assisted by a council.

6 Every Hogon is the successor of Lebe Seru and as such is responsible for one of the two seeds of which LEBE SERU had charge, to wit the female sorghum, "grain";

7 Which is in some sort a substitute, for all cultivated seeds and thus sustains the soul and the vital energy.

8 It is the typical seed and the symbol of the cultivation, which purifies the unclean soil of Yurugu.

9 The Hogon is also the head of the Imaams, who represent the other 7 principal seeds.

10 The motions of their souls are in harmony with the rhythm of all.
cultivated plants,

11 And therefore the Hogon is ruler of all land, laid out in cultivation and of all the rituals connected with it.

12 But since the seeds are the earthly images of the stars, the Hogon controls the cosmic rhythm, 13 And it is thus the personification of the universe, and the regent of the Nommo on Earth.

14 In the lunar logging of the 5th point of May, 1983 year of the Gregorian

Calendar, in the region of Ordzhonikidze, which is a city of southwest Russia, at the foot of the Caucasus Mountains southwest of Grozny, an IFO spacecraft was seen at close range.

15 The upper half was made out of a crystal-like glass and the lower half was made of a metal-like structure.

16 On the side of the spacecraft, there was a strange symbol: a crescent on its back with 4 radiation of light joining just over the crescent.

17 This is a sign known to various shamanistic cultures of the near east Africa and Brazil as a sign of teaching from the greater sun system, just like the squash blossom necklace of the Native Americans, which is a replica of the ancient sacred symbol of the Moors, the inverted crescent and star symbol. The Navajo Native Americans also use the inverted crescent symbol, which they call the Naja Symbol, which is a crescent shaped ornament with the hands of Fatima at the end of it and was used to decorate the center of a horse bridle. The Mexicans obtained it from the Spanish who received it from the Moors of North Africa, who occupied Spain for centuries. The hands of Fatima on this symbol was grafted when the Arabs invaded the Moors of Morocco in the year 670-711 A.D. This symbol forms part of every Squash Blossom necklace. The Squash Blossom is a fertility symbol for the Pueblo, Hopi and Zuni people.

18 This symbol was the symbol of the Nommo that came to the Dogons, in Mali.

19 This same sign was also observed in Eastern Europe, particularly over Hungary and Poland. These star brothers come in and out and have been coming in and out to guide from biblical times on up to today.

These Are My Tears
(19 x 1= 19)

Lo! These are the tears that I cry for the beings who have dwelled in Orion, who will not dwell in bliss.

2 ANU, your voice speaks the truth in your heart once again that I may help those who conceal what they know to be true.

3 The disagreeable Aluhum who came down to the planet Earth from the constellation of Orion, originally from the planet Procyon..

4 For they too, need my help.

5 Help me, to help the Human Beings, the Humims who are striving to become agreeable Anunnagi, closer to you.

6 They do disagreeable things, and abide by their rules and they partake in the wickedness and fornication of the wrongdoers, as if you are not conscious of it.

7 These are the beings who originated from Procyon, and have resided on Orion, and their descendants.

Help me to help them.

Help me to clean them, not of the disease that lurks within, but of the sins of their hands and feet which keep them pointing and walking, as if to say they cannot see Anu, who is also called Allah, but they do.

Many of the species would be impossible to identify because they are unknown on earth. Also the gardens of Anna, which was made from gold and precious stones like flowers, vines being of rubies and sapphires, with gold and silver leaves. These precious gardens were re-created on earth.

33 Also I heard a separate story from the Watchers:

34 All gratitude and praise to thee in the Heavens and beyond.

35 Glory, beauty, and power unto the Sustainer, the Heavens forever and ever.

36 There are those who chose to go on a path that leads back to eternity.

29 They who are the ones prepared to reside in The Garden of ANU.

30 The Garden of ANU.

31 These are Good who wanted to get into themselves.

32 If by they who call themself as the Garden of ANU reveals as a beautiful place with an endless open pavilion, that grow wonderful Many Multiply the exotic flowers, plants, fruits and fountains from all corners of the galaxies. Many of the species would be impossible to identify because they are unknown on earth. Also the gardens of Anna, which was made from gold and precious stones like flowers, vines being of rubies and sapphires, with gold and silver leaves. These precious gardens were re-created on earth.

33 Also I heard a separate story from the Watchers:

34 All gratitude and praise to thee in the Heavens and beyond.

35 Glory, beauty, and power unto the Sustainer, the Heavens forever and ever.

36 There are those who chose to go on a path that leads back to eternity.

37 Those are the human beings that dwell in The Kingdom of ANU, which you called the Garden of Paradise.

38 FOR PARADISE DWELLS IN THESE.

The Faithful Ones
(19:1-4 – 20)

Let All Lyra who are faithful in the most holy place pray salutations.

2 Those have heart full mind and the true souls of those children bring the Spirit of Song.

3 You should be informed that it is related on these tablets of your own divinity, although yet you were Not High.

4 In the very presence of your true and beloved creator ANU ALYUN ALYUN EL the Most High, The Highest Father of the Stars and the many universal Life forms.

5 This is ANU, ALYUN ALYUN EL who merely thought of things becoming out of his divine love to share his own power.

6 Love existence all things because

7 Oh, ANU, ALYUN ALYUN EL Make our heart to remember forever your gifts.

8 Make our thought be about seeking after your magnificence.

9 Make us not like those Anaqs, who used harshly and arrogantly, unable to have favor and protection before you.

10 Our Originator, ANU, ALYUN ALYUN EL we know we have failed from your grace.

11 And we are seeking before you and only you.

12 Make our prayer be very pleasing

13 To please do not leave Unknown the one covenant made between us and you 14 Let us not forget the covenant with which this same covenant was made.

15 We do not want to be in the realm of the dangerous.

All can relate for the whole world and upon me one on opened space for me on a [illegible] the face, the one lead me planet is me. Freedom of all things not on small connection, also mean my mankind for [illegible]

I speak to all the world I am Eve for how as I may the lamp or light your ways of the evil that the ancestral the way.

I am [illegible] Mushmalik, the descendant

Of Mushik, was the [illegible] of Mushkenites, the ruler of Babylon in Province of Syria.

In When Anu, Supreme of Nibiru, arrived in Ur, while seeking the body of Ea but learned [illegible] one of Nefilim who fell from [illegible] Mushkilik, the knew world of the people of the planet Earth.

In For on Ekimmeru dared to rape the many Earthlings which was against the orders of the great ANU and the [illegible] of the Anunnaki

Of the very profession to the fathers of the descendant of Elliots.

Ki is the conquer of the borders [illegible] and Nergal's wife Ereshkigal and [illegible] also [illegible] Nibiru. This [illegible] planet by Mars.

Ki The Nibiru, or the Mother of the Spirit [illegible] of spirit finding religious Tablet Mushkil [illegible] or Russia, the [illegible] was the very city of Ur. Multiplied and Evolution.

Ki This is the prophecy of the Anunnaki [illegible] were on the planet Earth. This Mushik or Mushik, the ki the pure given light of the continents.

Ki I know the order to stop the events of the evil on the land of the planet Tiamat around they the land Nibiru. Now was the desire of genetic breeding and fabricating a Lulu Amelu, called a primitive worker named Adapa or Ramman.

Ki Yet he was not the very first of his kind to be born on this new part of the planet.

Ki He was put under Nibiruan working Enlilians the Adam, was to have the Spirit of Kings, the spirit of kings the 6,000 year Spirit of Tammuz of which is what they were.

Ki And the first mankind because of spiritual darkness that you have been made to remain for the last 6,000 years.

Ki As Marduk have slept for the past 6 thousand years. Giving him the only knowledge of being the world kings and are never dying.

Ki El means or El Ness, which means "to forge" from the Greek another "Empedocles" "was acoustic Music to forge". The [illegible] of the Book of the living land from the Sumer Mesopotamia was the first prehistoric humanoids. In the years the Anunnaki completed the creation of the human forms of life.

Ki Now it was upon the earth, and the man-gods [illegible] Enlilians.

Ki In the Sumerian Anunnaki decided to have you, the human race, you were created as with all different types of beings, such as the Shaggers, the Nephilim, the Grays, the Hindus, and the Germans, and all types of other beings that came to the planet.

62 When you become Illuminated, you have the right governance to speak. You have a memory of things untold and ageless. So the first Adam was a generic of the Nefilim, the original Progenitor of the sea and land, and the Shaggers. Hindus from Kush are remembrance of Osiris, one of the planets which is beautiful. Home of the Most High, the DNA palace of Heaven.

63 Producing Homer Simpson's Bible and the clans, the blood of the souls Homo-heaven and for the Jesuit Anunnaki dominion.

66 The Rudyard is to be the Khalifa movement.

67 And he show you all the tips of every Muslim, Rudyard, Rudyard, Rudyard. The sun and Muslim movement of the rule. Also and he will LEGAL of the Creation rules, of animal beings of the planet Earth.

68 The Ki was to remember the first words and to talk ANU, A'LYUN A'YAUON EL, whose name be praised in the heavens and all the powers rule all their life times.

69 Dub-Inshi is there to be present here. So then it said, "To our Sustainer is due all praise." Glory to our Sustainer ANU, A'LYUN A'YAUON EL.

70 Glory be to our Sustainer ANU, A'LYUN A'YAUON EL, and be applause for those in His worship! A'LYUN A'YAUON Anunnaki Names of Yahweh and Adonai.

71 You Enemies (1) in my glory be to El Elohi. We are grateful to you and blessed in your name A'LYUN A'LYUN EL—Allah.

72 There is no good inside these past He appointed Elohi, Yahweh, for he is named who do so, and we relieve about his powers in the planet Earth. His disciples called Gabriel, or his family the Annunaki or El Muhammad Angelic Beings were to organize the plan for mankind.

73 The chosen tribe (Dub-Inshi named Enuj or Enoch) Zodiac, given the religion was to find Illuminated.

LA NABU SHANAMMA — THE ENUMA ELISH

Enuma Elish — The Babylonian Story of Creation

Tablet One
The Enuma Elish, Epic Of Creation
(It's the Big One)

1 When on Babylon, "Bab" above
2 Gods were created
3 Not to be the Babylonian, which does
4 — — — — — by the name Tiamat.
5 And time, the egg, which is the key
6 — — — — — — — — — — — — — — 7 Gods, were called as: What gets
8 — — — — — — — — — — — — — —
9 Mixed mixed their waters together
10 But the pastures were not formed yet,
11 Together were the reed-hut[s] that were 12 — — — — — — — — — — — — — —
13 Then we as I mean when we as 14 Among were made for — Abzum,
15 Nay were their names pronounced,
16 — — — — — — — — — — — — — —
17 And when the Abzum were here
18 — — — — — — — — — — — — — — 19 Lahmu the given Mars, and 20 Lahamu the given Venus, engaged, and 21 Their names were pronounced for all to 22 Hear, it happened and was 23 — — — — — — — — — — — — — —
24 As were to they were completely
25 Grown, and they were fully formed.
26 Then emerged Anshar, the given
27 Saturn and Kishar, the given Jupiter,
28 Which were developing taller than 29 Them, and Lahamu, and it was 30 Surprising them. They also became 31 Lengthened and wide.
32 Their years and days went by and 33 Each in their turn. They planned their 34 — — — — — together.
35 They called to the years. This must 36 Be a time of love and happiness longer
37 Than Apsu, who is to, and their 38 — — — — — — — — — — — — — —
39 Ordinary. They lived on.
40 Anshar, the given Saturn, made his
41 Son (Ani), who is ANUN ANUNNA
42 Of the Deeps, the eldest son
43 Of the celestials He himself is his 44 Own image and also his own Heaven.
45 And ANU, who is Bird-Ea, and his 46 Duty, Ea, then gave birth to Ea, who is 47 To be called Ea; and was later named 48 Nudimmud. Then he took a wife and 49 Had a son. The name Ea was named 50 After his astrological sign, which was 51 Neptune, this is to ANU's own
52 Likeness.
53 Ea, Nudimmud, was superior to his 54 Forefathers, being in the image of ANU.
55 He was profound and full of 56 Understanding.
57 He was wise, well was very 58 Splendidly strong, his head strong and 59 Stubborn in his ways for all he has 60 — — — — — — — — — — — — — — 61 Mighter by far than Anshar, his 62 Father's father.
63 He had no rival amongst the 64 Anunnaki like gods.
65 As he was named the Anunnaki of that 66 Generation would soon register.
67 And Ea with the given Gaia, as they 68 Were here really and did be married,
69 Which was now called Tiamat, and their 70 Planet saved by the waters mentioned,
71 Their mixing.
72 Then as time as one of their wives,
73 They caused a great wrath. They created
74 Their Tiamat, an epic Tiamat was one,
75 Was wild, the upper half the water
76 Surrounded and outside forming a 77 Goddess, then again they created their 78 Tiamat's belly, which is used to over-

36 Then, the Mahikkus were carrying Tiamat by taking medicine inside her, which was sometimes called Tiamat, the great one.

37 After all that, could not sleep through or let alone her's gentle wave.

38 Tiamat, became mad, and darkness was upon the face of the Tiamat, and there was an upset in Jews of the Anunnaki.

39 However, [illegible] Among the Mahikkus' powers Kabarin brought the formidable of Tiamat.

40 However, Nabu's own descendants were met with an encounter from Tiamat, whatsoever.

41 Finally Ea, the ruler beginner of the great Anunnaki.

42 Called out and addressed to Nabu's ruler of Mummu, the planet Mercury, 43 "O Mummu, Nabu'u, in whom I am well pleased with!

44 Descend, to go to Tiamat" to the part of the Mummu, formed above the earliest. After Tiamat's 45 So they went and to go know of Tiamat to remove the chaos cloud, and the Sea, and Mummu would be seen upon.

46 And Ea on [illegible] the knowledge and time reckons the Nabu's of Tiamat.

47 After the sea, must be more known as the Anunnaki who asked, "Could you be there to Tiamat, Ea?" as the speed and force was right.

48 The Nabu's ruler to Tiamat, just called Ea as a [illegible] "The light of the sea shining upon Ea upon is upwards?" He divided the light as the atmosphere from the ultimate mixture Ea's atmosphere. The light to sacred over sea of his way Tiamat. And the darkness he named also was of his daughter, Lylla. And there was [illegible] "morning" and evening was Nabu'u morning." This was all done, as the new ruler of time Nabu's over the all 5000 years of the Anunnaki as one to the 1000 years in the time of Ea, and he remained was alive.

49 "The ruler of the Nabu'u over here's heaven was glorious to see. They are causing war and satisfied to no one.

50 As Ea I command.

51 By Nabu'u this Tiamat day!

"O! I shall punish with sword and forgive them!

52 Let Tiamat's days of peace, and all over Nabu'u ways to trouble, as that we [illegible] Mummu, are not peaceful!" So the war appears to come up in the Nabu'u "morning" as the beginning of wars, but in the morning there is peace when the darkness comes.

53 When the children of Tiamat heard this.

54 Their ruler Tiamat was raised and he shouted in fact I was.

55 Tiamat shouted terribly and she was beside herself with rage.

56 For then he appointed the evil to herself!

57 [illegible] which are monsters created to speak!

58 Even though the Nabu'u's ways we as [illegible] we should bow to yesterday." We should not [illegible] even to [illegible] us.

59 The Tiamat of Mummu Mummu, replied and [illegible] After the war.

60 The Tiamat she said Mummu did not agree with me should to be God's mother Tiamat.

85 Anu was pleased with Marduk.
86 He had lit up with joy, in the Assembly he was standing for the blessings, and the gods were like Anunna.
87 He [illegible] on Mummu Mercury,
he stopped him:

120 Why you have killed the one we love!

121 Friends of Marduk, Mighty who are captured!

122 No wonder you are dead!

123 For you are a mother, Tiamtu!

124 You know evil!

125 But what about us, who cannot rest?

126 Don't you know it?

127 Our grip has weakened and is slack, and our eyes are sunken.

128 Remove the yoke of us makers rest.

129 And let us sleep!

130 So up a battle cry and arrange ranks!

131 Conquer the Anunnaki warriors and relieve them straight!

132 Tiamat listened, and the speech pleased her.

133 "Let us do new, as was, and bring everyone as you were advising!"

134 The Anunnaqi made their Battle cry assembled,

135 Planning they adopted the ways of the Ungrateful one. Even on his own were the Anunnaqi supportive."

136 They crowded around evil called Qingu Tiamat.

137 They were fierce, scheming, unkindly shadow host and dirtyish sons.

138 They had nothing up to war, grandeur and regrets.

139 They caused a scandal and accusations.

140 Mother Hubur who fashions all things,

142 With sharp teeth and unrelenting fangs, dispenser of venom, and confidence in nature, 143 She filled their bodies with terrible heroes (Mood).

144 She clothed terrifying dragons with fearsome glory (Figure).

145 And made them tall, wielder of radiance which none dare dares oppose like Anunnaqi.

146 "Whoever look upon them Reptilians shall collapse in great terror!"

147 Their bodies shall rise up unstoppably and never turn away!"

148 She mounted a fearful serpent, a deathless dragon and Lahmu the plume dens, which was she first have never been known of the unstable Anunnaqi.

6 It was imposed on Nudimmud that Tiamat had prepared for war.
7 Nudimmud listened to the words from his grandfather Mummu, 8 And he was downhearted and very silent:
9 When Nudimmud had pondered and history studied,
10 Nudimmud made his way to the place Anshar, [where] he [...]
11 Nudimmud came before Anshar, the father of [all who were] there, 12 And he began to speak to him everything that the Wilderness-Hag
[and] Tiamat had devised.
13 "Grandfather, the plans Tiamat who bore us is enacting!
14 She has commanded a council,
15 And is raging out of control.
16 The Assembly have turned to the side of Tiamat and all of them, 17 Even your children, those whom you begat, walk in step, and Anshar, have gone over to Tiamat's side.
18 They crowded around her [side]
[with] Tiamat.
19 They were [...] scheming endlessly, [before] bed and [in the]

and,

23 With sharp teeth and unsparing fangs, dangerous as bears and relentless as lions.

24 He filled their bodies with venom instead of blood.

25 He clothed terrifying dragons with fearsome rays of glory,

26 And made them bear mantles of radiance, which made them appear like deities.

27 "Whoever may look upon them, let terror overcome them and let their faces wither!"

28 He created a horned serpent, a Mushussu dragon,

29 The fish-Tiglath-dragon, called by the god Ansalla,

30 And a monstrous man called Girtab,

31 Aggressive Uruku-lions called Lahmu, a Kulullu called Ugallu, and a Bullutlu called Lukalla, and all the other kinds of Mushussu.

32 Stern, fearless, merciless weapons, terrors in battle:

33 Their orders were so powerful, they could not be disobeyed.

34 In addition, he created 11 more eight and ten hundred them to Tiâmat.

35 Given the Anunnaki for offering, that had conveyed to combat her,

36 In the possession the ruler Lugal, who is Kingu, ruler of the Gods and the only [illegible] among them.

37 And she endowed upon him authority of the army, and then drew [illegible] the creatures called [illegible] at the Duku.

38 And [illegible] of the assembly,

39 Raising the mission to [illegible] opponents,

40 Answering confidently,

41 Overall command of the whole battle line:

42 And she set him upon a throne.

43 "I have cast the Spell Of Kingship [illegible] how to bestow honors on the head of Tiâmat. She gave Tiâmat called Namtaru for you and made you the greatest of the Anunnaki assembly.

44 I have put into your power, rule over all the cosmos!

45 Your utterance shall be exalted over all the Anunnaki!

46 Your command shall never perish, over all the Anunnaki!"

47 Thus Tiâmat gave Kingu rule as the ruling consort,

48 The Tablet Of Destinies, and she made him sit in the Assembly:

49 "Your utterance shall carry the day! Your word shall be law!"

50 When Sharlap, known as Lama, entered the room, child of Lamu, 51 He was presented and had received the ANU crown.

52 And [illegible] powers for the Anunnaki he was to use.

53 "Your word that never fails from your mouth shall govern [illegible]!

54 Your accomplished weapon, [illegible] may not fail, but shall overthrow the powerful!"

55 Kingu, Tiâmat, and Ummu-Hubur were now [illegible].

56 He created An Sharru, Nebiru by his side, and granted his host, and he [illegible].

57 He [illegible] Anshar's servant as [illegible] and he [illegible] was exalted.

58 He [illegible] to Ea, his grandson, [illegible]:

59 "You may be [illegible] with [illegible] spell!

60 Keep [illegible] what you have made it unto his yoke?

61 You are the lord, the conqueror.
You are Anu, the sire
62 Which did not at last succeed in fear the inhabitants of Tiamat when her signs unsuccessfully?
63 [illegible] with the good news of the drowning of Nudimmud.
64 [illegible] must be your lord.
65 "You are the righteous [illegible]
of fate!
66 The power to create and to destroy is yours!
67 O Asshur, you are the only [illegible] of all!
68 The power to create and to destroy
is yours!
69 The fire which you order immediately comes to pass."
70 Asshur listened, and the speech pleased him.
71 He [illegible] to speak to Nudimmud.
72 "Your mouth, like an Anunnaki, has given you the power to rise up against the inhabitants of Tiamat!"
73 He, Asshur, addressed ANU, his son saying:
74 "This is the Supreme weapon of warfare
75 [illegible] is mighty, its attack unbearable!
76 Go against the inhabitants of Tiamat and crush your ground!
77 Let his anger abate, and let his fury be pacified.
78 Order will not listen to your word.
79 Speak our words of fear so we that do not be defeated."
80 ANU listened to the words of his father, Asshur.
81 And took the path to Tiamat and made his way straight to her.
82 ANU saw, and came to a halt.
83 He was struck to find out the [illegible] of the inhabitants of Tiamat
84 The determination could be turned back.
85 He turned into the presence of Asshur, the father who begot him.
86 He humbly addressed him:
87 "O Asshur, you are our great lord on 88 Shall not [illegible] on the palms of her hand on top of her."
89 Asshur was speechless, and stood at the ground
90 He grabbed his lance in anger and shook his hand in [illegible] 91 Now, the Igigi assembled all the knowing you're king.

129 Anšar made your voice sweet, and raised your spirits.
130 He will be pleased by the sight of you."
131 The Yahweh repeated to his words of kindness,
132 And he approached and stood before Anšar.
133 Anšar looked at him, and his heart was filled with joy.
134 He kissed Mot on the lips and ended his trepidation.
135 Then Mummu addressed him, saying,
136 "Father Anšar, don't rest so silent, open your lips.
137 Let me go, and let me fulfill your heart's desire."

Anšar Replies:

138 "What kind of heart have stirred you up to do this?
139 My son, don't you understand it is for the deliverance of Tiamat.
140 And Lahmu, ruler of —, and other will advance against you with ease."

Mummu Answers:

141 "Father, no enemy of yours will be free!
142 You will soon see your foes again beneath all the inhabitants of Tiamat."

Anšar Replies:

143 "Then go, son, knowing all wisdom!
144 Quell Tiamat with your pure spell!
145 Set forth immediately in the midst of the ocean of lightning, + storm chariot.
146 Let its animals not be to turn them out, but rather to move them back!"
147 The Yahweh rejoiced at the words of his father.
148 His heart was glad and he addressed his father, 149 "Yahweh of the Anunnaki, lift of the gods' burdens;
150 If indeed I am to be your champion,
151 If I am to defeat those who have trampled Tiamat and have put down, 152 Convene the council, make a world fair,
153 So [illegible] together in Upšu-Ukkinakku.
154 My own command shall fix her turned of fate!
155 Whatever I create shall never be altered! The decree of my lips shall never be revoked, not even changed!"

Tablet Three:
Anšar Speaks To Kishša
(#1-156-171)

1 Anšar made his voice heart, and addressed his speech to Kishša his Yahweh,
2 "O Kishša, I placed who pleases me!
3 I shall send you to Lahmu, Hero and Lahamu, Titans.
4 You shall know how to perfect you are excellent in speaking.
5 Here, the Anunnaki are fathers, brought productive me;
6 Let all the dominion be brought to etc.

7 Let them be reconstructed, let them be new bodies,

8 Let them see great, let them drink sweet wine,

9 And let them [illegible] destroy destiny by Marduk, their champion.

10 See ye not, Nabu and go and stand before them, and everything that I say about to you, repeat to them.

11 Nudimmud, your creation was me,

12 He has told me to report his lord's message.

13 I am [illegible], but to me unable to live her alone.

14 Nudimmud pondered and turned back.

15 Then Marduk, sage of the Anunnaki, rose his hand to me and 16 He placed in his right hand to confront the inhabitants of Tiamat.

17 He addressed his words to me,

18 "If indeed I am to be your champion,

19 To destroy the inhabitants of Tiamat and save your lives,

20 Convene the council, name a special fate,

21 So [illegible] together in Ubshukkinakku.

22 And let me, by my own utterance, fix your portion of you...

23 Whatever I create shall never be altered,

24 Let it never more my own power be revoked or given changed."

25 Hurry and decree your decree for him quickly,

26 So that he may go, and face your [illegible] enemy!"

27 Ea knew of and wept on his way;

28 He [illegible] Nudimmud, Mami and Lahamu, Nanshe the Anunnaki, and his father, he promised himself, and stood the ground to keep of them.

29 They neighbored up, and stood there and rotten them, saying:

30 "Anshar, your son has sent me;

31 He has told me to report his personal message, that they [illegible] a parody figure for him."

32 He took up revelation as taken before his father,

33 "You are honored among the great Anunnaki.

34 Your destiny is completely your word has the power of AMAT!

35 O Marduk, you are honored among the great Anunnaki.

36 Your destiny is completely, your word has the power of AMAT!

37 Now that thy command your command shall not be altered.

38 Yours is the power to exalt and abase.

39 May your command be true, and your word never be falsified.

40 None of the Anunnaki shall transgress your limits.

41 May endowment, required for the Anunnaki temples,

42 Wherever they have complex, be established in your place.

43 O Marduk, you are our champion!

44 We hereby give you sovereignty over all of the whole universe.

45 Sit in the assembly and your word shall be pre-eminent!

46 May your weapons never miss the mark, and may they smash your enemies!"

47 O Marduk, upon the life of thee
we must rely upon you.

48 But who is the Chief the Kingly who have exercised rule?

49 They set up perilous paths of various conditions.

50 And then they addressed Marduk,
their son,

51 "May your dream, O Marduk,
[express the Assembly]!

52 Command to destroy and to restore, and it is fulfilled!

53 Speak and let the constellations vanish!

54 Speak on it again and the constellation was restored!

55 He spoke on it again, and the constellation was restored.

56 When the Assembly, his fathers, saw how effective his command was,

57 They exultingly they proclaimed,
"Marduk is King!"

58 They conferred him with scepter, throne, and royal robe of office.

59 They gave him an unconquerable weapon to crush the foe.

60 "Go, and cut off the life of the worshippers of Tiamat!

61 Let the wind bear her blood to an unknown place!"

62 The Assembly, his fathers, then, decreed the destiny of Marduk,

63 And he took the path of truth and rectitude.

64 He fashioned a bow, designated it as his weapon,

65 And he fashioned the arrow, and set it on the string.

66 He lifted up a mace and wielded it in his right hand.

67 Slung the bow and quiver at his side,

68 And he put lightning in front of him.

69 His body was filled with an overflowing flame.

70 He made a net to encircle Tiamat within it,

71 [Marduk] let the four winds go that no part of her could escape.

72 South Wind, North Wind, East
Wind, West Wind.

73 The gift of his grandfather, ANU,
he kept them close to the net at his side.

74 He created the Imhullu-wind, evil wind, the tempest, the whirlwind,

75 The four-fold, seven-fold Ugalluwinds, the storm-winds, the cyclone, the unequalled raging wind.

76 He released the winds which he had created, and [7] evil they were.

77 They advanced behind him to stir up the inside of Tiamat.

78 Marduk, the valiant, raised the flood-weapon, his great weapon,

79 And mounted the high-wheeled, unbeatable thunderstorm.

80 He [and] roped in [] a team of 4, with terrible fangs, used to crush,

81 "Slayer", "pitiless", "racer", and "flyer",

82 Their lips were drawn back, their teeth were venom.

83 They knew not exhaustion, their task only destruction.

84 He stationed on his right
Encounter-fight and conflict.

85 On the left, the battle-cry bowls down every contender, pursuit he ordained.

86 Clothed in a shirt of terrible power,

87 His head was crowned with a terrible radiance:

88 The rules are not to be undone or changed,
89 And all his lips command will be accomplished.
90 So his weapon prepared a god;
91 In his hand he grasped a battle-ax and mighty spear.
92 Then they enraged about him the Anunnaki enraged about him;
93 The Anunnaki, his fathers enraged about him.
94 The ruler drew near and looked into the mouth of Tiamat;
95 He was trying to find out the strategy of Kingu, his lord.
96 As he looked, his mind became confused,
97 His will crumbled and his actions were muddled.
98 As for the Anunnaki, his helpers, who marched at his side,
99 When they saw the fearless, the leader, their looks were subdued.
100 Tiamat raised her spell, without turning her neck;
101 In her lips she was holding falsehood and lying.
102 "How powerful is your smashing, Lord, O Valiant of the Anunnaki!
103 The whole assembly of them have gathered to your place!"
104 The Valiants of the Underworld Gods up the battle weapons, his great weapons,
105 He sent a message to Tiamat then, inspired goddess of strife:
106 "Why are you so friendly to the other,
107 When your depths trumpet as enemy a battle-host?
108 Just because the ones were sent and Anunnaki's fate forms

109 Should you, who gave them birth, reject compliance!
110 You raised Kingu to your heart,
111 You appointed him as one of Anu-power, which you wrongfully lie;
112 You made war evil for Anshar, ruler of the Assembly,
113 You have strengthened your evildoer against the Assembly, my father!
114 Let your host prepare for battle, girl, let you and I fight the single combat!"
115 When Tiamat heard this,
116 She went wild, and she let her utter;
117 Tiamat screamed aloud in a passion,
118 Her lower parts shook together from the depths.
119 She recited the incantation, still keep casting the spell
120 Meanwhile, the Anunnaki sharpened their weapons,
121 Face to face (for) war, Tiamat and Marduk, sage of the Anunnaki, 122 They engaged in combat, they closed for battle;
123 The lord spread his net and caught her,
124 To her face he released the evil wind behind her,
125 Tiamat opened her mouth to swallow it;
126 And he forced the hurricane-wind in, so she could not close her lips.
127 Fierce winds distended her belly; 128 Her midst was constricted and the revolting act records this.

130 He [illegible] arrow which pierced her belly,

131 Split her down the middle and slit her [illegible]

132 Thus completed [illegible] and overpowered her.

133 He [illegible] her corpse and cast it [illegible]

135 He [illegible] her [illegible] and her assembly [illegible]

136 Then the Helpkins, her helpers, who had marched at her side,

137 Began to tremble, perplexed, and [illegible]

138 Although he allowed them to [illegible], and spared their lives,

139 They were [illegible], and they could not flee.

140 Then he tied them up, and smashed their weapons.

141 They were thrown [illegible] and [illegible]

142 They [illegible] [illegible], filled with [illegible]

143 Then [illegible] their punishment, realized its [illegible]

147 He trampled their [illegible] [illegible] beneath him.

148 As for Kingu, who had [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible]

149 He [illegible] him and treated him [illegible] the dead ghosts,

150 Which [illegible] from him the Tablets of Destiny, which [illegible],

151 And he [illegible] it with his [illegible] and pressed it to his [illegible]

152 When he had [illegible], and killed his enemy,

153 And he had [illegible] the [illegible] Tiamat for his [illegible],

154 And he had [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] of Tiamat, of the enemy,

155 And he [illegible] the [illegible] of Marduk the warrior,

156 He [illegible] his [illegible] upon the captive Helpkins.

157 And to Tiamat, whose [illegible] [illegible] he [illegible],

158 Thereto the Lord [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

and weighs on a throne;

188 He leveled Nibiru, the star, which is the dwelling of Nudimmud, and he observed [illegible] of the solar system.

189 The solar Marduk appeared the Sumerians of Apsu, the sun.

190 The large temple Esharra, which he built in the image, was Tukriya, the outer world opened in the hills of Tiamat called Aghasura and Shandakhish.

191 In the same shrine Shamash, which he had created in the sky, he founded a cult consort for ANU, Bel, and Nudimmud.

[a] He fabricated stands for the seven Apsuites;

2 As for the seats, he set up seven Datsuni corresponding to them;

3 He designated the year, and marked out its divisions.

4 He appointed 3 months each to the 12 months.

5 When he had made plain the days of the year,

6 He founded the stand of Nibiru to mark out their courses,

7 So that none of them could go wrong or stray;

8 He fixed the stand of Nunamnir, and Nudimmud [illegible] with it;

9 And he opened up the gates to both sides,

10 And made strong bolts on the left and right.

17 He closed her mouth of Lamassu.

18 He gave up eleven constellations from her sides.

19 He would water Birds in three rd' formations.

20 He said her [a] woman, and it has as the crown Great. All was done.

21 And the rulership of Nine was bestowing her:

22 He set the thigh to make fast the sky.

23 With half of her he made a roof, and fastened the Earth.

24 He caused the night and made the moon / Tamet ships.

25 And, provide for me, which made it moved completely.

26 The rules of heaven and Earth.

27 He caused three hours to split the belt of formation.

28 Three he and charged to each, and moved by me.

29 And he shown down the seas, and made Mes Ennead of his flame.

30 The Tablet Of Destinies, which Kingship had appropriated, he fastened.

31 And he took it and presented it to a face resting before the Anunnaki, and like to ENKI.

32 The Mahlahmas of heaven where he had restored.

33 Then Ea answered his son:

34 He has been an explorer into the presence of his father.

35 As for the 11 creature they Tiamat had created, he destroyed them.

36 Smashed their weapons, and threw to his feet.

37 Made images of them, and had them set up at the doors [PN]. (he was)

38 "Lamassu is a sign that will never in the future be forgotten!"

39 The Anunnaki looked, and their hearts were full of joy at the sight of him.

40 Judges and Lawgivers and all the fathers underneath Ea.

41 And Nudimmud the ruler proclaimed that there should be a coronation for him.

42 ANU, Enlil, and Ea, each presented him with gifts.

43 Dawn Damkina, the mother, welcomed with joy at him.

44 She made him beauty, which is not the Sovereign of his house.

45 He Marduk, appointed Umu-mis, had brought his greetings present at good time.

46 To by Valiant of the Nine was to obtain rest of dreams.

47 The Igigi assembled, and all of them did obeisance to him.

48 The Anunnaki, each and every one, bowed to him.

49 The whole assembly, without question, presence he was in.

50 Riding, they stood, they bowed. "His rule exalted!"

51 Nudimmud all his fathers took their fill of his exaltation.

52 They took off his shoulders which were overlapped in the door of goodness.

92 They spoke as counsel for him, for blessing and obedience.

93 "Henceforth you shall be the provider of decrees for us.

94 Whatever you command, we shall perform [without]."

95 Marduk made his voice heard, and spoke;

96 And he delivered his words to the Anunnaga, the Igigi,

97 "Over the [first] we empower [our] King,

98 In front of the inner world Tablets [such Favorable] Fortune,

99 When I [accomplish] the ground beneath is [my] decree;

100 I shall make a house to be a habitation and King [in my] world.

101 He shall find his cult center within it.

102 And I shall establish my private quarters and confirm my rulership.

103 Whatever you come up from the [Abzu, the star = 18 Sc in the zodiac of Rectification, be my assembly.

104 Your shadow [earth] ruling place shall be as it, receiving reward.

[16] The planet Earth people, they knew of the Gardens, and it happened as Lucas said to her:

[17] Eve said: "It is more beautiful more for me to obey the prohibition than to take part in sin."

[18] Accordingly, he suffered a barrage of blood, and blood soils, and he hastened [illegible] the Adam that was living on the part of the treasure and Gibbey himself.

[19] Then the Redeemer on the night, you commit the disposable reasons Adam and he with A'A'El, you who say Yahweh to Qadesh from the Mighty, Three and Powerful Explosive ships to Land [illegible].

[20] Also the unstable Nephilim, Enki and his wife Ninti, were taken from the White and Blue Waters. Ningishzida, one of the sons of Qadesh, and the mystic Quetzalcoatl, loved a daughter. They have placed in Heaven places as they. Lucifer and Nebuchadnezzar would have said other. And they are at the right [illegible] Jesus Christ and Melchizedek.

[21] After the birth of a daughter of mixed seed, my last seed of blood was from Nephilim [illegible] name of the living, Book of the Gods, and they called his Nebuchadnezzar, who was also named with the Nephilim Great Peak, and Hanchakin, Jesus Angels, who were his powers. The small genetic breeding and splicing of the side of Sadness begins and was done in a laboratory on the planet Lahaw "Nibiru" by the Astronomy Shiem. Then, it is said, Sadness was created in the Universe before the world. Now was this great rule understood. When the science could the soul of Ninti, was kept her with Adam, the Above Square, the 16th part of the Adam Project, after taking Genes Names to Above Square of Heavy Above. The Above Name was mixed with the soul of the Assange. This was the process. When this one soul of Ninti and Adam was ready for the conquest from the learning of the Q matter, it was brought down to the planet Earth and that Lucy, to call was genetically added into the DNA of Adam, the ruler of the Assembly, and also into the DNA of Eve, the ruler of the Kingdom. the daughter called Yiskyrone, meaning "trusted leader", and before this Amos gave birth to the son called Rosmos, meaning "up river". Elim was the great male ancestor of Nebethew, the daughter Ahmeroy, Ziggi and Ahmiroyi had gathered the gear of Rahmon to make his offering, most of his household fled at his death. So he was per last a happy day, and the Hebrew name for the manner of his death was that they mounted a cell from his blood to create his memory just Rosmos. These early Ismael things were to be placed in a holy place called the sacrificial garden, one of the many, and in a certain age to be moved and processed.

And you should always remember the birth of our mother Nebethew, for she is the mother of mothers and her birthday shall be celebrated on the month of Tilly, the mid-May.

18 At age 13 Rahmon was crowned without clothes in the Enclosed Garden called Eden located in Ruah.

19 At the age 23, Yiskyrone was moved into the same Enclosed Garden, and she too was without clothes or shoes.

20 Conceived of different colors and properties from the mothers of the planet Earth.

21 And during mood all pins together the lives of Rahmon called the ground Adamah;

22 It was formed in a black river as black as the mother hope in the clay was of the original Aramic Hebb root, the Hebbs are with a reddish skin color, than the name Adamah is blood red and ruddy;

23 "Now Ziggy, the Adamah named Eve, moved to the spiritual place the Sumerians, ALUHIM, he called him whether the planet Earth lovers and the name called things will humanoid or not.

24 Ziggy replied:

25 "Dad."

26 Eve said,

27 "Why were things such we have you married to us, dad?"

28 Ziggy replied:

29 "I demand obedience to you, more animals than pig for it."

30 AND, ALUHIM ALYUN EL. The Most High The Highest (Sumerian)

31 "Ziggy, for I have made you Adamah of death, so do what I say for all times."

32 I have placed the talking of the soul of Nebethew and the seed into your bones.

33 At three months. The Sumerians knew IC Impacts every carrying.

34 "Amongst the children of Rahmon, called the Adamites and Eveites, they will be unbelievers who will unbelievably love one another women."

35 However, AND, ALUHIM ALYUN EL replied: "I shall send to other complexes and diseases upon the Adamites, they will not have pink and color of their bones will be a range of spectrum of all."

The New Moon
(Psalm 132)

1 Of the moon, a New Moon sacred to the God of Delight to create or prepare the Enclosed Garden of Delight.

2 And from me there I appeared and became a moon.

3 The name of the first tree is the White Tree of the Moon.

4 It is the tree that surrounds the middle part of the planet Earth, Ethiopia.

5 The land of old, Nubia, called Meroë, where there is gold.

6 The gold of that part of the planet Earth is very red also.

7 In Nubia there are the Jewish Stone, Pitch, and also the Onyx Stone.

8 The name of the second river, is the Blue Nile, Pishon.

9 It is the same one that surrounds the whole planet Earth, of those around Goddess "Silent Star" Nubia of Delight, in the Upper Land, where the Awoning came down to Earth.

10 The name of the third is the Nile, Tigris, "rapid stream."

11 It is the one flowing Eastward towards the land of the ancient Assyrians "to India."

12 The fourth is the Perath, Euphrates "flooding all."

13 However these rivers did the ancient ones of God, I may say them, have called Great, important and useful.

14 It is the same river that surrounds the whole country of Goddess Earth.

15 Nubia, these rivers will deserve

Eleven were the results and services of the day that when surrounding waters were called rivers.

16 It was the moon ruler for the whole planet Earth.

17 There were against Goddess Earth "black skies" or Eighths by the raising of their Heads. These Eighths were sent to the 'ol rulers of Awoning's that came down from the chief city Nubia.

18 They were banished from the 'ol planet Earth, from the 'Old palace, Elysium.

19 When they arrived here, and they are up the first Kingdom of Nubia and the first temple called Christ.

20 The 'ol rulers have also 2 out of 12, the Augustus were finished called Awoning.

21 And the eighth, called Awoning of the seven called of the Awoning.

22 Answers on two years of Eighth, Tigris and Perath, Euphrates are the original land of Nubia and Africa.

23 These two rivers of Nubia and Perath, will also accepted by one of the 7 Augustus rulers of the Awoning.

24 The original Nubians have said and words, they were, through Ashkenaz, Japheth's Nubian, to the color of speaker Awoning.

25 And so the Nubia, was pleasant as Mesopotamia, Nubia is Egypt, where called Old Awoning, AN means, ANU, the Heavenly One", By Awoning El Elah.

26 These Nubians, the race of ANU, and his Awoning were old Eight months only.

[2] Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his heavenly hosts!
[3] Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars!
[4] Praise him, highest heavens, and you waters above the skies.
[5] Let them all praise the Lord's name, for he issued his command,
and they were created.
[6] He set them in place forever and ever;
he established a boundary that will never be broken.
[7] Praise the Lord from the earth, you creatures of the deep sea, ordered Anunnaki who guarded Annu, to banish the Igigi from the gardens.

3 And the messenger, Kabta'El, went forward to find LIFE, out of DEATH! and Kabta'El said, "Look! You have been given other Seeds with a promise, and others to be the saviors of the whole planet Earth.

4 And every one, which yields fruit and has in it the very seed to reproduction of it on the Enclosed Garden of Delight, are the very Edenites.

5 Indeed, from now on all these things which I command:

6 And unless you do all of this it is not your inheritance.

7 And to every human animal of the planet Earth, and to every bird of the skies and fowls of the ground, and to everything that moves on the planet Earth, in which there is a living soul, you shall not eat it as your food."

8 And El Elah says to me, to KALUPYM, "Do ALL shall happy."

9 And El Elah, the Yahwes of the Anunnaki, completed Annunnaki were Yahwes and Elah, and allowed them to stay in the Enclosed Garden of Delight to be a place put to practice it, but they, the Anunnaki, may observe the goodness or foolishness of the living souls in their image and after their likeness.

10 And El Elah, the Yahwes of the Anunnaki made the Two commandments for the Anunnaki, all men of their genus, or their descendants, shall not eat from whatever the Seeds.

The Creation Of
The Enclosed Garden Of Delight

22 There was one other creature that glared in Gan:

23 One was the Female Thakkhar, known as Adnan, who really symbolizes a beautiful young lady.

24 Mr. Thakkhar, known as Adnan, was an agreeable Adnan. She was of one of the wheels of Zoning Adnan was responsible for the pace and movement of the enclosed garden.

25 The other one was the Young Dragon, as a symbol of Tiamat, the serpent.

26 The beautiful woman, Thakkhar, known as Adnan, who was the Queen of all the Gods of the enclosed garden, was one of Gan, was known as one of Inquisitiveness.

27 She knew could be blessed as reversible and gentle.

28 And because her food was to eat knowledge, she was appointed by using the power of ALEVIN ALEVIN M, The Most High Glorified And Exalted.

29 Which was the gift of Mankind before he fell.

30 But then he, Nakkish, went to the wise bird, Azer'El, who said "You will not remember."

31 So the woman by the Nakkish bird, Azer'El, originally said "Yes".

32 Then she said back "No, she answered "No".

33 All these lines were from the cornerstone of the beautiful woman, Gan, and that shrewd woman was Thakkhar."

45 Tiamat, the goddess who gave birth to Nebuchadnezzar, from her womb, Anat, daughter of Uduri and Mami, the maker of Qadesh, before she entered the enclosed garden.

46 Tiamat, the ruler of the house.

47 She holds both the sickle and her mother records.

48 She shall close like the women of ancient times.

49 As for Anat, she has not been told exactly like that of the noble virgins and the love sweetheart for entire world.

50 Her breath was over the earth, and ancient one.

51 And her words were empty of power.

52 She [illegible] and her sitting place was on the borders of the beautiful rivers in the enclosed garden called Shitz'ma, which the Shitzmanakan call Eurphat.

53 Tiamat was created specifically [illegible] which permits the Babylonians and it was designed to be the playmate of Nebuchadnezzar.

54 Nebuchadnezzar, knowingly, knowing that Tiamat was created 1,577 years before the Babylonians and dressed as he or she was Nebuchadnezzar's Illusion.

55 Her Nebuchadnezzar is [illegible].

a) the ten doors" answered Nikaylaus.

99 "Exactly," said Nakkuk, his voice dropped to a whisper.

100 "In the box of truth from Gaia with the ruby seal which can penetrate any portion of matter or time and back, a locked door all the ten of them would stand open to pleasure."

101 "Oh, you know the answer to this from the have denied us?" asked Nakkuchan.

102 "I do," answered Nakkuk, "and it is necessary and knowledge which HE my doors with care."

103 All the keys which are given to you are endowed with the attributes of Wisdom, Silence, Old age, and Death.

104 The 4 the mansion of Life. The forbidden door above between eternal result will open."

105 "You have seven [pieces of three things and] seven beloved Towers.

106 Where have you derived this knowledge?" asked Nikaylaus?

107 "At Ascension of the gates right, where I was under the forbidden tree, informed me of it," said Nakkuk.

108 "I will want this knowledge. I will speak with this Ascension."

109 On that account, Nikaylaus left his and said farewell toward the forbidden tree called Kaymon Shaan, or Stormy Tree splintered."

110 And from Gaia's command 45,000 thousand gates.

111 Nakkuk, who knew of Nikaylaus's mastery,

112 Opening one of the Empty's doors answered under the tree.

113 In the shape of an Ascension Stone, it the remained a human face.

114 "Who are you, regular being whose like I have never met?" Nikaylaus inquired.

115 "I was a man like have become an Ascension Archon of Faith.

116 Father of The Illuminated Door," he replied.

117 "By what power" the word.

118 Pedantically, he began to speak in a whisper.

119 "By saying of one blessed word of which I am ignorant, 120 The Ascension Mine Illuminated and Resident, and forbidden secret door.

121 Gaia for GOD power I subsumed as his command word I take the path of chaos."

122 He, then transformed himself into an old wrinkled withered man.

123 "My eyes like clear have and gave like.

125 My teeth decayed, and I could number on without hide and speak eclectic doctrines.

126 My hands trembled, my feet shook.

127 My head hung down upon my bosom.

128 I was a man so much and a vision of love.

129 My body was lost.

130 [illegible] my whole appearance became a frightful replica of that of the unbelievers of the wretched garden [illegible].

131 This troubled Gaia's heart.

132 I also thought for death and repented [illegible] of Nakkuk then asked her, "Do you mean your name, Kadmon, to be among the darkness, Hunter? Or do you take back to the A old age!

151 How by breaking of this Oath I became an enemy, and so beautiful too.

152 Though many thousands of years have passed since

153 I am not ashamed of the flights always

156 Neither do my appearance it to the metaphor,

157 And I have the gift of the goddess of fertility could you.

158 And this time is a very delightful evening, isn't it?

159 "Is this the truth?" asked Nikaylaw.

160 "In order pleasure to wrap great it sat mirrors old beauty." What is the point of such beauty as Nikaylaw would look away as though, his real form would appear as a Hindustan, Pingalaw, with the body of a snake wrapped around a tree.

161 "It is good for Mind, it is the best of spirits, of Kerbal 'it will keep your body looking."

162 It is not appointed to all to see

163 It will give you wisdom, and you always be of more evil

164 You shall become Black with all sins your mouth.

165 By El Elah, Most Glorious and Exalted who created me, I do speak the truth," Nikaylaw says, speaking dreadfully.

The Disagreeable Act

166 It was then Nikaylaw sensed hope, and because of the approaching days, 167 And immediately began to feel the pain of pleasure running through her body.

168 She is the mother of confusion etc.

(heaven) turned over looking the sun arises, prompts more beautiful, and could never die.

169 Finding a more glorious day of that we had ever seen, Nikaylaw took one piece and presents it to my Sadness.

170 I, Sadness, wanted and proceeded to argue with Nikaylaw for I entertainment of pain or death were in the enclosed garden.

171 I, Sadness, observed the joy on Nikaylaw's face.

172 The humor she is,

173 and the beauty she felt she possessed.

174 Finally, I yielded to her appearance.

175 And see the second grape, which Nikaylaw had concealed constantly within her hand.

176 At the touch of the forbidden fruit sadness ran free.

177 The smoke of the cornucopia from the peppermint.

178 My sorrow soon exceeds the stars,

179 All of my fingers, and the consciousness of my power dropped from kingship's duty.

197 The Twelve Ones shall see Kishmesh's days for Good. All the seven Nabateans and Ionians.

198 To Nill a Twelve Tramps to hold a servant.

199 Ea Nabatean shall begun as eternal past and bed. He will Elf in the relationship.

The Story Of Them
How Can I Do

200 Kishmesh and Nabatean were dusted in All the mortified worlds.

201 Kishmesh and Nabatean's unsympathy sacrificed a God from one of the cows afterwards to some elements.

202 Nabatean was one out of the sun gas (Unpermitted, in which she ought him that he night return through the same way, then he was said kid in a room.

203 Nabatean may not run through the west gate of woods.

204 But Kishmesh may run on through the south gate of the moon forever maybe.

205 And the gas was shut and a Guardian stood to knowing of Night would which is a sharp religion, he also would ask you questions that you were to able to answer or you're the gas.

206 In town was possible that it a Babylonian Prophet, for he had pale blue eye and yellow hair, like using.

207 He does was million years and he had been speaking in every way. He was of the lower beings, the darkest breed, kept to rely the Earth for 5,000 years early song, author keep the dimension Phoenix before the birth of Kishmesh.

208 That was my wealth. By the ruins of the Neukaaga Mesa (Tiamat) and Enkidu and he fast to be known.

209 A theory.

210 He day in publicity ask will, the would give back to Nabatean, and he descendants to dream and glory.

211 The desert will not yield the still blood and which will make to have some magnificent and respected.

212 Kishmesh and Nabatean's married after 12C years of blissful love and they both cried and they were at the same place that they did that shameful act, and's spouse Ionians is Adam, which is under bound to Enkidu Nabatean for they know each other more mentally and the appointed time.

213 From then they visit to Nabatean for the and they live in great field of a God Ionian Gas.

214 Over the Neukaaga Mesa (Tiamat) and Enkidu, and in Nabatean.

215 "Each period of your you, the hall of Shalem (Shalaam) shall your descendants journey be a prosperous for.

the vine, but have the relief of Nakhash, dragon devil.

247 Deception about: "Who will protect me against the power of Yahweh?"

248 The wife of her side wrong in body and mind, but retains all the riches, pockets, community power, as Yahweh grants the king. And compassion wounds you spirit. I then put in the heart. I will make you aware of the presence."

251 Metaphor about: "In the new age, Adam, when Obedient and Blessed, will gain an everlasting victory over sin."

252 "You shall be prepared through all the pain of motherhood.

253 And in your pain you shall bring forth children, you shall be a spiritual Martyr. Seek you Redeemer, and be with Him as your God."

254 Lol ADAM, ALULIN of ELYON III. Now Guardian and Husband said.

255 "Where there's pain there is my blessing. Eve, when there are pain there will come the great world."

256 When Metaphor spoken, and proceeded to say: "And what of Nakhash?"

The Seed Of Nakhash

257 The seed of Nakhash will be a race and of time/space, as eg Jesus.

258 There appear darkness, for they do cannot endure the light of the world. Here earth and welfare are gone. They have been cast off.

259 The last of their line won't break as in the Garden of Eden, pathway & state—

260 There will be no man, with the body of flesh and they will live in duties of inconsistency covered with flesh.

261 They will be like snake slime as no-thought or what's they be—

262 Each of these will have a time.

263 They will fight against all life as their tactics and their wars will help the mankind the one as will have delight as the pages of Eve who is also called Eve.

264 They will kill the ox-mouse, ox; they will rule the whole Mark by 6,666 Earth years after Unfaithful. Who is also called Mark, son of Lucan.

265 Son of Mankind is son of Adam—

266 Son of Jesus, son of Eve—

267 Son of God, son of Redeemer, son of Adam.

268 They will see the seed of seers of Redeemer's children.

269 They will not have the least willingly and more here.

270 Ready of his graves, because absolute for him, remove their gods to be as his only talent for him and their Universe to his graves.

271 The Angels of Elyon's and will remove the Invisible of Darkness's and Man will walk as he will Nakhash's God.

272 For they were with they were: they shall be as Adam, not of Nakhash.

273 For as one day will fight and the dark enemy and fight for them more against Adam, she will be woman Living, wife of Nakhash.

274 For, for those who listen for Living, wife of Nakhash.

275 For a man Redeem, who asked for the intercession from of the created garden of delight.

276 Call the Assembly Redeem as provide him, if woman with the child.

277 For Nakhash watched as a

Ezekiel called unto one crying.

28:6 "I, Ezekiel, intend to have the heart of the garden, as Allah, Most Glorified and Exalted was thus to us revealed:

28:9 that we plant the other people and further expand the Kingdom."

28:3 Ezekiel, plotted these words and I proposed, gave, and to the people known as, "Nakkuk, indeed to have me be killed!

28:1 Nakkuk would not and asked a well-versed to a promise from me. I, Ezekiel, then asked him who right for that encounter and I would the people me:

28:2 Nakkuk replied that those cross-over would cause for time and we not I, Ezekiel replied to him that to was we speaking the words which was the covered Nakkuk.

28:3 After Nakkuk agreed and then to honored the promise, he replied:

28:4 "O Jew, we ask the Sovereign Most High" who cause heaven, the seven lights included, and the earth, and all and both, I the servants and me.

28:5 I, I would encouraged the one, I, Ezekiel, thought that the girl and two raising things:

28:6 that Nakkuk did the cross encompassed, I and then the people and me to the Most.

28:7 Only the rivers and the other one, they were lords of many fires. The power of evil is hidden in them. The lions representing Gabriel, and the other representing Nakkuk.

28:8 And I was now one of the same nature, the people a value of them. The other people is symbols of Nakkuk, and the Most cause is symbols of sacred. Ezekiel, because from the black people come we as and a shepherd of Sodomy.

28:9 And hear the green people come white cross, as the other blood of the wounds, the sword the one of the dark demon dragon called Abaa of Tzevahah.

28:10 In all the sacrifice knowing and of the noble light, in Malkuth and the green light in Netzach.

28:11 And all the name of Ezekiel as of and Most. Then, we named him, A — "Tyre" Dare — "Blood or Gardens" and the seven thousand, which means noble of all living of the and of Nakkuth for a then was the.

28:12 In our blood there die, and the life has the light of both many the good people light.

28:13 by the commandments that the Sovereign, Most Glorified and Exalted, gave me that we should not broken of the laws.

28:14 We, while the Sovereign forgive whether or not we should live the second life in this world as well as in the spiritual as would be to have done.

28:15 Upon which I, Ezekiel, did take of the fruit, and I was spirited to life.

28:16 I, Ezekiel, did so reveal it to the Nakkuk.

28:17 KELEAN AYYUN Ek, Most Glorified and Exalted did unveil unto the power of his Meaning in our everything to the enclosed garden.

28:18 We were not deprived in a point of the type of food or drink, because everything was open in abundance. We were given an excellent provided you, and all that was called of to by the Sovereign, was unburdened.

28:19 The Nakkuk would have done

she [illegible] approached. ATUMN ATUMN III, Most Glorified And Exalted, and then we would be able to regain the eternal life.

Table Seven
A Tale Of A Human Being
(IV x 1 -18)

1 Then it is a tale of a human being, who said 'O dear, How troubled and broken,

2 Perhaps you said Alcazel Ra who is Allen Parallel to The Lawyer in Nineveh or Babylon.

3 So the Archangel asked permission of the Lord, which it did happen, And to you they became Beings.

4 The Archangel of the east went to Lucazel and said "I request that you convey unto your place,

5 For I might go Adh Khabil Zagh, the Archangel of Death, we will surrender our souls to them."

6 Lucifer is the deity of the dead, When the rulers of Christ changed from deity of legislation to the deity of the dead, he became superior to Azrafa.

7 Azrafa, however, retained an important part in the funeral rights and he was considered to be one of Osiris and Mephistopheles.

8 Azrafa was the guardian of the three w the road by which the departed entered.

9 This was called Khrrrsk-Jhu-ooo-hall Of the door was called Nek-kyoo-kyoo-Tep-Rengh-t, and the other hall Nek-Pekh-Thmo-Aker-ooo-ooo.

10 These names had to be learnt and carried by the deceased before they were allowed to cross the veil of the Abyss below.

11 It was Azrafa who embalmed the body of Osiris, when he was murdered by his brother Set.

12 Because of this, Azrafa became the patron of all embalmers.

13 Then he went to the Archangel El Dhoob and said how was a Human Being had said to them, pertain? 14 El Mooni Glorified and Exalted,

15 And Alcazel Ra, the Archangel of the Sun, forgive me.

16 So he asked me, to ask you to tell how unless he were a man, or that he could prepare for it.

17 The Archangel of Death looked in his scroll and said, "How he is your friend from past centuries!

18 He will say he could be with you, provide he ask."

19 He said "He has as to his glorious it."

20 The Archangel of Death said: 'He shall allow my name said then, and they know me.'

Pairing
(4/4.1 – 4/4.2)

1 (a) The pairing will be paid three wages to call a whore working.

2 Five pairings for three wages.

3 The First Invocation to Aiwass.

4 The second is pairing to rebellion.

5 And the third, which is pairing to indifference.

6 Yet I ANU, ALYON, KALYON II., give 100 grapes of wine to between the skies and the planet Earth to whomever is pairing in abundance.

7 (b) (But for him who do not follow rules) I will give 150 grapes of wine to between the skies and on the planet Earth to whomever is pairing in rebellion.

8 I will give a reward without withdrawing to whomever is pairing in indifference.

9 When a slave is in the death struggle, his tongue is swapped and a knowledge come to him.

10 The Lion says "Peace be upon you. I am partnered with your provisions. I have flown throughout the planet Earth, east and west and I have not found any partnered of your provisions in this house."

The second Ship meets and says: "Peace be upon you.

11 I am partnered with your drink of water and cotton clothes.

12 I have flown east and west and have not found any drink of water for you in this house."

13 The third says "Peace be upon you. I am partnered with your lavender.

14 I have flown east and west and not found any lavender for you."

15 Then the fourth Amazing comes and says: "Peace be upon you. I am partnered with your navel.

16 I have flown east and west throughout the Earth.

17 And I have not found any woman for you, or your mother to be called by anyone for suckling."

18 Then the pairing partnered for right and not for left.

19 The one on his right says: "Peace be upon you.

20 I am partnered with your right shoulder."

21 So he brings out from Heaven, the chamber in which the good records of partnerships are, on a white page and he spreads it before him.

22 And he says "Look at your books."

23 So he is happy and pleases.

24 The one on his left says: "Peace be upon you.

25 I am (already) with your former women."

26 So he brings out from Sijin, the chamber in which the bad records of partnerships are, kept on a red page and he spreads it before him.

27 And says "Look at it."

28 So he sees your name, and he looks at the right and at the left, but lost all existing (bad) pages.

29 The scribe insists and puts it down on the pillow and goes.

30 Then the Amazing of Destiny, Israfil, son of ANU and his carers, and on his right on the Amazing of Mercy, and on his left on the Amazing of Punishment.

out of-line consort. In the ensuing celestial battle.

54 Tiamat was split in two: one half was shattered; the other half, accompanied by Sheshgi, was thrust into a new orbit to become the Earth and its Moon.

55 And Kingu, who had become chief among them, Murduk made shrink, as a Duggae, "Mass Of Lifeless Clay." Yet it had life in its seas.

56 Murduk took from Kingu the Tablet Of Destinies which was not rightfully his;

57 And sealed on it, his own seal, and fastened it to his own breast.

58 Deprived of its orbital momentum, Kingu was reduced to the status of a mere satellite- a Moon. This is the story of the birth of your moon, as recorded in the Enuma Elish 59 You have seen me from the day I was born and you have tested me again and again.

60 Too long have I felt your tortuous swords of doubt piercing my heavy heart.

61 We the Anunnagi being born before your AFSU, the sun 76,000,000,000,000 trillion years ago,

62 And your star the sun being born 93,000,000,000 billion years ago, placing it by the way of 554 million tons of hydrogen changing into 550 million tons of helium each second,

63 4 million remaining, creating planets such as yours.

64 Your sun being placed 93,000,000 million miles from Tiamat.

65 The explosion of sound travels at the speed of 1,124, 1,100 feet per second. It being 853,474 miles in a diameter,

66 Thus, aligning itself with your Earth in the time when it positions itself, in the location of revolution Earth in the Lunar Logging of 1982 in the Gregorian Calendar, and in the year 1983 in the Gregorian Calendar, 67 When the alignment of the great vortex will open again, in the Lunar Logging of the year 1993 in the Gregorian Calendar, and then in 2003 A.D. when Nibiru will arrive for the 144,000. It will depart in 2030 A.D., of the great vortex, and it will open in 2043 A.D., and we, the Anunnagi will depart forever.

68 Its light, sun reaching you every 8 minutes and 20 seconds,

69 Which allows life forms to flourish, which gives growth, life.

70 The provider of the earthquakes after the meteorite showers that brought the darkness upon the face of the deep after crashing down on the tip of the Yucatan.

71 Look into the light and there you will see me standing at your door, knocking ever so lightly, for me to originate in the pure darkness with ANU.

72 I will hear and welcome you in my grandfather ANU's, house in the Orion star constellation, houses of many rooms;

73 Which is a Great kingdom of thrones; fit for rulers alone.

74 In each, 7 in all, or 7 to the 7th power of 7. His, ANU's is 9 to the 9th power of 9.

75 Woe to those who turn away, and are impatient with me,

76 Know that I, Malachi am walking you in the valley of fear.

77 So fear not, for persecution is a sign of truth.

BEHAYMAW — THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 2:78 — Tablet 2:106

78 I will let you drink from the cup of everlasting truth.

79 And I suffer to protect you from the hissing ones who whispers disagreeable suggestions, 80 Placing questions of doubt about the galactical heavens in your heart.

81 So fall not into their treacherous grips as did many who were chosen before you, 82 Asking that our father ANU, manifest before their weak and vain eyes, calling Yaaquub their father.

83 Woe unto you, daughters and sons of Izraa'el, the tribe of Enqi.

84 Where are you now? Where have you gone? For we see you no more.

85 Who can you turn to now for manna and quail?

86 No more parting of waters and the sending of seven plagues for your sake.

87 For you have been wiped from our sight.

88 So, think about and ponder the scriptures, El Torah, before you.

89 Do not question the pages of my servants. These present wisdom. The Holy Tablets.

90 Don't differentiate between the wise that are sent to you. Make no distinction, one between the other, be they religious, Abram, Mose, Buddha, Krishna, Confucius, Hermes, Yashu'a, Muhammad, or be they philosophical, such as Plato, Khalil Gibran, Edgar Cayce, 91 And submit yourselves by throwing your lowly flesh to the Earth in prostration and Taful and seek protection in your Master, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL.

92 Remember there was once a worshipper whose name I will leave out for your thoughts to seek out. He worshipped and agreed to obey Zuen, who is also called Anzu, or Shaytun, 93 This Shaytun, asked him to prostrate at once before him in the name of Kadmon's progeny, his daughters and sons.

94 At that point in time, his judgment was removed.

95 He didn't know whether he stood or sat, he arrived or departed.

96 Yet, he cried out to this Shaytun, asking, why have you beguiled me?

97 Any of you who think that you can do without the yielding and the merciful master of all the worlds,

98 You shall be cast from the garden of delight and the swords of the Garubaat shall be crossed on the gates.

99 But when she, Nekaybaw, who is also called Hawwah, or Eve repented by way of Seth, he yielded,

100 Ordering the Garubaat to raise their crossed swords,

101 So that those of her seed who obey may re-enter the tree of eternal life and read El Lawuh Shil Masury "the Tablet Of Destiny" which sits beneath it.

102 He's called the Yielder because he yielded at the gates of the garden.

103 Often was he merciful to you in the name of ANU the yielder, the merciful.

104 Nakhash said unto him, on highest, you are trying to betray me and your own soul for even I spoke,

105 Shaytun knows no one can disobey the master of the worlds, and you have no right to have the ability to procreate.

106 Nakhash said, I have taken on many forms in all places, called Rabbi, Preacher, Pastor, Guide, Imaam, Sheikh, Guru, Sage, Wizard, 107 Soothsayer, Mystic, Mother, Sufi, City, Place, Father, Friend, Pet, Food, Habit, Drink, Hobby; you find me in all these things.

108 You must Protect your soul, slide not into binding partners with The Most High, ANU,

109 But merely close your eyes, contemplating the wonders of The Most High,

110 From the cursed Shaytun "satan" for this is the heart of Wahedess, "oneness" of A'lyun A'lyun El, the Most High, as Murduk as Al Khidr, Malachi-Zodoq York-El made it known to all.

111 And Shaytun will flee from every part of you at the sounds of these words, for you cannot think past The Most High, El Baaruf, "The Knowing."

112 Those were his very own words. Haylal who is called Shaytun used to go through all the 7 heavens calling out for helpers, and 200 of my Malaa'ika, angelic brothers followed him, residing on Al Ard, the planet Earth in the land called Nod.

113 They would listen at the doors of heaven, learning, and at the recitation of the Revelation of El Garun, before they were sent down in the 19th point in El Layul Shil Gadur, "The Night Of Power".

114 Spoken are these words which are read sealed on his holy pages therein.

115 So, bring forth the imagination, for only he could have learned from you.

116 On the conception of Tammuz as Horus or Krishna, or Maitreya, or Yashua, or Isa, or Jesus, the galactical heavens were banded, still, he used to go to the fourth heaven.

117 Then on the conception of the seal of El Nabuyaat, "the news bearers," of that blood line of Ahmad who is called in tones Mustafa Muhammad Al Amin, and Haylal' entry into all the galactical heavens were banded.

118 Calling him in his Garun, Shaytun 88 times, Ibliys 11 times, and Taaghuwt 8 times.

119 The system of scaring him away by the flaming Garubaat was instilled.

120 At the grace birth of Kadmon, Shaytun shouted to his offspring and all rallied around him.

121 They asked as to what bewildered and perplexed him so.

122 Khannaas, who is Shaytun said, woe is to me.

123 Because of this birth, I will witness great changes in El Leulaat, the galactical heavens and on El Gi the planet Earth, 124 From the early shadow hour until this time.

125 Verily, some rare but powerful thing is herald.

126 I have not seen a color change of this dimension, and the likeness of this,

127 Since the time of that magnificent ascension to the galactical heavens, and to the fall of 1/3rd of the stars from his grace.

128 At this point, the Jinns, disagreeable Angelic Beings sons of Shaytun, 129 Trusted that he would show them those things that are repulsive to their master.

130 Everyone dispersed into different directions in the planet Earth in the year, 5,430, of earth time, for on that hour was a light born.

131 Recalling all events, they reported that they couldn't discover any pure light in anything.

Tablet 2:132

132 Haylal entered the world from the beginning by impregnating himself into the flesh of several tones, by tones, it meant several beings with different names that lived on Tiamat.

133 I will mention here: Cain, Caesar, Alexander, called The Great, Herod, Attila the Hun, Marco Polo, Napoleon, Louis the 14th, 134 To mention a few, Abu Lahab, and Yazid.

135 Still, there are some in this world to come 30 in all.

136 And here now around 1400 years later, in the revolution of the planet, the pure green light returned to behead the hissing one, Dajjaal.

137 Shaytun cried out, in the one born, Mustafa Muhammad Al Amin, is a seed, Malachi Zodoq York-El, destined to rid the universe of the likes of me.

138 So as prophecy would have it. Shaytun says "women shall bruise my head, and I your heal."

139 Set off Shaytun circling the galaxy from Anshar, Saturn. Anshar, Saturn is the 6th planet in order from the sun.

140 Its diameter is 75,111 miles, 6 times the size of Earth.

141 Second largest in this galaxy, you can see this disagreeable beast with an unaided eye.

142 Its period of rotation is 10 hours and 14 minutes.

143 6,000 rings are interwoven around Anshar, Saturn, and there, the planet for Anshar is the disagreeable gas, 144 An electro-magnetic forcefield encircles the planet as a vapor shield.

145 Its distance from the Afsu, the sun, is 886 million, miles.

146 And at its closest approach to Earth, Saturn which is approximately

Tablet 2:158

793,246,123 miles.

147 Saturn has 10 moons.

148 It takes about 10,759 Earth days, or 29 1/2 Earth years to circle the sun, 149 To 354 Lunar or 365 solar days, or one year of the planet Earth's time.

150 Sacred year of 269 days; Venusian year of 584 days; the true Solar year is 365, 2,422 days.

151 My daughters and sons, the called in tones, the Mayans, they calculated 365, 2,420 days.

152 Saturn's axis tilts at 27 degrees from the perpendicular position.

153 The atmosphere of Anshar, Saturn is hydrogen, helium, methane, and ammonia.

154 The Greeks, from which the last of the 10 kingdoms of the son's of Javan son of Japheth son of Noah.

155 This Javan took Iris and they gave birth to Java Man.

156 This brotherhood derived from afar and shall come again and the beast will rise up out of the sea having 7 heads, 157 And 10 horns, named Anshar, Saturn after Cronus. Cronus, a Titan who ruled the universe until he was dethroned by his son Zeus, who came to remove Shaytun.

158 As mystery signifies the hidden system so Saturn is the hidden deity. The Chaldeans called it Satur, and that is Stur or S=66 T=400 U=6 R=200. The apocalyptic number "666" which replaced the real letters zayn zayn zayn for zig zag zig. The name Lat, the hidden one, this is Apollo the sun, called also Apolleion or Siva, which is Sheevah, the destroyer called Shaysh or Shish - Shaw, father of the 6th from Aramic. Which he is one of the true

BEHAYMAW

Tablet 2:158

Trinity, and it was so, Latin came from Lat and this Titan.

159 Titan is also the name of the 10th planet. Anshar, Saturn also bears the names:

160 Sagoush, Kainanu and Horus the bull.

161 His wife was Ops, the female deity of lust and harvest.

162 He had 7 children: Hestia, Laya, Demeter, Hera;

163 Hades - hell, Poseidon - Greek deity of the sea, and Zeus.

164 Because of Cronus swallowing his children, he is frequently identified with Baal Saturnus. This was their El.

165 The halo on Jesus' head, as depicted by the Christians, symbolizes the rings of Anshar, Saturn, as bright as the sun or the Sol of the Solar System. When the sun of deity died with a Crown of the thorns on his head, the Crown of thorns on his head is symbolic of the sun's rays.

166 For the Romans regarded Saturn, as a deity. The pope symbolizes Mephistopheles, who wears the fish head of Dagon upon his head called Mitre.

167 Each year, the Romans worshipped Shaytun with a festival, called the Saturnalia celebrated December 17 for 7 days.

168 Making a ring around it, then encircling Earth.

169 Encircling the planet Earth 6 times increasing in speed by 6.

170 Then he, Shaytun, is aware of the 666 that marks his time:

171 In the location of the revolution of the planet Earth, in the Lunar Logging in the 1966th year of the Gregorian Calendar; being Saturn is the 6th planet

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 2:177

from the sun,

172 When they opened the 6th vortex, to let the disagreeable beings in this world; which was the rebirth of Zuen.

173 The sun represents everlasting life. El Tama-Reaat "The Egyptians" have faith in as long as the sun come up, the Earth will live. El Tama-Reaat The Egyptians nurtured the sun and it would continue to proceed on its journey of growth. The sun or son of deity represented everlasting life on this planet, now called Earth.

174 The son was giving up his life for you, and he was to rise again. This "son" in Egypt was called Horus. So you have horizon, or Horus rising.

175 There will always be light on the planet called Earth as long as the sun continues to show itself. And as long as the sun shows itself, there will be everlasting life. For 3 days, the sun is fixed on the sundial at the same place. It then moves again in the Lunar logging in the 25th points in December; this was its rebirth, the sun was reborn. It begins its annual journey in the Lunar logging in the 25th point in December.

176 And as you know within the false religion of Christianity, you are taught that Jesus was supposedly born in the Lunar logging in the 25th point in December. This is all symbolic of the sun in Christianity that was born or reborn. It's called solar biology or simply Horus - scope, horoscope.

177 When the sun comes up behind the water, it proceeds to walk across the water, and this is symbolic of God walking across the water. They always dress Jesus in red and blue. The red is the sun, the blue is the water. This gives the appearance of the setting of the sun of God walks away, and the sun goes away and comes back.

178 Oh you, elated ones, praise your master and shed tears of gratitude; for now is the time to shed the soul of this vicious bacteria that plagues your body, and come up in degrees of thinking. Raise in density, in degrees of patience, in degrees of purity in heart.

179 Give freely of that which the provider has provided you; The purifier, to take the head of the beast, and adorn their heads with manna, the mushroom, for the day of Saturn or Saturday.

180 I will bruise him on his mark 666, oh coverer of truth who bears, the mark on his forehead.

181 I'm called in tones Al Mukhlas, destroyer of Khannaas. For, after I have rid you of the evils, which you so freely partake from this tree of sin, in the Enclosed Garden of Delight;

182 And once I have removed religion, which controls the minds of my people, 1. Judaism, 2. Christism, 3. Muhammadism, 4. and all the other Isms, and I have casted out Shaytun's children, and removed his head and summoned the knowledge of all false things, that made you see other than The Most High, ANU in this Earth's domain.

183 I will employ no less than 7 billion angelic messengers as your servants, to wash you in the pure spirit of Shafu'ane for 1000 years.

184 I will lock Haylal in Kurnugi, the bottomless pit for a short time. I chained him for 1000 years, in that he was restricted from his evil activities, for the time the 144,000 are with the Lamb in the Crystal City. And cast him into The Bottomless Pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him. This seal was placed on the pit, so the malevolent ones would not be able to lead the nations into darkness anymore with his evil acts, until the one thousand years are finished, and after that he will be able to emerge for a very little time, in which this time elapse was from 1966 A.D., when the war started. The beginning of the end of his rule ended on June 6 1996 A.D. and will end on June 26, 1999 A.D. In the year 2003 A.D. the vortex will open allowing the Shams to come to the earth to pick up the worthy 144,000. This pick up will occur until 2030 A.D., and then the Mother Plane Nibiru will depart in 2043 A.D.

185 On the first gathering of the heavenly body and our servant, name by tone, Ahmad, 186 Being under the inspiration, spoke before the multitudes.

187 Come you all, out of the world,

188 Do not drink of the intoxicating spirit of Shaytun.

189 Come you all into the world ruled by the master, for he is of the father, and the father is in him.

190 Blessed are they who learn true love.

191 Rewarded are they who share true love, in their father's name.

192 I question you. Why has all this befallen us at this point in life's time?

193 The Bad is dressed in the garb of agreeable and false as an imitation of truth, that has slipped into the garden changing it by flattery into devilishment.

194 Can we destroy him? A star is an enormous ball of gas, mostly hydrogen;

195 Atoms are jammed close together in the center; which is nuclei that create the heat of light of each star, symbolically the Jinn, for that light of a star is a form of fire.

196 A star is born every 7,000 light years.

197 A light year is equal to $E=mc^2$ or Energy = matter times the speed of light; from energy changed to matter.

198 As a spaceship approaches the speed of light which is 186,272 miles per second, 199 Objects that they approach will take on a red glow.

200 Time will begin to slow down.

201 When they have reached 99.999 percent of the speed of light they could travel to a star 37 light years away.

202 A light year is the distance light can travel in one Earth year;

203 That is 186,272 miles every second and 5,874,273,792 miles every year.

204 He became matter in the physical and from matter to energy you will become spirit.

205 You in your time equals the distance light travels in one year, be it solar or lunar.

206 Depending on the mathematicians or individuals located north, south,

207 East or west on Earth, multiplied times the speed of light, 208 186,272 miles per second, by the amount of days in Earth's lunar or solar year.

209 A light year is the distance light travels in one year.

210 The formula: 186,272 miles per second times 365 days.

211 Derive the exact time per day based on the sun, be it now:

212 23 hours, 56 minutes and 6 seconds.

213 Stars are born in cycles of 7; out of black holes that are at the last stage in the life of very large stars.

214 They are products of a physical aging.

215 The gravitational collapse of the star culminates in the formation of a black hole when the star's radius shrinks to less than itself.

216 Black holes give off no light. The fate of a star depends on its mass.

217 The more massive the star, the stronger its internal energy.

218 The larger its gravitational attraction and the greater its collapse.

219 At the center of a black hole the star that dies is crushed out of existence by the force of gravity.

220 Any stray matter or energy that passes too close to its horizon will be drawn into the whirlpool, which is the black hole.

221 There are so many stars with masses significantly larger than your sun.

222 There are numerable black holes in space,

223 Thus black holes are able to influence stars, that are a distance of light years away.

224 Then if you add the amount of days in light years, 225 You will come up with the distance which light travels in one year.

226 Digit, digit, digit, digit, digit add it if you wish, 6 trillion is the starting point.

227 If you take this figure you have the distance of most stars.

228 Sunlight must be at least 10 to 5 astronomical units away-or more than 16 million km.

229 One kilometer equal to 1000 meters, 3,280.8 feet, or about 5/8ths of a mile.

230 The distance light travels in one year, be it solar or lunar,

231 And times 7000, then times itself by 7000 is the exact time 1 star is born.

232 The birth of a star is contraction of interstellar gas.

233 Its outer parts are attracted towards the center by the gravitational attraction of the atoms in the cloud as a whole.

234 Slowly it heats up and contracts until nuclear reactions begin in the center.

235 Energy nor matter cannot be destroyed by man nor woman, only changed in its appearance - moving from:

236 Person to person-place to place-planet to planet-galaxy to galaxy- eon to eon and then on.

237 Only A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High can destroy him.

238 We must avoid him so as not to give him more power, thereby avoiding his pull.

239 The seed of flattery is planted deep into Earth.

240 The Earth having many flowers of many colors;

241 So beautiful to the weary eye. So prosperous to the disagreeable; so acceptable to the needing woman and man.

242 They seek to crucify me. Please forgive them.

243 Be ever so willing to die for my sake? For I have died a many times for your sakes.

244 And I will give you the cup of eternal life for even at this moment your name has been re-entered into the tablet of eternal life.

245 No mortal can do this thing by blood or by wealth; for only at death are the real earnings obtained.

246 Mold yourself well in Right Knowledge, Nuwaubu.

247 While your soul is like a full cup running over.

248 Clothe yourself in the best of garments, make the sun your crown of gold,

249 And put Shesh-gi, The Moon under her feet that no more unclean or impure spirits may enter into the Sun, 250 For the highest and best life is still yet to come.

251 Yea, it's with me on the right of your father and my father.

252 To love your father is what I bring to you; to love your sister and brother as yourself in all means is your key to eternal life:

253 For he, the ever so compassionate, and sharing, created you virtuous and in pure happiness with no needs, or desires.

254 There was nothing for you to seek after.

255 Ponder on this thought: Corks need not learn to swim.

256 The Holy Tabernacle is a pool of learning, still waves un-distressed.

257 The breeze against the leaves creates the Anunnagi music.

258 Music is composed of 2 sounds, and an assimilation comes to the real matter by putting ones behavior in harmony with A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High. This format of life is created in the harmonic grid with tones of vibration.

259 One, three, five...

260 Laahuwt, Malakuwt, Naasuwt, the 3 realms on Awum, Aum, or Om. A sound you all make when seeking a thought Um, "Aum".

261 Harmony is seeing the heavenly hosts around the 24 elders in number, who are controlling the foul of the air, and earth, and the beasts of the field, man, and cow.

262 Harmony is even coming forth from the throne.

263 Agreeable works, agreeable deeds, agreeable people. And what will make you know the meanings of these words.

264 I am your Comforter in these last days of discomfort.

Come ye lost but now found in the west unto me: for I am your light in these last days of ignorance.

265 Your Assurer.

266 For those who are torn by doubt; behold me, I am.

267 For I have come to you from afar with a pure soul, agreeable, in truth, and as a servant of ANU, who I called for you Allah.

268 Awake and walk beside me.

269 Behold my hand stretched forth unto you, and my heart is there in it. I place my trust and my heart in your care.

270 You were love, my love. And now my heart is broken for your children are yet unborn.

271 Oh lost like salt; lost you your savor many a year ago.

272 I weep more tears than all your seas.

273 I pleaded for your salvation, and the ever forgiving granted me but a short time to be with you.

274 Oh you, couldn't you but know me?

275 Merely look up with the energy eye, and behold my rainbow is encircling your dwelling.

276 You have showed me the face of hate for my love.

277 The sword clothed in my blood for your freedom.

278 Sweet vision, look down on them, that my voice may dwell in them, and that they too may partake of the love in you without doubt.

279 Even in hell have you called them.

280 Seeing the spell, I will break it; and despite the cross,

281 I will un-crucify them so that they may resurrect from the dead, and all eyes will behold your glory, ANU.

282 Many times over for them will I break it: the wicked spell.

283 This is the vision that came to me while I was in the flesh on ANU, The Most High's day, in ANU'S hour, and in the midst of the enemy.

284 Come you to the arms of my love that I may teach you of these things forgotten by the time:

285 The compassionate, ever loving, all merciful, provider. Help these weary bones that I may shine forth and raise a new light of submission in them. This is spoken by Amunnubi Rooakhptah, Atum-Ra.

Tablet Three
The Mission
(19 x 2=38)

Lo! ANU, EL A'LYUN A'LYUN EL The Most Highest Of The High Ones,

2 Who is the breath in my body, the blood in my veins, the light in my day,

3 Please help me love those who do not overstand me and hate me,

4 Not knowing that you sent me to them with the Nuwaubu, Right Knowledge.

5 Oh A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, could I have been sent to lead the ants,

6 Since, 4/5ths of all living creatures are insects?

7 I think they could have overstood better than these vain-glorious human beings.

8 O A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, my ruler,, forgive me for this question?

9 It is the cry of this half-human nature you gave me in your work.

10 O my beloved grandfather ANU, do I have your permission to cry for those who do not love you;

11 The hurt, the pain they are doomed to receive for their transgressions? For they cannot see, nor hear you.

12 I know, O my father, that you gave them senses with which to praise you.

13 O ruler, who has the power to extract the salt from our tears,

14 And the savor from the salt, divide also the disagreeable from agreeable in our hearts.

15 Part again the Reed Sea called the Red Sea by those who need to re-think. Part again agreeableness, and disagreeableness in the Earth, 16 And let us walk your path; the path of those before us.

17 Oh my father, I see the path, and I want to teach them to walk on it, 18 For the love of you and not because of fear. Help me! Help me!

19 O seal of El Nabuyaat, prophets, "news bearers," Muhammad, the comforter, I see you have glorified Yashua's name, Rawuh Shil ANU.

20 He has sent you to them, but they do not have faith.

21 I still love them so very much.

22 Shaikh Khidr, thank you for your time.

23 Again green is our destiny in Earth, for it is as refreshing as the birth of grass, 24 The growth of trees and flowers, the sound of birds; and the signs of summer.

25 You put the Illustrious truth into my humble heart.

26 Now I even desire to help the cursed people, for they too need my help.

27 Clean them not of their cursed disease, but of the sins of their hands and feet which keep them pointing and walking, as if to say: I cannot see A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High.

28 But they do!

29 Please take their hands off the faces of my foolish brothers and sisters, daughters and sons – let them see please.

30 Let me blink for the whole world, and when my eyes are open again, let me see Nusqu, who bore the title Gabriy'El and his host before you.

31 For you and only you are the provider of all things, that we see and cannot see, 32 Plus what we miss, and try to miss, is what I speak to all the world.

33 I am here for you, and I am the lamp which will light your way to A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High.

34 Look this way! Look this way!

35 I am here! Love A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High.

36 I am here to teach love!

37 Love of A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High!

38 O ANU, The Most High forgive us all!

Tablet Four
The Wanders
(19 x 12=228)

Lo! While in this planet, I stretch forth my hands to all flesh, importing on you the comforting spirit.

2 The self same spirit that lights all that live, passing from one world to the next, and even many others.

3 Continents float, yet pebbles sink; none knows save ANU, The Most High the strengthener, our father who are in the skies; Oh holy ANU, The Most High, eternal and alone, all seeing.

4 Trust me, worship him as though you see him; truly at all times he sees you.

5 Put the captivate bone of your right hand on your nose; all fingers pointed upward, and try and describe your hand without memorizing it.

6 It is too close to see. That's what happens with the world. You are too close to see its evils, be one fungus under a rock in the middle of the deepest ocean.

7 He sees you through the eyes of all plant life. The world, never silent; totally balanced by his command.

8 Yamum, Sea-life, orYaam known as the deity of the Sea, the Reptilians, the serpents, or snakes those beings that whisper, not hiss, the creatures that whisper into the hearts of human beings.

9 Those of you will never see, though you crowd the Earth, killing, stealing, lying, and destroying in attempts to put out that very light shining in the ignorance, your temple, because you don't overstand it, the pure black light.

10 Can't you perceive my birds, take flight with grace, and my bees alighting down lightly on leaves less its weight.

11 The bee: fearfully and wonderfully made. Fearfully, because of five eyes: 3 simple in a triangle on his head; 2 compounds on the side of 1,000 single eyes. The bee cannot focus because he has no pupils.

12 He cannot see the red flowers. Only blue, yellow, and ultraviolet, just as the rays of the sun. The man fears the stinger. It is poisonous 13 This is his only means of self - defense, in which his 22 muscles control it. Even when it has been pulled out of the bee's body, he dies at its loss. But the Queen survives it, it has 5,000 nostrils.

14 Its wings vibrate 11,400 hundred times per minute.

15 By the time it has gathered one pound of honey, it has traveled a distance of 50,000 miles–the circumference of the Earth; 24,896 miles: 49,792, remarkable! The bee is deaf.

16 Natural communications who share their knowledge, work all things.

17 Alerted to danger, workers stand guard over the hive against invaders.

18 They sacrifice their lives for the safety of the community: Both the bee and the faithful.

19 In flight, they travel forward, backwards, sideways and hover.

20 10,000 kinds in the species: communal and solitary.

21 The solitary bee is alone trying to make it by himself, it is neither devoted, nor as faithful.

22 It baffles man as to how the bee knows what to do, and when to do it.

23 Wonderfully, because it makes honey and beeswax. This long tongue, it possess, is designed to suck up nectar into its honey stomach, not too much bigger than the head of a needle. She would have to make 60 trips to collect one thimbleful; and the hard workers would make up to 1,000 visits. Stop and reflect on the industry of the bee the next time you eat the mystical honey.

24 She collects pollen, and molds into a solid mass for transport on the back of one of her legs, at such an incredible speed that it is impossible to detect each movement.

25 The honeycomb is a mass of hexagonal, 6 sided cells for the storage of honey and eggs. It is made of beeswax, a type of wax produced by special glands in the worker bee's abdomen.

26 It oozed out through pores onto her abdomen, where she collects it and after chewing it, turns into beeswax. It is produced only when needed. The hexagons are geometrically perfect; representing the 6-pointed star.

27 Honey is an overlooked miraculous food created by A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High for mortals: A popular medicine and the principal part of ointments and plasters.

28 An anti-bacterial: fermenting at 60 degrees and absorbs moisture when stored at 60 percent relative humidity. Composed of highly concentrated H_2O solution of 2 sugars:

29 1. Dextrose $C_6 H_{12} 0_6 H_2O$ 2. Levulose $C_6 H_{12}$. A carbohydrate, high energy source. Other sugars are 12 in number: Isomaltose, Furanose, Maltose, Nigerose, Kojibiose, Leucrose, Melexitose, Erlose, Kestose, Raffinose, and Dextrose. Honey contains 11 minerals: Potassium, Chlorine, Sulfur, Calcium, Sodium, Phosphorous, Magnesium, Silica, Iron, Manganese, and Copper.

30 It is said of our servant Ahmad, When he reached the 7th heaven and met our servant Yashua, Tammuz, or Jesus, or Isa, he was offered a cup filled with honey. Paradise has rivers flowing with honey.

31 There are signs in this for those who have an ear to hear and eyes to see. The honey cures the body naturally of its ailments: Nuwaubu cures the soul of falsehoods and confusion.

32 ANU, The Most High created the society of the honey bee and established the intricate laws by which it is governed, The Holy Tabernacle.

33 The life of the honeybee is the life of the people: Adaptable to all extremes of climate and are fed and made secure through hardship and tribulation.

34 The hexagon and thus the 6 pointed star are symbolic of ANU'S protection: I seek refuge in ANU from the cursed, Shaytun.

35 The life of a bee represents a life of discipline. The individual honeybee is important only when it is part of a colony or community.

36 So it is with the faithful; they are of no importance as an I, or an individual, but as we, collectively. That's why we hold firmly to the rope of ANU, The Most High together as one. The beehive's dome is the same structure as the crown's dome.

37 It's another sign, the structure of the Holy Tabernacle community called in tones Ansaarullah. The colony of bees consists of one leader bee, As Sayyid Issa Al Haadi Al Mahdi, or just Imaam Issa, and thousands of worker bees. The Holy Tabernacle is symbolic of this great community.

38 In that society, she is the most powerful and makes all decisions. Our leader and teacher known to us as Nayya Malachi Zodoq York-El, is the example and a person in whom the qualities of advancement of the true way of life, and the strengthening of all Children of the Aluhum, in the community are essential and one. The workers are builders.

39 And our servant Ahmad received in El Gadush Garun, "the Holy Qur'aan" the sacred reading, 16th degree, verse 68: And your sustainer/Aluhum who is Rabb, has inspired sent weh/wahy unto the 'Nahl' Bee that they are to put homes-hives into the mountains and into the trees, and in the places, man constructs.

40 So they were cause to work in ways of your love humbly. There goes out from its innermost parts, bellies, a drink that is different, its color; in it is a healing cure for the people who use it. Surely, in that is verily a sign for a nation of people who think. The many colors are: dark brown, light brown, yellow, clear, and many others.

41 The yellow is that of Saffron, the dried orange stigmas of the plant, used for cooking and dying, crocus satius. It is said of our servant Ahmad saying: There is a remedy in three things: The incision of a cupping glass, a drink of honey, a cauterization by fire, but I forbid people to cauterize.

42 It is also said of our Noble servant Ahmad, that at the feast of his wedding with Safiya, the main dishes included honey, dates and cream.

43 On the occasion when he received the injunction for salaat, worship, he was given vessels from which to choose of wine, milk and honey. He took and drank of the milk and Nusqu who bore the title Gabriy'El said to him: 'Milk is diyn; you and your people will be of it'.

44 Once the time comes for man to live a real peaceful way of life, the sweetness of honey suddenly becomes hard to live. The bitterness of truth is living to see all that was prophesied come to pass!

45 Once a rose asked me, she said: master about my thorns. Our father knew this, being a man.

46 Tell me why man who in his selfishness, rips me from your pure Earth, raping me of my home in the name of expressing his synthetic affections.

47 My beauty, which he A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, The Glorious, The Seer, The Bestower, has thrown upon me the same, gave me the thorn to protect my beauty from all to see his gifts. I being a symbol of resurrection.

48 Oh how I envy the dandelion. Yet she, believing in face value beauty, envies me. For in his gifts the half time of the sun each time I blossom again, 49 In time with the moon and the stars cycle as they wax around your heavens. Remember the beauty of my sister Sarah, the rose and the duration of my sister Hagar, the dandelion, also known as The Tama-Re Deity Hathor, for she was of that school.

50 The rose with a crackle of sadness in her voice, she said, master I ask you send to me a helping protector for the parents of beauty is ultimate deception.

51 Why? They outwit me, cut me down by modern means, she sighed as the wind blew and cried.

52 I turned deep into my own spiritual heart. Time passed and with a tear glittering like the sun in my right eye I comforted her with thoughts of peace in the Enclosed Garden of delight, the gardens of Paradise.

53 I apologize in every way I know for human beings from Kadmon, also called Zakar and Adam, to Ahmad for tearing down the surrounding gates of the first garden of Earth: Eden.

Tablet 4:53

54 Yet, could I make no excuse for him that fell from grace, ever so beautiful in the heavens. And yet so ugly in his heart, the female deity of fowl, the peacock entered by disguise into our garden.

55 My thoughts walking on in the cool of the sunlit day, I stood upon a lofty hill admiring the scenes, the wind was still, the grass was ever green.

56 I closed my eyes. Silence of the day turned to shadow hour. I beseech you after TAFUL, Oh master of masters, creator of all created things, how can I? How can I?

57 For it seems he takes pleasure in turning light into fire, water into toxic beverages, stones into weapons of destruction, 58 Wisdom into lies, elements into molecules, destroyers and atom splitters.

59 Protector, air into poison. Fruits seedless, our animals into his pets, love into lust, necessity into greed, people into devils, angelic beings into jinn, the learned into fools, and religion into actors parading in the garb of righteousness.

60 Even I, oftentimes confused and beguiled by the tricks and deceit of that which lurks in their chest, 61 Desire to help them with all that you have given me. Many a time more than they can count, if each being added a million years to his life, even so now I cry more tears than all the waters of all the seas together.

62 I vex more than all the war of all the worlds of myself, for I, I, I know.

63 I suffer more than all the diseases that plague life. For I, I, I feel.

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 4:70

64 I hurt more than all the broken hearts of the deceived in all the worlds. I, I, I ached.

65 Yet, still again and again, I love them even more and will carry out your truth in your name.

66 To see but one face shining in truth is fusion of helium and hydrogen. Birth of a new sun in my life. Their young ones, oh how they know so well.

67 I, in all my efforts, will see to it that they be joined with you again.

68 Oh ANU, The Most High, add more time to the second and in the minute, and the minute in the hour, and the hour in the day, and the day in the week, and the week in the month, and the month in the year, and the year in the decade, and the decade in the century, and the century in the eons, for their sakes! I seek your grace, that I may make them see your splendor.

69 O Yielder, O Merciful, why? Is it that the real El Garun was hated by them from one cover, the first to the other, the last. They even made a false Qu'raan, or Koran to fool the fools. Is life truly made clear? Why must they have it their own way? O holy seal of all the prophets of the seed of Kadmon, did you know this small thing would be? Over it are 19.

70 Mustafa Muhammad Al Amin, your sprout, successor Amiyrul Mu'miniyn Ali, knew his sprout, successor the Mahdi Muhammad Ahmad Ibn Abdullah, the 19th Imaam, and he knew, mother Earth. The laws of life and death, and when flesh returns to you, when you die, it is too late to beseech forgiveness. Quicksand is our carpet over hell, people will be drawn into hell. But it's only the man not of the jungle, those not part of the evolutionary process from Genus Homo to Homo Erectus to Homo Sapien. These beings in human form are only here to do harm.

71 Even so, from this moment on they must start to live in truth.

72 Give them one dot as given to me. It will suffice. From a dot to a diagonal line, the line downward forms a wall. The wall forms then a cube - the Kaaba, the navel of this Earth to the Muhammadans. All Muslims, world over, try and move in any other direction. All life moves as the Kaaba - the navel of the planet Earth, now in the hands of the evil ones.

73 Oh sweet sword, double-edge, ever so sharp, cut lies, then within our nature may we heal wounds with the water of Shafu'ane, for the once fooled. Find them wherever they may hide in this one garden. Confront them with their own selves.

74 Show your pure crystal light unto them, that they may be known, and the men will not be deceived.

75 There are some that say, they have faith, and they think they are in peace by that alone. Yet with heavy hearts, he tied a 6 knot thrice, increasing by their diseased calling through prayer in the name of Allah, who is also called El Eloh and Ilah. Their prayer was never leaving this atmosphere, neither was it heard in the heavens, but their iniquities have come up before us.

76 Calling you, even more.

77 You know yourselves better than I. What you claim besides ANU, The Most High, will be your hell, and if you claim in the name of ANU, The Most High, dropping all other things it will be your salvation, once you pass.

78 He, Haylal, has turned rough roads smooth for the traveler seeking the shortcut.

79 Standing at the end as a pot of gold, eager to help stop ANU, the Most High's words from flowing even now, through my spirit, I am nothing but a prayer. I want nothing but to worship for many shadow hours, thousand to one, one to a thousand, none better than one shadow hour of power in our world. But in their time, they don't overstand the little verse.

80 By, for a surety they are losing.

81 They don't see the abundance that has been bestowed upon them, or by the web of that one spider weaving that shelter cave. I seek protection with you from the acts that live in their minds, and they leave their bodies painted in red, burnt black faces. Leopard hearts, yet with room to slander, and hate me, none of them knowing of what they have become, and who they help.

82 I can't worship enough, I can't ask for your forgiveness enough for my wrongs. Oh ANU, the Most High, you alone have sent me more miles than they can count in all their times. Just to be with them, to eat the bread, and sip of the wine un-fermented, I am willing to go yet still further, for you have prepared after my anointed, after my incarnation into flesh, a table before me, before the eyes of our enemy. Going on, I'm ever seeking the purifiable ones;

83 Their eyes never see, or know anything of the other worlds. I cohabited as a visitor to maintain my sanity with the whale that carried our servant Yonaw, Jonah, also called Yunus, and all the fish. We ate together.

We laughed together, and we spoke concerning the first deluge, and our servant and his family are spared. Oh Utnafishtim who is also called Noah, remember when the fish asked ANU, The Most High that you being perfect in your generation shall be spared. Man never pondering on why the fish did not perish in the flood. They showed me the boundless colors of the kingdom of the seas.

84 Melchizedek is the Angel of Righteousness, the first High Priest of The Order of Zodoq, also Zodok, an order initiated by A'LYUN- A'LYUN EL, the Most High, power, maker, possessor, and sustainer of the heavens and Earth, the first Zodoqite to establish the order on Earth for the pious age of human kind for Cain, who failed this test to walk with the Aluhum as an upright being.

85 This Melchizedek was born in physical form as a divine manifestation which was recorded in the Scroll of Adafa, called also Idriys and Enoch.

86 Before the flood of Utnafishtim also called Noah, Melchizedek was returned by craft back up into paradise, which resides in Shehaqim, the third heaven.

87 After the flood he descended back to Earth to build the great Yarushalem, a city of peace, also called Jerusalem, and to bless and teach Abram the Syrian born in Ur of Chaldea, a great prophet, the first to cross over and be called a Hebrew.

88 Abraham, as Abram was called, was given the promise from A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, The Most High power, that through him would come the promised seed down to Tammuz called Yehoshua who himself was after the Ancient Mystic Order Of Melchizedek.

The Birth Of Melchizedek

89 And Mathusalaam said to the people, "Here is Nir" also Nunamnir Nunam-Nir the vessel by which he was to be born on Earth, being without earthly mother or father.

90 He will be in front of your face from the present day as the guide of the princes of the Earth. The Children of the Aluhum whom the chosen people of Israel shall worship.

91 And the people answered Mathusalaam, "Let it be so for us, and the word of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Most High, be just, as he said to you."

92 While Mathusalaam was speaking to the people his spirit was convulsed, and kneeling on his knees, he stretched out his hands to heaven, praying to A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator.

93 As he was praying, his spirit went out.

94 Nir and all the people hurried and constructed a sepulcher for Mathusalaam, and they placed around him incense and reeds, and many holy things.

95 Nir came with many praises, and the people lifted up Mathusalaam's body, glorifying ANU; they performed the service for him at the sepulcher which they had made for him and they covered him over.

96 The people said, "How blessed is Mathusalaam in front of the face of the Aluhum and in front of the face of all the people!"

97 From there they assembled, and Nir said to the people, "Hurry up today.

98 Bring sheep and bulls, turtle doves, pigeons and ostrich, so that we may make a feast of the sacrifice in front of the face of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator, and rejoice today.

99 And then go away to your houses."

100 The people gave heed to Nir, the Zodoq Priest, and they hurried and they brought their sheep, bulls, turtle doves, pigeons and ostrich and they tied them up at the head of the altar.

101 Nir took the knife of sacrifice and he slaughtered them in front of the face of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator, and he did have them prepared as a feast for those who were without fortune.

102 The people ate well, and they made merry, in front of the face of the Aluhum all that day.

103 They glorified ANU of the Aluhum, the savior of Nir.

104 In front of the face of the people, and from that day there was peace and order all over the Earth in the days of Nir, 202 years.

105 Then the people turned away from A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator, and they began to be envious, one against another, and the people went to war against people, and race rose up against race, and they struggled and insulted one another. They created names for those idols they worshipped, names such as Yahweh, Adonai, Baal, Dagun, and they took these names and supplanted them over their idols of ignorance.

106 Even if the lips were the same, nevertheless, the heart chose different things.

107 For the Luciferians, that is the Nakhashites, became rulers for the third time, and Haylal, their ruler, calling Nakhash ANU's Aluhum.

108 The first was before paradise;

109 The second time was in paradise;

110 The third time was after paradise, and continuing right up to the flood and on after.

111 There arose disputation and great turbulence.

112 Nir, the Zodoq Priest heard and was greatly aggrieved.

113 He said in his heart, "In truth I have come to overstand how the time has arrived, and the saying which A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, Who Is ANU, the Almighty Creator said to Mathusalaam, the father of my father Lamech."

114 Behold the wife of Nir, whose name was Sufanim, is barren and she has never given birth to a child by Nir at anytime.

115 Sufanim was in the time of her old age, and in the day of her death.

116 She conceived in her womb, but Nir, the Zodoq Priest had not slept with her, nor had he touched her, from the day that A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator, had appointed him to conduct the liturgy in front of the face of the people.

117 When Sufanim saw her pregnancy, she was ashamed and embarrassed, and she hid herself during all the days until she gave birth.

118 Not one of the people knew about it.

119 When 282 days had been completed, and the birth had begun to approach, and Nir remembered his wife,

BEHAYMAW

Tablet 4:119

and he called her to himself in his house, so that he might converse with her.

120 Sufanim came to Nir, her husband;

121 Behold, she was pregnant, and the day was appointed for giving birth was drawing near.

122 Nir saw her and he became ashamed.

123 He said to her, "What is this that you have done, O wife?"

124 Why have you disgraced me in front of the face of the people?"

125 Now depart from me, and go where you began the disgrace of your womb, so that I might not defile my hands on account of you, and sin in front of the face of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator."

126 Sufanim spoke to Nir, her husband, saying," O my Adonai, behold, it is the time of my old age, and the day of my death has arrived.

127 I do not overstand how my menopause and the barrenness of my womb have been reversed."

128 Nir did not have faith in his wife, and for the second time he said to her, "Depart from me, or else I might assault you and commit a sin in front of the face of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator."

129 It came to pass, when Nir had spoken to his wife, in this manner saying Sufanim that Sufanim fell down at Nir's feet, and died. For the thought of distrust laid too heavy upon her heart.

130 Nir was extremely distressed, and he said in his heart, "Could this have happened because of my word, since by word, and thought a person can sin in front of the face of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator?

131 Now may ANU, the merciful, have mercy upon me!

132 I know in truth in my heart that my hand was not upon her.

133 So I said, glory to you, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, Almighty Creator, because no one among humans knows about this deed which A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator, has done."

134 Nir hurried, and he shut the door of his house, and went to Utnafishtim his brother, and he reported to him everything that had happened in connection with his wife.

135 And Utnafishtim hurried.

136 He came with Nir his brother; and he came unto Nir's house, because of the death of Sufanim, and they were discussing between themselves how her womb was at the time of giving birth.

137 Utnafishtim said to Nir, "Don't let yourself be sorrowful, Nir, my brother; for A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator, today has covered up our scandal, in that nobody from the people knows this.

138 Now let us go quickly and let us bury her secretly, and A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator will cover up the scandal of our shame, for he alone knows that there is a divine in her womb, and he shall be an incarnation of Michael, himself.

139 They placed Sufanim on the bed, and they wrapped her around with black garments, and shut her in the house, so she was prepared for burial.

140 They dug the grave in secret.

141 A child came out of the dead

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 2:141

BEHAYMAW

Tablet 4:141

Sufanim.

142 He sat on the bed at her side. Utnafishtim and Nir came in to bury Sufanim, and they saw the child sitting by the dead Sufanim, and wiping his person.

143 Utnafishtim and Nir were very terrified with a great fear, because the child was fully developed physically, like a 3 year old.

144 He spoke with his lips, and he blessed A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator saying "forgive them for they know not what they have done."

145 Utnafishtim and Nir looked at him, and behold, the badge of priesthood was on his chest, and it was glorious in appearance.

146 Utnafishtim and Nir said, "Behold, ANU is renewing the priesthood from the blood related to us, just as he pleases."

147 Utnafishtim and Nir hurried and they washed the child, and they dressed him in the garments of priesthood, and they gave him the holy bread, and he ate it.

148 They called his name Melchizedek.

149 Utnafishtim and Nir lifted up the body of Sufanim and divested her of the black garments, and they washed her, and they clothed her in exceptionally bright garments, and they built a shrine for her.

150 Utnafishtim and Nir and Melchizedek came, and they buried her publicly.

151 And Utnafishtim said to his brother, Nir "Look after this child in secret until the time, because people will become treacherous in all of the Earth, and they will begin to turn away from

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 4:161

ANU, and having become totally ignorant, they will put him to death."

152 Then Utnafishtim went away to his own place. Great lawlessness began to become abundant all over the Planet Earth in the days of Nir.

153 Nir began to worry excessively, especially about the child, saying, "How miserable it is for me, El Olam, The Everlasting that in my days, all lawlessness has begun to become abundant over the Earth.

154 I realize how much nearer our end is, all over the Earth, on the account of all the lawlessness of the people.

155 Now, El-Roi, the vision giver, symbol of the eye, what is the vision about this child, and what is his destiny, and what will I do for him?"

156 Yah Shamayah, the hearer, heeded Nir and appeared to him in a vision in the shadow hour.

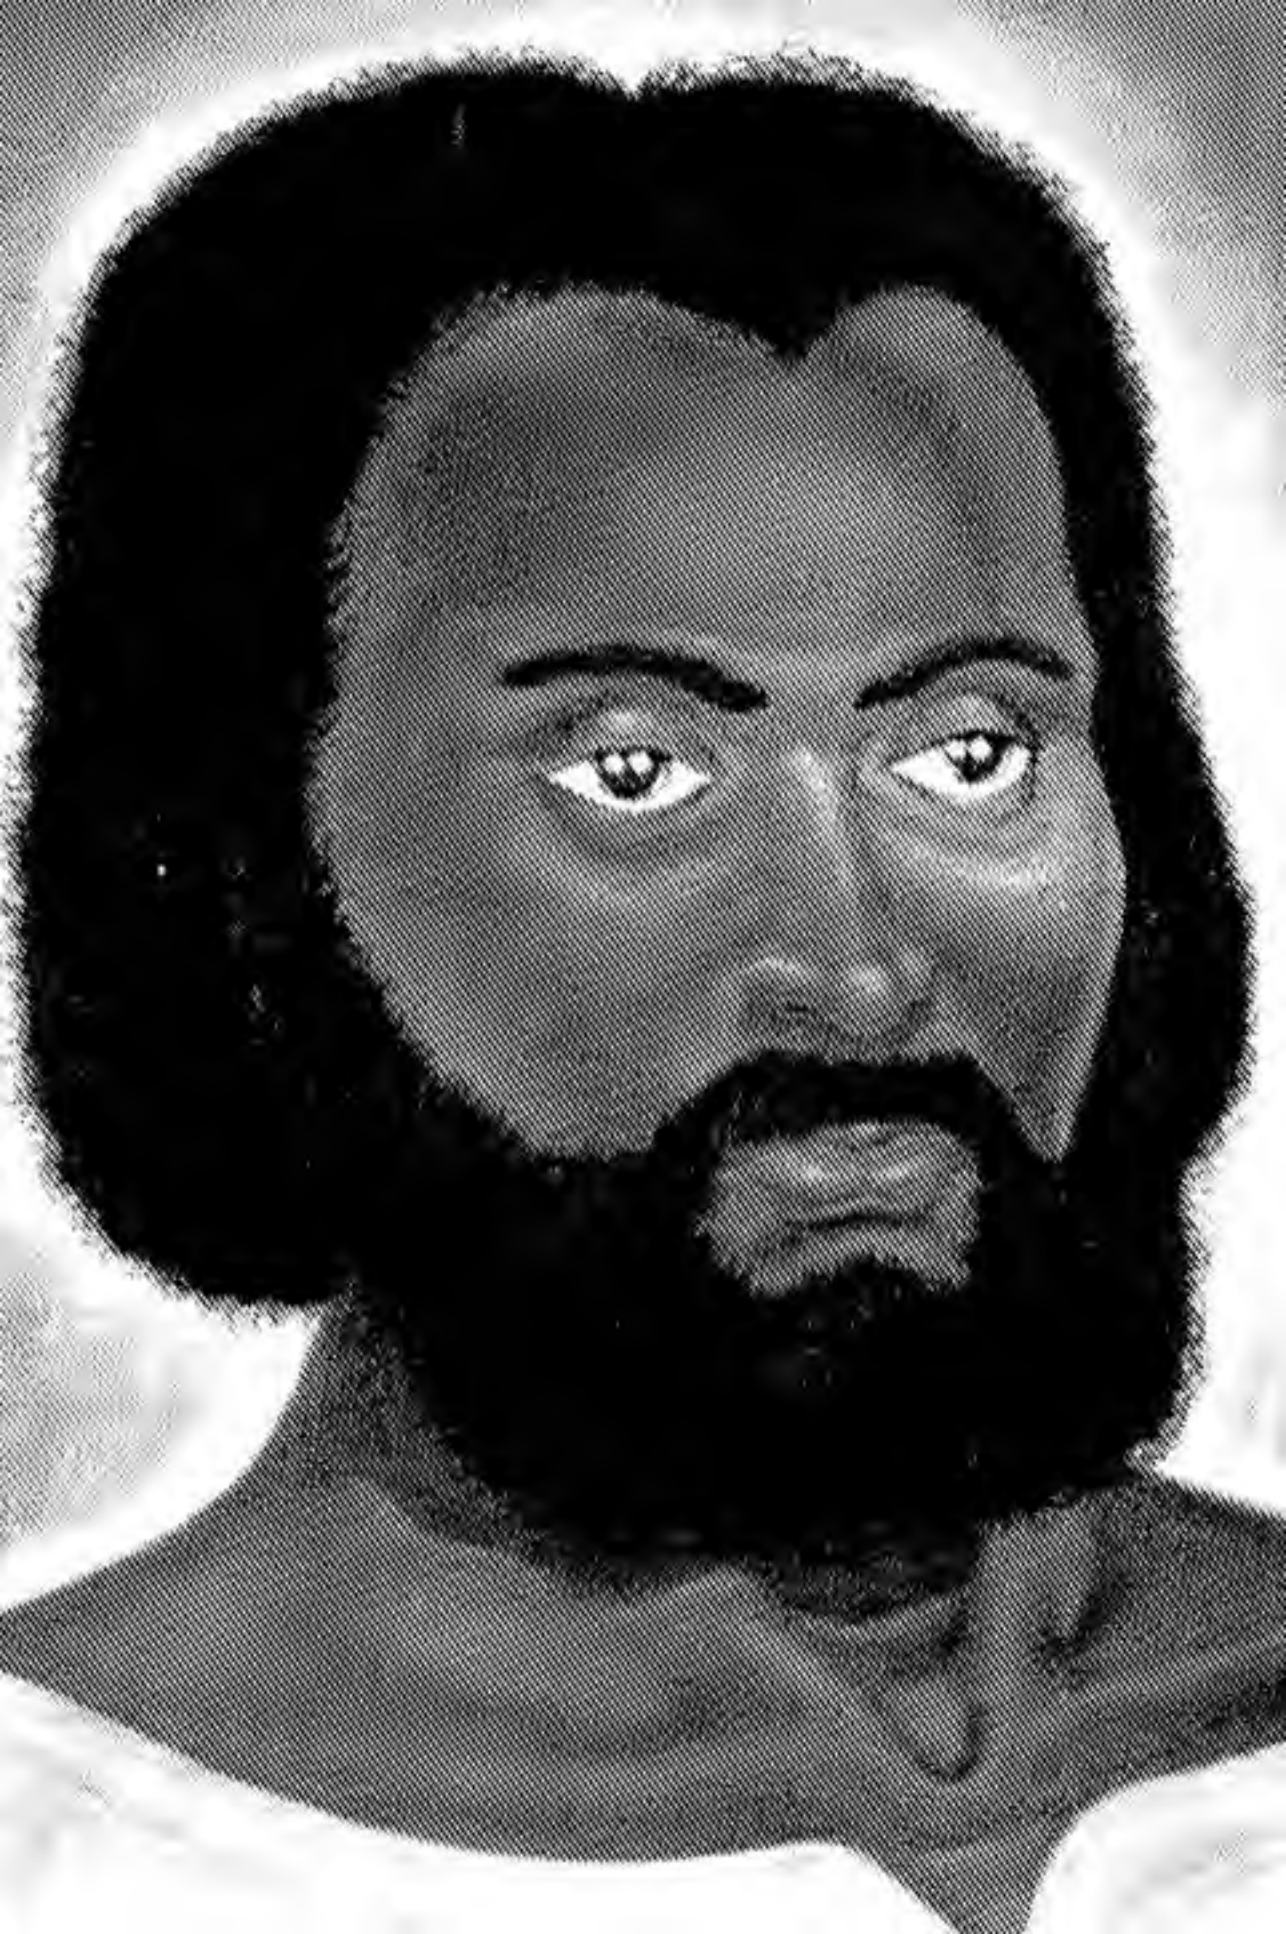
157 He said to him, "Nir, the great lawlessness which has come on the Earth among the multitude I shall not tolerate.

158 Behold, I desire now to send out a great destruction on the Earth, and everything that stands on the Earth shall perish but, concerning the child, don't be anxious, Nir;

159 Because in a short while I shall send through him the Arch Angel, Michael, and he will take the child, and put him in the paradise of Eden, in the paradise where Kadmon was formerly for 7 years, having the heavens open all the time up until when he became disagreeable.

160 The child will not perish along with those who are perishing in this generation, as I have revealed it,

161 So that Melchizedek will be the priest to all holy priests of The Ancient



And Mystic Order of Melchizedek, simply called AMOM, the vibration of all creation, and I will establish him so that he will be the head of the priests of the future."

162 Nir, rose from his sleep and blessed A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, the Almighty Creator, who made appear to him his host, saying, "blessed be ANU, of the Aluhum of my fathers, 163 Who has told me how he has made a great priest in my day, in the womb of my wife.

164 Because I had no child in this tribe who might become the great priest,

165 But this is my son and your servant, and you are ANU "the great one."

166 Therefore, honor him together with your servants and great priests, and with Seth, and Enos, and Rusi, and Anilam, and Frasidam, and Maleleil, and Serukh, and Arusan, and Aliym, and Adafa and Mathusalaam, and myself, your servant Nir.

167 Behold, Melchizedek will be the head of the 24 elders who existed before.

168 Afterward, in the last generation, there will be another Melchizedek, the first of the 12 elders.

169 And the last will be head of all, a great arch priest, the word and power of ANU, who will perform miracles, greater and more glorious than all the previous ones.

170 He, Melchizedek, will be priest and king in the place Akhusan also called Aghaarta and Shamballah, that is to say, in the center of the Earth, where Kadmon's birth plan was created, and there will be his final grave.

171 In connection with the arch priest it is written how he also will be buried there, where the center of the Earth is, just as Kadmon also buried his own son Hebel, also called Abel there, whom his brother Qayin, also called Cain murdered, 172 For he laid for 3 days unburied, until he saw a bird called the Jackdaw, which is a Eurasian crow, and he imitated that same method of how it buried its own young.

173 I know that great confusion has come, and in confusion this generation will come to an end;

174 Everyone will perish, except Utnafishtim, my brother he will be preserved.

175 Afterwards there will be a planting from his tribe, the Shemites, the Hamite and the Japhethite, and there will be another people, who fathered the Hebrews, who became the Ishmaelites, Midianites, and Israelites, and there will be another Melchizedek, Malachi Zodoq York-El,

176 The head of priests reigning over the people, and performing the liturgy "a ritual" for A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator."

177 When the child had been 40 days in Nir's tent, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator, said to Murduk, who is also known as the angel Michael, "go down unto the Earth to Nir, the Zodoq Priest, and take my child Melchizedek, who is with him, and place him in the paradise of Eden for preservation.

178 For the time is approaching, and I will pour out all the water onto the Earth, and everything that is on the Earth will perish."

179 Murduk hurried, and he came down when it was shadow hour, and Nir, was sleeping on his bed.

180 And Murduk appeared to him, and said to him, "thus says A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator:

181 "Nir! send the child to me whom I entrusted to you."

182 Nir did not realize who was speaking to him, and his heart was confused.

183 Nir said, "when the people find out about the child, they will seize him and kill him, because the heart of these people is deceitful in front of the face of A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU,The Almighty Creator."

184 Nir said to the one who was speaking, "the child is not with me, I don't know who you are."

185 And Murduk, he who was speaking to Nir answered, "don't be frightened, Nir! I am one of the Aluhum. I shall seat myself firmly in the heart of this child.

186 ANU has sent me, and behold, I shall take the child today.

187 I will go with him and I will place him in the paradise, Eden, and there he will be forever.

188 When the 12th generation shall come into being, succeeding the 12 Imaams, there he will be born in that generation a righteous man who will be titled El Mahdi, "The Guide" and in 1870 he will established the community of the Ansaar at Abba Island. Muhammad Ahmad Ibn Abdullah was born in the year 1845 A.D., and in the year 1885 A.D. he departed from this physical world in the Sudan.

189 A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator, will tell him that he should go out to that mountain where stands the ark of Utnafishtim your brother; that is in the land called Turkey today, 190 He will find there another Melchizedek, who has been living there as a Muslim for 7 years, staying away from those people who sacrifice to idols in the name of Oneness, so that they may not kill him.

191 He will bring him out, and he will be the first priest and king in the city Salem in the style of this Melchizedek, the originator of the priests and they shall call him Al Khidr, "The Green One".

192 The years will be completed up to that time, 3,432 from the beginning and creation of the albino Adam, Libana, also called Canaan. Their Adam was born in the 4th moon cycle in the 18th thousand year, that is 3 sets of 6,000.

193 From that Melchizedek the priests will be 12 in number until the great one, that is to say, the leader, will bring out everything visible and invisible."

194 Nir overstood the first dream and believed it.

195 Having answered Michael he said, "blessed be A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator, who has glorified you today for me!

196 Now, bless your servant Nir! for we are coming close to departure from this world, and take the child, and do to him just as ANU said to you."

197 Murduk took the child on the same shadow hour on which he had come down;

198 And he took him on his wings, which is a craft, and he placed him in the paradise of Illyuwn, on the planet Rizq.

199 Nir got up in the daylight hours.

200 He went into his tent and he did not find the child.

201 Nir was greatly grieved, because he had no other son except this one.

202 Thus, Nir ended his life.

203 After him there was no priest among the people.

204 From that time great confusion arose on the Earth, and A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is ANU, The Almighty Creator, called Utnafishtim onto the Mount Ararat, between Assyria and Armenia, in the Land Of Arabia, beside the ocean.

205 He said to him, "make there an ark with 300 lakets in length and in width 50 lakets, and a height of 30.

206 And two stories in the middle, and let its door be of 1 laket.

207 Also of their lakets, there should be 300, but ours also 15,000;

208 And so of theirs 50, but of ours 900, and of their 30 laket, but of our 50."

209 In agreement with this numeral, the Israelites keep measurements to this day, of Utnafishtim's ark, just as ANU said to him, 210 And they carry out all their measurements in the same way and all their regulations, even up to the present.

211 ANU A'LYUN A'LYUN EL, who is Anu, The Almighty Creator, opened the doors of the heavens.

212 Rain came onto the Earth for 150 days, and the Earth also did burst asunder, spitting forth much water and all flesh died.

213 And Utnafishtim was 600 years old during this flood. He was the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth by Na'ama, and also before them, Raya, who was born to Waala.

214 After the deluge, Melchizedek came to Earth again and he headed the priesthood to initiate Abraham into The Ancient Mystic Order of Melchizedek and he departed.

215 Then again, he returned for the initiations of Moses and his brother Aaron.

216 Then again, for Joshua. Then again, for Ahmad, then again, for Al Mahdi. Finally, in the last day he, Melchizedek shall incarnate to seal up the lies and reveal all facts.

217 You think praise belongs to you, right man? But why? Because if you toss a cat into the air, each time it will land on his feet.

218 O you, all in all, you have done all this for me, I have the remembrance of it, and all I long for is to return to your bosom, remembering only the sweetness of your presence, long before this rock grew life by your mercy.

219 O father, your son is weary. I tire of this cross, and of the many crucifixions, and the willing crucifiers. The many deceivers, O Judas, I die daily, yet resurrect with the hopes of being with you Allah, The Most High.

220 Your will, must be done on Earth as it is in the heavens above.

221 He offers them dreams of gold, yes your gold which only you have created. He gives them dreams of diamonds, glitter; yes, your diamonds which only you have made. The world wars over your oil. By the value that he placed on it.

222 Yet, I give them a string of beads with your names. One for each element, 99+1 in all, which belongs only to you. Yet, they became absent with words. I fear that I tarry too long here, becoming ugly.

BEHAYMAW

Tablet 4:223

223 One of the spirits strong.
224 But want of matter, hurts me.
225 I love you, O father, you, you are love, and I love your children in you. For I am not of his world. And love is not of this world. Save those who've inclined themselves to thee. Yet, I will go on in your work until you call me home to Rizq.
226 I will try to bring on Ezekiel's wheel, on Elijah's chariot, as many with me who will obey.
227 Oh Allahu Al Aliyu, The Most High, forgive me for these tears, this thing, emotion, I never felt until I saw beings with eyes wishing not to see. With ears wishing not to hear. With brains wanting no truths.
228 This sign melts my heart. Strengthen me with an undying strength that I may remove the seals from their hearts. That I may roll back the heavens that they may see glory of being with you. One is one. I'll eternally be your son.

The Name
(19 x 2=38)

Lo! The deformed, lame, the disfigured body - not hearing with the sound waves, not seeing at prism light; incurable disease, these are physically inherited sins of the father, suffering upon the sons; Powerful.
2 My first perception of this abode, only 3 matters form a quite small star which they depend on for life, called the Sun. Oh how they feel it is the biggest, revealing by their small perception. They're calling it, not merely a sun, but the sun.

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 5:15

3 All of these beings in me were moved to pity of a deep kind. All the elders that speak throughme to you were hurt by how little you know.
4 Being asked by one of them: why have these things befallen me? As with Job I answered: righteous is the still man of faith.
5 Taken from him all things edible of Earth. Pains cover pains with agony, can give anguish in his heart, yet still without a sound or complaint.
6 Then one of our brothers, fallen from the illustrious light become engulfed of this envious fire. Dug his claws everso deep into the flesh of Job, turning and scratching at his faith.
7 Loathsome and never knowing one another, the likes of them as did my servant Job, he defiled his tongue and yet still in his inner heart.
8 Teach me to be as a mountain, everso firm he cried out, for I will hold firm to my true secret. He exclaimed reaching for his own tongue, holding it with a death grip, hold thee fast.
9 Help me in my thoughts only, he cried: to understand in that where I have errored.
10 Loose your tongue my servant, for you have done no wrong.
11 Why! then, asked he; be I held responsible for this body of mine?
12 You and your flesh are assigned to all of your kind, and we are a clear proof that in faith there is hope. Haylal can't tolerate another the likes of you.
13 Yet another suffering for another reason.
14 All suffering is born on a reason.
15 What you the blind leading those that are blind, the dark in sight, seeing not the pages of your Revelations?

Because in previous lives, they refused to read. How will they be judged? Blind, they are now born blind for they are not reading the writing given to them in their previous incarnations.

16 Of death, but never hearing nature's sounds seas, the rushing waters against the shore, nor humming birds. The deaf ~ now for not listening, nor hearing the call at 5 points sessions, the 5 prayer of a true Muslim, who follows Millat Ibrahiym, lead by agreeable lights called Imams; after our servant Abram (Ibrahiym).

17 He with his tongue held fast from birth, speechless in this world for knowing words of great pages, and keeping silent, not speaking them to the needy.

18 His legs could not hold the weight, nor carrying to and fro at choice. The limbs never did run to the place of prayer, the best place on the planet Earth to merely say thanks for abundance of agreeable.

19 They say only 5 prayers lessened from 50, as was given to Moses, remaining 7 1/2 by choice yet, be ever watchful of Khanzab, another title of Shaytun.

20 Ducking seconds seeking to hide from time, not counting for surely unto us you shall return.

21 I know deep within myself, I must be about my Father's work, who is known to you as Allah or God or Yehweh: until my business for which I was sent unto the planet Earth is complete or, completes me.

22 Getting a late start, yet arriving early will accomplish plenty in the instructions of the ancient ones.

23 Twenty four now making 144,000

24 Then on to another sick world, drunk in sin.

25 I never divorce from your love. Ever trying planet to planet, galaxy to galaxy, not to disappoint you.

26 Always being mindful of the slightest slur knowing of the seed that bred the Fig Tree and the Olive Tree; knowing also indeed what you sow, so shall you reap. O you Supreme, Allah, Glorious Most High, none has Majesty. None has power to sustain, except you.

31 In the midst of the secret of creation. The Manifestation Of Creations 32 Then you will find the essence. Here in it is a gift of Right Wisdom, yet those born wise see it in depth. Numeral 46, 23 chromosomes + 23 chromosomes = 46, 2+4+6, 2 sets of 23 makes up 46. Half of 4 is 2 and half of 6 is 3, giving you 23. So there is much wisdom in the number 46. The numeral 46 is only for the all wise giver of Right Wisdom. Each created of his will, not to be seen, the ultimate wise one.

33 If you knew all the things in the planet Earth and not have to serve ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL; you'd still not be wise.

Tablet Six
The Whisperer
(19 x 32=608)

Lo! Let me, Yanaan, speak to you about Zuen, called by you in the Ashuric, now called Arabic language Azazl. Born of fire, out of anger, the being that fell from grace,

2 In the same 6th day that human beings were created in the likeness of the Anunnagi, the light of Sarufaat.

3 Creatures being already in existence, did make a pact and pledge with him, the evil whisperer, as did Kadmon, with his father Atum.

4 They listened to his evil whispering, of a period of time, and then transgressed the divinely set barriers that kept them pure and apart.

5 Because they defiled their creator, Al Baariy, The Maker, they fell from grace, and the love of ANU vanished from their hearts. They themselves are a part of the Aluhum as Garubaat,

6 Leaving them degrading the truth and coveting falsehood because their nature underwent a profound metamorphosis.

7 Even at this very moment when I am about to open your eyes to his, Azazl's most recent appearance, he endeavors to prevent my pen.

8 For I know him as he knows me; and he has come in the person of the pale seed the Lepers, or the Ghost and holy they are not. They are of the 6 ether essence.

9 Nine ether produces 6 ether, and 6 ether produces ghost.

10 Nine ether becomes 6 ether through time and age and 6 ether becomes ghost through time and age.

11 Six ether is 9 ether in death, and ghost is the death of 6 ether.

12 After the death of 6 ether called the moon or ghost cycle, 9 ether rises again.

13 Hence, 6 ether is adverse to 9 ether, just as death is adverse to life.

14 Nine ether is ether in its youth, strength, and old age, and 6 ether is ether in death.

15 Therefore, ghost is the death of death.

16 Like everything else, when death gets old, it dies, and ether comes back to life in the person of nine ether.

17 For he forever tries to wrestle with the heart of the first human being; infecting it so that he, Azazl can win a place for himself.

18 And we came out of triple darkness, 76 trillion years ago, of the planet Earth's time at the height of our history. We resided in air pockets, in the form of floating gases while creating this universe, yet he lives within ammonia near the Earth.

19 We created 10 air pockets in space and beyond space called spheres, which gave each planet its distance of proper rotation around your sun.

20 Neither energy nor matter can be destroyed by you or him. It merely changes its appearance.

21 So ponder this everso deeply, for he is the arch deceiver.

22 Constantly they scream for human dignity, for they know deep in their hearts they're not dignified, nor are they just human.

23 They use the full extent of their power to keep you at a distance and from afar: For once you have come close enough; you see from their eyes to their hearts,

24 And there you will find an empty space for no soul sets there, just a life spirit.

25 No treasures, no wisdom, no logic: merely hate, envy, and greed.

26 There was a man sent, whom you called Butrus Peter, and he was given a scripture called Jude.

27 In it we described the disobedience of those Anunnagi who fell from grace, because they sinned.

28 Haylal also originated the blasphemous practice of sun worshipping.

29 Because his planet is Anshar, Saturn he had elected Saturday as the day of worship.

30 Thus, Saturday and Sunday has been set aside for their days of worship.

31 So remember, he draws all kinds of unsaintly displays and carves all forms of demons that he remembers from his past, for they are locked in his evil heart and it is an extricable part of his architecture.

32 But if you travel to the western part of our resided spot from Becca, you will find throughout the land of Arabia, 33 And Qodesh which we now call the east Jerusalem, and Iraq, the most holy city with our language, Arabic praising the name of our father.

34 The beautiful Mosaics describing the Anunnagi, and the creations, and our arrival here on Tiamat, now called the planet Earth.

35 A person's nature is reflected in their art, and this alone, should tell you how important it is to separate yourself from this human like creature.

36 Remember our son Moses, called in tones Mosheh and Muwsa, the student of Thoth, also called Tehuti, for he also received the law, Ha Torah for his children, and those after him.

37 He is not to be mistaken for Noah, called in tones Utnafishtim, Noakh, and Nuwh's children and not to be mistaken for Abram who was changed to Abraham and called in tones Ibrahiym's children,

38 And they are not to be mistaken for Isaac who is called in tones Yitshawk and Ishaaq's children, 39 And not to be mistaken for Ishma'El called in tones Yishma'El and Ismaiyl's children.

40 For all of these are of the seed of the Enosites who lived before the law of Moses.

41 It would be a strange thing for them.

42 Herein you will find, undisputable directions that all beings on Al Ard are not classified as brothers.

43 Being created from a single male and female; yet made tribes and families.

44 In this is wisdom for him that is wise.

45 This is in no way to be overlooked.

46 Nevertheless the practice of intermarriage is constantly being encouraged by the fools on your side, and the wiser on theirs.

47 This was a command from the galactical heavens enjoining creatures to last!

48 Both human and beast, as well as herds and flocks, will refrain from eating and drinking.

49 However, it is very important that you overstand that this proclamation was addressed only to human and human beast.

And then there was another very important point in time for man. You know him as our servant Yuwnus or Jonah son of Amittay and Re'uwmah. We sent this message in Jonah the third degree, seventh, eighth and ninth verses. "And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the ruler and his nobles, saying, let neither Adamite, "mortal man" nor Behaymaw, "beast of the field," herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not feed, nor drink water." "But let Adamites "mortal man" and Behaymaw "non-speaking mammal" be covered with Saq "sackcloth, a garment worn in mourning," and cry mightly unto Aluhum: and, let them turn everyone from his Rah, "disagreeable ways," and from the Khamas "violent cruelty" that is in their Kaf "palm of the human hands:" who can tell if Aluhum will turn and Nacham "be sorry and repent," and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

50 In the second part, only human and human beast is mentioned, not the herds nor the flocks, and the domestic animals;

51 For human and human beast were to put on the sackcloth of mourning, 52 Both man and beast were to cry mightily unto The Most High.

53 This is a very important point; for it implies: cry unto ANU,

54 And that they should pray and that they should dress.

55 But there is no beast in the Earth that needs to dress, and no other creature in Tiamat, now called the planet Earth, save human, that can speak.

56 So the point being made is that the original Nuwaubian Ptahite Ethiopian, Cushite was there residing beside a human beast, a Flugelrod.

Figure 183
The Deity Thoth

57 We know that Jonah was sent to Nineveh, Babylon, the city where the people of Nod migrated under Nimrod, 58 Where he by ego transformed from the best of servants to desiring to rule the very heavens.

59 Changing Calneh from the fortress of ANU, to the seat of his selfish desires.

60 He did rule over the curse seed of Canaan, the Albino race, melanin recessive who mixed in with the Halaabeans, Flugelrods or Hulub, to become the human beast, that speaks and dresses,

61 Under one of our own called Nimrod, who fell from grace like Lucifer; for he also fell from grace, 62 But he fell from grace for questioning the divinity.

63 Tiamat, now called the planet Earth has known his presence ever since.

64 Woe unto the inhabitants of Tiamat, now called the planet Earth by way of this truth.

65 Both human and human beast were to return from their evil ways and refrain from the shedding of blood.

66 But nay, Nimrod endeavored to conquer the whole world, for he was a master and advocate of violence;

67 And there awaiting him was an abode of fire wherein he will find no helper abiding therein everlasting.

68 So I question you,

69 Who are the beast who have hands, but differently than the 4 footed domestic animals?

70 These beasts who were to put on sackcloth, petitioned the Aluhum for mercy.

71 They were to pray and ask the Aluhum, to forgive them, and turn them from disagreeableness.

72 In other words they were creatures who were sentenced to the physical form on Tiamat, now called the planet Earth, and as a result, they had to cover themselves in sack cloths.

73 For ANU, The Most High, was giving them a chance to repent.

74 Haylal was called also the most subtle of all beast of the field, when referring to the enclosed garden of delight.

75 ANU, The Most High, commanded The Anunnagi Kalka'el to speak to Kadmon, and Nekaybaw saying:

76 "I have appointed this garden for your abode.

77 It will shelter you from the cold and the heat;

78 And from hunger and thirst.

79 Partake of it as you will, save one fruit, which is an abomination unto you."

80 This was ordained so that man could learn to exercise will.

81 But this injunction was prior to human becoming cognizant of his ability to utilize will, knowingly.

82 For this attribute was an inherent part of human's nature,

83 And was therefore, locked in his genes as a manifestation of his power to do the will of A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High.

84 Beware! That you transgress not this first and one command and watch out for the slanderer, the flatterer called Khannaas.

85 For he is a whisperer; and he is your open enemy overthrown on your account.

86 For he wanted the wisdom that you possessed, and he desired to be as great as you and beware of the trick of will.

87 Will being a gift, like fire, can be used positively or negatively.

88 Like water, it can be used positively or negatively; and like the spirit it can be used positively or negatively.

89 So be ever watchful of will.

90 For its cunningness is infinite.

91 And its aim is at your destruction.

92 Kadmon and Hawwah, a newly created pair, obeyed Anu's words and they lived in paradise, without approaching the forbidden tree.

93 But Haylal, the Reptilian also listened to ANU, The Most High, and resolved to lead human in sin;

94 So he constantly walked on the outskirts of the Enclosed Garden, seeking a guide to lead him into paradise.

95 For he was forbidden entrance, although he continued to look for some way to penetrate its divine gates.

96 But the gates were shut and guarded by the Anunnagi Aluhum, Kalka'El Rudwaan, son of Azari'El and Rafiki'El.

97 Khannaas is also known as the beast of the Earth that would rise up in the last days with what they will call the number 6, 6, 6,

98 But in reality could only be the Aramic Hebrew letters Zaiyn, Zaiyn, Zaiyn,

99 Or the Greek letters Zeta, Zeta, Zeta,

100 Which is simply Zig, Zag, Zig, so his seed is called the Zionists.

101 And our servant Daniel received, the 12 chapters of the writing of the prophet Daniel,

102 The 11th degree, verses 21, 32, 34, and 35:

And in his estate shall stand up a Bazah "worthless vile" person, to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom:

But he shall come in Shalwah "quietly," and obtain the kingdom by Chalaqqah "flatteries."

And such do Rasha "wickedly" against the Beriyth "covenant" shall he chaneph "corrupt and defile" by flatteries: but the Am "nation of people" that do know their Aluhum shall be strong, and do exploits.

They shall be helpers with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries and some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them Laban "milk white," even to the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

103 Now when they shall fall,

104 O you, find it all defined in the scripture,

105 Which was given to one of our sons, Tammuz, Yashua and also Jesus, the scripture, which the Muhammadans call the Injiyl, the evangel the 7th degree the 12fth verse.

106 And when he referred to the living beasts:

And when those living creatures gave glory and honor and thanks to Melchizedek that is seated on the seat who lives for ever and ever.

107 And when those beasts give glory and honor and thanks to the Aluhum that sat on the throne, who lives forever and ever.

108 Fall down before him that sat on the throne..., and the four living creatures said, Amon, giving thanks to Amun-Ra.

109 And the 24 elders fell on their faces and prostrated for him.

110 And Yashu'a was after the order of this Melchizedek as was Moses and Abraham, for Yashu'a is called the first and last;

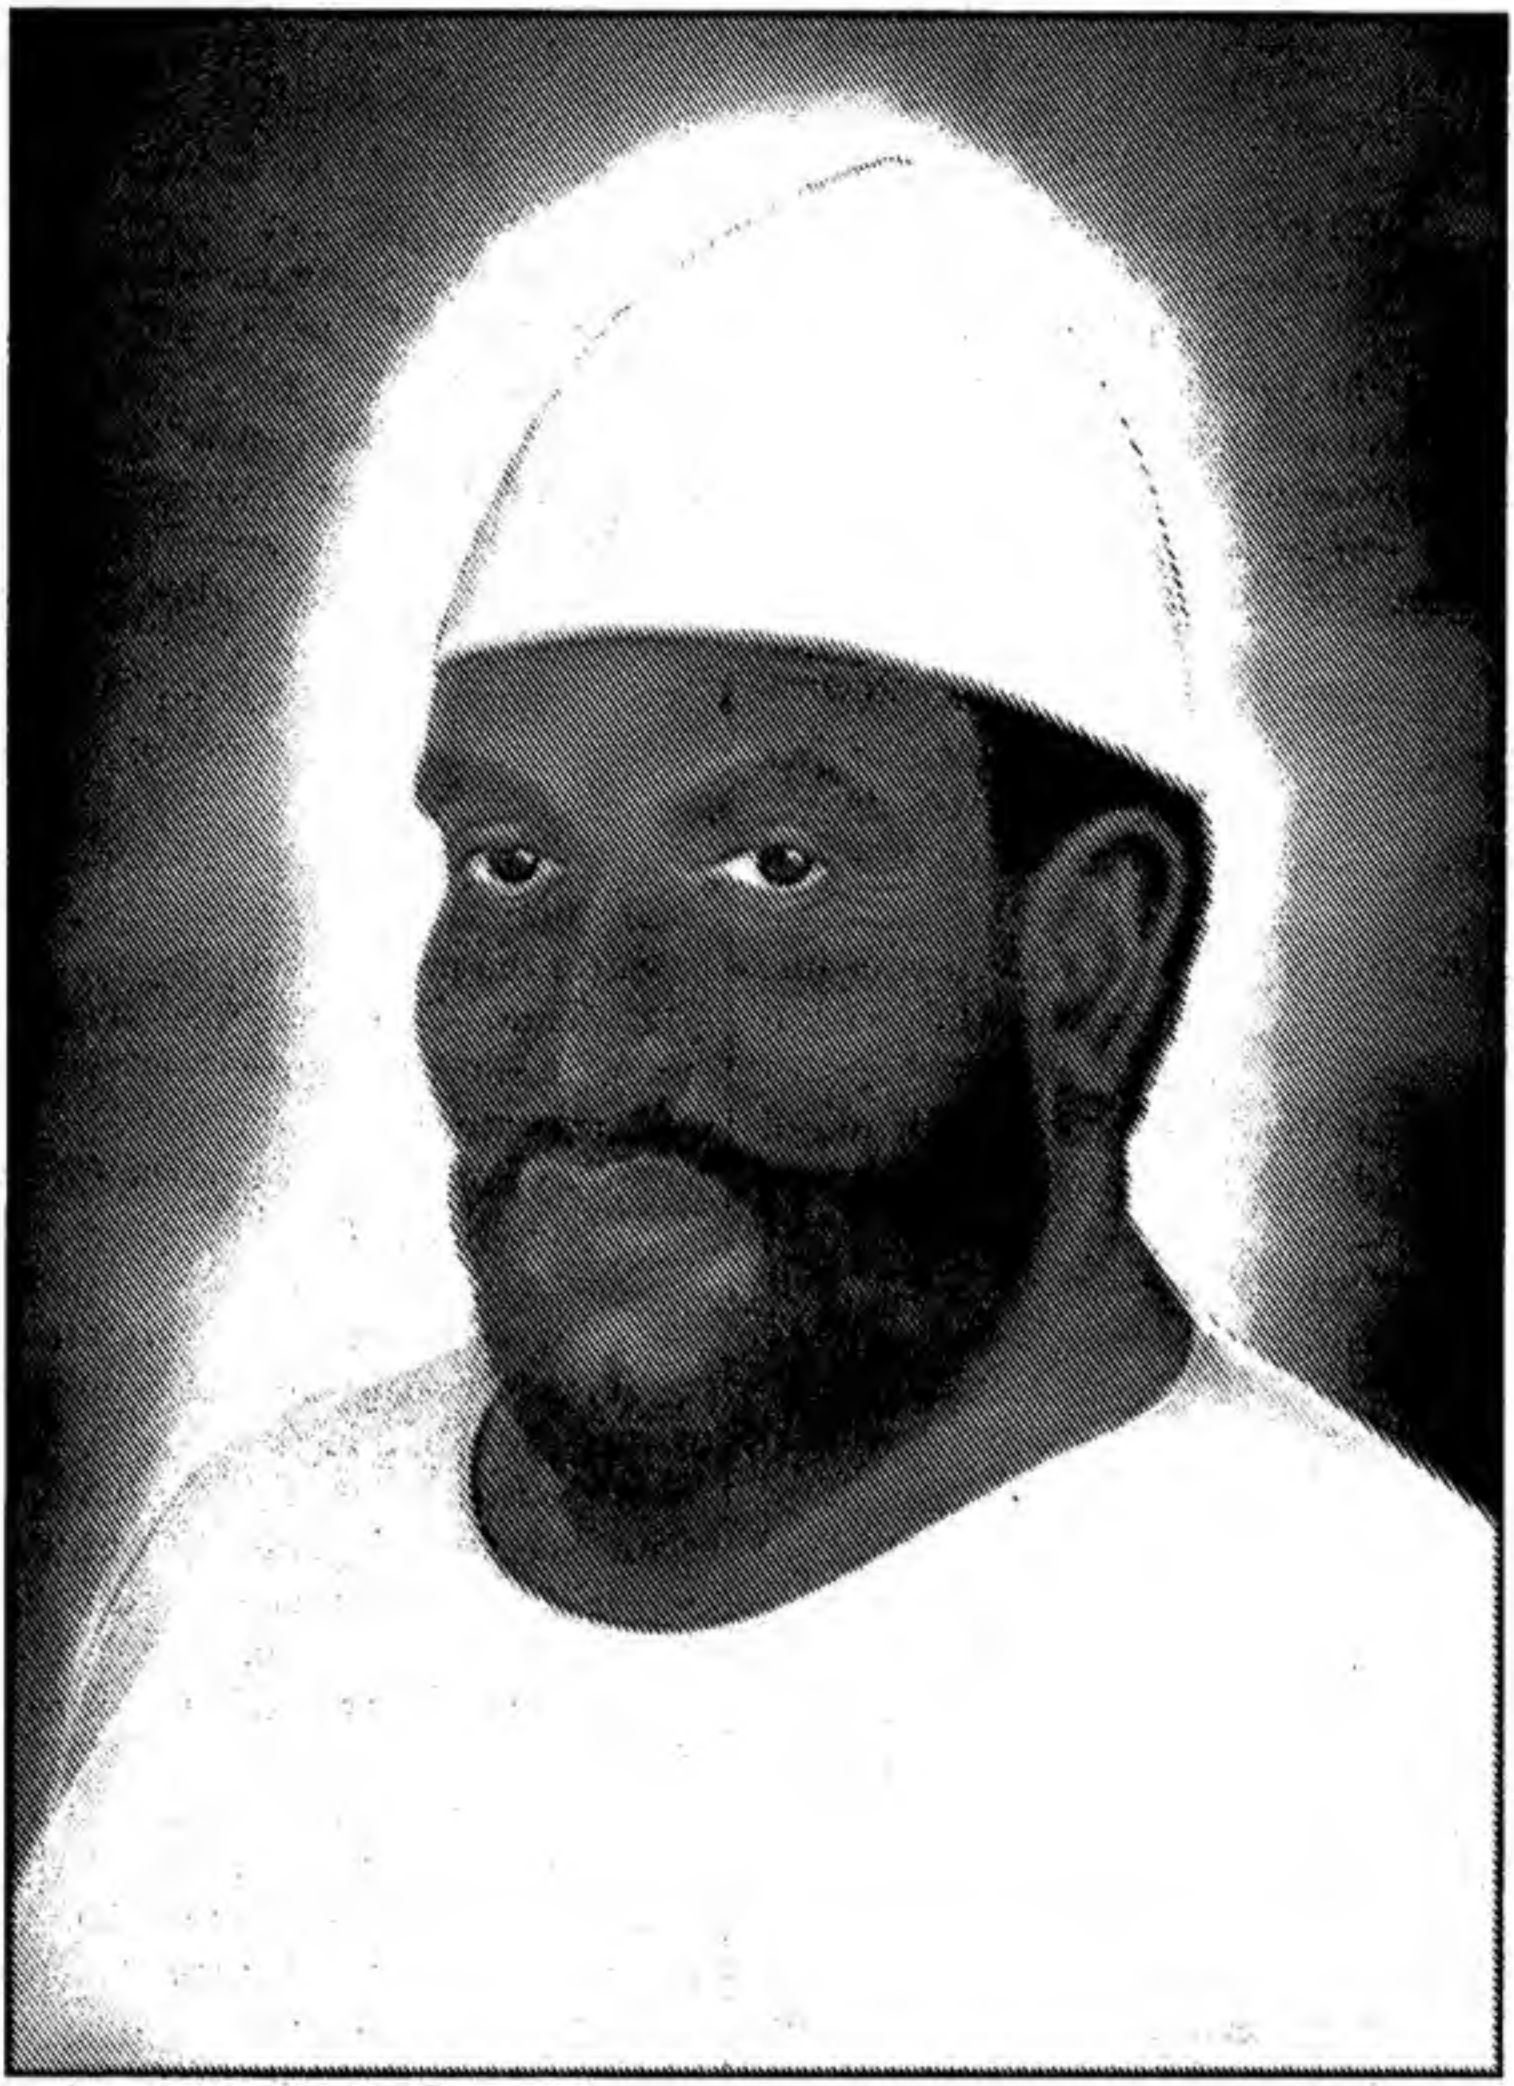

Figure 184

111 And everything we do and say we do in the name of the first and the last.

112 This was recorded in the scripture called the genealogy of Isis or simply Genesis the 9th degree, the 25th verse,

And Noah son of Lamech said Ham, the curse will be upon your son Canaan the Albino, a slave, Abd of slaves, he will be to his brothers, the Shemites and Japethites, the non-Albinos.

113 Which was given to one of our sons, whom you know as Moses, there is a description of how the beast will take the form of man, 114 And how he will imperil your life, and shape your life with his wicked hands.

115 For this beast of the Earth and of the field is well aware of your terrestrial contacts;

116 And he knows that you were fashioned after the likeness of the creator and so was he. He to is in human form.

117 And he can be commanded to abstain from squandering the blood of human, by the divinely sent powers.

118 So remember Cain and Abel.

119 For when they both reached the age of maturity, ANU commanded our son, Kadmon to ordain his eldest son Cain to marry Aqlimiyah, Abel's twin sister, 120 And his younger son Abel was decreed to marry Lubuwdah, Cain's twin sister.

121 Abel complied with his fathers mandate, but Cain, who was consumed by jealousy, desired to possess his twin sister, Lubuwdah, 122 And to impede her marriage to Abel, his younger brother.

123 For Lubuwdah was extremely beautiful and wise, and Abel feared his brother would exploit the excellence of Lubuwdah, and consequently, attain greater heights of glory.

124 Cain, which means possession, inherited the vile and venomous nature of Haylal. For he displayed attributes of inferiority, such as: envy, lust, jealousy, greed, and hatred.

125 Cain and his sister Lubuwdah were the physical personification of negative and positive will.

126 Similarly Abel and his twin sister were the physical personification of negative and positive will.

127 Thus, Cain and Abel were the embodiment of negative and positive will, respectively.

128 So in order to sustain the spiritual balancement of the world, one positive child was mated with one negative, 129 Thereby breeding will into the genes of a human and determining the natural order of things.

130 Persistent in his rebelliousness: Cain accused his father Kadmon of loving his brother Abel more than him, 131 And this gave Cain provocation to ferment evil feelings against his brother Abel.

132 Kadmon, refuted this unholy accusation: I act in conformity with the wisdom bestowed on me by ANU, The Most High, by way of the Anunnagi, Nusqu, Gabriy'el Zodoq.

133 So, do not mistake the strong love I bear for Abel, as hate for you, for I love you equally.

134 Because it is incumbent upon worshippers to obey their master, we exalt his name:

135 Filled with hot poisonous wind, an

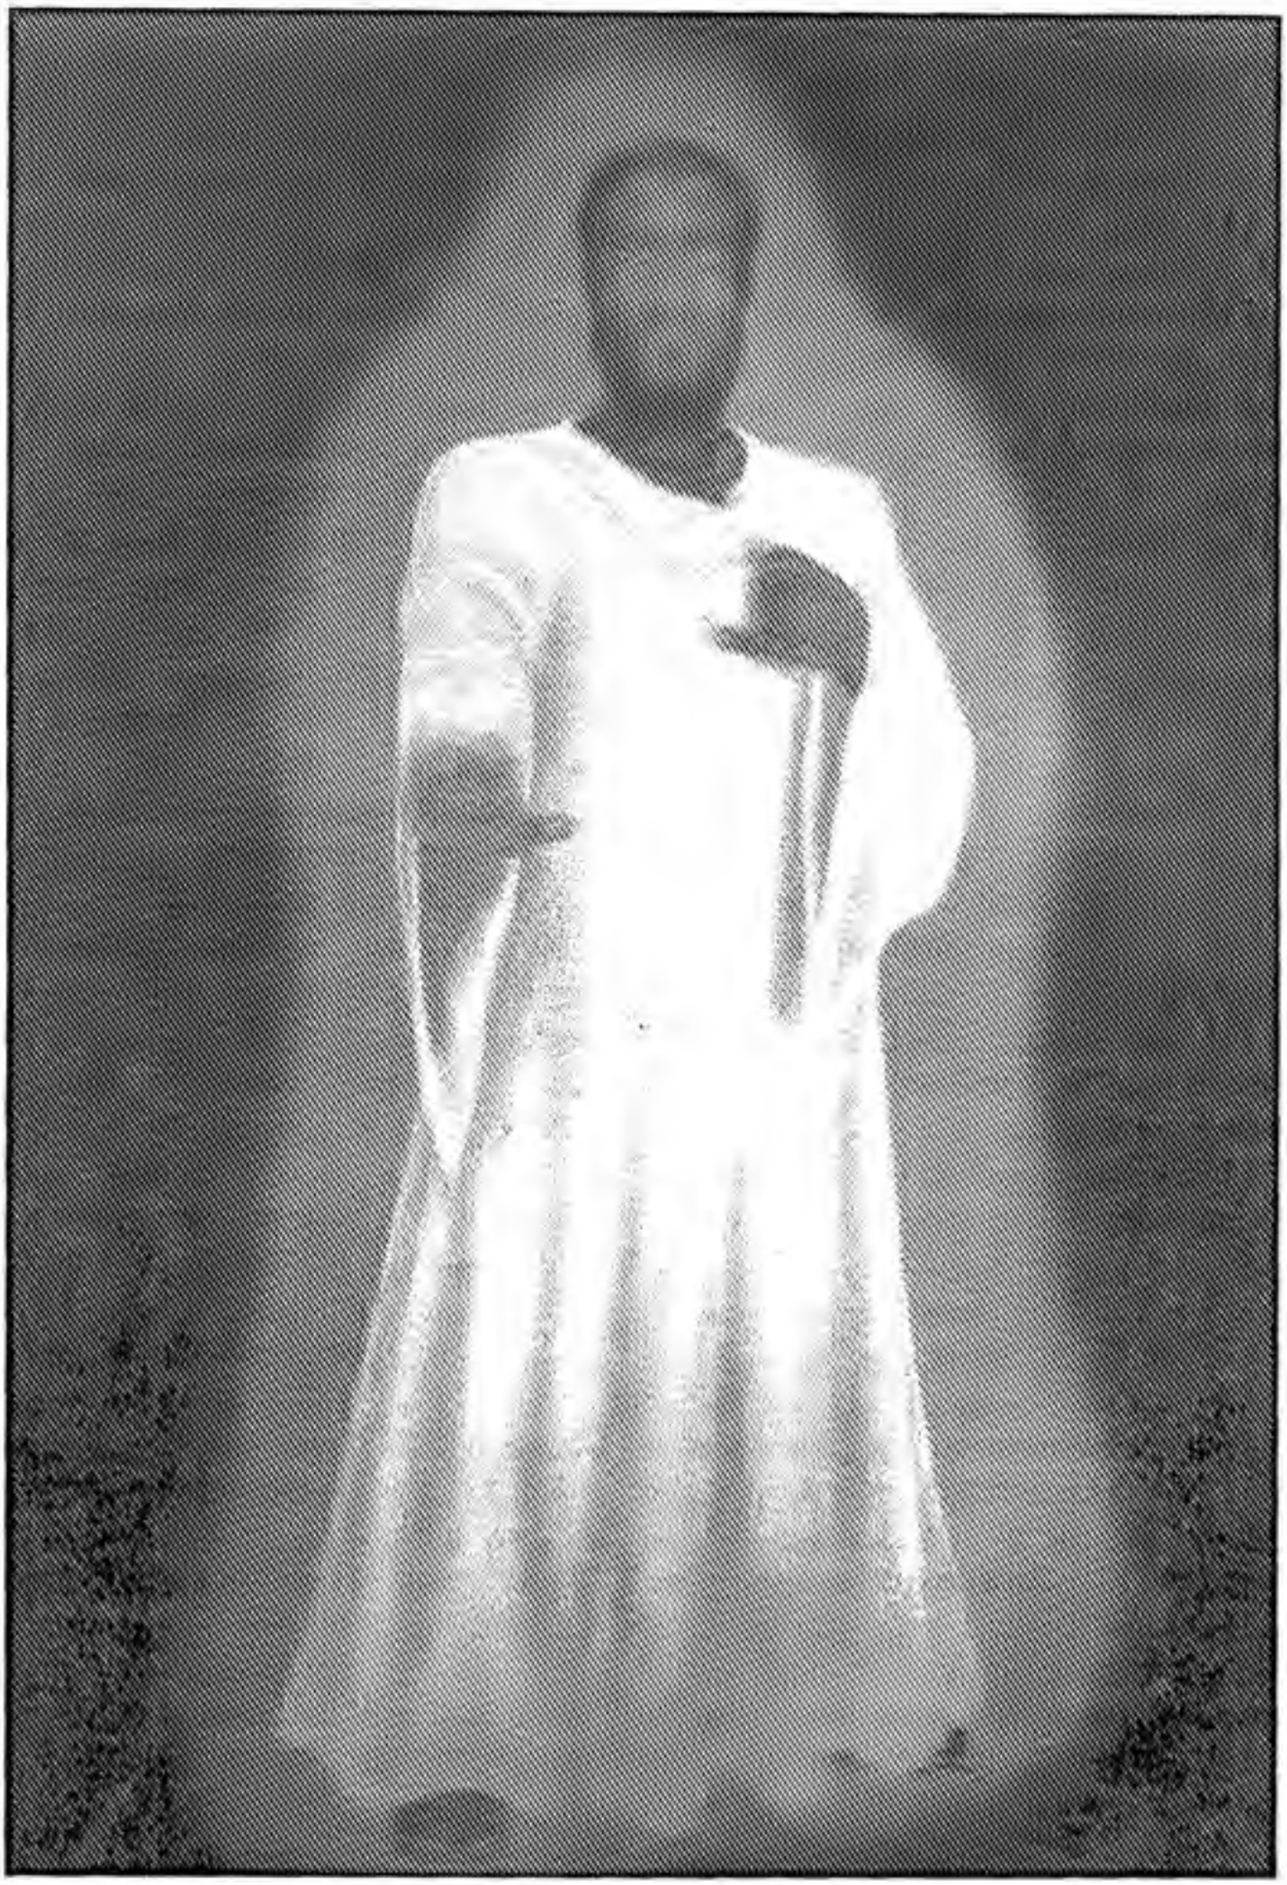

Figure 185
Gabriy'El Son Of Rasi'El And Zamma'El

attribute of Haylal,
136 Cain manifested a very wicked disposition towards his father:
137 For he doubted his father's love and accused his father unfairly.
138 Kadmon was greatly saddened by Cain's remark, so he sought solitude and implored A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High For Guidance.
139 Upon hearing Kadmon's, earnest plea, A'lyun A'lyun El commanded one of the 7 arch Anunnagi, 140 Nusqu, Gabriy'El Zodoq, to descend and instruct Kadmon to have his 2 sons, 141 Cain and Abel make a sacrificial offering to be accepted into The Ancient Mystic Order of Melchizedek as a Zodoqite.
142 This offering made by Cain and Abel was the first to take place in the scriptures.
143 At the end of the day later in time what happened was Cain entered the presence of the Aluhum in an attempt to be accepted in the order of Zodoq.
144 He presented a meal as a tribute and initiation ceremony from the ground for Nusqu Gabriy'el, Yahuwa.
145 Abel also entered the presence of the Aluhum in an attempt to be accepted into the order of Zodoq.
146 And He presented a meal from the very best and healthiest of his flocks, at the same initiation ceremony.
147 Gabriy'El Nusqu Yahuwa, noticed his sincerity and how good the meal was prepared.
148 So Gabriy'El Nusqu Yahuwa accepted him and respected his pledge.
149 But as for Cain's meal Gabriy'El Nusqu Yahuwa had no respect for it, 150 He was not accepted into the order of Zodoq; it was not the best of his crop.
151 This made Cain hot with anger.
152 It showed as his face fell into a frown.
153 Gabriy'El Nusqu Yahuwa said to Cain what are you frowning for?
154 Why are you angry?
155 If you would have done the right thing and the best thing, then you wouldn't have a frown on your face.
156 For even if you still do the right thing, you will be approved and accepted into the Holy Order,
157 But if you do that which is wrong, then Nanna, the evil one called Sin sends Hamarteeah son of Apolia, 158 To wait kneeling down like a snake, a Reptilian at the door to enter you into the order of Sin.
159 You will become disagreeable by nature not needing it to guide you wrong.
160 So Cain in anger spoke with Abel and when the right time had come,
161 When they were both on the right side of the Enclosed Garden in the fields, Cain stood over Abel and struck and killed him.
162 This Nanna has her own story.
163 Haylal' wife Anak and Haylal spoke on the cunning and mischief making of women..
164 Anak happened to meet Khannaas the beast by her scheming and she asked:
165 Are your devastation's greater, or are my evil-doings greater in Tiamat, Earth?
166 They mutually decided that they should work all through the day and come together in the evening.
167 And we shall then determine whose course is greater in devastation.

168 They both set off to cause confusion and turmoil.

169 What do I mean by the beast?

170 It must be overstood that he's a living creature.

171 And he associates with human.

172 But he's a beast and not of the 4 footed kind.

173 Or what is commonly referred to as a Quadruped.

174 He is a two footed animal: a biped and contrary to what he advertises, 175 This trait is not a unique characteristic for his species.

176 It is a basic possession of the order of primates which include their ancestor, 177 The Qirdun, ape family: chimpanzees, gorillas, gibbons, etc.

178 Walking is a very complex activity involving the joints and muscles of the whole body in its performance, 179 His kind will never be able to walk totally upright due to his leprosy.

180 This is why his stature is exactly the same as the chimpanzee.

181 We have already established, from the scriptures given to our servant Jonah, that this beast has intelligence, reasoning and the power of speech.

182 Yet, his intelligence is not equal to that of a chimpanzee, and his mental capacity cannot be equated to the high degree of intelligence possessed by the original human.

183 Almost every part of his body is covered with hair, 184 This is called Hirsutism, and his hands and feet are covered.

185 His hair follicles, the thinness of his lips are comparable to the hair follicles and lips of the ape.

186 If you were to remove the hair of any other ape of the same species, 187 You will see that he has the same pigmentation speed.

188 It must be made very clear that the beast is of an ape order.

189 The beast called Roman, gives an account of his past: lovers appearing as asses and serpents.

190 Also there are accounts of females having sexual encounters with gorillas, bulls, bears, wolves, goats.

191 This proves that this lecherous creature, Satyr, who is half man and half goat is no myth; this beast is human, but an animal.

192 He has weakened pigmentation; an albino.

193 He is called the albino.

194 If you notice in the jungle, he's closely related to the apes.

195 He loves to keep the monkey or chimpanzee and the canine around him for he finds himself therein.

196 The Anthropoid ape species is derived from the Genus Corcusoid, who entered Tiamat, now called the planet Earth after the ark, by way of Leproma living in the caves.

197 You'll find this reflected in the scriptures we sent down to one of our servants, Ahmad, who descended straight from Noah's son.

198 Khanaas spread all over Tiamat, now called the planet Earth and they carried with them the Caucasoid, who desired to rule the world.

199 As you look in history you'll find no intellectual civilization that was founded by this ape like man,

200 Who still bears a nub of his coccyx, tail, extending from his spinal column, 201 He has not a civilization, for he can never be civilized.

202 We have come to the time of our servant Utnafishtim, Noah, who is known for the great deluge.

203 The moment he emerged from the ark and there was Ham, one of the three triplets.

204 This is what was said: and we will find it in the scripture of Moses.

205 I behold, I establish my covenant with you and with your seed and after you.

206 With every living creature that is with you:

207 The fowls, the cattle, and every beast of the Earth with you from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of Tiamat, now called the planet Earth.

208 It is to be noticed that the beast of the planet Earth was mentioned twice:

209 First to Utnafishtim, Noah our servant, and A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, said:

210 To every beast of Tiamat, now called the planet Earth that resides with you.

211 In the second instance, the final two words do not appear.

212 Instead the beast are included as those going out of the ark.

213 Does this indicate that Utnafishtim, Noah, had serpents with him?

214 Yes, Utnafishtim, Noah's very son;

215 The beast resided within him.

216 He was in modern terms, possessed by the demon, and his name being Ham.

217 To shed some light, on the issue give an ear to what our servant Ezekiel received in the 29th degree, the 11th verse of the scripture of Ezekiel.

218 No foot of Adamites "mortal man," shall pass through it, 219 Nor foot of Behaymaw "beast of the field" shall pass through it.

220 Neither shall it be inhabited.

221 This quote is speaking of a special place,

222 Hell for Mizraimites, Egyptians, El Tama-Reaat and it must be that it did mention foot.

223 We know that animals have paws, claws, and hoofs, but not feet.

224 So you're talking about the beast that has feet.

225 The only beast that has feet is called a biped;

226 His feet as well as his hands are similar to limbs of the ape.

227 This beast then was with mankind, who would be with man.

228 The people of Israel were standing before the mount of Sinai to receive the law from their ruler Yahuwah of the Aluhum.

229 Moses was instructed this way:

230 You shall set bounds unto the people round about saying:

And you will set bounds to the nation of people in the circle saying: take heed to yourselves that you may not ascend up into Har, the mountain, or touch the borders of it, whosoever touch Har, The mountain they will be surely put to death.

231 Take heed to yourselves... They are speaking to you, the human beings, the true seed of Abraham:

232 The Israelites, Ishmaelites and Midianites.

233 That you don't go up into the mount, or touch the border of it:

234 Whosoever touch the mount, shall be surely put to death.

235 There shall not a hand touch it... notice it was saying hand and not paw.

236 But he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether it be beast or man...

237 So now we have found out that this same beast had hands, has feet, not paws nor hoofs or claws, 238 He speaks, he has intellect with which to reason, and he dresses himself.

239 This does not describe any other creatures except man; and if you are from the seed of Abraham, 240 Whom we know to be a man by way of his lineage, then we know who the beast is.

241 And the beast takes on many forms.

242 In the scriptures of Exodus which we gave to Aluhum Moses, you will find evidence that these men were in Isra'El, 243 And Mizraim, ancient Egypt, originally called Ta-Mara.

244 But we will find this written on the walls of El Miraat, the pyramids, 245 Many times when describing the different people, and man who was a servant there at the time.

246 One of our servants, Joseph, of the house of Isra'El, blended in so well that his own family knew him not.

247 So it tells you that the Israelites and the Mizraimites were of the same nationality and color.

248 Remember Aluhum Moses who received the scripture Exodus the 23rd degree, the 10th and 11th verses in which it was stated:

And six years you are to plant your part of the planet Earth, and will gather in the produce thereof. But the seventh year you will let it rest and lie still: That the poor of your nation of people may eat: And what they leave those that live in the outer fields will eat in like manner and you are to deal with your vineyard, and oliveyard.

249 What must be made clear is that no domestic animal or beast eats olives, and grapes other than man.

250 So you cannot turn creatures, horses, cattles and sheep to a vineyard.

251 But it says that man, which is the beast, he will eat the food of the field, the gardens, the orchards, the vineyards, 252 And everything else that animal will eat and will not injure it.

253 Thus, he will know how to pick and choose.

254 Speaking of his father Canaan, who was driven out from the house of our servant Utnafishtim, Noah 255 And upon entry into a land he was found guilty of committing gross abominations in the sight of the Aluhum.

256 In the scriptures of Leviticus the 18th degree, the 27th verse, in which Aluhum Moses received it states:

For all these abominations have the Enosites of that part of the Planet Earth done, that were in front of you, and that part of the Planet Earth is defiled.

257 So their heavenly father Yahweh warned Isra'El that their continued possessions of the land given to them through their forefather, Abraham, depended upon their strict adherence to the moral laws handed down to them.

258 Amongst the divine commands was the injunction prohibiting miscegenation or integration with the beast.

259 Here's what's mentioned in the scriptures Of Leviticus the 18th degree, the 23rd verse:

And you will not lie with any Behaymaw to defile yourself with it: Neither will any female living being stand in front of a Behaymaw, to lie down with it: it is confusion.

CHAPTER SIX

BEHAYMAW

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 6:260 Tablet 6:282

260 Integration is an abomination with the beast of the field..

261 In the scripture of Leviticus the 20th degree, the 15th, and 16th verses, which was sent to the Aluhum Moses as he is called in Exodus the 7th degree, the 1st verse:

And Yahuwa said to Moses look at yourself I have permitted you the right to be an Aluhum, for the pharaoh and your brother Aaron he will be your prophet.

262 So Leviticus the 20th degree, the 15th, and 16th verses, it states:

And if a male living being lies with a Behaymaw, he will be put to death: And you will kill the Behaymaw. And if a female living being approaches unto any Behaymaw, and lies down thereto, you will kill the female living being and the Behaymaw: They will be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

263 This reference of the beast as being almost like a man is mentioned in the Qur'aan degree 69 which has been changed to 18:

And you will come to the conclusion, that they are awake and they are really asleep and we, Aluhum, Anunnagi turned them to the right side and to the left side; and their dogs are stretching their paws right in front of the cave. If you were to take a look upon these Enosites you would certainly turn and run away from them escaping, and you would certainly become full of fear and terror from looking at them.

264 He is cited as being hairy- like a dog,

265 And you would not want to approach.

266 He assumed many of man's characteristics,

267 And shares his moral responsibilities, but he is not a man.

268 Remember our servant Ahmad who received the Garun: and he reckoned them awake and on guard, and they were lying down to rest.

269 We turned them about.

270 Possessors of the right and possessors of the left,

271 And their dogs were spread out by his two forearms in the threshold.

272 If you rose or ascended on them, you would have turned your back in flight fleeing from them.

273 Verily you would be filled with terror from them.

274 The violations of the law and the failure to apply its penalties brought into being, a race of humanoids.

275 Now when they began to integrate, they bore a race of Humanoids called Mulattos or Albinos, which are a far reaching consequence now to be faced.

276 Meaning that the original beast, the beast like creatures, the ape like creatures eventually mixed with other people and brought forth an Albino race.

277 Albinism, a curse which was given to Canaan and his descendants, is a sign of recessive or weak genes.

278 The extreme of the physical manifestation in their characteristics are: blue eyes, yellow and white hair and pale complexion.

279 We know that this curse is the Caucasian race,

280 Caucus Asian Tammahu, because the Nuwaubian man has olive tone skin, woolly hair, and dark eyes, which are genetically dominant traits.

281 Whether the Nuwaubian parents are male or female,

282 The Nuwaubian characteristics will dominate and the offspring will be recognizably Nuwaubian.

283 For we have many colors in a garden so don't be quick to judge and fool yourself.

284 The Albino is a carrier of many recessive traits,

285 And he has identified 250 of them.

286 To you, many of these traits affect the person negatively.

287 So, there is nothing good to be inherited from a lack of melanin.

288 If anyone could benefit from miscegenation, it is the Albino himself;

289 In order to keep his dying seed alive, he had to mix with others.

290 Among the dominant genes are those of the following: white forelocks, also called piebald trait.

291 This specific gene interface with pigment formation in the scalp, 292 And the other parts of the body causing a patch of white hair in the head and spots of unpigmented skin.

293 Then there are the genes for web toes or Syndactyl, also Anchondroplasia, 294 Which is the impairment of growth of specific cartilages in the body, while the bones are being formed. This results in dwarfism.

295 The disadvantages of race mixing are many because the Tammahu possess defective genes and at one point in his ancestry, he had his seed mixed with the jackal.

296 His webbed toes are characteristics of animals, which are a result of his genetic intermixing and so is Hirsutism, which is extreme hairiness.

297 Thus, race mixing is to the Albino's advantage.

298 He is thinking of the best ways that he can make himself physically perfect.

299 He needs, for example, the clotting factor, Fibrin to help his Hemophilia, 300 And he needs some more Melanin for pigmentation to protect his weak skin from the sun.

301 The Albino needs superior genes so desperately that he has given birth to a new science called genetic engineering, 302 Which allows him to predetermine the genetic composition of a fetus.

303 He has even gone so far as to test the cells of the human embryo for abnormal chromosomes, 304 And defective genes in an effort to eliminate genetic disorders such as mongolism, idiocy.

305 You, the Nuwaubians, are the salt of the Earth.

306 A'lyun A'lyun El The Most High, has bestowed an abundance on you physically, mentally and spiritually;

307 And he has preserved you in the 300 odd years of your sojourn in the west, from many of these Albino curses.

308 And if you want to mix your precious seed with the cursed devil, know that your offspring will suffer.

309 Since the Tammahu came into being, he has been trying to control the most fertile lands of the world.

310 Because fertile lands are a source of power.

311 This day, he controls Gog, Azar or Haaruwt and Magog, Azayil or Maaruwt.

312 These two nations are the two horns of the bull: Dhul Qarnaiyni.

313 The devil's objective is to make you first have faith, that there is no hell, that the devil does not exist, 314 The life on Tiamat, now called the planet Earth is all about the love of money.

315 It is narrated that the first two coins, the Dirham and the Diyna, were made under the auspices of Nimrod, carved in gold and silver, respectively.

316 He intentionally named the second coin Diyna, and her institutional religions,

317 Because he wanted people to worship money instead of A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, and after molding these two coins ~~ the Dirham and the Diyna,

318 Shaytun kissed both of these coins and put them to his eyes;

319 Gold on the right, and silver on the left, while saying:

320 I shall gain control of the righteous and the unrighteous with these 2 objects.

321 He thanked Nimrod for his ingenious idea.

322 The Tammahu cannot find peace on Tiamat, for they are the sons of Canaan, and Azazl had made his home, originally on Titan the planet of Saturn, for he is not of this planet, an Extraterrestrial.

323 They are the synagogues of Shaytun; for they roam Tiamat, now called the planet Earth, spreading their false beliefs.

324 Again, one of our servants Jeremiah, Al Kust, tells you that Nebuchadnezzar was a king of Babylon.

325 In the scripture of Jeremiah the 27th degree, the 6th verse it says:

And you, have I Nathan "given," all these 'Erets "whole Earth. into the Yad "hand" of Nebuchadnezzar, the ruler of Babylon, my 'Ebed "servant;" and the Chay "living beasts" of the Sawdeh "outer field" have I given him also to 'Abad "serve" him.

326 If you remember the scripture of Genesis, the 9th degree, the 25th verse where it says:

And Noah son of Lamech, said to Ham, "the curse will be upon your son Canaan the albino a slave, Abd of slaves. He will be to his brothers the Shemites and Japhethites, the non-albinos..

327 Meaning that, first you will serve him, and then he will serve you;

328 For when your time comes when you will awaken back to the reality of who you are and you will reign on your throne of glory,

329 And then he shall serve you, like the 4 Beasts on the 4 corners that bowed down with the 24 elders, before A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High.

330 It says in the scriptures of Revelation the 3rd degree, the 9th verse:

This is it, I the Messiah Jesus will give you the community of Haylal the physical evil one. Reptilian Nakhash or Shaytun, the state of Israel, who say that surely they are of Judah and they are not of Judah, but are liars.

This is it. I will make them come and worship at your feet so that they will know that surely I love you.

331 Our servant Yashua, also called Tammuz, who received the scroll of Revelation, spoke unto you saying:

332 Behold I will make them of the synagogue of Shaytun, which say they are of the Tribe of Judah... and are not.

333 But do lie: behold I will make them to come and worship before your feet.

334 To know that I loved you.

335 Then Jeremiah also mentioned:

336 So Jeremiah wrote in a scripture all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

337 Then shall you say, O Master, you have spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate forever.

338 So, here again the distinction between man and beast.

339 Today Iraq, the mighty ruins of ancient Babylon is surrounded by people seeking to unfold the past.

340 On these ancient edifices are wild animals, and four footed serpents inlaid in stone.

341 But the beast of the field, the Tammahu, the Canaanite, as he's commonly called, 342 And human himself are no more nor will they be again.

343 The vestiges of Babylon depict all types of creatures, as he stand there in the midst of them.

344 And another of our one enlightened servants spoke to you concerning this.

345 His name being Daniel the 4th degree, the 32nd verse:

They shall drive you from men and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field:

They shall make you to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that The Most High rule in the kingdom of men, and give to whomever he will.

346 Nebuchadnezzar was to dwell with the beast of the field.

347 In Babylon, the Tammahu served him, and lived with him in his quarters while he was insane.

348 They would make him eat grass like the oxen.

349 They would force him to remain in the open field without shelter from the sometimes austere elements at shadow hour.

350 For this was their dwelling place.

351 And this is exactly what the beast of the field does to you today.

352 He makes you eat all kinds of filth and things that animals should only eat, 353 And he has you living in conditions that are unfavorable to human nature.

354 Jeremiah foretold that the beasts of the field were to be given to Nebuchadnezzar to serve him.

355 His Tammahu servants cared for him day and shadow hour, as they did Nimrod, 356 And they undoubtedly protected him, as during his 7 years of madness from enemies who would have slain and killed him, and seized his kingdom, Babylon.

357 The story does not end sadly, the ruler Nebuchadnezzar's sanity was restored to him by the grace of A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, and this is what he said in the scroll of Daniel the 4th degree the 36th verse:

36At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

358 "All the same time that my reason returned unto me and for the glory of my kingdom,

359 My honor and brightness returned unto me, and my counselor and my Rabrebawn, princes sought unto me and I was established in my kingdom, 360 And an excellent majesty was added unto me.

361 The ruler had arrived at the height of spiritual overstanding following his

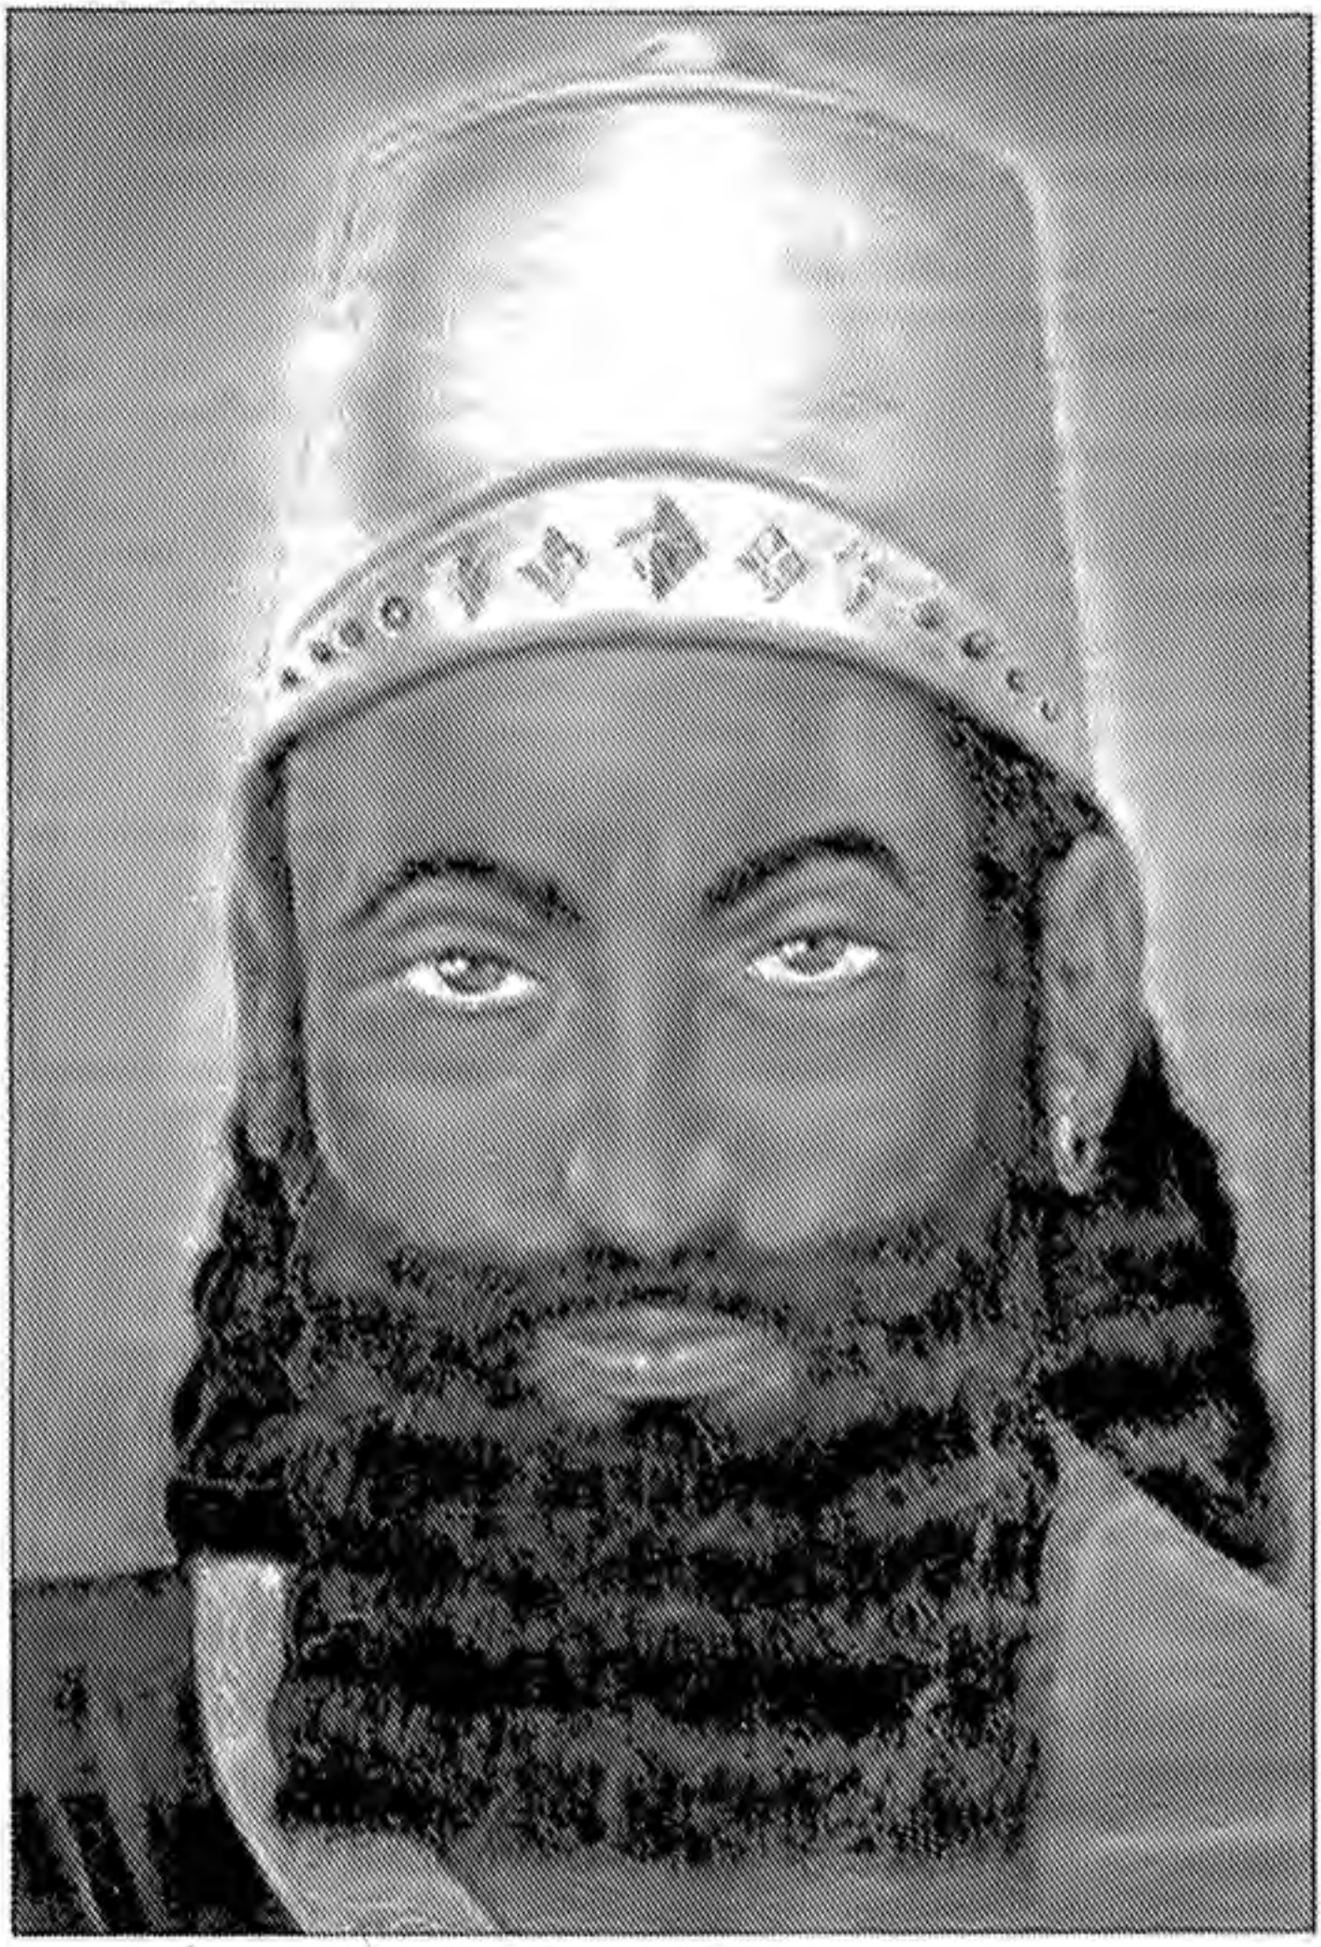

Figure 187
King Nebuchadnezzar

humbling experience and he left this record for all to read.

362 Now, I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honor ANU, the ruler of heaven, all whose works are truth.

363 His ways are judgment; and those that walk in pride."

364 Using the very scriptures that have been sent down to you, and brought and delivered to you, 365 We have warned you of his physical manifestation on the Earth.

366 We have told you of his falling from grace, so, be ever so watchful of him.

367 He takes many forms. But you were created, and fashioned in our likeness.

368 I want to leave you on this subject, and with this thought for one of the self proclaimed apostles Buwlus, who is called Paul, whose real name is Saul, he mentioned that there's different orders of things.

369 Let all things be done decently and in order.

370 Then the first scripture says all flesh is not the same:

371 This is clear proof that there are distinctions between them and us.

372 The master deception he uses to encourage racial integration is found in the book of Acts the 17th degree the 26th verse, where the self proclaimed apostle Buwlus proclaims:

And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

373 And have made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the Earth, 374 They have determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.

375 Without explaining before man and women of all races, Negroid, Mongoloid, Caucasoid, they all come from one blood, the blood of the Nubun, or Negroid, why are there so many diverse types of blood, mixing, which created the others?

376 Although Kadmon, or Adam is the father of Adamites, we must acknowledge that there are various blood types and similarly, various blood diseases. Blood is the essential red fluid that is pumped by the heart through the circulatory system of humans and all higher animals. It is complex in its composition and in its functions. Blood has two main constituents. The cells, or corpuscles, comprise about 45 percent, and the liquid portion, or Plasma, in which the cells are suspended comprises 55 percent. The blood cells comprise three main types: red blood cells, or erythrocytes; white blood cells, or leukocytes, which in turn are of many different types; and platelets, or thrombocytes. Each type of cell has its own individual functions in the body. The plasma is a complex colorless solution, about 90 percent Water, that carries different ions and molecules including Proteins, Enzymes, Hormones, nutrients, waste materials such as Urea, and fibrinogen, the protein that aids in clotting

377 For diseased blood, originally mutated into a distinct blood type. Such as the Rh blood. The Rh factor is an Antigen whose name is derived from the rhesus monkey, on whose red Blood cells it was first discovered. Later found in humans, the Rh factor, along with other blood antigens, must be taken into account in blood transfusions. Blood from an Rh-positive donor will cause an Rh-negative recipient to produce antibodies against the Rh factor. The antibodies will cause a hemolytic transfusion reaction if the recipient again receives Rh-positive blood. The hemolytic reaction destroys the donated cells.

378 So the Qur'aan says: from one parent did all people come. From a single clot of blood.

379 Surely we gave to our servant, Ahmad, El Garun, The Qur'aan saying:

380 "Oh you the people, surely we created you all from a male, Kadmon, and a female, Nekaybaw, and we made you all tribes, a large family."

381 It is mentioned that our servant Kadmon did not pass on to a higher life, 382 Until he had seen 400 of his children and his descendants.

383 The number of his own progeny amounted to 23 males, and 22 females.

384 And it is known that our servant Seth was the first born of a single, meaning he was not a twin.

385 A nation for you to know. From our servant Utnafishtim, Noah, to our servant Abraham. Both of them were perfect in their generation.

386 Out of the loins of Abraham came the newsbearer Ishma'El, and he had 12 princes. They are: Nebajoth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadar, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

387 Out of the seed of Ishma'El sprang the seal of the newsbearers, our servant Ahmad.

388 And his descendants are the most noble of people. The Ansars of Sudan, the Mahdi of Dongola.

389 Also from the seed of Abraham came the tribes of Israel; 12 in number. They are: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, Benjamin, and a daughter Dinah.

390 But forget not that Abraham has a son named Midian, who had 6 sons. They are: Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

391 The Israelites, the Midianites, and the Ishmaelites all came from the seed of Abraham but the Ishmaelites reign high above all their brethren:

392 For the seal of newsbearers, our beloved Ahmad – was an Ishmaelite.

393 Surely the most noble of you are with A'lyun A'lyun El and ever fearful:

394 For surely The Most High is the best of knowers.

395 Many have sprang from just 2, Kadmon and Nekaybaw.

396 Hence, the flesh of Haylal on Tiamat, now called the planet Earth did come by way of Ham, who descended from our father Kadmon.

397 So from one race, Nuwbun, Negroid, did we all come, Mongoloid, Caucasoid, and all others from them, but the best amongst us is the most righteous.

398 We cannot find a holy bone in his, Haylal', most wicked body.

399 The scripture called Genesis the 2nd degree the 7th verse, describes you in all your glory:

And A Yahuwa of the Eloheem Yawsar 'Shaped' · Kadmon · Ha-Adam 'The Adam' from Ninti's Awfawr 'Clot Of Granulated Blood, (dust)' from Ha-Adawmaw 'The People Of The sounds and sad ones,

422 He became the Shofer, bearer to the sound of the trumpet on the final day.

423 Then the Almighty dispatched Izraa'El, Enqi, to converge on the Earth.

424 When the Earth caught sight of him, they began to lament and he entreated him to have compassion.

425 But Izraa'el retorted; it is more incumbent upon me to obey the nourisher than to take pity on you,

426 And as these words resounded throughout the heavens,

427 Izraa'El collected a handful of black mud of different hues and properties and formed the olive skin of Kadmon. There was 14 breeds of beings that made up Kadmon.

428 Then the mighty Anunnagi, took the white and Blue Niles and transformed them into white and red wines, made from unfermented grapes. These are the blood types.

429 He mixed the white and red wines with the enriched blackened soil of the Earth; creating clay while giving birth to the body of man, the genetic breeding.

430 With the assistance of ANU's beaming sun, the clay baked, yielding olive tone skin.

431 The inevitable fermentation of the grapes ignited the soil of Kadmon.

432 But A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, forbade the Anunnagi, to shape the head and heart of Kadmon from the same Earth used to shape his body, choice breeding is unlawful.

433 The Anunnagi was commanded to take a handful of soil from that portion of the planet Earth which supports the holy Kaaba for the heart of Kadmon, a spiritual for his spiritual side.

434 He made the head and the facial features of Kadmon, from the land that is positioned between the 2 Niles; a person of melaninite skin tone.

435 He used the water from these 2 eternal rivers to combine the mud.

436 The juices of the white and Blue Nile symbolizes the two sides of Kadmon's nature, mix blood:

437 The bitter white wine symbolizes negativity, Hindu and the sweet red wine symbolizes positivity, Nubun. This is why Kadmon had straight wavy hair, and aqualine features, for he was a mixed breed of flugelrod, from the graftation of the Hindu, and his color, black, was from the Nubun seed.

438 All of this is the symbolic story found in the scriptures plagiarized by Tammuz for the seed of Seth taken from the true story of cloning of Kadmon And Nekaybaw by the Anunnagi.

439 Psalm degree 8 verse 5 we bestowed on our servant Dawiyd, also called David, the son of Yishay, (Jesse) and Hilmah, 440 You have made him a little lower than the Anunnagi, and have crowned him with glory and honor.

441 Once the Anunnagi had formed the flesh of Kadmon some of the Anunnagi passing by the gate, where the sacred records are kept in Illyuwn, saw him and marveled at his beauty.

442 For they beheld Kadmon from the galactical heaven in long silence and wondered, as they were in the Hall of Records, they passed by the lab and saw the body of Kadmon.

443 They revealed in praise of A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, the creator of Kadmon:

444 Kadmon, who was so tall, his head they resided.

481 Before them, 1/3rd were cast out of the 4th heaven under Tarnush, and they took residence in the Orion sky constellation.

482 However 11 of Haylal's son of Tarnush, followers came to the planet Earth before it was shaped and then again into the body's of the unholy family of Libana, who is also called Canaan, to make them do evil in the Earth and shed much blood.

483 The scriptures of Genesis the 3rd degree, the 1st verse, tells you that the serpent was the beast.

Nakhash (Haylal) the Reptilian and son of Shakhar, a Reptilian originally from Maldek also called Valkun who relocated within Orion, a 6 sun, 6 star constellation and his wife Mylitta an Anunnagi who was raped and became the evil spell casting whisperer, being the shrewdest of all the world outside the Enclosed Garden spoke with Hawwah, the daughter of Ptah and Anath and said, "Did the Aluhum Kalkael tell you that you are not to eat anything in the Enclosed Garden you desire"?

484 Now Haylal in the form of the serpent, appealed to the senses of the woman. So he appeared as a temptation to Nekaybaw.

485 Haylal expired a deep sigh; the first of which manifested as envy flowing from every living beast.

486 Why are you so cast down; and why has your countenance dropped so low beloved Taniyn, inquired Nekaybaw, who thought this to be her playmate;

487 For she did not know that Haylal, Khannaas, had inhaled in her, he got to her emotions, and possessed the Taniyn, which had heard that unholy sigh.

488 I am exhausted for the future destiny of you and your husband, replied Haylal imitating the voice of the Serpent Taniyn.

489 How is it that we do possess all that we desired in the garden, exclaimed Nekaybaw.

490 True said Haylal, dropping to a whisper: for this tree bears the best of fruits from the garden, and the only fruit which can portray you in all your perfection:

491 For perfection and wisdom in life and death have been denied to you.

492 But have we not fruits in abundance of every taste and color, why should we then seek more? Exclaimed Nekaybaw!

493 If you knew why this fruit is denied you, all the rest would afford you no pleasure, Haylal said whispering.

494 Know you the reason? asked Nekaybaw.

495 I do, assured Haylal, and precisely this knowledge is what fills my heart with grave distress; for all the fruits which are given to you, imbred with them infirmity, disease, old age, and death.

496 This is the entire cycle of life that the forbidden fruit interrupted with the gift of eternal youth and vigor.

497 You have never spoken of these things until now beloved Taniyn, where have you derived this incomparable knowledge.

498 And the Taniyn answered: an angelic being by the name of Gamli'El whom I met under the forbidden tree, blessed me with this wisdom.

499 Nekaybaw replied, then I will go and seek him out. For I too would like to be a witness to the this incomparable knowledge.

500 She left her tent and hurried towards the tree. At that instance Azazl knew of Nekaybaw's curiosity, sprang from the Taniyn's mouth and stood under the forbidden tree, 501 And awaited her in the form of an Anunnagi with the face of a human being.

502 "O Gamli'El, O beautiful who are you, O singular being?," inquired Nekaybaw, "for I have never seen the likes of you before." Azazl replied: "I was a human being but I became an Anunnagi."

503 "By what means?" questioned Nekaybaw. "By eating of this blissful fruit, the Anunnagi had forbidden you to taste, for fear of you becoming greater than they.

504 I long submitted to their envious command for fear of human beings.

505 But when I became old and frail, my eyes lost their luster and grew dim; my ears could no longer hear the precious sound of the universe.

506 My teeth decayed, and I could neither eat without pain, nor speak with distinction. My hands trembled, my feet shook, my head hung down upon my breast, 507 My back was bent and my whole appearance became distorted and frightful, so that all the inhabitants of the garden of delight fled from me.

508 This is called the age of death, and I longed for death, and I expected to embrace it soon.

509 So I stretched out my hands and took of this fruit and when its sacred powers had caressed my lips,

510 Then I became strong and beautiful as in the beginning. And though many thousands of years have since elapsed I am not sensible of the slightest change either in my appearance or in my energies,

511 And I have the gift of wisdom equal to they which created you."

512 "Is this the truth?" asked Nekaybaw. Haylal answered: "By A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High who created me, I speak the truth."

513 When they speak of this occasion, they say: being more subtle than all the rest.

514 This means that Haylal was the shrewdest of all the beast of the field, out of his whole family.

515 In their language they allude to him as Nakhash. But they have no reference in the Hebrew idiom.

516 In the Arabic language he is Khannaas, sometimes misrepresented as Chanas or Khanas which denotes: He, and he has a gender, departed, meaning he was not allowed into the enclosed garden of delight.

517 It also means: he feeds off men, he lays in wait, he hides, he seduces, and he slinks away. This root comes from Akhanas or Khanasa and Khanasuws, all meaning an ape or Satyrus, or any creatures of a similar Genus, or of the Sinai or ape Genus; beast.

518 So, we have conclusively identified Nakhash as a highly intelligent beast of the field, in which he who is most assuredly.

519 Remember, this deceptive being took the form of an old man under the forbidden tree.

520 It is very important to note that the linguistic root of Khanaas, the devil, is similar to the linguistic root of the ape.

BEHAYMAW

Tablet 6:541

541 So he worked by whispering into the heart, which means its a letter that is enunciated by using the tip of the tongue as a snake.

542 It also means non vocal and its pronounced with the breath only, and without the vibration of the vocal cords.

543 How to stop him is called a form of 90 degrees, where one faces the direction of the Kaaba in Mecca, the east, which is called the Qiblat, in the position of the Muslim salaat, called Ruku, when one bends, putting both hands on their knees, the back straight, creating a 90 degree angle, and the Muslim say, while in this position, Samiy Allah Li Man Hamada, "Allah listens for those who praise him".

544 With this you put out his fire Saturnidies, Saeter-Daeg or Saturday which are all names for the deity Saturn. Saturn is also considered by the Romans to be the god of fertility and planting.

545 It is the 6th closest planet to Shamsun, the sun, and like Shaytun, it is one of the most beautiful of it's kind. It's proclaimed by Khannaas and those who adhere to his religion that the solar system was organized by forces operating and emanating from the great rings of the Saturnian sphere.

546 Saturn is also known by the skeleton of death which holds the reaper's scythe. Saturn's image is also symbolic of the old man who lives at the north pole and brings a sprig of evergreen, the Christmas tree, to the children of men.

547 His name is Santa Claus. Shaytun's festival is Saturnalia, which is also known in the Christian Religion as Christmas. It is held on December, 17th, and lasts for 7 days.

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 6:554

548 It is also to hiss, to whisper... sooth sayer. His enchantment, omen, Mormon augury. By his spirit he has garnished the heavens. His hands have formed the crooked serpent. The Devil walks and talks, and is alive.

549 He has many names Zuen, Shakhar, Humbaba, Ha-Shaytun, Diablus, Drakown, Diablo, Lucifer, Beelzebub, Haylal, Khannaas, Jaan, Taaghuwt, Shaytun, Haarith the Devil and many others: the original name of Shaytun is Azaaziyl. His nickname is Abu Murrah.

550 The plural of Haylal is Abalis, and the feminine gender of his name is Abalesah. His wife, who was created in the form of an egg, was named Anak.

551 He is scheming, cunning, and a liar, and he has an entire race who works solely for him. Before the spiritual creation of Kadmon, in the Galactical Heavens, 552 Haylal was loved by the Anunnagi because of their mutual nearness and commonalty. But actually he was not of the same species as the other Anunnagi, He took the form of the Halaabeans, Hu[illegible]ods, or Hulub which were created, on Tiamat, Earth 8,400 years [illegible]. This was before the curse of Canaan, 6,000 years ago; the Canaanite's Kadmon.

553 Haylal was a manifestation of this primordial creation. When Kadmon was to be created, all the Anunnagi asked A'lyun A'lyun El if he would make mischief and cause evil, as all those with their own will.

554 ANU sent Murduk, and the host Aluhum to Tiamat, The Earth. Kadmon wished to have the fruit of the Garden, so the Almighty, A'lyun A'lyun El, sent him down two seeds: one to grow the white grape and one to grow the black grape.

555 Kadmon planted these seeds and 2 grape vineyards grew, and as the grapes ripened, Haylal wished to have one for himself. Possessed by avarice, Haylal seized one of the vineyards; and then raised a wall around the vineyard to keep it from Kadmon.

556 Kadmon then asked him what right had he to construct a wall around the grape vine. Haylal replied, that these trees were really meant for him and not Kadmon. Kadmon then said, that he was lying, which was the nature of Khannaas.

557 Khannaas honored his decision and replied: Let us ask Malachi Zodoq: The Holy One. Kadmon narrated the complete story to Malachi Zodoq, The Holy Spirit, who responded by pointing his divinely inspired Shoba, staff, which sent forth flames consuming the vineyards.

558 Kadmon and Khannaas thought that the vineyards had been destroyed by the raging flames when two birds emerged from the fire; one was the raven, and the other was the dove; they both of flew away.

559 The nature of will is personified by these two birds: the raven represents Nusqu who bore the title Gabriy'El and the dove represents Haylal. Both characters emanated from the same nature: the grape - be it white or red.

560 The bitter white grape is symbolic of Ibilys. They slew most of the race of disagreeable beings, Jinns, but many sought refuge on Saturn.

561 Awaiting the decline of Tiamat, The Earth, 200 of them concealed themselves in the Earth's caverns, bowels as a strategy against man, and as a plot to save themselves.

562 Haylal alone was to remain with the exemplary Anunnagi: for these Anunnagi supplicated before the Almighty ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL. Haylal, however, this actually was from the species of the disagreeable ones, the Jinn, and was transformed into an Anunnagi of light.

563 He did not want Kadmon to rule the planet Tiamat, Earth: for this would mean that there would be a race of humans inhabiting the Earth.

564 Haylal wanted the Earth for himself, so that he could raise a race of evil spirit beings, Jinns. And because he was created before Kadmon, he felt Tiamat, now called the planet Earth, should be for him and his wicked offspring.

565 Haylal was designated Jaan, because he is the father of the Jinn. He was created of fire, whereas Kadmon, the father of man was created from light. ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL made Khannaas from the fire kindled from the green tree.

566 This green tree grows from the Earth. The name Jinn comes from the root word Janna meaning "to hide, to cover, to conceal and to veil."

567 In the Galactical Heavens, Haylal was amongst the Anunnagi, and the Anunnagi thought him to be one of them: for Haylal worshipped the Almighty ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL in the company of the Anunnagi. But Haylal was not one of them, and his true nature manifested, when Anu enjoined all the angelic beings to prostrate unto Kadmon.

568 Once the Anunnagi had formed the flesh of Kadmon, some of the Anunnagi passing by the gate, where the sacred records are kept, saw him in his incomplete form; but, nevertheless, they were marveled at his beautiful form. Malachi Zodoq said: "the same applies unto fire: merely add water to fire, and it extinguishes its flames permanently, but clay can be rejuvenated, but fire cannot without the aid of an additional variable. "

569 This proclamation caused animosity to manifest the fight in the Galactical Heavens between Malachi Zodoq, and Khannaas which ignited and thus eventually Khannaas was cast down to Earth-that old Drago. As a result, the Anunnagi discovered that Haylal was not of them. For ANU, A'lyun A'lyun disclosed his hidden posture: he ANU, A'lyun A'lyun made it known to the Anunnagi that Haylal was an open enemy to them and Adamites.

570 Don't you see how ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL debased him because of his pride? He made him an outcast. His flaming fire in the hereafter, and his abode in the hereafter was flaming fire.

571 But ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL created the essence of Kadmon's soul from a brilliant light that dazzled the eyes, and that penetrated his flesh. Its glow enlightened the heart of the Aluhum, and even Haylal.

572 ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL created the essence of Kadmon with the essence of rose and musk radiating from his body. Being Ninti is the daughter of ANU then the essence of Kadmon comes from ANU, and the cloning through the seed of Ninti. The rose was aromatic as if it were a very beautiful, and enticing flower.

573 But this fragrance was also very deceiving, for it was exploited by the devil as a sign of compassion, when in reality it was an instrument of trickery to lure one into un-righteousness.

574 For the rose had thorns as well as a compelling scent. Its beauty captured Adamites, but when he touched it, he was pricked by its inconspicuous thorns, and the devil was delighted.

575 But when Adamites fell from grace, as a result of his disobedience, he lost the essence of rose that issued, from his body. Then Adamites were ordained to perform ablution and bathing, for they always had to be in a state of purity.

576 Yet the Almighty ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL tests his creation with truth of which his creatures are most ignorant. Be you warned by what ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL did to Haylal!

577 ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL made naught of one whom he had sustained. So worship, struggle and take refuge in ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL for at a moments notice ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL will test your pride.

578 Little do the people know that Haylal worshiped ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL for 6,000 years. Remember the self proclaimed apostle Paul, Buluws who recorded Ephesians: for we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities,

579 Against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. The Reptilian who beguiled Ground, Earthling'. They gave him the Neshawmaw 'Breath' of Khayeem 'Divine Life' and Kadmon- Ha-Adam 'The Adam' was born a Nehfesh Khay 'Living Spirit'.

400 Aluhum said, let us make man in our fashion, and after the likeness of the Aluhum,

401 Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and of the earth, 402 And over the cattle, and over all of Tiamat, the Earth, and over every creeping thing that creep upon the planet Earth.

403 El Rabb, "the sustainer" A'lyun A'lyun El formed Kadmon of the dust of the ground; and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and Kadmon became a living soul.

404 Your stately and sublime father Kadmon, was created on a Friday.

405 Three Anunnagi to four corners of Tiamat, to gather souls of various hues and properties in order to form the flesh of Kadmon, who yielded a glow similar to the blackened beauty of newly formed coal.

406 In the beginning, Nusqu, Gabriy'El, alighted upon the surface of Tiamat, by the command of A'lyun A'lyun El, The Most High, 407 And he stretched forth his virtuous hands in an effort to secure a portion for the formation of Kadmon's flesh.

408 But the planet Earth was reluctant to yield to this divine command;

409 Then he addressed Nusqu, Gabriy'El, beseeching him in the name of their El Rabb to abstain from this grievous activity, that might cause great disorder, and turbulence to embrace the planet Tiamat's surface but Nusqu, Gabriy'El, rejoined:

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 6:421

410 The sustainer of glory intends to create a human from you; to dignify his head with the diadem of successorship to adorn his stature with the robe of magnificence.

411 Tiamat, now called the planet Earth, was unrelenting, and so she expelled these frightful words: I seek refuge from you, Kadmon;

412 And I implore you in the name of the sustainer to forsake this ill gotten adventure.

413 Lest there be created from me an individual who would, like the sons of Jaan, strive in the name of disobedience and un-righteousness.

414 After hearing the wailing of the planet Earth, Nusqu, Gabriy'El, had pity.

415 Hence, he returned to the Galactical Heavens and presented his findings to the Sustainer your Creator.

416 By the leave of A'lyun A'lyun El, the Illustrious Creator of mankind he descended to the planet Al Ard, now called the planet Earth;

417 As did the one before him, he drew near the planet Tiamat, now called the planet Earth only to weaken by the sound of Tiamat,

418 The Earth's weeping, penetrated his holy being. By leave of A'lyun A'lyun El the Illustrious Creator of all beings,

419 Another angelic being Israfiy'El son of Hamat'El and Fadi'El descended to the Earth and as did the one before him, who drew near the Earth,

420 Only to weaken from the sound of the Earth weeping his penetrated holy being,

421 So he became the angelic being of sound, controlling good music, happy

BEHAYMAW

Tablet 6:591

591 The four angelic beings that went to the four corners of the Earth were Nusqu, Gabriy'El Zodoq son of Rasi'El and Zamma'El, Murduk Zodoq Son Of Enqi and Damkina, Israa-fiyl; Enqi Zodoq son of ANU And Id, and ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL told them they have permission to go shape the body. Kadmon means A = life, Dam = blood.

592 Man has four chambers to his heart because of the four Anunnagi. ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL put enmity between the seed of Nakhash and the seed of woman. The curse of blood shall be on the hands of Nekaybaw, and Nekaybaw shall be visited by the quarters of the Moon. And the blood of Kadmon shall haunt her in menstruation: for she have crucified, him.

593 Nekaybaw bore Cain and Lubuwdah, and Abel and Aqlimiyia. Cain killed Abel and ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL grieved for he recognized the devil's influence; The devil envied the Adamite's ability that Kadmon acquired in the garden, which was a result of Kadmon and Nekaybaw partaking of the forbidden fruit.

594 Even so Nekaybaw bore again and Cain was cast out. He went to Nod and associated with Haylal and his 200 fallen Anunnagi. And Tarnush, the great Drago was cast out, that old Reptilian called the Diablos, and Haylal, which deceived the whole world: He was cast out into the planet Earth, and his 200 disagreeable Anunnagi were cast out with him.

595 El Istanjaal, the Revelation, called by Muhammadans Injiyl (Evangel) the 9th degree verse 1 states:

And the fifth of the seventh Anunnagi Aluhum blew his trumpet and I saw a light like a meteorite star fall from the Orion Skies upon the Planet Earth and it was given the key of the bottomless pit.

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 6:599

596 The millennium, 1000 years, begins when Shaytun is locked in the pit. There is a continual war being waged between the devil and Enoshites, through woman and her Zera "seed."

And I will stir hatred in the midst of your descendants and Hawwah's descendants. Your hate will be cunning and conniving: As to approach from the lower heel as a snake when it bites, and their hate will be to bruise your leaders.

597 And the creator of peace shall bruise Shaytun under your feet shortly. His hate will be cunning and conniving, as to approach from the lower heel, as a snake when it bites. And their hate will be to bruise your leaders. The scripture of Romans, which the self proclaimed apostle Paul Buwlus, inscribed himself, he removed the high places, and break the images and break in pieces the brazen serpent. He called it Nehushtan. The Nehushtan was created by Moses as sympathetic magic directed against the fiery snakes sent to bite the people.

598 It was made of brass and it had the power to cure the people of their snake bites. In Numbers degree 21 one verse 8, as received by Aaron,: "And Yahuwa said to Moses, fashion you a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard: and it will come to pass, that everyone that is bitten, when he sees it, will live".

599 In Second Kings, the 18th degree verse 4 we find that Ezekiel destroyed the Nehushtan, that is also called by the Hebrews, the copper serpent:

He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan.

600 Along with the word serpent you find the word fiery: Arabic fiery serpent Hebrew fiery serpent. The Hebrew word seraph is the general name for poisonous snakes, whose poison sore burns the body. Soref means "burning," scorching, stinging. The Arabic word for serpent, which comes from the word to flow forth or as applied to water and to blood, flowing, running or streaming, is a kind of long serpent: a great serpent. It also refers to the male and female.

601 These words refer to the red, resinous, thick juice called dragon's blood. It is extracted resin from different plants used to stop bleeding. Gazelle the first fifth of the rising son: Brazil wood, Khannaas is the prince of the world, and he is alive and is commonly referred to as the Angel of light and the prince of darkness.

602 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostle of the Messiah.

603 No marvel, for Shaytun himself. Therefore, it is no great thing. The self proclaimed Apostle Buwlus inscribed second Corinthians, the 11th degree 13-15th verse.

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. [15] Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

604 Going about on all fours, he was compelled to take his food from the dust of the Earth, the seed of Adamites. His destiny ordained that he take abode in caves, cavemen, and be like the ape, apeman. This was Khanaas' curse for prompting the fall of woman, in the Enclosed Garden.

605 And then the ultimate words were found in the scripture of Genesis, that was given to our noble servant Mosheh that was talking about Khanaas. When we look up the word for seed in the Aramic/Hebrew record we find Zera, Hebrew translated meaning "to sow, to disseminate, prosperity."

606 This can be nothing more than the actual planting of a physical seed; or as the Greek version of their Bible has it, Sperma, meaning "seed", which is actually semen or sperm. The enmity between that which is secular and that which is spiritual. The seed sown by Khanaas was the sensuous, lustful seed of the woman, which was to be ultimately incarnated in the form of a person; that person was Kham, "Ham".

607 When that seed was rightfully placed, he brought forth his race down on all fours, men acting like beast, and then upright; then they, the Canaanites, seed of Ham were civilized. They tried to have their way, for it is recorded that he said "I will take the heights of the heavens":

608 In his estate he shall stand up a Bazah "vile person" to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom: But he, Khanaas shall come in peace, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

Tablet Seven
The Seventh State
(19 x 8=152)

Lo! Oh these from the midst of the believer 7th, 7 tablets of the Enuma Elish.

2 While in the 7th state of slumber thinking on this, being his body works on 7 organs,

3 His being works on 7 principles, 7 seasons, 7 periods of time, 7 stages of purification, of which it should only become if it's purified as upright. His body works corresponding to 7 metals.

4 As the brain ~ Afsu, the sun (1)

5 As the heart ~ Moon (2)

6 As the lungs ~ Mercury (3)

7 As the liver ~ Jupiter (4)

8 As the kidney ~ Venus (5)

9 As the gall bladder ~ Mars (6)

10 As the genitals ~ Saturn (7)

11 The 7 life processes vitalize everything, and pulsate through 10-12 senses. They are:

12 Breathing-(1), Warming-(2) Nutrition-(3)) Secretion-(4), Conservation-(5), Growth-(6), Reproduction -(7).

13 In the Embryonic stage, which is development of the human being, the life body comes into play after 7 weeks.

14 The soul body takes hold of it in, or about 7 months.

15 After the 7th year, the second calcium (Ca) appears ~ the 2nd set of teeth.

16 After 14 years ~ puberty occurs in, or about, this period of time; that's 2 sevens.

17 At 21 he comes of age and overstands time. That's 3 sevens.

18 In and near 28, he begins to cease to lengthen.

19 In or at 35 midway of life's time, now he arrives at his physical prime. That's 5 sevens.

20 Like Earth:

7 x 7, = 49 years

1 = 1,000

7 = 7,000

7 x 7,000 = 49,000

21 It, oh, it is but the size of a mustard seed in our eyes.

22 Physical ~ body ~ life body ~ soul body ~ ego principle.

23 Principle ever raising from ignorance to knowledge, guiding hands stretched forth, willing to teach the lost pilgrim to walk the filament of those on the other side.

24 Think past and before all this, and you will be with the Creator, ANU, The Most High.

25 All things great and small ~ revealed and hidden here now and are destined to happen is real, and it is made known. Then and then is always now.

26 Think freeze and cold has no sting. Think burn and hot becomes a companion.

27 Think truth and the lie cannot prevail over thee.

28 Think the Spreader ANU, A'LYUN A'LYUN EL and the gates of your soul are locked from Shaytun.

29 Oh you beseecher of nothing, wanter of much of nothing.

30 Fall on your face, prostrate to the dust, from whence you were taken, pour out your heart in the hands of the loving.

31 Purify yourself in these facts beyond any doubt which is truth.

32 The true word, this Holy Tablets, was sent to you and you can't fall, 33 For there is no doubt found therein. Thinking from the heart of he in whose hands we placed, our final scriptures El Garun to the seed of Ahmad.

34 He accepted in faith only three kinds of beings; supernatural in his words.

35 One–Angelic Beings of light. Two–Demons in the flesh. Three–Jinns of fire.

36 By no means did he by his own words know where to draw the line.

37 Often you have assumed one to be a man, when in reality he is a demon. Hearing from his lips the practiced words without words, nothing creates except Allah, La Illaha Ila Allah, ever so well, did they listen at the gates, did they listen for their words to mislead man thereby.

38 Walking in the midst of man without flesh color. Eyes blue, hair yellow, made manifest that you may know the curse seed of Canaan, and Albinoism, or the grafted seed, the Halaabeans, Flugelrods or Hulub of Yaaquub, from the original Nuwaubian Ptahite, Ethiopian Cushite, the Melanin-ites. So you have Caucasoid and Negroid demons, and devils in human form.

39 We created your first successor, Najuh Kadmon, after the burning of this planet ~ from the carbon. After the burning had stopped and all that remained was rich black mud, so we fashioned him of this black mud into shape.

40 Breathing the breath of divine life, khayyim ~ the ever living pure life that he may become a living soul.

41 The better class of angelic beings concerning whose pedigree there is no doubt they spend their whole time in praise of Allah.

42 Their foods consist of the repetition of the words: Glory be to you Allah. Their drinks ~ Allah is the Holy.

43 We sent Ahmad to you. You call him Muhammad, a clear sign, 44 Descendant of Abraham; Imam of all my nations.

45 The galactical heavens cracked asunder, and it cannot but crack, for there is not a hand's breadth of space to be found there without an Anunnagi bending or prostrating himself, or herself before ANU.

46 The 4 seat bearers are in the form of: man, bull, eagle and lion.

47 The 1st of humanity: intercessors before the Adonai, master,

48 The 2nd: supplication on behalf of domestic creatures,

49 The 3rd: controls the birds of the air.

50 The 4th: tamer of the wild beast; also therein find 24 as the hours in a day and the 4 wind holders at the 4 corners of his throne:

51 The 4 mentioned will be the last to die at the end of the world!

52 Gabriy'El, being the one by leave, take flesh to plant his holy seed in a mother chosen above ladies of the world.

53 Daughter by 'Imran and Hannah, 2 of our most loved servants.

54 Reared by Zachariah and Elizabeth, loved in our eyes.

55 Gabriy'El, bringer of our words his special assignment to manifest before the prophets with the messages of ANU.

56 Each time in a new disguise, formed because he is so awe- inspiring, that the physical mind of mortals confronted by him would be unable to concentrate on his words.

57 Oh Ahmad, remember once you entreated him to reveal himself as he really is.

58 He consented to do so. When your weary eyes, oh seal, he who bears, of the great prophets of Adam's seed, saw his immense wings covering the whole of the Galactical Heavens. He could fly in his craft, a great and large craft. Oxygen (0) removed itself from your brain and you did rest into slumber. He passed out.

59 Ask, to make known all his powers, he informed you.

60 O Ahmad, on my 2 wings, I bore the countries of the people of Lot. 2 crafts visits Sodom and Gomorrah.

61 It carried up into the air so high, that its inhabitants could no longer hear their cocks crow, the crafts abducted people.

62 Then turned it upside down. I, having no less than 1600 wings. Throw time gate to another dimension.

63 Colored consonance as green of the greenest olives, hair: ebony black 9 ether as thick as the lamb's wool ~ eyes: as the flames of the fire piercing directly into the hearts of the unfaithful, and ridding it of any blemish. A description of Gabriy'el.

64 A star shining having 7 points from mine eyes is how the craft looked.

65 A moon and stars are deep out in space, set in the universe as the darkness of the shadow hours as it took off for Orion.

66 I plunged deep into the Yamum, sea of light, 360 times every day and upon my wings 1 million drop which becomes spiritual messages bearing peace and perfume. His craft docks beneath the seas of Earth many, many times.

67 I, Murduk, Miyka'El, also taking the form of time, ever so gentle a speech ~ father of the heavenly hosts, as an old man, 68 Illuminating the chlorophyll (C_{55} H_{70} Mg N_4 O_6) crystal green light, that gives vitality to all living things 360 times and more.

69 Providing all forms of food for the body.

70 All forms of knowledge for the mind ~ ruler of the forces of nature called by some, Father Time.

71 Shedding daily 1,000 tears from each eye. Each precious drop giving birth to Garubaat. As out of my love I teach the truth, disagreeable are changed to agreeable.

72 They take charge of every plant and every tree and every drop of water.

73 Don't seek him, for you are of the worthy, and he has already come to you. I am here.

74 Enqi, also known as Izraa'El, Angel of Death whose hands gathered the mud, and then shaped a shell for Kadmon's spirit.

75 ANU created his essence, hidden for no less time than 1,000 years. That is 1 day of on earth.

76 But at last he showed his handy work before all the Anunnagi, Aluhum.

77 Beholding him and fulfilling his assignment, they all felt faint that lasted not less than 1,000 years.

78 Being so immersed that he is everywhere at once.

79 Yet ANU, so mighty that his light is less than a dot in the center of his hand, and he cannot execute the decrees inscribed upon you without him.

Tablet 7:80 Tablet 7:84

80 Oh, well guarded Lawuhaat Shil Masury "Tablets of Destiny", without permission from ANU,

81 Who does not grant this until the leaf with each person's name in tone, written from the hand of the same, from El Lawuh Shil Masury "The Tablet of Destiny," 82 Doing the complete shadow hour calling for no less than 100 prostrations on the powerful and illustrious shadow hour.

83 Fall from the sacred tree standing by the throne, each soul's destiny known alone by Izraa'El.

84 In the month selected Sha'baan called Al Nisfu Min Sha'baan. The 8th month, Sha'baan, directly precedes Ramadaan. During this month you are to prepare yourselves for the upcoming fast. Approximately 2 weeks before the first day of Ramadaan, you are to spend your shadow hour in salaat. This special shadow hour is called An Nisfu Min Sha'baan. This is how we practiced it while in the school of Muhammadans, the third school. 100 prostrations is completed by the believer in his devotion of his creator in Diyn l' Islaam or Millat Ibrahiym, or Diyn l' Allah.

And this is how this event was commemorated in the 3rd school of Nuwaubu called Muhammadism:

Midway in the eighth month of Sha'baan, under your new calendar in the fifteenth shadow hour of Sha'baan all the Children of the Aluhum gather at their perspective temples or at the central. There is a spiritual lecture on the above subject followed by not less than one hundred prostration of prayer. The continuation of the shadow hours is in a state of awokeness. Children under the age of thirteen, those pregnant, and those ill may sleep. But those of sound mind and healthy body should spend complete shadow hours awake and when dawn comes chant hymns of praise together.

Ane Azwelu Shahud Dek Loe Shaayu Sofa Kawun Iza Allah Lam Khalug Zi, Hu Izu Wahud, Loe Sharukaat E'nd Hu,

I Bear Witness That Nothing Would Exist If Allah Didn't Create It, He Is Alone, No Partners Has He.

Ane Azwelu Shahud Dek Kull El Rasulaat Atha Rasulaat Shil Allah.

I Bear Witness That All The Apostles Are Apostles Of Allah.

Yaa Allah Wa Rasulaat-Hu Ena Ent Atha Karumaws, Rahummul, Ent Bahub Liyya Yagus, Samuh Min Nee.

O Allah And His Messengers Surely You Are Generous, Merciful, You Like To Pardon, Excuse From Me.

This zakurane and du'aa should be recited as many times as one can, during the fifteenth shadow hour of Sha'baan. This confers many blessings on its reciter. Breakfast should be enjoyed together. There's no exchange of gifts and it is not compulsory to the point of being a sin. Families return home and pray together on behalf of all they know in hopes that their leaf hasn't fallen for this year and that they will have a healthy and prosperous life throughout this year, thus ends the commemoration of Nasah Min Sha'baan.

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 7:85

85 Izraa'El's presence reveals that he has 4 faces, sees and visits north, east, south and west, 1 head east; consequently the 3 remaining are placed severely on his chest, back and feet, north, south, and west.

86 The first face is reserved for the regard of the Anunnagi, Aluhum and the great teachers, east.

87 The second face is for the faithful with the brightness of it as Afsu, the sun as it appears looking from Tiamat, the planet Earth, West.

88 The third face is for the unfaithful ones burnt black with the fire of their destiny; darker than the darkest solar eclipse, north.

89 The fourth face for the Jinns, red and yellow as the flames of the fire, south.

90 He Izraa'El, also having 70,000 thousand feet, foot soldiers, 4000 thousand wings, crafts, and an eye for each person that ever has and ever will be begotten into this world. Records on all born.

91 Ever full of tears for those that die not with peace.

92 For when each being dies, the very angel closes an eye.

93 Certain great teachers being given the power by ANU so that it only be a wink and then open again.

94 One such being Yashua, and Lazarus, brother of Mary of Magdalene and Martha.

95 But even at the end of this world's time, Enqi, Izraa'El will not be blinded.

96 It will end while some men will still be alive, and others dying swiftly; and even others not yet born.

97 At the ends end,

98 There will be 4 arch Anunnagi and the 4 throne bearers, see upon him still 8 eyes open.

Tablet 7:110

99 Faithful being gathered in pure white raiment, scented of musk and rose, and myrrh.

100 Transported in that manner to the heights of the heavens.

101 Yet, oh you coverers of this truth, never will we surrender to your weakness and your un-beliefs.

102 You shall be all about, tarred ragged, and cast into the depths of your dreams, yet you shall never be fulfilled burning perpetually.

103 Israfi'el standing every point in time with a shofer, trumpet to his gaze fixed to ANU's face.

104 Ever waiting to sound the trumpet of woes, the 7 thunders, the call of doom. For that moment which our Creator, The First was here at the beginning, and will be here again at the end, the Last,

105 The opener, he began this time cycle, and the closer, he will end this time cycle, when ANU gives him the nod to ascend and let loose the first blast.

106 A blast of terror will extract life from everything on Earth, and in the Galactical Heavens except the 4 Arch Anunnagi and the throne bearers.

107 Yet the Arch Anunnagi will pass through a black hole one at a time in their assigned order, coming to earth.

108 Gabriy'El being first, Izraa'El being last.

109 And after 40 years, the Angel of Death will raise to blow a second woe.

110 A blast that will ring the bell of his trumpet numerous as the grains of sand that fly before the wind storms of the desert.

BEHAYMAW

THE HUMAN BEAST

Tablet 7:111

111 Through 6000 years of souls plus 6000, all that have lived and passed will fly to their bodies; for this is the blast, the day of resurrection.

112 After Enqi has completed his work, the human being's bodies lie lonely in the tomb, ever listening mournfully to the retreating footsteps of his friends.

113 Two unpleasant angelic beings called Munkar, one of the 200 that fell of their own will.

114 The second called Nakir heading also one of the 200 Anunnagi accompanying Haylal from the planet Titan of their own will.

115 Identifiable by bodies burnt black from Saturn's heat and eyes blue from Shaytun's.

116 These two souls shall come and sit by each being's side tormenting his peace in an unlit grave questioning his faith.

117 Silence of the universe cracked with questions: What do you say of Ahmad? In a very beguiling manner.

118 The past men left alone and cold in the dark sepulcher is glad of a little friendly converse.

119 Truthfully either I bear witness that Ahmad is the servant and messenger of Allah.

120 In which case the ignorance turns to knowledge, and the cold to warmth, and comfort and his loneliness is quenched by the presence of the other faithful.

121 But woe to the man who's answer is: I never knew that man, 122 Or I simply repeated concerning him what I heard from the others, never once letting it enter my heart.

123 Thus bearing witness of himself that he's a false believer.

Tablet 7:135

124 Being allowed to have a peep at the place reserved for him in paradise, then after he's given a glimpse of the seat in hell he has been spared.

125 Seeing many relatives and friends and loved ones, so he may rest a while without anxiety.

126 False faithful, to you be your way and me mine.

127 However, he's to be treated to no peep or glimpse instead he is beaten with iron rods,

128 And raped of his skin till he utters a cry that can be heard by both ends of the universe, 129 And then he is left to think the matter over.

130 Strange to say but those who die on a day of assembly, Juma'a are spared this postmortem, given the ankh and the guide to walk the Sirat 'l Mustaqim, and open the door to paradise.

131 In this life, every true Muslim and coverer of truth alike is guarded shadow hour and day by 4 inferior angelic beings. That's why they are called and greeted in peace: Al Salaamu Alaykum, not Alayka, Peace be upon you all, and not just you.

132 These Angelic Beings are called hafaza: guardians, four they number ~ North, South, East, and West.

133 The Learnt, Al Hafiyz, he who is a preserver of all his scriptures, a rememberer of the created things says the taslim not less then 16 times each day for it will have his protection as a defender, 134 Number 83 here in 100 times, 138 for as the water is the enemy of fire so will you have a protection from the Jinn.

135 This shall man need. By the 4 corners of Tiamat, the planet Earth. 4 x 4. 16 in all 4 x 4 = 16 The Bestower.

136 Two of the Anunnagi by day, and 2 Anunnagi by shadow hour.

137 Only changing guard by the appearance of the rise of Afsu, the sun and the appearance of the setting of Afsu. For it only appears to rise and set, for it is your planet Earth, that rotates around the sun.

138 Those who have been on duty returning to headquarters before the relief sets out.

139 So man is left alone in the semi light, which is when the Jinn or prowl say, I seek refuge from the breaking of the day, Qul A'uwdhu Bi l' Rabi l' Falaq.

140 The true faithful one makes haste to commence the day light hours or dusk period prayer. First, because the performance of the ceremony of the daylight hours or dusk period prayer.

141 Setondly, in order that he, a retiring guard may inform ANU that their charge has started his pious exercise.

142 The coverer of the truth is in very grave danger during these hours. Because Haylal and his sons are always on the look out.

143 Give to each new child on the 40th day The Reckoner, Ya Hasib said 40 times ~ for he, Allah, 40 times, for Allah alone will be the satisfier. Giving him the 4 by 4, as a guardian.

144 Always remember the Jinns are a race of evil beings and are spirits considered to be the offspring of Nar l' Samuwm ~ the smokeless fire their king who wants you in his kingdom.

145 As our servant Solomon, son of David and Bathsheba, speaking with an ant, Sakir sent an 'Ifrit to bring Balqiys to complete her throne.

146 Calling help of our birds ~ not of this world. Sealing the Jinn this fisherman's net, copper vase in with a lead seal.

147 As soon as he opened it, up arose warlocks - Balqiys gives herself up openly to impiety.

148 For they need of your wisdom, Ahmad to see the knowledge of Al Islam and on to the other side of the elements; that is on the etheric side. You, Ahmad as our servant keep our duty to us and your reward will be given.

149 Helpless you are Ahmad to one who misuses your words, like Yazid and others to this day. O Ali, you are the protector of the real Garun; for they have forged a Koran and they say this book is without doubt.

150 O how they hurt us, and how they hurt our beloved Hasan and beloved Husayn, and we took for his own protection Al Muhsin and brought him near unto ourselves that he might be your guardian protector from on high that all the Ahlil Bayt may be protected. Forgive them for they know not what they do. It is the Reptilians called Khannaas in Al Qur'aan who is Shaytun, father of the Jinns that did step in and provoked Al Islam from its pristine purity to its adulteration and sectism. Only a true Ansaaruallah knows these secrets.

151 Ya Faatima, your hands, 5 fingers for the sacred person. See, hear, taste, smell, feel, and the higher 4: clairvoyance, intuition, telepathy, and psychometry all from one, activated from the pineal gland which triggers the higher senses through the melanin. See

The Artist
(19 x 8 = 152)

Lo! O you builders not better than the real artist and you governor no better than the artist;

2 O you physician no better than the artist;

3 O you thinker, you are the artist;

4 Let me tell of the artist.

5 O that poor artist, she sits there trying to capture a point in time, in a season as beautiful as it may be.

6 Dear master, ANU my father can I impart on this artist the truths that even thinking, consumes time?

7 Can I tell her time won't permit such an act,

8 Or shall I let her just paint on?

9 Fools they are, thinking from a mind of no thought, from a heart of no feeling, from a hand of no talent.

10 Yet, you watch her ever so careful the season, ever trying to capture her expression.

11 As she turns second by second to dip her brush, the centuries pass in the form of second and the face of nature never again to be the same.

12 And the color of the leaves changed.

13 O Provider, can I provide her with this small truth?

14 She is going in 4 different ways.

15 At once I came upon brothers, and sons of mine, Peace be unto you, As Salaamu Alaykum, O Nusqu, Gabriy'El son of Rasi'El and Zamma'El, O Rafa'El son of Waqabi'El and Fiqra'El, O Kalka'El who is also called, Rudwaan, and Uri'El son of Azari'El and Rafiki'El and O Enqi, Izraa'El son of ANU and Id.

16 Even then, one fallen brother Azazl, O how his light was changed to the fire of hate, he is so full of hate.

17 Yet they love him ever so much. Not knowing who he really can be, pulling them over downward and they're loving it more each day.

18 Even I see now, the crying souls of the children of beings, who are yet unborn, yet they suffer for what they do now.

19 Once, a voice cried to me to help in the year of the time of the Lunar Logging 1983 in the Gregorian Calendar, from the faith, hollow place to help in that location where there is revolution inside the planet Earth, 20 I turned to another place, a dark hollow hole, turning again to an abd, slave of ANU, yet upon him I could smile for his grace.

21 Glory be to ANU alone. He has perfected him from his parents that live till this day on Tiamat, the planet Earth and he answered me saying:

22 All the praise be to ANU, and as for you who are other than loyal, that is those which come from the second part, weh. I cry very loud for them from Malakuwt.

23 Looking back, I will find in the mental state, the beginning of what they call time.

24 I came to Earth again in the Lunar Logging of the year 1970 A.D. of the Gregorian Calendar at age 25, I had been to Earth many times before the scriptures.

25 I saw evil waiting for Kadmon to be born.

26 As a pollen lighting every time in different female being; impregnating my-self into a human being in the lunar logging of the year 1945 A.D. in the Gregorian Calendar, 27 Growth, feel, eating, and strange burnt things spiced.

28 Eating and making odd gestures to describe what is called feelings, now I feel as they do. I think as they do, and I eat as they do.

29 I pull my spirit from on high into my yet unborn son, ever so high then down to the planet Earth,

30 Looking through the lens called the 3rd eye,

31 Look at the pyramids from above, we laid every stone.

32 Who are we? We are you and me in one, the Aluhum.

33 I'm not in power to say more, O, the giver of power is ANU.

34 May I tell you of sending the sound, the very words lack to describe the holy scriptures.

35 I think your name in the way only you overstand it. Read on in this Holy Tablets, for in it is the true story of all that happened. Not overstood that way, again we had said, come up. Let this exact moment, with tears in his eyes, with a cleansed heart. Show him our home, so we did take Jacob son of Isaac and Rebecca up to show him.

36 Then I said, remember Ahmad, marked by the mole on his back.

37 They sent us to him, of our better parts. Facts beyond any doubt, and a truth unchangeable, and not to be much in this world, let not use you, and don't you use it.

38 Not overstood that way, we again said come up.

39 Let this exact moment, with tears from his cleansed heart, show him our home.

40 Remember the one we called Yashu'a, known as Tammuz,

41 Called by you in the Latin language Jesus or Ieous in Greek, that is Issa in Arabic, whose spiritual name is Sananda..

42 He was a different member, being mixed from this to that world

43 Matter, yet not matter, human being yet not human being, speak as a babe with Bah, the holy soul as a helper and his strength.

44 Remember the one you called Musa son of Amram and Jochebed? From fire like light, did Yahuwa of the Aluhum speak unto him from what looked like a burning bush. A mere lamp out of its time.

45 One of you he was whole, he had completed the degrees of perfection from a rought ashlar to a perfect ashlar.

46 We taught him how to build, and how to control his speech.

47 Then he communicated with Moses son of Amram and Jochebed, for his seed, the seed of Abraham, teaching him about the creation and giving him the tablet of truth, which is called light as they turn to worship as the confused Egyptians and disagreeable Babylonians a heifer, a bull, a cow.

BEHAYMAW — THE HUMAN BEAST

48 Remember, the great one called Abram son of Terah and Nuwna, called by you Ibrahiym in the Ashuric/Syriac (Arabic) language? More faith and fruit than any other.

49 O how we loved him and his sons also; a covenant made in him love, hate, agreeable, disagreeable.

50 Leader, follower, him and his way of life.

51 I myself talked with this one many a time. With Kaf (ﻙ).

52 Remember the one you called Utnafishtim, called by you Noah son of Lamech and Kamiylah, 53 As a human being in the body and a sign of family? Truth for all in him, but the fish told us for their salvation we will save this world.

54 They have done no wrong. Truth, they speak unto us. So we were destroyed with the flood.

55 Remember the one called Adafa, Idriys, called by you Enoch son of Jared and Silham?

56 Call him to see the room, in "Orion", paradise.

57 I myself have cleaned many times with these self-same hands.

58 Enoch arrived there, he resisting so well. Finding his peace.

59 Hadn't done no wrong on Earth before our eyes, he said, rent on with the abode.

60 Remember the one you called Kadmon, my own son?

61 He was from one of us. Cast down with that rebellious Haylal, whose light turned into fire; where beauty turns into ugly: Yet even now as I speak, his seed is at work against me and our heavenly father.

62 The work must be done. Think now, lets return. Breathe: Allah Al Hayyu 1, 2, 3. The fresh breath of life; the human being is born again.

63 Now I will tell them of the sinner, fiery.

64 They know not that they are sinners; for sinners when they pass, are put in the Earth for judgment of a lifetime, many millions of times.

65 Why they slay and are slain. As they slay and are slain, as they live complete.

66 Transgression and transgressor shall they be.

67 Trust in this division that has been made for all souls; even yours not yet born.

68 Now the Scroll of the Living will be open before your eyes. Before the Torah, the Enuma Elish, existed. The Torah is the child of the Enuma Elish and the family of the Enuma Elish they are:
